

Nine-Dragon 1981

Chapter 1981 Supreme-Grade Medicinal Pill

Su Yu's face was blackened by the smoke, but his eyes were abnormally bright.

"Take a look at what's in your hand." Su Yu's tone was somewhat excited.

Huangfu Lieyang lowered his head and focused his eyes. He was slightly startled. "I don't seem to have much of an impression of the jade-green medicinal pill, but why does this fragrance resemble... The Nine Yin Pill?"

"This is the nine Yin Pill!" Su Yu said calmly. He turned his head and looked at the earth furnace that was unharmed in the ruins of the secret chamber. He couldn't have been more surprised.

He finally understood what the Great Dao in the furnace was for!

According to the original plan, he could only refine two pills out of a hundred sets of materials because the rate of the nine Yin Pill being wasted was too high.

However, most of the pills that should have been wasted were protected by the Great Dao, allowing them to return to the correct path of refinement before they were wasted.

As a result, there were too many medicinal pills in the end, causing the pressure in the pill furnace to be too strong, resulting in the accidental explosion of the furnace.

Su Yu was caught off guard and naturally ended up in a sorry state.

"This is the nine Yin Pill?" Huangfu Lieyang was dumbfounded. He had swallowed a nine Yin Pill not long ago, but it did not look like this at all.

The nine Yin Pill of the Taiji sect was dark green in color. How could it be the dark green in front of his eyes?

"I'll give it a try." Su Yu swallowed one pill by himself. A shocking cold energy slid into the inner world, causing the entire inner world to feel a chill.

At the same time, the medicinal power was released and turned into a large amount of primal energy, making up for Su Yu's serious lack.

Half a day later, when the medicinal effect had completely faded.

Su Yu's aura had jumped from the early stage of the Double Crown Emperor Realm to the middle stage of the Double Crown Emperor Realm, and it was faintly approaching the late stage.

His eyes suddenly lit up. It was also a nine Yin Pill, but the quality of the nine yin pill refined from the earth shortage furnace was much higher than that of the Taiji sect's.

Not only was the medicinal efficacy faster, it could be fully released in half a day. More importantly, the medicinal efficacy was 1.5 times that of the Taiji sect's, which was almost 50% more.

At this moment, Huangfu Lieyang had also digested one pill. He cried out in shock, "Is this really a nine Yin Pill? Its medicinal efficacy is comparable to the nine Yang Pill, which is ranked second in the Taiji sect!"

The Nine Yin Pill was ranked third among the three great pills in the Taiji sect that could raise the level of the Emperor of Heaven and earth. There were two more types of pills.

Among them, the nine Yang Pill, which was even rarer, was ranked second.

At present, due to the scarcity of the refining materials, the nine Yang Pill had been stopped many years ago. Only the sect master and a few sky elders had collected a few pills to reward the elders and disciples who had made great contributions. Normally, they would not be used at any time.

However, the effect of the nine yin pill was completely comparable to the nine Yang Pill!

"Eh? What Nine Yang Pill are you talking about?" Suddenly, Mo Xiaochai's voice appeared without any warning.

The space above the back hall fluctuated, and Mo Xiaochai appeared with a sniff.

When her gaze landed on Huangfu Lieyang's palm, her eyes were as wide as lanterns. She rushed over and snatched all the pills in his hand.

Huangfu Lieyang's cultivation was completely defenseless in front of him, and all the nine yin pills were snatched away.

He opened his mouth and said, "Wife, you should be more reserved in front of Boss SU."

Mo Xiaochai gripped the pills tightly and said seriously, "Husband, I'm doing this for your own good! With my billions of years of experience, these pills are very likely to be poisonous. As a wife, it's necessary to test the poison first. That's what a wife should do."

Huangfu Lieyang's little good impression of Mo Xiaochai, which had been turned around with great difficulty, suddenly disappeared.

He was so angry that he trembled. Pointing at him, he said, "I've never seen such a shameless person!"

How could he be so confident in snatching the pills? The world was so big, how could there be a second person?

"What did you say? Do you believe that I'll kneel on the washboard tonight?" Mo Xiaochai pinched Huangfu Lieyang's ear and said fiercely.

Huangfu Lieyang asked the heavens speechlessly. This was the true face of a lady.

She had not appeared for half a year, but as soon as the nine yin pill was refined, her nose was sharper than a dog's and she immediately came out to snatch it.

He had been unlucky for a few lifetimes to meet such an old monster.

"Let's talk about it." Su Yu smiled lightly. "Take those dozens of pills. You bought the supplementary ingredients, so naturally, you will have a share."

Mo Xiaochai smiled and stared at Huangfu Lieyang. "Look at the owner's magnanimity and bearing. Learn from him!"

"Okay, okay, okay!" Huangfu Lieyang said helplessly.

Mo Xiaochai released her small hand just now, her eyes twinkled as she played with the nine Yin Pill. "Owner, how did you refine it?" "This is a top-grade nine yin pill that only appears once in a blue moon. It only appears once in every 10,000 nine yin pills. The Taiji sect would go crazy if they knew that they could refine more than 100 top-grade nine yin pills in one go."

Su Yu said calmly, "I added some of my secret medicine."

"What Secret Medicine?" Mo Xiaochai rolled her eyes.

Su Yu said calmly, "Why are you asking so many questions?"

"Tch! You're guarding against me like I'm guarding against a Thief!"

"Don't insult a thief. A thief has a bottom line more than you," Su Yu said calmly. Then, he put away the furnace without any hesitation, not daring to let Mo Xiaochai notice.

Mo Xiaochai snorted and said, "Then I'll go back first. Recently, the sect has mobilized all of its members to prepare to occupy the ancient tribe. It is expected that there will be a fierce battle. Our discipline peak has also become busy recently."

Su Yu's brows slightly sank. Was the Taiji sect still preparing to develop the ancient tribe?

From what he saw, the overall strength of the ancient tribe was quite tyrannical. If the Taiji sect wanted to completely occupy it, they would have to pay a heavy price.

He was powerless to stop them, so he could only say, "If possible, please persuade the higher-ups of the Taiji sect not to go. The danger level inside is definitely not just a group of ancient people."

Mo Xiaochai shook her head. "That old fellow has been muddled. No one can persuade him now."

"But you don't have to worry too much. The large Taiji sect has such a strong foundation. Could it be that they will fall at the hands of a small ancient tribe?" Mo Xiaochai comforted him, then turned around elegantly, before she left, she threw down ten nine yin pills with a pained expression. "Eat them sparingly!"

Huangfu Lieyang smiled bitterly. Now, he had become a sugar daddy.

Su Yu stood where he was and fell into deep thought.

The Dark Forest of the ancient tribe gave him a very strong sense of foreboding.

Although the Taiji sect was big, it would probably cost a lot to conquer it.

Now that he had obtained the nine Yin Pill formula and had fifty nine yin pills in his hands, his purpose of coming to the five-star civilization to search for pills to raise the level of the Emperor of Heaven and earth had been accomplished. He could consider leaving.

"Brother Huangfu, are you willing to leave the Taiji sect civilization with me?"

Huangfu Lieyang, who was smiling bitterly, suddenly froze. "Now?"

He had expected that Su Yu would not stay in the Taiji sect for long after obtaining the pills.

Ever since his hopes had been destroyed by Yingfeng Xiaoxiao for many years, Huangfu Lieyang had also thought that it would be good for him to follow Su Yu to the ends of the Earth in the future.

But now... for some reason, Mo Xiaochai's figure flashed across his mind.

He clearly wished that Mo Xiaochai would disappear from this world, but if she really left quietly, what would happen to Mo Xiaochai?

Would she be sad?

When he thought of this, Huangfu Lieyang fell into silence.

Su Yu smiled gently and patted his shoulder. "Everyone has a home. Whether it's a person or a place, I respect your decision. If you want to stay, I'll leave the drinking to you and Mo Xiaochai in the future."

"Brother Su, i..."Huangfu Lieyang said with shame.

Su Yu shook his head. "It doesn't matter. I also want to find my own home. So, I'm sincerely happy that you're willing to stay."

"Then when will you leave?"Huangfu Lieyang asked hesitantly.

Su Yu thought for a while and said, "In the next few years, I'll need to prepare some star stones."

"As for Star Stones, I'll pay attention to them for you. Star stones from five-star civilizations are not as scarce as those from four-star and three-star civilizations. If you pay close attention, you'll still be able to collect some."

While they were talking, a dot suddenly flashed on the table. Someone had entered.

"I'll go and receive him,"Huangfu Lieyang said.

Su Yu stopped him and narrowed his eyes. "Let me handle it. You Can't handle it."

When they arrived at the front hall, they saw a handsome young man with dark and stern eyes sitting alone in the restaurant. There was a trace of mockery on his face.

When he saw Su Yu come out, he said indifferently, "How have you been, Boss Su?"

"Not long ago. I just met you a year ago."Su Yu's expression was extremely calm.

"Yeah, thanks to you, you let me get the stone hammer on purpose. Boss SU's scheme is really profound."This person was none other than Yang Hua!

Su Yu said indifferently, "I didn't force you to pick it up... Moreover, didn't you come back alive?"

To be honest, Su Yu was quite curious. That stone hammer was an ominous item. Based on his deduction, if he had gotten it rashly, it would have been Huo Feifu. He didn't expect Yang Hua to come back safe and sound..

Wait a minute, Yang Hua had reconstructed his body.

His original body was nowhere to be found. Now, he had just reconstructed his body.

The cultivation of his body was rather astonishing. He had actually recovered to the late-stage of the three-crowned emperor realm.

It must be known that the cultivation of the reconstructed body would definitely drop drastically. At the very least, it would drop by a realm.

His current cultivation should be at the late-stage of the two-crowned emperor realm. However, in just a short year, he had recovered to the peak. This really surprised Su Yu.

Could it be that he had the guidance of an expert behind him?

“That’s why I said that thanks to your boss Su, I have obtained such a great opportunity.”

Opportunity... Su Yu did not think so.

“Then, you came here today to specially come and thank me?” Su Yu said, “If that’s the case, please leave.”

“Hehe, thanking me is one of them. There’s also one more thing to warn Boss SU.”

Warning?

Yang Hua should have already seen Su Yu’s power in the ancient tribe. If they really fought, Yang Hua would not even be able to resist and would be killed.

Moreover, in terms of status and identity, even Yingfeng Xiaoxiao did not dare to do anything to him, let alone a mere disciple.

A visit to warn him was indeed a great task.

“Oh? Why Don’t you tell me.” Su Yu was very calm.

Yang Hua did not say a word. His entire body emitted an aura of a peak triple crown. He was just a step away from breaking through to the quadruple crown.

Other than that, there was a faint blood-red light circulating around her body.

She gave off the feeling that she was extremely close to the fourth-tiered emperor. She believed that very few people below the fourth-tiered emperor were her match.

“As for you, I am about to break through to the fourth-tiered emperor. I believe that I will be able to become the fourth-tiered emperor within two to three years. As for you, a double-tiered emperor, what qualifications do you have to compete with me for a Woman?”

Woman? Fairy Yinyu?

Yang Hua's eyes were filled with contempt. "I'm warning you. Fairy Yinyu and I are currently discussing our marriage. It's best if you don't come and cause trouble. Otherwise, you won't be able to bear the consequences. Do you understand?"

Su Yu was baffled. He had only known fairy yinyu for a short period of time. How could he compete with fairy yinyu.

Chapter 1982 Rumors And Slander

However, Yang Hua's tone was really unpleasant. Su Yu said indifferently, "Did you specially come here to warn me because you were afraid that I would snatch her away? It seems that you have a low self-esteem. Since that's the case, why force it?"

"You used a trick to sow discord between me and yinyu, and now you're still making sarcastic remarks here!" Yang Hua stared at him and said, "In short, I'm warning you for the last time. Don't cause trouble, or you'll regret it..."

Su Yu interrupted him indifferently, "Are you done? You can leave after you're done."

"Take care of yourself!" Yang Hua gave him one last cold warning and left.

"You don't know what you're talking about!" Su Yu said expressionlessly.

Hearing that there was no movement outside, Huangfu Lieyang walked out and said, "What's Yang Hua doing here?"

"It's for a woman named Yinyu. She mistakenly thought that I had improper thoughts about her and specially came to warn me. It's really baffling." Su Yu shook his head.

Huangfu Lieyang looked weird. "Well, maybe you don't have improper thoughts about fairy yinyu, but maybe fairy yinyu really does have some feelings for you."

Su Yu was slightly startled. "Why do you say that?"

Huangfu Lieyang said embarrassedly, "It's my fault. I didn't tell you in time. During the half a year that you were refining pills in seclusion, fairy yinyu came to see you every now and then to talk to you. Now, everyone in the Taiji sect knows that the number one beauty of the Taiji sect often comes to see you."

"There are already rumors that you and fairy yinyu have an ambiguous relationship."

Su Yu was surprised. No wonder Yang Hua came to warn him. It turned out that there was a misunderstanding.

"This yinyu actually used me as a shield." Su Yu was speechless.

Since fairy yinyu knew that Su Yu was in seclusion to refine pills, and she still looked for him every now and then, her purpose was very clear. She wanted to create the illusion that she and Boss SU had an ambiguous relationship.

She wanted to use this to obstruct the engagement between the two masters.

“Why don’t you just marry her and stay in the Taiji civilization and take root from now on?”Huangfu Lieyang suggested.

Su Yu smiled. “You’re thinking too much. This woman doesn’t have that kind of interest in me...”

