Chapter 1791 Star Alliance Chamber Of Commerce

The slim woman looked at the armored man and said hesitantly, "This method might not be tolerated by the dynasty. If it were to be leaked..."

The armored man was not the princess' aide like they were. He was the guard sent by the dynasty to the princess and was loyal to the dynasty's organization.

If the armored man reported it, there would be big trouble.

"Young Master SU has saved my life twice. This time, I can't delay his participation in Dao Rain. The method you mentioned, as long as it doesn't cross the line of my duty, I can turn a blind eye." The armored man looked at Su Yu with deep gratitude.

Without him, the armored man would have been reduced to a corpse, right?

Just then, the slim woman heaved a sigh of relief and said, "It's actually very simple. Just look for the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce."

Su Yu's eyes flashed slightly. Indeed, he had never heard of the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce.

The armored burly man flashed and remained silent.

The slim woman observed the armored burly man's expression and was slightly delighted. It seemed that he had tacitly agreed.

On the other hand, Su Yu's expression was one of ignorance. The slim woman was slightly surprised. "Could it be that young master Su has never heard of the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce?"

Based on his performance, his talent was astonishing. Such a person should have a powerful background. How could he not have heard of the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce?

"I have been in seclusion all year round. I only appeared recently," Su Yu said.

The slim woman looked as if she suddenly understood. "No wonder the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce only appeared in Emperor Yu's dynasty in the past ten years."

"Then why..." Su Yu looked at the armored man. It seemed that dynasty was not very friendly to the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce.

The slim woman said, "The Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce's influence is spread across all major civilizations. Dynasty is very wary of it, so they won't allow the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce to develop in Dynasty."

"But the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce has a strong foundation after all. They can't do it on the surface, but in the dark, in just five years, they have developed an underground black market that radiates across the entire civilization. Every fiefdom has a black market branch, and I believe Snow Lion fiefdom is no exception.”The slim woman was very familiar with it.

In just five years, they had radiated the entire territory of Emperor Yu’s dynasty. How big of a deal was this?

The power of the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce had already reached an unfathomable level!

Su Yu said, “Then how do we find them? Since it’s the black market, it should be well hidden. It Won’t be easy to contact them in a short time.”

“Hehe, don’t worry about this. I’ve come into contact with the black market three years ago. As their regular customer, I don’t have to worry about not finding them.”The slim woman smiled sweetly, she opened her palm and took out a black stone with a six-star pattern.

Seeing this stone, the armored man raised his eyebrows fiercely. A trace of surprise flashed across his eyes.

The slim woman acted as if nothing had happened. She opened her red lips and exhaled a breath of divine aura into it.

Immediately, the black stone shot out a black hair-cut to a certain direction.

“The nearest black market stronghold is in that direction.”The slim woman let out a sigh of relief. In fact, she was not completely sure whether there was a black market branch in the Snow Lion fief. Now, it seemed that she was not boasting.

“Let’s not waste any more time, let’s Hurry!”

Three meteors streaked across the sky.

Northern letter fief.

The sparrow-robed Emperor’s expression was solemn as he held onto a shattered life token.

“Father, who killed the Hundred Poison Emperor?”Bei Wangzhu’s face was pale.

The Hundred Poison Emperor was an emperor of a foreign civilization secretly recruited by Northern letter fief in order to secretly do something that was inconvenient for the northern letter lineage to appear.

Who would have thought that the life token he left in the territory would shatter, indicating that he was dead.

The emperor’s expression was dark, “Who else? Other than the two mysterious teams from the imperial family, there is no one else.”

With a flash, he took out a bronze mirror, “Send over the information of the two groups of people from the Imperial Family!”

“Yes!”The imperial envoy He Yun’s voice came from the other side of the mirror.

Not long after, the bronze mirror projected rows of images. On the right side of the images were detailed descriptions.

“Brother Wu La!”The emperor snorted, “The imperial family is not some pure land. Even criminals on the wanted list can become aides!”

Bei wangzhu frowned slightly. It was impossible for the Wu La brothers to kill the Hundred Poison Emperor.

His gaze swept down, “The second batch was sent by Princess Ru Chen. Imperial guards bi hetu, aides Zi Xin, Bai Mu, Su Yu... Wait, Su Yu! !”

Bei Wangzhu’s pupils shrank, she couldn’t believe her eyes.

Her beautiful eyes immediately looked at the corresponding image, it was the face that she remembered deeply, the man that appeared in her dreams countless times, the man that made her feel like she was floating in the air! !

“It’s him?”The emperor’s eyes were filled with anger.

The culprit that forced bei Xin Feng to betray the dynasty was this person! !

Beiwang zhu gritted her teeth, “Father, this person has many emperors behind him, the chances of him killing hundred poison emperor is extremely high.”

Without her saying anything, the Emperor had already listed Su Yu as the first suspect.

“He Yun, seal the teleportation array immediately, within 10 days, you are only allowed to enter and not leave!”The Emperor ordered, gathering the people within the fief, he said solemnly, “Send a message to all the experts of the Beixin branch. Dig three feet into the ground and search for Su Yu. If he is alive, he wants to see him. If he is dead, he wants to see his corpse!”

The entire beixin land was immediately mobilized. Countless soldiers were filled with killing intent, from the city to the village.

However, the Su Yu they were searching for seemed to have disappeared from the world.

The ten-day search was coming to an end. The emperor’s face was as dark as water. “If we could have checked the two batches of people who had entered the realm earlier, how could we have let that little thief escape?”

Bei Wangzhu’s face was filled with disappointment.

“Hao'er, what’s going on with the fiefdom recently? Such a huge commotion, even I was alarmed!”A majestic and old voice of reproach came from outside the hall.

Many experts from the Beixin faction in the hall welcomed him.

“Ancestor!”

“Pear King!”

He was the previous beixin king, Pear King. Ever since he returned from the Sea of constellations civilization, he had been in seclusion.

Compared to the previous time, Pear King's aura had increased by a lot, and he was showing signs of breaking through to the double crown.

As the current king, Beiwang Hao hurried forward. "Why did you alarm father? If I disturbed your breakthrough, I would be a sinner."

As it turned out, the trip to the sea of constellations had been greatly humiliated. The Pear King had been deeply provoked and had gained some enlightenment from this misfortune. He had touched the bottleneck of the double-crowned king that he had not touched for many years.

However, the commotion in the land today was quite big, and it had alarmed him.

The Pear King's white beard fluttered as he glared at Bei Wanghao. "Beixin's lineage is secretly planning to break away, yet you had to create such a huge commotion. Are you afraid that the royal family won't be on guard?"

Beiwang Hao was filled with fear and trepidation. He explained, "It's not that I want to do this, but I have no other choice!"

He immediately told everyone about Su Yu's appearance and the fall of the Hundred Poison Emperor.

After learning about the process, the pear King's face darkened.

After a long while..., the Pear King's eyes flashed. "We can only speed up the process. We must completely break away from the dynasty within half a year. As for whether Su Yu will expose the matter of Beixin's cauldron being lost, we don't have to worry. It's already good that we didn't expose him, but does he still dare to expose this matter?"

Su Yu had joined Princess Ru Chen's staff. They knew very well what he wanted.

They believed that Su Yu did not have the guts to reveal this matter.

"The only thing to worry about is Zhu'er." The Pear King revealed an apologetic expression. Back then, he had no choice but to leave Bei Wangzhu behind. Now that she had the curse of the corpse race in her body, it was difficult for him to calm down.

Bei Wangzhu's expression darkened.

"For now, we can only go there and try." The Pear King said.

Bei Wanghao had a difficult expression on his face. "It's just that it's inconvenient for us to go to the imperial city. It would be difficult for us to let Zhu'er go alone."

The Pear King's eyes gleamed. "Have you forgotten about the engagement between our Zhu'er and a certain prince? I think it's time for that Prince to do something. Besides, Chen 'er is currently in the imperial city, so he can help Zhu'er."

Hearing this, everyone rolled their eyes, and many people looked relieved.

Two months passed in the blink of an eye.

In the bustling city of the snow lion fief, three martial artists dressed in disguises quietly arrived in front of an abandoned house.

They were Su Yu and the other two who had traveled a long way.

The slim woman knocked on the door. Not long after, a nine-year-old girl with a braid of goat horns poked her head out. When she saw the three strangers, her face was filled with fear. "Who are you looking for? You must have recognized the wrong door, right?"

The slim woman threw the black hexagonal stone over with her bare hands.

The girl with braids held it with both hands and gave a strange smile. Her voice changed, and she looked unusually old, like an old man over a hundred years old. "So they are distinguished guests. Who are these two?"

"I brought them here. Don't worry, they are trustworthy." The slim woman vouched for them.

The girl with the braids chuckled, "Since it's the Meteor VIP's guarantee, then there's no doubt about it. Please come in."

Stepping into the courtyard, it was a far cry from the cold and desolate scene outside.

A huge hidden market came into view, with more than ten thousand martial artists loitering within.

The islands floating in the air were even more crowded.

"Hehe, everyone, go ahead and take a look. I Won't be accompanying you." The girl with the braids laughed hoarsely and immediately disappeared into the crowd.

At the same time, Su Yu sized up the market. Although it wasn't big, it had all the five internal organs and all kinds of goods were sold.

Talismans, pills, cultivation techniques, and the like were everywhere. There were even spiritual pets that rarely appeared in the outside world and so on.

"Follow me." The slim woman was abnormally familiar with this place and easily led them to a floating island.

There were quite a lot of people on this island, and the line was far better than the other islands.

However, the slim woman directly cut to the front of the line and came to the window outside the hall. This kind of behavior naturally attracted waves of dissatisfaction and angry shouts.

The guards on both sides of the window were even more stern as they strode over.

Until the woman took out her own six-star black stone, the guard's expression suddenly changed. His footsteps froze, and the stern expression on his face changed to respect. "A six-star VIP has arrived. Sorry for not welcoming you. Please come in!"

The excited crowd gradually calmed down. Although they were still unwilling, they did not continue to shout, as if they approved of this matter.

Su Yu was a little surprised. This Woman's status in the black market seemed to be somewhat different!

In the midst of envy and jealousy, Su Yu and the others "Cut the line" and went straight to the window.

After revealing their six-star black stone identity, the array on the left side of the window shook violently. A gap appeared, allowing them to enter.

The hall was empty. A white-browed old man sat upright in front of a table. The clothes on his body were imprinted with the fluctuations of the array formation. His rank was extraordinary.

Chapter 1792 Abandoned Divine Stones

"Ladies and gentlemen, are you planning to take the teleportation array?" The white-browed elder smiled kindly.

The slim woman nodded. "Please make the arrangements. The price is negotiable."

The main hall was responsible for selling the teleportation array. The woman directly inquired about the price.

The white-browed elder chuckled. "Three months later, the price? If it's the three of you, thirty divine stones."

Divine Stones? Su Yushang had only recently learned of the existence of this item from the ancient records.

The mysterious and rich regions would often form very precious mineral veins. The mineral veins were rich in a type of crystal ore that contained divine aura, and they were called divine stones.

This item was the universal currency of the galaxy, and it could be used by all major civilizations.

The slender woman frowned. "The price is fine, but isn't it too late?"

The white-browed elder smiled. "Recently, I've been rushing to the Imperial City just like you. You've all seen the huge crowd outside. After March, you'll still have the privilege of being a six-star VIP. I've arranged for you to cut the queue. Otherwise, you'll have to wait at least until May."

Su Yu thought for a moment and nodded. "Then we'll stay here for March."

There were still four months before dao rain, so there was plenty of time.

"Alright." The slim woman took out thirty egg-sized crystals. They were colorful, but each color was full of vigor.

The white-browed elder accepted them with a smile and gave each of them an ancient ring.

"These are my keepsakes. I'll use this item to use the teleportation array in three months."

Su Yu had a grateful expression on his face. "Thank you, Miss Zi. I have some spiritual treasures of heaven and earth here. I'll give them to you as a token of my appreciation."

He casually took out a few spiritual treasures from fantasy moon Langjun's treasure.

Zi Xin casually scanned them and could not help but be surprised. "Seven Star Lantern Grass? Disillusionment cloud smoke leaf? Blue Blood Moonstone? These are all rare and exquisite items! Big Brother Su's wealth really makes my little sister blush."

The armored man's eyes became hot as he looked at Su Yu. He was shocked and his gaze towards Su Yu changed a lot.

When she came back to her senses, she quickly waved her hand and rejected, "Big Brother Su saved my life. What's a mere ten god stones? Moreover, the value of these three heaven and earth spiritual treasures far exceeds ten god stones."

"Take it," Su Yu said.

Zi Xin declined repeatedly and had no choice but to accept. Her face was full of shame. She thought for a moment and said, "How about this, I have some connections here. I can exchange these spiritual treasures for divine stones, and I'll return the excess to you."

Seeing that Su Yu was about to reject, Zi Xin said seriously, "Big Brother Su, please don't say anymore. I still understand the principle of repaying a debt of gratitude."

"Alright." Su Yu reluctantly agreed. "Then I'll have to trouble Miss Zi to make a trip."

Zi Xin smiled. "Just call me Zi Xin. I hope brother Su won't take it to heart that I've offended you before."

Along the way, she did not treat Su Yu well.

It was not until Su Yu rescued them from the volcano that her feelings for Su Yu changed.

"It's just a small matter. I have never cared about it." Su Yu did not mind it.

Seeing that the atmosphere had eased up, Zi Xin said, "Then you guys find a place to stay first. I will look for you guys after the exchange."

