

Nine-Dragon 3051

Chapter 3051 The Oriole Was Behind

Inside the illusory formation, the Saint of Thieves and the others gradually realized that something was wrong, and their minds changed drastically.

"We've fallen into the illusory formation. We have to break the formation as soon as possible, or the consequences will be unimaginable." The bearded Sissy's heart was as heavy as water.

The Saint of thieves gritted his teeth. "We've met an expert in the Dao of the soul."

She couldn't understand what kind of person she was facing. The formation that Linghu Jie, a member of the ancestral art soul sacred clan, had created not only couldn't control him, but it was even used by him to make light use of the formation, instead, it was used to control them.

If she had not experienced it herself, she would not have believed it.

"Let's work together to break the formation!" The saint of thieves sensed Su Yu's intention, he said solemnly, "We have to leave before everyone leaves. Otherwise, if the rockmen patrol team finds us, they will definitely lock us in a cage. All our plans will be ruined."

They gave up on escaping and gathered together.

"The so-called formation must have a core. If we concentrate all our strength to attack one area, we will definitely be able to trigger the core to appear. Then, we will break through the core and successfully escape." The Saint of thieves had excavated many ancient tombs and had the most experience with formations.

Under his command, the seven people on the scene joined forces to attack the southwest formation.

Under the powerful attack, as expected, one could see the invisible barrier flicker, as well as strands of complicated patterns flashing and disappearing.

At the northern corner of the formation, a weak and undetectable purple light flickered and disappeared.

"Over there!" The thieving saint shouted softly and immediately commanded everyone to attack the purple light.

However, the combined attack of the seven of them did not cause any substantial damage to the formation. They were still trapped within.

As they tried again and again, the sky gradually darkened.

Everyone was getting more and more anxious. The Saint of thieves gritted his teeth and said, "Forget it, I'll sacrifice another treasure."

She took out a silver brick and opened her mouth to let out a breath. The brick immediately melted into a ball of silver water.

The Saint of thieves raised his hand and threw the silver water towards the north corner.

Pitter-patter --

With a series of muffled sounds, a crack appeared in the north corner. The Saint of thieves had sharp eyes and immediately drilled out.

The rest of the people filed out and returned to the outside world before the crack closed.

"Leave quickly." The Saint of Thieves took a look at the Rockman patrol team that was slowly descending and immediately led everyone to leave.

Everyone was unlucky to have escaped safely.

"We've met a difficult opponent!" The bearded sissy hammered his thigh and somewhat regretted finding trouble with Su Yu.

The Saint of thieves was also full of worry. "Who is this person?"

While they were discussing, they did not know that a figure was silently looking down at them from afar.

"Oh? He still has some ability." Su Yu looked at them with a profound light in his eyes.

Two days passed in the blink of an eye.

Today was the last day of repairing the seal. All the seals had been repaired according to the plan.

Night fell.

The purple light in the valley was even more intense, illuminating the surrounding area with a brilliant purple light. It was especially horrifying.

Because the seal had been completely repaired, the patrol team was much more relaxed and was no longer as tight as before.

Seven mysterious people sneakily came to a certain corner of the valley.

There was an unnoticeable crack in this place that was only the size of one person. It was covered by a clever illusion, so no one noticed it during the day.

This seal was the crack that the saint of Thieves and the others were in charge of.

They deliberately made it look like they had successfully repaired it, waiting for this moment.

After confirming that the patrol team had not appeared, they quietly entered the crack and broke into the Heavenly Dao prison.

This scene was seen by Su Yu, who was standing in the valley. He muttered, "I knew that following behind you guys would save a lot of effort."

However, Su Yu did not move. Instead, he continued to observe.

His eyes moved from time to time, as if he was looking for something.

As expected.

Not long after the seven of them entered, a group of Rockmen came out of the crack.

The leader was none other than the Rockman Grand Sage.

The corners of his mouth curled into a cold smile. "I knew someone couldn't hold it in and chose to act tonight."

"Come on, seal the seal completely and make sure they don't come back."The Rockman Grand Sage ordered.

It turned out that they had already expected that the seal wouldn't be completely repaired. Someone must have some ulterior motive and left an entrance.

One had to admit that the Rockman Grand Sage was quite smart.

"Yes!"The few rockmen immediately started to repair the last crack. If it wasn't fixed, the thieving sage and the others who entered would never be able to come out.

The rockmen immediately started to repair the crack. One of the rockmen said, "Sir, it seems like we can give a satisfactory explanation to the superiors who will come to inspect tomorrow."

The Rockman grand sage said, "That's easy to say. Our greatest luck this time is that we did not give the prisoners a chance to rebel."

He originally thought that the prisoners would take advantage of the opportunity to repair the crack and escape together.

However, for a few days, nothing like this happened. They did not know if it was an accident or if they were lucky.

Very soon, the crack was completely repaired.

The Rockman Grand Sage finally heaved a sigh of relief. He rubbed the space between his brows and said, "Phew! It's finally done."

"Congratulations, sir. You have successfully repaired the seal."

It could be seen that the rockmen were very happy. The chaos that they imagined did not happen.

"Leave a portion of them to patrol. The rest can leave."The Rockman Grand Sage said. He thought of Su Yu, who was personally given the right to patrol, he added, "Also, if you find that patrol, arrest him immediately and throw him into the cage."

The surrounding rockmen were confused and did not understand.

The Rockman Grand Sage said enigmatically, "This person's motive is not pure. He came to the Heavenly Dao prison for another purpose. Now, he is no longer useful. It is time to send him to the Heavenly Dao prison."

This Rockman Grand Sage was quite wise. He could tell that Su Yu's intentions were not in the wine.

"Sir, why do you say that?"

The Rockman Grand Sage's gaze was deep. "Don't you understand that he came here on the first day to cause trouble on purpose? Is he trying to take the opportunity to enter the Heavenly Dao Prison?"

It turned out that he had seen all of Su Yu's actions that day.

However, he was a shrewd person. He pretended not to know and entrusted him with an important task. Only today did he reveal his true colors.

The rockmen nodded their heads and received the order to chase after Su Yu.

Most of the rockmen dispersed. In the valley, a young man walked over with his hands behind his back. It was Su Yu.

He came to the northeast corner and tapped lightly with the tip of his foot. A crack covered by a soul secret spell flashed with a faint purple glow.

It turned out that the ones who left behind a crack were not only the saint of thieves and the others, but also Su Yu.

Furthermore, Su Yu had already expected that the saint of Thieves and the others would definitely be tricked by the Rockmen. Hence, he had been secretly observing until the end.

"Playing tricks with me, I'm afraid you are still too naive." Su Yu smiled faintly.

He had long understood that the seemingly straightforward Rockman Grand Sage did not have any good intentions.

From the very beginning, he had been wary of him.

Now, it seemed, everything was under Su Yu's control.

Chapter 3052 The Ghost Grand Sage

He leaped into the Heavenly Dao prison from the crack.

Before he jumped down, he used his soul secret technique to cover up the crack.

With his soul mastery, it was difficult for an ordinary person to see through it.

Huff Huff --

Just as he jumped down, Su Yu heard the sound of the cold wind. The pungent stench of blood rushed towards him.

He opened his eyes and saw that the world was covered in gray, and there was a pungent stench everywhere.

"This place has been sealed for too long, and the bad luck within it hasn't dissipated for too long. That's why it's like this." Su Yu raised his arm, he realized that a layer of his clothes had rotted away. "Furthermore, the bad luck has combined with the pressure in the Heavenly Dao prison to form a lethal poison."

The black robe on his body could be forged from exceptionally hard black silk, and it was indestructible.

Even an attack from an ancient sage expert might not be able to shatter the black robe. However, right now, it was being directly corroded by the atmosphere.

Su Yu released the power of the Heavenly Dao master to protect himself. He took out the myriad calamity scythe without any change in his expression, keeping an eye on his surroundings.

Since even the air in this place was so dangerous, it could be seen just how powerful and dangerous the prisoner who was able to survive must be.

"Kid, let me out! I will teach you all my ultimate skills!" Suddenly, a rough voice came from behind Su Yu.

Su Yu instinctively waved the disaster scythe behind him. He only looked back after hearing the sound of an explosion.

He saw a tall black skeleton in a nearly transparent crystal pillar, sticking to the crystal pillar and staring at Su Yu.

At this moment, it was staring at the crystal pillar in shock. The scythe had left an inch-by-inch mark on it.

"What kind of weapon is that? Quick! Don't Stop, let me out!" The skeleton said anxiously.

Su Yu suppressed the fluctuations in his heart and said indifferently, "Do you think I'm Stupid?"

