Chapter 2611 Exterminating The Death Soul

The death soul glanced at Huangfu Yi, its eyes filled with disdain.

“Since you are a descendant of the ruler of space, you shouldn’t mix with the bugs. That would only lower our noble status,”the death soul said arrogantly.

As a descendant of the ruler, his status was naturally much higher than an ant like Huangfu Yi.

Su Yu’s expression was as calm as water. He slowly took off his bamboo hat, revealing the true appearance of a human.

“Ah! You... you are a human?”Death Soul was shocked.

How could a descendant of the ruler of space be a human?

“As you can see, I belong to the bug race in your eyes.”Su Yu threw down his bamboo hat, a cold light flashing through his eyes.

Death Soul’s heart trembled.

How could a human master a spatial domain that only a descendant of the ruler of space could master?

“No matter who you are, there’s no need for you to argue with me, a descendant of the ruler of death, for the sake of a lowly creature.”Death soul said, “Let this matter end here. I Won’t pursue the responsibility of you implicating me in being injured.”

As he spoke, he forcefully broke through the spatial seal and prepared to leave.

Su Yu smiled in anger.

“You’re probably deaf. I’m not here to apologize to you, but to demand a price.”As soon as Su Yu finished speaking, the surrounding space suddenly folded.

The space within a hundred kilometer radius immediately folded and overlapped rapidly with Su Yu and Huangfu Yi at the center.

Death Soul’s pupils constricted, and the aura of death around him exploded.

A huge stone tablet appeared behind him.

The word “Death”was exceptionally clear on the stone tablet.

This was the domain of death.

Under the support of the stone tablet, the compressed space was forcefully blocked, and it could no longer be folded.

“As a domain controller, you’re still too young to kill me,”death soul snorted.

The word “Death”on the stone tablet suddenly released a huge wave of light.

Anyone who was hit by the wave of light would die.

However, when the wave of light swept past Su Yu, it was like a clay ox entering the sea. It did not cause any harm.

“You are a primal Chaos Person?” Death Soul was shocked.

Then, he shook his head and said, “No, you are a living being. But why aren’t you affected by my death domain?”

A normal person should die immediately after being hit.

Su Yu didn’t say anything. He only said indifferently, “Elementary Death Domain?”

He stretched out his hand, and a bright galaxy appeared.

Then, the galaxy split into pieces.

The death domain of the death soul immediately fell apart, as if it had been crushed by destruction.

In an instant, it vanished.

The domain was crushed, and the death soul was affected. It opened its mouth and spat out a mouthful of blood. Its face was filled with shock, “Intermediate space domain, you, who exactly are you?”

Yanran’s spatial domain was only at the intermediate level.

The outsider in front of her had actually cultivated the spatial domain to a level that was even more profound than Yanran’s.

If they were to really fight, Yanran would not be able to defeat this spatial domain owner.

The death domain was crushed and the spatial folds were no longer obstructed as they swept past.

Following that, there was a blood-curdling scream.

The death soul was crushed into countless fragments by the spatial domain.

Huangfu Yi was stunned.

In his mind, Uncle Su Yu was very powerful, and he could even fight with an injured evil daughter.

However, he had never thought that uncle Su Yu was so powerful that he could easily crush the descendants of the chief sovereign of Death!

“He died just like that?” Huangfu Yi said in disbelief.

Hiss --

A soft sound echoed in the silent space.

The shattered fragments all turned into wisps of Black Death Aura.

They reformed and transformed into a human form.

There was no skin, only a blurry face and body.

“Human, you can’t kill me.” This was the true form of the death soul.

Its human form was just a layer of human skin outside of its true body.

As the descendant of the ruler of death, he controlled the path of death. Nothing could kill him.

At least, Su Yu couldn’t.

Huangfu Yi’s heart sank. As expected, how could a descendant of the ruler of death be killed so easily?

Uncle Su Yu was in big trouble.

This was the upper palace. Once the other descendants of the ruler were attracted, uncle Su Yu would be doomed.

However, Su Yu was unusually calm. He said calmly, “There are actually not many people that I can’t Kill.”

As a mortal body, he could even kill the stone embryo emperor.

So what if he was a descendant of the ruler?

“Don’t scare me. If you still want to leave the upper palace alive, get lost immediately. That way, you still have a chance to escape.” The Death Soul’s body was surrounded by death qi.

The Death Qi slowly corroded the sealed space.

Su Yu’s expression was abnormally calm as the universe behind him dispersed.

In its place was an ancient tree that blotted out the sky.

The leaves of the ancient tree weren’t crisp, but silver.

The entire tree was shining with silver light, exceptionally dazzling.

Seeing this scene, the death soul turned pale with fright. “Intermediate Life Domain!”

How could a human master both a space domain and a life domain?

And they had both cultivated to the middle-level?

“You Are... the successor of ancient God Nine Dragons?” Death Soul slowly retreated, his eyes filled with terror.

In truth, he still had some hope.

Ancient God Nine Dragons had already fallen for so many years, so there shouldn’t be a successor in the world.

“Congratulations, you got it right.” Su Yu faintly smiled.

The ancient tree shone with silver light, and boundless life force was everywhere!

Life force was undoubtedly a good thing for other living beings, and no one would complain about having too much.

But for those with death domains, the life domain was simply a natural nemesis.

Under the silver light, the entire body of the death soul was continuously evaporating.

Its body was becoming weaker and weaker.

Before long, it would completely evaporate, and die!

The only people in the world who could deal with the descendants of the death ruler were probably the descendants of the death ruler.

Similarly, the greatest threat to the descendants of the ruler of life was the descendants of the ruler of death!

However, Su Yu had both, so there was no need to fear either.

“Father, save me!” At the critical moment, the death soul crushed a jade pendant.

The jade pendant contained the power of death sealed by the ruler of death.

Once it erupted, everything in the world, except for those at the ruler-level, would die without a doubt.

Just like the Heavenly Dao master-level magic treasure that Empress Starrain had personally bestowed upon her by the ruler of time, the death soul also had a similar magic treasure.

Moreover, it was an attack-type magic treasure.

“Freeze Time!”

However, what made the death soul despair was that Su Yu really was the successor of ancient God Nine Dragons.

With a casual word, the entire river of time stopped.

The Death Soul maintained its grip on the jade pendant, unable to move at all.

Su Yu walked over and gently took the jade pendant from his hand. With an indifferent expression, he said, “This is a good item. I’ll take it for you.”

As soon as he finished speaking, time stopped.

The death soul roared crazily, “Give it back to me!”

What responded to him was the ancient tree of life that erupted like the Sun.

Under the Blinding Silver Light, the death soul vanished into thin air, leaving behind only bits and pieces of the aura of death that drifted nearby.

Su Yu grabbed with his hand, and before the aura of death dissipated, it gathered in his palm again and condensed into a pitch-black bead.

The aura of death in it soared into the sky and contained an extremely pure death domain.

He glanced at Huangfu Yi and smiled. “Huangfu Yi, do you want to have a taste of being the descendant of the ruler of Death?”

Chapter 2612 Soul Extinguisher Of The Fallen Leaf

“AH? me?”Huangfu Yi pointed at his nose. How was this possible?

The descendants of rulers all had innate bloodlines.

He was a half-human and half-demon creature. What qualifications did he have to be a descendant of rulers?

“Others might not be able to, but you should have no problem.”Su Yu looked at Huangfu Yi’s left eye, “Your left eye is the eye of death of the Heavenly Dao. It also controls the Dao of death and can absorb the death domain. There shouldn’t be too much of a problem.”

“Alright, sit down!”

Su Yu injected the bead into Huangfu Yi’s body and used his death domain to guide the death domain of the death soul into the eye of death of the Heavenly Dao.

Although Huangfu Yi’s heavenly eye of death was born with him, it was not activated.

It had yet to unleash the power of death.

Now, under the baptism of the death domain, the Heavenly Dao Eye of death trembled slightly.

Huangfu Yi only felt an itchy sensation in his left eye, as if a wound had healed and grown flesh.

Furthermore, an unprecedented terrifying power awakened in Huangfu Yi’s left eye.

That eye devoured all the death domains near it.

When everything was over.

Huangfu Yi’s left eye was like an emerald, more agile.

Traces of destructive power lingered in his eye.

“Practice a few more times in the future and learn how to control the power of death,”Su Yu said with satisfaction.

From the looks of it, he had completely succeeded.

That portion of the death domain had completely merged with the Heavenly Dao Eye of death.

Huangfu Yi unleashed the Heavenly Dao Eye of death and was able to release the death domain.

“Thank you, Uncle Su Yu.”Huangfu Yi was extremely grateful.

As a Daoist master Huang, he was able to control one of the eight supreme domains, the death domain.

In the past, he didn’t even dare to dream about this.

“There’s no need to thank me.”Su Yu said, “Follow me from now on.”