Su Yu said without hesitation, "Okay. When I came just now, I saw that there was a cultivation cave for sale. It just so happens that I need to go into seclusion for a period of time."

The armored man also said, "I also need to go into seclusion. After the battle with brother Wu La, I have some enlightenment."

After bidding farewell to Zi Xin, Su Yu and Zi Xin came to the natural upper residence. After paying the fee, they immediately began to go into seclusion.

He took out a few formation flags to ensure that the outside world would not be able to disturb him. A dim light flickered between his fingers, and the three flavors fire spirit appeared in front of him.

The fox-like it struggled slowly, as if it sensed danger.

After examining Su Yu, he found that there was a talisman seal under its belly. It must have been done by brother Wu La.

“No wonder it’s so slow and has no attack power.”He couldn’t help but be surprised.

Although the three flavors fire spirit had low intelligence, it had instincts. In addition, it was at the emperor level. Whether it was escaping or attacking, it was not ordinary.

If the Wu La brothers hadn’t subdued the beast first, capturing it would have taken a lot of effort.

The Eye of insight swept over its body and immediately found a triangle-shaped fiery red crystal on the three flavors fire spirit’s abdomen.

That was the ultimate flaming crystal!

According to the ancient records, to neutralise the yin element impurities in the core of Fuluo, only one-third of the ultimate flaming crystal of the three flavoured fire spirit needed to mature.

However, because the value of the ultimate flaming crystal was very high, it was usually used to kill the three flavoured fire spirit and take out the complete ultimate flaming crystal.

After pondering for a moment, su yu muttered, “It is not easy to cultivate to the level of spirit with a single flame. I will take one-third of Your Ultimate Flaming Crystal and let you live.”

As soon as he finished speaking, he used the power of space to cut off one-third of the fire essence crystal from his body through his belly.

At the same time, he took out a brocade box from the nine Jade Spirit Pearl. Inside it was a fiery red ginseng.

This was also one of the treasures of the fantasy moon Langjun. It was an extremely rare fire attribute spiritual treasure and was extremely precious.

“Consider it my compensation.”Su Yu untied the three flavors fire spirit and threw the ginseng in front of it.

After untying it, the three flavors fire spirit turned into a red streak and escaped underground.

The ginseng was nowhere to be seen.

With a smile, the ring on Su Yu’s finger flashed and dozens of brocade boxes and a silver box appeared.

The center of the floating ground and many accessories were among them.

With a sizzling sound, raging flames emerged from his palm.

Then, he threw the core of the Fuluo Ground, the ultimate flaming crystal, and a few supplementary materials into it.

Layers of black smoke of the Yin attribute rose from the flames and soon filled the entire secret chamber. It was pungent and unpleasant to the nose.

Su Yu’s face remained unchanged as he continued to roast.

After an entire month, the black smoke from the flames was extremely weak.

At this moment, a thin layer of black smoke and dust had accumulated in the secret chamber, emitting threads of cold aura.

These were the impurities hidden in the core of the floatation ground!

If he swallowed them directly, it would not be so easy to get rid of them.

Whoosh!

Su Yu's face turned pale, but his expression was filled with deep joy. Without blinking, he looked at the crystal clear, blue-green crystal spiritual liquid in his palm.

After spending an entire month, he finally succeeded.

Opening his mouth and swallowing, the crystal spiritual liquid entered his lungs. The spicy feeling rushed straight to his mind.

However, the warmth that followed from his abdomen made Su Yu feel extremely comfortable.

The spirit that was gathered in the inner mansion quickly filled up after the crystal spiritual liquid poured in, and it rushed in all directions..

In the market.

Bi hetu accompanied Zi Xin to a certain place in the market.

Zi Xin's expression was very ugly, and a hint of anxiety appeared on her face.

"Didn't you say that the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce's reputation is quite good? Why would something like a waste God stone appear?" Bi hetu frowned and said.

Zi Xin's face was full of resentment. "It's not the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce's reputation that's the problem. It's just that enemies have a narrow path. If they meet their former enemies, they'll do something to it!"

Bi Hetu remained silent.

"If it was my own spiritual item that was swapped out, then forget it. But that's big brother Su's. How am I supposed to explain this? I can only plead with Big Brother Bi to help me get justice." Zi Xin had a pleading look on her face.

Bi hetu nodded. "Young Master SU has saved my life. I can't just sit idly by and do nothing about his matter."

As the two of them spoke, they came to a high-class shop that was purchasing and selling materials.

"It's him." Zi Xin pointed at the shopkeeper in the shop who was laughing and discussing with the customer.

The shopkeeper was only thirty years old and was exceptionally young. However, his mouth was as bright as a lotus flower. He was facing a treasured artifact that could not be sold all year round, and he kept on talking until the customer's heart was moved.

Bi Hetu walked over with large strides, carrying a bag of dark gray divine stones and slamming it on the table.

He glared angrily, emitting a murderous aura that scared the customer into shrinking. He immediately walked out.

Seeing that his business had been lost, the young shopkeeper glared angrily at the two of them. He glanced at Zi Xin and raised his brows. "It's you again? I just said that if the divine stones are cleared in person, you will not be responsible if you leave the counter! Don't you understand these little rules?"

This woman had come here once and wanted to seek justice. However, she was kicked out by the experts in the shop. She then asked Bi and Tu, who had just come out of seclusion, to seek justice together.

"Humph! Is it a tradition of your shop to tamper with the Divine Stones?" Bi and Tu snorted coldly.

The young shopkeeper glanced at him. The cultivation of a half-step emperor made his pupils shrink slightly.

However, as a member of the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce, he had seen many experts. How could he be afraid of a half-step emperor?

The corner of the young shopkeeper's mouth twitched. He sneered, "As the old saying goes, you can eat whatever you want, but you can't say whatever you want. If you think that you can bully us just by relying on your martial strength, Hehe, then you've come to the wrong place!"

Bi Hetu's expression was cold as he said indifferently, "Is that so? I'd like to try and see if the martial strength of your shop is as powerful as your mouth!"

As soon as he finished speaking, he flipped his palm and took out a shiny golden token.

On the front were the words "Yu the great", and below it were the words "Bi hetu, the imperial guard".

Upon seeing this token, the young shopkeeper's expression suddenly stiffened, and his expression was uncertain.

Someone from Emperor Yu the great!

The Star Alliance's Chamber of Commerce was now a black market, and Emperor Yu the great could not even suppress it in time. Provoking the people from the dynasty this time would undoubtedly cause trouble for himself.

If the higher-ups knew that he had offended the people from the imperial court, the consequences would be unimaginable.

"If you don't give us an explanation today, I won't leave!" He revealed his identity and stood there. Who would dare to come to his door?

It must be known that most of the guests who came here were sneaky.

"You..." the young shopkeeper was angry and said, "Okay, wait a moment. I, a mere shopkeeper, can't make the decision on this matter. I need to ask our boss to come out."

After watching him leave, Zi Xin let out a breath of turbid air and immediately raised his eyebrows.

“Big Brother Bi, the owner of this shop ordered the exchange of the divine stones. This person is very sinister. You have to be careful.”

Bi Hetu nodded with a solemn expression.

Not long after, a fair-skinned middle-aged man dressed in a long and elegant snow-white robe walked out from the back hall of the shop at a moderate pace.

His facial features were soft and gentle, looking very gentle and elegant.

He swept his gaze over the two of them and landed on Zi Xin. He smiled faintly. “So it’s Lady Zi from the Purple Cloud Palace. Long time no see.”

A look of disgust appeared in Zi Xin’s eyes. “Don’t put on an act. Back then, it was because of this hypocrite’s skin that I was so depressed that I died without success.”

Chapter 1793 The Nine Volumes Of The Star Area

The elegant middle-aged man was calm and composed. He maintained a gentle and elegant smile on his face. “Miss Zi, you have a deep prejudice against me. Why Don’t you go in and have a drink? Let me explain something to you.”

“Humph!” Zi Xin looked at him from the corner of her eyes. “I don’t want to listen to your nonsense. I’m here today for one thing. Return My Divine Stone!”

Bi Hetu, who was standing at the side, remained calm. He stood in the middle of the door like a Vajra Buddha. A few guests who were about to enter immediately turned around and left when they saw his posture.

A trace of gloominess flashed in the eyes of the elegant middle-aged man, but he acted as if nothing had happened, he smiled and said, “The shopkeeper has already explained to me about your matter. It concerns the credibility of our myriad treasures hall. I don’t dare to be careless, so I’ve asked the law enforcement elder of the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce to come and uphold justice. Miss Zi doesn’t trust me, so you should trust the law enforcement elder, right?”

90% of the business of the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce was under their control. Only a few businesses would be controlled by outsiders due to the exchange of favors.

For example, the myriad treasures hall. In the past, the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce had expanded their territory and received the help of the refined middle-aged family.

In exchange, this family could obtain the management rights of several shops in the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce.

There were many similar shops.

In order to ensure the reputation of the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce and not be implicated by these external shops, the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce set up a law enforcement hall to strictly supervise these shops.

Once there was anything that damaged the reputation of the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce, the business rights would be immediately revoked.

The punishment was quite severe!

Moreover, the law enforcement elder was under the jurisdiction of the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce and had always been fair in handling matters.

Zi Xin was much more relieved. She snorted and quietly waited for the law enforcement elder to arrive.

About ten minutes later, a middle-aged man with fair blonde hair entered the shop.

The middle-aged man surnamed Wen immediately stood up to greet him. "Greetings, elder Li."

Elder Li glanced at him indifferently and went straight to the seat of honor. He sat down boldly. "Why have you summoned me here?"

The middle-aged man surnamed Wen put on a helpless expression. "The thing is, this miss zi sold three kinds of materials in our shop, but then she came back and slandered us for giving false god stones. She made trouble again and again, so she had no choice but to ask elder Li to come and uphold justice."

With just a few words, he had instead smeared Zi Xin and the others as the main culprits.

Elder Li nodded slightly and looked at Zi Xin. "The divine stones were cleared in person, leaving the cabinet is not responsible. Have you cleared them in person?"

Zi Xin nodded. "Yes, I cleared them in person, but the divine stones were tampered with. At that time, there was no problem at all. After an inspection, it was discovered that they were all abandoned divine stones!"

She was too confident in her own channels. When she was introduced to the Ten Thousand Treasures Hall, she didn't investigate the background of this hall, so she fell into the trap just now.

"Bring the abandoned divine stones over," elder Li said calmly.

Giving the customer the abandoned divine stones. Once this matter was verified, it would seriously affect the reputation of the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce. They couldn't be careless.

After taking the small pocket, elder Li glanced around. Sure enough, all of them were dim. The used abandoned divine stones had no value at all.

He took out a random one and threw out a hexagonal sieve at the same time.

The sieve spun non-stop, and a ray of light shot out from each side to envelop the abandoned divine stones.

After a full six rays of light shone on the divine stones, there was no reaction on the surface of the divine stones.

Elder Li raised his head and looked at Zi Xin with a deeper gaze. His tone was slightly cold. "There are no traces of tampering on the divine stones."

"I am not lying!" Zi Xin took out her own six-star black stone. "With my status, there is no need for me to deceive a mere hundred divine stones, right?"

Seeing the six-star black stone, elder Li's gaze softened slightly.

To become a six-star Black Stone VIP required an astronomical sum of divine stones in the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce. Such vips were all people with high prices. There was indeed no need for them to cause trouble for a hundred divine stones.

He could not help but frown as he looked at the middle-aged man surnamed Wen.

Over the years, the subsidiary shops had been relatively honest under the supervision of the law enforcement elders. However, they had more or less been involved in underhanded activities. The elders were very clear about this, but they did not have any evidence.

The middle-aged man surnamed Wen's expression did not change, he said, "To be honest, this lady zi is an old acquaintance of mine. She has a lot of prejudice against me. This time, when she learned that my ten thousand treasures hall had come to the great Yu Emperor dynasty to cause trouble, I also felt helpless

"In addition, as far as I know, her six star black stone doesn't belong to her, but to someone else. I don't know if she used this thing to cheat others."

Elder Li raised his eyebrows and looked at Zi Xin calmly.

He stood up and returned the abandoned divine stone to Zi Xin, "If Miss Zi has evidence, I will enforce the law strictly and strip the Ten Thousand Treasures Hall of its reputation. But if you don't, please leave and disturb the Order of the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce. It will affect your VIP rank."

He put his hands behind his back and looked at Zi Xin.

Zi Xin was angry. She was about to continue to reason with him, but the armored man grabbed her and pulled her out of the Ten Thousand Treasures Hall.

"There won't be any unexpected results." Bi Hetu had already expected this.

If the other party was a coward, he might be able to get it back by threatening her.

But if he was not afraid of trouble, there was no hope of getting his God's Stone back without any evidence.

The middle-aged man surnamed Wen looked elegant, but he was actually cunning. He was not someone who could be scared by intimidation.

"Then what should we do?" Zi Xin was unwilling.

Bi hetu sighed and said, "What can we do? We can only tell young master su the truth."

Things had already come to this, unless they robbed him by force.

However, first of all, they had a request from the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce, so they should not cause trouble.

Secondly, directly robbing him by force was probably what the middle-aged man surnamed Wen wanted.

Zi Xin bit her lips slightly. "The loss was caused by me. I will think of a way to compensate big brother Su."

It was only a total of one hundred and thirty low-grade divine stones. Where would they go to collect them in such a short time?

