No Way Back Chapter 91- Just three words.

Henry felt as if he was hit by a bucket of cold water

He loosened his grip on Jane's pants.

His hands gradually lowered.

Jane turned around and left without hesitation

Abandoning Henry in the mud as the rain beat down on his body.

Just like how the Fowlers ruthlessly abandoned her in the fire without turning back in her past life. She had experienced a living hell as she burned in the fire.

If Henry was heartbroken, guilty, and regretful....

That would be fantastic!

Jane wanted Henry to suffer the same amount of pain she went through!

On what grounds should she suffer the he brought her?

She had endured more than enough pain in her previous life. It's his turn to suffer

Jane's figure slowly disappeared from Henry's sight

He seemed to have lost all his strength

Sitting on the muddy ground, the frigid rain splattered on his body coldly. Slowly...

Henry laughed.

His laughter gradually became desolated.

He reached out to cover his face

Letting his tears fall freely from the corner of his eyes.

The hot tears instantly turned cold as they mixed in with the raindrops

No one knew Henry was crying.

So what if he had deceived others?

Being unable to deceive oneself was even more tragic.

The once pampered and prideful man had now become a joke.

If anyone saw Henry Fowler in his current state, they would think he was a ***.

Who would have thought that this man was the high and mighty president of the Fowler Corporation?

“That’s right... I’ve brought all this upon myself....

“This ending must be my retribution...”

You. Should. Die.

The first time Henry met Jane was in the courthouse ladies’ washroom.

He had said the same thing to her

The words came from the bottom of his heart.

He had really hoped that Jane would die.

Then, she would not be able to tarnish the Fowler family’s reputation.

Henry had never considered that Jane was his biological sister that had gone missing for so many years that she needed family love the most.

He had spent all his time keeping her far away so that his stable and happy life would not be affected.

So when Jane uttered those three words...

She probably felt the same as he did back then.

wicker

That he was a wicked man that had betrayed her trust.

Except for dying once and for all...

There was probably no other way.

It should be enough to quell her hate for him this way

“Henry!”

At this moment, with an umbrella in hand, Kevin Jones finally found Henry

At first, he had thought that Henry chased Jane to the underground parking garage at Nightshade Bar.

After searching for them for a long time without avail, he finally surmised that Henry must have chased Jane outside the bar

The rain gradually got heavier, the two siblings did not have umbrellas. Kevin had been searching for ages.

When he saw Henry lying in the mud, Kevin was not sure if it was him at first glance.

However, when he got closer to take a look, his pupils constricted.

It was indeed Henry!

Why

Did it end up like this?

The current Henry was like his soul had left his body, leaving behind an empty shell of a body

Compared to when they were at Revolve Cafe, Henry's state was even more ghastly!

Kevin hurriedly covered Henry with the umbrella, patting Henry's face incessantly. "Henry, wake up! Henry! Are you alright?" "Kevin...

Seeing his best buddy in front of him, Henry only opened and closed his ***.

He called out to Kevin weakly.

His eyes flashed with despair and hopelessness.

Before he could finish speaking, his eyes rolled back.

He had fainted.

"Henry! Don't scare me! Henry Fowler!"

Seeing Henry suddenly faint, Kevin's heart almost stopped.

He touched Henry's head.

It's burning!

He has a fever!

Kevin threw the umbrella aside without caring and hurriedly picked Henry up before rushing towards Nightshade Bar The Fowlers Villa.

No one knew about Henry's current state.

After resolving the aftermath of the trending searches, Jack Fowler and Anna Fowler could finally relax.

Jack sat on the sofa in the living room and poured himself a glass of whisky.

Anna walked over in her pajamas and glanced at him. "Jack, don't drink too much. Take care of your body."

"I know. Honey, I'm just so happy I felt like drinking. Alright, it's just one glass."

Jack even acted flirtatiously in front of his wife

It seems like Jack was feeling joyful.

"You... Alright, I'll drink with you."

She looked at Jack helplessly

She sat beside him as she poured herself a glass of whisky.

"That's my beloved wife! Honey, the children aren't home. It's just the two of us... let's do a love shot?"

Jack stared at Anna affectionately.

"Jack, let's not get involved with Jane anymore."

Anna ignored Jack's love shot request and said seriously, "Nothing good ever happens when we make contact with Jane. Anyways, the Fowler family has already made an effort to find Jane. Now that it has gotten to this state, it could only be said that we are not fated to be a family... "Honey, that's what I thought too. Let Jane Fowler go, and let our family go....

As soon as he finished speaking.

Jack's phone rang

Seeing that it was Kevin calling, Jack frowned.

*Strange, Kevin called. I wonder what happened..."

Jack answered the call and listened to what Kevin had to say.

He abruptly stood up.

"Such a thing happened? Where? Alright! We'll head over now!"

Jack and the others quickly arrived at Cloveheart Hospital, the best hospital in Stormton City.

Kevin was standing guard outside the ward

Jack knew that Kevin and Henry were very close, and the two families often contacted each other. Jack could not hide the worry on his face. "Kevin, what happened?"

Kevin explained, "Henry had a fever and fainted. The doctor already gave him drips and treated the fever. He's fine. He only needs to rest" Anna was worried. "What's going on? Kevin, why would Henry fall sick and faint when he was fine before? This child would never disparage his body..."

"L. I don't know either..."

"Maybe it has something to do with Jane Fowler"

Kevin did not know what had happened either.

He only knew that Henry was highly abnormal today.

It was all because of this Jane Fowler

"Jane Fowler again!"

Jack was no angry that he

"How far munt this

nöst vomited blood

aughter go before she's willing to let sler family off?.

"The Fowler family clearly doesn't want to provoke this jinx anymore. Why? Why?"

If Jane had appeared in front of Jack now

He would definitely strangle her to death

They should not have given birth to her in the first place

He should not have agreed to let Anna give birth to Jane in a moment of passing

Now, not only did Jane hurt the Fowler family, Jack, Peter, Madelyn

She also hurt Henry! Jack Fowler's eldest son!

Thanks to Jane, they were all beaten down one by one!

Anna's face also paled

At this moment, she really wanted to cry

She could not help but cover her and turn her face away.

Why

God, did I do something wrong?

If only I had listened to Diane's advice and had not gone to look for Jane

Would the Fowler family not have met with so many misfortunes?

Anna had never regretted anything she did.

As it had already passed, it was useless to feel regret.

They should focus on how to resolve the current situation and future problems

However, just this once.

Anna really regretted it.

She regretted finding Jane.

If she did not bring her back, none of this would have happened'

Peter listened from the side and secretly clenched his fists

At this moment, Madelyn said feebly, "Daddy, Mommy, don't be anxious. Maybe things are not as bad as we think. Kevin, did Henry become like this because of Janie? Why did she do this?"

"I don't know....but Henry became very strange today, unlike his usual self. I felt that something must have happened between Henry and Jane Fowler. He even felt a strong sense of guilt toward Jane Fowler..

"Henry didn't mention anything. He suddenly contracted a fever and fainted because we bumped into Jane Fowler at the Nightshade Bar, and he ran out to chase after her..."

Kevin could only clarify the situation.

This time....

It was Madelyn's turn to be stunned.

Initially, Madelyn pretended to be concerned so Kevin could expose Jane's misdeeds.

It was so that daddy and mommy could hate Jane even more, so much so that they would get rid of her.

It would be best if they could kill Jane. That way, no one would steal Madelyn's limelight and the position of the young lady

Unexpectedly

What did Madelyn hear?

Henry felt guilty towards Jane Fowler

No way!

Kevin must have misunderstood something!

Henry had always wished he could kill Jane. How could he feel guilty toward Jane?

The others were also stunned.

Especially Peter

He could not help but look at the tightly ward door

"Brother...

"Could it be...

"You came to your senses too?

"But what exactly happened..."

"Anna, Peter, . You guys stay here and take care of Henry I have to find Jane and ask her what exactly happened!"

Jack was about to leave after speaking, but Anna quickly stopped him.

"Jack, you can't go over. If a conflict arises, Jane won't let us off!"

"Honey, don't worry. I will control my temper. I'm not looking for her for a fight but to clarify the situation... Once bitten, twice shy.

Jack had already seen how powerful Jane was.

In fact, because of this matter, Jack almost ruined the Fowler family's reputation and Fowler Corporation.

This time, he definitely learned his lesson and would not fall into Jane's trap again.

Anna bit her lip and finally made up her mind. "I'll go. Jack, it's safer for me to go. You stay here together with the children and take care of Henry."

"Honey..."

"Stop talking. Jack. You said before to listen to me at critical junctures!"

No Way Back Chapter 92-After hearing what Anna said, Jack finally stopped insisting

Peter opened his hesitantly

In the end, he chose to remain silent.

If the current Peter met with Jane, he would only be criticized as a ****

He was no longer qualified to meet her.

Was this the feeling of loss and regret?

In the past, he had always wanted to meet her, to catch her attention. Yet, it was so easy that he disdained it.

Now, Peter regretted it. He wanted to be a caring brother to Jane, to mend his past mistakes

But she no longer needed it.

She was like a rose filled with thorns.

If he wanted to touch it, he would only bleed from scraping against the thorns

This bitter feeling of guilt...

It was indeed uncomfortable.

It was worse than being hungover for days

Anna wanted to leave, but Madelyn followed behind her

"Mommy, I'll go with you...

I'm afraid that Janie will get angry. If mommy can't take it anymore, I can help mommy in critical moments

Anna sighed softly. "Maddie, Jane *you. If you go over, it will only intensify the conflict. Listen to me. I'll go alone. The more people there are, the more disgusted Jane will be."

