Chapter 2031 Boarding The Palace Ship

Ou Yehuan Yun looked at it and also felt that it was incomprehensible.

It shouldn't be!

Su Yu had a broad understanding of many profound great dao, why was he so unfamiliar with the conference of the ecliptic?

After a long exchange, Su Yu gained a lot. Regarding the conference of the ecliptic, he had a full understanding of many things that he did not know.

For example, the competition for the Bodhi fruit was not its purpose. It could only be considered a reward.

The real purpose was to attract all the talents in the world to enter the hall of the Huangdao to continue their studies.

The hall of the Huangdao had a lower hall, a middle hall, and an upper hall.

Different talents would enter different halls after passing the examination of the conference of the Huangdao.

The higher the ranking of the examination, the higher the level of the hall they would enter.

The level of the hall determined the resources and the position arrangement of the hall.

For example, if one was lucky enough to enter the Middle Hall, the starting position would be the position of the leader of the five-star civilization's branch hall.

If one went to the upper hall, they would be able to become the leader of the half-way civilization's branch hall, such as Hu Yun.

Sitting in that position, there was no lack of resources.

Moreover, his status was high, and any living creature within the civilization would feel respect, even if it was the leader of the local civilization.

It could be said that the yellow road convention was a moment that determined the fate of many talents.

"Big Brother ou ye, the yellow road convention is coming soon, and I still want to listen to Big Brother Ou ye explain the difficult points of martial arts to US again." After talking about the yellow road convention, Liu Ruxian stared straight at OU ye Huanyun and said.

She glanced at Su Yu out of the corner of her eyes and shook her head secretly. The reason why she did not ask him was because of ou ye Huanyun's face.

If she really asked him, if the other party could not say anything, wouldn't it be embarrassing?

Shi Jun also looked at Ou ye Huanyun with anticipation and did not pay attention to Su Yu.

Ou ye Huanyun smiled slightly, "In this aspect, with an expert present, I will not show off in class! Please tell everyone about it, brother Su."

Su Yu did not refuse. It was a return favor.

Since they knew about the conference of the ecliptic, now that he was telling them about his martial arts insights, it was like returning the favor.

Liu Ruxian forced a smile. "Oh? Then let's listen to young master Su's insights."

Su Yu smiled indifferently. "We are all of the same age, how can there be any insights? It can be considered sharing."

Following that, Su Yu explained his understanding of the various great daos and answered their difficult questions.

At first, Liu Ruxian did not take it seriously and did not listen carefully. She thought to herself, how broad could a person who lacked even common sense like the conference of the ecliptic be?

However, after listening to a few words, Liu Ruxian felt that it was really something and could not help but listen a little more carefully.

In the end, the more she listened, the more exquisite she felt. All kinds of understanding were unheard of to her.

Many of them involved the Great Dao that she cultivated, and many problems that she did not realize, Su Yu understood them all.

After listening for a while, she had a sudden feeling of seeing the bright moon through the clouds.

Unknowingly, she sat up straight and listened attentively.

But because she did not pay attention to the premise, she could not keep up with Su Yu's train of thought in the later stages.

When Su Yu finished explaining, she only had half of the answer.

Many doubts were solved in her heart, but many new doubts arose, which made her anxious and eager to solve them.

She was shocked by Su Yu's erudite knowledge, but she was also abnormally regretful that she did not listen carefully at the beginning.

Now, she could not bear to let Su Yu repeat it.

Shi Jun, on the other hand, had been listening reluctantly from the beginning. He understood more than half of it, and his eyes were full of surprise and admiration, he solemnly cupped his fists and said, "Listening to your words is better than reading ten years of books! Brother Su, you have a profound understanding of martial arts, and I think many of the elders of the five crowns are far inferior to you."

These words were not flattering, but the truth.

This was Shi Jun's first time coming into contact with someone who had an unusual understanding of any Great Dao.

This feeling was as if he was immersed in the Dao master's comprehension, and it was exceptionally wonderful.

How would they know that Su Yu often listened to the exchange of dozens of Dao Masters, and naturally had a deep understanding of all things in the universe

At the same time, he himself had become a god of Ten Thousand Dao, and had a deep understanding of many great dao.

Casually saying a few things was naturally easy.

"It's not late, everyone just rest for the night in the house. We will set off tomorrow."

Liu Ruxian was secretly regretful.

After pondering for a while, while Su Yu and Ou ye Huanyun were in meditation, she quietly opened her eyes and waved at Shi Jun. .

Shi Jun was surprised and followed Liu Ruxian to the corridor.

"Ruxian, what can't we talk about inside?" Shi Jun asked.

Liu Ruxian blushed slightly and said, "Can you give me a copy of Su Yu's memory just now?"

Shi Jun suddenly understood and shook his head. "It's very difficult. His explanation involves a lot of insights and can not be copied. You can ask him yourself."

Liu Ruxian smiled bitterly. "How can I do that? Can I tell him that I didn't listen to his explanation carefully in the beginning?"

"This..." Shi Jun understood Liu Ruxian's previous mentality because he was the same. He thought about it and sighed. "It will take a month for the palace ship to reach the Daoist Huang Hall. Wouldn't you be able to build a closer relationship with it halfway?"

Get Closer? Liu Ruxian nodded her snow-white chin thoughtfully.

The next day, a passenger ship with the Daoist Huang Hall's logo landed near the teleportation civilization of the four symbols civilization.

Su Yu and the other three sensed it and rushed over.

They held their invitation cards in their hands and stepped forward one after another.

Ou Yehuan Yun took out a silver-white invitation card while Liu Ruxian and Shi Jun were both black.

There was a difference in the invitation card. Among them, the silver invitation card was far better than the black one.

When Su Yu boarded the ship, only a corner was revealed, and he was allowed to enter the ship.

"Young Master Su's invitation card must be very high-level, right?" Liu Ruxian came over and asked curiously.

Su Yu said modestly, "It's not bad. I was still worried about the invitation card."

Oh? Not only Liu Ruxian, ou ye Huanyun and the rest were all surprised.

"Brother Su, why didn't you say so earlier?" Ou Ye Huanyun was surprised. "If you want the invitation letter, I can send you a recommendation letter with the same effect with just one sentence."

Su Yu smiled faintly. "Hehe, it's just a small matter. Naturally, I won't trouble brother Ou Ye. I've already gotten it."

Ou Ye Huanyun recalled Yun Zhantian's attitude towards Su Yu just now. He understood in his heart. Su Yu was probably asking for a recommendation letter from the four symbols manor, right?

The recommendation letter from the four symbols manor should be of the lowest rank, Cang MU rank. It was even inferior to black iron rank.

After pausing for a moment, ou ye huanyun said, "That's good too. The lower the rank, the lower the strength of the participants. With brother Su's combat strength, it would be easier for him to stand out."

Su Yu smiled but did not say anything.

"Young master Su, my family has participated in the design of the palace ship. They are very familiar with the palace ship. I will bring you to familiarize yourself with the palace ship."

"Thank you." Su Yu did not understand where Liu Ruxian's enthusiasm came from. She did not seem to be very interested in him yesterday. Why did her attitude change so much after one night?

Accompanied by him, Su Yu looked at the passenger ship briefly.

When they arrived at the bow of the ship, they saw a few young men chatting and laughing with each other.

Among them was Yun Zhantian.

However, Yun Zhantian was only a marginal figure. He stood at the periphery of the crowd with a smile on his face, but he couldn't say a word.

Their gazes were all attracted by the handsome young man surrounded by the crowd.

"Everyone, don't just talk to me. Come and get to know each other. This time, the palace ship has landed in the four symbols civilization to welcome the heir of the four symbols civilization, Yun Zhantian." The handsome young man smiled and introduced Yun Zhantian to the crowd.

Only then did everyone seem to notice Yun Zhantian and cupped their hands towards him.

Yun Zhantian returned the greetings happily.

“I heard that brother Yun’s cultivation has broken through to the middle stage of the four crowns. I think he has a high chance of breaking through to the middle hall in this Yellow Dao conference,”the handsome young man said.

Yun zhantian said humbly, “No way! In front of everyone, Zhan Tian’s strength is nothing.”

He was a little flattered.

The handsome young man who spoke in front of him was none other than Li Ruochen, who was ranked 80th on the Huang Dao Roll.

He was even more famous than Ou Yehuan Yun!

Standing among the young elites from various civilizations, he stood out like a crane among chickens and was admired by everyone.

At this moment, Yun Zhantian enjoyed the praise in public.

“Brother Yun, you don’t have to be humble. I have high hopes for you.”Li Ruochen nodded.

While they were talking, Li Ruochen suddenly saw two figures. His expression changed slightly. He left the crowd and walked over quickly, he was pleasantly surprised. “Ruxian, why did you board the ship in the four symbols civilization? I was thinking of visiting your house when I arrived at the Heaven’s legacy civilization.”

Liu Ruxian looked up and was surprised. “Oh, you’re on this ship too.”

Li Ruochen was a little reserved. He smiled and said, “It’s rare to meet you. I’m having a banquet in the cabin. Let’s have a good chat.”

“No need. I still have to accompany my friend around.”Liu Ruxian politely refused. She smiled and walked away with Su Yu.

Friend? Li Ruochen looked at Su Yu with a hint of surprise.

In his impression, Liu Ruxian was arrogant and only recognized people who were stronger than him. Could the silver-haired young man in front of him also be a Master?

Li Ruochen’s family and Liu Ruxian’s family were old friends. However, the Li family’s patriarch rose to fame and established a half-way civilization.

Liu Ruxian’s patriarch, on the other hand, was affiliated with the Heaven’s legacy civilization.

When the two aristocratic families met by chance, Li Ruochen took a fancy to Liu Ruxian and wanted to take her as a concubine. However, Liu Ruxian rejected him.

Seeing Liu Ruxian accompanying the strange man with intimate behavior, chatting and laughing, he naturally took it to heart.

“Why is he fawning over Liu Ruxian?”Yun Zhantian asked in slight surprise.

Li Ruochen heard it and turned his head. “Oh? You know that silver-haired youth?”

Yun Zhantian nodded and said scornfully, “More than that. He relied on the recommendation letter of our four symbols mansion to barely board the palace ship.”

Li Ruochen pondered and said, "How is his strength? Where does he come from?"

"His strength is very poor. He looks like a three-crowned emperor. As for his background, he is a small suzerain of a five-star civilization."

Li Ruochen frowned slightly. "Ruxian's vision is too bad, isn't it? Such a person can be friends."

Hearing Li Ruochen's slight dissatisfaction, Yun Zhantian said, "Brother Li, do you want me to go up and give him a warning?"

He wanted to curry favor with Li Ruochen, so he naturally tried his best to please him.

However, Li Ruochen shook his head and said, "Forget it. It's fine if it's just a friend, even though this friend is really not that good."

Chapter 2032 Fighting For Guidance

He couldn't just order someone to warn Liu Ruxian when she made a friend, could he?

Moreover, this person's strength and identity were all ordinary. There was no threat to speak of.

..

Liu Ruxian accompanied Su Yu and familiarized herself with most of the corners of the passenger ship.

During their conversation, they became much more familiar with each other.

Taking the opportunity, she occasionally asked Su Yu a few martial arts questions and received an answer that exceeded her expectations. This made Liu Ruxian exceptionally satisfied.

The way he looked at Su Yu became even more respectful and expectant.

He thought to himself, I really don't know where his understanding of martial arts came from. As someone of the same age, I'm really ashamed to be less than one-tenth of him.

Not long after, the four of them met again.

Shi Jun suggested, "Since there's nothing to do on the way, why don't we spar and increase each other's strength a little?"