“Hehe, Miss Zi, although you were unable to extort money from the Ten Thousand Treasures Hall, on account of Miss Zi’s repeated errands, I will reluctantly give you one.” The middle-aged man surnamed Wen took out a divine stone and threw it casually at the door, he turned around with a faint smile and left, “Keep it well, I won’t send you off!”

Zi Xin was extremely angry. With a gloomy expression, she walked into the crowd without even looking at the divine stone.

When she returned to the cultivation room, Su Yu was still in closed-door cultivation. This made her slightly relieved, but soon after, she became deeply distressed.

Two months passed in a flash.

There were only three to five days left before the three-month period agreed upon with the white-browed elder.

Bi hetu and Zi Xin were waiting anxiously outside.

At this moment, loud bangs suddenly came from the cultivation room behind them. A wave of chaotic divine Qi of heaven and earth gathered in the sky above the cultivation room from all directions.

Then, like a whale swallowing, it was swallowed up by an invisible, enormous force.

Immediately after, a beam of energy pierced through the secret room, giving people an extraordinary spiritual pressure.

“A peak overlord?” Bi Hetu’s eyes flashed.

Zi Xin’s eyes were filled with surprise. “Three months ago, his cultivation didn’t have any obvious signs of a breakthrough! I didn’t expect him to break through so quickly!”

While the two of them were in shock, the stone door opened, and a silver-haired youth wearing a plain robe and crystal crown walked out.

His eyes were restrained, and the surface of his body refracted the crystal light. His entire body gave off a pressure that was as heavy as a mountain.

“Young master Su.”

“Big Brother Su!”

The two of them went up to welcome him. Su Yu smiled. “I’m sorry. I didn’t expect that this seclusion would be so long. I’ve caused the two of you to wait for so long.”

Bi hetu said, “Young master, you’re exaggerating. The three-month period hasn’t arrived yet. How can you say that you’ve been waiting for So Long?”

Zi Xin had a hesitant and guilty expression. After a long while, she said, "I'm sorry, Big Brother Su. I messed up the matter of exchanging the materials for the divine stones."

Su Yu was stunned. He recalled what she was talking about.

"Hehe, it's okay. Those materials were meant for you. If you can't exchange them, you can keep them for yourself." Su Yu waved his hand nonchalantly. It was just three spiritual treasure materials.

The more he seemed to not care, the more guilty Zi Xin felt. She told him the truth while muttering to herself.

After knowing the whole story, he frowned.

"Forget it. It's just a few materials. They're not worth much." Although Su Yu was a little displeased, he was too lazy to find trouble for a few things.

With that said, Zi Xin and Bi Hetu looked at each other and smiled bitterly.

As expected, he was rich and generous. He didn't care if he didn't want the materials with more than a hundred god stones.

"By the way, it's rare to come to the black market. I want to buy some books that introduce the civilizations of the outer realms. Please lead the way, Miss Zi." Ever since he learned that the vast galaxy had the dark star civilization, the Taiji civilization, and even the Daoist Huangdao Palace and other behemoths.., Su Yu was particularly interested in the civilizations of the outer space.

Zi Xin smiled. "Leave it to me. I'm very familiar with the black market."

Under her lead, they soon arrived at a shop that specialized in selling all kinds of books.

Compared to the other shops, the book shop was much quieter.

"Brother Su, if you want to understand the basic information about the civilizations of the outer space, I suggest you read this 'nine volumes of the Star Field'. It has detailed descriptions of everything from the circulation of currency to the introduction of the ten thousand races."

"If you are talking about the various forces, I suggest you read the 'travel to the ten thousand territories'. It will be very beneficial for you to understand the distribution of the forces of the outer space civilizations."

"Apart from that, there are also many cultivation techniques of the outer space civilizations. Sometimes, you can find good things by accident."

Is that so? Su Yu and Bi Hetu were quite interested.

After taking down the 'nine volumes of the Star Field' and 'travel to the ten thousand territories', the two of them browsed through the cultivation techniques of the various races.

These had already been translated into the common language of the star domain, and anyone could understand them.

After skimming through them, Su Yu didn't find many high-grade cultivation techniques.

Presumably, there really were, and the shops wouldn't sell them so easily.

On the other hand, Bi Hetu and Zi Xin found one or two books that were quite beneficial to them, and they immediately took them down happily.

The three of them each had their own gains, and they went to the front desk to trade.

"Miss Zi, I'll have to trouble you to pay for me again. I'll give you the corresponding resources later."

Zi Xin smiled sweetly. "Leave it to me!"

"Shopkeeper, three cultivation methods, a few geography books, and how many God Stones?" Zi Xin asked.

The shopkeeper was over eighty years old. His white hair was gray, and his face was indifferent.

He was focused on registering something at the table. When he heard this, he raised his head. When he glanced at Zi Xin, his face suddenly darkened. "Not for sale!"

Zi Xin was stunned. "Then why are you opening a shop?"

"HMPH!" The white-haired shopkeeper sneered. "When others come in, I will naturally welcome them. As for you, HMPH HMPH, I can't afford to do your business!"

"Old man, speak clearly!" Zi Xin said angrily.

The white-haired shopkeeper sneered. "The matter of you blackmailing the Thousand Treasures Hall has long spread throughout the black market. For this, you even invited the law enforcement elder. Hehe, my shop is small and weak, so it can't withstand the shock of the law enforcement elder. Therefore, you can go as far as you want. I don't dare to accept your business. Now, do I make myself clear?"

Zi Xin's pupils constricted and her face flushed red. Her whole body was trembling and her fists were clenched so tightly that they were cracking.

She had never expected that the hypocrite would not only cheat her of things, but the villain would also complain and ruin her reputation everywhere!

Chapter 1794 The Way Of The Enemy

The most hateful thing was that the law enforcement elder was obviously invited by him, but in the end, he said that she was blackmailing the law enforcement elder!

Bi Hetu said in a low voice, "This shopkeeper, please listen to my words. The truth is..."

The white-haired shopkeeper raised his eyebrows. "The truth is very clear. There's no need for an accomplice like you to explain. Let's go quickly. I Can't afford to entertain all the distinguished guests!"

Bi Hetu also felt extremely angry. That middle-aged man surnamed Wen seemed to be quite popular in the black market. His reputation was extremely good.

Right now, his and Zi Xin's notoriety had probably spread throughout the entire black market!

"I'm going to settle the score with that bastard!" Zi Xin was incomparably furious.

She had just walked out of the door of the ancient records when she was pulled back by Su Yu.

Turning her head, Zi Xin's eyes were red. She whimpered, "I'm sorry, Big Brother Su. I've implicated you in not being able to buy the ancient records. I'm going to settle the score with that man surnamed Wen right now. I Won't accompany you for the time being."

"If you go like this, what will you get?" No matter how Zi Xin struggled, her wrist felt like it was being clamped by an iron clamp. She was unable to break free.

"Then I'll make him lose his face and let the entire black market know his true colors!" Zi Xin could be considered to hate the other party to the core.

Shaking his head, Su Yu said, "The one who will lose his face will be you. The last time you guys asked for justice, you've already proven this point."

Zi Xin froze. Yes, there was no evidence. No one would believe her. Instead, they would think that she was the one who was making trouble without reason!

At that time, if she was criticized and even punished by the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce for disturbing the order of civilization, who would be the one who would be embarrassed?

"But he is too much! !" Zi Xin stomped her feet, unable to calm down the grievance in her heart.

Su Yu let go of her, his gaze distant. "It is indeed a little too much. I originally didn't want to pay attention to him."

The two's expressions changed slightly, and Zi Xin's face was filled with worry. "Big Brother Su, are you planning to seek justice? Are you planning to use force?"

With the astonishing powerlessness that Su Yu displayed, he might really be able to cause some losses to the Thousand Treasures Hall.

"There's no need." Su Yu shook his head. "After all, this is the territory of the Star Alliance's Chamber of Commerce. It's not good to use force."

"Then what does Big Brother Su Plan to do? That Old Fox surnamed Wen is too cunning. Ordinary methods won't be able to do anything to him." Zi Xin was fully aware of how difficult this person was to deal with.

Su Yu smiled playfully. "I'll return the favor!"

Myriad Treasures Hall.

The middle-aged man surnamed Wen was leisurely drinking tea in the unique courtyard. The young shopkeeper was sitting across from him with a smile on his face.

“Second uncle, those three heavenly treasures have already been disposed of. No matter how much the girl surnamed Zi causes trouble, it’s useless.”The young shopkeeper was surprisingly his nephew.

The middle-aged man surnamed Wen laughed contemptuously. “She’s just a little girl. Even if those things are still in my hands, what can she do to me?”

A faintly discernible illusion inadvertently leaked out.

“Never in her dreams would she have thought that it wasn’t the abandoned divine stone that had a problem, but that she was affected by my illusion from the very beginning. Under my illusion, I gave her a bag of abandoned divine stones, but what she saw was an intact divine stone. So no matter how the law enforcement elders examined the abandoned divine stone, they couldn’t find any traces of tampering on it,”the young shopkeeper said somewhat proudly.

The middle-aged man surnamed Wen’s expression changed. He looked around vigilantly and glared at him. “Why aren’t you putting it away?”

The young shopkeeper was resentful as he quietly wiped away the illusion that had spread out.

The middle-aged man surnamed Wen’s expression became a little more serious. “So far, we have received quite a lot of good stuff in the Emperor dynasty of Yu the Great. How is it? Have you contacted the buyer?”

“Hehe, are you still worried about me? I have already contacted several large-scale shops of different civilizations and they are all willing to accept this batch of goods.”

Just like that., only then did the middle-aged man surnamed Wen reveal a relaxed expression. “As expected of a civilization that has never been cultivated before. We have gained a lot by following the Star Alliance’s Chamber of Commerce! “And this is the result of operating in the black market. If we obtain the permission of Emperor Yu of the Great Yu dynasty and open our business publicly, we don’t know how many good things we will be able to buy.”

The young shopkeeper also felt proud, he sneered and said, “When we followed the merchant union here, how contemptuous were the looks in the eyes of those Old Fellows in our clan? “I’m afraid they are waiting to see us become a joke. Now, HMPH, if they know that Emperor Yu of the Great Yu dynasty has such rich resources, they won’t even have the time to regret it! “I can’t wait to see their extremely interesting expressions when they return with so many treasures!”

Hearing this, the middle-aged man surnamed Wen’s lips curled up into a mocking smile.

“In a few more days, we will be able to transport this batch of goods back. Therefore, we must be more careful and not be careless.”

“I understand!”

The uncle and nephew were chatting, but they did not notice that in the depths of the starry sky, a round of huge eyes had quietly disappeared.

“Boss, shopkeeper, an honored guest has arrived!” A fat middle-aged shopkeeper came forward to report with a face full of joy.

The young shopkeeper raised his eyebrows. “You have no rules and no rules. How can you be the second shopkeeper?”

The middle-aged man surnamed Wen waved his hand and admonished, “Shopkeeper Cheng knows more about rules than you do. Since he came to the back hall to ask for instructions, it must be a big business. Tell me, what Distinguished Guest?”

The fat middle-aged man could not suppress his joy. “It’s a young man. He has a lot of treasures of unknown origin to sell. This is the list he has made. Please have a look at it, boss and the head shopkeeper.”

He handed over a jade slip.

The middle-aged man with the surname Wen did not take it. He casually injected a strand of spirit into it.

The jade slip immediately projected images. There were more than thirty of them.

With a glance, the middle-aged man with the surname Wen, who had a calm expression, suddenly sat upright. His eyes were filled with surprise.

The young shopkeeper cried out in shock, “Hiss! ! This is one of the three great divine bamboos, the Indian silver bamboo! Oh My God, hasn’t this item already disappeared in the ancient times?”

The middle-aged man surnamed Wen’s pupils constricted as he said in a trembling voice, “It did not disappear. It is rumored that there are a few Dao Masters in the divine realm, but it can be confirmed that the outside world has basically disappeared. It is rare to see such a thing.”

Standing up suddenly, the middle-aged man surnamed Wen said hurriedly, “Lead the way! I will personally receive this person!”

In the main hall, Su Yu was playing with the decorations on the table with a calm expression.

Far Away, the middle-aged man surnamed Wen walked over quickly with a smile on his face. He cupped his fists and said, “An honored guest has arrived. Sorry for not welcoming you.”

Su Yu returned the greeting with a straight face. “No worries.”

The middle-aged man with the surname Wen sat down and said with a smile on his face, “Bring out the best spirit tea in the hall.”

The young shopkeeper personally poured the tea. The fragrance was rich, and it was an extremely high-grade spirit tea.

He carefully sized up Su Yu, and his eyes were filled with astonishment.

The other party was younger than him, but his cultivation had reached the peak overlord level!

However, for some reason, he felt that the other party looked a little familiar, as if he had seen him there before.

A strange light flashed in his eyes.

“I am the owner of the myriad treasures hall, Wen Qingyu. May I know your name?” The middle-aged man surnamed Wen also sized up Su Yu with a surprised expression.

Someone with such talent should not be someone with no background.

“My surname is Yu.” Su Yu casually made up a surname. “I believe that the shopkeeper has already informed you that I am selling something. What does the owner think?”

Wen Qingyu’s eyes flashed. “May I ask young master Yu, there are so many shops in Emperor Yu’s dynasty. Why did you choose the black market?”

Su Yu leisurely took a sip of tea and said indifferently, “I have some special reasons. I can not allow this item to appear in the open market. Does that mean that the owner understands?”

Understood! How could he not understand?

Naturally, it was something of unknown origin. It was not convenient to sell it in the open market. Only the black market dared to buy and sell it.

“Then why did you choose my shop? There are many shops in the black market that buy spiritual herbs like me!” Wen Qingyu probed.