Madelyn lowered her head, and tears began to fall silently again. She started sobbing and said, 'Mommy Sorry, it's all because of me. Henry wouldn't have ended up in this state if I wasn't in the Fowler family Janie wouldnt have hurt us. Its all because of me.

"*girl, it's not your fault. Alright, I have to leave now."

Anna was not in the mood to comfort Madelyn. She was full of questions that she wanted to ask Jane. She immediately set off when the car arrived

Madelyn could only watch helplessly as the car carrying Anna left.

She could not help but bit her thin lips.

Could it be that she overused this move?

The Fowlers were getting impatient.

Madelyn had to restrain herself

I can't use it like that next time.

If she could go with Anna this time, Madelyn was confident that with her acting skills, she would be able to deepen the conflict between the Fowler family and Jane.

It would not be long before Jane would disappear from this world without Madelyn dirtying her hands.

Right now, Jane was like a parasite latching onto her. Once Jane appeared, Madelyn would feel uneasy all over,

It was as if the Fowler family could not have two daughters.

Only when one of them died would the war end.

It was a fight to their deaths

Moreover..

Madelyn could clearly feel that her family's attitude towards Jane was gradually beginning to change,

If it were in the past, Jack and Anna would have already taken revenge once they knew of Henry's current state. How could they still remain so calm?

It was the same for Peter. It was the same for Henry. They had all begun to feel guilty towards Jane.

Every circumstance was pushing Madelyn towards an unfavorable position.

She had to think of a way to turn this situation around!

Jane had already returned to her apartment and taken a hot shower.

She changed out of her soaking wet clothes.

As the clothes had been touched by Henry, she threw her clothes into a bag in disgust.

Jane planned to throw them into the trash can tomorrow.

She had even put on a cooling face mask for the first time.

Now, Jane only wanted to improve her mood and feel better.

While soaking in the bathtub, she gave Andy a call.

“, Janie. I didn't expect you to encounter such a huge situation just after I left.

“This is really a peculiarly ill-fated relationship”

When Andy heard what Jane said about what transpired today, his face was also filled with disbelief.

Was there really such a terrifying coincidence in this world?

“Don’t mention it anymore, Andy. I’m kicking myself for not listening to you. You were right. I shouldn’t have insisted on upholding a bottom line. If I had investigated H. F’s true identity earlier, I wouldn’t have ended up like this today.”

Jane smiled self deprecatingly

“Now, do you know what it means to not listen to the wise?

Janie, I understand your character. You’re very protective of the people you approve of to the point where you’re unwilling to hurt or distrust them.

“In the end, you look tough, but you’re actually soft hearted With your personality, you’re easily at a disadvantage. Isn’t this the case with the Fowler family?

“However, I like this part of you. It makes you seem alive. We would not be conversing this merrily if you were cold and indifferent like a machine.”

“You’ve really seen through me, Andy. I admit defeat

Andy thought of ways to cheer Jane up

Gradually, Jane’s mood brightened.

“But this Henry Fowler is really smart. He actually dared to put his initials on the Darknet.

“Although I really didn’t expect it... But if someone guessed his true identity, he would be in big trouble.

“If you hadn’t taken him in as your apprentice and helped him erase his traces, things wouldn’t have been so easy for him all these years.” “Alright, Andy, I don’t want to hear anything about Henry anymore. We are talking so happily. Why bother with an annoying person?” “Okay, let’s not talk about it anymore. Alright, Janie, I have something to do first. Continue with your shower!”

After hanging up, Jane got up from the bathtub, dried her body, dried her hair, and put on her pajamas. Looking at herself in the mirror, Jane sighed softly

Herbad mood caused by this incident indeed could not just disappear

She might as well go to sleep. Things would slowly get better tomorrow.

At this moment.

Jane's phone rang again,

It was the apartment security.

"What is it?"

"Miss Jane Fowler... There's a person outside claiming to be your mother, and she wants to see you. Should I let her in?" Mother?

Hearing this form of address....

Jane's mind went blank for a moment.

Then

She found it ***.

How funny.

Anna Fowler, oh Anna Fowler, are you Fowlers so shameless?"

They had already broken all family ties. Yet, she was still shameless enough to call herself Jane Fowler's mother

If word got out, people would laugh their heads off,

"Tell her to get lost."

Jane replied and hung up.

Jane only wanted to have a clean cut with the Fowler family.

She did not even want to see any of the Fowlers' faces.

She hid under the blanket and slept soundly

She could only pray that she would be in a better mood when she woke up tomorrow.

She had no time to deal with Anna.

Anyway, Jane could guess the reason Anna was looking for her.

It must be because of Henry

Jane was not in the mood to argue with Anna tonight.

Seeing that Jane had hung up, the security guard looked at Anna with a conflicted expression. "Mrs. Fowler... This Miss Jane Fowler is not willing. I'm sorry, we can't let you in"

The security in this apartment was not bad. If one wanted to enter the apartment to look for someone, one had to use an access card or go through security.

This was also one of the reasons why Jane had chosen to buy this place

If not for the fact that Anna Fowler was the Fowler Corporation Chairman's wife, why would the security guard be so respectful

She was an existence that a mere security guard could not offend.

Anna's expression was a little ***

However, Jane's rejection was within her expectations.

"I understand. I won't make things difficult for you."

Anna turned around and left.

The driver was waiting outside in a Maybach.

Seeing Anna walk out in vain, he quickly got out of the car to welcome her. "Madam... how did it go?"

Anna took a deep breath.

"Let's wait."

Although this was the stupidest way and was as good as waiting for results while not putting in the effort, the gate was right there. Classes start tomorrow at the University of Oricle.

Jane would come

t eventually.

This was the best way to meet Jane and figure out what had happened to Henry.

The next day.

Jane slept till nine in the morning.

She rubbed her throbbing temples.

Sigh...

She still had a nightmare.

And this nightmare was quite fitting with the current situation.

Jane had returned to Revolve Cafe.

It was as if she had lost her memory.

She waited expectantly for her little apprentice, H.F., to appear.

In the end.

H.F. had indeed appeared.

But he was wearing a mask.

Jane happily conversed with him.

Speaking of all the things that had happened in the past three years, she felt that she had finally found a good friend. Then.

H.F.'s mask suddenly peeled off.

It revealed Henry's nauseating face.

Henry laughed mockingly. "Jane Fowler, did you really think I treated you as my master? I'm just playing with you. What are you going to do about it? With the knowledge of Queen's true identity, I wonder if your life will still be peaceful if I leaked the information?"

Before Jane could splash the coffee on the table in Henry's face.

Henry was killed.

She woke up from the nightmare.

Except...

Her mood was terrible last night, so she chatted with Andy for a while and then fell asleep right after.

She did not reply to anyone's messages.

Jane glanced at her phone.

Apart from the greetings from Lila and Andy, there was also one from...

Hugh Croft.

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 93

No Way Back Chapter 93-Hugh Croft had sent a message to Jane at eight last night.

However, Jane was in a mood and ran to Nightshade Bar to drink.

She did not reply

At eight this morning. Hugh sent another message to Jane on the dot.

Jane on his message

Hugh asked. [Are you in a bad mood?]

Jane replied, [Yeah... something very upsetting happened. It's a long story]

Jane was about to put down her phone.

Unexpectedly, Hugh replied in seconds.

Hugh texted, [I know I'm not qualified yet, but if you want to say it, I'll listen]

Jane replied, [It's something trivial. I chose to forget about it to maintain my good mood today]

She had added an emoji covering its face. In the end, Jane lightly bit her lip and sent another message. Jane sent, [Thank you, Hugh. For caring about me]

Hugh replied. [You're welcome.]

He had added a smiling emoji. It seems they were chatting like old comrades.

Jane was thinking about what other people would think if they saw her and Hugh's messages.

Never in their dreams would they think that the both of them were dating.

Although... the two of them were not dating.

However, because of Hugh's concern, she replied instantly.

Jane's mood seemed to have improved.

Even a stranger like him would care so much about her,

As for the Fowler family...

What exactly did she expect from them?

They couldn't even compare to a man she had just met.

Just like that. How are they her blood-related kin?

One after another, they only disgust her and obstruct the path to her happiness.

She really did not want such a family and only wished they would disappear!

After Jane washed up, she left the apartment.

The University of Oricle has a major class today.

She could not be late.

Jane had taken a taxi back last night. Her Porsche Cayenne was still in Nightshade Bar's underground parking garage.

Hence, she could only call an Uber to the University of Oricle today.

She would then go to Nightshade Bar to drive her car back after school.

Just as Jane swiped her card and walked out of the apartment, a figure appeared in front of her.

"Jane, let's talk."

It was Anna.

Jane glanced at Anna, then at the parked Maybach not far behind her.

The driver got out of the car with obvious dark circles under his eyes

Anna's complexion did not look good either.

Obviously, she had not slept well and stayed up all night..

Jane ignored Arina and was about to leave.

“Jane Fowler! I’m calling you. I said, let’s talk!”

Anna realized that she was not angry

She was used to Jane’s indifference.

She wanted to clarify that she had a favor to ask and did not want something like what happened with Jack to happen again.

Anna could only suppress her temper and speak gently

“Why do you think I have to talk to you just because you want to?

“Anna Fowler, who do you think you are?”

Jane saw Anna in front of her and ruthlessly ridiculed her.

She did not treat the person in front of her as her so-called mother at all.

“Jane Fowler. I know you me, that you the Fowler family. If possible, I don’t want to look for you either. I’d rather I never approached you in the first place.

“Perhaps this way, the Fowler family could still be like before. You would also live a better life without hatred. However, this is reality No matter how much I regret and deny it, I still have to face reality.

