No Way Back Chapter 451-However, a demon in her heart would always jump out from time to time and control her thoughts. It would devour her rationality and make her do things she did not want.

Perhaps it was as Jane had said... Anna was essentially a schizophrenic. When she was furious to the extreme, another Anna Fowler would jump out and replace her, crazily harming the important people around, including Jane Fowler.

After waking up, Anna would regret and blame herself again. Her visit to the hospital was not only for a physical examination but also to check her state.

Before completely sealing the demonic Anna Fowler, she had already decided not to appear in front of Jane again to prevent her from doing anything irreparable.

The guilt, redemption, and reluctance toward Jane. Anna only wanted to return them to Madelyn.

She had already lost a daughter. She could not lose her last daughter. She could not!

"It's alright, . You adopted me and brought me up in the Fowler family when I was young. It was you who took care of me like this. When I was seriously ill, everyone took care of me meticulously so that I could survive until today..."

"Becoming your daughter and becoming a part of the Fowler family is the happiest and most fortunate thing in my life. To have the surname of Fowler and grow up care-freely under the love and care of and my brothers, I really feel that I can without regrets..."

Madelyn's words came from the bottom of her heart.

Tears welled up in her eyes as she said it.

It was not an act.

She was truly grateful from the bottom of her heart.

No matter how bad her conscience was, it was impossible for her to be indifferent to the kindness of raising her.

Even though the Fowler family's attitude toward her had changed drastically, all their attention was focused on Jane. Madelyn was still kind, after all.

She would still remember the Fowler family's kindness to her and the warmth she felt when they lived together.

But...

Every man for himself.

She had already chosen this path.

There was no turning back.

She could only continue for the sake of her wealth and future.

She forced herself to give up her conscience, kindness, and sincerity.

“Sorry... *****

“Please forgive me. I’m in so much pain and  and have no one to rely on!

“This is all because of you, the Fowler family, and my two inhumane biological parents!

“I was such an innocent and kind person. It’s all God’s fault that I ended up like this today!

“It has nothing to do with me!” Madelyn cursed in her mind.

Anna suddenly felt dizzy.

“What’s going on...  , my head... It’s so dizzy...”

“ , what’s wrong?”

Madelyn pounced forward.

She confirmed that Anna was dizzy, could not make a sound, and had completely lost her strength.

Now was the time!

Madelyn’s hands trembled slightly.

Then, she made up her mind. She became determined.

The opportunity was fleeting.

She could not miss it again.

Otherwise, Chester would be disappointed in her.

She grabbed Anna's hair, took a deep breath, and smashed Anna's head against the wall with all her strength.

The wall hit the back of Anna's head.

What she wanted was for Anna to be on the verge of death.

"Bang'

There was a loud bang.

Anna's head was instantly bleeding.

The she fainted, she never expected...

What greeted her eyes was Madelyn's ferocious face.

"Why... Madelyn!" She fainted.

Her forehead was still bleeding profusely.

Madelyn kept breathing rapidly.

Then, she held her head and screamed miserably.

"! Help! Help! Aaron! Quinton!"

"What happened?"

Aaron and Quinton were standing guard outside the ' room. They immediately rushed into the ' room when they heard Madelyn's voice.

They saw Anna's head bleeding and her lying on the ground unconscious.

Beside her, Madelyn was crying and trying to help her get up.

Seeing this scene, Aaron and Quinton immediately felt devastated. Their eyes widened as they rushed over and pushed Madelyn away. They helped Anna up. "? Are you alright? *****!"

Quinton cried out in a trembling voice, "Oh my god! Aaron, is bleeding badly!"

Aaron felt the warm liquid in his palm. The arm holding Anna was shaking crazily. His entire body was deprived of strength, and he could not even stand steadily.

Because the blood came from the back of Anna's head.

Such an important part had lost so much blood and was seriously injured!

Aaron did not dare to think about what if... He exerted all his strength to bring Anna out of the '' room and shouted at Madelyn, "Quick! Call an ambulance! Call someone to save her! Help!"

"I... I will..."

Madelyn seemed to have recovered from the extreme panic. She took out her phone and quickly dialed 911.

The priests in the nearby church heard the commotion and knew that Anna Fowler, the wife of Fowler Corporation's chairman, had an accident in the '' room. They all looked panicked and helped Aaron transfer Anna to a safe place temporarily.

As children of the Fowler family, Aaron and Quinton had naturally learned emergency medical lessons. At this '', they could only bite the tip of their tongues to calm themselves down. They took deep breaths to avoid their minds going blank and missing the best opportunity to save Anna.

When facing other things, they could remain rational and calm. They could perfectly unleash the skills they had mastered without any mistakes. But this time, it was Anna who was being resuscitated.

It was the woman who had given birth to them and raised them. It was the woman most important to them in this world. Their mother!

They thought about how Anna was injured this time and what mistakes they had made...

It wasn't easy for Anna to escape death before. Was she going to '' here again?

Right under their noses?

No!

Madelyn watched as Aaron and Quinton desperately tried to save Anna.

She seemed to be scared ''. She squatted in the corner, hugged her head, and muttered to herself.

Until the ambulance finally arrived.

The medical staff quickly stopped the bleeding, bandaged the wound, and sent the unconscious to the ambulance.

Everyone quickly left Beloved Church and rushed to the city hospital.

In the ambulance, Aaron and Quinton held Anna's hand tightly. They looked at her pale face under the breathing mask and said with a sobbing tone, "", hang in there. You'll be fine. You'll be fine. We're all here with you, "** ..."

No Way Back Chapter 452-"Alright, please leave us alone. We have to go through the emergency rescue procedures for the patient..."

Beloved Church was in an uproar.

Everyone was worried about Anna's injuries.

Let alone the priests in the church, even the bishop were afraid that this matter would have a substantial negative impact on Beloved Church. After all, Anna Fowler was praying for blessings at their church. Even if the cause of the incident wouldn't be traced back to them, it would subtly bring a massive storm to the church.

As the wife of Fowler Corporation's chairman, Anna was quite famous in Stormton City. Many people knew her. If this matter was spread, how could Beloved Church compete for fame with the neighboring Santio Church in the future?

They were really unlucky!

Compared to the riot at Beloved Church, Santio Church was calm.

Jane and Levi stayed in the bamboo house and drank the tea Levi had just made.

Levi planted the tea himself.

Jane took a sip of the steaming tea and praised, "It smells so good. Uncle Levi, you are indeed good at making tea. It tastes great."

Levi chuckled. "Girl, you have such a sweet . Thank you for coming and visiting me often. With you accompanying me, my days don't seem boring anymore."

"After all, you're Hugh's father. Even if Victor Croft might have done something to him, and you can't tell the truth with him now, Hugh has always respected you and wanted to hear you explain your indifference to him over the years. As Hugh's girlfriend, I think I have to bear this responsibility. This is what Hugh wants, I guess," Jane replied.

Levi's hand that was holding the teacup paused.

In the end, he sighed softly.

"Hugh is so fortunate to find such a good wife like you. As for me... Jane, don't think too much. It's more important for you to lead a good life with Hugh. Even if I have my reasons for getting to this point with Hugh, it's undeniable that I was so dispirited back then and lost the ability to protect my only bloodline with Tabitha.

"I... don't have the right to ask for his forgiveness. Even if Hugh knows the truth, I indeed choose to escape what happened in the past. That's the truth. I only hope that you can live well and not be affected by the Croft family. I'll be satisfied if you can happily pursue your own life." "Uncle Levi, do you believe me?"

Jane stared at Levi and suddenly asked.

Hearing this, Levi subconsciously met Jane's eyes.

He smiled. "Of course I believe you. You're Hugh's beloved. Regardless of whether I'm qualified, you're my daughter-in-law in name. How can I not believe you?"

Jane replied, "I'll find someone to confirm if Victor did anything to Hugh. If he did, we'll eliminate this hidden threat and let Hugh understand the truth! You will tell him personally.

"Uncle Levi, you're Hugh's father. Hugh has waited for this truth for so many years. Do you really want to keep it a secret for the rest of your life? This is not fair to Hugh at all! You can't just think about your sins. You have to think about your identity as Hugh's father, and Hugh needs you to do this!"

Levi seemed to be moved by Jane's words and closed his eyes.

He stood up and walked to the window. A cool breeze blew, and the sun shone brightly on the beautiful winding valley. The wind howled in the valley as if it was asking an important person who had passed away long ago. It transmitted an answer from afar to Levi.

After a long while, Levi made up his mind.

*Thank you, Jane. It's great that I told you the truth that day.

"You helped me make up my mind. You're right. Even if my incompetence caused the tragic past of Hugh, I still owe him an apology and the truth.

“I should tell the truth to Hugh myself. Even if I will be reduced to for breaking my oath, this is my responsibility as a father to my son!”

Otherwise, even if Levi kept this secret to his death, he would not have the face to see Hugh’s mother again. Tabitha would only scold him for being a . How could he treat the child she gave her life to give birth to like this?

Jane’s lips curled into a smile. “That’s right.”

At this moment, Patrick walked in. He wore rough clothes and had a long goatee and clear eyes. He was filled with the precipitation and wisdom of decades. He held a cross in his hand and smiled. “Dear guests, am I bothering you?”

When Jane and Levi saw Patrick, they bowed respectfully and said, “Sir.”

Speaking of which, this Patrick was also a top figure. Back then, he was among the first batch of students to graduate from Hateno University. the best university in the country. After cultivating in the bureaucracy for a few years, he decisively resigned and entered the entrepreneurial craze. He relied on his outstanding ability and foresight to create billions of corporations. At that time, he could be considered a top figure in the country.

