

Nine-Dragon 2051

Chapter 2051 Sky Wing Dao Master

On the other side.

The three fleets had escaped to a safe place.

The wine and Meat Buddha let out a long sigh of relief and said with a trace of fear, "There is actually an evil object flying in the sky. Fortunately, we have not encountered it before. Otherwise, we would not have been able to escape."

The Southern Region Monster King snorted coldly. However, he did not dare to say anything despite his arrogance.

It was obvious that she was afraid of the flying demonic creatures at the middle stage of the five crowns.

They couldn't fly, but the demonic creatures could.

If they surrounded a decaying ship, they would definitely die.

However, Luoshen was the most relaxed among them.

If they could use the ship to leave quickly, then dust wouldn't be so lucky, right?

She believed that dust had already died in the belly of the demonic creatures.

She turned her head to look at the Monster King of the Southern Region and the Buddha of flesh and wine of the western region. The only ones who knew the truth were the two of them and their crew.

A hint of viciousness flashed in her eyes.

They would not rest until they had made their move. Since they had already made their move on dust, they might as well not leave any of them alive.

"The two of you, misfortune has already happened. There's no use being sad now. It's best if we immediately join forces to defend against the flying evil creature that might attack."

The wine-meat Buddha and the demon king nodded slightly. Now that things had come to this, they had no other choice.

The three ships approached each other and were recently connected to each other through the sampan.

The wine-meat Buddha and Luoshen came to the ship in the middle, the demon king's ship.

The three ships were connected as one, so it was more effective to defend against the flying evil entities.

"May I know what kind of brilliant plan the two of you have in mind?" Luoshen asked.

In her sleeve, an ancient-looking late-stage five-crowned-emperor-level attack talisman was slowly floating in her palm as she activated it.

He had actually obtained a total of two late-stage five-crowns emperor-level talismans from that cave abode.

After using one, there was only one left.

If he destroyed them along with the ship, he would be able to rest easy.

The Wine Meat Buddha and the monster king were not on guard as they thought about it.

The monster king said solemnly, "Flying evil beings have an innate advantage, we should..."

"Should" was still in his mouth when the eyes of the monster king suddenly flashed. A gigantic monster shadow suddenly appeared behind him.

A sharp claw stabbed towards Luoshen's slender body without any warning.

Luoshen was already prepared for this. Her beautiful figure flashed to the side and the talisman in her sleeve was crushed. She was prepared to activate it.

But at this moment, a beam of Buddhist light suddenly enveloped her body, causing her to stiffen. She couldn't even move a single finger.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, the demon king's shadow pierced through Luoshen's slender body with a claw.

A huge hole immediately appeared on Luoshen's body as divine blood gushed out.

"Demon subduing pestle!"

At the same time, the wine and Meat Buddha's angry shout rang out from behind her head. A golden rod lashed out at her head.

A muffled sound akin to a watermelon exploding rang out. Luoshen's body couldn't take it any longer and her head exploded.

However, there were countless good things on her body. She immediately took out a bottle of flower dew and poured it over her head, her broken head immediately returned to its original form.

She took the opportunity to fly backwards. With a tap of her toes, she returned to her battleship.

Her beautiful face was filled with gloom as she stared at the Buddha of wine and meat and the monster king who were standing side by side. She just found out that the two of them had secretly contacted each other to scheme against her.

"You two are so despicable!"

The Wine Meat Buddha had a benevolent look on his face. "Amitabha. What a good thing. Almsgiver Monster King and I shouldn't have punished evil and spread good. We shouldn't have caused such a massacre."

The Monster King was so polite as he said disdainfully, "How can a shameless woman like you talk about being despicable? Do you really think that we don't know that the talisman you hid in your sleeve is about to be crushed?"

After revealing her thoughts, Luoshen's expression remained calm and unperturbed.

Her eyes stared coldly at them as she secretly urged the battleship to retreat.

With only her soul left, she wasn't a match for the two of them.

The expressions of Wang Wang and the wine and Meat Buddha turned cold. Since they had chosen to act, they definitely wouldn't let this woman escape.

They leaped up and were about to jump onto the other party's ship.

But at this moment, a sinister smile flashed across Luoshen's lips.

The hearts of the two thumped and they immediately felt that things weren't looking good.

Kacha --

Suddenly, a clear sound rang out. It was actually the ship in the middle. A Shocking Chill suddenly appeared, freezing the entire ship and the nearby Sea of Destiny.

Then, they looked at the place where Luoshen stood. Among the footprints left behind, there was a middle-stage five-crowned king talisman that had long been activated.

So, activating the late-stage talisman was just to attract attention.

Her true killing move was actually this middle-stage talisman.

"Not good!" The expressions of the wine meat Buddha and the monster King changed drastically, but it was too late for them to escape.

The entire ship was instantly frozen into a lump of ice, including them.

The two of them hurriedly resisted, slowly shattering the ice around them.

This ice was ultimately unable to trap them.

However, the instant they were trapped, it was already sufficient.

Luoshen had a twisted smile on her face as she crushed the late-stage talisman seal and threw it at the entire ship.

It would instantly wipe them out.

The wine meat Buddha and the Fey king had despair in their eyes as their faces turned extremely pale.

It was over!

They had fallen into Luoshen's evil scheme and were destined to die on the ground.

However, at this critical moment, an afterimage flashed by.

It was one of the crew members of Luoshen's ship. She rushed out and grabbed the talisman that was about to detonate in her palm.

The powerful primeval force calmed the talisman down and it returned to its calm state.

Taking this opportunity, the wine meat Buddha and the Fey King broke free from the ice. They looked at the talisman in Ou Yehuan Yun's hand and heaved a sigh of relief.

It was all thanks to OU ye Huanyun!

They were puzzled. Why would Luoshen's own people choose to betray her?

Luoshen herself was caught off guard and reprimanded, "You're courting death!"

She pounced over to snatch the talisman, wanting to snatch it away.

But how could the wine-meat Buddha and the Monster King, who had escaped, give her a chance?

The two of them jumped onto the boat and immediately joined forces to attack her.

Luoshen could only hurriedly parry and engage in a battle with the two of them.

With the strength ranking of the three of them, Luoshen was ranked at the bottom.

But after exchanging blows for a while, the wine-meat Buddha and the monster King felt that something was wrong.

Even when they joined forces, they were unable to do anything to Luoshen.

Luoshen's lips curled into a mocking smile. "Are you very surprised? Actually, a long time ago, my strength surpassed all of you and was only second to Yanchen."

In other words, during the battle against Su Yu on the stage, Luoshen intentionally reserved some of her strength.

This caused the wine meat Buddha and the demon king to misjudge and mistakenly believe that they could suppress luoshen.

However, the actual result was the exact opposite.

Not long after, the two of them were at a disadvantage, being pushed back by Luoshen.

Ou Yehuan Yun's expression fluctuated. Gritting his teeth, he activated the late-stage talisman he obtained and shouted, "Luoshen, stop immediately. Otherwise, we will perish together."

After Luoshen killed the wine meat Buddha and the monster king, it was obvious that Luoshen would definitely not let him, who had betrayed her, off.

Since that was the case, it was better to activate the talisman and die together. This way, she could still avenge Su Yu.

Sensing the shocking fluctuations behind her, Luoshen's pretty face sank. The moves in her hands were slowly withdrawn. Finally, she stopped.

She turned her head and stared at OU ye Huanyun. She said indifferently, "Put down the talisman. Everything can be treated as if nothing has happened."

Hearing this, ou ye Huanyun didn't believe a single word.

This woman had always had a calm expression on her face to confuse people. In fact, she should be planning a vicious plan right now, right?

"Don't make another move. Otherwise, die!" Ou Ye Huanyun kept the talisman in a state of being activated at any time. He didn't dare to let down his guard.

The Wine Meat Buddha and the monster king were also standing at the stern of the ship. They didn't dare to act rashly. They didn't want to infuriate Luoshen and make her commit suicide.

The four of them were locked in a stalemate.

"Brother Chen, please control the ship and leave the sea of fortune as soon as possible," ou Yehuan Yun said.

Chen Runze felt a chill in his heart. He ignored Luoshen's warning and threatening gaze and resolutely took over the authority to control the ship.

He knew very well that Luoshen wouldn't leave any survivors.

Only by leaving the Sea of fortune immediately and returning to the outside world would they be able to survive.

Throughout the entire experience, Luoshen was the most dangerous existence.

She was more sinister, more vicious, and more cunning than the evil beings!

If it wasn't for the fact that Ou Yehuan Yun, who had been holding back all this while, had decisively betrayed her, she would already be slaughtering them.

The ship quickly returned. Luoshen Xin knew that the situation was over. She stared at OU Yehuan Yun and asked, "Why did you betray me?"

Ou ye Huanyun said calmly, "I didn't want to betray you. I wanted to kill you!"

His eyes flashed with a cold light.

"Su Yu saved all of us, but what did you do? You actually left him on the island and became the food of the evil creatures? A B * Tch like you should be cut into a thousand pieces!" Ou Ye Huanyun revealed a secret that no one knew.

Everyone was shocked.

Wine meat buddha mumbled, "Almsgiver Su, a heaven's favorite, was actually killed by Luoshen?"

The Monster King also revealed a trace of regret as he sighed, "I had thought of competing with Su Yu. I didn't expect that I would die tragically at the hands of this poisonous woman."

Luoshen didn't think much of it and her expression was calm.

Just like that, the three ships returned with all their might,

a month later, they finally returned to the shore of the Sea of fortune.

With a stomp of their feet, they returned to the courtyard of the Palace of fortune.

Looking at the familiar scene in front of them, everyone felt as if they were in a dream.

Dao Master Tian can stood in the backyard with four mysterious existences of different ages beside him.

The five of them gathered together. In front of them was a huge crystal that reflected the scenes in the Sea of fortune.

In other words, what they did in the Sea of fortune was clearly seen by the five people present.

“Master!” The wine and Meat Buddha bowed to a monk who was covered in Buddhist light.

As the successor of the DAO Master, there was no doubt that the master that the wine and Meat Buddha spoke of was one of the Dao Masters from the western region of the Yellow Dao Palace, Dao Master Maitreya!

The Monster King walked to another Monster Dao master and said, “Your disciple is incompetent!”

Finally, Luoshen was far faster than the others. She was the first to arrive in front of a middle-aged man who was clad in snow-white robes and had white wings on his back. She respectfully greeted, “Master.”

Her expression was filled with trepidation. She didn’t expect that everything she did would be seen by the five Dao Masters present.

This was especially so for Yanchen’s master, Dao Master Liuxian, who cast a glance at her. Luoshen felt an even greater pressure.

“It doesn’t matter. The fittest survive. What you did wasn’t wrong.” The winged middle-aged man was Luoshen’s master, the Heavenly Wings Dao Master.