He was alone in an eight-star civilization, so Su Yu really couldn’t be at ease.

“Then if uncle Su Yu needs anything, let me handle it. I’m very familiar with the sacred city.”

Su Yu smiled and shook his head. “The only thing I need you to do is to protect yourself.”

At the moment, he didn’t need anyone else to do anything for him.

After killing the death soul and dealing with the death domain, Su Yu looked outside.

After making sure that there was no one outside, he removed the spatial barrier.

At the same time, he raised his hand and grabbed at the space above his head.

After a wave of fluctuations, a pitch-black flag appeared.

Su Yu kept it in his bosom.

This flag was called silent.

It was the formation flag used when a group of people besieged Empress Starry Rain’s residence.

Under the effect of the formation flag, it could cover up all fluctuations.

As a result, even when Empress Starry Rain and Su Yu received such a fierce attack, they didn’t alarm the nearby Tunnel Lord Guardians.

The formation flag had fallen into Su Yu’s hands, and he had just used it.

Therefore, the huge commotion of him killing the soul didn’t attract any descendants of the ruler.

The two silently returned to the guest room.

Little did they know.

Not long after they left, a woman with an elegant expression walked out from the slanted ground.

She arrived at the battlefield and grabbed at the air.

A remnant spatial domain jumped in her palm.

“Intermediate spatial domain!”The woman was none other than Yanran, a descendant of the spatial domain.

She smiled. “What a surprise. A human’s spatial domain is even more powerful than the descendants of the spatial ruler.”

It turned out that she hadn’t been separated from the death soul for long.

She had returned to search for the death soul because she had something important to do.

Unexpectedly, she saw Su Yu and a youth leave the door of the death soul as soon as she arrived.

The spatial domain that hadn’t dispersed in time was also captured by her.

“How should I treat you? A human’s spatial domain?”Her beautiful red lips curled up slightly as she said with a faint smile.

The ruler of space didn’t allow anyone other than himself and his descendants to control a domain.

If Su Yu controlled it, his fate would be sealed.

In the guest room.

Not long after Su Yu returned, a respectful voice sounded from outside the door, "Senior, everything is ready."

"Mm," Su Yu replied.

"Wait here. Don't leave so easily. I'll be right back," Su Yu said.

He left the guest room and came to the hot spring.

The descendants of the rulers had all been cleaned up and sealed nearby.

He promised that no one would disturb him during the purification period.

Looking at so much moon water, Su Yu was secretly looking forward to it.

Breaking through to Nirvana realm was just around the corner!

After the light faded away, Su Yu immediately jumped into the hot spring.

All the pores on his body opened up, crazily absorbing wisps of energy.

Su Yu didn't reject any of the domains that were mixed with the energy. He used his own domain to digest them all.

The dao marks in his body were perfected one after another, continuously developing toward his peak condition.

If nothing went wrong, he would successfully break through to Nirvana realm in two hours.

However, as the devouring continued, Su Yu couldn't ignore the fact that the chaotic domains that he had absorbed were slowly merging into his eight domains.

It caused some changes to his eight domains.

"This..." Su Yu didn't expect this.

The ten jars of Moon water that he had absorbed were too weak to affect Su Yu.

However, the current chaotic domain was the domain that the descendants of the upper palace rulers had accumulated over hundreds and thousands of years.

When accumulated, the amount was considerable.

Fortunately, Su Yu's eight domains were all at the intermediate level and were still relatively strong.

Although those impurities had merged into his domain, they couldn't affect his domain.

Instead, it made Su Yu's domain grow stronger bit by bit, and it had the unique domain abilities of the descendants of the rulers.

For example, the divination ability of light.

Su Yu could now use it!

The abilities of the other descendants of the rulers were also unintentionally learned by Su Yu.

“If they knew, they would probably die of anger, right?” Su Yu smiled bitterly.

Unintentionally, he had secretly learned the absolute arts of all the descendants of the rulers in the Upper Palace!

The descendants of the rulers who were completely unaware of this were currently discussing in the upper palace.

“I heard that the purification has already begun. Is it really reliable?”

“It’s hard to say. After all, even hegemony might not be able to do it.”

Just as they were discussing amongst themselves, a figure quickly walked over.

“Something big has happened!”

He had an anxious and uneasy look on his face.

“Lu Luo, aren’t you in seclusion?” Yao Guang stood out from the crowd and looked at the newcomer.

The newcomer was a beautiful woman whose entire body was emitting dense life energy.

She was a descendant of the ruler of life, and she was in charge of the life domain.

At this moment, Lu Luo’s face was filled with shock.

“Big Brother Yao Guang, the death soul is already dead!” Lu Luo said anxiously.

She took out a few leaves, and each of them was engraved with the names of the Upper Palace members.

One of the leaves engraved with the words ‘Death Soul’ had already withered and turned to ash.

“When the leaf falls, the soul dies. The death soul is really dead,” Lu Luo murmured.

The crowd was in an uproar.

Chapter 2613 The Domain Was Exposed

“How can a dead soul die? He controls death.”

“There aren’t many people who can kill a descendant of the death sovereign, right?”

“Only two of us have absolute confidence in killing a soul, right?”

One of them was the extremely powerful Yao Guang.

The other was the natural nemesis of the death domain... The Life Domain.

Yao Guang had always been with them and didn’t have the time to kill the soul.

The only possibility seemed to be Lu Luo.

“It’s not me, it’s not me!” Lu Luo was so anxious that her face was red. “If I kill the soul, there won’t be no damage at all.”

Although her strength was slightly higher than the death soul, how could she kill the death soul without paying a little price?

After sizing it up, everyone agreed.

It was indeed impossible for Lu Luo.

But, who could it be?

The Death Soul was in the upper palace, but was killed silently?

This was a provocation to the entire upper palace!

“Yanran, do you have anything to say?” Yao Guang’s face sank into the water.

The Death Soul had been with Yanran before.

Yanran said calmly, “Who killed the death soul? I saw it.”

What?

Everyone looked over.

Yao Guang’s eyes were filled with blame, and the terrifying aura of a tunnel master was released.

“Why didn’t You Say Anything?”

The Dead Soul had died. Since Yanran had witnessed it, why didn’t she mention it to them?

This was a huge matter!

Yanran said helplessly, “I only saw a mysterious person appear in the room of the dead soul. I didn’t expect that the dead soul would meet with misfortune. Who would have thought that he, who controlled death, would one day die?”

This... made sense.

“Who was it? Did you see it clearly?” Yaoguang asked.

Yanran didn’t dare to hide from Yaoguang and many of her colleagues. “I saw it. It was an outsider.”

An Outsider?

Including Yaoguang and the others, they all looked in the direction of the hot spring.

In the current Upper Palace, there was only one outsider, right?

And that was Su Yu, who Yao Guang had brought back.

Yao Guang’s heart sank.

In fact, he had suspected Su Yu from the start.

It was very difficult to kill a dead soul. Only this mysterious and powerful senior could do this and not cause any commotion.

It was just that he was still hoping for luck.

Yao Guang held a small booklet in his sleeve.

It was a defensive magic treasure that the Master of Fate had given him. Once he encountered danger, he only needed to take out the booklet and write down the enemy's name and the fate he was about to encounter.

The enemy's fate would change on the spot.

If he died on the spot, the enemy would die immediately.

This was the territory of the ruler of fate. No one could escape it.

If it was really Su Yu's doing, Yao Guang could only use the booklet.

No one in the upper palace could kill wantonly.

Including Su Yu!

"Big Brother Yao Guang, is it that person in the hot spring? Let's go kill him together!" Someone suggested.

His voice represented everyone else.

Without a doubt, it could only be that person's doing.

Yao Guang gripped the booklet tightly and said slowly, "This is a big matter, we can't be rash! Yanran, when the person in the hot spring comes out later, can you confirm in person if it's him?"

Yanran said affirmatively, "Yes! Although he hides his face, I still remember his aura."

Yao Guang's eyes turned cold. "Alright, everyone get ready! If it really is this person, please don't be stingy with the treasures on you. You must attack together! "This person's strength is unfathomable. If we are slightly careless, we might be the ones to die."

He felt extremely guilty.

It was the people he brought back that caused the death of the souls.

At this moment, he was greatly shaken by his divination.

The person who could bring him great opportunities was the murderer of the Upper Palace members?

"We will listen to Big Brother Yaoguang's orders!" It had to be said that the upper palace members were still quite united.

One person died, and the other members became United.

"Follow me."

Under Yaoguang's lead, a total of seven upper palace members came to the entrance of the hot spring.

They were all secretly preparing powerful defensive magic treasures.

Once Yanran confirmed that Su Yu was the murderer...

What awaited him was the attack of the seven overlords' personal defensive magic treasures.

At that time, Su Yu was doomed.

