Chapter 3081 the future enemy

“Wake up! Ren Zu’s former seven great disciples!”The carefree emperor spread his arms, and a black mist of Primal Chaos Energy surged out of his body and entered the nostrils of the seven emperors.

Then, they all opened their eyes, including the Azure Emperor.

However, what was different was that their eyes were no longer the thick, dusky yellow of the Empress Earth, but... black.

Those black eyes were mixed with anger, sorrow, resentment, injustice..

!!

All the negative emotions that should exist in the world were contained in those eyes.

“We’ve finally succeeded,”the carefree emperor said slowly.

The rumors in the outside world said that the seven emperors had already reached the point of immortality. Even the emperor was unable to kill them, so he could only suppress them in the Heavenly Dao prison.

That was just a rumor.

If Ren zu could be killed, why couldn’t his seven disciples be killed?

It was not that they could not be killed, but that the carefree emperor did not want to kill them!

Instead of spending a huge price to destroy them all, why not use them and turn them into seven powerful weapons in the human world?

The huge eyes on the ground gathered the negative emotions that the sacred mountain had gathered from countless destroyed civilizations over the years. They contained all kinds of darkness that those creatures had before they died.

After many years of brewing in the sacred mountain, those dark emotions had already become a poison that corroded people’s hearts. Under long-term exposure, they could poison souls, darken their hearts, and enslave them.

The seven emperors knew the intentions of the carefree emperor, so not long after they were captured, they immediately fell into a state of self-coma.

If that was the case, those dark emotions would not be able to affect their souls.

An era had passed, and they had forcefully endured it. Although the dark emotions still had a subtle influence on them, they did not completely control them.

It was only when Su Yu’s arrival woke them up from their slumber that they were immediately ambushed by the carefree emperor. He quickly turned them dark and successfully enslaved them.

The carefree emperor raised his hand and grabbed. The huge eye that was embedded in the ground immediately shattered like a mirror and turned into seven small pieces.

With a flick of his finger, each piece entered the space between a person's brows and fused into one. As such, they were completely controlled by the mirror pieces and were indirectly enslaved by the carefree emperor.

However, the speed at which the pieces fused into one was rather slow. It looked like it would take at least a year.

A cold smile appeared on the carefree emperor's gloomy face. "Su Yu, Oh Su Yu, you will realize that the strongest humans that you want to defeat in order to become the king of humans are none other than Ren Zu's seven former disciples! !"

..

Far away from the Heavenly Dao prison, the little skeleton stopped tiredly and landed on a rock. "Oh my, you are almost like me."

Su Yu jumped down from its back and quietly adjusted his breathing to recover his strength. At the same time, he glanced at the little skeleton that had transformed into a lion out of the corner of his eye. "Are you the Mount of the Green Emperor?"

He really did not expect that the little skeleton that he had randomly rescued in the first level of the Heavenly Dao prison would actually be the mount of the Green Emperor.

The lion shook the lion's head that was covered in long fur. "Why? I'm so handsome and mighty. Don't I look like one?"

Su Yu was not in the mood to joke. He recalled the scene when he met the seven emperors this time and was filled with emotions.

He did not go to the Heavenly Dao prison to obtain anything, nor did he have anyone to remind him. He just wanted to come here to take a look based on his respect for Ren Zu.

He did not expect that what awaited him would be Ren Zu's inheritance.

"Could it be that Ren Zu predicted that I would come to the Heavenly Dao Prison?" Su Yu muttered.

The little skeleton panted and lay on the ground. "How could Ren Zu be so powerful that he could predict what would happen in an era?"

"He did not even know that the seven emperors would be arrested. However, if the successor he chose did not even have the heart to look for his seven former disciples, he would not have the qualifications to inherit his inheritance."

Hearing this, Su Yu suddenly understood. So this was also a test.

It tested whether Su Yu had any respect for the Ren Zu lineage. If he didn't, then he wouldn't be able to obtain the golden key to open the legacy for the rest of his life.

After pausing for a moment, the lion said with disappointment, "Also, just now, Emperor Qing asked me to pretend to sue you. If one day you reach your strength, don't show mercy."

Eh?

Su Yu raised his eyebrows. Green Emperor himself had also said this to him.

“What do you mean?” He asked in confusion.

Lion’s eyes showed a trace of sadness, even sadness. He sobbed in a low mood, “When you become a king, I will answer you. It is meaningless to tell you now.”

Green emperor was telling Su Yu that in the future, when he saw them in a dark state, he would not show mercy. He must... kill them!

Su Yu did not ask further. Instead, he looked at the lion and asked, “What should I call you?”

The Lion Thought for a moment and turned back into a jade skeleton. “Call me a little skeleton! I was a lion in my previous life, and I am a skeleton in this life.”

Su Yu’s heart skipped a beat. “Previous life? The previous life you mentioned, could it be the previous life before entering the ultimate world?”

When one’s cultivation reached the level of a small skeleton, they should no longer have the concept of a past life.

The small skeleton’s eyes, which were burning with ghost fire, blinked. “What are you thinking? What I mean is that I cultivated from a small lion to a small skeleton. During this period, I underwent a complete transformation. It can be said to be a past life and a present life.”

Su Yu immediately felt extremely disappointed. It seemed that there were no shortcuts in the ultimate.

“Protect me.” He closed his eyes and sped up his recovery. Little did he know that after he closed his eyes, the little skeleton tilted its head and secretly glanced at Su Yu. The eyes of the ghost flame flickered with a bright light.

Two days later.

Su Yu suddenly opened his eyes. His two solidified eyes were like lightning striking the sky, shaking away the clouds for thousands of miles.

After this trip, the Heavenly Dao energy in his body had become much purer. He had already reached the peak of the intermediate stage of the Heavenly Dao Master. He was about to break through to the first stage of the advanced stage of the Heavenly Dao Master — Ancient Sage!

Clap Clap —

At this moment, the crisp sound of applause entered his ears.

Glancing sideways, Su Yu was unperturbed. He frowned and said, “Haunting.”

...

Not far from where they were gathered by the Riverside, a delicate and beautiful girl was sitting by the Riverside. Her snow-white feet were swaying in the river water. She clapped and said, “Not bad, you’ve improved! But don’t forget the time. You still have two days left.”

Su Yu replied calmly, “I thought you died in the Heavenly Dao prison. You are so lucky.”

Back then, the gaze of the Green Emperor created a destructive energy wave. It was a pity that he couldn't hurt the first ancestor of the Soul Saint Clan.

"You are not dead, let alone me." The first ancestor looked calm.

The little skeleton was sleeping on the ground. When it heard the conversation, it looked sideways and was shocked. "Hey, Hey, Hey! Kid, please tell me that you don't have a grudge with this great aunt."

It seemed that the little skeleton knew the other party.

Su Yu said regretfully, "Indeed, we have no enmity, but she wants to take my life two days later."

The little skeleton's face immediately turned uglier than a pig's large intestine. It said with a sad face, "Master, can't you take it easy with your small body? How did you offend all these old giants?"

When the first ancestor of the Soul Saint clan shook the nine-star civilization, it was still in its mother's womb alone.

Chapter 3082 desperate escape

The little skeleton cried, "How could I be so unlucky!"

It was not easy to escape from the heavenly prison, but in the end, it followed a master who was about to die.

Su Yu's expression was indifferent, "Since you have the time to talk, it's better to hurry up!"

He jumped onto the little skeleton's back and looked around. The world was vast, but who could compete with a ten thousand saints expert who lived in the world?

!!

After thinking about it, Su Yu's gaze stopped at the path he had come from.

"Hidden Sky Mountain! Let's Go!" Su Yu's eyes flashed. There was only one person in the world who could save him — himself!

If he tried to rely on others to save him, he would eventually be destroyed.

The little skeleton transformed into a lion and immediately tore through the air towards hidden Sky Mountain. It had been sealed for an era, so its strength was much weaker. Although it was hurrying along with all its might, it was unable to return to its previous state.

It turned around and looked behind it. The first ancestor of the young girl was treading on the clouds. He was neither too fast nor too slow as he followed behind. He did not put any distance between them at all.

"Master, do you have a way to make me recover? If I recover to my peak, I have the confidence to get rid of this bitch," the little skeleton said.

"You?"

Su Yu really did not expect the little skeleton to be able to get rid of the other party. After all, even if the little skeleton recovered to its peak, it was only at the great sage level. The first ancestor was a living ten thousand sage expert. The difference between the two was too great.

“Hehe, master, don’t underestimate me. To be chosen as a mount by the green emperor, how could he not have some specialty in movement techniques?” The little skeleton said confidently.

