

Nine-Dragon 3071

Chapter 3071 the original intention was exposed

Su Yu narrowed his eyes and looked around.

Far away in the horizon, close at hand meant..

All of a sudden, Su Yu looked at the coffin where Daoist Yuan Tian had stayed. He walked up and saw that there was indeed a heavenly book character at the bottom of the coffin.

“One of the runes for the incantation?” Su Yu looked at the remaining coffins with a difficult expression.

!!

If this heavenly book was one of the spells to open the third level of the Heavenly Dao prison, then the remaining 99 coffins should have all of them.

Could it be that he had to open all of the coffins and release the magnates sealed inside?

Just thinking about it made Su Yu shudder.

One blue heart demon armor was enough for Su Yu to drink a pot of water, let alone the remaining 99 coffins?

“That’s right! If you want to enter the third level of the Heavenly Dao prison, you can only gather the white words incantation and open the summoning channel with the incantation,” the little skeleton said with a chuckle.

A strange smile appeared on its face as it stared straight at Su Yu, as if waiting for Su Yu to continue.

Su Yu glanced at it and silently activated the eye of the soul, trying to investigate the situation in the other coffins.

However, he was disappointed that none of the coffins could be seen through because of the special isolation of the chains.

However, Su Yu was not discouraged.

He did not know the incantation, so someone should know.

“Daoist Yuan Tian, you should know the incantation to open the secret chamber, Right?” Su Yu directly transmitted his voice through the soul of the Blue Heart Demon Armor.

The latter said with certainty, “Of course I do. Every era, a son of Heaven will personally come down to check. We who are sealed know the incantation to open it.”

As he spoke, he told Su Yu the remaining incantations.

Su Yu memorized them silently and retracted his consciousness.

“Beg me. If You Beg me, I’ll tell you the remaining incantations.” The little skeleton saw that Su Yu was helpless and said with a smile that was not a smile.

It crossed its arms in front of its chest and said proudly, “Without me, you won’t be able to open the third layer of the Heavenly Dao prison.”

Su Yu stood calmly and said, “What do you want? To remove the brand?”

He knew that this little skeleton definitely did not have good intentions.

Along the way, it did not have the right to negotiate conditions, so it behaved obediently. Now, it finally revealed its intentions.

“Hehe, human, can your little brand do anything to me?” The little skeleton said disdainfully, “If you don’t believe me, try and see if you can control me!”

With the third layer of the Heavenly Dao prison in front of him, the little skeleton finally revealed his true nature. He said fiercely, “If it wasn’t for the fact that you still have some ability and value, do you think I would accept your mark in Peace?”

As he said that, a wisp of soul separated from his body. This soul was less than one percent of his body. Even if it was destroyed, it would not harm his true body.

Su Yu was calm and composed. “And then? What conditions do you want to discuss with me?”

The little skeleton retrieved his soul and smiled. “I am a very easy person to talk to. My requirements are very simple.”

“First, give me the scythe and sword on your body!”

Su Yu nodded and said, “Continue.”

The little skeleton raised his head even higher. “Second, the third level of the Heavenly Dao prison. I will go down first.”

After saying that, he shrugged. “Just two requirements. How about it?”

He looked at Su Yu, as if he had already taken Su Yu down. From his observations along the way, he knew that Su Yu was a smart person and knew how to make a choice.

A person who had racked his brains to come to the third level of the Heavenly Dao prison definitely had a reason to come.

Therefore, he was definitely willing to give up both the scythe and the sword.

Su Yu lowered his head and thought for a long time. Then, he helplessly took out the myriad calamity scythe and said, “Alright! I’ll fulfill your request!”

The little skeleton’s eyes were filled with greed. He had personally witnessed the power of the Kalpa scythe. In the entire nine-star civilization, there were only a few weapons that could surpass it.

He pounced forward and stretched out his hand to catch it.

However, just as he was about to pounce forward, Su Yu suddenly activated the kalpa scythe and ruthlessly slashed at the little skeleton’s body.

“AO –”the little skeleton’s body was indeed indestructible. The scythe did not injure it at all. It was just ruthlessly slashed away.

Before it could get up from the ground, it was pushed to the ground by Su Yu’s scythe. His eyes were extremely cold.

“You... You Don’t want the incantation anymore?”The little skeleton asked?

Su Yu did not answer. Instead, with a thought, he detonated the mark that was imprinted in the little skeleton’s soul.

“Ah! My Soul!”The little skeleton really let out a shrill scream. The pain of his soul being destroyed was no small matter.

Su Yu said indifferently, “Do you still want my kalpa scythe?”

The little skeleton clenched his teeth and threatened, “Su, I thought you were a smart person. I didn’t expect you to be so stupid! Do you think that I will hand the spell over to you just because you forced me?”

He sat up at a moderate speed and was not afraid of Su Yu’s kalpa scythe. He said in an old-fashioned manner, “Human, I advise you to think carefully before you act. Otherwise, you will regret it for the rest of your life.”

Su Yu’s expression was indifferent. “If you think that the curse is your strongest weakness, then I can only say that you’re thinking too much.”

He silently chanted fifty words. Each word was the curse to open the third layer of the Heavenly Dao prison.

At first, the little skeleton did not think much of it. Knowing one or two was not a big deal.

However, the words that Su Yu chanted later were not only correct, but the sequence was also incomparably accurate.

The little skeleton felt as if it had been struck by lightning and said in shock, “Impossible, how did you know?”

Su Yu did not say a word. He grabbed the little skeleton and threw it into the coffin. “There’s an empty one for you.”

As he said that, Su Yu closed the coffin lid and wrapped the chains around it again.

...

“Wait! You Can’t do this, I... Even if I don’t have any merits, I still have to work hard, right?”The little skeleton returned to his begging expression. “Master, for the sake of the little skeleton’s past, please spare me this time!”

Su Yu’s expression was indifferent. “I’m sorry, I’m not your master. Just as you said, my little means of controlling people are useless against you.”

“Wu Wu, master, the little skeleton is wrong.” The little skeleton said miserably, “Master is wise and divine. The little skeleton can’t escape from Master’s palm.”

Su Yu’s hand did not stop. He said, “Tell yourself these words!”

As the chains returned to their original position, the seal began to work.

The little skeleton was really anxious and said, “Su Yu, do you know who I am?”

Su Yu clapped his hands and waved his hand without looking back. “I don’t know, and I don’t want to know.”

From the beginning, he knew that the little skeleton had an extraordinary background. It was definitely not as simple as being a prisoner of the first layer of the Heavenly Dao prison.

Why were the prisoners of the first layer so familiar with the second layer and even the third layer?

Moreover, the little skeleton, who was initially afraid of even the water of the Netherworld, was actually able to swim in the water of the Netherworld?

It would be a wonder if Su Yu believed that it was an ordinary person!

...

Originally, Su Yu did not plan to do anything to the little skeleton since it did not make any further moves. However, since it had focused its attention on the myriad calamity scythe and the Absolute Heaven Sword, then don’t blame Su Yu for being merciless!

Chapter 3072 The World is dark

He raised his hand and was about to seal the coffin completely. The little skeleton was extremely anxious. “Ah! I was wrong. I was really wrong. I can do anything you want me to!”

At this moment, Su Yu could no longer trust the little skeleton.

It was better for him to be sealed in the coffin forever.

However, at this moment, the voice of the Blue Heart Devil Armor was heard. “Sir, Please Wait!”

!!

Su Yu calmly replied, “Why? Do you miss your coffin and want to go back to live by yourself?”

These words caused the blue heart devil armor to tremble and hurriedly said, “No! What I mean is that you have another great use as a servant.”

Oh?

Su Yu’s palm slowed down as he patiently listened to the Blue Heart Devil Armor’s words.

“After the third layer of the Heavenly Dao prison opens, the passageway will appear. Along with it will appear the emperor’s pet that is guarding this place.” The blue heart devil armor slowly said, “Its strength is extremely powerful. Sir, you don’t need to rely on any luck to defeat it through your strength.”

Needless to say, Su Yu also understood.

If the corpse guarding the second level was so powerful, then the son of Heaven's pet on the third level was definitely not weak.

“However, although that pet is extremely powerful, it has a special hobby, and that is to like beautiful things! “I saw that your servant is mini and small, and his body is jade-like and lustrous. He is quite beautiful. Why Don't you try to cater to his interests and lure him away?”

The little skeleton in the coffin heard this and immediately bristled. “Which old fart tricked your great sage grandfather? Get Out Here! You still want me to curry favor with that sick old demon? I Won't go even if I Die!”

From the little skeleton's tone, it seemed like it knew what the guardian pet on the third floor was.

Moreover, Su Yu had never seen it so excited since he obtained it.