Not to mention that the crystal pillar was several feet thick. He would need at least ten days to attack it with the scythe without any rest.

Just the fact that it could be imprisoned alone showed how dangerous it was.

"Kid! The Heavenly Dao prison is very dangerous. I don't know how many prisoners have not been imprisoned. They have not seen any living beings for many years. They want to eat anyone they see. Without the protection of an expert, do you think you can live for a day?"

Su Yu turned around expressionlessly and looked around vigilantly. "Do you think I'll be safe if I let you out?"

The black skeleton continued, "Don't worry, I'm not an evil person. I was suppressed because of what I did to the Sacred Mountain."

"Let me out and I'll teach you everything the Ghost Clan has learned."

Ghost clan?

Su Yu's heart skipped a beat. It had been a long time since he had heard of the ghost clan. The last time was when he met the Great Emperor of the ghost clan on the true dragon continent.

He did not expect that the origins of the ghost clan could be traced back to an ancestor of the great sage level.

Su Yu looked at him and said, "Alright, hand over the ancestral spell of your ghost clan and I'll let you off."

If he used all his strength to activate the great scythe of calamity, he could still break it completely.

"Ancestral spell of the ghost clan? What are you doing?" The Great Sage of the ghost clan asked warily.

Su Yu said calmly, "You can't make me work for nothing, right? You're already like this. What's the use of keeping the ancestral spell on you?"

The Ghost Grand Sage turned his gaze and said slowly, "Okay."

As he said that, he blew out a breath, and that breath condensed into a remnant mark in the air.

He held the remnant mark in his palm and said, "Young man, you break a crack in the crystal pillar, and I'll send the ancestral spell out from the crack. Then, we won't owe each other anything."

As long as a mark appeared on the Crystal Pillar, as a grand sage, he had plenty of ways to escape from it.

"Get out of the way!" Su Yu waved his scythe and slashed at the crystal pillar.

Clang --

A violent explosion could be seen. As the ten heads of the scythe were activated, a deep cut was made on the crystal pillar.

"It's Open! It's Open! !" The Ghost Grand Sage shouted excitedly.

He never thought that he would be able to escape one day.

"Where's the ancestral spell?" Su Yu asked.

However, the Ghost Grand Sage retracted his palm and swallowed the breath back into his stomach. He let out a sinister smile, "Young man, haven't you heard of this nonsense? You believe the words of a ghost."

As he spoke, the black skeleton of the Ghost Grand Sage turned into a black liquid and flowed out from the crystal pillar.

Then, it turned back into a skeleton.

He laughed coldly and looked greedily at the scythe in Su Yu's hand. "What a good treasure. Let me keep it."

Su Yu held the scythe and smiled. "If you have the ability, you can come and take it."

"Ha!" "Young man, I know you have some ability, but you probably don't know who you let out, right?" The Ghost Grand Sage laughed. "The one standing in front of you is the invincible and invincible God of war, Gui Buer!"

"I've killed countless people my entire life. Occasionally, I even ate a few people. HMM, the kind that doesn't spit out bones! On account that you've let me out, I don't want your life anymore. Just give me this scythe and I'll do it."

He had been imprisoned here for three eras, and most of his magic treasures had been destroyed by the power of suppression here.

He did not have anything useful in his hands. Su Yu's great scythe of disaster had arrived just in time.

"You're full of nonsense, aren't you?" Su Yu chuckled. He waved his hand and the Taiyi soul-subduing bell appeared.

When it appeared, a faint soul sound wave rippled out.

When an ordinary ancient sage heard it, he could only feel pain and suffering.

However, when the Ghost Grand Sage heard it, he only scratched his ear without feeling any pain. "Aiya, can you use something fierce? This little thing can't harm me."

Su Yu said, "Is that so?"

He placed the Taiyi soul-subduing bell by his mouth and took a deep breath. He blew at it and said a sharp "Zha"!

The "Zha" word merged with the Taiyi soul-subduing bell. Then, it combined with the soul attack of the Taiyi soul-subduing bell and swept out ferociously.

The sound waves that were supposed to be invisible actually turned into golden "Zha" words.

Bang Bang Bang --

The ten or so "Zha" characters landed on the Ghost Grand Sage, causing him to wail and howl.

As he jumped, one of the "Zha" characters landed on his crotch mercilessly. Faintly, the sound of something breaking could be heard.

"Oh My... Baby!" The Ghost Grand Sage's face turned red as he covered his crotch with his hands. His ghost face turned red.

The rest of the 'Zha' words came at him, knocking him to the ground and pressing him down on his body, making it impossible for him to get up.

"If you have the guts, let go of Your Grandpa Ghost. Let's fight for 300 rounds!" The Ghost Grand Sage grimaced in pain, but he refused to admit defeat.

PFFT --

Su Yu stepped on his chest, causing him to spit out a mouthful of blood.

"Why do I Need a fair fight? Isn't it good to step on you like this?" Su Yu said as he stepped on him a few more times.

The ghost grand sage cried out, "Kid, I've sealed off three epochs. All My Magic Treasures and powers of the Heavenly Dao master have dissipated. Don't you feel ashamed to defeat me like this?"

Chapter 3053 Never Give Up

Indeed, from the looks of it, he did not even have the slightest bit of Heavenly Dao master's power.

That was why Su Yu was able to subdue him so easily. Otherwise, it would have taken a lot of effort to defeat a great sage at his peak.

"I don't think so!" Su Yu exerted more strength under his feet. "I feel very honored to be able to kill a great sage who does not keep his word."

As he spoke, Su Yu placed the scythe on his neck and said, "Take a guess, do you think my scythe can cut it off?"

The cold scythe scared the Ghost Grand Sage. He quickly revealed an awkward smile, "What if I guess wrong?"

Su Yu smiled faintly, "If you guess wrong, I'll use your head to test if you really can't cut it off."

The Ghost Grand Sage shrunk his neck and laughed, "What if I guess right?"

"If you're right, then I'll reward you with a scythe." Su Yu's smile deepened.

The Ghost Grand Sage revealed a smile that was uglier than crying, "No matter if I'm right or wrong, I'll still get a scythe. No one bullies like that!"

Su Yu shrugged nonchalantly, "Then you don't have to guess!"

Hearing this, the Ghost Grand Sage's eyes lit up, "Yes, but what if I don't Guess?"

"If I don't guess, I'll cut you into pieces!"

The Ghost Grand Sage could not help but cry, "No, I'm so pitiful, so weak, so young. Can you bear to be so ruthless?"

Su Yu looked at his tall and ferocious body and the corner of his mouth twitched, "Which hair on your body has anything to do with these three words?"

The Ghost Grand Sage realized what was going on and quickly said, "That's right, this isn't my real body. This, this is to scare people, to make me look majestic."

As he said that, a layer of black fog appeared on his body.

In Su Yu's eyes, the tall black skeleton gradually shrunk into a one-inch-tall, jade-like mini skeleton.

It opened its big watery eyes and said pitifully, "Spare me."

Su Yu was stunned. The Ghost Grand Sage was not only cute, but there was no trace of evil. If he was among the women, it would definitely cause the women who could not love to scream.

However, Su Yu was not a woman.

"Spare you? Sure!" Su Yu said, "First, hand over the ancestral technique!"

The little jade skeleton sighed, "Alright!"

He opened his mouth and spat out the remnant marks. Su Yu grabbed it.

The remnant marks of the ghost clan were indeed useless to him, but Sheng ge could definitely use them.

"Young hero, let me go. I was wrong, Wu Wu Wu..."

Listening to an old man's Wu Wu Wu, Su Yu's hair stood on end. "It's impossible to let you go, but I can spare you!"

His heart skipped a beat. Eight domains appeared between his brows. Each domain had a trace of primordial force.

The Soul Domain was materialized. It did not look like an illusory domain.

"Hiss! Oh My God! Am I seeing things? ! Cultivating all eight domains at the same time and cultivating them to the extreme and even giving birth to the absolute beginning energy?" The Ghost

Grand Sage widened his eyes. "Since when did the holy mountain allow people to cultivate all eight domains? Isn't that just cutting off their own path of retreat?"

As expected of an old monster who had lived for several eras, his eyes were indeed vicious.

"Cut the crap. If you want to live, release your soul and allow me to imprint this mark on the depths of your soul. Otherwise, I will not allow an old monster who can not differentiate between friend and foe to leave."

"No, no, I don't want to!" The Ghost Grand Sage shook his head and looked at the eight great domains, especially the soul domain inside. His head was like a rattle-drum as he said, "I, the Ghost Grand Sage, am a man. How can I be a slave?"

Even he was not confident that he could break free from the soul domain mark of that grade.