As they were talking, a beautiful woman with a graceful figure walked into the door. When she saw Su Yu, her bright eyes suddenly lit up, and her beautiful face revealed a beautiful smile. “Boss Su, I’ve finally waited for you to come out of seclusion!”

Su Yu and Huangfu Lieyang had a tacit understanding of her intention to come.

“Fairy Yinyu, you have graced us with your presence and graced us with your presence,”Su Yu said politely.

“Really? Then how about I stay here from now on?”

The unexpected response startled both Su Yu and Huangfu Lieyang.

Su Yu asked, “Why do you say that?”

Yinyu flicked her hair and said, “I want to apply for the position of vice-manager of the liquor store.”

Su Yu was stunned for a long time. He did not expect that fairy yinyu would be so direct. Not only did she create a false impression, but she also openly applied for the position of vice-manager in an attempt to establish a relationship with Su Yu and confirm the rumors in the outside world.

If it were any other time, he would have rejected without hesitation. There was really no need to cause trouble for a woman.

Although, Yang Hua might not necessarily be trouble in his eyes.

However, at this moment, he already had the intention to leave the Taiji sect civilization. The future owner of wine inquiry would undoubtedly be Huangfu Lieyang. A reliable person was indeed needed to be the manager.

Yin Yu’s character was still outstanding. After many encounters, she was a woman who could distinguish right from wrong.

It was indeed worth considering her to be the manager of wine inquiry.

“As the number one beauty of the Taiji sect, a Taiji sect disciple of elder Yin Yang, aren’t you afraid that people will laugh at you if you become the manager of a small restaurant?”Su Yu said.

Fairy yinyu smiled. “You are too modest, boss Su. Asking for wine is not a small restaurant. It is a top-grade luxury restaurant that is famous in the five-star civilization. It is a great honor to be the manager of a small restaurant. The disciples of the Taiji sect and even the yin-yang elder are jealous of you

“I’m afraid that you are too far-sighted to look at a stupid little girl.”

Her words were quite appropriate, and no one could find fault with her.

Su Yu glanced at Huangfu Lieyang. The latter closed his eyes slightly, indicating that he didn't make a decision.

If Huangfu Lieyang agreed, Mo Xiaochai would probably give him a good beating once she found out.

"Okay, then I'll take on the position of deputy manager temporarily. When will I have time to take on the position?"

"Now!" She was already prepared.

Su Yu nodded. "Sure. Brother Huangfu, you can teach her."

Huangfu Lieyang smiled. "Fairy Yinyu, please come with me."

Yinyu followed him into the inner courtyard. The inner courtyard was quiet. In her imagination, four pots of grand void every month would be needed to refine grand void at all times.

Therefore, as the manager, she must be very busy.

"Please instruct me, head manager. I can do anything," yinyu said. In order to make her master give up, she was willing to go all out. She would rather work as the deputy manager here than marry someone like Yang Hua.

If it was said that Yang Hua abandoned her and let the barbarians eat her, she could barely forgive them.

However, later on, Yang Hua revealed her true colors and wanted to capture her and play with her dirty side. She would rather die than marry such a person.

Huangfu Lieyang pointed at the stone bench in the courtyard, he said, "We asked the shopkeeper of the wine shop. He only needs to meditate every day, Drink Tai Xu, and then chat. Of course, if you have nothing to do, you can also go into seclusion for ten days or half a month before coming out. You just need to shake your number every time you sell Tai Xu."

What? Yin Yu was obviously stunned.

"What about chores? Leave it to me," Yin Yu said.

Huangfu Lieyang spread out his hands. "I also want to find some groceries for you to do, but I really don't know where there are chores."

This... Yin Yu was completely stunned. She said, "We need people to Refine Taixu, right? There should be people to carry the materials, right?"

"Sorry, no. The manager of the wine shop only has what I said above."

Yinyu was stunned. This... was he here for a vacation?

"Alright, pick a room." Huangfu Lieyang smiled and walked away with his hands behind his back, leaving Yinyu stunned for a long time.

A few days later.

The door of the new round of wine inquiry opened. The buyer was surprised to find that boss su did not appear again.

Instead, it was replaced by a beautiful woman.

Everyone in Taiji city recognized her appearance. She was the famous number one beauty of Taiji sect, fairy yinyu!

“Hello, everyone. I Am the new deputy manager of WENJIU. If there are any inadequacies in the hospitality, I hope that everyone can be considerate.”

As soon as these words were said, the entire place was in an uproar.

“Wenjiu is really rich and generous. She actually invited the number one beauty of Taiji sect to be the deputy manager!”

“On the contrary, the number one beauty of the Taiji sect is indeed quite famous. She is now the vice-manager of WENJIU. She is making a meteoric rise!”

“Haha, exactly. The status of the vice-manager of WENJIU is much higher than that of the disciples of the Taiji sect. Fairy yinyu is so lucky to be able to get such a position.”

“In that case, the rumors in the market are true. Fairy Yinyu is actually having an affair with the owner of Wenjiu.”

“That’s natural. Otherwise, why would such a hot restaurant like Wen Jiu let fairy yinyu be the vice-manager!”

Taiji sect.

In the secret room with a smile facing the wind, sitting opposite was his favorite disciple, Yang Hua.

He had always felt proud to have nurtured such an outstanding disciple like Yang Hua, but now, his face was gloomy as he faced Yang Hua. “Yang Hua, I have always treated you well. I have tried my best to pull you into the ranks of my disciples and nurture you with all my heart. Aren’t you being too heartless to me now?”

The corners of Yang Hua’s mouth curled up slightly, his finger lightly tapped on the contract on the Stone Table. “Master, it is precisely because of our many years of teacher-disciple relationship that I have given you priority to sign the master-servant contract. In the future, when you want to sign it, you may not have the qualifications to do so.”

Yang Hua laughed in the wind.

After returning for a few days, Yang Hua felt that his entire person was different from before. There was a very subtle change in his attitude towards him.

In the past, he treated him with respect and respect, but after returning, he no longer had any respect to speak of.

Now, he specially invited Yingfeng Xiaoxiao into the secret room to discuss in detail, saying that there was a very important matter.

In the end, Yingfeng Xiaoxiao's moral integrity was affected.

Yang Hua took out a master-servant contract and asked him to sign it. Yang Hua was the master, and he was the servant.

Yingfeng Xiaoxiao simply couldn't believe it. Was his disciple as stupid as a pig?

When Yang Hua took out a talisman containing the attack of the five crowns, Yingfeng Xiaoxiao could no longer laugh.

It turned out that Yang Hua knew an extremely terrifying senior outside. Yang Hua had already turned to another sect and acknowledged that senior as his master.

Now, he had returned to the Taiji sect in order to rope in a group of Taiji sect elders and sign a master-servant contract.

"Master, to put it bluntly, your strength is nothing in front of that senior. He can kill you with a flick of his finger. Now, I'm taking the risk of senior not being satisfied and taking you in as my servant in advance. When that senior comes to the Taiji sect, it will be extremely difficult for you to become his disciple again."

Yingfeng Xiaoxiao was furious. He was an elder of yin and yang, but he wanted to be his disciple's servant. How could he agree?

"Hehe, master, think about it carefully. Give me an answer in three days. As for today's matter, please forget about it for the time being. Otherwise, the first thing that senior will do when he comes to the Taiji sect is probably to get rid of someone like master who doesn't obey."

After saying that, he slowly put away the contract and said indifferently, "In addition, I hope that Master can try his best to discuss the marriage between fairy yinyu and I with elder Jingyun. Hehe..."

With a chuckle, Yang Hua walked out of the secret chamber.

Several senior brothers and sisters who were walking in a hurry passed by outside the secret chamber.

They were talking in whispers with gloating expressions on their faces. When they saw Yang Hua suddenly appear, they all shut their mouths.

Yang Hua frowned. "What are you talking about? You all shut your mouths when you see me. Are you talking about me?"

He released his aura, and his overwhelming aura caused the expressions of everyone present to change.

"Junior brother Yang Hua, don't misunderstand. We're not talking about you, but... but fairy yinyu."

Yang Hua was surprised. "Yinyu? What's wrong with her?"

“This...”they wanted to say something but stopped.

Yang Hua furrowed his brows and his aura became even more imposing.

“It’s fairy yinyu. She has been hired as the vice-manager of Wine Asker. When the great void opened for sale today, she appeared as the vice-manager.”

“And... and there are rumors in the market that yinyu was fortunate enough to become the vice-manager of wine Asker because she had an affair with Boss SU.”

Pah --

Yang Hua’s aura suddenly became chaotic, sending all of them flying.

His eyes widened in anger, and his entire body exuded a murderous aura. He growled, “How dare you, Su Yu!”

He had warned Su Yu not to cause trouble, but now he was touching Yin Yu. The other party was telling him with his actions that he, Yang Hua, was insignificant in his eyes!

Chapter 1983 Pre-Emptive Strike

“You don’t know the immensity of Heaven and Earth!”Yang Hua shouted coldly.

He had personally come to warn Su Yu, but Su Yu had ignored him. Instead, he had made things worse.

If he didn’t teach Su Yu a lesson, he probably thought that he was someone to be trifled with.

“Isn’t it just a shabby restaurant? Fine, I’ll help you demolish it!”Yang Hua’s eyes flashed with a cold and sinister light.

At that time, Su Yu was leisurely refining pills in the secret room.

Before the prices of the supplementary ingredients for the nine yin pill increased significantly, he used the remaining 100 billion divine stones in his hand to sweep through the Taiji city supplementary ingredients trading company and buy them wantonly.

He successfully bought over 300 portions of supplementary ingredients.

The interesting thing was that he did meet the people of the Taiji sect halfway and they were also rushing to buy the supplementary ingredients.

It seemed that it was only a matter of time before they developed the ancient tribes.

They would definitely go there officially within half a year.

Su Yu could not stop them. He could only do his part.

Everything was ready. Su Yu took out the earth shortage furnace and prepared to refine all the supplementary materials he bought into pills.

With so many supplementary materials, he estimated that it would take three years to refine all of them. He really did not have time to waste.

“Brother Su, is it convenient for you to come out and meet the guests now? Someone who claims to have important information wants to meet you in person,”Huangfu Lieyang said.

Su Yu was slightly startled, and he put away the earthen stove with a thought.

It was an eventful time. No matter who the other party was, he might as well listen first.

He opened the stone door and saw a man wearing a bamboo hat beside Huangfu Lieyang. The bamboo hat was a special true emperor-level weapon, so he could not see through the person’s true appearance.

“If you have something to say, you can say it now.”Su Yu did not ask the other party’s identity -- if he wanted to be exposed, he would not wear the bamboo hat.

The bamboo hat man said indifferently, “I’m here to remind you that you will be in danger recently.”

His voice was very hoarse, probably because he had dealt with it specially.

“Tell me about it,”Su Yu said.

“I’ve received reliable information that Yang Hua is preparing to destroy your restaurant, and it might even implicate your people.”

Su Yu’s face did not change at all. He asked in return, “That’s All?”

He had never taken Yang Hua seriously. When he had accepted fairy yinyu as his assistant manager, he had never even thought about Yang Hua.

“I advise you to be cautious, Boss SU. The current Yang Hua is no longer the same as before. He has a mysterious expert backing him, and he even has an attack talisman at the level of a five-crowned king.”

Upon hearing this, Huangfu Lieyang drew in a breath of cold air.

It was hard to say how powerful the mysterious expert backing him was. It was unknown how powerful that expert was.

But an attack talisman at the level of the five crowns was too terrifying.

As long as he shed all pretenses of cordiality and disregarded the restrictions of Taiji city, he could kill them instantly without any suspense.

No matter how strong Su Yu was, he had no way of resisting the attacks of the five crowns.

On the other hand, Su Yu’s gaze only wavered for a moment.

The last time Yang Hua came, he had already expected it. It seemed that he had indeed obtained many opportunities from that stone hammer.

“Thank you for informing me.”Su Yu cupped his fists and bowed.

“There’s no need to thank me. I’m just reminding you to take care of yourself. Goodbye.”

After he finished speaking, the man in the bamboo hat did not stop and left as he said.

Huangfu Lieyang’s gaze was constantly fluctuating. He said solemnly, “Brother Su, is this person’s words trustworthy?”

“Most likely.” Su Yu nodded.

“How do you know?”

“It should be because this person is your former martial uncle, Yingfeng Xiaoxiao.” Su Yu said calmly.

Although the other party could block his face and change his tone, he could not change his soul.

With Su Yu’s current soul attainments, he could completely see through his soul at a glance.

His soul did not show anyone else but Yingfeng Xiaoxiao.

“It’s him?” Huangfu Lieyang was shocked. “If it’s him, then it’s even more unbelievable! Yang Hua is his disciple. How could he come to help us and secretly fight against his disciple?”

Su Yu shook his head. His eyes shone with wisdom. “It’s because it’s impossible, that’s why it’s possible.”

The relationship between him and Yingfeng Xiaoxiao could not be said to have any hatred, but their relationship was definitely not good.

Last time in Zhencui Hall, Yingfeng Xiaoxiao had been angered by Su Yu and had eaten a belly full of cowards.

But because of this, he came to Su Yu to secretly tell his disciple’s secret, which seemed more real.

If there was no need, there was a hundred reasons why Yingfeng Xiaoxiao would not do this.

The only reason was that Yang Hua posed a deep threat to Yingfeng Xiaoxiao.

Based on Su Yu’s observation of Yang Hua, this person was impetuous and impetuous. He was also someone who was ungrateful. Now that he had obtained a great opportunity, it was perfectly reasonable for him to threaten his master, Yingfeng Xiaoxiao.

