Chapter 3091 play along

Seeing this, the puppet elder was overjoyed and laughed out loud, “Great! We’ve finally succeeded! Our Abyss puppet lineage’s countless years of hard work is finally about to succeed!”

As long as this heart was placed on the chest of the puppet, it would possess a certain level of consciousness and become the strongest puppet in history!

At that time, why would the saint puppet clan be limited to a small hidden Sky Mountain?

The saint puppet clan would be able to survive the huge changes that were about to occur in the future.

!!

“Puppet forefather, think carefully!” Mo Heng frowned deeply and shouted, “The material used for your puppet is not an ordinary thing, but a complete corpse of a ten thousand saints!”

“Do you know what a ten thousand saints expert means? That is already beyond the category of living beings, only second to the son of Heaven of the sacred mountain. Even a single bone of theirs after death is filled with danger, let alone a complete corpse?”

During the process of refining the heart, he had felt a huge chill from the puppet’s body more than once.

Many years of refining experience told Mo Heng that this puppet was definitely an ominous thing.

The puppet elder laughed coldly, “Mo Heng, do you think that you are the only smart person in the world and that everyone else is a fool?”

He took out a broken seal from his pocket and carefully stored it in the jade box, “Look at what this is!”

Through the jade box, he poured a trace of the power of a great sage into it. The broken runes suddenly appeared with the image of ten thousand folded Buddhas, and at the same time, they sang loudly in Sanskrit.

Mo Heng only felt that his heart was empty and all his distracting thoughts were gone. Even his anxiety at this moment was gone.

“Do you see it?” The puppet elder said proudly, “This is the sacred Buddha runes that our Abyss puppets spent countless efforts to steal from the ancient tomb of the Buddha. They have the power to suppress evil things. Otherwise, why would we dare to refine a complete body of ten thousand saints?”

The puppet elder took out the rune and stuck it on the puppet. Threads of Buddhist power turned into Holy Sanskrit and covered the entire body. It was like an invisible giant net that restrained the puppet.

Mo Heng woke up and worry surged into his heart again. He said, "Even so, it's better not to give it a heart. The power of a ten thousand saints expert is really not something you can imagine."

The famous sword Saint tribe that he once belonged to was considered an extremely powerful saint tribe. There were very few people in the world who could match up to them.

However, an unknown ten thousand saints expert had once scared the five great saints of his tribe to death just by passing by. They were afraid that he was coming for them.

That fear stemmed from the humble living beings looking up to the gods.

At that level, the ten thousand saints expert had already surpassed the restrictions of living beings. He was no longer an ordinary living being.

The abyssal puppets might not know what the ten thousand saints expert meant.

"HMPH! Stubborn!" The puppet ancestor lost his patience. "I've told you so much, but you're still complaining! Since you don't believe me, then scram to the side! Keep an eye on him!"

Ancient sage female drum nodded. She immediately walked up to Mo Heng and stared at him. At the same time, she raised her cauldron and said, "Elder, I'm ready. Release the heart."

At this moment, the Blue Heart Iron Heart was still in the midst of being refined. There were many seals on its surface, and if the seal was released, the heart would most likely fly away by itself. Someone had to catch it.

The puppet elder nodded. With one hand, he grabbed the eight chains that sealed the heart. With a greedy look in his eyes, he commanded, "Open!"

Kacha —

Under the immense force, the eight chains snapped one after another. The Blue Heart Iron Heart regained its freedom, and it flew out on its own again!

"Stop it!" The puppet elder shouted. The ancient sage dared not hesitate. She immediately threw out the small cauldron, preparing to catch the heart.

However, just as the heart was about to be taken away, Mo Heng suddenly chanted an incantation. The heart seemed to sense something, and it flew over to Mo Heng and was caught by him.

It turned out that Mo Heng had added something to the heart during the refining process, allowing him to easily control the heart.

However, when Mo Heng grabbed it with his front foot, a black palm-sized puppet appeared behind his back without any warning and ruthlessly smashed into Mo Heng's back.

Pu —

In an instant, Mo Heng was sent flying. He opened his mouth and spat out a large mouthful of blood. The heart that had yet to stabilize was thrown out of his hand.

However, the puppet elder withdrew his hand and sneered, "Do you think that I don't know that you've done something to your heart?"

He wasn't blind. Mo Heng thought that he had done it flawlessly, but he still noticed it. However, he endured it silently and was constantly on guard against Mo Heng. He had specially prepared a dao artifact with a concealment effect, he was ready to strike Mo Heng at any moment.

From the looks of it, the effect was not bad.

At the same time, the female ancient sage leaped up and caught the heart with the small cauldron.

The puppet forefather laughed. "Well done!"

With the heart in hand, the next step was to put the heart into the puppet's body and bring it back to life!

However, before the puppet forefather could be happy, a shocking scene appeared. The female ancient sage did not hand the small cauldron to him. Instead, she carried the severely injured Mo Heng and turned around to rush out.

The puppet ancestor was dazed for a moment before he immediately regained his senses. He exclaimed in shock and anger, "You... You're Su Yu?"

The female ancient sage turned around and chuckled. "I borrowed the heart. It's been hard on you all for so many years."

That's right!

Her soul had already been successfully replaced by Su Yu. It turned out that the female ancient sage had not escaped from Su Yu's pursuit, but her soul had been successfully replaced by him. Since the female ancient Sage had already sent a message, she played along and pretended to be chased by Su Yu, she had managed to gain the puppet Elder's trust.

The effect of this plan was not too bad. She had successfully obtained the Blue Heart!

The puppet elder could not believe that the body that he had spent so many years refining from the Abyss puppets would be so easily snatched away by Su Yu!

"Stop right there!"The puppet elder snapped back to his senses and bellowed furiously. At the same time, he immediately informed the ancient sages who had sealed the area above, "Attack immediately and stop Su Yu!"

Sou Sou Sou Sou

The few ancient sages who were standing not too far away were immediately mobilized and charged forward furiously.

"HMPH!"Su Yu harrumphed. Even though he did not have his true body, his dominion, especially his soul domain, was something that no one could match.

"Soul chasing Arrow!"He widened his eyes and shot out two nearly materialized arrows. In an instant, two ancient sages screamed in agony as their souls were destroyed.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, he charged through the encirclement and arrived at the head of the giant puppet.

At this moment, Ding Ding's faction also took the opportunity to launch an attack on the puppet. Without anyone controlling the giant puppet, they successfully opened the gate of the saint puppet clan and charged in.

“Ding Zun!” Elder nether grabbed Su Yu's body and shouted. Now that Su Yu had replaced his body, no one knew which one was the real Su Yu.

Seeing his own body, Su Yu was relieved. It was time to end!

Chapter 3092 The Birth of a monster

As long as he controlled his own body, wielded the calamitous scythe and the heaven-ending sword, and possessed the mortal body, no one in Hidden Sky Mountain would be a match for him.

Sou —

Su Yu rushed over with the body of an ancient female saint and shouted at patriarch netherworld, “Throw my body over.”

Patriarch Netherworld immediately judged from his tone that the ancient female saint in front of him must be Su Yu's soul. He immediately threw her body over with his palm.

!!

However, in midair, the puppet elder who was charging at him was furious.

He flung his palm, and a chain flew over at high speed. It wrapped around Su Yu's body and swept him away.

“Don't you like to exchange souls? Then continue to exchange them in other bodies!” The puppet elder grabbed Su Yu's neck and squeezed hard, causing his throat to crackle.

Su Yu's expression did not change. He turned around and took out the Blue Heart Iron Heart and squeezed it. Under the immense pressure, the heart was squeezed into a ball and was on the verge of shattering.

“That body is not mine. If you want to destroy it, then destroy it. It doesn't matter,” Su Yu said indifferently. What he said was half true and half false.

It was true. That was not his body, but the illustrious son of Heaven's.

What was false was that the body was still very important. It really could not be destroyed at will.

However, he believed that the Blue Heart Iron Heart was even more important to the elder puppet. That was the blood and sweat of the puppets of the Abyss.

If it was destroyed, who knew how many years of blood and sweat would go down the drain.

“You don't have to show off. How can your body not be important?” The elder puppet said, “Return the heart to me and I'll hand over my body to you. We can forget about each other. How about it?”

Su Yu said indifferently, “Nothing much!”

His palm clenched even tighter, "Return the body to me first. As for the heart, I'll return it to you later."

Upon hearing this, elder puppet snorted, "Do you think I'm an idiot?"

No matter how he looked at it, Su Yu was not the kind of person who would be pedantic. If he really gave him his body, the other party might keep his promise and return the heart to him. However, what he returned would definitely not be a complete heart.

