Chapter 2091 Inverting Black And White (Second Watch)

The Talisman Group did not have any offensive power, but it had an extremely strong binding effect. It immediately trapped Su Yu in the middle.

Su Yu's expression changed slightly. He immediately tried to break through the talisman group, but the power of the talisman group lay in its ability to continuously explode and break through one after another. It was impossible to escape in a short period of time!

Moreover, Yu Wenqing took this opportunity to snatch the mutated tiger demon from Su Yu's hands and then left.

The huge shadow hesitated for a moment and did not chase after Yu Wenqing. Instead, it stepped on Su Yu.

Only then did Yu Wenqing finally escape.

Su Yu's eyes were filled with anger. Seeing that the huge footprint was about to be stepped on and that he had nowhere to run, he took out the substitute magic treasure that Catechin gave him.

After infusing the primeval energy into it, the substitute magic treasure did not replace Su Yu. Instead, an extremely powerful space appeared and teleported all the land within a radius of a hundred miles away from Su Yu.

Furthermore, it teleported in different directions.

The entire land split into over a thousand pieces and all of them were teleported away.

Su Yu and the little qilin were also teleported away.

He was both angry and amused. What on Earth was that Cat Su su doing?

Didn't they say that it was a substitute dharma treasure? How did it turn into a spatial transference?

However, from the scope of this spatial transference, it was truly astonishing.

Even if the owner of this item didn't have a dao master, he should still be at the half-step dao master level.

Furthermore, although this item wasn't a substitute, it was able to teleport him away at the critical moment to avoid the fatal attack.

The reason why the spatial transference was irregular in all directions was probably because of the huge footprint that shattered the transference.

After an unknown period of time, Su Yu fell to the ground weakly.

At the same time, a petite girl with a pair of cat ears appeared in her arms.

She sat on Su Yu's body with a blank expression and looked around in confusion. "This... This is hunting ground no. 4? How could we have run so far?"

Different hunting grounds had different levels of demonic energy, so the cat girl recognized it immediately.

Her eyes widened like walnuts, and she did not blink. “That’s not right. It should have teleported me thousands of miles away from you. How could it appear so far away?”

“Why? I’m not surprised at all? CAT SUSU!”

Su Yu’s cold snort came from below her.

Cat Susu looked down and climbed up with an embarrassed expression, “Don’t worry, I will find the refiner and ask him to give you justice. Seriously, what happened to the substitute magic treasure? How did it become a teleportation? Does it have a sense of responsibility? Seriously!”

Su Yu got up and held her head with one hand. He picked her up and said indifferently, “I don’t know if other people have a sense of responsibility, but you almost killed me!”

Fortunately, this teleportation was relatively stable. It was not completely crushed by a single step, but collapsed.

If it was not stable enough, Su Yu would have died in the space collapse just now.

Cat Susu knew that she could not resist, so she simply could not be bothered to resist. She crossed her arms in front of her chest and said, “Mortal, this is already the second time you have treated me like this. Do you know how many young heroes who admire me will beat you to death?”

Su Yu threw her aside in a bad mood. He looked around and asked, “How far is this place from the Heavenly Silver Continent?”

Cat Susu rubbed her head and said indifferently, “It’s very far. If we want to go back, it will take about two months. I’m referring to the speed of a half-step dao master. With our speed, HMM, let me think, it will probably take ten years.”

“Two months. It’s not too far.” Su Yu said.

Mao susu rolled her eyes at him. “Hey, you can’t just listen to half a sentence. I told you, that’s the speed of a half-step DAO Master.”

Su Yu grabbed her shoulder and said, “Lead the way. I’ll let you experience the speed of a half-step DAO Master.”

To be exact, even a half-step dao master was not as fast as him.

Mao susu pointed in the direction of the heavenly silver continent and said disapprovingly, “Just go straight in that direction...”

Before she could finish her words, Su Yu grabbed her shoulders. Then, a pair of huge and exaggerated jade wings suddenly spread out.

“Wow... what... What is this thing?”

Before he could observe it carefully, the wings flashed violently, and in an instant, they were hundreds of millions of miles away.

Su Yu swallowed a few pills on the spot to replenish his primeval energy. Then, he activated it again.

For ten consecutive times, they actually left hunting ground no. 4 and entered the edge of Hunting Ground No. 3.

Mao Susu's eyes widened, then she cheered excitedly, "Wow! What magical wings, I really want... Oh, I mean, I'm so surprised."

Seeing Su Yu's gaze, Mao susu immediately changed her words.

Suddenly, Mao Susu's eyes rolled and she said, "Hey, why don't we go back to Luo Yunzhou? Whatever Hong Hong gives you, I'll give you ten times! Really, I swear!"

Su Yu glanced at her and said, "Then, you'll come back ten times, right?"

Even without using visitation, she could tell what Cat Susu was planning.

Wouldn't she be like a sheep in a wolf's den in her Luo Yunzhou?

"Don't say that. Am I that Shameless?" Cat susu rubbed her nose and said aggrievedly.

Su Yu shook her head lightly. "I feel that compared to you, the word 'shameless' can not be more holy."

The first time they met, he had knocked Su Yu unconscious and wanted to snatch the little qilin.

There was no one else!

"HMPH! You must think that my purple color is inferior to a rainbow. I knew it. Men are all like this." Mao susu crossed her arms and complained.

Su Yu did not say a word. He ate a few pills and replenished his primeval energy before continuing forward.

He had to return to the heavenly silver continent. Firstly, he had to get the pass that Lie Hongzhen had promised. Secondly, he had to get Yu Wenqing!

If he didn't have the 'Substitute Magical Treasure' that Mao Susu had given him, he would really be in great danger.

How could he not take revenge for this?

--

No. 3 hunting ground.

Yu Wenqing managed to escape from the teleportation in time and witnessed an exceptionally huge demon being teleported away.

Even though they had only met for a short while, Yu Wenqing still felt a lingering fear.

That should be a beast king level existence, right?

Two Beast Kings appearing in a hunting ground was completely unexpected!

He couldn't help but recall that Su Yu had said before that there was another Beast King. Now, it seemed that everything was true!

At this time, Lie Bo had also narrowly escaped and met up with Yu Wenqing.

“Prince Xuanling, it’s great that you’re alright.”

Yu Wenqing nodded and said, “Go back and see your sister.”

The two of them arrived at the place where they first met the mutated tiger demon. Lie Hongzhen was still in a coma.

Lie Bo tapped his forehead and took out a faint demon blood. He then injected it back into Lie Hongzhen’s body.

Lie Hongzhen immediately woke up slowly.

He looked at Lie Bo and Yu Wenqing who were close by. When he noticed the mutated tiger demon, his expression changed and he hurriedly got up

When he noticed that the mutated tiger demon was on its last breath and was actually captured alive, he asked in shock, “Who captured it alive?”

Yu Wenqing said, “It was Su...”

After pausing for a moment, Yu Wenqing rolled his eyes and said, “Yes, it was me.”

Lie Bo’s expression changed. How could it be you?

It was clearly Su Yu!

Yu Wenqing did not even fight the mutated tiger demon head-on!

How could he take away the fruits of others’ Labor?

However, thinking about it carefully, Su Yu was already dead. Who knew the truth?

“Lie Bo, was it young master Yu Wenqing who killed him?” Lie Hongzhen asked Lie Bo. She felt very strange.

After the mutated tiger demon revealed its hidden strength, Yu Wenqing ran faster than anyone else.

Why did he suddenly kill him?

Lie Bo looked at Yu Wenqing, bit his lips lightly and said, “Yes, it was done by the Prince!”

Su Yu was already dead anyway. Moreover, he was very happy to see his sister marry Prince Xuanling. In this way, the status of the heavenly silver continent would be raised to a certain extent.

It was a great thing for the Heavenly Silver Continent.

Therefore, it was better to help Yu Wenqing lie and let his sister be filled with affection and gratitude towards Yu Wenqing. In the end, they would become a couple.

Only then did Lie Hongzhen put down the doubts in his heart. If even his younger brother said so, what else could he doubt?

“Thank you, Prince Xuanling, for saving my life. Hongzhen will never forget it.” Lie Hongzhen bowed with gratitude from the bottom of her heart.

Lie Hongzhen was well aware of how dangerous the situation was just now.

“Sister, in order to save you, Prince Xuanling fought with the mutated tiger demon for a long time and almost lost his life several times. Fortunately, he won by a narrow margin in the end,” Lie Bo said.

Upon hearing that, Lie Hongzhen’s gratitude deepened. She bowed to Yu Wenqing again.

Yu Wenqing waved his hand indifferently. “Sister Zhen, you don’t have to be so polite with me. For You, I’m willing to do anything.”

Lie Hongzhen sighed softly in her heart. How could she not understand Yu Wenqing’s feelings for him?

However, she had heard a little about Yu Wenqing’s character. The women around him changed in less than a year. They would never marry each other. They were purely toying with each other.

How could she accept such a person?

When she heard Yu Wenqing pretending to be intimate, Lie Hongzhen felt conflicted. However, Yu Wenqing had saved her life, so she could not say anything. She could only sigh in her heart.

Looking around, Su Yu was the only one who was not seen. She asked, “Where’s Su Yu?”

Lie Bo snorted and said, “Him? He left his sister long ago and escaped. He should be hiding somewhere now and doesn’t dare to come out.”

Upon hearing this, Lie Hongzhen sighed and said, “We shouldn’t blame him. His cultivation isn’t enough to fight against the mutated Tiger Demon. If he stays, he’ll just be waiting for death.”

Even though that was the case, there was still a trace of displeasure in his heart.

He didn’t expect him to fight against the mutated tiger demon, but was it difficult to save him while he was at it?

Compared to Yu Wenqing, Su Yu was really..

“Forget it, let’s go back first. After he finds it safe, he will naturally return to the Heavenly Silver Prefecture.” Lie Hongzhen sighed.

Yu Wenqing chuckled disapprovingly. It was likely that Su Yu would never come back.

Half a month after they left, a huge shadow descended. In the end, it transformed into a giant that was covered in rocks.

“Our efforts were in vain!” The Rockman said. He grabbed a handful of dust from the ground that had the mutated Tiger Demon’s blood essence on it. “However, let’s Save the mutated tiger demon first. It’s not too late to look for that human kid in the future.”

With a swoosh, he sped toward the heavenly silver continent.

At the same time, Su Yu brought cat with him to the heavenly silver continent in an orderly manner.

Chapter 2092 Silent

On the way, Su Yu kept recalling the great battle with the mutated Tiger Demon.

During that battle, Su Yu used the ultimate several times in a row, and he had some enlightenment in his heart.

On the way, he hurried while quietly comprehending.

Occasionally, he would stop and fuse the Enlightenment in his heart into the sword form.

One month later, in the ancient forest that was extremely close to the silver continent.

Su Yu held the sword with both hands. His expression was solemn, and his aura was completely restrained.

At first glance, he looked like a mortal holding a long sword.

However, in an instant, his aura changed abruptly and became unusually sharp. Traces of sword qi drilled out of his pores.

It was as if he was the sword, and the sword was him.

“Sinkhole one sword!” Su Yu swept his sword horizontally.