“I don’t want to have anything to do with you anymore, and I don’t want to look for you or see you again, But this time, the matter with Henry is related to you. I have to look for you!”

“Oh?”

Hearing Anna’s words, Jane’s lips curled into a playful smile.

“What happened to Henry has something to do with me?”

As if deep in thought, Jane repeated the sentence.

Could it be that Henry told the Fowlers what happened? Hahaha!

How ****.

Henry actually had the guts to say such an embarrassing thing out loud....

If he had really said it, Jane would applaud and admire his shamelessness!

“Henry had a high fever and fainted last night. When Kevin found him, Henry was already in a terrible state. Kevin said... Henry became abnormal after meeting you, that he was completely different from his old self and felt sad and guilty. He even groveled in front of you. What exactly happened...? Jane, what did you do to Henry!”

Anna got increasingly agitated as she spoke.

She was so anxious her eyes were filled with accusations towards Jane.

As well as her regret.

Anna still regretted it. An unprecedented regret.

Even though she warned herself to stay calm and not get agitated, she still could not do it

If Anna had not insisted on finding Jane, the Fowler family would not reach this state.

What a hot mess,

It was completely different from their previous happy and blissful lifestyle.

Seeing Anna like this, Jane suddenly approached Anna.

Her eyes were chillingly sharp, so sharp that they seemed to be able to pierce into Anna's body

Anna was forced to take a few steps back due to Jane's sudden change.

The cold aura emanating from Jane's body was enough to give Anna goosebumps,

Not again....

Why did this young biological daughter of hers give off such powerful pressure? Once Jane's gaze changed, even Anna felt a little overwhelmed

“Oh... you want to know? Anna Fowler. Try not to faint after you learned the truth.”

Anna lightly bit her tongue and forcefully refused to admit defeat in front of Jane. To not be overwhelmed by Jane's powerful aura.

If she did that, how could she still keep her dignity as her mother?

“Speak!”

“I poisoned Henry. It’s highly poisonous and has no cure for it. Henry can only become my toy. If I let him live, he lives. If I want him to *, he dies... He can only listen to my orders with no room to resist. If I want him to kneel and my shoes, he has to kneel * How is it? Exciting, isn’t it?”

Jane watched as Anna’s face turned even paler.

The thrill of taking revenge surged in her heart.

Her mood seemed to improve immensely after being ruined by that Henry

“Jane Fowler! How could you!”

Anna’s eyes were red. Like a lioness whose cub was in danger, she reached her arms out and grabbed Jane’s collar. She gritted her teeth. “He’s your biological brother! How can you treat him like this? Are you crazy?”

“Biological brother? Anna Fowler, do you treat me as your biological daughter? When did Henry treat me as his biological sister?

“Did you know? When we were alone, Henry secretly told me that as an older brother, he wished that I *, wished that I did not exist. He didn’t want me to affect his already pleasant and blissful life!

“For someone like him, it would be a blessing if he . Because I want him to suffer a fate worse than death!”

“Jane Fowler, you’re lying! How could such a good child like Henry say such vicious words? I definitely won’t be bewitched by your words. Hurry up and take out the antidote!”

Anna was so angry that she was on the verge of losing her mind. After yelling, she raised her hand to slap Jane.

“Mrs. Fowler!”

Seeing that Anna was so agitated, the driver knew that something was wrong and was about to stop her.

However, Jane firmly blocked the slap.

Jane’s lips curled into a cold and murderous smile.

“Bewitched? Anna Fowler, go back and ask your precious eldest son. Ask him if he had said such a thing!

“Also, I lied about the poison. I just wanted to see if such a self proclaimed mother like you would be that . As expected... hopelessly . I said it casually, and you believed it.

“Fowler Corporation actually flourished in the hands of like you and Jack Fowler. Haha! Looks like the business world in Stormton City is simply too inferior. It’s at the level of a kindergarten swimming pool.”

Jane shook off Anna.

Anna staggered a few steps backward and almost fell.

Fortunately, the driver was agile and quickly caught Anna..

“Mrs. Fowler, are you okay?”

Jane turned around and left

She did not want to be involved with Anna anymore.

*Jane Fowler! Henry has a high fever and is lying unconscious in the hospital. This is all thanks to you. Does the blood flowing in your body not feel cold? Did your conscience not hurt?

“No matter how much you deny it, you are related to us by blood and a child of the Fowler family. Henry is your biological brother. You forced your biological brother into such a state. You are truly unfilial! Do you still have emotions? Is your heart beating?”

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 94

No Way Back Chapter 94-Anna Fowler questioned hoarsely Anger, regret... These words could no longer describe Anna’s current mood.

Finishing her sentence, Anna only felt that she had difficulty breathing and could only hold onto her chest as her face revealed a trace of pain. Her gaze was fixated on Jane’s back.

Unexpectedly...

Jane turned around as Anna had hoped.

It’s just that...

"That's great!

"I'm not a human but a demon. You Fowlers will never have a day of peace if you get involved with me

"Don't come looking for me in the future to avoid your health deteriorating from anger and perishing early. I don't want you pushing all the blame on me.

I'm an irredeemable heinous demon in your eyes, Want to live? Stay away from me." Jane said happily

She even caressed her chin at the end of the sentence

"But I'm thankful towards Mrs. Fowler. You went out of your way to come here for me to criticize you. I feel much better. Thank you for that!" Jane ran away after saying her piece.

Anna was so angry that her eyes almost rolled back.

"Mrs. Fowler! You have to hold on!"

Anna held back her anger and gritted her teeth so hard that they almost shattered. Her eyes flashed with killing intent. "Dont worry... I won't *so easily. This Jane Fowler... I... I will never let her off! Never

At Cloveheart Hospital.

Peter kept watch over the unconscious Henry

Jack had already been keeping watch all night

Worried about Jack's health, under Peter's firm insistence, Jack went to take a nap.

He could take over Peter's shift after recovering his energy.

Peter had also wanted Madelyn to rest, but Madelyn shook her head and indicated that she was not tired. She insisted that she would only rest after seeing Henry was fine.

Peter let Madelyn do what she wanted.

Madelyn held Henry's hand. Her eyes were red from holding back tears.

Seeing Henry in this state, no one felt good.

It's just that...

Peter's c

s gaze was still filled with deep probing,

If what Kevin said was true...

Brother, what exactly happened between you and Jane?

What made you undergo such an immense change so suddenly?"

At this moment.

"Master."

Henry spoke softly.

His voice was very soft, but Peter and Madelyn, who were keeping watch near the bed, heard it.

Madelyn cried out excitedly. "Big Brother, you're awake?"

Yet, Henry did not answer.

He only muttered softly

'I'm sorry...

"Jane, I'm really sorry..."

This time.

Both Peter and Madelyn heard it.

Madelyn suddenly felt as if she had been hit by a bucket of cold water.

The hand holding Henry trembled.

Not again!

Why?

Madelyn could not figure it out no matter how hard she racked her brains.

What exactly happened between Henry and Jane?

Henry had still hated Jane so deeply yesterday.

Today it was as if he had been possessed!

As expected

Madelyn's premonition was not wrong

Jane was slowly chipping away at her advantage.

She had taken away the love and attention that originally belonged to Madelyn!

"Brother "

Somehow. Peter could understand Henry's feelings

Because the bitterness in his heart right now was no less than Henry's.

Why

Why does one only know how to treasure something after losing it?

Why....

Why does one have thoughts that the grass is greener on the other side, yet love bestowed is taken for granted?

Once they had obtained it, they would not know how to treasure it

Once someone was favored, the unfavored one would forever be wrong even when they breathed.

It's just that although Peter could understand Henry's feelings, he had no idea....

No idea what Henry and Jane had gone through.

If he had known, Peter could only say...

This was what they owed Jane.

This was all God's plan for them to repay their debts.

Jack walked in.

"Dad."

“Daddy”

Jack’s eyes were filled with nervous anticipation as he asked, “I heard you guys making a fuss just now... Has Henry woken up?”

Peter shook his head. “Big Brother hasn’t woken up yet. He had only sleepwalked... But Dad, don’t worry. The doctor already said that Big Brother would be fine. It could be that he was too tired recently and had been stimulated, so he needs to rest...”

Speaking of this, Peter made up his mind and opened his again. “Dad, actually, Big Brother just said...”

“Daddy, how’s it going on mommy’s end? Did she successfully see Janie?”

Madelyn interrupted Peter.

“Yes... but.... the outcome was within expectations.

“Jane would never talk to us nicely. At this point, we can only wait for Henry to wake up and ask him what happened” Everyone fell silent again.

Jane had finished her classes at the University of Dricle and followed Lila to the canteen.

Lila spoke once she saw Jane. “Janiel My family’s hotel is having a birthday celebration today to celebrate my mother’s birthday. Do you want to come and play? My parents have invited you.”

...Okay, then I have to choose a good gift for Auntie.”

Jane returned her smile.

Lila poked Jane’s cheek. “What’s wrong? Why are you smiling so unhappily? Didn’t you win the lawsuit? Could it be that the Fowler family had provoked you again recently? Hmph, if they really dared to provoke you, I won’t let them off!”

Lila bared her teeth like an angry kitten. Jane’s heart warmed as she rubbed Lila’s head. “They did not. If they dared to provoke me, I’ll make them lie on their backs and scam.”

It’s just that...

Jane could only tell Andy about what happened with Henry.

She could not tell Lilá

After completely falling out with Henry, Jane was in a better mood after a day.

But she felt empty...

Something seemed to be missing.

'What exactly is it?'

