

Nine-Dragon 1901

Chapter 1901 Traitor Of The Past

That was not a wolf-headed man from the wolf smoke tribe, but a true human!

There was an unusually deep scar on his face, like a ferocious martial art lying on his face. It was extremely terrifying.

His cultivation had reached the emperor level, and he already had the ability to be reborn. It was extremely easy for him to repair these scars.

No matter how bad it was, he could still reconstruct his body.

“Ming Lingfei!” The old man instantly recognized him. He stared at the savage wound, and his old face flashed with a complicated expression. “You actually became the emperor of the world.”

The human youth named Ming Lingfei had a vicious look in his eyes, and a crazed expression appeared on his face. “You didn’t expect that not only did I not die, but I also became the emperor of the Wolf Smoke Tribe!”

The old man repelled several of the surrounding creatures of the Wolf Smoke tribe and angrily rebuked, “Ming Lingfei, you are the most outstanding prodigy of the Rising Sun tribe. Now, you actually joined the Wolf Smoke tribe and slaughtered your former compatriots.”

“Hahaha!” Dan Lingfei threw his head back and laughed loudly. “I’m not only the Prodigy of the rising sun tribe, I’m also almost your grandson-in-law! !”

He Jun was the old man’s biological grandson!

“YOU SCUM!” The old man’s face was filled with deep hatred and killing intent.

Shan Lingfei was the most outstanding young leader of the Rising Sun tribe. He was also the old man’s proud disciple. His cultivation quickly reached the half-step emperor realm, far ahead of his peers.

However, his intentions were not good. He often bullied the weak in the rising sun tribe and did evil things.

The old man had the intention to expel him from the rising sun tribe.

No one would have thought that Shan lingfei would not only not repent, but also take such a risky move.

He actually took advantage of the old man’s departure to invite Ming die to the wilderness with the intention of doing something improper to her.

What he wanted was to cook rice while it was still raw. In this way, Ming die would become his woman. Even if the old man was unwilling to admit it, he would have to swallow his anger and recruit her as his grandson-in-law.

In this way, he wouldn’t be chased out of the rising sun tribe. Instead, he would be able to openly inherit the old man’s immortal’s Cave World in the future.

Fortunately, the old man was on guard and had the other disciples in the immortal's Cave keep an eye on him.

This was why he saved Ming die when she revealed her sinister face.

After learning of this matter, the old man chased Shan Lingfei for an entire year. In the end, he killed Shan Lingfei in front of the Wolf Smoke Tribe's heaven splitting lake for two days with a single sword strike, and his corpse fell into the lake.

Now, it seemed that the previous sword strike was not clean enough, leaving him with a trace of life.

Moreover, he had also coincidentally broken through to become the Emperor of Heaven and earth.

The old man instantly thought of why the goods they had come back to purchase had been tampered with.

Only Shan Lingfei knew that the rising sun tribe often purchased goods from one of the Star Alliance's Chambers of Commerce. They must have bribed the shopkeeper and workers of some shop in advance, making them tamper with the goods.

With this thought, his initial doubts were clear.

"Scum? Hehe, if you fulfill my wish and let me become Die'er's husband, there won't be any scum. And today, there won't be me barging into your tribe to plunder wantonly!" Shan lingfei laughed coldly.

He swept his gaze around and instantly looked through the entire cave abode world. He said coldly, "Oh? That little girl is actually not here? That's a pity. After five years, that little girl has already grown up and become even more delicious, right?"

"As long as this old man is still alive, you can forget about having any designs on her!" The old man roared angrily as a law chain rumbled out and slashed towards Shan lingfei.

Shan Lingfei was not afraid at all. With a sneer, she chose to dodge and did not intend to tangle with him.

Instead, she leaped into the depths of the world of the cave abode and swept through everything.

With the might of an emperor, moving a finger was a calamity that could destroy the world for all living beings.

With his intent to kill, the interior of the cave abode world immediately collapsed.

Hundreds of millions of lives instantly turned into smoke.

Among them were women who were breastfeeding their children, young boys and girls who were parading together, students who were studying in private schools, and white-haired old men who were playing chess in the courtyard.

The disaster suddenly came, and all the peace was shattered into nothingness in an instant.

The child was still innocently sucking the mother's milk, but he did not know that his mother had fallen in a pool of blood and would never wake up again.

The boy and the girl were still holding hands, but they fell on the cold grassland. Their empty and lifeless eyes stared at the blurry sky, and they could no longer open their eyes.

The students' corpses splattered, and blood stained the room. Only the teacher was left lying on the armchair, trembling in fear. There were no more students to teach.

The pale-faced, white-haired elders lay motionless on the ground, leaving behind only a game of chess that had yet to be played.

Scenes of tragedy unfolded in the cave world, and they were filled with grief.

The old man's eyes were about to crack. "Beast! Die For me!"

Shan Lingfei let out a long howl, killing and injuring a large number of people before leaving. He laughed loudly and said, "Old Thing, this is what you owe me, but this is only the beginning. I will come again!"

Following that, he shattered the cave world and rushed out of the cave world with a sinister smile.

The outside world was in chaos. Countless experts of the rising sun tribe were massacred in a bloody massacre.

In the face of the sudden war, they were completely defenseless and were killed to the point of leaving nothing behind.

When Ri Dong Lai fought with the three leaders of the wolf smoke tribe, he was beaten until he was forced to retreat step by step. When he saw that the people of the tribe were being massacred, his eyes turned red with anger, but he was helpless.

After an hour of fighting, tens of thousands of caves were destroyed.

However, after such a long time, they finally had enough time to organize a powerful counterattack.

The Wolf Smoke tribe only led 10,000 Savage Beasts to attack this time, so their forces were limited.

The three leaders looked down at the battle on the ground and sent Ri Dong Lai flying with a spiked mace. They laughed, "Retreat, we'll come back another day!"

Yo --

The wolf-headed soldiers who were burning, killing, and looting came out of the cave abode world with a sharp whistle. Each of them rode on their savage beasts and left with a loud rumble.

Behind them was the pursuit of the wolf smoke tribe. However, the soldiers that they had hastily organized did not have enough mobility. They could only follow behind the savage beasts and eat dust. They were unable to effectively pursue and kill them.

Su Yu, who had witnessed everything, had a calm expression on his face.

War had always been cruel, bloody, and merciless.

Having been used to war, his emotions couldn't stir up even the slightest ripple.

If there was, then the wolf smoke tribe's marching direction was very unfortunate. It happened to be Su Yu's direction.

In order to avoid getting stuck in the quagmire, their marching route was a straight line. From the other side of the rising sun tribe, they passed through the tribe and arrived at this side.

Su Yu and the others happened to be standing on this side.

The Savage Beast's coverage area was too wide. At this moment, they couldn't avoid it even if they wanted to.

But so what?

Ming die sensed that something was wrong. She stared at the trembling ground and her expression changed. "This... is the army attacking?"

As she spoke, an endless stream of smoke appeared in her field of vision and attacked at an astonishing speed.

When she saw the Savage Beast's posture clearly, Ming Die's face was as pale as paper, "Wolf Smoke... Tribe!"

She said with unusual difficulty, almost unable to believe her eyes.

A scale of more than 10,000 troops could be considered a war!

Within the sacred mountain range, this was not allowed!

But saying anything now was superfluous. She came back to her senses and exclaimed, "Quickly escape!"

Su Yu did not move and said, "Where can we run to?"

That's right, how could they escape?

In the grassland, savage beasts were the fastest mobile force. They could not escape at all.

Moreover, the Savage Beast Army had also discovered Su Yu and the other two humans.

Shan lingfei had sharp eyes. He had even spotted Ming die with one glance. He laughed sinisterly and cried out, "Yo! A heavenly beauty!"

"Brothers, that man will be trampled into minced meat, and the woman will be captured by this Lord!" He laughed evilly, "Tonight, you will dote on my junior sister and make up for the regret from five years ago!"

The nearby smoke tribe warriors immediately mobilized their savage beasts to chase after them.

A total of ten savage beasts charged over.

The five Savage Beast Warriors on the left revealed a cold and cruel expression. They mobilized their savage beasts and pounced forward with a rumble, trampling towards Su Yu.

The other few captured Ming die.

At this moment, Ming die was in great danger. How could she still have the demeanor of a chivalrous woman? She covered her eyes and screamed!

Su Yu's expression was indifferent. With a finger, he gently drew a line in the air. Several space blades flew out and easily split the savage beasts and the warriors on them into two.

The huge inertia caused their corpses to fall and crash onto the ground. They bounced up from the ground and flew over Su Yu's head.

From the beginning to the end, Su Yu did not even move a single step.

Seeing this scene, Shan Lingfei's face flashed with a trace of viciousness. "You dare to spoil this Lord's good deed? Die!"

A law chain shot out immediately and shot towards Su Yu.

Su Yu did not Dodge or Dodge. He pulled out a sword with a backhand and casually tapped the sword tip on the chain, bouncing it back.

The huge strength of the sword tip was transmitted back to Shan lingfei through the law chain, causing his body to tremble violently and almost fly out of the Savage Beast.

A Heaven and earth emperor was not only knocked back by the chains of a half-step emperor, but he was also almost injured!

This scene immediately attracted the attention of the three leaders of the wolf smoke tribe.

"Humph! The new generation prodigy of the Rising Sun Tribe?"The three leaders snorted coldly and threw the human bone mace at Su Yu.

It seemed like a simple throw, but it contained the absolute power of the three leaders and the double-crowned emperor, and it also contained the laws.

Even if a single crowns met, it would only lead to death.

Not to mention that the opponent was only a half-step emperor?

However, Su Yu still used a sword.

This sword actually split the attacking human bone into two, directly cutting it in half from the middle!

The three leaders' pupils constricted, and their eyes revealed a trace of shock.

His human bone was made from the human leg bone of the two crowns, and it was forged with many supplementary materials. It was extremely hard, and most of the two crowns were unable to shake it.

Yet, it was actually slashed apart by a single sword.

Moreover, from the youth's expression, he seemed to be very relaxed.

Therefore, he must have retained a lot of strength.

A sense of danger welled up in his heart. His intuition told him not to get close to this person, or else it would be very dangerous.

However, he definitely could not sit idly by and watch a young expert of the rising sun tribe appear, threatening the status of the wolf smoke tribe.

“Kill him!”

As soon as the order was given, groups of savage beasts rushed over one after another. One after another, divine spells rumbled toward Su Yu, wanting to kill him along with Ming die.

Chapter 1902 One Sword Strike

Su Yu stretched out his hand and swiped in front of him. A huge space lotus enveloped him and Ming die within.

The divine arts that attacked were all blocked by the blossoming petals.

At the same time, all the savage beasts that got close were crushed by the space power carried by the lotus and turned into a bloody mist that filled the sky. Not a single trace was left.

A long gap filled with bloody mist appeared in the vast army of Savage Beasts.

At least a hundred savage beasts and soldiers died in the blooming space lotus.

The third leader turned around and saw a red lotus covered in blood blooming. A silver-haired human stood quietly in the lotus.

He took a deep breath. “A Master of Space Law!”

Boundless shock rose in his heart, and deep fear lingered in his spiritual altar.

“Let’s Go!”The third leader felt his scalp go numb. He no longer had the slightest desire to fight. He urged the savage beast under his feet to flee at high speed, taking the lead. The speed at which he fled was even faster than before.

At this moment, he felt a chill all over his body. He wished that he could grow another pair of wings, and he wished that he had never come here today.

It was rumored that those who had mastered the spatial dimension laws were all world-shaking big shots. Their true strength could not be measured by their cultivation.

Su Yu held his sword and turned around, staring at the three leaders who had already fled far away.

He raised his long sword from afar, all the way to his back.

“They are all gone!”He gently swung his sword.

Immediately, a soundless sword Qi slashed down.

It passed through the charging Army of Savage Beasts. Wherever it passed by, be it the savage beasts, the Warriors on the savage beasts, or the wild grass on the road, it was as if all of their vitality was sucked out.

The wild grass quickly withered, turning into dust that would shatter at the touch.

The savage beasts immediately fell to the ground, and their bodies quickly turned gray. The Warriors also rolled their eyes and fell to the ground. Their bodies were empty without any vitality, as if they were sucked out by something strange.

The entire row of savage beasts and warriors didn't have any room for resistance. They died on the spot.

Even the single-crowned king died on the spot.

As for the three leaders who were fleeing at the very front, they only turned their heads to take a look in shock before they were swept away by the unparalleled sword Qi.

Following which, their entire body turned dark, and their heads went soft. They fell from the thin body, and they died a horrible death.

“Third leader!” The warriors of the wolf smoke tribe who were chasing after him were overwhelmed with shock. The double-crowned king actually died just like that without any resistance?

They rushed over and scooped up the corpse of the third leader. However, just as they touched it, they were affected by the sword Qi left on the corpse. Their life force was sucked out on the spot, and their bodies went limp as they fell to the ground.

“Ah!” A warrior at the back saw this scene, and his scalp went numb.

They were bloodthirsty and ferocious just a moment ago, but now they were as scared as tiny ants. He turned his body sideways to avoid the corpse of the third leader, not daring to touch it again.

Just Like That, the Invincible Savage Beast Army charged forward, but no one dared to pick up the corpse of the third leader.

