

Noble Wife 521

Chapter 521 The Lightness of Life

Qu Mingcheng's good friend Xu Zhian worked quickly, and within two days, he had gotten things done!

The person invited was the Jing'an Realist from the lower courtyard of Qing Yun Guan.

The so-called lower view of the Qing Yun Guan, not many people know in the capital, the reason why so no reputation, mainly because it is just so, in fact, this lower view of the Qing Yun Guan and the Qing Yun Guan is not very close to the Qing Yun Guan, and there is not much to come and go on weekdays.

Can hang the name of this lower kwan, or the front of the Qingyun kwan master, occasionally passing by to see this small Taoist temple is almost about to open the door, pity them, only to allow them to have such a name, at first it will be from time to time to take care of a little bit, to send some things over.

After the previous Qing Yun Guan Master passed away, the current Qing Yun Guan Master's attitude was completely different from the previous Qing Yun Guan Master.

Ignore this so-called House of Commons, and unless it is begging at the door, treat it as if it is not so.

Luo heard from Qu Mingcheng's mouth naturally are good, Qingyun Guan lower courtyard thing is indeed the truth, now also can not invite Qingyun Guan Qinghe real person, can invite this lower courtyard Jing'an real person is also good, daughter's body can not afford to delay, but there is a point Luo is still very insistent, it must be in the Qingyun Guan, she does not go to that lower courtyard.

After discussing this matter with Qu Mingcheng and the other party, he also agreed to come down and agreed to meet inside Qing Yun Guan for divination.

The place of meeting was a modest Sanqing Hall, the location is more remote, but no one disturbed, a few small Taoist nuns sent incense and candles and then retreated.

Luo's only then looked at the opposite side of this Jing'an real person, is a forty, fifty years old middle-aged female crown, looking at the posture is not bad, raised his head and smiled between the very few points out of the orchid.

When the little Taoist nun entered the door just now, she was also very respectful, it looks like this Qing Yun Guan Lower House claim is true, otherwise how could the female Taoist priests from other Taoist temples come to Qing Yun Guan to be the master!

Thinking this way, Luo was slightly relieved, she trusted the female Taoist nun from Qing Yun Guan more than she did, the reputation of the Qing Yun Guan master was too strong, and she came here because of this reputation.

"Makoto, this is my daughter's eight characters, please help me do a calculation." Luo took out Qu Xuexin's eight characters from her bosom and handed it over.

The Jing'an Realist took it and smiled faintly, "Please wait a moment!"

Luo nodded her head and nervously watched as this Jing'an Realist closed her eyes and stretched out one of her hands, the tips of her thumbs coming back together and pinching and pressing down a little bit at her middle finger, her mouth chanting the words.

Suddenly the net Ann real frowned, seems to be what is difficult, thumb fingers pressed in the palm to live, a motionless, Luo's whole heart is raised, can not help but want to speak, but afraid of disturbing the net Ann young man, hastily reached out to cover the heel, eyes immediately red.

Finally the Netanjin's hand moved a few more times, then relaxed and opened his eyes.

"My daughter's eight characters, how is it?" Luo asked excitedly.

"This young lady is actually destined to be okay, as long as after going to a layer of great difficulties, in the future it will be the life of great wealth, more wealthy and peaceful than the average person." Jing An Zhen Zhen said, just the face did not have half a smile, can see that this words to appease the main, "But ..."

The next sentence really turned, only when he said it, he looked at Luo again, a little hesitant, seemingly because what he was about to say didn't sound too good, and purposely stopped.

"Makoto, please speak!" Luo grew more and more eager.

"Mrs. Luo, your young lady was fine before, but it was the recent accident, did you find out when your young lady was different from the past, or that something major happened in the house, some important person came, which made your young lady change greatly from before?"

The Pure Anjinshi pondered for a moment and said.

When Luo came over, she just said that her surname was Mrs. Luo, and she didn't mention her own family, she didn't want others to know about her own daughter.

Who's daughter would want to be known when something like this happens to her!

A girl's family wants to marry well and live a good life in the future!

"Something significant, someone important?" Luo muttered, unable to find the reason for it for a moment, her mind in turmoil.

The beloved granny standing behind her reacted quickly, her eyes lit up when she heard this, she took two steps forward and whispered two sentences in Luo's ear, Luo was reminded and hurriedly said, "There ... is something important, there's a fire in the mansion, and the fourth maiden is back!"

These two things happened at about the same time then.