Later on, when his career was at its peak, and he was in the limelight, he suddenly made a decision that shocked the entire country. He hid his identity and distributed his assets to his descendants and the government. Then, he came to the fallen Santio Church alone, developed it to its current size with his wisdom, and became the bishop.

After cutting off the past, he had been guarding Santio Church for thirty years and was already seventy-two years old this year. He still looked like he was in his fifties, with an energetic and unfathomable aura. Bathing in holy light awe-inspiringly, he was well respected.

Even Jane was full of admiration for him after hearing about his deeds. Jane knew that she could not cut off everything decisively, hide in the forest at his peak, and guard the church for thirty years.

Patrick said calmly, “Something happened at the neighboring Beloved Church. Miss Jane Fowler. The person in trouble is also related to you. I received the news and thought that I had to inform you.”

“Did something happen to Anna Fowler?”

Jane looked calm and unsurprised.

“Alas. It seems that you already knew it.”

“Sir, there’s a saying that goes like this. What goes around comes around.’ This is the Fowlers’ own choice. Now that I’ve cut ties with the Fowler family, I have nothing to do with them anymore. It’s like how you cut off all ties with the mortal world back then. It’s their choice of how they will go in the future. It has nothing to do with me.”

Hearing Jane’s calm and indifferent voice, Patrick only held the cross tight and shook his head before turning around to leave. “Miss Jane Fowler, you are right. Everything depends on one’s luck. The heavens cannot be violated. All we can do... is to follow the heavens.”

No Way Back Chapter 453-Seeing this, Levi lowered his eyes. “Sir, your words are still so unfathomable... Jane, aren’t you going to take a look?”

“Uncle Levi, do you think I’ll regret it? Or do you think it has something to do with me?”

Levi’s silence represented his answer.

Jane was not angry. She smiled and said, “Uncle Levi, this is the Fowlers’ choice. It has nothing to do with me, and I will definitely not regret it. As for how the outcome will turn out, time will prove everything. I don’t need to witness anything anymore.”

After all, the plan had already begun.

The Fowler family had fallen entirely into the spider web and was tied up, being the prey without knowing it. There wasn’t any possibility of escape.

Everything would depend on Madelyn and Chester’s performance.

Jane only needed to appear at the end of the game at the most suitable time to add fuel to the fire.

She would make those who owed her in her previous life pay back what they didn’t deserve!

At the same time, in Stormton City.

At Fowler Corporation.

Jack and Peter were having an emergency meeting with the shareholders.

Suddenly, Jack felt his eyelids twitching violently.

A sense of foreboding took over him.

The feeling was sudden and incomparably intense, leaving him unable to concentrate on dealing with the corporation's matters.

At this *****.

The secretary rushed in with the phone. "Mr. Fowler, bad news! Something happened to Mrs. Fowler! Answer the phone quickly!"

"What?"

Jack's heart almost stopped beating when he heard this. He could hardly care about anything else and quickly snatched the phone. "Hello? What happened? What did you say? Okay! I'll come over immediately!"

"Mr. Fowler? You're leaving now? But the meeting..."

"the meeting! My wife is in the hospital! Deal with it yourselves!"

Jack roared and rushed out of the conference room.

Peter came back to his senses and hurriedly chased after him. "Dad! Wait for me!"

Jack did not stop. All he thought about now was Anna's safety. He heard from the phone that Anna had suffered a heavy to the back of her head and was bleeding badly.

He shouted crazily in his heart and prayed.

"Jane! No! Nothing must happen! Nothing must happen!"

Finally, they arrived at the private hospital Fowler Corporation invested in.

After overtaking many cars on the road and running countless red lights, they rushed to the hospital as fast as they could.

Looking at Anna lying in the ICU and being treated by a doctor, Jack's eyes widened.

"What's going on? Why did it happen to Jane? Why!"

Aaron and Quinton clenched their fists and stood at the side, blaming themselves. "Dad, I'm sorry... We were with  , but it still happened..."

Peter said anxiously, "Aaron, Quinton, what's going on? Tell us what happened exactly! Then we can find a way to resolve this matter!"

"It's all my fault. Daddy, Peter... wanted to go to the toilet, so I brought her there. Then, said she was just peeing and didn't want me to stand by her side.

She said it was undignified and asked me to wait outside the door... I watched her use a walking stick to go to the toilet. Suddenly, said that she was dizzy Before I could react, she fell to the ground..."

As Madelyn spoke, she was already sobbing uncontrollably. Her cries were heartbreaking.

"!t!"

The tragedy had happened. It was in vain for Jack to blame Madelyn. He could only punch the corridor wall hard, biting his lips until they almost bled No wonder fie felt uneasy during the meeting just now, as if something had happened. "Why... it was Jane again! Why! God, what did the Fowler family do wrong? Why did you have to hurt Jane again? If you want to hurt someone, it was enough to hurt me alone!" he roared.

Madelyn came to Jack sobbingly. "Daddy, I'm sorry... It's all my fault... If I hadn't listened to and insisted on helping her to the toilet.... Things wouldn't have turned out like this... It's all my fault... It's all my fault Daddy, please punish me. I can feel better this way, at least."

"You!"

Jack was furious when he saw Madelyn crying. He madly wanted to slap her The old and new grudges completely erupted at this *****.

However, just as he was about to raise his hand, his remaining rationality stopped him.

In the end, he could only let out a long sigh.

"You go back first, Maddie."

Daddy, I want to stay with here..."

"Go back!"

Jack could not help but roar at Madelyn.

Everyone was stunned.

Madelyn looked up and saw Jack's bloodshot eyes due to anger, guilt, and other emotions.

Her tears fell like pearls from a broken string.

"Daddy... I'm sorry... I'll leave now..."

Finishing, she ran away crying.

Aaron moved his lips and walked to Jack. He said sadly, "Dad... Although we can't treat Maddie as in the past, I'm afraid she didn't do it on purpose for this matter..."

"I know... I know... but I can't control it. Because of her existence, I lost Jane. This time, I have to watch Anna suffer so much pain. I... I really can't control it..."

Jack seemed to have lost all his strength. His entire body was limp, and he fell to the ground and could not even stand up. He was completely soaked in a cold sweat.

"It's alright, Dad. The heavens will bless . There is the best and most advanced medical equipment here. The best doctors are already operating emergency surgery on . She'll be fine..."

Peter seemed to be comforting Jack, but also seemed to be comforting himself.

No matter what, the only thing they could do now was to pray.

They prayed that nothing would happen to Anna.

If something really happened to her...

The Fowlers couldn't take it anymore.

On the other side.

Madelyn left the hospital and got into the car.

Her eyes flickered with hatred.

" Jack Fowler... How dare you... How dare you shout at me... You've never yelled at me since I was young... I clearly explained that I didn't do it on purpose... You still shouted at me...."

"So in your heart, the most important daughter is no longer me. It's that  Jane Fowler! She's your biological daughter! What am I? You treat me like this all for her!"

She clenched her fists with a ferocious expression.

At this  , she was extremely glad that she had made up her mind to do such a thing.

Otherwise, she would be kicked out when Jane Fowler returned to the Fowler family.

It was even more likely that she would end up on the streets, turning from a princess to a little beggar no one cared about.

No Way Back Chapter 454-Thinking of this, Madelyn immediately took out her phone and called Chester.

“Chester, I’m . Anna Fowler is in hospital Now, the Fowler family is in chaos. Do whatever you want. I also have to go back and pack my things. Help me erase the traces and arrange the procedures to leave the country. Otherwise, I’m afraid the Fowler family will come after me if they sense something”

“Alright, . I’ll immediately prepare the procedures for you to leave the country. Thank you for what you did, Chester replied.

“It’s fine. Chester, as long as it’s for our future happiness, I’ll do anything!”

After hanging up, Madelyn gripped her phone tightly and sneered.

“The Fowler family, Jack Fowler, all those who look down on me and want to abandon me and make me suffer, *****

“Hahahaha!”

On the other side, after hanging up on Madelyn, Chester immediately called Micheal.

“Dad, there’s news from  ... We can proceed with our next step.”

“I’ve also received news that Anna Fowler was receiving emergency treatment in the hospital. I didn’t expect Madelyn to be so ruthless. Alright, I’ll arrange it now!”

The tide of darkness had silently begun to surge, and it was about to cause a massive uproar in the entire Stormton City.

Even the people inside couldn’t see what kind of this tide would bring them.

They could only go with the flow, wait for fate to appear, and obey its arrangements.

When Henry Fowler and the others received the news of Anna’s injury in Eastshel, they immediately pushed aside everything and left the company to their trusted aides. They took a private plane and rushed back to Stormton City as quickly as they could.

It was already the fourth day.

Henry and the other Fowlers arrived at the hospital at eleven o'clock at night. They were travel-worn and exhausted. The they arrived at the hospital, they questioned worriedly, "Peter, how's the situation? Is alright?"

Peter sighed softly. "Her vitals have stabilized. But she's still unconscious in the ICU and shows no signs of waking up..."

Dwayne was so anxious that his lips were dry and cracked. "Why did this happen again... it! Where's Dad? How's Dad?"

Peter lowered his eyes and said in pain, "Dad... Aaron and Quinton are taking care of him. He's not in good condition... He's in the ward next door."

"Dad?"

Henry and the other Fowlers' hearts skipped a beat when they heard that. They glanced at Anna through the window and quickly ran to the next ward to visit Jack

The they saw Jack, they were stunned.

They couldn't believe what they were seeing.

Jack's hair... turned almost entirely gray.