The pressure emanating from him far surpassed that of Maitreya Dao Master, the Demon Dao Master and the Flowing Immortal Dao Master. Only the Heaven Crippling Dao Master was able to contend against him.

As he spoke, he blocked the Flowing Immortal Dao master’s line of sight with his sleeves. “Victory and defeat are common matters in war. If you take this to heart, your disciples will never be able to achieve anything.”

Upon hearing such lofty words, the other three dao masters felt anger in their hearts, but they had nowhere to vent it.

These words made sense, but Luoshen’s methods were too despicable and ruthless.

It was merely a competition for the good fortune decree, yet she wanted to exterminate all of them!

Chapter 2052 Everyone Was Doubtful

How could his actions be described as ‘victory and defeat are common occurrences in war’?

What was even more laughable was that he kept saying that they shouldn’t be bothered about it, or else they would never be able to achieve anything.

If it was him who was almost killed by someone, how about saying such words again?

However, their master didn't say anything. As disciples, they didn't dare to challenge Dao Master skywing face to face.

"Master, I've caused you trouble." Luoshen said in a low voice.

The Heavenly Wing Daoist master's white robes were as white as snow. He said indifferently, "There's nothing much about trouble. However, after you go down, you need to think about your own shortcomings and correct them in the future."

Why did he say that? Luoshen didn't quite understand what her master meant.

Her performance should have been very favorable to her master. She had almost killed everyone. It was only because of Ou ye Huanyun's betrayal that there was a subtle deviation.

But, this shouldn't be a problem, right?

While he was thinking, the Crippled Heaven Dao master said, "This is the end of the Yellow Dao conference. Now, I will make a ranking based on the tokens of good fortune that you have received."

Luo Shen was excited just now.

Now that Yanchen had died, she was the one who had received the most tokens of good fortune among the four regions' prodigies.

The first place was well deserved!

"I will only announce the top ten," the Crippled Heaven Dao master said.

Only the top ten had the right to pick Bodhi fruits, and they also had the right to enter the upper hall of the Yellow Dao Palace.

"The tenth place, Heaven's wrath sword, seven good fortune tokens!"

"The ninth place, Zhou qilin, eight tokens!"

"The eighth place, Feng Liyang, ten tokens!"

..

"The fourth place, wine-meat Buddha, fifteen tokens!"

Oh? The Heaven's chosen who returned were astonished.

"Buddha of wine and meat is only ranked fourth? That's impossible!"

Among the people in front of him, Buddha of wine and meat obtained the token of creation only second to Luoshen and the Fey thearch.

The Fey thearch was slightly surprised as well. She snorted lightly. "There are still hidden experts among us. I'd like to see who is better than Buddha of wine and meat."

The only explanation for such a strange ranking was that someone had obtained the token of creation but was trying to hide it instead of revealing it as a star.

The geniuses in the Daoist Yellow Hall had always been crouching tigers and hidden dragons. There was a high possibility that there was a hidden monstrous genius.

Who knew that the moment the monster Emperor finished speaking, he heard, "Third place... Monster Emperor, seventeen."

"How is this possible?" The expression on the monster emperor's face was stiff as disbelief appeared in his eyes.

The surrounding geniuses were once again in an uproar.

"The Monster Emperor is only third place? There must be a mistake, right?"

Could it be that that black horse could even suppress a fey thearch?

Luoshen's expression was calm, unperturbed by any changes.

With the token of destiny that she had obtained, no matter how strong that Black Horse was, it would not be stronger than her..

"Second place, Luoshen, twenty."

What? Luoshen's face stiffened as she was extremely shocked.

That black horse could even suppress her!

Impossible!

It was absolutely impossible!

Unless dust rose from the dead, but that possibility was almost zero!

The crowd was also in an uproar.

"How could this be? There's actually an overwhelming prodigy in our Daoist Huang Hall that surpasses the three of them? That shouldn't be!"

"We'll know very soon who the first place goes to."

The people present were filled with unprecedented anticipation. The rankings that were originally without any suspense now had such huge twists and turns. It really made their hearts itch.

"First place, Su! Yu!"

The indifferent voice of the Heaven Crippling Dao master spread to every corner of the place.

Everyone who heard it was stunned on the spot.

Su Yu... wasn't he already dead?

Ou Ye Huanyun had personally said that Su Yu was abandoned on the island by Luo Shen for revenge, causing Su Yu to die in the mouth of an evil creature.

How could he still participate in the ranking?

Luo Shen's heart was greatly shaken as she blurted out, "Even a dead person can participate in the ranking?"

As the sound of her voice faded, Su Yu's faint voice could be heard from not too far away, "Who are you calling a dead person?"

Everyone looked towards the source of the voice and saw a silver-haired handsome young man walking out from the resting hall with his hands behind his back.

That face, if it wasn't Su Yu, who else could it be?

Luoshen felt as though she had seen a ghost. Her pupils shrunk into a needle as she exclaimed in shock, "You... how can you still be alive?"

Su Yu's expression was indifferent. "I've disappointed you."

His eyes were cold and there were traces of coldness in them.

Su Yu still remembered the viciousness of this woman.

This debt would not be easily forgotten.

Luo Shen immediately hid her shocked expression and forced herself to remain calm.

Ou Ye Huanyun was stunned for a long time before he pounced forward in joy. He grabbed Su Yu's shoulder and shook it non-stop. "You're not dead! You're actually not dead?"

Su Yu smiled lightly. "I'm lucky. It's not easy to kill me."

Chen Zerun and the others were in disbelief.

They clearly saw that Su Yu was covered by the purple evil tide. How could he be safe?

However, the mystery of Su Yu's survival was no longer important. What was important was how he got first place?

"There's something wrong with the ranking, right? No matter how you look at it, it's impossible for Su Yu to get first place!"

"Could there be something fishy going on?"

"It's possible! How could someone from an alien civilization like Su Yu have such a high cultivation level? The only explanation is that he had the help of an expert. The Crippled Heavenly Dao master is about to pass away, but on the surface, he doesn't have a single disciple. It really doesn't make sense."

"There's definitely something fishy going on! Everyone's ranking comes with a number of destiny tokens, but Su Yu didn't announce anything!"

"Isn't this kind of cover-up a little too arrogant? Does he still look down on the rest of us?"

"When did the ecliptic convention become such an unfair competition?"

The crowd was furious. They had already blamed Su Yu for cheating.

They could accept it if someone else got first place.

But what was Su Yu?

A genius from another civilization, why was he above them?

Luoshen stared at Su Yu suspiciously. She also couldn't believe that Su Yu could become first place.

One had to know that Su Yu was trapped on that island. There were no ships available, so it was impossible for him to go to the other islands to search for the good fortune tokens.

After pondering for a moment, Luoshen cupped her fists and said, "Supreme-being! Why Don't you announce the number of good fortune tokens Su Yu has?"

The Crippled Heavenly Dao master was silent.

Half a month ago, Su Yu was the first to return alone and handed in a total of 400 tokens of creation.

The number of tokens of creation was twice as many as the others combined. It was truly too shocking.

Therefore, the few Dao Masters discussed and decided to hide the number of tokens of creation that Su Yu had obtained and not announce it to the public for the time being in order to avoid agitating the other participants.

However, they did not expect that they would have doubts because of this.

The Heaven Crippling Dao Master looked at Luoshen and said indifferently, "The Dao Masters are here and they will definitely not cheat. You Don't have to worry about this. Su Yu is worthy of being number one. There is no doubt about it."

However, these words were obviously difficult to convince the public.

Although the wine meat Buddha and the monster emperor did not say anything, their expressions revealed deep dissatisfaction.

Luoshen's expression was calm. She was already certain that the heaven crippling dao master protecting Su Yu was most likely the truth.

How could she let someone else take first place so easily?

"I implore Dao master to announce the truth and give us an explanation." Her eyes shone with determination.

The other participants also revealed dissatisfaction. The Yellow Dao convention had to be fair and transparent. Otherwise, who would participate in the future?

Publicly shielding cheaters. Such a scandal should not appear in the Yellow Dao conference.

Seeing that they were all asking for specific numbers to be disclosed, the crippled Heavenly Dao master and the other four Holy Dao Masters looked at each other and exchanged glances.

"Alright, since you insist, then as you wish." The Crippled Heavenly Dao master nodded slowly and said, "The number of good fortune tokens Su Yu obtained is 407?"

As soon as he said this, everyone was stunned.

"How many? 407? Are you sure it's not 47?"

“You must be mistaken. Where did you get so many tokens of creation? Even the northern region’s Yanchen only got more than 50.”

“What kind of result is this? Isn’t this too exaggerated?”

“Humph! Indeed, it’s a cover-up!” Someone laughed in anger. “The conference of the Yellow Dao doesn’t even put us in their eyes! They actually compiled such a ridiculous number!”

If it was 47, they would just grit their teeth and accept it.

But 407 was more than the total number of people present. Was it possible?

Seeing that what they said was getting worse and worse, the Crippled Heavenly Dao master did not say a word. He took out more than 400 tokens of creation and placed them in front of them one by one.

However, this action did not appease the indignation in their hearts.

“What does this mean? If the hall of the ecliptic sect is determined to be partial, would it be difficult for them to personally get some tokens of creation?”

“The Daoist Huang Dao Convention is no longer worthy of its name. When I return to my own civilization, I will definitely instruct the people of my civilization not to participate in the Daoist Huang Dao Convention again. After a hundred years of hard work, I will not be able to defeat a cheater in the end!”

Upon hearing this, the eyes of the Crippled Heavenly Dao master finally turned cold.

An invisible aura was released, immediately suppressing the disciples present until they could not breathe.

They found it difficult to breathe, and their expressions changed drastically as they shut their mouths.

Only now did they remember that the person in front of them was a dao master!

“The prestige of the Daoist Huang Hall can not be humiliated! Without any evidence, slandering the Daoist Huang Hall out of thin air can be severely punished by the law!” His cold gaze swept across everyone present.

There was no lack of contempt and disdain in his eyes.

If they could not do something, they would judge others based on themselves. They felt that others could not do it as well. They would use their dark hearts to guess whether the other party was cheating or not.

Even if the evidence was present, they would not believe it.

What future could such a person have?

There was a reason why he did not choose the successor of the Daoist master. This was because there was not a single person from the Daoist Huang Hall who could catch his eye.

Even the four chosen ones were the same!

Therefore, he would rather have a lack than a lack, and until today, there was no successor.

His stern words shocked everyone present. They did not dare to utter a single word and kept quiet.

However, the thoughts in their hearts could be seen from the pairs of angry eyes.

“I know that you are not convinced and do not believe it. When we pick the Bodhi fruit later, the truth will be clear at a glance.”

Hearing that, everyone’s eyes lit up slightly.

It was not that easy to pick the Bodhi fruit in the end.