Instantly, the entire world became dark. It was blocked by pitch-black sword shadows. It was as if the Sun and Moon had lost their light, and the world lost its color.

At the same time, the thousands of sword shadows shuttled around like Light Shadows. They actually cut the entire world into a faint black mark.

That mark was not something else. It was the power of nothingness that came from the tearing of the world.

The power of this sword was more than twice as strong as before.

Beside them, the bored cat susu was tearing off the petals one by one. As she pulled, she said, “He’s a bad guy. No, yes, no, yes...”

Suddenly, the sky turned dark. Cat Susu looked up and her expression changed. She said, “This guy’s swordsmanship is getting more and more terrifying every day.”

She had witnessed it with her own eyes. Su Yu had been training on the road and his swordsmanship was getting better and better every day.

Until the terrifying scene.

The space was cut open with faint traces. This was the level that a peak five-crowned emperor could achieve.

With just this sword technique, there should be very few people below the peak five-crowned emperor who could be his opponent.

Even if it was a five-crowned emperor who had just reached the peak, he could still use his sword technique to fight him head-on.

Looking at the densely packed scars in the sky that were gradually fading away, Su Yu nodded slightly, feeling rather satisfied.

The ultimate form had already reached the level of initial success.

If he cultivated diligently, it would not be difficult for him to reach the level of great success.

Looking at the heavenly silver continent that was just a short distance away, Su Yu put away his long sword and returned to the Heavenly Silver Continent Estate with Mao susu.

Inside the estate.

In a quiet and elegant backyard, Yu Wenqing was accompanying lie Hongzhen to admire the flowers.

“Sister Zhen, look at this flower. It’s clean, fresh, and beautiful. Do you know what I think of?” Yu Wenqing looked gently at lie Hongzhen beside him and said, “I think of Sister Zhen because people are more beautiful than flowers.”

Listening to the affectionate words, lie Hongzhen felt repulsed in her heart, but she couldn’t express it.

After returning for more than half a month, Yu Wenqing had been a guest in the Heavenly Silver Prefecture capital, visiting lie Hongzhen every now and then.

He had tried every means to find a chance to get close to her.

She knew that Yu Wenqing was trying hard to cultivate the relationship between the two of them.

But it was really hard for her to have a good impression of him. All she had was gratitude.

However, Yu Wenqing was very patient. He was not in a hurry at all. Not only did he deliberately create a scene where he and lie Hongzhen were on good terms, but he also continued to express his goodwill to the heavenly silver governor, causing everyone in the heavenly silver governor’s estate to mistakenly believe that the two of them were about to get married.

Now, wherever Lie Hongzhen went, he would hear the discussions of the servants.

The most common topic of discussion was that the young miss was deeply moved by the heroic act of saving the damsel in distress and was prepared to devote herself to him.

On the other hand, her father had approached Lie Hongzhen twice to have a heart-to-heart talk. From the way he spoke, it was as if he was trying to set them up.

It could be said that Yu Wenqing had already created an established fact that they were already together.

“Young Master Yu Wenqing, I’m a little tired. If you’re still in the mood, why don’t you let Lie Bo accompany you?” Lie Hongzhen said.

Yu Wenqing apologized gracefully, “It’s my fault for not thinking things through. Sister Zhen, if you’re tired, you can go back and rest.”

He knew that lie Hongzhen was still rejecting her.

However, with his methods of playing with women, he was already 100% confident that he could take her down.

Now that he had already established the facts, he was only missing a chance to force her to feel guilty from a moral point of view by saving her life. Then, he would accept her.

“Honghong! Is Honghong here? We’re back!”

All of a sudden, shouts spread throughout half of the mansion.

A Butler rushed over and reported, “Young miss, it’s cat girl and Su Yu.”

“Cat Su Su and Su Yu?” Lie Hongzhen was puzzled. “How did they get together? I’ll go and welcome them.”

Yu Wenqing was left behind. His eyes darkened and flashed with deep surprise.

Su Yu was still alive?

A hint of panic flashed in his eyes!

Once Su Yu returned, he would definitely tell Lie Hongzhen the truth. At that time, his persecution of Su Yu and impersonating him to steal the Beast King would be exposed.

With Lie Hongzhen’s hatred for evil, once he knew the truth, there would be no more possibility between them.

After all, he was an expert in love who had played with many women. Yu Wenqing immediately came up with a plan.

He found Lie Bo.

When he found out that Su Yu had returned, Lie Bo was also very anxious.

Back then, he had left his sister alone to escape. Only Su Yu knew about this scene.

If he said it out loud..

“What are you panicking about!” Yu Wenqing said indifferently, “Do you think that lie Hongzhen and the people of Heavenly Silver Continent believe the words of you and me, or do you believe the words of an outsider?”

Only then did lie Bo come to a realization. He said, “That’s right, what am I afraid of?”

“The situation back then was only true if we were present. Who would believe his words?” Lie Bo’s heart calmed down.

Yu Wenqing said, “Hehe, then let’s have a face-to-face confrontation and turn our fabricated story into the truth!”

The two of them quickly rushed to the door.

Cat Su had left without saying goodbye. Her sudden disappearance in the heavenly silver continent had become the heart of the heavenly silver continent’s mansion. If she were to go missing, they would not be able to answer to Luo Yunzhou at all.

Hearing that she had returned from outside, the important clansmen in the mansion all went over.

Seeing so many people, Yu Wenqing was even more satisfied.

If more people knew the “Truth”, then no matter who Su Yu told in the future, no one would believe him.

Mao Susu was surrounded by everyone and responded to them sweetly.

However, no one was interested in Su Yu.

“Hey, isn’t this Su Yu who left big sister and ran away alone? Why did he come back? I thought you would leave the heavenly silver continent from now on and never come back?” Lie Bo received Yu Wenqing’s gaze and said.

What he needed to do now was to provoke Su Yu and make him take the initiative to quarrel with them.

During the quarrel, Su Yu told the truth, and then Yu Wenqing told their “Truth.”.

In comparison, who did everyone believe more?

Without a doubt, it would be Yu Wenqing and Lie Bo.

On one side was Prince Xuanling and the third young master of the Heavenly Silver Continent, and on the other side was a human of unknown origin.

Whose truth was more believable was obvious at a glance.

“Running away alone?” Su Yu frowned slightly. He did not quite understand how he had run away. He said lightly, “Can you explain clearly?”

Lie Bo shook his head and sighed, “Do you need someone to explain what you have done? Don’t you feel ashamed if you have to ask an outsider like me to say it?”

Su Yu did not say a word and stared at him indifferently.

Thus, Lie Bo said, “When the mutated tiger demon attacked, you left my sister behind and ran away alone. Is that true? To think that my sister treated you so well, but in the end, she was a coward who only cared about running away.”

HMM?

Su Yu raised his eyebrows slightly.

He ran away?

If he remembered correctly, Lie Bo abandoned Lie Hongzhen and ran away alone, right?

Looking at Yu Wenqing again, Su Yu’s mind was filled with thoughts, and he vaguely understood what had happened.

It was probably not just running away. Even the mutated tiger demon that he caught with his own hands might have been Yu Wenqing’s credit.

Now, Lie Bo took the initiative to jump out and reverse the truth. He hoped to cause an argument between them and then tell them the “Truth” that they fabricated.

Su Yu immediately understood their scheme.

If he refuted, he would be playing right into their hands.

Thinking of this, Su Yu's expression was indifferent. He did not say a word and did not respond.

"Eh? That's not right?" Mao Susu's two cat ears twitched. "This guy's escape speed is terrifying. If he could save Hong Hong, why would he not take her along with him?"

She had personally experienced Su Yu's escape speed. It was even more exaggerated than that of a half-step dao master.

Was it difficult for such a person to take lie Hongzhen along with him?

Lie Bo said, "A coward. Even if he has the ability to bring others along, it is difficult for him to have the courage to save others in danger. It is not hard to understand."

He stared at Su Yu and said, "Why do you still have the face to come back? I thought that you would hide in the Heavenly Silver Prefecture forever and never show yourself again."

Hearing his repeated provocations, Su Yu was even more certain of what he was thinking.

It seemed that this was really the case.

He didn't say anything more and didn't explain further. He turned around and left the Heavenly Silver Prefecture.

"Wait, where are you going?" Lie Hongzhen called out to Su Yu.

Su Yu just turned around and said, "Go to the place you should be going."

The only purpose of him staying in the Heavenly Silver Prefecture was to get the pass. Since no one believed him, what else could he say?

Seeing that Su Yu didn't even intend to take the pass, lie Hongzhen felt strange.

Didn't he know that if he died outside, no one would give her a pass?

Since he could leave calmly, there was no reason not to save the unconscious her along the way.

However, her younger brother Lie Bo's words were conclusive. After repeatedly confirming that Su Yu had abandoned her and escaped, what else could she suspect?

She waved her hand, causing her younger brother and the people in the manor who were discussing fervently to shut up. She said, "If he had saved me, it would have been a kindness. If he had not, it would have been a duty. There's nothing to be harsh about."

As she said this, she took out a shining golden scroll with the Great Seal of the heavenly silver continent on it. She handed it over to Su Yu and said, "The pass has been prepared. Take it."

Su Yu thought for a moment and took the pass.

He deserved it.

He did not say a word of thanks. He only glanced at lie hongzhen and said, "See you again."

It sounded like he was saying goodbye forever. Looking at that pair of calm eyes, lie Hongzhen's heart twitched for some reason.

Thinking back to the scene when he first met Su Yu, was that calm and collected person really someone who would run away in a panic when faced with danger?

However, the facts were conclusive. Perhaps it was just as his brother had said, you never knew what kind of decision a coward would make when faced with danger.

“Have a safe journey.” Lie Hongzhen did not even urge Su Yu to stay.

With his reputation of abandoning her, Su Yu staying would only add to the embarrassment.

Su Yu nodded indifferently and left silently.

Mao Susu’s crafty big eyes looked suspiciously at Yu Wenqing and Lie Bo. She turned around and chased after them, saying, “Mortal, wait for me. I’ll go with you!”

Chapter 2093 Half-Ancestor Stone Demon

Yu Wenqing frowned slightly.

Su Yu left without saying a word, which was different from the intense and normal scene in his imagination. Not only did he fail to confront the truth, but he also aroused waves of suspicion.

“Something seems to be wrong. If he fled in fear of punishment, why did he have the nerve to come back?”

“He should understand that he won’t be treated well this time, right?”

“Could it be for the pass?”

“I keep feeling that there’s something wrong.”

Yu Wenqing failed to achieve his goal, but it would be best if Su Yu was willing to take the initiative to leave.

“Young Master Yu Wen, can you tell us about your heroic deeds?”

“Wow, this is the hero who saves the damsel in distress that only appears in the storytellers’ mouths!”

Su Yu’s departure was merely an inconspicuous ripple that quickly faded away. The attention of the ladies was once again focused on Yu Wenqing.

He was like the stars surrounding the Moon, receiving the unanimous approval of the entire Heavenly Silver Prefecture.

“Hehe, it’s a small matter. There’s no need to mention it again,” Yu Wenqing said indifferently.