"It's on fire, did anyone die?" Jingan Zhenren continued to ask.

"No one died, no one was injured, luckily it was discovered early!" Luo shook her head repeatedly.

"Ma'am, someone's in trouble, that maid beside the third young miss' whole family was put up for sale!" The granny whispered again to remind Luo.

"Yes, yes, something happened, a maiden's whole family was sold!" Luo's voice said, "Luckily the fourth maid was fine, otherwise it would have been a big deal!"

"Third Miss's maid had an accident, Fourth Miss almost had another accident, Fourth Miss only returned to the house, and then almost had a big accident?" Jing An Zhenran closed her eyes again and did the math.

For a good half a second, she opened her eyes.

"Well?" Luo eagerly said, if there were still a few doubts before, seeing the demeanor of this Jing'an real person in front of her, her doubts were allayed.

"I'm afraid this matter has something to do with both Third Miss and Fourth Miss?" Jing'an Zhenran said.

"How ... what's going on?" Luo's eyes reddened with anxiety, her hand pinched her hand tightly on her handkerchief with force, although she had guessed it early on, this moment when the guess became real, it made her feel like she couldn't catch her breath.

Her daughter was originally gentle and well-behaved, but after Qu Mo Ying came into the house, the whole person was like a different person, and actually did that kind of thing, which her daughter never could do in the past.

There must be a reason for this!

"There is an offense here, and it is the source of this disaster for the eldest young lady of your house." Jing'an Zhenran said.

"But ... but the third maiden has been in the mansion and has been safe and sound?" Luo's guessed down the line following the words of the Realm of Pure Peace.

“Just because it was fine before doesn’t mean it’ll be fine afterward, as long as there’s a cause, it could be something.” The Pure Anjinshi’s face showed a matter of compassion.

“Is ... it because of the fourth maiden, is it because of the fourth maiden?” Luo’s all of a sudden understand, more and more eager, since the relationship of Qu Mo Ying, right now the daughter in the West House, that is not a dead end, it is no wonder that she is sick from time to time, in the past the daughter’s body is not good, but it is not as bad as this, actually from time to time, she is too sick to get up the body.

“It should be, it may be that the fourth miss and the eldest miss were born to clash with each other, the eight characters above all have the meaning of offsetting each other, the eldest miss life is a bit lighter than the fourth miss’s life.” Jing’an real person continued.

It is common knowledge that a person with a light destiny will be overpowered by a person with a heavy destiny.

“What ... about that?” Luo couldn’t help but cry, she only had one daughter, raised like a jewel, now that she heard that she was grammed and there was nothing she could do about it, how could it not be difficult.

“Actually, it’s not without a solution.” Pure Anjin said, “Madam, don’t be in a hurry first, listen to the poor Taoist put words into your mouth.”

“You say, you say ...” Luo took a pad and wiped her eyes.

“This matter is difficult to say and simple to say.” Jing’an real person looked at Luo and smiled, “If I say it’s hard, this matter is really hard, the two people who are mutually incompatible had better never see each other in the future, but the sisters of a house, and all of them are unmarried, it should be unlikely that the two people will never see each other, then there is only one other method.”

“What is it?”

“Madam see that incense burner?” Jing’an real person reached out and pointed to a small incense burner in front of Sanqing, at this time is inserting three clear incense, clear incense curling, a leisurely, “This incense burner is small, but it is a hundred worship things, no matter who arrives at this Sanqing Hall, will be on the three clear incense, ma’am in a moment also go to invite three clear incense, and then take away the ash of the incense that the clear incense points down.”

“The ashes of the three clear incense fall in the incense burner of the hundred worship, the lady then take away, take the meaning of the hundred protect each other, and then give the eldest young lady to serve, can not tell her, this is to hide the heavenly chance where, in addition to the lady had better a person also do not say, otherwise it may leak the heavenly chance, then it will not work.”

“I won’t say, real person don’t worry, absolutely won’t say!” Luo’s would have already believed a tenth of this, where would she still disobey.

“The incense ash modulation to some of the soup medicine, sent to the eldest miss to take, there is a point of special attention of the lady, sent to the person is bound to be the fourth miss of your house, borrowing the weight of her eight characters, the pressure of a little bit of heaven, but also modulation of the original intention of the two people born of each other, since then, the eldest miss and the fourth miss of the fate of the phases, but also slowly subside, the eldest miss of your house in the future is a straight road, glory Fortune is far away!”