Su Yu, who was completely unaware of this, was making his final charge.

“799th!”

“800th!”

Finally, the dao marks in his body were completely perfected.

All the power in the dao marks exploded like a mountain flood.

Su Yu suddenly felt that his body was about to be broken through by that unparalleled power from the inside out. His entire body felt swollen.

At the same time, the Dao Qi in all directions gathered above Su Yu's head like thousands of flowing rivers returning to the sea.

With the hot spring as the center, the Xuan Qi within a radius of one million miles quickly swept over.

The naked eye could see the thick clouds that had condensed into dark clouds rolling over and covering the entire upper palace.

The different profound qi dark clouds collided and rubbed against each other, creating a series of lightning bolts and exploding thunderclaps.

The descendants of the rulers stared at this scene in astonishment.

Why did this scene seem like someone was undergoing a tribulation?

“When one broke through to the Earth Dao master level, the phenomena of heaven and earth were nothing more than this, right?” Lu Luo was stunned.

Such dense profound qi was as if eight hundred middle nirvana stage profound dao masters had broken through to the Nirvana stage at the same time.

Yao Guang shook his head solemnly: “No! Even if one broke through to the Earth Dao master level, there wouldn't be such a magnificent phenomenon of heaven and earth.”

He was an Earth Dao master, and he knew this very well.

“What is that person doing in the hot spring? How could he summon such a terrifying phenomenon so easily?” Everyone felt their scalps go numb.

One after another, they could not help but clench their magic treasures tightly.

Amidst the Lightning and thunder, the dark clouds began to drop into the hot spring as rain.

Su Yu sat cross-legged in the hot spring. There was a rotating airflow on the top of his head, catching all the falling liquefied profound qi and fusing it into his dao marks.

The power in his dao marks became even purer after it was merged with the Majestic Xuan Qi!

When all the Xuan Qi was absorbed, Su Yu clenched his five fingers and almost tore the space apart.

“Early-stage of the Nirvana Stage?” Su Yu revealed a trace of joy.

His current cultivation was at the early-stage of the Nirvana stage, but his Pure Xuan Dao power was already close to the early-stage of the Nirvana stage.

There shouldn't be many experts at the same stage of the Nirvana stage who could compete with him in terms of power.

Su Yu was extremely satisfied with his successful breakthrough.

He slowly stood up. The hot spring he was in was already extremely clear.

There wasn't a single trace of impurities in it.

“It's time to leave,” Su Yu thought to himself. He had already achieved his goal and it was time to leave the upper palace.

However, just as he stood up, his footsteps suddenly stopped.

In his left eye, eight great domains started to spin uncontrollably.

The eight domains appeared on their own and shot out a pillar of eight-colored light.

The pillar of light broke through all obstacles.

The many seals of the hot springs were unable to block the pillar of light for even a moment, and they were instantly destroyed.

The hegemonic descendants outside the hot springs were all shocked as they stared at the pillar of light from the eight domains.

“That... that's eight autarch domains?”

“Only ancient god nine dragons seems to be able to merge the eight autarch domains into one, right?”

“Could it be that...”

Could it be that ancient god Nine Dragons' true body was inside?

Yao Guang's heart skipped a beat as he felt the fear of stepping into an abyss.

Chapter 2614 Turning The Tide

There was no doubt as to the relationship between ancient god Nine Dragons and the ruler.

If he really was ancient god Nine Dragons' true body, wouldn't all the descendants of the rulers..

Yao Guang shuddered at this thought.

The pillar of light that shot into the sky was extinguished a moment later.

The descendants of the rulers felt their hearts clench!

The other party was about to come out!

The main point wasn't that the other party had killed the death soul, but that the other party was most likely ancient god Nine Dragons' true body.

Creak --

Creak --

In the deathly silence, soft sounds entered their ears.

They were the sounds of the seals being opened layer by layer.

He was about to come out!

Gulp!

The sound of gulping could be heard.

Their hearts grew even more nervous as the seals were unsealed.

They could even hear the thumping of their hearts.

Creak --

As the last seal was released.

A figure slowly walked out from the hazy mist of the hot spring.

This figure was covered in an eight-colored halo.

Eight different sovereign domains surrounded this figure.

"Ah! Ancient God Nine Dragons!" Someone with a bad temper screamed as he activated the sovereign's personal magic treasure in fear.

"No!" Yao Guang shouted

If the other party wasn't ancient God Nine Dragons' true body, then they had killed innocents in vain.

If they weren't, they would have angered ancient god Nine Dragons' true body.

How could they act rashly?

"Freeze!"

But the figure walked out and said slowly.

The person who was about to activate his domain was frozen in time.

"Time domain!" The descendants of the sovereigns narrowed their eyes, their hearts growing even more terrified.

Whoosh

The mist dissipated, revealing Su Yu's figure.

A layer of eight-colored light swirled around his body, and he had a cold, aloof expression on his face. "Are the hegemonic descendants that weak? They're actually this scared!"

Everyone stared at him without blinking. No one dared to say another word.

“If ancient god Nine Dragons’ true body personally came, I’m afraid he wouldn’t even bother to argue with you useless hegemonic descendants,” Su Yu said coldly.

Hearing this, the seven relaxed.

The other party wasn’t the true body of ancient God Nine Dragons?

After their panic, they thought about it carefully. It made sense. What kind of world-shaking figure was the true body of ancient God Nine Dragons?

Why would he come to a small upper palace?

Why would he be willing to help them purify the moon water?

“Who are you, sir?” Yao Guang’s expression didn’t change.

Even if he wasn’t ancient God Nine Dragons, he was able to activate the eight sovereign domains. He could be a descendant or a descendant of ancient god Nine Dragons.

Su Yu swiped his finger across his body, and all of the eight-colored light gathered at his fingertip.

“Who am I?” Su Yu calmly said, “I’m just a person who has some knowledge of the eight supreme domains.”

Some knowledge?

Yao Guang understood, but others might not.

“Please tell us where you came from. Otherwise, it will be very difficult for us to let you go,” Lu Luo said.

Su Yu glanced at her and said indifferently, “The descendant of the ruler of life, right?”

He flicked his finger, and a green light flew out from the eight-colored halo on his fingertip.

The light fell to the ground, and a green statue immediately appeared.

“Isn’t that Lu Luo’s immortal domain?” The others were all shocked.

The most special thing about Lu Luo’s immortal domain was that she had an immortal body.

Once she used it, she could be resurrected on the spot if she died under any circumstances.

But how could Su Yu do that?

“Who are you?” The descendant of the Samsara sovereign asked.

Su Yu glanced at him and flicked his finger again.

Six doors of different colors appeared in front of everyone’s eyes. The six doors of reincarnation rotated, faintly creating a mysterious karmic relationship between all living things.

Seeing this, everyone’s expressions changed once more.

“The Dao of Karma Samsara Domain!”

Su Yu then flicked out all of the dots of light in his hands.

Each one clearly displayed the domain characteristics of the seven people present.

This caused them to sink into great shock and confusion.

Even the descendants of ancient god Nine Dragons couldn't control a domain unique to their bloodline, right?

There were some differences between a sovereign domain and a sovereign domain.

For example, it was a fate domain.

Yao Guang's fate domain focused on divination, while Su Yu's was on changing fate and defying fate.

"Who am I? I'm just a person who has some knowledge of the eight domains," Su Yu casually said.

His expression was relaxed.

But in his heart, he was also sweating.

Just now, the eight autarch domains had spontaneously exploded out without any warning, causing Su Yu's heart to sink.

However, he was quick-witted. He had intentionally imitated the domains of the seven hegemonic descendants, allowing him to muddle through.

"How did you study them?" Lu Luo was both shocked and puzzled. Her one and only undying domain had actually been learned by someone else.

How could she accept it?

"You'll understand once you take a look." Su Yu stared calmly at Lu Luo. "They're just eight domains. There's nothing impressive about them."

Hiss!

This tone was a little too arrogant.

The eight supreme domains were the ultimate domains in the world.

They actually said that it was nothing impressive?

But they couldn't refute it.

Because Su Yu was indeed able to easily display the supreme domain that they were proud of.

Everyone couldn't decide for a moment.

How should they face this person next? Should they fight or make peace?

They couldn't help but look at Yaoguang.

Yaoguang's heart was shaken. He finally believed Su Yu's words!

He came from Dao Yuan!

He came from the most mysterious place in the world.

Only people from that place could look down on the sovereign domain and do such a heaven-defying thing like imitating everyone's domain.

"Since you are not the enemy of the ruler, I apologize on behalf of the Upper Palace members." Yaoguang cupped his fists and bowed.

Su Yu nodded and said indifferently, "It's a small matter. Just don't be so reckless next time."

The other descendants of the ruler heaved a sigh of relief.

If they really fought, it was hard to say if they could suppress this mysterious person.