“Say it! We want to hear it.” The beautiful eyes of the many young ladies sparkled with a sparkling radiance.

In the hearts of every woman, there was a hero that belonged to them who could save them at the most dangerous time.

Yu Wenqing was Lie Hongzhen's hero, right?

Not only was his strength outstanding and his status outstanding, what was even more valuable was his sincerity towards Lie Hongzhen that he would never give up his life for.

Looking around at the pairs of eyes that were filled with anticipation, Yu Wenqing sighed helplessly, "Alright, since you all want to hear it, then I'll be bold enough to tell you a simple story."

Thus, he told the story that he and Lie Bo had made up.

They had never witnessed the power of the tiger demon with their own eyes, so they naturally believed everything that Yu Wenqing said.

Hearing that danger had appeared, everyone tensed up and broke out in a cold sweat for Yu Wenqing.

After listening to his story, everyone was amazed.

"It's really a bumpy ride!"

"I didn't expect that the danger I encountered was even more terrifying than I imagined. It's really a narrow escape."

"It's too touching. Young master Yuwen has actually done this for Hong Zhen!"

Lie Bo saw an opportunity and said, "Sister, young master Yuwen has risked his life for you. Don't you think that you should express something?"

The moment he opened his mouth, everyone immediately jeered.

"Hong Zhen, I'm not asking you to give yourself to me. At the very least, you should respond to young master Yuwen's feelings, right?"

"Yeah, you two are a perfect match!"

"Let's be together!"

"Be together! Be together! Be Together..."

Everyone started to jeer.

Yuwen Qing smiled secretly. This was the result he wanted.

Seeing the intense atmosphere, Lie Hongzhen was at a loss. He knew that the perfect opportunity had arrived.

"Hong Zhen, my feelings are like the Moon in the sky. They are always in your eyes, but they have never entered your heart. I know you don't like me, but it doesn't matter. As long as my moonlight can illuminate the path ahead of you, it's fine."

Hearing his implicit and affectionate confession, many young women covered their red lips. They were both envious and touched.

“What a beautiful confession!”

“I’m so touched!”

“Hongzhen, quickly agree!”

“That’s right, if you don’t agree, we’ll all be angry! With a husband like this, what more can we ask for in this life?”

Under everyone’s heckling, Lie Hongzhen’s heart began to waver.

Forced by the situation, she looked at Yu Wenqing and smiled bitterly in her heart. She had mistakenly thought that she was repaying him for saving her life, then... accept him.

She really wanted to say something, but suddenly, the entire sky turned dark.

It was pitch-black, and not a single nebula could be seen.

A beam of copper light shot out from the heavenly silver continent estate, repelling the darkness that enveloped it.

However, in just an instant, the copper light was swallowed by the pitch-black.

A dim goshawk fell and crashed into the heavenly silver continent estate.

Lie Hongzhen’s expression changed drastically, and she immediately rushed over. She saw a goshawk with his wings broken climb up from the ground with great difficulty.

His eyes were filled with deep fear. He enunciated each word clearly. “Half-ancestor stone demon? It’s You?”

There were countless stone demons in the demon world, but there was only one who could engrave the name “Half-ancestor” in his name.

That was the stone demon king, one of the ten great demon kings of the Demon World!

He was wanted by the demon world for treason, but he was never brought to justice.

Because just like his name, he inherited half of the inheritance of the ancestor stone demon.

And ancestor stone demon was a demon emperor of a certain generation.

Half-ancestor stone demon, who had inherited half of ancestor stone demon’s bloodline, was terrifyingly powerful.

It was said that the ten demon kings had joined hands to hunt down stone demon king, but not only did they fail to catch him, one of them even died and three were seriously injured.

Half-ancestor stone demon ended up injured and happy. He hid and hid for hundreds of years without showing his face.

What frightened the heavenly silver governor was that half-ancestor stone demon, who had been missing for many years, had returned to the world!

“Half-ancestor Stone Demon?” Yu Wenqing sucked in a breath of cold air. His eyes were filled with fear.

That, that was the legendary most ferocious criminal in the demon world!

When his father, Xuanling King, met him, he could only flee. He did not dare to fight him at all.

Let alone him?

Half-ancestor stone demon’s powerful aura caused the entire heavenly silver governor’s mansion to freeze and fall into a deep silence.

When the black light disappeared, a stone man descended on the Heavenly Silver Prefecture.

His entire body was made of stone, giving off an extremely tough feeling. His entire body exuded an extremely domineering aura.

After the stone man appeared, he flicked his finger at the Heavenly Silver Prefecture Lord.

Immediately, a three-meter wide bloody hole appeared on the Heavenly Silver Prefecture Lord’s chest.

The storage space behind him was directly penetrated, revealing the details of the space.

A dying Tiger Demon was lying on the ground motionlessly.

The Rockman sighed. A palm made of sand appeared on the ground, bringing the tiger demon to the Rockman.

“Wake up,” the Rockman said, his voice filled with penetrating power.

However, the Tiger Demon was unmoved. Its eyes were dull as it raised its head and giggled.

The stone man’s expression changed slightly. It extended a finger and tapped the tiger demon’s forehead. Its calm voice had a hint of gloominess. “Your memories were destroyed? Who Did It?”

Everyone’s hearts skipped a beat as if they had been struck by lightning.

They could not help but look at Yu Wenqing.

This was the situation when he brought back the mutated tiger demon.

Moreover, when he told the story of his battle with the Tiger Demon, he had made it very clear that it was he who had shattered the Tiger Demon’s memories with a single palm strike.

Xiu --

Yu Wenqing’s face at this moment was like that of four people. It was livid with a tinge of purple.

“Senior, I...”

PA --

On the ground under his feet, the dust suddenly condensed into a palm and slapped Yu Wenqing’s cheek.

Yu Wenqing was slapped so hard that he spun around on the spot.

“Senior, it wasn’t me...”not only did Yu Wenqing not dare to show the slightest bit of anger, he even lowered his voice and said, “There was a misunderstanding!”

“Kneel!”The Rockman said indifferently.

Yu Wenqing gritted his teeth slightly. Without even thinking, he immediately kneeled in front of the Tiger Demon with a plop.

This scene made everyone feel slightly strange.

Although the half-ancestor of the rock demon was terrifying, in Yu Wenqing’s story just now, how he was fearless and indomitable, fighting with the mutated tiger demon to the death.

Why did he not have the slightest bit of backbone now?

Chapter 2094 The Truth Was Revealed

“Only a demon king is qualified to stand and talk to me.”Yu Ren could only kneel down and talk to him.

Half-ancestor stone demon said indifferently, “Tiger Demon was the general who followed me to establish the new Demon World Dynasty. He saved my life twice. In the last encirclement war, in order to save me, he lured the enemy away. Just now, he was captured alive and became the Beast King that you hunted.”

Hearing this, everyone’s heart twitched, and their expressions became even more unsightly.

“Tiger Demon is my Savior!”Half-ancestor stone demon looked up to the sky and sighed. “I’ve cultivated for hundreds of years. I came back to save him.”

“Who knew that you would actually do such a thing!”Half-ancestor stone demon stared at Yu Wenqing with a cold light in his eyes.

The original plan was to lure a son of a demon king of great importance, capture him, and use him as a hostage so that the demon king could untie the mark of prey on the tiger demon.

As long as the mark was not removed, the tiger demon would not be able to leave the hunting ground. Once it left without permission, it would immediately explode and die.

Who knew that the tiger demon would encounter an accident and its memory would be completely destroyed.

Even if the mark of prey was removed, it would still be a fate worse than death.

Yu Wenqing was so frightened that his face turned pale. He hurriedly said, “Senior, please spare me. I... I didn’t capture the Tiger Demon.”

Oh? Everyone became even more suspicious. Was Yu Wenqing trying to shirk responsibility?

If he didn’t catch it, then who did?

At that time, there were only a few of them present. The one with the highest strength was undoubtedly Yu Wenqing.

Demi-ancestor stone demon said indifferently, “Do you want to shirk responsibility at the end of the day? If you didn’t catch it, why did you bring it back to the Heavenly Silver Continent?”

“I . . . I Am...”Yu Wenqing looked around and stared at his own eyes.

Half-ancestor stone demon’s eyes gradually turned cold. “You have nothing to say. I Don’t ask you for anything else, as long as you end up with the same memory loss.”

As he said that, half-ancestor stone demon’s eyes widened. The sand around Yu Wenqing wriggled and stabbed at him.

At the moment of life and death, how could Yu Wenqing Dare to hide it anymore? He said anxiously, “It was Su Yu who caught the tiger demon. When it was in my hands, it was already in the form of a memory loss. It has nothing to do with me!”

Half-ancestor stone demon snorted lightly. “According to the rules of the Demon World, the Beast King is related to the opportunity to enter the divine guards. Why did Su Yu give you the Beast King? It doesn’t make sense! It seems that you still want to quibble...”

He could no longer listen to Yu Wenqing’s nonsense. Killing intent suddenly flashed in his eyes.

Yu Wenqing was so scared that his heart was pounding wildly. He was terrified and quickly said, “I snatched it!”

Half-ancestor stone demon thought for a moment and still shook his head. “I don’t believe your words.”

Yu Wenqing was filled with despair. At this moment, he couldn’t care less about pursuing lie Hongzhen. He only hated himself for holding this piece of dog skin plaster on himself. He hurriedly said, “It’s true! It’s all true! If you don’t believe me, Ask Lie Bo!”

Half-ancestor stone demon followed his gaze and looked at Lie Bo.

Lie Bo’s body trembled violently when he was just looked at. His knees almost collapsed. He hurriedly said, “I . . . It’s not my fault. I have never touched a tiger demon.”

Half-ancestor stone demon said indifferently, “Why? Are you also involved in this? Then, you are also involved.”

Bang --

A huge palm appeared under lie Bo’s feet and slapped lie Bo to the ground.

Lie Bo covered his face and immediately knelt on the ground obediently, he said aggrievedly, “Yu Wenqing and I didn’t do anything to the Tiger Demon. We didn’t even touch it. After it unleashed its hidden cultivation, both of us escaped. Only Su Yu remained there. So, it really has nothing to do with us.”

Hearing this, everyone was stunned and didn’t believe it.

Lie Hongzhen said in a daze, “Wait! What you said just now wasn’t like this. You all said that Su Yu was the first to escape. The two of you heroically stayed behind to protect me!”

The half-ancestor stone demon’s eyes were slightly sharp. He said indifferently, “Oh? This is interesting. It seems that you are trying to hide it from me and Shirk Responsibility.”

When he said this, the two of them were scared out of their wits.

At this point, Yu Wenqing did not dare to hide anything. He only wanted to get rid of the relationship immediately. He said anxiously, “No, that was a story I made up. The purpose was to trick Lie Hongzhen into liking me!”

“After the tiger demon mutated, I immediately ran away. Later, when you appeared, I took the opportunity to trap Su Yu and snatch his things. Then, in order to pursue Lie Hongzhen, I made up all the lies. Lie Bo can testify to all of this. If you don’t believe me, you can search my memories.”

Lie Bo nodded hurriedly. “Me too. I ran away from the start. The tiger demon becoming like this has nothing to do with me.”