It was so black before they left him.

Furthermore, his hair was messy, and his beard was all over his face. He had not taken care of it at all.

He looked like he had more than twenty years.

His eyes were sunken and bloodshot, and they had lost their luster.

He was dressed in a patient's outfit, sitting on the bed dispiritedly, utterly unaware of the outside world.

Well...

Was this still the Mr. Fowler of Fowler Corporation who had commanded the business world in Stormton City and was respected by countless people? Was he still an incomparably lofty existence in the hearts of his children?

If not for the perception of their bloodline, telling Henry and the others that this was Jack Fowler.

They could not imagine such an old, lifeless, dying man could be their father!

Aaron and Quinton were taking care of Jack. When they saw Henry and the others return, they could not help but shout excitedly. "Henry, Dwayne, Sam, you're back! Dad, everyone is back!"

Upon hearing this, Jack's originally dim eyes finally lit up a little. He looked at Henry and the others. He opened his as if he wanted to say something, but he could not say anything.

"Dad..."

Seeing Jack like this, Henry felt like his heart was being cut by a knife. He walked over and knelt in front of Jack. He leaned against Jack's thigh and sobbed uncontrollably. I'm sorry... I came back too late. I'm really sorry..."

Dwayne and Sam also came over and knelt before Jack, with tears streaming down their faces.

The children's tears finally woke Jack's heart, riddled with holes.

"Henry, Dwayne, Sam... It's good that you're back... It's good that you're back...."

"I know you're very disappointed to see how I am now, but I can't take it anymore... Your mother has been hurt repeatedly, but I can't do anything... I'd rather have something happen to me than let anything happen to her. You have to understand... understand..."

Tears streamed down his lifeless eyes.

A proud and strong man like him was now sobbing uncontrollably "I know... We all know...."

How could Henry and the others not know?

Anna Fowler had become like this.

The most painful person in the world was not them but their father, Jack Fowler.

The man who loved Anna the most in the world was Jack.

No one loved Anna more than he did.

He loved her more than his own life.

If he could exchange his life for Anna's life...

He would not hesitate to make this choice.

This was what Henry and the others had witnessed since they were young.

Jack's love for Anna had already transcended the body and vowed to the soul.

It left a mark that could never be erased.

The love between them was also what Henry and the others longed for.

His precious darling had such huge accidents twice in only a few months.

The first time, her right leg was crippled.

The second time, she suffered a heavy to the back of her head and lay unconscious in the ICU.

This was not just a huge torture to Anna and the Fowler family.

It was the punishment that made Jack feel so much pain that he wanted to *****!

No matter what, the return of Henry and the other children finally made him feel a little better.

Henry had Aaron and Quinton continue to take care of Jack.

The others came out first and asked Peter about Anna's current situation in detail.

"The doctor said that although she survived, she suffered a serious injury on the back of her head and lost too much blood. In addition, she hasn't recovered yet from her major surgery in Sun City Square not long ago. Now, she can only rely on the equipment in the ICU to survive. It's unknown if she can wake up. Otherwise, Dad wouldn't have become like this..."

Hearing such shocking news, Henry and the others' hearts instantly turned cold.

"Madelyn was clearly with when she went to the toilet. Why did this happen again? it!"

No Way Back Chapter 455-Sam could not help but resent Madelyn.

Madelyn knew that Anna's right leg was disabled and that Anna could not stand steadily. But Madelyn chose to stay by the door and did not help Anna to the restroom

Anna had been involved in such a big accident. The back of her head suffered a grave injury, and she might remain in a coma for the rest of her life.

In addition, the trending topic incident that Madelyn fabricated had caused the Fowler family to slander Jane and force her to leave the family. Madelyn took advantage of the Fowler family's trust in her and thoroughly humiliated them.

It was difficult for him not to Madelyn

“Alright, Sam. It has already happened. We can't dwell on the past. We must think of a way to resolve this and move forward.”

It was not that Henry wanted to remain calm. But he had to force himself to calm down.

Jack had already been through a lot. The Fowler Corporation and the Fowler family no longer had their leader.

If Henry, as the eldest son, lost control of himself at this juncture and showed a trace of panic in front of his younger brother...

The Fowler family would have lost its pillar of support. Everything would be over. Their enemies would be even more likely to take advantage of the situation

Fowler Corporation had grown to this stage. Many people would be secretly going after a cash cow like it. Countless people had already expressed their interest, both and in secret. According to the saying, defending a title was more difficult than winning it. Henry was the future successor of Fowler Corporation, and Jack and Anna had nurtured him with all their efforts. He had already understood this saying since he was a child.

Right now, all eyes were on Henry.

Everyone looked at him with anticipation.

They wanted Henry to tell them what to do next.

Under everyone's gaze, and after careful consideration, Henry spoke.

“How about this? I'll go to the company and settle the rest of the matters first. You guys, stay in the hospital and look after Dad and . As for Eastshel... Dwayne, call my trusted aide and tell him the current plan to acquire that piece of land in the suburbs has been put on hold. Now that something big has happened here, we can't rush things. Let's stabilize our foundation first. We'll still need more time to arrange our overseas projects”

Henry's words were equivalent to giving up on the Eastshel project they had spent a year preparing for.

Moreover, now was the best time to undertake that project.

Finding the right opportunity again would be infinitely more difficult if he gave it up now.

However, he had no choice... The Fowler family was now involved in such a huge mess. As the eldest son, Henry could not possibly leave Cruksia for Eastshel at this time and continue with his original plan.

If something did happen to Anna while Henry was away, Henry would regret it for the rest of his life. Besides, Jack's state could not handle managing the entire Fowler Corporation. Only Henry could do it.

The Fowler family's enemies were circling them like sharks. If they took advantage of this predicament to steal his home, what was the point of Henry developing those projects overseas?

At this  , Henry could not help but think of Jane.

Henry thought, "Master... If it were you, you would make the same choice under these circumstances, wouldn't you?"

"We got it, Henry"

Hearing Henry's orders and seeing that he did not seem too affected, Peter and the others could finally heave sighs of relief.

At first, they were worried that Henry would be affected when he returned to Stormton City and saw how Jack and Anna were.

If even Henry could not take it, they would not know what to do.

Whenever the Fowler family fell into such a critical situation, Henry was the only person they could count on to stand up and shoulder everything

Among the Fowler family's children, Henry had always been their guardian angel.

It was true when they were young. It was also true now and even more so in the future.

They were grateful that they had someone other than Jack and Anna.

They still had Henry He was reliable and could stand up at these critical *****.

Henry said apologetically, "I'm sorry, brothers I can only leave and Dad to you at such an important time. I won't rest assured if it were anyone else..."

Dwayne patted Henry on the shoulder. "Don't say that, Henry You're the one who's bearing the brunt for us. We all know that. It's just that we're not capable enough and can only do so much to support you. However, we'll take good care of and Dad. Henry, don't worry. Go to the Fowler Corporation. We'll watch your back. Don't worry about and Dad."

Henry bit his lip and nodded repeatedly. "Dwayne... I'll leave everyone in your hands."

Sam and Peter said in unison, "Go, Henry."

Just as Henry was about to leave for the Fowler Corporation...

Suddenly...

He heard the sound of hurried footsteps.

A man in a police uniform quickly arrived before Henry and the others.

"Excuse me. Which one of you is Jack Fowler?"

Henry took a step forward. "I'm his eldest son, Henry. May I ask why you're looking for our father? Are you here because of the accident that happened to our mother?"

The police officer shook his head. "We're here to arrest the Fowler Corporation's chairman, Jack. We now suspect that Jack is related to multiple bribery cases and has accepted bribes from someone. We'll need Mr. Fowler to return to the police station to cooperate with us for the investigation."

"What did you just say?"

Henry and the others were shocked. "No... This is impossible. Officer, there must have been a mistake. How could my father be involved in a bribery case? You should know that my father is a patriotic entrepreneur. He has done so many charitable things. His character is upright and meticulous. It's impossible that he would do such a thing."

The police officer fell silent briefly before saying. I have indeed heard about Mr. Fowler's charitable deeds, but the law emphasizes evidence above all else. We came to arrest Mr. Fowler because we had gathered sufficient material evidence and witness statements. Please don't interfere with our investigation. If Mr. Fowler is innocent, the law will surely give Mr. Fowler a fair judgment."

Material evidence?

Witness statements?

Henry and the others were still confused.

However, they could not stop the police from showing them the arrest warrant.

At this ***** ...

The door of the ward opened.

Jack's body trembled. He refused to be held up by Aaron and Quinton.

Looking at the police standing by the door, Jack took a deep breath. His cloudy eyes gradually became clear.

"I knew it... I knew this day would come. I don't know who planned this in secret, but I will cooperate with the investigation and tell you everything I know."

Henry and the others did not understand the meaning behind Jack's words.

However, they vaguely sensed that... Jack might indeed be related to the bribery case the police mentioned.

The police officer walked to Jack's side. "Come with us, Mr. Fowler."

"Alright I have one last request before I go with you. Could I trouble you to let me speak to my sons?"

"Of course. We'll wait for you at the elevator."

The police turned around and left after giving Jack their permission.

Henry could not help but ask, "Dad, what is going on? How can someone like you accept bribes? I don't believe it."

No Way Back Chapter 456-Peter and the others echoed, "That's right, Dad. I don't believe you would do such a thing."

Looking at his sons' steadfast and trusting gazes, Jack lowered his eyes and let out a long sigh.