“You don't want to go even if you die, right? Alright then, you can stay in the coffin.” Su Yu closed the coffin.

The little skeleton immediately put on a sad face, “Master, you don't know what that old monster is like. It's so disgusting. If it falls into her hands, it will really be worse than death.”

Su Yu became more and more curious. What was this little skeleton, who was not afraid of anything and had an especially mysterious background, afraid of?

“Then I'll give you two choices. First, living in a coffin is worse than death. Second, living in the hands of an old monster is worse than death,” Su Yu said

The little skeleton threw its head back and cried, “Oh Heavens, Oh Earth! Kill me! I don't want to choose either!”

Su Yu really did not have time to argue with it. He took it out of the coffin and threw it on the ground. Then, he silently chanted an incantation.

The hundred-word mantra was slowly chanted, and the hundred coffins within a hundred-mile radius shot out a dark red pillar of light, reaching to the sky.

Under the light pillar, the Earth in the center of the Hundred Coffins was red, and there was a scorching heat wave.

Gradually, a stream of hot magma gushed out from the ground, melting the earth.

A small amount of river Styx water also gushed out.

Now, they finally understood where the yellow spring water came from.

After that, the lava cooled down and a deep tunnel appeared in front of them. It was the tunnel leading to the third level of the Heavenly Dao prison.

Whoosh —

A gust of wind blew from the tunnel. It was clearly the tunnel that had just been melted by the lava. It should be extremely hot. However, the wind blowing from the tunnel was as gloomy as the nine hells, making people shudder.

Thud thud —

From the tunnel came the faint sound of footsteps, as well as the creepy low growl.

It was as if an extremely dangerous existence was slowly walking up.

Under the blood-red light, the second layer of the Heavenly Dao prison became deathly silent, and it gave off an unsettling pressure.

What was coming up..

Su Yu slowly retreated. He had a feeling that the thing that was coming up was a hundred times stronger than the ferocious corpse guarding the second layer.

That was because he keenly sensed that the aura of the ferocious corpse on the second floor... was gone!

The ferocious corpse had been guarding the entrance of the tunnel to prevent Su Yu and the others from coming up again, so its aura had never dissipated.

But now, he could not sense it at all.

To be able to prevent the ferocious corpse from escaping, it could be seen that the thing that was about to come up was powerful enough to make the ferocious corpse instinctively feel afraid.

“Hey, Hey, Hey, take me away quickly. Master, you really can’t leave me here. Someone will die!” The little skeleton protested loudly. Its entire body could not help but tremble.

Su Yu quietly moved to the side. He hid all the aura on his body and hid behind a coffin like a rock.

In the Silent Heavenly Dao prison, there was only the sound of the little skeleton’s teeth chattering in fear and the footsteps that were gradually approaching.

It was getting closer!

It was getting closer!

They could already hear the light footsteps and the faint sound of iron chains clashing.

The little skeleton’s eyes were wide open as it stared at the exit. Its entire body could not help but tremble. “Stop fooling around. No one will be able to escape if it comes out. Let’s Go!”

Ha ~

A long exhale came from the tunnel. Su Yu narrowed his eyes and stared at the exit without blinking.

That thing came up!

Dong —

Suddenly, an old palm with long purple nails reached out from the tunnel without any warning and grabbed the ground.

Then, it was a second hand.

Then, an extremely old head came out.

It was a skinny head without any flesh and blood. Its two eye sockets were deep and its cheekbones were high and bulging. Around the Bald Head, there was a ring of gray hair.

...

At first glance, it looked like a person who had starved for thousands of years had crawled out of the ground.

Although it was skinny, its body was exceptionally agile. It climbed up in no time. It was not an imaginary demonic beast pet, but a person.

It was just too skinny, like a skeleton.

“Who... opened the heavenly prison gate...”the skeleton looked around.

When he swept his gaze across the little skeleton, his lifeless eyes suddenly froze and emitted an unprecedented radiance. “What a beautiful little skeleton!”

Sou —

What made Su Yu’s pupils shrink was that he actually did not discover how the Skinny Old Man moved. The other party had already appeared in front of the little skeleton and the little skeleton was already in his palm.

Su Yu took a deep breath. The other party’s speed had already surpassed the limits of time and had reached the point of crossing over time!

Of course, even though he was shocked, Su Yu still maintained his rationality and silently retreated into the tunnel.

The skinny old man did not notice anything and was carefully examining the little skeleton. The latter was lying on the skinny old man’s palm, trembling as if it had encountered an extremely terrifying thing.

“Yiya! What a beautiful little skeleton. Look at its small buttocks, it’s so round!”The skinny old man revealed a sickly hot expression. He extended his index finger and gently stroked the small skeleton’s round buttocks.

...

While stroking, while comfortable to the extreme high-pitched moan: “Oh ~ OH ~ ~ excellent, excellent small buttocks, too comfortable...”

The small skeleton humiliates to lie on the ground, issued the liver and gallbladder split despairing wail: “Dead Old Ghost, don’t Touch Me! ! !”

The Great Ghost King was... was..

At this moment, the little skeleton of the world is dark.

Chapter 3073 Green Emperor's mount

“Eh? You know me?” The skinny old man was surprised. He sized up the little skeleton with his pea-sized eyes. “You look familiar. I've seen you somewhere before.”

The little skeleton was both angry and scared. “You Old Fart! I'm the Green Emperor's mount. You Old Fart, why don't you let me go?”

Eh?

The skinny old man thought for a long time before he suddenly remembered and said in surprise, “So it's You? Didn't you escape from the Cataclysm twenty years ago? Why Are You Back?”

!!

Su Yu was shocked when he heard that.

The so-called green emperor was undoubtedly one of the magnates who was once imprisoned in the third level of the Heavenly Dao prison, right?

And the first level of the Heavenly Dao prison that he saved unintentionally was the ghost race's great emperor, the Mount of the Green Emperor!

As he spoke, the skinny old man was a little uncertain. He slapped the back of the little skeleton.

“Oh...” the little skeleton let out a sour howl. Its jade-like skeleton body began to change. It was actually constructed into a skeleton in the shape of a lion.

This was the original form of the little skeleton, just like how the skinny old man before him was just an appearance.

“It's really you! The Green Emperor's Mount, Ghost Firmament!” The skinny old man said, “Aiya! That's amazing! It's really you!”

He perverted looked at the little skeleton's rear end and touched it again and again. “Back then, you were known as the most handsome mount among the seven emperors. Now, you finally fell into my hands.”

The little skeleton was extremely humiliated. He gritted his teeth and said, “Old Bastard! Have you touched enough?”

“Hiss... look at this. It looks fat, but it lacks a thin buttocks. This is simply divine workmanship.” The skinny old man was enjoying touching it non-stop.

The little skeleton trembled all over. It was full of humiliation. It thought of Su Yu. Everything was because of Su Yu!

If it had not locked itself up here, would this old bastard have succeeded?

“Aren't you worried that someone will take advantage of your carelessness to break into the third level of the Heavenly Dao Prison?” The little skeleton reminded. In its heart, it thought to itself, “Su Yu, don’t blame me for being heartless. If you want to blame someone, blame yourself.”

He deliberately exposed Su Yu’s existence so that Su Yu’s plan would be ruined and he would suffer the same fate as him. He wanted Su Yu’s backside to be trampled on by the old bastard’s demonic palm.

The skinny old man didn’t even turn his head back. He closed his eyes and enjoyed it. “Isn’t he just a human hiding in the dark and slowly sneaking into the passage? If I still need you to remind me of this, then my guardian beast would have been wasted!”

As soon as he said this, Su Yu knew that things were not looking good. He knew that he had been discovered.

He no longer had any scruples. He immediately used a space secret art and drilled towards the entrance of the passage.

However, as the space secret art was just about to be activated, he suddenly felt that the surrounding space was frozen. He was unable to move forward or retreat. His entire body was frozen in this space.

From the perspective of the little skeleton, Su Yu, who was moving through space, was suddenly frozen. He could not move at all.

The skinny old man held the little skeleton with one hand, while his other hand held the surrounding space tightly, controlling the surroundings.

“Hehe, human, you are underestimating me a little too much.”The skinny old man came in front of Su Yu, his gaze scanning his body before landing greedily on his buttocks. “It is also of the highest quality, round and straight.”

Su Yu’s hair stood on end when he heard this. This old fellow did not even let him off!

Seeing that the other party was getting closer and closer, Su Yu’s heart stirred. He activated his time domain, and the flow of time around him instantly slowed down by ten thousand times. He took the opportunity to break free from the spatial lock.