The number of Bodhi Fruits was different each time. It would be fine if there were ten more, but if there were less than ten, then they would have to compete with each other.

In the competition, Su Yu’s ability could be completely seen.

If he wanted to get so many good fortune tokens, his strength shouldn’t be too bad, right?

Thinking of this, many people cast malicious gazes at him, including the Monster Emperor and the wine, meat, and Buddha.

Luoshen glanced at Su Yu indifferently and smoothed her hair. “Okay, let’s compete when we pick the Bodhi fruit.”

Chapter 2053 Defeat Of All Heaven’s Favorites

Upon hearing this, the monster emperor and the wine and Meat Buddha revealed gloating expressions.

Luoshen’s true strength was actually stronger than their combined strength.

The reason why Su Yu was able to barely draw with Luoshen the last time was because Luoshen needed to hide her strength.

Now... when it came to the final battle for the Bodhi fruit, would luoshen still hold back?

After cleaning up the destiny token, the three of them moved to a desolate hall in the Yellow Dao Hall.

The words “Bodhi Hall”were engraved on the hall.

It was obvious that this was the former residence of another Fallen Dao master.

Outside the hall, a towering tree full of pink flowers stood tall.

On the tree were seven fruits that were shining with golden light. They looked like children and were hidden under the leaves.

The fruits were only the size of a palm, and their expressions were lifelike as if they were alive.

They were Bodhi fruits, and there were only seven of them!

“It seems that there aren’t many Bodhi fruits this time.”Some of the participants had meaningful looks on their faces.

It had happened before that there were only five Bodhi fruits, and now there were seven of them, which wasn't too little.

However, this competition for the Bodhi fruits would be very interesting.

Because some people who had gotten to this stage by cheating would have to reveal their true colors!

“The top ten, step forward!”

Su Yu and the other ten immediately came to the front of the courtyard. They were only ten thousand feet away from the Bodhi tree. For experts like them, they could teleport over in the blink of an eye.

“Everyone, take your positions!”

The ten people immediately felt the primal energy boiling in their bodies. Su Yu also took it seriously.

What was the purpose of his participation in the conference of the ecliptic? Wasn't it to get the Bodhi fruit?

The Bodhi fruit was right in front of his eyes, and he couldn't let it slip away.

Normally, with his strength, he had a high chance of getting one of the seven Bodhi fruits.

But now, everyone treated him as an enemy, and the process of fighting for the Bodhi fruit was bound to be obstructed.

The fight was only for an instant, and he couldn't withstand the slightest obstruction.

So, he could only reveal some tricks!

“Begin!” Dao master tiancan shouted.

Luoshen, the Monster Emperor, and the wine-flesh Buddha were the fastest. Just as the word “Begin” was uttered, they had already arrived in front of the Bodhi tree and raised their hands to grab the Bodhi fruit.

And a few of the contenders formed a formation to block in front of Su Yu. They used powerful prehistoric powers to disrupt the space, preventing Su Yu from teleporting.

However, the scene of Su Yu being exasperated did not appear in their minds.

Instead, Su Yu stood motionlessly on the spot, causing them to be slightly puzzled. Then, they came to a realization.

“Hehe, looks like he's still a little smart. He knows that if he makes a move, he'll definitely expose himself, so he decided not to participate in the fight!”

“He's really underestimated!”

“The facts are already confirmed. There's nothing more to say.”

However, at this moment.

The seven Bodhi fruits on the Bodhi tree suddenly emitted a faint red light.

With a whoosh, they vanished into thin air.

Luoshen, the monster emperor, wine, Meat Buddha, and the others who reached out to grab them were clearly stunned. After they reacted, they were greatly shocked. "Spatial divine art?"

What they couldn't understand was that the three of them had such powerful primeval energy nearby. The spatial energy was extremely chaotic, so the spatial divine art theory was ineffective.

The others chased after them and looked at the empty Bodhi tree. They were all in a daze as they looked at each other.

"Who is it? who took the fruits?"

Everyone looked around and suddenly realized that Su Yu was calmly stuffing the seven fruits into his spatial storage.

"It's You!" Everyone was shocked.

The five dao masters who were watching by the side all had a glimmer of light in their eyes.

Under such chaotic situation, he could still use the space divine art... En, it was a perfect space divine art, unbelievable!

Dao master Tian can's eyes shone with a deep light. He thought that he was proficient in space divine art, but under the current situation, he could not control the space power as precisely as Su Yu.

Could it be that his attainments in space are higher than mine? This absurd thought flashed through Dao Master Tian Can's mind.

Luo Shen's pretty face changed drastically. When she saw Su Yu stuffing all the Bodhi fruits into the spatial storage, she exclaimed, "Stop!"

Su Yu turned a deaf ear and stuffed all the Bodhi fruits into the spatial storage. Just now, he raised his eyes indifferently, "What advice do you have?"

Luo Shen's eyes were ice-cold with a profound cold light. She reprimanded, "Don't you think it's too much for you to snatch all the Bodhi Fruits by yourself?"

She stood on the moral high ground and made things difficult for Su Yu.

Su Yu's expression was calm as he said, "It's common for you to win or lose when you kill a whole ship of people. Now, I'm only taking a few fruits. How is it too much?"

Dao Master Tianyi's expression was calm as he did not say a word. He only stared at Su Yu with a slightly cold gaze.

Was he mocking him? What audacity!

Luo Shen said angrily, "Don't try to sway him! The Bodhi fruit we're talking about has nothing to do with anything else! You're so selfish. Do you want to cut yourself off from our Daoist Huang Hall?"

These words were laughable.

It was as if they weren't the ones who had stopped Su Yu from snatching the Bodhi fruit.

"I remember the rule of getting the Bodhi fruit. Everyone fights with their own abilities. How did you get it? Instead, you're going to have a reputation of being selfish?" Su Yu looked at Luo Shen with a cold gaze. "Rather than saying that I'm selfish, it's more appropriate to say that you're too incompetent. You Can't even defend the Bodhi fruit that's right in front of you!"

Su Yu did not have a good impression of Luoshen at all. In fact, he was extremely disgusted with her.

Luoshen's pretty face was ice-cold. She said calmly, "Demon Emperor, Buddha of wine and meat, what do you guys think?"

Buddha of wine and meat chanted the name of Buddha. "Amitabha. In the past, Buddha cut off his meat and fed it to the eagle. How compassionate of him. Benefactor SU, it's really inappropriate for you to monopolize the good fortune all by yourself. Why Don't you learn from Buddha and be magnanimous?"

Hearing this, Su Yu smiled but did not say anything.

"A monk who eats wine and drinks meat and is still lecherous, how can he talk about the way of Buddha?" Su Yu shook his head. The wine and Meat Buddha considered himself a Buddha, but he did not have the slightest bit of buddha nature.

The Monster Emperor's eyes were cold as he snorted, "What nonsense! It's not a big deal to get the Bodhi fruit, it's the ability to defend it!"

After he finished speaking, he took the lead and attacked Su Yu first.

A gigantic monster shadow appeared behind him. Together with the Monster Emperor's powerful physique, he brazenly charged towards Su Yu.

"Physique?" Su Yu smiled faintly. His body suddenly grew thirty feet tall, transforming into a half-human and half-dragon form.

He pushed the evil dragon Nirvana to its limit. Compared to the last time he fought Luoshen, he was much stronger.

His dragon tail swept out, transforming into a streak of black light that swept across the fan-shaped region within a thousand feet.

PA --

With a muffled sound, the demon Emperor, who was known for his physique, was sent flying by a sweep of his tail. He crashed into the wall of the Bodhi main hall, causing a muffled sound.

This scene caused the expressions of the geniuses who were ranked lower to change drastically, and they sucked in a breath of cold air.

Su Yu had actually retained his strength!

The wine meat Buddha's expression instantly turned solemn. He pressed his palms together and chanted, "Amitabha. Benefactor Su, you have such a vicious aura. This penniless monk chanted a Buddhist scripture to purify benefactor Su."

After he finished speaking, he opened his mouth to encourage the Buddhist scripture.

The obscure Buddhist scriptures fell into one's ears, causing one to feel dizzy and dizzy.

This was the power of the Buddhist path, and it was extremely harmful to one's mental strength.

Su Yu's expression was indifferent. He clenched his palm, and a golden shimmering sarira hovered in his palm.

The incomparably terrifying Buddhist light instantly illuminated the entire Bodhi Hall in a brilliant golden light.

The wine-meat Buddha's Buddhist light was like a firefly compared to the sarira Buddha's light. It was completely negligible.

The Buddhist scriptures he chanted were like clay oxen entering the sea. They were completely useless.

The wine-meat Buddha's expression changed drastically as he said in shock, "This... This is... the Daoist master's Buddhist relic!"

Daoist master Maitreya, who was watching from the side, had a brilliant light flash in his eyes. He was deeply shocked.

A mere junior had actually obtained the Daoist master's Buddhist relic!

Under the Buddhist sarira, the wine, meat, and Buddha's Buddhist skills were equivalent to being crippled.

Su Yu swept his leg horizontally, and the wine, meat, and Buddha was swept so violently that divine blood spewed out.

Su Yu's gaze was calm. "Unfortunately, you still can't purify my evil aura."

Chi La --

Suddenly, a sinister sword qi suddenly attacked from behind.

It was as if Su Yu had eyes on his back. Without turning his head, he drew out the asura sword and swung it back in a nameless stance.

However, when he heard the majestic sword Qi sweeping in all directions, all the heaven's favorites in the surroundings were pushed back thousands of feet, not daring to come any closer.

He stood still on the spot, but the owner of the Sword Qi was pushed back a few steps.

Su Yu slowly turned around and looked at luoshen, who was pushed back. He calmly said, "Why am I not surprised at all? You know how to launch a sneak attack?"

This Woman's nature was really hard to change.

Luoshen was shocked. Compared to the day before, the power of Su Yu's sword had increased significantly. She asked in surprise, "Your cultivation has increased?"

The sword technique itself did not change, but the power had increased drastically. The only explanation was that Su Yu's cultivation had increased greatly.

Su Yu did not say anything when he heard this. He calmly glanced at the three of them.

"Based on your strength, you guys are also unable to snatch the Bodhi fruit." Su Yu calmly said.

At this moment, the hearts of the heaven's favorites were filled with bitterness.

Su Yu was truly an existence that stood above them. Out of the four Heaven's favorites, three were defeated by him!

"HMPH! It's not over yet!" Luoshen snorted unwillingly. She exchanged a glance with the wine meat Buddha and the monster emperor. The three of them actually attacked Su Yu at the same time.

Seeing this, the heaven's favorites retreated once again with ugly expressions on their faces.

"It's not fair to win! Even if we win against Su Yu together, if word gets out, it will be our Huang Dao Hall's Heaven's favorites working together to oppress the geniuses from the other civilizations!" Chen Runze shook his head helplessly.