"Hand over the person with one hand and the heart with the other. There is no other choice!" The puppet ancestor shouted. "Otherwise, rather than losing everything, why not destroy your body and reduce a huge disaster for yourself?"

Su Yu was a great threat to him. If there was really no other way, he could only destroy Su Yu's body and reduce a huge problem.

Both sides immediately fell into a stalemate. Although Ding Ding's forces were winning one after another and taking over the puppet Saint Clan's territory step by step, it was not a small change in the situation where the two of them were facing each other.

Just as the two sides were in a stalemate, Su Yu suddenly felt a slight tremor under his feet.

It was like a ripple on the surface of the water. The shockwaves kept on rippling and spreading in all directions.

"Oh?" The puppet forefather was extremely sharp. This puppet was the place where his abyss puppets had lived for generations. He was even more familiar with it and understood it clearly.

The abnormal fluctuations made him feel surprised.

Dong —

Soon after, another clear movement was heard. It was as if something was moving, creating a strong ripple signal.

"What's going on?" The puppet forefather said in surprise.

Dong Dong Dong —

The sound became more and more intense, clearer, and closer to them.

The tripod and the sacred puppet clansmen fighting on the ground stopped fighting at the same time. They looked down at the ground curiously, their faces filled with confusion.

Dong Dong Dong —

The sound became clearer and clearer. The elder puppet's expression became serious. He flew into the sky and said, "Saint puppet clansmen, leave the ground and leave the puppet."

With that order, the saint puppet clansmen quickly withdrew from the puppet.

If he was like this, Su Yu, who was always vigilant, was even more like this. He directly ordered, "Saint puppet clan, immediately!"

Ding's men also retreated and left the puppet far away. Only Su Yu and the two forefathers remained in the air above the puppet.

The forefather puppet looked down at the giant puppet that he had lived for many years in bewilderment. At this moment, he could see that the giant puppet was actually shaking slightly and slowly sinking.

It was as if it could not withstand some kind of gradually increasing power and was being crushed into the ground.

“Then, what is it?” The puppet ancestor confirmed that there must be something that came out from the bottom of the giant puppet. The first person he suspected was undoubtedly Su Yu. “Human, what have you done?”

He found it hard to believe that there was some kind of power that even their giant puppet could not withstand.

What exactly did Su Yu do inside.

Su Yu's eyes stared unblinkingly at the giant puppet below, and his expression was slightly solemn. “You should ask yourself what you just said!”

He had fought his way to the front of the puppet patriarch, so how could he have time to arrange anything else?

There must have been an unexpected drastic change in the giant puppet.

Dong Dong Dong Dong —

A series of rapid sounds rang out. The sound was like a war drum beating on everyone's heart. The cauldron in the distance was still fine, but the members of the saint puppet clan who hadn't gone far felt as if their chests were blocked by something, and their hearts were beating non-stop, it was hard for them to breathe, and they felt uncomfortable all over.

Even the puppet forefather, Qing Mu, and Netherworld forefather felt pressured.

A great sense of danger enveloped their hearts.

The puppet forefather slowly stepped back and said sternly, “Step back, don't get close to the puppets!”

Qing Mu and Netherworld also felt a chill in their hearts. They couldn't help but step back.

Even Su Yu had no choice but to step back. His expression became more and more solemn.

Although he didn't feel as depressed as the three ancestors, the chaotic lines of fate were starting to appear in his chest.

With his many years of experience, only before a powerful enemy arrived would the lines of fate be in a state of disorder.

Dong Dong Dong Dong —

...

The sound of footsteps rang out ten times in a row, as if they were about to leave the puppet. Everyone's heart was in their throats as they focused all their attention on the puppet.

However, the sound stopped abruptly as if it had been cut off after ten times.

The interior of the puppet returned to silence. The Sky and Earth were completely silent.

However, this deathly silence did not make them feel at ease. Instead, it made their hearts clench.

The sacred clan of the Azure Wood tribe swallowed hard and stared at the head of the puppet without blinking.

In the blink of an eye, the indestructible head of the puppet suddenly ruptured into an incomparably large hole. An invisible force swept out with a force that could destroy the sky and earth, heading straight for the sacred clan of the Azure Wood tribe.

The latter did not even have the time to react before he was turned into a bloody mist with a flick of a finger. His soul was also completely destroyed! !

A Grand Grand Grand Sage expert was destroyed with a flick of a finger just like that!

The Netherworld Patriarch and the puppet patriarch were shocked. They retreated frantically with goosebumps all over their bodies. In the distant scene before their eyes, a pale blue figure with chains and seals slowly walked out from the hole.

He looked up into the sky like a war god looking down on the heavens. As far as his eyes could see, the sky was burning with layers of flames. Fireballs fell from the sky, igniting the mountains, rivers, and lands.

In an instant, the world sank into a sea of fire!

Chapter 3093 the blue-heart puppet

The faces of the experts present changed drastically as they stared at the monster that had suddenly appeared.

“Blue-heart Puppet!”The puppet elder exclaimed in shock

The monster was none other than the blue-heart puppet that had been forged from the bones of a ten thousand sage expert after countless generations of painstaking efforts by the puppets of the Abyss!

“Elder ancestor, the puppet has come back to life!”Several ancient sages surrounded the puppet elder in horror.

!!

The blue heart puppet clearly did not have a heart, and it had yet to be successfully forged. How could it possibly have its own consciousness?

How did it come back to life?

All the way until the crowd., mo Heng spoke of the truth calmly, “The consciousness of this group of myriad sage experts has never died. It has always been attached to the remains. It deceived the puppet Saint Tribe of your past generations and allowed you to forge its body into the Blue Heart Iron!”

Blue Heart Iron was said to be indestructible. Any damage could be repaired immediately. This skeleton had been forged into blue heart iron by the puppet Saint Clan for countless years. It was already indestructible.

“Impossible! Our ancestors have all checked. This skeleton no longer has any consciousness!”The puppet ancestor said in disbelief.

What they wanted was a puppet that could listen to their orders, not a living creature with its own consciousness.

It was hard for him to believe that the puppet Saint Clan had trained for so many eras just for the sake of that ten thousand saints expert. It was even harder for him to believe that they had been kept in the dark for so many years.

Mo Heng said in a deep voice, “Just like what Ding Zun said, you know nothing about the ten thousand saints expert!”

No matter what Su Yu said, the puppet Saint Clan had placed too much trust in their own judgment. However, reality had slapped them hard in the face.

Even a piece of bone of such an existence possessed an incredible heavenly might, let alone an entire skeleton?

The puppet ancestor felt as if he had been struck by ten thousand lightning bolts. His mind trembled and he was in a daze for a long time. It was difficult for him to regain his senses.

Now, even if he managed to snatch back the heart, it would be in vain.

That puppet had deceived the saint puppet clan and him. It was unforgivable!

Mo Heng reminded him, “Puppet Forefather, in my opinion, that consciousness is not strong enough to display the true strength of the ten thousand saint remains. However, it will be different if it gets the heart.”

His eyes were shining. He implied that this was the only time to kill him.

The puppet forefather came back to his senses. He stared at the blue heart puppet and said through gritted teeth, “You’re right! Since you’re not dead, I’ll let you die again!”

He added another sentence in his heart. Only when his consciousness died could he turn into a real puppet.

After saying that, the puppet elder formed a seal with his hands and said coldly, “Fortunately, I’ve put a Buddha’s seal on his body!”

That seal was a Buddha’s seal that the puppet had searched through countless tombs for generations and found. It could suppress all evil things in the world.

The consciousness of this ten thousand saints expert had been dead for countless eras. It was enough to determine that it was an evil thing.

After he successfully formed the seal with his hands, the puppet ancestor shouted, “Suppress!”

Immediately, the blue heart puppet's body was covered in a dense web of Sanskrit language. It suddenly tightened and restricted the blue heart puppet.

The blue heart puppet's hands and feet immediately came together. It stood upright and could not move at all. Even its head was covered by a layer of holy light.

The puppet ancestor relaxed and smiled. "Success!"

He glanced at Mo Heng and snorted lightly. He had already said that their sacred puppet clan had long been prepared to restrain the puppet, so Mo Heng was worrying over nothing.

However, both Su Yu and Mo Heng kept retreating. Not only did they not let out a sigh of relief, but they became even more solemn.

Based on the situation where Su Yu had come into contact with the first ancestor, that first ancestor whose strength was not even known to be at the Ten Thousand Saints level was already terrifyingly powerful, let alone the bones of a true ten thousand saints expert?

That was definitely not something that could be suppressed by a single shabby rune!

As expected!

Not long after the two retreated, they heard a snapping sound. They fixed their eyes and saw that it was actually a Sanskrit thread that had been broken.