However, just as his limbs could move, the thin old man who had been slowed down actually broke free from the time lock and took a step forward, shock appeared in his eyes. “You’re proficient in both time and spatial domains? TSK TSK, you human, you’re really not simple. It reminds me of a deceased figure of this era.”

As he spoke, he clenched his hand, and the space around Su Yu froze once again.

Only four of him could move, and the rest of his body was frozen in place.

“However, that person’s rear buttocks aren’t as round as yours.”The skinny old man’s eyes shone, and he swallowed his saliva. He reached out to touch Su Yu’s rear buttocks and said, “What kind of good luck to send two top-grade items today...”

However, just as his palm was about to reach out, the skinny old man's palm suddenly stopped. He suddenly shifted his gaze to the other side, and his gaze turned cold. "Oh? This one is really well hidden. I almost missed it."

He grabbed at the air, and a coffin near the passage immediately flew up, revealing a pitch-black figure hidden behind the coffin. He was carefully crawling forward on the ground.

Not only was his movements subtle, he didn't even have a soul aura.

With Su Yu's superb soul attainments, he actually didn't notice his existence!

Sou —

After being discovered, the figure didn't even think about it. He raised his hand and shot an arrow, and a pale bone arrow flew toward the thin old man.

The old man didn't Dodge. He casually stretched out his finger and pointed at the tip of the bone arrow.

Su Yu was no stranger to this bone arrow. Back then, he had shot at it with his sword and injured Su Yu through space.

However, in front of the old man, the extremely powerful bone arrow was like noodles.

After encountering the old man's finger, the bone arrow immediately melted into a pale liquid and dripped onto the ground, corroding holes in the ground.

"Tai Xiong Mo?" The little skeleton recognized him and clicked his tongue.

The one hiding here was Tai Xiong Mo, the leader of the three Great Xiong Mo in the first level of the Heavenly Dao prison.

Tai Xiong Mo was the first to give up chasing after them and disappeared after reaching the death swamp. He thought that it was him who gave up, but he didn't expect that he had been secretly following them all the way to the second level of the Heavenly Dao prison.

If not for the scrawny old man's amazing senses, he would have succeeded.

Tai Xiong Mo's reaction was very fast. After shooting an arrow, regardless of whether it succeeded or not, he jumped and escaped to the entrance of the passage.

The scrawny old man chuckled. "Is it possible to enter?"

He once again used his heaven-defying movement technique that was not restricted by time. He walked to the entrance in one step and blocked Tai Xiong Mo's way.

The Tai Xiong Demon's expression was ferocious, but there was a craftiness in his ferocity. He shouted in a low voice, "Human, it seems that we need to work together!"

The remnants of liquid that had melted into white liquid actually turned into bone arrows that shot through the space that had restricted Su Yu.

Hualala —

Su Yu finally broke free. He looked deeply at the Tai Xiong Demon on the other side of the bank and sandwiched the skinny old man on the left and right.

“Hahaha, two rats trying to catch a cat?” The skinny old man laughed. He didn’t make a move immediately, as if he had found something very interesting.

Su Yu snorted. He took out the disaster scythe without hesitation and pushed it to the extreme, creating the eleventh golden head.

...

“Destroy!”

The disaster scythe waved, and an invisible wave swept out, striking the skinny old man.

Tai Xiong Mo also made his move immediately. He took out an exquisite carriage made of white bones and threw it into the air.

The carriage immediately transformed into an army of thousands of horses. It stomped towards the skinny old man with an imposing manner.

Chapter 3074 the unity of All Saints

Boom —

The two forces came at him from both sides. With the Skinny Old Man at the center, an unprecedented violent collision occurred.

Either of the two forces was the ultimate power that could kill an ordinary great sage.

Combined, it was enough to wipe out all the powerful enemies in the world.

!!

In the collision, the second level of the Heavenly Dao Hell Shook. Large amounts of dust fell from the space above. The ground emitted a crisp sound as cracks appeared on the black ground that could be seen by the naked eye.

The air reverberated with the sound of explosions!

How many people in the world could block such a collision?

However!

When the boundless dust dispersed and the second layer of Heavenly Dao Hell regained its peace, what greeted his eyes was the scene of the skinny old man being unharmed.

He maintained the posture of holding the small skeleton with one hand and holding the other behind his back.

From the beginning to the end, he couldn’t even move, let alone fight back.

But even so, the combined attack of Su Yu and Tai Xiong Demon couldn’t hurt him at all.

In front of him, their attacks were just like moths to a flame that overestimated themselves.

However, regardless of whether it was Su Yu or Tai Xiong Demon, they didn’t see the result of their attack and rushed towards the entrance of the tunnel.

It turned out that they didn't expect to hurt the thin old man at all. They just used their attacks to stop him from moving.

Whoosh whoosh —

Su Yu and the Tai Xiong Demon arrived at almost the same time and drilled into the entrance of the tunnel.

The two figures instantly entered the tunnel. However, the moment they entered, they flew out at an even faster speed.

They stood near the entrance of the tunnel and looked at it with a grave expression. A mischievous laughter came from within, "Two little babies, if you escape into the tunnel, where will my face go?"

The voice of the skinny old man came from within. When he turned around, the skinny old man who had just suffered an attack disappeared like a phantom.

His movement technique was so fast that it surpassed the flow of time. It would be unnecessary for Su Yu and Tai Xiong Mo to fight for any time.

"Human! Bring out your true ability!" Tai Xiong mo shouted at Su Yu from afar. He formed a seal with his hands and countless white bone spikes immediately appeared in his body. They covered his entire body and turned him into a huge hedgehog.

At the same time, he crouched down and patted the ground with both hands.

Huge, sharp spikes as thick as a human extended out from the tunnel. They were incredibly swift and fierce, piercing through everything on the ground.

"Eh? If I remember correctly, this should be the white bone ten thousand saints ultimate skill of the past, right? That Fellow and all his tribesmen were killed by the carefree emperor, right? Why is there still a single seedling left in the world?"

"Moreover, since he has been imprisoned for so many years, he actually still has such a Deep Heavenly Dao power. This is truly surprising!"

Creak —

The skinny old man walked out from the passageway. He looked at Tai Xiong Mo with a surprised expression. He twirled his beard and said, "Not bad, not bad. Your buttocks are also quite round."

"This old man has been lonely for so many years, but I did not have a single companion to accompany me. Now that three of them have come, it is truly a pity!" As the skinny old man said this, he had already arrived in front of Su Yu, he stretched out his arm, ready to wrap it around Su Yu's waist. "From now on, the three of you will accompany this old man and live a good life. hahahaha..."

Su Yu's eyes were indifferent. The power of chaos and the power of the saintly being appeared in his body at the same time, condensing into a two-colored airflow.

“Mortal Saint Body!” Su Yu shouted in a low voice. He held the kalpa scythe in his left hand and the absolute heaven sword in his right hand.

This was the first time he had used the power of the two great killing weapons.

The effect was unexpectedly powerful!

The eleventh golden head of the eternal scythe seemed to have sensed something. Its half-opened eyes suddenly opened, and its empty eyes released endless black light.

The boundless fierce Qi of the absolute heaven sword seemed to have been stimulated. It wanted to get rid of the suppression of the vengeful souls and released sword Qi that soared into the sky.

“Time freeze!” A time domain swept in all directions with him as the center.

The time domain also carried a trace of weak absolute beginning force, which doubled the effect of time freeze!

Even the skinny old man could freeze in an instant!

Taking this opportunity, the Sickles and the heaven-destroying sword in Su Yu’s left and right hands pincer attacked his body.

Chi —

A streak of purple blood shot into the sky!

It was actually the skinny old man’s arms. Under the pincer attack of the two powerful forces, he was finally injured.

The purple blood shot into the sky from the two deep bloody scars!

At the same time, under the powerful impact, the skinny old man’s entire body shook violently and was sent flying several miles away!

This scene caused the little skeleton and the Tai Xiong Mo to suck in a breath of cold air.

They never expected that Su Yu actually had such a trump card hidden!

With one strike, Su Yu rushed back into the passage without any hesitation. At the same time, he added a time acceleration domain around his body.

Tai Xiong Mo also reacted and rushed in.

The thin old man suffered unexpected damage and could not be stopped for a moment.

When he rushed back into the passage, Su Yu and Tai Xiong Mo had already completely charged into the third level of the Heavenly Dao prison!

They had succeeded!

They had successfully passed through the Elder’s protection and entered the third level of the Heavenly Dao prison!

If this news were to spread out, nobody would believe it at all.

However, the little skeleton was dazed and mumbled, “It’s over! They are completely done for!”

...

Looking from the corner of his eyes, the elder's smiling face had turned extremely gloomy. His eyes were full of killing intent. "I wanted to be merciful, but you didn't give me a Chance!"

