

Nine-Dragon 2201

Chapter 2201 The King Of Fate

Su Yu had never been afraid of anyone in terms of mind and strength.

The only thing he found difficult to grasp was that there was a piece of information on the nail that was not much, but it could not be ignored.

According to the information, the greedy wolf king was a very lucky person.

How Good was it?

When he was three years old, a meteorite from outer space hit him, and a top-grade defensive Daoist artifact immortal embryo fell from it.

When he was six years old, he was playing in the courtyard of the mansion, and accidentally dug out a three million year old country turtle from the ground.

When he was nine years old, he was walking on the street, and a beggar passing by gave him a manual that the DAO Master had been cultivating all his life!

When he started cultivating martial arts at the age of ten, he broke through the Ninth Heaven of martial arts in one day, and there was no bottleneck in between!

When he was twelve years old, he was kidnapped by two half-step Dao Masters, and coincidentally, there was a great battle between two Dao Masters from outer space. The aftermath of the battle just happened to kill the two Dao Masters, and he was safe and sound!

When he was 14 years old..

After seeing all these things, Su Yu could only describe them as unbelievable!

All of them were illogical and filled with evil.

He had experienced dozens of kidnappings in his life, but his enemies always failed because of all sorts of inexplicable reasons.

No one had ever succeeded.

The most unbelievable thing was that there was once a middle-sized Pirate Dao Master who forced him into a corner and was about to attack him.

That Dao Master was suddenly possessed and his mind was in chaos!

It was as if there was an endless amount of luck enveloping him and protecting his safety.

After understanding this, even though Su Yu was a hundred times more confident, he couldn't help but worry.

When he kidnapped him, would a similar strange situation happen?

“Fortunately, I learned the information in advance,” Su Yu thought to himself. If he really attacked him without knowing the truth, the consequences would be unimaginable.

Besides the Ravenous Wolf King himself, he had a dao master named Sky Crane by his side all year round.

His strength was not the strongest in the second peerless family, but his movement technique was definitely the fastest. Even the clan master, Pojun, could not catch up with his speed.

There were rumors that his movement technique was close to the heaven relic battleship of the past.

Even if he could capture the ravenous wolf king alive, it would be difficult to escape from his pursuit.

“How troublesome!” Su Yu frowned and pondered for a day and a night.

The next morning, his eyebrows gradually relaxed.

“I hope the plan works!” Su Yu stood up and said goodbye. A month later, he arrived at the central oasis where the imperial residence was located.

As soon as he arrived, he saw that the central oasis where the imperial residence was located was in a mess.

There were patrolling guards everywhere, pedestrians were in a hurry, and martial artists were buying daily cultivation resources wantonly.

A pressuring atmosphere was pressing down on the central oasis.

“The Pirate Alliance is coming. The world is going to be in Chaos!”

“Despicable pirates. If you can’t kill a snake, you’ll be bitten instead. Moreover, the Seven Treasures Alliance is involved. Why only plunder us?”

Su Yu heard that the ten great pirates had finally made their move.

Since the news was flying everywhere, he believed that they had already made their move.

“It’s about the same as the estimated time!” Su Yu lightly nodded, “The plan can begin!”

This time, there was only one goal, to capture the greedy wolf king!

The second most powerful family’s manor.

It was different from the first most powerful family’s manor, which was vast and boundless. Because the oasis was limited, the area of the manor was only 1% of the oasis, and it was surrounded by cities.

In the number two aristocratic family, this city was called Heavenly Star City.

The most famous place in Heavenly Star City, other than the Prince’s mansion, was the star observation platform.

It was rumored that the ancestor of the number two aristocratic family, the big dipper sovereign, had risen up in the star observation platform. After the Tian Yi Empire was torn apart, he successfully occupied this vast land and became an expert who controlled a region.

This place was already the birthplace of the second aristocratic family and was famous both far and near.

There were usually many tourists who came and went to visit.

Unfortunately, the Pirates had attacked recently, causing everyone to be jittery and no one came here.

However, today, the entire Heavenly Star City was covered with a letter of challenge from God knows where.

The content of the letter of challenge was: the vice-leader of the wolf pirates, Su Ruchu, challenged all the prodigies of the second aristocratic family!

The location of the challenge was the ancestral land of the second aristocratic family, the stargazing platform!

The challenge time was three days later.

This notice was all over the streets. With the shadow of the Pirates shrouding them, this challenge from the vice-leader of the pirates was naturally passed down from generation to generation.

In just half a day, everyone in the city knew about it.

“Has that vice-leader of the Pirates lost his mind? He actually came to the central oasis of the second aristocratic family and openly challenged the prodigies of his generation?”

“Does he really think that we will compete fairly with him?”

“Perhaps, that’s not necessarily what he thinks.”

“Ridiculous! Pirates are existences that everyone wants to kill, and he still wants us to challenge him one-on-one? Everyone, attack together and destroy him!”

The news finally reached the Prince’s mansion.

In a spacious cultivation room, a young man with a silver horn on his head was cultivating diligently.

His entire body was covered in muscles, and his eyes were sharp and spirited. His gaze was like two sharp blades, piercing straight to the depths of one’s heart.

“Young lord, there’s a piece of news circulating in the city recently.” A middle-aged woman in a moon-white robe hesitated for a moment before speaking.

The silver-horned young man was none other than the young lord of the 2nd Aristocrat clan, the greedy wolf king. He was a legendary character with heaven-defying luck.

“Speak.” The Ravenous Wolf King stopped his cultivation and calmly said.

“Recently, a pirate vice leader called Su Ruchu appeared in the city. He publicly challenged the geniuses of the second aristocratic family on the stargazing platform and caused a huge commotion.”

Hearing this, the ravenous wolf king laughed, “Do you believe it?”

“Of course not.” The woman said, “Unless he seeks his own death.”

The ravenous wolf king indifferently said, “But I believe it!”

The woman was slightly startled and asked suspiciously, “Young master, what do you mean?”

“He will definitely challenge all the powerful people in the world on the stargazing platform.”

The woman pondered and said, “He should know that no one will really challenge him fairly, right? It is inevitable that he will be attacked by the crowd.”

“Hehe...” the ravenous wolf king chuckled, “So, he must have set up a trap to entertain the so-called Heaven’s pride.”

Hearing this, the woman deeply agreed.

He knew he was going to die, yet he still openly challenged all the heroes in the world?

As long as he wasn’t stupid, he must have another plot.

“His true goal, I guess, should be to lure me out?” The Ravenous Wolf King’s eyes were filled with deep wisdom, as if he could see everything clearly, he said sarcastically, “He really looks down on me. Such a simple trap, yet he wants to lure me in?”

The woman deeply agreed. The pirates collectively took revenge, and their main targets were naturally the family head and the young master.

The strange appearance of Su Ruchu, the target was most likely the young master.

“Young master is wise! Then, should we inform those heaven’s favorites not to be tricked?”

The greedy wolf king didn’t think much of it, contemptuously, he said, “If you can’t even see through this little trap, then you can’t be called a heaven’s favorite. Your death is in vain! “Just get someone to stand guard at the foot of the mountain and wait for him to appear. Then, we’ll just kill him! “As for those people with developed brains and simple limbs, we don’t need to care about their lives anymore!”

Chapter 2202 Merciless Destruction Of Flowers

“Yes, Young Master!”

The Geniuses of the second peerless family rubbed their palms together as three days slowly passed.

On this day, the star observation platform, which was already slightly cold, was actually filled with people.

Many geniuses who were unsatisfied with Su Ruchu arrived at the foot of the mountain and came to accept the challenge.

In the crowd, there were two people that Su Yu was quite familiar with.

One of them was the sister of the beautiful woman in the palace dress, Shu Xianduo!

The other person was the former guest elder of the number one aristocratic family who had a strong desire to kill Su Yu, guest elder Lu!

That day, when the Heaven Destroying Mountain was in chaos, the prison was also broken through by the remnants of the Qian family of the number two aristocratic family. Many of the prisoners that were locked up were taken away by the number two aristocratic family.

Most of them harbored resentment towards the number one aristocratic family. It was very easy for them to join the number two aristocratic family and become the enemy of the number one aristocratic family.

Guest elder Lu was framed by Su Yu, so one could imagine the resentment in his heart.

Therefore, he joined the number two aristocratic family without hesitation.

“Are there really reckless pirates who came to the stargazing platform to challenge everyone?” Guest elder Lu asked.

Shu Xianduo nodded. “There is indeed such a thing. His name is Su Ruchu, and he seems to have joined the pirates recently.”

Guest elder Lu was slightly solemn. “He can become the vice-leader of the Pirates just because he joined? I’m afraid this person is not simple.”

He raised his head and looked at the star observation platform.

The star observation platform was located at the foot of the mountain. If they wanted to go up, they would have to go through an ancient mountain path.

Because of the ancestor of the second most powerful aristocratic family, the mountain path was filled with a powerful suppressive force. It was impossible for them to fly and they could only walk forward.

“Don’t act rashly later.” Guest elder Lu’s old eyes narrowed slightly.

Shu Xianduo nodded. “Alright!”

Suddenly, a malevolent-looking devil figure suddenly appeared on the star observation platform. It was the body of a human devil.

Under Su Yu’s control, he stood at the edge of the mountain peak and lowered his head to look down. His eyes were filled with contempt. “The second peerless family really doesn’t have anyone? Only a few kittens came?”

The moment these words were said, it immediately caused the heaven’s favorites present to feel indignant.

“Shameless pirate, today I’ll Crush Your Bones and Scatter Your Ashes!” A handsome young man dressed in white rushed forward with a sword in his hand.

His white clothes fluttered in the wind, accentuating his handsome and extraordinary figure.

“Wow! It’s the white-robed sword God!”

“Senior Brother Sword God, kill him with one strike!”

“The white-robed sword God is invincible with his divine sword! I can finally see him personally make a move. This trip was really worth it!”

Hearing the admiration of the people behind him, the white-robed sword God’s vanity was greatly satisfied.

“Pirate, take this sword attack that I recently comprehended!”The white-robed sword God ascended the stargazing platform, pulled out the seven stars treasured sword on his back, and slashed out. “Seven Stars Dazzling Sun!”

With a sweep of the sword, seven dazzling rays of starlight covered the heaven and earth, refracting the extremely dazzling light.

The strength of the sword technique attracted cheers from the foot of the mountain.

“The sword technique of the white-clothed sword God has become much more exquisite!”

“With just this sword, he should be able to kill his way into the top 200 half-step Dao Masters!”

“He brought this upon himself. That pirate will definitely die!”

..

While they were discussing, the demonic man with an evil aura pulled out a black longsword that gave off an even more evil aura. It was the evil sword of the evil daughter.

“Sinkhole!”

The eighth style of the demonic sword technique swept out, and countless pitch-black sword shadows covered the sky like impenetrable dark clouds, swallowing the dazzling radiance of the seven stars dazzling sun.

At the same time, the dark clouds suddenly came down. The white-robed sword god was slashed into pieces, and his body was also cut into a bloody mess.

In an instant, he was heavily injured.

“Trash!”The demonic man laughed sinisterly and rushed forward, slapping his face with a huge palm.

PA --

With a loud thud, the heavily injured white-robed sword god was slapped down the mountain peak and rolled down.

Everyone was furious when they saw the unconscious white-robed sword god.

However, the demi-human added fuel to the fire and said, "I already said that the second-best aristocratic family only has a few kittens and puppies. Is this all your so-called white-robed sword God has? That's really disappointing."

As soon as these words were said, it immediately triggered anger!

"Don't be arrogant! I'll come and meet you!" A fresh woman in a yellow gown and a fallen horse's hair quickly climbed up the mountain.

She was beautiful and had a fresh and elegant temperament, just like a pear flower.

"Early morning flower girl! She actually came!"

"Early morning flower girl is the most talented person in the second peerless family's Branch!"

"Hahaha, the heavens will take care of the wicked. She actually alerted the early morning flower girl!"

..