“Even if it’s true, I don’t think that Yingfeng Xiaoxiao can be trusted. Why would he be so kind as to come all the way here to remind us?”

Su Yu smiled and nodded. “We can believe his words, but we can’t believe his purpose. He said that he’s helping us, but he’s actually hoping that we can help him eliminate Yang Hua. This trick of shifting the disaster to the east is very simple.”

“Then what are you going to do?”Huangfu Lieyang said, “Yang Hua has a five-crowned emperor level talisman in his hand. It’s not safe. How about we avoid him for now?”Huangfu Lieyang said cautiously.

However, Su Yu shook his head slightly, and his eyes revealed a deep expression. “Yang Hua should be preparing to deal with us now. If we don’t take any action and wait for him to finish his preparations, that would be the worst moment.”

“Since we already have the upper hand, why don’t We Strike First?”

Huangfu Lieyang’s eyes flashed. “You Mean?”

“Of course we have to borrow your wife’s power.”Su Yu smiled mysteriously.

Huangfu Lieyang was stunned and said, “This... I don’t even know how to contact her. She’s elusive and doesn’t have any way to contact her.”

“Isn’t it easy to lure her here?”Su Yu smiled and took out ten nine yin pills and threw them into the sky.

The Shocking Pill fragrance instantly spread out and spread in all directions.

“Ah! Who threw rubbish at me!”Suddenly, Mo Xiaochai’s familiar voice appeared in the sky.

The ten pills flew to a space where a figure appeared, holding all the pills in his hand.

She looked around fiercely. “Commandment peak dares to throw rubbish in front of me. You’ve gone too far. I’ll let you go this time. Humph!”

She stuffed the rubbish into her clothes without any hesitation and turned around to leave.

“Wife!”Huangfu Lieyang shouted.

Mo Xiaochai seemed to have just realized that she had teleported to ask for wine. She pretended to be surprised and said, “Eh? Why is it at my husband’s Place? What a coincidence. I found someone throwing trash, so I came to perform official duties.”

The corner of Huangfu Lieyang’s mouth twitched. This way of calling her to come was really... weird.

He just didn’t know if she would run over if she threw a dog bone.

“Yes, I have something to discuss with my boss.”

“OH.”Mo Xiaochai landed on the ground, her face not red and her heart not beating. “What is it?”

Huangfu Lieyang said, “It’s like this. There is a disciple of the Taiji sect who wants to threaten Su Yu. Can you help?”

Mo Xiaochai’s eyes lit up. “Is that disciple powerful? is he confident in killing my boss? Does he need help? Can I help?”

“Forget it!”Huangfu Lieyang was both angry and amused.

Su Yu was also speechless. Although he knew that she was always looking forward to his early death as the owner, there was no need to be so excited.

“Let me tell you,”su yu said, “The thing is, a Taiji sect disciple wants to tear down Wenjiu and make it impossible for us to do business in Taiji city...”

“What? !”Mo Xiaochai was shocked and angry. She clenched her hands tightly, and her eyes were spitting fire. She said angrily, “How can there be such an unpardonable criminal in the world? Isn’t he afraid that he will be completely heartless and suffer the revenge of the Heavenly Dao?”

She was one of the shareholders of WENJIU. How could she tolerate someone tearing down Wenjiu?

“Who is he?”Mo Xiaochai was very angry.

Su Yu said, “Can you take me with you?”

“You? The discipline peak enforces the law. Outsiders are not allowed to get involved.”Mo Xiaochai shook her head slightly.

“But if I go, I might be able to bring back some unexpected surprises.”

Mo Xiaochai’s eyes lit up. Su Yu never spoke without thinking. Since he said there would be a surprise, there must be one.

“Okay, then you come with me.”

Huangfu Lieyang was speechless. “Didn’t you just say that outsiders can’t get involved?”

Mo Xiaochai was furious. She stared at him and asked, “Which ear did you hear it from?”

Huangfu Lieyang subconsciously covered his ears and shook his head embarrassedly. “No, I didn’t hear it.”

“Then that’s it!”Mo Xiaochai took out an unwritten Taiji sect identity token and carved words on it on the spot.

“Taiji sect discipline peak enforcer, Su Yu!”

Huangfu Lieyang stuck out his tongue at the sight. Only Yin-yang elders from all over the world applied to the earth elder for the Taiji sect identity token, and the Earth Elder applied to the Sky Elder. In the end, the Taiji sect master agreed to it, only then could the sky elder personally carve the identity token and register it in the register.

Any other method was to impersonate a Taiji sect disciple.

If caught by the Taiji sect, they would be imprisoned for at least a hundred years, and those who caused serious consequences would be imprisoned for at least 10,000 years.

However, what was shocking was that the one who had blatantly lied was none other than the peak master of Commandment Peak, who was in charge of the laws of the Taiji sect.

Huangfu Lieyang could not help but feel lucky for the Taiji sect. After so many years, the Taiji sect had not been in a mess. It was truly a stroke of luck.

“Alright, from now on, you’re an extra at Commandment Peak. Well, apart from not enjoying the Taiji sect’s monthly benefits, you have all the other powers, including the right to enforce the law.”

Su Yu’s expression was embarrassed. He could still be so confident even though he had publicly falsified his identity. He wasn’t as confident as he could be!

“Lawkeeper Su, follow me to Commandment Peak. Gather people and investigate the criminals,” Mo Xiaochai said. Then, she grabbed Su Yu’s shoulder and disappeared in a flash.

When she reappeared, she appeared directly at Commandment Peak.

There were ten peaks in the Taiji sect, and each peak had their own duties.

Commandment Peak was the peak of law. Among the ten peaks, apart from the main peak, it was the most feared peak.

No one wanted to offend commandment peak.

In the imagination of outsiders, Commandment Peak was the place where the laws of the Taiji sect were administered. It should be respected and solemn.

However, seeing it with his own eyes was an eye-opener for Su Yu.

What he saw was the most solemn main hall of Commandment Peak.

There was a group of law enforcement officers in the hall. Some young men and women were chasing and flirting with each other, some were sleeping soundly under the pine trees in front of the door, and some were even barbecuing all kinds of delicacies in front of the hall..

Su Yu had seen many sects, but this was his first time seeing one that was loose.

Most importantly, this was the discipline peak that maintained the sect’s laws!

It was an eye-opener for him.

Chapter 1984 Had Hit The Nail On The Head

“Pay attention to your image!” Mo Xiaochai appeared and shouted softly.

The group of law enforcement disciples smiled cheekily instead. “Peak master, you’re finally back. The Heavenly Jade Lamb leg that you stole is cooked. It smells really good...”

Mo Xiaochai’s face tensed up. “Nonsense! The Heavenly Jade Lamb was sent by someone else!”

“Peak master, Look, I’ve already written a statement for the tube top that you brought back from Peak Master Miao Yu. I’ll definitely sell it for a high price.”

“You’re talking nonsense again. Miao Yu entrusted us to sell it on her behalf.”

Su Yu could no longer stop. This wasn’t discipline peak, it was clearly a den of thieves!

He was suddenly not worried about his fake identity being exposed. With Discipline Peak's chaos, so what if it was exposed? The entire Taiji sect was probably numb to it.

"Seize my weapons, seize my home... Oh, it's to check on the criminals!" Mo Xiaochai changed her words.

Hualala --

The law enforcement disciples, who had been doing their own jobs just now, excitedly took up their weapons and roared, "We have work to do!"

"Damn it, it's been a long time since we had sex. Let's do it!"

The nature of a den of thieves was instantly exposed.

Mo Xiaochai shrugged at Su Yu and said helplessly, "There's nothing I can do. They're all a bunch of people who can't change their ways. I often teach them by example, but their natures can't be changed. Sigh, I've really failed in my duty!"

Su Yu was already speechless. It was precisely because of your example that Commandment Peak had become a den of thieves, right?

"Let's not talk nonsense. Let's Go!"

A group of law enforcement disciples excitedly followed Mo Xiaochai down the mountain.

The people on a few peaks not far away watched as a large group of law enforcement disciples descended the mountain. Their faces were pale, as if the sky was about to fall. They fled back to their cave residences in a panic and tried their best to seal them.

The people passing by at the foot of the mountain also turned pale when they saw them. They all ran away without a trace.

Mo Xiaochai nodded in satisfaction. "See? Under the management of Commandment Peak, the disciples live and work in peace. Senior is polite and gives way to the pedestrians."

Su Yu had no strength to refute!

No words could pierce through the thick skin of such a shameless person.

At the same time.

In the secret room of Yingfeng Xiaoxiao's mansion.

Yingfeng Xiaoxiao stood stiffly at the side. In the middle of the secret room, Yang Hua and seven or eight yin-yang elders sat around the stone table.

As the former Master of Yang Hua, he could only serve tea and water.

Yang Hua was surrounded by many yin yang elders and felt very proud.

Once upon a time, he was a small figure who had to bow his head when he saw the Yin Yang elders.

Now, he had become the Master of the eight Yin Yang elders.

"Today is the first time I've gathered everyone. I'm following my master's orders and giving everyone a task."

The eight Yin Yang elders were all fence-sitters and could not withstand Yang Hua's threats and enticements. In the end, they chose to sign the master-servant agreement and become Yang Hua's subordinates.

"Since it's senior's wish, we will definitely do as you say. Please speak clearly, master."

The Yin Yang elders said.

Yang Hua smiled lightly. "Actually, it's nothing much. It's just that the owner of the wine-seeking restaurant is very unappreciative. In the past, he was disrespectful to my master in the ancient tribe. Now, master wants him to bear the price he deserves."

After knowing that it was the liquor store owner, the Yin Yang Elders' hearts pounded.

The liquor store owner had an extraordinary status in Taiji city based on Taixu. Not to mention whether it was easy to deal with him.

This was probably not senior's intention to deal with the liquor store owner.

Now, Taiji city had already spread that the liquor store owner had taken care of Taiji city's number one beauty, fairy yinyu.

And everyone knew about Yang Hua's pursuit of fairy yinyu. The Masters of both parties had even discussed their marriage.

Right now, Yang Hua should be the one who wanted to take revenge on Su Yu, so he was borrowing their power.

A shrewd shadow elder said, "We will do as you say."

No matter who it was, they had no choice.

"Hehe, it's simple. You attack in the middle of the night and demolish Wen Wen Restaurant!"

"What about Su Yu and the two innkeepers?" It was not a big deal to be sneaky as long as no one found out about it.

Yang Hua said, "Su Yu and Huangfu Lieyang are best buried in the ruins of the restaurant. But the deputy innkeeper, fairy yinyu, Hehe, capture her alive and give her to me secretly. Don't let anyone know about it, understand?"

He did not have any hope to get yinyu openly. Now, he only wanted her.

The Yin Yang elders had a difficult expression on their faces. This was aiding the wicked!

However, when they recalled the future pie that Yang Hua had drawn for them, they hardened their hearts and agreed.

Yang Hua laughed heartily. "Come, drink this wine. We will complete the first task for senior. From now on, we will all be one family!"

The Yin Yang elders cleared their minds and chatted happily with each other.

The happy scene caused Yingfeng Xiaoxiao, who was serving by the side, to feel sorrowful in his heart.

The mansion in front of him was nominally his, but in reality, it was already completely under Yang Hua's control.

In just ten days, Yang Hua had successfully signed an agreement with the eight Yin Yang elders and controlled an enormous amount of power.

The current Yang Hua was simply not someone that Yingfeng Xiaoxiao could contend against.

He had thought about reporting this to the Taiji sect master, but he was abnormally afraid of the master behind Yang Hua.

If he reported it, what would he do if Yang Hua and that powerhouse targeted him?

He couldn't stay in the Taiji sect forever. Sooner or later, they would find a loophole and kill him.

Moreover, from Yang Hua's tone, that master was very powerful and didn't fear the Taiji sect master at all. Sooner or later, he would come to the Taiji sect.

He really didn't dare to offend such a person.

At this moment, he could only sigh and hope that someone could stop Yang Hua.

Bang

All of a sudden, the aura of a group of experts descended on his mansion.

A seal completely sealed off the entire mansion, making it impossible for anyone to leave.

Ying Fengxiao walked out to take a look, his eyes filled with astonishment.

He saw a silver-gray cross-shaped seal floating in the air above the mansion. Only the commandment peak had such a seal.

Yang Hua and the others came out to take a look. They were also shocked.

"Why did commandment peak suddenly come? Could it be that the news was leaked?" Yang Hua's heart skipped a beat, and he had an extremely bad feeling.

But after thinking about it carefully, it was impossible. The few people he had talked to, except for Yingfeng Xiaoxiao, all signed master-servant contracts. It was impossible for them to leak the news, because if that happened, they themselves would also suffer a disaster.

However, Yingfeng Xiaoxiao had always understood the principle of self-preservation, so it was also impossible for him to report them.

"Calm down, we'll wait and see," Yang Hua said calmly.

"Commandment Peak Enforcers, everyone come out for inspection!" A magnificent voice reverberated in the air above the seal.

Immediately after, Mo Xiaochai led more than a dozen law enforcement disciples in uniform to the secret room.

Seeing Mo Xiaochai arrive in person, everyone present turned pale with fright.

“How could it be her?”

“It shouldn’t be. The peak master of Commandment Peak hasn’t personally enforced the law for hundreds of years. Everything has been handed over to his subordinates to handle.”

“What wind blew her here?”

The faces of the Yin Yang elders, who were already feeling guilty, changed deeply.

