

Nine-Dragon 3061

Chapter 3061 insisting on his own opinion

However, as soon as he finished speaking, the Saint of Thieves returned the map to him and said, "I'm sorry. To be safe, I'd rather spend more effort."

Her many years of experience in grave robbing told her not to let down her guard for the sake of a little convenience.

That could very well be fatal.

"Saint of Thieves, do you trust that man so much?" Star Ocean swordsman frowned slightly. The Saint of Thieves' choice was really unexpected.

!!

The pirate saint shook his head. "I trust my instincts. Big Brother Starry Sea, listen to me this time."

The Starry Sea swordsman glanced at Su Yu in the distance, feeling a sense of resistance in his heart.

If he followed Su Yu, wouldn't he tacitly acknowledge Su Yu as his master?

The pride that came from his bones made it impossible for him to choose to follow Su Yu. He insisted, "Walk on the same path. Trust that Senior's map."

The bearded Sissy and the others immediately responded, "Senior brother Xinghai, we can't stay here for long. Let's leave quickly."

Xinghai swordsman glanced at the pirate saint and said with a cold face, "Then I wish you a safe journey!"

After saying that, he left the pirate saint and led everyone away.

The pirate Saint Sighed silently and set off to catch up with Su Yu.

"How's Cai'er?" The pirate Saint said after a long silence.

"Not bad," Su Yu replied casually. "You once said that you wanted to find someone more powerful than me and take Cai'er away. Have you found him?"

The Saint of thieves smiled bitterly. "I thought I had found him, but in the end, he's not as good as you."

HMM?

Su Yu thought for a moment and glanced at the starry sea swordsman and the others who were far away. His gaze landed on the Starry Sea Swordsman. "You're talking about him?"

On the glass platform, Su Yu had seen him fight before, but he couldn't be sure that it was the full strength of the Starry Sea Swordsman.

"Yes," the saint of Thieves said. "He may be quite strong, but he is not as good as you in terms of schemes and tricks."

The corner of Su Yu's mouth twitched. "It's hard for me to be happy with your praise."

The Saint of thieves shrugged and said, "Tell me the truth. You know very well how my senior brother got in."

Wasn't the starry sea swordsman framed by Su Yu?

Su Yu could only smile bitterly. He wanted to enter by himself, but in the end, the starry sea swordsman was locked up instead.

"However, that's because your senior brother is too proud. Otherwise, he wouldn't have fallen to this place so easily." Su Yu looked at the starry sea swordsman who was heading toward the mountain.

The pirate Saint agreed deeply. "Indeed, but he has the right to be proud. In terms of strength, he is not inferior to you. In a sense, he is even stronger than you."

She had personally witnessed Su Yu's tyrannical strength when he suppressed the two experts of the famous sword Saint Clan, and she had also witnessed the endless power of the kalpa scythe. Yet, he was still able to say such words.

The strength of the Starry Sea Swordsman was really not to be underestimated.

"Is that so?" Su Yu smiled and continued to move forward.

After the time it took to brew a cup of tea.

The Starry Sea Swordsman and the others finally arrived in front of that mountain.

It was only at a close distance that they could see that the mountain was completely bare. There were no plants or even moss. Its entire body was bright red.

The bearded sissy reached out and touched the mountain. An invisible domain radiated out from his palm and spread throughout the entire mountain. He was slightly surprised. "What a special material. I've never seen it before."

The domain was a very special auxiliary domain that could identify the material of many materials. It was quite special.

In their organization, he was a highly respected figure. Countless important figures had fought for him to be the first to identify something with exceptionally complicated ingredients.

However, the mountain in front of them, the Bearded Sissy, had not been able to identify the material.

The Starry Sea swordsman frowned and said, "Leave this mountain quickly."

Standing here, they could already see that on the other side of the mountain was a dry, hard, and vast land. That meant that they were about to step out of the dangerous swamp of death.

"Continue to remain vigilant." The Starry Sea Swordsman led the way. The closer they got to safety, the more vigilant they had to be in order to avoid accidents.

The bearded Sissy withdrew his palm and turned to follow the team. He did not notice that the place where his palm had touched slightly trembled.

A bead-like object squirmed there and disappeared in a flash.

They carefully guarded against the mountain, but they did not encounter any danger until they crossed the mountain and stood on a dry and hard land.

“Phew, we’re finally safe.”The bearded sissy let out a long sigh.

The Starry Sea Swordsman felt relaxed both physically and mentally. He glanced at Su Yu and the Saint of Thieves, who were moving further and further into the depths of the swamp, and revealed a trace of ridicule.

“Self-righteous.”The Starry Sea swordsman snorted lightly.

Yu Ren also sat down on the spot and took a deep breath to rest. “This death swamp isn’t as scary as the rumors in the Heavenly Dao prison say.”

“That’s right! They even said that the intruders wouldn’t be able to return. That’s too exaggerated.”

Star ocean swordsman said calmly, “If it’s not scary, why don’t you guys walk through it again without relying on the map?”

Everyone shut their mouths. They were able to successfully leave the swamp because of this map.

“That senior is indeed worthy of being someone who came from the swamp alive. The map he drew is truly unique in the world.”The bearded sissy sighed.

A hint of longing appeared in the Starry Sea Swordsman’s eyes. “After all, he is a super mighty figure who broke out of the second level of the Heavenly Dao prison. It is beyond our reach

“This time, if we can successfully reach the second level and find the item left behind by that senior, our cultivation might soar. We might not even be able to inherit that senior’s legacy.”

It turned out that although the important figure who escaped from the second level of the Heavenly Dao prison successfully escaped, he was injured by the Carefree Emperor Midway.

By the time he was saved by the Starry Sea Swordsman faction, he was already at the end of his rope.

Before his death, he had given them the map of the Heavenly Dao prison and instructed them to leave behind his mantle on the second level. Someone had to go over and inherit his mantle.

...

Therefore, the Starry Sea Swordsman took the initiative to volunteer and lead a group of people to charge into the Heavenly Dao prison.

Now, they had finally crossed the swamp and arrived at the end of the swamp of death.

“No Rest. Continue on your journey and try to pass through the passage before the fierce corpses appear.”The Starry Sea Swordsman’s eyes revealed excitement.

The bearded sissy grumbled unhappily and stood up with everyone.

“Why are you still sitting?” Suddenly, the Bearded Sissy caught a glimpse of the person who had sat next to him just now. He was actually still sitting there and did not understand.

However, the other party was still sitting with his back facing them and did not respond at all.

“What’s wrong with you?” The bearded Sissy kicked him, but the starry sea swordsman’s eyes flashed and he shouted, “Back off!”

The bearded Sissy’s foot that was extended into the air immediately stopped, and in its place was the starry sea swordsman decisively pulling out his sword and striking.

A sword light that was neither light nor heavy slashed toward that person’s back.

Pu —

But the result made their hair stand on end!

...

Their companion had actually been easily cut into two halves.

But there was not a single strand of flesh in his body, not even a bone left.

There was only a sharp tentacle filled with suckers that stirred and squirmed in his body, absorbing as much flesh and blood as possible..

Chapter 3062 different circumstances

This scene made them suck in a breath of cold air.

Their companion didn’t resist at all. Even the slightest scream was pierced into his body from the ground by this strange tentacle, killing him.

Soundlessly and silently, he even ate all his flesh and blood. Who Wouldn’t feel a chill down their spine?

Amidst the shock, the starry sea swordsman reacted the fastest. Without saying anything, he drew his sword and slashed. The dao artifact in his hand was of the seventh grade, indestructible, and extremely sharp.

However, when the sword slashed at the tentacle, it was like a kitchen knife cutting into steel.

!!

Not only did it not cut the tentacle, but it was bounced back. The shock made the Starry Sea Swordsman’s hand numb, and blood flowed out.

There was a clear cut on his sword.

Looking at the Tentacle again, there was not even a trace of a wound where it had been cut. It was all white and shallow.

“This...”the starry sea swordsman was shocked. He was a great sage level expert. He had used a dao weapon to attack, but he had not been able to harm this seemingly soft tentacle at all?

What exactly was this thing?

However, they did not have the time to investigate. The tentacle that had been attacked suddenly faced them.

In the depths of the earth, a sharp hissing sound could be faintly heard. The tentacle suddenly retracted into the ground.

Buzz Buzz Buzz —

The earth trembled faintly. The Starry Sea swordsman immediately felt that something was wrong. He said, “Hurry up and leave. This is not a place to stay for long.”

Without needing him to say anything, the remaining three did not dare to stay any longer. They immediately ran forward.

The bearded Sissy was at the back. As he looked at his three companions who were getting further and further away from him, he could not help but shout in fear, “Wait for me! Wait for me!”

Rumble —

At this moment, the Bearded Sissy felt a tremor under his feet as if something was rapidly passing under his feet.

This time, he was so scared that he started crying. “All of you don’t want me anymore. I don’t want to Die!”

Boom —

A huge tentacle that was a hundred feet thick rushed out in front of him without any warning.

