Chapter 1881 The White Dragon Met By Chance

The beautiful woman in the green dress was obviously stunned. “What universal chess... You Mean, the Dao artifact left behind by the Dao Master? “But, its existence is only a legend! “The records in the history books have been broken apart along with the fall of the Dao master and completely disappeared from the world.”

The white-haired old man’s gaze followed the direction in which the aura had disappeared, his old face flashed with a look of excitement that could not be erased. “The history books are history books after all. The truth of history will always be in the hands of a few people! “The Sword Alliance master once said that the all life chess piece is still there. It will be buried together with that Dao Master in an unknown place! “By activating the all life chess piece, one can activate that Dao master’s lifetime inheritance.”

Hearing this, the beautiful woman in the green dress had a drastic change in her expression. “That Dao master’s inheritance?”

“That’s right! According to the Sword League Master’s speculation, although that Dao master’s body was dead and his soul was destroyed, there might still be a part of his body left. If we can snatch his remains...”he did not say anything, the beautiful woman in the green dress was already deeply shocked.

What did the corpse of the DAO Master Mean? It meant that his entire body was filled with treasures!

Dao blood, Dao Bones, Dao tendons, and Dao Flesh. All of them were peerless treasures that could be cultivated and refined into magic treasures. They were countless times more precious than any so-called natural treasures.

It must be known that Dao Masters were nurtured by absorbing the natural treasures. How could the so-called natural treasures compare to the value of their bodies?

However, Dao Masters were extremely rare. After they died, their remains would be taken away by the Daoist Huang Hall and rarely left outside.

Only the remains of those rare itinerant cultivators could be left outside.

The DAO Master in front of him was a rare itinerant cultivator, and only his remains could be left.

“But, since the chess of universal life has been obtained by someone, why has no one activated the chess of universal life for so many years?”A deep suspicion appeared in the eyes of the beautiful woman in the green dress.

The white-haired old man said, “That also requires the person who obtained it to be qualified to activate it! In the entire dark star civilization, unless the Sword Alliance master and Dark King personally make a move, no one can activate the chess of universal life. It would be in vain for others to obtain it!”

The beautiful woman in the green dress sucked in a breath of cold air. “Only the four crowns can be opened? No wonder!”

“Let’s not talk about it anymore. We will immediately split into the Alliance headquarters and inform the Sword Alliance Master in person that the DAO Master’s inheritance is no trifling matter.”

In response to this, the beautiful woman in the green dress nodded her head and quickly left with the white-haired old man.

“Master Bao Kun” sent off the moon worship sect master and returned to the dustless pavilion.

The three disciples methodically stabilized the sect and came to report to Master Bao Kun.

“Master, everything has been settled,” said black lotus respectfully. His heart was completely at peace.

After the news of Master Bao Kun’s return was notified to the grand deacons, they were all stabilized.

The Dust Less Moon sect, which was about to fall apart, had finally returned to normal -- if the matter of ceding the land to seek peace had not been announced.

Black Lotus Demon Sovereign rolled her eyes and handed over a jade slip to master Bao Kun.

“Master, this is a piece of information that I accidentally obtained a year ago. Please take a look at it.”

Master Bao Kun scanned it with his soul and immediately found out the information.

It was the information he obtained from torturing Ba Yue.

Master Bao Kun nodded slightly. “Very good! This information is very good. Other than you, who else knows about it?”

The Black Lotus demonic lord was overjoyed. It seemed that master was very concerned about this information.

Of course, Venerable Baokun was concerned because he wanted to seal off the information.

“Only disciples and ten thousand massacres know.” The Black Lotus Demonic Lord had always kept a secret and never mentioned the existence of this important information to outsiders.

Even second senior sister and Lord Wuchen’s eyes were filled with astonishment. What information did third junior brother Give Master?

Lord Bao Kun nodded indifferently. “Mm, this matter is of great importance. I only hope that you and I know about it. Do you understand what I mean?”

A cold glint flashed in his eyes.

Black Lotus Demon sovereign smiled coldly. “Don’t worry, master. I know what to do. I will take a step back first.”

He naturally wanted to exterminate the ten thousand men massacre!

What was the identity of the ten thousand men massacre? Who knew how many moon worship sect disciples had died in his hands. Killing him could be considered revenge for those dead souls.

The split soul in master Bao Kun's body transmitted the message to Su Yu's original body.

When he heard this, he was also quite surprised.

He was surprised that Ba Yue was so stupid!

He actually tried to cooperate with the Dustless Moon sect and get back the white emperor puppet and the White Sun Divine Stone.

Cooperation was based on the premise that both parties had equal status. What was tyrant Moon? The entire White Sun tribe was not even worth mentioning in the eyes of the Dustless Moon sect, let alone her alone?

Without any weight, how was there any difference in cooperating with the Dustless Moon sect?

Did he really think that everyone would be like him, Su Yu, and be willing to cooperate in a fair way?

She had brought this upon herself!

With a sigh, Su Yu used the connection between their souls to convey an order to stabilize the dustless moon sect.

Not long after, Su Yu appeared within the territory of the Moon Worship Sect's leader, the White Dragon mountain range.

After a year, the white dragon mountain range was still filled with traces of destruction from the war. It was a ruined city, a ruined town, and a wandering mortal.

With the help of the Moon worshipers, the various parties began to rebuild.

Su Yu was moved. How much killing and destruction could a person in power create with a single thought?

The weak were like dust and were at the mercy of fate.

All wealth and power were reduced to ashes in the face of absolute force.

With this thought in mind, Su Yu became even more determined in his martial arts. He would never stop moving forward just to control the two forces.

While he was deep in thought, he appeared in the White Dragon Mountain Range, the former White Dragon Branch.

The White Dragon Missionary Elder in charge of this area was commanding the newly formed branch to rebuild the branch.

Su Yu silently descended behind her. She did not notice until she opened her mouth. "How's the situation after the war?"

The white dragon elder's delicate body trembled and she subconsciously shouted, "Who?"

She simply could not believe that someone could appear behind her without being noticed.

Turning her head, she saw a mysterious black-robed person who was covered in black robes. Her face could not be seen clearly, much less her cultivation level.

She did not recognize the person, but she was fortunate enough to sense the aura of the token that the cult master carried with him a few times from afar. Immediately, her face turned aghast and she hurriedly knelt down. "Your subordinate, White Dragon, pays his respects to the cult master!"

Her voice was deliberately loud and clear as it traveled in all directions. When the people nearby heard it, they all knelt down on the spot in shock.

The Moon Worship Cult Master? The cult master of the Moon worship cult who disappeared without a Trace?

He actually personally came to White Dragon City!

Su Yu looked around and slowly raised his hand. "All Rise..."

HMM..

When his gaze swept across the group of moon worship cult disciples, there was a hint of surprise in his eyes.

He calmly retracted his gaze and acted as if nothing had happened.

"Elder White Dragon, have the names of the victims been recorded in the books?" Su Yu asked.

Elder white dragon trembled as he handed over more than a hundred books with densely carved names.

Su Yu flipped through them and could not help but be surprised. He stared at her and said, "You're really thoughtful. In just a short year, you've finished counting."

However, elder white dragon quickly said, "This subordinate does not dare to claim credit. This was personally presided over by the Saintess last year. Under her care, most of the missing and victims list can be found."

Her? Su Yu was slightly surprised and said, "Does the SAINTESS have any other operations?"

"Yes, she ordered this subordinate to open the White Dragon Treasury and try to distribute the resources to the victims and the families of the missing. She did her best." There was a trace of embarrassment on her face. "This subordinate is ashamed. Over the years, I did not manage to accumulate much resources. Instead, I wanted the Saintess to unpack her own purse and use her resources to distribute them."

Hearing this, Su Yu was silent for a moment.

He had underestimated her. He had thought that she was a woman who was passionate about power. He did not expect her to have such a good heart and such an unknown side.

Nodding slightly, Su Yu took out seven or eight storage spaces and threw them all to elder white dragon.

“These are also distributed to the families on the Register.”

Elder White Dragon took them subconsciously and scanned them casually. His expression changed drastically. “Leader, this... This is too much!”

The resources in the eight storage spaces were no less than ten times what the Holy Maiden had given them. It was enough for the families of the victims to enjoy the resources without any worries for the rest of their lives.

If they were to really distribute it, who knew how many moon worship sect disciples would be envious.

“This is what I asked from the Dustless Moon sect. Don’t worry, just give it to them,” Su Yu said. Then, she looked at her with a deeper meaning, “I’ll leave this matter to you. Don’t let me down.”

Elder white dragon’s body trembled. She bowed and said, “I’ll do my best. I promise to complete the mission.”

The meaning of the moon worship sect master was very clear. Don’t be corrupt, or the consequences would be very serious.

The greed that had just emerged in her heart was completely dispelled.

“Do well. You’ll be rewarded if you do well.”

Elder White Dragon was overjoyed. She repeatedly said yes. Usually, she had no right to talk directly with the sect master. Now that the sect master had personally given her a mission, she must complete it successfully and gain the sect master’s Trust.

Perhaps she could also be like Yang Tai and soar to the sky in one step!

“Sect leader, please come to my humble abode and let us welcome you.”

Su Yu said indifferently, “There’s no need for that. I have to deal with the unknown people who sneaked into my sect first.”

His eyes were like lightning as he locked onto the scattered moon worship sect disciples who were rebuilding White Dragon City in the distance.

“Everyone, why are you pretending to be my moon worship sect disciples?” Su Yu tapped his feet and thousands of space blades the size of leaves blew past them like a violent storm, cutting the black robes on their bodies into pieces, one by one, the pagans with abnormally fair skin were revealed.

Elder White Dragon was slightly stunned, and then her expression changed drastically. She shouted in a stern and angry voice, “Men, arrest them all!”

She really wanted to burn all those people to death. It was not good to sneak into the moon worship sect when the sect leader was here, and the sect leader even saw through it.

At this moment, would the sect leader feel that she was very incompetent, letting tens of thousands of pagans sneak into the moon worship sect?

One could imagine the anxiety in her heart.

After the foreign tribes were exposed, their expressions changed drastically, and they fled in all directions.

Su Yu's eyes were calm. He waved his hand again, and the spatial blades that flew out turned into a chain, descending in unison, binding all ten thousand foreign tribes.

No matter how they struggled, very few people were able to break free from the spatial chains.

These were all new insights into the magical uses of spatial laws while they were in seclusion.

With a sweep of her gaze, Su Yu fixed her gaze on one of the plain-looking women. She looked flustered as she stared in horror at the Moon Worship sect leader who was dressed in a black robe.

"You are their leader, right?" What made her even more shocked was that the other party was actually able to determine her identity in an instant.

The reason why she was able to determine her identity was naturally not because Su Yu was a prophet, but because Su Yu knew her.

She was Ba Shui of the White Sun clan. The creatures with abnormally fair skin before her were also soldiers of the White Sun clan.

They disguised themselves as moon worshipers and were active in white dragon city. Su Yu had discovered them at a glance.

Chapter 1882 Both Grace And Power

"You... you..." tyrant water could not suppress the fear in his heart. In this place for a year, he had long heard of the Moon Worship Sect's sect master. He was an extremely powerful expert who controlled hundreds of billions of lives, he was someone who could decide the fate of countless lives with a single thought.

The White Sun clan that she was once proud of was so weak in front of him that it was negligible. They could be destroyed with the snap of a finger.

How could she not be nervous after being discovered by such an important figure?

"What are you planning to do among US moon worship sect disciples?" Su Yu walked over and asked indifferently.

Looking at the White Sun clan members with different expressions, Su Yu already had some guesses in his heart.

It was likely that the White Sun clan had just arrived in the outside world when they suddenly realized that the outside world was much more dangerous than they had imagined. There were powerful forces everywhere that they could not contend with, so they all went into hiding and peacefully earned resources for the clan to use.

Ba Shui was extremely nervous and stammered, unable to speak.

Su Yu said indifferently, "Let this sect do the Soul Search."

He pointed at the center of the other party's brows.

If an ordinary person used a soul secret technique, the soul search would cause permanent damage to the soul and could not be restored.

Ba Shui was extremely terrified. She did not want to become a fool!

At this moment, a soft shout sounded, "Please show mercy, sect leader!"

Following that, an old goateed old man flashed out from the shadows and appeared in front of Su Yu.

He was indeed here.