However, one of them refused to give up.

"Wait! There's still one thing we haven't confirmed, right?" Lu Luo's red lips pursed tightly as she said somewhat stubbornly.

The Other People's hearts skipped a beat.

That's right. Their original purpose of coming here was to confirm whether Su Yu was the murderer of the soul.

Yao Guang hesitated for a moment, then turned to Yanran and asked, "Is it him?"

If it was him, then a fierce battle was inevitable between them.

The eyes of the other five people were also fixed on Yanran.

The magical equipment hidden in their sleeves was ready to be activated again.

Everyone's hearts were raised and they were extremely nervous.

Yanran raised her beautiful eyes and looked at Su Yu.

Under everyone's gaze, Yanran opened her red lips slightly and said with certainty, "No."

Hearing that, everyone's hearts were completely relieved and they all heaved a long sigh of relief.

Yaoguang even secretly wiped his palms on his clothes.

His palms were already covered in cold sweat.

He was one thousand and one thousand people who did not want to become enemies with the unfathomable Su Yu.

Fortunately, he was not the person Yanran identified.

"The one who killed the soul was another person, not him," Yanran added.

Just a pair of eyes, when they looked at Su Yu, faintly flashed with a hint of a meaningful smile.

Chapter 2615 Coaxing And Deceiving

"I see!" Yao Guang regained his composure and said with a smile, "Senior, it was a false alarm. Please don't take offense."

Su Yu stared at Yanran and took a deep look. He looked at Yao Guang calmly and said, "The hot spring has been purified."

Yao Guang's eyes flashed with anticipation as he asked, "May I ask senior, how much has been purified?"

After all, there were so many impurities. To be able to purify 30% , Yao Guang was very satisfied.

"Can't you see for yourself?" Su Yu moved aside to make way for the entrance behind him.

Yao Guang exchanged a look with the others and entered the seal one after another.

Glancing at it, all of their faces changed drastically.

"Completely purified!"

"Oh my God! It's 100% purified!"

They said in disbelief.

What followed was a huge surprise.

Such a clear marrow cleansing was enough to strengthen their bloodline power.

Of course, they clearly discovered that the hot spring had lost at least 10% of the marrow cleansing.

However, no one mentioned it.

Compared to the complete purification of the Moon Water, the loss was negligible.

Perhaps it was a necessary loss during the purification process?

Yao Guang suppressed his surprise and returned to the outside world. He bowed deeply to Su Yu, "Senior, you have done me a great favor. I will never forget the time domain of the Upper Palace."

"It's nothing," Su Yu said calmly.

Yao Guang wanted to befriend him, so he said, "I will hold a celebration banquet right now. Senior, please do me the honor to attend."

The other descendants of the rulers walked out, and their minds became lively.

Such a mysterious expert could do something that even rulers couldn't do. If they didn't befriend him in time, they would be too stupid.

"Yes, senior. We can't repay your kindness!"

"Please accept my invitation for the celebratory banquet!"

Su Yu declined several times before he couldn't resist the hospitality and said, "Alright."

Hence, under Yao Guang's personal instructions, the servants quickly set up a celebratory feast.

"I'll go back and rest for a while. I'll come back later." The feast was still being prepared and Su Yu had to go back to the guest room first.

Yao Guang and the rest nodded.

Su Yu walked back to the guest room alone, but he suddenly stopped midway.

Without turning his head, he said, "Come out, we've followed you all the way."

Huala --

A series of leaves whirled, and several fallen leaves fell from a big tree behind Su Yu.

Emerald Green light surged out from the leaves, condensing into a human figure that appeared in front of Su Yu.

It was Lu Luo.

Her pretty face contained some coldness, and her pair of bright and beautiful eyes stared straight at Su Yu.

There was a hint of stubbornness in her expression.

"It's you. What's the matter?" Su Yu stood calmly.

Lu Luo enunciated each word and said clearly, "You're the murderer!"

Su Yu asked indifferently, "Your companion should have already confirmed that I'm not the murderer. Why are you accusing me again?"

However, Lu Luo was very sure.

"The death soul controls the death soul domain. No method can kill it."

In terms of who knew more about the domain of the dead, in the entire Upper Palace, other than the soul of the dead himself, there was only Lu Luo, the nemesis of the domain of the dead.

"In the entire upper palace, there are only three people who can kill him. One is Big Brother Yao Guang, one is me, and the last one is you!"

"It's impossible for me and Big Brother Yao Guang. It can only be you."

Su Yu's expression was very calm, and there were no fluctuations on his face.

He looked at Lu Luo and shook his head slightly. "You actually know nothing about the eight domains."

"It's not just the life domain and the fate domain that can kill a death domain user," Su Yu said.

Lu Luo's eyes were still wide open, as if she was telling Su Yu with her eyes that she didn't believe him.

"Watch carefully." Su Yu waved his hand casually, and the death soul materialized.

Seeing the death soul that was close to a real person, Lu Luo was so scared that she hurriedly retreated. "Death Soul? No, it's not a death soul."

She was the controller of the life domain, so she could clearly sense the dead soul in front of her. It seemed real and fake.

Su Yu flicked his finger, and the time domain appeared.

The time domain rapidly retreated, and the dead soul was wiped out of the world.

Then, it was the space domain, which decomposed the dead soul into the original space particles in the world.

Then, it was the soul domain..

The eight great domains came easily in Su Yu's hands. Each domain had the ability to kill the dead soul.

Lu Luo was stunned.

She thought that only the life domain could suppress the death domain and kill the controller of the death domain.

But in the end, any one of them could do it.

“This...”

Su Yu said indifferently, “Do you understand? Anyone in the Upper Palace can kill a soul.”

Lu Luo's face turned red.

It was just as Su Yu said, she actually knew nothing about the eight supreme domains.

Lu Luo knew that she was wrong, so she couldn't bring herself to do it. She turned her head away and said in a low voice, “I'm sorry.”

Su Yu smiled and said, “It's not your fault. You're just thinking of your companions.”

Lu Luo secretly glanced at Su Yu and said, “Won't you be angry? Will you tell Big Brother Yao Guang?”

She was afraid that Yao Guang would punish her for this matter.

Because Yao Guang really respected Su Yu.

“I won't,” Su Yu said. “Your intentions are good.”

Hearing this, Lu Luo's heart relaxed. She looked at Su Yu again and couldn't help but feel that she was much more pleasing to the eye.

“Thank you.” Lu Luo twisted her fingers together and said these two words very awkwardly.

Su Yu said, “I've studied your life domain. I feel that there's room for improvement. Try to digest these insights.”

He pointed with his index finger, and a hint of insight entered the latter's head.

Lu Luo digested it on the spot. The more she felt it, the more extraordinary the hint of insight was.

“This, this is the insight of an intermediate life domain,” Lu Luo said happily.

Her life domain had always been at the low level, so it was difficult for her to make any progress.

Sensing the enormous amount of information contained in this hint of insight, Lu Luo was pleasantly surprised.

When she came back to her senses, she couldn't help but be filled with joy. She said gratefully, “Thank you, senior, thank you for your guidance!”

“Yes, go. Your companions might be looking for you. Don't let them find out that you're following me,” Su Yu said.

Lu Luo's heart was moved.

What a kind and generous senior.

Not only was he not angry when she doubted him like that, he even gave her enlightenment and even covered it up for her in the end.

Thinking back on what she had done, Lu Luo's face was full of shame.

“Senior, I'm really sorry. If you need to order Lu Luo around in the future, please let me know,” Lu Luo said with a red face.

Her good impression of Su Yu instantly reached its peak.

“Hehe, it's fine.”

Lu Luo thanked him again and again before she picked up her dress and trotted back.

Su Yu watched her leave, and the smile on his face slowly disappeared.

“I originally wanted you to come out, but I didn't expect that little girl to come out,” Su Yu said indifferently to the air.

Splash --

A wave of water rippled in front of her, and a beautiful and enchanting woman walked out.

She was Yanran!

Clap Clap --

Yanran clapped lightly and said with a faint smile, “Senior is really good at deceiving little girls!”

Chapter 2616 The Deal Was Concluded

Su Yu said calmly, “It's better than your duplicity, isn't it?”

There was a deeper meaning in his words.

Outsiders couldn't understand it at all.

Only Yanran knew it clearly. She said with a smile, “If my duplicity is the same as my duplicity, senior will probably be in trouble now, right?”

She had clearly seen su yu and Huangfu Yi kill the death soul with her own eyes.

However, when she identified them, she lied to her companions and betrayed them.

That was why Su Yu said that she was not what she appeared to be.

“Tell me, what do you want from me?” Su Yu said calmly, and the silence in his sleeves slowly moved.

Yanran’s smile became even wider. “Senior, is this how you treat someone who has done you a favor?”