Yang Hua was even more hesitant. If he was found out that he had secretly bribed the Yin Yang elders, the consequences would be terrible.

“You are Yang Hua, right? Someone reported that you are suspected of threatening the law enforcement disciples. Is that true?”

Hearing such a crime, Yang Hua heaved a sigh of relief, but he was full of surprise. He used to be like other disciples, avoiding the law enforcement disciples for fear of meeting them.

When had he ever threatened a law enforcement disciple?

“I, Yang Hua, am innocent. When have I ever threatened a law enforcement disciple?”

“Is that so? Law enforcement member Su, tell me, is it true?”

Surnamed Su? Yang Hua was even more confused.

At this moment, a man wearing the uniform of a law enforcement disciple walked out from behind the law enforcement disciples.

Upon seeing his face, Yang Hua cried out in surprise, “Su Yu! It’s You?”

The eight Yin Yang elders were all stunned on the spot.

The owner of the wine inquiry, Boss SU, when did he become a law enforcement disciple of Commandment Peak?

“Reporting to peak master, it was this person who came to me to ask for wine and threatened me to my face,” Su Yu said.

Yang Hua came back to his senses and immediately said, “When did you become a disciple of the Taiji sect? That’s impossible!”

Su Yu was clearly a nobody brought back by Huangfu Lieyang from a distant civilization. How could he be a disciple of the Taiji sect?

Even if he was, he had never seen him in all these years.

What was going on?

“Humph! “Su Yu is a spy that I have planted in the outside world for many years. He has made countless contributions to our commandment peak. Recently, he has been investigating a major case. He was about to succeed, but you came out and threatened his life. I am very suspicious that you are up to no good!”

Yang Hua quickly waved her hand. “This, I, I didn’t know that he was a spy for commandment peak. I hope that you can clearly see through him!”

“Don’t worry, I will find out!” Mo Xiaochai smiled faintly.

He dared to mess with her restaurant. He was really courting death!

Before Yang Hua could react, Mo Xiaochai habitually grabbed his storage ring through the air.

As a bandit leader, it had been a good habit that Mo Xiaochai had developed over the years to first plunder other people’s property when executing the law.

However, Yang Hua was already on guard. He covered his storage ring and suddenly took out a five crowns emperor level attack talisman.

Since things had come to this, Yang Hua had no choice.

He was very worried that he had been discovered and that Mo Xiaochai was only holding him for other reasons.

Now, he could only fight to the death and lead the eight yin-yang elders out of Taiji city.

However, at this moment, a wave of time fluctuation descended on the spot without any warning.

The entire mansion was controlled by an absolute freeze of time.

Everyone was trapped in time freeze, including Mo Xiaochai.

The corners of Su Yu’s mouth curled up. He had been waiting for this moment!

If Yang Hua had held the talisman in his palm in advance and could activate it at any time, he would still be afraid.

Unfortunately, Yang Hua had been hoping for a fluke just now. Now that he had taken it out, there was no time for him to activate it and give Su Yu an opening.

His figure flashed and snatched the talisman from his hand, quickly stuffing it into the nine jade spiritual pearl.

Immediately after, he immediately flashed back and maintained his original posture.

The absolute time was over.

Yang Hua roared, “Don’t move, or you will all die here!”

Mo Xiaochai and the other law enforcement disciples were baffled. They saw Yang Hua raise his palm high and threaten them.

Sensing that the atmosphere was not right, Yang Hua rubbed his fingers and realized that his palm was empty.

Chapter 1985 Continuous Silencing

Looking closely, the talisman disappeared without a trace.

Yang Hua’s mind was blank. Where was the talisman?

He did not feel anyone snatching it. How did it suddenly disappear?

“Yang Hua, what is the meaning of you threatening us all to die here like this?” Su Yu said indifferently, “I really didn’t expect that not only did you threaten me, you didn’t even let peak master mo off.”

Yang Hua came back to her senses and looked at Mo Xiaochai’s dangerous eyes. Her eyelids twitched and she stammered, “I... I was just joking.”

“Catch him!” Mo Xiaochai’s eyes were sharp and her attitude suddenly became serious.

Just now, she really sensed an extremely dangerous thing appearing in the other party’s palm, but for some reason, it suddenly disappeared.

Combined with the other party’s serious and confident threat, Mo Xiaochai felt that something was wrong.

At the same time, she glanced at the Yin-yang elders gathered here and felt that something was wrong.

“The few of you, follow me back to Discipline Peak!” Mo Xiaochai stared at them and said.

A few law enforcement disciples pounced forward like tigers and wolves.

Yang Hua clenched her teeth slightly and actually grabbed another five crowns emperor level talisman.

However, it was not an attack talisman, but a teleportation talisman used to escape.

As long as it was activated, it could instantly move extremely far away from Taiji city, making it impossible for anyone to catch up.

There’s another one? Su Yu’s eyes flashed.

Unfortunately, he did not have a second chance to attack. Mo Xiaochai was already on guard and did not see her move at all. Just a pair of golden lights flashing in her eyes made Yang Hua’s entire body stiffen and unable to move.

The talisman in her palm fell into her palm easily.

“A five-crowned emperor level teleportation talisman. It seems like I’ve really caught a big fish.” Mo Xiaochai’s expression was cold. She also kept her spatial storage device in case she took out any more dangerous items.

“Take them all away!”

Along with Yingfeng Xiaoxiao, they were also brought back to commandment peak innocently.

The nine Yin-yang elders stood in a row, trembling with fear. They had no intention of resisting at all.

If they were discovered by others, they could still try to resist.

However, no matter how much Mo Xiaochai resisted in front of them, it was still unnecessary.

Mo Xiaochai's actual strength had always been a mystery, but from beginning to end, she had never been defeated by anyone.

Some people said that her true strength was very likely close to that of the Taiji sect's sect master.

This kind of rumor had existed for many years, and it was still circulating today.

Mo Xiaochai sat firmly on the peak master's throne and expressionlessly poured out all the things in Yang Hua's storage space, there were many valuable things that should have made Mo Xiaochai jump over excitedly, but at this moment, she didn't even look at them. She just stared at a few scattered contracts.

Under the desperate gazes of the eight Yin-yang elders and Yang Hua, Mo Xiaochai collected all eight contracts into her palm.

She fixed her eyes on them and her expression turned cold.

"Can you tell me what happened?" Mo Xiaochai swept her gaze over the eight elders.

The eight Yin-yang elders immediately fell to their knees with a plop. Their faces were pale as they begged for mercy, "Peak Master Mo, Please Show Mercy. We were forced to do this!"

Mo Xiaochai's gaze was indifferent. Her eyes flashed with a golden light as she looked into the eyes of one of the Yin-yang elders.

His eyes were immediately filled with confusion as he muttered, "Reporting to peak master Mo, Yang Hua has threatened and bribed us, so we have no choice but to agree."

"How?" Mo Xiaochai was only concerned about this point. It was inconceivable that a dignified yin yang elder would be forced to be a slave by a disciple!

"Behind Yang Hua..." the Yin Yang Elder was about to speak when suddenly, the slave contract in Mo Xiaochai's palm suddenly burned up without any warning.

At the same time, the Yin Yang Elder who was speaking suddenly let out a scream. His body fell to the ground, and his eyes dimmed. It was a sign that his soul was about to be destroyed.

Not Good!

Mo Xiaochai immediately used her primal power to protect the remaining few contracts.

However, there was still a hidden, frightening power that penetrated through the contract. The remaining seven Yin Yang elders all died in an instant.

In the end, only Yang Hua and Ying Fengxiao were left at the scene.

Yang Hua's face was pale, and cold sweat was dripping down his face. He had no idea that the contract actually contained killing intent. He only needed the will of the distant demi-demon to kill the person who signed the contract and keep it a secret.

Suddenly, his heart seemed to miss a beat, and his eyes trembled.

If they wanted to silence him, then how could he, who knew the existence of the demi-demon, be spared?

At this moment, the vague connection between him and the demi-human suddenly fluctuated without any warning.

It was over.

He was also going to be silenced by the demi-human.

In despair, he shouted, "Save me!"

Mo Xiaochai's eyes turned sharp. Sure enough, Yang Hua was going to be silenced as well!

However, she couldn't help him even if she wanted to.

If Yang Hua had some kind of connection with the person behind him, the other party could kill people from a great distance. She could only stop him.

At this moment, Su Yu suddenly attacked. A transparent long blade was tightly clenched in his palm.

"Life-severing blade!"

The blade cut Yang Hua from head to tail. Her body was not harmed at all, but there was something strange inside her body that had been cut off.

However, hearing a faint snort, Yang Hua's entire body went limp.

The life-severing blade was an ability that came with the Dragon Crystal of fate. It could destroy all abnormal fates.

The connection that Yang Hua had established with that person was shattered by the life-severing saber.

Mo Xiaochai stared at Su Yu's right hand in surprise, as if she could see the life-severing saber in his palm.

"What is this thing? It can actually destroy the connection of Fate?" Mo Xiaochai's eyes were deeply moved. She stared at Su Yu for a moment, then looked at Yang Hua, who had survived the disaster.

"Now, you can speak," Mo Xiaochai said calmly.

Yang Hua was extremely terrified. That human demon was indeed ruthless. He killed him as he wished and showed no mercy.

Thinking of this, Yang Hua shuddered and said, "I don't dare to say, but you can search my memories."

Mo Xiaochai nodded slightly. A golden light rose from the depths of her eyes and looked into his eyes.

Unexpectedly, just as she searched his soul, Yang Hua's soul immediately burned. It could be seen with the naked eye. Traces of blood-red light flowed from his body and ignited his entire soul.

"Ah! Human Demon, you harmed me!" Yang Hua cried out in pain.

However, he had only shouted this sentence before his soul was burned into nothingness.

Moreover, the Flames also followed Yang Hua's soul and spread toward Mo Xiaochai.

Fortunately, Mo Xiaochai had retracted her golden eyes in time, so she did not burn herself.

Looking at the Dead Yang Hua, Su Yu sighed. He was not too surprised.

The last time he saw him rebuild his body, he knew that there must be a problem even though his strange cultivation did not drop drastically.

Now that he had ended up like this, he had brought this upon himself.

One should be prepared to feed on a tiger for its skin.

Unfortunately, they still could not find out who the person behind it was. They only knew the name of a "Human demon."

Mo Xiaochai was also regretful. Finally, she looked at Windward Smile and golden light rose again.

However, after a round of searching, there was no useful information.

Yingfeng Xiaoxiao only knew that Yang Hua had relied on an extremely powerful master. Other than that, she knew nothing else.

"You knew about this and didn't report it. You almost caused a huge disaster for Taiji. I will suggest to the sect leader to strip your identity as an elder of Taiji sect and suppress you in Dragon Prison Forever!" Mo Xiaochai said coldly.

This time, it was thanks to Su Yu's invitation that Yang Hua's plan was ruined by accident.

Otherwise, he would have taken in eight yin yang elders in just ten days. If he was given enough time, Taiji sect would have been emptied.

For his own benefit, Yingfeng Xiaoxiao knew about it and didn't report it. He really should be punished severely.

"Wait." Su Yu pondered for a moment. "Everyone makes mistakes. Why Don't you give Yingfeng Xiaoxiao a chance to reform?"

Mo Xiaochai was surprised. Logically speaking, Huangfu Lieyang and Su Yu should have a prejudice against Yingfeng Xiaoxiao, right?

After all, he had treated them like that back then.

Why was he speaking up for Yingfeng Xiaoxiao Now?

Yingfeng Xiaoxiao was also stunned and didn't say anything. He stared at Su Yu with a complicated expression.

After a moment.., Mo Xiaochai said, "Alright. On account of law enforcer Su, I'll give you a chance to change. You'll head to the desolate wilderness and explore for the Taiji sect for 10,000 years. If you're still loyal to the Taiji sect at that time, we can consider taking you back into the Taiji sect."

Yingfeng Xiao bowed bitterly and said, "Thank you for your kindness, Peak Master Mo. ."

With his performance, it was not an exaggeration to say that he would forever be suppressed in the Prison Dragon Pass.

It was already a great mercy to just banish him to explore the desolate land, and it was only for 10,000 years.

Compared to him banishing Huangfu Lieyang to the desolate land for hundreds of thousands of years, it was not worth mentioning.

“Humph! You can go now!” Mo Xiaochai said in disgust.

After the others were dismissed, Mo Xiaochai smiled and said, “This time, I have to thank master. I can make another great contribution and ask for good things from that old fellow, sect master.”

Su Yu said indifferently, “It’s my duty.”

“Then you can do whatever you want. In the Taiji sect, you can do whatever you want to Liulan. I’ll go and take the credit now.” Mo Xiaochai finished her words in one breath and disappeared.

Since such an important matter had happened, she naturally had to discuss it seriously with the sect master.

Su Yu smiled and walked down commandment peak with her hands behind her back, wandering aimlessly.

“Su Yu.” At the foot of the mountain, a figure who had been waiting for a moment appeared in front of her.

“I thought that I had a sharp eye, but I didn’t expect that when I was in trouble, the ones who saved me were not the disciples whom I treated well, but the people whom I treated badly. Looking back, I’m really ashamed.” The person who came was not someone else, it was naturally Windward Smile.

Su Yu said plainly, “A tit for a tat. If you didn’t inform me in secret, how would I have the chance to get rid of the hidden danger in time?”

Windward Smile was stunned, but then he smiled bitterly. It seemed that his concealment at that time was not hidden from him.

“I didn’t have good intentions. It’s nothing,” Windward Smile said calmly.