Shan lingfei's heart pounded violently. He stared at Su Yu's figure, and his eyes revealed deep jealousy and killing intent.

Was he that old man's new disciple?

But how could he be so powerful?

He did not understand the space law mastery mentioned by the third leader. He simply felt that the other party must have grasped a secret technique that surpassed cultivation.

“Quick! Go back and report to the first leader and the second leader!”

The death of the third leader would definitely cause a huge sensation!

Hong Long Long --

Countless savage beasts ran away, leaving behind the corpse of the third leader and lying on the ground alone.

Su Yu took a deep breath and took out the spatial storage device of the third leader.

Without looking at what was inside, he threw it to Ming die. “As a reward for saving me twice, I'll give it to you.”

Ming die looked at Su Yu blankly without blinking.

As long as one was not a fool, they would understand that Su Yu was actually a powerful hidden expert.

The toad of Toad Lake was in prison, so it was impossible for him to be hurt at all.

After coming back to her senses, Ming die was quick-witted and took a few steps back. There was a hint of restraint and respect on her face as she bowed in fear. "This junior Ming die pays her respects to senior."

Su Yu sighed lightly. He had long known that this would happen.

After all, she was not Xian 'er.

"It's fine," Su Yu said indifferently. He looked at the corpses on the ground and the corpses of the three leaders. After a moment of contemplation, he turned around and walked towards the rising sun tribe, "Go back and take a look. I hope you are mentally prepared."

The wolf smoke tribe had suffered heavy losses and would definitely not let this matter rest.

If he left, the rising sun tribe would probably find it difficult to bear the wolf smoke tribe's revenge.

Therefore, it was not easy to be a good person.

Because once he did it, he had to be thorough. Otherwise, he would only be harming others.

If he did not kill the third leader, the wolf smoke tribe would probably only come to plunder occasionally and snatch away some of their faith.

But if he made a move, it might attract the wolf smoke tribe's Revenge of extermination.

"O-okay." Ming die nodded her head and obediently followed behind Su Yu.

Su Yu said, "There's no need to treat me as an outsider. I admire you, that's why I'm helping you."

These words had countless meanings in Ming die's ears.

Admire? Which one was it? Was It my personality or my beauty?

If it was the former, who in the tribe wouldn't love her?

Was it her beauty?

Could it be that he took a liking to me and wanted to marry me?

But I'm not ready yet!

She only thought about how to play and had never thought about starting a family.

Looking at Su Yu's back, his long silver hair, his handsome face, and his strength that could crush his peers, Ming die thought that it seemed like there was nothing unacceptable about marrying such a person.

"OH." Ming die lightly nodded her head, her mind filled with a myriad of thoughts.

Su Yu silently sighed. He could listen to people's thoughts at any time.

When he found out that Ming Die had misunderstood him, he couldn't help but sigh.

After returning to the rising sun tribe, Ming Die's mind filled with thoughts was instantly replaced by grief and worry.

The grassland was filled with the corpses of the rising sun tribe. They were carried by the dejected warriors of the rising sun tribe and placed side by side for their relatives to come and claim them.

“Uncle Wang!”Ming die immediately recognized one of the familiar faces.

Uncle Wang opened a blacksmith shop, and his craftsmanship was very exquisite. Because of a small misunderstanding, Ming die was very angry. From then on, several people from the cave world came to his blacksmith shop and secretly caused trouble, making him unable to forge iron.

Every time uncle Wang was so angry that he blew his beard and glared at her, Ming die would run away with a giggle.

Just a month ago, he had stolen uncle Wang’s newly refined iron hammer, making it impossible for him to report to the customers, causing him to run to his grandfather and complain.

Staring at the familiar cold face, Ming Die’s tears flowed down her cheeks.

“I’m sorry, Uncle Wang...”she sobbed. She wanted to apologize, but he could no longer hear her.

She looked over one by one. Many familiar faces appeared in her eyes.

When she saw the end, she could no longer hold back her tears. She turned around and lay on Su Yu’s shoulder, tears streaming down her face.

Su Yu sighed. “Life and death are unpredictable. Don’t be too sad.”

After comforting her gently for a while, Su Yu brought her back to the world of the cave.

The old man was repairing the severely damaged world of the cave. He asked his disciples to go and comfort the heavily injured creatures and help them rebuild their homes.

Looking at the devastation in the mortal world, looking at the sorrowful creatures, and even more devoutly praying to their gods and begging for protection, Su Yu’s heart was moved.

Mortals who were unable to face the disaster could only place their hopes on the illusory gods. They could place their hopes on others and leave their fate in the hands of others.

Should he say it was sad or pitiful?

Suddenly, Su Yu noticed that after a disaster, the speed at which faith converged was far faster than usual. It was about ten times faster than before.

During the peaceful days, only a small number of devout believers would always worship and believe in the gods.

Most of the people enjoyed it with peace of mind.

However, after the disaster, they felt fear and had no one to rely on. Those who did not believe in the gods in the past also started to believe in them.

Therefore, the power of faith gathered and exploded.

“Die’er’s heart clearly showed that the tribes within the sacred mountain are not allowed to start a war. Now that the wolf smoke tribe has openly started a war, they must have received the approval of the Sacred Mountain.”Su Yu looked at the power of faith that exploded, his heart was as clear as a mirror.

Dark King, he was the source of the cholera.

In order to obtain more faith, he did not hesitate to create a war and slaughter the people who believed in him.

His heart could be destroyed!

The more he thought about it, the more he felt that the path of faith was an evil path, a path of no return.

“Die'er, it's great that you're okay.”The old man sensed Ming Die's return and immediately flashed over.

He glanced at Su Yu, who was beside Ming die, and wasn't too surprised.

The prison cave world had also been massacred, and many prisoners had taken the opportunity to escape.

Moreover, after the incident with Shan lingfei, he no longer needed to doubt Su Yu's stance.

“You're still alive. It's still alright, or else this old man would have committed an additional sin of murder.”The old man said apologetically, “You should leave. The rising sun tribe is no longer safe.”

Hearing his order to leave, Ming die quickly said, “Grandpa, we're in danger. He saved me.”

The old man was surprised. “What Danger?”

Ming die was about to tell the truth when Su Yu said calmly, “We encountered two or three savage beasts from the wolf smoke tribe. I helped Miss Ming die to deal with them.”

Ming die was stunned. Then she realized that he didn't want others to know that he killed the three leaders. She immediately fell silent.

The old man's eyes lit up as he looked at Su Yu in shock. “You were able to kill three savage beasts and the soldiers of the wolf smoke tribe? Not Bad, your strength exceeded my expectations.”

The army of the Wolf Smoke tribe that attacked this time were all the elites of the wolf smoke tribe.

Together with the huge savage beasts that were extremely fast, they had great battle strength that could take on two at once.

The unprepared half-step emperor human could barely deal with one.

For this person to be able to kill three, he should be a pretty good half-step emperor.

“I, Ming Guang, am extremely grateful for the kindness of my granddaughter saving my life.”His original name was Ming Guang, and he bowed.

Su Yu accepted it calmly. How could a single emperor not be grateful?

“Young hero, please stay and rest for a few days. After i properly deal with this disaster, I will specially thank you.”

Su Yu gently waved his hand, "There's no need to thank me. You just need to tell me the exact location of the wolf smoke tribe. My Time is limited and I have no time to stay in the rising sun tribe for long."

Why did he ask about the wolf smoke tribe? Ming Guang's eyes revealed a surprised expression.

Chapter 1903 Cowardice Does Not Fight

"Young hero, it seems that you are indeed an outsider." Ming Guang stroked his beard and said, "The wolf smoke tribe is a tribe on the back of Savage Beasts. They do not have a fixed residence and are constantly moving around. They live by robbing small tribes. No one knows where they are at the moment unless they can capture some of the survivors of the Wolf Smoke tribe. This way, they can still determine the location of their tribe through soul searching."

Was that so? If he had known earlier, he would have just captured a dozen captives and searched their souls.

From the looks of it, he could only wait for them to come and take revenge on their own.

"Young hero, although I don't know why you're looking for the wolf smoke tribe, it's best not to provoke such a savage tribe that mainly plunders. Haven't you seen that even a medium-sized tribe like our rising sun tribe has suffered devastating injuries?"

Su Yu nodded. "Yes, I understand."

When Ming Guang saw that he had given up.., he said, "Recently, the plains aren't peaceful, so you shouldn't walk alone anymore. Stay at the rising sun tribe. If you want to go to the sacred mountain, we'll set off in half a year to escort faith to the sacred mountain. You can also come with us."

Only wait half a year? Su Yu nodded slightly.

Faith was sent once every hundred years. To be able to meet it this time, he had to say that it was luck.

"That's good too. Half a year is enough to get things done," Su Yu said indifferently.

Ming Guang did not understand what he meant. He thought that he had other things to deal with. He said, "Young hero, stay here in peace. If you need anything, just tell Die'er. She will arrange it for you."

"Thank you."

Ming Guang nodded. "I'll go repair the space first. You and Die'er rest well."

After that, he busied himself with repairing the space, leaving Su Yu and Die'er at the top of the mountain.

"Senior, why didn't you let me say it?" Die'er asked.

Su Yu's expression was calm. "So what if I said it? I'm just a foreigner. I have the strength to kill the third leader. I will only be feared and ostracized by your tribe."

When she heard this, Die'er came to a sudden realization. She felt that it was very reasonable. "Senior, you have thought it through."

"There's no need to call me senior. In terms of cultivation, I'm not much higher than you." Su Yu said, "My name is Su Yu. You can call me by my first name."

Die'er hesitated before carefully saying, "Then, I'll call you senior Su?"

If it was Qin Xian 'er, she would definitely call Su Yu Big Brother with a smile.

"Whatever," Su Yu said indifferently. There was nothing to do. He sized up Die'er's cultivation and said, "How long have you been stuck at the peak of the Overlord Realm?"

Giving pointers to her cultivation? Die'er did not think much of it. She could only advance by leaps and bounds under her grandfather's guidance for a long period of time. Other people did not understand her cultivation process, so no matter how strong her strength was, there was a limit to giving pointers.

"A year," die'er said.

Su Yu nodded lightly, and suddenly, his eyes shot out a silver flame.

Instantly, Die'er felt a sharp pain in her head, as if her soul was being burned. She could not help but Twitch and scream.

Then, her soul suddenly relaxed, as if something attached to her soul had been burned away. Her entire soul appeared light and agile.

"Senior, what are you..." Die'er's face was full of shock as she asked with some doubt.

"Do you often feel an inexplicable pain in your soul? Occasionally, your soul will be unstable, and you will also feel tired easily?" Su Yu asked casually.

Die'er's delicate body trembled slightly, and her eyes were wide open.

All of these things had indeed happened, but she had never mentioned it to outsiders, not even her grandfather.

He had only taken a glance, how could he understand it so clearly?

The gaze he used to look at Su Yu became very respectful. He did not dare to hide it and nodded, "Yes."

Su Yu did not ask any more questions. He only lightly reminded her, "Do not absorb the power of faith to cultivate. Although the effect is good, the disadvantages are very serious. It is not something you can bear."

Die'er's face was deathly pale. She evaded his gaze and said with a trembling voice, "Senior Su, do not tell grandfather."

Faith was something that only sacred kings could enjoy. It was usually absorbed by the black statue and would not be taken away by outsiders for cultivation.

It was an unintentional discovery that she had absorbed faith very quickly, so she always secretly absorbed it.

Once this matter was exposed, it would be reported to the leader, RI Donglai. At worst, his cultivation would be abolished, and at worst, he would be chased out of the rising sun tribe. Just like Shan lingfei, he would become a lone wolf on the prairie.

“From now on, come to my place once a day to help you nurture your soul.” Su Yu stared at her and said.

In his eyes, Die'er's soul was riddled with holes.

Perhaps it was because her soul was not strong enough, so the damage to her soul was even more severe. If she did not think of a way to repair it, her soul would be permanently damaged. Her cultivation would not be able to improve any further, and at worst, her soul would collapse., his original body died.

“Did something happen to my soul?” Die'er guessed. However, Su Yu's depth was unfathomable. She had experienced it deeply, so she nodded obediently.

In the next few days, Su Yu lived in a small hut next to him.

Die'er would come to Su Yu's room every time her grandfather repaired the space.

The way he nourished his soul was very simple. He used his soul to wrap around her entire soul and slowly instilled his soul power to make up for the damage caused by the insects.

With his three crowns emperor level soul energy, it was very easy for him to repair her soul, which was at the peak of the Overlord level. It could be said that it was effortless.

Moreover, this was also Su Yu trying to use his soul to achieve the requirements of entering the Great Void Mystic Palace the next time.

Initially, die ER's soul was mended and she felt extremely painful. It was as if she was using a knife to cut off a piece of flesh from her body.

However, she could feel that after being nourished, her soul had indeed undergone beneficial changes.

After a few days, the occasional pain in her soul that made her easily fatigued slowly eased.

Feeling the magic within, Die'er took the initiative to come over and receive nourishment with abnormal anticipation every day.

In the blink of an eye, an entire month had passed.

The dust had settled on the rebuilding of the rising sun tribe after the war, and the vast majority of the cave abode worlds had been restored to their original state.