Ah!

With a scream, a comrade who was running in front of him was pierced through by the sharp tentacle. The countless suckers on the tentacle quickly sucked the comrade’s bones away, leaving only a layer of skin behind.

The full-bearded Sissy looked up at the huge tentacle. His legs kept trembling. With a scream, he circled around the tentacle and fled for his life.

Bang

As soon as he walked away, a huge tentacle pierced out from the depths of the Earth where he had stood. It almost pierced through his chest and killed him.

“Ah! ! Help!”The bearded sissy cried and shouted.

However, the more he cried, the more tentacles chased after him. One after another, he was almost killed every time.

Star Ocean swordsman ran in the front. He turned around and said fiercely, “Shut your stinky mouth!”

He realized that it was the sound that attracted the tentacles’ attacks. The greater the commotion, the easier it was to attract the tentacles’ attention.

As soon as he finished speaking, his feet shook. Star Ocean Swordsman’s expression changed slightly, and he immediately dodged.

As expected, a tentacle shot up from under his feet and almost pierced through him.

The bearded sissy immediately covered his mouth and stopped abruptly.

Sure enough!

The tentacles that attacked him immediately stopped and groped on the ground.

Sure enough, they could only identify the source of their prey by sound.

Seeing this, the starry sea swordsman and the other two surviving companions all stopped running.

All the tentacles stopped and could not find their target.

This made them all breathe a sigh of relief.

These tentacles were too terrifying. They were invulnerable, and they even devoured people in an instant.

The Starry Sea Swordsman sent a soul transmission. “All of you, be quiet. We’ll talk again after all the tentacles have left.”

The bearded Sissy’s eyes were filled with tears. She nodded her head in grievance and fear, and the other two didn’t dare to move at will.

Just like that, the tentacles searched for a while and all retreated back to the ground.

The bearded Sissy’s legs went weak, but he wiped the cold sweat off his forehead with a sigh of relief. He looked at the Starry Sea Swordsman and his two companions in front of him and revealed a smug smile.

It meant that they had successfully deceived the tentacles.

However, the bearded sissy discovered that the starry sea swordsman and his two companions were looking up at the Bearded Sissy’s back with terrified and horrified eyes.

His heart skipped a beat, and when he turned around to take a look, he was so scared that his mind went blank.

The bald, blood-red mountain behind them was actually growing taller at this moment.

The soil around the blood-red mountain was arched up one after another, and tentacles continuously extended out along the edge of the blood-red mountain.

There were hundreds of them!

Creak —

Suddenly, at the bottom of the blood-red mountain that was growing taller, a black thing actually grew out along with the mountain.

When its full appearance was revealed, the Starry Sea Swordsman and the others sucked in a breath of cold air.

It wasn't anything else, but an incomparably huge black eye.

That Eye was filled with indifference and contempt as it stared straight at the Starry Sea Swordsman and the others.

...

Rumble —

The Blood Mountain had completely left the ground, and its true appearance appeared in front of everyone.

That, how was that a mountain?

It was clearly an extremely large octopus!

Previously, only the upper half of its body was exposed outside the swamp, causing people to think that it was a mountain. In reality, it was just the tip of the iceberg.

And the tentacles that attacked them were the tentacles of the giant octopus!

It had thousands of similar tentacles.

“Ah!”The bearded Sissy couldn't help but be terrified. She screamed and turned around to escape.

However, before her feet landed on the ground, her body was pierced and torn into pieces by the ten tentacles that were rolling toward her.

The intense bloody smell made the tentacles even crazier. They licked the bloody mist in the air one after another.

This scene shocked the star Ocean Swordsman. He turned around and fled. He did not even care about his two companions.

...

He was filled with regret. Why was he so careless.

He clearly also felt that there was something wrong with Xue Shan, so why did he insist on taking this path? If he had followed Su Yu, perhaps he wouldn't have done so.

Ah —

He had just escaped when he heard his companions'screams.

Without a doubt, they were also dead.

He turned around and saw tentacles that covered the sky and earth pressing down on his head like blood-colored dark clouds.

The Starry Sea Swordsman's face turned pale. In his despair, he was covered by countless tentacles..

On the other side.

"Eh, I picked up another Dao artifact. It's slightly damaged and can be fully used after being repaired."The pirate saint joyfully pulled out a rusty ancient saber from the swamp.

The quality of the saber was extremely high, and it still emitted power to this day.

Su Yu was also playing with a string of Buddha beads in his palm in astonishment. The Buddha beads contained majestic Buddha Energy, which was countless times more profound than the Buddha energy of the Nirvana Lord.

The most precious thing was that there was a faint trace of remnant energy flowing inside.

"Could it be that it's a Buddhist Dao ancestral art?"Su Yu said in surprise.

The little skeleton on his shoulder crossed his arms in front of his chest and looked at the Holy Buddha light of the Buddha beads in disgust. "No Doubt, this is a string of Buddha beads that Buddha used."

"Its previous owner was a Buddhist prisoner imprisoned here. Twenty years ago, when the Heavenly Dao prison was in chaos, he took the opportunity to escape. I thought he had left the Heavenly Dao prison alive, but I didn't expect that he was buried in this swamp of death."The little skeleton sighed endlessly.

Chapter 3063 the nine-colored seal

Back then, the Heavenly Dao prison was in chaos. Many prisoners took the opportunity to escape, causing the emperor to personally descend and quell the chaos.

Some of the prisoners, perhaps due to some reasons, failed to escape in time and ended up dying in a dangerous area.

For example, the Buddhist almighty in front of him.

"What exactly happened in the Heavenly Dao prison back then?"Su Yu asked in confusion.

!!

What kind of unforeseen event could cause so many prisoners to escape from the Heavenly Dao Prison? It was truly unbelievable!

The little skeleton was silent, as if he was hesitating whether he should tell Su Yu.

"Speak!"Su Yu reprimanded softly.

The little skeleton could only say helplessly, "I didn't want to tell you at first, but since you insist on asking, then I'll let you know."

He wiped the white bones in front of his chest with his palm. The seemingly normal white bones actually had a chrysanthemum-shaped crack.

“This is...” Su Yu’s expression became much more solemn.

The little skeleton was a great sage level expert. His body’s recovery ability was close to reviving from the dead. As long as he did not die, any injury could be healed in a short period of time.

However, the current situation meant that his injuries had existed for at least twenty years.

The little skeleton’s expression was filled with a hint of fear. “It’s not just me. Almost all the living beings who survived on the first level of the Heavenly Dao prison have a similar scar on their bodies.”

All of them?

What exactly happened back then?

“Twenty years ago, a prisoner from the third level ran up,” the little skeleton said solemnly.

What! !

Su Yu’s heart shook violently!

“I don’t know where that prisoner came from. Once he appeared in the first level of the Heavenly Dao prison, he brought with him a powerful pressure. The power that he emitted not only shattered the seal outside the Heavenly Dao prison, but also hurt every living being on the first level of the Heavenly Dao prison,” the little skeleton said with a pained expression.

Su Yu’s expression was solemn. If he didn’t hear wrongly, the little skeleton meant that all the experts in the Heavenly Dao prison were injured and were merely affected.

The other party had no intention of harming them.

In other words, it was easy for the other party to slaughter everyone in the first level!

“Then, who is he?” Su Yu asked in a serious tone. Could it be that he was also one of Ren Zu’s former disciples?

The little skeleton said in a deep voice, “I don’t know. Before I was imprisoned here, there shouldn’t have been such a person.”

He had been imprisoned here for several eras, which was enough to prove that this person was born in the later eras.

“However, there was a prisoner who called him Chrysanthemum Immortal.” The little skeleton looked at the Chrysanthemum on his chest. He did not know if the name Chrysanthemum immortal was his real name or if it was randomly given by an outsider because of his injuries.

After a pause, the little skeleton looked at Su Yu and said, “Do you still want to go to the third level?”

The Little Skeleton Grand Sage's body had been injured unintentionally by the third level prisoners for twenty years and had yet to recover, let alone Su Yu.

“Go!” Su Yu did not hesitate.

He wanted to meet the disciples of Ren Zu. It would be best if he could save them all.

Now that the son of Heaven of the Sacred Mountain was suppressing the world, no one could resist the other forces. Meanwhile, the son of Heaven of the sacred mountain didn't care about the life and death of many civilizations. He absorbed the power of the civilizations just to maintain his eternal life.

If this continued, the only nine-star civilization they had left would be destroyed.

At that time, the absolute beginning realm was left to the endless creatures. It had no chance of survival. It was just like the ruins of the countless abandoned civilizations outside the nine-star civilization.

There must be people who shared the same goal to fight against the son of Heaven of the sacred mountain.

The little skeleton said helplessly, “Alright, as you wish. But Don't blame me if anything happens.”

Su Yu took a deep breath and treasured the Buddhist beads that the Buddha had used.

Now that he had the buddha-dao ancestral technique and the ghost-dao ancestral technique, they should be of great help to Sheng Ge!