Jane felt as if she had lost her pillar of support in this life.

Other than staying away from the Fowler family, chasing away all the who voluntarily offered themselves up to get tortured, and protecting the people she cherished..

There must be something more important and worthwhile that Jane had to do instead of submerging herself in the vortex of hatred. However, she could only toss all these questions and anxiety to the back of her mind.

She would take it one step at a time and live happily.

As night fell.

Jane returned to Nightshade Bar to pick her car up and * to the celebration as promised.

She signed her name and gave her present.

Today was Mrs. Sutton's birthday celebration, so many people came.

It was the Sutton family's home ground.

Jane looked at the Sutton parents standing together lovingly on the stage, as well as Lila and her older brother, who was still in junior high.

Dressed in bright clothes, their faces were filled with smiles of joy. They gave speeches, thanked the guests, opened champagne, and cut the cake.

How heartwarming.

Jane's gaze softened quite a bit.

Although...

This was something Jane could never get... a family's warmth.

Fortunately, such pain did not appear for Lila.

Lila was a good child that deserved the limelight and happiness.

It was enough for Jane to experience such pain alone.

Jane took a glass of champagne as she did not feel like eating. She walked to the corridor outside the banquet hall. She had wanted to take a breather and look at the night scenery to wash away her frustration.

Yet.

She bumped into a figure.

"It's you! Jane Fowler!"

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 95

No Way Back Chapter 95-Lamy Shane wondered if he was down on his ***,

He had been avoiding Jane Fowler, this jinx since they were in school

How chaotic was the Fowler family now because of her?

It was not just the Fowler Corporation that had suffered a huge ****

Jack Fowler, Anna Fowler, Madelyn Fowler, Henry Fowler, Dwayne Fowler....

There was also Larry's bestfriend! Peter Fowler!

Everything had changed!

Jane only glanced at Larry coldly.

She was not in the mood to argue with such a nobody

She walked straight to the corridor

This time, Larry was unhappy.

"Hey, Jane Fowler, why are you acting like you don't know me? Are you feeling guilty?"

"You haven't told me why you're here!"

Larry knew that Jane was the God of Misfortune and that it was definitely not a good thing to be involved.

However, being ignored like this, he needed to preserve his dignity too, okay?

No matter what, he was still the young master of the Shane family. The most good-looking guy in the University of Oricle....

"This is the Sutton family's birthday celebration. Lila Sutton is my best friend Why should I not be here?

"Aren't you on good terms with the Fowler family? The Sutton and the Fowler family don't have the best relationship currently. Why is a person from the Shane family here?"

Jane did not look at Larry when she was saying this

She looked at the night scene outside the hotel and took a sip of champagne.

"Do you think I want to come? If it weren't for my brother....

"Forget it. This has nothing to do with you. I was too muddleheaded from the anger that I asked such a question."

"So you also know that you're , so Mr. Braindead, please scram. Don't be an eyesore here."

Larry almost spat out a of blood.

He finally understood how Peter felt when facing Jane Fowler.

This woman... it was like her was coated with arsenic

She had such a vicious tongue. Just a simple sentence from her could make one cough up blood from anger.

For the sake of his health, Larry could only suppress his explosive temper and turned around to leave.

In the end, he did not go far.

He watched as Jane stood in the corridor holding a glass of champagne and looking at the scenery in the distance.

The night breeze gently blew Jane's long hair as the moonlight shone down, mixing with the hotel's European-styled pale yellow light. This Jane Fowler... was quite good looking

From where Larry stood, he could only barely see Jane's profile

There was also an air of loneliness that silently exuded from Jane Fowler's back.

The evening gown that Jane was wearing did not look expensive.

It was as if... the black evening gown was a black swan dancing under the moonlight.

Larry could not help taking out his phone and sending a message to Peter

"Peter, I know you're taking care of your brother, but... I saw Jane Fowler"

After sending the message, he even took a photo of Jane's back and sent it to Peter,

Standing in the corridor, facing the starlight and neon lights.

Dressed in a black evening gown, Jane Fowler held a glass of champagne in one hand and raised her chin slightly

She revealed her fair legs and a pair of black high heels.

She exuded the aura of a queen who looked down upon everything.

Thirty seconds passed.

Peter finally replied.

Where are you?"

"Ahem, don't be angry. Isn't Mrs. Sutton celebrating her birthday? She held a birthday celebration. I didn't want to come at first, but my brother forced me. You know my brother's temper. If I disobey him, I'll  a  death."

Larry tried to explain.

At this moment.

Peter sent a video request Larry was slightly stunned

He pressed the video button.

Peter's face appeared on the phone screen.

"Larry, point the camera at Jane."

"Peter, could it be that you..."

"Please."

Larry thought he was hallucinating

They had known each other since they were children, yet this was the first time Larry heard Peter beg in such a pleading tone. Did the sun rise from the west?

OL...

Had Jane really changed Peter....

Larry silently aimed the phone screen at Jane

Just like that, Peter looked at Jane standing in the corridor through the video call as she exuded a cold and lonely aura

He could not help but lower his gaze as a trace of guilt flashed past his eyes.

The memories of Jane were filling up his mind again.

It was the first time Jane returned to the Fowler family.

She was nervous, timid, expectant, and hopeful

It also contained the moment when she first saw Peter as Anna introduced him as her brother

Jane's gaze was filled with admiration and expectancy

This time, it appeared remarkably clear in Peter's mind.

Peter thought that he had forgotten, but he surprisingly did not.

It was only when he realized what he had lost that he finally remembered...

It turned out that Jane did not just look at Peter with disgust and hatred.

Her gaze had once contained such warmth, admiration, and adoration

It was he who had personally ruined everything.

At this point, he was still shamelessly yearning for that Jane back then.

He imagined that everything could return to the past, to the day Peter and Jane first met.

If he could transmigrate back to the past, Peter would pay the price."

That way, the Fowler family would be happier and not... lifeless like it is now. Everyone felt guilty about Jane and was making changes due to matters related to her. It's good if they changed for the better. If they changed for the worse, it's fine too. The person who ruined the Fowler family's happiness and peace was not Jane Fowler. It was their own prejudice against Jane Fowler.

Jane finished her champagne.

Setting the glass aside, she took out her phone and started swiping the screen.

When her fingertips reached Hugh's profile picture, she paused.

Andy. She had chatted with Andy for too long and he had work to do, it was inconvenient for Jane to disturb him.

Lila. Many things could not be said to her, not to mention that she was attending Mother Sutton's birthday celebration.

After thinking about it, Jane took the initiative to send Hugh a message.

Jane [Are you there?]

She waited for five seconds.

Hugh [Yes]

Jane (Not busy?)

Hugh [I'm busy, but since you took the initiative to look for me, I'll always be free.]

After that, Hugh sent another message.

Hugh [Your matter is now more important than anything else in my heart. It's the absolute priority]

Jane [...Hugh, I'm a little confused right now. You're right, something really vexing did happen to me yesterday. My mood finally improved a little today, but I realized... my life shouldn't be like this.]

She wanted to escape from the Fowler family, but it was as if she was knee-deep in  , unable to extricate herself.

Revenge was satisfying, but Jane's purpose in life should not only be limited to that.

Jane had forgotten grand aspirations she had, something she should not have forgotten. It must be that she suffered too much from her family that she had no energy to care for the matter

Hugh [If you forgot what your heart wants, do you need me to remind you?]

He had added an emoji of him patting her head Boss finally changed his pack of smiling emojis.

Jane [I do.]

Jane was suddenly a little expectant.

What exactly would Hugh remind her?

Seeing how confident Hugh was, he seemed to know Jane very well.

Logically speaking, it was impossible for Hugh to know more about her than the surface level.

As the Darknet's number one hacker, Jane was very confident in her own skills.

Hugh (You once said that you wanted to use your own abilities to serve the country.)

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 96

No Way Back Chapter 96-Honestly, when Jane first saw this message from Hugh, she could not help but be stunned. There was an extremely strange feeling in the shadow at the bottom of Jane's heart.

A ray of light seemed to pierce through the dark , gradually illuminating her dusty heart.

[You said that having such an ability is a gift from the heavens. To serve the country is what your teacher expects from you. It's also what you think you should pay for this ability

You said that even if the world doesn't know of your existence, and even if you're a nameless hero, it's fine as long as you have a clear conscience

[You won't do anything that hurts innocent people, sells your bottom line for money, and damages the country's reputation.

(Is it right, Queen?)

[How did you know..]

Jane typed this message and suddenly felt very *****.

Then Jane deleted it.

It was reasonable.

Hugh knew Queen had Type Omega blood, and he also knew that Andy was the middleman for the Darknet.

Seeing Andy and Jane were on such good terms, Hugh could easily guess that Jane was Queen

After all, there were too few people with Type Omega blood.

At the time, the young and  Jane had first come to the Darknet and had made these statements in the name of the Queen, proclaiming her principles

It had been a long time.

It was so long that even Jane almost forgot these words.

Jane didn't expect that Hugh would still remember these words until now (I'm sorry, Janie. I thought you were Queen, I guessed it myself.

I know your involvement with the Fowler family. But I won't comment too much on it (Because bystanders will never know what the person involved has experienced and what her heart is like.

[I'll only give you a suitable shoulder to lean on when you want to

When you are frustrated, I'll listen to you quietly and stand by your side unwaveringly to support you.

[But Janie, I don't want you to live in hatred all the time. You're powerful enough. You once had such lofty and far-reaching ambitions. If you've forgotten, I hope these words will touch you and make you remember that you once still had a cath]

Jane watched as Hugh sent one message after another.

Gradually, Jane no longer felt inexplicably frustrated.