This person was unusually cautious and did not let down his guard just because it was a big deal.

Su Yu said, “This is my first time here and I am not familiar with all the shops. I heard that a customer recently extorted a shop. I just learned of the existence of the Ten Thousand Treasures Hall and came to take a look.”

This made sense. Recently, many customers had rushed over because of this matter.

However, Wen Qingyu was not at ease. He smiled and said, “I see. I wonder if you can let me take a look at that thing?”

“Of course.” Su Yu casually took out an exquisite jade box that was half the length of a man. Inside it was sealed a piece of shiny Indian silver bamboo.

Wen Qingyu’s eyes lit up when he saw it. It was Indian silver bamboo. There was no way he could be wrong!

He could sense that this was a big deal, bigger than any transaction in the past five years. If it was done properly, the value created by this item would very likely exceed the harvest of the past year!

A trace of greed involuntarily appeared in his eyes.

Su Yu gently pressed his finger and pulled the jade box back into his spatial storage device. “Then, name your price.”

Wen Qingyu's gaze shifted a few times. He stared at Su Yu's expression and probed, "Although this item is precious, its age is a little low. I'll take it for 1,000 divine stones."

The young shopkeeper at the side also held his breath. He was secretly impressed.

Such good quality Indian silver bamboo. Second uncle actually dared to name such a low price of 1,000 divine stones? Even if he threw out 10,000 divine stones, there would be many people fighting for it!

As the two of them watched closely, Su Yu nodded slightly, causing their hearts to pound wildly.

However, in the next moment, Su Yu put away the jade box and said, "Alright, I will remember the price of the Ten Thousand Treasures Hall. I will go to the other shops to take a look. If the Ten Thousand Treasures Hall is higher in the end, I will definitely come back to trade."

As he spoke, he stood up and cupped his fists. "Sorry for disturbing you. Goodbye."

"Hey, wait..." Wen Qingyu was caught off guard and hurriedly called out to Su Yu.

"What's the matter, Boss?" He stopped and asked in return.

Wen Qingyu rolled his eyes and said, "If you feel that the price is too low, you can discuss it again."

Waving his hand, Su Yu said, "There's no need. I like to sell things at a fixed price. I'll trade with whoever offers the highest price. Goodbye."

With that, he walked out of the Thousand Treasures Hall.

Wen Qingyu was filled with regret. If he really went to ask, any shop would definitely offer more than a thousand divine stones!

He quickly said, "Dong Lai, quickly follow him and find out what other shops are offering. As long as it doesn't exceed ten thousand divine stones, we'll add another thousand crystals to the insurance price of the other shops!"

The young shopkeeper was even more anxious than Wen Qingyu. He quickly went out to follow Su Yu.

Su Yu seemed to be looking around blankly, but the corner of his mouth inadvertently curved into a smile.

Wen Qingyu was too vigilant and sold it directly to him, which made him suspicious. Only by keeping him in suspense could he be lured into the trap.

Chapter 1795 The Bid Is Final

Wen Donglai was filled with anxiety as he followed Su Yu to shop after shop.

Fortunately, similar shops in the black market were more familiar with each other. Most of the shopkeepers were hired, so it was easy to buy them. It was not difficult to ask for a price.

Seeing that every time Su Yu went to a shop, the price he got was higher, Wen Donglai became more and more anxious.

What was even more anxious was that many shops, like the Ten Thousand Treasures Hall, had sent people to follow him, targeting this rare treasure.

He could not help but complain that his second uncle was too greedy, offering such a low price, causing him to be unable to compete now.

He followed Su Yu closely. When he left a luxurious shop, Wen Donglai found out that the price had already reached 9,000 divine stones!

And the other party's next target shop was Miao Chengtian, who belonged to the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce!

Miao Chengtian usually only sold and rarely bought goods from the outside world. Every purchase was top-quality and the price he offered was definitely the highest in the industry.

If he really went to Miao Chengtian, he would definitely be bought and the price he offered would definitely exceed 10,000 divine stones.

In his anxiety, he jumped up and stopped Su Yu with an apologetic smile. "Young master Su, please wait."

"You are?" Su Yu only recognized him after thinking carefully.

"Young master, you are so forgetful. You just left our myriad treasures hall and you don't know me anymore," he said.

Su Yu frowned. "I went to several materials stores, but I got confused. Well, what can I do for You?"

He looked unhappy, Wen Donglai quickly apologized, "Young master Su, it's like this. Our boss thought about it and felt that young master Su chose our treasure hall when he first came to the black market. It shows young master Su's sincerity, so our boss offered another ten thousand divine stones. What do you think, Young Master?"

The difference between the two was ten times!

Su Yu sneered secretly. He was not a youth who did not know the affairs of the world. How could he not know the value of the Indian silver bamboo?

A thousand divine stones. It was fortunate that Wen Qingyu said it.

He put on a thoughtful look and faintly made some strange movements. A few figures dressed like shopkeepers appeared out of the corner of his eyes. They were just like Wen Donglai, looking anxious.

"Our Heavenly Treasure Hall offered eleven thousand divine stones. Young Master Su, our Heavenly Treasure Hall is the most sincere!"

"Wait! The owner of our Zhuyue Xuan also sent a new order just now. He is willing to make a friend with young master Su with 12,000 divine stones."

"Isn't that a coincidence? The head shopkeeper of our pavilion of delicacy also wants to make a friend with young master Su. He is willing to offer 15,000 divine stones to buy this spiritual treasure!"

15,000 divine stones... the other two shops couldn't help but become uncertain.

The pavilion of delicacy had many branches and had a wide network of channels. Through strong publicity, they were 80% to 90% sure that they could sell the Indian silver bamboo for 15,000 divine stones at a higher price.

However, it was not necessarily the case for the two shops. If they were not careful, this item would fall into their hands.

Wen Donglai was even more dispirited when he heard this. 15,000 divine stones, such a huge sum was equivalent to the cost of Ten Thousand Treasures Hall for a whole year and a half.

It was unknown if he could sell it for a higher price.

He had no choice but to contact his second uncle urgently.

In the Ten Thousand Treasures Hall, Wen Qingyu was pacing back and forth nervously with his hands behind his back. His brows were tightly knitted. His usual composure had completely disappeared at this moment.

“Why is there still no news?” The more Wen Qingyu thought about it, the more he felt that the Indian silver bamboo was very promising.

Which of the three divine bamboos that were used to forge divine weapons were not divine items that the Emperor would fight over?

If they could find a good buyer, they could sell them for tens of thousands of divine stones.

Di Di --

The jade pendant suddenly made a sound. Wen Qingyu's heart tightened. He immediately looked over, but his face darkened.

“Pavilion of delicacy! !” Wen Qingyu was furious. His offer of 10,000 was not even worth 15,000!

He gritted his teeth and said decisively, “16,000... No, do as you see fit. I'll take it within 30,000!”

After receiving the news, Wen Donglai sucked in a breath of cold air.

30,000... was equivalent to more than half of what they had gained in the Great Yu imperial court all these years.

However, with the quota of 30,000, Wen donglai felt much more confident. He sneered, “You want to make friends with young master Su with just 15,000 divine stones? Our Ten Thousand Treasures Hall will take 20,000 divine stones!”

The three shopkeepers present were all shocked. 20,000 divine stones, such a large sum of divine stones, was indeed beyond their expectations.

The lips of the remaining two shops moved, but due to their authority, they were unable to increase the price without authorization.

The shopkeeper of the pavilion of delicacy, however, had received instructions from the head shopkeeper. He said coldly, "25,000 divine stones!"

What? Wen Donglai was greatly shocked. The pavilion of delicacy dared to ask for such an exorbitant price?

It seemed that the value of this item had far exceeded his initial expectations. One had to know that the pavilion of delicacy had a rather good appraisal of rare treasures, second only to Miao Cheng Tian.

They were certain that there must be a reason for such a high price.

"30,000!" Wen Donglai tossed out an astronomical figure, his heart trembling slightly. Ever since he was young.., it was the first time he had made such a huge deal. "Our Ten Thousand Treasures Hall will take this item. No matter how much the pavilion of delicacy offers, the ten thousand treasures hall will increase the price by another 5,000!"

He added on without permission, giving the other party unusually great mental pressure.

The second manager of the pavilion of delicacy, who was already a little hesitant, could not help but feel guilty when he heard the last sentence. His face flickered for a while, he snorted angrily. "I didn't expect your myriad treasures hall to have such a deep foundation!"

These words made Wen donglai feel as if he was floating in the air, but he understood in his heart that at this moment, he was trying to make a fool of himself. Thirty thousand divine stones were almost half of the assets of the myriad treasures hall!

"Alright, I won't fight for the price. However, young master Su, our pavilion of delicacy still very much hopes to make a friend with young master Su. When you are free later, you can come and visit." The second shopkeeper was exceptionally enthusiastic.

Seeing that it was impossible to fight, the remaining two shops also gave up one after another and expressed their goodwill towards Su Yu.

He nodded his head one by one and watched them leave.

Wen Donglai was a little excited. "Young master Su, why don't we return to the Ten Thousand Treasures Hall Now?"

Su Yu pondered for a moment and looked at Miao Chengtian who was not far away. He thought for a moment and sighed. "Alright, there's no need to continue asking about the high price of 30,000 divine stones."

Only then did Wen Donglai let out a sigh of relief. He eagerly led the way and invited him back.

Wen Qingyu went out to welcome Su Yu. He was much more enthusiastic than when he first came.

The group of people sat in their seats. Su Yu took out the jade box again and cut the formalities. He said directly, "I've already wasted a lot of time asking about the major shops. Let's not talk about it anymore. Let's trade according to the number of the shop owners."

Wen qingyu also wanted to complete the transaction as soon as possible so as to save time.

“Donglai, quickly head to the treasury and gather 30,000 god Stones!”He carefully took out a two-foot-long giant key.

It contained the power of an array formation. Su Yu glanced at it and couldn’t help but feel slightly apprehensive.

From the fluctuations of the array formation, it could at least defend against the attack of a single-crowned king. Even if a double-crowned king wanted to break the array formation, it might not be easy.

The Ten Thousand Treasures Hall had been in business for many years, so they knew very well that the safety of spatial storage items was very low. It was far inferior to an array formation.

If all the goods were stored in the storage space, what if Wen Qingyu was attacked by an emperor? With his half-step emperor cultivation, wouldn’t everything be taken away easily?

It would be better to store them in the array formation. Even if an emperor came, he would have nothing to worry about.

Wen donglai took the key and looked at Wen Qingyu with a strange expression.

Sensing the gaze, Wen Qingyu knew what he meant. He was asking if he should use the same trick again and use an illusion to give the abandoned false god stone.

Wen Qingyu was somewhat tempted. He was extremely reluctant to give up the thirty thousand divine stones.

However, after thinking calmly, he shook his head slightly, indicating that he should not do this.

Firstly, it had not been long since the incident with Zi Xin. If something similar happened again, even a fool would suspect the Million Treasures Hall.

Secondly, this item had already caused a stir in the black market materials industry. It was really not suitable to cause any trouble.

As for the third item, Su Yu was so old, but his cultivation was profound. He was even able to take out such a precious divine bamboo. Wen Qingyu was somewhat unable to understand his background and was apprehensive.

Wen donglai nodded and returned after two hours.

He opened his storage ring and 21 pockets filled up half of the inner hall.

“Young master Su, please take a look.”

Su Yu opened and inspected each of the first 20 pockets. Each of them contained a full thousand divine stones.

In total, it was 20,000 divine stones.

But the last pocket only had 100 divine stones.

The difference was that each of these 100 divine stones contained a shocking aura, more than a hundred times higher than ordinary divine stones.

Middle-grade divine stones? That was not a problem.

After putting away all the pockets on the ground, Su Yu pushed the jade box over. “Please check it again to make sure that the goods are fine.”

Wen Qingyu had already checked the goods more than ten times in secret to make sure there was no soul mark, space power, or any other tricks.

In fact, Su Yu had indeed not done any tricks. In front of such a businessman who had immersed himself in the business world all year round, the tricks that he could think of were thoroughly researched by others hundreds of years ago.

“In that case, I won’t stay long. Goodbye.” Su Yu stood up and left.

Wen Qingyu also knew the reason why he left in such a hurry, so he did not try to persuade him to stay.

After watching Su Yu leave, Wen Qingyu held the jade box tightly, his face full of joy. “Even if it costs 30,000 divine stones, if it works well, there might be a high profit margin!”

Having been a businessman for many years, he had an unusually sharp sense of smell.

“You watch from the front. I will personally send this item into the treasure vault.” Wen Qingyu was extremely solemn. This item had cost him more than half of his five years of harvest, and he could not allow it to slip away.

An hour later.

Wen Qingyu walked out of the hidden treasury. He looked around vigilantly. His mood was both excited and uneasy.

His mind was filled with thoughts on how to sell this item at a higher price.

“Second uncle, come quickly! Miao Chengtian’s shopkeeper has come to pay a visit!” At this moment, the jade pendant on his waist flashed.

Wen Qingyu took a look. It was a message from a cup of tea. However, because the treasury was isolated, the message was only transmitted at this moment.

“Why did Miao Chengtian’s people come?” Wen Qingyu couldn’t help but be surprised.

To the myriad treasures hall, Miao Chengtian was the head of this dao. He was unattainable. The income he generated every year couldn’t even be compared to ten myriad treasures hall.

In the past, Miao Chengtian had never placed the tiny myriad treasures hall in his eyes. Why did he suddenly pay a visit today?