Whoosh --

The early morning flower girl ascended the star observation platform. Her beautiful eyes stared at Su Yu and said, "Devil! Surrender!"

The demi-human laughed evilly and said, "Little Beauty, after you surrender, can you kiss me? If you can, I'm very willing to surrender in the hands of a beauty."

Such shameless and vulgar words immediately attracted the angry curses of the people at the foot of the mountain.

The pretty face of the early morning flower girl turned cold. "Do you think you're qualified to touch me?"

Without saying anything else, the early morning flower girl pointed with her orchid finger, and a powerful law chain swept over.

In terms of the power of laws, there should be few people of the same level who could withstand it. It was much more powerful than the sword attack of the white-robed sword God.

"Hehe!" However, the demi-human only grabbed the chain with his palm.

The body of the demi-human was a complete dao body. How could a mere law chain injure it?

"What?" The morning flower girl turned pale with fright.

"Hehe, are you surprised?" The demi-human laughed Evilly and pulled on the chain. The morning flower girl couldn't control herself as she spun towards the demi-human.

The morning flower girl did not panic. A strange light flashed in her eyes. Just as she was about to pounce near the demi-human, she opened her mouth and spat out a steel needle, stabbing at the demi-human's eyes.

Unexpectedly, the demi-human had a faint smile on his face, as if he had already expected this.

He opened his mouth and bit the silver needle that was flying towards him.

Puff --

At the same time he spat it out, the demi-human's palm image spun towards the morning flower girl's chest.

A powerful force penetrated her body from her chest and came out from her back.

Puah --

In an instant, the morning flower girl was like an injured butterfly, spraying fresh blood as she flew from the mountain and landed on the ground.

Putong --

With a muffled sound, the morning flower girl fell to the ground. No one knew if she was dead or alive.

Her outer clothes were shattered, and the only part of her tube-top that was left was dripping with blood.

"She's quite beautiful, but unfortunately, she's just a flower vase that can't be of any use!" The human devil indifferently spoke.

The eyes of the people at the foot of the mountain were about to pop out of their sockets.

The morning flower girl was the pearl of the second ultimate civilization. They had treated her as a treasure, yet she was actually destroyed by a pirate!

"Unforgivable!"

"Brothers, let's attack together and kill him!"

"Killing a pirate is the right and proper thing to do. It has nothing to do with fairness. Charge!"

The early morning flower girl's death completely ignited their anger. Thousands of heaven's favorites shouted as they went against the current.

The human demon's contempt deepened, and a mocking expression appeared on his face. "Since you guys don't keep your promise to challenge me, then I won't stand on ceremony!"

The human demon pressed his palm on the ground, and a hidden binding formation immediately appeared along the mountain path.

Chapter 2203 Identity Change

Hundreds of formations suddenly appeared. The formation shot out vines that were formed from energy, wrapping around most of the people and making them unable to move.

Only at this moment did they realize that they had been tricked!

“There’s a trap!”

“Damned Pirate, you broke your promise!”

The human demon laughed. “Don’t blame the enemy’s craftiness because of your incompetence! Besides, I may have set up a trap, but you guys don’t intend to fulfill the challenge agreement, right? We’re the same!”

As he spoke, the human demon slowly walked down with the sin sword in his hand, and a dark, savage expression appeared on his face.

“Before our pirate army arrives, we will first sacrifice the heads of you and the others to pay tribute to the pirate brothers who were killed by you!” The human demon had a savage look on his face as he arrived in front of the array formation. He took a deep breath and activated the sin sword.

“Sinkhole!”

The world instantly turned dark, and sword shadows that were like ink clouds covered the sky and pressed down.

The sharp killing intent contained within the Sword Shadows was enough to kill most of the people present.

They were bound by the formation and couldn’t escape even if they wanted to for a short period of time.

Boundless despair enveloped everyone deeply.

“No! Don’t!”

“I don’t want to die yet!”

Those who were lucky enough to not be bound by the formation were all intimidated by the terrors of the demi-human demons.

Among them were guest elder Lu and Shu Xianduo.

Even a powerful half-step dao master like the early morning flower girl had been knocked unconscious by the blow. It would be difficult for them to curry favor with the demi-demons.

As the demi-demons approached, they were about to slaughter all the heaven’s favorites.

At this moment, a young man in a moon-white robe suddenly rushed over from the distant horizon.

He wore a bamboo hat on his head and carried a crystal longsword on his back.

“HMPH! What kind of monster dares to act so atrociously in my Heavenly Star City!” This person stepped on the air and used spatial laws. He ignored the suppression on the star observation platform and arrived on top of the demi-demon’s head.

The eyes of the demi-demon narrowed. “Spatial laws? Who Are You?”

As he spoke, the demi-demon unceremoniously swept his sword towards the top of his head.

However, what everyone could not imagine was that the white-robed young man did not Dodge. He merely extended an arm.

At the same time, his arm was quickly covered in a layer of pitch-black dragon scales that turned into a dragon claw.

Facing the evil sword, he grabbed with his palm. He was not afraid of how terrifying the evil sword was and grabbed it.

“Let Go!” The young man’s arm shook. The huge force directly broke the demonic man’s arm.

The evil sword was also caught by Su Yu.

The shocking scene made everyone excited. “Who is he? He seems to be about the same age as us?”

“It can’t be. Is there such a powerful Heaven’s favorite in our second absolute world?”

..

The Human Demon’s evil sword was taken away, and his expression became more serious. he shouted, “Kid, don’t meddle in other people’s business. I want to kill them, and it has nothing to do with you!”

The white-robed young man snorted coldly, “The world is clear, and righteousness is unfailing! You killed innocent people indiscriminately. As a member of the second-best aristocratic family, how can i sit back and do nothing? Devil, Surrender!”

The human-devil clutched his broken arm and retreated towards the star observation platform. He said in a solemn voice, “Consider it your win. We will meet again!”

“HMPH! You want to leave? who allowed you to do so?”

The white-robed youth caught up with him, his eyes as cold as ice.

“Kid! I’ve already given up. What else do you want? Do you really want to fight to the death with me?”

“Fight to the death? You’re probably not worthy!” The white-robed youth strolled up unhurriedly.

The demi-human had a ferocious expression. “You brought this on yourself!”

His huge demonic palm slapped over.

The white-robed young man merely stretched out a finger and lightly tapped the palm of the demi-human.

Pu --

A shocking scene appeared. The powerful arm of the demi-human was actually shattered by a single tap.

“Ah!”The demi-human screamed in pain and fled in fear.

The white-robed young man chased after him at a moderate speed. Every time he caught up to him, he would shatter part of his body with a single tap.

When he reached the star observation platform, the human demon only had one leg left. He was jumping on the ground with great difficulty, trying to jump onto the star observation platform. After leaving this area of suppression, he would cross the sky and escape.

Unfortunately, the young man did not give him a chance. He tapped his forehead with a finger.

The human demon roared unwillingly, “Ah! You Won’t have a good ending!”

The young man said indifferently, “Then there’s no need for you, demon, to worry!”

After saying that, he pointed his finger and pierced through the demi-human’s head.

The demi-human’s eyes dimmed, and he completely collapsed.

Everyone stared at the scene in front of them in shock, unable to believe their eyes.

The demi-human, who was arrogant and arrogant just a moment ago, was crushed by someone without the ability to retaliate in the blink of an eye!

If they hadn’t seen it with their own eyes, how could they believe that there was such a peerless expert in the world with such a powerful camera?

In terms of true martial strength, even the young master, the Ravenous Wolf King, could not compare to him, right?

The moon-white-robed young man put away the corpse of the demi-human and the evil sword of the spoils of war without any change in expression. Only then did he return and untie everyone’s shackles.

He was undoubtedly Su Yu.

With Su Yu’s intelligence, how could he hope that a simple trap would be able to lure out the young master, who was known for his craftiness?

He wanted to use a series of tricks that were hard to detect.

At this moment, everyone looked at him with endless reverence.

The white-robed sword God who had awoken sized up Su Yu’s bamboo hat. His eyes were filled with deep gratitude and admiration. He cupped his fists and said, “I am the white-robed sword God. Thank you for saving me, Brother.”

The rest of the people gathered around to express their deep gratitude.

Su Yu waved his hand lightly. “It’s nothing. Furthermore, we are from the same generation of the second-best aristocratic family. I am duty-bound!”

Everyone was shocked when they heard him boast about himself as a member of the second-best aristocratic family.

The morning flower girl, who had been saved by someone else, put on her clothes again. Her slightly disheveled face was filled with deep admiration. She said, "May I ask who you are, young master? May I know your name? I wish to thank you, benefactor, for saving my life."

Su Yu smiled indifferently. "I'm from the Golden Star Continent. I'm Wen Shang!"

The first morning flower girl's eyes flashed with a charming light as she turned around and bowed. "So it's young master Wen Shang. I've heard a lot about you."

Even though she said that, she was just like everyone else. They were all surprised. Why had they never heard of the name Wen Shang?

This person was so powerful. How could he be so unknown?

"Since everyone is safe, I'll return and continue to cultivate in seclusion."

Hearing that, everyone was astonished. Could Wen Shang be a hidden genius?

There were indeed extremely rare geniuses in history. They were unknown throughout their lives because they spent most of their time cultivating in seclusion.

However, there were too few of them.

Which genius wasn't arrogant and wanted to make a name for himself?

There were very few who were willing to devote themselves to cultivation and not pursue fame and fortune.

Although such an answer was surprising, it was still reasonable.

Seeing that Su Yu was about to leave, how could they give up and leave?

A hidden genius without any background, any force would want to include him, right?

"Young Master Wen Shang, you have saved my life. Please don't be stingy and come to my residence as a guest. I will definitely treat you warmly," the morning flower girl said enthusiastically.

The white-robed sword god said, "Young Master Wen Shang, let me treat you. After all, the morning flower girl is a woman. Being alone in a room will inevitably cause people to make wild guesses."

"Young Master Wen Shang, I am also very grateful to you for saving my life. Please Don't decline my hospitality and come to my residence as a guest..."

"Me Too..."

In the blink of an eye, Su Yu was locked onto by many passionate gazes and they rushed to invite him.

Su Yu's mouth inadvertently across a trace of a faint smile, capture the greedy wolf king, the first step officially began!

Chapter 2204 Plundering Pirates

“Thank you for your kindness, but I, Wen Shang, like peace and tranquility. I don’t like liveliness. I appreciate your kindness.” Su Yu tactfully rejected.

Everyone felt extremely disappointed. It was indeed not so easy to rope in such a character.

“It’s fine.” The morning flower girl smiled. “Is young master Wen Shang planning to go back and cultivate?”

Everyone turned their gazes to Su Yu, thinking of all sorts of things.

If Young Master Wen Shang really left, it would be impossible to befriend him directly.

Su Yu contemplated for a moment before glancing at the remnants of the battle, “Initially, I did plan to do so, but...”

Staring at the horizon, Su Yu frowned deeply, “However, as a member of the second-ranked aristocratic family, there’s no reason for me to just stand by and watch as the Pirate Alliance attacks!”

“I’ve decided to stay and fight against the Pirates with everyone.”

Hearing this, everyone was gratified.

Early Morning Flower Girl took the initiative and said, “Young Master Wen Shang is a man of great righteousness and is a role model for all of us! It’s better to meet him on a different day. Today, we will hold a welcoming banquet for young master Wen Shang!”

“Good Idea!”

“Young Master Wen Shang, don’t retreat. This is our intention!”

Seeing that it was difficult to reject such a kind offer, Su Yu said awkwardly, “Alright! But let’s skip the banquet. I Can’t stand everyone’s banquet. Why don’t we treat it as a meeting to fight the Pirates?”

“Alright, let’s ask Young Master Shang!”

Thus, everyone moved to the most luxurious restaurant in Heavenly Star City.

Other than Su Yu, there were nearly a thousand people attending the banquet.

Among them, other than the morning flower girl and the white-robed sword God, the rest of the so-called heaven’s favorites could only be considered second-rate.

The True Heaven’s favorites had long seen through ‘Su Ruchu’s’ scheme and did not go to the star observation platform.