The Pure Ann Reality said it all, and Luo nodded her head as she listened.

I didn’t expect things to be so simple, and there won’t be anything else, it’s all a small matter, at that moment, he thanked the Pure Ann Reality, stood up and respectfully lit three sticks of clear incense, after that, he sat on the side to talk to the Pure Ann Reality, and waited for the incense to be burned out.

Don’t want the granny to do it, he personally went up to take the ash away, originally this incense burner inside only a thin layer underneath, this will be all swept away is not much.

Luo carefully took the incense ash, and thanked the Jing’an real person again and again, letting the granny offer a thick amount of incense money, before leading the maids and grannies to leave in a hurry.

Jing An Zhen Zhen sent her to the entrance of the San Qing Hall and saw her leave before returning back to the main hall, taking out another small incense burner from his sleeve and replacing the one that had been placed on top of it, before strutting away.

On the way to meet a small Taoist nun, deliberately called the person to stop, asked Qing and the real person's whereabouts, the Taoist nun said Qing and the real person has something to go down the mountain to go, the net Ann real person did not look for, just instructed the small Taoist nun, she has been here after the matter, so that they go to clean up, and the Qing and the real person to express their gratitude to her to convey on behalf of the real person.

The little Taoist nun nodded her head repeatedly, and ended up with a modest purse, full of joy as she looked for the other little Taoist nuns to leave.

This is a three clear hall is clear and real people agreed to lend out, Qingyun Guan in Qingyun Guan not too much in charge of things, also not too willing to appear in front of people, generally are the deputy master of Qing and real people to deal with some of the day-to-day affairs of the face.

Chapter 522 Too Much Soup, Falling Down

When Qu Mo Ying went to greet the dowager lady, it was rare to see Luo.

The East House and West House are said to be the same house, but in fact the East House lives extremely far away from where the Dowager Lady lives, and the Dowager Lady generally does not ask Luo to come over to ask for peace.

But lately, Luo would still come to ask for peace from time to time, occasionally asking about Qu Xuexin in an aside, the dowager lady was afraid that if she went there, it would give Qu Xuexin any new thoughts, and wouldn't let her go over to visit.

But mother and daughter are connected, Luo still can not rest assured, in the past not often come, now and then will come over.

Qu Mo Ying entered the door, first met the dowager lady, and then Luo, and then took a seat on a chair to one side.

Listening to Lo speaking to the Dowager Lady.

“Mother, I ... am just looking at core girl, I heard that she is sick again, I purposely sent some tonic body tonic soup medicine over, please mother let me see core child.” Luo’s red eyes pleaded.

The dowager lady sighed, “I know you are worried about core girl’s body, there is nothing serious anymore, it’s all because of the state of mind, it will slowly get better.”

“Mother, I’ll see one side and leave, just outside the courtyard, let the granny send it in, I’ll just take a look from afar.” Luo was still undeterred.

“Luo, you have to know that I am not treating you mother and daughter harshly and purposely not letting you see each other, it’s just that ...” the dowager lady said extremely helplessly.

“Mother, I know, I know everything.” Luo’s cried and took a handkerchief to cover her face, “Mother is afraid that if Core will see me, she will develop some other thoughts again, and also afraid that if I see Core, my heart will soften and I will do something else, don’t worry mother, I’m just looking at it from afar.”

“Luo, wait for a while, wait again.” Seeing her crying sadly, the dowager lady was also sad, this eldest granddaughter used to never let her worry, and also one that she felt very satisfied with, she didn’t know when she actually deviated into such a faceless appearance, speaking of which, she also felt pained.

“Mother, I’m not going to make things difficult for you, you let Shadow Maiden send it over to Core Maiden, just say ... that it’s a tonic tonic soup that I purposely boiled for her body, let her drink it!” Luo wiped her tears and stopped crying, only her eyes were still red.

This was a very reasonable and truthful statement, and the dowager lady looked at Qu Mo Ying.

Qu Mo Ying stood up, “Grandmother, I’m willing to go see big sister.”

“Thank you, thank you Shadow Girl!” Luo was thrilled.

"Great Auntie is polite." Qu Mo Ying shook her head with a smile, her gaze falling on a food box placed in the middle, which should be the medicine to replenish the body that Luo said.

The move of the Dowager Lady and the two of them, it is inconvenient to stop them again, and can only urge Qu Mo Ying, "Shadow girl, then you will go on a trip, and tell the core girl to have a good purification, and if he is well in the next day, it is not without a chance to come out."

