

Nine-Dragon 2721

Chapter 2721 Fate

The Phoenix king frowned, unable to understand.

"Don't you know why Su Yu died once?"The person in the sedan pointed out.

The Phoenix king immediately understood.

Su Yu's wife and son were his Achilles heel.

Face to face, Su Yu was invincible.

But his wife and son were extremely weak.

Back then, the ruler of time controlled his daughter, causing him to dig out his own heart.

Why not do the same now?

Phoenix King's eyes lit up. That's right, this method might be more reliable.

"Thank you for your guidance, I know what to do."

The person in the sedan smiled. "Then, I'll take my leave."

The golden sedan immediately disappeared into the air.

Phoenix King's eyes darkened. "Who is this person? Does he have a grudge against Su Yu?"

She wasn't stupid.

She knew that the other party was using her to deal with Su Yu.

In fact, he even wanted to use her to occupy the entire eight-star civilization.

After pausing for a moment, she took out a scepter. "Let's head to the Divine City!"

She was not in a hurry to deal with Su Yu. First, she needed to occupy the space domain.

Groups of corpse race rushed towards the divine city.

At that moment.

In the semi-true world.

Su Yu slowly opened his eyes.

His domain had reached Yuan realm as he had hoped, and he had trained his time domain to the extreme.

Now, he even had a very strange feeling.

He could control the life and death of all living beings.

As long as he wanted to, he could take away all living beings'time at any time.

The most wonderful thing was.

He felt a sense of detachment that he had never felt before.

It was as if he had suddenly jumped from the perspective of an ant to the perspective of a human.

Moreover, he also faintly felt some hidden existences that he had never felt before.

For example, the east.

He could sense an extremely powerful force that was not inferior to any other region.

That should be the heavenly court, right?

Other than that, he looked outside the defensive array formation.

He could faintly sense an abyss-like existence.

He did not know what that place was.

"Yuan level time domain." Su Yu clenched his fists and sighed inwardly.

Time was the first time he came into contact with it.

After so many years, he was the first to reach Yuan level domain.

It could be considered as fate!

Beep! Beep

Suddenly, a message from Xiang Wan came to his waist.

He opened it and saw that it was filled with Yu Xiang Wan's urging.

"I can't hold on any longer!"

Su Yu put away the message and immediately left the semi-true world.

The moment he left, an extremely powerful explosion erupted around him.

Su Yu was caught off guard and almost got injured by the explosion.

Fortunately, he had used his origin domain to freeze time.

Looking down, he saw a group of frozen corpse race members charging over in ambush.

Apart from one that had already self-destructed, the others were all in the process of self-destructing.

Su Yu was dumbstruck.

"These corpse race members..." he grabbed one of them that was about to explode and carefully observed it.

He noticed that there was a strange energy flickering within their bodies.

"This is... the aura of ancient god Jin Xuan's fragment?" Su Yu recognized it and asked in surprise.

He then inspected another group of corpse race members.

"No wonder the self-detonation was so terrifying. This is igniting the essence of ancient god Jin Xuan." Su Yu came to a realization.

He raised his head and saw that the entire divine city was covered in a dense mass of corpse race members.

There were only a few living beings who were struggling to survive by relying on the formation in the attic.

However, when they encountered corpses that could self-destruct, they were helpless.

He walked through the frozen time to look for Yu Xiang Wan.

Finally, in a certain cave abode.

He saw Yu Xiang Wan who was struggling to resist the corpse clan with a group of people.

Su Yu could not help but laugh.

A leader of the Zombie clan was resisting the minions of the Zombie Clan?

With a flick of his sleeve, he swept Yu Xiang Wan and the group of people away.

Only when he left the city of God did he unfreeze time.

Boom! Boom! Boom

The entire city of God exploded with a series of explosions.

The once glorious city of God was instantly engulfed in a sea of fire and was blasted into ruins.

Su Yu let out a group of creatures.

They were at a loss.

If they remembered correctly, weren't they still resisting the zombie clan?

Why did they come to a safe place outside the city in the blink of an eye?

Su Yu said plainly, "You should find a way to survive."

They had just realized that they were indebted to Su Yu for saving their lives.

"Thank you, thank you for saving our lives, senior." The group of people expressed their gratitude and fled in the blink of an eye.

Yu Xiang Wan heaved a sigh of relief, but she was puzzled. "What happened just now?"

Su Yu did not have the time to explain. "Let's leave first. The space domain is too dangerous. I think the backup plan left behind by the ruler of space might have to come true."

Seeing the power of the self-detonation of the zombies, Su Yu had already realized the purpose of the ruler of space letting Xiang Wan nurture the zombies.

However, they were just about to leave.

The people who had already escaped came back one after another, their faces filled with despair.

"It's over, there's nowhere to run." One of the creatures had a bitter look in his eyes.

Su Yu looked around and saw a group of dark corpses surrounding them like a black tide.

Among them, 20 skeletons of Heavenly Dao masters were particularly eye-catching.

On one of the skeletons, there was a middle-aged woman in a golden dress.

King Phoenix!

He had sent his troops to the divine city and happened to meet a few of the escapees.

"Oh? Su Yu, Yu Xiang Wan, you're all here?" King Phoenix commanded the army of the zombie clan to rush over.

When he noticed that Su Yu and Yu Xiang Wan were surrounded, he could not help but laugh.

This was too unexpected.

She thought that Su Yu and Yu Xiang Wan had already escaped far away.

In the end, they actually bumped into each other here.

Yu Xiang Wan's expression was calm as water. "King Phoenix, you should stop now."

The zombie clan that he created were all created by the dead.

However, King Phoenix was different. He commanded the zombie clan to do all kinds of evil things and turned all the living beings in the entire region into the zombie clan.

He caused a destructive disaster to the living beings.

"You think you can teach me a lesson?" King Phoenix laughed coldly. "I would advise you to return to my side obediently. That way, you might be able to live a more decent life."

"If not, don't blame me for being ruthless."

At worst, he could just eliminate Yu Xiang Wan.

Since this hidden danger could not be controlled by him, he could only destroy her.

"That depends on your ability!" Yu Xiang Wan was not afraid at all.

Her eyes were blue.

The King of Phoenix did not think much of it. "It's just a downtrodden phoenix. Who do you think you can scare?"

Seeing that Yu Xiang Wan refused to comply before her death, King Phoenix decided to be ruthless. "Get rid of all of them! Leave No one alive!"

Instantly, a group of zombies surrounded them.

Without exception, all of them chose to self-destruct.

Su Yu stood with his hands behind his back and said indifferently, "Freeze."

As soon as he said that, the entire time was frozen.

He brought a group of people and flew to the front of King Phoenix.

This person could be killed, but not killed.

However, she had to take the corpse ancestor ancient god weapon with her.

Just as Su Yu was about to take the scepter from her hand, the Phoenix King's expression changed.

Suddenly, the black crystal on the scepter emitted a wave of energy.

The Phoenix King, who was holding the scepter in her hand, forcefully broke free from the time freeze.

When she saw Su Yu take the scepter, she immediately took it back and quickly retreated.

She looked at the time freeze with a trace of relief in her eyes

Chapter 2722 Was Completely Destroyed

If it was any later, Su Yu would have succeeded!

"HMPH!" Phoenix king suddenly let out a sharp cry, releasing an ear piercing sound wave.

The sound wave swept over and forcefully pushed Su Yu away.

She held the scepter in her hand and ruthlessly smashed the surrounding space into pieces.

The corpse race members were freed and once again rushed over in the form of self-destruction.

King Phoenix retreated to the back and sat on the skeleton of the heavenly axiom master, looking down from above.

"Hurhur, human, accept your fate. You Can't win against me."

Su Yu was about to activate time frames again.

Suddenly, he felt something was wrong.

It was the backup plan left behind by the Master of Space!

As he spoke, Su Yu wrapped her arms around Xiang Wan and the other living beings. She used her space domain and her yuan level time domain to leave in an instant.

How vast was the entire space domain?

It would take at least a few months or even a few years to cross it.

However, in just a few breaths, he successfully escaped from the vicinity and arrived at the time domain.

King Phoenix sneered. "You only have this much courage to control the time domain? You're really looking down on me."

There were no hidden dangers. King Phoenix led the corpse clan and headed toward the divine city.

"The space domain is ours now." The Phoenix King arrived in the divine city under the respectful welcome of the countless corpse race members.

However, just as he entered.

An unexpected scene happened.

All the corpse race members seemed to have set up some sort of mechanism and started to burn at the same time.