Among them, Su Yu was like a crane among a flock of chickens, naturally becoming the center.

“The Pirate Alliance is very aggressive this time and aims to take revenge. I think the target of their revenge should be the patriarch and young patriarch,” Su Yu said with confidence.

Everyone pondered and nodded. This was already a consensus.

The white-robed god of swords asked, "Then, how do we defend against the Pirates? Do you have any ideas, young master Shang?"

The main force to defend against the pirates was the experts gathered by the imperial residence and the imperial residence.

As members of the younger generation, they were actually under protection and were not forced to defend against the pirates.

Hence, they did not have a complete plan.

Su Yu was already prepared and said, "We naturally don't need to act in a direct battle, but we can assist from the side!"

"May I ask Young Master Shang for details?" Morning Flower Girl asked.

Following that, Su Yu discussed with them several feasible plans.

Of course, it was only the outline of the plan. It was naturally not appropriate to reveal too many details.

Who knew if there were any pirate spies present?

After several days of conversation, everyone was eager to give it a try.

If they could make a contribution in the fight against the pirates, they would undoubtedly receive more attention from the royal mansion in the future.

After the banquet, everyone spread the news by word of mouth. Many freelance martial artists who participated in the fight against the Pirates but had no way out, after hearing the news, took the initiative to contact Su Yu, hoping to join their operation.

Over time, in a short half a month, Su Yu gathered tens of thousands of martial artists with good strength.

The vast majority of them admired Su Yu's unparalleled strength in suppressing the demon dwellers, so they followed him just now.

In order to better fight against the pirates, Su Yu gathered them every day to carry out a group fight against the pirates drill, deducing all kinds of accidents that might occur, and so on.

Therefore, there was no small commotion every day.

It was hard not to know about the ravenous wolf king who lived deep in the imperial residence.

"They are practicing again today?" The Ravenous Wolf King lowered his head, looking at the sand table and suddenly asked.

The woman beside him said, "Yes!"

The ravenous wolf king frowned slightly, "How many people are there now?"

"More than 18,000, and their numbers are still increasing. Furthermore, their strength is not bad."

The Ravenous Wolf King was deep in thought. "That Wen Shang, is he really that powerful?"

He did not believe that the second absolute family still had peers who could stand shoulder to shoulder with him.

"At least the rumors are like that! The morning flower girl and the white-robed sword God could not withstand a single blow from that demi-demon, while the demi-demon was beaten to death without being able to fight back in front of Wen Shang."

Judging from his deduction, Wen Shang's strength was not ordinary.

The Ravenous Wolf King snorted lightly. "Rumors are rumors after all!"

"Young master, are you prepared to let this go? Right now, there are some rumors circulating in Heavenly Star City that are not very friendly to young master," the Woman Dao Master said leisurely.

"Such as?"

"For example, there are rumors that Wen Shang has more talent than young master, and his future achievements are far above young master!"

"There are also rumors that this time, he will lead a martial artist and make a great contribution, thus establishing his supreme position!"

Hearing this, the Ravenous Wolf King was silent for a long time before shaking his head with a sneer, "First! He doesn't have the qualifications to compete with me! Second, just based on the rabble he recruited, he wants to make a great contribution? Ridiculous!"

Waving his hand, the ravenous wolf king ignored him and said, "This kind of character that cheats the world and steals fame, just pay a little attention to it. There's no need to be too serious."

The Woman Dao master nodded silently.

"Oh right, can snowdream flying rain come?" The Ravenous Wolf King changed the topic, his eyes filled with deep infatuation.

"I received her message half a day ago. She's on her way and will arrive soon."

The Ravenous Wolf King looked expectant. "I haven't seen her for a long time. I don't know if she's okay."

The Woman Dao Master smiled. "Miss flying rain traveled thousands of miles to come here to help young master. It can be seen that you have a deep friendship with young master. Young master, don't let her down in the future!"

"Haha..." The Ravenous Wolf King let out a rare soft laugh.

Time passed slowly. However, the atmosphere in Heavenly Star City became heavier and heavier day by day.

The Pirate Alliance was approaching. Everyone was tense.

Until one month later.

In the sky above the second aristocratic family, the dense pirate battleships were like dark clouds. The entire heavenly star city was filled with urgent alarms.

The Warriors of the royal mansion jumped onto the battleships. They were like bees in a beehive. They were enraged and swarmed up.

On the Pirates'side, there were ten battleships that were the biggest among the pirates'battleships. Each of the battleships had a leader standing at the top.

The one in the middle was a young woman wearing a golden cloak and a colorful crown on her head.

She looked to be in her early twenties. Her skin was white with a hint of red. Her facial features were exquisite, and she looked delicate and quiet.

She was the number one person in the pirate alliance, Xie Xiaoyue!

She was like a queen as she looked down at the second most powerful family. Her words sounded like a clear bell, "Surrender and don't kill. If you resist, kill without mercy!"

There was no need for any unnecessary words between the two sides.

Just this sentence had started a shocking battle between the two sides.

Two densely packed battleships collided in the air and engaged in an intense battle.

At the same time, a dazzling sun fell from each of the ten pirate ships. It carried different domains as it shot toward the imperial residence.

A soft shout that shook the entire world resounded within the imperial residence as ten Dao Masters'Majestic figures shot into the sky.

A total of twenty dao masters immediately exchanged blows.

The collision between domains erupted with a terrifying might that could tear apart civilizations.

They fought from the ground to the sky with great tacit understanding, and then from the sky into the distant void to avoid accidentally injuring their own people.

What remained at the scene were the main forces of both sides.

Not long after, it began to rain in the sky that was covered in dark clouds.

Corpses, weapons, remains, and so on fell down like rain.

Seeing that the battle had begun, somewhere in Star City, Su Yu stood up and said loudly, "Everyone, the time to make a contribution has come! Follow me to kill the enemy!"

Nearly 20,000 powerful warriors followed Su Yu... and fled!

Yes, they fled the battlefield directly!

The warriors of the second aristocratic family, who were fighting to the death, were all stunned when they saw this scene.

Weren't these guys practicing hard?

Didn't they say that they were going to make contributions on the battlefield?

Why did they all F * cking run away?

Seeing this scene, the greedy wolf king showed contempt in his eyes. "A bunch of unpresentable motley crew!"

Beside him stood a beautiful woman in a white dress.

Her face was as beautiful as a painting. Her facial features were gentle, and her eyes were calm. Her long black hair fluttered in the wind, giving people the feeling that she was otherworldly.

She held a white porcelain bottle with a willow branch stuck in it.

She pulled out the willow branch and gently waved it, causing a string of water droplets to sprinkle out.

Wherever the water droplets passed, they froze into ice.

The entire pirate ship was turned into a pile of ice. No matter how many half-step Dao Masters there were on the ship, they were all instantly frozen, unable to resist at all.

She had only attacked three times and completely cleared out the surrounding area.

Her strength was so strong that it caused people to look at her with surprise!

She followed the gaze of the Ravenous Wolf King and glanced at Su Yu and the others, saying, "They haven't received the summoning order. If you want to leave, then leave."

The Ravenous Wolf King responded to the enemy while saying contemptuously, "Sister Feiyu, you don't know. These people have been training hard to resist the enemy for a month. In the end, when the enemy arrives, they all run away!"

"I see!"Hearing this, Xue Meng Feiyu shook her head slightly. "That's very disgraceful!"

Then, she stopped paying attention and focused on fighting the enemy.

Speaking of which, after Su Yu and the others escaped, they came to a place where space split apart.

This was the place where the ten thousand clan beasts were about to appear.

Moreover, the ten thousand clan beasts that appeared here were about to head towards the area near the Pirate Alliance's Nest Civilization.

"The time is just right,"Su Yu said.

In fact, they had chosen several backup ten thousand Clan Beasts to appear at. When the battle began, they would choose whichever place would have ten thousand clan beasts appear.

Since this was the closest spot, they naturally chose this spot.

When the myriad sect beasts appeared, everyone could not help but feel nervous and excited.

"If we succeed, we really did a big job!"The white-robed god of swords licked his lips and said!

The morning flower girl gritted her silver teeth. “We’ll make a name for ourselves in the near future! Let’s Go!”

Everyone jumped onto the myriad sect beasts.

Under their leadership, after a few hours, they appeared on a small, abandoned civilization.

On this civilization, they could see a dark mass of civilization in the distance.

That was where the Pirate Alliance’s Nest was located!

Everyone jumped down from the myriad sect beast and hid their auras, su Yu said in a serious tone, “There’s still a day before the myriad sect beast comes here again. So, within a day, capture as many as you can and grab as many as you can. Remember, don’t fight and don’t be greedy! Do you understand?”

“Understood!” Everyone said excitedly.

That’s right, they were going to do something that would shake the world today!

That was, they were going to rob the Pirate Alliance!

Chapter 2205 Mysterious Sand

Only Pirates had ever robbed them, but no one had ever dared to pay attention to pirates.

If this matter was successful, it would definitely shake the entire seven ultimate civilization.

When they first heard of Su Yu’s plan, everyone present felt that Su Yu’s idea was too whimsical and absurd.

However, as they understood the plan in detail, they gradually realized the feasibility of the plan.

Since ancient times, the Pirate Alliance’s Nest had never been attacked by the seven ultimate civilizations.

Because their nest would change periodically, there was no way to attack it.

Now that they knew where their nest was, most of the Pirates had already left, leaving only an empty nest, which gave them an excellent opportunity.

Now, it was just like the plan.

There were indeed strong people in the nest, but there were not as many as before. With 20,000 of them divided into small groups, they could definitely plunder a bit.

“Let’s Go!” Su Yu said calmly.

Huala --

Everyone scattered and sneaked into the Pirate Alliance’s nest from all directions to carry out the robbery.

Su Yu’s eyes flickered. The entire civilization was divided up by the ten great pirates, and they were clearly separated from each other.

In each civilization, there were many things that couldn’t be taken away from the dimensional pocket.

And among the ten great pirates, whoever had the most things...

Was undoubtedly Xie Xiaoyue!

The strongest pirate among the ten great pirates!

After locking onto the area where the Xie Xiaoyue pirates were, Su Yu jumped into it.

Through the Eye of Heaven's scan, he quickly took in the entire area.

A moment later, he appeared above a magnificent palace complex.

This was where Xie Xiaoyue lived.

There were many half-step dao masters inside, especially in the center of the palace complex.

There were more than twenty half-step dao masters guarding it, as if there was an extremely important treasure here.

"Is there no silver in this place?" Su Yu rubbed his chin, but after thinking for a while, he shook his head lightly.

He clearly remembered that when the Seven Uniques Alliance attacked the Pirate Alliance back then, everyone had sensed that it was a trap. Xie Xiaoyue was the only one who was careful enough to lead her pirates out of the encirclement in advance and avoid disaster.

Why would such an intelligent person do such an unnecessary thing?

If an enemy dao master came, wouldn't he be able to immediately discover this place?

Xie Xiaoyue's action was basically telling the intruder that there was a treasure hidden here. Come in and take it!

"There should be a trap inside, right?" Su Yu analyzed for a moment and firmly believed that his judgment wasn't wrong.

Shaking his head, he turned his gaze in another direction.

Suddenly, not far from this hall, he suddenly found another seemingly ordinary side hall.

There weren't even any guards at the entrance of the side palace, and the doors were even wide open.

However, Su Yu, who was as meticulous as dust, discovered that the patrolling guards nearby had used a very ingenious route to include this side palace.

He silently observed for a while and discovered that there were a total of thirteen powerful guards in the palace complex.

However, there were two places that they had to pass through to patrol.

One was the central palace, and the other was the inconspicuous side hall in front of them.

If it was anyone else who came here this time, they would not be able to notice such a slight abnormality. Only someone as meticulous and patient as Su Yu would notice it.

"The most dangerous place is the safest place?" Su Yu's eyes were filled with a playful smile as he quietly sneaked into the ordinary side hall.

The layout of the side hall was very simple and there was nothing unusual about it.