The puppet ancestor's expression changed drastically. He once again formed a seal, attempting to completely close the net and completely bind the blue heart puppet.

However, at this moment, several snapping sounds rang out consecutively.

One after another, the lines of Sanskrit broke off. A gloomy and hoarse voice even came from the blue heart puppet's stomach, "Even when Buddha personally came, I was still afraid of him. How can a mere damaged rune do anything to me?"

It had spoken!

Moreover, just as Su Yu and Mo Heng had expected, this puppet's consciousness had always been hidden in the dark, deceiving the puppet Saint clan to refine its remains.

"Break!" As the word fell, the tightly bound blue heart puppet slowly raised its arm, and the Sanskrit lines on its body shattered.

When its arm was completely freed, it grabbed with its palm and grabbed all of the Sanskrit web on its body, then threw it fiercely!

Chi La —

All of the web on its body was instantly torn apart.

The puppet ancestor's hand that was forming a seal shook violently and was forcefully pushed away. His heart was filled with shock and the seal was ineffective! !

He could not help but step back with a trembling heart. His eyes began to reveal a look of fear as he felt a sense of panic that he could not control.

However, the blue heart puppet did not ignore him because of his retreat. His eyes that were dancing with flames shot straight at him and the corners of his mouth curled up, it revealed a human-like sneer. "As the benefactor who forged my body, I shall give your entire clan a good fortune."

It raised its palms and placed them in front of its body, muttering an obscure incantation.

Shua —

A layer of solidified blue crystal quickly swept through the surroundings with him as the center.

The blue crystal swept through the mountains, grass, and trees. There was nothing unusual about it, but when it touched the scattered corpses nearby, it immediately turned the corpses into blue crystals.

Su Yu found this scene more or less familiar. It was very similar to the Blue Heart Demon Armor from before!

However, it was much more powerful now!

Seeing this, the puppet ancestor's pupils constricted. "Blue Heart Wave!"

He was angry and resentful at the same time. As he retreated crazily, he shouted, "All members of the sacred puppet clan, Retreat! Retreat!"

...

At this moment, he no longer had any hope for this puppet.

The Blue Heart Wave was a special attack method that their saint puppet clan had specially designed for this puppet. It could crystallize all living beings within a radius of a hundred miles and kill them instantly.

Never in their wildest dreams did they expect that the first time the puppet was used, it would actually be against their saint puppet clan.

As for why this was the case, the reason was very simple.

The blue heart puppet was created by the saint puppet clan. In terms of who understood it the most, it was naturally the saint puppet clan.

In order to prevent the blue heart puppet from exposing its weakness, it wanted to exterminate the saint puppet clan that had created it.

Looking at the saint puppet clan that was retreating, the blue heart puppet let out a sinister smile. It pointed its finger across the air and the Blue Heart Wave swept out at an even more shocking speed.

Only the saint puppet clan's people had not escaped far away. As they were fleeing in fear, they were swept away at the first moment.

In an instant, they collectively turned into blue crystals. Then, they fell to the ground and shattered into pieces.

Even the ancestor puppet with the highest cultivation base had half of his body crystallized!

Chapter 3094 Invincible

In the blink of an eye, the saint puppet clan was almost wiped out. Only the puppet patriarch was left, and only half of his life was left.

Everything was just a single attack from the blue heart puppet.

Seeing this scene with his own eyes, Su Yu's expression was calm and his heart didn't waver at all. They had brought this upon themselves and couldn't blame anyone.

Whether it was him or Mo Heng, they had repeatedly reminded him not to look down on the remains of the ten thousand saints. However, everyone from the puppet ancestor to the ordinary clansmen all thought that they were right, they had no idea that they were doing something that would endanger the entire clan and the entire world.

!!

In the end, their words came true. There was indeed something wrong with the blue heart puppet. Moreover, the first thing it did after it was born was to exterminate the puppet saint clan.

The puppet elder looked at the crystal fragments of his clansmen lying on the ground and shouted in despair, "Blue! Heart! Puppet!"

Unfortunately, his shout could not change anything. Everything was in vain.

The blue heart puppet looked at the puppet elder with disdain. He bent his finger towards the puppet elder and was prepared to snap it. With the puppet elder's current half-crystal state, he could be killed with a snap of his finger.

Keng —

With a flick of its finger, a sharp blue light beam shot towards the puppet patriarch's back.

At this moment, the puppet patriarch only had half of his life left. How could he withstand a blow from the blue heart puppet?

His eyes were filled with despair and regret. If he knew this would happen, why did he do it in the first place?

If he had listened to Su Yu and Mo Heng's suggestions, why would he do it today?

It was too late to say anything now!

However, just as the blue light was about to arrive, a blue palm suddenly appeared in front of the puppet master without any warning and blocked it.

It was none other than Su Yu!

Mo Heng was stunned and looked at Su Yu in confusion. "Ding Zun, come back quickly!"

The blue heart puppet was so terrifying that Su Yu actually took the initiative to attract its attention. Moreover, it was for the Puppet Master?

To be honest, he felt that the ancestor puppet deserved to die. He should not have been saved in the first place.

Su Yu's expression was calm as he released his palm. The blue light that shot out was crushed into dust by his Blue Glove.

“Our current enemy is the blue-heart puppet,” Su Yu said indifferently.

Although the ancestor puppet was the main culprit, the most important thing was not to settle the blame, but to eliminate the great enemy in front of them together.

He turned to look at the puppet patriarch and said, “Do you want to avenge your clansmen?”

The puppet patriarch had saved his life from Death’s door, his rough face was replaced by grief and indignation. “Human, don’t provoke me. I know what you want to say. From now on, I will be on your side until we destroy this puppet!”

Su Yu nodded slightly. “That’s for the best.”

Suddenly, the meridians in Su Yu’s body began to vibrate rhythmically, as if something was controlling them.

He glanced sideways and keenly noticed that the lips of the puppet ancestor were moving slightly.

‘HMM?’?

Su Yu rolled his eyes and calmed his heart to listen to the pulse of the meridians. He gradually understood that this was a secret technique of the abyss puppet to stimulate the pulse of others’ Meridians.

The original intention was to impart some inheritances that only certain meridians could withstand. At this moment, he was transmitting some words.

“Cover me and enter the puppet. With this puppet around, we might be able to destroy this blue heart puppet!” The puppet ancestor told Su Yu in such a unique way.

They were facing a ten thousand saints blue heart puppet. Even if it was a soul transmission, it could be detected by the other party and see through their scheme.

Therefore, they could only use this special method to send a voice transmission.

Su Yu nodded his head without batting an eyelid. He raised his hand and the Blue Heart Devil armor draped over his body completely covered his body.

Facing the skeleton of the ten thousand saints expert from the past, Su Yu did not dare to be the slightest bit careless.

With the Blue Heart Devil armor on his body, Su Yu took out the Absolute Heaven Sword. With this sword in his hand, a peerlessly fierce light shot out.

At the same time, an oil lamp floated above Su Yu’s head, flickering with flickering light.

That was the power of the saintly being!

In addition, with a wave of his left hand, the myriad calamity scythe appeared. The Primal Chaos Energy in his body surged into it crazily, pushing it to the limit.

Facing it, Su Yu was fully armed and ready!

“You have quite a bit of wealth.”The blue heart puppet looked at Su Yu from afar and laughed hoarsely, “Even in my era, the things you have on you can be considered pretty good.”

“It’s a pity. It’s indeed a pity to use them on you.”The blue heart puppet said, “Why don’t you give them to me!”

He opened his mouth and spat at Su Yu. A blue bolt of lightning pierced through space and directly passed through Su Yu’s body.

The heart of the puppet ancestor who was watching the battle from afar sank. The strongest person in Hidden Sky Mountain, Su Yu, ended just like that?

They were all finished. They couldn’t count on anything.

However, the blue heart puppet narrowed his eyes and said indifferently, “Space-time domain? This is a bit unexpected.”

Eh?

Everyone immediately looked up. Su Yu, who entered their sight, turned into an illusion and disappeared.

The blue heart puppet suddenly turned around and raised his palm to slap the space behind him.

Su Yu’s imposing stance appeared without any warning. He slashed down from above with a sword and a scimitar at the same time.

Clang —

The Sword and scimitar slashed at the blue heart puppet’s palm, but they did not manage to cut it in the slightest. Instead, they merely grazed the blue heart puppet’s palm, creating a series of Sparks!

Su Yu’s heart trembled violently. He had used seventy percent of his strength, but he was actually unable to harm even the slightest bit of the blue heart puppet.

Wasn’t the Blue Heart puppet a little too powerful?

...