He might even become this young man's slave for eternity.

"Okay, then I'll send you to the Netherworld." Su Yu decisively used the kalpa scythe and slashed it at his neck.

The Ghost Grand Sage took a deep breath and said, "Stop, stop, I'm just joking. My greatest hobby in life is to be a human slave."

The kalpa scythe stopped abruptly and stopped on his skin.

Su Yu asked, "You're not lying?"

The ghost grand sage said sincerely, "Of course! The greatest hobby of my life is to be a slave to a powerhouse like you!"

"Ah! Come on, let me experience the power of my master. Let me be excited, let me be excited!" The little skeleton closed his eyes, he looked like he was about to enjoy himself. At the same time, he opened his soul completely and Yanran wanted to enjoy herself wholeheartedly.

Su Yu felt a chill run down his spine. Branding his soul? How did it become an indescribable shyness from the little skeleton's mouth?

With a flick of his finger, he imprinted the branding into his soul.

"You really can disgust people," Su Yu said in admiration. At the same time, he released the disaster scythe.

The little skeleton jumped down and said with a smile, "Thank you for your praise, Master!"

"Shameless!" Su Yu was a little dumbfounded. How could he release such a shameless thing.

The little skeleton jumped up and down and said, "Ah! My merciful and great master, your magnificent figure guided me from evil to good. Your Merciful Heart melted my dirty heart, you..."

"Cut the crap. Take Me to the lowest level." Su Yu kicked him away.

The little skeleton rolled on the ground and quickly got up. He praised shamelessly, "Ah! Master, your sweet kick is a gift that I've been dreaming of!"

Su Yu's veins bulged. He had really let the wrong person in!

"Try saying one more sentence?" Su Yu stared at him.

The little skeleton shivered and immediately led the way.

However, on the side that Su Yu could not see, he quietly took out a golden iron ball from his sleeve.

Wisps of black light circulated within the iron ball.

With one look, one could tell that it must contain an extremely dangerous destructive power.

"HMPH, I am a Grand Sage of the ghost clan. How can I be subservient to others?" The little skeleton snorted in his heart. "You want to control me with just a little branding technique? The Ghost Clan is best at the soul separation technique."

What the branding technique had imprinted was only a small portion of his soul.

Even if he lost it, it would not harm his foundation.

Most importantly, the branding technique could not detect any of the little skeleton's true thoughts. This included the fact that he was preparing to kill Su Yu by surprise.

The reason why he had been holding back was because he knew that he only had one chance.

Su Yu held a lethal weapon like the kalpa scythe in his hand, so he had to kill him in one strike.

"Master, look in the sky, there's a flying pig!" The little skeleton suddenly pointed to the sky.

Su Yu subconsciously raised his head, and a fierce light flashed on the little skeleton's face. He turned around and jumped up, ready to throw the golden iron ball in his hand at Su Yu and kill him.

However, before he could make a move, the myriad calamity scythe had already been pressed against the Earth's neck.

The small skeleton's body froze in mid-air, cold sweat dripping down.

Su Yu slowly lowered his head and said with a faint smile, "What are you preparing to do?"

Chapter 3054 Tsunami Of The Netherworld

Hualala --

The little skeleton was covered in sweat and stammered, unable to speak.

"Why are you sweating so much?" Su Yu's smile became even deeper. "What is that thing in your hand?"

The little skeleton wiped the sweat from his forehead and smiled apologetically. "That master, I suddenly remembered that I have a treasure on me that I want to give to you! My body and heart belong to master, so of course I have to give the treasure to master."

Su Yu smiled and took the golden iron ball from his hand. He looked at it casually and revealed a smile. "Is that so? Then I won't stand on ceremony and accept it."

"Yes, yes, yes. You can accept it as you please. This is what I should do. I'm very happy, very happy, very happy... sob..." the little skeleton laughed and cried.

At this moment, his heart was in pain.

The only powerful defensive treasure on his body was snatched away by Su Yu.

That Golden Iron Ball was the heavenly golden pearl that had shaken the nine-star civilization three eras ago.

There were a total of ten in the world, and he had obtained three of them.

One of them had killed a ten thousand saints expert, one had injured the son of heaven, and there was only one left.

Although the power of this heavenly Golden Pearl had been reduced by more than half after three eras, it was not as powerful as it was back then.

However, it was more than enough to injure a ten thousand saints realm expert. Now, it was completely given to this kid.

"Damn it..."the little skeleton continued to lead the way and finally muttered.

Su Yu followed behind him and said, "What did you say?"

The ten thousand calamities scythe was once again placed on the little skeleton's neck. The little skeleton felt extremely aggrieved and said with a pout, "I said, I miss my grandmother! SOB SOB..."

Su Yu smiled and said, "I advise you to behave yourself and bring me to the third level. Don't try to play any tricks."

"How would I dare? I will definitely bring you to the third level... what? You want to go to the third level?"The little skeleton finally reacted and was shocked. "Why are you going there?"

Su Yu stopped and said meaningfully, "Why? Don't you know the way?"

The little skeleton was terrified. "Yes, but I won't go there. I Won't go there even if I Die!"

"Even if I activate the brand and turn your bones into ashes?"Su Yu held the scythe that was flickering with a cold light.

However, the little skeleton's expression was very determined. "Even if you destroy me, I won't go there."

Su Yu frowned. "Why?"

"Why? Do you know who is imprisoned there?"The little skeleton shivered and said, "Are those imprisoned there all peerless great demons who eat people without spitting out their bones?"

"In the previous era, I once saw with my own eyes seven powerful creatures that were covered in demonic qi being imprisoned on the third floor."The little skeleton's face turned pale. "At that time, a troll swept his gaze around the area. These prisoners who were wandering outside all turned into demonic qi and were eaten by them in one bite."

"The prisoners in our cages were lucky to be blocked by the cages and were spared from death."

"There are over a hundred prisoners. With their combined strength, they could at least approach ten thousand saints, right? But the result? They were turned into demonic qi at a glance!"

"Go to the third floor. No matter how tightly sealed they are, they can kill you and me with a glance."

Su Yu took a deep breath. He could kill so many experts with a glance?

Ren Zu's seven disciples were much stronger than he had imagined.

"That's why I won't go there even if I'm beaten to death." The little skeleton sat on the ground, determined not to lead the way.

Su Yu nodded. "Okay, you're not going, right? Then I won't kill you either. I'll just seal you in the cage again."

As he spoke, he picked up the little skeleton.

The latter panicked and quickly changed his words. "Don't be so anxious. I... I'll think about it again."

Su Yu did not give him time to think and threw him back. The little skeleton was so scared that he quickly climbed out of the cage and said, "I'll go, I'll Go, Alright?"

"However, I can only take a look from afar. I definitely can't get close to them, and I definitely can't alert them."

Su Yu did not hesitate, "Alright."

The little skeleton reluctantly led the way. However, he had only taken a few steps when a group of people suddenly came over.

In the fog, the other party probably did not see Su Yu and the little skeleton clearly. They ran over in a panic, and their expressions were full of panic.

When Su Yu saw them, he could not help but be speechless.

Those were not other people, but the saint of Thieves and the others.

And at that moment, they finally saw Su Yu. They instinctively stopped running.

But after pausing for a moment, the saint of thieves turned his gaze and led them to speed up.

It was obvious that some danger was chasing after them. They wanted to divert the trouble to the east.

Su Yu grabbed the little skeleton and immediately turned to the side to escape. He guessed that the wandering prisoners were chasing after them?

However, when he used the clairvoyance eye to look behind them, Su Yu was shocked.

The one chasing after them wasn't a prisoner. It was a Crimson Tide that was sweeping over.

"What are those?" Su Yu imprinted the scene he saw into the little skeleton's soul.

The little skeleton was shocked. "Tsunami of the Netherworld? F * ck, I was wondering where the wandering prisoners had gone. It's the tsunami of the Netherworld!"

"Run to the east quickly. There's a no-mark mountain there that can prevent the tsunami of the Netherworld from drowning."

There was a tsunami in the Heavenly Dao Prison?

Moreover, was it very dangerous?

Just as Su Yu was thinking, a scream was heard. A person who was lagging behind was suddenly caught up by the tsunami and drowned in it.

That person was instantly melted into a bloody mist. Throughout the entire process, the person couldn't even scream, let alone resist.

The tsunami was far more than what was in front of him. It was boundless and its momentum was getting more and more powerful. It was as if it wanted to swallow the sky and the Earth.

Su Yu's scalp went numb. He did not dare to stay any longer and ran toward the east.

However, the tsunami of the Netherworld was much faster than him. As it approached rapidly, the little skeleton cried, "I might as well stay in the cage."