There was a warm smile on Jane's face.

[Thank you. Hugh. I know what I should do next...]

It was such a precious opportunity to be reborn and see the true colors of her family.

Not everyone had a chance to be reborn and make up for their regrets.

Jane should cherish it and pick up her former dream.

There were also the gone teacher's expectations for Jane.

It was not what Jane wanted at all, to be entangled in and sickened by the hatred she felt for the Fowler family.

After finding so many precious companions. It was time for Jane to find her original intention.

Hugh sent a message. You're welcome... If you want to repay me, you can treat me to a meal]

Jane replied with a smile. [Of course. We are already friends, aren't we?] Jane sent a lovely emoji at the end of the message.

When Hugh saw the message sent by Jane, he almost stopped breathing.

Hugh was overwhelmed with emotions, and for the first time in his life, his fingertips trembled in excitement.

Hugh took a few deep breaths before replying. [Yes. Thank you, Janie, for being willing to treat me as a friend...]

This was Hugh's careful consideration.

Hugh could not reply too slowly, but he had to reply with sincerity so that it would please Jane but not make himself seem frivolous

After sending the message, Hugh wore a smile.

Hugh now looked like a little boy about to fall in love.

Hugh was secretly cheering in his heart. Jane was finally praising him and treating him like a friend!

If someone familiar with Hugh saw his current expression and smile, they would definitely think that the end of the world had arrived

Otherwise, why would Hugh have such a terrifying expression?

At this moment, Life walked in.

Life spoke in a happy and respectful tone, 'Mr. Croft, the case worth billions of dollars has been signed. Everyone is talking about holding a party to celebrate. Do you want to go over?'

On the surface, Life was not only Hugh's bodyguard but also the all around secretary who was on a business trip with him.

Besides, Life could secretly help Hugh do anything, including cleaning up some scenes....

This time, Hugh had specially come to Wetanean on a business trip for this matter

The head of the Wetanean branch had been talking about it for a long time without coming to an agreement. However, with Hugh's arrival and his participation in the negotiations, the case was finally settled.

The moment Life entered, he saw Hugh's smiling face.

The first thought that occurred to Life was that he might have been mistaken, and he rubbed his eyes subconsciously

Holy *****!

Mr. Croft was really smiling!

Hugh put away his phone and said calmly, "I'll go"

"Okay... I'll tell them. Wait... What? Mr. Croft, are you going to participate in the party?"

"Are you deaf?"

Hugh coldly glanced at Life.

Life instantly felt as if he had fallen into an icehouse. Cold sweat broke out on his forehead as he lowered his head. "No... No! If they know that you are willing to attend the party, they will definitely be very happy. Mr. Croft!"

Life left the office quickly as if he was running for his life.

Life still could not calm his nervous heartbeat, and in his mind, the disbelief swirled

Hugh actually agreed to participate in the celebration party?

This was really a first!

In the past, no matter how big a case D.Y. Group signed or how much money they earned, Hugh had never attended a celebratory party.

In Life's memory, Hugh only went out a few times when Connor and Robert invited him to a party.

This was truly unprecedented. What exactly happened to make Hugh so happy?

Larry was still secretly snapping videos of Jane

"Hey, Peter, Jane seems to be chatting with someone and she looks quite happy leven feel she is not as cold as before..." "I know"

There was no need for Larry to report live

Peter could even feel it through the video, and his voice was filled with jealousy.

Larry was speechless and almost thought that he had sensed it wrongly

It must be wrong!

Why would Larry feel that Peter was jealous?

This world wouldnt collapse so completely, right?

"What are you doing?"

An angry voice suddenly sounded

Larry was shocked. He could hold his phone properly and it fell to the ground

There was a crackling sound, and the phone's screen went completely black.

! The 8848 Titanium Gold Mobile Phone he bought broke so easily? What a profiteer!

Larry turned around and saw Lila staring at him aggressively with her hands on her hips and her eyes wide.

"Were you secretly snapping videos of Janie just now? You  , Larry. To think that you're the senior of Janle and me and the second young master of the Shane family!"

"Hey, don't talk nonsense. I didn't secretly snap videos! I'm not crazy, okay? Why would I secretly snap videos of Jane?"

Larry directly denied it. He refused to admit it and warned Lila not to talk nonsense. At the same time, he stepped on the screen of the phone that he had bought for thousands of dollars and shattered it completely.

This way, the evidence would be gone.

“You!”

Lila rolled up her sleeves and was about to argue with Larry when Jane noticed the argument between Lila and Larry. Then Jane walked over “Lila, what’s wrong?”

Lila immediately told the truth and complained, “Jane, he’s a . He actually hid here and secretly snapped videos of you just now. It’s so *****!”

“Really?”

Jane raised an eyebrow and stared at Larry coldly.

“Hey, Lila, don’t talk nonsense. I didn’t secretly snap videos!”

“Whether it’s true or not, wait for me to call Andy and we will know it. Although I’m embarrassed to trouble Andy often, innocence is important after all.”

“Don’t!” At that, Larry panicked at once.

If the Shane family or Robert found out that Larry had secretly snapped videos of Jane and provoked Andy, the matter would blow up...

By that time, his legs would probably be broken by them!

Left with no choice, Larry sold Peter out directly.

“How dare Peter peek at Janie! He must be thinking of something despicable and shameless!”

Lila gritted her teeth in anger.

If Peter appeared in front of Lila, Lila would have punched him in the face without any hesitation and shattered him completely!

Larry thought to himself in his heart secretly, “I’m sorry, Peter. One person is better off getting punished than two. As the saying goes, the interests of the individual are always higher than the interests of the others.”

If this matter blew up, Larry couldn’t take it at all. He could even be beaten to death by his family!

However, Jane's reply surprised both Lila and Larry.

"Oh, I see," Jane replied in an extremely calm tone.

Lila and Larry looked at Jane in surprise at the same time.

Jane only replied with one sentence.

And there were no other words anymore.

"Lila, calm down. Everyone is watching. This is Mrs. Sutton's birthday party. Let's take care of everything about the birthday party first." "What? Okay..."

Lila was stunned by Jane's words.

Then, Jane stopped looking at Larry anymore and left with Lila directly.

Larry took a long time to come back to his senses and subconsciously heaved a sigh of relief.

"That's so strange. Jane actually didn't mock or ridicule me? What the hell is going on?... Why are their emotions/changing so unpredictably? It's so complicated. I don't understand..."

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 97

No Way Back Chapter 97-*Janie, are you really not angry?"

"Yes. Let him if he wants to peep at me. Anyway, I won't lose anything. I don't want to be angry due to anything related to the Fowler family anymore"

Jane really seemed to have become a different person and did not have the confusion and restlessness that Lila had seen from Jane in the morning. Lila was a little surprised and reached out to touch Jane's forehead.

"Okay, Lila. I'm really fine. Don't worry."

"I'm sorry, Janie. I really thought you had a fever... Anyway, it's good that you're fine. Now, you give me the feeling that you become freer and easier"

In an instant, Lila felt that Jane was much more magnanimous.

"I just found my original intention. It's time to crawl out of the mud of hatred. If I continue to be like this..."

If Jane continued to be like this, what was the point of her rebirth?

In that case, even if Jane had gone through something different from her previous life, the end result would still be the same.

“Lila, I remember that your dream is to open an e-sports club and become a boss and a player. Then, you will fight in the international regular season and bring glory to our country.”

At Jane’s sudden words, Lila nodded and said, “Yes, Janie, don’t laugh at me. I’m very, very serious!”

Jane scratched Lila’s hair as if she was punishing Lila “Why would I laugh at you? This is an amazing dream. Now it’s time for me to take the first step again.”

Lila was interested. “Janie, you haven’t told me your dream, I’ve never heard you mention it.”

“Janie, you’re being . I’m going to be angry...”

After Larry hung up, without realizing it, Peter left Cloveheart Hospital.

Peter the Porsche 911 to the Sutton family’s hotel.

Peter wanted to go in, but he didn’t have the courage.

So, Peter could only hide outside the hotel and stand in the alley opposite, taking a look from afar. Peter knew that his actions were ****,

If Jane saw this, he would probably be humiliated again.

But Peter wanted to do just that

In his heart, Peter had long since come to acknowledge that Jane was his own sister.

After realizing how important Jane was to him, Peter could only try to do something for her.

Even if Piet could only look at Jane from afar, he would be content.

The birthday party was over.

Everyone walked out of the hotel one after another, and among them, Jane was included.

Jane was not in a hurry to pick up her car.

Jane took out her phone and seemed to be calling someone.

There was an unceasing smile on Jane's face.

It was Jane's smile at Peter which Peter had seen so many times before.

However, now, it was a smile that could no longer belong to Peter.

Such a smile would only appear in front of others

At the thought of this, Peter's heart felt like it was being grabbed by a pair of invisible hands.

Jealousy, anger, self-loathing, and all kinds of negative emotions pressed down on Peter like a mountain.

Without realizing it, Peter followed Jane.

Jane was on the phone with Andy

"Janie, why are you calling me at this time? Aren't you going to Mrs. Sutton's birthday party?"

"The party is over. Andy, I have something to trouble you... Could you help me find some programming jobs that Crucsia cant solve?"

After thinking it through, Jane decided to start it by doing what she was best at

An underground scientific research organization in Crucsia had once looked for Andy and issued some unknown missions through the Darknet. Most of these missions were closely related to the future of Crucsia.

After all, there were many talented people on the Darknet, which could greatly alleviate the urgency of these problems

Of course, there were both good people and bad people on the Darknet.