Chapter 1796 Human-Shaped Monster

However, a cup of tea had already passed. The shopkeeper must have left as well, right?

Di Di --

Wen Donglai's urgent message came again. "Second uncle, why aren't you here yet? I'm still waiting in the outer hall."

Eh? Wen Qingyu was extremely surprised. He had actually waited until now?

There was no time to lose. He did not dare to offend Miao Cheng Tian, so he immediately got up and left.

He saw a beautiful woman who still retained her charm. Her clothes were exposed, and she was extremely charming. She sat quietly.

Wen donglai, who was at the side, occasionally peeked at her. His eyes were filled with a fiery light.

Wen Qingyu was slightly startled. He knew eight of Miao Chengtian's nine shopkeepers, but he had never seen this woman before.

"May I know which shopkeeper Miao Chengtian is?"Wen Qingyu asked.

The beautiful woman tilted her head and smiled. Her smile was so enchanting that it made Wen Qingyu Restless.

He was secretly shocked. Suddenly, he heard the name of a shopkeeper whom he had never seen before. He said with some astonishment, "Could it be that you are the head shopkeeper of Miao Cheng Tian, the illusionary charm shopkeeper?"

Among the nine shopkeepers, only the head shopkeeper had never seen him before.

However, he heard that this woman's cultivation had long reached the emperor realm, and she was extremely proficient in illusionary techniques.

When their eyes met, he immediately realized this person's identity.

It was precisely because of this that he felt shocked. Why did this head shopkeeper, who was usually elusive, suddenly come to the small ten thousand treasures hall?

It must be known that even the ninth shopkeeper, who was ranked ninth, did not want to come here.

"It's me."Huan Mei smiled charmingly, scaring Wen Qingyu so much that he hurriedly averted his gaze to avoid falling into her trap.

"Someone, bring me good spirit tea."

"No need. I'm in a hurry, so I'll cut to the Chase."Huan Mei said straightforwardly, "I heard that there was a handsome man selling Indian silver bamboo in the market just now. In the end, he was moved by your bid. I wonder if the transaction will be done in your hands in the end."

So it was because of this matter. Who would have thought that Miao Chengtian would be alarmed.

“That’s right. The transaction has been completed.” Wen Qingyu was somewhat vigilant, not understanding the purpose of Huan Mei’s head shopkeeper’s visit.

Fantasy Charm’s beautiful eyes flashed. “Then I wonder how much the Wen family paid for the transaction.”

Wen Qingyu became even more vigilant. After pondering for a moment, he said, “40,000 god Stones!”

Wen Donglai, who was at the side, almost bit his tongue. He increased the price by 10,000 in one go?

Fantasy Charm looked at Wen Donglai with a smile that was not a smile. He then looked at Wen Qingyu. “Then I, Fantasy Charm, will increase the price by 10,000. How about 50,000 to purchase this item?”

What? Wen Donglai was so excited that his heart was pounding wildly.

Even though Wen Qingyu looked like he was sitting still, in reality, his entire body was stiff.

One buying and one selling, there was actually a difference of 20,000 divine stones in the price of one hour!

This transaction was simply a sky-high profit!

Just a moment ago, he was still worried about whether this item could be sold, but in the end..

“Alright...” he was about to agree, but suddenly, he regained his composure.

This item had actually alarmed Phantom. The other party knew that the Ten Thousand Treasures Hall had only spent 30,000 divine stones, but he was still willing to pay 50,000 divine stones to buy it. There must be an even bigger profit to be made!

“Did boss Wen agree?” Phantom’s eyes hid a trace of joy.

But Wen Qingyu said, “What I mean is that there are naturally many people who want good things. They are not satisfied with the head shopkeeper of Phantom. This item has already been ordered.”

It would be strange if it had been ordered. It had only been an hour. Where could he find such a big buyer?

He was merely raising the price!

Illusory charm was somewhat displeased. However, as a member of the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce, it was even more inappropriate for her to use threats, force, and other means to break the rules.

“Alright then. If Master Wen has considered it carefully, you can come and look for me again.” Illusory charm did not continue to raise the price and directly left.

She knew very well that Wen Qingyu had raised the price of the item and had nothing to fear. In the end, even 80,000 divine stones might not be enough to satisfy his appetite.

It would be better to leave him alone for a period of time. This Indian silver bamboo was so precious that she did not believe that anyone would buy it in a short period of time.

As time passed, Wen Qingyu became anxious and would naturally take the initiative to sell it to her. Then, it would be much easier to haggle the price.

Wen Qingyu sent the guest off with a smile. When she returned to the inner hall, she could not help but laugh heartily.

Wen Donglai was also incomparably excited. "Congratulations, second uncle, for making such a huge deal! Just this sum alone is equivalent to two years of our hard work!"

"Hahaha, it's not just two years! If we operate it properly, it will be more than what we have gained in five years!" Wen Qingyu became more and more confident in her own judgment, when he recalled the attitude of his clansmen when they went to Emperor Yu's dynasty, he became even more spirited. "I can't wait to return after these five years are up. Let them broaden their horizons!"

Wen Donglai's face was also filled with anticipation. The shocked faces of the entire clan could not help but appear in his mind.

At the moment when uncle and nephew were indulging in their fantasies, the sky gradually darkened.

In a certain inn, Su Yu did not move at all. Her body was like a wooden stake that had lost its vitality and lacked a soul.

The nine Jade Spirit Pearl on his arm, however, shone brightly.

"Quickly grow, quickly grow, quickly grow." Beside the nursery, a graceful girl dressed in colorful clothes was squatting in front of a small seedling of the Blood Crystal Bodhi. She held her snow-white chin with both hands and looked at the small seedling without blinking, from time to time, she licked her lips. "When you grow up and bear fruit, I can eat you guys. Wahaha."

Suddenly, she suddenly turned her head and looked at Su Yu's soul that appeared out of nowhere behind her. She pouted and snorted before turning her head away to ignore him.

"Are You Hungry?" Su Yu laughed.

"What do you think?" Xiao die was full of complaints. "You won't let me eat this or that either. You really want to starve me to death, right? HMPH, you'll get your retribution for mistreating me!"

As she spoke, her eyes bulged and were filled with resentment.

Su Yu rolled his eyes, "I've only starved you for a day!"

"What's wrong with a day? There are twelve hours in a day. One hour is equivalent to four incense sticks. One incense stick is equivalent to two cups of tea. One Cup of tea is equivalent to nine hundred breaths. Calculate, how many breaths have you starved me for?" Her face was filled with anger, it was as if she had been starved by Su Yu for thousands of years.

Su Yu was rendered speechless by his questioning. Her eyes rolled slightly and revealed a thought-provoking expression. "Starving you is to help you empty your stomach because I specially prepared a big meal for you."

"Really?" It was only until today that Su Yu knew what it meant to turn hostile like flipping a book.

She, who was still like a thousand-year-old Wraith a moment ago, had eyes that were sparkling in the blink of an eye. Her face was filled with ecstasy. "Where is it? Give it to me quickly!"

Su Yu touched her head. "I have stored it in a place. You need to go over and eat it yourself."

"Oh, there is also a piece of Indian silver bamboo there. You are very familiar with this item. You should be able to easily sense the location of the Indian silver bamboo, right?" Su Yu said.

Xiao Die sniffled. "Do you even need to say that? I grew up eating Indian silver bamboo since I was young. Quickly let me out. I want to eat my fill."

Su Yu smiled and released Xiao Die.

She sniffed the air and immediately found the scent of Indian silver bamboos. She ran out in surprise.

Looking at her disappearing figure, Su Yu stroked the storage ring filled with divine stones with a deep smile.

Not long after, Su Yu also got up and left the inn. He went to the other shops to buy the nine volumes of star field and the travel notes of myriad regions.

After that, he returned to his cultivation cave and immediately flipped through the books.

A night passed, and the sky was gradually getting brighter.

Su Yu watched attentively. His eyes were sometimes enlightened, and sometimes puzzled.

Boom --

Suddenly, the stone doors that were densely covered with defensive formations were suddenly shattered by a strange force. A slender girl with colorful groups angrily walked in. "You lied to me! !"

Su Yu looked up and saw that it was Xiao die who had an aggrieved expression.

Su Yu frowned and said, "Why? You Didn't find it? Or was it blocked by that formation?"

"Yes, I found it. That Formation is nothing. I ate it directly!" Xiao die looked indignant, "You said that there was a delicious feast inside, but other than the Indian silver bamboo, the rest are all low-level goods. They are not delicious at all!"

“So you only ate the Indian silver bamboo?” Su Yu frowned. It was a little out of his expectations.

Xiao die said, “Of course not! I’m so hungry. Even if it was terrible, I would eat it.”

Only then did his expression relax. “Oh? Then how much did you eat left?”

Blinking, Xiao Die pointed at her nose as if she had suffered a great humiliation. “Do you think that the shameful and detestable character of wasting food would appear on me? HMPH, I even licked all the dregs clean!”

Su Yu looked at her round belly and smiled evilly. The treasury must have been emptied.

The Thousand Treasures Hall’s many years of savings in the great Yu Emperor Dynasty had all gone down the drain overnight.

Of course, the thirty thousand divine stones were saved by Su Yu to avoid Xiao Die’s poisonous mouth.

Xiao Die curled her lips. “They found out. They’re still very angry.”

Su Yu sized her up. “Then you didn’t get hurt?”

“Hurt me? With them? HMPH, it’s fine if they didn’t make a move, but it’s their fault for not having good eyesight. Seeing that I was eating so aggrievedly and unhappy, they actually hit me. It’s simply intolerable to the heavens!” Xiao Die clenched her little pink fist in anger.

Su Yu touched his nose. You ate others’ food, but they didn’t make a move. It’s only intolerable to the heavens.

“And then?” He asked.

Xiao Die’s expression was dark. “And then, in a fit of anger, I ate the wall of the treasury. Oh, I also ate that house called the Thousand Treasures Hall. I didn’t leave a single grain of sand for them!”

UH --

He only wanted Xiao die to eat the goods in the treasury.

This had absolutely nothing to do with him!

With this thought in his mind, Su Yu comforted her, “Those people don’t know how to appreciate favors. Seriously, how could they disturb you eating? Next time, don’t show mercy. EAT their storage items and the like.”

Xiao die blinked her beautiful eyes. She felt like she had found a kindred spirit, and her mood instantly became much better. “Haha, Do I Need You to tell me? Their clothes have all been eaten!”

Su Yu:”...”

Wanbao Hall.

To be exact, it was the Wanbao Hall ruins.

Wen Qingyu and Wen Donglai, a pair of uncles and nephews, were huddled together under a sheet. Their bodies were covered in blood and their faces were swollen. They sat on the ground in a daze. Behind them was an empty and clean piece of land.

The ground was as clean as a silver mirror. There was not a single grain of sand on it.

It was hard to imagine that there had been a treasure hall here for five years before last night.

“Hey, since I borrowed a blanket from your uncle and nephew, say something. What kind of tragedy has happened in the human world? “Why did nothing happen overnight?”An old woman’s face was filled with the word “Gossip.”.

However, the uncle and nephew were both stupefied. They mumbled indistinctly, “Monster... female monster...”

Chapter 1797 Evidence Speaks

At this moment, a few people with powerful auras walked over from behind.

Everyone saw that they were all shopkeepers of various large shops. The One walking at the front was the head shopkeeper of Miao Chengtian, Huan Mei!

Staring at the thousand treasures hall that disappeared overnight, Huan Mei was a little stunned.

When she heard that something strange had happened in the Thousand Treasures Hall, she was worried that the Indian silver bamboo would be lost, so she specially came over to take a look.

Who would have thought that she would see such a strange scene.

Looking at the uncle and nephew who were in a daze, Phantom’s eyes flashed, and two rays of light shot into their heads.

Immediately, the uncle and nephew were stimulated. They screamed in pain, but they also woke up from their daze.

“What happened? Where did the Treasure Hall go? Did the Indian silver bamboo go missing?”Phantom asked straightforwardly.

Wen qingyu wrapped the sheet tightly and said with a livid face, “My clothes have been eaten clean. How can I keep the Indian silver bamboo?”

“Eat? Who Did It?”Phantom’s face darkened.

The Indian silver bamboo was very important to her!

Judging from the current situation, it must have been done by a strange bandit who knew about the Indian silver bamboo.

Phantom was stunned and shouted, “Tell me clearly, what humanoid monster?”

“It’s a female monster wearing a five-colored dress!”! “She bit through the array formation and broke into the treasure house and ate everything. There wasn’t even the array formation and the wall of the treasure house left.”Wen Qingyu’s face was filled with disbelief. “After we discovered it, we attacked her. In the end, not only did we not subdue her, we even angered her and ate the entire treasure house!”

“We, uncle and niece, are no exception. Not only did she eat our storage items, but all of our clothes were also eaten away.”

Everyone’s eyes were filled with shock when they heard this. What exactly was this monster that ate everything?

Phantom also had a look of disbelief on her face. She swept her gaze across the floor that was as clean as a mirror and her expression was extremely solemn. It seemed that the Indian silver bamboo had also been eaten by her. It was impossible for it to exist anymore.

“Hehe, this is simply a tragedy in the human world! The treasury has been eaten clean and there isn’t even a single piece of clothing to wear. It would be a problem even if we went home to take care of it!”

“Look at what you’re saying. The other party has managed the Treasury for many years. They should at least know some of their friends, right? It would be very easy for them to borrow some. Moreover, even if they didn’t have any friends, they could at least become the second manager of the Treasury, right? “After all, he used to be the owner of the Ten Thousand Treasures Hall. No matter what, he’s still worth some money.”