“There's another one!” The Thieving Sage had just put away a broken sword when he picked up another dao item with scissors. His face was full of joy.

This was not like stepping into the so-called most dangerous swamp of death. She was clearly here to pick up things.

Just like that, the two of them picked up things as they walked. They could indeed find some rare items in the outside world.

When they arrived at a dry land, the saint of thieves looked up and saw that there was a lush forest in front of them. She could not help but be overjoyed. “Looks like we've successfully left the swamp of death.”

However, Su Yu used her powerful soul power to sweep over and frowned slightly.

Not only did she not continue to move forward, she kept retreating and said, “That forest is a little strange. It's better to take a detour.”

The Saint of thieves was stunned. They had already left the swamp of death, why would they still take a detour?

However, when she looked at that forest again, her pupils constricted. The forest that was swaying just now had actually disappeared into thin air, leaving behind only a muddy swamp with ripples.

She immediately felt a chill and immediately retreated with Su Yu.

As expected!

Not long after they left, a sharp green forest surged out from the ground near the swamp where they were standing. A terrifying existence with a ferocious and huge head that was not inferior to an octopus floated out of the swamp.

It turned out that it was not some continent, but a ferocious beast with an incomparably huge body and green spikes all over its body.

It looked around fiercely and found that Su Yu and the others were nowhere to be seen. Then, it retreated to the ground unwillingly.

Far away.

The saint of thieves was panting, and her heart was fluctuating.

What she was feeling was not the sudden danger, but the fact that Su Yu was able to predict the danger ahead of time.

How did he do it?

...

However, since Su Yu's judgment was correct, then... the mountain that senior brother Xing Hai and the others passed by was probably very dangerous.

Their current situation was probably quite bad.

In fact, their situation was not only bad, but they were completely wiped out.

"Let's continue walking. It seems that we still have a long way to go." If they circled around again, it would take a lot of time.

This time, the saint of thieves did not have any doubts. He followed Su Yu through the swamp and picked up the treasures along the way.

Half a day passed.

The estimated journey of an hour was ten times longer before they finally passed.

During this time, they also encountered a floating Red River of blood. Su Yu noticed it in time and avoided it in advance.

At this moment, they were in the sky above a fertile forest. At the end of the forest, a nine-colored pillar of light shot up into the sky. It was extremely eye-catching.

The little skeleton said slowly, "That is the entrance to the second level of the Heavenly Dao Prison."

"However, you have to be careful. It has been a while since the river of Styx retreated. The ferocious corpse guarding the entrance might have already returned to the entrance," it warned solemnly.

...

Su Yu's expression was also filled with vigilance. He and the Saint of Thieves quietly came to the vicinity of the pillar of light.

It turned out that the so-called light pillar was emitted by a nine-colored seal. The seal completely sealed the entrance and exit, preventing anyone from easily entering.

“Its power isn’t strong, and it’s not as strong as the seal outside the Heavenly Dao prison.” The thieving sage observed for a moment and said, “That old senior once told us the method to break this seal.”

She took out a gourd that was filled with special sand.

“This is yin-yang sand. It’s specially used to break this seal. That old senior helped us refine it,” the saint of Thieves said.

Su Yu was a little surprised. Wasn’t that prisoner who escaped too enthusiastic?

However, he didn’t doubt it too much. What if the old senior had other dealings with the saint of thieves and so on and so wholeheartedly helped them?

Chapter 3064 volunteered

The Saint of thieves shook the yin-yang sand in his hand, feeling a little emotional and lonely.

“Seven or eight of us came to look for that senior’s mantle, but in the end, I was the only one left.”

A trace of sadness lingered in his heart.

Su Yu said expressionlessly, “Life is fickle, my condolences.”

The Saint of thieves forced himself to pull himself together. Deep in his eyes, there was the vicissitudes of time. “Yes, I understand.”

!!

She had been engaged in grave robbing all year round and had experienced countless life and death experiences, so she had long become indifferent to it.

“If I get that senior’s mantle, I’ll give you half,” the saint of Thieves said with a smile.

Su Yu smiled faintly. “Let’s talk about it after you get it.”

The mantle had yet to be obtained, so there was no need to talk about how to distribute it.

His gaze locked onto the area near the seal. He lowered his voice and asked, “What is the fierce corpse that you’re talking about?”

He used his soul secret technique to carefully investigate, but he did not find any danger nearby.

“According to what that old senior said, it is an extremely powerful descendant of the Rockman. When he was alive, he was very likely a ten thousand saints level expert. After he died, he was refined into a puppet and was specially guarding this entrance.”

Ten Thousand Saints level?

Su Yu slightly inhaled. Currently, he had only seen one expert of that level alive. The ancestor of the Soul Saint clan was waiting for him outside!

He had already seen how powerful he was.

“If we meet him, no one will be able to escape,” the saint of Thieves said, his voice became much more serious. “With the methods of the Saint Mountain, a corpse that has been tempered will not be much weaker than when it was alive. No matter how weak it is, it should be at the level of a ferocious demon.”

Su Yu became even more serious when she heard that. The Saint of thieves searched carefully for a long time and said, “It seems that our luck is not bad. Although the river of Styx has retreated for a while, that ferocious corpse has not returned yet.”

As she spoke, she exerted force on her waist and tried to stand up.

Su Yu reached out and pressed down on the corpse. Then, she made a silent gesture and grabbed a stone. Then, she used her spatial domain to teleport it to the nine-colored seal.

Bang —

Unexpectedly, as soon as the stone appeared, the air in front of the seal shook and an invisible stone golem that was thirty feet tall suddenly appeared. It grabbed the stone with one palm and crushed it into pieces.

The pale eye scanned the surroundings with a menacing aura.

The thieving sage was secretly shocked. “It can also turn invisible? That senior didn’t tell us.”

Su Yu was even more surprised. His Eye of the soul had gone through the comprehension of the domain and the cultivation of the ancestral technique. It was already unprecedentedly powerful.

Logically speaking, one could see through the illusions of the world. However, they didn’t discover the location of the fierce corpse just now. This was truly inconceivable.

“It seems that we are too late,” the saint of thieves transmitted his voice.

With their strength, it was impossible for them to defeat the ferocious corpse.

Everything that they had done this time had been for naught.

Su Yu also frowned. The ferocious corpse’s duty was to protect the passage. It was very unrealistic to lure it away by luring it away.

If they fought head-on, there was even less chance of winning.

What was especially alarming was that the ferocious corpse could turn invisible. It was really dangerous.

“Master, do you need my help?” The little skeleton suddenly opened his mouth. He crossed his arms in front of his chest and raised his neck.

Su Yu glared at him. “Speak quickly!”

The little skeleton said proudly, “What about me? I’m the Grand Sage of the ghost clan. What am I Best At?”

The Grand Sage of thieves blinked and his eyes suddenly lit up. “Oh right, isn’t the ghost clan best at controlling corpses?”

“This fierce corpse, perhaps only it can restrain it.”

The little skeleton chuckled and cupped his fists. “You flatter me! I’m not talented, and I’m proficient in a little corpse controlling technique. If you trust me, I’ll reluctantly go up and communicate with that fierce corpse...”

Just as he was showing off, Su Yu grabbed him and used his spatial domain to teleport the little skeleton directly.

“Ah! Wait, wait, I’m not ready yet...”

However, the spatial domain had already been activated and teleported the little skeleton to the front of the seal.

It shrunk its neck and cursed, “I told you, I’m not ready yet.”

The moment it appeared, the air in front of the seal became blurry again. Sharp thorns covered its body and a rotten corpse appeared.

The palm covered in sharp thorns pressed down on the little skeleton.

With the little skeleton’s current physique, it was possible that it would be smashed into pieces.

“Stop!” In the midst of the crisis, the little skeleton suddenly shouted loudly. Complicated Ghost clan characters appeared in his eyes.

His hands formed a seal, and a remnant mark danced in front of him.

It was strange that the fierce corpse actually stopped. Its eyes were filled with a struggle.

The little skeleton let out a sigh of relief and proudly threw a glare at Su Yu. Did It mean that it had seen it?

Su Yu was expressionless as she said to the thieving sage, “Prepare to break through the seal.”

The thieving sage gripped the gourd tightly, his heart surging with excitement.

However, just as she was about to move, Su Yu still held her down and said with a smile that was not a smile, “Don’t be anxious.”

The thieving sage was anxious. Now that the ferocious corpse had been frozen, it was the best time to break through the seal.

In the next moment, the saint of Thieves’ pupils constricted. The frozen corpse suddenly slapped down.

Although its strength was much weaker than before, with its powerful physique, the power of this palm was definitely not much weaker.

...

The little skeleton, who was feeling proud, was sent flying by the slap and crashed into the seal.

Chi La —

The seal had the power to injure the enemy. A bolt of lightning that was thirty feet thick rushed out with a rumble, hitting the little skeleton and causing it to scream repeatedly. Its entire body was black and emitting smoke.