Su Yu nodded secretly. Indeed, the Green Emperor would never choose a mount because of its appearance. Moreover, the little skeleton did not have a single hair from head to toe that had anything to do with its good looks.

“Give me some time.” Su Yu closed his eyes again.

The little skeleton had been weak for too long. It couldn’t recover immediately just by replenishing a little of the Heavenly Dao master’s power. It needed more than ten years of rest before it could fully recover.

However, Su Yu was different from ordinary people. He had an ability that outsiders couldn’t compare to — the eight great domains had transformed into a domain with a trace of absolute beginning power.

He sat cross-legged, and a huge emerald-green tree appeared behind him. The hazy emerald-green light it emitted enveloped the little skeleton.

This was the life domain’s healing method. However, the green light fell on the little skeleton and passed through its body. Only a faint golden light stayed in its body to heal its dry body.

Su Yu looked serious. “It’ll take half a day.”

The Soul Domain had no effect on its body. Only the absolute beginning power could heal it.

“Half a day?” The little skeleton was so surprised that it almost lost its tongue. It was just saying it, but it didn’t expect Su Yu to heal its body.

The little skeleton knew how its body was. It couldn’t recover its body with ordinary power.

Even the Green Emperor didn’t heal its body when he woke up just now.

It wasn’t that the Green Emperor didn’t want to, but he couldn’t do it. Otherwise, he wouldn’t just sit and watch.

If the Green Emperor couldn’t do it, how could Su Yu do it?

The little skeleton couldn’t believe it.

Su Yu kept silent and continued to pour the life domain into the little skeleton’s body. The energy of the life domain flowed out of the little skeleton’s body, but the absolute beginning power had settled down.

As time passed, more and more absolute beginning power was left to nourish the little skeleton’s body.

The little skeleton finally noticed the changes in its body. In just a breath, the power of the Heavenly Dao Master had settled down in its body. Its eyes were filled with ecstasy and astonishment. "It can really do it!"

"Hahahaha, I, the evil Emperor of Fire Cloud, AM about to reappear in the world!" The little skeleton laughed loudly.

The corners of Su Yu's mouth twitched, and he almost woke up from his recuperation. What? The Evil Emperor of Fire Cloud?

He vaguely remembered that in the years on Earth, there was an existence called the evil god of Fire Cloud.

Su Yu turned around to take a look. His ancestor followed behind at a steady pace. When he met Su Yu's gaze, he said indifferently, "There are still 10 hours to go."

At that time, it would be the time for her to take Su Yu's life.

Su Yu's heart turned cold. How could she dare to hesitate? She immediately sped up and did her best to heal.

After the little skeleton recovered a portion of its body, it turned around and shouted fiercely, "Bitch, chase after me!"

As it said that, its four limbs were suddenly surrounded by flames. As it ran, the flames burned the space. It was almost as if it was running across space.

His speed was actually several times faster than Su Yu when he used his space domain!

The first ancestor, who was originally chasing after him slowly, frowned slightly. "Burning the sky to stop the shadow. This is the top-notch skill of the human race in the past, right?"

A trace of seriousness appeared on her face. She quickened her steps and caught up with the little skeleton again.

Or she turned around and secretly grinned. "Damn, this old woman is much stronger than before."

A new era ago, her strength was still limited, but now, she had broken through to the realm that wasn't weaker than the Green Emperor.

If she wanted to escape from him, she had to use a lot of strength.

After several hours, finally, Su Yu continued to pour the absolute beginning energy into the little skeleton. Finally, the little skeleton recovered completely. It took a deep breath, and its body expanded like a rubber ball. Flames burned all over its body.

"Let's give it another try!" The little skeleton rolled on the ground and rolled in the air like a rubber ball. The space around it shattered violently, and its speed was dozens of times faster than Su Yu's space domain.

The eyes of the first ancestor flashed. A layer of black power of ten thousand saints gathered on the surface of his body. His movement technique was at its peak, but he still couldn't catch up with the little skeleton. The distance between them was getting farther and farther.

Sensing the scene behind him, Su Yu heaved a sigh of relief. He was secretly amazed. As expected of the Mount of the Green Emperor. Although the way it ran was not very elegant, its speed through space was really beyond imagination.

No matter how powerful the first ancestor was, he could not compare to the little skeleton's movement technique.

However, Su Yu understood that he was not out of danger yet. The little skeleton's speed was indeed fast, but it could not keep running. There would be a day when its strength would be exhausted.

As expected!

After half a day, the little skeleton's speed had obviously decreased by 10% . He was panting, "Master, I'm not going to make it. Have you arrived at the Hidden Sky Mountain?"

Su Yu shook his head, "At least half of the way."

According to his constantly slowing speed, he might not be able to rush back to the Hidden Sky Mountain before the first ancestor caught up.

...

And he only had one day left!

"Master, is hidden Sky Mountain definitely capable of dealing with that old woman?" The little skeleton thought hard. He couldn't remember a place as powerful as hidden Sky Mountain in his memories.

Could it be the location of a new super force that appeared in an era?

"I'm not sure." Su Yu said lightly.

He was only guessing, but he didn't dare to be sure.

"Ah! Then why are you still heading towards Hidden Sky Mountain? If you are really caught, even the great Luo Gods won't be able to save you." The little skeleton said in surprise.

Su Yu shook his head: "Other than that, we have no other choice."

All of a sudden, Su Yu's gaze swept across the area below. He suddenly saw a familiar area and his eyes lit up: "Perhaps, we can stop for a while."

Chapter 3083 mature saintly being

There was a blue lake embedded in the ground. Countless creatures were passing through it one after another, and it was extremely busy.

Not long ago, Su Yu had narrowly escaped from this place.

This place was the Heavenly Dao Union!

Thanks to that elder Han, although Su Yu had received the mission of the Heavenly Dao prison, he became enemies with the Heavenly Dao Union because of it. He couldn't use the Yin-yang gate anymore.

“Since I'm passing by, I'll take what I Deserve!” Su Yu jumped into the lake and directly entered the Heavenly Dao Union.

The barrier of the lake immediately sensed Su Yu's powerful existence and issued a green alert.

Instantly, news spread throughout the entire Heavenly Dao Union.

The strange thing was that there were very few people in the current Heavenly Dao Union. Only a few members with average cultivation levels remained. The elders of the Hall of elders were all powerful experts. They all vanished without a trace.

All that was left was an empty Heavenly Dao Union. Su Yu's arrival caused the members inside to flee in panic. They didn't even have the strength to retaliate.

That was because Han Duanzu and the other nine elders had failed to kill Su Yu. They had mistakenly thought that they were trying to kill the mirror flower son of Heaven's clone and that they would be persecuted by the sacred mountain. Hence, they all retreated.

Su Yu arrived at the outer perimeter of the Heavenly Dao Union. There was a layer of powerful formation that couldn't be seen with the naked eye. It had absorbed the energy of more than ten epochs. Its power could be said to be able to destroy the world.

Back then, Su Yu and the others had relied on a gap pointed out by Snow White to successfully escape. They did not dare to force their way in at all.

“What an ancient formation. It should be at least more than ten epochs.” The little skeleton landed in front of the formation, and a trace of fear appeared on its face. “The power of this formation is enough to make even the green emperor suffer a great loss.”

After pausing for a moment, the little skeleton somewhat understood Su Yu's thoughts. It shook its head slightly and said, “However, you are probably thinking too much if you want to use this formation to give that old woman a blow. As long as she is not stupid, she would not rashly barge into this ancient formation.”

Su Yu's eyes flashed with a sharp light. “Of course she is not stupid. She will not barge into this array. However, I can use the array to smash her!”

He clenched his palm and nine drops of carefree emperor's blood essence appeared in it.

“The emperor designed an entire era to obtain ten drops of the Emperor's blood essence for me. How can I waste them?” Su Yu stood where he was and pressed his palm between his brows.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh

The nine drops of blood essence immediately entered Su Yu's body. His chest suddenly lit up. One could vaguely see that there was an oil lamp on his chest that was emitting a weak light.

That was the saintly being oil lamp!

The nine drops of blood essence revolved around the saintly being oil lamp. They were extremely intelligent and tried to escape from the oil lamp. However, they were restricted by the majestic power of the oil lamp and could only revolve around it. Moreover, they were absorbed into the oil lamp one drop at a time.

Sizzle sizzle —

When a drop of blood essence was absorbed into the oil lamp, the weak light that was about to go out suddenly expanded by an inch, illuminating Su Yu's chest even more clearly.

His shadow was even magnified under the blossoming light.

As more blood essence was absorbed and the light became brighter, the shadow behind him became bigger and bigger!

One Drop, two drops, three drops.