At this moment, his meridians were throbbing once again. It was the puppet ancestor’s anxious voice transmission. “There are two weaknesses. One is in the chest that has yet to be inlaid with the heart, and the other is under the armpit.”

Su Yu could not help but feel angry. Why didn’t he say so earlier!

At this moment, he could only retreat temporarily.

However, the blue heart puppet had countless eras of battle experience. It was once a true ten thousand saints expert. How could it miss such a fleeting opportunity to strike?

The palm that blocked the sword and scimitar suddenly erupted with an incomparably dense blue light pillar.

When the light pillar met with air, it immediately materialized. Like an infinitely long wooden stick, it ruthlessly stabbed towards Su Yu's head.

However, Su Yu's combat experience was also incomparably rich. Before his opponent made a move, he had already anticipated his opponent's attack and immediately drew a scar in the air.

The soul ancestor technique immediately flashed and instantly condensed into a mist in front of the Blue Heart Puppet.

Although the blue heart puppet's body was powerful, it had a fatal weakness, which was that its consciousness was not at the level of ten thousand saints.

Its consciousness was only one ten-thousandth of that of a true ten thousand saints expert.

Su Yu's soul ancestor technique was still effective on it!

...

Sure enough, the blue heart puppet lost its target immediately. A trace of surprise finally condensed in its indifferent tone. "Soul ancestor technique? Who Are You?"

If it was just the space-time domain, he could still understand that the descendants of the clansmen of the two domains might be able to master two domains at the same time.

However, how could this child even master the soul ancestor technique.

If he remembered correctly, the complete soul ancestor technique had long been lost due to the Sage Mountain's son of Heaven's plot.

Chapter 3095

The current Soul Saint Clan did not even have an ancestral technique. How did this brat learn it?

However, this was not important.

"Fortunately, your level is still too low and your soul is insufficient. Otherwise, you would really be in danger." The blue heart puppet waved its arm and a wave of blue light swept past, dispersing the fog in front of it.

Not far away, Su Yu's retreating figure appeared.

!!

The blue heart puppet grinned, "Brat, this venerable self has come to this world to use people. If you give me your heart and follow this venerable self from now on, you will definitely benefit in the future."

Pausing for a moment, he faintly said, "In fact, it is even possible for me to teach you the opportunity to become a ten thousand sage expert."

The former was still acceptable, but it was all empty talk. Who knew what the so-called benefits were.

However, the opportunity to become a ten thousand saints was truly a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. It was definitely not something that could be obtained just by luck alone. Who would not be tempted?

This was especially so for the great saints present!

“Forget it. I’m free to do whatever I want. I’m not used to being restricted by others,” Su Yu said calmly.

The blue heart puppet stopped smiling and said, “Then, you’d better die!”

The last word was still in its mouth, but its figure had already blurred. In the distance, Su Yu’s expression changed and he was about to dodge.

However, an extremely cold voice came from behind him, “What do you think is the reason for me to waste my breath on an ant?”

Of course, it was to divert Su Yu’s attention and give him a fatal blow!

He could not be bothered to take in a creature like Su Yu, whose cultivation level was too low, as his follower. Even if he wanted to, he should be at the peak of the Great Sage realm.

Su Yu’s pupils constricted, and his body stiffened. Before he could react, his chest suddenly turned cold, and an iron claw pierced through Su Yu’s chest.

Instantly, blood splattered all over the ground.

The Blue Heart puppet clenched its five fingers, instantly shattering Su Yu’s body. At the same time, it grabbed a jade-green pearl.

That was the only spatial attribute item beside Su Yu, and the Blue Heart Iron Heart could only be hidden within it.

“Hehe! I finally got it!” The blue heart puppet laughed hoarsely, and instantly activated the jade-green pearl.

Who knew that at the instant it was activated, the jade-green pearl suddenly turned golden and exploded at the same time!

At the same time, the corpse of Su Yu, which had turned into flesh and blood, actually turned into fluorescent light and disappeared into the world.

The blue heart puppet’s pupils constricted. It immediately realized that it had been tricked!

What it had killed was not the real Su Yu, but a soul illusion spell!

In the blink of an eye, the blue heart puppet threw away the golden pearl in the instant it exploded.

However, the instant it threw it away, the world let out a mighty “Freeze”!

An intense power of time flowed over like a flood, causing everything to freeze.

Even the blue heart puppet was no exception. Its body was in a deadlock.

Although it was short-lived, it was enough!

Boom —

With a violent explosion, the blue heart puppet was instantly surrounded by flames. Large cracks appeared on its bones.

The golden bead was not something else. It was a powerful self-destructing dao weapon that was snatched from the little skeleton. Its power was comparable to that of a peak great sage.

Although the blue heart puppet's body was invincible, its consciousness was weak. Such a powerful explosion could not destroy its body, but it could harm its soul.

As expected!

The Blue Heart puppet let out a miserable groan and staggered backward.

At the moment it retreated, a cold wind appeared without any warning and stabbed into its empty vest.

The puppet ancestor had said that one of its two weaknesses was its vest.

If it could hurt the inside, it might be able to truly hurt the blue heart puppet.

“What makes you think that I don't know that you were just stalling?” Su Yu appeared and said indifferently.

Although he had only cultivated for two hundred years, he had experienced countless life-and-death battles in his life. He had seen similar petty tricks countless times.

He wanted to use this to deceive him, but he was only giving him a chance to beat him at his own game!

Clang Clang!

However, unexpectedly, just as the absolute heaven sword was about to pierce into the gap in his back, the blue heart puppet suddenly thought of something. Unexpectedly, it used its right fist to pierce through the gap in its chest and used its fist as its heart., protecting the hole.

When the Absolute Heaven Sword stabbed into the blue heart puppet's fist, intense sparks immediately appeared. At the same time, the strong rebound force caused Su Yu's arm to tremble violently and the absolute heaven sword in his hand almost fell out of his hand.

The blue heart puppet slowly turned its head and its eyes were filled with killing intent. “You! You deserve to die!”

Boom —

The fist in its heart suddenly shot out a ray of solidified blue light and pierced through Su Yu at a close distance.

At such a distance and so suddenly, anyone would have died without a doubt.

Su Yu had made many plans, but in the end, he was still defeated by the absolute difference in strength!

Pu —

The blue light beam instantly pierced through Su Yu, turning his body into a blue crystal. Finally, he fell to the ground and smashed into pieces.

“Let’s see if you can still die?”The blue heart puppet snorted coldly and grabbed the heaven-destroying sword with greed in his eyes.

This time, it should have killed Su Yu’s real body.

After all, the body could be deceived by illusions, but this sword that was full of killing intent could not be condensed by illusions.

...

However, when the blue heart puppet grabbed the heaven-ending sword, the blood-red lines on the hilt of the sword suddenly compressed.

The resentful souls temporarily gave up on suppressing the heaven-ending sword, and the heaven-ending sword’s consciousness suddenly burst out, attacking the blue heart puppet uncontrollably.

The sudden scene caught the blue heart puppet off guard, and it had no choice but to grip the absolute heaven sword tightly to prevent itself from being hurt!

However, at this moment, a scene that the blue heart puppet had never expected happened.

Su Yu, who was supposed to be dead, suddenly appeared on the right side of his body. He used the myriad calamity scythe to slash at the right armpit of the blue heart puppet from the bottom up as fast as lightning.

This attack was so sudden that even the onlookers didn’t expect it.

The Blue Heart Puppet, who was focusing on suppressing the absolute heaven sword, was even more surprised!

“What?”The blue heart puppet was shocked. Did he just kill Su Yu with his illusion technique?

How could this be?

Could it be that all his attacks had been predicted by his opponent?

Was that some kind of secret technique that could predict the future?

...

No! It wasn’t a secret technique!

If it was a secret technique that could predict the future, there would definitely be traces of the secret technique being used. Moreover, that kind of secret technique required an absolutely stable state to be able to predict. Usually, a third party would be at the side to predict and inform their partners in battle.

It was absolutely impossible to predict the future while fighting.

However, if the other party was only relying on his brain to calculate, the power of this calculation would be too incredible!

He was a mighty ten thousand saints expert, and a casual move of his could destroy the world. How could he have predicted this?

Actually, the truth was indeed so.

From the very beginning, Su Yu had not locked onto his heart, but his armpit.

All the previous things, including making him obtain the real heaven-defying sword, were all intentional by Su Yu. He had made him lower his guard and mistakenly thought that the second time he killed the real Su Yu.

However, he did not expect that the real Su Yu would finally make a move at this moment!

Chapter 3096 a tough battle

After a series of calculations, Su Yu finally found the perfect opportunity to make his move.