The person behind the scenes could only use Andy as a middleman to release some basic but tough work. Only those who have the willpower could finish these missions

These missions often required a lot of programming calculations, and the remuneration was not much. So, many people turned a blind eye to 4.

In the past, Jane would take on some of these missions when she was free through the middleman, Andy. So, Jane had a good relationship with the organization in Crucia

However, in order to find her family, Jane gave up a lot, and she even forgot her original intention

Anna brought Jane to do a DNA test and confirmed that Jane was a child of the Fowler family. After that, these things happened...

Now, Jane wanted to find her original intention

“Why did you suddenly want to do these things?”

“Andy, do you remember what you said when we first met? When you saw my profile, you said I was hopelessly naive”

“Oh?” Andy smiled.

“Of course, I remember. You were a hacker on the Darknet, but you boasted about not endangering national security, not standing against the people, not harming the innocent, and not serving the powerful....

“At that time, I couldn’t help but laugh. How could such a hopelessly naive person appear on the Darknet? With these restrictions, how can you get a job?”

However, Andy was still connected to Jane.

And now, they had become best friends.

Andy was once an exquisite egoist, and he could not understand Jane’s thoughts at all.

Andy even thought that Jane was a *. Was Jane saying all this on the Darknet for putting on an air?

However, because Jane’s ability was powerful, Andy took the initiative to look for Jane and ask for cooperation This was how society was

No one would want to understand a person’s character first.

Probably, back then, no one would have thought that Andy and Jane would have such a good relationship today.

At that time, Andy’s thoughts were indeed that simple.

Education, looks, and ability were nothing

As long as a person was strong enough, he would naturally shine brightly, attracting those who yearned for light to gather around him

If he were a weak ant, who would care about his feelings and past?

It was fine to be ignored, but there were countless people who wanted to trample him to death.

“The situation is quite tense now. The scientific research organization you helped in the past has also become very careful now. However, with your ability and previous friendship with them, they won’t refuse if you contact them,

“Think carefully. Janie. This job is tiring. Even if it’s just a matter of spending more time for you, there’s no rich reward.”

“I’ve thought it through, Andy. I want to find Jane who was sincere and radiant in the past. That’s my true self. That’s how my teacher wanted me to live. He taught me so many skills and always wanted me to uphold my original intention.”

Jane thought of her teacher’s unsmiling face and the occasional warm scenes during her strict training

Jane felt sorry for her teacher. If her teacher saw the current Jane in heaven, he would definitely be very angry, right?

Previously, Jane had always lost herself and lived in a swamp of hatred. She had almost forgotten her teacher’s teachings.

Now, Jane has found her original intention and her teacher didn’t need to worry about her anymore. For the rest of her life, Jane would never be lost again and disappoint her teacher!

“Okay, since you said so, I’ll try to contact them in your name... But Janie, there’s a special piece of information. Do you want to hear it?” “What?”

“There’s a forum someone built. Its members are all from Crucsia, and they are all your fans. I’ve investigated and found that the four members are all on the Darknet hacker rankings, but their rankings are not high

“These four people often engage in activities to counterattack those hacker organizations that hacked into Crucsia’s firewall and caused disputes. They seem quite patriotic. If you take the initiative to contact them, the four of them will definitely be overjoyed”

Jane was interested.

“Andy, please give me their information. I’ll personally investigate them before deciding whether I will contact them.”

“Alright, I’ll send it to you on WeChat.”

After that, Jane hung up.

Jane stretched lazily and felt an inexplicable sense of fulfillment in her heart.

Was this how it felt to find a person’s original intention and goal?

Jane almost forgot such kind of feeling.

Fortunately, Hugh’s words reminded Jane today and she picked her original intention up again

At this moment, Jane acutely felt someone staring at her from behind.

Jane stopped in her tracks.

“Come out. What’s the point of hiding?”

Jane knew that person must have heard her.

Should he come out or escape?

The person following Jane hesitated for a moment.

In the end, he still walked out and did not run away

Peter knew that Jane must have discovered him.

If Peter escaped now, Jane would look down on him even more.

Jane had already looked down upon Peter for a long, and he was too ashamed to show himself in front of Jane.

As a brother, Peter now didn’t want to give Jane any worse impression.

“Why are you following me?”

Seeing that it was Peter, Jane narrowed her eyes, emitting a dangerous aura.

“Don’t tell me that you heard from Anna that I humiliated her today and rushed over to take revenge on me?”

Hearing Jane’s words, Peter panicked and hurriedly explained.

“No! Don’t misunderstand, Jane. I’m just here to look for Larry and happened to see you...

“You’re a girl. I’m a little worried about you walking alone at night, so I thought to walk you home.”

“You are worried about me?”

Jane looked at Peter as if he was a monster.

For Jane, to hear Peter say he was worried about her was even more incredible than hearing the sun would come up in the west the next day What were the Fowlers trying to do?

Were they playing hard to get?

Did they think that if they cared a little about Jane, she would be moved?

It was so *****!

Meeting Jane’s gaze, Peter felt very sad and guilty.

However, Peter was powerless to refute it.

It was normal for Jane to doubt Peter’s intentions.

Because Peter had already lost the qualifications to be Jane’s older brother and protect Jane

“I’m serious, Jane. It’s not fake.”

Peter could only repeat himself with eyes full of good faith.

“Put away your , Peter. I’m in a good mood now and don’t want to have anything to do with you, the Fowlers.

*Since you’re looking for Larry, call Larry and go to him. Don’t follow me!

With that, Jane turned around and left.

Jane felt that Peter must be crazy

The current Peter must be a ****.

Jane couldn't be bothered to continue arguing with the crazy Peter, to avoid ruining her good mood.

Peter became nervous, and he subconsciously chased after Jane.

It was not enough for Peter to just stop Jane

Peter still wanted to talk to Jane, even though he knew very well that Jane did not want to see or talk to Peter at all.

In Peter's mind, it didn't matter if someone called him shameless.

This was also the only way Peter could think of to get close to Jane, even if it was so ****,

Jane's eyes suddenly turned cold. "You had better not block the way, Peter. If you want to die, I can fulfill your wish. Even Dwayne isn't my match. What right do you think you have to stand in my way? I don't mind sending you to accompany Dwayne!"

It would seem that if Jane didn't lose her temper, Peter would really think that she had a good temper

Though Jane was in a good mood and didn't want to fight, that couldn't become the reason for Peter to do whatever he wanted!

"Jane, I still have something to ask you.

"When Henry was unconscious, he kept saying, Master, I'm sorry for what I did to you."

"What happened between you and Henry?"

Peter really shouldn't have brought this matter up

At the mention of the name, Henry, Jane's anger rose.

"When Henry wakes up, can't you ask him yourself? Get lost!"

Jane..."

The moment Peter wanted to say something, with a bang, Jane raised her leg and kicked

Peter had no time to react before he was kicked hard in the stomach by Jane.

In an instant, pain surged through Peter's entire body.

Peter clutched his stomach and squatted on the ground with a pained expression,

Peter's forehead was covered in a cold sweat, and he no longer had the strength to stop Jane

"Trash" With that, Jane walked past Peter and left without hesitation.

Read Novel No Way Back Chapter 98

No Way Back Chapter 98-At that moment, Peter only felt that he lost all dignity as a man and an elder brother. Peter could not see or react to Jane's kick at all.

Just in terms of martial strength, Peter was completely defeated!

Jane walked away

Only then did the pain in Peter's abdomen lessen a little.

Peter stood up unsteadily

It was as if Peter had used up all his strength, and his entire body was drenched. Peter could not help but laugh, and his laughter was filled with self mockery. Peter actually claimed that he wanted to protect Jane just now?

Peter mocked himself in his heart. "Peter, did you not feel embarrassed enough? You can't even withstand a kick from Jane and are beaten into such a sorry state. With such a bad ability, who else can you protect? In Jane's eyes, you are probably like a clown who does not know what your limit is!"

Peter originally thought that he was lowly enough in front of Jane.

Unexpectedly, because of Peter's , he could be even more lowly.

Even Peter felt hopeless for himself.

"Trash, Peter, how can you be so useless!

*Jane isn't wrong at all. The one who's truly and conceited is me!"

As Peter spoke, he punched the ground hard.

He could feel his bones vibrating, and intense pain flowed through his entire body from his fist

It didn't matter.

Everything did not matter anymore.

Now, the pain in Peter's body was nothing.

It was far inferior to Peter's heartache!

Jane did not care about the little episode of Peter following her secretly

After returning to the apartment, Jane turned on her computer.

According to the information given by Andy, Jane investigated these four hackers from Cruksia who were also on the Darknet in detail.

It was Jane who had been careless enough not to notice that H.F. was Henry.

This time, such kind of thing would not happen again.

Jane had to investigate the four people's information before she could interact with them in peace

With Jane's strength, it was not difficult to investigate the four people who left their IDs online.

After Jane confirmed that they were not bad people, the first test was considered passable.

Jane took the initiative to hack into their forum.

There were only four people in the forum.

Jane posted a message. (Hello, I'm Queen.

I have something to discuss with you. If you agree, please reply to me under the post.

[Then, I'll be in touch with one of you.]

On the other side, Marlon Croft was eating a hamburger and happily watching Historic Era.

"In this life, I have no regrets about being one of Cruksia's people. In the next life, I'm willing to be born in Cruksia again," the characters in the TV series shouted.

"Today's life is hard to come by. It's all thanks to these seniors and heroes!"

Marlon ate the hamburger as tears fell.

"Oh, no! My contact lenses are smudged... I have to wash up quickly."

At this moment, Marlon found a new post on the forum he built.