Slap! Slap

Two loud slaps landed on their faces.

Lie Hongzhen’s eyes were spitting fire. She stared at them as if she wanted to eat them alive.

Her body could not help but tremble. It was unknown whether she was angry or ashamed. “I don’t blame you for leaving me behind. But, why did you take away Su Yu’s fruits and... and slander him?”

Her heart trembled violently. Her slap landed on their faces, but it was actually on her own face.

Just how blind was she to think that Yu Wenqing, this liar, was her savior, and instead, she thought of Su Yu as a coward?

Recalling how she indifferently gave him a pass and how Su Yu left the Heavenly Silver Prefecture residence without saying a word, Lie Hongzhen raised her hand and slapped herself.

Yes, she wished she could slap herself!

Why was she so foolish as to hurt her savior?

Everyone had fled. Even her own brother, who had received her demon blood as a gift at the critical moment, had abandoned her.

Only Su Yu, an outsider whom she had met once, had stayed behind to fight to the end for her.

But what had she done?

She had actually chased him away!

There was no one more cold-hearted than this, right?

Thinking of this, she chased after him with tears of apology.

However, in the vast world, there was no trace of Su Yu.

After this, he would probably never come back.

After half-ancestor stone demon heard this, he pointed at the two people’s heads and searched their memories. After looking, he snorted contemptuously. “Heartless and shameless people. Xuanling king is a person, how could he give birth to a coward?”

Then, he looked at Lie Bo and was even more disdainful. “Abandoning yourself to help your sister in the face of danger, and then helping others to play with your sister afterward, it can be seen that you are also a selfish and heartless thing.”

“I have killed countless people in my life, but I still find your hands dirty when I kill you!”

Half-ancestor stone demon’s feet merged into the ground. He looked around the heavenly silver continent contemptuously and shook his head in disappointment. “A hundred years have passed, and the demon world is getting worse with each generation. There are villains everywhere!”

With that, he merged into the ground and left.

The silver continent residence fell into silence. Everyone looked at each other and then at Yu Wenqing and Lie Bo.

“Shameless Thing!” Lie Yuan supported his wounded body and went up to lie Bo to give him a slap. “Big sister sacrificed herself, but you abandoned her! And that’s not all. You knew that Yu Wenqing was playing with your sister, but you still helped him to deceive her!”

Chapter 2095 Taiqian Empire

Yu Wenqing had a high status, so lie Yuan didn’t dare to vent his anger.

But Lie Bo, he was ashamed to be his brother!

The creatures in the Heavenly Silver Continent Mansion kicked and punched lie Bo.

Lie Bo could bear it at first, but when the butler spat at him, he finally couldn’t help but stand up and yell, “Who do you think you are, if you dare to...”

“Vile creature!” An irrepressible rage exploded in his ears like thunder.

However, the Heavenly Silver Prefecture Master was furious. He walked over with large strides, his aura gradually rising.

When he arrived in front of him, he raised his huge palm and ruthlessly slapped Lie Bo’s face.

PA --

This slap severely deformed half of Lie Bo’s face.

“Father, I...” Lie Bo covered his face in grievance.

“Scram! I don’t have a son like you!” The Heavenly Silver Governor sent him flying out of the mansion with a slap. “From now on, you are not allowed to take even half a step into the Heavenly Silver Continent!”

He actually intended to expel lie bo from the family!

Lie Yuan and lie Hongzhen glared at each other without any sympathy.

Even though they were relatives, it was really difficult for them to associate with such relatives.

The heavenly silver governor then stared coldly at Yu Wenqing and said indifferently, “Young Master Yu Wen, I will report your situation to King Xuanling truthfully. Now, please forgive the Heavenly Silver Governor’s mansion for not being able to entertain you. Send the guest out!”

With his order, the servants in the residence immediately chased him out.

Yu Wenqing staggered out of the residence, his face in a sorry state.

Staring at the signboard of the Heavenly Silver Continent Residence, Yu Wenqing looked annoyed. “You don’t know what’s good for you!”

As Prince Xuanling, he was actually treated like this!

However, Yu Wenqing’s greatest concern right now should be his own safety.

Previously, he was able to travel all over the continents alone because of his identity, and no one dared to provoke him.

But now, it was different. The appearance of half-ancestor stone demon meant that the rebel army of the past had reappeared in the demon world, and there could be people who would harm him at any time.

Looking around vigilantly, Yu Wenqing didn’t dare to act rashly again and immediately returned to his residence.

In the residence, Lie Hongzhen said, “Father, I want to go on a long trip.”

She owed Su Yu an apology and a thank you. If she didn’t express it, everyone would feel guilty.

“There’s no more chance.” The governor of the heavenly silver continent sighed. “Half-ancestor stone demon has returned to the demon world. Between the different continents, the spatial barrier will definitely be reactivated to prevent half-ancestor stone demon from causing trouble. The world will be divided. It Won’t be easy for you to go anywhere, let alone find Su Yu, who has disappeared without a trace.”

Lie Hongzhen’s face was deathly pale, and her heart was filled with regret.

Several trillion square meters away, in the Luoyun continent, which was far away from the heavenly silver continent.

Su Yu appeared on top of a 300-meter-long ancient tree. He looked around and said indifferently, “Can you let go of my hand?”

On his thigh, Mao Susu was hugging his thigh tightly, not letting go for a moment. “No! Mortal, don’t even think about leaving me behind.”

Su Yu said, “I’ve already done my best to send you here. It’s not convenient for you to follow me.”

This was a necessary place to head to the seven nights divine capital. It could be considered as taking Mao susu along the way.

However, she could not take cat susu along the rest of the way.

“Wuwu, I won’t...”

Without giving her a chance to act coquettishly, Su Yu Shook Cat Susu away and teleported away.

Cat Susu stomped her feet angrily and gritted her teeth. “Woah! You Don’t know how to take care of women. Don’t let me see you again, or I’ll bite you to death...”

As soon as she finished speaking, Su Yu, who had already left, reappeared.

Mao susu was stunned and immediately changed her words. “Well, in our Luo Yunzhou, I actually like you a lot when I bite you to death...”

However, Su Yu’s expression was solemn as he looked around the world. His gaze gradually changed. “What’s going on? Why is there a spatial barrier in your Luo Yunzhou?”

He had just used the Taiji Yin-yang wings, but he was suddenly obstructed by the isolated space.

Su Yu said this as he returned from the original route. However, a moment later, he returned to this place.

The original route was also blocked!

The entire border of Luoyunzhou had a spatial barrier that was isolated from the outside world.

The huge spatial barrier that affected the entire border must be a matter of life and death before it could be activated, right?

Otherwise, just maintaining such a spatial barrier would cost the equivalent of a year’s worth of resources.

If it was not necessary, such a huge spatial barrier would not have been activated.

“The spatial barrier has been activated?” Cat Susu exclaimed in surprise. Then, she cheered and jumped 30 feet high. “Oh Yeah! That’s great! The heavens are helping me!”

Su Yu glared at her before cat susu changed her words. “What I mean is that I can bring you back to the Luo Yunzhou Prefecture and thank you properly.”

After thinking for a moment, Su Yu said, “Alright, I also have something to ask the prefecture master of Luo Yunzhou Prefecture.”

He knew that Cat Susu definitely did not have any good intentions when she asked him to stay.

However, Luo Yunzhou’s spatial barrier formed its own body. Attacking one area was equivalent to attacking the entire barrier.

Without the strength of a half-step dao master, it would be impossible to shake this array.

It would not be an easy task to leave Luo Yunzhou.

It would be best if he could communicate with the governor of Luo Yunzhou. If that was not possible, he would consider using the dao extermination pestle to forcefully open it.

Under the guidance of Mao Susu, Su Yu instantly used his wings and flew towards the Luo Yunzhou Prefecture.

However, just as he landed, a rather strong attack came.

Su Yu opened his eyes and saw that the Luo Yun province mansion was engulfed in a sea of fire.

The mansion was being surrounded by a group of unknown demons.

Their clothes were messy. It seemed that some of them were peddlers and pawns, some were high-ranking officials and nobles, and some were the guards of the Luo Yun Province.

However, there was a yellow scarf wrapped around their arms.

Mao Susu's eyes were unusually serious as she exclaimed, "Rebels of the Tai Qian Empire?"

"Not good! Father!" Mao Susu's expression turned anxious. She was about to pounce down, but Su Yu pulled her back and said, "Aren't we courting death if we go down now?"

The number of rebel army was too large to calculate.

On the other hand, perhaps it was because the rebel army had appeared too suddenly that the Luoyun Prefecture Prefecture was caught off guard. Their troops were extremely few and could not last for long. If they went down now, it would be equivalent to sending themselves to their deaths.

"You can't Save the Cloud Prefecture. You can only find your father first."

Cat Su Su's eyes were filled with tears as she nodded her head in a daze. Her eyes were looking around anxiously.

All of a sudden, she saw a piece of remnant ice and said, "Look, that is the mark of my father's battle. My father has the ice attribute laws. Once he makes a move, there will definitely be a large piece of ice in the vicinity."

Su Yu understood and immediately used the eye of heaven to scan the area. Sure enough, he saw a series of traces of ice.

Flying over, he saw an exceptionally strong black cat standing upright and waving the law.

The Black Cat's muscles were bulging, especially the muscles on its chest. It was like a balloon that had been blown up. Its cat face was also filled with ferocity and wildness.

It looked like a muscular man.

Su Yu looked at him and then at the petite and cute cat susu. He could not help but be stunned. Was Cat Susu really not picked up by him?

However, the situation of the Luo Yunzhou governor was quite bad.

Chapter 2096 Terrifying Bones

He was currently being attacked by two half-step Dao Masters, and his injuries were severe.

The most frightening thing was his soul. Based on Su Yu's senses, his soul should have already reached the verge of collapse.

Now, it was all relying on him to hold on, and he couldn't last for too long.

What Su Yu didn't understand was that such a severe soul injury should have been caused by a soul attack.

However, the two people who were fighting with him, regardless of whether it was magic treasures or divine arts, were not soul attacks.

Could there be a hidden expert?

He scanned his surroundings, but did not discover anything.

"Governor Luo Yun, looking at how tough you are, just give up and surrender. I believe that half-step stone demon ancestor will use you well." The two half-step Dao Masters joined hands and struck the governor of Luo Yun Province until his body collapsed, leaving behind traces of laws everywhere.

The governor laughed boorishly. "Haha, it should be the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce who will put me in a good position, right? I'm sorry, I'd rather be a dead soul than a dog of the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce!"

As he laughed, the governor waved his law and fought with the two of them.

When did the mountains and rivers collapse and the flowing clouds turn upside down.

The vibrating power of the primal chaos formed a terrifying shockwave that destroyed everything in the surroundings.

Amidst the smoke and dust, governor Luo Yun was pierced through by two law chains and nailed to the ground.

"It's a pity that the great master of a generation will eventually fall." The half-step Dao Master who spoke shook his palm and the powerful law shattered governor Luo Yun's body.

Su Yu sighed silently.

If it was someone else fighting, he might not have interfered.

But the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce..