The Crystal Pillar in the cage had the effect of isolating the tsunami of the netherworld. There was no need to worry about it in there.

Now, he had just come out and encountered the once-in-a-decade tsunami of the netherworld. What was going on! !

Su Yu could not be bothered to listen to his long-winded words. In a moment of danger, he could not be bothered to hide. He immediately used his spatial domain and tore through space to move forward.

That was how he managed to maintain a distance from the tsunami of the Netherworld and was unable to be quickly caught up by it.

However, as time passed, the distance between them was still slowly closing.

It was not easy for him, and it was even more difficult for the saint of Thieves and the others.

The Saint of thieves was still alright, but the movement techniques of his remaining five companions were a mess. It was all thanks to the Saint of Thieves' brilliant movement techniques that he was able to not be caught up by the tsunami of the netherworld.

Otherwise, they would have been wiped out long ago.

However, they could not hold on for too long.

There was a very powerful pressure in the Heavenly Dao prison. The Great Sage's cultivation level was only at the ancient sage level. The thieving Sage's cultivation level was suppressed too harshly, and it did not take long for him to lose his strength.

Seeing that he was about to be caught up by the tsunami of the Netherworld, the thieving sage said, "Sir, you will be rewarded handsomely for helping us!"

Chapter 3055 Identity Exposed

Su Yu didn't even turn his head back.

Save them, what was the reason?

He had used his spatial domain and brought along so many people at the same time, which was quite exhausting for him.

In such a dangerous Heavenly Dao prison, consuming too much was equivalent to suicide.

As for his generous report, he could just listen to it. Whoever took it to heart was truly stupid.

He continued to use his spatial domain and hurried on.

However, the saint of thieves said angrily, "Su Yu! You are still as cold-hearted as ever!"

HMM?

Su Yu raised his eyebrows in disbelief.

The other party actually knew his real name?

After coming to the nine-star civilization, Su Yu had never revealed his real name, so he knew very little.

"I am Cai'er's Master!" The Saint of Thieves pulled down his mask and revealed his true appearance.

Her feelings were equally complicated. She felt angry and amused at the same time.

The Dragon King Temple was really flooded with water. A family did not know a family.

These days, both sides had been scheming and competing with each other. In the end, it turned out that they were already acquainted with each other.

Su Yu was stunned. "It's You?"

He was really surprised that the intruder was the saint of Thieves.

After a slight hesitation, he waved his hand, and a spatial domain immediately enveloped her and her companions.

Without a doubt, Su Yu's spatial domain had exposed her.

There were very few nine-star civilizations that were good at using spatial domains, and there was only one emperor realm cultivator, and that was Su Yu!

"What a pleasant surprise." The Saint of thieves was swept to Su Yu's side by the spatial domain, and her beautiful eyes were filled with joy.

Su Yu laughed self-deprecatingly, "There is a pleasant surprise, but where does the joy come from?"

The saint of thieves said, "Since your target is also the Heavenly Dao prison, then we might be able to be your help."

Su Yu inspected the spatial domain that had obviously decreased in span and said, "If you can't be a burden, then I'll be extremely grateful. I don't expect any help from you guys."

Regarding this, the saint of thieves smiled mysteriously, "Su Yu, it's best not to say this too early."

It seemed like she was very confident in herself.

Whoosh --

The tsunami of the Netherworld behind her came crashing down with the momentum of sweeping the heaven and earth, rapidly approaching.

Su Yu didn't dare to be distracted anymore and used her space domain to the extreme.

However, the tsunami of the Netherworld was still getting closer and closer.

"Soon, do you see that faint blue light?" Suddenly, the mini skeleton said in surprise.

Su Yu looked up. In the fog, there was indeed an unusual blue light in the sky. It was obviously higher than the surrounding mountains.

That was the Wuyin Mountain. It was the highest mountain in the first level of the Heavenly Dao prison. It was the only place that could withstand the tsunami of the netherworld.

Charge!

Su Yu used all his strength and led a group of people to charge toward the Wuyin Mountain.

Gradually, they broke through the fog and the Wuyin Mountain was in front of them, only at a close distance did he realize that the so-called seal-less mountain was not a mountain formed naturally. It was a mountain of corpses!

Countless powerhouses who died in the Heavenly Dao prison, but their bones were not destroyed, and their bones were not collected. They were all piled up here. As time passed, they formed a mountain of corpses.

At the peak of the mountain of corpses stood thousands of people. They were all prisoners from the Heavenly Dao prison.

The reason why the Rockman Grand Sage did not see any cracks in the prisoners' attack was because the tsunami of the river of Styx was coming. These prisoners could not attack the cracks and could only save their lives.

Whoosh --

The tsunami of the river of Styx was already behind them. It started to erode Su Yu's spatial domain.

Any spatial domain that was affected by the water of the river of Styx would collapse and be destroyed. This would severely affect Su Yu's spatial leap.

"He's catching up." The little skeleton hugged su yu and whimpered, "Wise and great master, I don't want to die."

The poor grand sage not only had his cultivation suppressed, but his only powerful magic treasure was also taken away by Su Yu. Now, he was begging for mercy!

"Quiet!" Su Yu thought quickly. His spatial domain had been activated to the limit, and he was unable to reach Mount Wuyin before the River Styx tsunami arrived.

If this continued, everyone would die here.

Bang --

A high wave of the netherworld came crashing down, enveloping everyone within.

Everyone could not help but panic. Some even began to scream.

At the critical moment, Su Yu suddenly activated his spatial domain and swept the bones on the seal-less mountain across space. He piled them up into a wall, blocking them above his head.

Splash --

The water of the netherworld splashed onto the wall, but it did not rot the bones. Instead, it meandered down along the walls of bones.

The people who had a false alarm were all frightened and their faces turned pale.

The Saint of thieves was secretly amazed at Su Yu's reaction. At such a critical moment, he could actually think of a way to use the bones to block the tsunami of the netherworld.

Since the bones had become a safe place for the prisoners to hide from the tsunami of the netherworld, it was obvious that the bones were not afraid of the tsunami of the netherworld. They were the most suitable to block the water of the netherworld.

However, it was easy to say, but among the people present, besides Su Yu, who else had realized it?

She could not help but think of Su Cai'er who often said that her father was good at scheming and that he would try every trick he could think of.

At first, she did not believe that in this world, unless one was a prophet, no one would be able to do this.

However, when she combined this scene with the scene where she and the others were trapped in Su Yu's illusion, she could not help but believe it.

Su Yu was indeed a person who could scheme the heavens!

Taking advantage of the moment when the tsunami waves fell, Su Yu used his spatial domain and brought everyone forward by a huge distance.

The seal less mountain was right in front of them, just a step away from them.

However, no one expected that when they got close to the seal less mountain, the tsunami of the Netherworld had already arrived one step ahead and struck the seal less mountain.

The tidal wave was unable to shake the Wuyin Mountain, so it bounced back and turned into an incomparably violent force that pushed them back.

Behind them was the tidal wave of the river of Styx that swept through the heaven and earth. It was over a thousand feet tall and was pressing down fiercely.

Under the pressure of the tidal wave, Su Yu and the others were as tiny as ants. Even if they formed a wall of corpses again, they wouldn't be able to stop the fate of being completely swallowed by the river of Styx.

They, who had not had the time to be happy, all fell into a thick layer of despair.

Only Su Yu clenched his teeth tightly, unwilling to give up his last hope.

"Myriad Calamity Scythe!" Su Yu shouted loudly, and the tenth head of the myriad calamity scythe appeared.

The head slowly opened its eyes and swept a glance at the mighty tsunami of the Netherworld behind it.

In the blink of an eye, a hair-raising scene appeared. The thousand feet tall tsunami of the netherworld actually... disappeared into thin air!

The tsunami of the Netherworld within a hundred miles, the ancient land, and the crystal pillar that sank into the netherworld disappeared completely.

On Su Yu's forehead, the sleeping eye of Taotie wriggled restlessly, producing a strong reaction.

Su Yu immediately withdrew the power of chaos and restored the myriad calamity scythe to its original state.

Without giving the saint of thieves and the others a chance to ask, taking advantage of the fact that the second wave of the tsunami of the Netherworld had yet to arrive, Su Yu used his spatial domain for the last time and brought everyone to the no-mark mountain.

Su Yu only felt a sense of security when he stepped on the Wuyin Mountain. However, he was not completely safe until he reached the top of the mountain.

Chapter 3056 The Eight-Handed Girl

The tsunami of the netherworld behind them was still surging forward.

If they didn't seize the time to reach the top of the mountain, there was still a possibility of being swept back.