The injured had been treated, and most of them had recovered.

The atmosphere of sadness was still spreading, and the spread of faith had become unprecedentedly strong. The amount of power of faith they absorbed every day was more than twenty times what it had been in the past.

Many of the cave abodes that had been robbed of the black statues had actually recovered quite a bit of power of faith within a short month. They were waiting for the day when the power of faith would be supplied to the sacred mountain, and perhaps it would surpass the amount of power of faith they had in the past.

As a result, the kings of the rising sun tribe had gradually settled down.

As long as they could still hand over the power of faith, they would be able to survive.

Dong --

On this day, the alarm bell rang and spread to all the cave abodes.

It was the leader of the tribe, Ri Dong Lai, who had gathered the rulers of all the cave abodes.

When Ming Guang heard the sound, he immediately rushed to Ri Dong Lai's cave abodes.

When he arrived, almost all the rulers had arrived, about ten thousand of them.

Among them, there were less than a hundred single-crowned emperors like Ming Guang.

Not all the rulers of the cave world were emperors, and most of them were half-step emperors.

They gathered above the dense forest, and each of them stood on the tips of the trees, gazing at Ri Dong Lai who was recovering from his injuries.

"Everyone, after this battle, we must be prepared for war from now on." Ri Dong Lai took a deep breath. The lesson from a month ago was too profound.

Because the news was lagging behind, they actually didn't know that the sacred mountain had already given the order to allow war.

They were caught off guard, which was why the rising sun tribe had taken advantage of the loophole and suffered heavy casualties.

"Apart from that, we must send messengers to station around the sacred mountain. We must keep an eye on the sacred mountain at all times to prevent similar incidents from happening again," Ri Dong Lai said.

Everyone nodded.

Next, the leaders of the various immortal's caves reported on the situation after the battle.

When the last leader finished his report.

Ri Donglai said with a heavy heart, "After this disaster is over, everyone will work together to create better conditions for those who are still alive."

"Meeting adjourned!"

At this moment, a young half-step emperor said, "Is that all? Aren't we going to take revenge?"

The leader meant that the war would pass.

The person in charge of his cave world had fallen during the war. He would take over and become the new person in charge.

After a month, he still couldn't forget how the person in charge had used his own body to block the weapons of the smoke tribe warriors in order to protect the creatures in the cave world.

He didn't understand why the rising sun tribe didn't have the slightest desire to take revenge?

Could it be that the deaths of their clansmen had all been in vain?

Hearing this, many of the Overseers fell silent and secretly sighed. In the end, he was still too young.

Ri Dong Lai let out a long sigh. He had seen too many young and hot-blooded overseers like this.

"It's not that we don't want to take revenge, but that we have to carry a heavy burden for those who are still alive. If the rising sun tribe only has us present, then it would be better to be destroyed than destroyed. We also have to slaughter our way into the wolf smoke tribe and repay this hatred with blood."

"But we still have our own cave dwellings to protect. If we die, who will protect them?"

His earnest words made the young ruler fall silent.

Yes, they still had many creatures in their cave dwellings to protect.

It was not that they were weak and did not dare to take revenge, but that they could not take revenge.

Ming Guang had seen many similar things. Every time, Ri Dong Lai would use the same words to dispel the young people's thoughts of revenge.

Once, twice, thrice, every time was the same.

His words were not wrong, but was it really to protect the remaining clansmen as he said, and not to be cowardly and not dare to take revenge on the powerful wolf smoke tribe?

The elders present all understood that the truth was the latter.

Their entire tribe added up would be like an egg hitting a rock when facing the wolf smoke tribe.

Therefore, they didn't have the courage to take revenge.

If they really did take revenge on the wolf smoke tribe, what would they do if they led their troops to attack?

Just like now, they had just come once, and wouldn't come again in a short period of time. There was really no need to provoke them and bring about an even greater disaster of war.

All of the leaders were taciturn.

At this moment, they didn't even dare to provoke the wolf smoke tribe, lest they came again.

Only in this way could they obtain a temporary peace.

Unfortunately, the trees wanted peace, but the wind wouldn't stop.

Wolves would never stop killing sheep just because they were weak and obedient.

Xiu --

Just as the meeting ended, a savage beast barged into the rising sun tribe as if no one was there.

The Savage Beast's body was covered with the human heads of the rising sun tribe.

Roughly counting, there were a hundred of them.

The Savage Beast barged into the cave world where the gathering was taking place, instantly startling all of them.

Chapter 1904 Cruelty On The Inside And Cruelty On The Outside

Standing at the very back, Ming Guang immediately made his move and killed the savage beast charging in through the air with a palm strike.

The Savage Beast whimpered and fell to the ground. The hundreds of heads hanging from its body rolled in all directions like gourds.

This scene caused the expressions of all the managers of the cave abode world to change. They stared at the heads on the ground in shock and anger.

"It's a warrior patrolling at the tribe's border!"

The identity of the head was quickly confirmed!

Ever since the great battle, the Rising Sun tribe had been on high alert. They strengthened their vigilance around the rising sun tribe and organized ten hundred-man patrols.

They had the fastest Savage Beast of the Rising Sun tribe, and their mobility was very strong.

Once they discovered that an enemy was approaching, they could immediately detect it and send a timely message back to the tribe.

Ming Guang's eyes flashed with a solemn expression.

"To be precise, it's a complete patrol team of soldiers."

An entire patrol team was killed without any warning and without anyone escaping.

This was enough to prove that they had suffered an unprecedented and sudden attack.

Ri Dong Lai's expression immediately darkened. Dark clouds covered his face as he gritted his teeth. "Who did it?"

The answer was clear to everyone. The Wolf Smoke tribe!

The greatest threat in their vicinity was the wolf smoke tribe.

However, no one was willing to admit it, or they didn't dare to admit it.

They didn't even have the intention to take revenge, much less provoke the wolf smoke tribe. Why did they still kill the patrol team?

Was it just a coincidence?

Roar --

At This Moment, another Savage Beast roared as it charged into the rising sun tribe.

Another 100 heads hung on its body.

This time, before it could charge into the cave abode world, it was killed by the soldiers of the rising sun tribe who were on alert.

Ri Dong Lai and the group of cave abode world overseers came to the outside world. They stared at the fallen Savage Beast, and their faces were abnormally ugly.

“It’s the wolf smoke tribe! It’s them!”

“They’re coming again!”

Panic spread among the crowd, and also spread among the many cave abode world overseers.

Ri Dong Lai’s eyes turned cold as he shouted, “Don’t Panic! Perhaps other tribes might pass by...”

Roar --

As if responding to his words, savage beasts rushed over from all directions.

Without exception, they carried hundreds of heads on their backs.

Eight of them!

In other words, all the warriors who were responsible for patrolling the border were killed in an instant. No one had the time to report it.

When the last batch of savage beasts were killed, a few words appeared on his back.

“Blood for blood!”

Ri Dong Lai’s pupils contracted. Those words were the unique words of the wolf smoke tribe.

“It’s them. They really came back to take revenge. We must have killed their soldiers in the battle and angered them!”

“It’s over. Ten patrol teams were killed at the same time. There’s only one explanation. The wolf smoke tribe is everywhere, and we’re completely surrounded!”

“Only the wolf smoke tribe has such a large number of soldiers. We’re really finished!”

Ri Dong Lai’s mind went blank for a moment as he clenched his fists tightly.

What did the Wolf Smoke tribe want?

They killed their people and stole their faith, but they weren’t willing to let it go. They still wanted to pay with blood?

“Men, form ten more patrol teams and gather information from all directions. Each patrol team will be led by a person in charge of the cave world.” Ri Dong Lai held on to his last bit of hope.

It was impossible for the wolf smoke tribe, and there was no need to launch a full-scale attack on them.

If they really destroyed the rising sun tribe, what benefits would they gain?

It was far better to plunder them from time to time and allow them to continuously provide faith.

Soon, ten volunteer cave world overseers took the initiative to step forward.

Among them was an existence on the level of a single crowned emperor.

“Your mission this time is not to fight the enemy, but to find out what tribe is harassing us at our border. Once you find out, immediately send the news back,” Ri Dong Lai emphasized.

They were somewhat vigilant and careful on this trip. If they were only to investigate, the enemy would want to wipe them out in one fell swoop, making it very difficult for them to even send the news back.

It could be said that it was almost impossible.

Everyone nodded and made all sorts of preparations for defense and escape. They solemnly moved forward in ten directions. As long as they saw the enemy from afar, they would immediately send a message.

Time passed bit by bit.

After half a day, there was still no message from anyone.

Ri Donglai sat on top of the tribe, deep in thought as he stared into the distance.

No news was good news. To be able to react from the side, they did not find any traces of large-scale enemy troops.

However, at this moment, ten sharp screeches tore through the sky.

From each of the ten directions, a vulture unique to the sacred mountain flew over. On each of their necks hung ten blood-glistening heads.

The person in charge of the cave abode world of the single-crowned king was also among them.

The Vulture flew to the sky above the tribe. With a shake of its body, it shook off all the heads.

The heads were destroyed by some preset power in the air and turned into blood mist on the spot.

Looking from afar, the blood mist condensed into four words.

“Blood for blood!”

At this moment, Ri Dong Lai’s face became completely solemn.

The Masters of the cave world also sank into the water, as if the end of the world was coming, their faces full of worry.

Who Was It? Who Was It?

The single-crowned emperor had attacked, but there was no news at all!

They didn't even know who the enemy was.

Ming Guang's eyes were trembling. He clenched his teeth and cupped his fists, "Leader, we can't wait any longer. Gather the soldiers and prepare for a battle!"

Ri Dong Lai's heart trembled. He clenched his fists and shouted in a low voice, "Wait a little longer! Don't act rashly unless you know the true intentions of the enemy. We can't fight casually. Maybe we have a misunderstanding with the enemy."

Humiliation appeared on Ming Guang's old face.

As he had guessed, it was not that their leader had the heart of his clansmen and was enduring humiliation. Instead, he had long lost the courage to fight.

The enemy had clearly paid with blood, but he did not even have the courage to go out to fight. He was still lying to himself.

What kind of misunderstanding could make the enemy not hesitate to send an army to the border?

"Men! form a messenger group to communicate with the enemy and determine what we have done to offend them!" Ri Dong Lai gathered another group.

There were a total of ten people, all made up of the managers of the cave world.

On each person's back was a white flag for peace, indicating that they had no intention of fighting.

The messenger group quickly set off, choosing a direction to run in.

Ri Donglai and the other masters of the cave world waited anxiously on the spot.

"I hope that the Messenger Corps will be able to gain something. At the very least, they will be able to figure out who is attacking us."

"No problem. If the two armies don't kill the Messenger Corps, the Messenger Corps will be fine."

Boom Boom Boom --

The earth trembled as ten Savage Beasts returned with ten complete corpses.

The Messenger Corps!

It was their corpses, and not a single one of them was missing.

Their necks had been twisted and broken, and the white flags on their backs had been inserted into their backs.

Each flag had a huge, eye-catching word in blood.

Together, they would say, "A blood debt must be paid in blood. The rising sun will not leave even a chicken or dog alive!"

Seeing the cross, everyone's hearts sank.

The Messenger Corps had also been killed. It was obvious that there was no possibility of peace.

The other party only wanted to kill all of the rising sun tribe!

Ming Guang said hatefully, "Leader, there's no need to hesitate. Blow the war horn!"

Ri Dong Lai's expression changed. He clenched his fists and said, "No! We Can't start a war rashly! If we die, what about the living beings in the cave abode world..."

"We're willing to die together with the enemy!"

"Don't worry about us. Even if we die, we will drag an enemy down with us!"

"Lord God, please come out and fight!"

..

Over 10,000 living beings in the cave abode world let out a strong desire for revenge.

Ri Dong Lai's heart trembled. Faced with the strong desire of the living beings to come out and fight, he gritted his teeth and roared, "No! For your sake, we can not rashly..."

"We will die with no regrets!"

"We are not afraid of Death!"

"Don't mind us..."

The will of all living beings covered his words.

"Shut up! This battle can not begin. I am doing this for your own good! I have made up my mind and can not be disobeyed!" Ri Dong Lai used his majestic prehistoric power to forcefully suppress the will of all living beings.

Upon seeing this scene, Ming Guang laughed at himself.

He claimed that he was doing this for his own race, but in reality? It was just that he was afraid of death, so he didn't dare to fight!

Ming Guang lost all confidence in his leader.

"Leader, are you afraid of Death?" A disdainful voice came from the person in charge of the cave abode world.

Following the voice, the person who spoke was the person in charge of the cave abode world who had previously asked for revenge.

He stared at Ri Dong Lai, his eyes were filled with disdain. "You claim to be a creature of the cave abode world, but they are not afraid of death and are willing to fight to the death. As the leader, you are trying to stop them and even claim to protect them! "Actually, you are afraid that if you fight, you will die, right?"

Ri Dong Lai shot him a cold glare. His eyes were ice-cold. "Say that again!"

The young man laughed, “You don’t dare to take revenge when you have a grudge, and the enemy is still deceiving yourself and others. What kind of leader is this? You are not worthy to be our leader!”

Ri Dong Lai flashed with a fierce light, and his figure disappeared in an instant.

