Chapter 1971 Searching For Materials

“Listen carefully. Although I stole... Oh, I took the nine Yin Pill formula, it’s better not to spread it out unless it’s necessary. Otherwise, if that old thing, sect master, hears about it, we’ll be in big trouble,” Mo Xiaochai muttered.

Su Yu and Huangfu Lieyang were speechless. Did they think they were brainless?

How could they dare to leak a single word about the nine yin pill formula?

If the people of the Taiji sect really found out, Mo Xiaochai might have been imprisoned in Dragon Prison for a few years, but the two of them would be reduced to ashes.

Even though the Taiji sect was full of righteousness, they still had their own bottom line.

Su Yu picked up the jade slip and lightly pinched it. A dense mass of words gathered into a 30-foot-long scroll.

The detailed recipe and refining method of the nine Yin Pill were recorded on it.

After reading it, Su Yu could not help but take in a cold breath. “Twenty thousand supplementary materials? A hundred refining procedures?”

He finally understood why the number of nine yin pills was extremely rare.

Other than the lack of the main material, nine yin grass, the supplementary materials and refining were all first-class problems.

Taking a rough calculation, the supplementary materials of a nine yin pill were no less than three hundred million divine stones. Adding in the extremely difficult refining process, with the result of using ten percent of the materials to produce a pill, it was very likely to successfully refine a nine yin pill, it would require no less than 3 billion divine stones!

And this was under the condition that the nine yin grass was sufficient.

Based on the current state of the nine yin grass in the Taiji civilization, the cost of refining a nine yin pill in the Taiji sect was definitely no less than 5 billion divine stones!

One Nine Yin Pill was enough to drain the vast majority of the Yin-yang Elders’ life savings.

Huangfu Lieyang clicked his tongue. “This is really not for humans to eat!”

The scarcity of the nine yin pill was evident.

“There shouldn’t be too much of a problem with the supplementary ingredients and the refinement. The only problem is the nine yin grass.” Su Yu asked Mo Xiaochai, “From what I know, it shouldn’t be difficult to find the seeds of the nine yin grass, right?”

It seemed that many disciples had the seeds of the nine yin grass in their hands. It was convenient for them to try planting the seeds on the spot after they found the suspicious nursery.

Mo Xiaochai didn't think much of it. "What kind of seed is that?" "It's just a fake seed that contains the characteristics of the nine yin grass. It's used to test whether the soil in the nursery is suitable for planting the nine yin grass. The real seeds of the nine yin grass are all in the hands of the sect master. Of course, elder Tian also has a part of it."

Su Yu looked at her with expectation in his eyes. "If you steal... Oh, how about taking some real seeds?"

"But stop it. Those seeds are very expensive. If I take them again, he will find me easily." Mo Xiaochai rolled her eyes.

What should she do then?

"What do you want the seeds for?" "If you really have the guts, I suggest you go to the no-man's-land to look for wild nine yin grass." Mo Xiaochai said, "The seeds of the nine yin grass in the Taiji sect are all the seeds of the wild nine yin grass that have been propagated for several generations. The nine yin grass that is cultivated will mutate more or less. If you use them to refine pills, the success rate will be greatly reduced."

"The nine yin grass seeds that the sect has now are all new seeds of third generation and above. The success rate of refining pills is generally 100:1. Do you have that much money to waste?"

100:1? Huangfu Lieyang's throat was dry. He guessed that he could refine it 10:1.

The real ratio was actually 100:1!

The 200 billion divine stones in their hands could only refine seven!

"The success rate of refining pure-bred wild nine yin grass seeds will be raised to 50:1. So if you are ambitious, go to the no-man's land," Mo Xiaochai suggested with a serious face.

Su Yu was moved, as if this was the only way.

"The no-man's Land of a five-star civilization is very large. Wild nine yin grass only grows in ancient areas. It's not easy to find it in a short time. Do you have any insider information?"

Mo Xiaochai answered smoothly, "Recently, a yin-yang Elder in the sect issued a heaven-grade mission, which was to go to an uninhabited area to find out if there were still wild nine yin grass. This yin-yang elder accidentally found three of them hundreds of thousands of years ago, but they have never grown back since then."

"After 5,000 years, he wanted to go there again to take a look, but he was too busy to leave, so he could only issue a mission and let some powerful disciples go."

Su Yu fell into deep thought. The Yin Yang Elder had not found a new nine yin grass several times, so it would be difficult to find it now.

However, this should be the only clue he knew, so he could give it a try.

“Do outsiders like us have the chance to participate in the mission?”

“Of course not, but you can follow them!”

Su Yu nodded. “When will they set off?”

“Ten days later?”

“Do you know how many people are there?”

“Three!”

“Can you put some marks on them so that we can secretly follow them?”

“Yes!”

“You helped us so enthusiastically because you wanted us to die in no man’s land so that you could take our property for yourself?”

“Yes... Oh, of course not! I’m not that kind of person!” Mo Xiaochai immediately changed her words.

Su Yu’s forehead was covered in sweat. He finally felt it out. This woman did not have good intentions!

She wanted them to send themselves to their deaths while she wanted to take away the property.

Damn it, this woman could not relax for a moment.

Su Yu said, “Lie Yang, you stay behind and watch her... Oh, I’m watching the shop. I’ll follow them alone.”

“Chi!” Mo Xiaochai snorted. Her plan had failed.

“I’ll go to the Taiji sect first and exchange for two nine yin pills,” Su Yu said.

The Taiji sect’s exchange hall was set up in the downtown area of Taiji city. Every day, a Sky Elder was there to oversee the exchange.

When they arrived at the exchange hall, many Taiji sect disciples walked through it. With their many years of contributions, they came to exchange for the items they needed.

One of them was the nine yin pill window.

Several Taiji sect disciples lined up proudly.

Outsiders looked at them with envy.

“Hey, isn’t this the owner of the wine, Boss Su?” An unfriendly teasing voice came from behind their ears.

They looked up and saw that it was a young man in front who had turned his head to speak.

Unfortunately, his face was very familiar.

It was Yang Hua, who had been poisoned by Su Yu two years ago.

Su Yu was expressionless and said indifferently, "Do you have any advice?"

A trace of hostility flashed through the depths of Yang Hua's eyes. Although there was no evidence, his intuition told him that the instigator of the poisoning incident at Yun Xiang House back then was definitely Su Yu!

It could be seen from the collapse of Yun Xiang House and the establishment of Wen Jiu by Su Yu.

"Justice is clear, and evil will be repaid. I hope boss Su will remember this sentence," Yang Hua said as if she was implying something.

Su Yu smiled. "You understand this logic? Oh, it's not too late."

"I'm Talking About You!" Yang Hua resisted the urge to step forward and take revenge.

However, his reason told him that the current Su Yu, as the owner of Wen Jiu, had a different status from the past. He was not inferior to an authentic Taiji sect disciple.

If he was beaten by Yang Hua, it would affect the sale of Taixu. Some of the Yin-yang elders who were eager to buy Taixu would find trouble with Yang Hua.

Su Yu smiled calmly, "I have a clear conscience. I don't have to worry about bad karma."

"You know very well!" Yang Hua said hatefully.

"Hehe..." Su Yu smiled and dismissed it.

Suddenly, a fragrant wind blew. A beautiful woman in colorful clothes walked out of the exchange hall. She looked like a fairy.

Upon seeing her, Yang Hua immediately suppressed the anger on his face and replaced it with calmness and steadiness. "Yinyu, you're here?"

The newcomer was surprisingly fairy yinyu. Her snow-white chin lightly tapped. "Senior brother hasn't finished exchanging the nine Yin pill fragments?"

Yang Hua nodded. "Soon."

Fairy yinyu responded with an "OH." She glanced at Su Yu, who was also in line, and took the initiative to greet him. "Boss SU."

There were probably not many disciples of the Taiji sect who didn't know Su Yu.

"Oh, Hello." Su Yu was just perfunctory. He didn't have too much color just because this woman had the reputation of being the most beautiful woman in the Taiji sect.

Fairy yinyu smiled bitterly in her heart. This boss Su was really cold.

Two years ago, the other party's original intention was to poison her to the ground. It was only because Yang Hua swallowed two drops of pure Yang that she was lucky enough to survive.

Now that she took the initiative to greet him, she was instead in a lukewarm attitude.

“I heard that boss su prepared an extra pot of Taixu every month to specifically exchange for nine yin pill fragments. Now it seems that someone is willing to exchange for it?” Fairy Yinyu did not care too much about what happened two years ago, instead, she was very interested in Su Yu’s Taixu, taixu wine had already been rumored to be magical. However, with her current wealth, she was not fated to be in Taixu at all.

Even if there was, just thinking about the scene of a sea of people wagging their accounts every time the wine was sold, she would be deterred.

“Mm, I was lucky enough to get some generous elders to exchange for it,” Su Yu said calmly.

Yang Hua, who was in the front line, suddenly saw fairy yinyu and Su Yu chatting. She was unhappy and interrupted, “Hehe, Boss SU has been guarding for two years. Finally, someone is willing to give you a nine yin pill fragment? It’s not easy!”

Su Yu looked at him indifferently and did not say anything.

Fairy Yin Yu frowned slightly and said, “How can senior brother Talk Like This? How can you say that it’s a fair exchange?”

Yang Hua was even more displeased. Yin Yu actually spoke up for Su Yu!

“Boss Su, I estimate that if you wait patiently for another two to three hundred years, you might be able to gather a hundred nine yin pill diagrams. I suggest that you maintain a good attitude and guard against arrogance. Only then will you be able to successfully get one.” Yang Hua put on a fake smile.

At this moment, it was his turn to exchange.

He took out his identity plate and handed it to the person-in-charge in the window, saying, “Exchange for all nine yin pill fragments.”

The person-in-charge lightly swept his identity plate on a certain stone slab, and a series of numbers immediately appeared on the stone slab.

“Thirty-two thousand contribution points, you can exchange for three nine Yin pill fragments, and the remaining two thousand contribution points.” The person-in-charge’s voice was not loud, but it was exceptionally clear when it fell on the exchange point.

“Three nine Yin pill fragments! I’m really envious!”

“Can I be envious?”? Who was that person? He was elder Yingfeng Xiaoxiao’s proud disciple, Yang Hua, one of the Ten Great Quest Maniacs. He had just exchanged for three nine Yin pill fragments two years ago, and after two years, he had obtained two more. At this rate, he would be able to exchange for one nine Yin Pill in no less than a hundred years

“So it’s him. His name is like thunder in my ears!”

Yang Hua’s lips curled into a smug smile. Relying on his powerful cultivation at the late stage of the three crowns Emperor realm, Yang Hua crazily accepted quests and fought for merit points from the Taiji sect.

He was now a slightly famous quest maniac among the disciples, and there were countless senior brothers and sisters who were looking for him to complete the quests together.

Chapter 1972 Death Sand Sea

After successfully obtaining three nine Yin pill fragments, Yang Hua let out a light smile as if she was showing off. She said to fairy yinyu, “Junior sister yinyu, let’s go. Let’s discuss that heaven rank mission.”

Fairy yinyu nodded at Su Yu. “Boss Su, please don’t be discouraged. I believe that more and more people will exchange for nine yin pill fragments in the future.”

“Yes, I’ll leave it to you,” Su Yu said.

Yang Hua didn’t think much of it and curled his lips. “Only a fool would exchange for nine Yin pill fragments...”

At this moment, it was Su Yu’s turn at the window. The person-in-charge saw that Su Yu didn’t wear Taiji sect clothing and was slightly impatient. “Hurry up, what do you want to exchange for?”

Su Yu didn’t say a word. He placed two complete nine yin pill diagrams on the windowsill and said, “Two.”

The person in charge was obviously stunned. Then, he said in surprise, “Okay, okay, wait a moment. I’ll ask elder Tian to take care of the nine yin pills personally. I don’t have the authority to distribute them.”

Her voice was also noticed by the Taiji sect disciples present.

Yang Hua and fairy yinyu, who had just walked to the door, also heard it. They looked back in shock.

“Senior brother, is boss su here to exchange for the nine yin pills?” Fairy Yinyu said in disbelief.

Wen Jiu had only been open for business for two years, and he had already managed to collect a hundred pieces?

Wasn’t this a little too unbelievable?

Yang Hua said in a daze, “He should have exchanged for something else, definitely not the nine Yin Pill.”

Even though he said so, he stood still and did not leave. He looked carefully at the window.

Not long after, a middle-aged man in a scholarly robe walked over with large strides. He carefully examined Su Yu's picture and then looked at Su Yu in surprise. He did not say a word, he took out two sealed jade boxes from his storage ring. "Two nine yin pills. Confirm it in person."

"Two! In just two years, you got two complete nine yin pills?"

"This... This is too unfair. We worked hard for a hundred years to barely get one, but the other party got two in just two years."

"It is indeed unfair. In the long run, all the nine yin pills will be exchanged for wine. What About Us Disciples?"

Hearing this, the middle-aged man in the scholarly robe pondered for a while.

The appearance of Wen Jiu was indeed too shocking and broke the balance.

Allowing Wen Jiu to exchange for the nine yin pills at such a shocking speed, the nine yin pills that the Taiji sect had painstakingly refined would all be given to outsiders.

"Boss Su, right?" The middle-aged man in the scholarly robe threw a smile.

"These two nine yin pills will be temporarily exchanged for you. As for the follow-up, we may need to ask the sect leader to make a decision. I hope you can understand."

Wasn't it just a temporary change in the rules to prevent outsiders from exchanging for nine yin pills?

It seemed that such a rapid accumulation speed had scared the Taiji sect.