Several dozen breaths later.

They finally reached the top of the mountain, and an extremely deep scar was very obvious.

That meant that the tsunami of the Netherworld had reached this place at its highest.

"Phew!" The Saint of Thieves and the others let out a long sigh of relief. They sat on the mountain of corpses, exhausted, and looked at the Roaring Tsunami of the netherworld.

Boom --

The tsunami of the Netherworld, which was a thousand feet tall, crashed into the mountain of corpses, emitting a roar that shook the heaven and earth.

The mountain of corpses shook violently. Everyone held on to what they could hold on to so that they would not fall into the water of the netherworld.

After a few shocks, the water level of the river of Styx tsunami slowly rose, barely stabilizing.

The saint of thieves heaved a sigh of relief. "It's finally safe."

As long as there were no accidents, the river of Styx water would slowly descend when it reached its highest level.

"Safe? Let's look behind us first." Su Yu did not let down his guard. He had been holding the great calamity scythe tightly in his hand.

The danger he was facing was not only the tsunami of the netherworld, but also the people who had taken refuge here.

They all had a common identity -- prisoners!

For someone as vicious as them to suddenly have a group of outsiders appear in front of them, what would they think? Needless to say?

It must be known that each of them had been imprisoned here for an era. In addition to the harsh environment here, even if there were some prisoners who still had a conscience at the beginning, could they still be kind under the environment?

The Saint of thieves was shocked. He immediately turned his head to look, and a trace of fear appeared on his face.

He saw that more than a thousand prisoners on the mountaintop were staring at Su Yu and the others with blood-red eyes, and the greed in their eyes was very obvious.

Especially when they found out that the saint of thieves was actually a woman, the heat in their eyes became even more intense.

And the kalpa scythe in Su Yu's hand was also the target of their greed.

Just now, Su Yu had used the scythe to shake their hearts. If such a peerless treasure fell into his hands, who would they be afraid of in the Heavenly Dao Prison?

Under countless greedy gazes, the air on the mountain suddenly froze.

The prisoners all stared at them, their greedy gazes becoming deeper and deeper. However, they seemed to be afraid of something and didn't make a move.

Clang --

Finally, the long silence was broken by a short, fierce creature with a full face of beard.

He screamed, "If I get that scythe, do I still need to be afraid of Fan Tianhai?"

Whoosh --

The short figure was like an illusion. His voice was still in the air, but he had already arrived in front of Su Yu.

His short limbs were extremely agile as he grabbed the disaster scythe in Su Yu's hand.

Su Yu saw his actions and was about to casually finish him off with a scythe.

Suddenly, a dark red thread shot over from the peak of the mountain.

The thread came from behind and pierced through the head of the short creature, passing through its forehead.

The short creature did not die. It stopped and endured the pain. Large beads of sweat rolled on its face as it said in a trembling voice, "Lord... Lord Hong Luan, spare my life!"

"I've said before that all fighting is prohibited during the tsunami of the netherworld. Since you've openly disobeyed the ban, you should bear the consequences." A cold voice sounded.

Following that, with a flick of the Red Line, the short creature's head was shattered into a bloody mist.

The creatures that were ready to make a move and were about to snatch it all retracted their legs and restrained their strength. A deep fear appeared on each of their faces.

At the same time, the crowd parted.

Through the crowd, Su Yu saw a petite woman sitting cross-legged on the peak of the mountain.

She was short and only a foot long. At first glance, she looked like a little girl, but her face had the vicissitudes of a young woman.

Most importantly, she had eight hands and four eyes.

There was also a mysterious halo above her head. At first glance, she looked like a god.

"Eight hands and four eyes..." Su Yu revealed a surprised expression. Why did he look familiar?

He seemed to have seen such a strange race in the distant past.

However, he couldn't recall it for a moment.

The eight-handed girl closed her eyes expressionlessly and said indifferently, "Anyone who violates the ban will end up like this!"

No wonder these prisoners were so restrained. Not only did they not rush to snatch things, but they also didn't kill each other.

Being in the Heavenly Dao prison, how could there be no conflict between these prisoners? Now that they had gathered together without any disturbance, it could be seen how intimidating the eight-handed girl was.

"Why did you only come in now?" The crowd softly rebuked.

Following the voice, they saw that it was none other than Starry Sea Swordsman.

"Big Brother Starry Sea!" Grand Theft Saint said excitedly, his tone filled with unconcealable excitement and respect.

The rest of the people were also in awe, showing extra respect to the star Ocean Swordsman.

"Quickly come up, the river of Styx is coming up." The Star Ocean swordsman waved his hand, and the pirate saint and the others immediately followed.

When passing by Su Yu, the pirate saint stopped and said, "Come with us."

This time, the five of them owed Su Yu a great favor.

"No need," Su Yu said lightly.

He was used to being a loner and did not need to walk the same path as them.

"Alright, we'll remember this favor and repay you." The Saint of Thieves and the other three met up with the Starry Sea Swordsman.

The latter criticized, "Your actions are too disappointing. I've been waiting for you ever since I was imprisoned. In the end, I waited until now, and I missed a great opportunity!"

Not only did he not understand the danger that the saint of thieves and the others had experienced, he even criticized them.

The saint of thieves apologized, "I'm sorry. Something happened in the middle of it!"

She glanced at Su Yu quietly and did not mention him. She asked nonchalantly, "What Opportunity Did you miss?"

The Starry Sea swordsman sighed and said, "The day I came was the day when the yellow springs were about to come up. All the corpses guarding the passage had retreated. That was the most suitable opportunity to go to the next level

"What a pity. I was unable to split myself up. I could only watch as the opportunity was missed."

Hearing this, the Saint of thieves and the others were filled with regret.

The passages between the different levels of the Heavenly Dao prison were guarded by something specially arranged by the sacred mountain.

The passage from the first to the second level was a nameless ferocious corpse.

Based on the information they had, that ferocious corpse was extremely powerful. It could swallow the sky and swallow the earth. It was extremely difficult to deal with. If they met him, even great sage experts would have a slim chance of survival.

If they had come earlier, they might have been able to avoid a head-on clash with him.

"However, it's not as if we don't have a chance at all." The Starry Sea Swordsman's eyes flashed.

"When the river of Styx recedes, that ferocious corpse shouldn't appear immediately. As long as we can calculate it and seize the time, we might still be able to avoid him."

The eyes of the thieving sage and the others suddenly lit up. That was great!

"There's always a way out," the pirate saint praised. "I'll prepare the Nirvana weapon and the formation now."

However, Star Ocean swordsman pressed down on her hand and shook his head slightly, with a respectful expression, he quietly pointed at the eight-handed woman on the mountaintop. "Don't act rashly. She has set a rule that during this period, you're not allowed to use anything that you want to attack. Otherwise..."

Otherwise, the fate of the short creature was the best proof.

"Who is she?" The Saint of thieves asked in fear.

Who were the prisoners of the Heavenly Dao Prison? All of them were unruly and fierce people, but they were actually willing to listen to the words of an ordinary-looking girl!

Just thinking about it was enough to know how terrifying she was.

Chapter 3057 The Yin-Yang Caravan

The star ocean swordsman said slowly, "Members of the yin-yang Caravan."

'Huh?'?

Some of the five saints of stealing were confused, some were confused, and some were confused.

Only the saint of stealing's pupils constricted as he said solemnly, "Are you talking about the yin-yang Caravan founded by the descendants of the absolute beginning Dao Master?"

Very few people had heard of the Yin-yang caravan because it had not appeared in a nine-star civilization for at least dozens of eras.

It was said that it would occasionally appear in low-level civilizations like a flash in the pan. When people received the news and rushed over, it had already disappeared without a trace.

The reason why the Saint of Thieves knew of its existence was because he had accidentally found a stone tablet when he was digging the ancestral grave of a great saint family.

The stone tablet recorded the secret of the rise of the Saint family. Many years ago, the ancestor of the family had unintentionally met the yin-yang caravan and used the woman he loved the most to exchange for a mysterious spiritual liquid.

After consuming the spiritual liquid, his body, which was originally an ordinary creature, was transformed and he became a superior race with a special physique.

His talent far surpassed the past. In the end, he used this to gradually develop and establish the great saint aristocratic family.

After that, the saint of thieves often paid attention to the news of the yin-yang Caravan.

However, the description of them was like a taboo. There was no record of them on the surface. Only some ancient tombs would have bits and pieces of records.

That was why the saint of thieves was extremely shocked.

She suddenly raised her head and stared at the ordinary-looking eight-handed girl. She sucked in a cold breath. Was she a member of the legendary yin-yang Caravan?