The leader of the White Sun clan, the goateed old man.

Su Yu retracted his finger and said indifferently, "Oh? Who Are You?"

The goateed old man stared at the black-robed man in front of him without much fear.

If the two white emperor puppets were not given to anyone else, why would the Moon Worship Sect Leader Be Afraid?

"I am the clan leader of the White Sun clan. We snuck into the moon worship sect because we sincerely wanted to join your sect. We have no ill intentions," the old man said.

Su Yu glanced at him indifferently. "And then?"

He was thinking in his heart about how to deal with them.

The Goateed Old Man bowed unwillingly. "There are more than sixty thousand members of our White Sun clan. We are willing to join the Moon Worship sect and serve you from now on."

Hearing the insincerity in his tone, Su Yu's expression was indifferent. "So what if I don't agree? Impersonating a member of the moon worship sect should be punishable by death."

His words were deep and sharp.

The goateed elder said seriously, "I am a double-crowned emperor. As far as I know, the ten guardian elders under the cult master are only at this level, right? If I join, I believe that the cult master will be like a tiger with wings."

He was very confident in his own cultivation.

Su Yu laughed when he heard that, "Like a tiger with wings? You have too much faith in your own strength!"

The goateed old man said proudly, "If you don't believe, the cult master can give it a try face to face."

Su Yu said indifferently, "Alright, make your move. Let Me See What Special Divine Arts Your White Sun clan has."

The Divine Arts of the White Sun clan had only been added once when fighting against the blood clan. With a sweep of a white light, the blood clan could be cleansed without a trace.

However, the power of that divine art was not strong. It was just a perfect counter to the blood clan.

Whether or not there were other divine arts, it was still to be further observed.

The goateed elder took a deep breath. A strong white light surged out from the surface of his body and attacked Su Yu.

Su Yu had his hands behind his back and had no intention of resisting.

When the white light was three feet away from him, a huge spatial blade with a diameter of three feet appeared in front of him. With a casual slash, the white light of the opponent was split into two and brushed past Su Yu's shoulders.

The Goateed Elder was secretly shocked. What a terrifying spatial divine art. As expected of the legendary moon worship sect master, it was unfathomable!

"Be careful, below is our White Sun clan's signature technique!" Seeing the goateed elder take out a flute, he immediately began to play.

Weng Weng Weng Weng --

The sound of insects immediately sounded from all directions, and countless poisonous insects of all sizes hurriedly gathered here.

This scene immediately felt familiar to Su Yu.

When they first arrived at White Sun City, the soldiers of the White Sun clan had controlled the insects to attack Su Yu, right?

Could it be that the White Sun clan was very proficient in controlling insects?

The densely packed insects swarmed over from all directions, making Su Yu's surroundings impenetrable.

Seeing this, the goateed old man's eyes revealed some pride. "Moon worship sect leader, how is it? This old man has the qualifications to become the pillar of the Moon worship sect, right?"

Even if they were of the same level, facing such a dense swarm of insects, it would still take some effort.

If he could control some powerful spiritual insects and control them to destroy the enemy, the power would be much greater.

However, Su Yu said indifferently, "Average."

Following that, a scene that the goateed old man would never forget in his entire life appeared.

Su Yu didn't move at all. He merely snorted lightly and a stream of air swept out from his nostrils to sweep across the surroundings.

All the poisonous bugs that were hit had lost their consciousness. They were controlled by him and flew far away.

In the blink of an eye, the swarm of bugs vanished into thin air.

From the beginning to the end, the moon worship sect master didn't make a move. He didn't even move his feet.

This scene shocked the goateed old man greatly.

Controlling tens of thousands of bugs with a thought, could he be a Master of Soul Secret Arts?

"That's it?" Su Yu said indifferently, "I'm afraid you're not qualified to make me look like a tiger with wings."

The Goateed Old Man's face turned green and red.

The other party's strength was so powerful that it suffocated him. With his insignificant ability, how could he be the other party's help?

The arrogance in his heart was completely extinguished. He lowered his head and bowed deeply, "It was my idea to pretend to be moon worship sect disciples. I beg sect master to let them go. I'm willing to accept the punishment."

Only then did su yu smile calmly. "I will pardon them for their crimes, but I can not spare them from punishment!"

"Sect leader, please speak. We will accept our punishment."

Su Yu thought for a moment and said, "I need you to go to a place on my behalf."

"Please speak."

Su Yu's gaze was far-reaching, he drifted to a distant place. "That place is known as the sea of constellations civilization. I need you to help me investigate a huge meteorite that is under the evil maiden palace. I need you to see if they are still in that civilization. If they are, what are they doing?"

The Vile Maiden Palace was like a sword hanging over Su Yu's heart, ready to strike at any moment.

Back in Emperor Yu's dynasty, he didn't have the ability to deal with them, but now..

Moreover, Huangfu Lieyang and the others had been captured by them and became members of the Vile Maiden Palace. If he had the ability, he should have rescued them.

"The sea of constellations civilization?" The goateed elder had never been further away from them, so he showed a hint of interest.

Su Yu flipped his palm and took out a map of the starry sky. "I don't have any starstones. You can only rely on meteorites to fly slowly. I estimate that it will take at least five years, or at most ten years to make a round trip. be mentally prepared."

The goateed old man pondered for a moment. The mission wasn't difficult. If he could use it to protect his clansmen, what harm was there in agreeing?

Sighing deeply, the goateed old man said, "I only hope that the cult master can treat my clansmen well."

“You have done your best for me. I will naturally take care of your clansmen,” Su Yu said. Then..., after a slight pause, he continued, “Furthermore, a year ago, I saved a foreign race named Ba Yue. He should be of the same race as you. If you help me complete my task, I will arrange for you to meet again.”

Hearing this, the goateed old man and Ba Shui were both shocked.

“Yue'er!”

“Sister!”

The two of them were extremely shocked.

When they had escaped from the White Sea together, Ba Yue had gone missing and no one knew if she was alive or dead.

They had felt guilty for an entire month because of this. They had thought that she had met with misfortune, but it turned out that she had been saved by the Moon Worship Sect's leader!

“Where is she?”

“She is recuperating at the Moon Worship Sect's headquarters,” Su Yu said calmly.

The Goateed Elder's face was filled with excitement, and his eyes were shining with unprecedented brilliance. He knelt down and bowed, “The sect leader will never forget my daughter's great kindness for saving her life. I will not hesitate to go through fire and water for this mission!”

“Don't worry, go ahead. I will do as I say,” Su Yu said.

Only then did the goateed elder leave excitedly, full of motivation.

If Su Yu looked at his back with a profound gaze, detaining his clansmen was a form of coercion, then saving his daughter was a form of kindness.

To use both kindness and coercion was the way to control people.

Following that, Su Yu looked at Ba Shui and casually waved his hand, releasing the spatial chains on their bodies. He said, “Follow me to the main altar.”

Just like that, Su Yu brought the members of the White Sun clan back to the main altar.

This was already three days later.

When they returned to the main altar, the Saintess who was comprehending dao rain suddenly came out of seclusion and waited for Su Yu's return in the Moon Worship Hall.

After Su Yu arrived at the main altar, he ordered protector Bai Li to break them into pieces and assign them to the areas controlled by the moon worship sect to prevent them from gathering together in groups.

Knowing that the Saintess was waiting for him, he immediately went to the Moon Worship Hall to meet her.

“What News did you get?” The Saintess’ expression was extremely strange. There was shock, confusion, and suspicion.

She had clearly witnessed master Bao Kun being killed by that person who had calculated everything and burned into ashes.

But these few days, the spies planted in the dustless moon sect’s territory reported that master Bao Kun had returned. Recently, he had even gathered the upper echelons of the dustless moon sect to discuss the Quintai wine reception.

She had to confirm it again and again before she believed that it was true.

However, master Bao Kun was clearly dead!

The only explanation was that someone was impersonating master Bao Kun!

She suddenly recalled that the mysterious person had once held master Bao Kun’s life tablet and muttered to himself, “What are the chances of him impersonating Master Bao Kun?”?

Could it be that he was impersonating Master Bao Kun?

At the thought of this, the SAINTESS could not help but suck in a breath of cold air. ‘what audacity, what deep disguising skills!’!

‘He actually dared to disguise himself as the leader of the Dustless Moon sect. Does he really want to die?’?

It must be known that once the news was leaked, the other forces would use this name to launch an attack on the dustless moon sect.

At that time, even if he had two white emperor puppets in his hands, he would not be able to withstand the crusade of the entire world!

A strong sense of admiration arose!

She had only felt this kind of admiration towards another person before. He was the second!

Su Yu said helplessly, “We haven’t found anything. The information regarding the dustless moon sect is still very tightly sealed.”

Hearing this, the SAINTESS frowned. Her spies had easily found out about the information, but the moon worship sect leader had personally come and found nothing. What had he gone there for? To go sightseeing?

The tiny bit of good impression that she had managed to change with great difficulty immediately vanished.

With a cold face, she said indifferently, “Then let me tell you. Master Baokun is not dead. She has returned.”

For some reason, she did not expose that person’s disguise.

Eh? Su Yu was repeatedly surprised. The SAINTESS had clearly witnessed Master Baokun’s death. Why was she hiding it now?

This SAINTESS was really strange. It was very different from what he had imagined.

However, it was naturally a good thing for Su Yu that she did not expose it.

Chapter 1883 The Emperor's Scabbard

On the surface, Su Yu obviously had to pretend to be very disappointed, he snorted coldly and said, "As expected, a triple crown prince won't die so easily. Fortunately, I didn't go too deep into the dustless moon sect's territory. Otherwise, I would be in danger! "That master Bao Kun's strength is much stronger than mine. If he were to discover me, I wouldn't be able to escape even if I wanted to."

The contempt in the Saintess' eyes flashed!

As timid as a mouse!

The Moon worship sect leader didn't even have this bit of courage!

Compared to that mysterious person who disguised as master Bao Kun, it was like Heaven and earth!

The other party only had the strength of a peak overlord, yet he dared to pretend to be Master Bao Kun and rule the huge dustless moon sect!

The SAINTESS was extremely disappointed with the moon worship sect leader.

"So, you didn't do anything when you went to the Dustless Moon sect?"The SAINTESS asked slowly.

Su Yu said proudly, "You can't say that. When I came back and passed by White Dragon City, I met a group of unknown people who sneaked into our moon worship sect. They called themselves the White Sun clan."

The Saintess' eyes suddenly fluctuated. "And then?"

"Yes!"Su Yu said proudly, "Under my inspiration, they voluntarily joined the Moon Worship sect and became a member of our moon worship sect."

"What do you plan to do with them?"The saintess had personally experienced the selfishness and ruthlessness of the White Sun clan. If the leader of the Moon worship sect did not take precautions, there was a high possibility that they would rebel in the future.

"Of course, we'll scatter them and scatter them everywhere."

Hearing this, the SAINTESS heaved a sigh of relief. Fortunately, she was not too stupid!

"If there's nothing else, I'll go into seclusion."The saintess felt that she did not have much to say to this leader since they did not get along well.

Little did she know that this was Su Yu's intention.

Only by showing weakness to others could the Saintess let down her guard against him.

After sending the saintess away, Su Yu himself prepared to go into seclusion.

Other than continuing to comprehend the magical effects of a few laws, he also had to digest this rootless purple emperor wood and raise his cultivation to the half-step emperor realm.

In the blink of an eye, half a year had passed.

The Dark Star Civilization's southern region was in turmoil, and news of the five major factions about to meet spread like wildfire.

As the number one force in the southern part of the civilization, the Wind Cloud Villa had initiated this meeting to discuss the emperor's killing sword.

In such a prosperous era, apart from the once-in-ten-thousand-years sword seminar on the Sacred Mountain, no other event could compare to it.

In a bustling human world, Zhan Wushuang and Hanxuan came out from the intelligence gathering.

"Senior brother, the dark star civilization places great importance on the emperor's killing sword. They have gone from fighting each other to forming an alliance, and the situation has changed drastically. It's much more difficult for senior brother to obtain the emperor's killing sword."

Zhan Wushuang did not think much of it and said, "The emperor's killing sword has its own spirituality. It will choose its own master, and I will be its future Master!"

That incomparable confidence came from his bone marrow. He was born with it.

It was just like how one was born with the mandate of the emperor.

"Hehe, that's true. Then, does senior brother have a plan?" Hanxuan asked.