However, she sensed that Su Yu wanted to make a move. She pointed her finger in the air, and the space immediately rippled like water.

With just a thought, she could leave easily.

Her space domain level was not low. It had already reached the intermediate level.

It was really difficult for Su Yu to trap and kill her like how she trapped and killed the soul.

“Alright, give me a reason not to kill you to silence you,” Su Yu said indifferently.

She pursed her lips and smiled. “The answer is very simple. I hope that senior can help me. Just now, I didn’t identify senior. Consider it a small gift from me.”

Su Yu looked at her and said, “The battle for the ruler of space hasn’t started yet, right?”

Yanran shook her head slightly. “Not for me, but for Shao Hao of northern bright city.”

For Him?

A cold light filled the depths of Su Yu’s eyes.

“Who are you to him?” Su Yu pretended not to know.

Yanran chuckled. “I’m his partner! Just like the descendant of the ruler of soul who is helping the waning moon empress, we all have the descendants of the ruler who support us.”

Su Yu could imagine the exchange of benefits.

Once the descendants of the Dominators who supported them successfully ascended to the top, they would also help their supporters become the Dominators of their respective domains.

Su Yu shook his head gently. “My ability is limited. I can’t help Shaohao.”

What a joke. There was a life-and-death grudge between him and Shaohao.

There was no way he could help Shaohao.

“Senior, there’s no need to be humble. Yanran has witnessed your ability.” Yanran was exceptionally convinced of his ability to purify the moon water.

Su Yu pondered for a while and his mind was filled with thoughts.

A moment later, he said, “Due to certain reasons, I can’t directly participate in the competition between the descendants of the ruler.”

Yanran's eyes lit up and she said, "There's no need for senior to show up. There's no need for Shaohao to even know about senior's existence."

Su Yu's face was gloomy. After a long while, he said, "If you can give me enough things, I can consider it."

Yanran was overjoyed.

If Su Yu did not want anything and just helped her like this, she would have to think twice.

"What does senior want?" Yanran asked.

Su Yu pointed at Yanran's sleeve and said, "I want a magic treasure that can speed up time."

He wanted to forge the nightmare lotus throne again, but there were countless books that he needed to understand.

His own time acceleration domain was far from being able to understand the entire chapter in a short period of time.

But Yanran was different.

If he could get a top-notch time magic treasure from Shaohao, he might have a chance.

"What level is it?" Yanran asked.

Su Yu thought for a moment and said, "Ten thousand times time acceleration."

10,000 times time acceleration?

Yanran smacked her tongue. "For such a level of time acceleration, only the time dominator, which Shaohao carried with him, would bestow him with a protective magic treasure."

"But he can't give it to anyone else."

The descendants of the Dominator were about to fight for it. Any protective magic treasure at the level of a Heavenly Dao master was rare and valuable.

How could shaohao give it to anyone else?

"This is the only thing I want. If he can't give it to me, then forget it," Su Yu said decisively.

Yanran looked troubled and said hesitantly, "How about this, senior, don't be so arbitrary. When I find an opportunity, I'll ask Shaohao about it."

Su Yu nodded. "Okay."

Yanran let out a sigh of relief and said, "Okay, senior has something to do first. Later at the banquet, if senior needs to cooperate, Yanran will do her best."

Cooperate?

Su Yu's gaze turned and returned to the guest room.

However, standing at the door of the guest room, Su Yu unconsciously looked at the ground beneath his feet.

He didn't know if it was an illusion, but he vaguely felt as if there was an eye underground spying on everything on the ground.

He pushed open the door and entered. Huangfu Yi was quietly practicing the death domain in the guest room.

Every time he practiced, the heavenly eye of death in his left eye would be released.

“Stop practicing,” Su Yu said.

Huangfu Yi didn't understand and immediately withdrew the heavenly eye of death.

Su Yu closed his eyes and tried to sense his surroundings.

After a while, his gaze became more serious.

The sense of prying disappeared.

Staring at Huangfu Yi's heavenly eye of death, Su Yu fell into deep thought.

Could it be that Huangfu Yi's heavenly eye of death had attracted an unknown existence to pry?

“Try not to use the heavenly eye of death in the future,” Su Yu warned.

Huangfu Yi scratched her head in confusion. “Oh, okay.”

Not long after, the banquet began.

The seven descendants of the rulers gathered together and drank with Su Yu at the same table.

They conversed harmoniously with each other.

Among them, Lu Luo was the most active in conversing with Su Yu.

Her face was slightly red as she repeatedly expressed her goodwill to Su Yu. Her attitude was completely different from before.

This action caused the descendants of the rulers to cast sidelong glances at her.

What happened?

“Senior, what are your plans next?” Yanran asked meaningfully. “Why don't you stay in the Upper Palace? If senior needs anything, we will try our best to satisfy you.”

Yao Guang deeply agreed and said, “That's right, senior. If you need us to do anything for you, feel free to order us around.”

How could he have almost forgotten?

The purification of the pulse cleansing divine marrow had been completed, and senior could leave at any time.

Su Yu just realized that this was Yanran's so-called cooperation.

“Yes, I do have some things to do in the sacred city,” Su Yu said. “I need to wait for half a year, for a special day.”

Yao Guang's heart moved, and he said, "Could it be that senior is waiting for the nine-month alignment?"

Half a year later, the ninth month would appear.

"Yes!" Su Yu didn't hide anything.

Yao Guang's expression became more solemn as he asked, "Could it be that senior has also heard the news?"

HMM?

Su Yu's gaze lightly flickered. "Tell me."

Yao Guang and the other descendants of the sovereign looked at each other with a solemn expression.

"Yesterday, we received news from the Sovereign Palace. One of the four great protectors of ancient God Nine Netherworld, the sacred demon, briefly appeared. The sovereign suspected that the other party would come out to cause trouble during the ninth month."

In the time domain, only during the ninth month would the time domain that covered the entire time domain lose its effect.

At that time, it might be the best time for a sacred demon to appear and not be discovered.

"Sacred Demon?" Su Yu was shocked.

Back then, he had used yin demon Qi to cultivate and accidentally draw out a sacred demon remnant soul.

Even such a short and weak change had been noticed by the ruler of time.

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but be secretly alarmed.

The terror of the master was far greater than he had imagined.

However, Su Yu felt that it was a good thing that the saint devil had been exposed.

Chapter 2617 No Regrets

"The ruler has already found out where the sacred demon might be hiding. He is currently forming a group of experts. When the ninth month comes, the sacred demon's hiding place will appear, and they will slaughter their way in!"

"We plan to head there as well." Yao Guang looked at Su Yu. "Senior, do you want to investigate? That is one of the protectors of ancient god Netherworld. He has been hiding in the sacred city for many years, and he has left behind many unknown ancient treasures."

Su Yu originally wanted to find an excuse to sneak in with them.

But Yao Guang found an excuse for him.

"Alright, I can follow you guys to see what's going on," Su Yu said.

Yaoguang and the others were overjoyed. With an expert like senior following them, this trip would naturally be much safer.

The banquet ended happily.

But in one of the manors, there was a gloomy expression.

“Mom, are we moving again? We just moved here.” Su Cai'er followed Qin Xian 'er and Luo xueyi and left the house they rented three days ago in a hurry.

Qin Xian 'ER's face was full of worry and helplessness. She said, “An unknown person has already found our house. If we don't leave now, it will be too late.”

Luo Xueyi's eyebrows were knitted together as she was worried.

She was the one who had discovered the unknown person last night.

It was different from the past. Luo xueyi sensed that the time between them being discovered was getting shorter and shorter.

She was worried that the enemy had already locked onto their approximate tracks.

It was only a matter of time before they found them.

“Mother, why don't we ask Uncle Su for help?” Su Cai'er thought of Su Yu, that kind-hearted human uncle surnamed Su.

Qin Xian 'er heard this and said, “Cai'er, don't mention uncle Su anymore. The enemies we have to face are the subordinates of the ruler of time. No one can help us.”

Moreover, she didn't trust the so-called uncle Su at all.

She even suspected that uncle Su was the ruler of time.

Otherwise, why would they be discovered after only staying for three days?

“Uncle Su is different. He is very powerful,” Su Cai'er argued.

Su Yu casually killed a few gang members, and his figure was deeply fixed in Su Cai'er's mind.

“Shh! Don't Talk!” Suddenly, Luo Xueyi stopped and made a silent gesture.

Because she found something unusual.

Qin Xian 'er also sensed it, and her pretty face changed deeply.

“There are unknown experts searching nearby,” Qin Xian 'er said in a focused voice.

Just now, a gaze that swept past them vaguely swept past them.

Luo xueyi's expression was solemn. “You guys go first. I'll stay behind.”

They had already been discovered!

There was no need to take any chances.

Only if one person stayed behind to attract attention would the other people be able to find a chance to successfully escape.