"I understand!" Su Yu had no complaints.

It was already generous of the Taiji sect to allow outsiders to exchange for two pills. Now, they had informed Su Yu in advance and did not wait until Su Yu had painstakingly accumulated fragments to exchange for them.

Overall, the Taiji sect did not do anything wrong.

Fortunately, he did not place all his hopes on exchanging for two pills from the Taiji sect. Instead, he prepared to refine them himself.

It seemed that searching for wild nine yin grass seeds was imminent.

After obtaining two nine yin pills, Su Yu left the exchange hall without looking askance.

Yang Hua's entire body stiffened. The three nine Yin pill fragments that he was proud of only felt that it was ironic at this moment.

Perhaps he had worked hard for two hundred years to be able to match up to the other party who had effortlessly waited for two years.

Fairy yinyu sighed silently. Boss SU was indeed extraordinary.

Compared to him, they were on completely different levels.

“Senior brother, don’t be discouraged. Didn’t that elder Tian already tactfully express that boss su might not be able to exchange for the nine Yin Pill again?”Fairy yinyu consoled him.

Hearing this, Yang Hua’s spirit was roused.

That’s right, Su Yu’s glory was only temporary. How could he be compared to true Taiji sect disciples like them?

They had only obtained the nine yin pill a few hundred years later, but Su Yu, after using up the two pills now, could forget about obtaining the nine Yin Pill again.

Thinking of this, Yang Hua’s mood was good, he smiled disdainfully. “A proud son of heaven like us, and a merchant like him who mingles outside the sect, are ultimately two people from two different worlds. The gap between us will grow larger and larger, to the point that he has to look up to us...”

One was a late-stage three-crowned emperor, while the other was a late-stage single-crowned emperor. The gap was indeed irreparable.

Returning to the wine shop, Su Yu gave a nine yin pill to Huangfu Lieyang.

“This... isn’t Good? I didn’t help much. I was just a helper.”Huangfu Lieyang licked his lips, but he rationally declined.

Most of the credit was given to Su Yu. In fact, he wasn’t qualified to share the nine Yin Pill.

“You can find the nine yin pill again, but it’s hard to find someone trustworthy.”Su Yu stuffed a nine yin pill into his hand without any explanation. Then, he held a nine Yin Pill and entered the secret chamber.

He opened his mouth and swallowed it. The tyrannical medicinal power raged in his body, and it could be said that it was as easy as crushing a dead branch.

Not long after, the medicinal power flowed like thousands of streams to the sea and gathered in the inner world, quickly replenishing the severely depleted primeval power.

His own aura slowly rose at a speed visible to the naked eye.

The whole process lasted for eight to nine days, and finally stopped at the early stage of the double-crowned emperor realm.

“I’ve finally returned to the double-crowned Emperor Realm.”Su Yu sighed slightly.

With the nine yin pills’overbearing power, it was estimated that with six more nine yin pills, his cultivation would be able to recover to the late stage of the double-crowned Emperor Realm.

Calculating the time, it was almost time for the group of mission takers to set off.

After leaving the secret room, they came to the back hall and saw Huangfu Lieyang kneeling on the washboard. In front of him was the displeased Mo Xiaochai. "You Damn Ghost. I entrusted my life to you in vain. You didn't even think of leaving the nine Yin Pill to me."

Huangfu Lieyang was extremely bitter. "This nine Yin Pill was given to me by the owner. How could I make the decision to give it to you?"

"Then you won't kill the owner, but yourself..." Mo Xiaochai instigated.

Su Yu's face darkened. "Yourself what?"

Mo Xiaochai changed her words without flinching. "What I mean is that my husband should let the owner rest and take the initiative to solve the owner's problems. Isn't that right, husband?"

Being stared at by Mo Xiaochai with a dangerous gaze, what else could Huangfu Lieyang do? He nodded and revealed a smile that was uglier than crying. "Yes, that's what my wife Means."

Su Yu was too lazy to argue with Mo Xiaochai, so he stretched out his hand.

"What do you want?" Mo Xiaochai was slightly stunned. "I'm already my husband's man. A good girl will never marry again. Don't have any improper thoughts."

Su Yu's face was full of black lines. "The word 'good girl' has been ruined by you!"

"Give it to me. Didn't you want to take my share of the property for yourself? I'm giving you a chance now."

Mo Xiaochai's eyes lit up. "Aiya, why didn't you say so earlier? I've already prepared it!"

She flipped her palm and took out a palm-sized compass. There were three light spots on the compass, representing the specific location of the three people.

It seemed that she had indeed located the three people who had accepted the mission.

"Here is the detailed description of the mission. You can read it on the way." Mo Xiaochai hurriedly gave Su Yu a small booklet and stared at Su Yu with her eyes flashing. She meant that he should leave quickly and not come back again.

Su Yu was amused and angry. He noticed that the three light spots on the compass had left Taiji city, so he immediately set off.

Following them closely, Su Yu used the ancient teleportation formation three times in a row and crossed half of Taiji civilization to the terrifying death sand sea of the Taiji sect.

The death sand sea was endless yellow sand. These yellow sand were extremely heavy, each grain weighing more than a hundred kilograms.

A random handful of them weighed more than ten thousand Jin.

One could imagine that wherever these yellow sand passed, all the spirit plants would be crushed.

If Su Yu had not read the booklet in advance, he would have wondered if he had followed the wrong place.

However, the booklet clearly stated that the place was in the southern corner of the death sand sea.

There was an underground world that had been buried since ancient times. It maintained a complete ancient style and ecological environment.

That was why they were lucky enough to find three nine yin grasses there.

Unfortunately, there were no nine yin grasses that were born there after they went there several times.

Apart from that, there was another detail in the description of the mission. The Yin-yang elder mentioned that when they went to investigate once, they found a trace of an outsider.

The mission reminded them not to be careless.

Half a year later.

The group crossed the desert and finally arrived at an oasis.

Fairy yinyu wiped the sweat off her face and her eyes were filled with joy. "We have finally arrived at the entrance to the underground world."

The lake in front of them was the entrance to that place.

"Elder Li Feng is also an amazing person. He was actually able to find such a hidden underground entrance in such a vast desert." Fairy Yinyu praised.

Yang hua sighed, "That's right. If it were us, even if we were to encounter this oasis, we probably wouldn't even think about exploring the underground."

The third disciple who came with them was elder Li Feng's first disciple, Qin Huai. His cultivation level was also at the late stage of the three crowns. He said, "You two are flattering me. Back then, my master also accidentally barged into the bottom of the lake and discovered another hidden mystery."

"I see." Fairy yinyu said, "There's no time to lose. Let's go down and take a look."

The three of them quickly jumped into the lake and found an ancient formation at the bottom of the lake.

The ancient formation isolated all the water in the lake, and below it was an unusually dark underground world.

Gusts of cold wind blew, making people shudder.

"Let's Go!" Qin Huai used a simple divine art to pass through the ancient formation and directly enter the underground world.

A few hours later.

A ball of yin and yang Qi suddenly flashed in the sky above the lake, and Su Yu's figure appeared.

He looked down at the oasis with a strange expression.

For some reason, the seemingly peaceful oasis gave him a strange ominous feeling, and he instinctively felt uncomfortable.

After pondering for a long time, he did not rashly enter the lake. Instead, he folded the space and turned into a speck of dust floating in the sky.

Their mission was also the nine yin grass. Since that was the case, they would just wait here.

Who would have thought that not long after they hid, a gust of demonic wind suddenly blew on the surface of the lake, causing slight ripples on the surface of the lake.

A green-robed, long-browed elder appeared out of nowhere like a ghost.

Su Yu, who was caught off guard, felt his heart skip a beat and almost leaked his aura.

He stared at the green-robed, long-browed elder. This person's attire should be that of the yin yang elder of the Taiji sect.

His cultivation should be on par with the Sword Alliance master, and he had reached the early stage of the four crowns.

At this moment, the green-robed elder stared at the lake and laughed hoarsely, "Hehe... I can harvest again."

Then, he floated into the lake.

In the air, Su Yu's mind was racing. What was going on with that yin yang elder of the Taiji sect? He was so sneaky. Was he up to something?

After thinking for a long time, he revealed his true form and landed in the lake.

Chapter 1973 Ancient Humans

When he entered the underground world, he could no longer see any traces of the green-robed yin-yang Elder.

He could only rely on the compass to confirm that the three disciples who were carrying out the mission were already quite far away, and their lives were not in danger yet.

He carefully observed the dark underground world. The Yin energy here was extremely heavy, and it was precisely the environment that the nine yin grass preferred. The probability of the nine yin grass appearing was indeed not low.

Su Yu used his clairvoyance to scan the surroundings and clearly discovered many strange-looking ancient beasts hiding in the darkness to hunt their prey.

"It is indeed a rather complete ancient landscape. There is a very complete ecological chain preserved," Su Yu thought to himself.

Although their cultivation was rather weak, there should be a few dangerous beasts that stood at the top of the food chain.

He was cautious as he slowly moved forward to investigate.

A few days later, he had already reached the deepest part of the underground world.

There were still ancient beasts that were at the Overlord level here, and occasionally, there would be emperors of Heaven and earth that would reveal their auras.

Su Yu personally witnessed a bat at the initial stage of the Overlord level suddenly appear and capture a peak overlord level moth.

What was even more terrifying was that he noticed that there was not only one bat, but a whole group of bats hidden in the darkness, ready to attack their target at any time.

That number, roughly counted, was no less than ten thousand!

Su Yu could not help but feel his scalp go slightly numb. He restrained his aura to avoid being discovered.

“Eh? They have already stopped there for two days. Could it be that they have encountered difficulties?” Su Yu stared at the compass, his eyes seemingly thinking.

The one he was most afraid of was the green-robed elder. He had planned to wait and snatch one from them, but this person’s appearance forced Su Yu to come down personally to investigate.

Not long after, Su Yu caught up to them.

The three of them were holding their breaths and concentrating. They were hiding in a thirty-foot-deep swamp, hiding all their auras.

Su Yu looked around and revealed a trace of joy.

In the middle of the soft swamp, three long, dark red grasses that were three feet long were growing.

They were emitting a cold aura, attracting the attention of the beasts in the underground world.

“Mature nine Yin Grass!” Su Yu revealed a look of joy.

There was indeed one!

However, why were the three disciples hiding? Could it be that they had discovered an unknown danger?

Screech --

Right at this moment, a sharp screech pierced through the darkness.

An incomparably huge bat flew past and snatched away a moth that was flying towards the nine yin grass.

It was a local ancient bat!

No, it was not just one bat, but a whole group of bats!

They hovered above the Quagmire and flew in a criss-cross manner. Any beast that approached the nine yin grass would be hunted down.

“Using the nine yin grass to hunt?” Su Yu finally understood why the three disciples didn’t make any movements.

They didn’t even barge into the hunting area of the single crowned Emperor Bats.

If they showed up rashly, they would immediately be besieged by tens of thousands of bats.

With their strength, they wouldn't be able to resist at all and would be besieged until they died.

At this moment, they moved. It seemed that they had figured out a way.

However, the three of them, who were covered in mud, each held a rune in their hands and emitted a weak masculine energy.

Those bats immediately became restless. However, as they were naturally yin-loving, they detested the masculine energy emitted from their bodies and didn't attack because of this.

Su Yu's eyes flashed and he folded them into dust before landing on one of them.

The other party didn't notice at all and transmitted his voice in a low voice, "It seems like the method we tried this time isn't bad."

In fact, they had tried several times, but the result was that they were surrounded by bats.

In the end, they spent two days refining some yang-type talismans unique to the Taiji sect, and it worked as expected.

Without the bat's attack, the three of them walked to the nine yin grass as if they were walking on flat ground.

"Haha, Yinyu, Qin Huai, it seems that our luck is not bad. The nine yin grass that elder Li Feng failed to find several times, we successfully found it!" The speaker was none other than Yang Hua!

Of the other two, the only woman was fairy yinyu.

Su Yu was secretly surprised that it was them.

If that was the case, then snatching Yang Hua's nine yin grass would be even less stressful.

Qin Huai nodded. "Pick it immediately, one for each person."

His eyes shone with a blazing light. With the value of the nine yin grass, not only would the sect receive a nine yin pill fragment as a reward, but the reward for this mission was 30,000 merit points.

If each person received 10,000 merit points, he would be able to exchange for another nine yin pill fragment.

In just one year, he would be able to get two.

His collection speed was shocking.

"Let me do it." Yang Hua volunteered and used a special jade shovel to carefully shovel at the roots of the nine yin grass.

The nine yin grass was quite precious. Once it left the soil, it would not live for more than three days.

Therefore, it had to be shoveled together with the soil and the roots.

Ding Dong --

However, who would have thought that the jade shovel would hit the hard object under the quagmire.

Yang Hua tried again, but still failed to dig up the nine yin grass.

“Is there a stone under the nine Yin Grass?” Yang Hua muttered to himself. His soul swept under the nine yin grass, but there was nothing special.

He squatted down and placed his hands on the Quagmire, releasing his primal energy.

With the nine yin grass at the center, a ten-foot-wide crack appeared in the quagmire.

Only then did the situation below the nine yin grass appear.

The scene before their eyes made their hearts skip a beat at the same time.

Under the Quagmire stood an ancient human that was three feet tall!

His body was tall, and his entire body was exuding a savage aura. Two sharp fangs protruded from the sides of his lips, and his entire body was covered in three inch long bristles.

At this moment, his left hand was raised high, and he was holding three stalks of nine yin grass.

Seeing this scene, the three of them had an ominous feeling.