Including the Heavenly Dao sovereign corpse race under the Phoenix King's feet, they were no exception.

A loud boom was heard.

A corpse race member self-destructed uncontrollably in the flames.

Then the second, third, fourth..

Even the Heavenly Dao master skeleton under the Phoenix King's feet exploded.

The power of the explosion of the Heavenly Dao master skeleton was terrifying.

The Phoenix King was blasted into pieces on the spot.

Only a golden soul was left, holding onto the scepter as it fled.

However, what made King Phoenix's heart skip a beat was that the zombie clan in the entire space domain started to explode crazily.

There was nowhere for his soul to escape to.

As the entire space domain was shattered, it turned into dust as well.

At the border of the time domain.

Yu Xiang Wan stared at the space domain in shock.

In the blink of an eye, the space domain had completely sunk into nothingness.

The so-called land of China was probably referring to the current situation.

The scariest thing was that.

The defensive formation outside the space domain had been completely blown up.

At a glance, it looked like a bottomless pit.

Because some of the zombie clan had chased after the time domain.

The area around Ximing city in the time domain had also sunk into oblivion because of the explosion of the zombie clan.

Su Yu said, "Brother Yu, you lead the people to deal with the time domain. I'll go there first."

He activated the time and space domain again and returned to the top of the divine city in an instant.

There was no trace of the divine city here?

There was only nothingness. Even the defensive formation was gone. It had been completely destroyed.

"The ruler of space has been completely destroyed!"

At this moment, the reason why the ruler of space allowed the corpse clan to expand had already surfaced.

She had used their self-detonation to destroy the space domain and the defensive formations of the outer realms.

Now, it seemed that she had succeeded too successfully.

Su Yu sighed softly. After searching carefully, she finally found a black scepter that was quietly floating in the air.

On it was the remnant consciousness of the Phoenix King.

"I didn't lose, I didn't..."that strand of consciousness was unwilling to give up and wrapped around the scepter.

It refused to give up no matter what.

"Rest in peace."Su Yu waved his finger, completely wiping away that remnant will.

He gripped the scepter and was about to return.

A voice suddenly sounded in Su Yu's mind.

"The soul domain has also been affected. Can I go over and take a look now?"

It was the soul ruler!

Su Yu didn't forget his agreement with the soul ruler.

He had received guidance from the soul hegemon and was given a soul emperor's robe.

In return, Su Yu brought the soul hegemon back to the soul realm.

Now, it was time to fulfill his promise.

"Alright."Su Yu used his spacetime domain to take a single step into the Soul Realm.

He pondered.

If the soul hegemon was here, then who was in charge of the Soul Realm?

Was it the descendant of the Dominator?

While pondering, he arrived at the soul realm in a few breaths.

As soon as he entered the Soul Realm, a moon appeared on his forehead.

It was the restriction of the soul realm to living beings, the moon of the soul.

With just a thought of the Dominator, the souls of the controlled living beings would be completely destroyed in a short period of time.

The place they were in was empty.

They were all blown up by the corpse clan.

The smell of blood was everywhere. Waves of wails lingered in their ears.

Sou --

Their arrival naturally attracted the attention of the border army.

"Retreat!"An early stage Earth Dao master holding a dao artifact shouted.

The current ruler of the soul region hadn't died yet.

Thus, the order hadn't collapsed yet.

When they discovered the invasion of the corpse clan, the border army reacted very quickly and immediately attacked the corpse clan.

Now that they suddenly discovered Su Yu's arrival, they ordered him to retreat.

Su Yu glanced at them and said, "I guess I've fulfilled my promise?"

The promise he made back then was just to bring him back to the soul region.

But he didn't say where he would go to the soul region.

"I guess." The chief sovereign of the soul gazed at his familiar hometown, his voice slightly trembling.

"However, if you can send me to see someone, maybe I can help you with another favor."

Su Yu clicked his tongue and muttered, "Why am I not surprised at all?"

"You must be very eager for that favor."

Su Yu said without hesitation, "Tell me about it first."

The soul dominator said, "Don't you want to know how to save people from the ultimate world?"

Su Yu's pupils constricted.

A helpless smile appeared on his lips. "I knew you were talking about this."

Although the soul ruler rarely spoke, he had always been by Su Yu's side.

The time ruler knew most of his secrets.

"Okay, I can take you there." Su Yu paused. "However, I want to ask you, is your goal also to destroy the soul realm and the defensive array outside?"

From the looks of it, the final goal of the hegemon was surprisingly the same.

"No." The tone of the hegemon's voice was even more complicated. "What right does an abandoned hegemon have to participate in this?"

Su Yu's eyes flashed.

What exactly did the hegemons want to participate in?

All of them were focused on destroying their domains.

Even in death, they were still determined.

"Did you hear that? Retreat!" The general scolded.

Su Yu smiled faintly and used his spatial domain to charge in.

The general's expression changed slightly. He immediately crushed a communication talisman and said, "The descendant of the spatial ruler has entered. Please give the order, my Lord."

In a certain army tent in the soul region.

A young man was looking at the information inside thoughtfully.

"A fish that escaped the net?" The so-called master was a human youth.

He was very young. Most importantly, he had a familiar aura flowing from Su Yu's body.

Chapter 2723 Ten Thousand Years Of Enmity

"Immediately investigate its whereabouts. Once found, kill it on the spot,"the youth ordered calmly.

A few breaths later.

In front of a cemetery.

The cemetery was extremely old, and in fact, it was extremely dilapidated.

Many of the gravestones had already collapsed and fallen into the swamp.

From the looks of it, it was most likely a cemetery for mortals.

"This is it,"the spirit hegemon said.

Su Yu's eyes were filled with astonishment.

He had originally thought that the soul ruler was here to seek revenge or something.

He hadn't expected that it would actually be a graveyard.

Whoosh

An aged figure condensed into form.

His aged eyes were filled with complicated emotions as he strode into the graveyard.

Finally, he arrived in front of a graveyard that only had half a tombstone left.

The graveyard was filled with withered grass. With a single glance, one could tell that it was an untended graveyard.

On the stone stele, the word 'wife'was left behind.

"Hong Niang, I... AM back."The Chief Sovereign of the soul kneeled in front of the grave, letting out a trembling, archaic call.

"A hundred thousand years have passed, and I am finally back."The chief sovereign of the soul couldn't help but mutter.

Su Yu saw this and was slightly surprised.

What sort of relationship could the chief sovereign of the soul have with a mortal?

Swoosh --

A soul fluctuation flickered in the lonely tomb.

The soul of a pretty middle-aged woman floated out of the tomb.

On her neck was a string of colorful crystals.

Su Yu wasn't unfamiliar with it.

It was the bloodline of the Soul Dominator!

Because of this, the soul of a mortal could exist for 100,000 years without being destroyed.

The woman slowly opened her eyes.

When she clearly saw the soul dominator in front of her.

At first, she was confused and stunned. Then, she gradually revealed a look of shock. "Wu Lang?"

The woman stepped forward in disbelief and sized up the soul dominator.

"Hehe, I'm old. You almost couldn't recognize me," the soul dominator said in a hoarse voice.

Tears flickered in her eyes.

The woman was so happy that she cried. Then, she rushed into the Soul Dominator's embrace. "Wu Lang!"

Su Yu turned around silently.

It turned out that the soul dominator came back from thousands of miles away to reunite with his lover's soul.

Feeling the joy of their members, Su Yu felt that he did not fit in.

He said in a low voice, "The mission is completed. I'll take my leave first."

But suddenly, Su Yu raised his eyes.

He stared at the distant sky.

At the end of the sky was a strange golden color.

Moreover, the golden color was rapidly approaching.

The Soul Dominator's eyes narrowed, and a trace of killing intent reverberated in his eyes. "Haunting!"

He looked at Su Yu and said, "You should leave quickly, or you will be implicated."

The Soul Dominator should understand Su Yu's true strength.

Under the circumstances of activating the mortal embryo Saint Body, he should not be afraid of any dominator.

However, the Soul Dominator told him to leave quickly.

It was obvious that something was wrong.

Su Yu took a step forward and immediately used his space domain to leave.

However, he had clearly used his space domain.

With this step, he returned to his original position.

"Sigh, it's Too Late!" The soul ruler sighed deeply.

His gaze looked at the approaching golden light and became more and more serious. He said, "Prepare to fight to the death!"

Su Yu tried his space domain a few times and realized that it was the same.

No matter which direction he crossed, he would always return to his original spot.