“Xueyi!”Qin Xian ‘er couldn’t bear it.

The strength of the enemy was unknown, but she could imagine that they must be very powerful.

Once she stayed behind, her life and death were unpredictable.

“Let’s go quickly. At least let Su Yu see his daughter.”Luo xueyi sighed in her heart.

This was all she could do.

Qin Xian ‘er was moved. She felt that perhaps Su Yu owed Luo xueyi a debt that he couldn’t repay.

“Be careful.”Qin Xian ‘er bit her red lips and endured the pain as she left with Su Cai ‘er.

Luo xueyi remained where he was.

Not long later, a terrifying aura and its swift and violent speed arrived in the blink of an eye.

It was a profound dao master at the void Nirvana stage who was wearing the uniform of the palace of gods.

His gaze had swept across this place just now.

“Only You?”Profound Dao Master had three eyes as he asked in unison.

Luo Xueyi did not say a word as she used the shaman technique while trembling. “How many years has it been? All of you have never given up. Today, we will perish together!”

“Heaven and earth form!”

Heaven and earth form was a top-secret inheritance that far surpassed the heaven and earth form.

It was the divine art that the ancestor shaman had left behind in the nine dragons ancient divine realm.

Unfortunately, Luo Xueyi’s strength was still too low, so she was unable to fully unleash the power of this technique.

“Petty tricks!”Before reaching the void Nirvana stage, Luo Xueyi appeared to be unable to withstand a single blow.

The latter casually flicked her finger and sent Luo xueyi flying backwards.

Before she could stabilize her body, Dao Master Xuan took a step forward and suppressed her to the ground with his extremely powerful Xuan Dao power.

Pu --

Under the huge force of the attack, Luo xueyi vomited blood endlessly. The bright red blood dyed her white clothes red.

Xuan Dao master sized up Luo Xueyi and stared at him for a moment before shaking his head slightly. "It's not you! Tell me, where is that child?"

For more than ten years, the ruler of time had been paying attention to the phenomenon of the nine-colored multicolored light soaring into the sky that day.

Furthermore, he had specially dispatched a team of guards to capture the relevant people as much as possible.

After more than ten years of investigation and investigation, the guards had vaguely confirmed that the nine-colored multicolored light was related to a human girl.

However, that girl and her two relatives were particularly cunning.

Every time they were about to find out, the latter would immediately leave the area quietly.

As a result, they had been hiding in the sacred city for more than ten years, but had not been able to discover it.

This time, they expanded their search force and finally narrowed the area they were hiding in to a small area.

Now, as expected, they had made a huge discovery.

Luo xueyi gritted his teeth and didn't say a word.

"You're fine just because you didn't say it? Naive!" In front of the Void Nirvana Stage Xuan Dao Master, it didn't matter whether he spoke or not.

He pointed at Luo Xueyi's head and performed a soul search.

Luo xueyi twitched in pain and the memories in his mind were flipped through coldly.

A moment later, the void Nirvana Stage Xuan Dao Master was overjoyed. "It really is that human girl!"

"Take her to the prison of the Sovereign Palace!" The void Nirvana Realm Xuan Dao Master chased after Qin Xian 'er and Su Cai 'er.

Qin Xian 'er seemed to have sensed something.

She faintly sensed that something was wrong.

She came to a corner and put su Cai 'er down. She said, "Cai 'er, you run alone and don't turn back. Do you understand?"

A vivid black phoenix naturally appeared on Qin Xian 'ER's chest.

"Mother, I don't want to leave." Su Cai'er seemed to have a premonition of what would happen next and was extremely unwilling.

Qin Xian 'er squatted down and caressed her head with a loving gaze. "Cai'er, be obedient! If you run far away on your own for mother's sake, then mother can still fight with the other party. Do you understand?"

Su Cai'er bit her lips tightly.

She was too weak and would only be a hindrance if she followed her mother.

“Cai'er, if one day you can find your father, tell him that I never regret it.” Tears rolled down Qin Xian 'Er's eyes.

What did she not regret?

She did not regret giving birth to a child for Su Yu.

Even if she was killed because of this child.

She did not regret anything.

As long as it was for Su Yu, she would not regret even if she was in a sea of suffering.

Su Cai'er's tears fell like rain, as if she felt an eternal farewell.

At this moment, she wished that someone could save her mother and their poor home.

Suddenly, Su Cai'er seemed to think of something and said, “Mother, you hold on!”

After saying that, she ran away alone and took out the jade seal in the dark.

This was what Su Yu had left for her.

As long as she activated it, Su Yu would be the first to sense it and arrive with the space domain.

Chapter 2618 Divine Fire Of The Netherworld

She believed that Su Yu would definitely come.

There was no reason for that kind of trust. It was as if she was born with it.

“Uncle Su, save my mother.” Su Cai'er's voice was filled with tears as she crushed the communication jade seal.

Crack --

The jade seal shattered.

A soundless fluctuation quickly swept out, carrying Su Cai'er's only hope and her voice. It pierced through space and arrived at the unknown place.

She prayed in her heart that uncle Su would come immediately.

She had to save her mother.

As long as she could save her mother, she would die without any regrets even if she was captured or killed.

All these years, her mother had been working too hard.

She didn't want to see her mother suffer any more harm.

Under his gaze, that faint energy wave disappeared into the distance.

She believed that once the message arrived, that kind-hearted uncle Su would immediately appear.

Pu --

However, what caused Su Cai'er's body to stiffen and her pupils to dilate was...

A palm with old skin and protruding veins stretched out without any warning.

In a casual manner, it caught the wave that was about to leave into its palm.

An old man with a gloomy smile slowly appeared.

"Hehe, do you still want to call for help now?" The old man laughed hoarsely. In his laughter, there was the carefree feeling of a hunter forcing his prey into a desperate situation.

It had been ten years!

After ten years of continuous pursuit, there was finally a result.

"Don't... Don't..." Su Cai'er muttered in her heart, holding on to that last bit of luck.

She hoped that the old man would be confused for a moment and let go of that message.

Although she knew that it was impossible, people would often have many unrealistic illusions in their despair.

Su Cai'er was no exception.

Gazing at the communication in his palm, the old man said with a strange smile, "Since he can call for help at a critical moment, it means that this person is very important to you. He should be with you, right?"

His palm slowly loosened, and the communication started to spin again.

"Should I lure the snake out of its hole and bring him here?" The old man in the Void Nirvana realm sneered.

Su Cai'er's heart pounded wildly, and her eyes widened as she stared at the old man's palm without blinking.

Let Go!

Let Go!

She had to let go!

She prayed crazily in her heart. She was like a person who had fallen into the water and saw a straw floating on the surface of the water.

That was her last glimmer of hope.

Don't extinguish it!

However, the old man's palm that had let go suddenly clenched and grasped the message in his palm once again.

His five fingers suddenly clenched tightly.

With a poof, the message was completely destroyed.

It turned into sparkling light spots scattered in all directions.

“Hehe, I’m lying to you. Why would I overdo it?”The old man laughed mockingly.

His target was that little girl.

What if he attracted other people and caused a mistake?

The last flame in Su Cai'er’s heart was suddenly extinguished. She sat on the ground weakly, her mind blank.

It was over!

It was really over!

No one could save them!

“Cai’er, leave quickly!”Qin Xian ‘er’s expression was cold. A murderous aura that had been hidden for a long time surrounded her.

It was the murderous aura that she had cultivated when she was still in the Shura civilization.

However, it had been a long time since she had used it.

The Little Black Phoenix on her shoulder seemed to have sensed Qin Xian ‘er’s state of mind and continued to cry.

“Little girl, follow me obediently. You Won’t be able to escape.”The old man’s palm jolted, and the profound qi in the world suddenly gathered over.

It condensed into a huge palm print that was a thousand feet wide in the sky and suddenly grabbed towards su Cai ‘er.

“Phoenix Song of the Netherworld!”Qin Xian ‘er leaped over, and the Phoenix on her shoulder immediately let out a sharp cry.

The cry pierced through the heaven and earth, instantly destroying the palm formed from condensed Xuan Qi.

The remaining sharp cry went up against the sky and struck the old man’s body.

However, how could the Black Phoenix be able to shake the Xuan Dao Master at the Void Nirvana realm?

It wasn’t even able to break through the Xuan Qi protective armor on his body.

Only a shallow ripple was left, and the sound wave attack shattered.

The old man looked deeply at the Little Black Phoenix, as if he had seen it somewhere before.

It was just that he could not remember it at the moment.

“I’ll deal with You Later!”The space around the old man fluctuated.

It was because his movement technique was extremely fast and he had broken through the spatial barrier.

He had already arrived in front of Su Cai'er.

Qin Xian'er's eyes were about to split open as she screamed crazily, "Don't touch her!"

Boom --

The Black Phoenix suddenly exploded and turned into a huge ball of black flames that stuck to the surface of Qin Xian'er's body.