The other two people all cheered, except for Su Yu, who was slightly helpless.

The three of them combined were probably not as good as Su Yu's one move. There was no point in sparring like this.

However, they were very interested, so Su Yu did not want to pour cold water on them.

"Alright, it's good to give them some pointers on the way. Don't forget to get to know each other," Su Yu thought to himself and nodded in agreement.

"I'll spar with Big Brother ou ye for a few days first," Liu Ruxian said first.

Shi Jun rolled his eyes when he heard that. "You're really cunning."

There was no doubt that Ou ye Huanyun was stronger in the arena, and he would benefit more from sparring with him.

Helpless, he looked at Su Yu and cupped his fists. "Then I'll spar with brother Su."

"That's easy to say."

The two moved elsewhere and began sparring.

Shi Jun made an inviting gesture. "Brother Su, please go first."

He had heard ou ye Huanyun's evaluation. Su Yu's strength was about half of his full strength, and he was at the peak of the early stage of the four crowns.

Shi Jun was an existence at the middle stage of the four crowns, and his overall strength should be better than Su Yu's.

"Okay." Su Yu only used the evil dragon Nirvana to let his body reach the early stage of the four crowns, and then used divine arts to fight against it.

This was Su Yu's current ability to suppress his cultivation to the lowest level. If it was any lower, it would seem too deliberate.

The moment the two sides exchanged blows, Shi Jun immediately felt a huge pressure. He thought to himself, "As ou ye Huanyun said, his strength is extremely formidable."

Sparring with him, he really had to be serious!

"Be careful!" Shi Jun Unleashed 80% of his strength.

Theoretically speaking, he should be able to suppress Su Yu. However, in the actual exchange, Shi Jun was surprised to find that he could not suppress Su Yu at all.

In addition, the more he fought, the more shocked he became. In the end, there was still no winner.

Even if he used his full strength, he still could not suppress Su Yu.

"Stop for a moment." Shi Jun said in surprise, "Brother Su's strength is really... very strange!"

He clearly displayed the peak of the early stage of the four crowns, but he could not do anything about it.

Su Yu stopped and said, "Brother Shi's cultivation is indeed high, but there are a few flaws."

Shi Jun was stunned. was he going to... give him some pointers?

Wasn't he too arrogant? Su Yu's cultivation was even lower than his, so how could he give him pointers?

Suppressing his disapproval, he said politely, "Brother Su, please speak."

Su Yu said, "First, your law is not perfect enough. It should be because you used external forces when you broke through the gate of the Emperor of Heaven and earth! "Second, your cultivation is weak and your foundation is not stable. Especially before you broke through to the Emperor of heaven and earth, your cultivation is quite unstable."

Shi Jun, who had a polite smile on his face, had a drastic change in expression. His heart was in turmoil as he stammered, "Su... Brother Su... you?"

Only a few people knew about the two flaws that Su Yu mentioned. Even ou ye Huanyun did not know about them.

Could it be that he had really seen through all the flaws in his cultivation from the short sparring? Immediately, he felt a sense of respect and said, "Brother Su, please give me some pointers!"

"I can't really give you pointers. I'm just helping you to correct the flaws in both of them." Su Yu took out a bottle of taixu and said, "After drinking this wine for a few days, it should be able to strengthen the laws and improve the problem of the laws not being perfect enough."

"As for the foundation of your cultivation, you need to suppress the primeval energy in your body and continuously hone it."

Shi Jun was skeptical.

In the next few days, he patiently improved his flaws according to Su Yu's guidance.

Ten days later.

Bang --

Su Yu and Shi Jun finished their fight.

Shi Jun smiled bitterly, "I didn't live up to brother Su's expectations. It seems that I haven't improved much."

Previously, he couldn't suppress Su Yu, but now he still couldn't.

It was enough to see that his strength hadn't improved much. His flaws were still there.

Su Yu said indifferently, "Haste makes waste. Your flaws have existed for a long time. Naturally, you need a long time to improve."

At this moment, ou ye Huanyun and Liu Ruxian also ended their ten days of sparring.

Liu Ruxian's charming face had traces of joy.

It could be seen that she had gained a lot, in stark contrast to the dejected Shi Jun. .

"Shi Jun, why are you so dejected? Isn't it just missing ten days of sparring with Big Brother Ou Ye? It doesn't have to be like this, right?" Liu Ruxian subconsciously thought that Shi Jun had not gained anything from sparring with Su Yu, and she was not very happy.

Who knew that Shi Jun shook his head with a bitter smile, "I just let brother Su down and let him down."

UH --

Liu Ruxian and Ou ye Huanyun were stunned for a moment.

Su Yu's sparring with Shi Jun?

Was there some misunderstanding?

Liu Ruxian comforted him, "In the next stage, you can spar with big brother Ou Ye."

"But..." Liu Ruxian smiled proudly, "Before that, how about the two of us spar first?"

Shi Jun waved his hand helplessly. "Forget it. My strength is inferior to yours."

Although they were both in the middle stage of the four crowns, Liu Ruxian had always been better than them in their sparring.

Now, she looked happy. She must have gained a lot from Ou Ye Huanyun's sparring and her strength had improved.

If they fought again, there would be no suspense.

"Come on! Just one match!" Liu Ruxian said with a smile.

Shi Jun sighed and said, "Okay, I'll let you be proud."

He knew that Liu Ruxian wanted to show off her improved strength.

Both sides knew each other well and were not afraid of hurting each other, so they used their full strength.

Bang Bang Bang --

But unexpectedly, when the laws of both sides collided, Shi Jun was like a rock, but Liu Ruxian was pushed back repeatedly.

Her beautiful face was at a loss, and she shouted, "Again!"

Her beautiful figure flashed, and once again charged forward to fight Shi Jun..

After ten moves, Liu Ruxian's delicate body trembled, and she was directly sent flying a thousand Zhang away.

A trace of blood flowed from the corner of her mouth, and the law chains also became slightly illusory.

On the other hand, Shi Jun didn't seem to be different, and the difference in strength was obvious.

Shi Jun was somewhat in disbelief, and said in surprise, "Ruxian, did you not use your full strength?"

Liu Ruxian's pretty face turned red and she gritted her teeth and attacked again.

Both sides fought fiercely and it could be seen that there was no intention to hold back.

However, within a hundred moves, Liu Ruxian was pushed back seven times and she was already heavily injured.

Shi Jun was really surprised and said, "Ruxian, your strength... why did it drop?"

Liu Ruxian was also very confused. How could it drop? It should have been a big improvement!

“It’s not that Ruxian has dropped, but you, Shi Jun, have made great progress!” Ou Ye Huanyun’s eyes were sparkling.

Liu Ruxian said in surprise, “In just ten days, you can’t surpass me?”

It must be known that it was very difficult for Shi Jun to beat Liu Ruxian in the past. Moreover, Liu Ruxian had also made progress in ten days.

Unless he had made great progress in ten days, it could only be explained in this way.

Shi Jun was at a loss for a long time before he came to a realization. He looked at Su Yu excitedly and said, “Could it be that my ten days of training is effective?”

Su Yu smiled but did not say anything!

The reason why Shi Jun felt that his strength did not increase was because Su Yu had secretly increased his true strength bit by bit during the sparring. This caused Shi Jun to feel that there was no change in his strength.

Now, when he fought with Liu Ruxian, he found that his strength had increased tremendously. It could be described as a godly speed.

Liu Ruxian said in disbelief, “Shi Jun, are you really being instructed by young master Su?”

Shi Jun said happily and excitedly, “Yes! Brother Su has seen people before. After more than a hundred rounds of sparring, he pointed out many of my shortcomings and instructed me to correct them. I did not expect the effect to be so great!”

Liu Ruxian and Ou ye Huanyun both took a deep breath.

It might not be a big deal to notice someone’s shortcomings, but it was another problem to instruct someone to correct them.

Suddenly, Liu Ruxian blinked her beautiful eyes and ran over with a smile. She pushed Shi Jun away and held Su Yu’s arm, “Young Master Su, from now until the front of the Daoist Huang Hall, I will have to ask young master Su to give me good guidance.”

At this moment, Shi Jun came back to his senses and said, “No! How can you be so unreasonable? I only sparred with brother Su for ten days, but you want twenty days!”

Liu Ruxian pulled Su Yu away without caring about anything and said, “We agreed just now, and I didn’t see you object. It’s too late to regret now! Young Master Su, let’s go quickly...”

She pulled Su Yu along and jogged along, her face full of anticipation.

Shi Jun didn’t give up and quickly chased after him.

Ou Ye Huanyun was left alone with a bitter smile. In the past, the two of them fought to spar with him, but now, no one wanted him anymore.

“This Su Yu, I really can’t see through him.”

In just ten days, Shi Jun had undergone an earth-shattering change. He really didn’t know how he did it!

At the stern of the ship.

In the end, the two of them still reached a compromise. The two of them took turns sparring with Su Yu and received guidance from him.

Liu Ruxian was very unwilling and secretly regretted that she thought she was smart in the beginning. She chose to fight with Ou ye Huanyun and let Shi Jun take advantage of her.

Now, his overall strength was still slightly stronger than hers. It would not be so easy to win him back.

“Young master Su, you can’t be biased. I also want to improve by leaps and bounds within ten days and beat Shi Jun back.” Liu Ruxian held Su Yu’s arm tightly. Her entire body was almost hanging on his body as she said coquettishly.

Su Yu couldn’t take it any longer and tried to pull away. However, Liu Ruxian stuck close to him, as if she was afraid that Su Yu would escape.

Just like that, after Su Yu exchanged a hundred or so rounds with her, he voiced out his observation and suggested a correction.

Liu Ruxian was surprised when she heard this and stuck closer to him. Her beautiful eyes flashed with excitement. “Anything else? I want to hear more.”

At this moment, a group of young elites came to the stern with a smile.

It was Li Ruochen and the others.

They had been exchanging martial arts for more than ten days and were planning to have a banquet at the stern to relax.

Unexpectedly, they found someone here as soon as they arrived.

They glanced around and saw a man and a woman close together. They thought they were a couple.

However, when they fixed their eyes on them, Li Ruochen was stunned.

Chapter 2033 The Competition For The Top 100

The woman was none other than Liu Ruxian.

He also happened to remember the man. It was the nobody he didn’t like, Su Yu!

Sensing the movement behind her, Liu Ruxian turned around and nodded politely. Then, she continued to ask Su Yu as if there was no one else around.

Su Yu didn’t pay too much attention to them. He focused and said, “The problem is the above. I’ll explain how to correct it. Now, it’s up to you to hone it.”

Liu Ruxian was pleasantly surprised. She said affectionately, “Thank you, brother Su Yu!”

Li Ruochen forced a smile and walked forward. “Ruxian, are you exchanging martial arts? Would you like to join us?”

When he spoke, he did not take Su Yu seriously at all.

Liu Ruxian had seen for herself and experienced Su Yu's power in martial arts. Why would she be interested in joining others?

"I appreciate your kindness, but I have friends. Thank you." She politely and directly rejected him.

Li Ruochen's face darkened. He glanced at Su Yu meaningfully. He did not quite understand why Liu Ruxian would be interested in such a man?

Was there anything special about him?

Yun Zhantian rolled his eyes behind him and walked out, he smiled and said, "Miss Liu, brother Li is ranked 80th on the Yellow Dao board. In the past ten days, we have listened to his martial arts explanations and learned a lot. Why should we waste our time on useless people?"

Useless, who? Su Yu?

Liu Ruxian shook her head secretly. She really did not know what to say. If Su Yu was useless, then what were you?