After three drops, his figure had grown ten times larger, and it was still growing exponentially. The huge shadow enveloped the entire world.

After six drops, his figure had grown a thousand times larger!

After nine drops, the light had reached a blinding level, and it was difficult for all living things to look directly at it. The strange thing was that Su Yu's shadow was becoming clearer and clearer.

That figure was so tall that it covered half of the Heavenly Dao realm.

One head was the size of the entire Heavenly Dao Union!

The huge shadow covered all the living beings in the world. What made them even more terrified was that the shadow contained a revived will. It was as if an existence that had been sleeping for an eternity was slowly awakening.

In the Heavenly Dao realm, the blood vessels of the living beings who sensed this awakened will could not help but boil. The scattered humans in particular had an excitement that came from the depths of their souls.

It was as if the human kings who had been silent for a long time were about to wake up.

The little skeleton was not surprised. He looked at the dazzling su yu and muttered, "How long has it been since I've seen such a scene? The last person with a mature saintly being was ren Zu, right?"

Due to the era and their own circumstances, the seven emperors had never broken through the shackles and become a mature saintly being.

Now, the chosen successor of Ren Zu had finally reached this step.

The nine drops of the emperor's blood were all absorbed by the oil lamp. The latter slowly flew out from Su Yu's head and hovered in midair.

The oil lamp was no longer what it used to be.

Its entire body was overflowing with spiritual light. The oil lamp was carved with extremely complicated patterns, and the light it emitted had an indescribable energy that chased away all darkness in the world and warmed the earth.

Under its illumination, the terrifying giant shadow that suppressed Heavenly Dao realm cultivators did not disperse. Instead, it became even clearer.

It had three-dimensional facial features, long black hair, a bright and majestic body, and a pair of eyes that slowly opened.

The left eye of that pair of eyes was a revolving star, while the right eye was an alternating sun and moon.

It was as if that pair of eyes contained the starry sky of the universe and could look down on the heavens!

“Hu...” a long breath was exhaled from the human figure’s mouth. A portion of the gas flew up into the nine heavens and turned into stars and smoke. A portion of it fell to the ground and turned into mountains and rivers.

The final portion stopped on the ground and turned into billions of living beings.

This scene was extremely similar to the scene where the absolute beginning Qi turned into all living things in the world.

“I... Woke up...” the enormous human figure actually spoke and slowly sat up from the ground.

For a moment, the Heavenly Dao realm earth shook and cracks appeared on it as if it couldn’t withstand its existence.

When he stood up, the heavens above his head also shook violently. The boundless nebula dispersed, revealing a mountain range that was faintly discernible above the nebula.

The figure stood behind Su Yu and gradually overlapped with Su Yu’s figure.

After taking a closer look, he discovered that the silhouette of the huge figure was exactly the same as Su Yu.

Su Yu raised his hand and grabbed the oil lamp. The oil lamp that had once been illusory had now materialized and was held in his palm.

“Is this the mature saintly being of the human race?” Su Yu held the oil lamp and muttered.

...

In the distance, the first ancestor who had finally caught up stood outside the Heavenly Dao realm. His beautiful eyes narrowed as he stared unblinkingly at the towering figure.

“He’s also a human sacred physique?” A trace of shock finally appeared on Yi Zu’s indifferent face.

After a moment of silence, she still took a step forward and chose to continue her pursuit.

“The ancestral technique of the soul sacred clan can not be passed on to outsiders, even if you are Ren Zu's successor.” Yi Zu was determined to kill.

Even if Su Yu's human sacred physique was mature, she was still no match for her.

She had already surpassed the ordinary realm. In fact, she had already left the category of living beings. Even the Emperor had to be wary of her.

Su Yu was no match for her!

At this moment, Su Yu looked over and said indifferently, “You'll have to pay the price for chasing after me!”

Chapter 3084 Fighting the first ancestor

His empty right hand grabbed at the boundless barrier, and a loud tearing sound shook the starry sky and Earth.

Within the Heavenly Dao Union, Countless Heavenly Dao union members who were escaping looked up at the sky in fear.

The barrier that had existed for more than ten epochs actually... actually broke away from the ground and was lifted up by the towering giant! !

It was as if that huge bowl-shaped net was nothing more than a fishing net in his hands.

!!

More importantly, the giant's palm contained an intense power of the sacred physique. It did not directly touch the huge barrier net, so it did not harm him in the slightest.

Right at this moment, the first ancestor finally arrived. He stopped just before the huge net was grabbed, and his beautiful eyes shrunk slightly.

“A mature saintly being is so powerful!” The first ancestor was slightly surprised. She had heard that there was a unique acquired saintly being in the human race, called the human saintly being.

It did not originate from the bloodline, nor could it be cultivated in the later stages. It could only be born by gathering the faith of the human race.

However, when the faith accumulated to a certain stage, it would produce the saintly being's physique.

However, since this era, there had been many saintly beings born, but even those who had awakened were few and far between, let alone those who had achieved great success?

As for the mature physique, it had never appeared again after Ren Zu.

Now, the little human she was chasing had actually cultivated to the level of a mature saintly being. It was simply inconceivable!

While she was muttering to herself, Su Yu had already made his move. The boundless barrier in his hand was raised up high by him before he ruthlessly smashed it towards Yi Zu.

Yi Zu's expression turned slightly solemn. She could see how terrifying the accumulated power within the barrier was. Even someone as strong as her would not be able to meet it head-on.

Swoosh —

Her figure flashed and she prepared to dodge out of the attack range of the barrier at an extremely fast speed.

At her level, it was almost impossible for her to be hurt by the difficult throwing and smashing of the hammer. This was because her movement technique was already so fast that it could surpass time.

However, she didn't expect that Su Yu was the controller of time!

“Time, Freeze!” The unparalleled human figure opened his mouth and shouted. The time domain came out from the human sacred being's mouth. It had a magical power that couldn't be resisted.

The galaxy, the land, the plants, and the mountains were all frozen in time.

Time was frozen wherever the sound went. Especially under the effect of the absolute beginning force, even the net barrier that had been circulating for thousands of years was frozen.

The first ancestor was caught off guard, and his body was frozen in an instant. Although it was only an instant, not even enough to blink, it was enough for an expert!

Boom —

The massive energy barrier that had been around for more than ten eras finally smashed onto the ground, and a group of them descended fiercely.

Chi La —

The barrier tore a hole due to the violent impact, and the terrifying energy inside was pouring out toward the first ancestor who had crashed into it!

However, in the instant when the boundless energy came crashing down, the first ancestor was suddenly freed from the time freeze and retreated frantically.

PA —

She reacted in time and avoided most of the energy's impact. However, it was still difficult for her to avoid being hit by the remaining energy around her.

The lightning and sparks from the collision immediately burst out from her body, burning her up. She herself was also blasted back a million li, knocking away all the peaks along the way.

Finally, she crashed into the Heavenly Dao realm boundary stone and finally came to a stop.

The corner of her mouth was full of blood, and her body was emitting a burnt aura. The precious clothes on her body, which were high-grade dao artifacts, were either torn or burnt. They were already damaged, and even her exposed skin was burnt.

Her black hair was messy, and her fair face was full of black smoke and dust. The girl next door, who had been as calm as before, no longer existed. What was left was an extremely miserable posture.

However, she was only disheveled. She was not even seriously injured.

The little skeleton watched from the side and gritted his teeth and sighed. “Sigh! Just a little bit more!”

If this woman had managed to break free even half a breath later, she would have been seriously injured or even killed. But now, it was only a moderate injury. What a pity.

Now that the Barrier’s power had been released, it would be extremely difficult to find a powerful force to destroy this old woman.

Most importantly, they had successfully angered this woman. They originally had one more day, but now, it might not be the case!

As expected, the first ancestor slowly raised her head, and a trace of killing intent appeared in her smoke-free and dust-free eyes.

She slowly flew out from the sunken boundary stone. Separated by a million stars, she said coldly, “This attack will cancel out one day of your time! Now, the time you have left is... Zero!”

As soon as she finished speaking, the first ancestor’s body was like a surging flood, roaring like ten thousand beasts, emitting a rolling and loud sound.

It was as if a prehistoric flood that could destroy the world was released from her body.

Boom —

Visible to the naked eye, a nearly corporeal transparent fluid rushed out from her body. With her as the center, everything on the ground was destroyed as easily as breaking dry weeds.

The mountains collapsed and the streams flew away. Even the plains were swept up by a thousand-foot-deep groove. The creatures nearby didn’t even have a chance to escape before they were swept up into dust.

Endless air waves rolled for a million miles and destroyed everything along the way.