Looking from afar, Qin Xian'er looked as if she had walked out of the Endless Netherworld with the flames of hell draped over her.

Under the black flames, her graceful figure was faintly discernible.

Only that pair of angry eyes contained infinite coldness.

Whoosh --

In the next moment, the flames intensified violently.

Qin Xian'er, who was originally far away, actually arrived in front of Su Cai'er at an astonishing speed and blocked the old man.

A portion of the surging black flames on her body separated and turned into an incomparably black long halberd!

Chi --

The long halberd stabbed out instantly and barely collided with the old man's palm.

With a whoosh, the halberd and spear suffered an incomparably fierce attack. They were instantly struck back to their original form, turning into a ball of black flames.

The old man's palm was pierced through by a bit of skin.

"Hiss!" The old man withdrew his hand in pain, sizing up Qin Xian'er with a trace of surprise.

After looking for a while, the old man seemed to recall something, and his expression suddenly changed.

A heaven-shaking ecstasy condensed on his old face, causing the flesh on his face to involuntarily tremble.

"Nine Netherworld Divine Fire! That Phoenix is the sacred weapon of ancient god Nine Netherworld's inheritance, the nine Netherworld Divine Fire!" The old man couldn't help but shout wildly.

He was curious as to why the Little Black Phoenix looked so familiar.

It turned out that he had unintentionally seen some information about ancient god Nine Netherworld.

Legend had it that ancient God Nine Netherworld's sacred weapon was a divine fire that had appeared when the world had been split apart.

That fire could burn everything in the world.

Even a stone-born son of heaven could be burned to death by this fire.

It could be said that the divine fire of nine Netherworld was the number one divine fire in the world!

It was just that he hadn't recognized the Phoenix form for the time being.

Now that he saw the Black Phoenix turn into a black flame, he finally remembered.

His gaze shifted from Su Cai'er to Qin Xian 'er, and he was so excited that he couldn't control himself. "The descendant of the ancient god of nine Netherworld or the descendant of the ancient God! The heavens are helping me! The heavens are helping me! !"

One had to know that the ruler of time was willing to pay any price for the protection of ancient God Nine Netherworld.

What more a descendant or descendant of ancient God Nine Netherworld?

If he could bring him back, the rewards he would receive would simply be incomparable.

In fact, the ruler of time might even bestow him with boundless time acceleration, allowing him to break through to the spatial nirvana realm or even become an Earth Dao Master!

Thinking of this, the old man was overjoyed!

"I want to take both you and your mother away!" The old man laughed maniacally as he grabbed with both hands toward another person.

Qin Xian 'er's expression was extremely calm.

She was unusually unfamiliar with the use of ancient god Magic Treasures and could not unleash the power that magic treasures should have.

"Nine Netherworld Heavenly Seal!" Qin Xian 'er gritted her teeth and forcefully activated a divine art that she was not familiar with in her memories.

A large portion of the nine nether divine fire on her body was once again divided and condensed into a mysterious and abnormal rune.

Chapter 2619 Mental Transmission

Over a hundred heavenly book characters were carved on the symbols.

Sou --

The symbols pressed down horizontally, and the two palm prints that the old man had created were crushed on the spot.

Furthermore, the momentum of the symbols didn't decrease as they headed straight for the old man.

The old man felt a chill in his heart. Sensing the danger contained within the symbols, he hurriedly unleashed his domain.

"HMPH, a trifling Daoist Huang, do you think he's Afraid of You?"

Lightning flashed and thunder rumbled within his domain.

Boundless lightning descended like a storm, bombarding the symbols that were sweeping over.

However, the symbols were extremely powerful.

Ignoring the domain, they directly pressed down and struck the old man.

Ah --

Barely touching the old man's body, he let out a miserable cry.

His Dao master body was currently emitting waves of white eyes.

It was like a piece of raw meat being roasted on charcoal.

The symbols took the opportunity to wrap around the old man, using an extremely sharp aura to cause him serious damage.

The old man finally panicked and used all of his strength to struggle.

However, it was to no avail.

The symbols didn't move in the slightest, as if they wouldn't stop until they burned the old man to ashes.

Miserable cries reverberated throughout the universe.

The old man's body was like charcoal, and even his soul was burned. He was about to be killed.

However, the rune suddenly flickered and quickly dimmed.

Qin Xian 'er was unable to master the ancient god sacred weapon after all. It was already not easy for her to control the sacred weapon for so long.

The old man took the opportunity to shout and forcefully break the rune.

The rune also creaked and finally shattered.

The old man let out a long breath with lingering fear in his eyes.

After all, he was a descendant of an ancient god, and he even took my ancient god sacred weapon.

It was too terrifying!

He was too careless!

He looked up and stared at Qin Xian 'er, whose face was pale and her body was trembling. His eyes were cold.

Qin Xian 'er forcefully used the rune just now, which also caused great damage to him.

"Fortunately, your foundation isn't stable. Otherwise, you would have really failed miserably today!" The old man's eyes were cold, and there was still lingering fear in his heart.

He really had to be thankful that Qin Xian 'ER's foundation was too weak.

Otherwise..

Thinking up to this point, the old man's face was filled with viciousness. He raised his hand and threw a flying knife.

That was a dao artifact that he had personally refined. It was more than enough to kill a Yellow Dao master!

Hu --

The nine Netherworld divine fire automatically protected him and condensed into an armor around his body to block the flying knife.

However, this attack was a full-strength attack from an expert at the void Nirvana realm.

It was no longer something Qin Xian 'er could easily block.

With a Pu Sound, the nine Netherworld divine fire was penetrated. The flying knife, carrying an incomparably sharp light, broke through everything and pierced into his chest.

With a soft snort, Qin Xian 'er was sent flying.

Her lungs were injured, and she couldn't help but spit out a mouthful of blood.

Drops of crystal-like blood-colored pearls floated in the air, reflecting su Cai 'er's despairing and crying face.

"Mother..."su Cai 'er screamed and pounced over.

In the upper palace.

The group of rulers happily toasted Su Yu.

Su Yu smiled and responded to them one by one.

Suddenly, when he raised his wine cup, his palm suddenly trembled for no reason.

A trace of power unintentionally leaked out, causing the wine cup to crack.

The descendants of the rulers were stunned, but they didn't care.

Yao Guang smiled and said, "Someone, change to another good wine cup."

"Wait!"Su Yu said slowly.

He stared at the broken wine cup in his palm, deep in thought.

Why was his palm trembling all of a sudden?

Moreover, the crisscrossing cracks in the wine cup strangely condensed into the word "Save".

He thought he was mistaken, but upon closer inspection, the cracks indeed condensed into the word "Save".

"What happened?"Su Yu put down the wine cup.

His palm brushed over the wine cup, and he used his fate domain to observe the fate changes that were closely related to him.

However, the wine cup was like a mirror, reflecting scenes.

Suddenly, the scene flashed, and a crying girl appeared.

The scene was frozen when the girl asked Su Yu for help.

The shape of her mouth was the word 'save'.

It was exactly the same as the crack on the wine glass!

Su Yu was shocked. "She didn't use the communication jade technique, but she could send her thoughts to me? Is this girl proficient in the Fate Domain?"

Only the fate domain could send her thoughts over such a long distance.

Just like before the battle with the evil daughter.

Xia Jingyu used fate to send Su Yu a message.

"Senior, what happened? Do You Need Our Help?" Yao Guang saw that something was wrong with Su Yu's expression and quickly asked.

Su Yu shook his head and put down his wine glass.

The shadow of the blade inside disappeared in an instant.

"You guys continue eating. I'll come back after I kill someone," Su Yu said indifferently.

He guessed in his heart. Could it be that he didn't completely exterminate that gang back then, causing the little girl to be targeted by those forces again?

UH --

The rulers looked at each other in dismay.

Senior was having a good meal, why would he suddenly want to kill someone?

However, the person he wanted to kill was probably not some small figure, right?

Thinking up to this point, the rulers were filled with respect.

Senior was indeed senior.

Even killing an expert was so easy.

After saying this, Su Yu closed his eyes, and endless lines of fate swirled in his mind.

The lines of fate about the little girl quickly appeared.

Following the lines of fate, Su Yu locked onto her position.

When she opened her eyes, the space domain around her was activated.

In the blink of an Eye, heaven and earth swirled.

Then, he arrived at a desolate place.

Before he could see the details of his body clearly, he heard cries of pain.

Su Yu glanced sideways, and it was indeed the little girl.

An old man in the void Nirvana realm was stretching out his huge palm, preparing to capture the little girl alive.

However, Su Yu's arrival made the old man's spirit shake. He turned his head around in shock.

He clearly sensed a powerful spatial domain.

"The ruler of time is doing his job. Those who belong to the Upper Palace, please leave!" The old man said in a relaxed mood.