"I like it, what can you do about it?" Liu Ruxian replied bluntly. She was quite disgusted with Yun Zhantian, a peer who felt good about himself.

Yun Zhantian was defeated and looked embarrassed. He looked at Su Yu and sneered, "Not bad, learning to cling to women, not bad at all!"

Su Yu looked indifferent and turned a deaf ear to his strange emphasis. She said to Liu Ruxian, "Let's go somewhere else."

Liu Ruxian agreed readily and said, "A headless fly is buzzing in my ear. It's quite annoying!"

The headless fly she was talking about was Yun Zhantian.

Holding Su Yu, Liu Ruxian couldn't wait to go to a quiet place and start training immediately.

Li Ruochen stood still and didn't stop her. His eyes were a little gloomy, he sighed in a low voice, "Ruxian, what kind of taste do you have? For your future, maybe I'll let you see his face at the conference of the Yellow Road."

..

The palace ship passed through the nothingness until one month later.

A continental coast appeared in sight.

That's right, it was the continent's coast.

Standing on the deck of the palace ship and staring at the continent's coast, Su Yu's eyes were filled with deep disbelief.

Compared to the various civilizations he had seen before, the scene in front of him was indeed an existence on the continent level.

At a glance, he couldn't see the end of the Daoist Huang Hall, only the edge of the continent.

"The Daoist Huang Hall!" Ou Yehuan Yun, Shi Jun, and Liu Ruxian, who were traveling with him, were all surprised.

Although it wasn't their first time seeing the temple of the Yellow Dao, they were still shocked by it.

Apart from its size, one could see the layers of restrictions on the shore.

Each restriction was more powerful than an emperor.

Anyone who tried to barge into the temple of the Yellow Dao would be turned into ashes.

As they approached the shore, the temple ship released a special signal. The restriction sensed it and opened by itself, allowing the small ship to enter.

As the palace ship docked, a deep voice entered everyone's ears.

"Disembark immediately and head to the venue of the ceremony."

More than thirty people on the ship disembarked one after another. Under the guidance of the crew, they activated the teleportation array.

Su Yu only felt a dizziness from the ultra-long distance teleportation. It was even farther than the distance between five-star civilizations.

However, when he revealed himself, Su Yu was surprised to find that he was still within the range of the coast.

"Just how big is the Daoist Huang Hall?" Su Yu was secretly shocked.

Suppressing his emotions, Su Yu looked around and immediately found an extremely wide arena in front of him.

It was completely enough to accommodate thousands of people fighting at the same time.

In front of the arena, there were already three hundred people gathered and talking to each other.

Some were from five-star civilizations, and some were from half-way civilizations.

"Quickly go over and meet up!" The guide urged impatiently.

Su Yu and the others immediately rushed over and waited quietly.

Looking at the huge red arena, Su Yu understood, he had already learned about the situation of the ecliptic convention from Ou ye Huan Yun and the others' exchanges.

The convention was divided into ten regions, and they were in the red region.

In the end, the red region would compete for the top 20 of the region.

The top 20 of the top 10 regions would gather together for the top 100 ranking competition.

The higher the ranking, the more generous the rewards.

If one could enter the top 100, they would be able to enter the lower hall of the Daoist Huang Hall.

The top 50 would be able to enter the Middle Hall of the Daoist Huang Hall.

The top 10 would be able to enter the upper hall.

However, the top 50 were mostly monopolized by the outstanding geniuses nurtured by the Daoist Huang Hall. Very few foreign geniuses would be able to occupy the position.

No one could compete with them for the top 10.

After waiting patiently in the red zone for a few days, more and more heaven's favorites gathered here.

In the end, a total of 1,000 people arrived.

Su Yu, ou ye Huanyun, and the others were talking when suddenly, 10 snow-white, winged white horses came from the sky.

Everywhere they passed, screams continued to ring out.

Even ou ye Huanyun, Liu Ruxian, and Shi Jun had deep respect in their eyes when they saw them.

"The Heaven's favorites of the Daoist Huang Hall are here!"

Liu Ruxian's eyes were filled with jealousy. "Only the heaven's favorites of the Daoist Huang Hall are qualified to ride the snow-white Holy Horse. I wonder how strong the ten heaven's favorites of the Daoist Huang Hall who are assigned to our region are this time."

Every time the Daoist Huang Hall held a conference, the Daoist Huang Hall would send out two hundred heaven's favorites who were nurtured and scattered across the ten regions to spar with the Foreign Heaven's favorites.

If they were lucky, they might not encounter a strong opponent.

But if they were unlucky, they might be eliminated in the first round.

When the ten Snow White holy horses approached, their faces were revealed.

"Bai Jianfei who is ranked 36th!"

"Ye Minghua who is ranked 47th!"

"Zhang Wentian who is ranked 53rd!"

..

"Oh my God, there are actually 13 people who are ranked in the top 100 of the Huangdao rankings!"

Liu Ruxian exclaimed in shock, her beautiful face was deathly pale.

Even ou ye Huanyun's expression was abnormally ugly. With the top 100 taking up 13 places, this meant that there were at most seven places left for them to fight for.

The pressure was so great that it was imaginable.

Su Yu's expression was indifferent and he did not panic too much.

Even if he did not meet any experts at this moment, could the next round be avoided?

It was only a matter of time before they fought with the experts of the Daoist Yellow Hall.

Moreover, Bai Jianfei, who was ranked the highest among them, was only at the late stage of the four crowns. It wasn't too difficult for Su Yu.

It shouldn't be a problem for him to enter the top 20 this time.

Two hundred people fell one after another. They lived alone and didn't interact with the geniuses of other civilizations.

Pride and superiority were released.

"Everyone, step onto the stage!"

Su Yu obeyed and stepped onto the stage together with Ou Ye Huanyun and the rest.

When everyone had arrived, a powerful spatial energy suddenly appeared on the stage. Everyone's positions were randomly disrupted.

When they repositioned themselves, ou ye Huanyun and the rest were nowhere to be seen. They were replaced by strangers.

At the same time, the arena changed again. The hundred people nearby were isolated by the power of space, forming a small arena.

In the center of the arena, a metal puppet appeared. It looked at everyone expressionlessly.

When it swept across, a number appeared on everyone's chest.

Su Yu's was number 18.

"Odd number versus even number!"The puppet said calmly.

This was a mixed battle. Fifty people versus fifty people.

Once someone's life was threatened, they would be judged as a failure and eliminated.

In the end, when there were only ten people left on the stage, the mixed battle ended.

"Mixed battle, begin!"

The stage was not big. They were all within the attack range of each other, so they could not use any strategies. They could only take the initiative to strike first.

In an instant, the scene became chaotic. All Kinds of divine arts with different powers filled the entire small stage.

Everyone had nowhere to hide and was fighting with all their might.

Thus, from the beginning, a large number of eliminated people appeared.

They were swept out of the arena by the power of space, making the small arena empty. Those who wanted to hide had nowhere to hide.

When the number of people decreased to twenty, the mutual attacks were already quite rare.

The number of people could be clearly counted.

Unfortunately, Su Yu's even-numbered team was at a serious disadvantage. Their side only had seven people left, while the other side had a total of 14 people, which was twice as many as them.

What was even more difficult was that the other side actually had a heaven's favorite from the Daoist Huang Hall who was ranked 83rd.

As for Su Yu's side, the Heaven's favorite from the Daoist Huang Hall with the highest cultivation was ranked 95th.

However, the other party obviously wouldn't take the initiative to provoke the 95 Heaven's favorites. Their targets were obviously Su Yu and the other seven.

As expected, other than the 95 Heaven's favorites taking the initiative to attack the other party and forcing the other party to retaliate, no one else attacked him.

The remaining 12 people all locked onto Su Yu and the other six.

Among them, Ao Yunyang, who was ranked 83rd in the Huangdao Hall, had his eyes on Su Yu.

"You seem to know how to Dodge,"ao Yunyang said disdainfully.

He had witnessed with his own eyes that Su Yu had never taken the initiative to attack during the battle between the two sides. He had always chosen to dodge and had been able to dodge very skillfully. It was very strange.

The others had either been eliminated or had been injured to varying degrees.

Only Su Yu was unharmed.

"Oh,"Su Yu replied indifferently.

He just didn't want to bully others. Otherwise, if he were to make a move, his opponent would probably be eliminated very quickly.

"Although I don't know how you managed to remain unscathed during the free-for-all, this is the end."Ao Yunyang appeared within 30 feet of Su Yu in a flash and instantly unleashed his fifth-grade law.

However, with a ding, the chain passed through Su Yu's shadow and shot into the arena.

Ao Yunyang was slightly taken aback. It was so fast that he didn't even have time to react.

When he realized that something was wrong, he placed a hand on his shoulder and said indifferently, "It's over."

Chapter 2034 Awaken Your Mind

"Not yet!"The primal power around ao Yunyang's body trembled. His opponent was only at the early-stage of the four-crowns emperor realm, while he was at the middle-stage of the four-crowns emperor realm. So what if he was captured?

However, the moment he resisted, a cold sense of death invaded his body.

At this moment, his hands and feet were cold as he felt the cold illusion of death.

At the same time, space power immediately appeared around him and swept him away.

Ao Yunyang, eliminated!

There were only about 20 people in front of him, so the situation of the battle on the arena was clear at a glance.

Ao Yunyang had been eliminated by an unremarkable human. Naturally, he could not escape their eyes, which immediately caused waves of shock.

“He... he eliminated ao Yunyang?”

“It can’t be. Ao Yunyang is ranked 83rd on the Yellow Dao Roll. How could he be eliminated so easily?”

Surprise and shock filled everyone’s eyes.

Among the odd-numbered parties, those who were prepared to target Su Yu all felt their scalps go numb. They all avoided Su Yu and no one dared to cause him any more trouble.

Hence, Su Yu stood leisurely in a corner with his hands behind his back. After waiting for a cup of tea, there were only 10 people left on the battlefield.

“The mixed battle is over!”The metal puppet announced indifferently.

The odd-numbered party felt relieved and looked at Su Yu simultaneously. They were secretly glad that this person did not make a move. Otherwise, it would have been a different ending.

Soon, the battles in the other small arenas ended one after another.

There were only one hundred people left from the original one thousand people on the stage.

When the spatial barrier disappeared, they sized each other up.

Those who could enter the top one hundred in the unusually intense competition were the elites among the elites.

Most of them were heaven’s favorites of the Daoist Huang Hall. Only less than 20 of them came from other civilizations.

Among them were Li Ruochen, ou Yehuan Yun, and other famous masters.

Following them were Yun Zhantian, Shi Jun, and Liu Ruxian, who were ranked around 150 on the Daoist Huang list.

Yun Zhantian shook the blood-red robe on his body and took a deep breath. He was still relatively calm.

Although it was a little dangerous, with his strength, it was not a problem for him to enter the top 100 of the sub-regions.

He sized up the people from the other civilizations one by one and threw a kind smile.

After all, they were all people from the other civilizations. In the Daoist Huang Hall, they were natural allies.

Being thrown by him with a smile, they all responded with a smile.

However, when Yun Zhantian’s gaze swept past OU Yehuan Yun and nodded to the person beside him, his face stiffened and he could not help but be stunned. “Why are you still standing on the Arena?”

He almost thought that he had admitted his mistake.

How could Su Yu, a guy at the late stage of the Triple Crown stage, hold out until the end in the chaotic battle?

The top 100 were at least at the early stage of the quadruple crown stage, and their strength was not bad. It was impossible for a triple crown stage to have a foothold.

Hearing this, Su Yu said indifferently, "Why are you standing here?"