In his opinion, Su Yu had no chance of winning if the three of them worked together.

"It's better than continuing, right? Just end the Bodhi fruit competition. Only then will our Huang Dao Hall's Heaven's favorites lose less face."

Chen Runze sighed deeply. "Sigh, the top elites of our Daoist Huang Hall were the ones who ganged up on us. It was an unfair victory, an unfair victory!"

While he sighed, Luoshen and the other two had already attacked with all their might.

Each of them unleashed their own laws and attacked Su Yu together.

What was quite shocking was that their laws were all very high-level seventh-level laws!

Each law contained an earth-shattering power.

Three laws shot out at the same time, and hundreds of law chains faintly appeared in the sky, flashing and disappearing.

The power of their laws actually drew out the other law illusions.

"Hiss! Three seventh-level laws! This is killing people! Even the northern region's smoke and dust will die without a doubt!"

Su Yu's eyes were indifferent. He had already obtained the Bodhi fruit, so there was no need to hide his strength anymore.

He did not dodge or evade. He was actually going to fight against three by himself!

He was going to fight against the three most outstanding prodigies of the Daoist Huang Hall alone!

There had been too many things recently, and the updates were very unstable. He apologized to everyone and hoped that everyone would forgive him.

Chapter 2054 The Daoist Master's Invitation (First Update)

Chi La --

He pointed with one finger and a wine-red nomological chain wrapped around his body.

The moment the chain appeared, it immediately attracted waves of shock and bewilderment.

Normally, the nomological chains were all black. How could there be wine-red chains?

Immediately after, a scene that shocked the Daoist Huang Hall flashed past.

In that boundless world, numerous nomological chain Phantoms suddenly appeared. There were over ten thousand of them, blotting out the sky and covering the sun, filling the entire sky.

Looking up, one could only see all sorts of law chains that caused one's scalp to go numb!

The expressions of the five dao masters present changed.

"This... This is the appearance of the supreme law, the appearance of Ten Thousand Laws?" The pupils of the five dao masters constricted as they stared at Su Yu in shock.

Dao Master Tian can was even more shocked. "It's still the supreme law of Space!"

No wonder Su Yu was able to execute such an exquisite spatial divine technique with just a raise of his hand. Even he was inferior.

In front of supreme laws, what was a seventh-grade law?

The red chains flashed and appeared. They were like Red Lightning that formed a wine-red glow in the sky.

The chains of luoshen, the Monster Emperor, and the wine, meat, and Buddha were all swept away by the red glow. They were unable to resist at all.

Puah --

Luoshen and the other two were directly crushed to the ground by the wine-red glow. They were unable to move.

Just one move was enough to intimidate the three heaven's favorites!

This... What kind of strength was this?

Chen Runze felt as if something was blocking his throat, and he could not speak.

The Three Heaven's favorites of the Daoist Huang Hall were attacking together, but they were still unable to defeat a heaven's favorite of an external civilization?

This... From now on, how would the heaven's favorites of the Daoist Huang Hall have the face to look down on the heaven's favorites of an external civilization?

Su Yu looked calmly at the three heaven's favorites who were suppressed by the chains and could not move a finger. He said, "The result is the same even if we join forces... HMM, maybe the other six of you can also attack together."

He glanced indifferently at the other six heaven's favorites who were ranked in the top ten of the Daoist Huang Hall.

No one dared to meet his gaze. They all averted their gazes.

Under his tyrannical and absolute strength, they did not even have the heart to fight.

Chen Runze clenched his fists and only felt that it was laughable.

As Heaven's favorites of the Daoist Huang Hall, he did not even have the courage to resist. It was really a shame!

Su Yu was alone. He used his gaze to suppress the Heaven's favorite of the Daoist Huang Hall, so much so that they didn't dare to move.

The people of the Daoist Huang Hall immediately felt ashamed. Even the masters of the three heaven's favorites felt ashamed.

"The Bodhi contest is over. Let Him Go!" Dao Master Tian Yi said indifferently

There was a hint of rebuke in his tone. Su Yu glanced at him calmly. What a dignified dao master Tian Yi.

When his disciple was wantonly slaughtering, he had casually said that victory and defeat were common matters in war.

Now, he was only suppressing his disciple to the point that he could not move, but he already looked displeased.

He was really good at double standards!

He pulled back his chains and let the three of them go.

The Demon Emperor and the wine meat Buddha had deep reverence on their faces. They no longer dared to look at Su Yu recklessly.

If it had been a life-and-death battle just now, Su Yu would probably have killed them like dogs.

Only Luoshen had a deep hatred hidden under her indifferent face.

It was one thing for the first place in the Yellow Dao convention to be snatched away, but the Bodhi fruit that could directly improve one's cultivation had also been seized by Su Yu alone!

She was now at the peak of the late stage of the fourth-crowned Emperor Realm, just a step away from breaking through to the fifth-crowned emperor realm.

The original plan was to obtain the Bodhi fruit at this conference and directly advance to the five crowns. Then, she would go to other places to hold important positions and gradually become the core higher-ups of the Daoist Huang Hall.

Now, all the plans were interrupted!

The resentment in her heart was boiling.

“Let’s Go!”The Sky Wing Path Master was expressionless as he left the Bodhi Hall with Luoshen.

But before they left, when they passed by Ou ye Huanyun, Luoshen suddenly stopped and said indifferently, “My talisman is in your hands, right?”

It was precisely because ou Yehuanyun betrayed her at the last minute and took away the attack talisman of a late-stage five-crowned emperor that she was unable to kill everyone. Luoshen would remember this debt in her heart.

Ou Yehuanyun looked at Dao Master Tianyi warily and took out the talisman to return it to her.

However, Luoshen did not take it. Instead, she said with a deep meaning, “You stole something from me. Is that all? Within three days, you shall bear the burden of a thorn and Beg for forgiveness. Send it to my mansion!”

After she finished speaking, she turned around and chased after Dao Master Heaven’s will.

The moment she turned around, the corner of her mouth curled up into a cold smile.

Dao Master Maitreya, Dao Master Monster, and Dao master flowing immortal had a tacit understanding and did not leave. They seemed to be casually staying where they were.

Dao Master Heaven’s will smiled helplessly and waved his hand. “The Yellow Dao convention has ended. The geniuses of the various regions have all dispersed. The corresponding rewards and rankings will be passed on to all of you later.”

Chen Runze and the others left one after another.

Su Yu was also prepared to follow them into the distance. With the Bodhi fruit in hand, it was time to leave the Yellow Dao Palace and head to the demon race to fulfill the promise made by the nine-tailed white fox.

“Young friend Su, wait!”Suddenly, Dao Master Liu Xian spread out his sleeves and stopped Su Yu alone.

Su Yu said calmly, “What advice do you have, Paragon?”

“The few of us have something to discuss with young friend Su alone,”dao master Liu Xian said meaningfully.

The few heaven’s favorites who were walking away stopped in their tracks at the same time. They couldn’t help but turn around and look at Su Yu with envy and admiration.

For Su Yu to be able to suppress such a monstrous heaven’s favorite from the Yellow Dao Palace, the Dao master would probably be very tempted and want to take him under his wing, right?

They were jealous, but they couldn’t be envious. They left with mixed feelings.

After they had completely left, the Dao Master of the Flowing Immortal Path was the first to speak. He sighed and said, "I've just lost a disciple, and there's an empty disciple position. Are you willing to come to my flowing immortal palace to develop?"

Yanchen of the northern regions was a disciple of Daoist master flowing immortal. To be able to nurture the number one heaven's favorite of the four regions, there was no doubt that Daoist master flowing immortal's strength was unquestionable.

Daoist master Maitreya held his belly and laughed. "Old Devil Flowing Immortal, you should be able to see that this child holds the Daoist master's Buddhist relic. He is a destined person of our Buddhist sect. It really doesn't make sense to snatch a disciple of our Buddhist sect like this, right?"

"Hehe, you two, I don't quite understand what you two are arguing about. This child has the bloodline of the demonic dragon. Under the nurturing of our demon race, only then will he have a true future to speak of. you two, don't mislead his disciple," said the Demon Dao Master.

Upon hearing this, Dao Master Liu Xian and Dao Master Maitreya each had their own opinions. They fought over each other, wanting to take Su Yu as a disciple.

Dao Master Tian can, who was watching from the side, looked at Su Yu and said, "Young friend Su, what do you think? If you become the disciple of Dao Master San Wei, then you will be stripped of the right to enter the upper hall."

In order to prevent DAO Master from using the influence of his disciples to control the Upper Hall of the Daoist Huang Hall, he had set a rule, all disciples of the DAO Master were not allowed to enter the upper hall.

For example, Luoshen, the demon emperor, wine, meat, Buddha, and the others were already prepared to break off their master-disciple relationship.

If Su Yu agreed to become their disciple at this moment, he would not have the chance to enter the upper hall.

"Young friend Su, compared to entering the Upper Hall, you will get more benefits from being under my command." The flowing Immortal Dao master said confidently.

If a dao master was willing to put in all his effort to nurture a disciple, this disciple's future would be abnormally bright.

Dao Master Maitreya and the demi-human Dao master said the same thing.

They were extremely willing to put in all their effort to nurture an existence who had comprehended supreme laws. They even handed over their own dao master's true teachings to the other party.

Chapter 2055 Mission To The Demon World (Second Watch)

There was always a rumor in the absolute beginning world that anyone who mastered the supreme power Upanishad would definitely become a dao master.

His future achievements were limitless!

If he could take Su Yu as his subordinate, he would become a dao master sooner or later. At that time, as their master, he would also receive endless benefits.

Su Yu was silent for a while. He had already expected the result when he used the space law.

“I am indebted to the seniors for their wrong love. I was lucky to comprehend the space law and was not qualified to become a paragon’s disciple. Please forgive me for not being able to drag down the reputation of a paragon,” Su Yu said.

He knew very well that becoming a paragon’s disciple would be restricted to the Yellow Dao Hall. And his footsteps would never stop there.

After being rejected by Su Yu, the Three Dao Masters’ thoughts changed.

A hint of disappointment appeared in the eyes of the Liuxian Dao Master. “One must have foresight in everything. It’s true that being a mere upper hall official is glorious for a time, but only by being groomed under me will one have the chance to peek into the Great Dao of the world and step into the Dao master class.”

Maitreya Buddha and the Monster Dao Master quietly watched Su Yu’s expression.

However, Su Yu did not think for long and said, “Junior still has the same words. I can not drag down the supreme honor.”

At this point, as Dao Masters, they had their own dignity and pride.

Since Su Yu rejected them twice, they naturally wouldn’t lower their face.

“Sigh!” The flowing Immortal Dao master sighed in disappointment and didn’t say anything more.

His face was filled with contempt.