It was only because this ancient human was already dead and there was no aura on his body that they managed to barely calm their minds.

“Take it off and leave immediately,” Qin Huai said calmly. He had never heard his master say that there was an ancient human here.

Yang Hua nodded and did not hold back anymore. He slashed his sword at the ancient human’s arm, intending to take away the nine yin grass along with his arm.

Clang --

However, when this sword slashed down, what made the hearts of the three miss a beat was that the ancient human, who clearly had no aura, suddenly opened a pair of blood-red eyes.

The blood-red eyes revealed a human-like mockery and cruelty.

He who clearly didn’t have any aura suddenly erupted with a terrifying aura that was at the peak of the Three Crowns.

“Not good! He’s Alive! This... This is a trap set by the ancient people!” Fairy yinyu instantly understood. Her face was deathly pale as she hurriedly retreated.

Qin Huai’s reaction was also extremely fast as he quickly fled.

Only Yang Hua was too close. If he retreated, he would leave his back to the ancient people. He could only grit his teeth, and instead of retreating, he advanced with all his strength.

However, the ancient people’s empty right hand pulled out a stone rod from his waist, and he suddenly counterattacked.

Not only did Yang Hua's sword not slash down, but it was instead struck back by the stone rod. Yang Hua himself suffered an endless amount of strength, and his throat was filled with a fishy sweetness.

He was extremely shocked. The other party had completely relied on his physique to block his full strength attack!

The stone rod's momentum did not decrease, and it brazenly smashed towards Yang Hua's head.

Yang Hua's heart violently contracted, and with a grab of his palm, a law chain appeared, rushing out at the critical moment.

Ding --

However, the strength of that stone rod was still beyond imagination, and it was actually able to contend against the laws between reality and illusion.

The chain of laws was rebounded, and the momentum of the stone rod weakened.

Without waiting for Yang Hua to have a chance to escape, the ancient man suddenly opened his mouth and roared.

The voice contained an extremely powerful soul attack, causing Yang Hua's entire body to stiffen. He stood rooted to the ground, unable to move.

Following that, an incomparably huge fist smashed down.

Yang Hua let out a miserable cry. He was smashed into the ground by the other party's fist. His entire body was chapped, and it was a sign that he was about to collapse.

Coupled with the damage to his soul, Yang Hua rolled his eyes and fell into a coma.

The ancient man picked him up with a large hand and tied him to his belt as if he was treating him as prey.

Then, he grinned as he looked at Qin Huai and fairy yinyu who were fleeing.

Dong Dong Dong --

He took large strides as he fled. The ancient man who only had a physical body was extremely fast as he ran, causing the space around him to tremble slightly.

Fairy Yinyu was the first to be caught. With a swing of her staff, she was unable to resist at all and was directly knocked unconscious. She was also tied to the ancient man's belt.

Qin Huai's soul was on the verge of bursting out. He used every means at his disposal to escape, and even used the sect's instantaneous movement talisman.

However, he was still no match for the ancient man. After fleeing for a few hours, all the talismans were used up, and the ancient man caught up to him. With a furious roar, his soul received a strong impact, and he could not move at all, allowing the ancient man to knock him unconscious, he hung him upside down on his belt.

Only then did the ancient people happily carry the stone rod and head deeper into the underground world.

As for the three nine yin grass in the mud, he did not even look at them.

The ancient people came to a cliff. There were many huge skeletons of bats piled up there, just like a mountain.

However, this place was already a dead end, and it was also the end of the underground world. There was no way out.

The ancient man held a stone stick and smashed it toward a certain part of the cliff. A strange scene appeared.

An ancient array fluctuation appeared on the cliff, and a crack that a person could pass through appeared.

The ancient man drilled into it with ease.

It turned out that there was another world inside the cliff.

What entered his sight was an ancient forest with dense yin qi that made people suffocate!

The ancient forest was pitch-black, and one could not see the end of it. It gave off a deep sense of oppression.

And at the edge of the forest, there were more than 10,000 ancient people active! !

They had built houses there and kept many beasts as livestock.

It was clearly a tribe!

The dust that Su Yu had transformed into stared at this scene in shock.

This should be the hidden world in the underground world, right?

The ancient tribe with tens of thousands of people before his eyes made Su Yu's scalp go numb.

The cultivation of the ancient people who had yet to reach adulthood had two crowns, while the ancient people who had reached adulthood had three crowns.

If so many ancient people rushed out of the underground world... Su Yu simply did not dare to imagine that scene. Perhaps the entire five-star civilization would become their hunting ground.

What made Su Yu even more surprised was that a pitch-black long river flowed at the edge of the forest.

The river was covered in patches of dark red water grass. It was impossible to count the number of patches.

And those were not other things. They were the nine yin grass that was hard to find in the outside world!

In this place, the nine yin grass was just an ordinary water grass!

Chapter 1974 Innate Essence Crystal (First Watch)

“Where exactly is this place?” Su Yu was secretly surprised.

He held his breath and stayed motionless on Yang Hua's shoulder, waiting for an opportunity to pluck the nine yin grass.

When the ancient man returned to the tribe, seven or eight ancient men immediately ran over and spoke in a language that even Su Yu could not understand.

It could be guessed that they were talking about three prey.

The few of them returned to a simple and crude huge wooden house. Their backs were against the gloomy river, and in front of the house was a huge hanging pot.

The skeletons of bats were piled up near the hanging pot, and there were at least tens of millions of them.

The ancient men were the top of the food chain in this underground world. The ancient men at present were originally planning to hunt bats, but who knew that three humans would barge in unintentionally. As a result, they became his fresh prey.

Not long after, a fierce-looking little ancient man lit a firewood and heated the soup in the hanging pot.

At the same time, the great ancient man brought Yang Hua and the other two to the stone slab beside the river bank. He first dragged Qin Huai out and pressed him onto the stone slab.

At this moment, Qin Huai was still unconscious and did not know that he was in great danger.

However, the ancient giant hand grabbed Qin Huai's head and pulled forcefully, actually Ripping Qin Huai's head off alive!

Then, with a stomp of his feet, all of Qin Huai's internal organs were crushed out.

The treatment was similar to how humans treated rabbits.

The intense stimulation finally woke Qin Huai's soul up and he left his shell in panic.

However, half of his soul was discovered by the ancient man. With a loud roar, his soul fainted and was stuffed back into his body.

After that, Qin Huai was hung upside down to dry.

The pungent smell of blood caused Yang Hua and fairy yinyu to slowly wake up.

What they saw was a bloody scene, causing the soles of their feet to emit cold air and their livers to be torn apart.

The ancient man first dragged Yang Hua onto the stone slab and pressed down on Yang Hua's head with his huge hand. He was about to use the same trick again and rip off Yang Hua's head.

Yang Hua was terrified. He had never been so terrified before.

At this desperate moment, she released her strong will to survive. She shouted, "I'm going to kill you!"

However, she saw her soul break out of its shell instantly. Her soul was holding a piece of glazed crystal.

The crystal contained an extremely pure energy.

Su Yu glanced at it and was surprised.

It was an innate essence crystal that was rare even in the absolute beginning realm. It was different from other minerals that were born in the spirit land.

Innate essence crystals were only born in the souls of a small number of creatures. They could absorb the soul energy of their opponents to grow. At the same time, they could supplement the magical power of their opponents' bodies. They could make their opponents' bodies transparent and their comprehension excellent. They could cultivate as fast as lightning, they were much faster than their peers.

The innate essence crystal in front of them only had three colors. It should be a low-grade three-colored essence crystal.

However, this was also a great fortune that ordinary people couldn't be envious of.

If nothing unexpected happened, he would be able to cultivate to the fourth crown prince realm at least in his lifetime. If he was lucky, he could even become a fifth crown prince. It could be said that his potential was boundless.

"No wonder he cultivated to the late stage of the third crown prince realm in just a few hundred years." Su Yu thought to himself.

At this moment, Yang Hua roared loudly and used his soul to activate the innate essence crystal.

Immediately, the entire innate essence crystal started to burn, turning into a ball of intense flames that wrapped around his soul, forming a huge Burning Man.

The ancient man was caught off guard, he let out a loud roar and his soul attacks came one after another.

However, his attacks were no longer effective, they were blocked by the weak flames on the surface of the innate essence crystal.

"Die!" Yang Hua shouted in anger, his huge fire body pounced over and clashed with it.

The ancient man exploded with ferocity. He grabbed the stone rod at his waist and counterattacked.

Yang Hua, who had detonated the innate essence crystal, had his battle prowess soar by several levels. He sent the stone rod flying with a single punch.

A trace of fear appeared in the ancient man's eyes. He nimbly retreated as he continuously shouted.

In the wooden house behind him, several ancient men immediately ran out. They roared fiercely and each of them held a stone axe and a stone blade as they charged over aggressively.

Yang Hua chased after them for a moment. When he saw that the other party had the advantage in numbers, he gritted his teeth and returned to his body. He picked up his body and immediately fled into the depths of the forest.

He had been in a coma previously and had no idea where he had come from. He could not find an exit and could only flee into the vast and endless forest.

"Senior brother, take me with you!" At this moment, fairy yinyu pleaded for help.

She was still tied to the waist of the ancient man, unable to break free.

Yang Hua hesitated for a moment and said, “Junior sister, wait a moment. I’ll go back to the sect to ask for Help!”

By the time he asked for help, fairy yinyu had already been eaten to the bone.

Yang Hua had given up on helping!

Fairy Yinyu’s pretty face was snow-white. Her lips were tightly pursed, and her heart was like Dead Ashes.

In fact, her master and Yang Hua’s master had already secretly discussed their marriage.

Although fairy yinyu didn’t like Yang Hua, she didn’t hate him either, so she reluctantly agreed.

Once the mission was over, the masters of both sides would announce it to the public.

But Yang Hua was completely unaware of this.

Seeing Yang Hua turn his back on her, fairy yinyu was extremely disappointed. With his current heartless behavior, even if he knew that they were about to get married, he wouldn’t save them, right.

As Yang Hua’s back was reflected in her beautiful eyes, fairy yinyu closed her eyes in despair.

The ancient people also roared. Yang Hua, who had the body of fire, had greatly increased his strength and speed. They actually couldn’t catch up.

Seeing that Yang Hua was about to escape into the vast Black Forest, the ancient people jumped in anger.

However, at this moment, an unexpected scene appeared.

Invisible spatial walls suddenly appeared in front of Yang Hua, one after another, causing Yang Hua to have no choice but to slow down and break through the walls first.

Seeing this, the ancient people roared in excitement. Five adult ancient people and two underage ancient people chased after him in pleasant surprise.

Yang Hua roared in anger. What was going on? Where did the spatial walls come from?

However, he had no choice but to choose another direction. He fought back while escaping with the ancient people who were chasing closely behind him.

Taking advantage of this chaotic moment, a speck of dust suddenly fell on the riverside and quickly appeared in Su Yu’s original body.

The moment it appeared, a jade shovel flew out of his hand without thinking. It spun rapidly in the air and cut into the river.

The nine yin grass, along with its roots, wrapped around the river mud and flew away.

Su Yu held a spatial storage item in his hand and quickly collected it.

In just three breaths, he had successfully collected over a hundred nine yin grass!

Many of the nine yin grass had reached maturity and many seeds could be seen with the naked eye.

It was enough!

After obtaining the nine yin grass, Su Yu immediately withdrew and ran towards the cliff.

“Roar!” Suddenly, the ancient man who was injured by Yang Hua did not chase after Yang Hua because he was injured. Instead, he stayed in the tribe to guard his home.

When he suddenly saw Su Yu, he was stunned for a while. Then, he let out an excited roar and picked up the stone rod to chase after him.

Su Yu’s cold eyes swept back. He was not afraid at all. The Asura sword was in his hand.

“The seventh form of the demonic sword technique, Heaven Burial!”

With a swing of his sword, the entire world seemed to have collapsed as a large area of cracked heaven and earth came crashing down.

This was the environment, but it was extremely real.

Fear appeared in the eyes of the ancient people. They subconsciously used their stone sticks to block the crashing heaven and earth. However, the crumbling heaven and earth continued, one piece after another.

As they smashed one piece after another, the ancient people were accidentally crushed by a piece of heaven and earth.

Immediately, his entire body was crushed and he fell to the ground.

Fairy yinyu was overwhelmed with shock. was this... was this really the collapse of the heavens?

Following that, the entire phenomenon of the collapse of the heavens was suddenly retracted and the previous calm was restored.

The ancient man still maintained the posture of brandishing his stone club. There were no external injuries on his body, not even a trace of injury.

However, his eyes were dull and his aura was completely gone. It was shockingly a sign of his soul being destroyed!

As for Su Yu, he indifferently withdrew his sword.

Fairy yinyu sucked in a breath of cold air. The fierce ancient man who knocked the three of them unconscious and brought them back had his soul destroyed by a single sword?

What kind of sword technique was that?

It was so terrifying!

When she came back to her senses and saw that Su Yu was about to leave, fairy yinyu suddenly said, “Wait! Senior, save me!”

At this moment, Su Yu’s face was covered, and she couldn’t see his identity at all.

Senior, not really. They had seen him in the exchange hall not long ago.

Su Yu touched his nose and walked over to cut off Fairy Yinyu's restraints with a sword.

Fairy Yinyu was extremely grateful that she had survived. Seeing that the ancient people around them had noticed this scene, they rushed over and roared, "Let's leave quickly."

She turned around and fled like a dark forest.

Su Yu said, "You know the exit?"

Fairy Yinyu was startled. "Isn't that the place?"

Su Yu didn't say anything and sped towards the direction of the cliff.