As far as the eye could see, there was only desolation in the vast land!

And this was just the power she was emitting from her body. She didn’t use any moves at all.

This was the power of a true ten thousand saints. With a single move, she had the power to destroy the world.

“Are You Ready?” The first ancestor walked over slowly. It seemed like he was taking a step, but in fact, he had crossed countless spaces and arrived 30,000 feet away from Su Yu.

However, Su Yu didn’t show any fear on his face. Instead, he was full of calmness. “Then, are you ready again?”

HMM?

The first ancestor frowned slightly. What did Su Yu Mean?

At this moment, Su Yu suddenly opened his mouth and shouted, "Paint the ground as a prison!"

...

The huge shadow behind him suddenly collapsed and covered the land within a million miles. The first ancestor hesitated for a moment but did not retreat. It was just the shadow of the human sacred body. There was nothing to be afraid of.

She raised her palm, and with a wave of her hand, a majestic aura that could support the heavens and the earth appeared.

Rumble —

The gigantic shadow suddenly collapsed and crashed down, but she easily blocked the spot on the chest of the figure. The collapsed figure did not cause any harm to her.

However, what puzzled the first ancestor was that after the shadow touched the ground, it actually immediately scattered into black heavenly script characters.

Other than that, there were also dense ancestral spells.

"This is..."the first ancestor was shocked and confused. Suddenly, her gaze narrowed and focused on the collapsed black shadow fragment. There was an inconspicuous palm-sized stone tablet there.

The stone tablet was extremely ancient and exceeded the first ancestor's knowledge. However, the ancestral marks on it caused her heart to palpitate. It was as if she had seen the source of all things.

When her terrifying power met the stone tablet, it dissipated one after another.

Chapter 3085 temporary imprisonment

"How is this possible?"The first ancestor's beautiful eyes were replaced by shock.

What kind of power could completely suppress her cultivation of seven to eight epochs?

Then, what exactly was it?

However, she fell into shock, but Su Yu didn't hesitate at all. The huge barrier that he controlled the huge shadow to raise completely collapsed after losing the giant's grasp.

!!

Although a large amount of energy had been lost before, one-tenth of the energy still remained in the huge net-shaped barrier.

Now that she had lost her support, all the energy fell like a waterfall, pressing down on the first ancestor.

The first ancestor's expression changed slightly, but all of her energy was suppressed by the energy emitted by the stone tablet, causing her to lose her movement technique that was above time. She could only rely on her strong body to resist.

At the critical moment, she opened her mouth, and a silver umbrella made of an unknown material flew out and quickly appeared above her head.

Crash —

The pouring rain fell on the silver umbrella, and it was all deflected away, not directly harming Yi zu.

However, she did not feel good. The silver umbrella did deflect the energy rain, but the impact caused by the pouring energy was still transmitted to Yi Zu's palm through the silver umbrella.

The umbrella continued to slide down from her hand, breaking a layer of skin on the first ancestor's palm and causing fresh blood to roll out.

Su Yu held the oil lamp with both hands and shouted, "Heaven shrouding saintly being!"

However, the shattered fragments of the giant shadow actually fused back together and wrapped the first ancestor together with the pouring energy.

The energy that fell on the silver umbrella circulated in the body of the giant shadow, and then fell on the silver umbrella again and again, causing the first ancestor to fall into a huge impact again and again, unable to extricate himself from it.

Seeing this scene, the little skeleton was dumbstruck. "Oh my God, I'm really trapped by you!"

It originally thought that Su Yu wanted to use the huge energy net to give the first ancestor a vicious blow. It did not expect that Su Yu's true purpose was actually to trap it.

Moreover, it was as if he could foresee the future. He schemed time and time again and finally succeeded in trapping the first ancestor within the giant shadow.

Su Yu did not dare to stay any longer. He grabbed the sinkhole divine monument and rode on the little skeleton. He immediately left. "Quick! I can't delay her for too long."

The energy could indeed suppress the first ancestor continuously, but the giant shadow of the saintly being he created through the oil lamp was only a giant shadow. As time passed, the power of the saintly being within would gradually dissipate, until it could no longer maintain the huge shadow.

At that time, the first ancestor would not be restricted and would definitely be able to escape.

"At most three days! She will be out soon." Su Yu looked in the direction of hidden Sky Mountain.

The little skeleton's spirit was roused again. It gritted its teeth and said, "Three days is enough!"

It used all its strength and carried Su Yu in the endless starry sky as if it was chasing the stars and the Moon. It ran madly all the way. Along the way, it went through several cave abodes. Finally, it arrived at ten thousand caves after one day.

Moreover, they arrived at Wanzun Cave's hidden Sky Mountain in the cloud wilderness the next day.

Whoosh —

In the Howling Wind, Su Yu finally returned to the stronghold that he had left for a long time. Ding Ding's forces developed in an orderly manner.

"You're back?" The evil daughter was the first to sense Su Yu's return. She immediately brought Su Cai'er along to welcome him.

Looking at Su Yu's exhausted appearance, a trace of bitterness flashed through the evil daughter's heart. This time, he must have experienced an unknown danger outside, right?

"Uncle, are you injured?" Su Cai'er asked with concern.

Su Yu jumped down from the little skeleton and patted her head in relief. He shook his head slightly and said, "No, I'm fine."

Fine?

The evil daughter felt an inexplicable pain in her heart. She felt that Su Yu had been too tired all his life. He was constantly on the move and could not rest.

"We're also fine. With the help of the evil daughter, our tripod has completely established a foothold in the hidden Sky Mountain. The vast majority of the factions are willing to join our tripod and become our vassal forces."

Eh?

Su Yu was slightly surprised. Vassal?

Before he left, he had only asked the green wood saint tribe and the Netherworld Saint Tribe to sign an alliance agreement. He was not a vassal.

"What's going on?" Su Yu asked.

The evil daughter smiled slightly. She smoothed her hair and said, "Actually, it's nothing. They figured it out on their own."

Who was willing to become someone else's vassal?

Without a doubt, the evil daughter had used some unspeakable means to intimidate many factions. That was why they were finally willing to join Ding and become her vassal.

"You're making decisions on your own." Su Yu looked at the evil daughter.

The latter had wanted to wait for Su Yu to praise her, but when she heard this, her expression froze. She lowered her head and said sadly, "I'm sorry. I made decisions on my own without your consent."

However, Su Yu walked over and patted her shoulder. "But, you didn't do anything wrong."

After experiencing the Heavenly Dao prison incident, Su Yu already had a plan for her future.

If she wanted to obtain the legacy of Ren Zu and become the second Ren Zu in the world, it was inevitable that she would ascend to the heavenly path.

And the qualification to ascend to the heavenly path was to become the current king of men.

The Order of the human race was scattered all over the nine-star civilization. If she wanted to become their king of men, she would have to compete with the talents of various regions.

At that time, without their own forces, it would be impossible to fight alone.

The cauldron had to have the foundation to dominate the nine-star civilization. Then, swallowing the hidden Sky Mountain was the first step.

Even if no evil woman made a move, he would still take action.

Hearing this, the disappointed evil woman burst into life again. A faint red cloud appeared on her pretty face.

“In the future, you’d better look for me to discuss it, understand?” Su Yu said softly.

The wicked daughter nodded weakly, “Oh, I understand. I Won’t dare to do it in the future.”

...

Su Yu shook his head, “What I mean is, you made the decision on your own. If you encounter danger, I will be worried.”

This was the reason why he reminded her, and not because he was worried that the wicked daughter would mess up the matter.

“Worried... about me?” The evil daughter stuttered, as if she didn’t quite believe that Su Yu would actually be worried about her?

For a moment, she felt as if she was in a huge whirlpool of happiness, unable to extricate herself.

“Oh right, which factions haven’t joined the cauldron?” Su Yu asked. Since they had decided to use the hidden Sky Mountain as their starting point, then they had to firmly control this dungeon in their own hands.

The evil daughter came back to her senses and took out a small booklet. She handed it to Su Yu. On it were records of the hundreds of factions in the hidden Sky Mountain, large and small, as well as those who had chosen to join the cauldron and those who had refused to join.

Su Yu quickly flipped through it. Only three factions had refused to join.

Two of them were small and medium-sized factions that were not enough to be relied on. However, one of them caused Su Yu’s brows to twitch slightly.

That Saint clan was none other than the puppet saint clan.

One of them was from the outside world and was extremely stubborn. After he obtained Su Yu’s ancestral technique, he agreed to form an alliance with Ding. However, he refused to become Ding’s subordinate.

Chapter 3086 the drastic change in the Sky Mountain

“The saint puppet clan is really detestable. After learning from us, they immediately fell out with us.” Su Cai’er said angrily.