“I know. You’re planning to make Yang Hua and I lose each other.”

Yingfeng Xiaoxiao didn’t deny it. Instead, she asked curiously, “Then why are you still helping me?”

Su Yu didn’t say anything. A pair of black and white wings appeared on his back. Then, he put them away and said calmly, “This pair of Taiji Yin-yang wings has saved me many times. That’s why I’m helping you this time.”

The creator of the Taiji Yin-yang wings was Yingfeng Xiaoxiao.

Huangfu Lieyang had once said that his uncle-master had forged three sets of Taiji yin-yang wings with the emperor's divine bone.

One of the sets was obtained by Emperor Taiqing and ended up in Su Yu's hands.

The other two sets were in the hands of the others.

Yingfeng Xiaoxiao's expression changed. "Taiji Yin-yang Wings?"

"That's right!" Su Yu said, "No matter what, the Divine Weapon You forged has helped me before, so it's not a big deal for me to help you once."

"That's it. Elder Ying, take care."

"Wait!" Windward smile stopped Su Yu and said, "Do you want to upgrade the Taiji Yin-yang Wings?"

Su Yu was shocked and said, "Upgrade? This thing has already taken shape, how can it be upgraded?"

Chapter 1986

The Taiji Yin-yang wings were no longer of any use to him. When he recovered his cultivation as a late-stage double crown prince, he would be as powerful as the Taiji Yin-yang wings with just one step.

"You may not know this, but the Taiji Yin-yang wings are a divine weapon that I found in an ancient scroll. The most unique thing about them is that they can grow continuously. As long as you integrate the bones of a higher level into the Taiji Yin-yang wings, they will be able to be upgraded

"My ability is limited. I can only find the bones of the four crowns and refine it into a true emperor-level divine weapon. If you can find a higher level of bones, there is hope that it will be able to increase its grade again."

Su Yu's heart pounded. After so many years, he still did not know that the Taiji Yin-yang wings were a divine weapon that could grow.

"What if I add the bones of a Dao Master?" Suddenly, Su Yu asked.

Windward smile muttered, "That's not very clear. The record of that remnant scroll is not clear. I was lucky to be able to barely refine it. Three sets of Taiji Yin-yang wings took me no less than 30,000 years. To be able to do it to this extent is already my limit."

Su Yu's eyes flashed with excitement. He already had two pieces of the Dao master's skeleton of the Common Life Dao Master in his hands!

If he integrated them into the Taiji Yin-yang wings, what kind of transformation would it undergo?

Would it become an immortal embryo?

"However, when you upgrade the Taiji Yin-yang wings, it's best for you to be more cautious. Of the other two sets of Taiji Yin-yang wings, one has already been destroyed, and the other one has fallen into the hands of an Earth Elder. Do you understand what I'm saying?"

Su Yu's heart trembled slightly. He naturally understood!

The Taiji Yin-yang wings were growth-type magical equipment, which meant that one of the two pairs of Taiji Yin-yang wings could be combined with the other pair to improve itself.

One of the two pairs of Taiji Yin-yang wings had been destroyed, which probably meant that it had been combined.

"Growth-type magical equipment is so rare. Why did you give it away so easily back then?"

Yingfeng smiled bitterly and sighed. "The Taiji Yin-yang wings at that time were of no use to me. When I realized its potential later, I wanted to refine it again, but I lacked the yin-yang heavenly crystal. This heavenly crystal was found with the ancient weapon. Later, I searched the Taiji civilization, but I couldn't find a second one. Therefore, when I tried to refine it again, it was already impossible."

There was a helpless look in his eyes. "If there are no accidents, the tai chi yin-yang wings of you and that Earth elder are the only two left in the world. I hope that you will cherish them and not let them be taken by others."

Su Yu was startled and cupped his fists. "Thank you, elder Ying."

"Sigh, I should be thanking you." Yingfeng Xiaoxiao waved his hand. "Goodbye!"

As he watched Yingfeng Xiaoxiao leave, Su Yu could not wait to go back and remake the Tai Chi Yin-yang wings. However, Yingfeng Xiaoxiao's reminder made Su Yu stop his thoughts. Now was not the time.

He continued to stroll around as if nothing had happened.

All of a sudden, he met many Taiji sect disciples along the way. They avoided him as they were afraid of getting close to him.

"DAMN! The owner of the wine is so ruthless! Not only did he steal Yang Hua's woman, he even came knocking on the door and used commandment peak to take Yang Hua away!"

"Poor senior brother Yang Hua. He met the rich and overbearing boss Su."

"What's there to pity? Don't you know what kind of character Yang Hua is? It can only be said that the wicked must be tortured by the wicked."

..

Su Yu was speechless when he heard that. He was already a wicked person in the Taiji sect!

While he was thinking, suddenly, ten pillars of light shot out from the ten peaks of the Taiji sect. They intersected and turned into a huge net that blotted out the sky and the Sun.

Looking Up, stars were moving on the net. Yin and Yang Qi were rolling, and extremely complicated Sanskrit words were flowing on it.

“Heavenly Star Nine Yin Nine Yang Formation?” Su Yu was secretly surprised. He was not unfamiliar with this formation!

Just as the formation rose, Mo Xiaochai suddenly appeared beside him and grabbed him, disappearing into thin air.

When she reappeared, Su Yu appeared in a solemn secret room.

Twenty people sat cross-legged in the secret room.

However, the cultivation levels of these twenty people were enough to make ordinary people prostrate on the ground, not daring to raise their heads.

This was because each of them had a cultivation level of four crowns!

Seventeen of them were dressed in silver robes, which was the uniform of the local elders!

Two of them were dressed in golden robes, and these were the sky elders! There were only two sky elders in the Taiji sect!

The last person had yin and yang qi circulating around his entire body, and he sat firmly in the middle. His cultivation level was unfathomable, and he could not be sensed at all.

Without a doubt, he was the current sect master of the Taiji sect!

The only five-crowned emperor!

“I’ve already brought him here. If you have anything you want to ask, just ask.” Mo Xiaochai shrugged and said.

The Taiji sect master did not say a word. The two sky elders beside him sized up Su Yu.

The Sky Elder on the left was a white-haired old woman. She was leaning on a walking stick. Her eyes were cloudy and there was a scar left between her brows. It looked like an open eye and was exceptionally terrifying.

“You must be the owner of the wine. It’s better to meet than to hear about it. To have a double-crowned king at such a young age... in the late stage, you must have dropped in realm for some reason, right?” The old woman saw through it with a glance.

Su Yu’s heart trembled slightly.

Elder di’s cultivation was in the middle stage of the fourth-crowned King Realm, while elder Tian was in the late stage.

If he had the opportunity, he could break through to the fifth-crowned King realm at any time!

Facing such a powerful expert, he had no choice but to be cautious.

“Yes, if elder Tian has anything you want to ask, then please ask.” Su Yu said neither humbly nor arrogantly.

His calm temperament attracted elder Tian’s slight nod. “It seems that you already know what we want to ask you. Then I will ask. May I ask, what exactly happened in the ancient human tribe?”

They had already understood it from Yin Yu’s memory, and now they wanted to understand it from Su Yu’s point of view.

Su Yu did not hide anything and told them the whole story.

After learning that they had entered the ancient house in the dark forest and found a stone hammer, the expressions of the twenty people present turned solemn.

After the old woman finished asking, she fell into deep thought.

The other golden-robed elder stared at Su Yu from the beginning to the end, his eyes occasionally flashing with doubt.

His body was filled with an abnormally dense yin and yang energy, so that his entire body was pale on the left and dark on the right, becoming a strange black-and-white existence.

“Then, how did you enter the ancient human tribe?” He questioned in public.

Su Yu calmly said, “Naturally, I followed the three disciples on a mission to pick the nine yin grass.”

He spoke so confidently about following them, which made elder Tian slightly startled. He snorted lightly and said, “How could it be so easy to follow them? Someone tipped you off, right?”

“It was me who tipped you off, and it was also me who added the aura that I used to follow those three disciples. What, do you have a problem with that?” Mo Xiaochai crossed her arms in front of her chest and glared at him.

The black and white sky elder’s tone was stifled. He grunted and said, “Nonsense! As the peak master of Commandment Peak, you know the law and break it. Now, you even faked a person of unknown origin as a member of our Taiji sect. Do you know how dangerous it is?”

Mo Xiaochai curled her lips. “Please, you should be grateful to me. Without my foresight, would boss su be able to discover the ancient tribe? Li Feng had already monopolized it by himself, right? “Without me taking precautions and letting boss su capture Yang Hua as a law enforcer, would you know that our Taiji sect has been corrupted by the mastermind behind the scenes?”

“You, how can you not distinguish right from wrong?” Mo Xiaochai said angrily.

What a joke. She was here to take credit. How could she be guilty after hearing this guy’s words.

The black-and-white Sky Elder snorted coldly. “The result is right, but the method is wrong. In short...”

“In short what? Do you want to fight?” Mo Xiaochai said angrily.

Mo Xiaochai had long disliked this picky sky elder. No matter what she did, this sky elder would always nag.

Speaking of which, she had been sealed in the dragon cage pass several times because of this elder Tian.

Thinking of this, she became even more angry and glared at him.

The two of them were at daggers drawn, ready to explode at any moment.

“Now is not the time to pursue responsibility. With a great enemy in front of us, we should discuss how to solve the problem at hand,” the old woman elder Tian interrupted the two of them, who were gradually rising in vigor.

Mo Xiaochai snorted. “What’s there to discuss? Activate the power of the entire civilization and eliminate that human demon.”

The Earth elders and sky elders shook their heads slightly.

Elder black and white mocked mercilessly, “Simple limbs and a well-developed mind! We can infer his strength from the five crowns Emperor Talisman that he teleported. He is only above the sect master and not below him. How can we eliminate him if we eliminate him?”

Mo Xiaochai did not think much of it. “Then why don’t you tell us your plan?”

The black-and-white elder snorted but did not say anything.

He did not pay attention either. To be exact, everyone present was thinking hard about countermeasures.

However, no matter how they looked at it, it was a dead end.

After sect master looked at the teleportation talisman, he only said one sentence, “I am not his opponent.”

One could imagine how terrifying the human-demon’s strength was.

Killing him rashly would only be hitting a rock with an egg!

The secret room fell into silence. No one said a word.

Su Yu also stood in the corner without making a sound.

“Hey, I didn’t drag you here to let you see the air. If you have any ideas, just say it.” Mo Xiaochai pushed Su Yu out of the corner.

Everyone looked at Su Yu and shook their heads.

The elder of the black and white sky shouted, “Peak Master Mo, this is an important matter, don’t cause trouble!”

“Tch!” What do you mean by trouble? “I didn’t cause trouble, and I didn’t see you come up with a useful fart!” Mo Xiaochai retorted mercilessly, “Boss SU is the most treacherous person I know... Oh, I’m wrong, he’s the most intelligent person. He might have a way!”

The black and white sky elder only sneered and didn't think much of it.

The other elders also looked away and fell into deep thought again.

Only the old woman looked at Mo Xiaochai meaningfully. Then, she fixed her gaze on Su Yu and said, "Boss SU, the safety of Taiji civilization is everyone's responsibility. If you have any ideas, why don't you tell us and we can all give advice together?"

Since the other party had already said so, Su Yu would be at a disadvantage if he continued to hide.

Moreover, he didn't want the humans and demons to wreak havoc in the Taiji civilization.

"We naturally don't have enough power to deal with the humans and demons, but why don't we broaden our horizons and look outside of the civilization?"

"What do you mean?" The old woman asked.

"Naturally, we're borrowing the power outside of the Taiji civilization." Su Yu had always had a strong view of the big picture and never stuck to the present.

Disappointment flashed through the old woman's eyes as she said, "Perhaps you don't know, but the nearest five-star civilization to our Taiji sect civilization takes ten years to go back and forth, but our time is obviously not as long as ten years."

If the five-star civilization had established a cross-civilization teleportation array, they might be able to arrive in a short period of time with the Starstone.

However, the Taiji civilization had never established a cross-civilization teleportation array with any five-star civilization, and it was already difficult to contact them, let alone ask for help?

Su Yu's idea was too whimsical.

"I'm not talking about a five-star civilization, but another force that can not be ignored!" Su Yu's eyes flickered slightly.

Chapter 1987 The Leader Of The Clan Had Fallen

The people on the scene were pondering. A power outside of civilization?

The old woman said, "Please speak clearly."

Su Yu said indifferently, "Bounty Hunter!"

He knew from True Monarch Fire Dragon's memory that there were many wandering experts outside of the absolute beginning realm.

They had formed a relatively loose alliance called the Hunter Alliance.

Their goal was to go to various civilizations and receive missions with bounties.

True Monarch Fire Dragon was discovered by a group of powerful bounty hunters who accepted the missions. They felt that it was a rare commodity and sent one of the hunters to hunt him down.

From True Monarch Fire Dragon's memories, the only bounty hunters who were chasing him were the three crowns. However, there were still many extremely powerful existences in that group of hunters.

Among them, two had reached the peak of the five crowns, ten had the middle stage of the five crowns, and thirty had the initial stage of the five crowns. As for the four crowns, there were countless of them.

If they could get them to move, so what if they were demi-humans?

After hearing this, the old woman sighed and shook her head, "The strength of the bounty hunters is generally too low. I'm afraid it's difficult for them to take up the big responsibility."

The elders also sighed silently. Boss SU was really too whimsical.

Although the Hunter alliance was famous, those powerful hunters usually only accepted missions in areas above the six-star civilization. How could they come to a five-star civilization?