Su Yu pointed at his cheek and a nine-colored butterfly flashed by.

Su Yu's field of vision suddenly became strange and everything he saw in his eyes became colorful.

Looking around, Su Yu's gaze suddenly stopped at a coffee table on the desk.

On the coffee table, there was an empty cup that had not been collected in time. There was still the residue of tea leaves inside.

However, in Su Yu's eyes, the color of the remnants was light blue! !

Su Yu's pupils constricted. One had to know that in the heaven-shattering mountain, the emotion-severing flute that was wrapped in the giant python formed by the power of Heaven and earth was only dark blue.

The light blue in front of him was enough to show that the Teacup's grade was far higher than the emotion-severing flute.

The emotion-severing flute should be a dao artifact immortal embryo. Then, the Teacup's grade should be a dao artifact, right?

"Could it be Xie Xiaoyue's dao artifact?" This thought popped up in Su Yu's mind, but then he shook his head. It shouldn't be.

How could a dao master leave a dao artifact behind when he was about to participate in a great battle?

He went forward and sized it up. After confirming that there were no restrictions or formations, he picked up the tea dregs with his hand.

In the end, when he picked it up, he found that it was indeed abnormal.

The Teacup was unexpectedly heavy! !

He couldn't lift it by himself.

Then, he looked at the material of the Teacup. After careful examination, he found that it was forged from the famous Tianjing ore.

This item was claimed to be the hardest material in the seven ultimate civilization, but it was used to forge the table.

The purpose was to bear this Teacup, right?

Then, he looked at the ground below the Teacup. It was actually a huge tianjing ore.

"What exactly is this Teacup?" Su Yu looked surprised.

With a thought, he transformed into a half-dragon and used the Heavenly Dragon Dao body. With a physique that was far stronger than the Dao master's, he forcefully picked up the Teacup.

Creak --

Only then did the Teacup barely get picked up.

However, after barely leaving the coffee table, the Teacup suddenly turned into grains of sand and scattered all over the ground.

What was even stranger was that the sand automatically condensed into a snake and quickly drilled into the corner at an astonishing speed.

It only took a breath for it to escape from the side hall.

Su Yu was astonished. What was this thing?

“Spatial Vortex!” Fortunately, Su Yu reacted very quickly. Just as the snake sand was about to escape from the side hall and alarm the guards outside, he used the power of space to capture it back.

However, just as he grabbed it back, the sand shattered again and turned into a goshawk, escaping through the air.

Su Yu grabbed it back again. Before he could touch it, its form changed again.

This repeated for a total of thirty-six rounds before the strange sand was exhausted due to its power. It struggled on the ground and failed to change its form. It lay on the ground weakly and did not move at all!

Su Yu heaved a sigh of relief. His Heavenly Dragon Dao body was almost unable to do anything to this piece of sand?

It was truly unbelievable!

He took out a container and tried to fill it with all the sand.

However, there was nothing that could hold him and it was easily crushed.

Helpless, Su Yu took the tea table with him.

After taking away the mysterious sand, Su Yu used Xiao Die’s vision to look around again. He found a treasure that was emitting a green glow in the heavily guarded palace.

He believed that it was a bait to lure the half-step dao master into falling for it, right?

The real treasure was this piece of sand!

After getting what he wanted, Su Yu’s eyes flashed as he sneaked into the local treasury.

In fact, there weren’t many valuable treasures in the treasury. However, since Su Yu had come, he naturally had to create a commotion.

He appeared in front of the treasury and openly attacked several martial artists guarding the treasury. He entered and plundered the treasury.

Instantly, the entire palace was in an uproar.

“Enemy attack! Enemy Attack!”

A loud alarm sounded from every corner of the palace.

The figures of experts gathered from all directions to capture the invading enemy.

Su Yu's expression was calm. He was able to move freely in the palace.

When he passed by a cage in the palace, his heart moved and he entered.

Most of the captives were from the seven ultimate civilization.

What surprised Su Yu was that it was different from what he imagined. The captives had been subjected to all kinds of torture, and it was a horrible scene.

These captives were dressed cleanly, and although they looked worried, they didn't seem to be in much pain. They hadn't received much punishment at all.

This was completely different from the pirates he knew.

Take the Sea Wolf Pirates as an example. Anyone caught by the Sea Wolf Pirates from the seven ultimate civilization.

Those who were worthless were killed on the spot. Those who were valuable were locked up, tortured, and interrogated. In the end, unless they had to be returned as hostages, they were all killed cruelly.

This was the first time they had seen something like this.

"Who are you?" Su Yu threw two half-step dao masters who were responsible for guarding the dungeon into the dungeon with one punch, immediately arousing everyone's curiosity.

In a separate cage, a young girl stood with her hands behind her back. She sized him up with slight curiosity and asked.

Su Yu said briefly, "The second most exceptional family, Wen Shang!"

As he said that, he grabbed the cage and forcefully broke all the cages open.

The young girl covered her small mouth and was dumbstruck.

These cages were not made of ordinary materials. They were added with heavenly net ore and ten-thousand-year-old black copper. Even Dao Masters could not break the cages with their bodies.

What was going on with the hooded figure?

"If you want to go back, follow me!" Su Yu turned around and left.

The girl and the others did not dare to hesitate and followed him.

As soon as they left the dungeon, they immediately ran into groups of half-step Dao Masters and charged over furiously.

Su Yu took out the sin sword and swept it around. The powerful sword Qi scared all the half-step Dao Masters along the way back. No one dared to approach.

The power of the Sword Qi was enough to take their lives!

Just like that, under the respectful and angry eyes of the half-step dao masters, Su Yu swaggered away with a group of people.

By the time they returned to the civilization they came from, a day had passed.

Many people came back one after another.

“How are you guys doing?” Su Yu asked.

Morning flower girl was full of joy. She laughed and said, “I burned down the white sparrow pirate’s nest. His subordinates are probably putting out the fire!”

The white-robed sword god chuckled and said, “What kind of ability is it to just let them go? I led my men and turned Daoist master Zhang Tian’s lair upside down. They robbed anyone they saw and took anything they saw. I bet they were so angry that they vomited blood!”

..

The rest of them had gained a huge harvest. In any case, the entire Pirate Alliance’s Lair was like a hornet’s nest.

“Young Master Shang, what about you?” Early morning flower girl asked.

Su Yu smiled lightly. “Compared to you guys, I didn’t do much. I just snuck into Xie Xiaoyue’s palace and rescued some people from the dungeon.”

Early morning flower girl and the white-robed god of Sword looked at the group of people behind Su Yu.

When their eyes swept over the others, they didn’t think much of it.

However, when they looked at the girl in a long black dress who had a sweet temperament, they were stunned. It was as if they had seen this girl before and had a slight impression of her.

They looked at each other and saw a familiar look in each other’s eyes.

Chapter 2206 Returning With A Full Load

“This is a familiar face.” The morning flower girl looked at the girl. “Have I seen you somewhere before?”

The white-robed sword God revealed the same expression.

The black-robed girl shook her head and said calmly, “No.”

The two of them were puzzled. The morning flower girl was about to continue asking when suddenly, a series of cracking sounds could be heard.

It was the myriad sect beast.

“Leave immediately!” Su Yu said.

Although the ten great pirates were not in their nest, the leaders of the other small and medium sized pirates were still there.

Among them, there was a dao master level existence.

Now that the entire nest had caused such a huge commotion, the dao masters might have already begun to sense it.

Although there were still hundreds of people who had not returned, they could not wait any longer.

After jumping onto the ten thousand sect beasts and leaving not long after, three furious auras of Dao Masters descended on this civilization.

“We were actually robbed?” A Dao master with a ferocious face refused to believe his own eyes.

Only Pirates had ever robbed others, and now they were being robbed?

To The Pirate Alliance, this was a great humiliation!

“Immediately inform the ten great pirates fighting on the frontlines to return and defend!” A pirate said calmly.

Right now, only 20,000 martial artists had come, and they had already caused great trouble to the base. If the enemy sent an army, wouldn’t they destroy the base?

At that time.

In the sky above the second aristocratic family.

After a day of battle, the ground was already covered with corpses and broken fingers. The destroyed warships were also stuck diagonally on the ground.

The ripples caused by the battle destroyed many of the precious oases.

After the battle, both sides suffered heavy casualties.

The dark clouds in the sky were also sparse.

In the sky, the ten great pirates and the experts from the second aristocratic family were fighting.

Although the pirate alliance was aggressive, the second aristocratic family’s foundation was extremely strong. They were able to resist the attacks of the ten great pirates.

Especially the family head. The strength he displayed was shocking. A casual attack could threaten the death of the pirate leader.

Many pirate leaders were shocked.

To be able to become the family head of an aristocratic family was not simple!

Luckily, Xie Xiaoyue was among the pirate leaders. Her strength was also extremely terrifying. She was on par with Emperor Po Junhuang.

It was all thanks to her that the Pirates didn’t show any signs of defeat.

But in the long run, besides increasing casualties, there was no better result.

Therefore, after a long battle, Xie Xiaoyue pushed the army breaking emperor away with a palm and said indifferently, “Stop.”

The nine pirates retreated unwillingly and returned to Xie Xiaoyue’s side.

They could also see that it was impossible to kill the army breaking emperor.

This person had concealed a large portion of his strength and was much more powerful than the rumors said.

Looking at the people from the second aristocratic family who had suffered heavy casualties, they let out a sigh of relief.

Although they hadn't killed Emperor Pojun, more than half of the experts from the second aristocratic family had already died. They wouldn't be able to recover their strength for thousands of years.

This could be considered revenge!

"Second aristocratic family, this matter isn't over yet. Be careful!" Xie Xiaoyue threatened faintly and ordered her subordinates to retreat.

The other pirate leaders ordered their subordinates to leave.

At this moment, the ten pirate leaders received an urgent message at the same time.

At a glance, the expressions of the ten pirate leaders changed drastically.

They raised their heads and glared fiercely at Emperor Po!

"What a Good Emperor Pojun, you're Ruthless!" They mistakenly thought that Su Yu's group was sent by Emperor Pojun.

These words made Emperor Pojun confused. Seeing the Pirates retreat, his heart was filled with uncertainty.

"Family head, should we chase them?" The palace-dressed beauty floated over and suppressed the injuries on her body as she said unwillingly.

Emperor Pojun's eyes revealed a trace of fear, "With Xie Xiaoyue around, we won't be able to win."

The beautiful woman in the palace dress said unwillingly, "According to the plan, when the head of the family unleashed his hidden strength, he would be able to capture all ten great pirates in one go. Who would have thought that Xie Xiaoyue would be so well-hidden and so powerful!"

All along, the Emperor of Destruction's strength was at the bottom of the seven great families' heads.

He had never revealed his strength.

That was because he had deliberately hidden his strength so that one day, he would be able to meet a powerful enemy that he did not expect.

However, he had never expected that even though he had met a powerful enemy, the other party had similarly hidden their strength.

"I'm afraid that it won't be a day's work to annihilate the pirates." The beautiful woman in the palace clothes paused, then, she said, "But family head, what did they mean by their last words? It seems that after receiving the message, they left in a hurry? Could it be that family head has other plans?"

"No." Army shattering emperor was also extremely puzzled by this flower.

With doubts, they all returned to the second absolute family to deal with the situation after the battle.

“How is the battle?” Army shattering emperor asked the Ravenous Wolf King who was currently calculating the situation.

The latter’s expression was gloomy as he said in a low voice, “Three million casualties.”

Only three million casualties. To the entire second absolute family, it was like a drop in the ocean.

“That’s All?” Army destroyer emperor heaved a sigh of relief.

The greedy wolf king said, “I’m talking about those above the Emperor of Heaven and Earth realm. There’s no need to count the casualties below.”

What he meant was that those who hadn’t reached the Emperor of Heaven and Earth realm would die, and it wasn’t worth paying attention to.

Hearing this, Army destroyer Emperor’s face sank.

Three million was almost half of the experts of the second absolute family.

The number of casualties of the second aristocratic family had exceeded the bottom line.