As he spoke, he stepped into the passageway and... stepped into the third level of the Heavenly Dao prison!

He wasn't a ferocious corpse and could only guard the entrance.

He... could enter and exit any level!

Shua —

Su Yu's feet landed on the third level of the Heavenly Dao prison. Before he could look out, he felt a huge suction force under his feet. He couldn't help but gather the power of chaos and the power of his saintly being to stabilize his body and not sink.

Looking down, Su Yu's pupils constricted.

He saw that underneath the third level of the Heavenly Dao prison was not the earth, but a huge rotating eyeball.

That eyeball gathered all the dark emotions in the world. Anger, curses, hatred, sorrow, depression, malice..

Every negative emotion that living beings had, the eyeball had everything.

And it was the countless negative emotions that gathered into a devouring force that pulled everything in the third level of the Heavenly Dao prison into it.

...

Looking at that eye, Su Yu's blood boiled. The countless injustices, losses, pain, and resentment he had experienced all surged out, making his eyes turn red and making him lose his mind like a wild beast.

Fortunately, a flash of remnant soul ancestral art appeared in front of his chest, making him instantly sober up.

He hurriedly averted his gaze and was so shocked that his back was covered in cold sweat.

Just one look was enough to affect his emotions. The existence of this eye was too terrifying!

He looked around, and the complete picture of the third layer of Heavenly Dao prison finally appeared before his eyes.

However, when he saw the complete picture, Su Yu's heart sank into an unprecedented shock. He stood there absent-mindedly, and his eyes were filled with disbelief.

He saw something that he couldn't believe his entire life.

Chapter 3075 finally meeting the seven emperors

Even when he learned that the nine dragons ancient god he wanted to meet the most was actually Zhan Wushuang's successor, he, Su Yu, had never been so shocked by an accident.

This was because the third layer of the Heavenly Dao prison was in the shape of a moon.

This shape was engraved into Su Yu's bones and he would never forget it.

It was the place that changed his fate and the place where he met the love of his life — Divine Moon Island!

!!

Everything began on Divine Moon Island.

Su Yu had once obtained the nine dragons divine cauldron here and met Qin Xian 'er and Xia Jingyu here. He had once been so passionate here that a flying dragon rose to the sky and made a name for himself.

However, he had never dreamed that he would see Divine Moon Island in the Heavenly Dao prison set up by son of the Mirror Flower Emperor.

Although it was a divine Moon Island that was ten thousand times smaller and only had a circumference of ten miles.

However, every grass, tree, mountain, and river was the Divine Moon Island of the past.

He felt as if he had fallen into a huge flood, which made him doubt everything.

What kind of place was the Divine Moon Island?

Was everything he experienced on the island a coincidence, or was someone manipulating it?

In his daze, an ancient voice lingered in the air.

“Who... is here?”The voice seemed to have come from the beginning of time. It was distant and distant, but also like the first sound of the creation of Heaven and earth. It was deafening.

Su Yu woke up in shock. He looked up at the source of the voice and his pupils constricted.

In the sky, seven Black Suns shone on the earth.

They were motionless and silent for thousands of years.

Su Yu circulated his vision and finally saw clearly that there was a sleeping giant in each of the Black Suns.

Su Yu felt a familiar aura from their bodies that was connected by blood.

That was an ancient aura that was similar to Ren Zu.

Seeing them, Su Yu felt like he saw Ren Zu, who stood tall and was fighting alone in the sky!

There was no mistake!

It was them. They were the seven disciples who followed Ren zu and attacked the sacred mountain.

They had indeed been imprisoned here for an era!

Su Yu folded his sleeves and bowed respectfully. “The descendant of the human race, Su Yu, greets the seven disciples of Ren Zu.”

That was Su Yu's heartfelt respect.

He had gone through all sorts of dangers to come to the third level of the Heavenly Dao prison just to see them.

"My descendant... is also an inheritor protected by my ancestor..." that ethereal voice was obviously more excited.

One of the seven Black Suns gave off a faint red light, causing the dim third layer to be slightly red.

"It's finally here... It's finally here..." the red light in the black sun was even more obvious.

The other seven Black Suns seemed to have woken up, and they all gave off a wisp of red light.

Furthermore, the red light grew stronger and stronger, and it lit up the entire divine Moon Island as if it was on fire.

"My ancestor once said that his descendants would come looking for us... we've finally waited for you!" A deafening voice came from another black sun.

"My ancestor isn't dead, and the human race isn't destroyed. The wait of an era hasn't been in vain!"

Rumble —

The Seven Giants within the Seven Suns slowly woke up. They stretched out their arms and legs, pushing the black sun to its maximum.

Pairs of eyes that looked down on the world and were filled with lofty emotions opened as if they could destroy the world.

Bang Bang —

The entire Heavenly Dao prison started to shake.

The expression of the skinny old man who was descending changed drastically. He stopped abruptly and said in shock, "The seven emperors... woke up? How? How?"

In the second level of Heavenly Dao prison, one hundred coffins flew up. Each coffin released a huge, Bright Heavenly Dao character.

They formed a huge, shining net that sealed the ground of the Second Heavenly Dao prison.

The trembling ground calmed down, but it only lasted for a moment.

The power of awakening from the third level shattered the huge net, and the entire second level immediately collapsed. More than a hundred coffins were shattered.

The experts sealed within broke out of seclusion one after another.

One of the experts looked at the collapsing Heavenly Dao prison, shock appeared on his face.

"What... What's going on? Twenty years ago, an emperor only woke up for a moment and caused the Heavenly Dao prison to shake, causing the external seal to shatter and giving countless prisoners a chance to escape."

“What’s going on now?”

He was one of the escapees who wanted to escape back then, but was caught.

However, he clearly remembered that the commotion back then was less than one-tenth of what it was now!

Boom

With a loud sound, the ground of the second level of Heavenly Dao prison started to collapse, and the tunnel also quickly collapsed.

“Let’s Go!”

With a loud roar, the many experts who had escaped fled.

At the same time, the fierce corpse guarding the entrance of the second level of Heavenly Dao prison revealed a fearful expression. It let out a low roar and immediately fled.

...

In the swamp of death, the three incomparably ferocious beasts also left the swamp of death in a panic and fled towards the outside world.

In the distance.

Under the cover of a formless power, the crystal pillars were all unable to bear the burden and exploded. All the sinners escaped from within.

And in the outside world.

The seal that couldn’t be repaired with great difficulty was rapidly cracking at an astonishing speed!

On the glass seal.

The leader of the Rockmen was respectfully accompanying a five-colored Rockman to inspect the condition of the seal being repaired.

This person was the representative sent by the upper-level Rockman Hall. His mission was to inspect the condition of the seal being repaired.

“Sir, as instructed, the seal has been repaired within the time limit.” The leader of the rockmen said obsequiously, “We have completed the mission according to the requirements of the upper-level.”

The five-colored stone golem squatted down and used its finger to gently press down on the glass. The powerful seal actually moved slightly under its pressure.

The leader of the stone golems secretly sucked in a breath of cold air when he saw this. The respectful expression on his face became more and more obvious. The only one who could use the power of a finger to press down on the entire seal and make it shake was a ten thousand saints level expert!

...

“There’s a slight flaw!”The five-colored stone golem narrowed its eyes and looked around. Then, its gaze stopped at a corner.

His figure flashed and left an afterimage. Then, he teleported everyone away and appeared in front of an illusory formation left behind by Su Yu.

The Rockman leader looked around but did not find anything. While he was at a loss, the five-colored Rockman stretched out his finger and pointed at the illusory formation.

A huge fluctuation appeared in the air and a strange scene flashed past.

The leader of the Rockmen immediately came to a realization, and his face turned pale. “An... Illusion Formation?”

His heart trembled, and he berated, “What are you waiting for? Tear down the Illusion Formation!”

The rockmen behind him were all frightened, and they took out their Dao artifacts and attacked.

The illusion formation was powerful because of its hallucination. It didn’t have much defensive power, so it was broken in two or three moves, revealing the real scene inside.

A small crack that had been preserved by a human appeared in front of everyone.

The stone man leader’s feet were cold. He knelt down with fear and said, “Reporting to sir, this subordinate failed to notice. Please punish me, Sir.”

Repairing the seal was such an important matter, but he had not done it properly. The punishment that awaited him would be unimaginable.

However, the five-colored stone man looked at the illusory formation and only said, “It’s not your fault. After all, it’s an expert of the soul sacred clan who came personally. It would be strange if you could see through it.”

Chapter 3076 past life and present life

The Rockman leader and the others heaved a sigh of relief, and then they were surprised. “Sir, how can it be that an expert from the soul sacred clan is personally here?”