He had supreme laws and profound meanings, but he didn’t have any foresight. He gave up his bright future just for a small profit in front of him.

Such a stupid person was not worth his efforts to nurture.

Dao Master Maitreya and the Dao Master of the monster race were also silent for a moment. They realized that Su Yu’s personality was flawed and were extremely disappointed.

“You should think about it again.” Dao Master Tian can lightly smiled. “To be able to become a disciple of a dao master is a wish that many geniuses can not achieve even in their dreams. By rejecting them, you are actually rejecting the possibility of becoming a dao master.”

“From ancient times until now, Dao Lords have always been of the same lineage. Before a Dao Lord dies, he or she inherits his or her true inheritance. Only then is it possible for a Dao Lord to be born. Other than that, almost no one else can become a dao lord on their own.”

There were tens of thousands of great daos in the world, and each dao could only accommodate one dao lord.

If one wanted to become a dao lord of a particular dao, only the previous Dao Lord would die.

Su Yu rejected them. It was impossible for him to become a dao master by himself.

“It’s fine,” Su Yu said with an indifferent expression.

The flowing Immortal Dao master’s expression was calm. He no longer had any intention of recruiting them.

Such a short-sighted junior was not worthy of becoming their successor.

The Heaven Crippling Dao master nodded. “Alright then. As the champion of the Yellow Dao Convention, you have the right to head to the first half of the Daoist civilization under the jurisdiction of the Yellow Dao Palace. The Wuji civilization will be in charge of the branch hall. Congratulations...”

This was probably the answer Su Yu wanted.

It had to be said that he paid too much attention to the interests at hand and lacked foresight.

However, Su Yu said, “I’m sorry, my strength is insignificant and not enough to hold such an important position?”

HMM? The Dao Masters looked surprised.

If he rejected them and also refused to hold a position, then what did he want?

Tian can dao master couldn’t help but be curious. “Then, you want to stay in the Upper Hall of the Daoist Huang Hall to develop?”

In the past, there had been similar ascetic training. After successfully entering the top ten of the Daoist Huang Hall, they were unwilling to take up any positions outside, so they stayed in the Daoist Huang Hall and enjoyed the offerings from the upper hall to cultivate in peace.

Could it be that Su Yu had such a plan?

However, this kind of plan had no future compared to the first two.

“I’m sorry, Junior is also unwilling to stay in the Daoist Huang Hall!”

Hearing this, the four people were surprised.

He didn’t even want to join the Daoist Huang Hall?

Then why did he participate in the Daoist Huang Hall?

“Can you tell us what your purpose of participating in the Daoist Huang Hall is?” Dao master tian can said, “Just say it. We Won’t blame you for it.”

He was very curious. What exactly did this youth want?

After pondering for a moment, Su Yu said, “To be honest, my purpose of participating in the Daoist Huang Hall is for the Bodhi fruit. I have no intention of entering the Daoist Huang Hall’s Upper Hall.”

Now that the Bodhi fruit was in his hands, he naturally would not stay in the Yellow Dao Palace.

The dao masters were slightly stunned. Compared to the Bodhi fruit, joining the Yellow Dao Palace was a greater harvest, right?

Did Su Yu have the suspicion of buying a casket to return a pearl?

However, they heard su yu continue, “My path does not lie in the Yellow Dao Palace, but in a more distant civilization. If I stop here, my life will eventually stop at the Yellow Dao palace and I will not be able to advance any further.”

Upon hearing this, the Dao masters could not help but size up Su Yu.

What a great ambition!

No wonder he had such earth-shattering strength!

His mental fortitude was not something an ordinary person could imagine.

“Young friend Su, perhaps you have underestimated the Daoist Huang Hall. Looking at the vast void, the Daoist Huang Hall is the most prosperous and prosperous place. If you give up this place and want to find a place to accommodate you, it will be as difficult as ascending to the heavens!”The Daoist master Liu Xian’s attitude improved, he advised.

Su Yu shook his head gently and said, “As the ancient saying goes, painting the ground is a prison. If I view the Daoist Huang Hall as a place for my lifelong struggle, it would be the same as sitting in a well and watching the sky. It would be difficult for me to achieve anything in my lifetime.”

When the Daoist Masters heard this, they looked at each other and smiled. Their smiles contained deep praise and complicated feelings.

The Crippled Heavenly Dao master sighed. “Once Upon a time, when we were young, we were also hot-blooded prodigies who yearned for the distant places. It was only after we became the Daoist masters that we understood how cruel the truth of Heaven and Earth was...”

There was a deep meaning in his words.

As Dao Masters, why were they all willing to gather at the Daoist Huang Hall?

They were invincible overlords wherever they went. In the Daoist Huang Hall, they were Ordinary Dao Masters.

There was no reason for them to gather here.

“However, I support you!”The Crippled Heavenly Dao master said. “So, I’m giving you a mission.”

Su Yu frowned slightly. He should have made it very clear that he did not want to join the Daoist Huang Hall.

“Please hear me out. This is not a mission from the Daoist Huang Hall, but something that I have personally given to you. You can accept it or reject it.”

Su Yu pondered but did not reject it immediately. He said, “Supreme one, please speak.”

The Crippled Heaven Dao master nodded slowly and said, "My lifespan is less than a hundred years. I am about to pass away in meditation and disappear from this world."

The flowing Immortal Dao Master and the other two looked sorrowful.

The appearance of chess in their dreams meant that their master had withered away.

Their old friends of many years were about to leave them.

"Before I pass away in meditation, I would like to answer a question for me and my old friends." Dao Master Tian Can's eyes revealed the vicissitudes of life.

Upon hearing this, Dao Master Liu Xian said in shock, "Tian can not!"

Dao Master Maitreya and Dao master demi-human understood something and hurriedly stopped him.

However, Tian can waved his hand, he chuckled, "Death to me is like a fallen leaf returning to its roots. It's just the reincarnation of fate. There's no need to take it to heart! Instead of me dying, why don't I use my broken body to solve the doubts that have troubled my old friends for many years before I Die?"

Su Yu listened attentively and did not interrupt him.

"I hope that you can go to the Monster World on my behalf," Dao Master Tian can said.

Demon World? Su Yu's eyes flashed slightly, but he said calmly, "Please continue, senior."

"I hope that you can bring something of mine into the demon world and ask the ancestral demon immortal about something," said the Heaven Crippling Dao Master. "Please bring me to ask him why DAO Master dreamed of a game of chess before he died."

Chapter 2056 Plain Clothes Plain Clothes Plain Brocade (Third Watch)

This puzzle was a common mystery to all the Dao Masters of the Daoist Huang Hall. It was like a fishbone stuck in their throats.

For many years, no one had been able to solve it.

Only the undying ancestral demon of the demon world, the first demon in the world that was born when the world was created, might know about it.

It was rumored that he had lived from the time the world was created until now, and that he was undying and indestructible.

He knew about the ancient times, and about the next 100 million years. The cause and effect of the world were all clear.

However, there was a price to pay for answering people's questions. He would ask the questioners for the most precious things.

Some of them had a lifetime of cultivation, some of them had lives, some of them loved ones, and some of them had beautiful memories..

As Supreme Dao Masters, the most precious thing to them was naturally their lifetime of true teachings.

The Crippled Heavenly Dao master had never accepted a disciple in his entire life. Perhaps he had the intention to sacrifice his true inheritance long ago in order to obtain the truth.

Su Yu did not understand the matters of the demon world very well, and he did not know that the crippled Heavenly Dao master planned to use his lifetime's true inheritance as the price.

However, it would not be a problem if he just brought something and asked instead.

With a slight flash of his eyes, Su Yu asked, "I wonder why senior has given the mission to this junior? The Daoist Huang Hall is filled with talents, and there are countless experts. Why have you chosen me?"

He was only the strongest heaven's favorite of this year. What about the previous years? What about the last two years? What about the last three years?

There was probably no lack of peak five-crowned emperors among them. There was no reason for such an important mission to be given to Su Yu.

Dao Master Tian can smiled. "Do you remember when you first entered the city of the Daoist Huang Hall, the test that required you to stay in the brightheart residence?"

Su Yu was surprised. "That was arranged by the Supreme Being?"

He had wondered if it was really a test.

Since then, there had been no rewards or punishments.

"It was indeed arranged by me." Dao Master Tian Can's eyes were full of appreciation. "Looking up, only two people realized that it was a test and thought of a solution. One of them was Yanchen from the northern region, and the other was you."

"What I tested was your adaptability."

Back then, when everyone entered the city at the same time, they were all unfamiliar with the place.

Su Yu was the first to understand the existence of the test, and he was bold enough to build his own brightheart residence. It could be seen that his adaptability was very strong. Even in such an unfamiliar environment, he was able to calmly and correctly handle things that seemed vague.

"To be honest, I initially had my eyes on the northern region's smoke and dust, but I accidentally discovered that you are more suitable than the smoke and dust." The Crippled Heavenly Dao master's catalog was deeply appreciative. "Your performance in the Sea of fortune can be said to be astonishing!"

They had witnessed everything in the Sea of fortune in the entire city.

He knew how Su Yu's performance was.

Not only was he powerful, he was also full of schemes. What was even more rare was his excellent character.

He was able to save his companions from the hands of evil creatures in danger.

He could even lend a helping hand and help the island creatures that they had met by chance to bring them out of there.

Perhaps it would be more appropriate to hand the mission over to Su Yu.

Su Yu nodded slowly. "I see."

From the start of the Yellow Dao conference, it had been a huge test.

"If you can complete the mission this time, I'll give you something." Naturally, the Crippled Heaven Dao master would not let Su Yu do it for free. He took out three white leaves.

Each of the leaves was missing a corner, giving off a very strange feeling.

It was not a talisman, nor was it a magic treasure. No one knew what it was.

However, when the Liuxian Dao Master and the others saw it, they were shocked and said, "Crippled Heaven, you really have..."

The Crippled Heaven Dao master nodded slowly and looked at Su Yu with a smile. "This is the item that I took from my own dao. There are a total of three pieces. After crushing each piece, I can unleash a full-strength attack that can wipe out all enemies."

Hearing this, Su Yu's heart pounded and his eyes were slightly heated.

A divine item that a dao master could use a single attack?

Dao Master Tian can was a dao master of the older generation in the Daoist Huang Hall. His strength was unfathomable and was above most dao masters.

With this item protecting him, wouldn't he not need to be overly afraid of encountering Dao Masters?

"However, all three leaves are sealed by my will. Unless you complete the mission, my will will only disappear." Dao Master Tian can gave the leaves to Su Yu.

The current leaves were useless.

Only after Su Yu completed the mission would his shocking strength erupt.

Su Yu carefully put them away. He subconsciously wanted to keep the nine jade spirit pearl, but after thinking for a moment, he stuffed it into the spatial cave on his wrist.