Unless the other party's space domain was much higher than his, only then could he secretly change his space crossing.

However, such a person should not exist.

After thinking for a while, Su Yu suddenly understood.

What was being controlled was not his domain.

It was his soul!

His soul was confused.

He thought he was going in a certain direction.

But in reality, he was just going in circles.

To be able to bring his soul mastery to such a level, his identity was obvious?

"Hehe, isn't this the defeated dog from back then? Why Is it back?"

When the golden light approached.

A figure in golden armor led countless peak Earth Dao master experts as an army pressed down.

"Martial Dao Temple!"The Lord of Time's eyes were filled with hatred.

The golden-armored man stood with his hands behind his back and looked down at the lord of time.

"Death Abyss, return that thing. You've held it long enough."

So, the Soul Lord's name was Death Abyss.

"I don't know what you're talking about,"the soul lord said calmly.

The golden-armored man's expression was cold. "I've never let anyone touch your wife's grave. I just know that one day, you'll come back."

"So, how about we be honest with each other?"

It was impossible for death abyss to leave today.

He had to hand over what he wanted.

"Didn't You Take That Thing when you usurped the throne?"The Soul Dominator asked.

The golden-armored man said coldly, "Old Thing, I'm giving you a chance. Don't refuse a toast only to be forced!"

The Soul Dominator chuckled. "Unfilial thing, I should have crushed you to death when you were born!"

The relationship between the two was actually... Father and son?

"Back then, you took advantage of me going to the sinkhole to save your mother. You took advantage of the situation and beat me until my soul was scattered. Now, you're still so aggressive?"The Soul Dominator said.

Su Yu's heart thumped when he heard it.

The matchmaker in front of him had once gone to the sinkhole!

However, the Soul Dominator forced him to find her back from the sinkhole.

The Martial dao temple said indifferently, "So what? It's better than dying in the destruction of the epoch, right?"

He gradually lost his patience. "Death Abyss, don't be long-winded. Hand over the bronze plate of the son of Heaven's aura-gazing technique!"

Huh?

Su Yu was surprised.

That's not right!

The Soul Dominator had once said that the bronze coin that Su Yu had obtained had always been an item that had been conjured with a single thought.

But why did he listen to the Martial Dao Temple's words.

Did the bronze coin really exist?

"You don't have the qualifications to obtain it!" Death Abyss hugged Hong Niang's soul.

The Martial Dao temple's gaze gradually sharpened. "Someone, invite our former Soul Dominator back and enjoy the punishment that this ruler has meticulously designed for him for thousands of years."

He would pay any price for the bronze coins!

"Evil creature, just you?" The soul ruler sneered. A crazy gust of wind erupted from his soul.

The wind swept across the sky and earth, blowing out everyone's souls from their bodies.

Only the Martial Dao temple and Su Yu, who was wearing the soul emperor's clothes, could have a stable soul.

"Old Man, you're so stubborn!" The martial arts temple held a long spear and stabbed at him from afar.

Thousands of sharp lights came like a storm.

Not only did they break the soul storm, but they also hit people.

With a painful groan, the soul body of the abyss of death, which was not solid to begin with, immediately had large and small holes.

"Old Man, are you going to hand it over or not..." the martial arts temple berated him.

But suddenly, his body stiffened.

He lowered his head and saw that his feet were tightly bound by a shadow, making him unable to move, the source of that Shadow was death abyss.

So, on the surface, he was talking to him, but in reality, he was stalling for time and using the soul shadow technique.

"Vile creature, you haven't learned all my things yet." The ruler of time let out a low shout.

The Shadow left his body and covered the entire martial arts temple.

It was like wrappings rice dumplings.

Chapter 2724 What Is This Thing

The Martial Dao Temple was sealed within the seal, unable to move. No matter how much it struggled, it was unable to do anything to the shadow's restraint. There was a trace of sorrow on the soul ruler's face. He shook his head and said, "It's my fault for teaching such a disobedient child like you." He slowly pressed his palms together, and the shadow continued to compress until it was the size of a fist. Just like that, the soul ruler of the new generation was sealed by the remnant soul of the old ruler. "The soul shadow technique is one of the innate soul secret techniques of the soul ruler? However, it was lost in the previous ruler!" They looked at the old man in disbelief. "You... are you the missing old ruler, Wu Guanyuan?" They were far away from each other just now. They didn't hear the conversation between the Martial Dao Temple and Wu Guanyuan clearly. They could only determine the possible identity of Wu Guanyuan from the soul shadow technique. Wu Guanyuan looked at the shadow in his palm and shook his head slightly. "Wu Guanyuan died a long time ago. You... mistook him for someone else." He supported the soul of matchmaker and left weakly. To him, fame and fortune were never important. What was important was only Hong Niang alone. "As for your ruler..." Wu Kuan Yuan thought for a long time and threw the shadow on the ground. He said, "Let him go after I leave." However, what he didn't expect was that. When the shadow was thrown on the ground, it immediately withered. There was nothing inside. "One thought is the truth?" Wu Kuan Yuan immediately realized. What he had just suppressed might not be the martial arts temple. Instead, it was an existence created by the martial arts temple with one thought. However, it was so realistic that even he was deceived. He looked around and suddenly, his pupils constricted. On a stone stood a person in golden armor with his hands behind his back. It was none other than the martial arts temple that should have been restrained. He sighed with pity. "Guanyuan, a hundred thousand years have passed, and you are still as disappointing as ever." "Haven't you learned the lesson of your failure a hundred thousand years ago?" Wu Guanyuan's face was as dark as water. A hundred thousand years ago, he had placed too much importance on his relationship with the matchmaker and had been indifferent to his duties. That was why he had been usurped by his own son. Now, after so many years, he was still the same. Even though his son had committed an unforgivable mistake towards him, Wu Kuan Yuan still could not bear to kill him. Wu Kuan Yuan said in a deep voice, "100,000 years have passed. Your one thought is true, but you have cultivated to perfection." To the extent that even he had been deceived. The martial arts temple said indifferently, "Kuan Yuan, you still don't understand me. You have no idea what kind of existence your son is." As his voice fell. Thousands of shadows suddenly appeared under Death Abyss's feet. The number, concealment, and strength of the shadows far surpassed Death Abyss. Chi -- with a light sound, Death Abyss was enveloped by the shadows. Death Abyss's shock came from the shadows. "Soul Shadow technique, how do you know it?" Soul Dominator, proficient in two innate secret techniques. One thought to be true, soul shadow technique. However, Wu Death Abyss had only taught the Martial Dao temple one thought was the truth. Soul Shadow Technique had always been a secret and not taught. But now, the Martial Dao Temple had actually used it. How could it not be shocking? "That's why I said that you know nothing about your son." The Martial Dao Temple said lightly. "You comprehended the key to soul shadow technique by yourself." Wu Death Abyss was extremely bitter. This son of his was too heaven-defying. He had long reached the point where he was better than his father. It was very reasonable for him to be usurped by his father. "Mother, you should come with me," the martial arts temple said indifferently. Hong Niang's soul body looked resentful. "Shut up! You are not my son at all." A mother knows her son like a mother. As a mother, how could she not know what her son was like? The Martial Dao Temple in front of her was definitely not his biological son. It was a complete stranger. He pretended to be his son and took away everything that belonged to his real son. "What on Earth are you?" Hong Niang shouted desperately. The Martial Dao temple dug their ears and lifted their fingers, grabbing Hong Niang as well. After that, the Martial Dao Temple finally looked at Su Yu. "It's your turn." He stared at Su Yu. "Someone who is proficient in the space domain. HMM, you are the one that Zhan Wushuang said escaped the net of the space domain, right?" "Who? Zhan Wushuang? He was in the Soul Domain? Ever since the seven ultimate civilization and the Heaven's legacy cave mansion, he had never seen or heard of his name. He did not expect that he was in an eight-star civilization. And he had become a person that the martial arts temple paid special attention to. It was really unexpected. "From your tone, the space domain is yours?" Su Yu asked indifferently. The martial arts temple said indifferently, "You don't have the right to question me." As he spoke, a large number of shadows suddenly appeared around Su Yu and swallowed him instantly. The martial arts temple waved a hand across the air and caught the shadow. Unexpectedly, as soon as he caught it, the martial arts temple sensed that something was wrong. With a strong grip, the shadow was actually crushed. "One thought is the truth?" The martial arts temple was surprised. "That guy, Death Abyss, actually taught a secret technique that represents the inheritance of the Soul Dominator to a human?" "If he hadn't seen it with his own eyes, he wouldn't have believed it. "However, you've already tried to escape from me. It's impossible." The Martial Dao temple narrowed his eyes and looked around. Wisps of strange soul waves flashed in his eyes. "Eye of Confusion!" When his eyes swept across the area, everything in the world was bewitched by his soul and lost their consciousness. They all kept circling around and couldn't get more than ten meters away. Su Yu, who was hiding, was no exception. He appeared from a corner, but kept circling around in the same spot like a headless fly. "Take him down," the Martial Dao Temple said calmly. A few peak dao masters immediately rushed forward. However, just as they were about to capture Su Yu alive, his figure actually turned into a time fragment and disappeared without a trace. "Oh?" The Martial Dao Temple was finally surprised. "A secret technique of the ruler of time, Time Incarnation?" He came back to his senses and immediately looked around. However, the two failed attempts to capture him had given Su Yu a chance to leave. After searching for a long time, he still did not find Su Yu. "Who is he?" The martial arts temple frowned deeply. However, he looked at the two shadows in his hands and said, "Let's find the bronze plate first." He took a step forward and left. Then, a long river of time and space suddenly appeared. Su Yu walked out from it. He looked pensive. "Who is this martial arts temple?" He followed the aura of the Soul Dominator and came to the central city of the Soul Realm. As soon as he entered the city, he found that it was different from the other domains of the Soul Dominator. The Central City of the soul realm was full of people with unknown identities. They didn't have any moon above their heads, but they could walk freely in it. And they were respected by ordinary people. What was going on? In other realms, this kind of people who were out of control had long been listed as a key target for surveillance.