"Nonsense! With my strength, isn't it normal for me to stand here?" Yun Zhantian said rudely.

Su Yu's face was indifferent, "Isn't that so?"

Yun Zhantian couldn't help but laugh, "Don't tell me you want to tell me that it's also because of your strength?"

"What else?" Su Yu asked back.

Yun Zhantian laughed, "Then you can ask the people here whether they believe it or not."

Su Yu smiled but did not say anything. For people who felt good about themselves and looked down on others, it was a waste of time to say anything more.

Ou Ye Huanyun, who was at the side, frowned and looked at Yun Zhantian. He said indifferently, "Are you very strong? Why Don't we spar?"

He did not like Yun Zhantian's attitude of looking at others.

With Su Yu's strength, it was normal for him to become one of the top 100. What was there to laugh about?

Yun Zhantian shut his mouth. In front of Ou Ye Huanyun, he really did not have the slightest qualification to be arrogant.

"Oh? Then you are very strong? Let's have a Spar?" A slightly cold voice came from behind Yun Zhantian.

Li Ruochen's body was spotless. He walked over calmly and glanced at Su Yu. He looked straight at OU ye Huanyun.

Ou Ye Huanyun was not afraid. He said, "Haha, good. I have long heard of Li Ruochen's great name. Since we have met, let's have a good fight!"

His fighting spirit soared, and his face was full of great interest.

The two actually had the strength to fight for the sake of others.

However, Li Ruochen said indifferently, "Oh? You want to experience the feeling of losing so quickly? Sure, I'll see you in the ring!"

"Haha, I'll Accompany You Anytime!" Ou Ye Huanyun's face was full of expectation.

Li Ruochen stared at Su Yu and said lightly, "Although I don't know what kind of luck you had to meet a group of weak opponents and barely make it into the top 100, the real test has just begun. Don't lose too badly."

"Hehe." Su Yu just chuckled.

The conflict between the two sides didn't escalate, but anyone with a discerning eye could see the invisible smoke.

"The competition for the top 10 begins!" The metal puppet announced again.

The 100 people on the field were randomly divided into 20 groups of five people in each group.

The first of the five people would become one of the top 20 in the region. They were qualified to go to the combat zone of the main hall of the Daoist Huang Palace to compete for the ranking.

It could be said that that was where they would truly showcase themselves.

The upper echelons of the Daoist Huang Palace would not pay any attention to the regional competition at all.

Su Yu's feet flashed and when he reappeared, he was once again in an isolated space.

What made him sigh with emotion was that Yun Zhantian was also in the same region!

He was also one of the three chosen disciples of the Daoist Huang Palace.

One of them was Zhang Wentian, who was ranked 53rd.

Yun Zhantian's face turned pale when he saw this person.

His chances of winning against such an expert were very slim.

Although he had promised his father that he would fight his way into the top 50, he knew very well what he was actually capable of.

It was very difficult to win in a real fight.

This meant that he would be eliminated from the top 100 in the regional battles.

"May I know your name?" Suddenly, Zhang Wentian asked.

Yun Zhantian subconsciously cupped his fists and replied, "I am Yun Zhantian from the four symbols civilization."

Only he and Su Yu were from another civilization. The other party was obviously asking about Yun Zhantian who was not weak.

"I'm not asking you, I'm asking him." Zhang Wentian glanced at Yun Zhantian and said indifferently.

Yun Zhantian's strength was nothing in his eyes. Why would he be concerned about it?

He was concerned about Su Yu.

During the short break, the people of the Daoist Huang Hall had exchanged their encounters with each other.

Among them, Su Yu had caused a stir among the geniuses of the Daoist Huang Hall.

Ao Yunyang, who was ranked 83rd, was eliminated by this person. His level of danger was rated as high-level by them. He was even more dangerous than Li Ruochen and Ou Yehuan Yun.

After all, Li Ruochen had spent quite a lot of effort to barely make it into the top 80 of the Daoist Huang list.

However, Su Yu did not spend much effort to defeat ao Yunyang, who was ranked 83rd.

He really did not expect that Su Yu, who was the most dangerous, would be assigned to his group.

Yun Zhantian was stunned. Wasn't he asking me?

He looked at Su Yu in confusion and thought, what was so special about him that he could attract the attention of Zhang Wentian from the Daoist Huang Hall?

“Su Yu!”

“I am Zhang Wentian. Since we have met, please teach me when we spar later,” Zhang Wentian said.

“No problem,” Su Yu said indifferently.

Hearing the conversation between the two, Yun Zhantian frowned deeply. Did Zhang Wentian misunderstand something?

He actually treated Su Yu as a peer and Yun Zhantian was ignored instead.

After thinking for a while, he cupped his fists and said, “I am Yun Zhantian. I hope that when we fight later, brother Zhang can teach me...”

Zhang Wentian glanced at him and nodded lightly, “Qi Qing, later you can come and meet this yun... Yun something.”

Qi Qing was ranked 71st on the Huang Dao rankings, he said somewhat reluctantly, “Alright, I originally wanted to personally experience Su Yu. Since Big Brother Zhang has chosen first, then I have no choice. I will use this Yun Zhantian to pass the time.”

Hearing this, Yun Zhantian couldn't help but feel resentful.

Were all the heaven's favorites of the Huangdao Palace Blind?

He didn't care about the powerful Su Yu but was instead interested in the useless Su Yu. It was really baffling.

He looked at Su Yu with an even more unfriendly gaze.

At this moment, the metal puppet announced, “The competition for the top 20 of the region has officially begun. Number 18 will fight number 109.”

Su Yu was number 18 and took a step forward.

“Haha...” Yun Zhantian's laughter suddenly sounded behind him. He took a step forward and stood in front of Su Yu.

On his chest, there was a number 109

He was the opponent Su Yu wanted to challenge.

“You are destined to be defeated by me.” Yun Zhantian felt that the so-called God existed.

He was destined to be unable to enter the top 20, but he could eliminate Su Yu before he was defeated. It could be considered a consolation.

At least, he wasn’t eliminated in a bad way.

Su Yu turned around and looked at him indifferently. “The sparring hasn’t started yet, and you’re already sure of the result?”

The three spectating geniuses of the Daoist Huang Hall secretly sympathized with Yun Zhantian.

It wasn’t good to fight with anyone, but it had to be Su Yu.

It was one thing to fight against him, but he actually didn’t have the slightest self-awareness. They really didn’t know where he got the confidence to boast shamelessly that the most dangerous character in the region would be defeated by him.

Yun Zhantian shook his head and said, “It’s really unreasonable. You were lucky enough to be in the top 100 of this region, and it’s already a result of great luck. It’s really sad that you’re still holding on to the hope of being lucky even at this moment!”

“I think that you’ve been with Liu Ruxian for too long and mistakenly think that you’re very capable. Unfortunately, reality is cruel! It’s impossible for you to live in a dream like this!”

Yun Zhantian slowly released his cultivation of the middle stage of the four crowns Emperor realm and even brought out his sixth-level law.

His face was full of calmness as he said indifferently, “For the sake of my sister, I’ll take the trouble to personally hit you to wake you up and let you know how capable you are!”

After he finished speaking, his figure flashed and he raised his hand to slap Su Yu’s face.

Su Yu’s expression was calm. He should have tolerated this heir of the four symbols manor more than once.

Now, he still wanted to publicly slap his face and humiliate him.

His eyes turned slightly cold as he slowly put down his hands behind his back, he said indifferently, “Your sister and I have known each other for a while. Seeing you like this, she is probably very disappointed. I will help her give you some pointers on how to treat your enemies.”

Chapter 2035 Top 20

As soon as he finished speaking, Su Yu had already disappeared from where he was standing, and the first slap landed on his cheek.

PA --

The crisp sound of a slap resounded throughout the entire area!

Yun Zhantian's palm was still in mid-air, but he had already received a slap. His body had already taken half a turn on the spot, and he was a little dazed. He didn't quite understand how he had received a slap.

When he came back to his senses, his face was full of shame and anger. He roared, "You dare to SLAP ME..."

PA --

He was still shouting, but he was slapped again on the face.

"Ah! You're Looking For..."

PA --

It was still a slap!

"I..."

PA --

Another slap!

Yun Zhantian was completely stunned. He was like a spinning top that was constantly spinning on the spot.

After eighteen consecutive slaps, Yun Zhantian's face was red and swollen. His mouth was full of blood, and he staggered and fell to the ground.

Su Yu stopped and looked at him indifferently, "Are you awake?"

The one who needed to be awakened was not Su Yu, but him.

Yun Zhantian was dizzy. He covered his face and looked up at Su Yu, his eyes full of fear and shock.

Although he was arrogant, he was not stupid.

To be able to beat him to the point that he could not fight back, the other party's strength was definitely far above his.

His real strength was not the late stage of the three crowns, but... the late stage of the four crowns!

Zhang Wentian and the other two spectators gasped.

Although they had expected Su Yu to be very strong, they had never thought that he would be so strong that Yun Zhantian would not be able to fight back.

They knew that they would not be able to do so.

Qi Qing, a heaven's favorite on the Huang Dao Roll, could not help but shiver. He had wanted to challenge Su Yu himself, but now it seemed that he was not drawn.

Su Yu was too strong!

Su Yu looked at Yun Zhantian indifferently, "Do you want to continue?"

Yun Zhantian trembled and his face was full of fear. He hurriedly said, "I admit defeat!"

He was afraid that Su Yu would attack again, so he hurriedly admitted defeat.

The metal puppet sensed something and immediately teleported him away.

In the end, only Su Yu and the other three were left.

Looking up at them, Su Yu smiled indifferently, "Do you want to compete?"

Zhang Wentian smiled bitterly, "I didn't expect there to be a heaven's favorite like you outside of the Daoist Huang Hall. There is always someone better than you!"

Before they arrived, Zhang Wentian and the other Heaven's favorites of the Daoist Huang Hall were determined to get the ranking of the region.

They thought that they could enter the top 20 of the region without any effort.

But now, the cruel fact was that they were not in the top 20.

"However, even if we lose, we have to fight with all our strength." Zhang Wentian was full of fighting spirit.

Su Yu nodded indifferently: "Good! Then I will be more serious."

Hearing this, the faces of Zhang Wentian and the others changed. Could it be that the strength he just displayed was not his real strength?

"No. 18, Fight No. 29."

No. 29, it was Zhang Wentian.

He took a deep breath, and the primal energy in the shareholder's body unleashed his own chain of laws.

Su Yu took out the Shura Sword and slashed down.

"Heaven Burial!"

As the sword slashed down, it was as if heaven and earth were buried. Zhang Wentian only felt a chill all over his body, as if death had brushed past his shoulder.

His heart thumped wildly, and a never-before-seen danger of death churned in his heart.

The metal puppet sensed something and immediately teleported away.

"No. 18 wins."

The next two were eliminated without any suspense.

Su Yu's group was the first to compete for the first place.

Then, the other groups competed for the first place.

Besides Su Yu, only Li Ruochen, ou Yehuanyn, Shi Jun and Liu Ruxian were not from the Huangdao Hall.

“Eh? Where’s Zhang Wentian?”The top-ranked geniuses of the Huangdao Hall gathered together and immediately realized that Zhang Wentian was not in the top 20.

Bai Jianfei, who was ranked 36th, was slightly stunned and said, “Is there a mistake? How could Zhang Wentian not be in the top 20 with his strength?”

“And Qi Qing! He didn’t make it into the top 20 either!”Ye Minghua, who was ranked 47th, had a serious expression on his face.

The chosen ones of the Daoist Huang Hall were deeply shocked.