"Huh? Why is there a post? Did someone else post it?"

The four of them had the contact information of each other.

In fact, they had not interacted on this forum for a long time. Moreover, the IP address of the forum was invisible.

It was impossible for an outsider to post without Marlon's permission. However, a new post appeared today, and it piqued Marlon's curiosity. Marlon put the hamburger aside and clicked on the post with a mouse. When Marlon saw the content of the post, he could not help but hold his breath.

What?

It was Queen?

It was the legendary Queen!

Oh my god!

Marlon was so excited that his hand trembled and he almost threw the hamburger in his hand out.

At this moment, Marlon had no time to care about any other things.

This feeling was like a veteran fan suddenly receiving a call from his idol whom he had admired for many years.

Besides, his idol even took the initiative to say that she hoped to contact him!

Marlon's heart was beating so fast. He had to calm himself down first.

Marlon clutched his chest, closed his eyes, and took a few deep breaths.

Only then did Marlon calm down his nervous and excited heartbeat.

Then, Marlon quickly replied to a lot of messages under the post: "Me! I'm here! Please look at me."]

Even the entire table was shaking crazily

It was as if the table was about to be torn down,

It wasn't until there was a forum notification to warn him not to send too much information that Marion stopped

Such a good opportunity to talk with his idol could not be taken by others!

This was a chance to chat with Queen through a call!

Just as Marlon was refreshing the forum page with a pious and excited heart, his phone rang

It was an unknown phone number.

Marlon's heart was pounding as he answered the call with trembling fingers

"Hello? Is this Queen?"

"Yes, that's me," Jane said calmly.

Marlon was so excited that he was on the verge of tears.

His idol's voice was too nice!

Queen was really a girl!

Marlon could tell by her cold voice alone that Queen was a transcendent person!

Queen must be a super beautiful woman!

Is this Marlon Croft?"

"Yes... Queen, may I ask what I can do for you..."

Marlon's emotions were in a mess, and he was almost speechless.

Marlon could only bite his lips tightly and use the pain to regain his rationality.

Marlon definitely could not embarrass himself in front of his idol.

"Do you have an account logged into the Darknet?"

"What? Oh, I'll log in now!"

Marlon quickly logged in on the Darknet and threw the unfinished hamburger into the trash can at the same time

Anything could not interfere with Marlon's glorious meeting with his idol.

After Marion logged into account the Darknet, he looked at his screen name, Conqueror

"Queen, I've logged into account the Darknet"

Before Marion could finish speaking, he saw Queen's friend request

Hiss!

Marion could not help but gasp!

She was not a *****!

It was really Queen's friend request.

Marion instinctively pressed the pass button.

"I did it to make you believe me and confirm I am really Queen

"I'll apologize to you first. I've investigated the four of you and think that you are trustworthy people.

"You've been fighting against the foreign hackers who are trying to confuse and attack the domestic firewall to steal information, right?" "Yes.... The four of us gathered together out of interest. Coincidentally, we all have talent in this area. So, we are bound to do our best to fight back when we encounter such a thing.

"However, our strength isn't very good. Although we've stopped several hackers, it's still too difficult for the four of us to deal with those stronger and more orderly hacker forces

Marlon rubbed the back of his head in embarrassment.

Marlon almost wanted to find a ato hide in when he said this.

After all, it was too embarrassing to say such things in front of his idol.

"It doesn't matter how many people there are. The key lies in whether the people are excellent or not. Moreover, they have to have a strong execution ability and a burning heart.

"If there are too many people, there will be difficult to tell who's a friend and who's enemy. It will be troublesome if anything is exposed. "Since you can be on the Darknet hacker rankings, it means that the four of you are very talented.

"I plan to recruit the four of you, and I will do my best to teach you hacker knowledge in your daily lives. As for how much you can learn, it will depend on your luck. What do you think?"

"What?"

No Way Back Chapter 99-Marlon did not understand what Jane meant for a moment Jane repeated patiently

Only then did Marlon react, and he couldn't help but exclaim excitedly. "Queen, are you taking us in as your disciples?"

"I am sorry. For some personal reasons, I won't take in any more disciples in my life

"However, I prefer to call our relationship partners who fight side by side. We're all from Cruscia. No matter what our motive is, we don't want our country to be harmed, right?"

"Queen, you are also..."

Marlon was instantly filled with respect.

Besides, Marlon felt that he was too blissful

It was so amazing.

Marion and his idol shared the same goal to guard their country!

Just being contacted and acknowledged by Queen as a talented hacker was already the most praiseworthy medal in Marlon's life.

Even Queen's goal was the same as theirs. In order to make Cruscia better, they all wanted to contribute their insignificant strength!

With Queen leading their four-man team, their originally blurry and dark future instantly became bright!

"Tell the other three the details first, and then call me on this number"

"Okay!"

It was not until the call ended that Marlon could still not believe it.....

Queen really wanted to recruit the four of them!

Queen was going to join their team!

“Thats great!”

After Jane contacted Marlon, she looked at the information of the four people she had investigated again, “Marion Croft, Shaun Luther, Marquise Shane, and Liliana Fowler...

Jane could not help but rub her temples.

What kind of ill-fated relationship was this?

The four people happened to be in Stormton City, just like Jane

And they were from the Croft family, the Luther family, and the Shane family....

The most important was that one of them was actually a relative of the Fowler family.

Liliana was the daughter of Jack’s biological younger brother, Craig Fowler.

Jane did not have any impression of Craig.

Because Craig had moved abroad in his early years.

Even if Jack and Anna went overseas to visit Craig, it was impossible for them to bring Jane along.

Jane had only seen a photo of Craig and Jack.

Other than that, Jane knew nothing about Craig.

As for Craig’s youngest daughter, Liliana, she had returned to Stormton City to work.

Lillana had never been to Jack’s house either.

Jane remembered that Jack had invited Liliana before.

However, Liliana only said that she was too busy with work and declined.

In Liliana’s words, they had been apart for too long, and they were too estranged and unfamiliar.

Liliana didn’t like to talk to strangers, even if they were related by blood.

It was too awkward

People with special talents always had strange habits that others could not understand.

Most people like this didn't like to be in contact with strangers,

Jane only hated her biological family, biological parents, and brothers,

Jane would not dislike her cousin, Liliana, whom she had never seen before.

Furthermore, according to her previous investigation, this four-man team was currently the team candidate that Jane needed the most.

It was simply like a blessing from heaven for Jane

Andy called at this moment.

"Janie, how do you feel about that team?"

"The intel from the investigation is not bad. All of them are ambitious young men with excellent skills. Besides, their families are quite powerful. However..."

Jane revealed the true identities of these four people.

allie, ever since I met you, I believe in fate more and more.

Even Andy could not help but surprise.

Andy once was an atheist.

Even others said that Andy was like a vampire.

Relying on mysterious words and a charming face, Andy lured countless people.

However, after meeting Jane, Andy believed that Jane must h

Otherwise, there was no way to explain the strange matters that happened to Jane

"I hope it's not an ill-fated relationship." Jane smiled bitterly one after another.

After the Fowler family's incidents and the revelation of Hary's true identity, Jane felt that she could no longer encounter anything worse.

"By the way, I've contacted that research organization. They're very happy to hear that you're willing to help.

"The person in charge said that if possible, he would like to meet you in private and discuss more details. Of course, this requires your approval. "It seems that your outstanding performance in helping them previously has left a very deep impression."

"There is not in hurry. I'll have to think about it."

Jane had to be careful when interacting with such a mysterious force, even though Jane knew that this was a scientific research organization from Cruksia and it was impossible for them to hurt her.

"Oh, right, Janie. When I was chatting with the people from the research organization, I found a very interesting piece of news....

"Their organization recently sent a genius over to help. He's in his thirties and has a terrifying 10 of 260. He's focused on scientific research and doesn't have any unnecessary feelings

"The key is that his name is very similar to what you mentioned before...

"His name is Yale Mitchell."

When Jane heard the name, her heart skipped a beat.

This was the name Jane's teacher had mentioned before

"Do you know the man's background?"

"The people who contacted me don't have the authority to know the identity of someone of such a high level, However, as soon as the man parachuted in, he directly took over the entire scientific research organization. After that, many projects that were stopped due to technical difficulties and patent problems have progressed rapidly....

“He’s a very terrifying genius. However, there are so many people in this world, and it’s normal for there to be a few top geniuses. Janie, how is it? Do you become interested now?”

*Help me contact the person in charge, Andy. I want to enter this organization as soon as possible!”

Jane could no longer control the excitement in her voice.

“I guessed your answer. I’ve already contacted them. You just need to wait for the person in charge to arrange a time to come to Stormton City.” “Thank you, Andy. You’ve helped me a lot...”

“Janie, I will be angry if you continue speaking something like this. What kind of friendship do we have? You don’t need to thank me at all, okay?” After hanging up, Jane took her phone and walked to the windowsill

Jane could not help but grip her phone tightly, like a person who was about to surface and grab her only life-saving straw.

Could it be the person her teacher mentioned?

Jane knew very little about her teacher, although her teacher gave Jane a family, taught Jane countless skills, and stimulated the talent of Jane’s Omega blood.

Most of the time, when Jane was bullied, it was her teacher who protected Jane. It was Jane’s first time experiencing the feeling of having a real family.

However, her teacher had never told Jane about his real name. Jane only knew that her teacher’s surname was Mitchell.

As for the name, Yale Mitchell, Jane had heard of it by chance. Once, when Jane heard her teacher whisper the name, she remembered it.

After Jane learned something and had enough skills, her teacher suddenly disappeared as if he had never appeared in this world.