"I unexpectedly learned that several years ago, a group of powerful hunters passed by nearby areas," Su Yu said indifferently.

The old woman didn't think much of it. How powerful could Su Yu think they were?

However, she still asked, "Is that so? How Powerful?"

"About forty five-crowned champions," Su Yu said softly.

Hearing this, the old woman and the elders present were all shocked. Forty to fifty?

"Why didn't you say four to five hundred?" The black and white elder bluntly expressed his doubts. "Do you know what forty to fifty five-crowned champions mean to the Hunter Alliance? It means one percent of the power of the Alliance!"

"Unless it's A Level 7 mission from a seven-star civilization, it's impossible to gather so many five-crowned champions. But how can a level 7 mission appear in a five-star civilization?"

Su Yu's eyes were calm and expressionless. He took out true monarch fire dragon and pointed with one finger, pulling out a fragment of his soul.

It happened to be the moment true monarch fire dragon encountered that group of hunters.

The vast group of hunters could be seen, and the five crowned emperors among them could clearly sense that there were countless of them!

Elder black and White's eyes were fixed on the fragment, unable to say a word.

The other elders were all surprised and discussed on the spot.

"There are actually so many powerful hunters gathered here!"

"Something major must have happened nearby!"

"If we can get them to help, it would be easy to eliminate the human demons."

“But how can we get them to help? There are so many high-level hunters. Even if our Taiji sect tried our best, we might not be able to get them to help.”

..

Su Yu took back true monarch fire dragon and returned to the corner expressionlessly.

He had already done what he could.

The only ones left were themselves. They believed that with the wisdom of the Taiji sect, they would be able to think of a way.

There was nothing for Su Yu to do. He was happy and relaxed as he sat cross-legged on the side.

After the meeting was over, he would be able to return to ask for wine and make plans to leave the Taiji civilization.

The most important thing was to collect star stones. As long as there were enough star stones, he could go anywhere.

Right at this moment, Su Yu's line of fate suddenly became violent and chaotic without any warning. It was as if a great danger was rapidly approaching.

His heart thumped and he suddenly opened his eyes. What was going on?

Was he locked on?

His heart moved, and he focused his inner vision. He discovered that the five crowns Emperor's attack talisman that he had plundered was floating in the air above the nine Jade Spirit Pearl.

Without activating it, there was only one possibility for such a situation to occur, and that was... someone else was controlling it.

There was no need to guess who it was.

“Where did the talisman come from? Quickly throw it out, or else it will be activated,”Xiao Die suddenly reminded.

Su Yu's heart tightened, and his pupils constricted. Without even thinking, he threw the nine jade spirit pearl out. At the same time, he roared, “Quickly dodge, that person activated the talisman!”

As soon as the talisman was thrown out, it immediately started burning.

This was the attack of the crown prince. If it really exploded, most of the people present would not be able to escape death.

Su Yu did not hesitate and rushed out of the secret chamber, thinking that he was too careless.

How could he forget about the talisman.

That demonic man could kill people through the master-servant contract. What was the point of detonating the talisman that he had refined himself?

The other elders were slightly stunned. When they sensed the terrifying power of the talisman, they woke up and fled.

However, they were already a beat too slow. How fast could they be?

Seeing that the talisman was about to explode, the yin and yang Qi on the main body of the Taiji sect suddenly shook. They reached out and grabbed at the air.

A shocking prehistoric power instantly wrapped around the talisman.

Boom Boom Boom --

Within the prehistoric power, a ball of fiery red exploded inside the talisman, emitting a soul-stirring and threatening aura.

The power of desolation couldn't completely wrap around it. The violent explosion caused the power of desolation to expand and expand continuously, and it seemed like it was about to explode.

"Everyone, leave the sect immediately!"The sect master of Taiji sect shouted.

With him suppressing it, the explosion of the talisman was much slower, giving them enough time to leave.

In an instant, all the elders rushed into the sky, and they even lifted up the other nine peaks of Taiji sect along with the disciples of Taiji sect.

Boom --

After leaving the area of the Taiji sect, an explosion came from behind.

A ball of blood-red light blotted out the sky and the Sun. It radiated across the entire Taiji city, and the entire world seemed to have sunk into the blood-red light.

An extremely violent airwave also swept over from behind.

The entire Taiji city seemed to be on a wave, and it kept rolling up and down.

When the Airwave stopped, they looked back and saw that the Taiji sect had been razed to the ground. There was nothing left.

The only sect master peak that had not been moved away had disappeared. There was only a huge pit where there were remnants of the Taiji sect master's robes. There was nothing else.

"Sect master!"A group of elders pounced over and picked up the sect master's clothes.

Kacha --

At this moment, the three people, including the two sky elders and Mo Xiaochai, heard the sound of something breaking.

Their faces stiffened at the same time as they took out a broken nameplate.

The word "Sect master"was engraved on it!

"Sect master... has passed away!"

Someone shouted in a sorrowful voice. Then, all the Yin Yang elders knelt down and cried.

"Sect master!"

The two sky elders were stunned for a long time. Then, they slowly knelt down and bowed deeply toward the deep pit.

A trace of sadness and hatred flashed across Mo Xiaochai's face.

“Human Demon!”

The two Sky Elders' faces were also filled with anger.

However, their anger was not directed at the same person!

The one who was especially angry was Su Yu. He stood up and did not hide the monstrous killing intent in his eyes. “You killed the sect master!”

Although the old woman did not say anything, her gaze toward Su Yu was filled with indescribable suspicion.

Why was that talisman on Su Yu's body?

“Hand over your life!”The black and white elder opened his mouth and shouted. A terrifying primal force came pressing down.

If Su Yu did not resist at all, his body and soul would definitely be destroyed.

Six chains of different colors rushed out from his back and weaved into a huge net that locked him in front of his body.

Bang --

The huge force came crashing down, and Su Yu was sent flying hundreds of kilometers away. More than half of his body was shattered.

Fortunately, he had the law of life, so he recovered in an instant and was fine.

“It's better that you're not dead. I'll make you wish you were dead!”Elder black and white didn't say anything else. He condensed a law chain in his palm and pointed it across the air, launching a fatal attack.

Su Yu's eyes were cold!

Anyone with a discerning eye should know that it was done by a human demon.

However, elder black and white didn't dare to hate the human demon. Instead, he hated Su Yu!

“HMPH!”Mo Xiaochai snorted and glared at elder black and white with her golden eyes. Elder black and white let out a blood-curdling scream as he covered his head and roared ferociously, “Mo Xiaochai! You're protecting the murderer of the sect master, i...”

Mo Xiaochai did not say a word and flashed over. Her palm actually ignored elder black and White's body and directly reached into his head to grab his soul, her tone was filled with a deep killing intent. “The sect master's death came at a critical moment for the sect. I am very curious, why did you, a dignified heavenly elder, suddenly lose your cool?”

A trace of suspicion flashed past his eyes.

The sect master's unexpected death could indeed be said to be a shocking event that shook the Taiji sect's civilization.

However, the heavenly elder had lived for hundreds of millions of years. Could it be that he did not have the temperament to be calm when dealing with matters?

At such a critical moment, he was killing people recklessly and without reason. His intentions were unfathomable.

She was 100% sure that elder black and White was using this as an excuse to act crazy and take the opportunity to kill Su Yu.

The old woman also looked at elder black and white with slight suspicion. His reaction was indeed too abnormal.

The Earth elders did not lose their composure. On the contrary, the dignified elder Tian was acting as if he was crazy.

However, the old woman was shocked by Mo Xiaochai's strength.

She had easily subdued the black and white elder!

In the past, the two of them had been at loggerheads, but Mo Xiaochai had never taken the initiative to attack, so she had never known his true strength.

However, from the looks of it, it would not be an exaggeration to say that he was the five crowns emperor.

The black and white elder was even more shocked. wasn't Mo Xiaochai's strength too terrifying?

In the past, he had thought that he could fight Mo Xiaochai to a standstill.

But now, it seemed that the other party's strength was actually so terrifying. He had no ability to resist in front of him, and his soul could be extinguished in an instant.

Recalling the rumors that had circulated in the Taiji sect for countless years, the black and White Elder's heart palpitated, and his raging flames of anger immediately disappeared.

Perhaps Mo Xiaochai was really a powerful existence at the sect master level!

"Have you calmed down?" Mo Xiaochai said indifferently.

The black and white elder no longer dared to act rashly. She didn't even dare to refute and nodded obediently.

Only then did Mo Xiaochai let go of her and said indifferently, "Life and death are fated. The death of the sect master is only a matter of time. It's only a matter of time now."

Her tone was calm and contained a deep vicissitude, as if she had experienced many similar things.

When everyone heard this, their hearts trembled slightly. Just how many years had she lived?

Or did she experience more than one change in sect master?

In any case, the historical records stated that the previous sect master had fallen, and the new sect master's coronation was personally held by Mo Xiaochai.

No one knew if the previous sect master's coronation would still be held by her.

Chapter 1988 There Was No Going Back

"According to the rules set by the first sect master, if the old sect master dies, the new sect master should be elected," Mo Xiaochai said indifferently, her eyes drifting toward the black and white elder.

The old woman sighed lightly, feeling both envious and helpless.

The other elders and earth elders all cast envious gazes at her.

That's right!

There was only one candidate for the sect master this time, and that was the black and white elder!

He was the most senior sky elder in the Taiji sect, and he was 100 million years older than the old woman.

Under normal circumstances, the black and white elder's lifespan would not be able to last longer than the sect master's. The title of the sect master candidate was just for show. The black and white elder and outsiders had never thought that he could become the sect master.

However, things had happened too suddenly. The old sect master had fallen. As the sect master candidate, the black and white elder would become the new sect master.

Elder black and white suddenly realized this at this moment. His old eyes flickered with deep excitement and hidden ecstasy.

He was actually going to become the sect master!

Su Yu's face darkened. This person had a very strong enmity toward him!

If he became the sect master, would Mo Xiaochai still be able to control him?

Probably not?

At that time, if he wanted to kill Su Yu, who could stop him?

His heart sank slightly.

"It's urgent to establish a new sect master. Let's do it now. Follow me." As expected, Mo Xiaochai had the supreme right to be crowned the sect master.

Elder black and white was in high spirits and couldn't stop laughing in his heart.

He really didn't expect that he would one day be elected as the sect master!

Although this Mo Xiaochai was powerful, from the performance of the past generations, she couldn't go against the sect master's wishes. From now on, she wasn't included at all.

Instead, she could make full use of her supreme strength!

Looking at the unwillingness hidden in the eyes of the old woman and elder Di, elder black and white's eyes flashed darkly.

It seemed that they had to be intimidated in order to convince the masses.

Otherwise, when this sect master became the sect master, they would have no respect for him, and it would be useless!

Suddenly, when she saw Su Yu, a light spot flashed through her heart.

What could make Mo Xiaochai submit to him?

She had no choice but to submit to order Mo Xiaochai to kill Su Yu with her own hands!

She might as well submit to him, but what could the others do?

Thinking of this, elder black and white said with a chuckle, "Boss SU has witnessed the death of the old sect master. Now, let's witness the birth of the new sect master!"

"That's not right!" Mo Xiaochai seemed to understand what elder black and White was thinking. She said, "The sect master has confirmed that outsiders are not allowed to be present. Boss SU, you should leave immediately, as far away as possible, understand?"

What she meant was that she wanted him to leave the Taiji civilization as soon as possible.

There was no place for Su Yu to stay in the black and white civilization under the rule of the black and white elder. It would be dangerous if he didn't leave now.

She also didn't want the black and white elder to become the sect master, but the rules were like this and she couldn't change them.

When the other party became the sect master, Su Yu would probably be in danger.

"What's wrong? Are the rules not allowed, or are you not allowed?" The black and white elder asked back, faintly showing some of the airs of the sect master.

Mo Xiaochai was silent. She really counted the rules. Indeed, there was no rule that prevented outsiders from watching the new sect master's coronation.

"Alright, follow me." Mo Xiaochai was powerless to refute. She was only thinking of a way to save Su Yu in her heart.

Mo Xiaochai led everyone to the center of the flattened Taiji sect.

Although the landscape of the Taiji sect was no longer what it used to be, one could still see that beneath the entire Taiji sect was an incomparably huge yin-yang fish-eye diagram.

Two fish eyes were exposed at this moment.

The elders of the Taiji sect were no strangers to this.

The two fish eyes were connected to the same place, the Dragon Prison!

That place was where traitors of the Taiji sect were suppressed, or people who committed the most heinous crimes of the Taiji civilization.

The white fish eyes could only enter, and the black fish eyes could only exit.

And the rarely known coronation ceremony of the sect master was held in the Dragon Prison.

Everyone entered the dark world through the white fish eyes. It was somewhat similar to the underground world where the ancient tribes lived.

The difference was that this place was wide open and was filled with vicious criminals who were imprisoned here.

They were fighting each other here and would never be able to leave again.

In the darkness, pairs of eyes swept over, but when they saw Mo Xiaochai and the others, they retreated in panic. No one was blind enough to plunder the main forces of the Taiji sect.

Under Mo Xiaochai's lead, they passed through the long banished area and finally came to the end of the Dragon Prison Pass.

A huge mountain shaped like a five-fingered mountain was pressing down on a stone dragon.

Looking over, it was as if no matter how the Stone Dragon looked at the sky and roared, it would not be able to break free from the mountain.

The dragon's mouth was open, and it was covered with a five-crowned emperor level seal.

With a simple wave of Mo Xiaochai's hand, the seal was lifted.