When he reappeared, he appeared behind the young man and slapped his head.

The young man’s head was like a watermelon, and it was instantly smashed to pieces.

Blood Mist splattered all over his body, making his face look even more savage. He shouted in a dignified and angry voice, “If you question the leader and disturb the morale of the Army, kill him without mercy!”

Instantly, the many cave world overseers couldn’t contain their anger.

The enemy was pressing down on their territory. He was afraid and didn’t dare to fight. He was as cowardly as a mouse.

However, he was vicious and merciless towards his own people, killing them without a word.

What kind of leader was this?

“Remove him, this kind of person is not worthy to be our leader!”

“If he doesn’t fight, we will fight ourselves. Build an army and kill our way out!”

“We would rather die standing than die kneeling! If our leader doesn’t dare to fight, We Dare!”

Furious roars rose and fell one after another. Ri Dong Lai’s eyes were cold as he flashed over one by one, slapping them to death. His attacks were decisive and merciless.

After killing dozens of people consecutively, the shouts gradually stopped.

Ri Dong Lai was covered in the blood of his own people. His eyes were ice-cold and his expression was incomparably dignified. He said, “At this critical moment, you should believe in your leader and not question him! If anyone still has any objections, die!”

Killing dozens of people consecutively had scared them just now, making them dare to be angry but not dare to say anything.

He swept his cold gaze around and saw that no one opposed him anymore. Only then did he not allow anyone to object and said, “Pass down my orders. Send a peace-seeking team and strive for a peaceful solution!”

Chapter 1905 Retreating Again And Again

Peace. Could retreating bring about peace?

Returning to the world of the cave abode, Ming Guang opened the Treasury of the world of the cave abode and picked out the many years of accumulated wealth.

“Grandfather, why did you take out the Luan Luan Ba Guang Mirror?” Ming Die’s pretty face was filled with anger.

The leader's words were heard by all the world of the cave abode, and his actions were also seen by all living beings.

A leader who was tolerant to the outside world and cruel to the inside made them dare to be angry but not dare to speak out.

In the end, the leader insisted on doing things his own way, demanding that peace be achieved through peaceful means. He also requested that all the immortal's Cave Worlds choose the most beautiful women of Sanming and three top-notch divine weapons, and send a peace-seeking team to the enemy, he wanted to beg for their concession.

"The flowing throne eight light mirror is father's legacy. He used his life to protect it. How can we take it out to treat grandfather's old illness?" Ming die tried to stop him.

Ming Guang smiled bitterly. "This is the leader's idea. He specifically asked us to take it out."

Ming Die's mind went blank. She clenched her fists. "What leader? A coward who is afraid of Death!"

"Shh!" Ming Guang hurriedly cast a soundproof barrier to block off all the words that she had just said, she said solemnly, "Be careful that the walls have ears! Even the person in charge of the cave world who said the same thing was killed by Ri Dong Lai. Wouldn't an ordinary tribesman like you die even faster?"

Ming Die's eyes were filled with humiliation and anger.

"Then what should we do? Does grandfather also believe that the enemy, who has such an army, will retreat just because they want peace?"

Mingguang shook his head, "Of course the enemy will not retreat, but it's good if we can dispel the last unrealistic thoughts of the leader."

Not long after, thirty thousand beautiful women from the rising sun tribe, thirty thousand divine weapons and treasures, under the lead of the peace-seeking team, marched towards one of the directions.

However, what Mingguang did not expect was that the peace-seeking team and the enemy agreed!

The Messengers of peace were safe and sound. For the first time, all of them returned alive.

They brought back the news that the rising sun tribe had wanted, but had always failed.

That was... the enemy that had besieged them was none other than the wolf smoke tribe!

Moreover, the entire wolf smoke tribe was pressing down on them!

This news crushed all of Ridong Lai's self-deceiving thoughts.

However, the Wolf Smoke tribe gave Ri Dong Lai another piece of good news.

"We can make peace, but sincerity isn't enough!"

When he found out that the strong enemy was the wolf smoke tribe, Ri Dong Lai's heart sank to the bottom, and he was filled with despair.

The wolf smoke tribe was extremely powerful.

The third leader was at the middle stage of the double crown prince realm, and he was far from being a match for Ri Dong Lai.

Not to mention their second and third leaders.

It was said that the second leader had already cultivated to the late stage of the double-crowned King Realm.

And the great leader, who hadn't shown his face for hundreds of years, had even reached the peak stage of the double-crowned King Realm, and was only a step away from breaking through to the triple-crowned King realm!

Any one of the two of them could kill him.

Moreover, the wolf smoke tribe had a thousand single-crowned kings, which was more than ten times more than the rising sun tribe.

If they really fought, would he have a chance of surviving?

Perhaps an ordinary tribesman could, but as the leader, he was the Wolf Smoke Tribe's ultimate target, so it was impossible for him to survive.

One could imagine how excited he was when the wolf smoke tribe sent a message that there was hope for peace. He was like a drowning man who had grabbed onto a life-saving straw.

As for the wolf smoke tribe saying that their "Sincerity wasn't enough", he ignored it.

"What else do they want?" Ri Dong Lai asked the peace-seeking messenger group that had returned.

"They want... 100 million young men and women with the best qualifications to be their slaves. As long as they agree, they will immediately retreat," the messenger group said in humiliation.

100 million was almost equivalent to the entire rising sun tribe's most outstanding young generation leaving.

In the next few hundred years, the rising sun tribe wouldn't want any outstanding young talents to grow.

However, Ri Dong Lai nodded without hesitation. "100 million, that's Easy! Our Rising Sun tribe has no lack of people! Order all the managers of the cave abode world to hold an important meeting!"

Soon, the managers who had just returned to their respective cave abode worlds had no choice but to gather in Ri Dong Lai's cave abode world.

At this moment, Ri Dong Lai's face was filled with grief as he said sorrowfully, "My fellow compatriots, after the efforts we disdained and the sacrifices of many tribesmen, we have finally seen the dawn of Peace!"

No one was happy, except Ri Dong Lai himself.

“As the leader, I am very saddened by the sacrifices of our tribesmen and the female tribesmen who volunteered to serve the enemy. This is my dereliction of duty, it is my fault!” Ri Dong Lai’s face was filled with self-blame. “However, I am doing this because of thousands of other tribesmen. For the sake of their beautiful future, I am willing to endure humiliation and bear heavy burdens!”

Tears flowed from his eyes, and his tone was sincere, he spoke from the bottom of his heart, “People live not for the dead, but for the living. Therefore, no matter how much grievance I have, I will hide it in my heart and swallow it silently. I hope that my clansmen can understand me and support me!”

The group of Immortal’s Cave World overseers stared at him coldly. Only a small portion of them still believed him, and the vast majority of them saw through his cruelty and decisiveness when he killed his own clansmen.

For his clansmen? It must be for himself!

“This time, the wolf smoke tribe has brought back a piece of news. As long as we send 100 million talented youths to the wolf smoke tribe to interact and learn from the youths of their tribe, we will be able to retreat and restore peace between the two tribes.”

The moment these words were said, almost all the managers of the cave abode world glared at him angrily.

If it was in the past, they might have blindly believed him and believed his nonsense.

But now, who would believe that sending 100 million young men and women would just be an exchange?

They would probably be enslaved by the wolf smoke tribe from then on?

Sending them would send them into the jaws of a tiger, pushing them into a pit of fire that would never be recovered!

“All of the world overseers, please return to the world of the cave abode immediately and mobilize the 10,000 most outstanding young men and women.” Sun Dong Lai didn’t hesitate to give the order. “For the future of the rest of the rising sun tribe, please persuade them. The deadline is only half a day. If they don’t mobilize enough people in half a day, then for the sake of the lives of the tribe members, I can only personally come and mobilize them

“As the Master of the cave abode world who does not do his job well and endangers the lives of his clansmen, he shall be severely punished by abolishing his cultivation!”

Upon hearing this, the Masters of the cave abode world were in an uproar.

However, with the previous examples, none of the masters of the cave abode world dared to question him face to face.

However, in private, the masters of the cave abode world were already complaining and had completely lost confidence in Ri Donglai.

When Ming Guang returned to the cave world, Ming Die walked towards him with concern. “Grandpa, what does the leader want us to offer this time?”

When she found out that they were going to recruit ten thousand of the most outstanding young women from the cave world, Ming Die’s eyes were about to split open. “That good-for-nothing! He actually deceived a hundred million clansmen to become a slave of the Wolf Smoke Tribe!”

“Grandpa, don’t tell me you want to deceive the people of our cave world?” Ming die suddenly asked vigilantly.

Ming Guang shook his head solemnly. “Of course not!”

His gaze flickered. “To be precise, the person in charge of our cave abode world is currently discussing a major matter.”

“What matter?”

Ming Guang did not reply. Instead, he said, “Immediately inform the people of the cave abode world to try their best to stay in their rooms and not go out.”

Hearing this, Ming die understood what her grandfather wanted to do.

She put away the world of the cave abode and prepared to betray the rising sun tribe!

“Also, don’t tell anyone about this, including your senior brothers and sisters, as well as Su Yu!”

This matter was of great importance. Ming die understood her grandfather’s situation very well.

Betraying the Rising Sun tribe was a capital crime.

However, it was better than being killed by the rising sun tribe. It was better than sacrificing her own people.

Four hours later, Ming Guang seemed to be seriously activating the young man in the world of the cave abode. In fact, Ming die had already quietly told her people to immediately stop all their activities and go to a safe place to take refuge.

This was because when she put away the world of the cave abode, there might be a certain amount of turbulence and dangerous situations such as earthquakes and volcanic eruptions.

“Grandpa, everything is ready,” Ming die said to herself. She was infinitely supportive of her Grandpa’s decision.

Ming Guang nodded slowly and said, “You also stay in the world of the cave abode. Grandpa will deal with it alone.”

Then, Ming Guang left the world of the cave abode and appeared outside the world.

Just as he was about to shrink the world of cave abodes, he caught a glimpse of over 10,000 world of cave abodes, and hundreds of them had disappeared.

It turned out that many conscientious masters of the world of cave abodes had made the same choice as him.

To betray the rising sun tribe!

Rather than waiting for death, it was better to join forces and charge out.

Shua Shua Shua Shua --

One after another, masters of the world of cave abodes gathered all the world of cave abodes and gathered in the southernmost direction.

It could be faintly seen that up to four to five hundred world overseers were gathered together, preparing to break through the wolf smoke tribe's blockade and escape the rising sun tribe.

Ming Guang was instantly moved. Rather than acting alone, it was better to act together with them. There was a better chance of escaping.

He was about to increase his excitement when suddenly, an incomparably tyrannical aura rolled over from above his head.

It was Ri Dong Lai!

That aura directly descended on the Master of the cave world who was about to defect. Without any explanation or questioning, Ri Dong Lai coldly attacked.

The highest cultivation level of the Master of the cave world who had defected was the single-crowned emperor, and the vast majority were half-step emperors.

In front of the double-crowned emperor, they were like a group of ants.

With a loud bang, four to five hundred masters instantly turned into a rain of blood, and not a single one escaped.

Ri Dong Lai was drenched in blood. His eyes were exceptionally cruel. "Betraying the rising sun tribe, disregarding the life and death of your tribesmen, kill without mercy!"

A thunderous sound pierced through all the immortal's Cave Worlds.

"There are four hours left. If you can not complete your goal, this leader will punish you severely!"

He intentionally or unintentionally stared at Ming Guang. The latter's old body suddenly trembled, pretending to repair the immortal's Cave world.

After RI Donglai left, he returned to the world of the cave abode in fear and anger.

"I can't leave." Bright light looked at the mountains and rivers in the distant world of the cave abode, his eyes filled with shame. "I'm useless. I'm ashamed of your faith. I'm powerless to protect you."

Noticing the movements in the outside world, Ming Die's heart slightly twitched, unable to suppress her grief and indignation.

Shua Shua Shua --

“Choose a young man with ordinary qualifications. This is all I can do.”Ming Guang felt powerless.

The cultivation level of Ri Dong Lai was too high, so high that they didn’t have the ability to resist at all.

Chapter 1906 Was Indeed Unworthy

Four hours later.

Ri Dong Lai walked out from the ten Immortal Cave Worlds. Both his hands were covered in blood, as well as the youths who had been forcibly escorted out.

The final ten disobedient Immortal Cave World Controllers received the punishment they deserved!

He looked around at the Rising Sun Tribe Square, where 100 million youths were gathered, ri Dong Lai revealed a smile. “My clansmen, don’t be afraid and don’t hesitate. What awaits you will be an unprecedented opportunity. You will represent our rising sun tribe and head to the wolf smoke tribe to interact and learn from their outstanding youths!”

“Go! You will be the witness of peace between our two tribes!”

Under the leadership of Ridong Lai’s trusted aide, 100 million youths Wept and resisted as they were pushed and shoved towards the wolf smoke tribe.

Looking at their receding figures, Ridong Lai heaved a long sigh of relief.

The great crisis had finally been resolved.

Half a day later, Ridong Lai’s trusted aide sent a message. “The wolf smoke tribe is very satisfied with our sincerity and has decided to send an envoy to the rising sun tribe tomorrow to sign a treaty of friendship between the two tribes.”