Zhang Wentian and Qi Qing were both famous chosen in the top 100 of the Daoist Huang list. They would definitely be able to get a seat in the top 100 later.

How could they not even pass the regional selection.

They had no idea what had happened.

Bai Jianfei’s eyes were sharp. When he glanced at Li Ruochen, he shook his head slightly.

Li Ruochen was the most powerful Heaven’s favorite in the foreign civilization, but the people of the Daoist Huang Hall knew very well that there was an unknown figure hidden in the foreign civilization.

Su Yu!

Bai Jianfei and ye Minghua looked at Su Yu with deep suspicion.

If there was anyone else who could eliminate Zhang Wentian and the others, then he was the only one who had a chance.

At this moment, ou ye Huanyun and the others also discovered Su Yu’s existence and revealed a deep look of surprise.

“Congratulations brother Su, you have also successfully entered the top 20!”Ou Ye Huanyun said.

Liu Ruxian also came over in surprise and said cheekily, “Of course, to be able to guide us in cultivation, how low would your strength be?”

Although they said so, in reality, they were still somewhat surprised that Su Yu had entered the top 20.

With his strength, he could only enter the top 20 if he was lucky.

Shi Jun smiled, “Brother Su didn’t meet a strong opponent. Congratulations.”

Ou Ye Huanyun agreed, he sighed, “Our division is full of Crouching Tigers and Hidden Dragons! Even Zhang Wentian and Qi Qing, who are ranked in the top 100, were eliminated by the mysterious man. If we meet him, we will definitely be eliminated.”

Shi Jun said in surprise, “Who could it be? Could It Be Li Ruochen?”

“Him?”Ou yehuanyun shook his head, “It can’t be him. Li Ruochen’s strength is not bad, but he is not strong enough to eliminate Zhang Wentian.”

“Then who could it be? The foreign civilization is none other than us.”

Ou Yehuanyn thought for a while and said, “It’s very likely that he is a heaven’s favorite of the Daoist Huang Hall! They are also full of competition. It’s very likely that a heaven’s favorite of the Daoist Huang Hall hid his strength and only revealed it now.”

This was the most reasonable explanation.

The four of them were talking when Li Ruochen walked over and stared at Su Yu suspiciously. He asked the four of them, “Have You Seen Yun Zhantian?”

He was very curious as to why Su Yu could stay but Yun Zhantian could not.

Was Su Yu so lucky?

Ou Ye Huanyun’s face was indifferent and did not respond. So what if he had seen him?

Li Ruochen had a condescending attitude. Why should he answer?

Shi Jun and Liu Ruxian also turned a deaf ear to him and treated him as if he was air.

Li Ruochen’s expression darkened slightly. He knew that he was being ostracized. He stared at Su Yu unkindly. “I have to say, your luck is as good as ever. You can actually enter the top 20!”

Actually, it was not just him. Ou Ye Huanyun and the others also naturally blamed Su Yu for his luck.

“Not bad.” Su Yu was indifferent. He paused and said, “I have seen Yun Zhantian. He is in our group. If you are looking for him, you should go to the eliminated concentration camp. He should be there.”

“Nonsense!” Since Yun Zhantian was not here, he was transferred because of the elimination. “I mean, who defeated him?”

Su Yu pointed at himself and said, “It was me.”

“You?” Li Ruochen shook his head with contempt in his eyes. “You really know how to flatter yourself. With your strength, you are probably less than one-tenth of Yun Zhantian.”

“Forget it. Your good luck can only end here. You will feel despair in the next ranking of the top 100 in the general region.”

With that, Li Ruochen walked to a corner alone with his hands behind his back.

Su Yu shrugged. He took it for granted and Su Yu was too lazy to explain.

“The competition for the top 20 of the coastal region has ended. Now, please go to the square of the Daoist Huang Hall!”

Hearing this, the 20 people present erupted with fighting spirit.

The sparring in the sub-regions could only be considered as a warm-up. What came next was the real competition.

Ou Ye Huanyun also revealed traces of nervousness.

Overall, their coastal sub-region's Luck was pretty good. Among the powerhouses from the Daoist Huang Hall, the highest ranked was only Bai Jianfei, who was ranked 36th.

The rest who were ranked higher were allocated to the other nine battle zones.

Therefore, the square of the Daoist Huang Hall was where the true geniuses gathered.

Under the guidance of the Daoist Huang Hall's personnel, they boarded the teleportation array and once again carried out a long-distance teleportation.

This time, the teleportation process lasted for an entire day and night.

Su Yu's head was splitting from the ride. He felt that he had not crossed a single civilization, but had crossed over hundreds of five-star civilizations' long-distance.

When his feet landed, Su Yu endured the discomfort and barely managed to stand up.

Before he could open his eyes, he heard a slight surprise.

"Oh? There's a seedling with good soul strength in the coastal warzone. He can still stand after being teleported so far away. Not bad, not bad."

Su Yu opened his eyes and saw a green-robed, white-bearded elder stroking his beard with a smile.

He then looked at the array formation. Other than Su Yu, everyone else was either bending down to vomit, lying on the ground with their limbs limp, or squatting down and hugging their head that was about to split open from the pain.

With Su Yu around, they managed to stabilize their bodies, making them stand out from the crowd.

"Hehe, go and rest. You all have ten days of rest." The green-robed, white-bearded elder waved his hand with a smile.

Su Yu immediately felt a gust of wind blow over. His entire body immediately felt refreshed, and the discomfort in his soul was immediately eliminated.

Looking at the others, they also eliminated all sorts of symptoms.

Su Yu's pupils constricted slightly. He was able to use a divine art that could heal the souls of more than twenty people with just a raise of his hand. His soul attainments could be said to be terrifying.

"Thank you, senior." Su Yu cupped his hands. "May I ask which expert of the Daoist Huang Hall is Senior?"

The green-robed, white-bearded elder laughed. "How is he an expert? He's just a mere array guardian."

Su Yu was secretly surprised, but he did not quite believe it in his heart. He said, "Senior is too humble."

Such a spiritual expert was at least at the level of the five crowns. How could he be just a nobody like the array guardian?

Ou Ye Huanyun rubbed his head and asked curiously, "Brother Su, what are you talking about with the gatekeeper?"

Was he really the gatekeeper? Su Yu was slightly puzzled, but he still cupped his fists politely and politely. "Thank you for your help, senior. I will take my leave."

Chapter 2036 A Strange Test

Under the guidance of the members of the Daoist Huang Hall, they entered the enormous city wall in front of them.

The size of the city wall was impossible to predict. With Su Yu's soul perception, he could not see the end of it at all.

"This is a city affiliated to the Daoist Huang Hall. As participants of the Daoist Huang Hall conference, you can rest in bright heart residence in the city for ten days and wait for the finals to begin." After the guide finished speaking, he left on his own, he left them at the city gate.

This was also a test of their ability to adapt. It could be considered as one of the tests of the Daoist Yellow Road Conference.

Even though they were the chosen ones of the Daoist Yellow Road Temple, there were hints of awe and strangeness in their eyes.

Although they were groomed by the Daoist Yellow Road Temple, the Daoist Yellow Road temple was really too big. They had never had the chance to come to this largest affiliated city. They had always been training in remote areas.

It was only recently that they received news that they were going to the designated war zone to participate in the competition for the top 20.

Bai Jianfei, Ye Minghua, and the others formed a group and entered the city first.

Su Yu, ou ye Huanyun, Shi Jun, and Liu Ruxian formed a group and headed into the city.

When they entered the city to inspect, Su Yu was a little surprised to find that the ordinary soldiers guarding the city gate were all at the early stage of the five-crowned emperor realm.

The squad leader was at the middle stage of the five crowns!

As for the general guarding the city gate, he was at the peak of the five crowns.

Su Yu took in a cold breath.

A figure at the peak of the five crowns was actually at the position of a general guarding the city gate.

If it was placed outside, it was simply unimaginable.

"I once heard my father say that there are many extremely powerful emperor-level experts in the Daoist Huang Hall. They were all nurtured by the Daoist Huang Hall and were unwilling to leave the Daoist Huang Hall. They chose to take up positions and remain in the Daoist Huang Hall forever."

Su Yu understood. Looking at the endless void, the Daoist Huang Hall could be said to be the most prosperous place in the martial arts world.

If they wanted to have a long-term development in the martial arts world, they naturally had a higher chance of staying in the Daoist Huang Hall.

Thus, whether it was guarding the city gates or guarding the formation, they were all willing to stay. Su Yu was silent.

Was the world in their hearts only limited to the Daoist Huang Hall?

He knew that they couldn't be blamed for not having foresight.

The absolute beginning realm was too big. How hard would it be to find another place to settle down?

For example, ou ye Huanyun and the others would never want to set foot in a place that was even further away.

A voice arose in his mind, "Stay here and settle down in the Daoist Huang Hall."

With the prosperity of the Daoist Huang Hall, Su Yu would also have great achievements.

However, the figures of Xia Jingyu and Xian 'er flashed through his mind, and he silently extinguished this thought.

He couldn't stop his footsteps.

The four of them were in a city that they were unfamiliar with, and they were asking around for the location of Ming Xin residence.

However, for some reason, no one knew that there was Ming Xin residence in the city.

"It can't be. Is it really a test of the Daoist Huang Hall?" Liu Ruxian looked puzzled. What was the point of such a test?

Su Yu didn't quite understand. He thought for a while and said, "Let's ask again."

At the same time.

Li Ruochen and the heaven's favorites of the Daoist Huang Hall were asking around about the brightheart residence.

They received the same answer. They didn't know that there was another brightheart residence in the city.

Gradually, they relaxed and became nervous again. They realized that this might be another test.

Everyone's heart tightened, and they immediately sped up their search. They all wanted to find Mingxin residence first.

After a day of fruitless questioning, ou ye Huanyun and the others could not hold themselves back. They did not know if the others would find it first.

If they fell behind, would it affect their subsequent rankings?

"Let's split up and search. Whoever finds it will send a message." Ou Ye Huanyun sent each of them a teleportation jade seal.

Su Yu held the jade seal in his hand and did not continue searching. Instead, he fell into deep thought.

There was no practical meaning in blindly searching. If Ming Xin residence really existed, it should not be unknown to everyone.

His mind was filled with thoughts as he thought carefully.

After a long while, an idea appeared in Su Yu's heart. However, he felt that it was too absurd and felt that it was unlikely.

"Let's give it a try!" Su Yu pondered for a while and found an unknown inn.

"Guest, do you want to stay?"

Su Yu said, "I guess so! But I want to buy the inn to stay."

"Buy... buy it to stay?" The innkeeper was flabbergasted.

"Yes, money is not a problem," Su Yu said.

Soon, the owner came forward and discussed with Su Yu in person.

In the end, Su Yu bought the entire inn at a sky-high price of 30,000 Dao dollars.

At the same time, after he bought them, Su Yu took off the inns' Signboard and changed the name to Ming Xin residence.

'the real Ming Xin residence shouldn't exist.' Su Yu thought to himself.

Firstly, as a branch of the Daoist Huang Hall, it was a business that hosted the Daoist Huang Hall's staff who went to various places for work. There was no need for it to exist in a subsidiary city of the main hall.

Secondly, such a famous business shouldn't be unknown.

The only possibility was that there was no Ming Xin residence.

But why did the Daoist Huang Hall ask them to look for a non-existent Ming Xin residence?

Hence, Su Yu gave his answer.

Build a Ming Xin residence!

A few days later, ou ye Huanyun and the rest had walked through almost half of the city, but there was still no trace of Ming Xin residence.

Su Yu was more certain of what he was thinking and informed the three of them to come here.