As far as he knew, the seven ancestors of the soul sacred clan rarely showed up.

The five-colored Rockman looked at the broken illusory formation and said indifferently, “Without the soul ancestor technique, one can not cast such a profound illusory formation.”

His gaze then fell onto the crack and said, “Fix the crack. Since that person likes to go in, then don’t come out again.”

!!

Once the seal was fixed, no matter how great the other party’s abilities were, they wouldn’t be able to come out from the Heavenly Dao prison.

“Yes!”The Rockman leader immediately waved his hand, and the group of people prepared to fix the crack.

This crack was only a small piece, and it would be completely repaired in a day at most.

However, at this moment, inside the Heavenly Dao prison, under the translucent glass, flames soared into the sky, and an unimaginable impact came rumbling from below.

Kacha Kacha —

A large area of cracks appeared on the glass seal within a radius of 1,000 li. One after another, cracks as thick as a human's body spread out at an astonishing speed across the entire seal.

There were countless tiny cracks!

What was even more terrifying was that the power that was released did not decrease. Instead, it surged out from the ground with an even more powerful momentum, continuously expanding the cracks.

In the end, the huge glass seal shattered into pieces!

In the first layer of the Heavenly Dao prison, the prisoners sealed in the crystal pillar and the prisoners that were banished inside were all overjoyed and rushed out one after another.

For a moment, the heaven and earth were filled with screaming bandits who rushed out of the Heavenly Dao prison in dense numbers.

On top of the seal, the expressions of the Rockmen who had been shaken by the huge force changed drastically.

The drastic change in the Heavenly Dao prison had caught them off guard!

The five-colored Rockman was the only person who could stand amidst the shaking. His eyes were filled with intense killing intent. He raised his hand and pointed, and a pillar of light shot into the sky.

The Dark Sky was immediately illuminated by this pillar of light, revealing the thousand sacred mountains floating silently in the sky.

Countless rockmen flew out from above. They were like a black cloud that sealed the sky above the Heavenly Dao prison. It was so airtight that not even a fly could escape.

The five-colored Rockman said indifferently, "Kill them all. Leave No one alive!"

He turned his peripheral vision and entered the Heavenly Dao prison through the crack to investigate.

The scene at this moment in the third level of the Heavenly Dao prison could be described as heaven collapsing and earth shattering.

The second level of the Heavenly Dao prison above their heads had completely collapsed. Countless collapsed ruins fell into the huge eyes under Su Yu's feet and were devoured by the eyes.

Tai Xiong Devil, who was hiding in the tunnel and quietly watching the situation below, fell down in a sorry state and looked at the Seven Suns above his head in shock.

"How is this possible?" Tai Xiong mo murmured, "In order to prevent their humanity from being devoured, didn't the seven emperors fall into an eternal slumber?"

He remembered very clearly that twenty years ago, the carefree Emperor personally came to ask about one of the emperors, Su Yu.

In the end, he woke up one of the emperors and caused an endless shock, causing the Heavenly Dao prison to shatter and countless prisoners to escape.

But now, in the future of the emperor, just the appearance of the black-robed man in front of him had triggered the collective awakening of the seven emperors?

Who exactly was he?

If he remembered correctly, the power of the saintly being and the power of chaos had appeared before this!

Su Yu looked at the map of the Divine Moon Island that was becoming clearer and clearer under the blood-red light. His eyes were filled with confusion. "Can you tell me what happened?"

The appearance of the Divine Moon Island made him feel that the two hundred years of his life seemed to have been arranged by someone.

If that was the case, what was the meaning of everything?

The emperor in the middle had a pair of dim yellow eyes that shone with a light that could see through everything. "Even if you don't ask, we will follow the orders of our ancestors and tell you everything."

"Do you remember how you came to the Divine Moon Island?"

Su Yu's heart skipped a beat. He had thought about this question for a very, very long time.

The more he cultivated to the peak of martial arts, the more confused he was about coming to the Divine Moon Island.

Before he transmigrated, he used to be an ordinary person on Earth. After the plane fell, he died but his soul was not destroyed. He came to the body of a person named Su Yu on the Divine Moon Island.

And in his current realm, the soul of a dead person could not be destroyed. Only a heavenly dao expert with a high cultivation level could do that.

It was impossible for an ordinary person to keep his soul from being destroyed in such a huge disaster like the plane crash.

The only explanation was that someone had protected his soul!

"It seems that you don't remember." The emperor said slowly, "I'll help you recover your memories from that year."

As his voice fell, his dim yellow eyes shot out a sharp light and pierced into Su Yu's eyes.

Immediately, Su Yu felt as if the world was spinning.

A burning scene appeared in front of his eyes. A plane had crashed into the forest and was surrounded by flames.

All the passengers on the plane had died. A young man in a suit who was bleeding from his eyes, ears, nose, and mouth near the window caused Su Yu's pupils to constrict.

That was him from his "Previous life"!

At this moment, he was completely dead. He could not be any more dead.

Threads of soul fluorescence were slowly being sucked into the boundless universe by the Heavenly Dao and entered the mysterious ultimate world.

However, suddenly, a huge hand that covered the sky and the Sun crossed the sky without any warning and swept away all of Su Yu's soul fluorescence.

The huge palm had deep veins and a boundless sense of heaviness and sorrow. There were also traces of blood donations flowing in the palm.

He recognized that palm. It was Ren Zu!

Ren Zu had taken Su Yu's soul, which was supposed to be destroyed, away.

...

Then, the scene changed. Su Yu's soul was forcefully injected into the body of a person who had just died.

That person was the current Su Yu!

At this point, Su Yu finally understood everything. There was no past life or present life.

There was only the gratitude of Ren zu for saving his life.

Then, the scene continued to rotate. An ancient cauldron with nine dragons flew across the sky and into the distance.

On the ground, Su Yu was cultivating diligently in the forest as usual.

Su Yu remembered that it was a scene where he had received a warning from Qin Feng's father and was stimulated by Jiang Xueqing's severing of all ties. He was cultivating with all his might.

From the trajectory, the giant cauldron should not have flown towards Su Yu.

However, Ren Zu's palm passed through the air and forcefully changed the trajectory of the giant cauldron. In the end, it fell toward Su Yu and smashed into his soul!

Su Yu came to a realization.

Ancient God Nine Dragons had once said that the successor he had chosen was Zhan wushuang, a natural-born emperor, and not Su Yu. It was only because someone had interfered that the nine dragons divine cauldron had fallen into Su Yu's hands.

...

It wasn't an accident, but Ren zu had done it on purpose.

The scene ended there, and Su Yu came back to his senses with an indescribable disappointment in his heart. Could it be that everything I've experienced was arranged by Ren Zu

“No!”The emperor said slowly, “Ren zu only arranged what you saw, and he no longer has the ability to arrange more...”

Hearing this, Su Yu’s eyes regained their luster.

Chapter 3077 the Golden Key

There was only one part of his life that had been arranged by humans, and everything that followed was real.

This made him feel completely at ease.

“Why did Ren zu choose me?”Su Yu asked. He did not think that he was worthy of Ren Zu’s attention in his previous life.

In terms of strength, there were many magnates among the human descendants. Wouldn’t it be better to give them the inheritance?

!!

Perhaps, in the past two hundred years, there had already been another existence that stood shoulder to shoulder with Ren Zu.

However, the emperor said something that shocked su yu, “You are not the only one that Ren zu has arranged.”

What!

Su Yu was shocked. There was actually more than one successor like him?

He did not feel indignant. Instead, he felt excited and expectant. Could it be that there were still people in the greater world who were like him, who were entrusted by Ren Zu, who were oppressed by the fate of the Sacred Mountain and other places?

Suddenly, he felt that he was not alone.

“Where are they?”Su Yu asked.

The emperor sighed and said, “In the dust of time.”

In other words, they had all died. Only Su Yu had managed to reach this day.

“The path to the revival of the human race is as difficult as ascending to the heavens.”The emperor said slowly, “The only one who can reach this day is you.”

Su Yu’s hopes were dashed, but when he thought about it carefully, how difficult was the road to martial arts?

The difficulty of the road to martial arts could not even be described with words.

To be able to reach Su Yu’s level was a miracle.

Su Yu said dispiritedly, “Why did Ren zu not choose the current human experts?”

Although the human race had declined a lot and had become a ninth-rate race at the bottom of the ten thousand races, the short ones were able to pick out some decent experts, which was much stronger than Su Yu at that time.

“That’s because the limits of those experts have been fixed. Even if the Ren Zu’s inheritance was given to them, they wouldn’t be able to become the ren zu of the new generation. Therefore, the Ren zu had to pick out a descendant with unlimited potential from the countless human races.”