Su Yu thought for a while and said, “We can’t say that the saint puppet clan fell out with us. After all, Ding requested to join them. It’s indeed a difficult task.”

However, even the evil daughter said with a slightly cold expression, “No! They really fell out with us!”

Oh?

Su Yu was surprised, “How did they fall out?”

The evil daughter said slowly, “Ever since you left, the saint puppet clan has announced that they are going into closed door cultivation. So Be it. The saint puppet clan doesn’t see outsiders all year round. Outsiders have already gotten used to it.”

“But no one expected that ever since the saint puppet clan went into closed door cultivation, there would be people disappearing one after another in the hidden Sky Mountain. Some people even disappeared from our cauldron.”

‘Eh?’?

Su Yu finally paid attention to her. He asked in a serious tone, “Who disappeared?”

“Moheng!”The evil woman slowly spat out two words, her tone filled with deep regret.

‘Him?’?

Su Yu was shocked. “When did this happen? Why didn’t you inform me?”

The evil woman lowered her head in shame. “You were carrying out an important mission outside. If we informed you, it would only make you worry for nothing. So...”

“So you guys acted on your own!”Su Yu had already guessed what happened after that.

As expected., su Cai’er added, “Through the things that Mo Heng left behind, we were able to track his whereabouts. He was at the saint puppet clan. However, when we came to ask for him, the elder puppet turned hostile and attacked us with his puppets, causing us to suffer heavy losses.”

She clenched her fists indignantly, anger written all over her small face.

The evil daughter sighed softly, “Actually, the one who suffered the most losses wasn’t our cauldron, but the Netherworld Saint Clan.”

It turned out that there were people missing from various factions, and many people had already suspected the saint puppet clan. However, there was no evidence. Coincidentally, the cauldron found out that Mo Heng was missing from the saint puppet clan, so under the summons of the cauldron., they all came to the saint puppet clan to demand an explanation.

The saint puppet ancestor was still as arrogant as before. After rejecting them several times to enter for inspection, he acted decisively and dispatched the saint puppet clan, a huge puppet, to attack them.

The Netherworld Saint clan was the most heavily injured among them. Their dao body was destroyed on the spot, and even their soul was heavily injured. It was possible that they would be completely annihilated soon.

Su Yu's eyes shone with a cold light. He truly did not expect that the hidden sky mountain would undergo such a drastic change after leaving.

“It seems that the puppet ancestor chose to strike first.” Su Yu said coldly.

When he and Mo Heng went to visit the puppet sacred clan that day, they once saw a super puppet that the puppet sacred clan had been forging for generations. It was a dangerous item forged from the remains of a ten thousand saints expert.

At that time, Su Yu had sensed the extreme danger of this puppet. Once it was successfully refined, it would definitely shock the world and even attract the son of Heaven of the sacred mountain.

Mo Heng had bluntly said that the puppet was very likely to be alive.

As the number one genius blacksmith of the nine star civilization, Mo Heng's intuition was very accurate!

Therefore, Su Yu had once said that when the matter of the Heavenly Dao prison was over, he would personally sneak into the saint puppet clan and take away the dangerous puppet, never to be troubled again.

He did not expect that before he could take action, the saint puppet clan would sense it and take Mo Heng away first.

If he was not wrong, the ancestor puppet must have taken Mo Heng away to do something — to refine a missing heart for that puppet!

That puppet had been refined by the abyssal puppet clan for countless generations and had already been refined perfectly.

Now, all that was missing was a qualified heart.

As for Mo Heng, he was one of the few people in the world who could refine this heart. Therefore, his capture must have something to do with the heart.

The rest of the missing people were most likely related to the heart.

“What a good puppet Saint Clan.” Su Yu's eyes flashed with a cold light. “Keep your stronghold well and don't go out easily. I'll go out first.”

He, who had just jumped down, returned to the back of the little skeleton and controlled it to descend onto the Netherworld sacred clan.

At this moment, in the Secret Chamber of the Netherworld sacred clan, several ancient sages were surrounding an ancient stone slab. On top of it lay a blurry soul.

That was the heavily injured Netherworld ancestor.

Beside him, ancestor Qingmu was using his pure domain of the Qingmu clan to treat his injuries, hoping to save his soul.

“Forefather qingmu, how is the situation?” An ancient sage of the netherworld sacred clan asked hopefully.

Forefather Qingmu shook his head and sighed. “If the illness was in my body, my domain might still have a miraculous effect. However, the injury is in my soul, and it’s the most profound part of the human body. There’s nothing I Can Do!”

Hearing this, the ancient sages could not help but turn pale. Some of them even began to lament, “Forefather Qingmu, I beg of you, please save our forefather!”

Elder Qingmu sighed and helped them up. “Now, we are already members of the tripod cauldron. As the saying goes, we will rise and fall together. How can I possibly let this happen? However, I have already tried my best.”

The ancient sages were even more sorrowful and at a loss as to what to do. Qingmu, who had come along with them, sighed softly. “It would be great if tripod ZUN were here. With his ability, he might be able to cure elder Nether.”

“I don’t think that he would be able to save elder Nether.” Elder Qingmu shook his head. “Even if Dingzun were here, I’m afraid that there’s nothing he can do. There’s no one who can save him when it comes to souls.”

Hearing those words, everyone’s faces darkened.

However, all of a sudden, elder Qingmu’s eyebrows shot up as he turned his gaze to the sky.

The other ancient sages also sensed the presence of the other ancient sages, and they turned their gazes over as well. They saw a spatial rift appearing above their heads, and a person had descended from it.

“Ding Zun?” Although the other party was black robe, who else could it be other than their Ding Zun?

Su Yu arrived in the secret chamber and nodded at them casually. Then, he looked at the weak soul of the Netherworld patriarch on the green stone platform. The latter sensed Su Yu’s arrival, with a weak aura, he said, “Ding Zun... the first time I called you that was when I was about to die.”

He tried to reach out and grab Su Yu’s sleeve.

Su Yu patted the back of his hand and said, “You’ll be fine.”

With the soul ancestor technique, Su Yu, he would really be fine. However, this sentence was taken as a consolation for someone who was about to die.

The Netherworld grand ancestor shook his head slightly, his confused face..., his eyes revealed a pleading light, “Although the Netherworld Sacred Clan has never contributed anything to Ding Zun, please take into account that I once signed an alliance with Ding Zun for offense and defense. Please take care of my Netherworld sacred clan and don’t let them fall so quickly, okay?”

A sacred clan did not have a new great saint, but the older generation of great saints had fallen.

...

The possibility of this sacred clan falling from this point on was almost 100% . Without a powerful expert overseeing it, all the resources controlled by the sacred clan would be snatched away in a short period of time. That way, it would be even harder for a new great saint to be born, and the sacred clan would gradually decline from then on.

His request was not to ensure that the netherworld sacred clan would not decline, but to slow down its decline.

This was the only wish of the Netherworld Elder before his death.

Chapter 3087 soul duplication

“Not good.” Su Yu directly rejected Patriarch Netherworld’s dying request.

Patriarch Netherworld’s face was filled with deep disappointment. He thought that Su Yu would be merciful and agree to his dying wish before he died.

He didn’t expect him to directly reject it.

Patriarch Qingmu glanced sideways at Su Yu and couldn’t help but feel a chill in his heart. At any rate, they had all joined Cauldron and become its vassal forces. In the end, they didn’t even agree to a single wish of protection.

!!

Even if he agreed, Su Yu didn’t need to do anything special. He only needed to keep an eye on the members of Cauldron and take care of them. Even so, Su Yu still rejected him.

He could not help but think that if he had to beg Su Yu one day, would he also reject him?

Was such a cauldron worthy of the Green Wood Saint Clan’s unwavering follow?

The answer was no.

The ancient sages of the Netherworld Saint clan also felt a chill in their hearts. However, due to Su Yu’s presence, they were all silent and did not show it.

The Netherworld patriarch sighed slightly and mocked himself, “It’s me who went too far. Venerable cauldron, just pretend that I did not say anything.”

Su Yu nodded. “Yes, your request is indeed too much. I Can’t do it.”

Hearing this, Yu Ren’s heart turned even colder. He was even a little angry. If he didn’t agree, he wouldn’t agree. could he show some respect when talking to a dying person? Why was there a need to be so blunt and hurtful?

However, Su Yu’s next sentence stunned everyone present.

“You can’t even die, yet you want me to take care of your race. I really can’t do this request,” Su Yu said indifferently.

Hearing this, everyone was stunned.

What did he mean?