In the blink of an eye, Su Yu pushed the kalpa scythe to its limit and accurately slashed at the opponent's armpit.

The other parts of the blue heart puppet were extremely hard. Even the absolute heaven sword and the Kalpa scythe couldn't hurt the opponent at all.

But now, the myriad tribulation scythe had easily cut into the blue heart puppet's bones!

!!

“Ah!”The blue heart puppet felt as though it was being executed. As a myriad saint expert, it actually let out a shrill scream.

Based on its experience, logically speaking, such an injury shouldn't cause the blue heart puppet to react at all.

But now, it was emitting such intense pain. It could be seen that the blue heart puppet's armpit was indeed one of its fatal weaknesses.

As expected!

The surface of the blue heart puppet's body, which had been tempered for countless years, actually had a large area of bubbles appearing, as if it was about to break away from the blue heart puppet.

Su Yu was delighted. He used all the strength in his body to suddenly lift it up and ruthlessly lift it up towards the underarm.

If this lift was normal, it would be able to hit its fatal point and kill it in one strike!

However, how could the blue heart puppet be an ordinary person?

He suddenly clamped his right arm and used the strength of his arm to clamp the calamitous scythe under his armpit, preventing Su Yu from continuing to slash down.

If it was an ordinary person, they might really have lost their way. However, who was Su Yu?

At the critical moment, Su Yu did not hesitate to activate the mature human saint body. A surge of surging, peerless and majestic saint body power surged into his palm.

His strength increased by 30% . He used all his strength to lift the scythe and broke free from the blue heart puppet's control. The myriad tribulation scythe slashed down from top to bottom.

“Ah!”The blue heart puppet cried out in pain. However, the moment the myriad tribulation scythe lost control, his body tilted. The myriad tribulation scythe did not cut through his armpit. Instead, it cut off his right arm!

His right arm and the Absolute Heaven Sword in his hand broke free.

A blue bead could be seen at the spot where the arm was cut off. It was none other than the blue heart bead, which provided the blue heart puppet with an endless supply of energy.

The blue heart bead was attached to the skeleton. It could only be maintained when it had enough energy. This blue heart bead was an important energy source second only to the blue heart bead.

Once it was lost, the blue heart metal on the skeleton would peel off, just like the bubbles that had been created just now.

And the remains of the ten thousand saints experts who had lost their blue heart iron would be limited no matter how strong they were. With their strength, they could completely suppress them.

Unfortunately, at the last moment, the blue heart puppet instinctively dodged, causing Su Yu's technique to fail.

"I'll kill you! !"The blue heart puppet was completely exposed. Never in his wildest dreams had he imagined that he would actually be ambushed by a small human and almost lose his life!

Su Yu's reaction was extremely fast. His plan failed, and he didn't have any time to be depressed. He grabbed the broken arm and the heaven-ending sword with a flip of his hand and quickly left.

When the blue heart puppet counterattacked, Su Yu used the same trick again, using the Soul Mist.

The Blue Heart Puppet, who had suffered a great loss, became cautious. After fanning out the mist, it saw Su Yu not far away, but it didn't dare to attack recklessly, afraid that it would fall into the hands of the enemy.

The two grandmasters, Mo Heng, and the others who were watching the battle from afar could not help but gasp in shock.

If they had not witnessed it with their own eyes, they would have found it hard to believe that a person who had not even reached the ancient sage realm would be able to match up to a ten thousand sage expert with his schemes.

No, he had the upper hand!

Not only had he nearly killed the other party, he had even chopped off one of the other party's arms!

Shua —

The ripples around the two of them shook as Su Yu returned.

He withdrew his heaven-defying sword, and the broken arm in his hand underwent a drastic change. The Blue Heart Iron on it lost its power and turned into bubbles. After the bubbles burst, they rapidly cracked.

As a result, the blue heart iron began to peel off a large area. When it fell down, Su Yu immediately put away all the blue heart iron that had fallen down.

These were treasures that were extremely hard to come by. How could he waste them!

Other than that, there was still a complete broken arm of a ten thousand saints expert. Even if he held it in his hand, Su Yu could feel a terrifying power that made his heart skip a beat.

If you could use it, this arm could also become a peerless weapon that could hurt others.

He sent a letter and put away the arm as well.

The blue-hearted puppet who noticed this scene from afar had a gloomy look in his eyes. Blue Flames were dancing violently in his eyes. He said in a low voice, “Human! You have really angered me!”

Endless killing intent swept over rapidly with him as the center.

Su Yu’s expression was calm as he said indifferently, “You speak as if you would be merciful to me if I didn’t offend you.”

From his actions after his birth, it was clear that he wanted to destroy everyone present.

“No! If you don’t Provoke Me, you will die! But if you provoke me, you will look worse than death!”

Sou —

As soon as he finished speaking, the blue heart puppet disappeared into thin air. Without a doubt, his earlier conversation was to stall for time in order to attract Su Yu and the others’ attention so that he could teleport over and kill them in one strike.

But right at this moment!

The giant puppet, whose body was half buried in the ground, suddenly opened its eyes!

A giant palm suddenly stretched out from the ground and slammed into the air.

Bang —

That palm actually cut off the blue heart puppet, whose speed was so fast that it could jump through time!

The giant palm slammed down fiercely, slapping the blue heart puppet, who was caught off guard, onto the ground and pressing it down.

Rumble —

At the same time, the huge puppet crawled out from the ground. Its majestic and imposing figure covered the sky and covered the Sun.

...

Su Yu revealed a gratified expression. He was fighting against the blue heart puppet with all his strength, and it was not a desperate battle. He was just trying to buy time for the puppet patriarch.

If he could kill the blue heart puppet, that would be the best. If he could not kill it, he could also buy enough time for the puppet patriarch to use the huge puppet. Now, it seemed that they had succeeded!

“Damned Thing, you deceived my abyss puppet lineage for several epochs. You can’t escape the responsibility of dying in vain!”The puppet patriarch was burning with rage.

Not only had the abyss puppet lineage been deceived for several epochs, they had almost been exterminated. How could the puppet patriarch feel at ease if he didn’t exterminate such a deep blood feud?

The blue heart puppet was attacked twice, and he was furious.

He propped himself up with one arm and forced himself to stand up from the ground. He used his own body to prop up the giant puppet’s palm.

“You bunch of ants should be crushed into ashes!”The Blue Heart puppet roared and pushed up with one arm.

The giant puppet actually lost control of its body and almost fell to the ground.

Fortunately, the puppet ancestor’s skill was superb, and he stepped down in time!

Bang —

The entire hidden sky mountain trembled violently because of this kick. The blue heart puppet’s body let out an explosive sound that could not bear the weight of the burden. Under everyone’s nervous gazes, it exploded into pieces..

...

In an instant, everyone who was watching from afar cried out wildly.

It was unbelievable that they had really killed a ten thousand saints expert who had appeared out of nowhere!

Only Su Yu and the other patriarchs had solemn expressions on their faces. They could sense that although the body of the blue heart puppet had been destroyed, its consciousness was completely unharmed!

Chapter 3097 final entrustment

As expected, the shattered pieces of the blue heart puppet wriggled and gathered together, quickly forming a complete blue heart puppet.

Seeing this scene, the cheering crowd felt as if a bucket of cold water had been poured on them, and their hearts turned cold.

This was especially so for the puppet progenitor, whose face was as dark as water.

After countless years of tempering, the blue heart puppet had long become an indestructible blue heart iron body. Even if its body was shattered, it could recover in an instant.

!!

It was impossible to kill it!

A hint of despair appeared in his eyes as he shouted in a low voice, “Lie down!”

The giant palm stomped down fiercely, crushing the blue heart puppet into pieces once more. However, it did not have any effect as the blue heart puppet immediately recovered.

After that, under the repeated stomps of the puppet ancestor, the blue heart puppet recovered again and again.

Each time, the people present felt a bit of despair.

“Step on it! Step on it! Thanks to You, I have an undying and indestructible body!” The blue heart puppet laughed ferociously. “When you can’t step on it, I will kill all of you!”

The giant puppet controlled by the puppet master relied on energy to operate. It was impossible to step on it endlessly. Eventually, the energy would be exhausted.

At that time, when there was no powerful force that could resist the invincible body of the Blue Heart Puppet, it would be the moment when the entire hidden sky mountain was destroyed.

Forefather Qingmu and forefather Netherworld’s faces were as dark as water. They had provoked an existence that would not leave them alone.

It was dangerous, but they could not kill it. It was also filled with the desire to kill them for revenge.

“Supremacy ding, what should we do?” Forefather Qingmu turned his gaze to Su Yu. Among them, only Su Yu might have a way to resist the blue heart puppet.