"Everyone, I'm afraid our family is still unaware that we've fallen victim to someone's scheme this time. We've lost. Listen to me. Now is not the time to explain things. Wait for me. I'll explain everything to our country and accept the punishment I deserve. Handle the rest of Fowler Corporation's matters, and save enough strength and money for yourselves. Then, bring your mother to Meridonia to stay with Raymond.

“Remember that no matter what happens, you shouldn’t look back. Don’t worry about me. I can take care of myself. The one you have to take care of is your mother. Do you understand?”

“What! Dad, are you saying... that something bad will happen?”

“Promise me, Henry. Don’t ask too many questions. If you still believe in me, your father, do as I say.”

Jack interrupted Henry right away.

After mustering all his strength to speak, Jack could not help but cough violently,

Tears rolled down Henry’s face as he clenched his fists tightly. In the end, he could only nod. “I understand... Dad, I’ll do everything according to your instructions...”

“Henry...”

Aaron and the others had tears in their eyes. They felt that their world was about to end.

Why did this happen? They thought they were about to move on from the trauma of losing Jane and that their lives were getting better, but in the blink of an eye, it was as if everything they had built had collapsed and shattered.

What did the Fowler family do wrong? Or had they treated Jane too unfairly? Did their past catch up to them?

“Be good and listen to me. Listen to Henry. The worst thing I did was not take responsibility for the company back then. I also mistakenly believed in Madelyn and hurt Jane, kicking Jane out of our family. Perhaps... I’m the reason why we’ve ended up here. I’m the reason why your mother has become like this. It’s my karma.

“Now, I have to act” like a man and bear this responsibility. I can’t hide anymore. This matter has weighed on my heart for a long time. I knew the day of reckoning would come, and I couldn’t escape it. What I’m most worried about is your mother... Only you can save her. Keep your mother safe.

“Henry, go home and go to my study. There’s a safe in there. The password is 386436. Inside, there’s a sum of money that I have set aside for emergencies. It’s a backup plan for our family’s survival. Now is the time to use it. Take that money and handle our domestic matters. Bring it and look for Raymond.”

“We will... We will, Dad...”

Dwayne and the others were already sobbing uncontrollably.

In just a few days, they had been dealt massive blows, one after another.

Anna had suffered two accidents and might remain in a comatose state.

Not only was Jack in despair, but he might also be imprisoned for accepting bribes.

Henry and the others would never believe that their father, who respected and loved Crucia the most, would have his reputation tarnished by such a crime.

But hearing Jack's tone, it must be true....

They could already sense that... the entire Fowler family would be doomed.

Chapter 456

The Fowler Corporation would also be over.

Jack's words were also meant to be his parting words for Henry and the others.

Finally, Jack closed his eyes and exhaled again.

He turned around and looked at Anna, who was still unconscious in the ICU. He reached out and touched the glass window. His eyes were filled with love, yearning, and tenderness.

"Anna, I'm leaving now... I should have left earlier. I'm so sorry... I should have listened to you back then. Things have gotten to this point. I know I brought this upon myself..."

"Perhaps all of this is my fault. God is punishing our family. Come to think of it... I said that I loved you so much. I said I loved you so much that I was willing to give up my life for you, but there were so many times I didn't listen to you, and now we've lost Jane. I've fallen to such a state and even put you in harm's way..."

"This time, I won't run away again. Anna, regret always comes too late. Unfortunately... At this time, I can't stay by your side and take care of you. In the end, I'm still a bad husband. But thankfully, our children have already grown up. They could protect themselves and look after you.

"Anna, follow our sons to Meridonia. If you wake up one day, please wait for me. You have to wait for me. When I'm released from prison, I'll look for you. At that time, we won't have any more regrets. I promise."

After saying that, Jack knew that he had no time left.

Henry and the others still wanted to chase after him.

Jack shouted, “Don’t come over. Listen to me. You know what you have to do now. This is my responsibility alone. It has nothing to do with you. You have to take care of yourselves and your mother. As long as you are safe and sound, the Fowler family will always be around.”

Everyone stopped.

They endured the intense pain in their hearts, not taking another step forward.

They stood as Jack gradually left, watching his shadow elongated by the lights along the hospital corridor.

At this moment, the former chairman of Fowler Corporation, the all-powerful businessman Jack Fowler, seemed to have returned.

The despair and emptiness they saw in Jack had been swept away. A brand new vigor had burst forth. again.

The police officer stepped forward and cuffed Jack’s wrists with cold metal handcuffs. He covered Jack’s hands with a black cloth and said, “Please come with us, Mr. Fowler.”

To be fair, the police did not want to believe that Jack would do such a thing. He was the patriotic entrepreneur who had donated to countless charity projects and elementary schools and established a foundation to help countless youths realize their entrepreneurial dreams. He had brought the entire nation to greater heights, making it stand proud and tall.

But... one could never judge a book by its cover.

In the eyes of the law, the only thing everyone could count on was the word “evidence”.

“Okay.”

Jack was resigned to his fate. He strode away.

Or rather...

Jack left, feeling relieved.

Finally, he could remove the thorn in his flesh that had bothered him for a long time.

Even if he could not bear the cost of it all.

However, after experiencing this ordeal, he could finally be truly redeemed.

Recently, too many disasters fell on the Fowler family. Jack had already had a premonition about the day arriving. He was prepared.

“Dad...”

However, just as Henry and the others seemed to have lost their minds and could not move forward...

No one noticed that...

Anna, who was in the ICU ward and was diagnosed by the doctor to be in a coma, had tears flowing from her closed eyes.

She wriggled her fingertips with all her might. In between her breaths, she spat out three words with difficulty.

“Jack... No. Don't...”

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 457

No Way Back Chapter 457-It was as if he felt that something was about to happen to the person he loved deeply.

Anna's consciousness was trapped in a of dark chaos where it was unable to extricate itself or escape.

She felt a strong surge of power.

She wanted to see the person she loved and she wanted to use the power to protect him even if she sank into the mud now and that she could barely exert any strength.

It was extremely difficult and impossible to let one's consciousness escape from this darkness.

Anna was still working hard for it.

Now, she knew Jack was in danger!

Anna could never still be unconscious here!

Most importantly, she still had to find Madelyn to get to the bottom of this!

She wanted to ask her why she did this to harm Anna.

“Wake up! My body! Wake up!”

The instruments inserted into Anna’s body began to jump crazily.

On the other side, when Jack took the elevator and left the hospital with the police, a large group of reporters suddenly rushed up and crazily snapped pictures of the police and Jack.

“Mr. Fowler, I heard that you were arrested by the police for accepting bribes. Is that true?”

“Mr. Fowler, please give us an explanation. You’re a famous patriotic entrepreneur in Stormton City. Why did you take bribes?”

“I heard that there are important witnesses and physical evidence in this bribery case. It’s not just at single bribe. What’s going on? Will this incident affect Fowler Corporation’s share price?”

The police officer frowned. “I’m sorry, we have no comment! We’re carrying out official duties. Please leave!”

This arrest operation was clearly carried out in secret.

How did this group of reporters and media find out?

Jack lowered his head and remained silent. He was brought into the police car by the police and left.

The media reporters behind him were still taking photos crazily.

At this decisive  , even if Jack didn’t reveal anything, they had already obtained valuable information.

The most important thing now was to hurry back to the company and work overtime to get the report done!

As expected, late at night, the topic suddenly went viral.

[Breaking news! Fowler Corporation's president, Jack Fowler, was taken away by the police at the hospital.]

[Shocking news! What's involved in the arrest of Jack? Fowler Corporation's president is involved in a bribery case!]

[Just got off we plane, well, I have something to say about this matter...

[As an experienced financial expert, I can tell you Jack's arrest this time will have an impact on the stock market. Don't miss it...

There were all kinds of trending topics on the internet.

There was also a video and screenshot of Jack being brought into a police car.

It was absolutely true!

It caused a craze among netizens!

In fact, as the president of a hundred billion worth company, he could only manage to secure one trending topic following his arrest due to bribery.

Everyone was already used to it.

It was not even as good as the scandals of the young celebrities in the entertainment industry.

However, Jack was Jane's father who could stir up a gust of wind with just a flap of his wings on the Internet!

The father and daughter had severed all ties online previously. The matter of them going to court had caused an uproar. Many onlookers still remembered this.

Not to mention that later on, Jane also exposed X's identity and became the world champion. She was also the junior sister of the creator of photolithography machine's research and development in Crucsia, Mr. Mitchell. She was famous all over the world.

In addition, she had a beautiful face that could make her an A-list celebrity in the entertainment industry. She also had the aura of a cool girl. She had garnered countless fans. With her powerful background, super good looks, and talent, it would be strange if she didn't become the center of attention!

It was all thanks to Jane's influence that the scandal of Jack was able to become a trending topic on so many apps, causing the gossiping masses to contribute a lot of comments to it.

Even the secret assistance of Crown Group in promoting this matter seemed unnecessary.

“! This is Fowler Corporation's president! I've seen him from afar once before. He's so elegant and looks like an upright person. How could he be involved in such a big scandal? He was even arrested by the police!”

“Well, Bro, you must be new to this cuz I have seen tons of stuff like this.”

“Agreed. I've been following celebrities for years. I'm not surprised at how they ended up ruining their images. I ain't never buy their  again.”

“Fortunately, Jane had already cut ties with the Fowler family and was not involved in this scandal. Otherwise, the sins that the Fowler family committed would affect my baby Jane again.”

“Jane is a textbook beauty who is capable and has a miserable background. Fortunately, Jane came to her senses in time and was brought back by the Fowler family. Half a month later, she decisively cut ties with the Fowler family. I'm afraid she has long seen through the Fowlers' true colors. Jane is so good!”