If they wanted to recover in the future, it would be impossible without hundreds or thousands of years of rest and recuperation.

The number of casualties of the second aristocratic family in this battle was too heavy!

Not only were they depressed, but the warriors who were lucky enough to survive were also sad and indignant.

The Pirate Alliance had dealt a devastating blow to the second aristocratic family!

The entire second exceptional family was shrouded in a depressing depression.

“Gather the survivors. In this battle, rewards will be given for meritorious deeds, and punishment will be meted out for transgressions!” Emperor Breaker ordered.

Half a day later, in the second exceptional family’s manor.

Emperor Breaker looked around at the remaining fifteen half-step Dao Masters. Their strength was at the peak of the half-step dao master level, and each of them wielded an armed force.

Before the great battle, there were thirty people in total, but now there were only fifteen!

“Chen Sheng killed thirty thousand enemies. first-class Merit!”

“Wen Qian killed twenty thousand enemies. first-class Merit!”

..

Emperor Breaker awarded merit based on their battle results.

However, no one present could laugh.

How could they be proud of the second peerless family that had suffered such a devastating blow?

When all the contributions of the 15 of them had been rewarded, the battle royale rubbed the space between his brows wearily. He waved his hand and commanded, "Everyone, go down and receive your rewards."

Everyone lowered their heads as they walked out in low spirits.

At this moment, a servant's report came from outside the hall.

"Reporting to clan leader, the morning flower maiden requests to see you."

The battle royale's eyelids didn't even open as he calmly replied, "She doesn't want to see you."

As a member of the branch family, although her aptitude wasn't bad and she was chosen by him, at this moment, he really didn't want to see her.

"Family head, early morning flower girl said that she has something very important to see you. She said that she has just returned from the Pirate Alliance's Nest."

Oh? Emperor Po Jun opened his eyes. "What nonsense is she talking about?"

The Pirate Alliance's Nest. Did she understand what that place was? Did she know where that lair was?

"It's absolutely true. Young Master Wen Shang, the white-robed sword God, and more than 20,000 warriors are traveling with them. Moreover, they brought back a large number of spoils of war."

Hearing this, Emperor Po was stunned.

The people who hadn't left were also stunned. Could it be true?

The greedy wolf king frowned deeply and said, "I remember that they fled at the last minute. How could they run to the Pirate Alliance's Lair? It's all nonsense!"

Actually, he believed it in his heart.

He just didn't want to admit it.

They fought the pirates here and suffered heavy casualties. That young master Wen Shang, however, was able to lead only 20,000 people to rob the Pirate Alliance.

In comparison, his young master's performance was quite unbearable.

He didn't like the feeling of being stepped on!

Emperor Po had other thoughts.

He probably wouldn't believe it if others said that he went to the Pirate Alliance to kill his way in and out.

But the morning flower girl was from an aristocratic family. She wouldn't dare to deceive him on such a big matter.

"Let them in." Emperor Breaker thought for a moment and said in a deep voice.

The people who were about to leave couldn't help but stop and watch.

Soon, under the lead of the servants, they all entered.

More than 19,000 people stood upright with proud expressions.

Emperor Po said with his hands behind his back, "Once again, where did you come back from?"

Morning flower girl smiled proudly, "Family head, we just robbed the pirate's lair."

Hearing this, everyone present looked at each other and started to whisper to each other.

The greedy wolf king's expression was cold as he said indifferently, "Don't tell me that you ambushed a small pirate near the pirate's lair and claimed to rob the entire pirate's Lair?"

He was unwilling to admit that the 20,000 of them could do something he didn't even dare to think of.

Royal soldier breaker smiled and said, "Since you claimed to have robbed the pirate's nest, you should have brought back some things, right?"

"Of course!" Morning flower girl smiled proudly and glanced at the ravenous wolf king with a mocking expression.

The Ravenous Wolf King had suppressed their branches many times in the aristocratic families.

Now that she had made such a great contribution, it could be said that she had slapped the ravenous wolf king in the face.

She took out a portable cave world and poured out the things inside.

Huge ships exclusive to the white sparrow pirates floated in the air above the imperial residence.

"These... These are the white sparrow pirates' main battleships. There are a total of ten of them. Why... are they all here?"

"Oh my God! They can't have really tied the knot with the Pirate Alliance's Nest, right?"

Everyone present was shocked.

Royal Soldier Breaker's pupils constricted, and his eyes were filled with joy. He said, "Where are the others? It Can't be that you're the only one who succeeded, right?"

"Haha, I'm Not Talented. I've also looted a few things. Please take a look, Patriarch." The white-robed sword God similarly took out a portable cave world and poured out a dense number of storage items. There were hundreds of thousands of them!

"The storage space of the experts under Dao Master Zhang Tian?"

"This is something that only the emperors of heaven and earth would be rewarded with. There are actually more than 300,000 of them? How many people have they robbed?"

With the morning flower girl and the white-robed sword God at the front, the other warriors took out their spoils of war proudly.

In the blink of an eye, the entire sky above the imperial residence was filled with dense items.

Chapter 2207 Was Destined To Be An Official

Without exception, everything belonged to the Pirate Alliance.

Adding all these together, it was likely that more than 30% of the Pirate Alliance's headquarters had been emptied!

When Emperor Po saw this, his gloomy face finally revealed great joy. "Hahaha, well done! You guys really gave me a surprise!"

He suddenly remembered the words that the pirate leaders had left behind when they left.

Now, he finally understood!

It turned out that the pirate leaders had mistakenly thought that he was a diversion and had sent people to raid their hideouts!

The Pirate Alliance came to take revenge on the second exceptional family, and the second exceptional family raided their hideouts, so they were even!

Emperor Breaker's mood suddenly improved. He went forward and patted the shoulders of the morning flower girl and the white-clothed sword God. "The two of you did a great job! I will reward you greatly!"

The two of them were elated. Would the day before them come when they were not valued?

However, although they wanted to claim the credit for themselves, how could they dare to hide it under the watchful eyes of so many people?

There were nearly twenty thousand people who knew the details.

Moreover, they mainly wanted to ask Shang.

If they dared to openly claim the credit for themselves, they would inevitably be exposed on the spot and be embarrassed.

Therefore, despite being unwilling, the morning flower girl could only tell them the details. She said, "Patriarch, actually, I'm just following orders for this operation."

The white-robed sword god hurriedly said, "Yes, we have the guidance of an expert."

The army-destroying emperor was greatly surprised. "Expert? Who?"

The morning flower girl and the white-robed sword God looked at Su Yu behind them and said, "It's this young master Wen Shang who has predicted everything."

Wen Shang? The army breaker emperor was slightly surprised.

How could he not have heard of young master Wen Shang when he was in Heavenly Star City?

Recently, his name could be said to be well-known.

There were rumors everywhere that a genius had appeared in the city. Not only was he extremely powerful, but he was also very resourceful. He had been organizing a large number of martial artists to practice fighting against the pirates.

However, the army breaker emperor only heard about it and didn't care about it.

He had seen too many geniuses. The one in front of him wasn't enough for him to observe personally.

He didn't expect that in the end, he would appear in front of him with such an identity. It was really unexpected.

“Young Master Shang? Can you tell me your specific plan?”The army breaker Emperor said with interest.

Su Yu was neither servile nor overbearing. He simply recounted the matter.

His plan sounded incredible and had no success at all.

However, many of the plans contained many exquisite little plans that made things that seemed impossible to succeed be carried out smoothly in the end.

After listening to it, emperor breaker sized up Su Yu with an incredulous gaze and felt even more surprised.

At this moment, he had a feeling that he was not facing a young man who was only a hundred years old, but an old monster of the same generation as him.

He was deeply surprised and looked at his son, the Ravenous Wolf King.

The Ravenous Wolf King could be considered smart among his peers, but compared to young master Wen Shang who was the same age, there was an insurmountable gap.

At least, his son had never thought of robbing the pirate alliance.

He looked at Su Yu as if he saw a rising star.

If nothing unexpected happened, his achievements in the future would definitely be shocking.

Seeing his father's expression, the greed Wolf King's heart sank bit by bit. He stared at Su Yu and said, “Since it was an operation organized by you, could it be that everyone else got something but you didn't get anything?”

Hearing this, everyone was filled with anticipation.

As the planner of the operation, he should have plundered more things.

Su Yu shook his head gently and said, “I robbed Xie Xiaoyue's pirates, but unfortunately, there was an ambush inside, so I couldn't loot much.”

He casually took out a spatial storage device and poured out the things inside.

It was a dazzling array of all kinds of resources. There were countless of them, and they were probably not much worse than all the others combined.

Seeing this scene, everyone could not help but be stunned.

“He... did he empty Xie Xiaoyue’s entire treasury?”

The Ravenous Wolf King’s eyelids twitched, and he shut his mouth tightly. His gaze kept changing. Royal soldier breaker was overjoyed, and he laughed, “Hahahaha... after Xie Xiaoyue goes back, I’m afraid she’ll die of anger!”

He went to take revenge, but in the end, his lair was raided and the treasury was emptied!

Su Yu said, “I just happened to do it. It’s nothing. Oh right, I also saved some people. They should be captives from the seven great families!”

He waved his hand and asked everyone to come forward.

Emperor Breaker saw it and nodded slightly, “That’s right, they are indeed captives from the seven great families. Hehe, return them back. The other six great families will owe us a favor again!”

Suddenly, Emperor Po Jun saw a young lady in a black dress. His gaze froze for a moment. That young lady looked somewhat familiar. It was as if he had seen her somewhere before, but he could not remember her for a moment.

After a moment of doubt, he stopped thinking about it.

Perhaps it was a disciple of a great family who had accidentally seen her before.

He looked at Su Yu with unusual interest and laughed loudly, “Young Master Wen Shang’s strength is shocking and his wisdom is unparalleled. He is truly a dragon among men! Come, Let’s hold a banquet today to welcome young master Wen Shang and all the meritorious officials!”

The originally depressed imperial residence was instantly enveloped in an atmosphere of joy.

The entire Heavenly Star City was also crazily spreading a piece of news that made people’s blood boil.

The people from their second-best aristocratic family took advantage of the battle between the two armies and ruthlessly plundered the pirate alliance.

To them, who were filled with grievances, this was undoubtedly an exciting news to avenge their previous humiliation?

Instantly, the entire city celebrated.

In the imperial residence, Emperor Breaker personally invited Su Yu, the morning flower girl, and the white-robed sword God.

“On behalf of the second absolute family, I express my heartfelt gratitude to everyone!” Emperor breaker was in an extremely good mood.

After Tomorrow, the entire seven absolute civilizations would spread a piece of news.

Not only did the second absolute family resist the Pirate Alliance’s fierce retaliation, they also came to secretly empty out the Pirate Alliance’s Lair.

Once this news spread, the second aristocratic family’s reputation would be greatly boosted and they would be able to grow their face!

Su Yu said, “As a member of the second aristocratic family, this is what we should do.”

Seeing that Su Yu was so humble, Emperor Breaker's impression of him was even better. He raised his wine cup and drank it in one gulp.

However, from the corner of his eye, he noticed that his son's expression was the same. The wine cup in front of him did not move at all.

"Ravenous Wolf, why aren't you making a toast to young master Wen Shang?" Jun Po's expression was slightly displeased.

Ravenous Wolf King nodded and picked up the wine cup. He silently made a toast to Su Yu and drank it himself. He stood up and said, "Father, the funeral matters on the battlefield can't be left without people. I'll go and preside over it."

After he finished speaking, he nodded slightly to everyone and left calmly.

Although he didn't show anything on the surface, his actions were enough to explain his mood.

"Young master Shang, drink slowly. I will take my leave." The extremely beautiful snow dream flying rain smiled at Su Yu and also stood up to take her leave.

Su Yu had already heard about this extremely beautiful woman from the morning flower girl.

She was the successor of the sixth absolute family and was also the only absolute fairy in the seven absolute civilizations who could be compared to Bi Yun Hong Xian.

Not only did she have a high status, she was also exceptionally powerful.