Zhan wushuang nodded slightly and looked around. "The emperor's killing sword has been found by the major forces. It has already hidden itself in a place that no one can imagine."

"Where?"

"Wind Cloud Villa!"

Hanxuan's eyes turned serious. "It can't be? That's the place where the five major forces will meet. Is there really no problem for it to hide there?"

Zhan wushuang chuckled, "This is where the emperor's killing sword is smart. The most dangerous place is the safest place! No one could have imagined that the emperor's killing sword that the five great forces are looking for is actually hidden in the place where they will meet."

After listening to the analysis, Hanxuan clicked her tongue, "That's true! Isn't the emperor's killing sword's spirituality too strong?"

She had never heard of any divine weapon with such a crafty spirit.

"The emperor's four-piece set. Each of them has an extraordinary origin. It's normal for them to have a high spirit." Zhan wushuang felt that it was only natural.

Hanxuan then thought, “Then, senior brother plans to sneak into the wind and Cloud Villa? It’s not that difficult!”

“Of course not!” Zhan wushuang narrowed his eyes and said, “The master of the wind and cloud villa is already at the late stage of the Three Crowns Emperor realm. His strength is extraordinary. It’s no different from thinking about it!”

“Then what does senior brother Mean?” Hanxuan asked curiously.

Zhan wushuang looked around, he said indifferently, “This place is one of the five major forces of the south, the green underworld mansion. With my strength, I should be able to quickly gain the trust of the Master of the green underworld mansion by joining the green underworld mansion. If I have the chance, I will join him and join the wind and Cloud Alliance not long later.”

Hanxuan did not dare to agree. “If you were Su Yu, I would still believe you. However, you don’t have his calculative ability, so it’s better for you not to take any risks. The Master of the Green Underworld Mansion is also an existence at the three crowns. He is an old monster who has lived for countless years. It’s as difficult as ascending to the heavens to lie to him.”

It was Su Yu again!

The one she could not forget was always Su Yu!

Zhan Wushuang was filled with battle intent. He laughed and said, “Senior brother, although I’m not as good at scheming as Su Yu, I’m not weak at scheming!”

“If I sell a piece of information to the Master of the Azure Underworld Mansion, I’m not afraid that he won’t bring me to the meeting venue.” Zhan wushuang was full of confidence.

Hanxuan covered her mouth and laughed lightly. “What News?”

“That is, I know the whereabouts of the scabbard!” Zhan wushuang chuckled. “The world only knows about the emperor’s killing sword, but they don’t know that the emperor’s killing sword actually has a scabbard in the world. Only by grasping the scabbard can you grasp the emperor’s killing sword. Otherwise, no matter how strong your cultivation is, you won’t be able to subdue the emperor’s killing sword.”

Scabbard? Hanxuan’s eyes were filled with astonishment. This was the first time she had heard Zhan wushuang mention something like a scabbard.

As he spoke, Zhan wushuang pointed his finger between Hanxuan’s brows, and an unfamiliar memory entered her soul.

Hanxuan said in astonishment, “This is the location of the scabbard, why is it...”

Zhan wushuang pretended to be silent. “Shh!”

Hanxuan understood and immediately shut her mouth. “Senior brother, why did you tell me the address?”

Zhan wushuang said, “Naturally, I have a bargaining chip! I’m a humble person, so I don’t have the qualifications to make a deal with the massive azure underworld. Therefore, I will erase the memory of the specific location of the scabbard, and I will also erase the memory of you.”

“Then won’t you forget me?” Hanxuan asked in surprise.

Zhan wushuang shook his head. “That’s not it. The peerless battle art that I cultivate has a magical effect. It will repair the body regularly, including the missing memories. As long as there is an opportunity, it will be completely restored.”

He patted Hanxuan’s shoulder. “So, from now on, we have to separate. Your task is to hide. At the right moment, tell me the memory of the location of the scabbard. The memories that I have erased will be immediately restored.”

Hearing this, Hanxuan understood her senior brother’s plan.

“Alright!” She immediately agreed.

Not long after, the two of them separated. Zhan wushuang walked towards the location of the Master of the Azure Underworld Palace, while Hanxuan followed far behind, looking for him at the right moment.

At this moment, Su Yu was in the final stage of his cultivation.

A weak prehistoric power flashed across Su Yu’s body before disappearing without a trace.

A palm-sized door appeared above his head.

This was the emperor’s gate.

When one wanted to break through to the emperor realm, this door would expand endlessly and turn into a giant door that spanned across the sky. At that time, a half-step emperor would only need to think of a way to blast it open and all sorts of primal energy would descend from the stone door, it would surge into a half-step emperor’s body and help him transform his body and inner mansion.

This would allow him to unleash the ability to directly use the law chains!

Now that Su Yu was able to attempt to break through to the emperor’s door, this impulse was extremely strong.

However, Su Yu forcefully endured it. At the very least, he had to comprehend all of the laws in his body and try again. Otherwise, he would leave behind regrets in the future.

After successfully condensing the emperor’s door, the current Su Yu was already a half-step emperor.

He could release a weak emperor’s power with a single move.

However, even if it was weak, it allowed Su Yu’s power to double compared to the past.

Other than that, Su Yu had comprehended many more uses of the various laws that he had already comprehended. This was especially so for the Dao of the soul, which allowed him to comprehend even more uses.

Suddenly, Su Yu's heart moved. He took out the bronze plate and probed it with his soul. He realized that there were no more obstacles and his entire body was sucked into it.

Entering the Great Void Mystic Palace again, the oil lamp on Su Yu's chest flew out by itself and emitted a weak light.

Su Yu was familiar with the way and immediately went to look for something that contained the thick primordial qi.

After working for half a year, he finally managed to let the oil lamp emit an abnormally bright nine-colored light once again.

Those lights projected a scene of prosperity again. Countless powerhouses walked in the bustling palace and there were even a few Dao Masters' auras that were filled.

This time, unlike the previous time where the illusion was immediately destroyed, the illusion was much closer, and a total of eight dao masters could be clearly seen.

They sat cross-legged in the main hall, communicating in the language of the tomes of Arcane.

Su Yu could understand all of those languages, and he listened attentively.

He discovered that what they were communicating with were all extremely mysterious things, and they seemed to understand but not understand. When he first heard them, Su Yu felt as if he had a sudden enlightenment. The confusion he had in the past on cultivation vanished into thin air, and was replaced by a deep understanding.

As he listened on, he felt that his soul had been sublimated. He almost wanted to leave his body and enter that illusion.

Buzz --

The light of the oil lamp burned out and the illusion shattered. It turned into countless light spots and fused into Su Yu's soul.

His soul once again underwent a strange change. Not only did his understanding of his soul become deeper and faster, but he also faintly felt like he had transcended the laws.

Looking inside, Su Yu was surprised to find that there was a faint golden light spot in his soul divine crystal. It seemed very special.

"What is that? Why didn't it appear last time?" Su Yu was shocked.

Right at this moment, the great void sect master's voice sounded, "It's a soul dao fragment."

Su Yu was shocked. He appeared again! The great void Celestial Master who could see through Su Yu's thoughts!

"What is a soul dao fragment?" Su Yu asked in his heart.

"Find the answer yourself." The great void Celestial Master said plainly.

After that, Su Yu was teleported out of the bronze plate and returned to his original spot.

Su Yu was speechless, "Is it difficult to answer? Stingy!"

“The so-called answer is the understanding of the predecessors. It is an outsider’s item after all. It is far less profound than your own understanding.”The Great Void Celestial Master’s voice continued.

“However, there is something on you that I can help you open.”

Chapter 1884

Before Su Yu could react, a chessboard with ten layers of seals flew out from Su Yu’s nine Jade Spiritual Pearl and landed in front of Su Yu.

Boom --

A huge tsunami that seemed to engulf the heaven and earth surged out from the bronze plate.

It was a soul power that was a thousand times or ten thousand times stronger than Su Yu’s.

In front of such a soul, his soul was so insignificant that it was negligible.

Su Yu’s entire body immediately stiffened, and traces of cold sweat appeared all over his body.

What kind of expert possessed such unimaginable power?

Even Yun Yazhi was inferior to that soul, right?

For the first time in his life, Su Yu discovered a soul expert that was above Yun Yazhi.

The boundless soul surged into the chessboard and immediately, the isolation formation could clearly see the chess pieces flashing with a fiery red light.

“The chessboard has been opened, I was just about to...”the powerful soul receded like a tide and the great void sect master’s voice became ethereal before disappearing.

Su Yu tried to enter the bronze board again but was blocked outside.

It seemed that he still needed to further comprehend the Dao of the soul before he could enter the board again.

At this moment, Su Yu looked at the chessboard curiously.

This was something found in master Bao Kun’s Treasure Vault. It was tightly wrapped with ten layers of seals.

Now that the great void Celestial Master had specially opened it, could it really be something extraordinary?

As he pondered, Su Yu’s heart moved. He summoned another white emperor puppet that he carried with him.

“Blast it open,”Su Yu said.

The white emperor puppet nodded, raised its fist, and threw a punch.

With the level of his three crowns emperor puppet, it wouldn’t be so easy to shake the three crowns emperor level restriction.

After an entire day, only one-tenth of the first layer of restriction had been blasted open.

It would take at least three months to completely blast it open!

“Take it back to the space and continue blasting. Call me when it’s about to open,” Su Yu said.

The white emperor puppet nodded. It grabbed the chessboard and returned, continuously attacking the restrictions.

After calculating with his fingers, Su Yu realized that he had cultivated for nearly eight months.

In another month, the Alliance of the Five Great Powers of the South would be formed.

The journey would take about a month. There was no time to waste.

However, before he came out of seclusion, Su Yu took out a piece of wood. It was the leftover wood from the rootless purple emperor wood.

With a thought, he appeared in the nine Jade Spirit Pearl and inserted the piece of broken wood into the supreme breathing soil.

The rootless purple emperor wood could only survive if it was watered by the laws of the three crowns. He did not know if this supreme breathing soil could be planted.

Then, with a thought, Su Yu came to the front of the thatched cottage.

He saw another huge cocoon standing next to the Thatched Cottage.

“It’s going to evolve again?” Su Yu was surprised. No wonder he had not heard Xiao Die’s clamor for some time. It turned out that it was going to evolve again!

It must be because of the great Yu emperor dynasty’s “Ruins of the Great Yu” that she ate to her heart’s content, right?

Especially when Xiao Die said that she ate a few extremely powerful ancient fierce souls.

It was precisely because of this that she had enough energy to evolve again.

Now, it was the fourth evolution, right?

What would it become the next time it came out?

As he was thinking, Su Yu glanced at the little qilin and found that it was also showing signs of awakening.

Unlike in the past, the Little Qilin’s body was currently spitting out empty vortexes. Anything that came close to it would immediately be swallowed by the vortexes.

Su Yu’s eyelids twitched. “What’s going on?”

With his senses, those vortexes were extremely dangerous. If he wasn’t careful, he might be sucked into them.

“Could this be the inheritance of the Qilin Emperor?” Su Yu was secretly surprised.

However, from the looks of it, the little kirin shouldn't be too far away from awakening.

Smiling, Su Yu's soul returned to his body.

Suddenly, the space of a Buddha pearl on his wrist trembled, emitting a sound that had been silent for a long time.

Su Yu was slightly startled. "Little Ice and Fire? It Can't be?"

Back then in the forgotten divine territory, he discovered the ice and Fire God's eye left behind by the ice and Fire Emperor. That pair of eyes automatically gave birth to intelligence, becoming a little fatty who controlled two types of absolute power, ice and fire.

Later on, he brought the death soul worm and entered the Buddha Bead's space to enter seclusion. He had remained silent ever since.

Now that there was a sudden movement, it really surprised Su Yu.

He immediately opened the space and let out Little Ice and fire.

In the end, what entered his eyes was a handsome young man of seventeen or eighteen years old. His entire body carried traces of evil.

If not for the blue and red eyes that were still there, he almost would not have been able to recognize that the evil young man in front of him was little ice and fire.

However, when Su Yu took a closer look, he frowned, "You are not Little Ice Fire... You Are... The Death Soul Worm?"

On the surface, it was little ice fire, but its soul was the soul of the death soul worm!

Little Ice Fire did not have a soul to begin with. It was just born with spirituality. Its body was like an empty shell. Whoever's soul entered it would be able to suppress Little Ice Fire's spirituality and dominate the body.