The upper palace and the ruler of time didn't have any conflict of interest. In fact, they even had to rely on the ruler.

Su Yu had already put on his bamboo hat again.

Under the cover, his eyes were calm and ruthless.

"I have a good impression of that little girl. You Didn't ask me to hurt her, did you?" Su Yu said indifferently.

The old man became alert and said coldly, "This is something that the ruler has personally instructed me to do. Sir, you really shouldn't meddle in other people's business."

Why did it sound like the other party had bad intentions?

"I really have to meddle." Su Yu waved his hand and the fiery red jade seal appeared in his palm.

Under the activation of the ten million time crystal, the fiery red jade seal was immediately activated.

The old man was so scared that his eyebrows jumped wildly. As he fled into the distance, he berated, "Are you crazy?"

Su Yu was too lazy to say any more nonsense and directly threw the jade seal out.

A flame flashed and the old man was burned to ashes on the spot. Not even dregs were left.

If the other party was a member of the gang, Su Yu would not have used such a fierce method.

But who asked him to be a ruler?

He was taking his time. If he escaped, it would not be good to alert the ruler.

"Ah! Uncle Su!" Su Cai'er only regained her senses after a long while.

Because Su Yu had only appeared for a short period of time to kill the old man, she did not even notice it.

"It's Alright, I'm leaving." Su Yu turned around indifferently and was about to activate his space domain to return.

Su Cai'er was anxious. "Wait! Uncle Su, can you... help me save my mother, she's injured..."

Chapter 2620 They Finally Recognized Each Other

Su Yu frowned slightly.

He had already done his best to save Su Cai'er. Why was she still not satisfied?

However, looking at the crying Su Cai'er, Su Yu had a strange feeling that he could not refuse.

“Alright, I’ll send you to the west.” Su Yu sighed.

He did not understand why his heart was so overflowing.

In the past, he would not have rushed over to kill someone just for a girl he did not know.

He would not have agreed to endless demands.

Su Yu walked over with his hands behind his back and looked at the woman in Su Cai'er’s petite body.

The woman’s body was covered in black divine flames of the netherworld. Her face could not be seen clearly, and her aura could not be sensed.

One could only see her extremely thin body vaguely.

It was so thin and weak that it made one feel pity for him.

On his chest, a clearly visible huge wound appeared before his eyes.

Streams of fresh blood flowed out from within. When they met the black divine flames of the Netherworld on the surface of his body, they were immediately burned into wisps of pungent green smoke.

“Fortunately, the injury isn’t too serious.” Su Yu took a glance and made a rough judgment.

Su Cai'er sobbed, “But why did Mother Pass Out?”

“That’s because she used some secret technique that exceeded the limits of her body, causing her body to be exhausted. Coupled with the fact that she was attacked by the path master of the Void Nirvana stage, she naturally passed out.”

As she spoke, Su Yu walked over and squatted in front of the woman.

His palm slowly moved over. From three feet away, waves of pure life force merged into the other party’s wound.

The serious wound that had been pierced through immediately began to heal.

The bleeding slowly stopped.

At the same time, because of the life force pouring in, the woman gradually woke up.

She slowly opened her eyes.

What entered her eyes was Su Cai'er, who was crying. Her face was filled with joy and a smile.

When she shifted her gaze again, she saw an expert with a mysterious bamboo hat, who was three feet away, close at hand.

Her heart thumped, and she was shocked.

The guard who thought he was the ruler of time subconsciously made a move.

A divine fire of the Netherworld spurted out at a close distance.

Luckily, Su Yu was always on guard. It was the same when she was saving people.

Without thinking, she released a time domain. "Freeze!"

The Divine Fire of the Netherworld was extremely powerful. It burned through the time domain in an instant and spurted out again.

Seizing the opportunity, Su Yu retreated calmly and maintained a safe distance.

He was somewhat displeased.

"Sir, I rushed over from thousands of miles away to save someone. I didn't ask for a word of thanks, but there's no need for you to treat me like this, right?" Su Yu said indifferently.

Because of his identity, he deliberately lowered his voice.

Those who were familiar with him couldn't tell who his real body was.

Qin Xian 'er slowly stood up and stared at Su Yu. The hostility in her eyes didn't weaken, but instead became stronger.

"Mother, what are you doing! This is Uncle Su. He saved mother."

Seeing the two of them suddenly getting into a fight, su Cai 'er could not help but complain.

How could mother treat uncle Su like this?

"Cai 'er, step back!" Qin Xian 'er stared at Su Yu coldly. "Mother taught you that human hearts are unpredictable. Don't simply trust people. Now, it has come true."

Come true what?

Su Cai'er felt that her mother at this moment was simply unreasonable.

It was clearly uncle Su who had saved her mother. Why did she still say such words?

"Speak. which descendant of the ruler of time are you?" Qin Xian 'er said coldly. The divine flames of the netherworld around her body gathered with difficulty.

Su Yu said indifferently, "I am not a descendant of the ruler of time."

Qin Xian 'er snorted. "Don't Quibble! My husband has experienced many double-act tricks and has long seen through them."

She had mistakenly thought that Su Yu was proficient in the time domain and must be a descendant of the ruler of time.

She had long been suspicious of the uncle Su that su Cai 'er had mentioned.

What kind of person would treat su Cai 'er so well for no reason?

Giving her time crystals and helping him solve the gang's pursuit?

Now that she looked at it, her heart was as clear as a mirror.

The other party must be playing double act.

The ruler of time first sent out evildoers to exterminate the mother and daughter.

Then, uncle Su jumped out in front of her and saved them in times of danger.

This way, uncle Su could win their favor and carry out the next step of his plan.

In the past, when Su Yu was around, how many plots and tricks had he experienced in the world?

Qin Xian 'er followed by his side and was influenced by him. She was much more vigilant against all kinds of tricks than others.

Su Yu was a little angry.

This woman was really..

Should he say that she was overly cautious or unreasonable?

"You can think whatever you want." Su Yu was indifferent. Then, he looked at su Cai 'er and said, "Our fate has ended. Take care in the future."

When su Cai 'er heard this, she immediately broke free from Qin Xian 'er.

She didn't know why she was so unwilling for Su Yu to misunderstand. She hurriedly ran over and said, "Uncle Su, I'm sorry. My mother didn't mean it. Please don't be angry."

"Cai'er, come back!" Qin Xian 'er said angrily.

How could this child be so stupid? !

She had already made it clear that this was the enemy's double act.

She caught up with Su Cai'er who was about to get close to Su Yu. At the same time, she released a wisp of the divine fire of the Netherworld in an attempt to force Su Yu back.

Su Yu laughed angrily.

He wasn't a clay bodhisattva. It was one thing for him to be attacked by this woman once, but to be attacked again, what was that?

"You Woman!" Su Yu waved his hand casually, and a wave of profound dao power at the void Nirvana realm turned into a hurricane that twisted crazily.

Although the opponent's nine Netherworld divine fire was fierce, it had already been used up more than half when he fought the old man.

There was only a tiny bit left.

How could it withstand Su Yu's Profound Dao Power?

The nine Netherworld divine fire that he waved out, along with the nine Netherworld divine fire that was attached to Qin Xian 'ER's body, was swept away in an instant.

It was only until a great distance away that it was barely able to condense back into a black phoenix.

The Little Black Phoenix was somewhat angry as it chirped and chirped, seemingly blaming Su Yu.

“Oh?” Upon seeing the little black phoenix, Su Yu's pupils constricted.

Wasn't that Little Black Phoenix an ancient god of the Netherworld Treasure of Xian 'er?

As if thinking of something, his heart pounded fiercely.

Then, his gaze shot toward the woman like lightning.

The divine flames of the Netherworld around his body were all swept away, revealing his true appearance.

When his gaze landed on that pair of ice-cold features, Su Yu felt as if he had been struck by thousands of divine lightning, and his entire body trembled.

He stood there, staring unblinkingly at that city-toppling beauty that was like a mountain fox immortal.

His appearance was still the same, just like how Su Yu had seen it many years ago in a small mountain range on Divine Moon Island.

However, compared to that time, the youth on her face that time had taken away had left behind a mature charm.

It had taken away ignorance and naivety, leaving behind the vicissitudes of life and persistence.

At this moment, Su Yu felt her soul trembling uncontrollably.

Her lips were trembling non-stop. The person she had been thinking about day and night was right in front of her eyes, yet she could not call out her name.

It was as if she was afraid that if she called out her name, the figure would disappear like a dream.

Qin Xian 'er felt the strange gaze under the bamboo hat and felt disgusted.

She knew that it was her stunning beauty that attracted the other party's attention.

“Cai 'er, let's Go!” Qin Xian 'er pulled su cai 'er and prepared to escape.

Her voice finally woke up Su Yu who was in great shock!