The nine-tailed white fox gave Su Yu an unfathomable feeling. It was better not to place such an important item in the nine jade spirit pearl that she could control.

"I will definitely complete the mission. Supremacy, please inform me of the details of the undying ancestral demon."

The Crippled Heavenly Dao master nodded and took out a wisp of memory and tapped it between Su Yu's brows.

Immediately, all the relevant information appeared in his mind.

"Heading to the demon world is not a matter of one day. An ordinary intercivilization teleportation array is not enough to extend to where it needs to reach. It needs the help of the Rahu heavenly eye. According to my observations, the last Rahu Heavenly Eye will appear in five years. Therefore, you have five years to prepare."

Five years was enough!

After a pause, the crippled Zen master waved his hand, and a man and a woman, two young experts, appeared in front of Su Yu.

Their cultivations were extremely powerful, and they were both at the peak of the five crowns!

"These are my two in-name disciples, Su Yi and Su Jin," the crippled Zen master said. "The two of you will protect young master Su from today on. You must protect him well."

"Yes! Master!"

Su Yi and Su Jin bowed in response. At the same time, they cupped their hands towards Su Yu, "Greetings, young master Su."

Su Yu's expression was indifferent, "En, then I'll have to trouble the two of you."

He had the personal protection of the hunter king and many other hunters, so he naturally did not have too deep of a feeling towards their protection.

Su Yi and Su Jin looked at each other, feeling slightly dissatisfied.

This kid, if not for the sake of their master, who would be willing to protect him?

He actually had a look of peace of mind!

They imagined that Su Yu should be flattered, at least he should have enough respect.

But his performance was really difficult to satisfy the two of them.

"Then Junior will take his leave for now." Su Yu cupped his hands and returned to the Ming Xin residence that he built in the city.

Ou Ye Huanyun, Shi Jun, and Liu Ruxian were among them.

They were sitting around the table and talking to each other. "The one who performed the best among us should be big brother Ou ye. He has successfully entered the top 50 of the conference of the Huangdao. There will be an invitation letter from the Middle Hall soon, right?"

Liu Ruxian said with jealousy and envy.

Shi Jun was also full of envy. He sighed and said, “With big brother Ou Ye’s ranking, he can at least get a position as the person-in-charge of the branch hall of the half-way civilization. He will really soar in the future!”

After this conference of the Huangdao, the gap between them, which was originally not big, expanded by a hundred times.

In the future, they would be people from two different worlds.

Liu Ruxian and Shi Jun’s performance was not very satisfactory, and they could only enter the lower hall.

Perhaps to ordinary people, it was already very enviable, but compared to ou ye Huanyun, it was nothing?

Who knew that Ou ye Huanyun’s face was full of bitter smiles, “Are the two of you mocking me? Su Yuzhu is in front of me, so if you praise me so much, won’t It Make Me Look Bad?”

Hearing this, Liu Ruxian and Shi Jun both sank into deep bitter smiles and loneliness.

Chapter 2057 The Greatest Serendipity (Fourth Watch)

They had come together, but in the end, Su Yu had become the champion of the conference of the Yellow Dao. He had crushed all the heaven’s favorites of the conference of the Yellow Dao, and his name had shaken the civilization department of the Hall of the Yellow Dao.

In front of Su Yu, they had no right to mention this small achievement of theirs.

“It’s laughable that I had mistakenly thought that he was inferior to me, but it turns out...”Liu Ruxian smiled bitterly.

How could an ordinary person be able to point out her shortcomings and help her correct them?

Recalling how she had repeatedly underestimated Su Yu’s strength, Liu Ruxian’s pretty face blushed and she felt hot.

Shi Jun also blushed in shame. “Don’t say anymore, the past is unbearable to look back on!”

Not only had he underestimated Su Yu, he had even fought with him face to face, but the result was... ahem, very miserable!

Liu Ruxian sighed and said, “Sigh, now that he is a member of the upper hall, he is already an existence beyond our reach. It will be difficult for us to meet him in the future...”

She felt some regret in her heart for not being able to establish a deeper relationship with Su Yu.

“Hehe, why is it difficult for you to meet me?”Su Yu pushed the door open and entered.

Liu Ruxian was stunned, then she stood up cautiously and cupped her hands, saying, “Greetings, fellow Daoist Su!”

Ou Ye Huanyun and Shi Jun also immediately stood up to welcome him. There were traces of nervousness on their faces.

Su Yu’s current status was extraordinary, which gave them a lot of pressure.

“Hehe, we are all friends. There’s no need to be so polite. Sit Down.” Su Yu waved his hand and motioned for them to sit down.

The three of them sat down and chatted with him for a while. They had regained the feeling of the past and felt much more relaxed.

“Young master Su, you are actually going to the demon world?” Liu Ruxian felt that it was unbelievable.

He gave up on the bright future of the Daoist Huang Hall and went to the demon race alone?

Only ou ye Huanyun understood Su Yu’s thoughts and sighed. “Brother Su has lofty aspirations. I really admire you!”

Pausing for a moment., ou Ye Huanyun narrowed his eyes and said, “However, is brother Su’s decision too hasty?” The Demon World was a very dangerous place. Not only were there many extremely dangerous places that were listed as forbidden areas, the members of the demon race were also fierce and aggressive. They would kill each other if they didn’t get along with each other. Moreover, the demon race was rather repulsed by outsiders. Non-demon creatures would find it difficult to move in the demon world.”

Su Yu already understood this point from the memory of the Heaven Crippling Dao Master. He nodded and said, “I know what to do.”

After thinking for a moment, Su Yu took out three Bodhi fruits and handed one to each of them.

“What? Bodhi Fruits?” The three of them turned pale with fright.

This was an item that could only be obtained by the top ten geniuses of the Daoist Huang Hall. If it was used at the peak of the four crowns, it would undoubtedly allow one to break through to the five crowns. It was a rare item that could only be found by chance.

Su Yu actually gave them three Bodhi fruits!

In fact, to Su Yu, the Bodhi fruit was nothing. As long as he left behind the seeds, it would not be a problem for him to plant thousands of Bodhi fruits in the future.

“Take it. A person can only use the Bodhi fruit once in their lifetime. It’s useless even if you have extra,” Su Yu said indifferently.

Ou Ye Huanyun struggled intensely. Finally, he stood up and bowed. “Brother Su, I will never forget your great kindness.”

A Bodhi fruit was a good fortune that had an immeasurable impact on its future.

Liu Ruxian and Shi Jun were also very grateful.

Su Yu smiled. “There’s no need to thank me. If you have the opportunity to work in other civilizations in the future, if you meet an organization called Ding, I will be very grateful for your help.”

“Ding?” Ou Ye Huanyun remembered the name of this organization and did not ask about Su Yu’s relationship with it in detail.

“Brother Su, don’t worry. It’s not just me. I will also mobilize my friends to take care of the Ding.” Not to mention anything else, the heaven’s legacy civilization where his family was located could open the door for the Ding from then on.

He believed that Ou ye Huanyun’s family had received a favor from the Bodhi fruit and would think of a way to help the Ding and repay the favor.

With that, Su Yu was relieved. The three Bodhi fruits were worth it.

Finally, Su Yu looked at Ou ye Huanyun and pondered, “What do you plan to do?”

Ou Ye Huanyun’s delighted heart immediately dropped to the freezing point.

He had another matter that deeply troubled him.

Luoshen ordered him to return the talisman to him within three days to beg for forgiveness.

With Luoshen’s character, this trip was a disaster and not a blessing!

“I can only go!” Ou Ye Huanyun gritted his teeth and felt helpless in his heart. The other party had the backing of the Heavenly Wing Path Master. What could a small figure from another civilization do?

Su Yu thought for a moment, then nodded slightly. “Then you be careful.”

The three of them conversed for a while, then went back to rest.

Su Yu returned to the secret room and took out a cave abode world. With a thought, he released Jin Yuan and the other two five crowns.

The incomparably dense divine aura made Jin Yuan reveal an ecstatic expression. “Is this... the deity world?”

Su Yu smiled faintly. “It can be considered that. This place is filled with people from your island. Bring them to find a suitable place to establish a sect!”

He handed the cave abode world to Jin Yuan and fulfilled his promise.

Jin Yuan and the two five-crowned emperors scanned their souls and immediately discovered the prosperity and boundless vastness of the Daoist Huang Hall. Their hearts surged.

After confirming that Su Yu had not deceived him and had not made any requests, their hearts were extremely complicated.

The pointy-faced five-crowned emperor was the most ashamed. He had always questioned Su Yu’s motives.

Now, it seemed that it was the heart of a villain trying to measure the stomach of a ruler.

The three of them looked at each other. Jin Yuan took out a storage ring and handed it to Su Yu. “Our Island is remote, so we have nothing to give you. It’s just a small thank you gift.”

Su Yu tried to avoid it again and again, but they couldn’t persuade him, so he had no choice but to accept it.

Jin Yuan and the two emperors of Heaven and earth bowed to Su Yu. "See You Again!"

After watching the three of them leave Ming Xin residence, Su Yu looked at the storage device in his hand.

In his imagination, it should be the resources of the island.

However, when he looked at it, Su Yu's expression changed. "Token of Destiny?"

One token of destiny was nothing special, but there were more than 700 tokens of Destiny in it!

"How can there be so many tokens of Destiny on the last island?

Unbelievable!" Su Yu was shocked. He estimated that there were only dozens of tokens of destiny on that island.

It seemed that the DAO Master of the Dao of Destiny had deliberately given the biggest island unlimited possibilities of good fortune.

Now That Jin Yuan and the others had left the sea of Destiny, these tokens of Destiny could not produce the mysterious Qi of destiny without the seawater of the Sea of destiny. They were useless items, so they were given to Su Yu as a reward for his training.

They did not know that Su Yu's training had been completed.

They also didn't know that other people couldn't hold the water of the sea of fortune, but Su Yu could!

Before he left, he used the lack of land and furnace to hold a furnace of the sea of fortune.

Looking at so many tokens of fortune, Su Yu couldn't help but feel slightly excited.

Good and evil were rewarded. His unintentional actions brought him great fortune!

Taking out all the tokens of fortune, Su Yu threw them into the sea of fortune, and a large amount of Qi of fortune gushed out.

Su Yu sucked all of them into his body in one breath. His cultivation base soared along with them.

Chapter 2058 Guilty Plea (5th Watch)

With the help of 400 fate tokens, Su Yu's cultivation increased by 40% .

With another 700 or so fate tokens, Su Yu's cultivation increased rapidly and soon reached the bottleneck of the early-stage of the four crowns Emperor realm.

However, with the help of the mysterious Qi of fate, those bottlenecks were broken through after a short while.

A surge of fierce divine qi swept towards Su Yu and rushed into the world, quickly settling into the power of desolation.

After a whole day, Su Yu let out a long breath, his eyes shining.