Chapter 2725 Goodbye, Hanxuan

How could she receive such preferential treatment?

The scene before his eyes was truly very strange.

However, now was not the time to study it.

He came to the center of the Central City.

A half-true world in the shape of a moon appeared before his eyes.

That should be the place where Martial Dao Temple existed.

The ruler of time and Hong Niang were brought into it by him.

At that moment, there were a few peak tunnel masters looking around the area.

Su Yu Mo had said that he would break in.

Even if he got close, the other party would notice him.

Unless he revealed that the oil lamp was still burning and used his mortal body to break in.

Otherwise, it would be unrealistic.

And if he used his yuan level time domain rashly, he would not be able to hide it from the Martial Dao Temple that had achieved great success in his soul realm.

What should he do?

At that moment.

A woman without the moon above her head entered the entrance of the half true world calmly.

Not only did the guards nearby not stop her, they even showed an especially respectful expression.

They did not dare to question her in the slightest.

The powerful warriors who had been spying on her in secret also ignored her with their gazes. They did not pay any attention to her.

Su Yu's heart stirred.

He came to a dark spot and activated his soul domain to wipe away the moon above his head.

Then, he hid in the dark.

After a long while, a man without a moon above his head walked out of the semi true world.

Su Yu immediately used one thought to become real and turned into a man.

Then, he swaggered to the semi true world.

A powerful warrior secretly cast a glance at Su Yu.

As expected, because of his special status, he did not inspect Su Yu carefully.

Su Yu entered the entrance with a straight face.

As soon as he entered, he saw a pitch-black world filled with moons.

Those moons were all created from the Soul Domain.

Under the moonlight, Su Yu felt that everything about him was exposed. There was no room for concealment.

His heart trembled slightly, and he became even more cautious.

"Hey, Yuan Zhen, why are you back?" Not far from the entrance, a bearded man was organizing the handbook.

When he saw Su Yu enter, he could not help but be stunned.

Su Yu did not know who the bearded man in front of him was, and he did not dare to act rashly.

He said calmly, "I dropped something. I came back to take it."

He had thought that the other party would ask him what he had dropped.

Unexpectedly, the bearded man laughed and scolded, "You finally remember? I thought you would only remember after you leave Central City."

He casually took out a brocade belt and threw it to Su Yu. "Go and find Fairy Han Xuan."

Su Yu caught the brocade belt.

He looked at the three paths in front of him, not knowing which one to take.

If he took the wrong path, his identity might be exposed.

"Fairy Han Xuan? Who Is She? How can I find her?" Su Yu revealed a self-deprecating look.

The bearded man laughed and scolded, "Brat, you're playing with me! If you don't get there in time, be careful that Fairy Han Xuan will remember you."

He pointed at the rightmost path and said with a smile, "Remember the path to the registration hall. Don't forget it again!"

Su Yu shrugged. "F * ck you, you're really giving me pointers!"

The bearded man laughed loudly.

He did not know that Su Yu really did not know the path..

Once he received the pointers, Su Yu pretended to walk down the path.

Right now, he only wanted to find a person who was alone and search his soul to search for relevant information.

However, the half true world was very empty.

He did not see a single person for a long time.

Many places that should have been guarded by someone were also empty. There was no one around.

There was only a hall near the road that he had to pass through. There were faint shadows of people moving about.

Su Yu's heart stirred, and he came to the hall.

In the hall, a woman had her back facing him. She was crouching on the ground, sorting through all sorts of documents.

When she heard the footsteps behind her, she did not even turn her head around and said, "Are you registered? Please wait a moment."

Su Yu slowly walked over. As long as the other party turned around, he would be able to perform a soul search.

The woman took out a thick ledger from a pile of documents.

She stood up, turned around and asked, "Registered for what?"

Su Yu was about to perform a soul search on her using a soul secret technique.

Suddenly, he was startled and exclaimed, "Hanxuan?"

The woman in front of him was none other than Hanxuan!

Wasn't she with Zhan Wushuang?

That's right!

Zhan Wushuang had already become a member of the martial arts temple.

Wasn't it normal for Hanxuan to be here?

Hanxuan raised her eyes when she heard this, and a hint of surprise flashed across her eyes. "What did you call me just now?"

Su Yu quickly changed his words. "Fairy Hanxuan."

"No." Hanxuan put down the ledger and looked Su Yu up and down with a suspicious gaze.

"Hanxuan is the name of this hall. When others call me, they will only call me Fairy Hanxuan."

"No one will call me Hanxuan."

The only person who knew that her name was Hanxuan was Zhan Wushuang.

Because she was in this hall, others would only call her fairy Hanxuan.

No one other than Zhan Wushuang had ever called her by her birth name.

Su Yu had an idea, and he immediately said, "Ahem, I accidentally heard Zhan Wushuang call you that."

However, Hanxuan took a few steps back.

She retreated to the side of a bell.

It was a warning bell.

As long as it was rung, the entire half true world would probably hear it.

"Only the ruler knows the name Zhan Wushuang. The others will only call him Sir Wushuang."

Hanxuan stared coldly at Su Yu. "Reveal your true face. You've already been exposed!"

Su Yu smiled in surprise.

He had deceived the peak level Earth master outside.

But because of a name, he exposed himself.

"Alright, but please calm down first." The effect of Su Yu's thought was real and slowly dispersed.

Revealing his true face.

Hanxuan's slightly cold eyes changed little by little after his true appearance appeared.

First, she was stunned, then surprised, and finally ecstatic.

"Su Yu?" She wondered if she was dreaming.

"Well, it's been a long time. I didn't expect to meet you here." Su Yu also felt that it was wonderful.

Hanxuan was incoherent and stammered for a long time, not knowing what to say.

The meeting with Su Yu was really too sudden.

After a long while, she finally sorted out the chaotic thoughts in her mind.

"Why are you here? Or are you pretending to be Yuan Zhen?" Hanxuan asked.

Su Yu thought for a while and asked, "Can I trust you?"

Hanxuan sighed and said, "We haven't seen each other for so long. Don't we have any basic trust?"

Su Yu said, "It concerns the life and death of me and some people. We have to be careful."

"Well, you can rest assured about my words," Hanxuan said seriously.

Only then did Su Yu explain the end of the matter.

After hearing this, Hanxuan's expression was extremely grave. She said in a serious voice, "No wonder after the ruler returned, he immediately gathered everyone over. It turns out that the old ruler and his wife have been captured!"

She cautiously looked around and hurriedly said, "Let's leave quickly while there's no one else."

Su Yu said, "I came here to save people."

"You can't save them. You'll only get yourself into trouble," Hanxuan said seriously. "You can't imagine how powerful the martial arts temple is."

Su Yu was full of confidence and said, "I've seen all of his methods. Although they're powerful, they're not unassailable."

However, Hanxuan shook her head. "That's why I said that you can't imagine how powerful he is! He's different from the other rulers of the other regions."