This gesture once again convinced them that Mo Xiaochai had the terrifying strength of a sect master.

Mo Xiaochai frowned slightly. She had tried to throw Su Yu away midway, but the black and white elders kept a close watch on Su Yu, and their thoughts were very clear.

They would definitely make an example of Su Yu!

Hesitating, they entered the dragon's mouth.

A magnificent hall came into view. The entire hall was decorated with all kinds of top-grade divine stones.

There were also countless treasures piled up in the four corners.

Many of them couldn't help but make the two Sky Elders' hearts palpitate.

"Could these treasures belong to the sect master..."the black and white elders revealed a greedy look.

"I accumulated them,"Mo Xiaochai said indifferently.

With her love for money, it would be strange if she didn't accumulate so many treasures.

Elder black and white looked resentfully at the end of the hall, where a throne was covered in dust.

Behind the throne was a mysterious stone wall that circulated yin and yang qi.

There was a pair of huge eyes hidden deep inside, which made people shudder.

"What is that?"Everyone asked uneasily.

Mo Xiaochai said indifferently, "It's the heaven-gazing eye left behind by the first sect master. It can identify the authenticity of a sect master candidate. Any sect master candidate must undergo the heaven-gazing eye's inspection and obtain its approval before they can become the new sect master."

Elder black and white couldn't help but feel anxious. At such a critical moment, there mustn't be any accidents.

"It's right before the coronation. Please stand in front of the heaven-gazing eye and accept the inspection."

The black and white elder nodded and forced himself to be calm as he came to the stone wall.

As soon as Fang approached, the huge eyes inside immediately shot out a red light and focused on the black and white elder.

Under the light, a crown of yin and yang energy immediately appeared on the black and White Elder's head.

This was the candidate crown that the current sect master bestowed upon him when he was confirmed as a candidate for the sect master.

This crown could only be bestowed upon her by the current sect master with the sect master's token. Other than that, there was no possibility of counterfeiting it.

A hint of disappointment flashed across Mo Xiaochai's eyes. She had hoped that there would be some accidents during the inspection process.

However, it seemed that everything was developing in the worst direction, and there was no way to stop it.

"The identity has been confirmed," Mo Xiaochai said calmly.

She waved her sleeve, and the dust on the throne that had been covered in dust for countless years cleared, revealing the shining throne.

That was the symbol of the highest status of a five-star civilization.

If one sat on it, they would control a civilization and lead an area from then on.

"Go up," Mo Xiaochai said expressionlessly.

The black and white elder was excited, and his body trembled as he came to the front of the throne. He touched the throne with his palm, and his eyes were full of excitement.

Then, he sat on it.

Instantly, the immortal voice in the hall fell. It was extremely beautiful.

The old woman and the Earth elders sighed in their hearts. They all knelt down on one knee.

"Greetings, Sect Master!"

Sect Master..

One day, he would actually become the sect master.

Staring at his former colleagues who were now all kneeling at his feet, the black-and-white elder felt like he was dreaming.

After a long time, he finally got used to it.

“Sect master token, please keep it well.” Mo Xiaochai took out a wordless token and carved the word “Sect master” on it. Then, she grabbed a wisp of aura and inserted it into the token.

The token that Mo Xiaochai casually carved was really effective.

What kind of existence was she?

However, no matter how powerful she was, she knelt down on one knee and said to elder black and white, “Greetings, sect master.”

Seeing her submit, the black and white elder was completely relieved.

Now, it was time to intimidate them!

“Peak master Mo, Su Yu secretly harmed the previous sect master and committed a heinous crime. Now, I order you to personally kill Su Yu!” The black and white elder said coldly.

The old woman and the other elders knew in their hearts that the black and white elder... to be precise, the new sect master was killing the chicken to warn the monkeys.

If Mo Xiaochai resisted, they would have a hard time believing in the new sect master’s authority in the future.

But if Mo Xiaochai was obedient, then what right did they have to oppose?

Even someone as strong as Mo Xiaochai was like this, so they had no room to oppose.

Mo Xiaochai closed her eyes deeply. As expected!

Although she had the right to be the sect master, for some reason, she couldn’t resist the sect master, even if the sect master was particularly annoying to her.

Mo Xiaochai slowly stood up and cast a helpless look at Su Yu. There was a hint of hidden meaning in her eyes.

What she meant was, when I chase after you, you run.

She had indeed accepted the order to kill Su Yu, but if Su Yu ran away, it would not be considered breaking the oath.

Then, she flashed and immediately shot towards Su Yu.

Su Yu understood and appeared at the exit of the Hall in a flash. He was about to escape.

However, Mo Xiaochai chased after him unhurriedly. She even pretended to shout, “Where do you think you’re Going?”

The black and White Elder was furious. He slapped his throne with one palm and instantly appeared at the exit. He slapped Su Yu’s head with his palm, his attack was ruthless and merciless. “With peak master Mo’s strength, could he not even take down a puny double-crowned king?”

With a palm attack, Su Yu used all his strength to protect himself.

However, he was still sent flying far away and heavily smashed into the stone wall.

His throat was filled with a fishy sweetness, and he couldn't help but spit out a mouthful of blood. His gaze toward the black and white elder was filled with endless coldness.

Why did the other party insist on killing him?

However, the reason was no longer important. What was important was that it would be difficult for things to end well today.

Mo Xiaochai was powerless in front of the peak of the four crowns, and there were many experts from the Taiji sect here. How difficult would it be to escape?

She really did not expect that she would not be able to return even if she came to the Taiji sect.

The black and white elder flashed in front of him and sneered at the desperate Su Yu. He said indifferently, "Peak Master Mo, Make Your Move. As the peak master of Commandment Peak, you should personally kill the criminal!"

Mo Xiaochai bit her red lips and slowly walked forward.

Was she really in a desperate situation?

How was she going to answer to Huangfu Lieyang if she killed Su Yu?

He must hate her to the core, right?

Chapter 1989 Short-Lived Sect Master

Raising her eyes, Mo Xiaochai's heart was in turmoil and she was hesitant.

At this moment, Mo Xiaochai seemed to have sensed something and raised her head to look at the stone wall.

She saw that the previously silent heaven-gazing eyes once again shone brightly and shot out two blood-red rays of light that intertwined with Su Yu's body.

Mo Xiaochai's heart darkened. Anyone standing in front of the heaven-gazing eyes would have a reaction.

Her lips moved slightly, and she was about to say something.

Suddenly, her gaze stopped, and even her expression froze. She stared blankly at the scene in front of her.

Two bloody lights shone on Su Yu's body, and a crown of yin and yang Qi appeared above his head!

Her strange expression attracted the attention of the black and white elders, the old woman, and the Earth elders. They all looked over.

But when they saw this, everyone was petrified.

When she came back to her senses, the old woman said in surprise, "An outsider can also detect the identity of the sect leader candidate? Is there something wrong with the heaven-gazing eyes?"

The earth elders were also puzzled. Su Yu was an outsider who had nothing to do with the heaven-gazing eyes, but he was actually recognized as the sect leader candidate?

This was too ridiculous!

The black and white elders' eyes darkened. They felt a hint of threat for no reason.

“Su Yu pretended to be the candidate for the sect master and threatened the foundation of the Taiji sect for tens of thousands of generations. His crime is unforgivable!” The black and white elder took the initiative to attack. He wanted to kill Su Yu.

Pah --

However, just as his figure flashed in front of Su Yu, Mo Xiaochai appeared without any warning. She grabbed with one hand and grabbed the hand that the black and white elder used to slap Su Yu's head “Wait!” Mo Xiaochai's eyes flashed with uncertainty.

Seeing Mo Xiaochai make a move, the black-and-white elder felt even more uneasy. He shouted in a deep voice, “You dare to disobey the sect master's orders?”

Mo Xiaochai shook her head lightly. “The heaven-gazing eye has been through hundreds of millions of years and has never made any mistakes. Since it has recognized Su Yu as the candidate for the sect master, then he has the right to inherit the sect master. This is a rule passed down through the generations in the Taiji sect. Even if you are the current sect master, you have no right to change it.”

The black and white elder said, “So what if he is the real candidate? Since I have become the new sect master, the candidate will lose the right to inherit!”

Mo Xiaochai did not say anything. She waved her hand and casually threw the black and white elder away. She looked at Su Yu and said, “Can you show me something on Your Body?”

Su Yu was also shocked.

He was actually recognized as the candidate for the sect master of the Taiji sect?

Suddenly, Su Yu's heart moved, and he took out a white stone that was about to shatter.

Upon seeing this object, everyone's pupils, including the black and white elders, all shrank.

Mo Xiaochai's eyes revealed traces of excitement and surprise. “The Heavenly Star Divine Stone? Why Is it in your hands?”

The black and white elders' hearts trembled in disbelief.

It was said that the heavenly star divine stone was the core of the Taiji sect's heavenly star nine yin and nine Yang Formation. The method of setting up the formation was found on the Heavenly Star Divine Stone.

This divine stone had always been kept in the hands of the sect master. When the new and old sect masters took turns, they would transfer the divine stone to the new sect master.

However, since the last sect master, the whereabouts of the Heavenly Star Divine Stone had been unknown. It was said that it had been lost during the inheritance of the previous sect master.

He had never thought that it would appear in Su Yu's hands.

Mo Xiaochai narrowed her eyes and said, "The heavenly star divine stone was left in the hands of the previous sect master candidate, Sima Baidi. He disappeared for no reason, and even the heavenly star divine stone was left outside. That's why the previous sect master took the position of sect master."

Her eyes immediately lit up and she stared at Su Yu in surprise. "The Heavenly Star Divine Stone was in your hands and you were the master. No wonder you were able to test the qualifications of the sect master candidate."

Hearing this, the black and white elder couldn't wait any longer and said, "So what? I'm already the sect master. If the candidate wants to succeed me, he can wait until I Die!"

The killing intent in his heart was extremely strong. He would never give Su Yu the chance to take over.

Unfortunately, Mo Xiaochai said with a faint smile, "According to the rules, if the previous candidate for the sect master doesn't die, the next candidate has to be at the back."

What? Everyone's eyes flickered. What Mo Xiaochai meant was..

"As the successor of the previous two candidates for the sect master, Su Yu should be ranked before you, so he should be the sect master first. After that, it'll be your turn," Mo Xiaochai said indifferently.

Elder black and White's chest seemed to be blocked by something. He said in a deep voice, "But I'm already the sect master..."

"Isn't that simple? Isn't it enough to abolish it?" Mo Xiaochai was expressionless. She said indifferently, "In the name of Mo Xiaochai, I exercise my second right to abolish the current sect master!"

She clenched her fist across the air, and the sect master identity token in elder black and White's arms, which had yet to warm up, shattered into dust.

"From now on, you will resume your status as a sky elder, and you will no longer be the sect master," Mo Xiaochai said indifferently.

Elder black and white fell from the sky to the ground. How could he accept his fate? He roared, "You don't have the right to abolish the sect master. I refuse to accept it!"

Swoosh --

A golden light flashed in Mo Xiaochai's eyes, causing elder black and White's soul to sink into intense pain.

The intense pain had just stimulated him to gradually wake up. Mo Xiaochai was serious.

“I’ll say it for the last time. I have the right to crown the new sect master, and I also have the right to abolish the wrong sect master. You belong to the latter, and I have the right to abolish you,” Mo Xiaochai said coldly.

Then, she carved another identity token.

Compared to the commandment peak law enforcement officer’s token not long ago, the word “Sect master” was carved right now.

After stuffing it into Su Yu’s arms, Mo Xiaochai said, “Sect master, please sit on the throne!”

Su Yu was extremely stunned, as if he had dreamed it yesterday.

He had become the sect master of a five-star civilization? Just because he had accidentally obtained the White Emperor Divine Stone when he was a four-star civilization?

However, thinking about it carefully, the heavenly star nine yin and nine Yang Formation in the wind cloud villa was indeed filled with many mysteries.

According to Huangfu Lieyang, the Heavenly Star Nine Yin Nine Yang array was a mysterious ancient array that only the sect master could control. How could the wind and Cloud Villa have it?

Now, it seemed that the founder of the wind and Cloud Villa, the first sect master, was a candidate for the position of sect master of the Taiji sect, and had already succeeded in becoming the sect master.

He really did not expect that the white emperor divine stone would give him an unexpected identity when it recognized him as its master -- the candidate for the position of sect master of the Taiji sect!

Looking at the throne, Su Yu sat on it.

Mo Xiaochai smiled and knelt down on one knee. “Greetings, Sect Master!”

The old woman and the Earth elders were surprised and also greeted the new sect master.

It was just a short while before they met the two sect masters at the same time. It was really an eye-opener.

Su Yu smiled faintly and fixed his gaze on the black and White Elder. He stood firmly and clenched his fists. His eyes contained a deep sense of dissatisfaction.

The position of sect leader should belong to him.

“Elder black and white, do you know your crime?” Su Yu asked indifferently. His eyes were like the spring of a Winter Lake, crystal clear and incomparably cold.

He had dealt with Su Yu to the point of death. Su Yu could not find any reason to let him off.

The black and White Elder’s heart turned cold, he could not help but regret his actions just now. There was no room for maneuver now.

“Humph! If you want me to recognize you as the new sect master, you have to make some achievements first!” Elder black and white said righteously, turned around and left.

As long as he left Dragon Prison Pass, he would immediately leave the five-star civilization and never come back.

However, how could Su Yu do as he wished?

“Peak Master Mo, elder black and white killed a law enforcer’s disciple without asking for the truth. He had long wanted to kill him when he knew that the other party was a candidate for the sect master. According to the rules, how should such a person be dealt with?”