Furthermore, she and the Ravenous Wolf King had been on good terms since they were young and often visited the second absolute family's royal residence.

The two of them could be considered half childhood sweethearts.

The second and sixth absolute families were both interested in matchmaking the two of them.

More importantly, the Proud Ravenous Wolf King was only interested in Xue Meng Feiyu. The latter was also very concerned about the ravenous wolf king.

Although Xue Meng Feiyu had yet to become a disciple, she could already be considered half a daughter-in-law of the second most exceptional family.

As husband and wife, she naturally had to follow the ravenous Wolf King.

Whoever the Ravenous Wolf King hated, she would also reject.

Of course, to Su Yu, Xue Meng Feiyu was not worth mentioning. He had never even looked her in the eye.

What his attitude was, there was no need to care at all.

"I was rude, I've made a fool of myself." The army breaker Emperor said apologetically.

Su Yu said, "It's alright. Young master didn't do anything wrong."

The emperor of destruction sighed and thought for a moment, "I'm asking young master Shang if he's intelligent enough to stay in the imperial residence?"

Su Yu said without hesitation, "My ability is limited. I'm afraid I'll let down the good intentions of the clan leader."

"Hehe, you're too modest. With your intelligence, you can take up any position." The Emperor of destruction said.

Su Yu rejected again.

Seeing this, emperor breaker said, "You can think about it again. As long as you are willing to stay, I will definitely put you in an important position."

The banquet ended just like that.

Emperor Breaker returned to the backyard and saw that the ravenous Wolf King was cultivating in the yard. Xue Meng Feiyu watched from the side.

"Miss Xue Meng, I have something to say to ravenous wolf. Go back to your room and rest first."

Xue Meng Feiyu nodded obediently and left with light steps.

After she left, ravenous wolf said indifferently, "If we are talking about asking Shang, then don't talk about it!"

"HMPH!" Unexpectedly, Emperor Po Jun's expression immediately darkened, "Useless thing!"

As he spoke, he stepped forward and gave ravenous wolf a slap.

Ravenous Wolf wanted to dodge, but could he?

After receiving a solid slap, he spun on the spot and fell to the ground.

"Father, are you going to teach me a lesson for an outsider?" The Ravenous Wolf King's eyes were filled with deep hatred.

He was already extremely angry after being stepped on by Su Yu. How could he feel good after being implicated by Su Yu?

"I'm not teaching you a lesson for an outsider, but because of yourself!" Royal rapier said coldly, "I've repeatedly taught you to not show your emotions in everything! Yet, you're already giving me the cold shoulder before you can even say three sentences!"

"If you have no shrewdness at all, how can the second absolute family trust you?"

After being berated repeatedly, the ravenous wolf king finally calmed down.

His previous performance was indeed not in line with the heir of an aristocratic family.

“It’s me who went against my father’s teachings.”The Ravenous Wolf King admitted his mistake.

Seeing that he knew his mistake, the ravenous wolf king’s expression softened, “Other than the fact that your temperament needs to be tempered, do you know what else you’ve done wrong?”

The Ravenous Wolf King Thought for a moment and said, “You shouldn’t be competing with Wen Shang!”

“That’s right!”The war breaker emperor said, “What’s your identity? What’s his identity?”

The Ravenous Wolf King pondered and gradually understood.

“You’re the young master of the second absolute family, the future successor of the family head! Where’s Wen Shang? A subordinate of the second absolute family, nothing more! In the future, he is destined to kneel at your feet and serve you, yet you lower your status and compete with this kind of person. Don’t you think it’s ridiculous?”

The Greed Wolf King’s gloomy mood immediately improved.

Indeed, no matter how outstanding Wen Shang was, he was still a person who would submit to him.

This was destined from birth.

Chapter 2208 Acting

Why should he be angry with such a person?

“The current you should think of a way to win Wen Shang over, so that he can become a talent that you can command, and become a stepping stone for you to collapse to the peak, instead of fighting with him like now!”

After listening, the greedy wolf king lowered his head deeply, and the gloominess on his face was swept away. He said, “Your child is taught!”

“Then, what should I do next? I don’t need to tell you, right?”

“Your child has already taken note!”

After leaving the banquet, Su Yu returned to the inn.

After applying spatial isolation, he took out a handful of sand and placed it in his palm.

Because it was too heavy, Su Yu did not dare to place it on the ground, or else it would directly collapse the earth.

“Is this a material, or some kind of magic treasure?”Su Yu recalled that it could freely change its various forms, so it should be the latter, right?

Since it was a magic treasure, it should be able to be refined.

He tried to drip a drop of blood essence.

However, the sand dispersed spiritually, avoiding the blood essence.

“You don’t want to be refined?” Su Yu smiled. He used the power of space to pay them, making them unable to move. He tried to drip another drop of blood essence.

However, the sand began to rotate on its own, blocking the blood essence outside.

After several attempts, the blood essence was wasted and there was no way to refine it.

It was not easy for the blood essence to fall into the sand once, but it was forced out by the sand again.

After a few attempts, Su Yu stopped and muttered to himself, “I’m afraid that ordinary methods won’t be able to refine it at all.”

If it could be refined, it would have been refined by Xie Xiaoyue long ago. Why would it be Su Yu’s turn to take it away?

If even the DAO Master was helpless, then he could only try using other methods.

After thinking for a moment, Su Yu took out a speck of world-destroying dust.

It was also sand. Su Yu threw the world-destroying dust into the sand.

In the end, a slightly unexpected scene appeared.

The restless sand seemed to have found its owner. Not only did it not push out the world-destroying dust, it took the initiative to gather around the world-destroying dust.

“There’s such a Thing?” Su Yu was slightly surprised. Could it be that the sand had some connection with the world-ending dust?

While thinking, Su Yu dropped one last drop of blood essence, but it was not to refine the sand, but to refine the world-ending dust.

Since the world-ending dust was the main source of the sand, then refining the world-ending dust would mean that he could control the sand indirectly?

After a long while, the refinement was completed. Su Yu was filled with anticipation as he gently swiped his finger in the air.

The world-destroying dust immediately acted like an arm.

The sand that was attached to it followed the path of the world-destroying dust, forming a rod made of sand in the air.

Su Yu held it in his hand. With the existence of the world-destroying dust, the weight of this rod could not be estimated. At the very least, it could destroy a five-star civilization with one strike.

If it was combined with the powerful body of the Heavenly Dragon Dao body, a single stick would destroy the body and soul of a dao master.

The only question was whether it would be effective against powerful dao masters like Golden Pupil Langjun, Xie Xiaoyue, and royal destroyer.

Of course, the use of the sand was not limited to condensing into a stick. Its greatest use was that it could change its form at will.

In other words, Su Yu had a magical treasure that could change its form at will.

Coupled with the weight of the world-destroying dust, its power was imaginable.

After spending a night, he finally finished dealing with the sand.

Dong Dong --

Just as Su Yu was about to enter his cultivation state, there was a knock on the door.

When he opened the door, he saw that it was morning flower girl and the white-robed sword God who were jointly visiting.

“Haha, Young Master Shang, are you free today? Let’s go out and have a gathering?”The white-robed sword God said.

Su Yu had never liked to socialize, but now, what he wanted the most was to socialize.

“Sure!”

The morning flower girl smiled, “We booked a private room at the White House, and there’s a mysterious person waiting for you.”

“Mysterious person?”Su Yu’s gaze turned slightly.

Not long after, at the White House.

When he pushed open the door, he saw the young master, the Ravenous Wolf King!

Accompanying him was Xue Meng Feiyu.

Changing his attitude from yesterday, the ravenous Wolf King stood up and warmly walked to the door to welcome him. He said, “I didn’t treat you well yesterday. I hope young master Shang will forgive me.”

Xue Meng Feiyu also walked over and softly said, “I wish young master Shang Good Day.”

Su Yu’s eyes flickered slightly. The attitudes of these two people were completely different from yesterday.

“No worries,”Su Yu said generously.

Morning Flower Girl and the white-robed sword God behind him heaved a sigh of relief. Luckily, Su Yu didn’t leave on the spot.

Last night, the Ravenous Wolf King found the two of them and hoped that they could invite Su Yu out on his behalf.

They wanted to reject, but could they reject the young master’s order?

Fortunately, Su Yu was a magnanimous person and didn’t care about the ravenous Wolf King’s Rude Behavior Yesterday.

“Young Master Wen Shang, please take a seat.”The Ravenous Wolf King was extremely polite.

Su Yu was polite for a while, then sat down and said, “Young master invited me here. If there’s something important, you can just say it.”

The Ravenous Wolf King smiled and said, “Young Master Wen Shang has made great contributions to my second peerless family. As the young master, I should be especially grateful. Brother Wen Shang, don’t worry too much.”

Pulling someone over was not something that happened overnight. The most important thing now was to ease the relationship with young master Wen Shang.

Su Yu chuckled, “Young master’s words are too much. I’m just doing my best. Moreover, I only came up with an idea. The real credit should go to the person who has contributed before.”

Hearing that Su Yu did not mind, the Ravenous Wolf King was relieved. The next round of the banquet was unusually easy.

When the banquet reached the end, the morning flower girl and the white-robed sword God tactfully left.

The main character of this banquet was Su Yu. After the banquet, the young master would probably have some words that he did not wish to be heard by outsiders, so it was better for them not to disturb him.

In the end, only the three of them were present.

“Brother Wen Shang, wait a moment. I’ve prepared a gift for you. I’ll bring it over now.”The greedy wolf king laughed and left.

Only Su Yu and Snowdream flying rain were left in the room.

The two of them were not familiar with each other, and they did not have a common language. Thus, the atmosphere could not help but turn cold.

Xue Meng Feiyu pursed her lips and raised her wine cup. She toasted Su Yu from afar and said, “Young Master Wen Shang, let me toast to you.”

“Thank you.”Su Yu raised his wine cup and clinked it across the air. Then, he downed it in one gulp.

Perhaps it was to ease the awkwardness, Xue Meng Feiyu took the initiative to find a topic to talk about. She said, “Young master is extremely intelligent. Even the head of the family is full of praise for You!”

“You flatter me. Actually, I don’t have much of an outstanding point.”

Xue Meng feiyu smiled faintly, “Young master is the one who is truly too humble!”

After thinking for a moment, Xue Meng Feiyu said, “I have a presumptuous request.”

“Tell me about it.”Su Yu met her pair of magnificent crystal eyes and said frankly.

Xue Meng Feiyu said, "I once picked up a remnant of a book written in strange characters in a ruin. I have studied it for many years but could not find a way. I wonder if young master Shang can answer all of my questions for me?"

Words?

What Su Yu was best at was mastering all kinds of words, right?

"I don't have a deep understanding of words. I only know a little about them. If Miss Xue Meng Trusts me, just let me have a look at that remnant of a book."

Xue Meng Feiyu nodded and handed over the remnant of a book.

Su Yu scanned it and was slightly surprised to find that this remnant of a book was actually written in the wordless tomes of arcane.

Moreover, the contents of the record were very complicated.

"Young master, can you understand it?" A leisurely fragrance blew over. It was simple and fresh. Taking a whiff, it made people feel relaxed and happy.

Su Yu raised his head and found that Xue Meng Feiyu was sitting over. Her upper body was stretched forward, and her exquisite pretty face was almost touching his face.

Her two bright eyes stared at the letter without blinking, hoping that Su Yu could say something.

Su Yu slightly moved to the side, his attitude indifferent, he said, "I know a little. This should be a cultivation technique written in the wordless heavenly book, called the 'Heaven swallowing eighteen character Scripture'. From the looks of it, it should only be the preface of the cultivation technique. There is no official content, so it's not very useful!"

"You know the heavenly book characters?" Xue Meng Feiyu exclaimed in surprise.

"I know a little..." Su Yu nodded. Suddenly, his eyes narrowed as he realized that something was wrong!

Firstly, Xue Meng Feiyu knew that these were heavenly book characters!

Secondly! She was not surprised by what the incomplete chapter was. In other words, she already knew what the contents of the incomplete chapter were?