Chapter 2726 Rescue The Abyss Of Death

Hanxuan stared at Su Yu and asked, "Have you seen a ruler who can move freely through the defensive formation?"

No!

All the rulers were hidden deep within the half true world.

They did not dare to act rashly.

They were afraid that the powerful existences who were staring at them in the abyss of death in the foreign lands would take advantage of this.

That was why it did not matter if it was the ruler of time or the ruler of space.

They clearly had the ability to easily destroy the defensive rune.

Yet they did not make a move.

They did not hesitate to spend hundreds of thousands of years to lay out a plan and use external forces to destroy it.

Their original bodies did not dare to act rashly.

However, Martial Dao temple was completely different from the other rulers.

Not only did he leave the semi-true world, he even dared to head to the foreign lands.

Was he not afraid that the terrifying existences in Dao Abyss would attack him from the Sky?

"Besides, his strength has always been a mystery," Hanxuan said seriously. "I've never seen him fight seriously even once."

Su Yu fell into deep thought.

When the Martial Dao Temple dealt with death abyss, they had indeed not been serious.

They had only taken it lightly to suppress it.

In truth, Su Yu's strength was definitely not as little as he had thought.

The strength that he had displayed was only the tip of the iceberg.

Seeing the change in Su Yu's expression, Hanxuan said, "So, leave before he finds you. Don't think about saving others. That will only trap you. There will be no other outcome."

However, Su Yu did not leave.

Instead, he smiled faintly at Hanxuan. "Thank you."

After so many years, Hanxuan still treated him sincerely.

If she was a little hostile, she would have lied to him and taken the risk now.

Instead of persuading him to go back.

"However, I still want to try," Su Yu said.

Even if the martial arts temple was really that powerful.

Would he be afraid?

At worst, he could expose the secret that the mortal body was still there and fight with it to save his life.

Moreover, he didn't necessarily need to fight with it.

"Hey, you! Why are you still so stubborn?" Hanxuan said anxiously.

But she felt that it was natural.

The Su Yu in her memory had always been like this.

No matter what difficulties were placed in front of him, he wouldn't shrink back at all.

Although his temperament was much gentler now, and he wasn't willing to accept the rebellious attitude he had when he was young and frivolous.

However, he still had the sharpness of someone else.

"If you want to die, I Won't Stop You," Hanxuan said a little angrily.

She took out a map and threw it to Su Yu. She pointed at the center of the map and said, "That's the martial arts temple's Sky Prison. The prisoners that are locked up are the ones he likes the most."

"If the former ruler and his wife are still alive, they should be in the sky prison."

Su Yu smiled gratefully and said, "Thank you."

Without Hanxuan's guidance, just finding the heavenly prison would have taken a lot of effort.

"Hurry up and leave. I'll pretend that you've never been here!" Hanxuan waved her hand.

Su Yu smiled and left immediately.

The Moon in the Sky constantly emitted the power of clairvoyance.

The longer he stayed here, the greater the possibility of him revealing his greetings.

Looking at Su Yu's departing figure, Hanxuan's eyes dimmed and she sighed slightly. "After so many years, he's still as busy as ever. He doesn't even have a chance to talk properly."

Holding a ledger in her hand, she forced herself to calm down and carefully read through it.

But the more she read, the more impetuous she became.

In the end, she closed the ledger and looked outside the palace. She sighed, "Sigh, I still can't Watch You Die!"

She bit her red lips and immediately chased after him.

Speaking of which, Su Yu.

With the guidance of the map, they quickly arrived at the location of the heavenly prison.

The Sky Prison was an open valley.

In the valley, there were 100 crosses.

On each cross, there was a living being nailed with steel nails made of souls.

They were all alive.

But because of the steel nails, they fell into a coma.

They all lowered their heads and didn't move.

Su Yu's gaze swept over them one by one.

He was somewhat surprised to find that.

All the men on the cross, without exception, are descendants of the Lord.

There are not only the descendants of Soul Master, but also the descendants of space master, Death Master, Fate Master and so on.

Su Yu secretly surprised: "All are the Master of the competition has ended a few master descendants."

All the above-mentioned masters have fallen in recent years.

He didn't expect that after they died...

Their descendants would be imprisoned here.

What was even more surprising was that the ones who imprisoned them weren't others, but the Martial Dao Temple, the ruler of Souls!

"Why is this happening?" Su Yu thought to himself.

Even if the eight rulers weren't on good terms...

There was no need to exterminate each other's descendants like this, right?

What was the martial arts temple trying to do?

A huge doubt rose in his heart.

While he was thinking, his gaze swept over.

He suddenly discovered two figures.

They were the captured Death Abyss and his wife, Hong Niang.

Both of them were nailed to the center of the cross.

Both of them were soul bodies. They suffered from the damage of the soul steel nails, and soul fluorescence was constantly flowing out of their bodies.

At this rate...

In less than a month, their lives would be gone.

And in front of their cross, a fierce woman with no moon on her head was waving a leather whip and fiercely lashing Hong Niang.

"Death Abyss, hand over that bronze plate, unless you want to watch your beloved woman be lashed to death." The woman was a confidant of the martial arts temple.

At this moment, she was being extremely harsh.

Hong Niang said with tears in her eyes, "Wu Lang, don't say it."

If she said it, Wu Death Abyss would lose his last bit of value.

He would be immediately wiped out and completely returned to the ultimate.

The woman sneered. "I think that what you should be thinking about now is how to die quickly. It's not a daydream. Someone will come to save you."

As she spoke, she whipped her whip hard, causing Hong Niang to scream in pain.

Death Abyss's eyes were about to pop out of their sockets as he struggled with all his might.

However, every time he moved, a heart-wrenching pain would be emitted from the steel nails in his soul. It was as if his soul had been electrocuted, causing him to be paralyzed and unable to move.

"There's no need to waste your energy. This is a secret technique that Lord has designed for you rulers and their descendants."

"The more frequently you move, the more painful it will be for you."

No matter how muddle-headed Wu Kuan Yuan was, he finally realized that something was wrong.

"Who exactly is the Martial Dao Temple?"

Normal rulers would not capture the descendants of rulers for no reason.

"Then you don't need to know. All you need to know is that you just need to hand over the bronze coins." The woman raised her whip and lashed it down again.

The matchmaker howled in pain.

Wu Kuanyuan's body and soul were both tormented.

However, he was helpless.

He could only watch as the woman he loved fell into endless torment.

Su Yu looked around.

After confirming that there was no one nearby, he was about to make his move.

A voice transmission entered his ears. "Don't move!"

Su Yu's heart shook. He turned his head to look.

Found Hanxuan.

She was wearing an invisible six-star device, will be hidden among them.

Chapter 2727 Searching For The Chant

Then, the Dao artifact was displayed and Su Yu was included.

The two of them were squeezed under the narrow cloak, and they could hear each other's breathing.

Hanxuan suddenly felt a little nervous.

This was probably the closest they had ever been to each other.

"Why are you here?" Su Yu asked.

Hanxuan pretended to be cold. "If you're discovered, you'll definitely drag me down in the end. Can I not come?"

That was what she said.

But how could Su Yu not understand? If Hanxuan was worried about being dragged down...

The first time she saw him, it was a wake-up call.

Instead of giving him a map.

"How should I repay you?" Su Yu felt a little guilty.

Meeting again after so many years had caused Hanxuan to fall into a predicament.

"Hurry up and leave. That's the best way to repay me," Hanxuan said.

However, there was a sweetness and satisfaction in her heart that she could not understand.

It was as if she had always longed for and hoped to do something for Su Yu.

Her face was slightly red and she did not dare to look into Su Yu's eyes.

She was afraid that Su Yu's extremely perceptive eyes would see through her heart.

She said seriously, "The heavenly prison ahead is not something that can be easily entered. If you are not careful, you will easily touch the soul seal."

She grabbed a handful of moonlight with her palm.

Then, she gently scattered it forward.

Immediately, the air in front of them trembled slightly.

Several hidden heavenly script characters flashed and disappeared.

"Heavenly script characters?" Su Yu was secretly shocked.

Hanxuan said solemnly, "Do you see it? The entire area of the heavenly prison is covered with these heavenly script characters. There is no way to avoid them."

The Sky Prison looked like an open prison, but in truth, it was stricter than any sealed sky prison, even if they touched any heavenly script characters, they would immediately be sent to the Martial Dao Temple.

When the Martial Dao Temple noticed them...

In his half-true world, who would be able to escape?

"The only way to go deep into the prison to save people is to obtain the chant to enter the sky prison," Hanxuan said. "Only by activating the chant will the heavenly script characters open up a path on their own."