Hearing this, Ridong Lai was overjoyed.

The stone in his chest dropped completely.

He happily set up the negotiation venue for tomorrow and was prepared to welcome them with the grandest ceremony. He would definitely let them return satisfied.

At the same time, he ordered the warriors of the rising sun tribe to patrol the various cave abodes. He strictly ordered that no living being was allowed to say anything unfavorable about the wolf smoke tribe.

He also specially granted the patrolling warriors the right to kill First and report later. Once they were discovered, they would immediately be arrested. Those who dared to resist would be killed on the spot!

In addition, he also summoned the leaders of the cave abodes to make detailed arrangements for Tomorrow’s peace talks and order. He requested that the leaders of each cave abodes must manage their own people well, he could not let the people of the wolf smoke tribe have the slightest bit of dissatisfaction so as to not affect the peace talks.

Now that things had come to this, what else could they say?

100 million of their tribesmen had been sacrificed, what else could they do now?

They could only accept the humiliating peace!

Regarding this, Su Yu, who was in deep seclusion, knew nothing.

He was trying to explore the new uses of the law of time, and he had a slight success.

The next morning, he walked out of the cultivation room, but he vaguely discovered that the atmosphere in the cave abode world wasn't right.

Not only were there many more sunrise tribe patrols, but the creatures in the cave abode world were also unusually depressed.

Casually listening to their thoughts, Su Yu secretly frowned. The arrival of the wolf smoke tribe was faster than he had imagined.

Moreover, so many things had actually happened during the few days he was in closed-door cultivation?

Especially the performance of Ri Dong Lai, which made Su Yu's gaze slightly cold.

At the same time, a group of ten wolf smoke tribe members slowly stepped into the rising sun tribe.

The person who had come was none other than the former traitor of the rising sun tribe, Shan Ling Fei!

Not long ago, he had followed the third leader and charged into the rising sun tribe, slaughtering countless past tribesmen.

After a few days, he had become the Peace Ambassador of the Rising Sun tribe.

From Afar, Ri Dong Lai had already led the controller of the cave abode world to welcome him.

"Welcome, Ambassador of Peace for the Wolf Smoke tribe. Our Rising Sun tribe welcomes you warmly!" Ri Dong Lai ignored Shan Ling Fei's identity and cupped his fists with a smile on his face.

Shan Ling Fei sat on top of the Savage Beast, and his posture when he came down was lacking in respect. He swept his gaze over the Savage Beast and landed on Ming Guang's body. The corners of his mouth curled into a sneer.

Back then, when Mingguang had killed his kin out of righteousness, he probably never dreamed that one day, he would return with such an identity, right?

Mingguang frowned deeply. He had a very bad premonition.

"Lord Envoy, please come this way." Ri Donglai led the way with a smile on his face.

At this moment, tens of thousands of creatures rushed out from a cave world that they passed by. They all had cultivation bases, but it could be said that they could be ignored.

"The wolf smoke tribe destroyed countless of my clansmen. The Ri Dong Lai harmed my clansmen worse than pigs and dogs. The Heavenly Dao circulates, and evil has its retribution!"The bodies of the tens of thousands of people were covered in blood, which was the blood of the patrolling soldiers.

Their cave world was the world where Ri Dong Lai had killed the person in charge.

The previous person in charge had sacrificed himself in order to protect them.

The next person in charge had been killed by Ri Dong Lai in order to seek justice for the group that had died.

The current ruler chose to lead them to escape from the rising sun tribe in order to protect them, and was killed by Ridong Lai again.

Of the three rulers, two of them didn't die at the hands of the enemy, but at the hands of their own people.

Traitors were always more brutal than the enemy!

For the sake of his own life, Ridong Lai had long betrayed the rising sun tribe and his clansmen.

The sudden situation caused Ri Dong Lai's smiling face to suddenly stiffen and turn ice-cold.

He swept his eyes across and a powerful fluctuation instantly killed all of them, leaving not even their corpses behind!

His heart tightened slightly as he carefully looked at Shan Ling Fei. What caused his heart to drop to the bottom was that Shan Ling Fei's face was ice-cold as he stared at him indifferently. "Ri Dong Lai, is this the sincerity you spoke of in the peace talks? Let's Go!"

Without saying a word, he turned around and left.

Ri Dong Lai's face was livid. A cold light flashed in his eyes as he clenched his five fingers across space.

Kacha --

The cave world where tens of thousands of rebels had appeared was instantly shattered.

The billions of living beings inside were all buried!

When the wolf smoke tribe attacked last time, the number of people from the rising sun tribe that they had killed was less than a fraction of this time.

The leaders of the cave world behind Ri Dong Lai felt like their eyes were about to pop out of their sockets. All of them clenched their fists, wishing that they could grind Ri Dong Lai's bones into ashes.

They didn't have the courage to fight the Wolf Fang tribe, yet they were so vicious to their own people.

What kind of leader was he?

Ri Dong Lai threw an apologetic smile at Shan Ling Fei. "I'm very sorry, Lord Envoy. I let a few traitors disturb you, but I promise that I will do what I did just now and give you a perfect explanation."

Shan lingfei looked at the shattered world of the cave abode and smiled evilly. "That's more like it!"

Under Ri Dong Lai's warm welcome, the emissary delegation of the Wolf Smoke Tribe finally arrived at the negotiation club.

A banquet had already been set up there. Countless beautiful human handmaidens stood respectfully on both sides of the table, welcoming them to their seats.

Shan Lingfei's cloak fluttered as he sat at the head of the table and swept his gaze across the people in front of him.

The leader of the rising sun tribe, whom he had to look up to in the past, and the Master of the cave abode world whom he had to treat with respect, were now standing in front of him with their heads bowed.

A feeling of exaltation lingered in the depths of his mind.

His gaze was like lightning as he stared at the bright light in the crowd once again, he said indifferently, "Ri Dong Lai, your people don't really understand the rules. This envoy is the first and second leaders of the wolf smoke tribe. When I see them, I see them. But your people are standing upright. Do you have any disrespect for the two leaders?"

Ri Dong Lai's heart tightened. He quickly turned around and shouted, "Didn't you hear me? Why aren't you kneeling down to greet the envoy?"

The rest of the people knelt down one after another. They had sacrificed so much. So what if they sacrificed a little bit of their dignity?

The bright light in the crowd had a look of deep hatred and bitterness on his old face. He bent his knees and knelt down as well.

Staring at the bright light kneeling on the ground, Shan Ling Fei laughed out loud. His laughter was unrestrained.

"Hehe, Rise!" Shan lingfei waved his hand, after that, he looked critically at the maidservants present. "Does your rising sun tribe only have these beautiful women? I really can't see where your sincerity lies. Go, Call Ming die over to drink with me!"

"If she makes me happy, then we can talk peace today!"

Ming Guang was furious. He really wanted to make a move on Ming die!

However, before he could say anything, Ri Dong Lai smiled and said, "Lord Envoy, it is her fortune to be able to make Ming die drink with her. She will not be able to cultivate for several lifetimes. Go, inform Ming die to come over."

Ri Dong Lai's confidant immediately flew towards Ming Guang's Cave World.

Shan Ling Fei stared at Ming Guang's murderous eyes. His heart was extremely happy. Countless ideas flashed through his mind to make Ming Guang suffer so much that he wished he could die.

For example, he would strip Ming die naked on the wine table and turn her from a young girl into a woman in front of him!

With this thought in mind, he and the other emissaries of the wolf smoke tribe laughed and drank. The human maids forced themselves to smile, dancing, and playing music.

Ri Donglai, on the other hand, had a smile on his face as he amiably accompanied them and gave them pointers.

That scene was as awe-inspiring as it could be.

Shan Ling Fei felt that he had reached the peak of his life.

After three rounds of drinking, Ming die was still not there. He frowned unhappily. "Ri Dong Lai, why is it so difficult to call a person? Or is it that your rising sun tribe doesn't think that I, Shan Ling Fei, am worthy of her drinking with me?"

Ri Dong Lai's expression changed slightly. He immediately gave his trusted aide a look, asking him to go and see what was going on. Why hadn't he come yet.

"Lord Emissary, you are a heroic figure. You are a dragon among men. Ming die is just a little girl. For You to take a fancy to her, that is..."

Before he could finish his words, a voice from the soul level came from everyone's souls at the same time.

"Mm, you still have some self-awareness. You are indeed not worthy of being accompanied by Die'er."

Shan Ling Fei's expression immediately turned cold as he stared coldly at Ri Dong Lai. "Looks like what I said was right?"

Ri Donglai broke out in a cold sweat. At the same time, dense killing intent rose in his heart. who dared to disrupt the peace talks?

Shua --

In the middle of the banquet, a spatial fluctuation appeared. A silver-haired handsome youth with his hands behind his back appeared.

His expression was indifferent, and his eyes were as calm as water. One could not tell whether he was happy or angry.

Dan Lingfei's pupils constricted. It was him!

The youth who had killed the third leader!

Why were the wolf smoke tribe's soldiers pressing down on the border? It was because this youth had killed the third leader that the entire wolf smoke tribe's army was pressing down on the border.

Shan lingfei was exceptionally fearful, but when he looked at the sunken Ri Dong Lai beside him, his heart calmed down once again.

With this person's leader here, could he rebel against the heavens?

"Ri Dong Lai, is he also one of your people?" Shan lingfei said indifferently. The displeasure on his face was almost carved out, and it could not be verified.

Ri Dong Lai glanced at Su Yu. He had not seen him before, but there were countless members of the rising sun tribe and he did not know how many people he had not seen before.

“Emissary, why aren’t you kneeling down in front of me?” Ri Dong Lai’s face was cold.

Su Yu did not even look at him. She stared at Shan lingfei and said indifferently, “Go back and tell the two leaders of the wolf smoke tribe to wash their necks. I will come back and take their lives later.”

The moment he said that, everyone was shocked.

Ri Dong Lai was even more furious!

It was not easy for him to come to this point, but now, a young tribesman who did not know his own fate had appeared.

Even if he died, he would not be able to escape the blame!

“Insulting the two honorable leaders of the Wolf Smoke tribe, I can not just stand by and watch.” Ri Dong Lai’s expression was dark as his aura crushed towards Su Yu, he said indifferently, “You have committed an unforgivable mistake. Don’t blame me for being righteous!”

Chapter 1907

Su Yu chose to ignore Ri Dong Lai.

He looked at Shan Lingfei for a moment. The latter had nothing to fear and looked at him with an evil smile. It was as if he was saying, “What can you do to me?”?

“Ri Dong Lai, your clansmen don’t seem to be very obedient! If you make me unhappy, this negotiation will end here,” Shan Lingfei said coldly.

The other nine emissaries of the Wolf Smoke tribe all revealed cold expressions, as if they were about to leave.

Ri Dong Lai knew that he couldn’t wait any longer, and his aura suddenly doubled. He wanted to crush Su Yu into nothingness in an instant, to make the ten emissaries satisfied.

However, as the aura pressed down, Su Yu’s clothes lightly fluttered, and there wasn’t the slightest bit of abnormality.

A trace of surprise and doubt flashed through his eyes. He frowned and changed to a palm strike across space. A trace of primal energy turned into sharp threads that flew out, wanting to kill him.

However, Su Yu stood with his hands behind his back. He did not dodge or Dodge, allowing the primal energy to attack him.

An invisible spatial barrier suddenly appeared three feet away from his body.

When the primal energy hit it, it created ripples and dissipated.

This time, Ri Dong Lai was truly shocked.

Only the single-crowned emperor could resist his attack. There was no way anyone below the emperor could resist it.

Su Yu's gaze landed on Shan Lingfei for ten breaths before he said indifferently, "Since you're not willing to go back, then let someone else do it for you."

Without seeing him make any movements, a spatial lotus suddenly bloomed under Shan Lingfei's VIP seat.

Shan Lingfei had a bad premonition after Su Yu had easily blocked the attack from Ri Donglai. He had secretly taken precautions.

At this moment, he let out a reflexive roar, "Stellar transposition!"

He was clearly in the middle, but after casting the divine spell, he had switched positions with the Wolf Smoke Tribe's emissary on the far left.

Without waiting for the emissary to regain his senses, he was immediately turned into a bloody mist by the Blooming Lotus.

Shan lingfei's pupils suddenly constricted. He would never forget that spatial lotus even in his dreams.

In the midst of thousands of soldiers and horses, a lotus flower bloomed, creating a long bloody path. Hundreds of soldiers of the wolf smoke tribe died in an instant.

At this moment, he sucked in a breath of cold air and roared in fear and anger, "Ri Dong Lai, you trash. You Can't even discipline your own tribesmen properly. How dare you assassinate an emissary! I want to report this to the two leaders and immediately exterminate your entire tribe!"

He was truly flustered. It was as if Ri Dong Lai was unable to restrain this tribesman.

What was going on? Wasn't he one of the younger generation nurtured by the Rising Sun Tribe? Where did he get the courage to oppose Ri Dong Lai?

Su Yu looked at him indifferently, "I have two statements. First, I am not a member of the rising sun tribe. I am a passerby! Second, I will not go back on my word. If you are not willing to go back and send a message, then I will change someone else."

Su Yu's gaze turned cold. He took out the asura sword and pointed across space.