In his memories, anything involving them was definitely not a good thing.

Su Yu himself and the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce also had an unexplainable grudge.

"Hold on to me!" Su Yu shouted softly and used his wings to instantly soar.

The moment the body of the cloud Luo governor was crushed, he suddenly appeared and grabbed him. Then, he immediately used the Taiji yin-yang wings to disappear from the spot.

The two half-step dao masters immediately sensed him and chased after him in shock and anger.

However, Su Yu's speed was extremely fast, so they were actually unable to catch up.

Landing on a mountain top, the two half-step Dao Masters' eyes were filled with astonishment. "Who is that person? In terms of escape speed, he has already surpassed a half-step dao master, right?"

"No matter who it is, chase after him! The governor of Luoyun Province has a Wen yuan fragment. We have gone through a lot of trouble to capture him. We can not let all our efforts go to waste!"

The two half-step Dao Masters immediately began to fly all over Luoyun Province, searching for the governor of Luoyun Province.

However, with their strength, they did not discover anything.

Although Luoyun Province seemed vast, to a half-step dao master, they could cross it in a few breaths.

Within two hours, they had gone to almost every corner of Luoyun Province, but they did not discover anything.

Little did they know that in a hidden cave somewhere.

The little qilin used the void sphere to envelop the group of people within.

This way, their auras were completely isolated and could not be discovered by anyone.

"Father!" Cat Susu hugged the heavily injured Luo Yunzhou governor and cried incessantly.

When she left, Luo Yunzhou was still fine, but when she returned, it had already become like this.

Su Yu did not say a word. He simply took care of her injuries and said indifferently, "The injuries on your body are easy to deal with. You can rely on yourself to recover, but as for the injuries on your soul, forgive me for not being able to do anything about it."

He sighed deeply. If it were any other ordinary person, the governor of Cloud Luo Province would have already died.

It was just that his willpower was extremely strong and he was barely able to maintain his shattered soul. He didn't die immediately just now.

Now that he had left the battlefield, his tensed mind slowly relaxed. His soul was already showing signs of flowing away, and he was afraid that it would soon dissipate into the world.

The Governor of Cloud Luo Province leaned against the wall. He looked at the Void sphere and then at the little qilin. A trace of surprise flashed through his eyes.

Finally, he stared at Su Yu and squeezed out a weak smile on his rough face. "The human race? Sometimes, I really don't understand why there are always unexpected big shots from the lowest and third-rate races."

Su Yu didn't quite understand what he meant. Could it be that he had seen a powerful human before?

“Thank you for saving me,”governor Luo Yun said.

“I did it while I was at it,”said Su Yu indifferently.

The governor looked at him and then at Mao susu. He sighed and said, “Human, I want to give you something.”

“You are too kind, governor. You should try to speak less now. That way, you might be able to hold on for a while.”

The governor shook his head and said, “I don’t have long to live. If I don’t say it now, I will never have the chance to say it in the future.”

Su Yu was silent. He knew his injuries the best.

Upon hearing this, Mao susu cried incessantly. The faint aura of death from her father could not hide from her nose.

Governor Luo Yun stroked Mao Susu’s head, he looked at Su Yu and said, “I was once lucky enough to encounter the skeleton of a human mighty figure. His corpse was placed in the Abyss. From the place where the demon world existed, it was there, eternally indestructible. It can be said that heaven can not be buried, and earth can not be destroyed. Anyone within 30,000 feet of him would be crushed by the aura emitted by the corpse! “Even a half-step dao master isn’t an exception!”

Su Yu was shocked. The corpse that had been dead for so many years could kill a half-step dao master just by the aura it emitted?

This... What kind of expert’s corpse was this?

He had obtained the corpse of a Dao master before, but it didn’t have such terrifying power.

“The heavenly book characters of the absolute beginning realm are carved on that corpse. It’s so obscure that no one can figure it out. However, I think it must be something extremely important,”said the lord of the Cloud Luo Province.

Su Yu was moved. “Does it have anything to do with the gift you want to give me?”

“What I want to tell you is the location of that human skeleton!”said the governor of Luoyun Province. “The aura of that corpse is very harmful to our demi-human race. However, it doesn’t seem to have a strong reaction to the human race. The demi-human race can only get close to 30,000 feet, but the human race can get close to 30,000 feet. There was a rumor that a human race could get close to 30,000 feet and survive.”

“That human said that he saw a small cauldron next to the skeleton with nine divine dragons carved on it. It’s definitely an extraordinary divine item, but no one can get close to it.”

A small cauldron with nine divine dragons?

Su Yu’s heart skipped a beat as he couldn’t help but think of the nine dragons divine cauldron.

Could it be that there was more than one nine dragons divine cauldron in this world?

Who Was That Human Almighty?

Suddenly, Su Yu's chest trembled. It was actually the nine dragons divine cauldron. It seemed to have heard the words of the governor of Cloud Luo Province and had some reaction.

This was not the first time the nine dragons divine cauldron had reacted on its own, but it was definitely the first time it had reacted after hearing someone else's conversation!

Was it really related to the nine dragons divine cauldron?

He was excited. The nine dragons divine cauldron had always been a mystery that could not be solved. Now, perhaps he could finally find a clue.

However, he was still very rational. He said, "That skeleton has existed in the demon world for such a long time. There's no reason that only you know about it, right?"

"All the previous demon emperors and Demon Kings from all over the world know about it. Only a few governors know about it."

The suspicion in Su Yu's eyes deepened. "If that's the case, haven't the demon emperors of the Demon World Ever Thought About It?"

"Of course they have. However, even the seventh generation Demon Emperor, who overpowered tens of thousands of generations, and the great lord of the first generation, like him, were unable to get within a thousand feet of the skeleton. I even heard that because he forcefully got close, he almost turned into ashes."

Hearing this, Su Yu was even more astonished.

Even a pinnacle existence like the seventh generation Demon Emperor was unable to get within 300 meters?

Just who was that skeleton! !

After pondering for a moment, Su Yu said, "That place shouldn't be accessible at any time, right?"

The aura of the cloud Luo Governor began to weaken, and the aura of death became even denser. He nodded slightly and said, "Yes, that skeleton is located in the first forbidden land of the demon world, the Forbidden Land of dreams!"

"It is said that those who enter this forbidden land often dream of scenes from the ancient times. Many people are unable to extricate themselves from it and are forever immersed in their dreams. In the end, their bodies will rot and their souls will perish in it."

"Only when the Wen Yuan of the Demon World is activated and released a powerful demonic Qi will one enter the forbidden land and not dream of the ancient times. It will last for a year. If one does not leave the Forbidden Land of dreams within a year, it is very likely that one will fall into an ancient dream and then sink into it.”

“What is the Wen Yuan?” Su Yu asked.

The governor of the cloud Luo Province said, “The Wen Yuan is the first Abyss opened by the Demon World. It contains an extremely powerful demonic qi. It is released once every three hundred years, allowing the Demonic Qi in the demon world to return to its peak and ensure the success of the demon race’s descendants.”

“Only at this moment can one enter the forbidden land safely. Even the previous demon emperors only dared to enter at this moment.”

Su Yu nodded slightly, “Other than that, is there any other requirement to enter the Forbidden Land of Dreams?”

“Yes!” The Lord of the cloud Luo Prefecture said, “You need to carry a Wen Yuan fragment with you in order to freely enter and exit the Forbidden Land of dreams.”

Without waiting for Su Yu to ask, the Lord of the cloud Luo Prefecture said, “The Wen Yuan fragment is a hundred fragments that the first generation demon Emperor personally fished out from the Wen Yuan. They can form a very strange pattern, but other than that, they have no other use. In the end, they discovered that carrying this fragment can safely enter the Forbidden Land of dreams at a certain period of time. The Demon Emperor then distributed the hundred fragments to the meritorious officials.”

Su Yu did not say anything and waited for him to continue.

“The ancestor of our cloud prefecture had once obtained a fragment in the past. However, over the years, no one was willing to break into the forbidden land of the ancient dream. Therefore, no one paid attention to this fragment

“I did not expect that the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce would find out about the existence of that skeleton for some unknown reason. They wanted to steal it away. Therefore, the fragment of our cloud prefecture’s Wen Yuan has become a must-have item

“If my guess is correct, the fragments of the other provinces that hold the fragments have all been taken away.”

The remnants of the Taiqian dynasty that the Chamber of Commerce of the Star Alliance had secretly supported had made a comeback this time. They had appeared too suddenly and there was no way to guard against them.

Presumably, they had already failed.

Su Yu pondered for a moment and said, “Senior, do you want me to go there?”

His explanation was too detailed. It didn’t seem like it was for him, but for Mao susu.

“Yes, then bring my daughter along. Is that okay?” The governor said.

Su Yu frowned deeply. "If the dream ancient forbidden land is very dangerous, I suggest that you don't bring her along."

The governor sighed. "However, my daughter is the Wen Yuan Shard. If you don't bring her along, you will encounter unexpected danger at any time in the dream ancient forbidden land."

"She is a fragment?" Su Yu was surprised.

Governor Luo Yun chuckled, "My Luo Yun province's branch has always had a rough appearance. How could we give birth to a handsome descendant? "That's because the Wen Yuan fragment has fused with the cat element's bloodline. Just now, it affected its appearance."

So that was the case!

"Once the Wen Yuan fragment has fused with the bloodline, it can not be refined again. If you don't believe me, you can try taking out a drop of the cat element's blood essence."

Hearing this, Su Yu smiled helplessly. "Alright, I understand why Governor Luo Yun wants me to be a guard and send your daughter to the vicinity of the skeleton."

Chapter 2097 Seven Nights Divine Capital

Although it was said to be gratitude, it was actually for Su Yu to bring cat essence to the location of the skeleton.

There would definitely be benefits to Cat essence there.

And Su Yu was merely a bodyguard escorting her. He was only heading there on the way.

Governor Luo Yunzhou did not deny it. He said, "There are only 100 wen yuan fragments. It Won't be that easy for you to find the second one."

Su Yu thought for a moment and said, "Alright, I can bring cat susu along to investigate and try my best to protect him."

He believed that Governor Luo Yun had no other choice. If he had any choice, he would not place his hopes on Su Yu, who was only at the middle stage of the four crowns.

"Thank you..."governor Luo Yun's voice began to weaken. Finally, he fixed his gaze on cat susu, a loving expression appeared on his face. "Susu, father can only accompany you until this point in your life. From now on, you will have to rely on yourself..."

Cat Susu hugged the governor tightly and cried out loud. "No! No! I will never be mischievous again. I will never cause trouble again. I beg father not to leave..."

She recalled how she had run away from home several times. She recalled how she had angered her father so much that he could not eat. She recalled how she had committed so many mistakes and how her father had tried to make up for her broken heart..

As for her, she had never seriously thought about her father's silent sacrifice.

When she thought about this, she was overcome with grief.

The cloud region governor gently stroked her head, "The world is vast, and all living things will eventually return to dust. It's just a matter of time... cough cough... I think that I'm just a reincarnation of this life. As your father, I've been a puppet of fate. Becoming your father is fate, and leaving your life is also fate..."

Mao susu hugged him tightly and shook her head. "I don't want such a fate, I don't..."