Public opinion was still fermenting.

Jane, who was passively involved in the center of public opinion, was watching How the Steel Was Tempered on the small bed in her apartment. He seemed calm.

After replying to the concerned messages from the public, Jane got up and walked to the French window. She looked at the night view of the bustling city and did not lose her composure because of this interlude.

The city was still standing there in the most perfect manner. It would never lose its order because of the death of an important figure.

Jane's eyes were deep and dark. “We've finally come this far. Let me see how the next scene is going to play out. The final scene is about to arrive.”

The chess pieces prepared by Jane were also about to step onto the stage one by one. They would cooperate with Madelyn and the Fowler family to complete this grand performance!

Henry back to the Fowler family first.

Those who worked in the Fowler family were all old people who had worked for more than ten years. When they saw Henry return, they quickly went forward. "Mr. Fowler, Old Mr. Fowler... really..."

He did not dare to continue.

Facing everyone's uneasy gazes, Henry could only hold on. "I'm sorry, this time... I'm afraid Dad won't be able to come back."

"Really... That trending topic! Well, How could Old Mr. Fowler do such a thing? It must be impossible! We have served the Fowler family for more than ten years. We believe that Old Mr. Fowler is not that kind of person! Mr. Fowler, there must be a mistake!"

"Sara, I want to think so too, but this is what happened. Even I don't know what the truth is, but looking at Dad's attitude... I think it's true."

Even Henry said that.

The others were speechless.

"Excuse me, I need to go fetch something."

Henry walked past everyone and went straight to Jack's study.

According to the safe code given by Jack, Henry opened the safe.

He took out some documents and the bank card left behind by Jack.

After confirming that the items were not much different from what Jack said, Henry called his trusted aide.

He asked him to arrange the procedures for his five younger brothers and Anna to leave for Meridonia as soon as possible.

It included Madelyn even though Henry hated Madelyn to the extreme.

If it wasn't for Madelyn, Jane wouldn't have left the Fowler family and Henry wouldn't have lost the most important teacher in his life because of his trust in Madelyn!

However, her current identity was Anna's "daughter".

It was used as a substitute for Jane's guilt.

It was also a kind of "assistance" to wake Anna up from her coma.

Henry had to bring Madelyn along for the sake of Anna!

Johan was currently in Yalondy and could not be contacted, so he could only give up.

As for Henry, He wanted to stay!

Even if Henry knew how much impact Jack's thunderstorm would have on Fowler Corporation.

It was unknown how many enemies were hiding in the dark, waiting for this opportunity to come aggressively!

But Henry couldn't just run away like that!

He was the Fowler family's eldest son! He was the man who had to give hope to the Fowler family!

If even Henry ran away in a sorry state like this, the foundation that Fowler Corporation had built for decades would really be destroyed and become someone else's stepping stone!

Henry did not want Jack to hear that the foundation he built from scratch was ruined just like that when he was in jail!

No matter how slim the hope was, Henry had to give it a try!

After taking away the important information, Henry went to look for Madelyn to explain the situation. However, when he arrived at Madelyn's room and knocked on the door, there was no response.

Henry frowned and called Madelyn.

The number you have dialed is turned off...

At this , Sara walked over while wiping her tears. When she saw Henry, she quickly cleaned her tears and sobbed. "Mr. Fowler, what's wrong?"

Henry asked, "Sara, where did Maddie go?"

Sara was slightly stunned. "Miss Madelyn... isn't she taking care of Madam with you in the hospital? I haven't seen Miss Madelyn since yesterday."

"No, Dad chased Maddie away on the first day of accident because he was angry. After that, Maddie never appeared in the hospital..."

Henry paused.

"Madelyn hasn't been in the Fowler family since yesterday?" he thought.

“So where did she go?” He was confused.

Henry suddenly had a strong bad feeling.

Madelyn had been missing for two days.

Her phone was switched off.

She was nowhere to be seen.

He wondered if she ran away from home after being scolded by Jack or if she already killed herself in a secret place.

“it! Why does she have to cause trouble for Henry at this juncture?”

Now that Madelyn had disappeared for less than 48 hours, there was no way to file a case yet.

Henry could only Sara. He then got someone to help him find Madelyn’s whereabouts!

As for Henry, he had to rush to Fowler Corporation first to prepare for the shareholders’ meeting tomorrow to stabilize the situation of the shareholders!

Just as Henry was driving to Fowler Corporation’s headquarters, Aaron called Henry.

“What’s wrong? Aaron, I’m heading to Fowler Corporation’s headquarters now. I’ve already instructed someone to arrange for you to go to Meridonia to look for Raymond...”

“Henry! moving!”

Aaron’s excited voice interrupted Henry.

Henry almost lost his grip on the steering wheel and crashed into a pillar beside him.

“Are you serious?”

“That’s right! The doctor is currently testing mother. Everyone says that this is a miracle. They originally thought that mother would be in a coma for the rest of her life and would never wake up. Mother has been shouting father’s name. She must have known about the outside world and was worried about father!”

“Okay..... Listen, Aaron, you guys stay by side. If there’s any news, inform me immediately. I’m rushing to Fowler Corporation’s headquarters now. I have to wait for tomorrow's shareholders' meeting, or else Fowler Corporation will be handed over to someone else!"

"I know, Henry. Don't worry. Just go. Leave me to us!"

After hanging up the phone, Henry parked the car by the roadside. After lighting a cigarette, he took a deep puff and finished a cigarette in a puff. He threw it on the ground and put it out with his shoe before driving away.

After smoking a cigarette, he felt that his chaotic brain was much better. Recently, so many terrible things had happened. He could finally manage to see a little hope in the depth of his desperation. The only thing Henry had to do now was to protect the "kingdom" that Jack and Anna had worked hard for decades to conquer!

When Henry arrived at Fowler Corporation, he immediately gathered Jack's trusted aides. At the same time, they were also his reliable uncles who trained him and saw him grow up.

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 458

No Way Back Chapter 458-Jack's trusted aides received news of the trending topic and were all shocked. After arriving at the company, they confirmed with Henry in a hurry whether it was true or not. Henry replied in silence.

"Oh my goodness! How could Jack do such a thing... That is impossible! That is absolutely impossible! Jack and I have been best friends since university. I know well about his temper and personality! There must be a mistake we are unaware of!"

As Jack's trusted aides and founders of Fowler Corporation, they wouldn't believe the news they heard. from the trending topic.

However, Jack had been arrested by the police, and from his narration, one could tell he had indeed done such a thing.

So, even if they were unwilling to believe it, they had to admit it..

"Everyone, now is not the time to argue about whether my father has been bribed or not. We have to prepare for the shareholders' meeting tomorrow and appease the major shareholders. The Fowler Corporation is going to face long-term hardship. I have to keep it because it is my parents' painstaking effort.

"If you believe in my parents' character and that there's more behind my father's accident, please help me! Please!"

With that, Henry bowed deeply.

“Henry, you’re being too serious. We have been working hard with your parents, and we will never just stand by and watch the Fowler Corporation go bankrupt just like that. Moreover, we believe in Jack and that there must be a reason behind it. If one day, Jack cleared his name and was released from prison but found that the Fowler Corporation was gone, how could we still be his friends?”

“That’s right. Let’s start preparing the information for tomorrow’s shareholders’ meeting. I feel like I’ve returned to the days when I was young and worked hard in the company day and night. I am quite energetic!”

“Alright, don’t be too emotional. Be careful not to have high blood pressure again. You’re no longer young and about to become an old man...”

“You son of a *****!”

Henry was touched. “Thank you, everyone!”

Next, he began to organize the information.

With the help of Jack’s right-hand man, even though the situation had reached a critical state, Henry could still work methodically. For a , the atmosphere was somewhat relaxing.

Under such an atmosphere, he believed that a miracle would come.

Suddenly, someone clicked his tongue.

“It is strange. Why did the Fowler Corporation lose so many shares recently?”

“What’s going on?”

Hearing that, Henry and the others gathered.

After they took a look at the data, their expressions turned solemn.

Indeed, too many shares had been lost.

What was more, they were bought at different times by different companies.

It was hidden and hard to notice to buy them separately.

When the shares were accumulated to a certain extent, they would become a force that could not be ignored!

Unless the buyers could predict that there would be a big problem with the Fowler Corporation...

It was useless for them to purchase so many odd-lot stocks.

Sooner or later, their actions would be found.

Henry thought for a and then suddenly shouted, "Terrible! The rumors about my father spread quickly. Tomorrow, the stock price of the Fowler Corporation will fall to the limit. When the time comes, these institutions will buy the shares on a large scale, and the right of control over the Fowler Corporation may be snatched away by someone else."

Even if Henry tried his best to buy the stocks now, it would be in vain.

If Jack could not prove his innocence and save his reputation in a short period of time...

The money that was spent on buying shares would be immeasurable, and the low-price shares would only be a waste.

Moreover, the buyers would not give Henry a chance. They might sell their shares in exchange for a huge profit.

It was not a problem of several million dollars, but billions. With the current working capital of Fowler Corporation, it was impossible to pay so much money.

If Henry did not buy the shares back, the mastermind would buy them at the lowest price.

In the end, he would own the most shares in the Fowler Corporation and obtain absolute authority.

"Could it be that... the mastermind behind the acquisition of the odd-lot stocks is the culprit behind Jack's accident?"

A vice-chairman hit the nail on the head.

Suddenly, Henry saw a familiar name on the list of companies that were acquiring the shares of the Fowler Corporation.

He pursed his lips and took out his phone, saying, "Please don't make a sound. Listen quietly. I want to confirm one thing."