Netherworld Patriarch's already weak eyes couldn't help but widen. He said, "Venerable Ding, I... I know my own injuries."

His soul was injured to such an extent. It was only an instant away from the sinkhole. No matter how good the panacea in the world was, it was impossible to recover his injuries.

Azure wood patriarch thought that Su Yu didn't understand the situation, so he quickly said, "Venerable Ding, Netherworld Patriarch's soul has already suffered a huge injury that can not be recovered. It's not something that can be cured with any method."

Su Yu was expressionless as he said indifferently, "How big of a world have you all guessed that there is no one in this world that can heal you?"

"This..." Patriarch Qingmu was stunned. The world he had seen was not considered small. He had been to the ten thousand venerables cave and most of the places in the mirror flower son of Heaven Realm.

However, this had nothing to do with healing the injury of the soul, right?

Soul injuries were known to be tricky, especially for Patriarch Netherworld. Half of his soul had been destroyed, so it was impossible to heal him.

Su Yu didn't say a word. He drew a line in the air with his two fingers, and an ethereal ancestral art hovered above Patriarch Netherworld's body.

"This... This is the ancestral art of the Soul?" Patriarch Qingmu said uncertainly. He could feel the powerful soul power in the ancestral art. Only the ancestral art of the soul could release this power.

However, how could Su Yu, a human, learn the soul ancestor technique of the Soul Saint Clan?

The Soul Saint clan existed in the world, and they were the strongest saint clan in the mirror flower son of Heaven Realm. There were many powerful old monsters in there, and any one of them could intimidate an area.

Where did Su Yu learn it from?

What they didn't know was that even the Soul Saint Clan's Patriarchs hadn't successfully learned the complete soul ancestor technique.

Su Yu pointed with his finger, and the soul ancestor technique revolved. Wisps of soul fluorescence actually fell from the sky.

"That... That's Patriarch Netherworld's soul fragment? This..." Patriarch Qingmu's pupils constricted as he exclaimed in shock.

Ever since Patriarch Netherworld was rescued, his soul had been disintegrating, and wisps of soul fragments had disappeared into the void without a trace.

However, Su Yu had found all the missing soul fragments with just a simple soul ancestor technique?

Not long after, the half of Patriarch Netherworld's soul that was already blurry recovered to a very clear state.

However, when the other half of his soul was attacked by the puppet Saint Clan, it had already turned into ashes. That was no longer something that the ancestor technique could find again.

Su Yu took back the ancestral art and placed his palm on the other half of the soul. Then, he used the soul secret art that he had learned from the ancestral art — duplication.

“Return the right body to the left.” A large soul domain spread out from his palm, causing everyone present to suck in a breath of cold air.

The other half of the Netherworld Progenitor's soul was actually... duplicated out of thin air! !

If he hadn't seen it with his own eyes, he would have found it hard to believe that there was such a way to treat the injuries of the soul. If there was a missing piece, he could just copy it.

After a cup of tea, the Netherworld Progenitor's soul recovered to its original state, reaching its peak state.

He jumped up and sized up his extremely complete soul as if he was in a dream. He had a feeling that it wasn't real. “My... My Soul has really recovered?”

Su Yu retracted his palm and took a deep breath. This technique consumed a lot of energy and soul domain. Saving one person every day was the limit. It was impossible to save more people.

“The Netherworld will never forget the favor of saving Ding Zun's life.” The respect in the Netherworld Grand Ancestor's heart could not be greater. He had saved a person who was about to die completely. This was a favor that he would never be able to repay in his life.

Su Yu said calmly, “I will repay you the most by serving you wholeheartedly.”

The elder of the nether world gritted his teeth and said decisively, “I will apply to join the cauldron. From now on, there will be no more nether saint clan.”

At the moment, the nether saint clan was just a subordinate force of the cauldron. They could leave the cauldron at any time without any restrictions.

However, once they joined, they would be a member of the cauldron from then on. They had to be controlled by the cauldron.

Once they reached the level of the saint clan, it was usually impossible for them to give up their own race and join another faction. However, Su Yu's kindness was too great, and the Netherworld progenitor could only repay him in this way.

Su Yu glanced at the ancient sages of the Netherworld saint clan and said, “Then you have to ask for their wishes.”

The Netherworld Saint clan was the clan of all the members of the Netherworld clan, not the Netherworld progenitor alone. If they were not willing, they might not be able to become a member of the cauldron.

“We Are Willing!”The ancient sages immediately said.

Without Su Yu’s help, the Netherworld sacred clan would have lost their progenitor sooner or later. If they joined the cauldron now, they could still maintain the continued development of the sacred clan. Why Not?

Furthermore, after witnessing Su Yu’s heaven-defying means, who would not fall in love with him?

Following Su Yu was equivalent to having a source of immortality. As long as they performed well enough, Su Yu could use the soul ancestor technique to resurrect them.

...

Why shouldn’t they follow such a King?

All the Netherworld clansmen present knelt down on one knee and expressed their intention to join. Patriarch Qingmu’s mouth was dry and his tongue was parched. He struggled for a while in his mind before he bowed and said, “Venerable Ding, please give me time to go back and seek the opinions of my clansmen.”

He was also moved!

Chapter 3088 charging into the saint clan alone

“Up to you,”Su Yu said casually. His eyes turned sharp. “Tell me in detail what happened after I left.”

The Vile woman and the others had only established their roots for a short time. Their sources of information were far less extensive than the azure wood saint clan and the Netherworld Saint Clan. They should be able to obtain more information.

The Netherworld patriarch quickly replied, “Reporting to grandmaster ding, the matter is like this...”

He reported the information that the Netherworld Saint Clan had obtained one after another, and the result was similar to what the evil woman had said. The only important piece of information that the evil woman did not know was added.

!!

There was once a mysterious young man who came to visit the saint puppet clan. The day after he left, strange things happened again and again in Hidden Sky Mountain. It was only until the Grandmaster of artifact refining, Mo Heng, was captured that the many schemes of the saint puppet clan were completely exposed, in the end, it led to a great war between the two sides.

Patriarch Qingmu said resentfully, “It’s a pity that the saint puppet clan ambushed us earlier and caught the person we went to ask for it by surprise. We suffered heavy casualties and were unable to continue fighting with the saint puppet clan.”

Even the two saint clans suffered such heavy losses, let alone the other aristocratic families?

It was likely that their casualties were even more tragic.

Patriarch Netherworld clenched his fist. “Ding Zun, if we want to take revenge, we need to think long and hard. Otherwise, if we go now, we will only be courting death.”

They had too few experts, and the puppet Saint Clan's huge puppet was too powerful.

Su Yu said indifferently, "Think long and hard? How Long? Ten years, eight years, or a hundred years?"

He didn't have that much time to wait. Not to mention that the first ancestor would soon catch up, he couldn't delay even if Mo Heng was captured.

With Mo Heng's refining skills, if he was threatened by the saint puppet clan, he would definitely be able to refine the puppet heart forged from the bones of that ten thousand saints expert.

At that time, once the puppet appeared, it would be difficult for anyone in the world to match it.

Su Yu and Mo Heng had the same premonition. That puppet was an ominous item. They definitely couldn't let him successfully appear.

"But..."forefather Netherworld said hesitantly. They were indeed in a disadvantageous situation. It was definitely not a wise move to act rashly.

Su Yu pressed down on his palm and interrupted him, "The saint puppet clan, you don't have to come personally. You only need to mobilize our people and wait for an opportunity to act."

Oh?

Everyone could hear the hidden meaning behind his words. Forefather Netherworld said, "Supremacy ding, what about you?"

Su Yu's eyes flashed. "I will personally make a trip to the saint puppet clan!"

Elder azure wood and elder Nether were shocked. "Supremacy ding, you mustn't! That giant puppet of the saint puppet clan is extremely powerful. You mustn't underestimate it!"

Back then, when the saint puppet clan had descended to heaven burial mountain, they had controlled that incomparably tall puppet to fight against the two patriarchs. In the end, the two patriarchs had suffered a crushing defeat.

Now that the Netherworld ancestor was once again attacked by the puppet and almost died, one could imagine how powerful the giant puppet was.

"This, you don't have to worry about it."Su Yu said indifferently, "I want to enter the saint puppet clan. It's as easy as flipping my hand. Follow my instructions and gather everyone. Act according to the situation!"

Following that, Su Yu flew through the air and reappeared in the sky above the Netherworld Saint clan. He landed on the small skeleton's back.

Su Yu pointed with his finger, and the little skeleton flew away like the wind, bringing Su Yu to the vicinity of the saint puppet clan.