Mo Xiaochai had long been unhappy with the black-and-white Elder. However, the previous sect master had always been partial to the other party and covered up for him, leaving Mo Xiaochai helpless.

As for now, Hehe!

“According to the law, strip elder Tian of his identity and suppress the Dragon Prison Forever!” Mo Xiaochai said.

Su Yu said indifferently, “Then why aren’t you carrying it out?”

“I’m happy to do it!” Mo Xiaochai sneered and turned to look at the black-and-white elder who was speeding up his escape. He felt that there was a good saying in the book.

One can do evil, but one can not live with it!

If the black and white elder had come to be the new sect master, he would have been the sect master.

However, he insisted on bringing Su Yu in and even killed Su Yu.

The result?

Su Yu was the preferred candidate and replaced him as the new sect master.

Moreover, due to the black and white elder’s previous actions, there was no way he could survive.

This was the first time she had seen such a self-inflicted death.

Elder black and White was terrified and instantly fled to the outside world.

However, Mo Xiaochai simply flashed and blocked in front of him, her eyes shooting out a golden light.

Elder black and white immediately fell to the ground in pain and shouted, “The new sect master is pushing out the old meritorious subjects. Everyone, please help me!”

The old woman and the Earth elders were expressionless. They had no intention of attacking.

Elder black and White’s previous actions really made them unable to find a reason to plead for him.

They could only say that it was a tit for tat.

Mo Xiaochai casually took elder black and White's other identity token. At the same time, she sealed elder black and White's cultivation and took all the things on him and gave them to Su Yu.

Su Yu took it and stood up. "Now, go back."

Everyone left Dragon Prison Pass. Only the black and white elder remained and could never come out again.

A few Earth elders took out the mountain peak that they had taken away and placed it at the original site of the Taiji sect.

Apart from the fact that the main peak no longer existed, there wasn't much of an edge.

Many of the disciples of the nine peaks didn't even understand what had happened until the peak masters gathered them to announce the bad news of the old sect master's death and the good news of the new sect master's succession.

For a time, the entire Taiji sect was in an uproar.

Even the entire Taiji civilization was shaken.

The death of the old sect master was unexpected, but wasn't the most unexpected thing the famous owner of the Wen Jiu sect becoming the new sect master?

No one could accept this absurd news.

"It's over! The Taiji sect is completely finished. They actually let an outsider junior become the sect master of the Taiji sect!"

"To think that such a ridiculous thing would happen to the ten thousand generations of the Taiji sect, it's really laughable!"

"If I were Su Yu, I would immediately abdicate and give up my position. What right does he have to sit on the position of the sect master of Taiji sect?"

..

People who were skeptical and pessimistic were not only from the outside world, but also from within the Taiji sect disciples.

The peak masters had no choice but to order the disciples to be careful with their words and actions and not to make wild guesses.

However, rumors were like water in a reservoir, becoming deeper and deeper.

After understanding this, Su Yu smiled bitterly and sighed, "Mo Xiaochai, can I really not resign from the position of Sect Master?"

As early as the first day he left Dragon Prison, Su Yu had already expressed to Mo Xiaochai, the old woman, and the others that he wanted to assassinate the position of sect master. He was willing to hand over the position on the spot and let the old woman become the sect master.

Chapter 1990 Tracking The Hunter

"Didn't I say it before? There is only one condition for the sect master of the Taiji sect to step down, and that is when he dies. Of course, if you can find a successor who has more priority than you like the black and white elders, you can also step down.” Mo Xiaochai said with a smile.

Su Yu sighed bitterly. He could become a candidate because of all sorts of coincidences. It was impossible for there to be a second person who had such a special opportunity.

At that time, he had no choice but to become the sect master. He had originally wanted to get rid of the black and white elders before stepping down.

Who knew that the rules of the Taiji sect couldn't be decided by him.

“You've seen it yourself. The outside world doesn't approve of me. If this goes on, the hearts of the people will definitely be scattered.” Su Yu still didn't give up fighting for it.

Mo Xiaochai didn't think much of it. “Then let it be scattered. The rules can't be changed anyway.”

Su Yu simply couldn't describe his own heart.

Others would naturally be happy to be the sect master, but how could Su Yu Be Happy?

That human demon was about to descend. The first person he had to deal with was the sect master himself, right?

Imagining that the other party could kill the current sect master with just a talisman, Su Yu smiled bitterly.

“Forget it. Since that's the case, I'll be serious.” Su Yu thought for a moment and casually took out 20 nine yin pills. He said, “Distribute them to elder Tian and elder Di!”

Mo Xiaochai gladly accepted the order.

“Wait! You have enough. Don't be greedy.”

Mo Xiaochai's face darkened. “Am I that kind of person?”

She quickly put back one of the nine yin pills that she had just hidden.

Su Yu's mouth twitched as he watched.

Then, Su Yu gathered a batch of Taixu pills and distributed them to the nearest meritorious disciples.

The continuous generous rewards only managed to calm the Seething Taiji sect. Many disappointed disciples had a glimmer of hope again.

When the old sect master was in power, did they want to obtain the great void?

Most importantly, the nine Yin Pill that the new sect master gave out was said to be as effective as the rare nine Yang Pill!

Moreover, the sect master also spread the news that there would be an endless stream of nine yin pills in the future. The nine Yin Pill would no longer be a rare item that could only be found by chance.

After stabilizing the outside world a little, Su Yu fell into deep thought.

“Right now, it’s just a bait. It’s not enough to convince the masses. I need to do something that they are convinced of,” Su Yu muttered to himself.

And right now, there was only one thing that could prove his ability the most -- get rid of the human demon!

There was no time to lose in finding the Hunter Union!

After a few days of preparation, Su Yu temporarily left the matters of the sect to the old woman to take care of. He then used the trans-civilization teleportation array of the Taiji civilization to go look for the Hunter Union.

“Sect master won’t be gone forever, right?” The old woman was extremely worried.

Right now, the Taiji sect was facing internal and external problems. Su Yu was using the excuse of looking for the Hunter alliance, but the possibility of him escaping was too high.

“No,” Mo Xiaochai said with certainty.

Based on what she had heard from Huangfu Lieyang about Su Yu’s deeds, she was completely sure that Su Yu was an unusually trustworthy person.

As long as he kept his word, he would never make a slip of the tongue.

Since he had promised his predecessor to look for the Hunter Alliance, he was definitely not running away.

However, whether or not he could find the hunter before the arrival of the demi-humans was another matter.

Accompanying Su Yu were two earth elders at the intermediate stage of the four crowns. They went to the three-star civilization where the hunters had once appeared.

Half a year later, after using star stones eight times in a row, they appeared in a three-star civilization called the Green Bull civilization.

The two of them walked out of an ancient tomb, feeling somewhat uncomfortable.

In just half a year, the three of them had used up no less than seventy star stones. In the past, it was simply not something Su Yu could imagine.

However, they had finally arrived at their destination.

Back then, True Monarch Fire Dragon was hiding in the green bull civilization, but a group of extremely powerful hunters suddenly came.

The two Earth elders released their senses, and their powerful soul power directly covered the entire three-star civilization.

However, after a careful search, there was no trace of the hunters.

“Have they left?” Su Yu wasn’t the only one. It had already been three years, and it was unlikely that the group of hunters would stay here forever.

“Ask the local civilization master,” Su Yu said.

Not long after, the three of them appeared in front of a cave abode that was riddled with holes.

The cave abode was filled with indelible remnants, as if there had been a big battle.

“You’ve already captured our cave master, why are you still here?” An old man with a white beard walked out of the cave abode with trepidation. He was both afraid and hateful.

The two Earth elders snorted coldly. “Impudent! Sect Master Tai Chi is still not paying his respects in person!”

The entire area was under the jurisdiction of a five-star civilization, and it was the same for the three-star civilization.

“Sect... Sect Master Taiji?” The old man was slightly surprised, and then he cried and knelt on the ground. “Sect master, please save us.”

Su Yu’s eyebrows sank. From his tone, it seemed that the hunters were not good at what they did.

“Let’s talk slowly.”

The white-bearded old man wiped his tears, he choked and said, “Three years ago, a group of powerhouses who claimed to be from the Hunter Union suddenly descended on our civilization and took away our cave master without any reason. Anyone who resisted them was taken away without exception, and only I survived.”

Su Yu’s eyes revealed a thoughtful expression. Such a powerful hunter team, not far away from countless civilizations, came all the way here to capture a three-star civilization?

“Where did they go after that?” Su Yu asked.

The white-bearded old man said, “Please follow me, sect master. This old servant will tell you in detail.”

It was fine. It was indeed strange for hunters to capture a three-star civilization’s cave master innocently.

The cave abode was filled with ruins, and it could be seen how intense the battle was.

In a palace that was barely intact, there were a few remaining people with sorrowful expressions.

“Little Bi, bring some tea for the Lords,” the white-bearded elder said through the screen.

The woman behind the screen responded and came out with three cups of spiritual tea.

At first glance, the woman named Little Bi was very beautiful. Her entire body exuded a moving temperament, and she was a rarely seen beautiful woman.

“Sirs, please have some tea.”

Su Yu expressionlessly paused and looked at the white-bearded old man. "You can speak now."

"As far as I know, they seem to be preparing to head to a four-star civilization called the seamless civilization. They are also preparing to capture the civilization master there." As he spoke up to here.., the white-bearded old man's eyes revealed a look of hatred. "I don't know what went wrong with those hunters, but they are wantonly capturing the civilization master of our generation. Perhaps our green bull civilization isn't the first civilization to be killed."

Hearing this, Su Yu and the two earth elders exchanged glances.

The words of this person were both believable and not believable.

How High was the horizon of a hunter at the peak of the five crowns? Why would he specially make a move for the civilization master of a three-star civilization?

There must be another reason.

"Sect master, please help us make a decision and save our sect master." The white-bearded old man knelt on the ground with a plop and pleaded.

Su Yu stretched out his hand and said, "Please stand up. Since I already know, I will naturally think of a way to give an explanation to the Taiji civilization."

"We will leave now." Su Yu and the two Earth elders stood up.

"Sect master, Wait!" The white-bearded elder said, "Actually, before that group of hunters left, they went to a place."

"Oh? Lead the way!" Su Yu had long felt that the hunters' goal was not simple.

The white-bearded old man shook his head lightly. "I'm afraid sect master will have to wait a moment. That place is called Mount Feiniu, where our green bull civilization gathers. It only appears once every six hours of the night. The rest of the time, it's in a state of nothingness."

Su Yu did not find such a special place strange at all.

Every civilization had its own unique aspects.

"There are still two hours before night. Sect Master and the two Lords, why don't you have some tea first." The white-bearded old man said, "Little Bi, organize a group of green bull dancers to present a gift to sect master."

Su Yu looked at the devastated crowd and the weeping people who were tidying up the ruins one after another. He waved his hand indifferently, "Don't worry about me. You Can Do your own thing."

As he spoke, he picked up his tea and took a sip.

Just like that, night fell.

As expected, at the end of civilization, a giant green bull appeared on the horizon.

It lowered its head and ate the grass. Its expression was relaxed and lifelike.

“Now,” the white-bearded elder said.

Su Yu and the others nodded and put down their teacups. They led the white-bearded elder and teleported near the Green Bull.

The huge Green Bull was formed from the fate of a country that was larger than an empire.

There were several hideous holes on the Green Bull’s body, as if it had been penetrated by someone with great force.

“The Green Bull was destroyed by those hunters and took something very important from our civilization,” the white-bearded old man said hatefully.

Su Yu nodded indifferently. “Yes, lead the way.”

The white-bearded elder entered through the biggest gap, and Su Yu and the others followed closely behind. However, the inside was empty, and only many mysterious altars that had been destroyed were left.

Only one altar was barely repaired, and there were extremely complicated words carved on it. No one knew what they were used for.

“What are you talking about?” An earth elder asked with a frown. If it was something important, why was it placed here?

The white-bearded elder jumped onto the altar and pointed at a black well in the middle of the altar. “You’ll know when you look down.”

The two Earth elders came over and looked down. They saw a faint black air current flowing inside. Under the effect of the altar, it continued to gather.

The two Earth Elders’ expressions changed at the same time. “Corpse Qi?”

The black air current was not something else. It was an extremely dense corpse qi.

Before they could regain their senses, their expressions suddenly changed drastically. Their expressions were filled with pain, and their eyes gradually turned black.

The Corpse Qi in the ancient well tried its best to drill into their bodies, but they lost their ability to resist. It was as if the world-shaking power of the primal chaos was useless against them.

“What did you give us to drink?” The earth elders immediately realized that the problem was the spiritual tea they had drunk earlier.

However, the terrifying thing was that with their cultivation, they did not notice anything strange in the spiritual tea.

Moreover, the spiritual tea could affect them.

“Hehe, of course it’s a good thing prepared for you.” The sorrow on the white-bearded old man’s face disappeared, there was a trace of a cruel and cold light.

“I really didn’t expect that three big fish, two earth elders of the Taiji sect, and the sect master of the Taiji sect, hiss...”

When he noticed Su Yu, the white-bearded old man’s face slowly turned stiff.

Because Su Yu had his arms crossed in front of his chest, he didn’t look strange at all.

When he noticed Su Yu’s gaze, he spat out a mouthful of “Spiritual tea” that was tightly wrapped by the prehistoric power.

“You...”the white-bearded old man’s heart trembled.

Su Yu walked over indifferently. “I just want to see how long you zombies can pretend.”