Then, why did she deliberately show it to him?

In an instant, Su Yu became extremely vigilant.

Almost at the same time, Xue Meng Feiyu's eyes became unfathomable. "This is great. It seems that I have found another good thing for brother Jingyun."

As soon as she finished speaking, Su Yu felt an extreme coldness on her back!

Her hands hidden behind her back had unknowingly taken out the suet jade bottle. The liquid inside was poured out and sprinkled on Su Yu's body.

Caught off guard, Su Yu's body was immediately frozen. He did not even have the slightest chance to resist.

Through the ice, Su Yu could see the shock, confusion, and confusion in the ice!

It was as if he was asking why!

Xue Meng Feiyu smiled as she stroked Su Yu's head, smiling as calmly as before.

However, there was a hint of shrewdness in her smile.

"Do you know? I originally wanted to let you evaporate and kill two birds with one stone. However, since you will be of help to Big Brother Jingyun, I'll spare your life." Xue Meng Feiyu exhaled as she spoke, her eyes were filled with an unsettling evil.

"You must be very confused. However, you will understand soon! Just Watch!"

After saying that, Xue Mengfeiyu took off her purple waist. Her snow-white dress immediately loosened. A faint red tube top on her chest emitted an alluring color.

Then, she messed up her hair and even left two bright red marks on her wrists.

At first glance, she looked like a woman who had been violated.

When she heard the footsteps of the Ravenous Wolf King coming from outside, the smile on snowdream Feiyu's face immediately turned into fear and sorrow. She even acted like she was about to cry. She covered her chest and hid in the corner of the wall, sobbing.

The Ravenous Wolf King walked in with a smile on his face, holding a high-quality sword.

In the end, what he saw was the scene in front of him.

He was stunned for three breaths. Then, he threw down the sword and ran in front of Snowdream Feiyu. His two eyes were staring at her, almost popping out, showing that he was extremely nervous.

"Feiyu... What Happened?" He looked at the two clear scars on snowdream Feiyu's wrist, then looked at her disheveled clothes and messy hair. His heart sank to the bottom of the valley.

Xue Mengfeiyu sobbed as she covered her body and said, "It... It's nothing."

Chapter 2209 Second Selection Of Master (5th Watch)

Seeing that she was avoiding his gaze and was unwilling to tell the truth, the greed Wolf King's heart sank.

It must be that young master Wen Shang had violated Xue Meng Feiyu while he was away.

However, Xue Meng Feiyu didn't want to affect his plan to recruit young master Wen Shang, so she said that it was fine.

But, how could it be fine?

At this moment, the Ravenous Wolf King felt that his chest was about to explode, and his heart was pierced with thousands of holes.

His face was gradually covered by ice, and his facial features were quickly distorted, becoming unusually ferocious, “Wen Shang!”

He suddenly turned his head, like a beast that wanted to eat people, and stared at Su Yu ferociously, “I want you to be torn to pieces! !”

However, just as he rushed over, Xue Meng Feiyu hugged him from behind, saying, “Ravenous Wolf, don’t be like this, if anything happens to Wen Shang, the patriarch will definitely not forgive you easily.”

“I! Don’t! Care!”Ravenous Wolf King was in an endless rage.

His woman was actually touched by another man, he could not forgive!

“I, only want him to die!”Ravenous Wolf King roared and pounced over. However, Snow Dream Feiyu took out a pill with three patterns and said, “If you really want to kill him, then I will die too!”

When Ravenous Wolf King heard this, he turned around and grabbed his hand, shouting, “Are you crazy?”

Snowdream Feiyu cried like a weeping pear blossom, “I don’t want to harm you because of me.”

The Ravenous Wolf King snorted angrily and snatched the three-colored pill from her hand, saying, “Don’t mess around. After I kill him, I’ll explain to father. He insulted your innocence and deserves ten thousand deaths!”

As for the three-colored pill in his hand, the ravenous wolf king crushed it.

However, at the instant he crushed it, a sudden change occurred.

A strange three-colored smoke burst out from the pill.

The smoke adhered to the surface of the ravenous Wolf King’s body and quickly drilled into it.

The Ravenous Wolf King turned pale with fright and said, “What Pill Is This?”

“Of course it’s meticulously prepared for you.”An extremely familiar voice resounded in his ears.

Immediately after, he felt a chill on his back, and his body quickly froze.

In the end, other than his head, his entire body was frozen, unable to move.

Only his lips could still open to speak.

“Feiyu, why are you doing this to me?”The greedy Wolf King was furious.

The betrayal of the person he loved on his back was far more profound than any harm, and it was unacceptable.

“Then what do you think is worthy of me dealing with you?”Snow Dream Feiyu picked up the girdle on the ground slowly and put on her clothes.

At the same time, she combed her messy hair elegantly.

At this moment, how could he not understand that Wen Shang had never violated Snow Dream Feiyu.

Everything was self-directed and self-acted.

The Ravenous Wolf King was extremely furious. He roared, "Do You Want My Luck?"

Xue Meng feiyu laughed lightly, "It's not me who wants it, it's big brother Jing Yun."

"Big Brother Jing Yun?"The Ravenous Wolf King was stunned, but he couldn't contain his anger, "Are you talking about Ren Jing Yun?"

Xue Meng Feiyu's eyes were filled with emotion, "Who else would it be?"

Ren Jing Yun, the successor of the seventh absolute family.

He was known to be the number one half-step DAO Master!

His strength was number one in his generation!

"You stole my fate for him?"The Ravenous Wolf King's eyes were about to pop out. He vaguely understood something!

Xue Meng Feiyu's pretty eyes looked at the ravenous Wolf King indifferently, with a hint of mockery, "Don't tell me you think that I, Xue Meng feiyu, will really take a fancy to you?"

"Or do you think that you have some advantages that can be compared to Big Brother Jingyun?"Xue Meng Feiyu no longer concealed her disdain for the ravenous wolf king, "With that uncontrollable temperament of yours? Just based on your wishful thinking? Just based on your mediocre strength?"

"To be honest, they are all heirs of the seven absolute family, but you aren't even worthy to carry Big Brother Jingyun's shoes!"

It turned out that the ravenous Wolf King's childhood sweetheart had long since moved on!

"Originally, ever since I met Big Brother Jingyun, I didn't want to have any more entanglements with you, but who asked Big Brother Jingyun to say that your luck is very good?"Snowdream Flying Rain's eyes revealed a look of infatuation, "So, I can only continue to bear the humiliation and take away your luck for Big Brother Jingyun."

Hearing her true heart, the Ravenous Wolf King was so angry that his whole body trembled, and his eyes were blood red.

"Ah! Slut! Slut! Slut!"He threw his head back and shouted "Slut"three times, venting the incomparable anger in his heart.

He treated Xue Meng Feiyu with all his heart, but what did he get in return?

It was a complete betrayal!

From the start, Xue Meng Feiyu had been lying to him!

Every time she cared for him, every time she smiled at him, every time she was intimate with him, it was all fake!

She had another man in her heart!

The Ravenous Wolf King was on the verge of breaking down. His eyes were red as he roared, “B * tch, it’s not that easy to take away my fate!”

If he could really take away something like fate, he would not have lived until now.

Xue Meng Feiyu sneered, “You’re still dreaming. Do you think that your fate will play a role in your crisis and save you? Do you think that I haven’t done anything by your side all these years?”

“I have long understood your so-called luck thoroughly!” Xue Meng Feiyu said, “Your so-called luck is actually a dao bead left behind by the Luck Dao Master in Your Body, right? “It contains the Luck Dao master’s Luck Domain. Once you are in danger, it will automatically activate and resolve the problem for you. When it is triggered occasionally, it will bring you heaven-defying good luck, right?”

The Ravenous Wolf King gritted his teeth.

All these years, he had never been on guard against Snowdream Feiyu. Although he did not deliberately reveal the secret of fate, he was still deduced by her.

“B * Tch!” The Ravenous Wolf King gnashed his teeth in hatred.

Snowdream Feiyu did not think much of it and said, “Scold me all you want. I’ll let you die later anyway!”

There was a deep ruthlessness in her words!

“Don’t think that your fate will save you. That pill just now was a magic treasure that the five dao masters had worked together to refine for more than a hundred years. Once you come into close contact with it, the power in the pill will enter your body and block the dao bead.”

“Therefore, you have nothing now!”

Xue Mengfeiyu had gone through a lot of trouble just to wait for this day!

“I wanted to observe for a while more to make sure that nothing went wrong before I made my move. However, brother Jingyun said that something big has happened recently. It might be very dangerous there and requires some luck. So, I can only make my move in advance.” Xue Meng Feiyu took out an ice blade, she came in front of the Ravenous Wolf King.

He raised the ice blade and slashed at the world inside his abdomen. He said indifferently, “Don’t blame me for being ruthless. who asked brother Jingyun to like your luck?”

Her face was filled with a few traces of pathological infatuation as she slashed down with her blade.

Ah --

The Ravenous Wolf King let out a shrill cry. His abdomen was cut open and divine blood flowed out.

If he took another slash, his inner world would be torn open.

At that time, he would become a cripple!

At the critical moment, the ravenous Wolf King suddenly bit his tongue and opened his mouth to spit out a cloud of blood mist. The blood mist weaved into a blood net in front of him and blocked snowdream Feiyu's second slash.

His face was ferocious, and his mouth full of blood was full of hatred and hatred. "You B * Tch, you want to take away my fate? Dream On!"

Suddenly, a loud thunder-like sound came from his abdomen. Then, a fist-sized bead with a hazy light flew out from his abdomen.

Then, it went into the stomach of Su Yu next door!

Xue Mengfeiyu was stunned and frowned slightly. was there any meaning in this?

It was just cutting open another person's stomach.

"B * Tch! Just as you said, there is indeed something you have not understood about the dao bead of the DAO Master of Fate! That is, he can choose a master a second time! Moreover, after choosing a master a second time, if you take it out again, it will immediately disperse!"

Hearing this, Xue Meng Feiyu's expression froze.

"Hahaha, B * Tch, you won't get anything!"

Her years of hard work instantly turned into nothing.

Even if she cut open Su Yu's stomach, what she got was an abandoned dao bead that had lost its strength!

"I don't believe it!" Xue Meng Feiyu held the ice blade and came in front of Su Yu, unwillingly slashing down with her blade.

Unexpectedly, before the blade could land, the frozen su yu suddenly spoke, "This... I'm afraid of pain, so don't slash me."

What? Xue Mengfeiyu was startled by Su Yu's sudden words.

Even the dao master might not be able to break free from the degree of freezing just now!

Sensing that something was wrong, the blade in Xue Mengfeiyu's hand sped up and slashed down.

However, at this moment, a layer of strange sand flowed out from Su Yu's body and adhered to the surface of his body.

The ice saber slashed down, but it did not harm Su Yu in the slightest.

Instead, the sand squeezed out and crushed all the ice that had frozen Su Yu.

Snow Dream Feiyu's expression changed greatly. She had heard that Su Yu's strength was quite good, but she might not be a match for him!

Seeing that he was about to escape, she immediately took out a jade bottle and sprinkled a large amount of water droplets from it. She planned to freeze Su Yu again.

However, a sand wall immediately appeared in front of Su Yu and blocked the water droplets.

Xue Meng Feiyu panicked. Su Yu Unfroze himself and made him fall into a huge passive state!

Seeing that she could not do anything, she could only give up with hatred.

She turned around and escaped through the air.

"Leave? Who gave you permission?" Su Yu smiled faintly. With a wave of his hand, the sand condensed into a stick.

He jumped up and struck out with the stick, knocking Xue Mengfeiyu down from the air.

Crack crack crack..

A few cracking sounds rang out on the surface of her body. However, all the top-grade defensive magical treasures on her body were crushed.

"Ah! Even the immortal embryo of a dao artifact can be crushed. How is this possible?" Xue Mengfeiyu screamed as she fell to the ground.

Looking at the broken waist on her waist, she screamed in disbelief!