Roar —

At the same time, the fierce corpse lost the influence of the little skeleton and rushed over again with a furious roar.

The little skeleton was scared to tears and rushed towards Su Yu. It cried and howled, “Sob sob sob, I’m not doing it anymore. Quickly take me away! I Can’t control this fierce thing!”

Su Yu extended his arms with great love and said with heartache, “Quick, come back!”

The little skeleton jumped over and rushed into Su Yu’s arms. He said, “Master, you’re too kind...”

In the next moment, the little skeleton felt that something was wrong. When he looked closely, he did not see Su Yu in his arms. It was clearly a big rock that had lost here.

When he looked at the saint of thieves beside the rock, his figure also began to scatter.

Bang Bang —

...

A violent explosion came from the seal. When he turned his head, he saw that it was Su Yu and the saint of stealing pouring the yin-yang sand onto the seal.

The yin-yang sand had a very strong restraining effect on the seal. It immediately melted the seal and created a crack.

Roar —

When the ferocious corpse sensed the abnormality, it immediately turned around and pounced back.

However, all of a sudden, the surroundings near the ferocious corpse became hazy, and the scenery suddenly changed.

It turned out that Su Yu had set up an illusion array here. The illusion array that he had used the soul ancestor technique to construct was not comparable to the one used by the saint of Thieves.

Even with the ferocious corpse’s strength, it was temporarily trapped here.

It turned around on the spot, and when it found that the little skeleton was trapped in the same place as it, it immediately pounced on it in a frenzy.

The little skeleton was so scared that it cried out, “Ah! Master, you’re not human, you even lied to your servant...”

“AH...”

While screaming, Su Yu was speeding up to break the seal. When he heard the sound, he turned his head to look and saw the scene of the fierce corpse pressing the little skeleton to the ground and whipping it wildly.

Chapter 3065 100 coffins

Su Yu muttered indifferently, "If you want to show off, then I'll Grant You Your Wish."

This little skeleton had too many thoughts and was too deep.

Su Yu had yet to see through its inner thoughts. He had secretly used a soul secret technique to probe its inner thoughts, but this little skeleton was very mysterious.

When he used a soul secret technique to probe it, there was actually nothing.

!!

He really wanted to see if this little skeleton still had any hidden abilities at this critical moment.

As expected!

The fierce corpse slapped down three times in a row. The little skeleton's skeleton was shaken by the slaps and was about to fall apart.

In the end, its claws that were full of sharp thorns tore at it ruthlessly.

The little skeleton's skeleton that had already fallen apart was enough to be torn apart.

Faced with a huge crisis, the little skeleton clenched its teeth tightly. "WAAA! If the tiger doesn't show its might, do you think I'm a sick cat?"

Suddenly, a golden liquid gushed out from the little skeleton's heart and covered its entire body.

Pah —

The ferocious corpse scratched its body but failed to penetrate the golden liquid.

However, before the little skeleton could be proud of itself, the ferocious corpse paused for a moment and turned its gaze. It pressed the little skeleton to the ground again and slapped down with its big claws.

Bang —

The sharp spike in its palm still did not penetrate the little skeleton's body. However, the incomparably powerful force penetrated the golden liquid and firmly applied on the little skeleton's skeleton.

"AO ~"the little skeleton cried out in a sour and happy manner, "Alright, I'm a sick cat. Please let me off. I was wrong!"

Bang Bang Bang —

The fierce corpse roared and continuously slapped the little skeleton, causing the latter to cry out in pain.

On the other side, under the effects of the yin-yang sand, the seal continued to dissolve.

One Breath, two breaths, three breaths..

Finally, at the tenth breath, the nine-colored seal was completely broken!

Su Yu and the thieving sage immediately jumped in without saying a word.

However, at this moment, under the ferocious corpse's tyrannical pressure, the illusory formation finally revealed a flaw and was discovered by the ferocious corpse.

It sensed that the nine-colored seal was broken and roared towards the sky. It destroyed the seal with one palm and chased after it.

The little skeleton crawled up in a miserable state. It clenched its fists tightly in the mud and said, "Master, just you wait!"

As it spoke, it rushed into the passage at a speed faster than the fierce corpse.

The passage at the entrance was not long. It passed through in a few breaths.

However, just as it was about to leave the entrance and reach the second level of the Heavenly Dao prison, Su Yu left a god behind. He did not enter rashly. Instead, he scattered eight great domains.

As a result, as soon as the domains landed, they vanished into thin air.

He fixed his gaze and realized that the entire second level of the Heavenly Dao prison was submerged in the river of Styx.

Su Yu's feet were less than a foot away from the surface of the river of Styx.

He was just a little bit away from dying in the river of Styx.

The Saint of thieves was shocked. He quickly stopped his body and patted his chest. "So the river of Styx comes from the second level of the Heavenly Dao Prison."

Ah —

A long scream was heard. The little skeleton cried out, "Master, quickly catch me..."

Su Yu looked up and immediately... moved away!

Splash —

The little skeleton immediately fell into the water of the netherworld, creating a splash. One of the drops of water of the netherworld splashed onto Su Yu's shoes and immediately rotted them.

As for the little skeleton, it should have dissolved already, right?

However, what Su Yu did not expect was that the water of the Netherworld produced a series of blisters, and the little skeleton actually floated up unscathed.

It lay on the water of the Netherworld and stretched its lazy waist comfortably. "Ah! So comfortable!"

Whether it was Su Yu or the saint of thieves, their pupils constricted violently.

They had already experienced the danger of the netherworld. Even the eight-handed woman with a mysterious background did not dare to touch it, but the little skeleton was actually able to swim in the water of the Netherworld?

How powerful was its body?

Su Yu narrowed his eyes and slowly said, "Aren't you afraid of the Netherworld Water?"

Putting aside how he escaped from the hands of the fierce corpse, where did the ability to not be afraid of the Netherworld water come from?

The little skeleton blinked the hole and said with a confused look, “What, I didn’t tell you?”

Su Yu said, “Then why did you show fear towards the arrival of the Netherworld Water?”

When the water of the Netherworld rolled over, the little skeleton looked flustered.

“Oh? Really? Why don’t I Remember?”The little skeleton pretended to be dumb.

For some reason, looking at the little skeleton, Su Yu felt a slight chill in his heart.

He had some doubts. was the person he saved really just a great sage level prisoner?

Roar —

...

At this moment, the ferocious corpse jumped down from above the tunnel!

Su Yu and the Grand Theft Sage’s expressions changed drastically. The Netherworld water was right below them, and there was no escape.

The ferocious corpse did not even need to expend much effort to step into the Netherworld water and easily kill them.

If they had known that the second layer of the Heavenly Dao prison was still submerged, they would have rather not come in!

At the critical moment, Su Yu grabbed at the air and used his spatial domain to capture the little skeleton.

“Hey, Hey, Hey, what are you doing?”The little skeleton struggled.

Su Yu said calmly, “I’ll let you guys catch up!”

“Ah! You tricked me again, don’t...”the little skeleton’s protest stopped when he activated his spatial domain.

Then, he let out a mournful roar.

However, the roar was not from the little skeleton, but from the fierce corpse. The Netherworld water on the little skeleton splashed onto the fierce corpse, naturally causing intense damage.

The little skeleton fell down again and soaked in the water of the netherworld.

...

Su Yu did the same thing and sent the little skeleton out again, hurting the fierce corpse again and again along the passage.

Finally, after seven or eight consecutive times, the fierce corpse was finally scared. It left the entrance and didn’t dare to stay inside anymore.

The water of the Netherworld under its feet also rapidly receded.

Not long after, it completely receded, revealing the full appearance of the second layer of Heavenly Dao prison.

What was unbelievable was that the legendary second layer of the Heavenly Dao prison was extremely small, only a radius of 100 li.

Every Li had an ancient stone platform with coffins placed on it.

And every coffin was wrapped in dense chains.

Some of the coffins could even hear the loud noises coming from within.

Su Yu scanned the coffins with his soul eye, but he was unable to see through them completely. There was some special power on the coffins that blocked his vision.

He could only vaguely see that there was someone inside.

The Saint of Thieves took out a second map and compared it. He was overjoyed. "This is great. This is the place."

The picture on the map was exactly the same as the one in front of him.

On the map, the other coffins were all sealed, but the only coffin was open.

Su Yu looked up and found that the coffin was not open like the map. It was closed at some point, but the chains on it were broken and no longer bound.

"It's that one!" The Saint of thieves rushed over and stood in front of the coffin.

However, she was cautious as a grave robber, so she did not go forward easily and did not touch the coffin to avoid unpredictable danger.

After circling around the coffin, the saint of thieves suddenly stopped at the end of the coffin and said in surprise, "There is a line of words here!"

Chapter 3066 accidental fall

She did not read it. In her many years of grave robbing experience, she had seen too many words that were similar to spells.

It would be fine if she did not read it out, but if she accidentally read it out, it was very likely to trigger some kind of dangerous mechanism.

Su Yu was not interested in the so-called inheritance, but he still walked over to take a look.