Her gaze slowly drifted toward the woman. "That woman is called Yao Ji, a beloved concubine of the martial arts temple. She is one of the few people who knows the chant."

Her guidance was extremely clear.

She wanted Su Yu to capture that woman alive and obtain the chant from her mouth.

"That's all I can say. Take care of yourself," Hanxuan said silently.

Su Yu was moved.

Saying this much was already Hanxuan's limit.

If she continued to speak or did anything else, she would most likely be exposed.

"I will repay this favor," Su Yu said.

Hanxuan shook her head. "You surviving is the best kindness."

Her face darkened.

She had come all the way from the nine prefectures.

How many of her friends had fallen one after another?

In her life, only two people had accompanied her until now.

One was Zhan Wushuang.

The other was Su Yu.

The world was just so cruel.

Being able to live was the best form of gratitude.

Su Yu gave her a deep look. "I will, and so will you!"

Hanxuan nodded and prostrated herself on the ground, staring unblinkingly at the movements in the heavenly prison.

Su Yu also prostrated himself beside her.

Just like that, the two of them silently watched.

Finally, an entire day passed.

The matchmaker's soul was weakened by the whipping and could dissipate at any time.

However, Wu Wanyuan held back the immense grief in his heart and did not speak.

Little Temptress was panting.

After an entire day, she was already tired.

However, the two of them still did not speak.

"Alright, I'll let you be stubborn. I'll go ask my Lord to execute your lover right now." Little Temptress threw down her whip.

She silently activated her spell, causing the invisible heavenly script characters to make way for her.

Then, she left the heavenly prison.

The moment she left, Su Yu suddenly jumped out from nowhere!

He activated his time and space domain at lightning speed.

"Freeze time and space!"

In order to be on guard, he double froze, making it impossible for her to escape.

As expected, little temptress only had time to reveal a shocked expression.

The warning words were still in her mouth, but before they could be transmitted, they were frozen on the spot.

Little Temptress's cultivation was only at the early stage of the Earth Master Realm, so it wasn't considered brilliant.

It wasn't difficult to capture her alive!

He stepped forward and used a soul secret technique to search her soul.

However, just as his soul was about to enter her soul...

A sudden change occurred.

A blinding moon light was emitted from Yao Ji's body.

The space-time freeze nearby was immediately dissolved.

Yao Ji was freed. Without thinking, she immediately opened her mouth and cried out, "There's..."

Su Yu's expression changed.

It was too late to stop her.

Once she cried out, even if the martial arts temple wasn't alerted, it would still alert the patrolling nearby.

PA --

But she only had time to shout out one word.

Suddenly, a black shadow flashed behind her. Hanxuan jumped out, carrying a black brick and smacked it hard on her forehead.

The Temptress'eyes turned white, and she immediately fainted on the spot.

Su Yu looked at Hanxuan in shock.

Hanxuan put away the black brick, patted the soil on her small hands, and said, "What are you looking at? Can't I hit the brick?"

Yes, she could.

But this was the complete opposite of what she remembered of Hanxuan's temperament!

"Hurry up and leave. She already shouted a word just now. The guards nearby must have noticed."

With Hanxuan's help, the two put on invisible cloaks and dragged little temptress to a dark place.

"I'll keep watch for you. Search her soul immediately."Hanxuan looked around solemnly.

Su Yu nodded and immediately used a soul secret technique to search little temptress'mind.

Not long after, he found a piece of memory in Yao Ji's mind.

That was the entire content of the mnemonic chant.

His soul probed into it and was about to flip through it.

Suddenly, a soul steel needle jumped out from within that memory and stabbed towards Su Yu's soul.

Fortunately, Su Yu reacted in time and immediately retrieved his soul.

That was how he survived.

"It's a trap!"Su Yu's heart trembled.

He looked at little temptress again.

She had already lost all her breath.

Her soul was destroyed by the steel needle that shot out.

"So Ruthless!" Little Temptress was the beloved concubine of the martial arts temple.

However, he still planted such a vicious steel needle in the Beloved Concubine's soul.

Whoever checked the memory of the mnemonic chant, the soul steel needle would explode and kill the beloved concubine and the detector together.

Presumably, this beloved concubine must have a life jade token.

And there were people guarding it.

Once the person guarding it found that the jade token was broken, he would definitely inform the martial arts temple.

At most, the martial arts temple would notice the death of the little temptress and come to the heavenly prison.

"Dead?" Hanxuan turned her head and looked, her expression especially ugly. She pulled Su Yu and said in a deep voice, "We can't wait any longer. Let's go, the martial arts temple will be here soon."

Su Yu shook his head. "You go first. Don't bother about me!"

He flashed to the front of the heavenly prison.

"You're planning to barge in? Don't be muddle-headed. You'll only die faster if you do that!" Hanxuan exclaimed in a low voice.

Su Yu took a deep breath and said, "I just want to give it a try."

He recalled the contents of countless heavenly book characters in his mind.

Although he hadn't memorized the spell formulas during the brief investigation just now, he found that those spell formulas were all messy and disorderly.

It seemed that as long as he read the correct heavenly script, the heavenly script would move aside.

Chapter 2728 Yuan Level Domain

He had mastered most of the heavenly book characters.

If he read them all out, he believed that he would be able to cover all the characters in the heavenly prison.

Time was tight.

He immediately whispered the heavenly book characters that he had mastered his entire life.

Tens of thousands of characters were read out in a short amount of time.

Then, Su Yu grabbed a handful of moonlight and threw it forward.

What made him sigh in relief was that all the heavenly book words on the road ahead had been expelled, not a single one left behind.

Hanxuan was dumbfounded. "How is this possible?"

This was the martial arts temple's proudest heavenly prison seal.

He had invited countless masters to try and break it.

However, none of them had succeeded.

What about Su Yu?

He had broken it so easily?

What did he do?

Hanxuan knew that Su Yu was a very special man who could not be judged by common sense.

Therefore, when they met again after so many years, she had already raised Su Yu's ability by a few levels.

But after seeing it with her own eyes, she knew.

She had still underestimated Su Yu.

The best proof was that the martial arts temple's proud heavenly prison was easily broken.

Su Yu lifted the seal and immediately came before the cross.

He checked the soul steel nail and made sure that there were no traps.

Then he reached out and tried to pull the steel nail out.

However, as soon as he grabbed it, a sharp pain spread from his palm to his entire body.

Death Abyss was about to fall into a coma under the effect of the steel nail.

At this moment, he sensed a strange movement in front of him and opened his eyes with difficulty.

When he realized that it was Su Yu, he was extremely shocked. "Su Yu? Why are you here?"

Su Yu smiled indifferently. "I still can't leave you guys alone."

Not only had the soul dominator guided him, he had also saved his life at a critical moment.

Now, he couldn't bear to abandon them and leave.

However, this steel nail was extremely troublesome.

Su Yu had no choice but to retract his hand after touching it.

Otherwise, even his own soul would be injured.

And this was even under the condition that he was wearing the soul emperor's clothes.

If not for that, that touch just now would probably have caused Su Yu's soul to fall into a coma.

"Don't worry about me. Leave quickly." The soul dominator hurriedly said, "You can't come here."

Having seen the power of the Martial Dao Temple, the Soul Dominator hurriedly urged him.

Su Yu only stared at the steel nails and fell into deep thought.

Was he going to use the power of the mortal embryo Saint Body?

At this moment, Hanxuan ran over and said hurriedly, "The Martial Dao Temple will soon know about the changes in this place."

Time was very tight!

The soul dominator said anxiously, "Hurry up and leave. Don't drag you down because of us."

His heart was extremely moved, and waves of warmth flowed through his body.

He had been by Su Yu's side for many years, and even though he had been in a coma most of the time...

He would occasionally wake up and observe Su Yu's actions.

He discovered that this person could be the successor of ancient God Nine Dragons at any time.

But he couldn't be hated at all.

In terms of personality, he was impeccable.

Thus, he had never harbored any ill intentions toward this successor of ancient God Nine Dragons.

Now, the other party's personality was still the same. He had actually come to rescue him for a favor that wasn't important to him.

One could imagine how moved his heart was.

"Sovereign, we don't have much time. Can you please give me some pointers on how to remove this soul steel nail?" Su Yu asked.

In terms of the Dao of the soul, he was naturally inferior to the sovereign of the soul.

The sovereign of the soul deeply gazed at Su Yu.

If he didn't let Su Yu save him, he wouldn't give up.