However, what was unexpected was that Su Yu said in a serious tone, “Inform the wicked daughter, lead Ding and all the members of Ding to retreat from heaven burial mountain. The further the better!”

Retreat?

Hearing this, the two ancestors felt extremely heavy in their hearts. Even master Ding couldn’t do anything about it.

No, with the indestructible body of the blue heart puppet, who could do anything to him?

Ancestor nether pondered, “Master Ding, why don’t you try to attack his fatal point again?”

Didn’t Su Yu almost destroy the Blue Heart Pearl on his arm just now and kill him?

If he did it again, he would definitely succeed.

However, Su Yu shook his head slightly and stared at the blue heart puppet that was constantly recovering. He asked in return, “Will you fall in the same place twice?”

Forefather Netherworld understood what Su Yu meant and sighed silently, “What a pity.”

Just now, when Su Yu used a series of tricks, he almost dealt a fatal blow to the blue heart puppet. That was already the only chance he had.

The blue heart puppet that had learned its lesson would not give Su Yu any more chances.

“If I attack now, I will give the blue heart puppet a chance to escape.” Su Yu saw it clearly.

The reason why the blue heart puppet could be continuously crushed was because he did not give it a chance to attack. Every time it recovered, it would be crushed by forefather puppet.

If Su Yu acted as a third party, perhaps the blue heart puppet would be able to rely on external forces to break out of the cycle of destruction. At that time, it might not be easy to trample the blue heart puppet under their feet.

“Do as I say. Immediately rule over all living beings in Hidden Sky Mountain and retreat. If you are unwilling, then let them go!” Su Yu said.

There were still a small number of forces in Hidden Sky Mountain who had not joined Ding. If they were willing to listen to persuasion, then so be it. If they were not willing, then Su Yu had no time to care about them.

“What about Ding Zun?” Patriarch Qingmu could hear the hidden meaning in his words. This matter was obviously more convincing if he was the one to inform them. Why did he let them go?

Su Yu said, “I will stay here and try to buy more time for you. Go quickly!”

Forefather Qingmu and forefather nether were extremely moved. In a life and death situation, Su Yu did not abandon them. Instead, he wanted to use his life to buy them more time.

This move sounded easy to say, but how many people in the world could actually do it?

Most of the leaders used their own forces as tools to protect their own interests. However, only Su Yu actually used his own life to protect the interests of the forces under his command.

Patriarch Qingmu had originally been hesitant, but now he had made up his mind.

He was a bit hesitant about joining the cauldron. He was only moved by the fact that Patriarch Netherworld had abolished his own race and merged with the cauldron.

But now, there was no room for hesitation.

With such a leader, Heaven and earth would be hard to find. What was there for the Qingmu sacred clan to hesitate about?

“We will wait for the Great Grandmaster’s Return!” The two forefathers bowed and immediately went back to inform everyone to retreat.

Su Yu leaped onto the head of the giant puppet and said telepathically, “Forefather puppet, is there anything else you need to tell us?”

Since things had come to this, the forefather puppet could neither escape nor kill the blue heart puppet. In the end, the giant puppet could only be killed by the blue heart puppet after it lost its momentum.

As an old monster for countless years, he should have long understood this point.

The puppet patriarch's voice was hoarse, and his eyes were full of sorrow. "One careless move and the whole game will be lost! Our Abyss puppet lineage is asking for it. We are no better than anyone else! I Don't blame anyone!"

"In fact, I should even thank you for snatching away the Blue Heart Iron Heart. I didn't let this crafty old expert of ten thousand saints succeed."The puppet patriarch sighed.

"If he had gotten his hands on the Blue Heart Iron Heart, I'm afraid I wouldn't even be able to crush him now. At that time, he would truly be unrivalled in the world and sweep across the world. My Abyss puppet lineage would die with a grievance!"

"Fortunately, you snatched away the heart. He isn't a complete blue heart iron puppet yet!"

Su Yu listened quietly. He knew that the puppet patriarch definitely had something else to tell him.

"Take the heart with you. Find a suitable puppet or a suitable body and fuse the heart into it. That way, you might be able to create a different existence."The puppet forefather's voice became increasingly hoarse, he was even a little tired.

Controlling a huge puppet would consume a huge amount of energy.

Su Yu could hear the hidden meaning in his words. The blue heart puppet could be fused into the body of a living being?

This was an artificial heart!

"This is a secret technique to fuse with the heart. Remember it clearly."The ancestor puppet once again passed the fusion technique to Su Yu through the meridian vibration technique.

...

Su Yu silently accepted it and said, "Is there nothing else?"

The ancestor puppet chuckled, "I would like to entrust you to take revenge for my abyss puppet lineage, but that is not realistic."

The blue heart puppet had already reached the point where it was indestructible. No one in the world could kill it.

It was even more impossible for Su Yu.

"I have nothing to tell you. I only hope that if you can find the other branches of my puppet clan, you must pass on the ancestral technique that our abyss puppet lineage has mastered to them."The Puppet Forefather's voice was filled with endless sorrow.

A glowing scripture surged out of the giant puppet's body and landed in front of Su Yu.

Chapter 3098 mutual destruction

The scriptures were all compiled from the heavenly book. Su Yu glanced through them and saw the ancestral art flickering within.

Su Yu grasped it and felt an indescribable emotion in his heart.

Of all things in the world, only living beings had something other than life.

The entire clan was exterminated, but he still hoped that his inheritance would not be destroyed and that his race would be passed down in another form in the world.

!!

This was a life form's plea for continuity. It was both humble and respectful.

"I Will!" Su Yu clenched his fists tightly and added, "Also, I will take revenge for you. Leave the blue heart puppet to me!"

The puppet ancestor forced a smile, "Then... thank you very much."

With a smile, all grudges disappeared. Furthermore, there was no life or death grudge between them!

Su Yu cupped his fists deeply and turned to the foot of the giant puppet. Looking at the blue heart puppet that had been restored, he took out the Blue Heart Iron Heart, he said indifferently, "If you want the heart, come find me! If It's over, I can't guarantee that I'll use it on someone else!"

As he said that, he flew in another direction.

The Blue Heart puppet was furious. "Stop right there! !"

The body of the blue heart puppet had been successfully refined for an entire era. In this era, he had been holding back and not revealing his consciousness. He wanted these fools from the saint puppet clan to refine the blue heart iron heart for him.

Because of this, he had been tormented for an entire era.

In the end, he finally succeeded, but Su Yu suddenly charged out and snatched him away!

He struggled with all his might, trying to break free from the suppression of the giant puppet.

"HMPH! Where do you think you're Going?" The ancestor puppet snorted coldly and stomped down, crushing the blue heart puppet.

The latter flew into a rage. "Old Thing! I want your bones crushed and ashes scattered! !"

Looking at the furious Blue Heart Puppet, the ancestor puppet couldn't help but laugh into the sky. "Vile creature! You want to obtain the Blue Heart Iron Heart? Dream On!"

As he said that, he stomped on the blue heart puppet again and again.

The blue heart puppet was filled with anger, but he couldn't get rid of it. He could only be delayed by hatred and curses.

A Day passed.

The giant puppet stomped on the blue heart puppet again and again, causing the entire hidden sky mountain to sink by one-tenth.

But the blue heart puppet was indeed made of blue heart iron. It was still in its original state, even though the giant puppet had used up most of its energy.

The puppet patriarch was panting, and his red face turned pale. He looked at Heaven Burial Mountain, which had completely retreated half a day ago, and murmured, "I have tried my best."

Looking at Heaven Burial Mountain, which he had been familiar with for an era, the puppet patriarch felt endless emotions.

He had never thought that one day he would sacrifice himself to buy time for the forces that he looked down on.

"All of you, take care of yourselves."The ancestor golem let out a deep sigh as he weakly slumped to the ground.

The energy of the giant golem was completely depleted, and its footsteps were slowing down.

Finally, when the blue heart golem returned from its shattered state, the giant Golem's foot had yet to step down, and the blue heart golem finally had a chance to strike!

Bang

The blue heart puppet raised its right arm abruptly and blocked the giant puppet's foot. No matter how much strength the giant puppet exerted, it was unable to stomp it to pieces.

"Now, are you ready to bid farewell to this world?"The blue heart puppet revealed a sinister sneer.

It hugged the giant puppet's foot with both its arms, and then, with a furious roar, it released a tremendous force that could move mountains and overturn seas. It actually picked up the giant puppet that was a hundred times larger than itself, and then slammed it onto the ground.

Rumble —

With a fall, a full 30% of the heaven-hidden mountain was cut off!

The giant puppet was also left with several cracks, and the puppet patriarch in the control room was vomiting blood from the fall.

