Chapter 157 Why Did You Mislead Me?

Linda could not argue with Elisa in this setting. Furthermore, she did not know about Julia's aversion to jade bracelets. She could not understand how this gift ended up ruining her.

Julia, who had been silent all this while, suddenly burst into fury and yelled, "Tell her to leave. I don't want to see her again! Get out!"

Elisa held Julia's hand and said with a panicked voice, "Grandma, I'm sorry. It's my fault."

Her face was full of regret as if she blamed herself for not knowing Linda would not believe her warning. She seemed to regret warning Linda and causing this unfortunate incident.

Linda was bursting with fury.