Even if he would take an even greater risk in the future, he would still choose to try.

"With your soul attainments, you won't be able to pull it out for the time being." The ruler of the soul seemed to have made up his mind.

He looked at the strand of the ruler of the soul bloodline on Hong Niang's neck and said, "If you don't mind, you can refine my soul bloodline and raise your soul domain to the Yuan level."

What?

Absorb the Soul Ruler's bloodline?

In this way, wouldn't he also become a soul ruler?

Of course, Su Yu didn't mind.

He was even very willing.

How could he mind being able to turn another domain into the peak state of the Yuan level?

"Is there enough time?" Su Yu frowned.

When he refined the spatial domain bloodline, he had used an entire year's time.

Now, he didn't have a year to use it.

"You might not be able to do it on your own, but with me around, you'll have enough time," the spirit ruler said.

Su Yu's eyes lit up.

Without further ado, he walked up to Hong Niang and said, "Pardon me!"

Hong Niang was so weak that she couldn't even open her eyes. She had no idea what was happening in the outside world.

Su Yu took out the spirit ruler bloodline from her neck.

Hong Niang's body immediately lost her soul.

Su Yu's expression changed slightly.

He had to save her immediately. Otherwise, without the protection of the Soul Dominator bloodline, she would disappear immediately.

He took the Soul Dominator bloodline and immediately sat down cross-legged in front of the Soul Dominator. He started to refine it on the spot.

His refining speed was very slow.

The bloodline of the Soul Dominator couldn't be integrated into his body in a short time.

At this moment, the eyes of the Soul Dominator shot out two scorching white lights that shone on Su Yu's body.

Instantly, the bloodline of the Soul Dominator was like a swallow returning to its nest, taking the initiative to integrate into Su Yu's body.

Moreover, it quickly merged with Su Yu's own soul domain.

After the two merged into one.

His soul continued to rise in level at an astonishing speed.

In the time it took to finish half a pot of tea, he had successfully broken through to the Yuan realm.

At that moment...

An endless amount of soul power spread out from Su Yu's body.

He opened his eyes and swept his gaze across the area.

Everything he saw in his field of vision was completely different from what he had seen in the past.

Besides, he had a faint feeling that he was looking down on all the living beings in the world and that he had reached the peak of Supreme Dao of Heavenly Dao.

With a sweep of his gaze, he easily penetrated through the semi-true world and saw something that the naked eye could not see.

In fact, he could even see the Abyss in the foreign lands even more clearly.

Some incredibly terrifying existences could also sense it even more clearly.

"What is that place?" Su Yu whispered softly.

He had already sensed it when he had attained great completion in the domain of the space element realm.

Now, he felt it again.

However, time was of the essence.

There was no time to think.

Su Yu held the steel nail in his hand.

A stinging pain came again.

However, compared to before, the stinging pain at this moment was only limited to his palm.

It did not affect his entire soul.

This was because his soul domain had already become as powerful as the Martial Dao Temple.

In addition, he had the protection of the Soul Emperor's clothes.

Therefore, it was already very difficult for the other party's soul secret art to harm him.

Taking this opportunity, Su Yu used his strength to pull.

The soul steel nails were immediately pulled away.

The Soul Dominator fell weakly from the cross.

Then, it was matchmaker.

She saved two people.

Su Yu looked at the remaining descendants of the Dominator on the cross.

His heart moved, and he quickly pulled out all the soul steel nails from everyone and then rescued them.

He waited for everyone to be rescued.

Su Yu looked at Hanxuan and hesitated for a moment before saying, "Hanxuan, come with me!"

Chapter 2729 The Secret Of Bronze

Not only did Hanxuan provide information, but she also personally took action in the end.

It was hard to guarantee that the martial arts temple would not notice.

Hanxuan's heart pounded.

Although she knew that the "Follow me" that Su Yu was talking about was not what she thought.

She could not help but feel excited.

She was about to nod and agree, but after thinking for a while, she said, "You go first, I'll look for you later."

She took out a spatial communication jade and handed it to Su Yu. "I want to say goodbye to senior brother Wushuang."

The martial arts temple was too cold-blooded, so she wanted to persuade Zhan Wushuang to leave together.

"Okay! Be careful, remember to leave as soon as possible, don't delay, or it will be very dangerous," Su Yu said.

With the martial arts temple's character, once they found out that it was Hanxuan who helped them. The consequences could be imagined.

"Yes!" Hanxuan nodded. She immediately put on her invisible dao vessel and went to look for Zhan wushuang.

Su Yu brought the group and left swiftly.

He used the same trick again. He executed one thought as reality and swaggered out of the exit.

Neither the guards at the entrance of the Hall nor the powerful warriors hiding nearby had noticed him at all.

They had successfully left the semi-true world.

Su Yu immediately led them to a safe place to hide.

In an underground ruin.

Su Yu released the sovereign of soul and Hong Niang.

He clapped his palms together, and a ripple of soul attached itself to the sovereign of soul and Hong Niang.

It could cut off the presence of the Martial Dao Temple tracking the two of them.

The sovereign of soul took a deep breath and stood up with great difficulty. He bowed deeply towards Su Yu. "Thank you, young master Su, for saving my life and Hong Niang's."

Su Yu sighed. "There's no need to be so polite between us. We've experienced so much together. It can be considered fate."

From the moment they received the bronze coins.

They had known each other since then.

Although the Soul Dominator had been hiding his existence.

However, Su Yu had grown bit by bit, and the Soul Dominator had witnessed it all.

The Soul Dominator's eyes were filled with emotion. He stared at Su Yu and muttered, "I never thought that that little human from back then would one day become my Savior!"

To be exact, he never thought that Su Yu could reach this stage.

When he first met Su Yu, Su Yu was just a small martial artist.

In his eyes, he was probably not even as good as an ant.

But after two hundred years.

That ant had grown to look down at the starry sky, facing the eight Dominators, and laughing proudly at the majestic existence of the Sacred Mountain.

He even had to thank him for saving him.

"You're exaggerating. We're just one and the same!" Su Yu said as he immediately instilled soul energy into Hong Niang to make up for her dissipating body.

However, the soul energy instilled into her was only able to slow down Hong Niang's dissipation.

He couldn't keep instilling it into her.

Sooner or later, Hong Niang would still disappear from this world.

"I'm sorry, I took away the bloodline that could have maintained her soul," Su Yu said.

The sovereign of soul shook his head and sighed. "How can I blame you? Without your help, she and I wouldn't have lasted more than a month."

"Besides, without the sovereign of Soul's bloodline, I Have Another way," the sovereign of Soul said. "I want to go to Dao Abyss and use the water there to reconstruct her body and mine."

Their bodies had long since been destroyed.

Matchmaker's cultivation base was average, and any body he created could contain his soul.

However, the soul ruler's soul was too powerful.

It was impossible for a body to contain it.

Once the soul entered, the body would explode.

Su Yu's heart skipped a beat.

Yun Yazi's soul would be extremely powerful after it recovered.

At that time, even an ordinary body wouldn't be able to satisfy him.

He should consider getting Yun Yazi some water of the Dao Abyss.

"Do you need me to accompany you?" Su Yu asked.

The Soul Ruler was silent for a long time, then shook his head. "It's best not to."

Su Yu thought for a moment. "Is it because I've obtained the bloodlines of two rulers, and those people in the Dao Abyss already dislike me?"

But unexpectedly...

The soul ruler looked at Su Yu with a complicated gaze and said, "No, it's because you're the successor of ancient God Nine Dragons."

How could this be?

From the words of the ruler of time and the ruler of space...

They were enemies with the terrifying existences in Dao Abyss.

Could it be that ancient god Nine Dragons was also enemies with the existences in Dao Abyss?

"Why?" Su Yu asked

The sovereign of the soul pointed in the direction of dao yuan and said, "If I say it, the existences there will definitely sense it. If I Go, I won't be able to gain anything."

Hearing this, Su Yu didn't put himself in a difficult position.

He lightly sighed and said, "It's fine. You can go ahead."

But Su Yu's heart was filled with an unresolvable confusion.

Who exactly was in Dao Abyss, and why would they be hostile toward him because of his identity as the successor of ancient God Nine Dragons?

Was it those existences that caused ancient god nine dragons to disappear into Dao Abyss?

Unfortunately, the soul ruler was controlled by someone and couldn't answer.

The soul ruler apologetically took out a soul-refined mannequin and handed it over to Su Yu.

"What is this?" Su Yu asked in confusion.