Fairy yinyu glanced at Yang Hua who had already fled into the forest, then looked at Su Yu. Without hesitation, she followed Su Yu and fled towards the cliff.

"Senior, your voice seems somewhat familiar." Following Su Yu, fairy yinyu recalled what Su Yu had said just now and said in a slightly strange manner.

After carefully recalling for a while, a bolt of lightning flashed in Fairy Yinyu's mind. Her pretty face suddenly changed, and she cried out in shock, "You are... Boss SU who asked for wine!"

Su Yu didn't deliberately hide it, or else he wouldn't have allowed others to hear his voice.

"It's me." Su Yu wiped his palm, and the cover on his face disappeared.

"Oh my God! It's really you! But your sword arts..." Fairy Yinyu's voice suddenly stopped, and she didn't continue asking.

It wasn't wise to ask about the other party's background.

However, the shock in her heart didn't stop.

On the surface, Su Yu's cultivation seemed to be only at the advanced stage of the single-crowned emperor realm... wait a moment, fairy yinyu suddenly realized that Su Yu was already at the early stage of the double-crowned Emperor Realm.

She was once again shocked. The last time they met in the exchange hall, his strength was only at the advanced stage of the single-crowned Emperor Realm. How could his cultivation rise so quickly?

Even if he had taken two nine yin pills consecutively, it was impossible for him to break through to a whole new level!

All of a sudden, she felt that boss Su in front of her was too mysterious. His appearance was mysterious, and the various methods he displayed were also mysterious.

In their shock, they arrived at the cliff.

Su Yu imitated the ancient man. His arm condensed dragon scales and struck toward the cliff.

As expected, the ancient town was shaken, revealing a crack.

Fairy Yinyu was overjoyed. So the exit was actually here.

Looking back at Yang Hua, who was already nowhere to be seen, she couldn't do anything even if she wanted to remind him.

At this moment, a group of ancient people had already caught up with them as fast as lightning. There were a total of ten ancient people, and they looked extremely ferocious.

They were especially furious at Su Yu for killing their companions.

They were already quite close to each other. If they did not care about this, they believed that they would soon be attacked.

Just as Su Yu was about to kill another one or two to intimidate them, a whirlwind suddenly rushed out from the opening of the crack and charged towards the ancient people that were rushing over.

They saw a bloody storm, and a total of ten ancient people turned into bloody mist at the same time.

In the middle of the ancient people stood an elder of the Taiji sect who was dressed in green robes with his hands behind his back.

Chapter 1975 He Was The Bait (Second Watch)

Fairy Yinyu was stunned for a moment before a relaxed and pleasantly surprised expression appeared on her face. "Disciple yinyu pays her respects to elder Li Feng!"

Eh? Su Yu was immediately shocked. This sneaky green-robed elder was actually the one who issued the mission, Li Feng?

Why was he here?

Li Feng turned around and revealed a relieved expression. "Fortunately, I came in time. It's good that you're alright. Where are my disciple and Yang Hua?"

Yin Yu revealed a sorrowful expression and said, "Reporting to elder Li, Senior Brother Qin Huai was killed by an ancient person. Only his soul was left. Senior brother Yang Hua was chased into that dark forest by the ancient people and has disappeared."

Hearing this, Li Feng sighed. "After I issued the mission, I accidentally learned of a piece of news. I realized that you guys were in danger, so I immediately rushed over. It seems that I was a step too late. That disciple of mine only has his soul left."

Yinyu was also sad. Senior Brother Qin Huai was a good person, and his cultivation talent was even better. He had a high chance of becoming a four-crowned emperor, but she didn't expect to encounter such a thing.

At most, she could only save his soul, but it was impossible to cultivate back to his current realm.

"Since things have come to this, let's Save My Disciple's soul and Yang Hua First!" Li Feng walked over and said, "Yinyu, describe in detail the route that Yang Hua escaped..."

Just as Yinyu was about to go forward and explain in detail, her arm was suddenly grabbed by a powerful hand, pulling her back crazily, pulling her away from Li Feng.

She looked back with confusion and asked, "Boss Su, what are you doing?"

Su Yu held her arm tightly, his expression slightly solemn. "Don't believe him, there's something wrong with this elder Li Feng."

Ah? Yinyu felt that it was unbelievable.

Elder Li Feng was the yin-yang elder of the Taiji sect. He had come a long way to save them. How did he end up in a situation where he couldn't be trusted?

“Boss Su, maybe you misunderstood elder Li Feng,” Yin Yu said.

Su Yu stared at Li Feng and didn't look away for a moment, she said, “Misunderstanding? Do you think it's such a coincidence that he just arrived at this moment? or did he actually wait for the entrance and watch you guys being chased by the ancient people? Which one is more likely?”

As he said this, Yinyu's heart skipped a beat.

This trip to the Taiji sect was more than half a year's journey? Could Li Feng really rush over at the critical moment? Moreover, it just happened to be when they were about to escape from danger and escape from the ancient people's tribe?

It would be too much of a coincidence to say that it was a coincidence.

On the contrary, the other possibility was more likely. Li Feng had been watching coldly from the entrance the whole time.

Thinking of this, Yin Yu shuddered.

Li Feng frowned slightly and said, “This is boss su who asked for wine, right? Although I don't know what kind of prejudice you have against me, it's better not to disturb me in rescuing my disciple. Otherwise, I'll deal with you right now on the pretext of harming the Taiji sect!”

Following that, he looked at yin yu and said, “The origin of this boss Su is a mystery, and his personality is also mysterious. I think he has something to do with your misfortune. Come over quickly.”

Yin Yu's heart tightened. She bit her red lips and took a step back, hiding half of her body behind Su Yu.

It would have been better if Li Feng didn't say this. After saying this, Yin Yu completely believed Su Yu's words.

There was something wrong with Li Feng.

Although she didn't know how boss Su appeared here, to say that Su Yu framed them for their death was pure framing.

With her current situation, so what if Su Yu turned a blind eye?

Why did she have to kill the ancient people and save her?

Compared to this, Li Feng's suspicion was too great.

“You don't believe me?” Li Feng took a step forward and asked.

Yin Yu said, “It's not that I don't believe you, but Boss SU saved my life and is very patient to treat him as an enemy. I'm sorry...”

The word “Sorry” was still floating in the air when Li Feng suddenly attacked.

An incomparably thick law chain suddenly attacked from his palm. Surprisingly, it pierced through Su Yu and Yin Yu.

The patience on his face was exhausted. A ferocious look flashed across his face, “Then let’s die together!”

Su Yu was already prepared. Six chains appeared behind his back. They twisted into one and collided with it.

The current Su Yu had yet to recover to the peak of the Double Crown Emperor Realm. Naturally, he was at a disadvantage in a head-on clash. A deep fishy sweetness gushed out from his throat.

Fortunately, Li Feng’s strength was only comparable to the Sword Alliance Master and was far from Fu Bingyu’s level.

Otherwise, he wouldn’t be able to escape death today.

Using the momentum of being forced back, Su Yu hugged Yin Yu and retreated frantically.

However, the direction of retreat wasn’t the entrance, but the direction of the ancient human tribe.

Yin Yu saw Li Feng’s true face, and her heart trembled. He, he wanted to kill them.

That undisguised killing intent made Yin Yu lose any chance.

Su Yu was right. Elder Li Feng wanted to kill them.

“Ah! We ran in the wrong direction!” When he saw Su Yu rushing towards the ancient tribe, he reminded.

Su Yu shook his head solemnly, “There must be another trap in the entrance. If we enter, we will die!”

Since Li Feng had the intention to kill them all, how could he let them escape from this ancient tribe?

“Eh? You can actually block one of my attacks?” Li Feng was greatly surprised, when he attacked with the law chains of the four crowns, those below the four crowns should all be reduced to ashes. “Moreover, what is that thing you have? Law Chains? How can there be six of them, and they are all different colors?”

Su Yu did not respond. He charged towards the ancient tribe and said in a serious voice, “As a dignified yin-yang elder, don’t you feel ashamed to use your disciple as bait to explore this hidden world?”

Looking at the endless nine yin grass again, Su Yu realized Li Feng’s true purpose.

From the moment he issued the mission, he had been designing a trap.

Using the three disciples as bait to lure out the ancient people, he would then let the ancient people lead the way and find this extremely hidden ancient tribe.

Li Feng should have seen the scene of the ancient people using the nine yin grass to hunt bats with his own eyes. He was certain that there was an unknown hidden world in this underground world, and there must be a lot of nine yin grass there.

However, the ancient people were extremely good at hiding in the dark underground world. Li Feng had failed to catch up with the ancient people several times and found out where they were hiding.

Therefore, he had designed a trick on the disciples who accepted the mission and let the ancient people capture them into the tribe.

He could use those senses to find the entrance of the ancient people's tribe.

He had long discovered that the three disciples were in danger, but they had no intention of rescuing them.

That was because rather than letting them return alive to report the details of this place to the sect, how could they compare to him alone enjoying the endless nine yin grass here?

The most satisfactory result was that the three of them were all killed by the ancient people.

However, Yang Hua, who first appeared with the innate essence crystal, and then Su Yu appeared, making this perfect result bankrupt.

He had no choice but to personally kill them.

The reason he asked Yang Hua about his escape route was probably to make it more convenient to chase after Yang Hua and not to rescue him.

After understanding this point, Su Yu secretly felt lucky.

Fortunately, he decided to personally come down and investigate. Otherwise, Li Feng's plan would have succeeded and yinyu and the others would have all died here. His plan of waiting for them would have been completely ruined, and he would still be unable to find out about the existence of the ancient tribe.

As for the current pursuit, he could only escape to the dark forest.

Once he was inside, he would think of a way to hide.

"HMPH! Boss SU is very cunning. He was able to predict that there would be an ambush at the entrance. However, so what? In this ancient tribe, you are like a turtle in a jar. Where can you escape to?" Li Feng coldly berated and sped up his pursuit.

Yin Yu's heart trembled when she heard this. The entrance was actually hiding danger?

Boss SU was really able to predict everything.

The two of them charged into the ancient tribe and faced the group of ancient people with extreme ferocity.

With such a formation, Li Feng should also be cautious, right?

As expected, Li Feng slowed down from afar and watched as Su Yu and the others charged into the ancient people.

The moment they charged in, Su Yu wrapped the two of them with space power and instantly teleported into the distance, appearing at the edge of the dark forest.

Li Feng was stunned and wanted to chase after them. However, he was viewed as a target of hatred by tens of thousands of ancient people.

It must be known that the ancient people who he killed alone were naturally regarded as the greatest threat.

Li Feng moved left and right and managed to escape from the ancient people with great difficulty. When he raised his eyes, he saw that Su Yu and the others had already escaped into the dark forest.

“Where can you escape to?” Li Feng smiled contemptuously. No matter how big the hidden world was, how could it be bigger than the underground world outside?

In less than a day, they would be able to search through the dark forest!

Looking at the ancient people, Li Feng did not mind. They could not threaten him. However, the person who knew the current situation definitely could not let them return to the Taiji sect.

With a flash, Li Feng also chased into the dark forest.

The strange thing was, the tens of thousands of ferocious ancient people chased until they reached the dark forest, but they were not willing to take another step forward.

They seemed to have an unspeakable fear towards the dark forest.

In the forest, Su Yu sped along.

Only after half a day, when he was sure that he had shaken off Li Feng, did he stop.

Yin Yu gazed deeply at Su Yu and bowed gratefully, “I, Yin Yu, thank you for saving my life twice, Boss SU. I will never forget it.”

“Let’s not talk about these useless things. Let’s consider the current situation,” Su Yu said with a frown.

In this ancient tribe, the four-crowned King Li Feng was definitely an invincible existence.

How to avoid his pursuit was a big problem.

Moreover, this dark forest gave him a feeling of unease.

To be exact, the unease he felt in the air above the oasis came from this forest.

That underground world, including the ancient people, did not give Su Yu such a feeling of unease. Only this forest was quite ominous.

This place was definitely not suitable for staying for long.

Yin Yu muttered, “Why don’t we find Yang Hua? Right now, he has self-detonated his innate essence crystal, and his strength is extraordinary. If he joins hands with us, there might be a glimmer of hope.”

Su Yu shook his head lightly without thinking, “It’s useless. The strength of four crowns is not something that can be made up with numbers.”

He had personally killed two four crowns, and he knew very well how powerful they were.

It was unrealistic to expect two peak quadruple crowns to be able to fight against them.

“Let’s go deeper and find a suitable place to hide,” Su Yu thought.

Half a day passed.

They finally arrived at the edge of the Dark Forest. If they went any further, the sky would be filled with nothingness. One step forward and they would die.

“Boss Su, look over there.” Yin Yu carefully discovered that there was a rotten wooden house at the edge of the forest not far away.

The wooden house had long been covered by plants and had collapsed. Only a corner was still barely supporting it.

“How about hiding somewhere?” Yin Yu asked.

Su Yu asked back, “If you were Li Feng and discovered this place that could be hidden, wouldn’t you do a check?”

Yin Yu was speechless.

Li Feng would never let go of such an obvious place.

“Wait!” Su Yu suddenly discovered something and stared at the two clear footprints.

Chapter 1976 The Appearance Of Demons And Humans (Third Watch)

Yin Yu followed his gaze and exclaimed in a low voice, “It’s Yang Hua, he’s hiding here!”

The conversation between the two was not hidden and was transmitted into the house.

With a swoosh, Yang Hua’s shadow flashed out of the house. His soul was still burning and his body was tightly clamped under his armpit.