To his surprise, it was actually written in an exceptionally ancient heavenly script script.

!!

The Saint of thieves did not recognize it for a moment. He took out a handwritten book. It was a document that he had studied for many years. There were many rare characters recorded in it.

He compared each word with the other, hoping that he could translate it.

"There's no need to look for it. What's written on it is..." Su Yu's words were on the tip of his tongue, but in the end, he transmitted them to the saint of thieves through soul transmission. "Those who open it without permission will die."

Su Yu's expression had unknowingly become extremely grave.

He had actually left a warning in the heavenly script?

Moreover, there was no similar warning behind the other coffins. Only this coffin had it.

If one took a closer look, one could still see that there was a trace of a scratch on the handwriting. It was as if someone wanted to scratch it off, but there was no time. They could only leave in a hurry.

The Saint of Thieves took a few steps back and frowned. Her expression was also filled with vigilance.

After pondering for a moment, she said with unusual decisiveness, "I don't want this inheritance anymore!"

Her years of experience in grave robbing told her to not be greedy when encountering possible dangers. Otherwise, it would be easy to lose the danger because of a small loss.

Su Yu was surprised. "Are you sure?"

She had finally arrived at this place after much difficulty. How many lives had she risked during that time? Now, she was actually able to suppress the desire in her heart and decisively give up just like that?

He realized that he had somewhat underestimated Su Cai'er's master.

"Of course!" The Saint of Thieves took a deep breath and nodded deeply.

"Although it's a pity, this coffin is indeed a little strange."

On the map, the coffin was opened.

Now, not only was it covered, there was also a strange warning at the end.

There must be something fishy about it. It was better for her to be more cautious in order to avoid any mishaps.

"Then where are you going?" Su Yu asked back.

The Saint of Thieves Thought for a moment and said, "Let's go back the way we came."

It was not easy to break into the passage, but it should not be difficult to escape. Moreover, when she came, she had memorized all the routes that she had passed by the death swamp. She should be able to return safely.

This trip could be considered to be a fruitless one. She had even taken many risks for nothing.

"Sigh! Thank you for taking care of US along the way." The Saint of thieves cupped his fists and said, "If you want to head to the third level of the Heavenly Dao prison, we can only bid you farewell here."

Su Yu nodded. "Okay, Goodbye."

She had never expected that the saint of thieves and the others would end up in failure.

However, just as the saint of thieves was about to leave, a strong wind blew in the passage. A hasty figure fell out from it.

After he landed, he immediately drew his sword and looked around. His reaction was very fast.

When he saw Su Yu and the pirate saint, he immediately looked over and was shocked. “You guys arrived First!”

Su Yu and the pirate saint were equally surprised. The latter was even more shocked. “Senior brother Xinghai!”

This person was indeed the Xinghai Swordsman.

The moment the giant octopus pounced, he used his ultimate escape method to narrowly escape and stagger to this place.

When he discovered that the nine-colored seal was already broken, he knew that the saint of thieves had already arrived.

The Starry Sea Swordsman didn’t have the time to ask them. He immediately took out a map to compare and quickly arrived in front of the coffin.

Looking at the unopened coffin, the starry sea swordsman’s breathing quickened, and his eyes burned with passion.

He mistakenly thought that the saint of thieves and the others had just arrived and hadn’t had the time to open it yet, so they immediately took action first.

He held the sword and stabbed into the thin crack in the coffin, about to open the coffin lid.

Seeing this, the saint of thieves hurriedly stopped him. “Senior brother, don’t! Look at the words at the end of the coffin!”

Eh?

The Starry Sea Swordsman had suffered a loss from the octopus and became much more cautious. Hearing this, he immediately glanced at the end of the coffin.

What was rare was that he actually knew these heavenly script characters. His expression changed. “Those who open the coffin without permission will die?”

After hesitating for a while, he suddenly put away the long sword in his hand and hesitated again and again.

The pirate saint let out a sigh of relief and revealed a gratified and comfortable expression. “Senior brother Xinghai, that’s great. I thought you were already...”

Xinghai swordsman’s gaze did not leave the coffin. He answered absent-mindedly, “Yes, I was lucky and was still alive.”

“What about them?”The pirate saint asked again.

Since the Star Ocean Swordsman was still alive, there should be a chance for the others to survive.

“They...”the star ocean swordsman was about to respond when his eyes suddenly flashed. “They’re behind us. Look!”

The pirate saint wasn’t on guard against him. He turned his head to look, but at this moment, an ice-cold sharp blade was placed on his neck.

By the time the pirate Saint reacted, it was already too late.

A blue stream of air emerged from the sword and pierced into the saint of Thieves’neck, paralyzing his limbs and making him lose the ability to resist.

The Star Ocean Swordsman took a step forward and held him in front of him, staring at Su Yu with hostility.

The Saint of thieves was caught off guard and asked, “Senior brother, what are you doing?”

...

She had never expected that her most respected senior brother, star ocean, would actually attack him!

“What are you doing?”Starry sea swordsman said coldly, “The two of you conspired together to set me and my brothers up. Now, you’re asking why?”

Set Up?

Pirate saint laughed in anger. “How did I set you up?”

“Stop pretending. You’ve known each other for a long time, haven’t you?”Starry Sea swordsman shouted and asked, “You recognized his space domain before the tsunami of the netherworld. It shows that you’ve known each other for a long time.”

The thieving saint was annoyed. “Then do you know that our previous relationship wasn’t very friendly?”

“Is that so? “If it wasn’t friendly, why would you follow him so resolutely?”The Starry Sea Sword Saint snorted. “The most outrageous thing was that you joined hands to provoke me and let me lead my brothers to the dangerous area. In the end, except for me, the rest were all killed.”

Goad Him?

The Pirate Sage was so angry that his entire body trembled. “Senior Brother Starry Sea, don’t let others look down on you too much. You were clearly the one who was headstrong and opinionated. I repeatedly asked you to believe in young master Su, but you insisted on going to that mountain. Now, you’re blaming me for setting you up?”

It was simply baffling!

The starry sea swordmaster chuckled coldly. “I’m a headstrong and opinionated person. Don’t you understand this? Even though you knew this, you still advised me to follow someone else. You were clearly provoking me to continue choosing that mountain.”

...

“Junior sister, I have to say, you are very scheming!”

HMM?

Su Yu’s eyes turned slightly. He suddenly believed that the saint of thieves had done this on purpose.

He glanced at the coffin that had been closed again, as well as the strange words that had appeared at the end of the coffin, and his eyes revealed a deep expression.

“Senior brother, what did you say? I don’t understand.”The Saint of Thieves’eyes had unknowingly turned cold, and his eyes flickered with a strange, deep light.

The Starry Sea Swordsman tightened his grip on his sword, and the blade slowly approached his neck, leaving a long bloody scar on his neck.

“Junior sister, a wise man doesn’t beat around the bush. I’ve always known that you’re very scheming!”The starry sea swordsman said coldly, “I can guarantee that the words on this coffin must have been written by you yourself. The purpose is to scare away your used companion so that you can monopolize the coffin, right?”

Chapter 3067 the Blue Heart Demon Armor

“Nonsense!”The pirate saint said angrily, “How would I know that I would be able to reach such a dangerous place as the swamp of Death?”

The Sword in the Star Ocean Swordsman’s hand was getting closer and closer, and it was already slowly cutting into his neck. He said, “You know very well whether you are scheming or not! Now, open the coffin immediately!”

He absolutely did not believe that the heavenly book characters on the coffin lid were left behind by a former expert. It was most likely done by the saint of Thieves.

The Saint of Thieves said in a serious voice, “Senior brother Starry Sea, I don’t want the coffin. Can I give it to you? If you want to open it, open it yourself!”

!!

She did not want to touch the coffin at all.

“Who knows what you’ve done to the coffin. Of course, it’s most suitable for you to open it,”the starry sea swordsman said. Then, he looked at Su Yu. “Sir, this is our heavenly path’s own matter. Please don’t interfere.”

This matter had nothing to do with Su Yu. It didn’t matter which one of them got the inheritance.

“You guys settle it yourselves.”Su Yu turned around coldly and left. In a few flashes, he disappeared in the dark second layer of the Heavenly Dao prison.

The Starry Sea swordsman sensed carefully. After confirming that Su Yu had left, he pressed the pirate saint to the coffin.

“Quick, open it!”The Starry Sea Swordsman threatened.

With no other choice, the pirate saint could only approach the coffin. He said worriedly, “Senior brother, if there’s danger inside, Don’t blame me for not warning you.”

“Of course!”The Star Ocean swordsman sneered.

The pirate saint took a deep breath, took out a long spear that was specially used to pry open the coffin, and fiercely inserted it into the narrow gap of the coffin.

“Quick!”Seeing her stop, the star ocean swordsman shouted.

His eyes were completely filled with excitement and fervor!

The pirate saint could only clench his teeth, exert strength with his palm, and forcefully pry open the coffin.