The Soul Dominator said in a hoarse voice, "It's what the martial arts temple wants the most."

Bronze coins?

But, it wasn't!

This was just a puppet that was refined from his soul.

"Do you still remember the one thought I taught you?" The Soul Dominator asked.

Su Yu nodded. "Of course I remember."

The soul dominator said, "Can you use one thought to make this puppet?"

Now that Su Yu had reached the Yuan level, he could create a replica of anything.

It shouldn't be difficult to create a replica.

However, when Su Yu tried to create a replica, he realized that he had created a bronze plate.

"This..." Su Yu was confused.

This was the first time he had done something like this.

It was a replica, but the bronze plate appeared in the end.

The Soul Dominator stared at the mannequin and sighed in reminiscence. "This is the present I prepared for my son's tenth birthday at the martial arts temple

"As long as one day, the martial arts temple can learn my one thought to be true, they will be able to obtain the real bronze coin

"However, before he had the time to learn this secret, he couldn't wait to make a move on me."

Su Yu's heart stirred.

Then, the Soul Dominator had taught Su Yu the true meaning of a single thought, so he was intentionally giving the real bronze plate to Su Yu?

"The bronze plate came from Dao Yuan, and there are many secrets that I have yet to fully study," the Soul Dominator said. "One of them is to use the bronze plate to save the people in the ultimate."

What?

Su Yu was shocked.

The secret to save Xie Xiaoyue was in the bronze plate?

He bowed and said gratefully, "I will always remember senior's great kindness."

The Soul Dominator laughed hoarsely. "You owe me even more! There's no need to be so polite."

He helped matchmaker up. "The Martial Dao Temple will soon go crazy looking for us. We'll leave first to avoid implicating you again."

If they did not leave now, it might be difficult to leave later.

Su Yu nodded. "Senior, have a safe journey!"

The latter nodded and turned into a soul light that dissipated.

Su Yu stayed behind and took out his communication device, patiently waiting for Hanxuan to inform him.

Chapter 2730 The Return Of The Ancient God

After waiting for a long time, he didn't see Hanxuan send a message to him.

Su Yu maintained his patience.

With a thought, he released all the descendants of the rulers he had found.

After such a long time, they had all woken up.

When they saw Su Yu, they all vigilantly ran in all directions.

Unfortunately, this was the underground ruins, and they had nowhere to run.

Some of the hegemonic descendants were prepared to break through the underground ruins and flee into the outside world.

Only a small number of them remained calm as they stared intently at Su Yu.

"If you want to die, I can help you. I don't want you to drag me down with you," Su Yu said calmly.

His grand voice contained a spatial domain that suppressed all of the hegemonic descendants present.

All of them were trapped within the spatial domain, unable to move at all.

"Spatial domain... you... you are a descendant of a hegemon as well?" The group of hegemonic descendants were all overjoyed.

This continued until one of the hegemonic descendants poured a bucket of cold water on them.

It was a young man who was somewhat similar to Yanran.

"This person doesn't exist amongst the descendants of the Hegemons of space."The young man was calm. Everyone was in an uproar, but he added, "But... he is our savior."

Only then did the panicked descendants of the ruler of space finally regain their senses.

Yes!

They had been crucified by the Martial Dao Temple.

Now that they had appeared here, they could only have been saved by the human race in front of them.

Thinking of this, they regained their composure and felt extremely grateful.

Su Yu looked at them calmly and said, "Is your ruler bloodline still there?"

The young man shook his head and said, "The moment we were captured, we were taken away by the Martial Dao Temple. If we weren't useful, we would have been killed."

A trace of disappointment flashed in Su Yu's eyes.

Now that he had mastered two domains, he suddenly had a plan.

Instead of letting the ruler's domain benefit others, why not take it all?

All eight domains had reached the Yuan realm.

It was equivalent to gathering all eight rulers' domains into one body.

At that time, would the explosive power be weaker than that of a mortal Saint Body?

Perhaps not?

Up until now, the eight rulers had never joined forces.

The strength of joining forces would be an unimaginable unknown.

"Sir, you have done me a favor. Is there anything I can do for You?"The young man felt a little uneasy.

He was worried that Su Yu had other plans, so he wanted to try to satisfy him in other ways.

Su Yu said in a low voice, "I want to ask you some questions."

"First, do you know what the Martial Dao Temple is going to do when they take your ruler's Bloodline?"

The other descendants of the rulers were all at a loss.

"I'm not sure. According to logic, only the descendants of the rulers can absorb our ruler's bloodline."

"I really don't know what the Martial Dao Temple is using our bloodline for."

Everyone shook their heads.

Only the youth of the spatial ruler's descendant stood there silently.

Su Yu noticed this, and his eyes flashed. "What do you want to know?"

The youth hesitated and nodded. "Because the spatial ruler's bloodline is stronger, I fainted a bit later than the others and happened to hear some bits and pieces of news."

"Oh? Speak!" Su Yu's eyes flashed.

The youth said, "Before I fell into a coma that day, I vaguely heard the Martial Dao temple say that the descendants of ancient god Nine Dragons... rebuilt the eight domains..."

Hearing this, Su Yu's eyes flashed.

Descendants of ancient God Nine Dragons?

Su Yu had always cared about their existence.

After all, in a sense, descendants of ancient gods had all the qualifications to inherit ancient god Nine Dragons.

This included the nine dragons divine cauldron.

The bits and pieces of information the youth had obtained made Su Yu unable to help but guess.

Could it be that one of the descendants of ancient god Nine Dragons was planning to use the bloodline of the eight sovereign's descendants to forcefully open the eight great domains?

Back then, how much danger had Su Yu risked in order to open the eight great domains?

He had almost been destroyed in body and soul.

Now, the descendants of ancient god Nine Dragons were actually planning to use a trick to succeed?

"Is there anything else?" Su Yu asked.

The youth shook his head, but then nodded. "I heard the last sentence, but it was very vague, so I'm not sure."

"Speak!"

The youth hesitated. "I heard him say... that ancient god nine dragons is coming back..."

What! !

Su Yu's eyes revealed a hint of shock. "Are you sure you didn't hear wrong?"

The youth smiled bitterly. "That's why I'm not sure."

How many years had ancient God Nine Dragons been missing?

He had been missing in Dao Abyss since the beginning of the new era.

But now that he had suddenly returned, how could it not be shocking?

Su Yu found it hard to calm down.

Ancient God Nine Dragons..

Su Yu's life had completely changed since he obtained ancient God Nine Dragons's sacred artifact.

If not...

He was now a skeleton that had been dead for at least a hundred years.

For some reason, Su Yu was eager to meet ancient god Nine Dragons.

Just meeting him was enough.

Taking a deep breath, Su Yu asked, "Second question, do you all know how the Life Domain Is?"

The youth's hunting was very extensive.

He shook his head. "Very bad!"

"The ruler of life is not far away from death. Countless mysterious forces have already appeared in her territory, hiding in the dark."

"Once she dies, her descendants might suffer the same fate as us."

Hearing this, Su Yu's heart tightened.

He could not let the ruler of life die so easily.

He had to ask her to make a move before she died to completely restore Yun Yazi's soul.

"Alright, I only need you to answer two questions. After the ground is safe, you can leave on your own," Su Yu said.

He didn't have any use for this group of sovereign descendants.

In addition, there was no hatred between them.

Naturally, he could only let them go.

The youth thought for a moment and said, "I believe that you are the descendant of ancient god Nine Dragons, Su Yu. You are also that mortal sacred body, right?"

Su Yu glanced at him.

Of all the descendants of rulers, this person was the most calm and wise.

"Do you have any pointers?" Su Yu asked.

The youth laughed. "How could I have the qualifications to give pointers to Sacred Body Su? I just want to remind you of one thing."

"Speak."

The youth said, "I once heard from the ruler of space that someone is rebuilding the Carefree Heaven's clone and wants to deal with you."

Su Yu's eyes flashed with coldness.

How could he forget that the Carefree Heaven's clone that had already gathered his upper body had once chased after Yanran?

"Why? Isn't that person your ruler of space or a descendant of the ruler of Space?" Su Yu asked back.

He had always thought that the one chasing after Yanran would be one of his older brothers or sisters.

The young man shook his head. "That's not true. Even the fragment of the Carefree Heaven's clone that the ruler of space obtained was snatched away from his hands by an expert."

What?

Su Yu's brows twitched.

To be able to snatch something away from the spatial ruler?

What kind of existence was that?

At the very least, his strength wasn't weaker than a spatial ruler, right?