From Afar, the vicinity of the saint puppet clan was littered with corpses that had not been taken away in time. The ground was a mess of rotten corpses and demonic beasts that had come to look for food. It gave off an unusual feeling of desolation as it surrounded an uninhabited area.

It was hard to imagine that not long ago, this place was still the saint puppet clan that was bustling with people.

The territory of the saint puppet clan was a puppet's head that was exposed, and its body was buried deep underground.

At this moment, there were many fully armed saint puppet clansmen patrolling the periphery of the saint puppet clan. They were on guard, and it was almost impossible for them to barge into the saint puppet clan without making a sound.

It was even difficult to get close to it without alerting them.

More importantly, the saint puppet clan was proficient in forging mechanisms. This giant puppet was the residence of the saint puppet clan for countless years. Its defense was definitely not limited to just a few members of the saint puppet clan.

It was likely that there were many mechanisms at the entrance, making it difficult for them to break in.

“Master, it's not easy to get in. That puppet is not simple.” The little skeleton had followed the green emperor to battle from north to south. It had a lot of experience and could tell at a glance that the puppet was extraordinary.

Su Yu's eyes were calm. He raised his palm and said, “It's not difficult!”

An hourglass slowly appeared in his palm.

The time domain was released silently from his palm and spread in all directions.

The human puppet patrolling outside was stopped by time without any warning. Su Yu took this opportunity to come to the entrance of the saint puppet clan.

However, he did not enter rashly. If he was not wrong, there was an extremely dangerous mechanism waiting for him inside.

He looked at one of the leading clansmen and clapped his palm on his shoulder. He used the soul exchange that Linghu Yang had cultivated before to exchange his soul with this person's soul.

The little skeleton saw this and could not help but be surprised. “Hehe, this soul secret technique is fun.”

Su Yu, no, it was “Su Yu” who had entered the body of that clansman. He turned around and looked at his own body and the soul of the clansman who had entered his body. “Watch him!”

The little skeleton chuckled and flipped Su Yu's body onto the ground with one palm. Then, it covered his head and pressed him firmly onto the ground. The human had yet to figure out what had happened, just like that, he was knocked unconscious by the slap.

Su Yu's veins were popping out on his forehead as he watched. The little skeleton laughed dryly. “Sorry, my hand slipped. I hit him a little too hard.”

What hit it too hard? It was clearly taking the opportunity to take revenge on Su Yu for abusing it in the Heavenly Dao prison!

“I’ll get even with you later!” Su Yu glared at him. After the little skeleton carried Su Yu’s body away, he raised his hand and waved it, causing the sky to freeze and disperse.

The patrolling clansmen did not notice anything unusual and continued to patrol.

Su Yu walked towards the entrance and said, “I’ll go in and report.”

“Lord Fu Jun, didn’t you report just now?” A patrol asked in surprise.

Su Yu glanced at him from the corner of his eye. “Can’t I report again?”

The latter shrunk his neck. Although he felt strange, he did not ask again.

Su Yu came to the entrance. He had grasped part of the patrol leader’s memory. He skillfully took out the golden token on his chest and pointed it at the mouth of the puppet at the entrance.

Creak —

The huge door opened and a single person passed through the crack. After Su Yu entered, he realized that there were many beads in his mouth.

...

The power of those beads could be said to be powerful. They were second only to the golden beads that he had snatched from the little skeleton.

If one of them exploded, it would be enough to destroy a great sage. If all of them exploded, no one below ten thousand saints would be able to escape.

Su Yu thought to himself that there must be a trap hidden within the puppet. If he tried to force his way in, he wouldn’t even know how he died.

Chapter 3089 Heart Formation

Su Yu barely managed to enter. A red beam of light shot out from the mechanisms on both sides and scanned Su Yu from top to bottom.

Su Yu immediately felt that this body was being examined from inside out. Any abnormalities could be detected by the red beam of light.

“Come in.” A moment later, the beam of light disappeared and was replaced by a dry and hoarse voice.

It seemed that he had successfully passed the inspection and his identity had been confirmed.

!!

Su Yu silently passed through the entrance and entered the interior of the saint puppet clan for the second time. As soon as he entered, a huge gear rotated in front of him, revealing a hidden space behind the gear.

An elder of the saint puppet clan at the ancient sage level walked out. He put his hands behind his back and frowned. “What’s the urgent matter?”

Su Yu cupped his fists calmly and said, “Reporting to my Lord, how should we deal with the corpses outside?”

He did not act rashly. This place was filled with traps, and they were all controlled by humans. If he made any careless moves, the other party would be able to trigger the traps.

As for whether they would pose a threat to him, Su Yu was not too worried. What he was worried about was alerting the enemy.

“You’re alerting me just because of this?” The old man reprimanded sternly and sized Su Yu up. “What’s wrong with you?”

Su Yu still maintained his respectful attitude and said, “This subordinate feels that it’s best to properly dispose of those corpses so as to avoid angering more experts of the hidden Sky Mountain.”

The old man did not think much of it. “What other experts are there in the Hidden Sky Mountain? Are you counting on that Ding Zun? Not to mention that he has yet to return outside, so what if he does? He can’t even enter the puppet Saint Tribe.”

The ancient sage Elder was quite confident in the puppet Saint Tribe’s defense.

Su Yu slowly straightened his body and said, “I don’t agree with Sir’s words.”

Heh!

The ancient sage Elder was truly shocked. A tribesman was actually going against him on the spot. Where did he get the courage to do so?

Something was not right!

The ancient sage Elder, who was as sharp as him, immediately sensed that something was wrong. However, he could not pinpoint what was wrong until Su Yu’s words woke him up.

‘HMM?’?

The old man immediately retreated and scolded, “Who Are You?”

Unfortunately, it was too late. Su Yu took a step forward and patted his shoulder, immediately performing the soul exchange.

Su Yu’s soul quickly took over the body of the old man, and the latter’s soul entered the body of the patrol leader.

He looked at “Himself” in disbelief and shouted, “Help! Help!”

However, there was no movement in the surroundings. The patrolling clansmen outside seemed to be deaf and did not pay any attention until Su Yu took out a six-sided die from his bosom.

This was the core that controlled the mechanisms nearby. With just a slight activation, he isolated this place and the sounds outside.

Even if he shouted until his throat was broken, no one would pay attention to him.

“Who are you?” The old man of ancient Sage asked in fear. Su Yu threw him a cold smile that made his hair stand on end. “I am the person you thought couldn’t enter.”

What?

The old man of ancient Sage was shocked and said in shock, “You... You Are Dingzun?”

“Correct.” Su Yu smiled and walked forward. Under his unwilling gaze, he slapped his head and knocked him out on the spot.

After storing him into his spatial storage, Su Yu used the memory from last time to arrive in front of a large piece of gear.

Activating the sieve, the gears rapidly revolved and moved aside, revealing a path that led directly to the giant puppet stage. He jumped down.

Before he reached the bottom, he felt a thick flame spewing out. That was the fire vein occupied by the saint puppet clan. Mo Heng had once come here to refine a seal.

However, compared to before, the intensity of the flames here was far greater than before. Even Su Yu’s newly matured saintly being felt a little uncomfortable.

He was almost certain that it had something to do with that extremely dangerous puppet.

Dong —

Just as Su Yu was about to land, a voice came from the side. “Old Fellow, are you courting death? Is that a place you can go to?”

Glancing sideways, he saw an ancient sage expert hiding in the dark.

He was here to guard against unknown enemies that would affect the refinement of the puppet.

Su Yu pretended to have a grave expression on his face. “There’s a big problem up there. We must inform the ancestor as soon as possible.”

What! !

The ancient sage expert in the dark immediately rushed out. It was a short, red-faced clansman. Su Yu’s heart stirred. He could use the same trick again and occupy his body to continue moving forward.

He frowned and approached him with a solemn expression. He lowered his voice and said, “It’s someone suspected to be Dingzun. They are attacking our stronghold outside.”

Upon hearing that it was Su Yu, the ancient sage expert’s expression immediately turned grave. “Then we must quickly inform the ancestor!”

The ancient sage expert immediately made way. However, he suddenly realized something and immediately stopped in his tracks. He shouted fiercely, “That’s not right! You’ve never seen Dingzun. How do you know that it’s him who’s attacking?”

Seeing that he was about to be exposed, Su Yu reacted swiftly. He raised his hands and slapped his head with one palm, while the other slapped his shoulder.

In an instant, the soul exchange was completed!

Su Yu entered a new body, while the short ancient Sage entered an abandoned body. What was even more tragic was that he wanted to shout loudly to alert the people around him, but who knew that just as his soul entered his body.., his palm suddenly struck the top of his head.

With a miserable harrumph, he fainted on the spot.