“Yinyu, it’s great that you’re okay!” Yang Hua went forward in surprise and held Yinyu’s shoulders in excitement.

Yinyu faintly dodged and said, “Thanks to you, I’m still alive.”

Yang Hua revealed a trace of embarrassment. “I originally planned to go back to save you, but there was no way out of this place. I walked into a dead end. Sigh.”

Yinyu was expressionless in response to this and did not respond,

Yang Hua immediately turned his gaze and looked at Su Yu. He was quite surprised. “Boss Su, why are you here?”

His tone was quite unfriendly as he questioned.

Yin Yu’s gaze was slightly cold as she said, “It was boss su who saved me. Do you have any objections?”

Him? Yang Hua did not believe it. With Su Yu’s realm as a single crowned emperor, could he save him from the hands of that ancient person?

But no matter what, now was not the time to dwell on the past.

“You guys have also been forced into a desperate situation, right? Come in here, I have something to show you.” Yang Hua stared deeply at Su Yu and said.

Su Yu pondered for a moment and nodded. “Lead the way.”

Then, he followed Yang Hua into the wooden house and found that there was another universe in the wooden house that seemed to only have a corner left.

Most of the interior of the wooden house had collapsed, but there was still a small portion of it left.

In the remaining corner, there were ten statues of ancient people. They were all different in shape, but they all had something in common, and they all had an extremely savage aura.

Nine of them had already been severely damaged, and only one of them was still intact.

Looking at this statue, Su Yu’s pupils constricted slightly.

He could actually feel a very weak primordial Qi from the statue!

The stone hammer in the statue’s hand emitted a terrifying aura that wasn’t inferior to the Royal Longzun Sword.

Yin Yu’s beautiful eyes flashed as she also realized how extraordinary the stone hammer was.

Looking at Yang Hua again, her eyes flickered with a deep greed, but a trace of fear couldn’t be dispelled.

“As you can see, this stone hammer is definitely a rare divine item. If used properly, it might be able to contend against the ancient people outside.” Yang Hua’s eyes revealed an excited expression. “But this statue is quite strange. I’ve tried my best, but I still couldn’t take down the stone hammer. Since you’re here, why don’t you all think of a way to take it down together?”

Yin Yu did not tell Yang Hua that the danger outside was no longer the ancient people, but the even more dangerous Li Feng.

“Let me try.” She went forward and used all the power in her body to forcefully take down the stone hammer.

However, just as Yang Hua said, the stone hammer seemed to grow in the statue and could not be taken out.

Then, he tried to attack the statue, but the statue did not move at all.

“This stone hammer is very strange.” Yin Yu was helpless.

Yang Hua’s eyes showed a hint of disappointment. He looked at Su Yu and then took it back expressionlessly.

He and Yin Yu could not even do it, let alone Su Yu?

“Boss Su? Why Don’t you try it? Maybe this is our chance.” Yin Yu was full of anticipation for Su Yu.

Su Yu pondered for a moment. Since Yang Hua and Yin Yu had tried it, it meant that brute force was not feasible.

It would be redundant for him to try again.

Then... his heart moved slightly, and he tried to imitate the language of the ancient people, mumbling a few words.

Yang Hua and Yin Yu were baffled when they heard it.

They actually did not understand it at all.

But the strange thing was that with a click, the stone hammer actually fell down!

Yin Yu was stunned, and so was Yang Hua.

However, the latter reacted faster. He took a step forward and picked up the stone hammer, holding it tightly in his palm. Feeling the shocking power contained in the stone hammer, Yang Hua could not help but laugh out loud.

Yin Yu's pretty face darkened and she shouted, "Boss su thought of a way to get this. Senior brother, quickly return it to him."

Yang Hua held the stone hammer tightly and asked confidently, "I found it first, so it's naturally mine!"

Yin Yu was slightly angry and said, "Senior brother, don't disappoint me again. Return it to boss su immediately. I will also agree to master's request."

She still decided to give Yang Hua a chance.

"Junior sister, whose side are you on?" Yang Hua frowned deeply and was very displeased.

Seeing that she had no heart and no hope, Yin Yu shook her head in disappointment. "I should have known from the beginning that you were such a person."

Back then, when Yang Hua was at the Fragrant Cloud Restaurant, she had willingly drank the pure Yang that she felt guilty about. She should have known what kind of person Yang Hua was.

Now, it was just more proof of what Yin Yu was thinking.

The idea of marriage could be put to rest.

Yang Hua's heart was burning with anger. It seemed that her junior sister had a particularly good impression of this boss Su.

"Junior sister, come over here. This su guy is not a reliable person. Be careful that he doesn't betray you." Yang Hua tried to infuse the prehistoric power into the stone hammer. As expected, she felt a destructive power that had been suppressed for a long time.

Traces of killing intent surged in her heart.

The hatred that she had been poisoned to the ground back then seemed to be more suitable to be avenged than now.

If she let him die quietly here, who would still pursue him?

Yin Yu heard this and stood back by Su Yu's side without saying anything. Her attitude was unusually firm.

Who was reliable and who was not? was there a need to say it?

Yang Hua and Su Yu had already made a comparison when she was in danger.

It was laughable that Yang Hua felt good about himself and even had the face to slander others out of thin air.

When he suddenly saw the woman he loved choose to believe another man without any hesitation, Yang Hua's anger rose from his heart.

He had pursued Yin Yu with all his might, but to no avail. The other party had never shown him any kindness. Now, he would rather believe in a man whom he had only met a few times.

Was there a need to continue pursuing such a woman?

A trace of evil thoughts surged in his heart.

There was no one in this place. After killing Su Yu, he would then imprison Yin Yu in his own cave abode and toy with her for the rest of his life. Who would know?

The more he thought about it, the deeper the evil thoughts in his heart became. Finally, they turned into a ray of excited light. The dark side of his heart was in this place where no one could see him, he revealed the surface of the water. "Hehe, since junior sister would rather die than trust an outsider, then don't blame senior brother for using an alternative method to obtain you forever!"

As he finished speaking, the stone hammer was suddenly activated.

A terrifying sound wave appeared with the movement of the stone hammer and swept towards Su Yu and Yin Yu.

Su Yu's expression did not change. He had already expected this. He grabbed Yin Yu and directly left the rotten wooden house.

Yang Hua did not catch up and was furious. "Where do you think you're going!"

He held the stone hammer in his hand and was about to catch up when suddenly, a sinister laugh sounded from within the sound wave.

It was followed by a mumbling sound, but no one could understand what language it was.

Then, Yang Hua's entire soul froze, and the corpse under his armpit fell to the ground silently.

A thread of jade-green light slowly drilled out from the stone hammer and entered Yang Hua's body.

Then, his body slowly opened his eyes, and a pair of indifferent and disdainful eyes shot out.

Yang Hua watched his body being occupied by a mysterious soul. He was so frightened. However, his body couldn't move strangely as if he was being suppressed by the stone hammer in his hand.

His head turned around and glanced at Yang Hua casually. Immediately, Yang Hua felt like his soul was about to explode. All of his memories were searched.

After pondering for a while, his body mumbled some vague language. Then, his pronunciation was close to the common language of the absolute beginning realm.

Several seconds later, his words became clear.

“The tree wants to be quiet but the wind won’t Stop! I wanted to wait for the end of this era and the beginning of the new era. I didn’t expect that you humans would wake me up from my deep sleep,” said his body indifferently.

Yang Hua swallowed deeply and said in fear, “Senior... Senior, you are?”

He didn’t understand what the end of the era meant.

The only thing he understood was that the body in front of him didn’t emit any hostility, but Yang Hua had the illusion that he was about to die.

“Me? In your words, I should have an ancestral identity similar to that of the ancient people. However, I prefer others to call me a human demon.”

Demi-demon, a demi-demon among humans?

Yang Hua’s heart was extremely cold. Just by hearing his name, he knew that he wasn’t some kind person!

“Haha, Don’t Be Afraid. Although I used to like killing for fun and ended up with the title of demi-demon and was besieged by countless overlords in the universe, seeing the long-lost absolute beginning makes me miss him. I Won’t kill you in the short term. Don’t worry.”

Not in a short period of time, but in a long period of time..

Yang Hua’s heart relaxed slightly, but the shock in his heart could not be calmed down.

He had once been besieged by the so-called overlords of the universe, so what was his strength?

“My current strength, well, it’s hard to say. I’m Not Afraid of your so-called dao master now, but now I only have a remnant soul, and my strength is not what it used to be. I need to test it out. Your two companions can be used as test subjects. Unfortunately, that silver-haired human is smarter than you, and he had long predicted that the stone hammer would not be good, so he did not touch the stone hammer. Otherwise, with his ability of spatial laws, how could you win against him?”

If an ordinary person knew that Su Yu possessed spatial laws, they would have been extremely shocked.

However, the demi-human seemed very calm, as if he had met many similar people before.

As he spoke, the eyes of the demi-human suddenly flashed. “Oh? A more suitable test subject has arrived. Using the current cultivation level of this era, he should be a four crowns emperor.”

“Let’s go, let’s test my strength.”The demi-human placed his hands behind his back. He did not move at all, but instead brought Yang Hua and teleported.

Li Feng had been searching the forest for an entire day and had finished searching most of the areas.

Just as he was about to continue searching, a strong spatial fluctuation suddenly appeared before his eyes. Yang Hua, who was standing with his hands behind his back, and a person whose entire body was burning with flames walked out from within.

Looking at Yang Hua, Li Feng’s eyes relaxed as he found one.

A smile appeared on his face. “Haha, so it’s Yang Hua. I heard that you were in danger, so I immediately came to look for you. When I saw that you were fine, I was relieved.”

As he spoke, his figure suddenly flashed forward, and a ferocious expression appeared on his face. “Looks like you still don’t know anything. That’s good too. Being a muddle-headed ghost isn’t painful!”

In order to avoid an accident similar to Su Yu’s escape, the first move he made was the nomological chain.

He imagined that Yang Hua would be killed in an instant, but Yang Hua casually stretched out his palm and actually grabbed the nomological chain with his palm.

The other party even commented with some interest, “Condensing the law into a chain? Those people on the sacred mountain haven’t made much progress. They can’t play too big of a trick.”

Li Feng didn’t understand what the other party said at all, but as he stared at the other party holding the law chain, his heart was extremely shocked!

Chapter 1977 Evolution Of Xiao Die

How was it possible to grasp the law with one hand?

The sect leader couldn’t grasp the law with his bare hands either, right?

It must be known that the law was an existence between reality and illusion. It was a projection of the laws of heaven and earth. How could it be grasped by someone?

Li Feng suddenly pulled, wanting to pull back his law. However, the chain was held in the other party’s palm without moving an inch.

“You are not Yang Hua, who are you?”Li Feng finally realized that something was wrong.

The demi-human raised his eyes indifferently. “Me? You probably don’t need to know who I am.”

Following that, he flicked his finger and pushed back his law.

Li Feng’s heart stirred as he pulled back his law. However, he did not expect that the chain would carry a supreme power and he was actually unable to stop it from rolling backwards.

Ah --

With a mournful and cold howl, Li Feng’s body was actually smashed to pieces by his own chain!

To be precise, his soul was also smashed to pieces.

A hint of disappointment flashed across his eyes, the demi-human shook his head. "The current four-crowned emperor is too weak to withstand a blow... However, my remaining strength can be considered to be barely tested out. HMM, it's probably at the peak of the five-crowned emperor realm. Although it's not comparable to your dao master, there shouldn't be anyone below Dao Master who can match me."

Yang Hua swallowed hard.

This was the four crowns in front of him. He could kill him with a flick of his finger.

Yang Hua didn't doubt that he had the strength of the peak of the five crowns.

This time, Yang Hua started to worry.

After the strength test was over, would it be his turn to deal with him?

"Don't be afraid." The demi-human's eyes were extremely piercing, as if he could see through Yang Hua's heart, he said, "As for me, I'm just a remnant soul. Occasionally, my soul needs to rest, so I need someone trustworthy to guard it for me. You're very suitable, so I won't do anything to you in the short term."

This was already the second time he had mentioned the words "In the short term."

In other words, with the demi-human's unblinking nature, he wouldn't be able to protect himself for a long time.

However, Yang Hua did not have the right to choose. He said, "Thank you for your appreciation, senior, but my strength is weak, so I'm afraid I won't be able to do it."

"Of course you won't be able to do it. With your little ability, who can you stop?" The humans and demons did not mind. They said, "During this period of time, I will give you some guidance in your cultivation. At the very least, you have to raise your cultivation to the level of a four-crowned emperor."

Hearing this, Yang Hua's heart palpitated. Four... four-crowned emperor!

He was thinking about it even in his dreams!

With his plan, he would need at least three hundred years.

"May I ask senior demi-human, how long will it take?" Yang Hua asked expectantly. He realized that meeting the demi-human might not be a bad thing.

"How long? HMM... a few years," the demi-human said casually.

Yang Hua's pupils constricted. Just a few years?

One could imagine the shock in his heart.

"Thank you, senior! Thank you, Senior!" Yang Hua was extremely excited. At this moment, he was even a little grateful that Su Yu did not snatch the stone hammer. Otherwise, how could such a heavenly opportunity fall into his hands.

He did not know at all that the human demon's lips curled up with a trace of contempt and disdain.

The Heavenly Dao was only constant.

In a short period of time, one had to pay a terrible price to obtain a powerful cultivation base by forcefully raising it.

With the temperament of a demi-demon, it did not seem like he would be patient enough to nurture others.

“Hehe...”the demi-demon laughed lightly. “Let’s go and see my descendants who have lost their intelligence and turned into savages...”