Su Yu's heart was filled with emotion as he looked up at the endless vast ocean.

Why did people die?

Who was the one who made the rule that all living things must die?

Was it the Great Dao of the world?

While he was thinking, the governor of Luo Yun province had already walked to the end of his life. He raised his finger and pointed at Mao Susu's forehead. "SUSU, live on!"

A blood-red light instantly surged into cat susu's forehead from his fingertip.

Cat Susu immediately closed her eyes and fainted.

He looked at Su Yu weakly and said, "Parting in life and death... It's better not to let Cat Susu experience it... the human race... treat my daughter well..."

Before he died, he took out an identity token with great difficulty. It was an order from the governor of Luo Yun Province. With this token, one could travel through spatial barriers at will.

After he finished speaking, the aura of the governor of Luo Yun province dissipated, and his soul turned completely gray.

Su Yu sighed silently. He grabbed the token and buried the corpse of the governor of Luo Yun Province on the spot.

"Senior, have a good day!" His heart sank, and he picked up Mao Su and soared into the sky.

His aura suddenly appeared, immediately attracting the appearance of two half-step Dao Masters. He was both surprised and delighted. "Let's see where you can run to this time!"

Su Yu looked at them indifferently and said, "Those who do evil will die! The Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce will one day be abandoned by all living beings!"

With that, he spread his huge wings and flew through the air.

When he crashed into the spatial barrier, the Governor's decree in his arms was boiling hot, causing the spatial barrier in front of him to form a melting passage.

Su Yu flashed and instantly crossed the spatial barrier.

On the other hand, the two half-step dao masters behind him had no choice but to use their laws and spend time to forcefully break through the barrier.

Su Yu ignored all the spatial barriers in front of him and charged towards... the seven nights divine capital!

Not long after, he completely shook off the two half-step Dao Masters.

Several years later.

Su Yu and Mao Susu had gone through a long journey and crossed the entire demon world. Finally, they had successfully arrived at the Holy Land of the Demon World, the seven nights divine capital!

Cat Susu was slowly relieved from the grief of losing her loved ones. However, she no longer looked as mischievous as she used to be. Instead, she looked more mature and experienced.

“Brother Su, I have friends in the divine capital. They should be able to help you meet the demon prince.” On the way, Cat Susu already knew that Su Yu had come to the demon world to meet the Demon Emperor.

Su Yu said, “I’m sorry. I’ll have to delay for a while before I can go to the ancient Dream Forbidden Land.”

Cat Susu shook her head in understanding, “No, my father forced me. Brother Su, you should finish your own business first.”

As she spoke, Cat Susu took out a communication jade pendant and said, “Niu Niu, I’m here in Shen ‘Du.”

Not long after, an anxious reply came from the jade pendant, “The little bad cat is here in Shen ‘du? I’m so scared, what should I do?”

Cat susu snorted, “Then are you coming to see me?”

“Okay, I’m coming. The little bad cat has come to Shen ‘Du, how can I not come?” The other party’s voice was filled with surprise.

“That’s more like it.” Cat Susu put down the jade formula and said.

Only at this moment did cat susu have a trace of her previous mischievousness.

“You have so many friends.” Su Yu sighed. Even in the distant seven nights Shen ‘Du, Cat Susu had friends, and their friendship was not low.

Cat susu blushed and said, “We used to be friends who committed all kinds of crimes together. Don’t be surprised when we meet later.”

The two entered the seven nights divine city.

Just as the rumors said, there was an extremely powerful array formation in the divine city. Only by holding a pass could one enter safely.

Cat Susu entered calmly. When it was Su Yu’s turn, he crossed the city gate with the pass in hand.

However, as soon as he entered, the array formation at the city gate raised its alarm.

The soldiers guarding the city gate immediately swept their sharp gazes over.

“A Level One wanted criminal has appeared. Arrest him immediately!” The leader of the soldiers was a man in golden armor. His cultivation was quite high, and he was actually at the peak of the five crowns!

He glanced at the purple light flashing from the array formation and decisively ordered to arrest him.

Su Yu was stunned. He had never killed anyone when he came to the demon world. When had he become a wanted criminal?

Could it be that the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce had interfered?

How could he forget that there were several half-step Dao Masters of the Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce chasing after him?

Seeing the golden-armored soldiers walking over, Su Yu subconsciously wanted to make a move.

When Cat Susu heard this, she was greatly shocked. She turned her head and saw that Su Yu was about to make a move. She was even more shocked and hurriedly said, “Big Brother Su, don’t act Rashly!”

Su Yu hesitated for a moment and did not make a move.

Only then did cat susu let out a long sigh of relief.

The city gate of the seven nights divine capital was the important place of the imperial city. There was an array formation hidden with extremely strong killing intent.

The control of the array formation was in the hands of the divine guards here. Once it was activated, unless it was a dao master expert, all of them would be reduced to ashes.

If Su Yu dared to resist, he would be immediately executed.

The golden-armored soldier walked over and nodded at a few soldiers to place shackles on Su Yu.

The shackles contained a strange demonic power that could imprison all the power in a living being’s body, making it impossible for him to resist.

Of course, for Su Yu who had a soul dao fragment, his soul could not be imprisoned.

As long as he wanted to, he could still launch a soul attack at close range.

The golden-armored soldier took out a thin crystal chip. The crystal rolled, and countless information about different creatures appeared.

Finally, the information suddenly stopped rolling and stopped on one of the lines.

There was an extremely clear picture on it, and there was an extremely detailed description near the picture.

“Type: Human!”

“Strength: Unknown!”

“Danger level: Level 1!”

“Criminal record: Killed Three Governors, persecuted, played with, and killed over 30 women, robbed and killed over 100 passers-by, and killed over 3,000 pursuing soldiers!”

“Wanted level: Level 1!”

Looking at the portrait, Su Yu’s pupils constricted.

Chapter 2098 Princess Pixin

The person in the portrait looked exactly the same!

The only difference was that Su Yu had silver hair and the other person had purple hair!

Purple-haired Su Yu?

Su Yu suddenly remembered that Yun Qianshuang had once said that she and her niece were being chased by a purple-haired Su Yu.

Could it be him!

“Take him away and throw him into the heavenly prison to await trial!”The golden-armored soldier said casually.

There were too many similar criminals being caught every day. The Su Yu in front of her was just one of them. It was really nothing.

Mao Susu was worried. She definitely did not believe that Su Yu was a person of great evil.

Moreover, those criminal records were all done in the vicinity of Shen ‘du recently.

However, Su Yu had been traveling with her recently. How could they have come all the way here to commit a crime?

That purple-haired Su Yu was definitely not the silver-haired Su Yu that she knew!

Her face was full of anxiety. She immediately followed the soldiers and saw that they had escorted her to the prison. Then, she immediately rushed back to the agreed location with her friends.

In front of a restaurant.

With the restaurant as the center, the three nearby streets were all temporarily controlled by rows of golden-armored soldiers. No one was allowed to go near the restaurant.

In front of the restaurant, a short girl covered in expensive jewelry with a pair of dragon horns on her head was walking around with her hands behind her back. She kept muttering, “Why isn’t the little bad cat here yet?”

“Hey, I’m Here!”Suddenly, she heard a shout from afar. She looked up and immediately ran over with a smile. After sizing her up, she said, “Little Bad Cat, why have you lost weight?”

Cat Susu’s small face darkened. In the past three years, because of her father’s death, she had been overly traumatized. As a result, she had indeed become much thinner.

“Niu Niu, I want to ask you for a favor!” Now was not the time to reminisce about the past. Cat Susu immediately said.

The young girl patted her chest and said, “Speak! There is nothing in the fairy’s capital that I, Niu Niu, can not do.”

She seemed to be exceptionally confident in herself.

Cat Susu’s eyes were filled with anxiety as she said, “My friend came to the capital of God with me, but she was caught when she just entered the city.”

The young girl asked curiously, “Why? The capital of God is not a small place. They never catch people randomly. Did Your Friend commit a crime?”

Cat Susu shook her head affirmatively. “Absolutely not. I have mistaken her for someone else. You should come with me to save her first.”

She was burning with anxiety!

The entire demon world turned pale at the mention of Shen ‘Du’s prison.

None of the criminals who had entered the prison had ever returned in one piece.

It was fine if they had lost their arms or legs. Some of them had lost their memories, while others had even lost their lives.

Regardless of the severity of their crimes, entering Shen ‘Du’s prison was equivalent to losing half of their lives.

The young girl looked at Mao Susu and hesitated. After a long while, she rolled her eyes and said, “Alright, let’s go take a look first.”

Under the protection of a group of golden-armored soldiers, two petite and cute-looking young girls arrived at the Avici prison in Shen ‘Du.

The moment the young girl appeared, the many experts guarding the Avici prison bowed in panic. “Greetings, Princess Pixin!”

This young girl was actually the famous Princess Pixin of the Demon World!

In the life of a demon emperor, there was only one royal daughter and no more children.

As the only princess, Princess Pixin’s status was extremely high and she was well-known throughout the demon world.

Any demon would want to marry this princess and become the prince consort of the demon world.

Once the demon Emperor Fell, the prince consort would have the chance to ascend the throne and become the new demon emperor.

“Bring me to meet a silver-haired human criminal who has just been captured.” Princess Pixin changed her playfulness and became extremely dignified.

“Yes!”

With the princess leading the way, Cat Susu soon saw Su Yu, who was about to be tortured, in the depths of the dark prison with a pungent smell of blood.

“Brother Su, I’m here to save you!” Cat Susu said.

Su Yu was slightly curious. Who Did Cat Susu find to enter and exit the heavily guarded prison so easily?

He was sizing up Princess Pixin, and the princess was also sizing her up. There was a hint of dissatisfaction on her face. “Susu, you didn’t tell me that your friend is a man.”

Cat Susu knew that Princess Pixin did not like her having too deep a relationship with a man. She said, “It’s not what you think. We’re just very ordinary friends.”

However, Princess Pixin’s eyes were filled with disbelief and suspicion.

After pondering for a moment, Princess Pixin smiled coquettishly. “Hehe, I’m just joking. Who Is Susu? Do you think I don’t Know Her?”

Su Yu took in her expression.

This Woman’s personality was very similar to Cat Su Su’s. However, Su Yu was able to keenly detect that this woman’s playfulness was eighty percent fake.

She was very deep in nature and was completely different from Cat Su Su’s slyness.

“Show me his records.” Princess Pixin waved her hand and immediately, a powerful expert handed over his records with both hands in awe.

Princess Pixin frowned. “The crimes he committed seem very serious.”

Cat Susu said hurriedly, “Niu Niu, believe me, we’ve definitely caught the wrong person! We’ve been on our way to Shen ‘Du for the past three years. How could he appear in Shen ‘Du and commit these crimes?”

Hearing this, Princess Pixin fell into a brief moment of thought.

After a moment, she giggled. “I don’t trust anyone more than you. Don’t Tell Me I don’t trust you? Since you said it wasn’t him, then it’s not him!”

Only then did cat susu let out a long sigh of relief. She was very glad that she had made such a friend.