Su Yu deeply agreed. Many of the older generations couldn’t take one more step forward in their lives, which was because their potential had been exhausted.

“Then what about the terrain of the Divine Moon Island on the ground?” Su Yu continued to ask.

The emperor replied, “That is, the traces left behind by the Carefree Emperor.”

He stared at Su Yu, and his expression became solemn. “The carefree emperor already knows about Ren Zu’s plan.”

Su Yu, on the other hand, appeared very calm. He said calmly, “And then?”

What was the difference between knowing and not knowing?

He and carefree son of Heaven had long formed a life-and-death grudge. Even if he was not ren Zu’s successor, the other party still wanted to get rid of him.

“Then, your ren Zu’s inheritance naturally carries the risk of losing it.”

Ren Zu’s inheritance?

Su Yu shook his head in confusion. The seven emperors had repeatedly said that Su Yu was Ren zu’s successor, but so far, he had only been saved by Ren zu a few times and learned how to control the Universal Cauldron once.

It was not really an inheritance.

“Ren zu left you an inheritance.” The emperor said firmly, “You came here today to take the key to open the inheritance.”

Su Yu was stunned. The real inheritance was still left?

Among the seven blood-colored suns, the majestic figures all stood up straight, holding the sun up.

One of the emperors said, “The carefree emperor only knows that Ren zu left behind an inheritance, but he doesn’t know that the key to the inheritance has always been with us.”

Another said, “Before ren zu ascended the sacred mountain, he had already made preparations. He left a Ren zu seal on each of us. Only by combining the seals of the seven of us can we open the inheritance.”

“At the same time, the seven seals each represent a human ancestor technique. How much you can comprehend from it is up to you.”

The seven of them left, and blood splattered everywhere. However, when the blood ran out, a pool of golden-yellow blood flowed out.

The golden-colored blood exuded a heavy aura that came from Ren Zu.

After they flowed out, they each condensed into a key fragment. Then, seven or eight key fragments condensed into a complete key and fell from the high school.

The Tai Xiong Demon was listening from the side. How could he not be moved when he heard this?

His figure flashed and he rushed over first, grabbing the golden key.

In this regard, the seven emperors were incomparably indifferent, treating it as if it was air.

It was as if they were not worried that someone would be able to snatch it away. Unfortunately, the Tai Xiong Demon's attention was all on the key, so he did not notice anything unusual.

However, he was still quite vigilant. He did not touch it directly with his body. Instead, he took out a jade box and caught it.

Jade was an extremely pure object and it was very difficult for anything to corrode it.

However, when the golden key fell into the jade box, it melted the jade box. Tai Xiong Demon was shocked and immediately threw the jade box away.

However, when the golden key melted through the bottom of the jade box, it still touched Tai Xiong Mo's palm.

A terrifying scene appeared. Even someone as powerful as him melted into water vapor the moment the golden key touched him. Not even dregs were left.

One of the emperors said indifferently, "Do the other living beings dare to touch Ren Zu's inheritance?"

Ren Zu was the great ancestor who could compete with the son of Heaven of the sacred mountain. It would be strange if his inheritance was easily taken away by the other races.

The Golden Key Fell silently and finally landed in front of Su Yu's chest.

Su Yu was stunned. He looked at the golden key and did not feel any danger. Instead, a feeling of being connected by blood surged into his heart.

He reached out his hand and grabbed the golden key. It didn't hurt him at all. Instead, it warmed Su Yu's body.

...

After observing for a while, Su Yu suddenly thought of a question. "Where is Ren Zu's inheritance?"

There was only the key in this place, but where was the inheritance?

"It's where you came from," one of the emperors said indifferently.

Where did he come from? Did he mean earth?

Su Yu was stunned. Where was Earth, and where was it?

He couldn't help but have a question in his heart. What was Earth in the absolute beginning realm?

There was no martial arts there. It was an insignificant civilization without any martial arts. It was even lower than the mecha civilization he had encountered before.

“Earth, there is a name. Perhaps, you have never heard of it, but it shouldn't be unfamiliar,” an emperor said slowly. “It is called — Experiment Point Zero!”

Su Yu was extremely familiar with the experiment point.

The Star Alliance Chamber of Commerce once had a warship called experiment point thirty. He had been there before, and the mech civilization that was filled with flying warships and hidden in the endless void storms was experiment point one.

In other words, earth was the same as the mech civilization, the product of the Sacred Mountain's experiment?

...

He was truly at a loss. “Seven emperors, may I ask, what is the meaning of the existence of the Experiment Point?”

The seven emperors shook their heads, and only one emperor said, “I once overheard Ren zu mention that it was the way for countless beings to survive after the great destruction of the Sacred Mountain.”

The nine-star civilization had been destroyed time and time again, and the current nine-star civilization would be the last.

When the civilization was destroyed, all living beings would lose their attachment to it. What would they do then?

The son of Heaven of the sacred mountain had already given the answer — the martial way had been exterminated. All the living beings had forgotten about the martial way and lived their lives as ordinary people.

Earth was the final path that the son of Heaven of the Sacred Mountain had designed for all the living beings in the absolute beginning realm!

Chapter 3078 Heaven's path inheritance

Su Yu's vision seemed to be clear as he understood the significance of the experiment sites he had encountered.

It turned out that he was using the experiment sites to observe which civilization was more suitable for the survival of the creatures in the future era of the great destruction.

Without a doubt, the Earth model would be their best choice.

Because under this model, all the creatures would lose their martial arts and would no longer be able to resist the rule of the sacred mountain.

!!

“The Sacred Mountain wants to enslave us all, all the creatures of the myriad races, into a vast and worthless dog. They will transform into the True Heavenly Dao and completely rule the world from now on,” an emperor said slowly.

“Therefore, Su Yu, I’ll leave the heavy burden on the shoulders of the Ren Zu to you!”

“Please go to Earth and take out the legacy that Ren Zu placed there. Only after you obtain it will you be the true successor of Ren Zu.”

The current Su Yu was only a candidate for Ren Zu’s legacy. He had yet to obtain the true legacy.

Su Yu’s heart was filled with excitement. What would Ren Zu’s legacy be?

After obtaining it, what kind of earth-shaking changes would happen to his strength? Would he be able to compete with the son of Heaven of the Sacred Mountain?

“May I ask, Earth, no, where is the zero experimental point?” Su Yu asked.

The emperor in the middle said, “It... is at the end of the Heavenly Road.”

Heavenly Road?

Not long ago, Su Yu had heard from the conversation between the Saint of Thieves and the galaxy swordsman that it seemed to be a mysterious organization?

“To step onto the Heavenly Road, you must obtain the qualifications.” The emperor said slowly, “That qualification is to become the king of a race! Only a king can lead the human race to step onto the Heavenly Road.”

King?

There were many mighty figures in the human race. It was easier said than done to become their king!

“If you can’t even become the king of the human race, you are not qualified to inherit the legacy of Ren Zu,” an emperor warned. “The legacy of Ren Zu will not be left to human slaves!”

Su Yu’s expression was solemn. He cupped his fists and said, “Human juniors, remember this.”

After a pause, Su Yu said what he was thinking, “If I inherit everything of the Ren Zu, can I compete with the Emperor?”

“Yes!” This time, the seven emperors replied at the same time, “If you are the ancestor, you will obtain all the power of the previous human group and command all the living beings in the world to contend with the Emperor.”

Hearing this, Su Yu’s heart palpitated.

As long as he obtained the legacy, he could stand at the top of the ten thousand races?

This attraction was simply too great!

At that time, with the respect of the new generation's ancestor, he would be able to destroy the sacred mountain, control the sinkhole, and revive his former lover. Everything would not be a problem.

“Heaven's path, Earth.” Su Yu clenched his fists. The world in front of him became clearer than ever before.

In the past, he had always been forced by the general situation. Under the pressure of the situation, he was constantly moving forward towards the future.

Even though he wanted to open the sinkhole and save Xian 'er, he had no direction. All he knew was to increase his strength.

But now, he was like a lamb that had lost its way.

He wanted to step onto the path to heaven and obtain the legacy of Ren Zu. From then on, he would control everything!

Boom

Seven Black Lightning Bolts shot out from the eyes under his feet and struck the seven blood-colored suns in the sky.

Boom! The seven emperors that were holding on bent their backs in pain. Each of their stout bodies was entangled by a bolt of lightning. The Emperor in the middle roared, “We've been tricked!”

What was going on?

Su Yu looked at the eyes on the ground. At this moment, the eyes revealed a mocking smile. At the same time, a hollow voice echoed in the third level of the Heavenly Dao prison.