This sword strike caused Shan Lingfei's soul to leave his body.

He could still vividly remember how the third leader died.

At this moment, his scalp went numb. He cursed angrily, "Quickly protect me!"

Ri donglai reacted and shouted, "Evil creature, stop right now. Do you want to Kill Our Rising Sun Tribe?"

However, that sword Qi had already silently penetrated out.

Dan Ling Fei was extremely shocked. At the critical moment, he smashed a jade pendant hanging on his chest and shouted, "Second leader, save me!"

Boom --

A majestic aura of a double-crowned emperor descended.

The aura gathered to form a burly man that was twenty feet tall.

There was a black sun mark between his brows. It was the famous second leader of the Wolf Smoke tribe.

This was the amulet that the second leader had given to Shan lingfei. At the critical moment, he could make a move... and kill Ri Donglai!

Peace Talk? was that possible?

Killing the third leader of the Wolf Smoke tribe, only by exterminating the entire rising sun tribe could he wash away his hatred!

As for agreeing to the peace talk, it was just to numb the rising sun tribe and not let them fall into despair and fight with their lives on the line.

It was laughable that the leader of the rising sun tribe actually believed it.

As soon as the second leader's projection appeared, he immediately used a powerful law to attack the incoming sword.

Pu --

The two of them canceled each other out. The remaining sword qi pierced through and shot towards Shan lingfei.

Shan lingfei's expression changed in shock.

The second leader's attack was actually unable to withstand his sword!

"Stellar transposition!" He once again used a similar divine art. This time, he teleported the other emissary to face him.

In an instant, he was penetrated by the remaining sword qi, and his vitality was extinguished on the spot.

However, the sword Qi did not stop and continued to attack.

"Stellar transposition!"

Another emissary was teleported over, but the result was still death.

After counting, eight out of the other nine emissaries became his scapegoat.

But because of this, the terrifying sword Qi was finally eliminated.

Shan lingfei's legs trembled, and he turned around to flee in horror.

Su Yu stood where he was, only gripping his hand across space. Shan lingfei, who had already fled far away, was swept away by a force of space that could not be resisted. Then, he returned to a distance of thirty feet in front of Su Yu.

This scene made Shan Lingfei Scream in fear.

The most terrifying enemy was not someone who was absolutely stronger than him, but not only was he strong, but he also did not have the power to escape.

“Ri Dong Lai, what the F * ck are you still standing for? Quickly save me!” Dan Lingfei was extremely terrified of Su Yu, but he was like a beast that was being insulted by Ri Dong Lai.

However, Ri Dong Lai still placed his last bit of hope on him, obeying his every word.

His expression was extremely gloomy as he looked at the corpses of the messengers on the ground and said furiously, “Where did this little bastard come from? You’ve ruined the matters of my rising sun tribe, this chief will not forgive you!”

Chi La La --

A large number of law chains appeared in his palm, indicating that Ri Dong Lai was going to kill him with all his strength.

It was only at this moment that Su Yu faced Ri Dong Lai for the first time.

His eyes were calm, and no one could see the emotions in his heart. He said calmly, “I originally wanted to get rid of the emissary of the Wolf Smoke tribe and then deal with you. Since You’re so considerate for the tribe, then I’ll deal with You First!”

A ball of crimson flame appeared in his palm. It was the true dragon divine flame with unfathomable power.

The moment the opponent’s law chains attacked, Su Yu flicked the flame with his finger.

In an instant, the law chains of Ri Dong Lai were burned.

Ah!

Ri Dong Lai cried out in pain. His law had been damaged and his original body was also in great pain.

“What kind of flame is this?” He cried out in fear. In front of this flame, he had a small sense of fear, as if he could be killed at any time.

Su Yu said indifferently, “You don’t need to know. You just need to understand that you have to pay the price for everything you do.”

The Asura sword followed his wrist and turned, drawing out a cold and obscure sword qi.

Instantly, Ri Dong Lai’s heart beat wildly, and a rare sense of life-and-death crisis surged up.

At that moment, he surged all the primeval power in his body and struck out with a bang, trying to contend with it.

However, the sword Qi turned a blind eye and easily penetrated the power of desolation that Ri Dong Lai was proud of.

It was only at this moment that Ri Dong Lai changed greatly and hurriedly took out his divine weapon.

However, the moment the divine weapon touched the sword qi, it was destroyed on the spot.

Four or five top-tier divine weapons were destroyed one by one.

“Stop, you killed me, what should the rising sun tribe do? Without me protecting them, what should the other tribes do if they invade in the future?” At the critical moment, Ri Dong Lai hurriedly shouted, trying to impress Su Yu with a dignified reason.

Su Yu was unmoved, he calmly said, “The protection you are referring to, are you referring to the tens of billions of living beings in the cave abode world that you destroyed not long ago? “Or are you referring to the clansmen that you sent to the wolf smoke tribe as slaves, or are you referring to the people in charge of the cave abode world that you cruelly and decisively killed

“Compared to you, the enemies that you speak of are too merciful. The rising sun tribe clansmen that they killed were not even a fraction of what you killed.” Su Yu calmly said, “Since ancient times, traitors have always been more brutal than the enemies.”

As soon as he finished speaking, Su Yu swung his sword again.

Two destructive sword qis attacked one after another.

Ri Dong Lai roared indignantly. His eyes were about to split open as he cursed, “Little Bastard, what does the rising sun tribe’s matter have to do with an outsider like you...”

As soon as he finished speaking, the vitality in his body was instantly emptied.

However, the moment the sword qis penetrated his body, a cauldron that was wrapped in other souls actually escaped from his body.

With both his body and soul destroyed, he should have killed both his body and soul.

That cauldron shouldn’t be simple.

“Nine death soul protecting cauldron! Wasn’t it stolen by a mysterious person during the era of the previous tribe leader?” Ming Guang and a few of the older generation managers of the cave world were shocked.

The so-called nine death soul protecting cauldron was a mysterious treasure passed down by the rising sun tribe. It had a life-saving effect on the soul. It was said that even a strike from the three crowns couldn’t harm the soul.

Most importantly, if one’s soul was injured, they could cultivate in the furnace and slowly recover.

As long as there was a portion of the soul left, no matter how serious the injury was, it could be completely healed.

It was said that the first leader of the rising sun tribe fought hundreds of battles with other tribes in order to gain enough territory for the tribe.

Dozens of times, his body was heavily injured, and nine times, his soul was damaged beyond recovery.

However, they were all repaired by the cauldron and pulled back from the brink of death.

Therefore, he was honored by the Rising Sun tribe and became the nine death soul-protecting furnace.

This furnace was a sacred item passed down from generation to generation and had always been kept by the tribe leader.

Until the last time, when the Wolf Smoke Tribe's great leader led a group of people to pass by the rising sun tribe, he took the opportunity to plunder and was resisted by the leader.

The leader was defeated and his soul was severely injured by the wolf smoke tribe's great leader.

The leader then went into seclusion and used the nine death soul protecting furnace to repair his severely injured soul.

However, no one expected that the leader who was in seclusion would suddenly be attacked by an unknown expert. Not only did his injuries worsen, but the nine death soul protecting furnace was also taken away.

Not long after, the previous leader died due to his double injuries.

The whereabouts of the nine death soul protecting furnace was also unknown from then on.

To the surprise of all the Masters of the cave abode world, the nine death soul protecting furnace was actually on the body of the current leader, Ri Dong Lai!

The mystery from tens of millions of years ago was instantly solved!

To be able to hide from the eyes and ears of so many people and break into the place where the leader was in seclusion, who else could it be other than his own people?

And with the death of the previous leader, there was a possibility of the current leader taking over.

"Ri Dong Lai, you killed the old leader!" Everyone was enlightened and gritted their teeth to hate him.

After so many years, they could not see through the despicable and sinister Ri Dong Lai.

They let these pests that harmed the rising sun tribe get away with it until today.

Ri Dong Lai's soul hid in the nine death soul-protecting furnace and fled in fear.

At this moment, there was no place for him in the rising sun tribe.

But could he leave as he pleased?

Chapter 1908 Losing Control

Su Yu clenched his fist, and the space around Ri Dong Lai was sealed, forming an impenetrable spatial cage.

If he had a body, he might be able to forcefully break through the spatial cage, but he only had a soul left.

He easily shattered Ri Dong Lai's body and imprisoned his soul. Not only did none of the masters of the Cave Abode World Act to stop him, they were all extremely excited.

Of course, there were also a few of Ri Dong Lai's trusted aides who were ashen-faced.

Shan Ling Fei also had an ugly expression.

His face was covered in the fresh blood of Ri Dong Lai. However, he no longer had the arrogance and magnificence he had before.

He was like a pitiful worm who had just fallen from the peak of his life to being underestimated. With a plop, he knelt on the ground, he kowtowed in misery. "Senior... Senior! I've realized my mistake! I've changed my past and joined the rising sun tribe once again. I will not be an accomplice to the tiger! No matter what you want me to do, I will definitely listen to your orders!"

Su Yu stared at him indifferently and shook his head. "Your eyes tell me that if there's a chance, you'll go even further and take back ten times the humiliation you suffered today. It's useless to keep a person like you alive."

With a flick of his finger, a strand of silk flew out from his wrist and neatly cut off his head.

Even his soul was cut into pieces.

Out of the ten envoys, only the last one was still alive. However, his body was stiff and his feet were like lead. He stood on the spot and didn't dare to move.

The way he looked at Su Yu was as if he was looking at a man-eating demon.

Killing a double-crowned king like Ri Donglai in a snap of his fingers, making their souls unable to escape. This... What kind of strength was this?

Only the great leader could compare to this.

When Su Yu looked over, he let out a scream, and his legs went limp as he fell to the ground.

Su Yu flicked his fingers and cut off the heads of Ri Donglai and the other eight messengers, he threw all of them to him. "These are the gifts from the peace talks of the rising sun tribe. The peace talks have ended. Tell your two leaders to wait for me to take their lives."

"Go!"

Without waiting for further explanation, Su Yu willed a spatial force to wrap around him and the ten great heads before teleporting out of the Rising Sun tribe.

After doing all this, Su Yu waved his sleeve, and the long bloody scene was completely swept away.

He silently left the cave world and arrived in front of a cave world that had already collapsed.

He clenched his hands, and the shattered cave world was condensed into a human-shaped statue kneeling on the ground.

His face and form were undoubtedly that of Ri Dong Lai.

Then, he waved his hand across the air and captured the soul of the ferocious-looking Ri Dong Lai. With a flick of his finger, a wisp of true dragon divine fire wrapped around his soul.

When he could adjust, the high temperature of the true dragon divine fire would burn him to death, but it was not fatal.

At the same time, Su Yu poured a pure life force into his soul and released it bit by bit.

When his soul weakened, it was released to maintain his soul's indestructibility.

In this way, he would be tortured by the True Dragon Divine Fire for eternity until his life force was exhausted. Only then would he die completely.

"Since you say that you are thinking for the people of the rising sun tribe, then you should lead by example and express it with your actions." Su Yu said indifferently, "I will punish you to kneel in the stone statue for a thousand years and repent to the people you killed."

With a snap of his fingers, his soul was injected into the kneeling stone statue.

At the same time, Su Yu's law of death was also injected into the stone statue.

Anyone who wanted to shatter the stone statue and save Ri Dong Lai's soul would first have to bear the law of Death's attack.

Anyone under the Double Crown Emperor would definitely die upon contact.

The Masters of the cave world who had been chased out all applauded.

Everything Su Yu had done was extremely gratifying!

Light walked out from the crowd. It was as if he was in a dream. The youth he had unintentionally brought back was actually an unparalleled expert!

What sort of terrifying character was Ri Dong Lai?

He was actually so easily killed!

Such terrifying strength, he had only heard of the great leader of the Wolf Smoke tribe.

"Senior Su, please forgive us for offending you in the past." Ming Guang couldn't help but recall that he had locked Su Yu up in prison.

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but feel terrified.

"No worries." Su Yu said indifferently.

Ming Guang and the others secretly heaved a sigh of relief. Together with the other rulers of the cave world, they all bowed to Su Yu. "We thank senior Su for your great kindness."

Without Su Yu's help, they didn't know how long they would have to endure the bullying of Ri Dong Lai.

Su Yu used the power of space to help them up. With a guilty expression, he said, "I don't deserve your thanks. Speaking of which, the wolf smoke tribe's large scale invasion was caused by me."

Ming Guang didn't understand and asked, "Senior Su, what do you mean?"

Su Yu said, "I killed the three leaders of the Wolf Smoke tribe. The Wolf Smoke tribe took their revenge just now."

However, the wolf smoke tribe did have an army, but they only killed 10,000 people.

The one who killed the rising sun tribe was the leader of the tribe, Ri Dong Lai.

“What, senior Su... Senior Su killed the three leaders?”Everyone gasped.

Just how strong was he?

The third leader of the Wolf Smoke tribe was much stronger than Ri Dong Lai.

It was one thing to kill Ri Dong Lai, but he was actually strong enough to kill the third leader!

It was simply unbelievable!