"Hehehe, who are you? Su Yu, that little human ant?" The youth glanced at Su Yu and sneered.

Su Yu was surprised. He gave a faint smile. "Little Ant? Hehe, you really look down on me."

The youth that was the death soul worm smiled contemptuously. "It really is you! So many years have passed, but you're still alive. It can be considered a miracle."

The dangers of the ancient divine realm were clear to those who had been here before.

Su Yu sized him up. Perhaps it was because he had fused with little ice and fire, his cultivation had surpassed that of the sovereign of Heaven and earth, becoming a double-crowned sovereign.

It was no wonder he was so fearless.

In the Nine Dragon Valley Divine Realm, when all the sovereigns of Heaven and earth had been destroyed, he, the double-crowned sovereign, could indeed stand proudly in the world.

Unfortunately, this was not the nine Dragons Valley's divine realm, and he was not the former Su Yu.

"I think you should first thank me for saving you," Su Yu said indifferently.

A fierce look appeared on the death soul worm's face. "Humph! Who do you think you are to deserve my thanks? If I was not subdued by the six paths demon god, would I need an ant like you to save me?"

Then, he waved his hand. "Forget it. You wouldn't understand even if I told someone at your level. You probably don't even know what a double-crowned king means."

He looked around curiously. Just now, he realized that there was an aura in the atmosphere that was not found in the ancient God realm!

"Where in the God realm is this? Could it be some ruins? Why is there such a strong aura?" Su Yu crossed his arms in front of his chest and calmly nodded. "Ruins? HMM, if you think it is, then it is."

The death soul worm stared at him coldly. "You speak to me like that? Aren't you afraid of Death? For an existence like me, crushing you actually only requires a thought."

"However, seeing that you are still useful, I forgive your disrespect. Speak, where is the six paths demon god? Bring me to him. After I kill him and take revenge, perhaps when my mood is better, I will casually guide you in your cultivation. With my realm, even a few words will be enough for you to enjoy for life."

Su Yu found it funny and could not help but say, "So you are so powerful!"

The death soul worm smiled evilly, "Much more powerful than you think. Anyway, at your level, you will never understand."

"Alright, tell me quickly. where is the six paths demon god? He dared to seal me in the past. Today, I want him to know what it feels like to regret it!" The Death Soul Worm's face was filled with rage and his mind was filled with revenge.

Su Yu smiled indifferently. "There's no need for revenge. The six paths demon God has long been dead."

Hearing this, the death soul worm frowned. "Dead? That's really letting him off easy. Otherwise, I'll make him suffer so much that he wishes he was dead!"

One could imagine that he must have suffered a lot when he was captured by the six paths demon God back then. That was why he had such great resentment.

After pondering for a long while, it said, "Alright, so be it. Bring me out for a walk. Let's see what the current situation in the ancient divine realm is like."

With its hands behind its back, the death soul worm shattered the stone door and swaggered out.

Looking outside, the death soul worm could not help but be surprised. "What is this place? So Strange? What ruins would have such a complete palace and so many strange creatures?"

The death soul worm was full of surprise. "I really didn't expect that our ancient god realm would have such a mysterious ruins."

He walked around curiously and asked without turning his head, "Tell me, how is the situation in the ancient god region? Among the four Royal Sacred Gates, who is the most powerful now? Is it still the heaven-defying empire?"

Su Yu followed behind and nodded with a chuckle. "Yes, the heaven-defying empire has already destroyed the witch clan of the Full Moon sect and defeated all the other royal sacred gates consecutively, unifying the world."

The death soul worm chuckled. "Let me say, the full moon sect and the four Royal Sacred Gates are also trash. Even the heaven-defying empire can't deal with them! They even allowed them to unify the world."

His eyes were filled with disdain, as if he had forgotten that he was once sealed by the six paths demon God at the God realm.

"Hehe, heaven-defying Gu Yun is really too powerful. He is the strongest expert in the ancient god realm. The other Royal Sacred Gates and the full moon sect can only submit." Su Yu chuckled.

The Death Soul Worm's face was full of disdain. "The number one expert of the ancient god realm? Have you asked me? In My Eyes, defiant Gu Yun is just an ant. I can crush him with a finger!"

As he spoke, the death soul worm even released the pressure of a double-crowned emperor.

Su Yu's entire body trembled when he was enveloped.

The death soul worm's nostrils were facing the sky. "Can you feel it? This is the aura of a double-crowned emperor. Yes, it's one-thousandth of my aura. Otherwise, if it were to leak out, this ruin would collapse."

"You're amazing! You're Too Amazing!" Su Yu said admiringly.

The dead soul worm smiled proudly, "Of course! Why Don't you take a look at my current status! Let's go, bring me to meet heaven defying Gu Yun. I guarantee that he will immediately kneel at my feet."

Su Yu hurriedly said, "Alright, this way please."

Bringing him, Jiang Yu came to the moon worship hall.

The disciples and elders walking in the distance all had ecstatic expressions on their faces.

"Quick, inform the Guardian elders that the cult master has come out of seclusion and is heading to the Moon Worship Hall."

Su Yu's seclusion this time was continuous. He did not come out for eight whole months, which made the Guardian elders and the missionary elders worried.

When they saw the cult master coming out of seclusion, they were all happy and informed each other.

The death soul worm put his hands behind his back and looked at the Moon Worship Hall. He frowned, "What grade does this heaven-defying Gu Yun have? A Black Moon, what is this thing?"

He glanced at the cult master's throne at the top and sneered, "However, this throne is not ordinary!"

With a swoosh, the death soul worm sat on the throne and crossed his arms behind his head. He leaned back comfortably and said with his eyes closed, "Su Yu, since we have known each other for a while, I will give you a good fortune today!"

"Oh? What good fortune?" Su Yu asked.

The death soul worm said casually, "Do you want to replace the position of heaven-defying Gu Yun and take over the world?"

While he said that, he was looking at Su Yu's expression proudly.

Chapter 1886 Nurturing The Soul Worm

Su Yu stared at the death soul worm deeply, he smiled indifferently. "When the moon worship sect is using people, we can use a double-crowned emperor. Of course, if he doesn't want to be used by US, in order to prevent him from being used by the enemy, we can only send him on his way to prevent future trouble."

Protector Bai Li Sighed. "Leader is kind, but this person is unruly and doesn't seem to be someone who will submit to others..."

"Who said that? I'm Willing!" The Death Soul Worm rushed forward and bowed to Su Yu.

No matter what his past identity was or his cultivation, he was an existence that controlled his life and death at this moment.

After so many years, the death soul worm had long learned to be flexible. Otherwise, he wouldn't have lived to this day.

"Your subordinate greets cult master. Cult Master's Fortune is as great as the heavens and his divine might is unrivalled. He has unified the world. From now on, your subordinate will follow your lead and go through fire and water for cult master. I will do my best to die..." the flattery was like a torrential river, it came naturally.

Protector Bai Li and the other six protectors became solemn at the same time.

They had miscalculated. Although his strength was not that great, his ability to curry favor was obviously a few levels higher than them.

Su Yu laughed. "It's not too late to say nice things. You just joined our cult. In order to show your loyalty, you need to make some sacrifices."

The death soul worm gritted its teeth as if it knew what Su Yu was planning. "Sect leader, please speak."

Su Yu hooked his dirty hand, and a part of the soul inside the death soul worm's body was cut out of its control and flew towards Su Yu.

The death soul worm turned pale with fright. What kind of heaven-defying divine art was this? It could cut off a part of the soul without hurting others with a hook of its finger?

It seemed like a simple divine art, but in fact, it was extremely profound in the attainment of the soul.

Protector Bai Li and the others also sucked in a breath of cold air when they saw it. Splitting the souls of others with a snap of his fingers, this... What kind of terrifying accomplishment was this?

The cult master became more and more unfathomable, making people feel as if they were in an abyss.

With the soul of the death soul worm wrapped around his fingertip, Su Yu said indifferently, "From now on, your life and death are in my control. As long as I crush this piece of soul, your original soul will also collapse because of it, and your soul will scatter. Do you understand?"

The dead soul worm recovered from his shock and kowtowed, "I understand."

He had seen Su Yu's power, and the last trace of luck in his heart was completely extinguished.

To be able to control six double-crowned emperors, he was indeed not an ordinary person.

He was afraid that Su Yu would not be too bad after he broke through to the double-crowned emperor realm.

Thinking of this, the dead soul worm had the urge to vomit blood.

He thought that he had obtained a great fortune and woke up valiantly, ready to wipe out the mountains and rivers and shake the world. However, he met a monster like Su Yu as soon as he came out and pressed him to the ground.

Was there anything more depressing than this?

"Alright, Protector Xiaofeng, return his bug shadow." Su Yu said indifferently, slightly surprised in his heart.

That bug shadow, if he remembered correctly, should be a soul devouring bug, right?

It was rumored that the death soul bug was an extremely powerful spirit bug. Back then, a death soul bug that failed to transcend the Tribulation Overlord level contained a tremendous amount of power. Now that it was a living death soul bug, he didn't know how powerful it would be if he nurtured it.

Unfortunately, apart from cutting the other party's soul, he also took the opportunity to search the other party's soul memories.

Unfortunately, he discovered that the death soul bug originally had the inherited memories, so in theory, it could grow on its own.

However, it seemed that it had been sealed in the cage of Taotie for too long, causing its memories to become chaotic and losing the use of its inheritance.

"If only someone knew how to breed insects." Su Yu thought to himself and suddenly thought of someone.

He casually waved his hand, and spatial barriers appeared around his body, enveloping him within.

No matter how close the seven twin crowns were, they couldn't see through the spatial barrier.

The pupils of Protector Bai Li and the others contracted as they casually cast a powerful spatial barrier. This should be because they had grasped an extremely exquisite spatial law.

The Death Soul Worm's heart was beating wildly. Just this move alone showed how extraordinary Su Yu was, and he did not dare to have any thoughts of resisting.

Within the barrier, Su Yu's left hand was covered in a hazy jade-green light, and his right hand was a chain that Ba Yue had grasped before, binding the captives. There was Ba Yue's aura remaining on it.

He pressed his palms together and slowly pulled them apart.

With his palm as the center, his soul, bones, meridians, flesh, and skin slowly appeared.

Finally, a beautiful woman with flawless white jade all over her body appeared before his eyes.

Ba Yue opened his eyes in a daze, and the pain before his death was still lingering between his brows.

However, what entered his eyes was not the face that he would never forget, but a black-robed man, a mysterious black-robed man.

"You're Awake?" The black-robed man said indifferently, his voice hoarse.

Ba Yue subconsciously wanted to escape, but his four limbs were suddenly bound by a spatial chain, and he could not move.

"Who are you?" Ba Yue asked. He suddenly felt a chill on his body, and only then did he realize that he was not wearing anything. He was embarrassed and afraid.

Su Yu said indifferently, "I'm the one who saved you. Otherwise, you should be buried in the ground and decomposed into a pile of bones."

The terrifying memory that made her soul tremble quickly rushed to her heart.

Yes, she should die -- if no one saved her.

After understanding this, the spatial shackles on her body were removed. She crossed her arms in front of her chest and squatted down. She looked up at Su Yu and asked, "Why did you save me?"

"Do you know how to raise insects?" Su Yu asked.

The members of the White Sun clan seemed to know how to control spiritual insects. He had seen it twice.

And controlling spiritual insects was usually thought to nurture spiritual insects.

Ba Yue nodded. "A little."

"Have you heard of the Death Soul Insects?"

“Of course I’ve heard of them. They are the highest level of the upper third-rate insect clan.”

She really knew!

“Do you know how to nurture such insects?”

“No!” Ba Yue said very honestly, “The upper third-rate bug clan all have their own unique memory inheritance. They can evolve on their own and don’t need to be nurtured by outsiders. If you have to rely on external forces to nurture them, it will only be a thankless task.”

Su Yu frowned slightly, “In that case, saving you won’t be of any use.”

Ba Yue’s heart tightened, and she hurriedly said, “However, if I’m nurturing a low-level death soul bug, I’m still confident that I can achieve the same effect as the inherited memory.”

“What level is considered beginner-level?” Su Yu asked.

She did not dare to hide anything. “As long as you haven’t broken through to the DAO Master level, you’ll be considered a beginner-level death soul worm. After breaking through, you’ll be considered a mature body.”