Under everyone's gaze, Henry dialed Micheal's number.

Beep...

Micheal picked up the phone quickly.

“Henry, it’s so late. What’s the matter?”

Micheal’s voice didn’t sound tired from being woken up after falling asleep.

Obviously, he was still awake and seemed to be waiting for someone’s call.

“Mr. Laton, are you the mastermind behind the secret acquisition of the shares of the Fowler Corporation?”

Henry went straight to the point.

What?

The others were shocked when they heard Henry’s words.

It was actually Micheal Laton, the president of the Crown Group?

Wasn’t Micheal Jack’s good friend?

Micheal pretended to be confused. “Henry, I don’t understand what you mean.”

“Mr. Laton, I saw a familiar company on the purchasers’ list. I remember that it’s a company specializing in building materials under Crown Group. A few years ago, I even collaborated with it under my father’s recommendation. Moreover, it’s impossible to buy so many shares that can shake the Fowler Corporation without sufficient financial resources.

“Mr. Laton, you did it secretly and planned to make the Fowler Corporation yours, right? Since you will soon come to Fowler Corporation to attend the shareholders’ meeting, there is no need to pretend to be confused.”

“Henry, you’re indeed smart. No wonder Jack thinks so highly of you. I also admire you.”

Micheal’s words were equivalent to a tacit agreement.

“Mr. Laton, I know that there’s no friendship but only benefits in business. I just want to ask you one thing. Is there something else about my father accepting bribes? Did my father really do it?”

“Trust your father. He won’t do that. But he can’t escape it.

“Also... Henry, the Fowler Corporation doesn't belong to you anymore. Take advantage of the opportunity and leave with your brothers and mother. If you continue to fight, you'll only lose everything, and no one can save you. You won't be able to defeat me.”

Micheal hinted.

After that, he hung up the phone.

The office fell into silence.

In the end, even Jack's trusted aide sighed.

“Henry, keep whatever you own now. Where there's life, there's hope. As long as one is alive, there will be a day when he makes a comeback. You have to endure it for the time being!”

Henry was indignant. “But I still want to try my best...”

“**!”

Jack's friends, who were originally treating Henry kindly, suddenly scolded him angrily.

Henry was stunned.

“The Crown Group has set up a trap for so long. If you want to protect the Fowler Corporation under its plot, it's no different from a kick against the pricks. Something happened to Jack, and he was involved in such a shocking scandal. We didn't even realize that so many shares had been bought. We're far behind others and completely defeated this time!”

“It is not brave but to fight the battle that you will lose! If Jack was released, could you bear to leave a debt-laden family for him? That way, you will never be able to make a comeback! If you accumulate the remaining strength and bide your time, you will take back the Fowler Corporation one day! If you lose everything this time, you can never turn the tables for the rest of your life!”

“Don't forget your father's expectations for you. Even if you give up on the Fowler Corporation now, you can still preserve the remaining strength and make achievements overseas that the Crown Group can't reach. Do you still decide to make a choice? If so, we will look down on you!”

“I'm sorry. I know I was wrong.”

Henry lowered his head and bit his lips tightly.

In the end, his lips were bleeding, and the smell of blood filled his *****.

He felt indignant, guilty, and humiliated!

Henry had worked hard and thought that he was extraordinary and capable enough to handle the crisis.

However, the enemy had lurked around him long ago. Only at the last did he realize that he had been fooled.

This time, Henry and the Fowler Corporation were indeed defeated.

Even if Micheal was despicable...

He led the Crown Group and found the weakness of the Fowler Corporation...

In business, there were no open and aboveboard methods.

There were only winners and *****.

Winners could set up the rules and celebrate their success.

could only run away humbly and would never be known again.

As for the Fowler family...

It was the latter!

Henry attended the shareholders' meeting as planned.

He was eloquent and played the role of being able to turn the tide. With the support of Jack's old friends, he managed to stabilize the shareholders' and investors' confidence in Fowler Corporation temporarily.

Someone questioned the matter of Jack Fowler taking bribes.

Henry did not explain it explicitly and chose to give a perfunctory answer.

He proposed to wait for the final decision of a fair law.

Henry knew that he could not stop the Crown Group from annexing the Fowler Corporation.

Among the shareholders present at the shareholders' meeting, many of them had probably been bribed by Micheal to transfer their shares of the Fowler Corporation. If

Henry decided to stay in the country and save the Fowler Corporation, the Crown Group could just abandon it and benefit from the difference in stock price.

To keep the Fowler Corporation, Henry had to accept the price set by Micheal which might be much higher than the market price.

In the end, even if Fowler Corporation was saved, it would only be an empty shell on the verge of bankruptcy.

On the contrary, the Crown Group would make a lot of money and leave.

After the meeting, Henry and Jack's friends took stock of the resources and capital that the Fowler Corporation could accumulate after the liquidation.

After confirming it, he gave up the right to control before the corporation collapsed.

After finishing all the procedures, Henry to the hospital.

Aaron and the others were guarding Anna's ward. When they saw Henry rushing over, they hurriedly said, "Henry!"

Henry asked, "How's *****?"

"The doctor is treating . She can open her eyes but can't speak. It is better. It is great."

Originally, they were all in despair from waiting.

But Anna woke up from the ultimatum of being a vegetable.

It was truly a blessing amidst misfortune.

Henry heaved a sigh of relief. "That's good. Aaron, when condition becomes better, pack your things and go to Meridonia to look for Raymond. I've got someone to arrange it. We can set off the day after tomorrow at the earliest."

"So fast? Henry, is the company..."

"We've fallen into a trap. After I calmed down, I found that we could only give up on the Fowler Corporation. When we accumulate strength in Meridonia, we can come back to Crucsia and snatch Fowler Corporation back."

They were going to lose Fowler Corporation...

Aaron and the others were quite disappointed.

They had such a premonition.

However, they did not expect that it would happen right in front of them.

And it was so difficult to accept.

The Fowler Corporation was the painstaking effort and the pride of Jack and Anna.

They thought it would accompany them for the rest of their lives. Unexpectedly, they were caught off guard and suffered a huge *****!

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 459

No Way Back Chapter 459-At that ***** ...

The door of the ward opened.

A doctor wearing a mask walked out.

Henry and the others walked forward quickly and surrounded him. "Doctor, how's my mother?"

"Mrs. Fowler is fine now. It's a medical miracle that she can regain consciousness so quickly. Because of her strong desire to live, she beat her illness and woke up. Although I don't approve of you meeting her now, she requests to see you. Go in and take a look at her. Remember, don't chat with her for too long, or she will be too tired."

"Thank you, Doctor."

After getting the doctor's permission, the six children of the Fowler family hurried into the ward.

Most of the cannulas on Anna's body were removed, and only the infusion tubes were left. Seeing Anna open her eyes and breathe, Henry tried hard to slow down his fast heartbeat. He was the first to rush forward. " , are you alright?"

Anna turned her head with difficulty and looked at Henry. She said weakly, "I... I'm fine... Where's Madelyn? Where is she?"

The first question Anna asked was about Madelyn.

She said weakly through gritted teeth..

" ,  ... She..."

Because Anna's voice was low, Henry and the others did not notice her anger.

Henry did not dare to tell Anna that Madelyn had been missing for two days, afraid that Anna would be worried about Madelyn too much the  she woke up. He could only say, "I've finished the procedures for  to leave the country.  , you'll be a little tired in the next few days. You're going to Meridonia to seek help from Raymond. As for the Fowler Corporation, I'll stay here to settle the follow-up matters."

"No! Henry... It's not like that... I got injured because of Madelyn!"

Anna told the truth with all her might.

Henry and the others were dumbfounded.

It took a long time for them to come back to their senses. The hot-tempered Dwayne became furious instantly. "Madelyn injured you?  , what exactly happened?"

Anna panted and said, "I... I also want to know... what was exactly going on. I treated her so well... But why did she want to me?"

At that  , Henry suddenly stood up.

His body trembled slightly.

The Crown Group had been secretly purchasing the shares of the Fowler Corporation a long time ago.

Then, Madelyn caused Anna to have an accident, and the Fowler family was in a mess.

As a result, Jack's attention was diverted. The Crown Group took advantage of the opportunity to interfere in the internal affairs of the Fowler Corporation and buy most of the shares owned by other shareholders.

Everything could only be achieved on an important prerequisite.

It was not that Anna almost became a vegetable because of Madelyn.

Instead, it was that the Crown Group had long known that Jack would be involved in the bribery case!

The only one who could do that...

It was Madelyn, who was not hated but trusted by the Fowlers back then.

At that time, Madelyn probably found something and secretly kept the evidence.

It was Madelyn who betrayed the Fowler family and caused it to be reduced like this!

In an instant, Henry felt that his heart was filled with hatred.

He wished he could strangle Madelyn to death and get rid of her right now.

Henry's brothers also thought it through, and their faces turned pale.

Back then, to stabilize Anna, they left Madelyn behind and did not reveal her true colors to the public.

Unexpectedly, it brought them such a huge disaster!

The Fowlers never expected that Madelyn would have such "criminal evidence", secretly cooperate with the Crown Group, and betray the Fowler family!

Thinking of that, Henry squatted down and grabbed Anna's hand tightly, as if he wanted to transmit strength to her. ", I know you're tired now, but you have to tell me one important thing... How could Dad be involved in the bribery case of the Fowler Corporation? I don't believe Dad would do such a thing."

"One of the founders of the Fowler Corporation was a university classmate of Jack and me, as well as Jack's other old friends... To bid for a certain project and promote the development of the Fowler Corporation, he bribed someone secretly... By the time Jack and I found it, it was too late... because we had won the bid... If anything went wrong because of it... the Fowler Corporation would be in great trouble..."