"She is very powerful. According to my preliminary estimation, she has reached the peak of the Great Sage realm. I can not rule out the possibility that she has already stepped into the ten thousand sage realm," the starry sea swordsman said in a low voice. "Before you came, she single-handedly killed hundreds of prisoners who surrounded her."

Hiss --

The prisoners who were surrounding her had cultivation levels ranging from the ancient sage realm to the Great Sage realm. Yet, they were all killed by her in one go.

How powerful was she?

"Before the tsunami of the Netherworld came, she set a rule on the mountain of corpses. Before the tide of the Netherworld receded, no one was allowed to argue. Otherwise, she would be killed without mercy." The Starry Sea swordsman looked at her carefully.

The Saint of thieves was terrified. As expected of a member of the yin-yang merchant group. Her power was so terrifying that it made people despair.

Splash --

At this moment, the waters of the Netherworld surged up. Just as the old mark was submerged, it stopped rising and stopped there.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, Su Yu immediately sat down cross-legged and began to replenish his energy.

Whether it was the power of chaos or his own power of the Heavenly Dao master, both of them had been severely depleted.

The former was still fine. Shi Xin would slowly recover on his own, but the power of the Heavenly Dao Master could only be obtained by absorbing the surrounding Dao Qi.

Su Yu raised his head and looked around, the corners of his mouth twitching slightly. This place had been sealed off from the outside world for many years, so there was not much dao Qi left at all. All of it was filled with a sky-high stench.

Cultivating quietly for a hundred years might not be able to recover all of the Heavenly Dao master's power.

This was not surprising. Otherwise, the little skeleton would not have been subdued by Su Yu without being able to fight back. As long as the Dao Qi here was normal, it would have long recovered to its peak state.

"Fortunately, there is an ancient overbearing ancestral technique on the sinkhole divine monument." Su Yu closed his eyes and drew a clear and full mark in the air with both hands.

A shocking scene appeared. In the atmosphere, extremely thin dao Qi gathered in front of the ancestral technique mark.

The prisoners present immediately became restless.

"Look, he can actually gather the Thin Dao Qi of the Heavenly Dao Prison!"

"Oh my God, am I seeing things? The dao Qi here is so thin that it's impossible to absorb. He can actually separate it from the turbid atmosphere."

"What clan is he from? What ancestral art is he cultivating?"

Suddenly, the commotion quickly quieted down.

That was because an eye as sharp as lightning shot out from the peak of the mountain and pierced through their bodies, causing them to feel a chill in their hearts.

When they looked back, what made them fearful was that the girl had unknowingly opened her eyes again.

Following that, what made them all tremble was that she actually stood up and slowly walked down the mountain towards Su Yu.

Her eyes were filled with sharpness and confusion as she walked in front of Su Yu.

"Where did you learn it from?" The girl stared at Su Yu and asked calmly.

Su Yu opened his mouth and sucked in all the Dao Qi. He answered, "I learned it by accident."

"Accident?" The girl's eyes were deep. "This is an ancestral technique that appeared at the same time as the absolute beginning Dao Master. It's one of the ancestral techniques he created himself. So far, it hasn't been passed down to the second race."

"Your accident is really coincidental."

Was It?

Su Yu only knew the traces of the ancestral technique on the sinkhole divine monument. He really didn't know that there were still some ancestral techniques that hadn't been passed down yet.

"I think it's coincidental too," Su Yu said calmly.

The woman stared at Su Yu, her gaze becoming deeper. "Who are you?"

Her eyes seemed to be able to see through Su Yu. "You clearly have a chaotic aura, but you're not a descendant of the son of heaven. You look a little like the son of Heaven himself, but your soul isn't."

Su Yu was expressionless, but waves were already stirring in his heart.

This woman only took a few glances, but she was able to see so clearly?

Who exactly was she?

"I, of course, am the same as you. I'm a prisoner that was imprisoned here." Su Yu covered it up.

The woman looked at Su Yu, shook her head, and didn't say anything else.

"Take care of yourself." The woman silently returned to the peak of the mountain and closed her eyes again.

Su Yu looked at her deeply and closed his eyes. He refined the ball of Dao Qi into the power of the Heavenly Dao master to recover his energy.

Time passed slowly.

Three days later.

The tide of the river of Styx finally began to ebb.

The water level was dropping at an alarming speed. Su Yu did not know where to go when the saint of thieves walked over and said in a low voice, "Do you want to move with us? Now is the best time to enter the second level."

Su Yu rejected without hesitation, "Sorry, I prefer to move alone."

"Alright, if you want to go to the second level, follow Netherworld..." the saint of thieves transmitted his voice and gave all the information he had to Su Yu.

This made Su Yu's eyes light up. This information was very valuable.

"Thank you."

The Saint of thieves waved his hand, "No need. You have also done us a favor."

Su Yu immediately looked at the falling water level and followed the river of Styx down the mountain.

The moment he moved, all the prisoners on the mountain became restless and followed behind Su Yu.

Once the river of Styx receded, the eight-handed woman's prohibition would lose its effect. At that time, no one would stop them from doing whatever they wanted.

The little skeleton jumped up and caught up with Su Yu. He grinned and said, "Kid, you seem to be in a bad situation."

"Not bad." Su Yu said calmly.

The little skeleton said, "How about you untie my restriction and I'll tell you a way to get rid of them?"

Su Yu said, "No need. If they catch up, I'll throw you away. I believe that they won't waste the flesh and blood of a great sage."

Chapter 3058 The Three Great Demons

The little skeleton was the only one who could lead the way to the third level of the Heavenly Dao prison. How could he let him go just like that?

"Lead the way honestly. Don't think of any evil ways. If I'm in a good mood, I can let you go before I leave." Su Yu stared at him.

The little skeleton rubbed his hands. "This little plan of mine just can't escape the wisdom of the wise and great master. Your eyes are like the light of the sun and the Moon, illuminating my humble and dirty mind. I should take master as my goal and purify myself..."

Su Yu picked his ears and said, "You've been tossing and turning. Don't you think it's too long-winded to say just a few words?"

His ears were almost calloused.

"Hehe." The little skeleton smiled and said, "There's a place in the first level of the Heavenly Dao prison that ordinary people don't want to step into. That's also the place that you must pass to go to the next level of the Heavenly Dao Prison."

Oh?

Su Yu's eyes flashed. "Where is it? Lead the way."

The little skeleton immediately pointed in the direction where the yellow spring water had retreated. "That is a death swamp. There are a few small things that reside there."

Small Things?

Su Yu had a question mark in his heart.

He immediately used his spatial domain and sprinted toward the death swamp.

The Starry Sea swordsman stared at Su Yu's back and did not want to be outdone. He said, "Pirate Sage, the two of us have fused our domains."

"Okay, I'll listen to senior brother." Grand theft saint's eyes lit up.

The Star Ocean swordsman was proficient in a very special domain. Its domain was not offensive at all, but it had a supporting effect that ordinary people dreamed of -- increasing the power of the ancestral technique.

Grand Theft Saint used a movement curse. Under the cover of the Star Ocean Swordsman's domain, the ancestral technique exploded with a power that was beyond what it used to be. It instantly swept the six of them away, chasing after the stars and the Moon.

That speed was actually not the slightest bit weaker than Su Yu's spatial domain.

However, the convicts who were imprisoned here had similarly powerful and terrifying cultivations. It would not be easy to shake them off.

Sou Sou Sou --

Seeing that the river of the Netherworld had completely descended to the foot of the Corpse Mountain, the eight-handed woman's prohibition finally lost effect. They tried to chase after the foot of the mountain, but the eight-handed woman did not stop them.

This made them completely relieved. They immediately rushed down the corpse mountain with high-pitched shrieks of joy and chased after them with their respective abilities.

"That woman is mine!"

"The scythe is mine!"

"The things on those people are mine!"

"Damn it, it's been a long time since such a fat sheep came to the Heavenly Dao prison. Brothers, let's see who sleeps with that woman first today."

While screaming excitedly, more than a thousand prisoners chased after him with murderous intent.

Su Yu turned around and looked at the moving figures behind him, frowning slightly. Those prisoners weren't weak. Plus, there were so many of them. It was hard to kill all of them with just a big scythe.

Without thinking, he glanced behind him and sent out an unintentional soul fluctuation.

This was an illusion technique from the Saint Soul clan. Anyone who saw its eyes would be lost forever. They would need at least ten days to get out of it.

However, with a glance, there were very few people who were affected.

Only a few prisoners froze and were stepped into the mud by the prisoners who rushed over from behind.

Su Yu was secretly surprised. "The willpower of these prisoners far surpasses that of ordinary people."

