

No Chance 181

Chapter 181 If It Weren't for Elisa!

Meanwhile, Linda took her time and carefully picked out what to wear and made herself up before setting off.

She had spent the entire night thinking about how she would greet Old Madam Wickam. On the way there, she rehearsed what she would say, fearing that she would forget what to say to her.

Unfortunately...

When she arrived at Wickam Manor, Julia was not there. She stared at the butler in confusion.

"Mr. Jones, is Grandma not in?"

"She just left." He nodded.

Linda was surprised. "Where could she have gone so early in the morning?"

"The young master came to pick her up first thing in the morning. Along with Miss Elisa, the three of them headed for Lumineer Temple." He answered honestly.

was shocked. Why on earth were the three

Also!

pick up Grandma? And why

but in her emotions. She smiled at him, "Well then... Do

"I'm not too sure."

that would please Julia.

Gareth's father

she get her approval if she continued to stay in Urgh!

frustrated. But she couldn't say much in this current situation. She smiled at Mr. Jones and of what to do next when she heard footsteps coming from the stairs. She looked towards the sound and saw that to say anything else. Monica immediately

child. You have not suffered at all. I came to see Grandma, but I didn't know that