The ear-piercing discussions rushed into the ears of the uncle and nephew without any scruples.

They didn’t need to look to know that these people were usually strong enemies, including the pavilion of delicacy and other shops that they competed with yesterday.

No matter how cunning Wen Qingyu usually was, at this moment, he didn’t have any room to refute.

What else could he say? Five years of hard work in one night had gone down the drain.

Yesterday, he had been so high-spirited that he wanted to make his clansmen look at him in a new light. He wanted to see the wonderful expressions of those who had not been optimistic about their clansmen in the past.

Who knew that one night had gone completely upside down.

They were afraid that the ones who would show wonderful expressions would be their uncle and nephew.

“The two of you, since the matter has come to this, I’m sorry for your loss. Please be sure to provide the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce’s Law Enforcement Hall with complete information. Perhaps you can even recover some of it,"Huan Mei comforted.

Uncle and nephew were bitter. They had been eaten. How could they recover it?

Wen donglai stared at Huan Mei. He recalled the scene where the woman had bought the Indian silver bamboo for 50,000 yesterday and could not help but blame his second uncle.

If his second uncle was not so greedy, how could he have ended up like this?

Wen Qingyu was even more ashamed to raise his head in front of Huan Mei.

The difference between heaven and Hell was the difference of a single thought.

One of them was the silver-haired young master in a white crown. He had a very deep impression of him.

"It's him!"Wen Qingyu said in surprise.

But what immediately stunned him was that there were two people beside Su Yu that he was not unfamiliar with.

"Zi Xin! Why is she with someone surnamed Su?"Wen Qingyu was stunned. He quickly realized something and his face was livid. His facial features were distorted due to his anger, making him look extremely ferocious.

His anger spread like an aura, shocking the onlookers.

"They set us up!"After seeing Zi Xin and Su Yu standing side by side, Wen Qingyu suddenly realized something!

The appearance of the rare treasure in the myriad treasures hall was a trap for him!

Such a treasure didn't appear in Miao Cheng Tian. Instead, it came to the unknown myriad treasures hall. If he thought about it calmly, there must be something fishy going on!

Unfortunately, Wen Qingyu's judgment was affected by the intense competitive atmosphere at that time, so he did not think about it carefully.

Now that he saw Zi Xin, he finally understood.

Set Up? An illusionary light flashed and followed his gaze. Everyone along the way moved aside.

In the end, her gaze fixed on the three people who were passing by.

"The three of you set me up! !"Wen qingyu shouted. A divine aura surged out from his body and covered his body. He turned into a streak of light and attacked with a loud bang.

Su Yu and the other two, who were chatting and laughing with each other, suddenly encountered an attack. However, they seemed to be prepared for it. They were not surprised at all.

“Humph! If you want to attack young master Su, you have to get past me first!” Bi Hetu grabbed a black sun with one hand and smashed it toward the afterimage.

Bang --

The strong shock shocked the onlookers and made them flee in all directions. They stared at the afterimage excitedly.

“Haha, there’s a good show to watch!”

After revealing himself, Wen Qingyu did not even look at Bi Hetu. He stared straight at Su Yu, his eyes filled with hatred. “You dare to frame me! !”

As he said that, he attacked again.

Su Yu looked indifferent. “So it’s the Wen family. What do you mean by that?”

He glanced at the empty ruins of the myriad treasures hall and put on a surprised expression. “Eh? Where’s the myriad treasures hall? Could it be that the Wen family is preparing to withdraw from the black market? To withdraw so cleanly overnight, the efficiency is quite high.”

His words were like adding fuel to the fire, causing Wen Qingyu’s entire body to tremble.

“Surnamed Su, stop putting on an Act! You’ve destroyed my years of hard work, and I can not stand against you!” Wen qingyu once again attacked with a low growl.

Bi hetu secretly sneered. He could finally vent the grievances he had held for so many days. He immediately rushed forward with a low growl.

The clash between two half-step emperor realm experts caused quite a commotion. The shockwaves caused affected the array formation near the black market, causing many ripples of different sizes.

Whoosh --

Not long after, three rapid air-breaking sounds tore through the sky above the black market, like Black Lightning descending between the two.

Bang Bang --

This person was extremely powerful. Each of his hands waved out a palm, forcing Wen qingyu, Bi, and Tu, who were in the midst of an intense battle, to retreat.

The two fixed their eyes on each other, and their expressions were different.

Wen Qingyu immediately withdrew his aura and cupped his fists respectfully. “Greetings, elder Li!”

This person had blonde hair and was not one to smile. He was none other than the law enforcement elder of the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce who had presided over justice two months ago.

He frowned and stared at Wen Qingyu. “You should know the rules of the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce better than anyone else. Those who act without authorization and affect the order of the market will be severely punished!”

He took out a crystal scroll and quickly drew a few strokes on it. Then, he announced coldly, "The qualification of the myriad treasures Hall's great Yu Emperor Dynasty branch is revoked!"

The surrounding shopkeepers were secretly shocked.

The law enforcement hall was indeed strict. They didn't just say that they would be disqualified.

However, looking at the empty ruins of the Ten Thousand Treasures Hall, everyone had strange expressions on their faces. This kind of punishment was equivalent to nothing to Wen Qingyu.

Wen Qingyu gritted his teeth and said, "The law enforcement hall has punished me, but what about them?"

Elder Li looked at Bi Hetu and asked, "Who made the first move?"

He knew the answer from the eyes of the onlookers. He snorted and said, "Since you made the first move, it was self-defense. He doesn't need to be punished! Don't you understand this kind of rule?"

Shaking his head, Wen Qingyu gnashed his teeth and said, "I'm talking about another thing! They set me up and caused me to go bankrupt. I beg the law enforcement hall to make the decision for me!"

What? Elder Li glanced at the ten thousand treasures hall. There was a hint of surprise in his eyes. He said in a deep voice, "You will naturally be protected by the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce when you join. Tell me the details."

Thus, Wen Qingyu added fuel to the fire and told the whole story.

Elder Li looked at Zi Xin and then at Su Yu, who had a good relationship with him. His heart was as clear as a mirror.

As long as one was not a fool, one could see that Wen Qingyu had indeed fallen into a trap.

Although he did not know what was going on with that so-called female monster, it was definitely related to Su Yu.

Wen Qingyu placed his last hope on Elder Li and pleaded, "Please help me, Elder Li! I have been harmed by a treacherous person. It doesn't matter if I suffer losses, but if I implicate the Chamber of Commerce, I will not be able to escape responsibility!"

It seemed like he was speaking for the Chamber of Commerce, but in reality, he was full of threats.

As a member of the Chamber of Commerce, he had been maliciously framed. If the Chamber of Commerce could not help him, who would dare to join the Chamber of Commerce?

Elder Li frowned slightly. He knew what kind of person Wen Qingyu was. Usually, he walked on the edge of the rules and did many illegal things. It was just that he had no evidence.

But at this moment, he pretended to be innocent!

But as an elder of the law enforcement hall, he would still do what he had to do.

"I already know what happened. Then, where is your evidence?" Elder Li stretched out his hand. "The law enforcement hall only looks at evidence. If you have evidence to prove that the human-shaped monster that ate your ten thousand treasures hall is related to this young master Su, I will punish you severely!”

Wen qingyu pointed at Zi Xin. “Do you still need proof? Two months ago, this woman extorted me. Elder Li saw it with his own eyes. This woman must have a grudge and conspired with her friends to frame me!”

Elder Li was unmoved. He looked at him indifferently. “Evidence!”

“But it’s clearly him...”

“Evidence!”

“But...”

“Enough!” Elder Li shouted coldly and interrupted Wen Qingyu. “If you don’t have evidence, don’t say anything! If you continue to slander the guests, don’t blame me for imposing additional punishment!”

The additional punishment would involve the Wen Qingyu family’s businesses in other regions.

No matter how wide Wen Qingyu’s eyes were, he swallowed the words that were about to burst out of his mouth in anger.

Zi Xin took a deep breath and suddenly felt that all the grievances she had in the past had been swept away.

Thinking back to the past, she had suffered without any evidence, so even though she knew that the Ten Thousand Treasures Hall had lied to her, she was unable to get justice.

Now that she saw Wen qingyu suffer the same grievance, the anger in her heart was finally dispelled.

“If there’s nothing else, I’ll take my leave,” Su Yu said.

Elder Li nodded. “This matter has nothing to do with you, so you can naturally leave!”

Nodding slightly, Su Yu turned around and paused in his footsteps. “Oh right, I wonder if elder Li has noticed that this shopkeeper of the myriad treasures hall possesses an illusion-oriented eye technique.”

HMM? Elder Li’s brows twitched violently as he flashed over to Wen Donglai and stared into his eyes.

Chapter 1798 Open And Honest

Wen Donglai was shocked. “I didn’t. He’s talking nonsense!”

Wen qingyu, who was standing at the side, was even more shocked. The Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce had strict requirements on the shopkeeper. He absolutely could not practice illusionary techniques, so as to avoid cheating customers with illusionary techniques.

This was strictly prohibited. Once found, it was either expelled from the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce or killed.

“Elder Li, this person is framing us. Please don’t believe him!”Wen Qingyu said hurriedly.

Elder Li turned a deaf ear. A dark light flashed on his fingertip, and a strange ancient brush appeared in his hand. He pointed it at Wen Donglai’s forehead without any explanation.

Suddenly, his eyes could not control the fluctuations of the illusion.

The surrounding shopkeepers had good eyesight. Their faces could not help but change, and they said in a low voice, “Illusion!”

It was absolutely forbidden for shopkeepers to practice illusion!

Wen Donglai’s entire body went soft, and he was scared out of his wits.

Wen qingyu became anxious and explained, “Elder Li, please investigate clearly. He accidentally cultivated the ocular technique and didn’t deliberately go against the rules of the Merchant Union. Moreover, he has never used this to deceive customers!”

Zi Xin was stunned at first, but then she began to think.

Suddenly.., she cried out involuntarily, “I understand! ! Two months ago, it was you who used an illusion to deceive me and gave me more than a hundred abandoned divine stones. After being affected by the illusion, I mistook them for real divine stones. No wonder elder Li was unable to detect any limbs on the divine stones. So that’s how it is!”

Elder Li’s face darkened and his eyes emitted a cold arc. “Follow me back to the law enforcement hall. There’s a need to perform a soul search on you! !”

“Ah! No, second uncle, save me!”Wen Donglai said in fear. In the law enforcement hall, they had a hundred ways to find out how many guests he had harmed through this.

What awaited him was most likely the death penalty of the Law Enforcement Hall!

Wen Qingyu’s expression fluctuated. He couldn’t even protect himself, how could he save Wen Donglai?

“Second uncle, these were all instigated by you, you can’t let me take the blame alone!”In a moment of desperation, Wen Donglai said these words.

Wen Qingyu’s expression changed drastically. Without thinking, he slapped Wen Donglai’s face and scolded angrily, “B * stard, you’re talking nonsense! Your intentions are not right. You’re deceiving your superiors and subordinates, and you dare to Shirk Responsibility? I Won’t let you off!”

As he spoke, he slapped again,

“Stop!”Elder Li’s expression changed and he tried to stop him.

However, he was too late. Wen qingyu slapped his cheek, and his head exploded like a watermelon. He died instantly.

Wen Qingyu’s face was stained with blood, which made him look particularly bloody and cold.

Wen Qingyu sighed and said, "I'm sorry, elder Li. It doesn't matter that I taught you such a nephew. I have punished him on the spot. I hope that I can use this to warn others not to do anything that violates the rules of the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce."

Everyone felt a chill down their spines!

What a ruthless Wen Qingyu. He killed his nephew just like that!

A cold glint flashed in Su Yu's eyes, and traces of killing intent filled his heart.

He was only going to expose Wen Donglai and give their uncle and nephew some trouble. Who knew that Wen Qingyu was so ruthless.

It was not necessarily not a disaster to keep such a person alive.

The enmity was already deep, and the other party was such a sinister and ruthless person. It seemed that he had to deal with him personally.

Elder Li stared coldly at Wen Qingyu and snorted heavily. "Since you're cleaning up your own house, then save us from taking action! You've already been stripped of your membership in the Chamber of Commerce. You're given three days to leave the black market and are not allowed to return!"

Wen Qingyu's face darkened. "I understand."

He left the crowd in a hurry, but when he glanced at Su Yu from the corner of his eyes, he was filled with hatred, a hatred that was engraved in his bones!

The coldness in Su Yu's eyes deepened. This person must die.

Two days later.

Wen Qingyu stayed for two days. After borrowing a sum of money from his old friend, he left the black market.

He did not notice that a figure whose aura had almost disappeared followed him all the way to the deserted Snow Lion City.

Su Yu, who was following behind him, was slightly surprised. If Wen Qingyu wanted to leave Emperor Yu's dynasty, the only way was to head to the exit of the dynasty's border and take a meteorite.

However, he was currently heading in the opposite direction from the border.

Moreover, Wen Qingyu's expression was sneaky, and he didn't seem to be in a hurry.

Curious, Su Yu couldn't help but delay his actions and secretly follow this person.

A few hours later, Wen Qingyu entered an abandoned mountain villa with a vigilant expression.

A mysterious figure drilled out from within the villa. His entire body was covered by a black robe, and his appearance couldn't be seen clearly.

"You're here?" The black-robed man said in a hoarse voice.

Wen Qingyu took out a storage ring and threw it over. "Ten Thousand Divine Stones. I want to use the ancient Fuyao Array."