Middle stage of the four crowns Emperor realm!

In terms of power of desolation, it was twice as much as before.

When the same move was used, the power would increase by a large margin!

“If I fight against Luoshen again, I can easily defeat her with just my sword techniques, right?” Su Yu muttered to himself.

At the same time.

Luoshen’s residence.

Luoshen sat cross-legged, her aura fluctuating.

Her master, the Heavenly Wing Dao Master, used his profound dao master intent to protect her.

Suddenly, Luoshen’s face turned pale. She opened her mouth and spat out a mouthful of black blood. Her body quickly fell to the ground.

However, there was a hint of joy in her eyes. She wiped the blood from the corner of her mouth and said, “There’s still some improvement. Thank you, Master!”

If one were to observe carefully, they would be able to discover that her cultivation had slightly increased. She was close to the peak of the late-stage of the fourth-crowned emperor realm.

She was just a step away from breaking through to the fifth-crowned emperor realm.

The sky wing path master’s expression was calm. “If you were so capable, why would you have to go through such a painful ten thousand poison heart technique?”

Luoshen’s face was filled with shame. “Disciple knows her mistake!”

“What mistake was that?”

“The mistake was that when she killed, she did not confirm whether she was dead or not. That was why she gave Su Yu a chance to catch her breath.” Luoshen felt regret in her heart.

She was too conceited and assumed that Su Yu had died at the mouth of an evil creature. However, she didn’t verify it and caused the current situation.

“In the future, we are both in the Daoist Huang Hall. I have plenty of opportunities to deal with him!” Luoshen said again, her eyes filled with hatred.

If it wasn’t for Su Yu, she would have already become a five-crowned emperor with the help of the Bodhi fruit. Why would she need to rely on the painful method of fighting poison with poison to increase her weak cultivation?

“I’m afraid you won’t have the chance. Su Yu didn’t join the Daoist Huang Hall. Instead, he is about to leave for the demon world.” Dao master skywing said expressionlessly.

Luoshen was slightly startled. “How could this be?”

It was already impossible for her to take revenge.

“Damn it!” Luoshen’s eyes were vicious. She was just about to take revenge.

Her cultivation had just increased, and her overall strength should be at the same level as Su Yu. Coupled with her connections in the Daoist Huang Hall, it should be easy for her to deal with Su Yu.

“Damn it! When will he leave?” Luoshen asked again.

“Anytime.” Path master skywing said, “What do you plan to do?”

Luoshen muttered, “If I can’t deal with him, then I’ll give him a gift!”

There was a deep meaning in her pretty face.

“Up to you. If you have any difficulties, tell me in time. For the sake of that person, I’ll do my duty as a master.” Path Master skywing said indifferently.

Luo Shen said, “Thank you, Master!”

So, Luo Shen actually had another identity!

After sending Sky Wing Dao master off respectfully, not long after, ou ye Huanyun stood in front of his residence, hesitating and not daring to enter.

After a long while, he gritted his teeth and went to pay his respects.

The Butler had a contemptuous gaze as he sized him up indifferently and said, “Hehe, master said that if you want to see her, you have to follow the literal meaning.”

Apologize to her? Ou Ye Huanyun’s face turned green and red. He put the talisman at the door and said, “Take it or leave it!”

Then, he turned around and was ready to leave.

“Haha, Master said that if you take ten steps, you will bear the consequences yourself,” the Butler said in a neutral tone.

Ou Ye Huanyun was not afraid and snorted, “I will take it. At most, I will die. How can a woman like her deserve to apologize to me?”

He had taken away a talisman and was about to take responsibility for his crimes. If that was the case, then how was she supposed to take responsibility for the deaths of Yanchen and so many crew members of the Northern Region?

Even death was not enough, right?

“Hehe! Master said that she won’t kill you. She will first kill that Liu Ruxian and then that Shi Jun. . If you don’t believe me, you can take another ten steps forward and give it a try.”

Ou Ye Huanyun’s expression fluctuated.

With Luoshen’s connections, how difficult would it be to keep the two less famous people from the other civilizations in the Daoist Huang Hall Forever?

It would be easy to kill them.

Ou Ye Huanyun was not afraid of his own death, but he did not want to implicate Liu Ruxian and Shi Jun. .

Luoshen was very good at judging people. It was precisely because she was aware of Ou ye Huanyun's righteousness that she gave the right medicine.

Once threatened, ou ye Huanyun was indeed convinced. He lowered his head and said, "I didn't bring any thorns."

"Hehe, master has already prepared them for you!"The Butler threw a bunch of brambles in front of him.

Luoshen was also prepared for this.

Ou Yehuan Yun struggled for a moment before letting out a low cry. His upper body clothes were torn apart as he carried the brambles on his back.

In an instant, OU Yehuan Yun could not help but take in a breath of cold air.

The brambles were coated with a poisonous substance. The slightest touch would immediately cause a tearing pain on his skin.

One could see that the skin quickly turned pitch black and traces of black blood flowed out.

"Now... can we see her?"Ou ye Huan Yun gritted his teeth and asked in a low voice.

The housekeeper opened the door with a smile, "Of course. Master welcomes those who sincerely admit their mistakes. Please follow me."

Under the housekeeper's unhurried lead, ou ye Huan Yun bled all the way and finally arrived at an elegant loft.

In the second floor loft, Luo Shen was dressed in a pink dress. Her figure was elegant, like the Immortal Ling Chen.

She gently stroked the seven-stringed zither and played light music.

As she played, she looked straight ahead, "My music, is it good?"

Ou ye Huan Yun endured the pain that spread throughout his entire body and said, "It... It's good!"

"Since it's good, why don't you listen to it?"

The Butler smiled Evilily and kicked ou Yehuan Yun's knees.

With a plop, ou Yehuan Yun fell to his knees.

"Hehe, it's rare to hear Master's immortal song. Kneeling and listening to it shows respect for master."

Ou Yehuan Yun did not say a word and silently endured it.

Finally, in the midst of the excruciating pain, Ou Yehuan Yun finally finished listening to a song.

Luoshen walked down the stairs in low spirits and came in front of Ou Yehuan Yun.

The maid behind him immediately brought over a luxurious soft chair and let Luoshen sit down elegantly.

“Tell me, why are you here today?”

Ou Ye Huanyun endured the humiliation and said, “I’m here to apologize.”

“What? Can you speak louder?”

“I’m here to apologize!” Ou Ye Huanyun roared loudly. The passersby outside the mansion could hear him and looked over with a surprised expression.

Only then did Luoshen nod her chin in satisfaction. “Then what did you do wrong?”

Ou Ye Huanyun lowered his head and said, “I shouldn’t have betrayed you!”

Luoshen said calmly, “I’ll tell you a story about a dog! There was once a dog that bit its master. The Master was merciful and decided to forgive the dog. The dog was grateful for its master’s kindness, so it bit off one of its own arms and obediently listened to its master’s words.”

“Do you understand what I’m saying?”

Ou Ye Huanyun’s expression was gloomy. Of course he understood.

To compare him to a dog, he had to cut off one of his own arms. Only then could he vent the hatred in Luoshen’s heart.

“I... Understand!” Ou Ye Huanyun gritted his teeth. Cutting off one of his own arms could end everything, right?

Chapter 2059 Return Your Bow

Good!

He endured the intense pain and the primal energy in his body boiled, breaking his right arm.

Immediately, blood splattered everywhere. The boundless pain assaulted him, almost causing Ou Ye Huanyun’s vision to turn black.

He gritted his teeth and with his remaining right hand, he took out the five crowns peak level talisman and handed it over shakily. “Please don’t make things difficult for my friend!”

Luoshen calmly took the talisman and put it away. Her eyes turned sharp as she said, “Actually, the story of the dog is made up. There is no such story.”

Ou Ye Huanyun suddenly raised his head and said, “Then my friend...”

Luoshen stood up and said, “Why should I let them go? If they die, you will blame yourself and regret it for the rest of your life. You will live in pain forever. Isn’t that good?”

What!

Ou Ye Huanyun suddenly stood up. “I have also carried the brambles and broken my arm. What else do you want?”

Luoshen said calmly, “I can do whatever I want! What can you do to me?”

“You!” Ou Ye Huanyun was furious. He knew that he had been played!

“Men, take this gift and give it to Su Yu.” Luoshen flicked her sleeves and stared at the arm. The corner of her mouth curled up into a cold smile.

The Butler bent down and picked up the arm. He chuckled, “What a good dog’s leg. It was bitten off by itself. Hehe...”

Unexpectedly, just as he finished his mocking words, his shoulders suddenly felt light.

He was stunned for a moment. When he turned his head, he saw that his right arm was empty.

There was an extremely smooth cut on his right shoulder. Because the cut was too sharp, there wasn’t even any blood flowing out.

After a while, an immense pain finally came. The Butler was in so much pain that he screamed on the spot like a pig being slaughtered.

“Why does the dog that Luoshen residence raises sound like a pig?”

A cold voice sounded from Ou Ye Huanyun’s shoulder.

A speck of dust, from small to large, folded into a clear human figure.

It was Su Yu himself!

Such a strange spatial divine art caused Luoshen’s eyelids to twitch. The faint smile on her face stiffened as she said gloomily, “Su Yu! How dare you barge into my residence?”

Su Yu acted as though he did not hear her. He waved his hand across the air and beckoned Ou Ye Huanyun’s arm over, pressing it onto his severed arm.

After that, he secretly transferred a Wisp of life force into his arm, causing it to instantly recover.

At the same time, life force was still circulating within his body, restoring the skin that was damaged by the brambles back to its original state.

“Brother Su, you...” Ou Ye Huanyun said in shock. He could not understand why Su Yu would come, and how did he come?

How could Su Yu not come?

He knew that Luoshen did not have any good intentions, yet he still watched Ou Ye Huanyun jump into the fire pit?

As soon as Ou Ye Huanyun left Mingxin residence, Su Yu had followed him out.

“Do you know what you did wrong?” Su Yu asked the same question as Luoshen.

Ou Ye Huanyun was stunned and did not explain. He betrayed because he wanted to take revenge for Su Yu. He only said, “Maybe I shouldn’t have betrayed you?”

He was slightly disappointed. Even Su Yu felt that he did something wrong?

“It seems that you haven’t come to your senses yet.” Su Yu shook his head.

“Maybe I should wait until Liu Ruxian and Shi Jun were killed by this woman. It’s not too late to appear after you have completely come to your senses.”

Ou Yehuanyun was stunned.

“Your mistake was to use the human method to reason with the Mad Dog!” Su Yu said calmly. “Do you understand now?”

Ou Yehuanyun finally understood. It turned out that Su Yu was blaming him for being too naive. He actually attempted to make peace with a mad woman like Luoshen.

“I understand now. I also know my mistake,” Ou Yehuanyun said.