Su Yu’s expression did not change, but she sucked in a breath of cold air in her heart.

A mature-body death soul worm was actually at the DAO Master level!

This was too unbelievable!

However, if one thought about it carefully, to be able to view Dao Master Xuan Ming as his mortal enemy, it could also be said that the death soul worm itself had the same level of strength.

In that case, did he really pick up a treasure?

“Why are you asking about the death soul worm? As far as I know, the death soul worm has been extinct for countless hundreds of millions of years.” Ba Yue looked at Su Yu carefully.

Su Yu suppressed the surprise in her heart and said indifferently, “You don’t need to ask about this.”

He hooked his finger and took a part of her soul, keeping it in his hand. “I saved your life. From now on, you are my person. I can give you life, but I can also give you death. Do you understand?”

Ba Yue trembled. After being tortured by the massacre of thousands of people, she had developed a fear of the world outside of the secret realm.

At this moment, she did not dare to come into contact with anyone else in the outside world.

If there was a strong person that she could rely on, she would feel safe instead.

“Please rest assured, I will completely follow your arrangements. As long as you don’t hurt me anymore, I will do anything.” Her hands that were crossed in front of her chest loosened, revealing two pieces of soul-stirring snow-white.

Su Yu did not even take a look and said indifferently, “Your mission is to nurture the elementary death soul worm! In addition, you can call me moon worship sect master.”

After saying that, Su Yu waved his hand and a layer of hazy light enveloped his body, turning into a loose robe that covered his graceful body.

At the same time, the spatial barrier spread out.

“She is my subordinate, Ba Yue. From today onwards, the death soul worm will completely obey her orders. If there is even the slightest bit of insubordination, I will kill it immediately!” When dealing with the death soul worm, this kind of fierce and cruel spirit worm, there could not be any leniency or relaxation.

Back then, when the death soul worm had just been born, it even wanted to eat him.

If he was not obedient, he had to kill it to prevent it from becoming a disaster.

Everyone was at a loss when they heard this. Why did another unfamiliar subordinate appear? And he even directly controlled the death soul worm?

Ba Yue stared at the death soul worm in surprise, his face full of disbelief and joy.

In the “Nine-word true insect repellent scripture” passed down by their ancestors, the long extinct death soul worm was actually still alive in the human world!

The true scripture indeed recorded the method to cultivate the death soul insects, and the rest of the clan was not interested in it. Even her father had never delved into it, and she was the only one who studied many methods to cultivate the extinct spirit insects based on her hobby.

The death soul insect was one of them.

If she could cultivate the death soul insect into a mature body... just thinking about it filled her with pride and a sense of accomplishment.

Moreover, she had no home to go back to, so it was most suitable for her to stay here and nurture the death soul worm.

“Yes, Moon Worship Sect Master,” Ba Yue said respectfully. At this moment, she still did not understand the meaning of the words moon worship sect master, just like the death soul worm when it had just woken up.

After settling everything, Su Yu opened the belief spirit pool again.

After finishing the educational affairs, she held the invitation letter in her hand and prepared to set off for the wind and Cloud Villa.

Just as he walked down the main altar, he realized that he had to pass through the road to leave the moon worship sect. A graceful woman stood with her hands behind her back. Her snow-white dress fluttered gently in the wind.

Beside her was an elegant white crane with a pair of steel-like wings. It was obvious that it was a bird that was extremely good at flying.

“What a drag! If we were any later, we wouldn’t be able to make it.”The woman in White was naturally the SAINTESS. She jumped onto the bird and immediately soared into the air.

Su Yu was stunned. Could it be that she was going as well?

It made sense. Her interest in the emperor’s killing sword was no less than Su Yu’s.

“Alright, let’s go.”Su Yu also jumped onto the flying beast.

Unexpectedly, the SAINTESS frowned. “Don’t you have an Earth Dragon Beast? And to be honest, I don’t like to get too close to you either!”

Towards the moon worship sect master, the Saintess looked down on him ten thousand times.

There was only unspeakable disgust when she was with him.

After saying that, with a thought, the flying beast rushed out of the clouds.

Su Yu stopped in his tracks. He was really not giving her face!

In fact, he was giving the saintess face by being willing to ride on the Flying Beast. No matter how fast the Flying Beast was, was it as powerful as his advanced Taiji Yin-yang Wings?

“Hehe, then let’s see who gets there first?”Su Yu smiled lightly and left a patch of yin-yang Qi on the spot. His original body had already disappeared without a trace.

Chapter 1887 Alliance Of The Five Sects

Half a month later.

In the sky above the main city of the wind and cloud villa, a black-robed man appeared after a huge disturbance of yin and yang energy.

“Looks like I’m the first one.”Looking at the main city that was not too lively, Su Yu smiled indifferently.

At this moment, the SAINTESS should be like the other forces, slowly rushing about on the way.

Of course, Su Yu would not be idle if he came first.

With a thought, he went to the local Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce’s intelligence office.

“Buy information related to the emperor’s killing sword.”Su Yu went straight to the point and said to the shopkeeper who sent the customer away.

The shopkeeper looked at Su Yu and was not surprised at all. He said, “Recently, people have been asking about the emperor’s killing sword. The relevant information must have already spread. You can get it with some effort. Why Waste Money?”

Su Yu said lightly, “That’s because I want to buy information that has not yet been circulated in the market. Besides, money is not a problem.”

The shopkeeper’s eyes flashed slightly. He stared at Su Yu for a while and nodded slightly. “Okay, please follow me to the Inner Hall.”

Sitting down in the inner hall, the shopkeeper stretched out three fingers. "Our information is divided into..."

"Top Secret, private and ordinary," Su Yu answered for him. Then, he threw a money bag on the table and said, "I want top secret."

He had already understood the information level of the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce in White Dragon City, so he was familiar with it.

The shopkeeper was stunned. He put down his finger resentfully and said with an embarrassed smile, "So you are a regular customer of our Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce. However, I think the information about the emperor's killing sword is not cheap. Even ordinary information is valuable. If it's top secret..."

Glancing at the one hundred high-grade divine stones in his pocket, the shopkeeper shut his mouth obediently.

"Alright, it seems that senior is determined to obtain top-secret information, so I won't hide it anymore," the shopkeeper said, lowering his voice, he said, "I'll give you a piece of private information first. In addition to the emperor's killing sword, there is actually an emperor's scabbard that is specially used to seal the emperor's killing sword."

Su Yu raised his eyebrows. He had been thinking about how to subdue the emperor's killing sword. The reason he came to the wind and cloud villa and attended the zither reception was to hear the opinions of the other factions.

He had never thought that he would hear such a shocking inside story like the emperor's scabbard before he had even started.

"Then what about the top-secret information?" Su Yu asked.

The shopkeeper said, "The top-secret information is that the person who knows about the existence of this item has already been accepted as a disciple of the master of the Azure Underworld Prefecture. He goes by his own name and will personally attend this zither stage wine reception."

Su Yu remembered that the Azure Underworld Prefecture was one of the five major factions in the southern region. In terms of overall strength, it was even stronger than the dustless moon sect.

The Master of the Azure Nether World Palace's strength had reached the middle stage of the three crowns. He was extremely powerful.

Su Yu's gaze was deep, as if he could see through the fog in front of him and see through the bits and pieces of information.

The so-called top secret information was ultimately leaked by someone else.

If he was the Master of the Azure Nether World Palace, he would rather erase the memory of that disciple than let him leak the information about the scabbard.

Now that the information had leaked out, the higher-ups knew about it.

As the Master of the Azure Underworld Mansion, his control over the situation shouldn't be so low. There must be something hidden.

After thinking for a long time, Su Yu's attention was locked onto that disciple who called himself "Gu Xing".

What kind of existence was the master of the Azure Underworld Mansion? Ordinary people couldn't even see him. How did the Master of the Azure underworld mansion receive Gu Xing and take him in as a disciple?

It was likely that there was an exchange of benefits that no one knew about.

The most likely exchange of benefits was the information regarding the sword scabbard!

If he was Gu Xing, he would never have completely exposed the information regarding the sword scabbard before he obtained what he wanted. In fact, he would have even erased the relevant memories. Otherwise, he would definitely have his soul searched., and then, he would be erased from the world by the Master of the Azure Underworld.

Thinking from the perspectives of the two, Su Yu had managed to find out most of the truth.

Gu Xing had used the scabbard as a benefit in exchange for the identity of the Master of the Azure Underworld Mansion's disciple. He had also participated in the wind and cloud gathering alliance.

In that case, the thing that Gu Xing wanted was near the wind and cloud villa.

As for the memories related to the scabbard, Gu Xing must have given them to someone he trusted very much. After he obtained the thing that he wanted, he would return the memories to him. Then, he would announce it to the public and create chaos, then, he would take advantage of the chaos to escape with the things he had brought with him.

If Zhan Wushuang and Hanxuan were here, they would definitely be so shocked that they couldn't close their mouths.

Their plan that they thought was flawless was actually deduced by Su Yu from just a few words!

"I don't need to wait for Gu Xing to announce the information about the scabbard to the public. I can totally wait for him!" Su Yu had a corresponding plan in his heart. "Since Gu Xing's companions want to return the memories to him, they will definitely meet. Keep a close eye on Gu Xing, so keep a close eye on his companions."

After analyzing the situation, Su Yu stood up without batting an eyelid and nodded lightly. "The news is good."

After a pause, Su Yu said, "Also, I want to know about Emperor Yu's dynasty. Do you have any relevant information?"

The shopkeeper said regretfully, "I don't know why Emperor Yu's dynasty has been in a state of seclusion recently. No one is allowed to enter or leave. The black market that we set up there has also been sealed off and we are unable to send any information back. Senior, if you want to know anything, you can leave your contact details. If there is any information, I will inform you immediately."

Seclusion? That's right. The moon worship sect should still have many malignant tumors in emperor Yu of the Great Yu dynasty. It was very reasonable for Dongfang Xia to take the opportunity to say that he had cleared all the obstacles.

To Su Yu, this was also good news.

Otherwise, if the news that Emperor Yu of the Great Yu dynasty's Dongfang Xia was still alive were to reach the moon worship sect, his fake moon worship sect master would immediately be exposed.

"Forget it. I will come again next time," Su Yu said indifferently.

After leaving the intelligence agency, Su Yu went to a restaurant near the wind and cloud villa to observe in secret.

The wind and cloud villa was located directly above the main city. It floated in mid-air, and according to the yin-yang Feng Shui's layout, it was extremely changeable.

A hazy layer of light could be faintly seen enveloping the entire villa, making it impossible for anyone to see it clearly.

Su Yu's heart stirred slightly, and he attempted to use the clairvoyance eye to penetrate it.

At first glance, he had indeed managed to get a glimpse of the inside of the wind and cloud villa.

However, in the next moment, the scene before his eyes suddenly changed, turning into an unfamiliar scene. This made Su Yu unable to distinguish which of the two scenes was the true inner scene of the wind and cloud villa.

Following that, Su Yu continued to explore several times, but each time, the scene he saw was different. He repeated it for a total of thirty-six times before it finally appeared the same twice.

Su Yu was secretly surprised. "Thirty-six layers of yin-yang transformations. The creator of this wind and cloud manor should be someone who has mastered the yin-yang technique."

Even with his clairvoyance eye, he was still unable to see through the details of the interior. This layout was truly formidable.

Since he was unable to see through it, Su Yu then surveyed his surroundings, trying to guess where Gu Xing's companions might have appeared.

Gu Xing was definitely being watched by the master of the Azure Underworld Palace. No matter what he did, it was impossible to escape his eyes.

Therefore, his companion had to be very clever to return his memories to him. He had to not attract the attention of the Master of the Azure Underworld Palace. Otherwise, all his efforts would be in vain.

Su Yu stood in the perspective of his companion as he thought about the problem. How would they meet in the end?

For a full fifteen days, Su Yu wandered around the vicinity, thinking about the possible location, location, and method of meeting.

As the representatives of the various major factions came one after another, there were more and more people in the vicinity of the wind and cloud villa. Moreover, there were all sorts of people with complicated backgrounds, which made it more difficult to determine the identity of his solitary companion.

However, after fifteen consecutive days of thinking, Su Yu already had a preliminary guess.

“I hope you won’t disappoint me,” Su Yu muttered to himself.

Suddenly, the communication jade on his waist rang. At this moment, there was only one person who would send a message to him.