Su Yu's lips curled up. With a flick of his toes, he lifted Mo Heng up and tossed him into the spatial storage ring.

Right now, he only needed to borrow the other party's body to enter the puppet forging room. Through the short memories stored in his body, Su Yu already knew that Mo Heng was outside the puppet, and he was being forced to forge a heart. Furthermore.., she was almost done!

However, at this moment, something unexpected happened.

A soundless ripple spread out in all directions.

...

Su Yu suddenly sensed it and looked in the direction of the ripple. Her expression could not help but change. She saw that there was a frightened female ancient sage hiding in the corner where the short ancient Sage had come from.

A jade seal in her hand had been crushed!

Her eyes reflected everything that had happened here!

Su Yu came back to his senses and made a prompt decision. He tore through space and chased after the female ancient sage.

The latter's face was filled with fear. As she fled, she shouted loudly, "Someone, come quickly! An unknown enemy has broken in!"

At this moment.

Beside the fire vein, the saint puppet tribe was beating a beating heart of flames with all their might. In the heart, there was a flickering blue liquid.

Su Yu was not unfamiliar with this item. It was a precious blue heart iron.

Its function was that once it was damaged, it would immediately recover. It was extremely mystical.

Beside the heart, Mo Heng was sweating profusely as he added all sorts of precious materials into the heart. He was also instructing the ancestor puppet on the strength and number of times to beat it.

Their heart was about to succeed.

...

Furthermore, it was a heart made of blue heart iron. In addition, this puppet's entire body was made of blue heart iron. Once it succeeded, it would become a peerless divine puppet that could not be destroyed in this world!

Chapter 3090 disaster was about to arrive

Just as they were putting all their efforts into forging the Blue Heart Iron Heart, the female ancient sage ran over with an extremely panicked expression. She panted and said, "Not good! Not Good!"

The puppet elder who was forging the heart had no choice but to stop. He spoke quickly, "What is it? Tell me quickly!"

The Blue Heart Iron Heart was about to succeed. He did not have the time to care about trivial matters.

The female ancient Sage's face was pale as she said, "Forefather, Ding Zun has barged in!"

!!

"What? where is he?"The puppet forefather asked.

The puppet forefather knew how powerful Su Yu was. How could someone who could make forefather Qingmu and forefather Netherworld submit to him be a simple person?

The most troublesome thing was that Su Yu had barged in!

If Su Yu was outside, it would have been fine. With his incomparably powerful giant puppet, he was not afraid of Su Yu and could definitely fight him.

But now that the other party had barged in, things were going to get troublesome.

"He... he has taken over ancient sage Baiyun's body!"Ancient sage myriad anthive exclaimed in shock.

Taken over? The saint puppet was taken aback. "How?"?

Ancient sage myriad anthive stammered, unable to come up with an answer. "It's probably because Su Yu's soul has taken over ancient sage Baiyun's soul. After that, he took over ancient sage Baiyun's body and pretended to be one of us. Just a moment ago, he was still hunting me down."

"There's actually such a thing?"The puppet elder was shocked. Taking over another person's body was not a rare occurrence. As long as one's soul was powerful enough, one would be able to enter another person's body and adapt to it.

However, the prerequisite was that it was only a soul without a body.

If there was a soul within the body, no matter how powerful the soul was, it was unlikely that it would be able to forcefully take over ancient sage Baiyun's body.

Besides, ancient sage Baiyun's soul was already very powerful, so it was even more impossible for him to forcefully take over ancient sage Baiyun's body.

"It's absolutely true!"The female ancient Sage was on the verge of tears. "If you don't believe me, take a look at this!"

As if responding to her words, a ripple shot over from afar. It was a message that she had sent earlier. For some reason, the message had arrived a step later than her.

The puppet elder took the message and placed it on his forehead. He happened to see that the ancient sage guarding the entrance had forcefully replaced ancient sage Baiyun's soul.

"This is really happening!" The puppet elder was shocked. At the same time, his face turned grim. "Men!"

With a loud roar, several hidden ancient sages rushed out from the vicinity of the puppet. They were there to guard the heart that was about to succeed and prevent it from being snatched away. Yet, they were urgently summoned by the puppet elder.

"Ancestor, what orders do you have?" The ancient sages asked.

The puppet ancestor's expression was grave. "Immediately lead your clansmen and seal off the area. No one is allowed to trespass. Remember, it's anyone, including anyone from our puppet Saint Tribe!"

Since Su Yu was able to take over the bodies of others at will, he could appear in the bodies of any clansmen that he did not expect.

Now was the most critical moment for the refinement of the Blue Heart Iron Heart. Nothing could go wrong. "..."

The female ancient sage panted and said, "But are we going to leave Ding Zun alone?"

Shouldn't they go and capture Su Yu?

The puppet ancestor said calmly, "Ding Zun's ultimate purpose for breaking in should be our puppets and Mo Heng. As long as we guard them well, everything will be fine

"As for the clansmen who might meet with misfortune, we can only sacrifice them first."

The female ancient sage could not bear it any longer. She bit her red lips and said, "Damn it! When our heart is successfully refined, we must make Dingzun pay the price in blood!"

The ancestor puppet said, "Cut the crap. The Blue Heart Iron Heart is about to be successfully refined. Help me collect the heart."

The ancient sage gazed at the heart of the Blue Heart Iron with a look of anticipation, but at the same time, she felt a little lost. "How do I retrieve it?"

Without another word, the ancestor puppet tossed her a small cauldron that was specially made. The cauldron was filled with liquid mystic ice, ensuring that the heart would not be missing after it was refined.

"Alright!" The ancient sage nodded. She looked around worriedly. After confirming that her clansmen were guarding the area and that Su Yu would not be coming anytime soon, she felt slightly relieved and held the small cauldron, she was waiting for the moment when the heart of the Blue Heart would be successfully forged.

The puppet elder focused his gaze on the heart of the Blue Heart once more. Due to his earlier distraction, the surface of the heart of the blue heart began to fluctuate unstably. He hurriedly raised his hammer and continued forging, at the same time, he urged Mo Heng, who had stopped forging, "Quick! Don't Stop!"

Only then did Mo Heng reluctantly continue adding more materials into the heart of the Blue Heart. At the same time, he instructed the puppet elder on how to forge it.

As the puppet patriarch knocked on the heart, he said, "Weren't you very excited just now, thinking that you were going to be saved?"

Mo Heng remained silent. Ever since he was captured, Mo Heng had thought of countless ways to see if he could escape. Unfortunately, none of them succeeded. After being abused by the puppet patriarch several times, Mo Heng finally calmed down, he quietly refined the heart.

"Humph! Don't even think about escaping. As long as you don't succeed in refining the Blue Heart Iron Heart, don't even think about leaving the saint puppet clan." The puppet ancestor said ruthlessly.

Mo Heng gritted his teeth and said, "Puppet ancestor, I will give you one last advice. Don't try to revive this puppet. Otherwise, you won't be able to bear the consequences. From my point of view, this puppet is definitely not a good weapon!"

The puppet ancestor's eyes were burning with passion. He continued to beat the Blue Heart Iron Heart without any hesitation and said, "The puppet lineage of the Abyss has gone through countless years to create this puppet. How can we just give it up just like that?"

After a pause, a helpless and urgent look flashed across his face. "Moreover, we do not have any more time."

Mo Heng's heart moved. He asked, "Who was the young man who came to visit your puppet Saint Clan that day?"

Originally, the saint puppet clan, from ancient sages to the puppet patriarch, all had a trace of respect for him. However, ever since the mysterious young man left, the puppet patriarch seemed to have changed into a different person, he desperately wanted to refine the puppet as soon as possible.

The puppet patriarch was silent for a moment before he muttered, "If the puppet can not be refined, we, the entire hidden Sky Mountain, the cloud wilderness realm, and even the ten thousand caves, will be finished!"

What?

Mo Heng asked casually, but he actually managed to get something out of it. He continued to ask, "Why? Why do you say that?"

The puppet patriarch said in a deep voice, "Don't ask so many questions. You only need to know that if you successfully refine the Blue Heart Iron Heart, on account of your meritorious service, perhaps I can still protect you and tide over this great calamity."

What kind of disaster could make an entire cave collapse? What kind of disaster forced the puppet forefather to refine the destruction god puppet at all costs?

He wanted to tell Su Yu this news so that they could make preparations, but there was no more chance.

At this moment, the Blue Heart Iron Heart suddenly let out a clear breathing sound. Then, the heart actually beat up and down rhythmically, as if it was a living creature.

Mo Heng's face sank. The scene that shouldn't have happened had finally happened.

The Heart... was successfully refined!