Jane had gone through a lot of trouble to find the few people whom she followed her teacher to meet before, and they all said that something might have happened to the teacher.

Until now, Jane had not seen her teacher’s corpse or him alive.

Jane’s teacher never contacted Jane again, and just like that, he disappeared from the world of Jane.

Jane entered the Darknet firstly to hone her skills and earn money. Secondly, Jane naturally hoped to find traces of her teacher through the huge underground intelligence network.

However, in the end, Jane found nothing.

The name, Yale Mitchell, was the only message Jane's teacher left for her

Jane did not forget to find this person as she searched for her family.

Jane looked for the person herself on one hand and asked Andy to help her on the other hand.

After finding several possible candidates, no matter where they were in the world, Jane rushed over immediately.

However, they were not the Yale mentioned by Jane's teacher after all.

And now, with great difficulty, Andy had found another person with the name.

If only Jane could find information about her teacher because of this small clue.

No matter how slim the hope was, Jane had to give it a try!

The next day, Jane had no classes, so she slept in

No Way Back Chapter 100-As soon as Jane just washed up and made an omelet sandwich, she received a message from the Darknet. Conqueror sent a message. [Queen, we're ready here.]

When Jane saw the message, she called Marlon.

The call was picked up instantly.

"Queen!"

"Get in the forum and build a new chat group. We will talk there."

Jane was in no hurry to give her contact information to Marlon

According to the investigation, there was nothing wrong with the four of them.

They were even members of the families that Jane was familiar with.

But it was better to be safe than sorry.

This was a habit that Jane had cultivated for many years in the Darknet. "Okay!"

Jane quickly finished her sandwich and went to the computer.

Jane skillfully logged into the forum built by Marlon and entered the chat group. Marlon sent a message. (Queen is here. Everyone, give her a round of applause!

Shaun was excited. [Is it really Queen herself? Gosh! I'm your big fan!]

Liliana replied at once. [Me too!]

Marquise followed. [And me!]

Queen hesitated a little and texted. [Don't you change your names?]

Marlon replied. [Queen, with your ability, it's easy to find out about who we are. Besides, the four of us know each other in the real world. So, there's no need to hide the names]

Queen nodded. [Okay, I was overthinking]

After texting that, Jane changed her name to Jane Fowler.

Since Jane wanted to lead a new team and make the members willing to follow her, she had to be as honest with them as they were. Everyone revealed their real identity.

If only Jane hid her identity and continued to use the code name. Queen, it would naturally make the other four people feel that they were not trustworthy.

Marlon was shocked. Is that Queen's real name?]

Shaun was lost in his thought [Why does this name look so familiar? Where have I seen it before?]

Liliana sent a message at this time. [Queen has the same surname as me. Jane Fowler? I remember that my uncle has a missing daughter with this name.]

Marquise surprised. [Really?]

[Alright, time is tight. Let's not talk about my personal matters for now. In private, you can just call me Queen. I like this nickname.

[I checked your ranks on the Darknet hacker rankings and the cases you solved. I can roughly guess your standards.

[I've come up with a plan to help you improve your hacker skills. As for how much you can improve, it will depend on your talent] Jane uploaded the compressed files to the chat group.

Marlon was excited. [Oh my god! These are Queen's years of experience!]

Shaun worshipped Jane so much. [Idol, can we have a private chat? I really want to be friends with you

Liliana rolled her eyes. [Shaun, stop drooling, I can already imagine how you look.]

Shaun was a little unhappy. [Liliana, are we still comrades on the same side? How can you embarrass me in front of my idol?]

Marquise sent a message at this time. [Liliana, well done.]

When Jane looked at the happy scene of the four of them chatting, her gaze softened.

When the aspiring and ambitious young men gathered together, there was a fire, and when they separated, there was a sky full of stars. Hopefully, they wouldn't disappoint Jane.

Marlon added. [By the way, Queen, give our team a name. You're the team leader now!]

Shaun agreed. [Our team doesn't have a name yet.]

Marquise followed. [Yes]

Liliana nodded. I think so.]

The team's name?

Jane thought for a and texted. [Let's call it the Red Star, okay? May we all uphold today's original intention and become the brightest flaming star in the sky!]

Marlon was happy [Red Star Team? That's a good name! It suits my patriotism!]

Shaun praised Jane [The team's name Queen came up with is so nice, unlike the team's name that Marion once gave it. Back then, he named our team the Cockroaches Team. I almost beat him to death. How dare he treat us like cockroaches!

Liliana nodded in agreement. [it can't be helped. After all, Marlon is the worst at naming]

Marlon was embarrassed. [Now that these things are over, let's not talk about it. Don't embarrass me in front of my idol]

At this , Jane received another message.

It was Mr. Lance from the Painting Department.

[Jane, is it convenient to answer the phone?]

Jane took the initiative to call Mr. Lance.

The call went through quickly

"Jane, we have your painting for so long. It's really too amazing!

"We want to recommend this painting of yours to participate in the university painting professional competition organized by Crucsia. If you can stand out, you can even rush to the world and bring glory to the country! Maybe you can even win a gold medal!"

"Mr. Lance, are you sure?"

*What's wrong, Jane? Is there something difficult to say? This painting is really magical, it's too good. We all think that you can definitely get first place!"

Lance instantly panicked and said a great deal to persuade Jane.

Lance was afraid that Jane would feel unconfident and miss this good opportunity.

If such a good genius could not go to the world and be known by the world, it would really be a loss to the country!

"Ahem, Mr. Lance, you've misunderstood... I mean I'll polish up this painting. After all, it will be used for the competition to win glory for our country. I can't just take a casual painting to the competition. It won't be good if I lose due to this casual painting."

Jane was not joking

This painting was really drawn by Jane with green tea as the theme casually

But even without much effort, Jane could crush Madelyn, a person of outward attraction but little worth, so easily www

Since Jane was going to participate in the competition and bring glory to the country, it would be better to use a better painting to win the other contestants directly.

Lance couldn't help but gasp and could not believe what he had just heard,

Oh my God!

Such an excellent painting was just drawn by Jane casually?

And a group of experienced artists like them could never draw such a painting as Jane's in their lives.

However, the time it took for Jane to draw this painting was even faster than Madelyn.

Maybe, it was really a casual drawing for Jane

At this , Lance instantly understood how unfathomable and terrifying Jane's talent was

Not to mention the future, even with her current talent, Jane could become a shining star in the history of world painting.

"Okay! Of course! Where are you now? I'll send the painting over."

"No need, Mr. Lance. I'll draw another new one. It won't take much time. I'll hand it to you tomorrow. Then you can take it to the competition." "Alright, it's a deal!"

After hanging up, Jane glanced at the chat group where the four of them were still chatting.

There was a smile on Jane's face.

In the future, it seemed that Jane had a lot of things to do.

That was great

There was an inexplicable sense of fulfillment in Jane's heart.

There was no need for Jane to dwell on the hatred of her previous life.

Jane had found herself, her original intention, and the Jane who had never disappointed her teacher! Night fell.

At Cloveheart Hospital, Henry slowly woke up.

Anna happened to get in to look after Henry. Seeing that Henry had woken up, she was pleasantly surprised. "Henry, you're awake?" "..."

Foss blinked

"What's wrong with me? I feel weak all over....

"Where is this place?"

"This is a hospital, boy

Anna told Henry what had happened concisely.

After Henry finished listening, his chaotic brain seemed to be corroded by darkness and forcefully torn apart.

It was so painful that Henry's heart was about to split open.

Even the machine that was investigating Henry's heartbeat beside him made a warn no sound.

"Henry?"

", I'm fine..."

Henry lowered his eyes to hide his pain and closed them.

Soon, the machine returned to normal.

"boy, you don't look fine at all. I'll call the others over quickly and call the doctor."

Anna quickly pressed the button.

When the doctor was checking on Henry, Jack and the others rushed over after receiving the news.

After the doctor finished his check, he said, "Mr. Fowler is fine. He just woke up and he is a little weak. He has to recuperate and can't be tired for the time being. When you go back, let him eat a bland and rest well. Don't stay up late..."

"Thank you, Doctor."

After the doctor left, Jack and Anna asked about Henry's well-being.

They wanted to quickly get some chicken soup for Henry to feed.

Then only Madelyn and Peter were left.

Madelyn wiped her tears, and her eyes were red as she sobbed, "Henry, it's really great you're fine. I was almost scared to death..."

"I'm sorry to have made you worry."

Henry's response was weak.

Peter patted Madelyn's shoulder. "Alright, . Henry has just woken up. We should let him rest alone. Let's go out first." "Okay, Peter..."

Madelyn cried and left with Peter.

In the spacious and comfortable ward, only Henry was left.

Henry closed his eyes, but the figure of Jane subconsciously appeared in his mind

Henry thought of the rain that night, as well as Jane who was staring at him like Satan with cold and heartless eyes.

Jane curled her red lips and said the words that made Henry fall into ****.

"You. Should. ***."

Henry suddenly woke up and broke out in cold sweat again.

Henry gritted his teeth and struggled, fumbling for something in the drawer beside him.

Sure enough, Henry's phone was here.

Henry deftly unlocked the password lock, ignoring all unread messages and missed calls, and logged in to the Darknet.

The only way for Henry to come into contact with Jane now was the Darknet...

Even though Jane hated Henry to the core and had already deleted all Henry's contact details, Henry was sure that Jane would not delete her account, Queen, on the Darknet.

Henry ignored all the mocking private messages and opened Queens information with a pious and nervous heart.

However, when Henry wanted to access Queen's public home page and saw if there had been anything new about Jane during the days when Henry was unconscious, Henry saw a notification.