Ming Guang regained his senses, he quickly said, “Senior, please don’t say that. Ri Dong Lai is cruel both internally and externally. He doesn’t dare to take revenge on the wolf smoke tribe. Senior killed the third leader and did something that we wanted to do but were powerless to do. We can’t even thank you in time, how can we blame you? “If those clansmen who sacrificed themselves knew about this in the afterlife, I’m sure they wouldn’t blame senior.”

Su Yu sighed. “I didn’t kill Bo Ren. Bo Ren died because of me. I’m ultimately responsible for their deaths.”

He didn’t avoid his own mistakes.

If he had woken up earlier, there probably wouldn’t have been so many resentful souls who died in vain.

Ming Guang sighed. Compared to the selfish Ri Dong Lai, Su Yu was simply nobler than the clouds.

“Senior SU, we are very grateful for everything you have done for the rising sun tribe. Now, please leave as soon as possible. With your strength, as long as you don’t meet the two leaders of the wolf smoke tribe, there shouldn’t be any problems.”

“We will also put away the cave abode world and break out of the encirclement separately. We will try our best to lead our tribesmen to escape and find a new place to settle down.”

When Su Yu heard this, he said, “Let’s wait for a moment first.”

Ming Guang said hesitantly, “Senior, I’m afraid we can’t wait any longer. When the wolf smoke tribe finds out that the envoy of the peace talks has been killed, they will definitely come and kill us. At that time, it might be difficult to leave.”

Hearing this, Su Yu shook his head indifferently. “I am waiting for them to send the envoy of the peace talks over and come to us to ask for Peace.”

Ask for Peace? Ask for Peace?

The many masters of the cave abode world looked at each other in disbelief.

Even if Su Yu was very strong, could he be stronger than the second leader of the Wolf Smoke Tribe?

That was a peak expert at the late stage of the double-crowned Emperor Realm!

Besides him, there was also the great leader!

Besides the great leader, there were thousands of single-crowned emperors. How could Su Yu deal with the Wolf Smoke tribe alone?

At the same time.

The tsunami-like wolf smoke tribe army surrounded the rising sun tribe.

A moving central army camp was carried by hundreds of savage beasts as they marched towards the rising sun tribe.

In the camp, two people were sitting opposite each other, playing chess.

One of them had a black sun between his eyebrows and was the second leader of the Wolf Smoke tribe.

The other one was a one-eyed middle-aged man.

He had a refined temperament and a calm expression. If it wasn't for the one-eyed man that ruined his temperament, no one would have thought that the person in front of him was the famous leader of the Wolf Smoke Tribe!

It was rumored that he was close to the peak of the Triple Crown!

"Big Brother's chess skills are much better. Second Brother is inferior." The second leader thought hard for a long time before sighing helplessly and admitting defeat.

The first leader smiled lightly. "Chess skills lie in the strategy and control of the Chess Pieces. A good chess piece can often turn the rotten into magic and reverse the universe."

"Hehe, I don't understand what big brother said. Anyway, I'm not interested in chess skills. But Big Brother has always been interested in chess skills." The second leader laughed.

The first leader said meaningfully, "It's not that I'm interested in chess skills, but I've been waiting for a game of chess."

"Big Brother's words are somewhat profound. Second Brother doesn't understand. What kind of go in the world does big brother need to wait for?" The second leader asked suspiciously.

The first leader nodded slightly, his eyes shining. "Mm, I've been waiting for tens of millions of years, waiting for that game of go to open. If I'm lucky enough to join the game, perhaps I'll have a chance to break through the shackles and become the Triple Crown."

The second leader was moved. "What game is so special that Big Brother could find a chance to break through to the Triple Crown?"

"The game of Universal Chess!" The first leader spat out these three words, his eyes unprecedentedly sharp.

The second leader was surprised. The game of Universal Chess? Why had he never heard of it?

Just as he was about to ask, there was a report from outside. The messenger from the peace talks had returned and had something to report to them.

The second leader couldn't help but laugh mockingly. "Looks like we managed to fool those stupid things. Big Brother is indeed good at scheming. He sent the messenger to make their leader and people alienate and even let them lower their guard. In this way, it will be very easy for us to exterminate the rising sun tribe."

The first leader shook his head disapprovingly. "It's not that I'm brilliant, it's just that Ri Donglai is too stupid. He's so stupid that I can't even feel the joy of victory!"

"No matter what, Big Brother can't learn this trick of playing hard to get!" The second leader chuckled. Then, he said, "Let the Messenger of peace talk in."

The tent was opened, but only one person entered.

The second leader frowned. "Why are you alone? Where's Shan Lingfei? Isn't he in charge of the peace talks this time?"

Hearing this, the messenger fell to his knees with a plop. "This subordinate is incompetent. I didn't protect Shan lingfei well!"

He took out Shan Lingfei's head.

When the second leader saw this, he was obviously stunned. He was dead?

There was no sadness in his eyes. In his opinion, Shan Lingfei was just a dog that could be abandoned at any time. It was just that this dog was exceptionally vicious when it bit people and was very useful.

The first leader was slightly puzzled. "Why would ri Dong Lai allow him to be killed by the Rising Sun Tribe?"

Based on his analysis, Ri Dong Lai was a cowardly chess piece. Under the tense environment that he had created, he should have spared no effort to serve Shan Ling Fei.

The envoy took out another Ri Dong Lai's head in fear and said in a trembling voice, "He's dead!"

Immediately, the great leader's pupils constricted and a feeling of losing control arose.

Chapter 1909 Blood-Stained Cape

The second leader suddenly stood up and asked in disbelief, "How did he die?"

Did the rising sun tribe have a powerful existence that could kill the East Sun Tribe?

But was it possible?

They were all tribes on the prairie, so they knew each other's strength.

The rising sun tribe really only had people who were above the east sun tribe, and they wouldn't be controlled by people like the East Sun tribe.

The emissary did not dare to hide anything and said in fear, "He is the person who killed the third leader."

The second leader was shocked once again, his tone suddenly became gloomy, “Didn’t you say that the youth only relied on the rising sun tribe’s powerful divine weapon to ambush and kill the third leader? “What happened to the Rising Sun Tribe? They actually did not take back their divine weapon. Instead, they caused their own lives to be lost!”

At least the group of deserters had come back to say that the youth had used a mysterious and powerful divine weapon to kill the three leaders.

The envoy hurriedly shook his head, his face filled with unresolvable fear. “No, he’s not a member of the rising sun tribe, but a passing human guest. Not only was Ridong Lai unable to restrain him, he was even easily killed by him!”

Not a member of the Rising Sun Tribe?

The news was unexpected.

They had thought that they could use the rising sun tribe to restrain their own clansmen, and it would be best to force the Rising Sun tribe to take the initiative to kill this person.

Who would have thought that he wasn’t a member of the rising sun tribe.

“In that case, our wolf smoke tribe is actually fighting against a mysterious expert who doesn’t have a fixed residence?”The second leader’s eyes revealed a trace of contemplation.

They weren’t afraid of a powerful rising sun tribe. No matter how powerful the expert inside was, he still couldn’t leave the tribe. He wanted to stay behind to protect the tribe. In that case, as long as they had enough troops, no matter how powerful one’s cultivation base was, it would be useless.

However, if the other party was a lone wolf, it would be troublesome.

He did not have a fixed residence, nor did he have anyone to protect. He could leave at any time, and he could kill his way back at any time. It could be said that he was a ghost, making people feel uneasy.

“Big Brother, it seems that we were wrong from the beginning.”The second leader turned his head and said.

The first leader stared at the chessboard and asked thoughtfully, “Did he let you come back just to bring back your heads?”

The emissary trembled violently, he stammered, “He... he asked me to tell the two chiefs that these heads are the peace gifts he gave them, and then... and then he asked the two chiefs to wait for him to come and take your heads.”

The second chief laughed angrily, “What an arrogant tone!”

But there was a deep fear in his words.

Killing a third leader and then killing a member of the rising sun tribe, his cultivation level might not be lower than his.

Moreover, he came and went without a trace, and could appear at any time.

Such an enemy was too dangerous.

“Big Brother, what do you think we should do?”The second leader looked at the first leader, asking him to pay attention.

The first leader’s only eye was empty and indifferent. “It doesn’t matter! He is not a lone wolf, but a goat who will never abandon his people to protect them.”

“Why do you say that, Big Brother?”

The great leader said indifferently, “He is just a passerby, he will give us a gift for peace talks for the people of the rising sun tribe.”

After pausing for a moment, he flicked his finger and hit the bell outside the tent, causing the bell to ring loudly.

That was a signal to urge the army to speed up!

“Kill him, he will block in front of the rising sun tribe and use his body to block our sharp arrows!”

The Savage Beasts attacked the rising sun tribe at an unprecedented speed.

Two hours later, countless black shadows could be seen in the sky around the rising sun tribe. Like a black tide, they surrounded the entire rising sun tribe.

Suffocation and despair surged in his heart.

Su Yu looked at the sky. A huge eye hung in the sky, silently watching everything on the ground.

The scene that was countless miles away caught his eyes.

A middle army camp carried by hundreds of savage beasts was clearly seen by Su Yu.

That was the tent of the first and second leaders of the Wolf Smoke tribe!

Thinking up to this point, Su Yu took out a huge black bow and stabbed it into the ground.

The law of great power and the strength of his body gathered in his arms, pulling the bowstring six inches apart.

Following that, he shot an arrow from the sky and silently aimed at the middle army camp.

The calm-looking big chief suddenly frowned and slowly stood up. “Second brother, move aside. Something Dangerous is coming.”

Almost as soon as he finished speaking, a jet-black stream of light crossed the space and instantly spun through the Middle Army camp.

The entire camp was instantly shredded into pieces.

The two great leaders instantly flew to the left and right, barely avoiding this dangerous attack.

Looking in front of them, the dense army was sliced open by the jet-black stream of light, creating a bloody path that was over 100 Zhang wide.

Over a thousand soldiers and savage beasts of the Wolf Smoke tribe died instantly.

The second leader's eyes revealed traces of shock. He turned his head to look, and the jet-black stream of light that brushed past him disappeared into thin air.

The first leader's gaze pierced through the distance and stopped at the front of the rising sun tribe. He could faintly see a silver-haired human standing in front of a huge iron bow.

"Is that this person's divine weapon?" The second leader was shocked.

With the first leader's reminder, he was able to avoid it. If it was just one person, he would have been killed by an arrow.

Just as the first leader was about to speak, his pupils suddenly constricted and he pushed the second leader away.

At the same time, he also dodged.

Almost at this moment, a shocking sword Qi that could exterminate life force rippled out.

Then, a silver-haired youth held a blood-red longsword and stepped out from the chaotic yin and yang qi.

"I told you to wash your necks and wait quietly, but you want to deliver yourself to my doorstep. I appreciate your kindness," Su Yu said indifferently. Then, he swept his sword horizontally and charged at the second leader.

The second leader's expression changed abruptly, and he retreated frantically without thinking.

After narrowly avoiding the attack, the first leader suddenly shouted, "Watch your back!"

The second leader turned his head and looked. At some point, a quiet spatial lotus had appeared behind him.

The moment he retreated, it suddenly bloomed.

A sense of life-and-death crisis arose in his heart.

Without thinking, the second leader turned his body to the right and was about to escape.

However, all of a sudden, large scales appeared on Su Yu's body, turning into a long dragon that was a thousand feet long and overflowing with evil energy.

The huge dragon tail swept out mercilessly and hit the second leader.

No matter how much he was on guard, he couldn't even dream that a human would turn into a huge dragon!

With a bang, he was swept towards the spatial lotus.

The blooming petals sealed him within the lotus.

The first leader's expression changed drastically. He had expected Su Yu to be very strong, but he didn't expect him to be this strong!

Not only did he have a divine weapon, but he also had countless powerful techniques!

He rushed towards the spatial lotus and used the law chains to attack it. At the same time, he said hurriedly, "Quick, attack from both inside and outside and break the spatial cage."

He had a very ominous feeling that the other party's techniques might not be limited to this.

The second leader had never felt such panic before, and a great sense of regret enveloped his heart.

If he had known this would happen, he would not have rushed into the wolf smoke tribe.

But they were clearly too late.

The Evil Dragon opened its huge cage and suddenly spat out a powerful divine fire, igniting the entire space lotus.

Ah --

A shrill scream shot into the sky, and the second leader was locked in the space lotus, burning into a huge burning man.

The first leader roared and rushed over, trying to shatter the space cage.

But the moment he touched it, he was ignited by the true dragon divine fire and quickly spread to his body.

Sensing the extreme danger of this fire, the first leader hurriedly shattered his clothes and narrowly escaped the divine fire.

But he did not dare to attack the space lotus flower anymore. He watched as the second leader was burned into a pile of ashes.

He took a few deep breaths and glared at Su Yu with his only eye.

There was a deep fear in his anger.

He was wrong!

Su Yu was never a chess piece that he could control and manipulate.

He thought that he could easily kill the other party, so he had rashly attacked just now.

"Human! No matter how strong your abilities are, can you be stronger than the entire wolf smoke tribe?" The great leader slowly retreated.

Countless experts of the wolf smoke tribe swarmed over and protected him behind him.

More than a hundred single crowned emperors stood at the very front and attacked Su Yu.

Even the great leader didn't have the slightest confidence that he could resist the simultaneous attacks of a hundred single crowned emperors.