Holy Maiden!

“Outside the building, I’m only waiting for you for two days. Since you haven’t arrived in two days, I’ll participate alone.” The Holy Maiden booked a guest room in a restaurant close to the villa and impolitely sent a message to the moon worship sect master who was somewhere.

Putting down the communication jade pendant, the SAINTESS frowned. “He should be here soon, right? The Moon worship sect is in the weakest position in the alliance of the five major forces. I hope that guy will be tough and not embarrass the moon worship sect.”

While she was thinking, the jade pendant suddenly sent a message back.

“Oh, I’m at your door.”

The SAINTESS was stunned. The Door?

Dong Dong --

Before she could understand what it meant, there was a knock on the door.

The SAINTESS had an incredulous look on her face. Her crane was much faster than the Moon Worship Sect’s Transportation Demon Beast. How could the other party arrive at the same time as her?

No, she had sent a message to him as soon as she arrived at the wind cloud villa, but he had arrived right away. This was enough to prove that the other party was already nearby.

When she opened the door, she saw that it was indeed the moon worship sect leader!

“When did you come?” The Saintess asked in surprise.

Su Yu walked into the house and sat down casually. “I’ve been here for a few days. What’s Wrong?”

A few days? The SAINTESS couldn’t help but look up to the moon worship sect leader. Then, she asked, “Are the other three major forces here as well?”

“I don’t know. I didn’t pay much attention to them.” Su Yu asked back, “Why do you care about them?” The meeting of the five major forces this time was to discuss the matter of the emperor’s killing sword. If there’s anything, we can gather together tomorrow to discuss it. Why did you suddenly visit others?”

The saintess felt extremely speechless.

Why was he so stupid?

“Don’t tell me you really thought that this meeting was that simple?”The SAINTESS said with disappointment.

Su Yu nodded, “What else?”

His useless yet confident look made the saintess extremely angry, she suppressed her temper and said, “Didn’t you think about it before coming here?”? The dark star civilization was in turmoil because of the emperor’s killing sword. Now, they were gathering the five major forces to form an alliance. How could it be as simple as a discussion? “There must be some request for an alliance.”

Su Yu looked as if he suddenly understood and scolded, “Why didn’t you say so earlier?”

The Saintess glared at him fiercely. As the Moon Worship sect leader, she didn’t think much about it, yet she blamed her for not warning him clearly. It was simply unreasonable.

Su Yu only realized later and said, “Then I’ll immediately visit the various factions and test their words.”

“Forget it, I’ll go. You can just relax and do nothing!”The SAINTESS said angrily, slamming the door and leaving.

Su Yu touched his nose. She could guess that the meeting this time was not as simple as it seemed. How could he not understand?

As expected, it was true that they were searching for the emperor’s killing sword together. However, the Master of the wind and Cloud Villa wanted to use this opportunity to combine the five forces together. It was too obvious that he wanted to form an alliance of the five factions.

As the number one force in the south, he was far above the other four forces.

To integrate them into one’s own army against the whole of the north was in line with the aspirations of any ambitious man.

Chapter 1888 Wind And Cloud Ancient Tomb

If nothing went wrong, the leaders of the other three forces understood. The reason why they were willing to participate was because they wanted to be the leader of the Five Faction Alliance.

If they could not meet their requirements, they would not join the Five Faction Alliance.

Therefore, the Five Faction Alliance Tomorrow was quite exciting.

In the evening, the SAINTESS came back after being rejected.

“Come, drink some spirit tea first.”Su Yu pushed over a cup of spirit tea.

The SAINTESS had a cold expression. “Drink, drink, drink. You still have the mood to drink tea? “Do you know what’s going on outside? “The Azure Underworld Mansion and the sword sealing pavilion have refused my visit, and the Dustless Moon sect has sent out a black lotus demon sovereign to send me away. What does this mean? “It means that they are likely to come to some sort of unanimous decision, and our moon worship sect is excluded.”

Su Yu’s face was filled with anger. “Outrageous! What’s wrong with looking down on our moon worship sect?”

The Holy Maiden was furious. wasn't it all because of you? You've been here for so many days. Why didn't you communicate with them beforehand?

Now that the meeting was about to begin, the others had already discussed this beforehand. Naturally, the moon worship sect would not be allowed to interfere.

Only Su Yu knew that the Holy Maiden's worries were unnecessary.

The dustless Moon sect had not received any information about the invitations from the azure underworld mansion and the sword sealing pavilion.

Given the current situation of the Azure underworld mansion, it was impossible for them to reach an agreement with the sword sealing pavilion and share the secrets of the sword sheath.

Thus, the SAINTESS had read too much into the current situation and was scaring herself.

"Don't worry, we'll cross the bridge when we come to it,"su yu consoled her, only to receive a cold snort from the other party.

The next day, the meeting was held as scheduled.

Su Yu and the Saintess walked side by side towards the main entrance of the wind and cloud villa.

The entrance was decorated with lanterns and streamers. There were two rows of handpicked beauties and handsome men from British dramas standing side by side to welcome the representatives of the four forces.

The eldest disciple of the head of the wind and cloud villa, Mo Gan, represented the head of the villa to welcome the representatives of the four forces at the entrance.

"Greetings to the leader of the Moon worship sect and the Saintess of the Moon worship sect."Mo Gan recognized the auras of the two people from afar and bowed. "I am under the orders of my master to welcome you at the main entrance."

Su Yu said indifferently, "Mm."

Mo Gan made way and winked. A man and a woman walked out of the group and respectfully led the way. "Sect leader and Holy Maiden, please follow us into the main hall."

The two of them didn't mind and followed the two women into the hall.

However, just as they entered, the Pavilion Master of the Sword Sealing Pavilion came alone.

Mo Gan's eyes lit up. He squeezed out a smile and quickly walked forward to welcome him. "Mo gan pays his respects to the Pavilion Master of the Sword Sealing Pavilion. The pavilion master came from afar and my master wasn't able to welcome him personally. Please forgive me."

The Pavilion Master of the sword sealing pavilion had an aged expression. Only his eyes were like two ancient swords, ancient and sharp.

He nodded his head lightly and said, "The pavilion master is preparing for the Alliance and is busy with miscellaneous matters. I understand, I understand."

Mogan heaved a sigh of relief and bowed. "Pavilion Master, please follow me. I will lead the way to the main hall. My master will be waiting for you in the main hall."

The Moon Worship Sect Master and the Holy Maiden who were walking in front stopped one after another, their eyes filled with displeasure.

The saintess frowned and said, "It seems that we have been looked down upon!"

They came here only to let the servants of the manor lead the way, but the manor head of the sealed sword manor came with the eldest disciple of the manor head personally leading the way.

The huge difference was enough to show that the attitude of the wind and cloud manor towards them and the sealed sword pavilion was very big.

One was to take a fancy to them, and the other was to look down on them.

Su Yu was also displeased. "HMPH, isn't it just because the rise of our moon worship sect is too short, so they don't take us seriously?"

It was rare for the Holy Maiden to feel gratified. Fortunately, although the sect leader's ability wasn't good, he still had some spirit. If he was properly guided in the future, he would still be able to make a name for himself.

"Forget it, for such a grand event, if we were to clash with a small figure just for the sake of receiving the guests, the world would laugh at us and Our Moon worship sect would have no tolerance." The Holy Maiden shook her head and was led to the main hall by a servant with a disgraced face.

When they arrived, the manor head of the wind and cloud manor had yet to arrive, and the main hall was empty.

It was only after the Lord of the sword sealing pavilion arrived that the busy manor head finally had the time to show himself.

He brought the lady of the manor across the sky and laughed from afar, "The arrival of the Lord of the sword sealing pavilion brings light to my humble abode!"

A round-bellied middle-aged man with a curly beard and a full beard arrived with a young and beautiful wife.

It was completely different from the image of the villa head who was proficient in yin-yang feng shui. The villa head in front of him did not have any yin-yang aura. He was also very rude and was completely different from what he had expected.

His wife, on the other hand, was very special.

Ordinary people might not be able to feel it, but Su Yu could clearly feel that the yin-yang Qi in her body had reached an astonishing level. At least, she was on par with Su Yu.

She had a beautiful appearance and a seductive figure. She was curvaceous and full of an alluring mature charm.

At this moment, a smile hung on her face as she accompanied the manor head to bow to the sword sealing pavilion master.

“Manor Head is too polite,”the sword sealing pavilion master said.

The manor head nodded, as if he had just noticed Su Yu and the Holy Maiden. He cupped his fists and said, “So the two of you are here as well. Welcome, Welcome.”

The saintess felt even more ashamed. were they just air?

Since the manor head had swept a glance at the master of the sealed sword pavilion, could he not notice them?

Moreover, they had arrived first, and the Master of the Sealed Sword Pavilion had arrived later. The Manor Head had first bowed to him, and then greeted them.

Moreover, the way he greeted them could be seen that there was a difference in treatment.

“The manor head is too polite,”Su Yu said indifferently. He sat side by side with the SAINTESS and did not say a word.

The Manor Head sat at the head of the table and started chatting with the Pavilion Master of the Sword Sealing Pavilion.

Both parties were chatting passionately, completely ignoring the existence of the moon worship sect. Occasionally, the beautiful sect master’s wife would interrupt and ask the moon worship sect master a few questions. Only then would the manor head casually chime in with a few words.

Other than that, the two of them seemed to be superfluous people.

The saintess secretly transmitted her voice. Although her tone was calm, it showed the resentment in her heart. “Don’t be angry. This time, we won’t participate in the five sects alliance. There’s no need to be so calculative.”

Su Yu was secretly amused. He didn’t mind at all. The one who did mind was the Holy Maiden, right?

While they were conversing, the dustless moon sect and the azure underworld mansion were being led in one after another. The people leading the way were all the manor Head’s personal disciples.

Seeing this scene, the Holy Maiden was even more speechless. She felt a little regretful for following them.

If she had known that she would be looked down upon, she would have stayed in the moon worship sect and cultivated quietly.

When they arrived, the manor head displayed sufficient enthusiasm as he sat down with them.

This time, only master Bao Kun came to the Dustless Moon sect. Other than the manor head of the Azure Underworld Prefecture, there was also a disciple dressed in a gray robe following them.

This person was Lone Walker, right?

“Haha, I’m flattered that the four of you think so highly of me. Now, the leaders of the five major powers of our southern region have gathered together to discuss the matter of the emperor's killing sword. This is a grand event for our Southern Region."The manor head opened the topic with an opening speech.

"Everyone knows that ever since the emperor's killing sword appeared, the various powers of the dark star civilization have been embroiled in open and hidden battles. The five major powers of the northern region are even more incompatible with each other. The weakest of them, the sect leader of the stellar gallop sect, has fallen in the chaotic battle five years ago. It's only a matter of time before the stellar gallop sect is destroyed."

This news had never been circulated in the market, and they were all shocked when they heard it.

The star Gallop sect was ranked seventh in the dark star civilization, above the moon worship sect and the dustless moon sect.

The leader of such a force had fallen just like that!

That was quite a shock to the entire dark star civilization.

"The star Gallop sect has been hiding this for nearly five years, and I only found out about this shocking inside story two years ago by accident. Therefore, I urgently summon everyone to discuss this matter together. Do not follow in the footsteps of the star Gallop sect."

The leaders present all nodded their heads.

Although the emperor's killing sword was important, sacrificing one's life for it was truly not worth it

"Therefore, I hope that our five sects can temporarily form an alliance of the five sects to jointly search for the Emperor's killing sword. We can use a cooperative method to replace mutual competition and slaughter. What do you all think?"

As expected, the leaders secretly understood. The Manor Head's goal had indeed been exposed.

Discussing the search for the emperor's killing sword was secondary, and establishing an alliance was the truth.

The Master of the Azure Underworld Palace asked without batting an eyelid, "Establishing an alliance isn't a problem, but who should be the alliance master? Could it be that whoever is stronger will belong to the other party? If that's the case, our azure underworld palace will be the first to give up."

The dustless Moon sect and the moon worship sect both expressed this stance.

Only the sword sealing pavilion master remained silent.

The Pavilion Master was not angry at all. He chuckled, "Of course not! To become the alliance master, we need to unite the strength of everyone. What does personal strength count for?"

“If my wind cloud villa becomes the alliance master, then I can guarantee that we will be able to open the wind cloud ancient tomb of our wind cloud villa.”