"Brother Su, you found Ming Xin Residence?" Ou Ye Huanyun stared at the Shabby Inn with surprise in his eyes.

Ming Xin residence had always been famous for its extravagance, so how could it be shabby in front of him?

"I built it myself," Su Yu said indifferently.

“Built it?” Ou Ye Huanyun and the others were all shocked and looked at Su Yu in disbelief.

He dared to think that he couldn’t find Ming Xin residence, but he actually built one himself!

“Brother Su, this is too...”

Su Yu said indifferently, “Have you found the real Brightheart residence?”

“This...” ou ye Huanyun and the others looked hesitant.

After a long while, Liu Ruxian gave up first and said, “Sigh, I can’t find Brightheart residence. Anyway, I can’t pass the test. I’m too lazy to find it. I’ll just stay here.”

She gave up. Ou Ye Huanyun and Shi Jun also lost the motivation to continue searching and settled down here one after another.

A few days later.

A Heaven’s chosen from the Daoist Huang Hall accidentally passed by this place and was surprised to find this Ming Xin residence. He was both surprised and puzzled and immediately informed a few of his companions.

They entered together and went forward to ask, “This is Ming Xin Residence?”

Su Yu not only bought the inn, he also bought the shopkeeper. The shopkeeper pointed at the signboard and said, “Can’t you see for yourself?”

His attitude of ‘do you want to stay or not’ made them believe that this was Ming Xin residence.

“How much is it for one night?”

“The owner said that it’s free.”

Hearing this, they were even more certain because the person-in-charge of the Daoist Huang Hall had said that they could stay in Ming Xin residence for free.

Their stay made even more of the heaven’s favorites of the Daoist Huang Hall know of the existence of Ming Xin residence, and they all rushed over.

Although this was far from what they had imagined, they had been searching for it with all their might. If they could find it now, what was there to fuss about?

In the end, the twenty people who entered the city came to Mingxin residence one after another.

In one of the guest rooms, Su Yu, ou ye, and Huanyun once again exchanged pointers with each other in the Daoist Huang Hall.

“Oh, only big brother Ou ye can enter the top 100 in the next ranking competition and become a member of the Middle Hall. For us, we can only enter the lower hall,” Liu Ruxian said with envy and jealousy.

Shi Jun nodded slightly and said, “One day, when brother ou ye becomes the person in charge of the Branch Hall, don’t forget us.”

Ou Ye Huanyun shook his head and laughed lightly, “I was kicked out of the top 100 of the Huang Dao Board by that Rain Immortal, let alone the current Huang Dao Conference? “Many heaven’s favorites outside of the Huang Dao Board can appear. For me to enter the top 150 is already considered lucky.”

Liu Ruxian covered her mouth and chuckled, “Big Brother ou ye is too modest. How can there be so many unborn heaven’s favorites?”

Ou Ye Huanyun only chuckled and looked at the silent Su Yu. He asked, “I wonder what ranking brother Su plans to compete for?”

“The top ten,” Su Yu said.

Only the top ten rankings could get a Bodhi fruit.

“The... Top Ten?” Ou Ye Huanyun was stunned. Liu Ruxian was also surprised. Then, she burst into laughter, “Brother Su Yu is so humorous.”

Shi Jun shook his head in amusement. “Brother Su, you look so serious. I almost believed you.”

Su Yu smiled but did not say anything.

At this moment, the shopkeeper came knocking on the door and said, “Boss, the food is ready.”

“Okay.” He looked at the other three. “Let’s go.”

The ingredients in the Daoist Huang Hall were rather special. Many of them contained traces of the Dao master’s enlightenment. They could not taste similar things elsewhere.

Therefore, in the past few days, they had been eating similar ingredients.

The four of them left the room.

As soon as they came out, they met Li Ruochen in the corridor.

He was alone and had a satisfied expression on his face.

When he met Su Yu, he could not help but laugh. “Oh? Your Luck is really good. You actually found this place.”

Hearing this, Ou Ye, Huanyun, and the other two looked at each other. This place was built by Su Yu!

Su Yu looked calm. “Oh, do you have any advice?”

Li Ruochen looked at Liu Ruxian, who was next to Su Yu. He looked slightly unhappy. “I don’t have any advice. I’m just reminding you on behalf of Yun Zhantian.”

“Speak.”

“You owe the four symbols mansion a favor. You relied on their recommendation letter to get to this point. You have to keep this in mind. Do you understand?” Li Ruochen lectured him.

His purpose was self-evident. He wanted to belittle Su Yu in front of Liu Ruxian.

He needed to let her know that the Su Yu she had taken a liking to was a person who did not even have the qualifications to participate in the Yellow Road Conference. She had relied on begging people everywhere to get here.

Su Yu looked indifferent and did not comment.

“Without the charity of the four symbols mansion, you would not be where you are now. I hope that no matter what rank you get, you will return to repay the debt,” Li Ruochen said. “This is the basic principle of being a person...”

Before he could finish his words, Su Yu interrupted him calmly.

“Are you from the four symbols mansion?”

“No, but I...”

“What does that have to do with you? Do I need you to say anything?” Su Yu’s eyes were cold.

Li Ruochen shook his head. “Harsh advice. I’m teaching you the principle of being a person, but you won’t listen to it...”

Su Yu said faintly, “Okay, then I’ll teach you the principle of being a person.”

He didn’t say a word. He took out a recommendation letter that Yun Qianshuang had given him. It was a letter with the four symbols mansion’s seal.

He flicked his finger and threw it into Li Ruochen’s arms. He said lightly, “I’ve always been unlikable. Since you’re so concerned about the recommendation letter from the four symbols mansion, I’ll give it to you.”

Chapter 2037 Was Reported

Li Ruochen looked at the recommendation letter and was stunned. “You didn’t use it? Then how did you attend the conference of the ecliptic?”

When they disembarked, everyone’s invitation letters and recommendation letters were taken away and given to the hall of the ecliptic.

It was impossible for Su Yu to keep them in his hands.

“I have never used the recommendation letter from the four symbols mansion, and I have never accepted their charity. Instead, they owe me a favor.” Su Yu said lightly, “Now, do you still have any moral principles to teach me?”

Li Ruochen came back to his senses. His face alternated between green and red as he stared at Su Yu unkindly.

Seeing that he was about to fly into a rage out of humiliation, ou ye Huanyun shook his head. His narrow-mindedness was really unpraiseworthy.

Liu Ruxian frowned slightly and said, “With brother Su Yu’s strength, who else would be willing to give him a recommendation letter? With just one sentence from him, there are many people who are willing to recommend him to the conference of the ecliptic.”

If Su Yu did not have a recommendation letter, she would definitely be willing to give him a recommendation letter unconditionally.

Such an outstanding person did not need anyone to give him a recommendation letter.

She was quite dissatisfied with Li Ruochen.

In the past, she thought that this person was not bad. He was talented and had a gentle temperament.

But now, she realized that there was something wrong with his character.

Su Yu had never provoked him, but he inexplicably went up to belittle him.

If she failed to belittle him, she would become angry out of humiliation.

She was somewhat glad that she did not accept his pursuit back then.

Li Ruochen did not care much about how others looked at him. Only Liu Ruxian's attitude made him look at Su Yu even more unkindly. She coldly threw away the recommendation letter, she said, "I really don't want to be under the same roof as you, a person who relies on luck and women. Staying a moment longer will affect my mood!"

Liu Ruxian smiled angrily. How could a person like Li Ruochen have the face to comment on Su Yu?

She said coldly, "Then you can leave. Is there anyone who wants you to stay?"

Li Ruochen clasped his hands behind his back and smiled proudly. "Mingxin residence is not yours. It's not up to you to decide whether I stay or go."

Ou Ye Huanyun and Shi Jun were slightly startled. They looked at Su Yu with a strange expression.

Shi Jun coughed lightly and said, "Well, the three of us may not be qualified to decide whether you stay or go, but brother Su can still do it. I advise you to be cautious when you speak. Otherwise, I'm afraid you'll have to find another place to stay."

"Him?" Li Ruochen smiled and shook his head. "I don't understand what you're talking about. You Don't know what you're talking about!"

No matter how good Su Yu's bearing was, he could not withstand this person's repeated difficulties. He said lightly, "Then I'll let you understand. Shopkeeper, see the guest out."

The shopkeeper who led the way nodded and made an inviting gesture to Li Ruochen. "This young master, please go ahead. Mingxin residence does not welcome you to stay here."

Li Ruochen was stunned. He pointed at Su Yu and said indignantly, "Are you crazy? If he asks me to leave, are you really going to chase me away? I'm the heir of some half-way civilization. Who does he think he is?"

The shopkeeper was not afraid of Li Ruochen, especially under the feet of the Daoist Huang Hall. No one dared to act recklessly.

He pulled his face slightly. "This young master is joking. It doesn't matter who you are. What matters is that young master Su is the owner of Mingxin residence. If he asks you to leave, I can only let you go."

Hearing this, Li Ruochen was stunned again. His mind was filled with disbelief.

“Owner? Mingxin residence is the property of the Daoist Huang Palace. What’s the matter with surnamed Su?” Li Ruochen asked.

The shopkeeper’s face was indifferent. “Master, if you don’t leave now, I will ask the Royal Guards of the Daoist Huang Hall to come here.”

Li Ruochen was puzzled. He felt even more suffocated. He looked at Su Yu fiercely, then at OU ye Huanyun and the others. “Okay! I’ll Go! But we’ll see!”

He was kicked out of Ming Xin residence. He lost all face. The more he thought about it, the angrier he became. The more he thought about it, the more he was unconvinced.

Why did Su Yu have the right to control the Huang Dao Palace’s property?

As he pondered, he realized that there seemed to be a problem.

Therefore, he stayed near Mingxin residence and asked around the surrounding shops. He just found out that a few days ago, it was just an ordinary inn that was about to close down.

It had been bought by Su Yu and transformed into Mingxin residence!

After learning about this, Li Ruochen was both angry and angry. No wonder!

However, on second thought, a meaningful smile appeared on his face. “You’re really asking for death! How dare you build a fake Ming Xin residence and deceive the other participants of the Yellow Road Convention!”

He walked away and came to the office of the Yellow Road Temple in this region.

This city was too big and was divided into ten regions geographically.

Each region had an office set up by the Yellow Road Temple, which was overseen by a Master of the Yellow Road Temple and handled many administrative affairs in the city.

“Who are you?” The guards of the office, who were all at the level of five crowns, shouted softly.

Li Ruochen cupped his fists and bowed respectfully. “I have found an important matter and want to report it to the Daoist Huang Hall. It concerns the reputation of the Daoist Huang Hall, so I have to come.”

When it came to the reputation of the Daoist Huang Hall, the two guards did not dare to be careless. They said, “Follow me to see Lord Zhang.”

Zhang Weining was the person in charge of this area. While he was busy, the guard brought Li Ruochen in.

“Master, this person said that he has something important to report to you.”

Zhang Weining looked up at Li Ruochen and nodded lightly. “Speak.”

He did not even ask who Li Ruochen was. A Heaven’s favorite like him might be prominent in the half-way civilization, but he was extremely mediocre in the Daoist Huang Hall.

Li Ruochen suddenly felt immense pressure. He had only felt this kind of feeling from a half-step dao master elder.

“Reporting to master Zhang, I found that someone had forged the residence of the clear mind to deceive the participants of the Daoist Huang Hall. They have ulterior motives. I hope master Zhang can investigate them.”

Zhang Weining was stunned. “Where? Who Did It?”

Li Ruochen was delighted. He knew that this matter had attracted the attention of the local person-in-charge. He said, “It’s a person named Su Yu. The location is 109 West Third Street.”

