

No Chance 46

Chapter 46 Elisa Was Their Key to Victory!

Gareth stared icily at Elisa, "Are you satisfied with the mess?"

"Satisfied?" Elisa chuckled. "Who is the one causing the trouble?"

She was once a devoted wife of Mr. Wickam. She had always prioritized the Wickam family and never did anything that would bring shame to them. Everyone praised her for being excellent in household chores and having a good social life.

However, Gareth had never cared about her. He had been flirting with Linda all this while. Now that they were getting married, she had become a total joke. But in the end, Gareth accused her of being a troublemaker.

Elisa stared at Gareth sarcastically. Gareth then pursed his lips and said, "Leave the banquet now. That's the end of the matter."

Elisa looked at him and said calmly, "Will you go to the Ministry of Civil Affairs with me tomorrow to get our divorce certificate?"

Gareth sneered, "Elisa, don't be delusional and don't sound me out! I will divorce you sooner or later!"

Linda frowned when she came out and saw the two of them standing together. She quickly approached them and asked with a smile on her face. "Gareth, Elisa, why are you two chatting here?"

was fed up with Linda constantly reminding her that Gareth belongs to stared icily at Elisa's

Gareth was warning Elisa.

be having mixed feelings just now, but after she was a compulsory task for one could stop her

quickened her pace and soon returned to Will's together so soon. "Wow! How did you loosen up so tilted slightly, "If I'm not calm,

as her divorce would only to overpower the Wickam family. The news would collapse just because they got divorced.

and remained

and talked about their company situation, and their tendency of cooperation. Everyone was listening attentively. After all, everyone finally Elisa's turn. Will turned to look at her, and his