Su Yu held Yin Yu and sped towards the cliff. After opening the passage, he found that there was indeed a temporary array formation inside.

The array formation was set up in a hurry, so it was not a powerful attack array formation, but a trapping array formation that could trap people.

Yin Yu secretly admired it. Fortunately, Boss SU had foresight and predicted that there was an ambush inside.

If they had entered the trap without knowing what was going on, they would not have been able to escape even if they had fallen into the trap formation.

Su Yu’s heart moved. He opened his mouth and spat out a true flame of the double-crowned king level. It burned for ten breaths before the ancient formation was destroyed.

There was no longer any obstruction. Su Yu and Yin Yu rushed out without thinking and rushed out of the underground world in one breath.

From the beginning to the end, they did not look behind them, nor did they miss the countless nine yin grass.

Because just now, he had a strong feeling of unease.

It was that Stone Hammer!

Something extremely dangerous must have been born!

The two crossed the death sand sea and returned to Taiji city half a year later.

Along the way, Yin Yu was extremely grateful to Boss SU. They had taken the initiative to chat a lot, so they could be considered very familiar with each other.

“Boss Su, I’ll come over another day to thank you. I’ll go back to my master’s Place First and explain the matters of the underground world,”Yin Yu said.

Two disciples had disappeared in a row. As someone who had traveled with her, yin yu indeed needed to clarify the truth.

Su Yu opened his mouth, wanting to remind her to hide the nine yin grass.

With the importance that the Taiji sect placed on the nine yin grass, it was likely that they would immediately send experts to wipe out the ancient tribes.

If they were to encounter that dangerous thing, it would probably bring them great trouble.

However, the words that were about to come out of his mouth stopped abruptly.

He was an outsider, so his words were light. He could not stop the Taiji sect.

Yin Yu could not say it out loud, but with two missing disciples, the Taiji sect would definitely search their souls. There would always be a way to find out what was going on inside.

Moreover, there was still Li Feng and Yang Hua. He could stop Yin Yu's mouth, but could he stop them?

"What does boss su want to say?" Yin Yu asked.

Su Yu shook his head. "Nothing. Take Care."

He returned to Wen Jiu alone. There was no one in the front hall, but in the back hall, it was Mo Xiaochai who was guiding Huangfu Lieyang's cultivation.

What was even more shocking was that in just a short year, Huangfu Lieyang's cultivation had improved significantly. He was already at the late stage of the double-crown level. Now that his aura had reached its peak, it was only a matter of time before he broke through to the triple-crown level.

Su Yu's eyes flashed. This Mo Xiaochai had really taken a liking to Huangfu Lieyang.

She seemed to be muddle-headed, but she was actually very shrewd. She was just very good at hiding it.

"Brother Su, you're back?" Huangfu Lieyang was excited. He stopped cultivating and quickly went forward to say.

Su Yu nodded. "I was lucky to escape."

Mo Xiaochai also walked over and said, "Congratulations."

At this moment, she clenched her fists and caressed her silver teeth in her mouth. She said congratulations, but her eyes were full of unwillingness and disappointment.

Su Yu's face twitched slightly. He had come back alive, and Mo Xiaochai had not been able to divide up his property. Su Yu understood this very well, but there was no need to be so obvious!

"Brother Su, did you run into danger?"

Su Yu nodded. "Yes, it's complicated. I'll first go into seclusion to deal with the nine yin grass I got. I'll tell you more after I come out of seclusion."

"Okay." Huangfu Lieyang was quite happy when he found out that Su Yu had the nine yin grass.

After coming to the secret room and making sure that the outside world could not visit, Su Yu took out a large piece of nine yin grass with a total of about a hundred stalks.

Su Yu was more interested in the seeds on it. After carefully peeling all the seeds, he brought all of them into the nine jade spiritual pearl and planted them in the nursery.

The nine yin grass only needed three years to mature. Judging from the degree of ripening in the nursery, the outside world only needed two years for the nine yin grass to fully mature.

After planting it, Su Yu soon found more than a thousand tender buds. His heart relaxed and he came to the butterfly cocoon.

Compared to the past, the butterfly cocoon now was golden in color and emitted waves of light from within.

A slender, tall, and graceful female figure was faintly discernible.

“Is the fourth evolution going to be successful?” Su Yu was secretly looking forward to it. It seemed that the butterfly would mature a little more.

From the initial caterpillar to a butterfly to a young girl, she would have grown into an adult by now.

After looking for a while, Su Yu returned to the outside world.

After pondering for a while, Su Yu entered the great void Mystic Palace and searched for items with abundant primordial Qi with ease. He used the ancient lamp on his chest to burn and projected a scene of a Daoist master’s lecture.

He listened attentively and his mind was empty. Many questions in his mind were suddenly answered.

After a long while, the projection turned into broken light spots and fused into his soul. Another faint golden light spot formed.

This was naturally the soul path fragment.

In the past few years, every time he listened to the Daoist master’s lecture, he would obtain a soul path fragment.

Now, he could clearly see that Su Yu’s soul already had ten fragments.

It had already been a few days since he left the Great Void Mystic Palace.

As he scanned the surroundings, he realized that all the nine yin grass in the nine jade spiritual pearl had matured.

Compared to the ten thousand nine yin grass, and because they were the purest wild seeds, the nine yin grass that grew seemed very pure. It was the best main material to refine the nine Yin Pill.

It was time to start refining the nine Yin Pill.

He came out of seclusion.

Huangfu Lieyang was meditating in the back hall. When he saw Su Yu come out, he could not help but ask him if he was injured because he was in a hurry to enter seclusion.

Su Yu smiled and told him the general story of that day. Huangfu Lieyang was stunned.

“Brother Su, you are lucky to be back.” Huangfu Lieyang sighed. He knew that if it were him, he wouldn’t be able to escape with ten lives.

Su Yu said calmly, “Since there’s nothing else, there’s no need to talk about it. Now, prepare to refine the nine Yin Pill.”

This was what Huangfu Lieyang was looking forward to the most. He asked, "How many nine yin herbs did brother Su bring back? Are there more than a hundred of them?"

If there were a hundred of them and they were handled properly, they should be able to obtain two nine yin pills.

"A hundred... it should be more than that." Su Yu was slightly startled.

Huangfu Lieyang was immediately excited. "Could it be that there are two hundred of them?"

Su Yu was sweating. It was not Huangfu Lieyang's fault for not daring to guess too much. It was just that nine yin herbs were rare in the past. It was difficult to find one, let alone a few hundred.

"It's more than 200, there should be more than 10,000 stalks."

Huangfu Lieyang was immediately petrified. He stuttered, "More... more than 10,000?"

"Yes, it's about that number. It should be enough for us to refine 200 nine yin pills." Su Yu looked pensive. "But the money for the supplementary ingredients is an astronomical figure."

There were more than 10,000 supplementary ingredients for the nine Yin Pill, and they were all expensive supplementary ingredients.

The supplementary ingredients for one set of nine yin pill cost at least 300 million.

Based on the 50-TO-1 chance, obtaining one nine yin pill cost 15 billion!

A year after Su Yu left, Huangfu Lieyang bought another 100 billion. In total, it was only 300 billion. In total, he could only refine 20 nine yin pills.

The two of them thought about it and smiled bitterly. They found that the nine yin grass was enough, but money became a hindrance instead.

"What? What? You have tens of thousands of nine yin grass?" Mo Xiaochai appeared out of nowhere and ran over from a distance, her eyes shining with shock.

Su Yu nodded. "Yes, what do you plan to do?"

"Can I Rob You?" Mo Xiaochai rubbed her palms, her face full of excitement.

"No!" Su Yu and Huangfu Lieyang said in unison.

Mo Xiaochai pouted. "TSK!"

Then, her eyes moved slightly. "I heard that you are short of money to buy accessories. I have an idea. Do you want to try it?"

Chapter 1978 Encountering The Fire Dragon Again

"Tell me about it," Su Yu thought to himself. Mo Xiaochai seemed to be fooling around, but in fact, she was sincerely helping them.

Mo Xiaochai chuckled and said, "It's very simple. You sell the nine yin grass to the Taiji sect, and they provide the supplementary materials. How about it? Of course, both of you have to give me rebates. Who asked me to be the Middleman?"

Huangfu Lieyang covered his face in pain. What kind of painful experience was it to have such a greedy wife?

"No problem. If you can negotiate, what's the harm in giving you a rebate? I'll give you a nine yin grass for every hundred stalks negotiated," Su Yu said generously.

What he didn't lack the most right now was the nine yin grass. After planting this batch of seeds, he estimated that he could grow up to tens of millions of stalks.

"Really!" Mo Xiaochai jumped up in joy.

A single nine yin grass was worth two billion!

"Give it all to me. I guarantee that you can have as much as the Taiji sect wants." Mo Xiaochai hurried back to Taiji city to discuss with the sect master.

Meanwhile, Su Yu and Huangfu Lieyang went to the shop in Taiji city to look for pill furnaces to refine pills.

Considering that the refining process of the nine yin pill was extremely complicated, the pill furnaces had to be extremely high-grade.

"It might be difficult for ordinary shops to buy the pill furnaces that we need," Su Yu said thoughtfully. Based on his past experience in pill refining, he knew that it would be very difficult for ordinary shops to buy the pill furnaces that they needed.

Such a complicated pill refining process, even if it was a high-quality true emperor-level divine weapon, it would usually be very difficult for it to last until the end. Usually, during the refining process, it would be destroyed by the continuous pill fire.

"It's very simple. There's a true essence pavilion in Taiji city. It has a lot of rare items in it. Supreme-grade pill furnaces might be one of them," Huangfu Lieyang said.

Su Yu nodded and came to the true essence pavilion.

Su Yu had heard a little about this pavilion. It was said that the entrance was very high, and it was not open to everyone.

Usually, they would only welcome the important people. When the disciples of the Taiji sect arrived, the people inside would ignore them.

Therefore, although the shop was huge, it was quiet inside.

When Su Yu and Huangfu Lieyang came to the door, the two maids at the door immediately showed a surprised look and went up to welcome them. "Boss Su, we are honored to have you here!"

“Manager Huangfu, we have been waiting for you for a long time. Why are you only here now?”

The two of them were now well-known top-class tycoons in Taiji city. Their assets were over 100 billion yuan.

Any one of their fingers was enough for an ordinary martial artist to enjoy for life.

In terms of wealth, most of the yin-yang elders in the Taiji sect could not compare to them. Only the earth elder could compare to them.

Therefore, everyone in the city knew the two of them, unless they had a problem with money.

Su Yu was fine, but Huangfu Lieyang was flattered.

In the past, he did not even dare to imagine such a luxurious shop like Zhencui Hall.

But now, he had become a high-class person in Taiji city.

The difference between the former and the latter was so great that it made people sigh with emotion.

“Boss Su, it’s such a coincidence that you’re here. Recently, the true essence hall is holding a small-scale exhibition. There are many rare items that are being brought out. I hope that there will be something that catches your eye.”

Su Yu didn’t think much of it. For such a luxurious shop like this, the activity inside was rare but sophisticated. It was sold as an exhibition at all times.

Right now, perhaps he was just taking out a few more things to display.

Stepping into the shop, there were many exquisite display cabinets on both sides of the shop. On both sides of the display cabinets were a dazzling array of rare treasures.

Su Yu could not help but look at many things with interest.

For example, one of the items was called the acquired Essence Crystal!

Su Yu had already seen the innate essence crystal from Yang Hua. The acquired essence crystal was a synthetic imitation.

Naturally, its effect was not as good as the innate essence crystal, and it was even inferior to the lowest grade innate essence crystal.

However, that was compared to many experts who had the hope of breaking through to the Triple Crown. For many people who could not even break through to the Heavenly Emperor Realm, the acquired essence crystal could be said to be a divine object that could change one’s fate.

Because, by transplanting it into one’s body, it could subtly influence and help one break through to the double crown!

Such acquired essence crystals could only be obtained by a prosperous five-star civilization.

“How much is this?” Su Yu did not need acquired essence crystals, but the old friends of the dark star civilization needed them.

Many of them did not have good aptitude for cultivation, and there were even some who could not cultivate.

If they were transplanted, they believed that a large number of heaven and Earth Emperors would appear in the near future.

The maid said enthusiastically, "One hundred million divine stones each."

One hundred million? That was too high.

The lifetime savings of many three-crowned emperors were not even enough for one hundred million divine stones.

However, the rarer the item, the more precious it was. For many people who were unable to break through to heaven and earth emperors, this item could not be measured by price.

"How much stock do you have? I'll buy it all," Su Yu said indifferently.

The maid sucked in a breath of cold air and said carefully, "Reporting to boss Su, we still have two thousand in stock. If you need them, you can buy them in an appropriate amount."

Boss Su probably thought that there were only a few pieces of acquired essence crystals? The maid thought to herself.

However, Su Yu said indifferently, "Yes, I'll buy them all!"

What? The maid was stunned, buy them all..

"Can't I?" Su Yu asked back.

The maid came back to her senses and her heart trembled. What was the meaning of being inhumane? She had finally seen it today.

A 200 billion dollar deal was done without any bargaining!

"Boss Su, please wait for a moment. Such a big deal needs our boss to handle personally."

Soon, a stumbling middle-stage four-crowned king walked over with a smile. He cupped his fists and said from a distance, "Boss Su, I'm sorry for not welcoming you."

Su Yu smiled faintly and returned the greeting. "If we can do this deal now, we might as well finish it now."

Boss Peng was overjoyed. A deal worth 200 billion was something that could not be found for many years!