Su Yu couldn't either.

But, someone could!

"I said, I'll definitely take your head." Su Yu indifferently took out a white emperor puppet covered in black robes.

The invincible aura of the three crowned emperors was instantly released.

He took a step forward and casually threw a punch forward.

A spiraling force shot out from his right fist.

The combined attack of more than a hundred crowned emperors was instantly wiped out, and the force of the punch didn't suffer much damage. Instead, it struck back at more than a hundred crowned emperors.

Countless heartbreaking cries and wails could be heard. Dozens of crowned emperors died on the spot, while the others were all heavily injured.

The big leader, who was protected by them layer by layer, was also affected. His internal organs shook violently as he suddenly spat out a mouthful of blood.

A look of shock finally appeared on his face. "Three... Three Crowns!"

That kind of invincible existence had already surpassed the simple advantage of numbers.

No matter how many ants there were, could they fight against an elephant?

It was only a matter of time before they were trampled to death.

At the same time, Su Yu disappeared from where he stood.

The big leader's heart trembled. He took out a circular sharp blade and suddenly slashed towards the right side of his body.

Ding --

A blood sword silently appeared, but it was blocked by the sharp blade.

His senses were unusually powerful!

However, at the moment of contact, dense spatial sharp blades suddenly flew out from the blood sword and slashed towards him.

The big leader's expression changed drastically. He grabbed with one hand and grabbed a dark yellow blood-stained cloak, covering his body.

Ding Ding Ding --

He did not know what the cloak was, but it actually blocked the spatial blade.

Su Yu raised his eyebrows.

At this moment, the big leader's cloak was lifted, revealing his hidden head. An ice-cold light shot out from his remaining right eye.

Su Yu suddenly felt dizzy. His soul had been shaken.

His soul was the three crowns emperor, yet it was still affected.

"Die!" The sharp blade in the great leader's hand silently slashed at Su Yu's neck.

At this critical moment, it lightly shook its wrist, and several strands of silk flew out, weaving into a huge net and blocking in front of its neck.

However, that circular sharp blade was an unknown powerful divine weapon.

The silk from the butterfly breaking out of the cocoon was completely cut off!

If the silk was like this, how could it be Su Yu's neck?

Su Yu's eyes darkened. A layer of extremely obscure undulations suddenly rippled out from the surface of his body, like water flowing slowly.

The big leader's sharp blade slashed on the surface of his body and actually solidified.

That kind of solidification was not the solidification of space, but... Time!

Chapter 1910 Roar Of The Soul

Seeing that he was about to succeed, the big leader sucked in a breath of cold air. "This is... the law of Time!"

A layer of absolute time ripples condensed on the surface of his body.

No matter how strong your attack was, the moment you touched the ripples, you would instantly fall into absolute time.

As for Su Yu himself, he wasn't affected and slowly recovered.

The Great Leader knew that this was not good. Without thinking, he gave up on the circular sharp blade and quickly retreated.

Almost at the instant he retreated, Su Yu's palm suddenly moved, and in that instant, he unleashed his annihilation.

The great leader retracted his head into the cloak. With a slight muffled sound, the cloak trembled and the sword Qi was completely repelled.

He did not know what this cloak was. It was abnormally powerful and no attack could break it.

However, Su Yu's eyes turned cold. His soul suddenly left his body and stood on the top of his head, taking a deep breath.

His soul was like a balloon, expanding by four to five times.

Then, he suddenly opened his mouth and spat out.

"Soul Roar!"

Roar --

An incomparably sharp scream instantly descended like a violent wind.

The great leader who was protected by the cloak was right in front of him. He was caught off guard by the roar.

Even though the cloak's defense was extremely shocking.

However, Su Yu was the soul of the three crowns. How could he be completely immune to the new soul secret art?

The great leader grunted. His body swayed and he groaned with a splitting headache.

With him like this, the surrounding soldiers of the wolf smoke tribe were no better. Within a 30,000-meter radius, whether it was the single crowns or the low-level soldiers, their souls were instantly shattered by the roar and they died on the spot.

The lethality created by this roar was comparable to the casual attack of a triple-crowned King!

Taking this opportunity, Su Yu raised his longsword and flicked away the cloak on his body.

However, the great leader was already on guard and held onto the cloak as he retreated frantically.

Moreover, as he retreated, he gave a crazy order, “Kill! Kill all of the Rising Sun Tribe!”

After receiving the order, the soldiers of the wolf smoke tribe from all directions roared and charged towards the rising sun tribe.

Su Yu’s eyes turned cold. He didn’t care about the big chief who was running away. Instead, he killed the soldiers of the wolf smoke tribe to prevent the rising sun tribe from being severely wounded again.

The Big Chief took the opportunity to use secret arts to escape rapidly. He even abandoned the wolf smoke tribe.

He knew that Su Yu would protect the rising sun tribe. Therefore, in order to escape, he ordered the soldiers of the wolf smoke tribe to attack the rising sun tribe.

The result was as he had expected.

Su Yu killed a group of people, but there were too many enemies. He couldn’t kill them all in a short period of time.

The soldiers of the wolf smoke tribe in the other directions didn’t know that there was Su Yu, this vicious man, and a puppet of the three crowns.

He whistled and charged over excitedly.

Su Yu stopped and took a deep breath. He roared, “The first and second leaders are dead. Disarm and don’t kill. Carry On and kill without mercy!”

He roared furiously with his immense strength. His voice was as loud as thunder.

The charging savage beasts were so frightened that they staggered, causing the warriors on their backs to fall down.

“They are dead? Impossible!”

“How can they be dead?”

However, the great leader and second leader didn’t reply. It seemed like they were trying to verify his words.

Immediately, the surging smoke tribe warriors looked at each other with bewildered expressions.

The reason why they dared to be vicious was not because they were powerful, but because they had three extremely powerful leaders.

If the three leaders died, when other tribes came to take revenge in the future, who would go against the powerful ones among them?

Hualala --

The smoke tribe warriors behind fled in panic, retreating like the tide.

The Warriors in front didn't have time to escape.

Ming Guang and the other masters of the cave world looked at each other and roared, "Warriors of the Rising Sun tribe, Listen Up! The leader of the Bandits is dead! Follow us and kill all the enemies!"

The Warriors of the rising sun tribe had long been fed up with the cowardice of the Sun East arrival. They all responded and followed the masters of the cave world to kill the enemies bravely.

On one side were the defeated deserters, and on the other side were the oppressed and angry warriors. The result was self-evident.

It was a one-sided massacre.

The war lasted for two days and two nights.

More than half of the wolf smoke tribe's warriors escaped, but more than half of them were injured or captured.

The huge victory made the rising sun tribe feel proud, and the resentment in their hearts disappeared.

The most fortunate thing was that the 30,000 top beauties and 100 million young creatures that the wolf smoke tribe had sent to make peace were abandoned and returned safely before the wolf smoke tribe could even waste them.

Both sides hugged their heads and wept bitterly, feeling both wronged and sad.

The group of Immortal's Cave world overseers led the soldiers to clean up the battlefield, bury the corpses of their own soldiers, and harvest the belongings of the Wolf Fang tribe soldiers.

Ming Guang and the group of overseers listened to the soldiers' reports.

They had suffered tens of millions of casualties in this battle, but the number of enemies they had killed had exceeded tens of billions.

In comparison, the losses were negligible.

This kind of battle could be said to be a miracle.

Their casualties were mainly caused by some fierce wolf smoke tribe warriors. They were forced into a desperate situation and fought back fiercely.

The rest of the wolf smoke tribe warriors abandoned their armor and only wanted to escape. However, they were caught up by the rising sun tribe warriors and slaughtered cleanly.

After this battle, the wolf smoke tribe had suffered great losses. It was almost impossible for them to show off their power in the grassland.

Moreover, the wolf smoke tribe had bullied countless small tribes. If they knew that the three leaders of the wolf smoke tribe had died and more than half of their warriors had died, it was obvious what they would do.

Ming Guang and the others were overjoyed. The huge rock on their chest suddenly fell, and a sense of relief that they hadn't felt in a long time surged into their hearts.

“Oh right, where’s senior Su? Why isn’t he here?” A single-crowned emperor’s controller looked around.

At this moment, a powerful yin and yang energy fluctuation descended.

Su Yu appeared with a solemn expression and withdrew the asura sword with a clang.

He was naturally chasing after the great leader, but this person had used a secret technique and not only had he escaped far away, he had also erased his aura.

Su Yu’s expression became even more solemn as he stared at the broken silk on his wrist.

The great leader of the Wolf Smoke tribe was much more difficult to deal with than he had imagined.

An ordinary double-crowned king, even at the later stages, was usually not Su Yu’s match.

But the great leader was really strange.

That cloak with unparalleled defense, that strange and powerful soul secret technique, and the round sharp blade that he had seized, no matter how he looked at it, he didn’t seem like an ordinary person.

He had experienced the second and third leaders before, and they were ordinary. Why was the Great Leader so powerful?

“Senior SU, thank you so much. Your great kindness will be remembered by the rising sun tribe for generations to come.” Ming Guang was extremely grateful and shocked.

He was actually able to kill the second leader in front of the Wolf Smoke Tribe’s army and defeat the Great Leader!

Su Yu’s expression was calm as he said, “There’s no need. This matter started because of me, so it should end because of me.”

After pausing for a moment, he looked at Ming Guang, “Do you know the background of the Wolf Smoke Tribe’s great leader?”

Ming Guang was stunned and fell into deep thought, he said, “The leader of the wolf smoke tribe always speaks with strength. 500 years ago, there were only two leaders, the current second leader and the third leader. However, after that, a very talented single-crowned champion appeared. Not only did he break through to the double-crowned champion, he also defeated the third leader not long after he broke through. After 100 years, he defeated the second leader and became the leader of the Wolf Smoke tribe. From then on, he ruled the wolf smoke tribe for 400 years.”

A powerhouse who had risen from the ground?

Su Yu pondered. “Then, what about his previous record before he became the double-crowned King?”

Ming Guang shook his head. “We’ve investigated that record. It’s a blank! He appeared out of nowhere without any warning.”

He had appeared out of nowhere!

Su Yu closed his eyes and pondered. After a long while, he whispered, "No matter who you are, your life will be destroyed by me."

While he was surprised at Su Yu, he was far away by the river in the grassland.

The big leader was washing his wounds by the river. Dark red blood flowed down the river.

"What's wrong with that young man?" The big leader only had one eye, hatred, shock, and deep fear appeared on his face. "Powerful and terrifying bow and arrow, extremely strange swordsmanship, Space Law, transforming into the dragon race, terrifying divine fire, and the law of Time!"

If he could obtain any of these, he would be able to stand on the same level and remain undefeated.

But what about this person? He actually grasped six items!

Moreover, his intuition told the great leader that the other party did not use his full strength and still had a lot of reservations.

"When did such a monster appear within the Sacred Mountain?" The great leader's mood could not calm down for a long time. "With my strength, I was known as the strongest person below the three crowns in the Dark Star Civilization Alliance's Chamber of Commerce Branch. I did not expect that I would actually be defeated so miserably by a nameless junior! "If I hadn't run away decisively, I would have been left here forever."

He had no doubt that Su Yu had the ability to kill him completely.

After resting for a moment, he looked in the direction of the sacred mountain. "The wolf smoke tribe that was laid out for 500 years is gone just like that. Fortunately, I have laid out a far-reaching plan in 500 years. Losing the wolf smoke tribe will not affect my final plan!"

Turning his head to look at the rising sun tribe, he said coldly, "You'd better pray that you don't meet me in the sacred mountain. Otherwise, you will never be able to recover!"

Time slowly flowed by.

The injuries suffered by the rising sun tribe quickly recovered in half a year. Moreover, after receiving more than half of the resources from the warriors of the wolf smoke tribe, the strength of many of the warriors of the rising sun tribe had obviously increased.

In half a year, several single-crowned emperors had appeared consecutively, which had greatly surpassed the level before the battle.

The most exciting thing was that bright light was recommended by everyone to become the successor of the leader.

After half a year of settling down, he received the inheritance at the rising sun tribe's altar. His divine power had been cultivated to perfection, and he was close to breaking through to the double-crowned king.

In less than ten years, a new leader would be born.

Moreover, the nine death soul protecting furnace, which had been missing for thirty million years, had returned, increasing the confidence of the clansmen in the future.

However, no clansmen would forget who had given them everything in front of them.

In the light cave world, Su Yu withdrew his soul power and said, “Yes, your soul has already recovered. Remember not to try to absorb faith.”

Ming die held a rootless purple emperor tree in her hands excitedly.

In half a year, Su Yu not only healed her soul, but also gave her a legendary rootless purple emperor tree. This was a divine item for breaking through to the half-step emperor realm. One could only come across it by chance!

“Thank you, senior Su!”Ming die was extremely grateful.

Su Yu nodded. “Find some time to refine it. Now, it’s time to prepare to go to the sacred mountain.”

Half a year was up. It was time to send faith to the sacred mountain.

As a member of the rising sun tribe, he would follow everyone into the sacred mountain to search for the sword scabbard and the formation stones of the nine yin and nine Yang heavenly star formation.

“I hope everything goes smoothly,”Su Yu thought.