"Although I advised Jack to tell the truth... he refused me. Everyone had worked hard for so many years, and he didn't want their effort to be ruined overnight. So, he chased that founder away and announced to the public that the founder had gone to a better company. Even Jack's trusted followers didn't know it. Then, Jack destroyed all the bribery information... However, it turned out that nothing could be hidden forever..."

"It... has been a sore point for Jack... He loved his country so much... and hated bribery to the core, but... He was betrayed unexpectedly and was forced to take the blame for corruption and bribery. That year, you were still studying abroad... so you didn't know anything..."

"Five years ago?"

Henry's face darkened.

That year, Madelyn was only 14 years old.

Madelyn had such sinister intentions at such a young age?

How did Madelyn know about the bribery? More importantly, she had even kept the evidence.

On the one hand, Madelyn was waiting for a chance to send Jack to prison and destroy the Fowler family in person.

On the other hand, Madelyn made a deal with the Crown Group secretly and obtained a large sum of money that she would never be able to run out of in her entire life. Madelyn even wanted to Anna, who had treated Madelyn like her own daughter.

What a vicious woman!

The Fowlers had raised Madelyn for 19 years. They saved her from a hard life and provides her with a rich life. They loved her and trust her.

However, she repaid the Fowler family in such a way.

Henry could not help but laugh bitterly.

Was this retribution?

It was retribution that the Fowlers treated the biological daughter of the Fowler family with disdain, humiliation, and cold violence.

On the contrary, they trusted and doted on the adopted daughter, an ingrate, like a treasure.

Finally...

The Fowler family ended up like this....

Who could they blame?

They could only blame themselves.

They deserved it!

When Anna saw Henry's reaction, she had a premonition in her heart.

Anna had regained her rationality and was not . Soon, she quickly thought of the cause and effect and knew that someone had betrayed the Fowler family.

The information from back then had been destroyed by Jack, and few people knew about it.

At that time, Madelyn attended cooking classes and often made cakes. She would send them, along with some snacks, fruits, tea, and so on, to Jack's study.

It made Jack, who was in a terrible fix, feel relaxed. As his anger and uneasiness were soothed by Madelyn, Jack kept praising that having such a filial and sensible daughter like Madelyn was a blessing for him and the Fowler family.

Now, Anna thought about it carefully. Madelyn could tell that Jack was in a bad mood. And if it was in the past, she wouldn't bother Jack with the food she made. However, during that period of time, she insisted on doing it. Even Anna was satisfied that Madelyn could please Jack.

Jack had removed all the clues. If anyone could get the information and betray Jack, the person must be from the Fowler family. Undoubtedly, it was Madelyn!

For the sake of wealth and glory, Madelyn even intended to murder her adopted mother, who had raised her and treated her so well...

At the thought of that, Anna felt her heart hurt as if it was stabbed by a knife.

Did Anna do anything wrong?

Jane betrayed the Fowler family and did not have any contact with the Fowlers. Anna could accept it.

After all, the Fowlers were the first to hurt Jane deeply.

And they hurt Jane because of Madelyn...

Madelyn had lived with the Fowlers for 19 years. Anna felt that she was good to Madelyn.

Anna had given Madelyn almost everything that a daughter of the Fowler family should have. Anna provided Madelyn with a luxurious life and the best education. She cured Madelyn's genetic defects and bought everything Madelyn wanted, including brand clothes, bags, and jewelry in season...

Not to mention the favor from Jack and his six brothers...

Others thought that the Fowlers had doted on Madelyn too much, but Anna did not care about it. Anna loved Jane a lot, and she made it up to Madelyn. Because of that, Anna even hurt Jane, her biological daughter whom she had painstakingly found.

Unexpectedly, Anna's efforts were in exchange for such a finale...

She couldn't accept it!

Anna only wanted to find Madelyn and question her in person, "Why did you do that?"

"Why did you hurt me? Why did you betray the Fowler family? Did the Fowlers let you down?" Beep!

The instrument on Anna's body began to sound the alarm.

Henry said hurriedly, "", don't be angry. The most important thing now is to recuperate."

"I'm fine... Henry, I won't . I know my condition better than anyone else. Something bad has happened to Jack and the Fowler Corporation. And Madelyn has betrayed the Fowler family. How can I stay in bed all the time? I will hold on. I have to hold on."

Seeing that Anna was agitated, Aaron called a doctor over. After being injected with a tranquilizer, Anna fell asleep again.

Henry and the others left the ward.

"Henry, I have to find Madelyn. That  went missing after doing such a thing. She must be afraid that  will wake up and accuse her. She's trying to escape!"

Dwayne was angry and gritted his teeth. He wished he could strangle Madelyn to death.

The Fowlers had treated Madelyn so well, but Madelyn hurt Anna and betrayed the Fowler family in return.

Back then, Dwayne doted on Madelyn so much and even humiliated Jane for Madelyn. Now, he had to bear the consequences...

Dwayne almost went crazy because of his *****.

Other than Dwayne...

The other Fowlers who had previously been deceived by Madelyn all regretted it and wanted to commit suicide.

What kind of sin did they commit? Why were they so brainless?

Madelyn was just an adopted daughter of the Fowler family, while Jane was a biological one. However, because of Madelyn, the Fowlers actually bullied and were indifferent to Jane whom they had found painstakingly, disregarding their blood ties.

They had gone overboard with Jane back then. Now, they deserved their retributions.

Retribution! It was all retribution!

“I’ll get someone to find Madelyn. This time, we can’t let her escape.”

Henry clenched his fists.

He didn’t notice that his nails had dug into the flesh of his palm.

There was only pain.

Only pain could awaken Henry.

This way, his mind wouldn’t be in a mess.

Henry had thousands of questions to ask Madelyn.

Thinking of that, Henry took out his phone in front of his five brothers and called Micheal again.

Beep...

This time, Henry waited slightly longer.

Micheal answered the call.

Micheal said coldly, “Henry, I think there’s nothing more to say between us. No need to ask me about- something boring. I’ve made it clear to you. You’ve lost.”

11:20

“Micheal, I just want to ask you one thing. Is Madelyn on your side?”

As Henry said, he failed to control his tone. He lost his composure, and his voice was harsh.

“I don’t know what you’re talking about.”

Micheal wouldn’t expose Madelyn’s whereabouts easily. He hung up directly.

He blacklisted Henry’s number casually.

Micheal’s eyes darkened. “I didn’t expect him to find out about what Madelyn had done so quickly. Unfortunately, it’s too late.”

The next second, Micheal dialed Chester’s number.

“Dad, what’s wrong?” Chester asked.

“When will Madelyn leave Crucsia?”

“In the next few days. After Madelyn’s previous identity is erased, and her new identity is done, I’ll arrange for a ship to send her to Ruburg.”

“Send her abroad as soon as possible. The Fowlers have found out about Madelyn’s actions. I’m afraid. that they are doing their best to search for Madelyn.”

“Don’t worry, Dad. Crucsia is so big. With the protection of the Crown Group, the messy Fowler family won’t be able to find where Madelyn is. By the time they find some clues, Madelyn will have gone far away. Moreover, it’s meaningless to find Madelyn now. We’ve obtained what we want.”

No Way Back Chapter 460-After all, it was undeniable that Jack knew about the bribery but did not report it.

There were witness statements and material evidence. Even if the Fowlers caught Madelyn and proved that she was the one who betrayed the Fowler family, it would mean nothing.

Because it was the truth.

It was not made up.

“It’s better to be safe than sorry. Don’t underestimate the Fowler family. They’re one of the few elite corporations in Stormton City. The Fowler Corporation is still quite influential. Not to mention that Jack has seven outstanding sons. Jack may be old, but he’s still alive and has his sons to back him up. Now is the best time to acquire Fowler Corporation. Don’t complicate matters.”

“I understand, Dad. I’ll arrange for Madelyn to leave the country as soon as possible.”

“All right.”

When Anna woke up, it was already noon the next day.

The first thing Anna did when she woke up was to look for her son.

To prevent Anna from getting too emotional and losing control of herself like she did yesterday, the doctor let Henry in to see Anna. The doctor only allowed him to enter.

Henry walked in and held Anna’s hand. “*.”

This time, Anna's state was much better. Her voice was not as weak as when she had just woken up yesterday. "Is there any news from Madelyn?"

Henry shook his head. "No. I'm afraid Crown Group is protecting her."

"The Laton family will surely think of a way to erase Madelyn's identity and send her overseas secretly. I'm afraid they will do it in the next few days. If we don't hurry... We won't be able to catch Madelyn in this lifetime."

"I know, . I'll get my subordinates to do their best to find Madelyn. No matter what, I won't let Madelyn betray our family and disappear without a trace."

However, after calming down, he realized that because Madelyn was protected by the Crown Group, their chances of finding her in just a few days were slim.

Henry knew it without even thinking.

Now, Henry was already exhausted. Fowler Corporation was about to be annexed by Crown Group. There were all kinds of internal strife among the Fowler Corporation's shareholders. No one knew how many people had switched sides to join the Crown Group. Although Anna had woken up from her coma, she was still hospitalized. Other than the fact that Jack was imprisoned for accepting the bribe, countless rumors were still spreading like wildfire online...

In light of these matters, finding Madelyn now seemed so insignificant. Even if they found Madelyn, they could not prove Jack's innocence. These accusations were true. Jack knew about it.

"By the way, Henry, where's your father? Can you see him? Can you bail him out first?"