"Boss Su is a forthright person. Furthermore, we are all doing business on the same street. I will give you a 10% discount!" Boss Peng took out a spatial storage device and placed 2,000 acquired essence crystals inside.

Su Yu took out a purse worth 180 billion divine stones without hesitation.

The two of them completed the transaction just like that, causing the maids to stare with their eyes wide open.

To complete such a shocking transaction just like that, it was truly... breathtaking.

Boss Peng was in an extremely good mood, and he was several times more enthusiastic towards Su Yu. He said, "Boss SU, please come in. There are even more extraordinary things in the display cabinets inside."

Under his guidance, they entered the depths of the true talent pavilion.

There were several figures here, and from the looks of it, they should be the yin-yang elders of the Taiji sect. Each of them sized up the items in the display cabinets.

"Boss Peng, this fire dragon should be cheaper." Yingfeng Xiaoxiao stopped in front of a jade display cabinet.

There was a struggling fire dragon sealed in the display cabinet. It seemed to be a double-crowned emperor, and its body was covered in layers of flames.

Yingfeng Xiaoxiao was invited to take a look with a few elders. At first glance, he didn't pay much attention to this fire dragon.

However, after careful observation, he was moved to discover that this fire dragon was actually a true dragon whose cultivation level had dropped to the late-stage of the fourth-crowned Emperor Realm!

This discovery made him extremely happy.

What made him the happiest was that due to his carelessness, the true essence pavilion did not discover the uniqueness of this fire dragon. Instead, it was sold at the price of an ordinary double-crowned fire dragon.

The asking price was one billion.

He had more than ten billion on him, but he suddenly spent one billion. Yingfeng Xiaoxiao felt his heart ache, and after haggling with the maid in charge of the display cabinet for a long time, there was no result.

He suddenly realized that boss Peng, who was usually elusive, had actually appeared. He immediately said.

Everyone said that boss Peng was generous and easy to talk to. If he had the chance to meet him, he would naturally give it a try.

Boss Peng was in the middle of accompanying Su Yu, this big customer, on a tour. When he suddenly heard the call, he turned his head to look at it and said impatiently, "Alright, 100 million less."

He was too lazy to deal with this kind of penniless yin yang elder.

Yingfeng was overjoyed and said gratefully, "Thank you, Boss Peng!"

Then, he said to the maid, "Let's do the transaction now."

The maid was helpless. She opened the shopkeeper and prepared to complete the transaction.

“Wait!” Out of the blue, Su Yu suddenly walked over and stared at the fire dragon in the display cabinet. His eyes revealed the look of a policeman.

At first, he had actually noticed Yingfeng Xiaoxiao, but when he casually glanced at the fire dragon that he wanted to buy, he immediately felt that it looked familiar.

After carefully sensing its aura, he finally remembered who he was!

In the ruins of Emperor Yu’s dynasty, he forced the evil dragon to hand over the evil Dragon Bible. In the end, he ended up benefiting Su Yu instead.

After that, he was injured by Su Yu and escaped without a trace.

Su Yu almost forgot about it. Who would have thought that he would meet it on this kind of ground? It had even become a commodity and an exhibition item!

“Why? Is boss su interested in this fire dragon?” Boss Peng asked in surprise.

Su Yu nodded slightly. “Yes, I’ve seen this fire dragon before.”

Eh? Boss Peng was surprised. He had carefully examined this fire dragon and found that its realm was somewhat abnormal. After a long while, a trace of surprise appeared in his eyes. “A true dragon whose realm dropped from the late stage of the fourth-crowned champion?”

Yingfeng Xiaoxiao’s face couldn’t help but sink. She was about to buy it, but boss Peng actually found out.

It was impossible to buy it for a few hundred million now.

Looking at the label, boss Peng’s face darkened. “Who appraised this? That appraiser was fired!”

In fact, that appraiser was also wronged. He was only a triple crown emperor. How could he detect the true realm of this fire dragon?

Then, boss Peng smiled at Yingfeng and said, “If elder Ying wants it, it should be ten billion.”

A true dragon at the late-stage of the fourth-crowned emperor realm was indeed worth this price. 10 billion..

Yingfeng’s face was completely stiff. How could he afford it?

“If elder Ying doesn’t want it, then I’ll take it,” Su Yu said at this moment.

This fire dragon’s current realm might not be useful to Su Yu, but his identity as a dragon was very useful.

Especially the Demonic Dragon Bible!

Su Yu’s cultivation of this scripture had reached a bottleneck because his body lacked dragon blood.

If he could extract the true dragon’s blood from this fire dragon, he might be able to make a breakthrough in the Demonic Dragon Bible.

Boss Peng looked at Su Yu and immediately revealed a smile. He waved his hand carelessly and said, “Haha, it’s just a mere ten billion. It’s too embarrassing for Boss SU. Since boss su likes it, I’ll give it to you. There’s no need for money.”

Windward Smile had mixed feelings.

The young man that he looked down on back then had now become a giant.

Boss Peng would rather give ten billion to Su Yu than sell it to him.

One could imagine how high Su Yu's status was to boss Peng!

Chapter 1979 Heaven And Earth Were Incomplete

“Come, pack up that true dragon and hand it over to boss Su.” Boss Peng said straightforwardly and directly ignored Yingfeng Xiaoxiao.

Yingfeng Xiaoxiao's face alternated between green and purple. She immediately felt humiliated and left with a light snort.

Boss Peng didn't mind. She was just a yin-yang Elder.

“In that case, thank you, Boss Peng.” Su Yu thanked him.

It wouldn't be right if he didn't buy something decent because he was indebted to someone.

“I need a high-quality pill furnace. What do you recommend, Boss Peng?”

Boss Peng twirled his beard and said, “Pill furnace... I wonder what kind of high-quality pill furnace you're talking about?”

Pill furnaces had many grades. In the eyes of many ordinary people, a high-quality pill furnace was just an ordinary item in the eyes of alchemy masters.

“Naturally, it's the best one here,” Su Yu said.

Thus, boss Peng once again revealed a deep smile on his face. “Haha, could it be that boss Su is referring to some insider information and specially came here?”

“Oh? Why do you say that?” Su Yu was instead surprised.

Boss Peng chuckled, he revealed a profound expression. “Recently, our Zhencui Hall accidentally received a top-grade pill furnace from another five-star civilization. I originally planned to keep this pill furnace as a treasure of the shop and display it for sale a few days later. I didn't expect boss Su to be so well-informed and come to investigate in advance.”

Su Yu was stunned. What a coincidence.

“What pill furnace can catch boss Peng's eye as a treasure of the store?” Su Yu was curious.

With the collection of true extract hall, even ordinary true emperor-level divine weapons couldn't be qualified to be a treasure of the store, right?

It must be known that a fire dragon of the four crowns emperor-level could be given to Su Yu casually. That pill furnace was definitely not ordinary.

“Hehe, that pill furnace is indeed extraordinary. It's a Dao artifact immortal embryo!” Boss Peng's eyes shone.

Dao artifact immortal embryo? Su Yu's pupils constricted. He couldn't help but be shocked. "You can actually receive that kind of thing?"

The so-called dao artifact immortal embryo was the embryo of the Dao master when he refined the Dao artifact. It contained the DAO Master's lifelong Great Dao.

Generally speaking, when the Dao master created the immortal embryo, he would continue to refine it and eventually turn it into a dao artifact.

Only in rare circumstances would the immortal embryo of a dao artifact be left behind.

For example, if the Dao master suddenly died or voluntarily gave up on the immortal embryo, the probability of the immortal embryo appearing was almost negligible.

It was not an exaggeration to say that the only immortal embryo of a Dao artifact in the world was even rarer than a dao artifact.

As for a Dao artifact, only the Dao master himself could use it. If an outsider obtained it, it would be of little value and would not even be able to perform its basic functions.

However, the immortal embryo of a Dao artifact had 1% of the power of a Dao artifact, and it had yet to take shape. Therefore, anyone could use it.

The value of a dao artifact immortal embryo could be imagined. How shocking would that be.

If it were in the real world, even the five crowns would fight over it.

"Haha, Boss Su, don't be too surprised. It's really a complete immortal embryo of a Dao artifact. How can our small true quintessence hall get it? Even if we do get it, we wouldn't dare to keep it!" Boss Peng said meaningfully.

Only then did Su Yu feel relieved.

So it was a flawed immortal embryo of Dao artifacts.

"Since boss Su is interested, then follow me to take a look." Boss Peng said with a smile, leading Su Yu into a secret chamber that was covered with layers of seals.

Outside the secret chamber, there were ten three-crowned emperors and an early-stage four-crowned emperor expert guarding it.

Under such heavy defenses, unless it was an expert at the late-stage four-crowned emperor realm or above who came to snatch it, it would be very difficult to succeed.

Separated by several layers of restrictions, Su Yu saw the immortal embryo of a Dao artifact.

He was greatly disappointed because the bottom of the immortal embryo had been ruptured and there was an incomparably large defect. It was simply impossible to refine pills.

With such a pill furnace, how could he refine pills?

Boss Peng noticed Su Yu's expression, he said embarrassedly, "Boss Su, don't underestimate it. Although it's an incomplete immortal embryo of a Dao artifact, some of its functions are still there.

For example, this pill furnace can freely release extremely terrifying flames. According to my guess, it should be refined by a certain dao master who has attained dao through fire.”

Su Yu was unmoved. If he couldn’t refine pills, what use would pill fire be?

“I need to refine pills recently, so...” Su Yu was about to refuse, suddenly, a vague and cold voice came from inside the nine Jade Spirit Pearl. “Idiot, that’s definitely a good thing that can’t be used to refine immortal embryos. Hurry up and buy it...”

This voice... There shouldn’t be anyone else inside the nine jade spirit pearl besides Xiao Die, right? It’s her?

Not long ago, he saw that Xiao die was still in her evolved state. Now, she had already awakened?

He stared at the immortal embryo again. With his eyesight, he really couldn’t see any other use for it.

But Xiao Die was the most sensitive to treasures.

She said that it wasn’t inferior to the immortal embryo, so it couldn’t be wrong.

Su Yu’s gaze turned slightly, and he continued, “So, this cauldron might not be of much use to me.”

When boss Peng found out that Su Yu was going to refine pills, he knew that this deal would not go through. He said, “It doesn’t matter. I believe that there aren’t many people who can use this item.”

However, Su Yu changed his tone, “However, since it’s a dao item immortal embryo, I’m very curious and want to take it back to study it. I’ll buy it at boss Peng’s price.”

Boss Peng was instantly delighted. After receiving this incomplete dao item immortal embryo, he was filled with worry. He had no confidence that he could sell it.

After all, it only had the elixir flame left and had no extra use.

Even if someone wanted it, whether or not it could be sold at a suitable price was also uncertain.

When he heard that Su Yu bought it so straightforwardly, boss Peng was overjoyed.

“Haha, Boss Su hasn’t asked the price yet and wants to pull it down. Such straightforwardness is rare in the entire Taiji civilization. I admire you!” Boss Peng praised.

Su Yu smiled calmly. “Boss Peng, Please State Your Price.”

Boss Peng Thought for a moment and said, “How about 300 billion?”

300 billion? Such a high price was enough to make everyone below the five crowns to give up on the idea.

“Sure!” However, Su Yu agreed without hesitation.

Boss Peng laughed in his heart. The other party didn’t even state the price, which showed how rich boss Su was.

“However, I don’t have that many God stones. Can you use the Taixu that I asked for?” Su Yu said. Bartering was a common method in the cultivation world.

Hearing this, Boss Peng pondered and immediately agreed, “No problem!”

What was Taixu? It was the hard currency that 100,000 people fought for every time they played the game!

The current price had been raised to 60 million god stones. As long as it was 5,000 Taixu, it could be sold at a high price of 300 billion.

“50 pots of Taixu can be discounted to 300 billion,” Su Yu said.

Boss Peng agreed immediately, “Deal!”

Su Yu paused and said, “As the saying goes, rare goods can be kept. Boss Peng, please handle it properly.”

“Haha, Boss Su, don’t worry. We are all businessmen. How can I not understand this logic? I am just like Boss SU, selling only three pots a month.” Boss Peng laughed mischievously.

He could foresee that in the next year, great void would have a huge increase. In the end, it would sell more than 300 billion divine stones.

This transaction was a huge profit!

After the two transactions were successful, Su Yu took the immortal embryo and said goodbye to boss Peng.

Boss Peng watched as Su Yu left. He felt for the great void in his storage space and laughed, “Young people, after all, don’t know how to do business. Hehe...”

Su Yu and Huangfu Lieyang returned to ask for wine. After giving some instructions, he immediately entered the secret room.

With a thought, Su Yu brought the immortal embryo into the nine Jade Spirit Pearl and came to the cottage.

Xiao die was still in the process of evolving. Her seductive and graceful body was faintly discernible in the flickering golden light.

“Hooligan!” A mature and cold snort came from within the cocoon.

Su Yu touched his nose. “Let’s get down to business. This incomplete dao artifact immortal embryo cost me no divine stones. You have to explain clearly. How is it different from the others?”

“Who said this is an incomplete dao artifact immortal embryo? This is a complete dao artifact immortal embryo!”

UH --

Su Yu was stunned. Such an incomplete dao artifact immortal embryo was complete?

“This is called the earth lacking furnace. In contrast, it is the heaven lacking cauldron. They are both famous Dao artifact immortal embryos!” Xiao die said with slight disdain. “Good, good. I sensed the treasure awakening in time. Otherwise, you will miss out on a great treasure.”

Earth furnace deficiency? Dao artifact?