Immediately, a cluster of flickering net-like light appeared on the coffin lid, binding the coffin lid and the coffin together.

The coffin lid was only opened by a crack before it was closed again.

However, the moment it was opened, a cluster of blue air current gushed out from the coffin and touched the air, condensing into blue crystals.

The impurities in the air were crystallized by the Blue Air!

Seeing this, the saint of thieves immediately retreated. However, the star ocean swordsman forced her and shouted, “Don’t stop, Continue!”

At the same time, he took out a golden mouse and threw it on the coffin cover. The mutated sharp teeth of the golden mouse gnawed at the net-shaped restriction on the spot.

Bang! Bang! Bang

This mouse was specialized in restraining similar restrictions and easily broke the restriction.

The Saint of thieves gritted his teeth and took out a layer of fluorescent light before him, condensing into a layer of liquid armor.

The blue air current rushed at him and was all absorbed by the liquid armor. However, the armor also instantly became crystalline and could no longer be used.

Seeing this, the saint of thieves felt extremely pained. She had stolen it from an extremely difficult ancient tomb and had always used it as her personal armor, but now, it was all destroyed.

“Open!”The Starry Sea Swordsman urged.

The pirate saint could only clench his teeth, mobilize all the strength in his body, and suddenly pry it open.

Creak —

The coffin lid was instantly pry open and fell into the distance with a clang.

And within the coffin, a large amount of blue air currents that had accumulated for a long time unquestionably gushed out and swept out.

The amount of air currents was ten times larger than before.

The pirate saint hurriedly said, "Quickly retreat!"

The star ocean swordsman retreated decisively. Before he retreated, a vicious light flashed in his eyes, and he pushed the pirate saint over with his palm.

In an instant, the pirate saint was enveloped by a blue air current, and he immediately crystallized!

Anger, unwillingness, and despair remained on his face. Then, he turned into a blue crystal person and stood there motionlessly.

The Star Ocean swordsman successfully retreated and was not injured at all.

After the blue airflow had completely dissipated, star ocean swordsman walked back again. He looked at the crystal body of the pirate saint and said coldly, "You Schemed Against Me First. Don't blame me for being ruthless."

As he said that, he poked his head forward and looked at the scene inside the coffin.

What he saw was actually a blue liquid armor.

The blue airflow just now was all emitted by the liquid armor.

"Blue Heart Devil Armor! Senior didn't lie to us!" The senior said clearly before he died. He had fled in a hurry that day and couldn't take his mantle, the Blue Heart Devil Armor.

As long as he wore the armor, he could sense the various inheritances that the senior had left inside. At the same time, the Blue Heart Devil armor itself was a rare and peerless treasure.

According to the senior, this item could be used for all external objects, including the domains of others.

The enemy's attacks were often taken away by the crystal before they could even land on one's body.

It could be said that with this armor, the vast nine-star civilization would be able to walk unhindered.

"It's all mine!" The Starry Sea Swordsman was overjoyed and took out the Blue Heart Devil armor.

The demon armor was extremely heavy. Even with the power of a grand sage, he could barely move it.

This should be because it had not been refined yet. According to the old senior, as long as it was blood-bound, the armor would be as light as a feather.

The Starry Sea Swordsman immediately sat on the spot. He cut open his finger and pointed at the blue heart demon armor with his blood-stained finger.

However, just as his finger was about to touch it, a long spear stabbed at him without any warning.

The Starry Sea Swordsman reacted extremely quickly. The long sword in his hand was held horizontally in front of his chest, blocking his vital points.

Ding —

...

With a dull sound, the starry sea swordsman was sent flying, along with his sword.

Clang —

The Starry Sea swordsman only stopped after crashing into a coffin. He held his sword against the ground, covered his chest, and raised his head with difficulty.

A blue crystallized person that was melting was reflected in his eyes.

He smiled, and his smile was full of self-mockery. "I was actually careless."

Bada —

The crystallized person who had melted was none other than the saint of Thieves!

A ball of flickering red light could be faintly seen in her mouth. It was the existence of the red light that drove away the blue crystal on her body.

The Saint of Thieves' expression became unusually profound. When the crystal on her face had all melted, she opened her mouth, and a round bead slowly floated out.

The round bead was red. There were strange patterns on it as well as special heavenly script characters.

The Starry Sea Swordsman took a look and his pupils shrank. "Origin heavenly bead? Where did you get it?"

...

If he remembered correctly, that old senior had revealed his name before he died — Daoist Yuan Tian!

That origin heavenly bead was very likely Daoist Yuan Tian's item!

The Saint of Thieves' expression was indifferent. "Of course it was Daoist Yuan Tian who secretly gave it to me before he died."

"That's impossible," the starry sea swordsman said. "Why did Daoist Yuan Tian only give it to you?"

There were so many people present at that time, so how could he only give it to thieving saint?

"That's because I'm the heir he decided on internally," the starry sea swordsman said coldly. "All of you were merely escorting me here."

It turned out that Daoist Yuan Tian had no intention of letting them split the inheritance equally. Instead, he had secretly targeted thieving saint alone.

On the other hand, the starry sea swordsman and the others were deceived and escorted the saint of thieves here.

“Without this origin heavenly pearl, you wouldn’t be able to put on the Blue Heart Devil armor even if you got it,”the saint of thieves said calmly. “That’s because the moment you put it on, you would be crystallized by the Blue Heart Devil armor, just like I did just now!”

Chapter 3068

Since the blue air current came from the Blue Heart Devil Armor, one could imagine how much crystallized energy was in the armor.

It was delusional to think that they could inherit Daoist Yuan Tian’s inheritance just because they had the blue heart devil armor.

“Daoist Yuan Tian! Thieving Saint! You conspired to deceive us!”The star ocean swordsman clutched his chest and shouted desperately.

They had put in so much effort and sacrificed a group of companions, but in the end, it turned out to be a lie that had already been decided by the inheritance.

!!

Thieving saint’s expression was indifferent as he slowly walked over with a long spear in his hand. As he walked, he said slowly, “Daoist Yuan Tian conducted an inspection among us before confirming me in the end. Everyone has the same opportunity. Don’t blame me.”

The Starry Sea Swordsman suddenly raised his head. “Inspection? What inspection?”

He didn’t have any. What kind of investigation did Daoist Yuan Tian give them.

From the moment they found him, he was already on the verge of death. What kind of investigation was there?

The Saint of Thieves revealed a disappointed look and said, “When Daoist Yuan Tian was unconscious once, he asked us a question.”

“Unconscious?”The Starry Sea swordsman carefully recalled every detail of his interactions with Daoist Yuan Tian. Suddenly, he remembered something. He narrowed his eyes and said, “Could it be that you’re saying that he asked where the road was while unconscious?”

The pirate sage nodded slightly. “It seems that you still remember.”

The Starry Sea Swordsman clenched his fists. “My answer is that the road is at your feet, and man overcomes the heavens! And your answer is that there is no way out.”

“Yes!”The Pirate Sage said.

The Starry Sea swordsman said unwillingly, “Is Daoist Yuan Tian Old and muddle-headed? My answer is filled with a tenacious and unyielding will, while yours is a negative attitude. Why would he think that you are more suitable to inherit his mantle?”

A trace of pity curled up at the corner of the Saint of Thieves' mouth. "Senior brother, you may be smart, but sometimes, your cleverness is mistaken by your cleverness."

"A normal master naturally hopes for a disciple who struggles ceaselessly. Theoretically speaking, your answer will be more liked by the inheritor." The Saint of Thieves' eyes were deep. "It's just that you didn't consider senior's situation."

"A person who has been imprisoned for countless eras, does he still have confidence in his future path? The answer is, No."

Unless it was a peerless magnate, his will would be destroyed by the imprisonment of countless eras.

That senior had gone through a long period of sealing, and he no longer had any will to fight against the sacred mountain. He only wanted to stay away from the sacred mountain.

Therefore, the saint of stealing saw through people's minds and gave Daoist Yuan Tian the answer he wanted the most.

Therefore, he secretly gave the saint of stealing a Yuan Tian Pearl and passed all his mantle to the saint of stealing.

"I see..." the body of the starry sea swordsman began to tremble, and his breathing began to quicken. "I know you're scheming, but... I didn't expect you to be much more scheming than I expected."

"Senior brother, I'm so impressed!"

As he spoke, he fell to his knees with a plop. That was because his legs had lost their strength.

Then, he looked at the palm that was clutching his chest. He could no longer suppress the spread of the wound, and streams of black blood flowed out.

That attack just now had almost taken the life of the Starry Sea Swordsman.

He had relied on his powerful cultivation to forcefully hold on until now.

"However, junior sister, you have probably missed someone after all your calculations." The Starry Sea Swordsman raised his head and revealed a sinister smile. "The person who came with you is definitely not an ordinary person."

The pirate saint said indifferently, "He has already left."

"Is that so? Will such a smart person really leave just like that?" The Starry Sea swordsman collapsed powerlessly, he lay on the ground, but his eyes were still filled with pity. "You'd better pray that he has no intention of touching the Blue Heart Devil armor. Otherwise, your ending won't be better than mine."