However, this was only the beginning. The blue heart puppet took revenge and threw the giant puppet around. The heaven-hidden mountain that reached the sky, the best spiritual land in the cloud wilderness realm, was razed to the ground, the spiritual vein hidden under the ground was revealed.

Then, the spiritual vein was destroyed under the violent vibration..

The giant puppet finally broke under the heavy load after several violent collisions. The right leg that the blue heart puppet was holding on to was directly detached from its body.

The giant puppet's huge body fell to the ground with a loud bang. Sparks were flickering all over its body, and thick black smoke was coming out from its body.

The blue heart puppet grinned sinisterly as it walked to the giant puppet's head. With a stomp of its toes, the head was instantly shattered, revealing the puppet ancestor who was on the verge of death.

It jumped in and looked at the puppet ancestor with its hands behind its back. It said in an extremely sinister tone, “Old Thing, are you ready to die?”

The puppet ancestor had a calm expression on his face. He looked at the blue heart puppet and laughed, “It’s not up to you to decide how I Die!”

‘HMM?’?

The blue heart puppet sensed that something was amiss. He swept his gaze across the area and realized that the puppet elder’s palm seemed to be holding something.

He fixed his gaze on it and realized that it was an extremely eye-catching blood-red handle. It seemed to be an important mechanism.

The Blue Heart Puppet’s heart skipped a beat. He realized that something was amiss and was about to leave this place.

However, the puppet elder laughed out loud, “Come on! Let’s die together!”

Kacha —

The moment the handle was pulled down, the huge puppet’s head exploded with an unprecedented intensity!

That was the self-destruction credit that the huge puppet had designed from the very beginning of its creation. They were wary that the huge puppet would one day fall into the hands of the enemy. The abyssal puppet lineage could use the mechanism to detonate its self-destruction, causing both the puppet and the enemy to perish together.

The power of the explosion was infinitely close to the attack of the ten thousand saints after they had calculated it!

Boom —

The world instantly turned pale.

...

The flames of the explosion radiated across billions of mountains and rivers, bringing everything within its destructive range.

At the center of the explosion, all sound was swallowed up by the explosion, leaving only the rumbling sound that replaced everything. The land where Hidden Sky Mountain was located disintegrated one after another, and the nearby vegetation disappeared and scattered.

In the end, even the giant puppet itself was shattered into pieces and disintegrated into particles.

Somewhere, the Blue Heart puppet that didn’t have enough time to run away roared at the sky in pain. Its body was like a black shadow in the daytime as it slowly dissipated under the impact of the explosion..

The intense shockwave of the explosion stirred up a tsunami-like smoke and dust that swept in all directions.

The creature from the Zang Tian mountain that had left for half a day stood on a mountain and looked at a ball of red and white flames in the sky in a daze.

Su Yu, who was standing in the other direction, stood there silently with a complicated look in his eyes. He let out a long sigh and said, "Have a good journey!"

He took out a spatial storage item and with a thought, the bodies of the three ancient saints of the saint puppet race appeared in front of him.

In fact, to be precise, the saint puppet race had not been exterminated.

Su Yu had taken over the bodies of three ancient saints. Their bodies had been put into the spatial storage item, but they had not died.

The three of them were at a loss. Su Yu gave a brief description before they looked at the fading red light of the explosion and hugged their heads as they cried.

Chapter 3099 self-righteous

"There are only the three of you left in the puppet Saint Clan. You will be responsible for carrying forward the inheritance your ancestor gave you before he died." Su Yu handed the inheritance of the abyss puppet lineage to the three of them.

The three of them looked at each other, but none of them accepted it. Instead, they bowed one after another. "Since the ancestor entrusted Dingzun to us, we are willing to follow Dingzun from now on."

The current nine star civilization was in turmoil. With the three of them receiving the inheritance, not only would they be unable to bring the abyss puppet lineage back to glory, they might even encounter the covetous eyes of many powerful evil forces.

Rather than that, it would be better to follow Ding Zun from now on and slowly develop the abyss lineage.

!!

"If you insist on this, I welcome you at any time." Su Yu took back the scripture and said, "However, you have to complete a mission first."

The three of them were delighted. "Please speak, venerable ding."

Su Yu pointed with his finger and the three dots of light entered their minds.

"What I want to say is all in it." After saying this, Su Yu leaped away without stopping.

The three of them were dazed for a moment. After confirming the information in the dots of light, they were stunned speechless for a long time.

"Venerable Ding, you can't be serious, right?" An ancient sage was stunned.

The other two ancient sages were also stunned for a long time.

"This... isn't this too ridiculous? Is He really on our side?"

Su Yu's request was so shocking that they started to doubt Su Yu's stance.

The third ancient sage said, "Since you've chosen to join Ding Zun, don't waver! Since Ding Zun is willing to sacrifice his own to distract the blue heart puppet for the sake of the creatures of heaven burial mountain, there shouldn't be a problem with his stance."

The other two ancient sages hesitated for a moment before choosing to trust Su Yu.

The three of them left in an instant.

In the burning ruins of heaven burial mountain, crackling sounds could be heard as a charred black object suddenly exploded, spewing out a blue fluorescent light.

These were all materials for blue heart iron.

After they landed on the ground, they continued to squirm into a deep pit.

In the other directions, fluorescent lights of various sizes also rushed over and gathered in the deep pit.

Pu —

A pale white skeletal palm suddenly stretched out from the scorched earth. Following that, another palm crawled out.

Next was the head, then the body, and finally the entire body.

"Damn ants!" The skeleton said angrily.

He was naturally a blue heart puppet that had not died. At this moment, his body was covered with cracks. Most of the blue heart iron material had been peeled off, and only a few parts were left.

However, the blue heart bead on his broken arm still existed, attracting the blue heart iron material to gather on the surface of his body.

Not long after, the blue heart puppet returned to its original state.

Other than its empty right arm!

He glanced sideways at his right arm, his eyes filled with killing intent. "Little Bastard, you've caused me a lot of trouble!"

His torch-like gaze swept across the sky. At the same time, he discovered a group of creatures from hidden Sky Mountain and Su Yu. The two of them were in opposite directions.

He had the intention of chasing after all the creatures from Hidden Sky Mountain to silence them. However, if that was the case, he was afraid that he would never be able to catch up to Su Yu again.

Even though he knew that Su Yu was trying to buy him time to save the creatures of Heaven Burial Mountain, he had no choice but to let Su Yu lead him by the nose.

"I'll kill that little bastard first, then I'll kill these ants!" The blue heart puppet leaped up and disappeared into the sky.

Su Yu, who was in the chicken wings, suddenly felt his chest rise and fall.

“Is the blue heart puppet catching up, or...”su Yu waved his spatial storage device, and the little skeleton transformed into a fire lion and jumped out.

It also felt that there was an extraordinary aura behind it that was rapidly approaching. It couldn't help but grin. “Little ancestor, do you dare to provoke some enemies that you can defeat?”

Before the first ancestor of the soul sacred clan was dealt with, another terrifying existence had arrived.

The little skeleton did not dare to imagine how Su Yu had managed to survive until today by constantly provoking this and that.

Su Yu said indifferently, “Provoking? I'm trying to save myself!”

HMM?

The little skeleton was stunned and suddenly thought of something. “Could it be that you provoked this terrifying thing in order to deal with the first ancestor?”

Su Yu said casually, “Otherwise, why do you think I ran back to the Hidden Sky Mountain?”

He had already noticed that there was something wrong with this puppet. Otherwise, he would not have decisively returned to hidden Sky Mountain.

“Oh my God! I took such a huge risk just to lure out that terrifying thing to deal with the first ancestor?”The little skeleton felt that it was unbelievable.

There were too many unpredictable risks. How could Su Yu guarantee that he would be able to meet the first ancestor again before the terrifying thing behind him caught up?

How could he guarantee that the first ancestor and the thing behind him would fight each other?

“Little Master, you'd better run quickly!”The little skeleton's expression changed. “You're underestimating their intelligence by scheming against two experts who are suspected to be at the ten thousand saints level at the same time, right?”

This move of shifting the disaster to the east was a trick that those old monsters had played enough of.

Wanting to trigger a life and death battle between the two of them was a pipe dream!

As long as they met, their toes would be able to guess that Su Yu had deliberately arranged it so that they could provoke a great battle and watch from the sidelines.

If they saw through Su Yu's plan, would they still fall for it?

Su Yu was taking these little tricks too seriously!

“I agree with their intelligence, but I agree with mine even more!”Su Yu raised his head and looked at the sky. His eyes were filled with a hint of understanding and determination.

The little skeleton howled and could only grit its teeth and run for its life.