Hearing this, Zhang Weining nodded solemnly. Then, he looked at Li Ruochen with a meaningful look. “Well, you’ve made a meritorious report. What reward do you want?”

Li Ruochen said, “I just want to do something for the Daoist Huang Hall. I don’t want to be rewarded.”

Zhang Weining paused. “Well, what’s Your Name?”

“Li Ruochen!” He was slightly expectant. The other party must have asked his name for follow-up action.

“Li Ruochen, right? Okay, I will remember it. I will report this to the higher-ups of the Daoist Huang Hall.”

Hearing this, Li Ruochen was overjoyed.

How could the higher-ups of the Daoist Huang Hall know about such a trivial matter!

If his name fell into the ears of the higher-ups of the Daoist Huang Hall, it would have a great impact on their future development prospects.

He did not expect that he would receive extra benefits instead of reporting Su Yu.

“Thank you, Master Zhang!” Li Ruochen cupped his fists. Seeing that the guard had stopped talking, he stepped back and said, “I’ll take my leave now.”

After he left, Zhang Weining immediately said to the guard, “Go and check the situation.”

There was a hint of satisfaction in his eyes. “Not bad. Someone from our district passed the test.”

Chapter 2038 Luoshen Of The Eastern Region

Mingxin residence was indeed a test, and the top 20 in different war zones all had different types of tests.

The test in this region was to live in the non-existent Mingxin residence.

Whoever could find another way to solve the problem would pass the test.

At present, Su Yu was the only one.

As for Li Ruochen who reported him, Zhang Weining shook her head. “The difference between a fool and a smart person.”

A few days later.

Many elites who attended the meeting ended their 10 days of waiting anxiously.

Until today, there had been no so-called test results announced.

“Are we thinking too much?” Bai Jianfei, Ye Minghua, and the others left the Mingxin residence and went to the General Hall.

They turned to look at the Mingxin residence behind them and were slightly puzzled.

Ye Minghua’s eyes shone with wisdom. He shook his head slightly and said, “It shouldn’t be. The Daoist Huang Hall has always acted in a disciplined manner. They would never make groundless accusations. We must have misunderstood something.”

Bai Jianfei thought for a moment and said, “Forget it. Since there are no adverse effects, it’s not worth paying attention to.”

“That’s true.” Ye Minghua no longer thought about it and went to the main hall with them.

Su Yu, ou ye Huanyun, and the others also set off together and came to the center of the city.

This place was the fighting arena built by the Daoist Huang Hall.

It was specially set up for warriors to compete with each other. It could accommodate thousands of matches at the same time. It was very spectacular.

When Su Yu and the others went over, the arena was filled with people. They were all people from the Daoist Huang Hall who had come specially to watch the battle.

The Daoist Huang Hall’s once-in-a-century conference was not something that could be seen at any time.

This conference could be said to be the collision of all the younger generations of the civilization within the jurisdiction of the Daoist Huang Hall. It was a martial arts conference of the highest standard. Naturally, it attracted countless spectators.

At the same time, on the high platform sat several meticulous martial arts experts.

There was a total of eleven chairs on the high platform, and ten of them sat the people in charge of the ten regions in the city. Each of them was a top expert at the half-step DAO Master level.

The chair in the middle was empty.

“I heard that the Daoist Master Tian can personally preside over this year’s Daoist Huang Dao Grand Meeting. I wonder if it’s true.”

“It shouldn’t be. The Daoist Masters of the Daoist Hall have always taken turns to preside over the conference. It’s not strange that it’s the Daoist master’s turn.”

“The problem is, I heard that the Daoist master has reached the point of passing away. is he still in the mood to preside over the conference? He should be thinking of ways to improve his cultivation right now, right?”

Even a Daoist master would reach the end of his life.

Dao Master Tian can was an old dao master. He had a great influence in the Daoist Huang Hall and was far from being comparable to the new DAO Master.

However, a hundred years ago.

DAO Master Tian can suddenly dreamed that a game of chess appeared in his dream. He was a pawn and was eaten by a horse.

After waking up from the dream, he sighed and announced his dream.

Instantly, the Daoist Huang Hall, from the hall master to the Warriors, sank.

The DAO Master dreamed that he had become a chess piece on the chessboard and had been eaten by the opponent's chess piece.

This was the sign of death and Dao extinction!

Even the DAO Master would never know the end of his life.

Only when such a dream appeared would he be able to confirm it.

No one knew why the Dao master would dream that he had become a chess piece before his life ended.

However, since ancient times, every dao master who had passed away was the same, without exception.

At this moment.

A huge spatial vortex suddenly appeared on the chair in the middle.

An old man covered in layers of spatial energy stepped out of the vortex and sat calmly on the chair.

The people in charge of the two areas on the left and right stood up and bowed respectfully.

“Crippled Dao Master!”

The audience was even more excited.

“Crippled Dao Master has appeared!”

“He actually appeared! Isn't he worried about his death and disappearance of his Dao?”

However, Crippled Dao master's expression was calm. He was neither happy nor sad, and neither was he shocked by the favor or humiliation.

Su Yu stared at Crippled Dao Master with slight astonishment.

What surprised him was not that he had grasped a portion of the spatial laws, but that he had seen this person before.

It was the expert of the Dao of souls who had guarded the teleportation array when he had been teleported to the city.

He had long felt that this person's soul attainments were quite terrifying and thought that he should not be an ordinary person. Who knew that he was actually an existence at the DAO Master level!

As if sensing Su Yu's gaze, the Heaven Crippling Dao master looked back and forth across the air and threw him a faint smile.

At this moment, he had received the attention of the entire crowd, and not a single movement could escape the eyes of the people present.

"Oh my God, who did the Heaven Crippling Dao Master Smile At?"

"Could it be that he knows someone among the participants this time?"

"But the Heaven Crippling Dao master has no relatives or friends. He doesn't even have a disciple. Among the participants now, there shouldn't be any juniors that he knows, right?"

His casual actions caused everyone to guess.

Ou Ye Huanyun, Liu Ruxian, Shi Jun, and the others who had seen the heaven crippling dao master were so shocked that they couldn't close their mouths.

A dignified dao master was actually personally guarding the teleportation array.

They were even lucky enough to receive the DAO Master's treatment!

Filled with shock and suspicion, they all walked onto the arena.

There were a total of two hundred people, and the vast majority of them were heaven's favorites nurtured by the Daoist Yellow Hall.

Even Bai Jianfei and the others felt immense pressure at this moment.

Those competing on the same stage would include those Peerless Heaven's favorites at the EVILDOER level. They had no confidence that they would be able to enter the Middle Hall in the end.

The Heavenly Cripple Dao Master pressed down on his hand, and everyone felt an inexplicable pressure that made them unable to open their mouths.

The entire arena instantly fell silent.

"This year's Huang Dao Convention ranking competition is divided into two stages. The first stage is to spar in the arena, and the second stage is to fight for the opportunity."

Hearing this, everyone present was shocked.

The participants also had deep expressions of shock. In the past, the Huang Dao Convention's finals were just sparring in the arena.

At most, the form of sparring would be different.

The extra fight for the good fortune this time was unheard of.

Looking at OU ye Huanyun and the others, they were also puzzled. It seemed that the information they received was not reliable.

“Sparring is divided into four arenas: East, south, west, and north. Each arena has a referee. They will evaluate your overall strength

“In the end, he will choose ten of you to enter the second stage of the ranking, the contest of fortunes. Therefore, in the first stage, you need to go all out. You must decide the winner within ten moves to prevent the judge from making a wrong judgment.”

In the past, in the arena matches, many participants would hide their strength in order to deceive others. They would only reveal it in the end.

However, it was impossible for them to do so now because if they did not show any obvious advantage within ten moves, the referee might mistake them as losers.

This was not worth the loss.

Therefore, the next competition would probably be extremely intense from the very beginning.

“Eastern Zone referee, go on stage.”

As the sound of his voice faded, an ancient sword pierced through the sky. On it stood a woman dressed in white.

Her expression was cold and solemn, like an ice mountain that kept people at a thousand miles away.

Her face was beautiful, and her figure was graceful and beautiful. Together with her cold temperament, she looked particularly cold and alluring.

“Luoshen of the Eastern Region!” Exclamations immediately sounded from the arena!

The geniuses of the Daoist Huang Hall were scattered around to cultivate.

Four of the major regions had each cultivated monstrous geniuses.

The most famous person in the eastern region was Luoshen, who was both beautiful and talented. Her sword techniques, which she had inherited from a dao master, were superb. In addition, she had the cultivation of a late-stage four-crowned emperor, so her overall strength was quite terrifying.

She had fought with the five-crowned king and defeated him with an astonishing battle record.

Chapter 2039 Smoke And Dust Of The Northern Region

She stepped on the ancient sword and landed gracefully. Then, she held the ancient sword with her delicate hand and gently slashed it at the 200 participants.

A gentle sword Qi divided the 50 participants, including Su Yu, to one side.

Her eyes, which were filled with coldness, did not even look at them. She only said, “You are divided into the eastern region.”

Su Yu nodded slightly. Her swordsmanship was not bad. She had a good sense of propriety. To be able to separate the people present without hurting anyone showed that her swordsmanship was superb.

The rumors about her were not false.

“Haha, Luoshen is here first. Don’t take away all the good seedlings first.” A loud and clear voice came from the west.

A cloud that radiated a dense Buddhist light slowly drifted over.

On the cloud, a young monk dressed in a Kasaya was lying on his back. He held a greasy pig trotter in one hand and a jug of wine in the other. He was eating meat and drinking wine, appearing extremely carefree and carefree.

He didn’t fit in with the image of a monk.

“He’s Here! The western regions’ wine and Meat Buddha!” The crowd erupted into a climax.

The Peerless Genius of the western regions, the Buddha of wine and meat, cultivated the dao of Buddhism and similarly received the inheritance of a dao master of Buddhism.

His personality was wild and unruly, and he did everything without any taboos. He loved wine and meat the most, and people called him the Buddha of wine and meat.

His strength was a mystery, and he had never openly sparred with others before. However, he was named the number one person in the western regions by the higher-ups of the Daoist Huang Hall.

The Buddha of wine and meat glanced at the remaining 150 people. He sprinkled the wine gourd, and 50 drops of wine floated onto the bodies of the 50 people.

“Hehe, everyone is fated to meet this little monk. Come to my Western Region.”

What made people silently criticize was that the Buddha of wine and meat seemed to be casual, but the people who could be chosen were all women without exception. Moreover, all the pretty women present were chosen.

Among them was Liu Ruxian.

The corner of Su Yu’s mouth twitched slightly. It was really as the rumors said. There were no taboos.

Seeing this, god Luo looked at him with disdain. “You won’t change your nature!”

The wine and Meat Buddha laughed. “God Luo understands me. You are indeed my confidant.”

Clang --

A sharp sword qi brushed past the wine and Meat Buddha.

But seeing god Luo put away his sword, his eyes were cold. “If you still want to eat wine and meat, shut your mouth immediately.”

The wine and Meat Buddha didn’t panic. Instead, he smiled.

Suddenly, he looked toward the south and muttered, “TSK tsk, the monster Emperor of the southern region is here. He can smell the killing intent from far away. Hehe!”

As expected, a large amount of blood light suddenly descended from the sky in the south.

A youth covered in blood magic stepped on a sea of blood and came with his hands behind his back.

His eyes were cold and filled with contempt for the common people.

He glanced indifferently at god Luo and the wine meat Buddha. With a wave of his sleeve, a wave of blood split the remaining 100 people into two.