“The Dao of Heaven makes up for what is lost. If the Dao artifact is too perfect, it will be envied by the Dao of heaven, causing it to be destroyed. Therefore, if the Smart Dao Master finds out that the immortal embryo of Dao artifact he refined is too heaven-defying, causing the Dao of Heaven to covet it, he can destroy a part of it. Only then can it be successfully condensed into a dao artifact.”

“The one in front of you is the famous Earth furnace deficiency. It should have been refined by a dao master who refined pills to become dao. However, for some unknown reason, he gave it up halfway and didn’t continue refining it.”

Contrary to what boss Peng said, Xiao Die was very sure that this item was refined by a dao master who became a Dao alchemist.

“Then, the purpose of this item is to refine pills?” Su Yu asked.

Xiao die thought for a moment. “You can say that.”

“What do you mean?” Su Yu could hear the hidden meaning behind it. It seemed that it was not as simple as refining pills.

“To be precise, the pills refined by the earth-lacking furnace are somewhat different from the others. Usually, the Sun, moon, and stars are used to refine some kind of powerful pill. Refining it with ordinary materials is a waste of heavenly treasures.”

The Sun, moon, and stars were refined?

It was impossible to say how much essence a sun, moon, and stars contained. What could be certain was that it was extremely huge.

Then how terrifying would the medicinal pill refined be?

However, Su Yu still did not have the heaven-reaching ability to refine the sun, moon, and stars for the time being.

“How should this thing be used? With such a large flaw appearing at the bottom, no matter how you look at it, it can’t be used to refine medicinal pills, right?” Su Yu asked.

Xiao die was very familiar with this item. She said, “It’s very simple. Just fill in the hole.”

Fill in? It was easier said than done. This was condensed by the DAO Master using his own dao. What could fill in the hole?

“Isn’t the silver fruit condensed from your Indian Silver Bamboo Enough?”

Silver Fruit? Su Yu's heart moved, and a silver fruit immediately appeared in his palm.

He had not used this fruit for a long time to absorb the enemy's attacks, and had almost forgotten about it.

Xiao die, on the other hand, had always remembered it.

"What is this thing?" Su Yu asked in confusion. In fact, he had paid attention to the Indian silver bamboos that came later, but no matter how he nurtured them, they could no longer grow a similar silver fruit.

Xiao Die shook her head gently. "I don't really understand it either, but with my ability, I still can't bite this silver fruit."

Su Yu was shocked, with Xiao Die's terrifying talent, there is actually something she can not bite?

Chapter 1980 Nirvana Of The Evil Dragon

He couldn't help but look at this object again, his eyes full of surprise.

"You can seal it in the flaw of the Earth Furnace, so you can completely fill the hole," said Xiao Die.

Su Yu tried to put the silver fruit in, and sure enough, he looked at the bottom and blocked it. He didn't need to worry that the elixir in the furnace would be lost when refining pills.

"How do I operate the earth-lacking furnace?" Su Yu looked thoughtful.

Since this item was a complete immortal embryo of a Dao artifact, then the method to operate it was definitely not an ordinary method.

Otherwise, with boss Peng's shrewdness, he should be able to discover that this item was definitely not incomplete.

"The characteristic of the earth-lacking furnace is that when it is incomplete, it will only display 1% of its power after being activated. However, if it is completed, after being activated, it will have complete power. Of course, it also has to consider the strength of the person who activated it. Once you activate it, you will know how much power it can display."

So that was the case!

"Thank you for informing me."

"There's no need to thank me. I will be able to break out of the cocoon in a few years and prepare a delicious meal."

Su Yu smiled, "I guarantee that you will be satisfied!"

Now that she could bring out something that contained the primordial Qi from the Great Void Mystic Palace, she would definitely be satisfied.

After his soul returned to its original position, Su Yu could not wait to activate the earth-lacking furnace.

As he infused his primal energy into it, a raging pill fire immediately appeared below the earth deficiency cauldron. Very quickly, the earth deficiency cauldron was completely red.

At the same time, layers of extremely complicated powers of law appeared within the Earth Deficiency Cauldron. They lingered within the cauldron and did not dissipate for a long time.

That strand of law was exceptionally terrifying. It was completely different from the chains of law that he usually saw.

In comparison, the law chains were not even one ten thousandth of the law in the pill furnace.

“Could that be the dao that the dao master condensed in the immortal embryo of the Dao Artifact?” Su Yu was shocked.

This was only a strand of the Dao master’s Dao. If a true dao master appeared and randomly released a strand of Dao, any emperor would be like dust, instantly destroyed.

“I wonder what is special about this Dao for refining pills.” Su Yu secretly guessed.

However, Mo Xiaochai hadn’t returned to the Taiji sect yet. She was probably still discussing the matter of exchanging yin-yang grass with the Taiji sect master.

After withdrawing the primeval power, the earth shortage furnace gradually cooled down. Su Yu put it away.

Then, with a thought, he took out a small fiery-red dragon covered in seals. With a smile that wasn’t a smile, he said, “How have you been, True Monarch Fire Dragon?”

The Red Fire Dragon’s eyes shot out a vicious light.

It was all thanks to Su Yu that it had fallen to this stage!

Back in the Great Yu ruins, it had been hit by Su Yu’s trajectory and swallowed a drop of dragon whisker grass that had been tempered with the Luoshen tear. As a result, it had been poisoned and had no choice but to escape the great Yu Emperor dynasty.

He had hidden in another three-star civilization to secretly heal his injuries. Who knew that he would run into a bounty hunter and accidentally find him, launching a ten-year-long hunt for him.

In the end, True Monarch Fire Dragon was no match for the bounty hunter due to the explosion of Luoshen Tears. He fell into the hands of the bounty hunter and was subsequently sold to a merchant.

Later on, he changed hands a few times and fell into true essence hall.

He hated Su Yu to the core.

Originally, he had already obtained the evil dragon’s “Evil Dragon Bible”. As long as he found a place to quietly cultivate, sooner or later he would be able to recover his peak cultivation. He might even break through to the Dao master realm and become a new generation Dragon Emperor.

But in the end? Because of Su Yu’s interference, the “Evil Dragon Bible” was lost, and he ended up being imprisoned.

What made him even more furious was that he was ultimately sold to Su Yu and fell into his hands.

“Su Yu!” True Monarch Fire Dragon roared in a low voice, his eyes filled with hatred.

Su Yu sneered. This true monarch fire dragon was sinister and vicious. Back then in the ruins of Emperor Yu’s dynasty, he almost died at his hands.

“I guess you still don’t understand your current situation,” Su Yu said indifferently. He casually tapped on a seal and released a stimulating power from it. True Monarch Fire Dragon immediately felt extreme pain, his whole body trembled as he begged for mercy, “Stop! Please Stop!”

Su Yu retracted his finger and said indifferently, “If you fall into my hands, you should consider how you will die instead of thinking about revenge.”

Su Yu didn’t have any sympathy for true monarch fire dragon.

“Hand over the dragon blood and I won’t kill you for the time being. Otherwise, I’ll immediately take your life and take the dragon blood,” Su Yu shouted.

True Monarch Fire Dragon was secretly resentful, but just as Su Yu said, his life and death were all in Su Yu’s hands.

“I’ll give it to you!” True Monarch Fire Dragon opened his mouth and spat out large mouthfuls of pure dragon blood.

Su Yu was delighted. He grabbed it with a move in the air and then injected it into his body.

Immediately, the surface of his body couldn’t help but burn with even more fierce true dragon divine fire.

This was because of the increase in dragon blood. The dragon blood in his body was more than twice as much as before.

He believed that he would be able to display even more powerful power now that he was holding the Sovereign Dragon Sword!

“You’ve done well. Have a good rest,” Su Yu said indifferently. He put away the fire dragon and then opened the Demonic Dragon Bible.

He had only cultivated the first level of the Demonic Dragon Nirvana to the early stage. Without the dragon’s blood, he could not cultivate further. Now was the chance.

He closed his eyes and immediately began to cultivate the demonic dragon nirvana.

Half a year had passed, and Su Yu suddenly opened his eyes.

He patted the ground with both hands, and his entire body turned into a giant black dragon dancing in the air.

His long tail patted the air, emitting a sharp and ear-piercing explosion.

After that, the dragon returned to its original form, Su Yu’s eyes revealed a trace of excitement. “The Demonic Dragon Bible is indeed marvelous. I’ve only cultivated the first level to the middle stage, and my physique has already reached the early stage of the fourth-crowned emperor realm. If I had such a physique before, I wouldn't have needed three years to kill the ice hornless worm that Fu Bingyu transformed into."

Of course, it was still not enough to defeat the fourth-crowned emperor just by relying on his physique. However, if he were to encounter a fourth-crowned emperor like Li Feng again, there was no need for him to escape.

It was no longer that easy for the other party to do anything to him.

The trip to true extract hall could be said to be a great harvest.

Not only could he exchange the worthless great void for an immortal embryo, he could also obtain true Lord Fire Dragon, which greatly increased the strength of his physical strength.

"Hu!" Exhaling a mouthful of turbid air, Su Yu opened the stone door. What he lacked the most right now was his cultivation level. He wondered how Mo Xiaochai and the Taiji sect master were doing.

Sensing that Mo Xiaochai's aura was in the back hall, Su Yu immediately teleported over.

However, Mo Xiaochai held her chin with both hands and her face was full of resentment. Huangfu Lieyang gently rubbed her shoulders and said, "Wife, if you don't want to trade, then don't. We'll think of a way to refine the nine yin pill ourselves."

"But I'm wronged. That old thing forgets loyalty when he sees profit. I used to be so good to him, but he refused to help me with such a small favor."

It seemed that the yin-yang grass exchange for supplementary ingredients had failed. Su Yu sighed slightly when she heard this. It was indeed not as easy as she had imagined.

Seeing Su Yu walk over, Mo Xiaochai could not bring herself to lose face. "Here, I'll only get you a hundred portions of supplementary ingredients."

Placing the spatial storage device filled with supplementary ingredients on the table, Mo Xiaochai left in a flash as if she was too embarrassed to stay.

Huangfu Lieyang sighed and looked at the 100 sets of supplementary materials with a gentle look in his eyes.

"Did the Taiji sect refuse to exchange because they were preparing to develop the underground world of the ancient human tribe?" Su Yu asked.

Huangfu Lieyang sighed deeply and said, "Yes, the Taiji sect master originally intended to exchange. Later, fairy yinyu reported the situation of the ancient human tribe and learned that there were countless nine yin grasses inside. He immediately changed his mind."

As expected.

"Then, could it be that she stole these 100 sets of supplementary materials?" Su Yu asked.

Huangfu Lieyang smiled bitterly. "Since sect master Taiji rejected Mo Xiaochai, he naturally began to guard against her. How could she steal them so easily?"

"Then these are..."

"She bought them with her private money."

Su Yu was slightly startled. Mo Xiaochai, who valued money like her life, would use her private money?

It seemed that she felt very apologetic.

Su Yu secretly sighed. Mo Xiaochai was indeed not as unique as she appeared on the surface. She also had a kind side in her heart.

"If you can contact her, say thank you for me. We will think of a way to get the supplementary ingredients ourselves." Su Yu frowned slightly.

There was a fifty percent chance that it would take a lot of money to refine enough nine yin pills.

Moreover, when the Taiji sect brought back a large amount of nine yin grass, they would definitely refine nine yin pills on a large scale. The demand for supplementary ingredients would increase greatly. At that time, the value of the supplementary ingredients would probably increase by several times.

Su Yu had a slight headache. He took a hundred sets of supplementary ingredients and entered the secret chamber.

No matter what, he would use these one hundred sets of supplementary ingredients first. He should be able to refine two of them now.

He once again urged the earth shortage furnace to wait for the temperature in the furnace to be sufficient. Then, according to the pill formula, he placed the over ten thousand supplementary ingredients into the furnace one by one, allowing them to fuse perfectly. Finally, there were a hundred stalks of nine yin grass.

This process was quite complicated. Su Yu spent an entire month before he finally completed the process of placing the ingredients.

The next step was to control the flames and slowly refine them.

Half a year later.

An astonishing cold fragrance soared into the sky and poured out from the secret chamber.

Huangfu Lieyang was leaning against a tree, his expression desolate.

Ever since Mo Xiaochai had left, she had not appeared for half a year, causing him to feel inexplicably worried and apologetic.

In the past, he had been too prejudiced against Mo Xiaochai and had never looked her in the eye. Now that he thought about it carefully, with her status, was it really necessary for her to sacrifice herself to a down and out nobody like him for 100 billion divine stones?

Unknowingly, his impression of Mo Xiaochai had changed greatly.

Just as he was thinking about it, he was suddenly attracted by the astonishing fragrance coming from the secret chamber.

He was surprised. "This is... The fragrance of the Nine Yin Pill? But how can it be so dense? It doesn't seem like two pills. Instead, it seems like the rich fragrance of hundreds of nine yin pills gathered together!"

Suddenly, there was a loud bang, as if there was an explosion, and a huge wave of air rushed out from the confusion.

The entire secret chamber was shattered by the wave of air, and many dark green round pills shot out in all directions.

"Quickly catch them, don't let the Pills Escape!" Su Yu's slightly embarrassed voice came out from the billowing smoke.

He held more than 30 pills in his hand, but there were still more than 70 that shot out in all directions.

Huangfu Lieyang came back to his senses and immediately joined in the interception, holding the pills that shot out.

Su Yu used the space law to teleport rapidly.

The two of them were in a mess before they finally grabbed all the pills back.

"What happened?" Huangfu Lieyang was shocked. It was rare to see Su Yu in such a sorry state. In the past, he should have been calm and collected.