Under such a harsh environment, their willpower was not something that ordinary people could compare to, so they could effectively resist most soul attacks.

"This is going to be a bit tricky," Su Yu muttered. His space domain did not stop at all as he ran wildly toward the death swamp.

The expressions of the starry sea swordsman and the others were also solemn.

He had come to the first level of the Heavenly Dao prison for a few days first, so he still had some understanding of the situation of the prisoners.

"One immortal slaying pill per person." The Starry Sea swordsman cautiously took out a black calabash and poured out six purple pills from it.

He took one and put it in his mouth, leaving the rest to the others.

"Senior Brother Starry Sea, is there a need for this? It's not the last moment yet." The bearded Sissy took the pill but did not put it in his mouth.

This pill was not a good thing. It was a Peerless Dao poison that would self-destruct if a great sage took one pill.

Only those who accepted the mission of death would put one in their mouth before they set off. If they encountered a life-and-death crisis that they could not escape from, they would bite it to prevent it from falling into the hands of the enemy and leaking the secret.

The dao poison contained in it would kill the person at the first moment without any antidote.

At this moment, the starry sea swordsman gave each of them one, which meant that the situation had become particularly serious.

"You don't understand!" The Starry Sea Swordsman said solemnly. "When you fall into the hands of a prisoner, there is usually only one situation... where you are eaten!"

He had been hiding in the dark for the few days he had been here. During that time, he had witnessed several scenes of prisoners killing each other.

Those who failed were all captured and eaten.

Furthermore, they would not be eaten in one go. Instead, they would be fed first. When necessary, they would cut off some meat from their bodies and be eaten until only their skeletons were left.

That was not just torture, it was the eighteen levels of hell.

Therefore, the celestial execution pill was necessary.

Once it fell into their hands, it was best to commit suicide immediately.

Both parties chased after each other for a full ten days.

Most of the prisoners had already used up the remaining power of the Heavenly Dao master and gave up.

However, three creatures continued to chase relentlessly.

The one in the lead was a ferocious creature with the head of a crocodile and the body of a snake. It relied on its powerful physique to chase relentlessly.

The cultivation base that it exuded was even more terrifying -- the peak of the great sage.

He alone could wipe out the starry sea swordsman and everyone else, not to mention there were two criminals whose strength was not far from his.

The little skeleton turned his head and saw this scene. He clicked his tongue and said, "Oh my God, in the first level of the Heavenly Dao prison, the big shots known as the three ferocious demons have gathered."

He secretly glanced at Su Yu and said, "The so-called three ferocious demons are the three most terrifying prisoners in the first level of the Heavenly Dao prison. They may not be the strongest, but in terms of ferocity, they are definitely the best."

"Did you see that crocodile head? It is the leader of the ferocious demons, known as the Tai ferocious demon! Before it was captured into the Heavenly Dao prison, it once ate two great saint families. HMM, it didn't even spare the chickens and dogs in the families, and it ate all the people in the family."

"After coming to the Heavenly Dao prison, it even ate one-third of the wandering prisoners."

HMM?

Su Yu's heart slightly trembled. Why, the original prisoners were not just the one thousand people in front of him?

"Even when I was at my peak, I might not be able to fight with this too fierce devil. If I'm not careful, I'll be eaten by him. It's too dangerous." The little skeleton patted his chest.

"As for the other two, they are called Heart Devourer Devil and evil lump devil. They are both fierce people. If you encounter them, everyone will die."

"Now that the three fierce devils have gathered and their target is you, I think the odds are against them. That death swamp might not be able to do anything to them." The little skeleton said with some worry.

Su Yu heard it and kept thinking about how to deal with it.

He glanced at the starry sea swordsman not far away and pondered. It seemed like they needed to work together.

That Starry Sea Swordsman's domain seemed to be a little special. If they used his domain, they might be able to move the three fiendish demons away in one go.

Chapter 3059 Death Swamp

"The one in front, we seem to be in trouble." Unexpectedly, before Su Yu could take action, the Starry Sea Swordsman took the initiative to speak.

Oh?

Su Yu was surprised. With the pride of the Starry Sea Swordsman, he was actually willing to take the initiative to ask for help.

He was really a little surprised.

"Okay." Su Yu slowed down slightly, waiting for him to catch up.

The starry sea swordsman said, "As far as I know, the three people behind us are the three most vicious devils in the Heavenly Dao prison. If we don't get rid of them in time, the consequences will be unimaginable."

Su Yu's eyes flashed. "How do we get rid of them?"

The Starry Sea Swordsman looked into Su Yu's eyes and said, "You have already guessed it. Why do you need to ask?"

Their eyes met, and a spark shot out.

Smart people didn't need to speak too much. Sometimes, one look was enough.

"Then act immediately!" Su Yu waved his hand, and a space domain surrounded Su Yu, the Starry Sea Swordsman, and the others.

The Starry Sea swordsman nodded slightly, opened his mouth, and exhaled. His aura was hazy, and silently merged into Su Yu's space domain.

A shocking scene appeared. Su Yu's space domain actually underwent a huge change.

After merging into the Starry Sea Swordsman's domain, the vast and boundless space domain actually turned into a sheet of golden yellow, as brilliant as the Golden Sea World.

The strength of the space domain was far stronger than before.

At this moment, three fierce demons caught up. One of them had already taken out a strange dao weapon longbow.

On both sides of the bow were skulls, and in the middle was an empty heart. The bow itself was a long spine.

He pulled the bowstring and placed a white bone arrow on it before shooting it out with force.

Pipa --

The white bone arrow turned into a streak of white lightning and tore through the dim yellow space of the Heavenly Dao prison, stirring up the atmosphere in all directions.

Vaguely, long cracks could be seen in the space. One could catch a glimpse of the valley outside the Heavenly Dao prison. Although it disappeared in a flash, the power of the white bone arrow was beyond imagination.

Almost no one below the ten thousand saints realm could resist the power of this arrow.

One Arrow was enough to kill all of them.

"Run!" The Starry Sea swordsman could feel the danger of death without turning back, and he growled.

Su Yu's heart moved, and he immediately activated his space domain, sweeping everyone up and disappearing from the spot in an instant.

All that was left was a blurry golden sea domain.

At this moment, the white bone arrow pierced through the domain.

The remaining domain was immediately destroyed by the white lightning. Nothing was left.

Sou --

Three fierce demons rushed over. The first fierce demon, Tai Xiong Demon, grabbed the white bone arrow that had missed.

His eyes were two snow-white bones that were rotating and staring at the white bone arrow.

There was a drop of blood on the bone arrow.

Tai Xiong Mo stuck out his tongue and licked it lightly. He looked excited. "The blood of the human sacred body and the son of Heaven of the Sacred Mountain is really the best in the world!"

Without a doubt, the one who was injured was not anyone else but Su Yu.

Outside the endless mountains and rivers, lightning flashed in the sky. One could not see the end of the swamp.

Amidst the Lightning and thunder, the space in the sky suddenly split open, and a group of people fell out of the crack.

The change in the power of the space domain was too strong, and even Su Yu was unable to completely control it, causing everyone to be unable to stabilize.

Su Yu's body swayed, and he immediately stabilized his body and looked in all directions.

Other than behind him, there were three endless blood-red swamps on all three sides.

Could This Be..

The Starry Sea Swordsman voiced out his guess. His relaxed brows furrowed even more tightly. "It's the Death Swamp!"

It was indeed this place!

"Passing through the death swamp is the entrance to the second level of the Heavenly Dao Prison." He stared at the death swamp without blinking and was exceptionally vigilant.

Even the saint of thieves felt his hair stand on end. He was even more nervous than when he was being chased by three ferocious demons.

This swamp was a danger zone intentionally arranged by the sacred mountain as a barrier to isolate the first and second levels.

"However, this place is very dangerous," the Starry Sea Swordsman said. "Based on what I've learned from the prisoners, anyone who enters the swamp of death rashly will die. Not a single one has returned alive

"Among them, there were once existences that were no weaker than the three ferocious demons. Once they entered this place, they never returned."

Hearing this, Su Yu raised his palm. Fresh blood flowed from his palm.

Just now, he had successfully activated his spatial domain and brought everyone away from the spot. However, the power of the white bone arrow had injured Su Yu, who had already left, through the spatial domain left behind on the spot.

Fortunately, Su Yu had discovered it in time and used his palm to protect his heart, transferring the damage that should have appeared in his heart to his palm.

That was how he was able to avoid death. Otherwise, the consequences would be hard to predict.

If the arrow of the Tai Xiong Devil was so powerful, its overall strength was unimaginable.

And, there was once an existence that was not weaker than the Tai Xiong Devil that was buried in the death swamp.