Ancient Fuyao Array? Su Yu was shocked.

Not long ago, he had heard the name of this item from the emperor's corpse, but now he heard it again.

The black-robed man checked the storage ring and revealed a satisfied expression. "Not bad. Ten Thousand Divine Stones."

"When can I use it?" Wen Qingyu's tone was a little hurried.

The black-robed man kept the ring and said playfully, "Your Excellency is in a hurry."

"HMPH! Then there's no need for your excellency to ask. Tell me, when can I use it?"

The black-robed man smiled faintly. "Now is fine!"

Wen Qingyu was stunned and immediately became vigilant. "Now? As far as I know, the ancient Fuyao array needs at least 10,000 people to gather. Could it be that with me, it's exactly 10,000?"

"Of course not," the black-robed man said indifferently. "What I mean is, I can send you to another place!"

As soon as he finished speaking, the black-robed man's robes fluttered, and ten giant snakes formed from the primal energy flew out from under him.

Wen Qingyu said in shock and anger, "You want to steal from me?"

"Correct. To tell you the truth, the ancient Fuyao array quota is full, hehe..."

Wen Qingyu's expression changed drastically. He did not even think about running away when facing the emperor.

However, he was caught up by the ten giant snakes not long after he escaped. He was torn into pieces and turned into a rain of blood.

Su Yu was shocked when he saw this.

The Mysterious Emperor of Heaven and earth, the mysterious ancient Fuyao Array!

What was that thing?

Su Yu hid his aura and did not move. He quietly waited for the black-robed man to leave before he quietly left.

When he returned to the black market, the conversation between Wen Qingyu and the mysterious black-robed man was still lingering in his mind.

The words "Ancient Fuyao array" were deeply engraved in his mind.

Seven days later.

Su Yu and the others arrived at the white-browed Elder's place as scheduled.

Under his arrangements, they boarded a temporarily built giant teleportation array and successfully teleported to another secret black market outside the imperial city.

This black market was several times larger than the black market in the Snow Lion fief. With a cursory glance, there were at least hundreds of thousands of people in this place.

Su Yu couldn't help but be secretly surprised. The Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce's power was indeed terrifyingly high.

However, time was tight and Su Yu didn't have time to stay. He immediately left this place and returned to the Princess' mansion.

Snow Lion fief, black market.

In the dark law enforcement hall, Wen Donglai's body lay on the ground. Elder Li's palm slowly left his head. Wisps of soul fluorescence lingered on his palm, and a hint of surprise appeared on his face.

"How is it? Did this kid use eye-bloodline techniques to deceive others many times?" Sitting across from him was a white-haired old man with a youthful face. His cultivation was extremely high, and he seemed to be at the peak of the Emperor Realm.

Elder Li snorted. "He used it three times before and after, but he was very cunning. The three times were used by different branches of the Chamber of Commerce, so he was never suspected! And as expected, it was secretly instigated by Wen Qingyu."

The white-haired elder said lightly, "In that case, Wen Qingyu was lucky and let him escape!"

However, elder Li showed a pensive look and said with some hesitation, "Their matter is nothing, but Wen Donglai found another thing in his memory."

"Is it very important?"

"It's important, but it's not important," elder Li said, "In Wen Donglai's memory, there is a reward list secretly circulated in the black market."

The white-haired old man was not surprised. Everything could be bought in the black market, including information.

There were often people who posted the reward list in the black market, asking for certain types of information.

"That Su Yu is the person who posted the reward list," elder Li said calmly.

The white-haired old man's eyes flashed, "Could it be that there is something unusual about this list?"

The law enforcement hall would not ask whether Su Yu was offered a reward or not, and elder Li would not ask either. But at this moment, his expression was a little strange.

"Yes, because the bounty on this list comes from one place!"

"Where?"

“The Demon World!”

The white-haired elder’s expression changed slightly. “Which race in the Demon World?”

“The Flood Dragon Race! !”Elder Li said in a low voice.

The white-haired elder took a deep breath. “How did this kid provoke such a tyrannical and ruthless great demon like the Flood Dragon Race?”

“We don’t know that!”Elder Li said. “Fortunately, Wen Donglai’s memory of this bounty is a little fuzzy, so he didn’t recognize Su Yu. Otherwise, he would have already lured that flood dragon race expert here.”

The white-haired elder pondered for a long time, he shook his head slightly, “We might have escaped this disaster, but I’m afraid that Su Yu might not. Wen Donglai has already seen the bounty list, so how many people in the black market have seen it? “I’m afraid that the Flood Dragon Clan’s expert has already gotten the information he wants and chased after him.”

Elder li nodded, his expression slightly relaxed, “Whether he lives or dies, it has nothing to do with our black market. As long as we didn’t lure the flood dragon here, it’s fine.”

The Princess’ residence.

Emperor Wuhen and princess ru Chen greatly rewarded Zi Xin and Bi Hetu and bestowed them with considerable resources, making the two feel that this trip was worth it.

After sending them off, princess ru Chen grumbled, “Why did you only come back now? Aunt and I were worried to death because of you. We thought that you’d run away after obtaining the ultimate flaming crystal.”

The corners of Su Yu’s mouth twitched. This princess was really straightforward!

“Ru Chen!”Emperor Wu Hen rubbed his temples with a headache, he smiled bitterly at Su Yu and said, “Ru Chen is young and speaks without restraint. Young Master Su, please don’t mind. We are just very worried about young master Su’s safety. I didn’t know that this trip would be so long. Could it be that a change happened midway?”

Su Yu nodded and explained the whole sequence of events. However, the secret matters that involved him were all covered up.

“If that’s the case, young master Su didn’t Die!”Emperor Wuhen was shocked when he heard that the Wula brothers and the emperor who used poison had appeared.

Princess Ru Chen also patted her bulging chest. “It’s fine, it’s fine. If you die, I’ll be in trouble!”

Su Yu’s eyes flashed and he said seriously, “The two of you, the Dao rain will be held in a few days. Isn’t it time to be Frank?”

They like Su Yu so, there must be something.

Chapter 1799 Impersonating A Prince (First Watch)

Emperor traceless tried to hide his strange expression and became serious.

Princess ru Chen was laughing like a child, and her eyes, which seemed to be ignorant of the affairs of the world, were also flickering with an obscure and deep look.

The atmosphere on the stage instantly became much heavier.

“Could it be that the two of you want me to do something that can’t be seen in the light?” Su Yu couldn’t help but sneer.

Emperor traceless remained solemn as he gazed deeply at Su Yu and sighed, “At this point, we can only tell each other. Do you still remember the contents of our agreement?”

Su Yu’s eyes flashed. Of course he remembered.

As the price of giving Su Yu a first-class rain range, Su Yu helped princess ru Chen fight for the position of crown prince.

However, he didn’t specify exactly what he wanted Su Yu to help them with.

“The Emperor of Great Yu dynasty has never decided on a successor based on who has the most supporters. It is not something that can be decided by just the Emperor of the dynasty. Instead, it has to be decided through the ancient competition of fate.”

“And what we hope you can do is to help Princess Ruchen seize her fate!” Emperor traceless’s words were clear.

Su Yu’s expression was calm, and he was not surprised.

“The location of the battle is located in the secret realm of our Great Yu Empire, the Great Yu ruins. There are scattered national fortunes there. When the time comes, young master Su, please enter and collect the national fortunes. If you collect them, just hand them over to Princess Ruchen.”

The Great Yu Ruins? Su Yu thought for a moment and nodded slowly. “Since I’ve agreed, I naturally won’t go back on my words. Please tell me the details of the ruins.”

Emperor traceless’s face lit up and his tone changed. “The matter of the heir-apparent will only be held after the dao rain falls. There is no rush, but I will need to explain the matters related to the dao rain to young master Su.”

Su Yu’s expression turned serious. Didn’t he come to the Emperor dynasty of great Yu for the sake of the Dao Rain?

“Please state clearly, Emperor.” Only members of the imperial clan could enter the first-class range of the Dao Rain’s grace. Furthermore, there would be extremely strict tests when entering, so it was impossible for them to muddle through.

Emperor traceless stared at Su Yu, the corners of his mouth curling into a thought-provoking smile. “Young master Su, do you have the ability to become the sixth prince of Emperor Yu’s Dynasty?”

Emperor Yu’s dynasty only had five princes and one royal daughter.

There was no sixth prince!

He immediately understood what the other party meant and frowned. “You want me to pretend to be a fake prince?”

Emperor traceless chuckled. “It’s not a fake prince, but a real prince! Our Emperor Yu’s dynasty does indeed have a sixth prince!”

There was actually such a thing? There were only five publicly acknowledged princes!

“Many years ago, when the monarch, Dongfang Xia, was patrolling the borders, he had a romantic night and impregnated a princess consort with a dragon seed. He even gave birth to her. This matter involved the face of the imperial family, and the news was tightly sealed. The world did not even know that there was such a prince, and the imperial family did not recognize this sixth prince’s status.”

Su Yu smacked his lips. The Emperor had touched the woman of a conferred king. How Shameless.

This move was a great humiliation to that conferred king. wasn’t the emperor worried that this conferred King would hold a grudge and raise his army to rebel?

“A few years ago, Dongfang Xia was looking for an opportunity to break through to the Triple Crown. She was worried that she wouldn’t be able to pass the life and death test. Thus, she hoped that she would be able to overcome her lifelong regret. Just like that, the sixth prince, who was about to be forgotten, was remembered by him.”

Even a person who was about to die had good words! It was probably because of this kind of mentality.

“Unfortunately, Dongfang Xia sent someone from the imperial family to welcome the sixth prince. Unfortunately, it was princess ru Chen and I who personally led the team.”The corners of Emperor Wu Hen’s mouth curled up. “Unfortunately, that sixth prince happened to be out training.”

Su Yu raised his eyebrows. Things shouldn’t have ended this way.

“We waited for months, but the sixth prince still did not return. This made me suspicious,”emperor traceless said. “But just as we were about to report the truth to the monarch, the sixth prince suddenly returned!”

Anyone could tell that there was something fishy going on. The identity of the sixth prince was somewhat suspicious.

“We used the royal family’s special testing method on the sixth prince. Indeed, we found out that he is Dongfang Xia’s bloodline. There is no falsehood!” Emperor traceless said something that surprised Su Yu. “At first, I thought that this was the end of the matter, but I never expected that on the way back to the Imperial City, the sixth prince suddenly died!”

“After careful inspection, we discovered that his inner mansion was actually embedded with a mysterious crystal filled with royal blood. It was precisely this item that provided royal blood that allowed him to avoid inspection! “It turns out that the real sixth prince had died due to Qi deviation when he was young. However, he was worried that the Emperor would be furious, so he kept it a secret! “Very few people know about this!”

Emperor traceless said meaningfully, “So, you should understand how panicked he must have been when we returned to that conferred King’s fiefdom?”

If it was just that he did not protect Dongfang Xia’s dragon seed, then forget it. Trying to use a fake dragon seed to deceive him was a capital offense!

“That conferred King pleaded with me for a long time and promised me many benefits. He even agreed to support Princess Ruchen and asked me to hide the truth for him.” Emperor traceless took out a crystal that contained traces of dark red blood essence.

She looked at Su Yu and smiled. “I also told the monarch the truth. The sixth prince has been traveling and hasn’t returned!”

Staring at the blood essence in her hand, Su Yu’s expression was calm as water. “So, you want me to pretend to be the sixth prince?”

“I’m not pretending!” Emperor Traceless’s eyes were deep. “You are the sixth prince! In this world, other than us and the Emperor, who else knows that the sixth prince is already dead? If we say you are the sixth prince, then you are!”

This..

This seemed like a bold plan, but if one thought about it carefully, there was a possibility of it being carried out.

The emperor would definitely not dare to expose Su Yu, and traceless emperor wanted Su Yu’s support, so he wouldn’t expose him either.

However, there was only one thing to worry about.

“To be honest, I’ve offended many people. If I reveal myself as the sixth prince, I believe that I’ll attract the attention of many people, and no one will be able to recognize me,” Su Yu said honestly.

However, emperor traceless had a calm and unhurried expression. He said leisurely, "You are the sixth prince of the dynasty. No one can doubt you unless someone has witnessed your entire life since you were born."

Su Yu narrowed his eyes. Indeed, so what if he was recognized by the conferred King of Northern Xin and the corpse race?

He was the sixth prince, and he was traveling at that time. What right did the other party have to doubt him?

As long as he could survive the identity test, who would question him?

"Looks like you've agreed. This is the information of that emperor. Read it carefully and don't leave out any details," emperor traceless said.

Su Yu took it and casually flipped through it. He shook his head, "It's not enough. I need more details."

Since he wanted to disguise himself, he had to do it thoroughly.

Emperor traceless revealed a look of surprise. Su Yu's cautiousness was unexpected.

However, the more cautious he was, the more advantageous it was for them. "I'll immediately contact the emperor. After you understand everything, prepare to meet your father!"

There was still less than a month before dao rain.

In the following period of time, Su Yu carefully flipped through all sorts of information. It wasn't just the emperors. He even knew the appearance of the servants in the palace and their eating habits.

Half a month later, Su Yu let out a breath of turbid air.

He understood everything that needed to be understood. Even if the people from the emperor residence came personally, he would be able to reply smoothly.

"How is it?" Emperor traceless looked at the calm Su Yu.

Su Yu nodded, "It's ready!"

"Good! I'll immediately inform the royal family that the sixth prince is back. If nothing unexpected happens, Dongfang Xia will meet you personally soon!" Emperor traceless was a little nervous.

Such an act of deceiving the Emperor would be a huge sin once it was verified.