In an instant, the master of the Azure Underworld Mansion suddenly raised his head, his eyes filled with shock.

The Lord of the sword sealing pavilion was also incomparably shocked.

The Moon Worship Holy Maiden also raised her head abruptly, appearing extremely shocked.

“Is that true?” The Lord of the sword sealing pavilion said in shock, “The windcloud ancient tomb is the tomb of the previous lords of your Windcloud Manor. Is it really appropriate for outsiders to enter?”

The Lord’s gaze was solemn. “We must do extraordinary things at such a critical time. In order to maintain the stability of our southern region, I believe that our ancestors will understand my intentions. Moreover, none of you are allowed to disturb their peace and quiet when you enter.”

Su Yu thought to himself and transmitted his voice, “Is there anything special about the Fengyun Ancient Tomb? Is it worth the leaders treating it this way?”

The Holy Maiden’s expression contained traces of excitement, she nodded and said, “The Fengyun ancient tomb is constructed with a vast yin-yang feng shui structure. It absorbs the power of Heaven and earth. Every three million years, a piece of star stone will be born and used to teleport between civilizations.”

Hearing this, Su Yu could not help but be shocked.

He was very familiar with star stones. Only this item could leave one civilization after another in a short period of time and go to a more distant civilization.

According to common sense, this item would appear along with the birth of a civilization. Other than that, it was very difficult to find other ways to give birth to it.

He did not expect that the ancestor of the windcloud Villa would have such a huge amount of effort to set up a huge feng shui pattern that gave birth to star stones.

“The wind and cloud ancient tomb can only be opened when a villa master has fallen. Normally, even the villa master himself isn’t allowed to enter! It’s been thirty million years since the last villa master fell. Can you calculate how many star stones have been born so far?”

Ten Star Stones!

Ten Star Stones. With them, they could travel to the remote areas of the absolute beginning realm.

Su Yu’s heart pounded. He didn’t lack divine stones, but he couldn’t buy any.

His eyes flickered slightly. The alliance of the five sects needed to change their attitude of not joining.

The star stones must be obtained.

The threat of the evil daughter was constantly hanging above his head. Only by controlling ten star stones would he have a sense of security.

Chapter 1889 Unfair Treatment

He was not the only one who was moved. The SAINTESS was also moved.

She narrowed her eyes and asked, "Other than agreeing to the Fengyun Villa becoming the alliance leader of the five sects, there are other requirements. Please state them."

This matter was important, so it was best to ask clearly. Otherwise, it would be bad if the Fengyun Villa restricted access to the Fengyun ancient tomb with harsh conditions.

Her question was normal, and everyone, including the Pavilion Master of the sword sealing pavilion, nodded slightly, wanting to hear what the villa master had to say.

Unexpectedly, the Villa Master of the Fengyun Mountain Villa glanced at the holy maiden, he said leisurely, "Holy Maiden Moon Worship, you may not know this, but our Fengyun Mountain Villa has been established for 300 million years, and we rely on our reputation. This is something that you, who have only established our religion for a few hundred years, may not understand."

The implication was that he was blaming the holy maiden for doubting them.

The Holy Maiden was slightly angry. Such a normal question, but in the eyes of the villa head, he was doubting them.

Moreover, he had mocked the moon worship cult for less than a hundred years. wasn't he being too magnanimous?

"Villa Head, our moon worship cult has sincerely participated in the discussion of the Emperor's killing sword. If you feel that our moon worship cult does not have the qualifications to participate, then we will take our leave." Forget the previous unfair treatment, but now this treatment.., she really could not bear it anymore.

The manor head frowned. "Moon Worship Holy Maiden, what do you mean by this? I invited you to participate naturally because I am sincere. I don't Know Why You Say This?"

The Holy Maiden was angry, but she could not say it out loud. Their invitation was indeed an invitation, but if it was said to be sincere, then it could not be said at all.

However, those untraceable differences in treatment, with no evidence in hand, how could she say it out loud?

If they were to say it out loud, they would only be laughed at by outsiders. It was because the moon worship sect did not have the tolerance to tolerate others and were narrow-minded.

Now, it was the Saintess'turn to be blamed.

Su Yu could not help but shake his head slightly. The SAINTESS was still too young after all. She could not stand such a little stimulation and was caught by others.

Su Yu patted her shoulder and comforted her. He looked up at the manor head and said, "The Saintess'words were inappropriate. I hope the manor head can forgive her."

The manor head snorted and said lightly, "My lord doesn't care about the past! But if you continue to speak arrogantly, please leave the venue. Without Your Moon worship sect, the four sects can still form an alliance."

When he said these words, he really did not hide his contempt for the moon worship sect and did not take it seriously at all.

The Saintess was even more furious when she heard this, but she was suppressed by the Moon worship sect master and barely did not get angry. However, her face was extremely gloomy.

She didn't understand why the other party was so close to chasing her away, but the moon worship sect master was still able to tolerate it. Those who had the slightest bit of spirit should have flicked their sleeves and left at this moment, right?

Her heart was filled with grievance and suppressed anger.

She inadvertently glanced at Master Bao Kun, who was sitting quietly at the side. She knew in her heart that he was definitely the impersonator.

She thought about his cultivation level, but he dared to impersonate master Bao Kun and attend the meeting of the leaders of the five great sects. He was so bold and ambitious. Compared to the moon worship sect master, he was like heaven and earth.

Sighing, she closed her eyes silently and sat down quietly with complicated feelings.

At this moment, the sword sealing pavilion master asked the same question, "It's not that we doubt the character of the manor, but the five major sects are powerful. It's necessary to ask about the relevant matters."

The manor master was amiable to him. "Pavilion Master, you're overthinking it. Since I'm willing to open the ancient tomb, I naturally have my sincerity. The only request is to support me to become the Alliance Master of the five major sects and sign a contract to announce it to the world."

He smiled as he looked at the Master of the Azure Underworld Palace and Master Bao Kun. "Everyone can rest assured on this point."

The Pavilion Lord of the sword sealing pavilion said, "Then, what if there are others who also want to become the Alliance Master?"

The manor Lord said frankly, "It's a fair competition. If the others can also come up with something that makes everyone choose to support him, I would be happy to see that happen."

However, who could come up with something as precious as the windcloud ancient tomb?

"Haha..." suddenly, the manor Lord of the azure underworld palace laughed lightly. "That's not a coincidence. I also want to take up the position of Alliance Master."

The manor Lord Smiled. "Naturally, no problem. As long as the others agree, it's fine."

He was extremely clear about the azure underworld palace's wealth. There weren't many things that could be brought up. It would be wishful thinking if he wanted to compare it to the windcloud ancient tomb!

The Master of the Azure Underworld Palace's eyes were filled with confidence, he said indifferently, "Our azure underworld palace doesn't have any ancient tombs. However, isn't the reason why we formed the five sects alliance all for the Emperor's killing sword? Unfortunately, I know how to seal the Emperor's killing sword."

Hearing this, the atmosphere in the area suddenly changed.

Even the Manor Head's expression became more solemn.

The Pavilion Head of the sword sealing pavilion was even more moved. "Manor Head, does the emperor's killing sword still need to be sealed?"

He smiled and looked in the direction of the Dustless Moon sect. He said with assurance, "I believe that Master Bao Kun has the most say in this matter. He was just a step away from obtaining the emperor's killing sword. It was only because he didn't have the means to seal it that he was able to escape."

This news was naturally released by Master Bao Kun himself.

The Manor Head and the sword sealing pavilion master were shocked. He had almost obtained it?

They looked at Master Bao Kun in unison, and the way they looked at him immediately changed.

The rumors of the Emperor's killing sword were rampant, and the ten great powers were fighting each other over it. However, if anyone had ever seen the emperor's killing sword, only the powers in the North had seen it with their own eyes. They had never even seen it before.

Hearing that Master Bao Kun had almost obtained it, how could they not be shocked? How could they not treat it seriously?

"Master, you're the one who has hidden it well." The manor head sized him up in astonishment. In his heart, he rapidly raised his status to the level of the Master of the Azure Underworld Prefecture.

If he could learn more about the characteristics of the emperor's killing sword from his mouth, and perhaps the direction of the common people, it would be of great value.

Master Bao Kun waved his hand nonchalantly. "It was just a little bit off after all. There's nothing much to talk about. However, what the Master of the Azure Underworld Prefecture said isn't wrong. That Emperor's killing sword is a ferocious sword just like the legends described. It can control the person who holds it. I almost fell for it and was controlled by it. I was lucky enough to escape this calamity."

He had almost been controlled. The emperor's killing sword was much more terrifying than the rumors said!

"So, I knocked that sword to the ground, but I didn't have a way to control it. In the end, I just watched it escape. I wonder if the method the master of the Azure Underworld Palace said to control the emperor's killing sword is true or not?" He looked at the Master of the Azure Underworld Palace.

Su Yu found it funny in his heart. From the moment he received the news about the scabbard, he had guessed that the master of the Azure Underworld Palace had most likely released the news to create momentum for him in the alliance of the five major factions.

The Pavilion Master of the sword sealing pavilion and the manor master's astonished expressions were most likely faked on purpose.

They had most likely already known that the Master of the Azure Underworld Mansion had taken in a disciple who knew about the whereabouts of the scabbard.

Therefore, after Gu Xing had entered, the two of them had sized him up one after another.

The Master of the Azure Underworld Mansion secretly praised him. Master Bao Kun's personal teachings had created even more commotion for him.

"That's right!" "My disciple does know of an item that controls the emperor's killing sword. It's called the Emperor's scabbard. It's an item that is specially used to store this sword. If it was master Bao Kun who held the scabbard back then, he would have already taken the emperor's killing sword." He sighed regretfully.

The eyes of the sword sealing pavilion master flashed slightly. "Then, master, do you mean that as long as we support you to become the alliance leader of the five sects, we will announce the exact location of the scabbard to the public?"

"Yes!" The Master of the Azure Underworld Palace replied with certainty. "On the day I become the Alliance Master, I will definitely announce the location of the scabbard to the public. I will never go back on my word!"

Hearing this, everyone started to think about different things.

The manor master's expression turned ugly.

Compared to the ancient tomb, the location of the scabbard was still more alluring.

So what if they entered the ancient tomb and obtained the Starstone? Was it more useful than obtaining the emperor's killing sword?

The Master of the Azure Underworld Palace had truly caught him off guard.

He had spent so much effort to gather the five major factions to form an alliance in order to pave the way for him to become the alliance master. In the end, he had helped the Master of the Azure Underworld Palace to become someone else's wedding dress!

The Pavilion Master of the Sword Sealing Pavilion looked at him, then at the Master of the Azure Underworld Palace. He said awkwardly, "Right now, it seems that we can only decide who will become the alliance master of the five factions through a vote."

"Two of the five sects want to become the Alliance Master. In other words, the choice of the other three is very important," the pavilion master of the Sealed Sword Pavilion said.

As long as two of the three sects chose the same alliance master, the position of the Alliance Master of the five sects would be completely set.

The pavilion master glanced at the moon worship sect. His gaze changed slightly. He had not expected things to turn out this way.

However, as long as he had the support of the Dust Free Moon sect and the sword sealing pavilion master, there was no doubt that he would become the alliance leader of the five sects.

“I agree that the manor head should lead the five sects to search for the Emperor’s killing sword. His reputation is well known, and he is willing to open the windcloud ancient tomb to us outsiders. This shows how sincere he is.”The Sword Sealing Pavilion Master took the lead in expressing his stance, as expected, the one who supported him was the manor head.

Previously, the Manor Head had been extremely cordial to him. It was likely that he had roped him in before this.

The Manor Head’s heart settled slightly. With one support and another support, the overall situation would be set.

He turned his gaze towards Master Bao Kun. He was the most crucial vote that would determine the outcome of this battle.

The Master of the Azure Nether World also turned his gaze towards him. If he was willing to agree to the Master of the Azure Nether World, the latter would still have a glimmer of hope.

The key to victory and defeat lay with him!

As for the Moon Worship Sect’s opinion, it was temporarily ignored by the manor head and the Master of the Azure Nether World.

The Holy Maiden saw this and was furious. She secretly made up her mind that she would never participate in the alliance of the five sects. In any case, the manor head was direct and strict. Without their moon worship sect, they could still form the alliance of the four sects.

Since the moon worship sect was of no importance, what else could they say?