"No... , I've thought about it. Only our lawyers can see Dad. They can't even bail him out. Crown Group had come prepared this time. Madelyn provided Crown Group with information about the Fowler Corporation's bribery and the testimony of the person whom the Fowler Corporation fired. We can't bail Dad out. Dad has been silent ever since he went to prison. I've spoken to him through my lawyer. He wants to bear all the consequences of this incident himself after we leave the country safely..."

Henry felt unprecedentedly tired after saying this.

It was as if everything was written in stone.

He could not change the outcome.

Anna could not help but tear up. "Jack... How could you be so ? Henry, you must find the best lawyer to help your father with the lawsuit. I know there's no more turning back. But at the very least, you shouldn't let Dad stay in jail for too long..."

"I will,  . Our lawyer said that if the other party's evidence is too overwhelming, the best thing to do now is for Dad to confess and tell the truth. The lawyer will also fight for the shortest sentence on Dad's behalf."

"Okay. Good. We'll leave as soon as we've settled the paperwork for going abroad. We won't stay here and continue to bother you and your father. I know... We're just a burden to you now. Henry, you've been working so hard recently..."

Anna caressed Henry's face. Her heart ached. He looked at Henry's Bloodshot eyes. The corners of his eyes were bruised, and his face was gaunt. He did not even have time to shave. He looked as if he had experienced much of life's hardships and had suddenly ten years. She could hardly recognize him as the high-spirited, handsome, and youngster she once knew.

Jack was imprisoned, and Anna was in such a sorry state.

Henry, their eldest son, was now the only person in the Fowler family who could bear all this. Everyone placed their hopes on Henry and prayed that he could turn the tables..

They had forgotten...

That Henry was just a 26-year-old boy.

His life had just begun, and he had yet to experience many beautiful things. But he was already forced to go through such unbearable suffering, one after another. He had to shoulder such a huge responsibility.

Anna's heart was aching terribly for her sensible and capable eldest son.

Those adjectives were also a shackle that bound Henry, preventing him from doing what he wanted to do freely. Isn't the Fowler family a prison in itself, shackling him to them? Would he become the Fowler family's for the rest of his life?

If only Henry had the chance. If only he were not the eldest son, he would also choose to be willful and pursue his dream.

He would not be handling the defeat of the Fowler family. Once, they had looked so supreme and honorable in the eyes of outsiders.

Recently, too many things happened to the Fowler family.

The Fowlers had been dealt so many heavy blows. One of their own had even betrayed them...

They were exhausted. Truly exhausted.

This was the first time Anna hated Stormton City so much.

It was where Anna and Jack had countless beautiful memories together, and for most of their lives, they had worked so hard in this city.

After leaving for Meridonia this time, Anna never wanted to come back.

There were too many unbearable and heartbreaking memories in this place.

In just one year, the Fowler family's life changed drastically.

There was no more going back.

“** ...”

Listening to Anna's heartfelt words, Henry could see how much she wanted to comfort him.

Henry finally could not take it anymore and burst into tears.

He threw himself into Anna's arms and cried without restraint, just like when he wanted to cry as a little boy.

Henry had indeed been exhausted lately.

However, Henry did not dare to show it to anyone.

Not in front of his brother, uncle, or those company shareholders.

Once he revealed his weakness, all hope would be shattered.

Henry chose to shoulder the weight of it all by himself.

He did not want to bring any more pressure on the people he cared about.

However, only now did Henry realize... just how small the limit of a person's ability was.

It was so small that it was negligible.

Henry could not possibly shoulder all of this.

He was so tired. He was almost out of breath from the stress. He felt he was going to *****.

Now, Henry finally found a way to vent his emotions. He could cry in front of his mother and vent his sadness. He could finally let go of his burdens.

“You can let it all out, Henry. I’m sorry... I’m so sorry... and this family have let you down... We’ve pushed you too hard...”

As a mother, the only thing Anna could do now was to comfort her eldest son, even though her heart ached for him terribly.

Other than that, Anna could not do anything. She could not do anything....

A few days passed by in the blink of an eye.

Late at night...

Madelyn was brought to the port.

“Get on board, Miss Madelyn. We’ll arrive in Ruburg in a few days. At that time, Mr. Laton will arrange for someone to pick you up and give you a new identity. You’ll be provided with an identity card from Ruburg. You’ll have a brand new life.”

“I got it.”

Madelyn had already discussed the details with Chester.

With a yearning for a better life in the future, Madelyn boarded the ship.

The ship headed toward Ruburg.

On the calm sea under the moonlight, Madelyn’s heart was filled with longing for a beautiful life in the future.

The waiter on the ship brought her a steaming cup of coffee.

Madelyn drank it without any precaution.

She was about to admire the sea view under the moonlight.

Gradually, Madelyn felt very sleepy.

She went to her cabin.

Soon, she fell asleep.

Little did she know...

The ship suddenly changed its direction.

The place she was going to... was not Ruburg.

It was Stormton City.

The next day, at 10 p.m...

All the Fowler family members in the hospital who were preparing for Anna's discharge tomorrow suddenly received a mysterious message.

It was the coordinates of an abandoned warehouse on the outskirts of Stormton City.

It would take about two hours to drive there.

Coincidentally, the six sons of the Fowler family were gathered together. Seeing the same message on each other's phones, they frowned. "What's going on?"

Henry stared at the message carefully. His intuition told him that this was not a coincidence. Finally, Henry seemed to have thought of something. "Is it Jane?"

"What? Henry, are you saying... Jane sent us this message?"

"There's no mistake about it. This signature... is Jane's favorite."

Once upon a time, Henry knew Jane the best. She was Queen, his teacher. He immediately noticed this detail.

This was a secret code that only Queen and H.F. of the Darknet knew.

The reason why Jane sent such a message to the Fowlers was to hide her identity. Was she trying to send him a signal?

The six sons looked at each other.

They chose to head to those coordinates, even if it pointed to *****.

Jane had taken the initiative to send them this message.

They had no choice but to investigate.

"Wait. I'll go, too."

When Anna heard that it was a message from Jane, she could not care about anything else. She struggled to get up from the bed.

" , you..."

"If it's Jane, I have to go. I want to see what she's up to. This time, I won't run anymore. If none of you will bring me there, I'll crawl over if I have to."

Anna's gaze was intense.

She was determined not to give up until she achieved her goal.

When Henry and the others saw Anna's gaze, they knew that there was no point in trying to dissuade her.

"Alright. , we'll protect you. Let's go see Jane together."

When Madelyn woke up again...

She found it a little strange.

"Why... is it so dark?"

Madelyn wanted to get up and turn on the lights.

However, she realized that she could not move.

The darkness in front of her was not because there was no light.

Instead, it was because Madelyn's head was covered by a black cloth.

Everything felt so real. From how her body lacked the strength to the wind blowing past her skin.

It was not a dream.

This was reality.

"What's going on? What on earth happened!"

Madelyn could not move at all. She could only shout.

The next second...

Madelyn's hood was removed.

Because of the sudden light, Madelyn could not open her eyes. She kept crying.

After her eyes gradually adapted to the light, she could see the person before her.

At that , Madelyn's heart turned cold.

"It's you... Jane..."

Who else could it be but Jane?

Madelyn instinctively felt a wave of fear. She struggled with all her might. "Jane, why are you here? Am I not in Ruburg? Let go of me! Let go of me right now."

"Because... Madelyn, you haven't paid off what you owe me. How could you leave just like that? No way. Do you know where this is?"

Jane's eyes gradually turned cold.

"Jane, I never crossed you. The ones who hurt you are the Fowler family. It has nothing to do with me. Let me go, okay? From now on, you'll go your way, and I'll go mine. We'll have nothing to do with each other."

Madelyn begged Jane hysterically.

Without the memories of her previous life, Madelyn naturally would not know....

This warehouse was where Madelyn had planned to  Jane in her previous life. She wanted Jane to burn to death.

The Fowlers had hurt Jane terribly. She had to get her revenge...

It meant that Madelyn could not escape her punishment.

Everyone who owed Jane in her previous life would have to pay her back one by one in this life.

"You're noisy."

Jane slapped Madelyn hard a few times.

Slap! Slap!

Madelyn's face instantly swelled horribly.

She could only look at Jane in horror.

She was scared to speak again, afraid she would anger Jane and be slapped again.

Now that she fell into Jane's hands, she was like a sitting duck.

Madelyn felt extremely bleak about her future.

She did not know how she got there. Chester had arranged everything, and even the Fowlers could not find her. She had hidden everything so well.

How could Jane catch Madelyn?

“I know you’re confused, Madelyn, but you should understand that you must pay me back. If you can leave this place alive tonight, I won’t hold you responsible for anything. I’ve changed the rules of the game. I hope you can show me what you’re capable of.”

Jane clapped her hands as soon as she finished speaking.

Before Madelyn could react...

Two figures rushed over, punching and kicking Madelyn.

Madelyn could not believe what she was seeing.

Because Madelyn knew the people who attacked her. She knew them well.

They were Madelyn’s biological father, Miguel, and her biological sister, Justine.

“You ! How dare you hire an assassin tome? Go yourself.”

Every punch Miguel landed was fatal. Justine did not hold back, either. With a ferocious expression, she kicked Madelyn hard.

She kicked Madelyn until Madelyn screamed incessantly.

“Stop hitting. Miguel, Justine...”

Charlotte, who was hiding at the back, could not bear to watch anymore. She knelt before Jane and cried, “Jane, please spare us. We swear to disappear completely and never appear before you or again.”

Jane did not respond to Charlotte. She just snapped her fingers.

Snap.