...

However, it did not look forward to Su Yu's future at all. It sighed silently in its heart, "Poor Emperor Qing has endured for an entire era. All his efforts are going to be wasted."

It seemed like Emperor Qing had been entrusted with an impossible task!

Sou —

Both parties chased after each other and once again ran for their lives in the endless void.

The blue heart puppet was extremely fast. It was no weaker than the first ancestor from back then. It quickly closed the distance between the two sides.

The distance between them was not considered far.

After just half a day, when the little skeleton turned its head, it could already see the endless flashing blue light at the end of the world.

It was almost catching up!

However, the first ancestor that Su Yu had planned for did not appear for a long time.

It felt sad. How could it have predicted this? The ancestor was not his marionette. How could he appear in front of an enemy in time according to his plan?

Finally, the blue heart puppet closed the distance by half again. From Afar, one could hear the cold laughter of the Blue Heart Puppet. "You won't be able to escape!"

...

Su Yu's eyes were calm. He took out the blue heart iron heart and said calmly, "Ancestor, if you don't appear now, I will return this heart to that monster."

Shua —

Almost at the moment she finished speaking, her vision blurred. The Yi Zu, who was suppressed by the Heavenly Dao Union, appeared in front of Su Yu in a light muslin dress.

Her expression remained the same. However, there was a hint of killing intent and a hint of fear in her eyes as she looked at Su Yu.

"You want to scheme against me again?" Yi Zu said coldly.

Chapter 3100 calculating the heavens and earth

She had already successfully escaped from the huge net-like seal of the Heavenly Dao Union and was chasing after Su Yu's aura.

Who knew that halfway through her chase, Su Yu actually delivered herself to her door.

The first ancestor who had already been fooled once was naturally much more cautious. She hid herself and didn't come out because she wanted to see what Su Yu was up to.

In the end, what made her certain was that Su Yu actually knew that she was nearby.

!!

Moreover, he even planned to cause trouble for her and cause her to fight with the unknown object that was quickly chasing after her.

“Your plan is really clumsy,” the first ancestor said indifferently. She retreated. Not only did she not receive the heart, but she also kept a distance from the conflict between Su Yu and the blue heart puppet.

Her goal was to kill Su Yu. As for whether she killed Su Yu with her own hands or if Su Yu was killed by someone else, there was no difference.

As for whether this strange-looking heart would fall into the hands of the puppet, so what?

Did It have anything to do with her?

Wasn't Su Yu being too naive? Or did she treat her as a fool after successfully scheming against her once?

She wanted to see how Su Yu would deal with that unknown existence alone.

Roar —

The blue heart puppet quickly closed in. In a few more breaths, it would arrive and kill Su Yu immediately.

At that time, Su Yu would not be able to last long in front of the blue heart puppet.

His death was fated.

At the critical moment, Su Yu did something unexpected!

He threw the Blue Heart Iron Heart to the first ancestor!

The first ancestor, who saw this scene from afar, shook his head slightly. Su Yu was already at the end of his rope. He could even do such a meaningless action.

She moved lightly with her lotus steps, moving her body to the side to avoid the blue heart.

However, what surprised her the most was that when she moved away, the blue heart seemed to have eyes as it followed after her. It even predicted the location of the teleportation and appeared there in advance.

As a result, the Blue Heart coincidentally bumped into first ancestor.

“Who is it?” Yi Zu swept away Lan Xintie's heart with his palm and stared at the sky with a solemn expression on his face.

She was an existence at the level of ten thousand saints and had long surpassed the limits of ordinary life forms. It wasn't like an ordinary person could predict her future.

Unfortunately, in the empty void, no one could respond to her.

What made her even more distracted was that she suddenly felt the back of her hand burning hot. When she lowered her head, she saw that the back of her hand was actually stained with some blue fluorescence.

Those fluorescent lights were drilling into her flesh and blood, faintly forming a heart-shaped pattern.

Not far away, the Blue Heart Iron Heart was gradually disappearing.

The careless attack of the first ancestor just now had actually attracted the Blue Heart Iron Heart to invade her body?

Her beautiful eyes flashed, and an All Saints power that could destroy the world rushed out from her palm, trying to drive away the fluorescent lights that had invaded her body.

However, the fluorescent light had already fused with her flesh and blood, becoming a part of her body.

A careful blue heart pattern could be seen with the naked eye. It was beating slowly and powerfully on the back of her hand, and the Blue Heart Iron Heart in the air had disappeared without a trace.

The Heart had already been successfully implanted into the first ancestor's body.

The first ancestor's expression was exceptionally calm. His beautiful eyes stared at Su Yu, "All of this was done by you?"

Su Yu shrugged and said indifferently, "You think too highly of me. I have yet to successfully predict the trajectory of a myriad sage expert. The person who plotted against you is in the sky."

He pointed at the top of his head. There was no doubt that it was none other than the son of Heaven of the sacred mountain.

First ancestor remained silent. In fact, she already knew the answer.

The person who plotted against her was indeed the son of Heaven of the sacred mountain.

Only the existence above could predict her trajectory and successfully implant the blue heart iron heart into her body.

However, the first ancestor said with some uncertainty, "Are you working with the son of Heaven of the Sacred Mountain?"

"What do you think?" Su Yu asked back.

The first ancestor was a little confused. If Su Yu was working with the son of Heaven of the Sacred Mountain, then why was Su Yu being chased by the Rockmen in the Heavenly Dao Prison?

But if that wasn't the case, how could Su Yu be sure that the son of heaven would make a move in secret?

Could it be that he had already predicted that the son of heaven would definitely plot against her and force her to become enemies with the Blue Heart Puppet?

If that was the case, then wouldn't every move of the son of Heaven be under the control of Su Yu, a human.

Wasn't this a little too terrifying?

This was the first time she had heard of someone who could scheme against the son of Heaven of the Sacred Mountain!

Just as she was bewildered, that powerful aura finally arrived. Looking at the blue-armed puppet in front of her, her beautiful eyes flickered, she actually accurately identified the other party's identity. "You Are... The ten thousand saints of the human race from seven eras ago. Tuoba Liu, right?"

What?

Su Yu was secretly shocked. He didn't expect that the blue-heart puppet that was chasing after him was once a ten thousand saints of the human race.

The blue heart puppet suddenly stopped and looked at the first ancestor. It said hesitantly, "Are you from the Soul Saint Race?"

The two people's auras collided, and they were on guard against each other.

This was especially true for the blue heart puppet because it sensed a trace of danger. Its body was strong and invincible, and it wasn't afraid of anyone, but its soul wasn't.

Coincidentally, the Soul Saint Race was its nemesis.

"I've long heard of your name, Tuoba Liu," the first ancestor sighed silently. When she was an ordinary ancestor of the Soul Saint Clan, Tuoba Liu was already a famous human hero.

...

Later, Tuoba Liu disappeared from the nine-star civilization for some reason. He did not expect that he would be refined into a puppet when they met again.

It was truly unexpected that the world had changed.

The blue heart puppet was also filled with emotions. "I did not expect that there would still be people who remember me, Tuoba Liu, Hehe..."

He smiled with the vicissitudes of life, and his gaze fell on the back of Yi Zu's hand. "Can you return that Heart to me? It's very important to me."

Yi Zu did not have the intention to fight a life-and-death battle with Tuoba Liu, and he was exceptionally straightforward. "Yes! However, it's a little special, and it seems that it can not be removed."

The blue heart puppet nodded and took half a step forward. "I have a way to deal with it, and that is... As long as you die!"

The Blue Heart Puppet, who was still lamenting a moment ago, suddenly had an ominous glint in its eyes. It urged the assassin to attack immediately.

A blue pillar of light shot out from its eyes, piercing through the distance at an unbelievable speed and reaching the first ancestor's body.

The first ancestor blinked his eyes casually. "I knew you had bad intentions!"

His body that had been struck by the blue pillar of light was instantly shattered and turned into dust. The blue heart puppet's expression changed. "An illusion?"

Su Yu had already mastered the Soul Saint Tribe's illusion, let alone the first ancestor?

...

Shua —

Not far away, the first ancestor's figure reappeared. Her expression was slightly cold, filled with anger and helplessness.

She did not want to become enemies with the blue heart puppet for no reason, but now it seemed that she had no other choice.

“Before we fight, can we get rid of this annoying human first?” Ancestor one naturally did not forget Su Yu. She did not want Su Yu to be able to sit by the side and reap the benefits.

The blue heart puppet looked at Su Yu and grinned sinisterly, “Of course you can!”

If it was not for that little bastard, Su Yu, causing trouble, the Blue Heart Iron Heart would have long fused into its body. Why would it end up in this situation?