While she was thinking, master Bao Kun, who was beside her, unexpectedly looked over and asked the moon worship sect leader, “Sect leader, what do you think?”

Eh?

Eh?

Everyone looked surprised. Why did Master Bao Kun ask the Moon Worship Sect Leader’s opinion?

The moon worship sect leader leisurely sipped on her fragrant tea and said calmly, “It’s fine as long as you choose it. Why do you need to ask my opinion?”

“Hehe, sect leader has always had a unique vision. I admire you very much. This time, the Alliance Leader’s choice is related to the emperor’s killing sword, so I can not be careless. Therefore, I will choose whoever the sect leader chooses.”Guru Bao Kun chuckled.

Wait! What was going on?

Others might not know, but didn't the Saintess know that the dustless moon sect and moon worship sect had secretly reached the point where they could not tolerate each other?

What admiration for the Moon Worship Sect Master's unique vision? It was fine to lie to outsiders, but how could it be possible to lie to her?

Master Bao Kun... No, why did that person do this?

With his flawless schemes and far-sighted wisdom, did he need to make a choice with a fool like the Moon Worship Sect Master who had no foresight?

But the others didn't know.

Chapter 1890 Wife Of The Manor Head

They had only heard of the tit-for-tat between the two forces and did not know the true extent of the situation.

At this moment, the moon worship sect master could not help but laugh, "Master, you flatter me. How can I influence your choice?"

Master Bao Kun said sincerely, "I am serious. Whoever you choose, it means that I choose someone too."

The Moon Worship Sect Master became solemn. "If that's the case, then I'll have to seriously consider it. I Can't let you down."

This time, the expressions of the azure underworld mansion master and the Manor Head changed drastically.

Didn't this mean that whoever received the moon worship sect master's approval would be able to become the alliance master?

The Holy Maiden's expression also changed quite a bit. When she noticed the manor head's uncertain and regretful expression, the depression in her heart was swept away.

Although she did not know what was going on, it was too satisfying!

'didn't you look down on the Moon worship sect??' 'sure, just wait and see for this election!'

She winked at the Moon Worship Sect Master and chose the Master of the Azure Nether mansion to vent her anger.

However, the moon worship sect master acted as if he did not hear her. He was deep in thought with a serious expression on his face.

For a moment, everyone present was staring at Su Yu. The tense atmosphere slowly spread.

The manor head gritted his teeth slightly, squeezed out a smile on his face, and cupped his fists, he said, "I've always asked how wise the moon worship sect leader is. In just a few hundred years, he has established such a huge foundation for the moon worship sect. It's truly unprecedented and unprecedented. It's truly breathtaking! It's no wonder that master Bao Kun wants to ask for the sect leader's opinion. It really makes us feel ashamed."

Compared to the undisguised contempt just now, he was now shamelessly sucking up to Su Yu.

His face was not red and his heart was not beating. It was as if what he had done just now was a different person.

The SAINTESS could not help but sit up straight. She secretly raised her head and felt proud on her face.

As the Saintess of the Moon worship sect, she was proud to be praised by the moon worship sect.

She glanced at the manor head and felt disgusted. What a two-faced villain!

Such a person led the alliance of the five sects. He could not believe what would happen in the future.

“No matter who the sect leader approves to be the sect leader this time, I will have a good chat with the sect leader.” The intention to give him benefits was faintly apparent.

The Manor Head’s wife beside him smiled sweetly. “Yes, sect leader. I have long heard of the sect leader’s great name and have always wanted to meet him. After this, you must stay. Husband and I will have a serious chat with you.”

Her expression was faintly seductive, causing the holy maiden to frown. A honey trap?

The manor head was really willing to take out such a delicate young and beautiful wife.

However, based on her understanding of the Moon worship sect master, he was not fond of women. At least those outstanding women in the main altar had never seen the moon worship sect master touch them.

She was still very assured about this.

“Is that so? Then this sect leader will be disrespectful.” The moon worship sect leader smiled slightly and said to master bao kun, “This sect thinks that the manor head might be more suitable to lead us. What do you think?”

Master Bao Kun nodded. “Since the sect leader thinks so, this sect leader will naturally choose the manor head.”

Hearing this, the SAINTESS was stunned. She returned to her senses and was furious.

Could it be that he had forgotten how the Manor Head had humiliated them just now? How could he have forgotten it the moment he turned around?

He could not even resist the slightest bit of beauty. It was simply too... too tempting to strangle him to death.

He had not paid any attention to such a beautiful woman at the main altar. The words of the Manor Head’s wife had charmed him to the point that he had lost his mind. This had truly driven her mad.

Feeling the murderous gaze from the SAINTESS, Su Yu shrugged his shoulders.

Naturally, he had his reasons for choosing the manor head.

He had already secretly set up the scabbard that the manor head of the Azure Underworld Mansion had mentioned. He would snatch it over sooner or later. There was no need to support him for the scabbard at all.

On the other hand, without the Manor Head's approval, it would be impossible for him to enter the windcloud ancient tomb.

Using his support to exchange for an opportunity to enter was the most cost-effective way.

As for that bit of humiliation, Hehe. After snatching the emperor's killing sword, he would return it a hundred times over!

The Master of the Azure Underworld Palace was extremely disappointed, but there was nothing he could do.

After pondering for a moment, he did not give up on joining the alliance of the five sects. The bargaining chips that the master had offered were indeed very tempting, and it was difficult for him to resist.

Moreover, if it was the alliance of the four sects, only the azure underworld palace would be able to stay out of it. As long as there was news of the Emperor's killing sword, it would be very difficult for the azure underworld palace to share it.

Rather than that, it would be better to join and wait for the Emperor's killing sword to settle down before withdrawing.

He stood up and forced a smile as he cupped his fists. "Congratulations, sect leader."

The manor head revealed a trace of a smile as he could not help but laugh out loud.

Although there were twists and turns, his wish was finally fulfilled. The person who had contributed greatly was undoubtedly the moon worship sect leader.

It was he who had decided on the choice of the sect leader with a single thought.

A smile appeared on his face, and his gaze towards the moon worship sect leader became much warmer. He laughed and said, "Sect leader, please rest assured. I will let you know that choosing me will not be wrong!"

At the same time, he also made a promise to the others.

"Everyone, the meeting ends here today. I will draft the alliance document overnight. Everyone will temporarily stay in the mountain villa. The day the document is signed is the day the Fengyun ancient tomb is opened."

Everyone present had no objections to this.

Under the arrangements of the few disciples, they were all led to their respective guest rooms.

This time, the one leading the way for the moon worship sect was the eldest disciple, Mo Gan. The Saintess' feelings of injustice had calmed down a little earlier, but her gaze towards Su Yu was still very unfriendly.

As expected, after closing the door, the Saintess went straight to the point and questioned, "I really don't understand. Why did you choose the wind and Cloud Mountain Villa's Manor Head as the Alliance Head? Have you forgotten how he treated US previously?"

She had long expected the Saintess to have some objections. She smiled slightly and said, "Saintess, calm down. Don't you see that he's being very polite now? Why are you still holding a grudge?"

"Are you saying that I'm very stingy?"The saintess narrowed her eyes.

Su Yu said, "You said it yourself, but I didn't say it."

"HMPH!"The SAINTESS snorted lightly and did not question him further.

The change in the manor head's attitude made her feel much better. Her anger had also dissipated a lot. After thinking about it calmly, it was indeed the best choice at the moment.

Although the Azure Underworld Mansion Master's promise was tempting, she faintly felt that his mysterious attitude was not reliable. The wind and cloud ancient tomb was more reliable.

"Forget it. Let's go over this time. However, I hope that you can be more sensitive about the moon worship sect's honor and disgrace next time,"the Holy Maiden said. She was still brooding over the moon worship sect master's disregard of White Dragon City.

Thinking of this, she suddenly stared at Su Yu suspiciously. "What's going on between you and Master Bao Kun?"

Su Yu had a helpless and confused expression. "You're asking me? I was about to ask you the same thing. That master Bao Kun usually doesn't interact with us. Today, he suddenly listened to my opinion. To be honest, I was quite surprised. I thought he was going against me. Do you know what happened to Master Bao Kun recently? I feel that there's something wrong with him!"

The SAINTESS panicked. She really knew that master Bao Kun was already dead. The person in front of her was a fake.

Could it be that the person who pretended to be Master Bao Kun didn't have the confidence and chose to befriend the Moon Worship Sect?

This seemed to be the only explanation.

"Oh, I, I don't know. But it's not a bad thing, right?"The SAINTESS said guiltily.

Su Yu frowned and said coldly, "What's good about it? How many followers of the White Dragon Mountain Range did he kill? Sooner or later, I will sacrifice his life to those followers who died in vain and take revenge for this blood feud."

"Don't!"The saintess said hurriedly, "He... he might be innocent?"

Oh? Su Yu secretly laughed. The SAINTESS really protected the fake master Bao Kun. Could it be that she had a good impression of his identity in the mystical realm?

“What innocence? He killed so many people, and he still has the face to talk about innocence? Saintess, your stance is very problematic. You actually helped master Bao Kun speak up. I remember last time, you forced me to take revenge for the disciples of the White Dragon mountain range. Why have you changed your Mind Now?” Su Yu stared at her suspiciously.

The SAINTESS became even more flustered and hurriedly explained, “You, what nonsense are you talking about? I’m the Saintess of the Moon worship sect, so I can’t be suspected of betraying the enemy. I just hope... I hope that you can investigate it clearly before you say anything.”

She was speechless, but she could not explain that the current master Bao Kun was not the real master, which was why she was suspected by the Moon Worship Sect Master.

“HMPH! Your words just now showed that your thinking had already made a serious mistake. Go back to your room immediately and do a thorough review!” Su Yu reprimanded sternly, “Otherwise, I have reason to doubt whether you still have the qualifications to be the Saintess of the moon worship sect.”

The SAINTESS was at a loss for words and said weakly, “I don’t!”

“Still quibbling? Go back to your room immediately and review!”

The saintess bit her red lips. This was the first time she had seen the moon worship sect master lose his temper at her like this. In addition, she was in the wrong. It was rare for her to lower her head obediently. She left with her head lowered and returned to her room.

After she left, the corners of Su Yu’s mouth curled up into a smile. “Hehe, the taste of teaching the Saintess a lesson is really good.”

Usually, the SAINTESS would lecture him with a haughty look on her face. Today, she finally had the opportunity to give him a lecture.

Of course, he did not have the bad taste to lecture the SAINTESS. The reason why he drove her away was because he wanted to do something more important on his own.

Gu Xing had already come to the villa as he wished. Therefore, retrieving his memories should be in the near future.

He needed to closely monitor his every move, and it was best to find the person who came into contact with him as soon as possible.

As he was thinking, he was about to leave quietly when a fragrant breeze drifted in from outside the door.

A seductive figure could be vaguely seen.

“Sect master, Can I come in?”

Sect Master’s wife? Su Yu could feel her soul and the unique powerful yin and yang qi without even looking.

Why was she here? Could she really be here to offer her beauty?

Su Yu walked over and opened the door.

A beautiful face came into view. That pair of bright and talkative eyes looked at the sect leader with a faint smile. "Under my husband's orders, I've brought a pot of good wine for the sect leader."

Su Yu was about to take it with his hand when the Manor Head's wife smiled sweetly and avoided him. "Sect leader, aren't you going to let me in? Or is it not convenient now?"

He really knew how to pick the right time!

Su Yu secretly frowned and said calmly, "Madam is joking. Please come in."

He opened the door and let the Manor Head's wife in.

When Su Yu and the manor head arrived at the door, he had just turned around when a fragrant wind blew over and a warm and plump figure lay in his arms.

It was the Manor Head's wife throwing herself into his arms.

For Real?

He did not think that someone like the manor head would really give his lovely wife to him to play with.

Was he testing me? Su Yu gently pushed him away and said indifferently, "Madam, men and women can't accept it clearly. Please have some self-respect."

Unexpectedly, the Manor Head's wife's face was full of shame. She forcefully twisted Su Yu's arm. "You Damn Ghost, it's fine if you didn't come to see me for three years, but why did you even change the way you address me? In the past, you used to call me little yingying, but now you call me the Manor Head's wife! You're so annoying!"

With a soft snort, she threw herself into Su Yu's embrace.

Su Yu's entire body trembled. Wait, what was going on?