“However, although I’m a princess, I can’t release a suspect without permission. I can only get the divine guards to conduct a thorough investigation. If he’s innocent, they can release him soon.”

Cat Susu nodded her head vigorously. She knew Princess Pixin’s difficulties and didn’t ask for too much.

Princess Pixin ordered, “Immediately find out the true identity of this person. If you really catch the wrong person, bring him to the imperial palace to meet me.”

“Yes!”

“SUSU, let’s go to the imperial palace and wait.”

Mao susu nodded and gave Su Yu a comforting look. “Don’t worry, Big Brother Su. Everything will be fine soon.”

Su Yu nodded. He stared deeply at Princess Pixin’s back and did not say a word.

They left the prison and each boarded a beast carriage.

As they entered the carriage, the mischievous expression on Princess Pixin’s face slowly disappeared.

She supported her chin with one hand and her eyes revealed a deep expression. After a long while, she said, “Send my secret order. Regardless of whether that person is really guilty or not, throw him into the royal hunting grounds!”

“Yes, Princess!” A faint reply came from nowhere.

Princess Pixin leaned on the soft pillow, and her eyes were cold. “Not everyone has the right to touch the fragment of Wenyuan!”

Somewhere in the divine capital, in a restaurant.

A man in a bamboo hat was leisurely tasting wine. Under his wide bamboo hat, a few strands of long purple hair were occasionally revealed.

“Hehe, isn’t this tactic of waiting for a rabbit by waiting for a chance to strike?” He raised his head slightly and revealed his true face. It was Su Yu, or more accurately, the purple-haired Su Yu!

He had arrived at the demon world one step earlier and committed many serious crimes on purpose.

His goal was to borrow the power of the demon world to help him capture Su Yu.

The effect was very good. Su Yu had indeed been captured.

Right now, Su Yu should be a turtle in a jar, waiting for him to head to the dungeon and reap his life.

Chapter 2099 Danger Lurked Everywhere

“Su Yu, how does it feel to be schemed against?” The purple-haired Su Yu laughed savagely. His smile was filled with the pleasure of revenge.

It was as if he had been schemed against by Su Yu before.

In the dungeon.

The three divine guards were carefully and patiently re-examining Su Yu.

“It’s not fair. Why can he re-examine but we can’t?”

“Hehe, who asked us not to have a friend who knows Princess Pixin?”

..

The criminals in the prison were all shouting, full of jealousy and unwillingness.

A moment later, the leading divine guard, who was also the divine guard who had personally pressured Su Yu to come here, held a crystal chip in his hand and said with a smile, “Congratulations, the result of our examination is... that we didn’t catch the wrong person!”

Instantly, the prison cell was in an uproar.

“Hahaha, no matter how big the princess is, she’s no bigger than the law of the Demon World!”

“It seems that it’s not very useful to know a princess friend. She still has to die.”

The golden-armored soldier looked at Su Yu with a hint of mockery in his eyes. “Very disappointed, right?”

Su Yu must have experienced a huge difference from hope to disappointment, right?

Unexpectedly, Su Yu’s expression was calm as he said indifferently, “You guys are preparing to send me to the royal hunting ground, right?”

The golden-armored soldier’s expression suddenly stiffened as he stared at Su Yu in disbelief.

He had indeed received such an order, but how did Su Yu know in advance?

Su Yu naturally saw through Princess Pixin’s thoughts and thus predicted in advance.

It was truly heaven’s will. He had killed so many prey in the hunting grounds, but in the blink of an eye, he had become one of the prey.

A deep and cold light flashed past the depths of his eyes.

Su Yu could let go of what Princess Pixin had done to him, but she could not forgive the malevolent pain she felt towards Mao susu.

From her heart, Su Yu could faintly sense that Princess Pixin was planning something extremely vicious.

“Immediately bring her to the royal hunting grounds. Don’t delay anything.” The Golden Armored Soldier berated as he realized that something was wrong.

The other two golden armored soldiers immediately carried Su Yu out of the cage.

The golden armored soldier walked forward and looked at Su Yu’s body. He raised his hand and grabbed at the space of the Buddha Pearl on his wrist.

There were many important things in there.

However, Su Yu was shackled and couldn’t resist.

At this moment, the little qilin rushed out of the nine Jade Spirit Pearl and took away the space of the Buddha Pearl. He also took the nine Jade Spirit Pearl.

The golden-armored soldier was caught off guard. He used the power of a peak five-tiered emperor and slapped toward the little qilin.

The little qilin immediately turned into an illusion. However, because he wanted to take away the nine Jade Spirit Pearl, he was a step too late. His back leg was hit and his entire leg was instantly broken.

The little qilin himself let out a muffled groan as he opened his mouth and spat out a mouthful of qilin blood.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, the golden-armored soldier stepped on his back.

“Little Qilin!” Su Yu’s eyes revealed killing intent. Two dazzling rays of light shot out from his eyes and instantly pierced towards the golden-armored soldier in front of him.

Hiss --

However, the other party only felt a slight pain in his head before he looked over angrily.

Because of the short pause, the little qilin turned into a phantom and escaped without a trace. He couldn’t even capture his aura.

“You’re courting death!” The golden armored soldier raised his hand and ruthlessly slapped his face.

However, he held it in mid-air.

The Princess’s exhortation was to throw Su Yu into the royal hunting ground. She did not say that she would give him any punishment.

The princess had always been a man of her word. She did not like others to add to her words. If he really hit Su Yu, it might offend the Princess’s taboo.

“Humph! The royal hunting ground is different from other places. Let’s see how many days you can live!” The golden-armored soldier snorted. “Take him away!”

Under their custody, Su Yu was taken to a self-contained independent space in the depths of the royal palace.

In the space were criminals from all over the demon world.

There were so many criminals here that it was almost the sum of all the hunting grounds.

Criminals who could become beast kings elsewhere were only the top existences in this place.

The True Beast Kings were the three half-step Dao Masters!

The strength of the criminals here was beyond the reach of other hunting grounds.

Similarly, the hunters who came here to hunt were never ordinary hunters.

Only Princess Pixin, the demon prince, and many divine guards were qualified to enter this place to hunt.

Three golden-armored soldiers escorted Su Yu to a mountain villa in the cave world.

The mountain villa was filled with extremely powerful restrictions that even a half-step dao master couldn’t do anything about.

In front of the mountain villa, a youth with a relaxed expression said indifferently, “Li Quan, are you trying to lower the difficulty of the hunting ground by sending in some good-looking but useless prey all day?”

Li Quan bowed respectfully and said, “Reporting to the demon prince, this was sent in by Princess Pixin by name.”

The carefree youth in front of him was actually a demon prince!

The current demon Emperor indeed only had one son, which was Princess Pixin.

However, the demon Emperor himself had taken in nine foster sons in a row and was called the Demon Prince by others.

The person in front of him was the person in charge of managing the royal hunting grounds, the nine demon prince.

After learning that it was Princess Pixin who had personally appointed him, the nine demon prince’s expression changed slightly. He sized up Su Yu again and said solemnly, “Mm, remove the restraints and place him in the hunting grounds.”

As he spoke, the nine demon prince took out a collar and handed it to Li Quan.

Li Quan took it and sneered. He put it around Su Yu’s neck and said mockingly, “The nightmare has begun, prey!”

This person was Princess Pixin’s personal prey. He would probably become the priority target of all hunters.

The collar before him was a special item made by the imperial family. It could show Su Yu’s location at any time.

What awaited Su Yu next was a long nightmare.

After removing his shackles, Li Quan said coldly, “Use all your strength and start running! One step slower and you’ll die!”

Su Yu stared at him deeply and memorized his name and appearance.

Then, he soared into the air and fled into the depths of the forest.

Having hunted prey before, Su Yu deeply understood how dangerous it was to stay in the same spot for one second when his position was completely exposed in front of others and he was a hot prey.

Just as he left, all the hunters present couldn’t help but take out a compass.

There was a golden dot on the compass that was flashing rapidly.

“Specially selected prey?”The hunters couldn’t help but be overjoyed.

Occasionally, there would be one or two prey specially selected by Princess Pixin. If they could kill it, they would be able to meet the princess and claim credit from her.

Princess Pixin’s reward for meritorious officials had always been generous. The most common reward was also a sky demon blood pill.

It was a sacred item of the royal family of the demon race. After crushing it, it could release endless power.

If one could seize the opportunity, it wouldn't be difficult to break through to the level of a five-crowned emperor.

At the same time, one could also obtain the title of Hunter King.

With this title, one could directly enter the divine guards without going through layers of selection and elimination.

Up until now, Princess Pixin had personally selected nine prey. Every hunter received the above rewards without exception.

After twenty years, Princess Pixin suddenly selected another prey today, instantly causing the entire royal hunting ground to be in an uproar.

"I'm actually lucky to have met a prey personally selected!" Somewhere in the hunting ground, a peak five-crowned emperor whose aura was extremely close to that of a half-step dao master revealed a trace of excitement in his eyes. "Hehe, looks like I'm going to obtain the title of Hunter King again."

All the hunters in the royal hunting ground moved upon hearing the news.

Apart from a few hunters who were at the critical moment of killing their targets, almost all the other hunters moved out and rushed towards Su Yu's location.

Su Yu escaped into the depths of the forest as his mind spun rapidly.

His spatial storage device and the nine Jade Spiritual Pearl had been temporarily taken care of by the little qilin. It would probably take a long time for her to rush over here.

He had nothing now. Once he ran out of primeval energy and didn't replenish it, he would fall into a desperate situation.

"Xiu!"

The nearest hunter rushed over in exclamation and joy. He immediately rushed to attack Su Yu.

His cultivation was at the middle stage of the five crowns Emperor realm. He wasn't considered very high.

In the past, Su Yu should have been able to deal with him easily. But now, he didn't even have a suitable magic treasure.

"Six Laws!" Su Yu's eyes flashed. Without any hesitation, he unleashed all of his laws.

He didn't have any other choice. Even if he delayed a little, he might be surrounded by the other hunters. At that time, he would truly be in danger.

The most important thing now was to end the battle quickly.

The other party had just sent a law sweeping over. Before he could understand what was going on with the six colored laws behind Su Yu, his own law was swept away.

Puwah --

The six colored law followed the momentum and pierced through his chest. With a violent shake of the law, his chest was shattered on the spot.

A soul with a face full of fear flew out from the top of his head and fled into the distance at high speed.

Su Yu did not say a word. A crack opened between his brows, revealing a spinning vortex.

In just an instant, it devoured the other party's soul.

The mixed energy in his soul dispersed, and the pure soul energy was absorbed by Su Yu, becoming a part of his soul.

His soul expanded rapidly, approaching the middle stage of the five crowns Emperor realm

After dealing with this one, Su Yu immediately took everything from his body.

He barely found an ancient sword that could be used. It was probably an ordinary true emperor level divine weapon, and its power was average.

But at least there was a weapon that could be used. It was better than nothing.

The rest were just a bunch of talismans, pills and the like. They were of a lower level and had almost no use.

After finding an ancient sword, another hunter rushed over. His eyes were filled with anxiety. He was afraid that someone else would beat him to it and was anxious to make a move.