“Seven emperors, you were too careless. You Didn't expect me to set up an ambush for you here, did you?”

The voice made Su Yu's eyes turn extremely cold.

The carefree emperor! !

It was him!

The emperor in the middle suddenly changed his expression and growled, “Su Yu, go! The carefree emperor is coming!”

Twenty years ago, the carefree Emperor had arrived here. He had predicted that Ren zu's successor would come here, so he had a trick up his sleeve. When the seven emperors woke up, his trick would be triggered.

Su Yu's heart tightened. He immediately took out his heaven-ending sword and tried to pull it out to save them.

The Emperor in the middle shook his head. His body was rapidly turning black. “Don't waste your energy. The Sun that binds us is a cage that the great emperor has personally set up. Other than him, no one can break it, including the Carefree Emperor!”

Without giving Su Yu a chance to speak, he quickly said, “My name is Emperor Qing. I Am Ren Zu’s first disciple! Now, in the name of Ren Zu’s disciple, I order you to leave immediately and never come back.”

Su Yu’s heart was shaking non-stop. “But you guys...”

Emperor Qing crouched down in pain and hugged each other tightly. His entire body turned black uncontrollably, and it was extremely difficult for him to even speak. “Su Yu, remember, if you have enough strength one day, remember to show No Mercy!”

As he spoke, he suddenly opened his mouth, and a pillar of light shot out from his mouth, shooting straight up.

Everything along the way was pierced through.

The third and second layer of the barrier, the first layer of the Heavenly Dao prison’s glass seal, were all shattered into pieces by the light beam, especially the outermost layer of the seal, which was completely shattered!

The black mass of Rockmen who were suppressing the prisoners were all destroyed, revealing a large area of emptiness.

The eyes on the ground suddenly shrank, and a cold and angry voice roared, “Emperor Qing! You still have a trick up your sleeve? !”

After the seven emperors were captured, they were all sealed off to prevent them from escaping.

However, they didn’t expect that Emperor Qing had always kept a power in his body that could break through the Heavenly Dao prison. For many years, he didn’t use this power to escape. Instead, he listened to Ren Zu’s order and waited for his successor to come.

He also used this power to give him a chance to escape and ascend to heaven.

“Run!” Emperor Qing roared. The sound wave swept over and sucked Su Yu into it.

...

Under the effect of the terrifying light beam, Su Yu’s body was pushed out of the Heavenly Dao prison.

At this moment, Su Yu’s heart shook violently.

That was the ren Zu’s disciples that he wanted to see. They were the same as Ren Zu. They were willing to sacrifice themselves for the great cause of the human race and for the lives of millions of people!

A wave of hot tears swirled in his eyes. The hot blood that had been dormant for so many years was like the beating of a war drum. It suddenly surged.

“Seven patriarchs, don’t worry. Su Yu, the descendant of the human race, will definitely not let you down!” Su Yu recalled Ren Zu’s words that he had once shouted, “If my ancestor does not die, the human race will not perish!”

The seven emperors once again spoke in unison. Using their remaining strength, they let out a roar that shook space and time, “My ancestor! Does Not! Die! Human! Race! Does Not! Perish!”

The eight sonorous words were like sharp swords and sabers that could destroy the shackles of the Heavenly Dao. They shook the Heavenly Dao prison that had bound them for an entire era!

In the passage, the pale-faced old man was grabbing the little skeleton and quickly escaping from the collapsed Heavenly Dao prison.

The green emperor suddenly shouted, “Old qilin, you betrayed Ren zu and joined the sacred mountain. Now, use your life as a slave to atone for your sins!”

His words shook the heaven and earth as if they had touched the laws of the Heavenly Dao.

Chapter 3079 inheritance of faith

The ancient voice that shook the ancient and modern world took form and condensed into a golden chain.

Chi La —

A golden light flashed as the golden chain passed through the void and appeared in front of the pale-faced old man.

The old man was so scared that he threw the little skeleton away and shouted, “I didn’t! I didn’t betray Ren Zu!”

!!

However, the golden chains were filled with cold and merciless rules. They instantly pounced on the old man and wrapped him up. The surface of his body was immediately burned by the golden chains until Green Smoke was rising.

The old man shouted anxiously, “Son of Heaven, save me!”

At the critical moment, he shouted anxiously and opened his mouth to spit out a purple bead. The bead emitted an extremely pure power of chaos.

A gloomy and white face could be seen on the bead.

It was the carefree emperor.

“Green Emperor, you hid it well!” The carefree emperor shouted. The golden chains binding the old man started to rot.

Green Emperor, who was in the middle, kept turning black. Even so, he was still majestic.

“Hahahaha! If you didn’t hide it well, how could I lure you here?”

Eh?

The carefree emperor’s pupils constricted. He immediately realized that he had been tricked.

Emperor Qing laughed. “I knew that you left this old qilin with a divine pearl that can be projected. It contains ten drops of your son of Heaven’s blood, right?”

The carefree emperor’s face darkened. “You want my son of Heaven’s blood?”

It turned out that Emperor Qing had no interest in the old qilin. He was interested in forcing the old qilin to take out the divine pearl.

“HMPH, you schemed against me. Why Can’t I plot against you? Use your son of Heaven’s blood as the hope of the human race to ascend to the saintly being once again!”The Green Emperor’s eyes shot out two corporeal rays of light.

The rays of light were like sharp arrows that shot straight toward the holy bead.

“HMPH!”The carefree son of Heaven’s face snorted coldly. He swept the holy bead up into the air and released a gloomy air current.

Chi —

A sharp arrow shot over and shook the Heavenly Dao prison until it completely collapsed. The old qilin, who was as powerful as him, was even shaken to the point that he trembled on the spot. He rolled on the ground and staggered.

When he stabilized his body, he realized that his chest had actually been torn open. Purple blood flowed fiercely.

That was merely the remnant power of the sharp arrow. Its true power was enough to kill it into ashes.

However, the power of the sharp arrow was still blocked by the black airflow, making it unable to break through the holy bead.

However, there was not only one sharp arrow, but two.

“Go!”The Green Emperor roared, and another sharp arrow suddenly shot over, completely breaking through the airflow and shooting into the ball.

Puff —

A string of colorful blood of the son of heaven spurted out of the ball.

On the sacred pearl, the face of the carefree son of Heaven was abnormally furious. “Azure Emperor!”

He had never thought that the Azure Emperor would actually retain a considerable amount of power and not unleash it. It was only today that he suddenly attacked, causing a huge impact on his plan.

According to the plan, this sacred pearl was the key to his projection. With ten drops of blood, he could quickly descend onto a powerful projection and quickly control the situation.

Not only could he obtain the key released by the seven emperors, but he could also capture the descendant of Ren zu who came to receive the inheritance on the spot.

In the end, because of Emperor Qing’s concealment, his projection could not successfully descend.

Not only that, even his precious ten drops of Emperor’s blood had been taken away, becoming the key to Ren Zu’s descendant advancing to the saintly being.

“Hahahahaha...”Emperor Qing threw his head back and laughed. “Back then when you sealed us, you didn’t think that there would be such a day!”

As he laughed wildly, he opened his mouth and shouted, and the ten drops of Emperor’s blood caught up to Su Yu.

His Bright Eyes were filled with anticipation. “Su Yu, go and create a tomorrow for our clan!”

Swoosh —

The ten drops of Emperor’s blood caught up to Su Yu in an instant and was grabbed by Su Yu.

He turned around and looked at the tiny seven Suns. His heart was moved, and the hot blood that he had not seen for a long time roared like a furious beast in his heart.

The little skeleton that was scattered on the ground looked at Emperor Qing who was as black as ink. Its eyes were filled with sorrow. It lay on the ground and bowed deeply. “Emperor Qing! !”

Emperor Qing looked at it and said, “Go. Do your best to help Su Yu and fulfill our last wish.”

“But Emperor Qing, you...”the little skeleton whimpered. His departure might be a farewell.

Emperor Qing looked at the sky and saw the sky outside the Heavenly Dao prison. “Ren zu once said that a trapped body can not stop the flying of faith! I think I have done it.”

For the faith of the human race, he had to compromise and be imprisoned for an era.

“Diting, I might be exterminated forever...”Emperor Qing’s expression suddenly became painful. His face kept twitching and he started to stutter. It was as if something was fighting for his control over his body.

“Now, I will hand over my faith to you. You, take my faith and follow the new master.”The Green Emperor hugged his body tightly in pain.

Diting’s sobs became deeper. “Green Emperor! ! !”

“Go quickly!”The green emperor shouted one last time. His dim yellow eyes were gradually covered by a layer of evil blood.

Diting bowed deeply. “I will obey the Green Emperor’s decree!”