How did she know that there was a speck of world-destroying dust in this stick? Unless it was a top-grade immortal embryo of a Dao artifact, it was very rare that it would not be crushed.

This stick had also severely injured Xue Mengfeiyu. She lay on the ground and spat out large mouthfuls of blood. Her limbs kept twitching, but she was unable to move.

She was already severely injured!

Su Yu casually cast a imprisonment spell to seal Xue Meng Feiyu and threw her into a storage space.

Greed, who had been sealed in ice, looked up at the sky and laughed loudly when he saw this scene. "Hahaha! Evil has its retribution, evil has its retribution! This slut also has this day!"

When he saw Xue Meng Feiyu's fate, he could not help but applaud and cheer. He said, "Wen Shang, quickly bring me back. I will reward you handsomely!"

He was very glad that he had met such a powerful Wen Shang at the scene. Otherwise, he would have been killed by that B * Tch!

"Go Back? To My Pirate Alliance? Sure!" However, Su Yu said a sentence that caused the greed wolf king's limbs to turn cold!

In the future, if he owed any updates, he would make up for it at five o'clock.

Chapter 2210

The Ravenous Wolf King stared at Su Yu, his mind buzzing. He stammered, "You're from the Pirate Alliance?"

Su Yu smiled but didn't say anything.

Staring at Su Yu's smile, the Ravenous Wolf King's heart felt like it had fallen into an ice cellar. At the same time, many unexplainable puzzles in the past suddenly became clear.

Why did a genius with unparalleled intelligence suddenly appear in the second aristocratic family?

Why would he coincidentally appear on the star observation platform and defeat the vice leader of the Pirates?

Why could he know the location of the Pirates' latest lair and lead everyone to plunder?

Because he was a member of the Pirate Alliance!

Everything he did had only one goal -- to get close to him!

A hint of self-deprecation flashed past the corner of the greedy wolf king's mouth. "I admit defeat!"

He was completely convinced by such an ingenious plan!

"However, I want to know, how will you deal with this B * Tch?" The Ravenous Wolf King had already accepted his fate after falling into the hands of the Pirate Alliance.

The one who was most unwilling was the one who had caused him to be in this state, Snowdream Flying Rain!

Without her betrayal, how could he, who had the fate dao bead, end up without any resistance?

Su Yu said indifferently, "I will end up like you!"

"Hehe, then I am relieved!" The Ravenous Wolf King's eyes revealed a look of hatred.

He, a man, had fallen into the hands of the Pirate Alliance. He had only suffered a little, and sooner or later, he would be taken as a hostage by the pirates and returned.

However, a woman was still a peerless fairy whose name shook the seven ultimate civilizations. It went without saying what would happen to her if she fell into the hands of the Pirates!

At the very least, she would be violated by the pirates who had no moral bottom line, right?

Thinking of the outcome, the greedy wolf king felt that the anger in his heart had subsided a little.

"Alright, Follow Me!" A little qilin appeared on Su Yu's shoulder and spat out a nothingness energy that enveloped the two of them.

The isolation of nothingness blocked their auras and even their contact with the outside world.

It wasn't easy for the people guarding them to track them.

Almost at the same time, the Woman Dao Master who was guarding the greed wolf king immediately sensed that the connection between her and the greed Wolf King was suddenly cut off.

“Something’s Happened!”The Woman Dao Master’s face sank, and she immediately appeared in the private room.

Other than the remaining ice shards, there was no sign of the ravenous wolf king or snowdream flying rain.

“Who did it?”With no aura to track, the Woman Dao Master’s heart sank, and she immediately informed Army Breaker Emperor.

Army Breaker Emperor was unperturbed.

The Ravenous Wolf King had been kidnapped more than once or twice, but every time, there was a connection of fate, and he was always able to turn the situation around.

Now that he was suddenly kidnapped, he believed that the ravenous Wolf King had just sealed his own aura.

“The ravenous wolf should be fine, but we can’t be careless either. Activate the array and seal the borders of the second absolute family. Prevent anyone from entering or leaving. This will last for a month.”

Immediately, from the eight borders of the second absolute family, a bronze lion that was as tall as a man appeared from the ground.

The Lions threw their heads back and spat out large amounts of jade-green light that enveloped the second exceptional family from eight different directions, forming a jade-green bowl-shaped seal.

This seal was extremely powerful. Even a dao master would need a long time to break through a single array point.

The huge commotion it caused would definitely attract the attention of the experts of the second exceptional family.

However, ten days passed.

The Ravenous Wolf King seemed to have vanished from the face of the Earth. He did not return as Emperor Pojun had expected.

Emperor Pojun had just realized that something had happened to the Ravenous Wolf King.

“Have you found out the information regarding Shang?”Emperor Pojun’s face sank as he asked.

In front of him stood nine dao masters who were on standby.

The beautiful woman in Palace attire shook her head slightly and said, “His face has always been concealed, so it’s impossible to find out.”

The woman who was in charge of protecting the ravenous Wolf King felt ashamed and said, “I went to the oasis where Shang was located to investigate... in the end, I couldn’t find this person!”

For a moment, the air in the hall seemed to freeze, suffocating people.

Who could feel the brutal killing intent hidden by Emperor Pojun.

The capture of the ravenous wolf king had touched Emperor Pojun's reverse scale.

"Mo Yuan, is there anything you need to report?" Emperor Pojun suddenly realized that Dao Master Mo Yuan was stroking his chin with a pensive look.

Dao master mo yuan frowned and said, "Clan master, when Wen Shang first came, he killed a human demon. Can you show me its image?"

Seeing that he seemed to have a clue, Emperor Pojun immediately summoned the white-robed sword God and the early morning flower girl.

The two of them had witnessed it with their own eyes back then.

Under Emperor Pojun's order, the two of them successively drew the image of the human demon.

Seeing this, Dao master Mo Yuan started to ponder.

"Mo Yuan, if you have anything to say, feel free to say it," Emperor Pojun said.

Dao master mo yuan pondered, "Family head, I have an unrealistic idea."

"Speak!"

"Perhaps, the one who kidnapped the ravenous Wolf King isn't some pirate, but the number one aristocratic family!"

Hearing this, the already frozen atmosphere in the hall tightened once again.

Emperor Po's expression was solemn, "Why do you say that?"

If it really was the number one aristocratic family, then the war between the aristocratic families was no small matter.

"I once saw this human demon in the hands of a junior from the number one aristocratic family, young master wuchen. Back then, he summoned this human demon and neutralized my domain attack, allowing him to escape back to the number one aristocratic family!"

"I suspect that Wen Shang who killed the man-demon was actually young master wuchen!"

Emperor Breaker had yet to realize anything when the beautiful woman in palace attire exclaimed, "Young Master Wuchen? It's him?"

Upon hearing her surprise, Emperor Breaker's eyes flashed, "Oh? Dao Master Xianhua, you know this man?"

She didn't just know him?

She had been setting up the heaven shattering mountain for several years and was about to succeed when she was sabotaged by this man.

Hence, she explained what had happened at the heaven shattering mountain.

After she finished speaking, she said, "Family head, this person is incomparably crafty and is very compatible with Wen Shang's performance. There is an 80-90% chance that young master Wuchen is Wen Shang!"

After hearing this, Emperor Po Jun's face squirmed with uncontrollable anger.

He actually hid it from him!

"Men, send a message to the number one exceptional family and order them to give an explanation!" Emperor Po Jun said, "At the same time, mobilize all of your forces and dig three feet into the ground to find Wen Shang for me!"

With the order given by the family head, the entire aristocratic family began to operate in an orderly manner.

From Heavenly Star City to a small mortal village, they searched for all suspicious people in a large area.

No matter what force, no matter if they were ordinary people, the places where they lived were searched thoroughly.

For a time, the resentment of the people rose to the sky. The normal life and work of the entire aristocratic family were interrupted.

The aristocratic family fell into a deep panic.

In an oasis.

It was chaotic outside. In a coffin shop, Su Yu was leisurely sipping tea and reading a book.

"Su Ruchu, you can't escape." Tan Lang sat opposite him. His body was still frozen and he couldn't move.

His body was still enveloped by the Little Qilin's nothingness, preventing his aura from spreading out.

He already knew Su Yu's true identity, the vice-leader of the sea wolf pirates, Su Ruchu!

Faced with his furious gaze, Su Yu's expression did not change as he continued to flip through the tattered text in front of him.

That was Xue Meng Feiyu's "Heaven swallowing eighteen character scripture".

At that time, he only took a cursory look and did not look at it carefully.

Now, he had the leisure to carefully read this tattered text.

Snowdream Feiyu looked at the incomplete chapter and then looked at Su Yu. She looked indifferent and took the initiative to fill Su Yu's Cup with tea. She said faintly, "I failed to recognize Mount Tai because I offended Lord Su. I hope that you will not remember me."

She lowered her attitude very much.

There was only one man in the world that she had treated like this.

That was the man who shocked the clouds.

Su Ruchu was the second.

“You didn’t offend me.” Su Yu said lightly. She didn’t offend him, she only wanted to harm him.

To be honest, if she didn’t have any improper thoughts towards Su Yu, he wouldn’t have bothered to arrest her.

Unfortunately, the ‘If’ in the world only existed in the past.

Xue Mengfeiyu’s eyes hid a trace of joy, but before she could express it, she heard Su Yu say lightly, “However, you are the successor of the sixth exceptional family. If I bring you back, I should be able to exchange for many benefits!”

Xue Meng Feiyu’s face turned slightly pale. She knew very well what would happen if she really fell into the pirate alliance.

“If young master Su wants benefits, why don’t you return me to the sixth aristocratic family? That should be more beneficial to you, right?” Xue Meng Feiyu’s eyes flashed.

Su Yu had taken her as a hostage and extorted from the sixth aristocratic family. The things he obtained were all his own.

However, if he gave it to the pirate alliance and gave 10% of the things that he blackmailed to Su Yu, that would be considered pretty good.

Su Yu looked at her and smiled lightly. “If it falls into my hands, you don’t have to play tricks anymore. You Can’t afford to give me what I Want!”

“Could it be that the ‘heaven swallowing eighteen character Scripture’ can’t do as well?” Xue Meng Feiyu bit her red lips and asked.

Su Yu shook the incomplete chapter and shook his head with a smile. “I think you should remind your big brother Jingyun that this scripture ends here. If you continue to cultivate it, the consequences will be very serious.”

His eyes flashed with a hint of mystery.

Xue Mengfeiyu was silent, but she didn’t think much of it.

The true sky-swallowing eighteen character Scripture was a cultivation technique that the heavenly emperor cultivated back then. It was because of this scripture that he was able to create a prosperous era of the heavenly emperor civilization and become an emperor.

Su Yu actually arrogantly commented that this scripture had serious flaws?

Truly, the ignorant are fearless!

At this moment, Wang San walked over and said, “Deputy leader Su, everything is ready.”

Su Yu put down the incomplete chapter and nodded slightly, “I’ll have to trouble you for these few days!”

He casually took out a spatial storage device that was filled with treasures that he had plundered from the evil Little Moon Treasury.

“Take it.” Su Yu threw it to him and said, “Also, change your identity and change the location.”

Sooner or later, the Ravenous Wolf King would be taken as a hostage and returned. At that time, Wang San would definitely be exposed.

“Thank you, deputy chief SU. I know what to do.” Wang San couldn’t help but be happy!

Su Yu stood up and led the Ravenous Wolf King and Snow Dream flying rain with one hand each. In a flash, they arrived at the wilderness outside the city.

The space here cracked open and a myriad sect beast stuck its head out.

Su Yu jumped up and jumped into it.

Along with the myriad sect Beast’s travel, it finally stopped at the edge of a desert.

“The border?” The Ravenous Wolf King said. Looking at the light screen close by, he said in a deep voice, “This seal is difficult to break even with the power of a dao master. Moreover, attacking without permission will alarm the imperial residence.”

The meaning of his words was to make Su Yu choose to give up and not do something useless.

Su Yu did not respond to him. Instead, he shouted to the empty space, “Are you ready?”