Su Yu's eyes turned cold. He swept out another six laws, destroying the opponent's body and taking away his soul.

As a result, his soul expanded by a large margin. He was just a step away from reaching the middle stage of the five crowns.

On this hunter's body, Su Yu found two usable swords. He also found an attack talisman of the middle stage of the five crowns.

After killing two hunters in a row, Su Yu flew west.

From the memories of the two hunters, he learned that in the deepest part of the cave abode world, there lived three Beast Kings.

Each one of them had the strength of a half-step dao master, and there were many powerful existences that were no weaker than the peak of the five crowns. Ordinary hunters did not dare to approach that place at all, so hunters were very rare.

If they went there, it should be much safer.

While escaping, Su Yu opened the Eye of heaven. With his huge eyes, he looked down at everything around him, predicting the arrival of the enemy in advance.

However, at a glance, Su Yu could not help but reveal a few traces of deep despair.

Chapter 2100 A Desperate Battle

There were too many hunters!

So many that he couldn't fight them at all.

If he had a magical treasure with him, he wouldn't have to be afraid at all. However, he was unarmed, so how could he fight against someone whose cultivation and magical treasure were far superior to his.

It was difficult to make up for the huge gap in cultivation between them just by relying on laws.

His eyes flickered violently. In the end, he gritted his teeth and changed his direction at the last minute, attacking the nearest mid-stage five crowns.

The laws swept past and immediately killed the other party, snatching all available items from the other party's hands.

After killing one hunter, he turned around and killed another hunter with a weaker cultivation level.

With the help of the Eye of heaven, Su Yu anticipated the enemy's opportunity. Under the heavy encirclement, he dodged left and right, continuously killing hunters with a weaker cultivation level.

In a short hour, Su Yu retreated and fought. He killed twenty middle-stage five-crowns in a row, reaping a bountiful harvest.

Apart from obtaining more than ten usable swords, he also found a peak-stage five-crowns attack talisman.

He finally had a way to save his life.

Apart from that, he crazily devoured the soul of the middle-stage five-crowns. Su Yu's soul finally crossed the initial stage of the five-crowns and reached the middle stage.

It was also a soul attack, but the power of the soul secret art was much stronger now!

Of course, Su Yu had also paid a huge price. His body was badly mutilated, and the recovery speed of his life laws couldn't keep up with the speed of his injuries.

More than half of the primal energy in his body had been used up, and he couldn't sustain too many battles.

What was even more suffocating was that he had revealed his strength, causing all the intermediate stage five crowns hunters to retreat, and no one dared to approach him again.

The ones attacking were all peak five crowns.

Su Yu looked through the Eye of heaven. In every direction, there were at least three peak five crowns. Breaking through their blockade was as difficult as ascending to the heavens.

However, Su Yu didn't have any choice!

He chose one of the directions. His eyes revealed a cold light as he gritted his teeth and rushed forward.

In that direction, the three peak five crowns weren't angry. Instead, they were happy and couldn't help but laugh.

“The target is mine!”The peak five crowns closest to Su Yu laughed out loud.

His body was short, but his eyes were exceptionally sharp. They were like two night pearls, emitting a bright light in the dark forest.

He was a famous Earth monk in the Divine Guards. He specialized in earth elemental laws. Not only did he have strong defense, but his attack power was also known for its ferocity.

Among those of the same level, his strength belonged to the upper-middle class and was extremely difficult to deal with.

The earth monk laughed loudly and transformed into a patch of yellow sand.

Su Yu was hurrying on his way when he suddenly saw the end of the world was dusky yellow. His expression was slightly solemn.

“Hahaha, the prey you’ve personally chosen, you surrender without a fight. I’ll let you live to see the princess. That way, you still have a chance of survival. If not, I’ll send you to your death!”The earth monk laughed loudly.

How could Su Yu believe his words.

Even if he could really let her live, would princess Pixin do it?

Taking a deep breath, Su Yu gritted his teeth and carried eighteen longswords on his back.

“One strike from the ultimate!”Su Yu did not retreat. Instead, he advanced and slashed at the yellow sand that filled the sky.

With a sizzling sound, the sky was filled with pitch-black sword shadows, cutting through the sky and leaving faint traces. They weaved into a huge net that enveloped the yellow sand.

Clang --

However, hearing the dense sounds of metal colliding, the Earth monk used his powerful Earth attribute defense to forcefully resist the sharp sword shadows that even cut through the air.

“What exquisite swordsmanship. No wonder he became Princess Pixin’s personal criminal.”The earth monk’s maniacal laughter weakened a little, and there was a faint hint of surprise.

He did not expect Su Yu’s cultivation to be inferior to a human, but his swordsmanship was world-shaking and so terrifying.

That sword had actually hurt him, even though the injury was not deep.

The ancient sword in Su Yu’s hand shattered with a crack.

The ninth move of the demonic sword was too powerful. Ordinary ancient swords could not withstand it at all.

Therefore, after performing one sword move, it was completely ruined.

Without thinking, he pulled out the second sword and suddenly slashed out. “Sinkhole sword move!”

With another sword move, he finally cut the yellow sand in the sky into a mess.

The monk was a little angry. “If you refuse a toast, you’ll be forced to drink a forfeit!”

The scattered yellow sand barely gathered into a huge fist that was as big as a mountain. It brought with it an invincible power as it smashed down with a loud bang.

However, there was an earth-shaking loud sound. Su Yu was sent flying hundreds of thousands of feet away. Blood splattered all over his body.

“Sinkhole!”

However, Su Yu stubbornly performed the third strike.

Ah --

With a cry of pain, the fist formed from yellow sand finally shattered completely. The monk who appeared was covered in cracks. His eyes were filled with killing intent. “Do you think I’m afraid of You?”

“Earth Soldier Law!”

Instantly, the Earth with Su Yu as the center began to shake violently. Soldiers formed from sand and dirt appeared densely and charged towards Su Yu.

“Sinkhole!”

Su Yu used the sinkhole sword again. As the long sword swept past, the huge net formed from interweaving crushed all the soldiers into dust.

The underground monk who was hiding in the sinkhole roared in pain. He was completely enraged and his palms kept slapping the ground. More and more powerful earth elemental creatures continued to emerge from the ground.

Su Yu’s gaze focused as he drew a sword with his left and right hands.

With a wave of his left hand, the sinkhole destroyed all living creatures, and with a slash of his right hand, he once again slashed at the underground monk’s body.

With his strong physique, he finally couldn’t withstand six consecutive slashes of the sinkhole, and finally, with a bang, a huge crack appeared.

Countless divine blood splattered out, looking extremely savage.

But to a peak five-crowned emperor, these injuries could only be considered medium injuries, not even serious injuries.

“Ah! Kid, I’ll Destroy You!” The earth monk only felt that this was a great humiliation. He was actually injured by a small four-crowned king prey.

However, what he didn’t expect was that after one sword strike, the other party actually took out a talisman that was used to attack a peak-level five-crowned king.

The earth monk's eyelids twitched wildly. How could he still dare to take it head-on? He immediately flashed and prepared to retreat.

But just as he was about to retreat, the word "Fix" that resounded through space and time like thunder exploded in his ears.

Earthen monk's entire body stiffened and he couldn't move.

He watched helplessly as the talisman attacked his already injured body.

Boom --

With a loud sound, earthen monk's entire body spurted out blood and his body showed signs of being severely damaged.

For a peak five-crowned emperor, such an injury would only require half a month to recover.

Finally, the Fury on the Earth Monk's face was replaced by fear.

He could not continue fighting!

He had never thought that he would be defeated to such an extent by a four-crowned emperor.

And the other party clearly still had some strength left. If he continued fighting, even if he did not die, he would still end up in an extremely dangerous situation.

"Brat, your nightmare has just begun. I'm only the first one. Don't even think about living for a day." The earth monk turned around and fled. As he fled, he roared furiously.

Su Yu didn't say a word. Two rays of white light shot out from his eyes. The light was incomparably bright, causing the earth monk to instantly have a splitting headache as he shouted, "Ah! It's a soul attack..."

Su Yu's soul power was comparable to the middle stage of the five crowns. The power of a soul attack was naturally incomparable.

The moment he held his head in pain, Su Yu pounced over. Both of his palms condensed an extremely dense power of death and suddenly imprinted it on his head.

The power of death invaded crazily and rapidly rotted his body.

No matter how strong his body was, the power of death was useless in front of him.

Ah --

With a mournful roar, the earth monk sent Su Yu flying, but his body was rapidly decaying.

Moreover, the power of death was spreading to his soul.

As his soul was in danger, the Earth monk gritted his teeth and had no choice but to leave his body. He turned into a streak of light and fled.

At this moment, he didn't even dare to say another word.

That human with the four crowns was too terrifying!

He used all kinds of methods to destroy his body.

Now, he only had his soul left and could only run away.

He thought that he had gotten a huge advantage, but now it seemed like he had kicked an iron board and was seeking his own death.

At this moment, his soul suddenly started to retreat.

He turned his head and saw the Earth Monk in shock. His soul flew toward the vortex between Su Yu's eyebrows uncontrollably.

"Ah! No, I... I don't dare anymore..."the monk's scream came to an abrupt end.

An unprecedentedly powerful soul power fiercely fused into Su Yu's soul, causing it to show signs of expanding again.

Su Yu took a deep breath. He had used almost all his methods to barely kill the monk. The main reason was that the monk was anxious to kill him, so he kept advancing recklessly.

If he had been a little more careful, Su Yu would not have been able to kill him.

After killing him, Su Yu immediately searched his spatial storage. He was pleasantly surprised to find that there were five attack talismans from the five crowns.

He let out a long sigh of relief. It was not a waste of effort to kill the Earth monk.

The only pity was that there was no good sword in it.

However, he did find some pills that contained the power of desolation and swallowed them all at once, quickly recovering a portion of the power of desolation that he lacked.

Xiu --

At this moment, under the observation of the Eye of heaven, the second peak five-crowned emperor rushed over.

Su Yu gritted his teeth and rushed over with a win-win situation.

"Sinkhole Sword!"

He first used sword techniques to open a path.

The peak Emperor Hunter that was attacking was shocked and immediately dodged.

He barely dodged and an attack talisman from the Earth monk exploded.

An extremely powerful power erupted from it and instantly injured the peak emperor and forced him back.

Su Yu took this opportunity to escape.

However, he didn't escape for long before the peak emperor teleported over.

The other peak-tier kings who were forced back also chased after him in anger and anxiety.

Su Yu held four peak-tier five-crowned kings talismans in his hands and crushed them at the same time, throwing them at the two of them.

Seeing this, their expressions changed drastically. They stepped aside and didn't dare to fight back.

Su Yu used the remaining primal energy and flew out in one go.

Under the observation of the Eye of heaven, there were no more peak-tier five-crowned kings in front of him. There were no hunters who could stop him.

Thinking of this, Su Yu felt a glimmer of hope in his heart.

As long as he arrived at the territory of the three Beast Kings, he would be much safer.

However, just as he was about to escape, a sinister voice sounded in his ear, "The most important thing in capturing a hunter is timing. For example, when the prey has exhausted all of their tricks and is at the most exhausted..."