After saying that, he looked back at Emperor Qing three times and jumped into the light pillar.

Before jumping in, Emperor Qing said one last thing, “You must tell him... that when we meet in the future... Don’t show mercy.”

“Ah!”!

After saying that, Emperor Qing let out a painful roar. Then, his voice disappeared into the endless darkness.

...

With tears in his eyes, Di Ting disappeared into the light pillar.

Finally, the old qilin, who was bound by the chains, jumped into the end of the light pillar when the Heavenly Dao prison collapsed. He disappeared into the Heavenly Dao prison along with the light pillar.

In the outside world.

The light pillar that soared into the sky emptied out a group of Rockmen. Su Yu was rushed out by the light pillar and appeared in the sky above the seal.

The surrounding Rockmen were staring at the light pillar with terrified eyes, as well as Su Yu, who suddenly appeared in the light pillar.

“What are you still standing there for? Kill him!”The leader of the Rockmen shouted angrily.

Coincidentally, the pillar of light lost its source of power and quickly faded away. The rockmen immediately swept towards Su Yu from all directions like a black tide.

Su Yu’s eyes turned red when he saw the situation while he was grieving for the loss of the seven emperors. He held the kalpa scythe in his left hand and the heaven-destroying sword in his right hand. His saintly being and the power of chaos burst out at the same time.

“Go to hell! !”

Boom —

The two world-destroying divine weapons exploded with destructive power that could destroy everything within ten thousand miles.

...

The stone golems and the escaped prisoners were all within the range of destruction.

Ah —

Amidst countless screams, the stone golems and the vicious prisoners turned into dust one after another.

After the aftermath, there was only scorched earth and a few remaining prisoners and stone golems above the seal.

Su Yu gritted his teeth. He wanted to kill Yu Ren, but the intense battles in the Heavenly Dao prison had exhausted him greatly and he could not continue fighting.

He could only keep the two divine weapons and leave as soon as there were no other rockmen in the ten small sacred mountains above him.

However, if he wanted to leave, there were naturally people who refused!

Chapter 3080 the projection arrived

“Stop!”The old qilin stumbled out of the ruins.

He still had a large number of golden chains on his body. Although those chains were much stronger than the carefree emperor's face, they still wrapped around the old qilin tightly, causing his strength to be greatly restricted.

“Human sacred physique, don't even think about leaving!”The old qilin shouted.

However, his strength was severely restricted. His speed, which was almost against the rules, could not be used. At this moment, he was not even as fast as Su Yu. He could only watch as Su Yu left.

!!

“Rockmen, Listen Up! The one who escaped is the one that emperor carefree must kill. capture him immediately,”the old kirin shouted.

The remaining rockmen treated the old Kirin's words as air. They were like defeated monkeys as they fled.

The old qilin roared angrily, “Are you deaf?”

The few stone golems who were escaping turned their heads and shouted, “Who the F * ck are you? You also ordered us?”

The old qilin was so angry that he blew his beard and widened his eyes. He puffed out his chest and a round bead floated out from his chest. When the stone golems saw this object, they all stopped running. Their faces were filled with deep fear as they knelt down on one knee respectfully, “Greetings, son of Heaven's spiritual pet.”

That round bead was no other object. It was the identity token that the carefree son of Heaven had given to his pet.

“Chase after that person immediately. Don't make any mistakes!”

However, with an order, none of the stone golems dared to move. Who would dare to chase after Su Yu?

Could it be that they did not see that Su Yu had killed almost all of the stone golems and bandits present with a single strike?

“All of you! A bunch of trash!”The old qilin's eyes darkened. “Since all of you are useless, then there's no point in keeping you alive!”

However, a dense purple air current appeared on the surface of his body. The air current condensed into a huge mouth and pounced over with a whistling sound, swallowing all the remaining rockmen present.

The Rockmen in the purple air current all turned into a ball of dark gray chaotic energy, returning to the old qilin's body.

A shocking scene appeared. Under the effect of the weak chaos energy, the golden chain cracked and slightly broke.

The chaos energy had an extremely powerful restraining effect on the golden chain! !

The chain broke slightly, causing the old qilin to release a small portion of his strength. With the old qilin's terrifying strength, even if he released a small portion, he would still be an extremely terrifying existence.

Sou —

The old qilin had already charged out in an instant.

Su Yu sensed it and turned his head, his gaze turning cold.

He secretly held onto the golden key. This key was left behind by Ren Zu, and it had great power. In this world, other than humans, any other race that touched it would be destroyed.

This old qilin in front of him was no exception.

“Old Man, let's untie the chains first!” Just as the old qilin was about to catch up to Su Yu, a mocking voice appeared above the old qilin's head without any warning.

A fiery-red jade lion suddenly stepped on the old qilin's head with its four hooves, directly stepping the latter down from the sky.

At the same time, it used the force to catch up to Su Yu and squatted in front of him. There was a complicated look in its eyes. “Human brat, it's too easy for you. Come Up!”

Su Yu had already heard the last words of the green emperor.

He jumped onto the jade lion without thinking. The latter glared with its legs and instantly disappeared without a trace. Its speed was hundreds of times faster than his own.

When the old qilin stabilized its body, it could no longer find Su Yu's shadow.

“You guys actually ran away?” The old qilin was extremely angry. It wondered what kind of existence it was to be able to let the two little things escape.

Shaking the golden chains on his body, the old qilin said angrily, “Damn you, Azure Emperor!”

If he hadn't hidden that move, everything would have gone as carefree emperor had planned. He had obtained the key to Ren Zu's inheritance and could even kill Ren Zu's successor. Unfortunately, all his efforts had been for naught.

Looking at the collapsed ruins, the old qilin returned to the ground and slowly untied the chains on his body.

Deep Underground, in the third level of the Heavenly Dao prison, in the collapsed Heavenly Dao prison, a figure was jumping back and forth, coming to the third level of the Heavenly Dao prison with great difficulty.

He was the five-colored stone man who had entered earlier. Looking at the Miserable Heavenly Dao prison, his expression was extremely solemn.

As the person-in-charge of the Heavenly Dao prison, he really didn't know how to explain such a big situation to the higher-ups.

All of a sudden, he noticed the seven Black Suns, and his eyes were filled with shock. Although he was the person-in-charge of the Heavenly Dao prison, he had never had the chance to come to the third level of the Heavenly Dao prison.

Only the emperor could come here.

“What are these?” He looked at the Seven Suns warily, and instinctively sensed that something was wrong, so he retreated slightly.

Unexpectedly, as he retreated, he accidentally stepped on something.

Looking back, he saw that it was the holy pearl that the old qilin had spat out to contain the projection of the carefree emperor. The Holy Pearl had already been shattered by the green emperor, but there was still a large piece of it scattered on the ground. At this moment, it had been crushed again by his foot.

However, there was actually a drop of the carefree emperor’s blood in this fragment that had not been discovered by the Green Emperor.

“This is the Emperor’s blood?” The five-colored stone golem’s pupils constricted. As stone golems, the Emperor’s blood had a pressure that came from their bloodlines.

However, it also gave them a desire that came from their nature.

If they could digest a drop, they could raise their level and become a higher level stone golem.

He squatted down excitedly and grabbed the drop of the blood of the son of heaven.

However, just as he grabbed the time, the gloomy face of the son of heaven appeared in the blood of the son of heaven. “It’s about time!”

After a cold snort, the son of Heaven’s blood seeped into the five-colored stone golem’s body without giving it time to react.

The five-colored stone golem’s body shook violently. His eyes rolled back and his vitality was extinguished. At the same time, another cold aura burst out from his body.

The five-colored stone golem’s body wiggled violently. It changed drastically.

In just a breath, his body changed from head to toe. From the five-colored stone golem, he turned into an existence that had covered the absolute beginning realm for countless eras — the son of heaven!

He opened his cold eyes, but he was disappointed. “Luckily, I have an extra eye and left the eleventh drop of blood essence. Otherwise, I wouldn’t have been able to deal with the situation here in time.”

In the end, he still successfully projected himself.

...

Looking at the ruins, he didn’t feel sorry at all. He only looked at the seven Black Suns. “Fortunately, I didn’t get nothing.”

Although he had lost the key to Ren Zu's inheritance, the chance to kill Su Yu in a jar, and even the Heavenly Dao prison had been destroyed because of this, he still managed to get something out of it.

However, he still managed to get something out of it.

“After so many years, all of you were still successfully blackened.” Carefree Emperor snapped his fingers, and the black sun that had sealed the seven emperors for an entire era exploded on the spot.

Seven Majestic Giants appeared.

He had actually released the seven emperors. However, the seven emperors did not show any hostility towards him. Instead, they stood in front of him with their eyes closed.