“When dealing with the mad dog, don’t say unnecessary words and don’t do unnecessary things. All you have to do is to beat it up viciously. It’s best if you beat it to death so that there won’t be any trouble in the future,” Su Yu said calmly. His gaze slowly turned towards Luoshen.

Luoshen’s beautiful face was still as calm as ever. She looked like a celestial immortal that didn’t exist in the mortal world.

However, the anger in her eyes couldn’t be concealed.

“Su Yu! You ruined my plans and even barged into my residence to humiliate me. Do you really think that my Luoshen residence is a place that can be casually visited?” Luoshen calmly spoke. She once again took out her ancient sword and pointed it at Su Yu from afar.

With a single strike, her unparalleled sword technique stunned space and time.

Compared to her previous sword technique, her cultivation level had increased and she was much stronger.

Su Yu’s expression was calm as he casually brandished his Shura Sword.

A nameless but dazzling strike.

Its Power... was twice as powerful as before!

Chi La --

Luoshen’s sword Qi was like paper that was easily shattered.

The remnant sword Qi pierced through the sky and shattered a large piece of Luoshen’s pink dress, revealing her alluring white skin.

Luoshen’s expression changed drastically as she said in shock, “You... you broke through to the middle stage of the four crowns?”

How was this possible?

In just two short days, he had broken through to another level?

However, she didn't have the time to think too much. She hurriedly covered up her lust and shouted, "Surname Su, this is my residence. Please have some self-respect."

Su Yu paused for a moment and with a tap of his toes, a shocking scene appeared.

With Su Yu as the center, the space within a radius of 10,000 feet was directly teleported to an empty suburb.

"It's no longer your residence. I can do as I please." Su Yu's eyes were indifferent.

If Luoshen had stopped here, he might not have bothered to look for trouble.

However, she wanted to give Su Yu a gift.

Since that was the case, he should also give her a gift!

Xiu --

Without thinking, Luoshen immediately ran away.

However, not long after she ran away, she was swept three feet away by Su Yu's spatial energy.

Luoshen's reaction was very fast. Without thinking, she threw out a hidden weapon made from nothingness from her sleeve. Anyone below the level of the five crowns would definitely die.

However, as expected, a layer of dragon scales appeared on Su Yu's arm. He raised his arm and slapped the hidden weapon away.

At the same time, his arm, which was filled with physical strength, mercilessly struck his chest.

His pink dress, which had been repaired, was shattered by the force of the impact. Even the tube top inside was shattered by the force of the impact.

Two snow-white rabbits suddenly jumped out.

Su Yu's eyes were calm and without any fluctuations. Not only did the miracle in his hand not weaken, it became even stronger.

The powerful force passed through his chest and out from his back, shattering the large piece of clothing on his back.

The pure and cold Luoshen, who was as cold as ice, was completely naked.

Luoshen hurriedly covered her body and felt the intense pain of her internal organs being shattered. A deep pain appeared between her brows, she gritted her teeth and said hatefully, "My master is the sky wing path master. I can let bygones be bygones for your humiliation, but if you take another step forward, I will not forgive you..."

Su Yu's eyes were indifferent as he walked over step by step. "Right now, your heart is saying that Su Yu has killing intent towards me. I will first calm him down. After reporting to my master, I will use this opportunity to get rid of him!"

Luoshen was shocked, her eyes fluctuated violently.

"Right now, your heart is saying, how does Su Yu know what I am thinking?" Su Yu said calmly.

Luoshen's expression changed. "You... you can hear what I am thinking?"

The Su Yu in her eyes suddenly became mysterious. A hint of panic appeared in her eyes.

Chapter 2060 Against The DAO Master

Su Yu said calmly, "So what if I heard it? Are you surprised?"

As he spoke, he transformed into his half-dragon form and swatted out like a shadow.

Luoshen's expression changed rapidly. She gathered primal energy on the surface of her body to hide her shameful body as she fled frantically.

She crushed a jade seal in her palm and immediately fled hundreds of millions of mountains and rivers towards the city.

There were so many people in the city. Su Yu must have restrained herself, right?

Chi --

However, yin and yang Qi suddenly appeared a hundred feet in front of her. A silver-haired figure appeared.

Without waiting for Luoshen to react, a dragon tail swept over like an afterimage.

Ah --

The primal energy on the surface of her body was shattered, revealing her alluring body once again. At the same time, she suffered a huge force and was sent flying by a tail, smashing through a large part of the city wall.

She spat out a large mouthful of blood. Without even looking at Su Yu, she turned around and fled into the city.

In her heart, she felt a trace of fear towards Su Yu, but most of it was hatred that was engraved into her bones.

The huge commotion in this place attracted many people in the city to watch.

However, they saw the Ice Mountain Beauty Luoshen, whose name had spread far and wide, was actually naked and being chased by a half-dragon powerhouse. Everyone was in an uproar!

"What happened? Luoshen actually..."

"There's still such a daring person in the Daoist Huang Hall who dares to openly molest Luoshen?"

..

Boom --

As soon as she finished speaking, the half-dragon existence suddenly took out the Shura Sword and slashed at her.

Luoshen hurriedly used her ancient sword to resist, but the difference in power between the two was not just one level.

Luoshen was struck from the sky to the ground, creating a huge pit on the ground. Luoshen lay naked inside, vomiting blood endlessly.

“Su Yu!” Luoshen’s primal energy was shattered once again. All the Warriors in the city widened their eyes as they stared at the beautiful scenery that they could never hope to see in their entire lives. She hated Su Yu to the core.

What responded to her was Su Yu’s merciless sword.

The terrifying sword Qi fell, and Luoshen used her right arm to block it.

With a ‘chi’ sound, her arm was cut off, and blood splattered everywhere.

“I... F * ck! is he mercilessly destroying the flower?”

“How could he do that?”

In their eyes, Luoshen was a peerless goddess, but in Su Yu’s eyes, she was merely a mad dog. How could she show mercy to a woman?

When Su Yu slashed out with his sword again, Luoshen gritted her teeth and threw out the talisman she had asked for back, activating it on the spot.

However, before the talisman could be activated, a spatial blade silently appeared and chopped off her remaining left arm.

After losing both her arms, Luoshen’s face was filled with vicious pain as she rolled around. She looked at the approaching Su Yu and stared into his eyes. Finally, Luoshen felt fear from the bottom of her heart.

He wanted to kill her!

“I admit my mistake. Can I say I’m Sorry?” Luoshen finally lowered her head.

It was just as Su Yu had said. When dealing with a mad dog, using human methods to reason was useless.

Only a fist would make a mad dog revere it.

“If you want to say it, then say it to the people you’ve caused to die.” When dealing with enemies, Su Yu didn’t have to move. Since she had moved, then she would eradicate the root of the problem!

With Luoshen’s sinister nature, begging for mercy was only temporary.

After she was saved, it could already be predicted how she would take revenge.

Such a woman couldn’t be left alive!

She sucked in the air and grabbed the talisman seal, activating it on the spot.

Instantly, the air trembled.

An extreme radiance suddenly descended, illuminating the entire city in a dazzling manner.

Everything in the universe melted into the dazzling white light.

Including Luoshen!

Her body directly melted away, leaving behind a mass of terrified soul as she sped off into the distance.

However, before she could even take a few steps, Su Yu teleported over and pressed her back to the ground with a palm.

Luo Shen's soul trembled as she felt regret from the bottom of her heart.

It was as though she had crossed the line and offended a madman!

A normal person would not even dare to touch a single hair on her head for the sake of the heavenly wing path master.

Only a madman would not care about her identity.

“You can't kill me!” Luo Shen said in fear.

Staring at her face filled with fear, Su Yu's eyes revealed a trace of contempt. “Your calmness and calmness is only due to the backing of the Heavenly Wing Path Master, right? The real you is just a timid, afraid of death and a cowardly woman.”

Su Yu's gaze was sharp as he saw through her.

Luoshen, who was calm on the surface, was actually extremely fragile.

“Not only am I the disciple of the heavenly wing path master, I'm also...” Luoshen wanted to reveal her identity.

However, Su Yu only shook her head slightly and said, “Your identity isn't important. It's not important at all.”

After she finished speaking, she condensed the primal energy in her palm and slammed it towards Luoshen's head.

At this moment, Su Yu's palm landed three inches away from Luoshen's head and could no longer slam down.

A mysterious force pulled her palm back.

“I'll correct your words. Her identity is very important. Very important.”

The sky above Daoist Huang Hall changed color. It was clearly a clear sky. In the blink of an eye, it was filled with black clouds.

In the darkness, a middle-aged man with a pair of snow-white wings walked over from the sky with his hands behind his back.

“Sky Wing Dao Master!”

“The supreme-being has manifested!”

The crowd was in an uproar, and they all bowed and worshipped him as if they were gods.

“Master!” Luoshen was both surprised and delighted as if she had been pardoned.

She took this opportunity to escape to her master’s side.

Su Yu’s eyes were indifferent. “There’s no need for outsiders to correct my words.”

“Eye of devouring!” A crack appeared between his brows. It was far more powerful than the soul devouring power of the past, and it instantly sucked Luoshen in.

“You Dare!” Dao master Skywing shouted.

His words contained a great amount of majestic power. It pierced through and instantly froze the crack between Su Yu’s brows. It was unable to close.

At the same time, Su Yu’s body was also restricted by the mysterious power. She couldn’t move at all.

Sky wing path master walked over with his hands behind his back and said indifferently, “Let her out.”

Su Yu didn’t say a word.

“Forget it, I’ll do it myself.” Sky wing path master said indifferently. He pointed his finger at the crack between his eyebrows.

His words and actions were filled with an unquestionable tyranny.

Su Yu snorted in his heart and a long saber that couldn’t be seen by the naked eye appeared in his palm.

A Ray of blade light flashed, and the power that restrained Su Yu from moving suddenly dispersed.

The crack between his brows that had opened slowly closed.

Dao master Tian Yi’s finger paused, and a hint of surprise flashed through his indifferent eyes. “Dao of fate? Could it be that other than space, you are also proficient in the laws of Fate?”

For a person to comprehend one of the eight profound meanings was already an unimaginable heaven-defying fortune.

Comprehending the laws of fate wasn’t very likely.

“Close it? It doesn’t matter, just open it again.” Dao Master Heaven’s will said indifferently and took a step forward.

Instantly, Su Yu felt his soul being torn apart by some kind of terrifying power.

A dignified dao master actually disregarded his status and attacked a junior!

“I’m not afraid of You!” Su Yu shouted in a low voice. Within the Soul Divine Crystal, several golden light spots suddenly released an extremely resplendent light.

The Sky Wing Path Master's step suddenly froze, and a hint of surprise flashed on his face once again.

The power that he had probed into Su Yu's soul was actually forcefully bounced back by his soul!