Puff —

The Saint of thieves thrust his spear forward and ended his life completely.

Rustle —

At this moment, the sound of the grass behind him was heard. The Saint of thieves turned around and thrust his spear without thinking.

In the end, he only hit a centipede crawling in the sand.

The Saint of thieves narrowed his eyes and looked around. He said slowly, "Since Su Cai'er and you are old friends, I can spare your life, but don't hinder me!"

As he said that, he picked up the blue heart demon armor on the ground and put it on before Su Yu arrived.

With the Origin Heavenly Pearl, the Blue Heart Demon Armor was as light as a feather to her. She put it on casually.

She let out a sigh of relief. With this demon armor, even if Su Yu appeared, he wouldn't be able to do anything to her.

Wearing the blue heart demon armor, the Saint of Thieves tried to clench his fist. However, with a casual clench of his fist, the air around him cracked and cracks appeared in the space around his fist.

"This..."the saint of thieves was pleasantly surprised. Just by wearing the blue heart demon armor, his physical strength could rival that of the Ten Thousand Saints.

Following that, the saint of Thieves'senses changed drastically.

From his perspective, many hidden things were clearly visible.

"Come out!"Suddenly, the saint of thieves sensed something and stared in the direction where Su Yu had left. "You didn't leave."

His gaze was locked on a stone.

A moment later, footsteps could be heard. Su Yu turned around from behind the stone and walked over. He stared at the Saint of Thieves silently for a moment and said, "Blue Heart Demon Armor, I advise you to take it off as soon as possible. Otherwise, it will be too late to regret."

Su Yu was not surprised by the saint of Thieves'scheming.

How could a person who did not have any schemes enter and exit countless ancient tombs alive?

He did not reject scheming people. What he rejected was not to harm others because of this.

The Saint of Thieves'Gaze on Su Yu had already changed.

If there was still some fear and respect before, now there was some contempt.

"You're trying to persuade me to put it down so that you can snatch it?"The Saint of thieves chuckled. Su Yu's words sounded like a joke to her.

Su Yu's expression was indifferent as she said, "Don't you think that the journey was too smooth?"

He still found it hard to believe that when Daoist Yuan Tian escaped, he would leave such an important thing in the sealed area. After he escaped, he was so willing to make all kinds of arrangements for others and teach them how to get their own demon armor.

...

The strangest thing was that in the map, the coffin was opened, but when they came, it was sealed.

As for the words on it, Su Yu did not think that it was written by the Saint of thieves at the last minute. There was a trace of magic in those words that could not be easily detected. It was not something that the saint of thieves could write.

There was something strange about it. It could be seen that there were some problems with this inheritance.

“It went smoothly? Why Don’t you see how many of us died?”The Saint of thieves did not think much of it.

Su Yu shook his head gently. “It is normal for the inheritance of the ten thousand saints to have ten thousand saints killed. Moreover, the ones who died were only great saints.”

From his perspective, this trip was indeed very smooth. He did not encounter many obstacles that he had overcome.

It was just that the thieving sage did not think so.

“Su, you don’t have to shake my resolve anymore.”The Thieving Sage clenched his fists. A dangerous glint flashed in his eyes. “I wanted to let you off just now. Now, I’ve changed my mind!”

She walked over, killing intent flashing in her eyes.

Chapter 3069 I advise you not to listen

She was only wearing the Blue Heart Devil armor now. She still needed to refine it later. At that time, she needed a very quiet environment.

With a potential threat like Su Yu, it was really not a small hidden danger.

“Where did you place Su Cai’er?”The Saint of thieves shouted.

She was still thinking about Su Cai’er. She must have discovered the fact that Su Cai’er was born in the eight domains.

!!

If she could be nurtured, she would definitely stand at the top in the future.

Su Yu stood where he was and did not move at all. He said indifferently, “For Su Cai’er’s sake, I’ll give you one last advice. Put down the Blue Heart Devil Armor!”

“I’m not staying here to steal your Blue Heart Devil armor. I’m here to give you advice.”

Along the way, only with Su Yu’s advice could the saint of thieves arrive here safely.

However, at that time, the saint of thieves was not strong enough and could still listen to Su Yu's advice. Now, the Saint of Thieves' concept was different.

“Humph! You'd Better Mind Your Own Business First!” The Saint of thieves exerted strength with the tip of his foot. Instantly, his entire body flew out like a spring and took a step forward.

Bang —

With a muffled sound, she arrived within thirty feet of Su Yu with the speed of teleportation. Then, she clenched her fist and smashed it fiercely at Su Yu.

Su Yu did not Dodge. She shook her head regretfully.

While the pirate saint was puzzled, she suddenly felt a piercing pain in her abdomen, which stopped her fists. She bent her body in pain, and cold sweat dripped down her forehead. “You... What did you do to me?”

Su Yu stood calmly on the spot and said, “It's not what I did to you, but the Blue Heart Demon Armor on your body.”

As she spoke, another piercing pain came from her neck.

“What on Earth did you do?” The Saint of thieves clutched his neck and asked in fear.

However, Su Yu stood where she was and didn't do anything.

Ah —

Suddenly, the saint of thieves groaned in pain again. Her legs seemed to have been pierced by some sharp blade, causing a piercing pain.

This time, she finally realized that it wasn't Su Yu who was causing trouble, but the Blue Heart Devil armor itself had a problem.

She immediately grabbed the collar of the Blue Heart Devil armor and prepared to take it off.

But at this moment, she realized that her neck, abdomen, and legs were actually connected to the Blue Heart Devil armor.

Even though she had the primal heavenly pearl, three parts were still crystallized by the Blue Heart Devil armor and became part of the Blue Heart Devil armor.

That was why the three parts were extremely painful just now!

“Daoist Yuan Tian, you lied to me!” At this moment, no matter how muddle-headed the thieving saint was, he knew that he had been fooled.

From the very beginning, Daoist Yuan Tian had been lying to her.

How could the legacy be so easy to inherit?

As if responding to her words, a face with only a nose, eyes, and mouth slowly appeared on the surface of the Blue Heart Devil armor.

A strange smile appeared on the face, and it opened its mouth to say, "Well! I've finally been reborn! It seems that I've found a good body."

His voice gave the thieving saint a fright. The Blue Heart Demon Armor was actually alive and not some dao artifact.

"Who... Who Are You?"The thieving saint shouted sharply, his heart filled with extreme panic.

No matter how shrewd he was, he was still frightened by the scene before him.

The face on the blue heart demon armor smiled even more strangely. "Who am I? I'm Daoist Yuan Tian! To be precise, I'm an avatar left behind by Daoist Yuan Tian for the sake of safety."

Even a crafty rabbit had three holes. How could Daoist Yuan Tian, who had been sealed here for countless years, not understand this principle?

Therefore, his original body fled, but he left behind a clone before he left.

If his original body died, the clone could continue.

Of course, the premise was that the clone needed a living person as a support, which was why the Saint of Thieves and the others were entrusted with taking over his mantle.

However, Daoist Tianyuan's doppelganger was somewhat different. It was not a body, but a layer of skin. The skin looked like a dao artifact, which was why the saint of thieves was fooled.

"You!"The Saint of thieves was both shocked and angry. With his shrewd experience and countless explorations, he was actually used by someone!

"Hahahaha... be a good host for me!"The blue heart demon armor said excitedly, "Since you can come in again, it means that there must be another problem with the seal! I can leave the Heavenly Dao prison again!"

Everything was planned and planned by him. He had waited for twenty years for this day.

He waited until someone put the skin on his body and fused with it.

"Ah!"

The pirate saint screamed several times. He felt a sharp pain in his chest, and the Blue Heart Devil armor on his chest was also attached to his body.

When the attachment was complete, the pirate Saint General would lose his consciousness, and his body would become Daoist Yuan Tian's internal body.

"No! Don't even think about it!"The pirate saint growled and tried to get rid of the blue heart demon armor, but most of his body had already been fused by the blue heart demon armor, so he had no strength to get rid of it.

After struggling for a while, the pirate saint fell into great despair.

Suddenly, she saw Su Yu standing silently in the distance and said, "Kill me! Kill me!"

She would rather die than let Daoist Yuan Tian succeed.

Su Yu stood still and did not make a move until the saint of thieves said something that made Su Yu's heart palpitate. "If you still want to learn the spatial ancestral technique!"

Huh?

Su Yu's pupils constricted. Spatial ancestral technique?

The cultivation of the soul ancestral technique could be said to be a coincidence. It was extremely lucky to obtain it, but even so, it still risked being hunted down by the first ancestor.

...

It was as difficult as ascending to heaven to learn the spatial ancestor technique of the other saint clans.

At the critical moment, Su Yu pulled out his sword.

The Absolute Heaven Sword rushed out of the scabbard, carrying the power to destroy the world. It pierced toward the saint of thieves' glabella like lightning.

The Blue Heart Demon armor snorted contemptuously. "No one can stop my rebirth!"