“Those on the left, follow me!”

The 50 chosen people revealed traces of excitement because it was said that the strength of the monster kings of the southern region was already comparable to the early stages of the five crowns.

According to rumors, his strength was above that of the eastern region’s Luo God and the western region’s wine meat Buddha.

If he could choose him and enter the second stage, he would definitely have an advantage.

However, the remaining fifty people were even happier.

Because, they would be following the last and strongest heaven chosen of the four regions, Yanchen of the Northern Region!

As the sound of his voice faded, a figure suddenly appeared in front of the fifty people like a ghost.

There wasn’t a trace of aura on his body, and he appeared without any warning, like a ghost.

Su Yu glanced around and was shocked. The young man in front of him was actually a soul.

“Yanchen of the Northern Region! The legendary strongest heaven’s favorite of the Daoist Huang Hall has already reached the early stage of the five crowns!”

“Compared to him, the heaven’s favorites of the other three regions are on a completely different level.”

His appearance caused a huge commotion.

Including the three arrogant Heaven’s favorites, they all looked at Yanchen from the northern region with battle intent in their eyes, treating him as their strongest opponent.

“You guys can follow me.”Yanchen looked back at the last fifty people with a faint smile on his face.

Thus, the division of the four great sparring zones was completed.

God Luo glanced at Su Yu and the others and said, “Follow me.”

In fact, the heaven’s favorites from the four regions were all participants of this year’s Yellow Dao conference like them.

However, not only did they not need to go through the same difficult battles, they could even become the judges that decided their fates.

It had to be said that the gap between them was huge.

Under his lead, Su Yu and the other fifty people came to a corner of the arena.

The Luoshen ancient sword swept over and actually used sword Qi to outline the aura field on the spot, isolating the outside world.

“Those whose names are called, come in and spar.” Luoshen entered the sword Qi field first.

Su Yu frowned slightly. Sparring should be fair and aboveboard. Why did she choose to conduct it in a closed environment.

If she was unfair, who would supervise?

“Bai Jianfei, Li Donglai!”

The two whose names had been called immediately entered the sword aura field.

Not long after, the two came out with perturbed expressions.

“Ye Minghua, Zhan Congyun!”

Similarly, they also looked uneasy when they came out after entering.

“Li Ruochen, Jiang Xin!”

..

Finally, it was Su Yu’s turn.

“Shi Jun, Su Yu!”

Hearing this, Shi Jun’s expression was slightly unnatural. He cupped his fists at Su Yu and sighed, “Brother Su, thank you very much for your guidance all the way, but the conference of the ecliptic is related to the rating of our Heaven’s legacy civilization. I can’t help it.”

His impression of Su Yu’s strength remained at OU ye Huanyun’s evaluation. He thought that she was at most at the peak of the initial stage of the four crowns.

“I understand. You Go all out. You Don’t have to worry about me,” Su Yu said.

Shi Jun said with shame, “Sorry.”

The two entered the sword aura field and saw Luoshen leisurely standing there. She said indifferently, “Let’s start sparring. It’s best to decide the winner within ten moves. My Time is limited.”

Her tone was very cold, with a faint hint of looking down on them.

Su Yu didn’t mind and made an inviting gesture to Shi Jun. .

Shi Jun said, “Brother Su, I really don’t want to attack you. Why Don’t you just admit defeat?”

Su Yu smiled. “How would I know if I don’t try?”

Seeing Su Yu so insistent, Shi Jun could only say, "Then brother Su, be careful. If you feel that you can't hold on, immediately admit defeat so as not to hurt you."

After he finished speaking, his entire body surged with primal energy as he held the fifth-level nomological chain in his hand.

He displayed his full strength because he had to face not only Su Yu, but also Luoshen.

Luoshen would rank him through his actions.

If he could not enter the top ten in his mind, then he would not have the chance to participate in the second stage of the Yellow Dao convention.

"Take This!"

Shi Jun immediately attacked. After Su Yu's guidance, his shortcomings were corrected a lot.

Luoshen watched from the side and nodded slightly. She commented, "His foundation is slightly flawed, but he is stronger than most people. Not Bad."

She looked at Su Yu again, only to see Su Yu unhurriedly release the primal power of the early stage of the four-crowned emperor and take out a blood-red sword.

Oh? Was it also a sword technique? As a sword cultivator, Luoshen was slightly curious to observe.

Chapter 2040 Additional Test

"Devil sword technique, Heaven Burial!" Su Yu casually executed a sword.

The moment this sword appeared, Luoshen's eyes lit up and she nodded, "Not bad!"

Chi La --

A powerful sword technique swept out and its power was comparable to the peak of the middle stage of the four crowns.

Shi Jun was caught off guard and his expression changed, "How did your sword technique..."

Before he could finish his sentence, Luoshen calmly said, "The victor has already been decided. Su Yu is even better."

Shi Jun retracted his chains. His face was filled with shock and disbelief.

How could this be? The power of that sword was far from what you Huanyun could achieve even when he was at his peak.

But wasn't Su Yu's strength only at the peak of the initial stage of the four crowns?

He couldn't figure it out, nor could he understand it. His face was filled with dejection. He smiled bitterly and said, "So it turns out that brother Su has hidden his strength well. It was I, Meng Lang, who was reckless enough to say such arrogant words."

Thinking back to how he kept saying that he wanted Su Yu to admit defeat, his old face could not help but burn up.

Su Yu smiled faintly and said, "Don't be discouraged. We haven't reached the final ranking yet."

After he finished speaking, he looked at Luoshen and cupped his fists, "The sparring is over. Then, we shall take our leave."

"Wait!" Luoshen's gaze was deep as she looked at Su Yu meaningfully, "Let me ask you a question. If you enter the second stage, can you submit to me?"

Su Yu pondered for a moment. No wonder the people who left the sword qi field had such thoughts. So there was really something fishy going on here.

After a moment of silence, Su Yu asked, "May I know how to submit? Can you give me an example?"

Luoshen's gaze deepened. "For example, you have to hand over one-tenth of the token of creation that you obtained in the second stage to me."

Upon hearing this, Su Yu thought to himself that it was indeed the case.

That token of good fortune should be an extremely important item during the second stage.

He thought for a moment and asked, "If you don't agree, are you unable to enter the second stage?"

Luoshen leaned back as her gaze turned cold. She calmly replied, "I won't! My actions have always been fair."

After speaking, she waved her hand, gesturing for Su Yu and the rest to leave.

Su Yu's eyes flashed, and he silently took his leave.

Watching him leave, Luoshen's eyes revealed a hint of contempt. "You don't know what's good for you!"

The sparring continued in the four regions.

Two hours later, the sparring was almost finished.

The four geniuses of the four regions gathered in the center of the arena.

Dao master Tian can said, "Each of you can report who you have chosen."

The first to be chosen was Yanchen from the northern regions. He had chosen all the top experts in the Huang Dao rankings.

Among them was the Heaven's favorite Huang Dao sect, ranked fifth on the Huang Dao Board. Their strength was second only to theirs.

Next was the monster king from the Southern Region. The ones he had chosen were also among the best.

Not to mention the wine and Meat Buddha from the western region, he had chosen all the outstanding women. Unfortunately, Liu Ruxian was not selected.

Her strength was at the bottom of the fifty people. She was still too far away from the top ten.

Finally, it was Luoshen of the eastern region's turn.

She took a step forward and said, "The list of people I have chosen is as follows."

“First place, Chen Zerun.”

He was ranked sixth on the Huang Dao Board.

“Second place, Zhao Tianyun!”

“Third place, Huang Ji!”

..

“Ninth place, Li Ruochen!”

“Tenth place, ou ye Huanyun!”

Hearing this, Su Yu remained calm.

However, Shi Jun was shocked on the spot. He had seen Su Yu’s strength with his own eyes. She was far above ou ye Huanyun, and even Li Ruochen was far inferior.

Those two people could join her, but Su Yu was not chosen.

This result was absolutely unfair.

According to the rules of the conference, the people chosen should be the ten strongest people.

However, from the looks of it, Luoshen definitely did not use this rule to choose people.

The Crippled Heavenly Dao master nodded slightly. “Then, the first stage of the sparring will end here. The rest of you can take a break.”

What he meant was that their Yellow Dao convention would end here.

Shi Jun gritted his teeth slightly. This was unfair!

He was unable to enter the top ten and had nothing to say. However, Su Yu..

Recalling the kindness Su Yu had shown him, Shi Jun mustered his courage and said, “Dao master supremacy, this junior feels that the selection of the eastern region is unfair. I hope that supremacy can understand.”

The moment these words were said, the gazes of everyone present were drawn over.

The Crippled Heavenly Dao master also looked at him and said, “What are you unfair about?”

Being stared at by the Dao master, Shi Jun felt a huge amount of pressure. He said, “It’s not unfair to me, it’s unfair to Su Yu! With his strength, it’s impossible for him not to be in the top ten.”

Hearing this, the gazes of everyone present turned towards the silent youth beside him.

Not being in the top ten meant that his strength was higher than ou ye Huanyun’s.

The Heaven Crippling Dao Master looked at luoshen and asked, “Are you ranked based on your strength?”

Luoshen replied indifferently, “Yes!”

“Then, Su Yu’s elimination is unfair. Do you think so?”

Luoshen's expression was calm, as though she was already prepared. She said, "I don't think it's unfair! His strength can only be said to be passable, but there is still a gap between him and the top ten."

Shi Jun shook his head. "Su Yu only used one sword, but even I could see the power of that sword. It was at the peak of the middle stage of the four crowns. Could it be that the mighty Luoshen of the eastern region couldn't see it?"

Luoshen didn't even glance at him. She calmly said, "I have my own evaluation of his strength. It's not the place for irrelevant people to create rumors and create trouble."

Shi Jun was furious. "You're saying that I'm creating trouble? I'm afraid that Su Yu didn't agree to it and gave you a tenth of the decree of Creation, so you eliminated him, right?"

Luoshen glanced at him, her gaze cold. "If you don't have any evidence, I can execute you right now based on this slander!"

Shi Jun wanted to say something but hesitated. He didn't have any evidence, and he had never thought of leaving behind any evidence.

Because he had never thought that the mighty Luoshen of the eastern region would be so despicable.

He only hated that he was a person from an outer region civilization. He was unfamiliar with the Daoist Huang Hall, and there was no one who could uphold justice for them.

It was probably because of this that Luoshen dared to humiliate others so brazenly!

Luoshen looked at the Crippled Heavenly Dao master and said respectfully, "Supreme, I did not use my power for personal gain. Supreme, please understand."

The Heaven Crippling Dao Master looked at Shi Jun and asked, "You don't have any evidence?"

Shi Jun shook his head.

After a moment of silence, the Heaven Crippling Dao master glanced at Su Yu. Just as he was about to announce something, one of the ten people in charge of the city, Zhang Weining, stood up and walked up to the Dao Master. He said something in a low voice, after hearing this, the Heaven Crippling Dao master looked at Su Yu once more. There was a hint of surprise on his face.

After pondering for a while, he asked Su Yu, "Do you think that your own strength can enter the top ten?"

This question made Luoshen secretly surprised.

A Dao master paragon would actually take the initiative to ask Su Yu? This was illogical.

What did Zhang Weining say to the Crippled Heavenly Dao Master? It actually caused the dao master paragon to have such an attitude.

The gazes of everyone present turned towards Su Yu, but they saw that his expression was indifferent. He said, "Yes!"

The Heaven's remnant sect master nodded slowly. "Good. Since there are doubts about the fairness of the sparring, then we will delay the process of the ecliptic conclave a little and test Su Yu's strength."