"Master, there is a pattern to the death swamp." Suddenly, the little skeleton whispered into Su Yu's ear.

Su Yu's heart skipped a beat, and he immediately scanned the entire swamp. From the outside, there was no pattern.

His heart skipped a beat, and he immediately activated the soul ancestor technique to investigate the situation below the swamp.

He did not know the result without looking, but when he did, he was shocked.

Below the swamp, there were crisscrossing tunnels, as if it was the result of some powerful demon moving underground.

"Master, do you want to know what the pattern is?" The little skeleton asked mysteriously.

Su Yu pretended not to know and said blankly, "Tell me quickly."

The little skeleton raised its head arrogantly, "Then why aren't you undoing the Soul Imprint?"

Even now, it was still thinking about how to break free from Su Yu's control.

Su Yu laughed coldly in his heart. This ghost clan grand sage could not be careless for even a moment. He was always thinking of escaping.

At this moment, the starry sea swordsman walked over and took out an ancient map that was slightly yellowed.

Su Yu scanned it roughly and could not help but feel a little shocked.

The corner of the map was actually very similar to the swamp landscape in front of him.

"This is the map that we obtained from an expert twenty years ago. You should be able to tell what it is, right?" The Starry Sea Swordsman's eyes flashed.

Su Yu looked over and saw a clear trace on the map, which meandered through the swamp.

"Following this trace is the safest way," star ocean swordsman said. "I hope that we can work together again."

Perhaps because he could tell that Su Yu was extraordinary, Star Ocean swordsman put down his pride and requested to work together again.

In fact, Su Yu had already figured out the so-called "Pattern". It was not important whether there was a map or not.

However, the remaining light glanced at the little skeleton and said, "Okay."

The group of people agreed that the thieving saint was at the front. She was the fastest and most agile.

In the middle of Su Yu, she could use the space domain in time to sweep everyone away, while the starry sea swordsman was in charge of the rear.

As soon as they stepped into the swamp, Su Yu keenly felt that the swamp seemed to have moved slightly.

It seemed that they were not welcome and had alerted someone in the swamp.

Chapter 3060 The Strange Mountain

The Starry Sea Swordsman and the Saint of Thieves also felt it.

Something was coming toward them from under the swamp of death.

However, they didn't have time to hesitate.

Because in the sky far away, sparks were splashing, and two faintly discernible human figures were rushing over.

Two fierce demons caught up.

"Let's Go!" The Saint of Thieves held the map and led the way.

Su Yu silently compared the crisscrossing underground passages and found that the routes on the map were actually far away from the underground passages.

He nodded slightly. At least for now, the routes on the map were safe.

Those underground passages should be the passages of the fierce demon beasts hiding under the swamp. If they were close to those passages, they would definitely become food.

"Why don't we directly use the space domain to fly over?" The bearded Sissy walked in the muddy swamp in fear as he asked uneasily in his heart.

He was questioning Su Yu. Since he was proficient in the space domain, why did he give up on the essentials?

Su Yu did not answer, but the starry sea swordsman glared at him and said, "Can't you think of Something?"

"The sacred mountain has set the death swamp as a barrier. How could they allow the human space domain to directly cross over?" The Starry Sea Swordsman flicked his finger, and a stone in the swamp flew into the sky

As a result, the stone had just jumped above their heads when it was suddenly shattered by some unknown force.

"Do you see it? There is an invisible barrier isolating this place. Let alone using the space domain, even flying won't work." The Starry Sea Swordsman looked at Su Yu's back.

The bearded sissy shrunk her neck and couldn't help but bow her body. She walked with her head lowered and clicked her tongue. "The barrier is right above our heads!"

The group of people became even more fearful and did not dare to jump up.

Swoosh --

At the same time, two fierce demons also arrived. It was strange to say that the most powerful fierce demon actually gave up on chasing.

"We're too late." One fierce demon's eyes were filled with regret. That blood-red swamp was a dangerous place in their eyes. Anyone who entered would not be able to return.

The other fierce demon hesitantly stepped into the swamp with half of his foot, but he quickly withdrew and said hatefully, "The lamb that was about to bite has flown away just like that!"

The swamp of death was an indelible psychological shadow for the prisoners of the Heavenly Dao prison.

Ever since they entered, they had been shrouded by the shadow of the swamp of death.

Unless they wanted to die, no one would barge into it.

"Forget it, it's just that we are not fated." The two vicious demons stopped at the same time and immediately retreated, as if the more they stayed near the swamp of death, the more uneasy they would be.

Sensing this scene, the starry sea swordsman heaved a sigh of relief, but he did not look too relaxed.

"Leave the swamp of death as soon as possible. Right now, the tide of the river of Styx has just ebbed. The fierce corpse in that passageway should not have come out yet. If it's any later, it might be too late," he urged.

The Saint of thieves nodded and sped up along the map.

An hour later.

In the boundless swamp, a mountain range actually appeared in the horizon at the very front.

"Eh, why is there a mountain?" The Saint of thieves stopped and asked suspiciously while looking at the map.

That mountain was right in the middle of their route, but the map didn't show that there was a mountain here.

The starry sea swordsman said thoughtfully, "The map was drawn by that expert with his memory, so it's inevitable that there would be some differences."

After a pause, he said, "And since there's a mountain, it means that the soil there is hard and no longer belongs to the swamp area."

In response, the saint of thieves checked the map and said, "Yes, we'll leave the death swamp area after we pass the front."

The bearded sissy and the others were excited, and their tensed nerves finally eased up a little.

Only God knew how nervous and uneasy they had been during the past hour.

The terrifying legend of the death swamp had always shrouded them, making their muscles tense and not daring to slack off.

At this moment, their hearts relaxed. Just now, they discovered that their bodies were sore and weak, as if they had fought a fierce battle.

"Quick, leave quickly. I keep feeling that something is watching us from behind," the bearded Sissy urged.

The group immediately moved, but only Su Yu remained where he was.

"What's Wrong?" The Starry Sea Swordsman asked.

Su Yu crossed his arms in front of his chest, stroked his chin, and said thoughtfully, "Do you really think that that senior overlooked such an obvious mountain?"

Along the way, he had been paying close attention to the underground passage and found that the map routes drawn by this person were all accurate.

Everywhere he passed, he had avoided the underground passage of the fierce beasts.

How could a person who had made such a detailed map overlook that towering mountain?

Moreover, this mountain was coincidentally on the path they had to pass through.

"Then what do you mean?" The Starry Sea Swordsman asked.

Su Yu scanned his surroundings and found an area without an underground passage. "From there, go around this mountain."

Looking in the direction of his finger, the starry sea swordsman frowned deeply. "If we take a detour, we might need to spend an extra hour, and..."

Moreover, what made Su Yu feel that the route he had set was safer than the map?

The bearded sissy impatiently urged, "Hey, do you want to kill us? Do you know how much greater the risk is by taking such a long detour?"

The other people were also full of complaints.

"Senior brother Xinghai, forget about him. Let's set off. We can leave the swamp immediately. Why should we listen to his adventure?"

"Exactly. We have the map with us. Don't we believe the map and his nonsense?"

Even though the Star Ocean Swordsman was smart, he was still hesitating.

He also felt that there was something strange about that mountain, but it would be too risky to follow Su Yu.

Su Yu would not hesitate even if they were hesitating. Under his clairvoyance eye, the bottom of the mountain was dark. It must be strange.

"Little skeleton, let's go." Su Yu turned around and stabbed toward the west.

Inadvertently, Su Yu seemed to have heard the little skeleton's weak sigh. It seemed to be very disappointed that Su Yu left the team.

Su Yu was even more convinced that her choice was not wrong.

The Saint of thieves hesitated in his heart. He cast a glance at the star ocean swordsman and said uneasily, "Senior brother Star Ocean, I also feel that there's something strange about that mountain. For safety reasons, it's better to find another route."

The Star Ocean swordsman asked in return, "Are you sure that the new route can avoid danger?"

"This..."the saint of thieves looked at Su Yu's receding figure and gritted his teeth. "I'm sure! As long as I follow him, there's absolutely no mistake."

Although she had only interacted with Su Yu for a short while, she had no doubt about Su Yu's wisdom and calmness.

Since he had decisively pointed out that area, it must be absolutely safe.

"No, we have to believe in ourselves!"The bearded Sissy firmly disagreed.

The six-man team had a rather serious disagreement.

The Star Ocean swordsman pondered for a moment and said, "I'll move according to the map. Those who are willing to follow me, and those who are willing to follow Su Yu, immediately follow me."

He was confident that with his prestige and status, his people would follow him unconditionally.