Pu, Pu, Pu —

Countless tentacles shot out of the blue heart demon armor and pierced into the saint of thieves' limbs and bones, accelerating his control over his body.

Before the Absolute Heaven Sword came, he controlled his arm and raised it to block between his eyebrows!

Ding —

The overwhelming sword power pressed against the arm of the Blue Heart Devil armor, rippling a layer of blue air current.

This sword could not break the hardness of the Blue Heart Devil Armor. Moreover, the air current that burst out was spreading along the absolute heaven sword toward Su Yu's wrist.

At this moment, the saint of thieves used her absolute willpower to slowly move her arm down, revealing the fatal weakness between her eyebrows.

...

"Quick!" The pirate saint gritted her teeth. It was obvious that she was in great difficulty and could not hold on for long.

The Blue Heart Demon Armor was furious. "Ugly woman, let go."

The arm was slowly lifted up again.

In the fight between the two sides, Su Yu was extremely decisive. She saw an opportunity and stabbed the tip of her sword into the pirate saint's eyebrows.

Under the unparalleled power of the Heavenly Sword, the pirate saint's body was crushed and turned into dust.

Only the Blue Heart Demonic Armor was left. After losing its support, it collapsed unwillingly. Lying on the ground, it was extremely furious. "Stupid Woman! So what if you're dead? Why are you dragging me down? !"

Su Yu stared at the Blue Heart Demonic Armor. With a flick of his longsword, he brought it back into the coffin. Then, he picked up the coffin lid and prepared to seal it again.

"Wait! Human, can I discuss something with you?" Unexpectedly, the blue heart demonic armor recognized Su Yu as a human.

Chapter 3070 was right in front of him

While sealing the coffin lid, Su Yu said, "Yes, speak."

The Blue Heart Demon Armor was worth talking about quickly. "How about you let me out and I'll listen to your orders from now on? With my strength, I can defend against most of the attacks in the world. Don't you want to have it?"

Of course!

Outside the Heavenly Dao prison, there was another guy who was counting the days and waiting to take Su Yu's head.

!!

With the defensive power of the Blue Heart Demon armor, he might really be able to escape this calamity.

However, Su Yu didn't want to end up like the saint of Thieves. It was better to stay away from the incarnations left behind by the Ten Thousand Saints.

This time, it was because the saint of thieves had relied on her strong will to barely control a bit of her body and cooperate with Su Yu to kill herself.

If she was also controlled by him, who would kill him?

"Are you done?" Su Yu closed the lid of the coffin, leaving only the last thin seam.

The Blue Heart Demon Armor was really anxious and said, "Wait! I can tell you a secret, a secret about the human saintly being."

Creak —

The lid of the coffin was completely closed, and the Blue Heart Demon Armor was shocked and furious. "Ah! Human saintly being, do you really want to be enemies with me, Daoist Yuan Tian, forever?"

However, at the moment of despair, the lid of the coffin was opened again.

"You can continue." Su Yu's face was revealed outside the lid of the coffin.

The Blue Heart Devil Armor didn't dare to talk about conditions, and hurriedly said, "I think you already know how the human saintly being grows up, right?"

Su Yu didn't change his expression. "Yes, Continue."

If the human saintly being wanted to evolve, the only way was to take the blood of the son of heaven, and use the son of Heaven's blood to irrigate the body, only then could it take a step further.

Su Yu was now a saintly being of the culmination stage, and there was still a considerable distance to go before he could reach the completion stage.

It was not that Su Yu was unwilling to cultivate, but where could he find the son of Heaven's blood?

The son of Heaven's blood in his heart had been extracted many times, and it had already reached its limit. If he were to extract it again, his heart would only fail and he would die.

The blue heart demon armor said, "I know where the son of Heaven's blood is."

Su Yu's eyes were filled with a dense light. "Tell me!"

Blue Heart Devil armor hesitated, he said, "It's on the third level of the Heavenly Dao prison! However... if you want to enter the third level of the Heavenly Dao prison, you need someone to lead the way. It's not a place that someone like you, who hasn't even reached the ancient sage level, can enter."

The third level of the Heavenly Dao Prison?

If the son of Heaven's blood was really there, then he really hadn't come to the wrong place.

"Is the third level of the Heavenly Dao prison very dangerous?" Su Yu asked.

The blue heart demon armor asked, "There is a ten thousand saints level fierce corpse guarding the second level. What makes you think that the third level's pain is not more dangerous?"

He said solemnly, "There is a pet of the son of heaven guarding that place. If no one cooperates with you, don't even think about entering."

The incarnation of the son of Heaven, Su Yu narrowed his eyes. "A pet?"

"That's right. It was one of the pet of the mirror flower son of heaven. People call it the Primal Chaos Holy Beast. It can swallow a ten thousand saints expert in one bite." The Blue Heart Demon Armor's voice was full of fear. "All these years, although I was trapped in the coffin, my senses kept spreading out. Over the years, I have detected many things."

"That pet is the holy beast guarding the third level of the Heavenly Dao prison. It's extremely dangerous."

Su Yu thought for a long time before he opened the lid of the coffin completely. Then, he took out another spatial storage item and said, "Go in!"

The Blue Heart Devil armor immediately turned into a pool of blue liquid and entered the spatial storage item. He said, "Don't worry. As long as you let me out, you'll definitely benefit."

Su Yu's heart moved. He used the eight domains to cover the spatial domain. If the Blue Heart Devil armor came out privately, Su Yu would be the first to notice it.

After putting away the blue heart devil armor, Su Yu opened his palm. A speck of fluorescent light danced in his palm. It was the soul fragment of the Saint of thieves after his death. He had taken the opportunity to grab it.

“On account of your teaching to Cai’er, I will save you this time.” Su Yu closed his eyes and used his powerful soul secret technique to duplicate the saint of Thieves’ soul that had already returned to the ultimate.

In the blink of an eye, a complete saint of thieves appeared in front of Su Yu.

The latter maintained the state she was in before she was killed. Her expression was extremely painful. Perhaps she felt the pain quickly disappear, so she opened her eyes in surprise. What she saw was Su Yu standing in front of her, and she was safe and sound.

“Didn’t I Die?” The saint of thieves asked blankly. Moreover, where did the Blue Heart Demon Armor Go?

Su Yu said indifferently, “You did die once. Don’t seek death again. Next time, no one will save you.”

When the saint of Thieves put on the blue heart demon armor, Su Yu repeatedly reminded him to take it off. Unfortunately, the Saint of Thieves didn’t listen and insisted on seeking his own death.

In the future, Su Yu couldn’t save her anymore.

“You saved me?” The Saint of Thieves’ feelings were very complicated. For a moment, she even wanted to kill Su Yu, but Su Yu actually saved her.

“Take care of yourself!” Su Yu said calmly.

The Saint of thieves bowed and then took a jade pendant from his body. He handed it to Su Yu with both hands. “This is the token of heaven’s path. If one day you find yourself cornered, you can use this token to find us.”

On the way, it was not the first time Su Yu heard the saint of thieves mention the word Heaven’s path.

He, the Starry Sea Swordsman, and the Sissy and others were all members of Heaven’s path.

He didn’t know what this organization was, but he had almost never heard of it.

After he stuffed it into Su Yu’s hands, the saint of Thieves left alone.

Su Yu thought for a moment and casually threw the jade pendant into Heaven’s path. He didn’t know when the day would come when he would be cornered.

Perhaps it would be a few days later, or perhaps it would never come.

After packing up everything, Su Yu looked around the second level of Heavenly Dao prison, which wasn’t huge, in search of the entrance to the third level of Heavenly Dao prison.

“Master! Your most loyal servant, the little skeleton, is here!”The little skeleton ran out of nowhere and hugged Su Yu’s thigh, sobbing, “I got lost and never met master. I was so scared along the way.”

Su Yu had goosebumps all over his body. An old monster who had lived for several eras was acting coquettishly to him?

...

“Get lost!”Su Yu kicked it away and said, “Where the hell did you go just now?”

The situation just now was still a little dangerous. When he wanted to use the little skeleton, he didn’t appear for a long time.

“Where’s The Thieving Sage?”The little skeleton blinked and asked curiously.

It didn’t know that the Blue Heart Demon Armor had appeared here before.

“She has already left.”Su Yu’s eyes flashed as he said with reservation.

The little skeleton was shocked. “It can’t be. She finally reached the second level of the Heavenly Dao prison and left just like that? She got her own inheritance?”

Su Yu stared at it. “You have a lot of questions!”

There was a deep meaning in its words.

He didn’t know if the little skeleton was just curious, or was it deliberately asking about it?

He was 120% wary of this mysterious little skeleton.

“No more questions!”The little skeleton quickly said, “Is master looking for the entrance to the third level of the Heavenly Dao Prison?”

...

Su Yu looked around. “Where is it?”

There was no entrance or exit as far as the eye could see.

The little skeleton said mysteriously, “It’s far away, but it’s right in front of us!”