Su Yu was also a little worried. He had personally witnessed the terror of the three crowns. He was not sure if the three crowns would be able to see through him.

Once they were seen through, there was no way they could escape from facing the three crowns directly!

The two of them bid farewell with heavy hearts. Emperor traceless reported this matter to the imperial family.

Five days later, emperor traceless came to Su Yu's room with a mixture of joy and worry.

“Do you want to hear the good news or the bad news?” Emperor traceless’s expression was somewhat uncertain.

“Alright.”

“The good news is that you don’t have to see Dongfang Xia anymore. Two months ago, a double-crowned fire dragon suddenly appeared in the imperial dynasty, wreaking havoc in all the great fiefdoms, capturing emperors and devouring their blood essence and souls. One of the three double-crowned emperors, the gray-clothed emperor, was heavily injured by it, and only managed to escape back to his soul crystal!”

“This dragon is too powerful. Dongfang Xia personally took action and led the two double-crowned emperors to chase after it. He won’t be back for a while.”

Su Yu’s brows were filled with joy as he let out a long sigh of relief.

However, where did that double-crowned fire dragon come from?

To be able to heavily injure the gray-clothed emperor who was also a double-crowned emperor, it was likely that his strength had reached the peak of a double-crowned emperor.

“Your luck is really not ordinary.” Emperor traceless could not help but be overjoyed. However, he immediately frowned. “You don’t have to meet Dongfang Xia, but it is unavoidable to test your bloodline.”

Su Yu said, “Since the special methods of the imperial family that you used that day were unable to detect any problems, there should be no risk in going.”

Emperor traceless’s frown deepened. “I am not worried about the test. What I am worried about is that during the test, all the children of the imperial family will be present to observe, including the first prince, Dongfang Wudi!”

This was not the first time Su Yu had heard of this person.

He was the only person in the entire younger generation of Emperor Yu dynasty who was as famous as Bei Wangchen.

“This person is overbearing and ruthless. If he was present, I’m afraid there would be complications!” Emperor traceless looked worried.

Su Yu did not mind and said calmly, “Don’t worry. As long as Dongfang Xia doesn’t personally come, I can solve everything on my own.”

Emperor traceless smiled in relief. “I’m relieved that you’re so confident. Luckily, princess ru Chen will accompany you on this trip. If necessary, she can smooth things over for you.”

The day of the bloodline test was set for the second day.

However, what surprised emperor traceless and Su Yu was that not only did the children of the royal family personally observe the test, they even invited the representatives of the ten great emperors to witness it!

The ten great emperors naturally couldn't personally come, but with the arrival of Dao Rain, they all sent their descendants to the imperial city.

Hence, they represented the emperors to observe the test.

When he heard about this, Su Yu couldn't help but feel nervous.

If the Beixin Emperor was here, he would definitely recognize him!

Chapter 1800 Many Questions (Second Watch)

But on second thought, so what if he recognized him?

Just as Emperor Wuhen had said, he was the sixth prince who was traveling outside.

As long as he passed the bloodline test, no one could question his identity as the sixth prince.

The next morning.

The imperial eunuch sent over a tailor-made prince costume for the "Sixth Prince."

A moment later, Su Yu was wearing a yellow four-dragon robe with a jade belt around his waist and gold-patterned leather boots.

A supple silver color was spread on his back, and a crystal crown made him look even more dazzling.

Emperor traceless's eyes flashed with surprise as he stared at Su Yu's unusually handsome face with a calm demeanor, he praised sincerely, "I have to say, you look more like a prince than the five princes! Especially your temperament. I don't believe that you're pretending."

One had to know that Su Yu had been the leader of many forces many times and had even been personally crowned as a king.

Compared to the temperament of a superior, the five princes might not be able to compare to Su Yu.

"In this case, the hope is greater." Emperor traceless's lips curled into an expectant smile.

Outside the room, princess ru Chen impatiently urged, "Are you done yet? I'm coming in!"

Without waiting for an answer, she pushed open the door and entered. The first thing she saw was a luxurious young man in a yellow robe that she had almost not recognized.

He was as handsome as an immortal. Under the contrast of his expensive clothes, he seemed to have been reborn.

She stared blankly for a long time before she took a breath in surprise. "You... have changed too much, haven't you?"

Su Yu smiled and said with a smile that was not a smile, "Royal sister, go with my royal brother."

When she came back to her senses, princess ru Chen smiled mischievously, "Okay, royal brother!"

She came to Su Yu's side like a little bird and took his arm, gracefully accompanying Su Yu out of the house.

Su Yu's body was slightly stiff, and his eyes glanced down slightly.

Although princess ru Chen was not old, she had matured. The soft pressure from her arm made him feel a little uncomfortable.

He did not know whether it was intentional or not, but she rubbed against him from time to time, constantly provoking Su Yu's nerves.

Su Yu subconsciously pulled his hand away, but princess ru Chen threw him a half-smile. "Royal brother, What's Wrong? We're brother and sister, what do you mind?"

She smacked her lips, and Su Yu put down his hand again, allowing her to hug him tightly.

At this time, a mischievous whisper came into his ear. "You weren't so serious when you tried to assassinate Fantasy Moon Langjun!"

Su Yu couldn't help but roll his eyes at her. In return, she gave him a mischievous and sly smile.

Su Yu was slightly stunned and couldn't help but think.

This woman was confused at one moment, but at the other moment, she gave him an unfathomable feeling. It was indeed a little strange.

Since he had interacted with her, he could clearly feel that this woman had two different personalities. It felt like she was interacting with two different people at the same time.

However, this thought only flashed through his mind for a moment. He followed Princess Ru Chen to the Imperial Palace's inner residence.

The examination of the bloodline was conducted by the People's mansion of the great inner sect. The People's mansion was made up of eunuchs who were trusted by the royal relatives and the monarch.

The outside world had yet to hear any news about the bloodline examination, but the imperial palace had long been in an uproar.

Everyone knew that the monarch's illegitimate son had returned.

The implication was not just that the imperial family had an additional prince, but more importantly, there was a contender for the position of monarch.

At the critical moment when the crown prince was about to be appointed, a sixth prince appeared out of thin air. It was truly thought-provoking.

Along the way, the imperial palace guards, maids, and eunuchs saluted one after another with great respect.

The illusion of being respected by tens of thousands of people could indeed easily make people feel intoxicated.

Princess ru Chen's crystal-clear eyes glanced at his face and could not help but be secretly surprised. Ordinary people would more or less show unnatural expressions in front of such a lineup, even some emperors were no exception.

It was really rare for Su Yu to have such a temperament at such a young age.

An hour later, they passed through more than half of the imperial palace and arrived at the clansmen's residence.

At this moment, the clansmen's residence was heavily guarded. There were powerful guards guarding the entrance hall, the courtyard walls, and the sky.

There was also a powerful array that sealed off the entire clansmen's residence.

Without permission, they weren't allowed to enter or leave as they pleased. Even the transmission of information was blocked by the array.

It could be seen that the royal family was extremely interested in this test. Before there was a result, they were not allowed to leak any information.

"Greetings, Princess!" The imperial guards outside the door respectfully stepped aside. Their shouts startled everyone in the manor and they all looked over in surprise.

When they swept their gazes past princess ru Chen, they were all stunned.

Dongfang Xia only had one daughter, but this woman's appearance was exceptionally beautiful and her talent was also very good. She had long been the dream lover of many princes and grandsons in the entire imperial city.

Of course, it was difficult for them to ignore the unfamiliar young man that princess ru Chen was intimately holding onto.

Traces of unkindness suddenly appeared, but when they saw his attire clearly, the unkindness on his face disappeared, replaced by surprise and curiosity.

"Haha, isn't this your royal sister?" A loud, deafening voice came from within the clansmen's manor.

The crowd automatically opened up a wide path, and five young men dressed in yellow coiling dragon robes appeared like rainbows.

Each of them possessed at least the shocking cultivation of a peak overlord!

In addition to their noble status, the five of them together had an unstoppable aura.

Su Yu immediately felt a great pressure pressing down on him, forcing him to retreat.

The corners of his mouth revealed a faint smile. It seemed that the few "Imperial Brothers" were not very friendly and were deliberately trying to put him down.

Unfortunately, even if the Emperor personally came, he would not be able to suppress him with his aura, let alone the few of them?

He did not move at all. The yellow robe on his body did not even lift up his sleeves. His entire person was like a divine needle that had been placed in the middle of a tsunami.

A layer of faintly discernible divine power circulated on the surface of his body and easily withstood all the pressure.

“The cultivation of a peak overlord! Hiss, this illegitimate child’s cultivation is truly unfathomable!”

“He is younger than his older brothers, yet his cultivation is able to catch up to them. Looks like the rumors of him training outside all year round are not false.”

The five princes had different expressions. Most of them were expressionless as they stared at their royal sister, turning a blind eye to Su Yu.

Only the fifth prince looked at Su Yu in surprise, and a fierce light flashed in his eyes.

“Greetings, My Royal Brothers.” Princess ru Chen made a bow and said with a smile.

The five princes personally welcomed her and chatted enthusiastically. Their attitude toward this royal sister was quite friendly, and was far from being as vigilant as they were toward their other brothers.

Su Yu watched from the side with a cold gaze and couldn’t help but laugh. The reason why they were friendly towards her was because they felt that princess ru Chen was the least of a threat, right?

Unfortunately, what they didn’t expect was that the seemingly harmless princess ru Chen was actually coveting the throne and secretly setting up a backup plan.

As they chatted, princess ru Chen returned to her silly and muddle-headed appearance, appearing to have no shrewdness at all.

After a long while, one of the princes finally seemed to have seen Su Yu. He looked at Su Yu up and down in surprise. “Eh? Could This be the son of your father that you’ve found?”

The other four princes also looked over. They were led by the prince who spoke faintly.

Su Yu paid attention to this person for a while. He was slightly older and looked to be close to thirty.

His temples were slightly white, and there were strands of white hair mixed in between his hair. He looked like he had never been old before.

However, his eyes were dark green, and when he looked at people, he seemed to be able to see through them both inside and outside.

What surprised Su Yu the most was that his cultivation was shockingly at the Emperor Realm.

It was very easy to guess this person’s identity.

“Yes, eldest brother. He is sixth brother.” Princess ru Chen intimately held Su Yu’s arm again.

He was the famous heaven chosen king of the Great Yu imperial court, Invincible Dongfang!

The first prince smiled at Su Yu to show his friendliness, but he did not say a word.

From his eyes, Su Yu saw a hidden disdain, or rather, he did not completely hide it.

Regardless of identity or cultivation, they were not as good as the first prince. It was normal for him to feel disdain.

The other princes only nodded and did not say a word.

“Since you’re here, Let’s start the test. If it passes, one more person will be added to our royal family,”the first Prince announced expressionlessly.

The representatives of the ten great fiefdoms did not have time to look carefully at Su Yu’s appearance, so they followed the princes and princesses into the mansion.

A few of the royal relatives and eunuchs trusted by the monarch waited in front of a huge vat of gold-plated dragon, which was as tall as two people.

There were complicated carvings on it, and the carvings were intertwined with a lifelike dragon.

“Before I confirm your identity, I’ll call you young master Dongfang for now.”The eunuch appointed by the monarch was exceptionally old. His face was full of wrinkles, and his face was drowsy. He yawned and said this.

Su Yu said, “It should be so.”

The old eunuch looked at the royal relatives and said in a friendly manner, “Uncle Chen, Consort Zhao, Consort Li, if you don’t have anything to ask, I will start the test now?”

The three royal relatives were invited as witnesses.

If there was no need, they would naturally not question Su Yu. If they angered him and he was really a royal relative, wouldn’t they be jealous of them?

“Eunuch Cao, please begin.”

Eunuch Cao smiled as he looked at Su Yu. With a smile, his sleepy eyes seemed to close. “Young Master Dongfang, please enter the Dragon Vat.”

Su Yu glanced at Princess Ru Chen. After getting a nod from her, he jumped in without a change in expression.

Then, eunuch Cao came in front of the dragon vat and pressed his palm on it, he said, “Young Master Dongfang, this dragon VAT is a secret treasure of the dynasty. It is specially made to detect bloodlines. I will now activate this treasure. You will also circulate your divine power to stimulate the circulation of your bloodline.”

“Young Master Dongfang, do you understand? Or do you have any questions to ask me?”

Su Yu had already heard Emperor Wu Hen explain the dragon vat in detail, so he knew what to do. He said, “I’m starting to activate my bloodline.”

As he spoke, he immediately circulated all the divine power in his body and secretly activated a trace of Dongfang royal family's blood essence hidden in his inner mansion.

The blood essence spread along with the divine power to all his limbs and bones, circulating in his meridians.

Whether or not this picture would react was the only proof to determine whether Su Yu's identity was real or fake!

A smile hung on princess ru Chen's lips. She looked relaxed, but in reality, her heart was in her throat.

Although there was no problem in theory, who knew if there would be a sudden change?

Seeing that time had passed, the dragon picture still did not change. Her heart gradually sank.

The surroundings also began to whisper.

"That's not right. If he has the royal bloodline, we should know within ten breaths. Twenty breaths have passed, but there's still no movement!"

"Could he be an imposter?"

"It shouldn't be... he was personally brought back by Princess Ruchen. If he's an imposter, Princess Ruchen would not be able to avoid the terrible punishment of deceiving the Emperor!"

The expressions of the three imperial relatives also became solemn.

Impersonating a prince was a great crime, and they couldn't afford to relax.

The expressions of the princes who were staring intently also became strange.