After all, the dowager lady's heart was soft, and her words were soft and gentle.

Qu Mo Ying nodded and stood up, Yu Dong walked to the table, carefully going to get the food box.

"Yu Dong, slow down first." Qu Mo Ying suddenly said, lifting his steps toward the table.

Luo heard Qu Mo Ying say this and also stood up, her hand tightly pinched her handkerchief, her feet couldn't help but move, following Qu Mo Ying towards the table, nervous, the real person said that this matter can't be known to others.

"Grandmother, let me see how much soup is in there first, okay? It might overflow if I'm not careful when Yu Dong serves it later." Qu Mo Ying stood up to the table and looked at it, looking back to Mrs. Tai.

If you put soup inside the food container, you are to be extra careful that you don't put too much soup in case it overflows.

How much soup is in there determines how much strength, and it's better to look at it slightly.

The dowager lady nodded, Luo's hand stretched forward slightly, but also immediately knowingly put down, take a look and not shut down, Jing'an real person also did not say can not see.

Although in his heart, but still do not feel at ease, Luo deliberately another two steps forward, these soups have the meaning of concealing the sky, the less people see, the better, thought of this, the expression can not help but have a few points of tension again, looking to reach out to the Yu Dong, his face is not happy.

Qu Mo Ying's gaze had been falling on Luo's body, for the delivery of food, she was originally wary, and this action was also done for Luo's eyes.

Though speaking to the dowager lady, she kept an eye on Luo's reaction.

The reaction of her eyes made her heart flutter.

Yu Dong has reached out to open the food box, inside is a porcelain jar, Yu Dong reached out to take down the lid on top, below is a can full of boiled soup, only to open, is the strong smell of medicine, is indeed like Luo's said to complement the body with the soup medicine.

Qu Mo Ying's sense of smell is stronger than others, for the smell of medicine is even more understanding, to be smelled, a ghostly at the eyes, the smell of medicine seems to have something else inside, a very light flavor, but this smell is not allowed to Qu Mo Ying ignore.

One thing she could be sure of now, there was something wrong with this medicine, she just couldn't think of any medicine with this flavor for a while, it actually had some scent, but this scent wasn't like a normal medicine smell, so she couldn't guess what it was for a while.

"Alright, close the lid!" Seeing that Yu Dong had seen it, Luo hurriedly reminded, and added afterward, "If you open it again, this medicine will dissipate!"

"First Aunt, hold your horses for a moment!" Qu Mo Ying reached out with a smile to stop Yu Dong's movements.

"What else?" Luo looked at Qu Mo Ying, her face unhappy.

"Eldest Auntie, isn't this soup too much, is it okay to ladle off some of it slightly? I'm afraid that Yudong is rough-handed and will spill the soup out later, which is not good!" Qu Mo Ying said.

"There isn't a lot of soup, it should be nothing." Luo looked at the soup that didn't reach the mouth of the jar, her brows furrowed, she was also afraid of spilling it, and didn't boil a lot of it, "When I came over from the East Mansion, I also had my mother-in-law carry it, and nothing happened!"

Luo reached out again and pointed to the food box, which was clean and indeed hadn't spilled half of it when she brought it all the way over.

"Yu Dong this girl used to do rough work in the manor, rough hands and feet, may not be able to lift the smooth, why don't you pour out another small bowl, and then let a maid follow along and send it over?" Qu Mo Ying revealed a few difficult colors.

The lid was open, and the smell became more and more intense, it was a lighter than normal medicinal smell, but with some flavor, Qu Mo Ying still didn't guess what it was!

"First Mistress, the slave girl's hands are thick, I'm afraid I'll spill it for Missy!" Yu Dong understood and hurriedly apologized to Luo.

Luo's had no choice but to call over someone to get a small bowl, lifting up her own sleeves to do it herself, carefully scooping two spoons out of it with a soup ladle, and then putting the lid back on.

"That will always do!" Displeased.

"Many thanks to Great Aunt for her compassion!" Qu Mo Ying sidestepped and apologized with a smile.

Yu Dong closed the lid and covered the outside of the food box again, Luo's complexion was relieved and her face unconsciously looked a few points better.

"It's fine, mention go and ask Core how she's doing!" Luo said.

"Great Aunt, I'll ask right away!" Qu Mo Ying said, her gaze falling at the small bowl on the side, "Big Auntie this bowl, should I let someone take it with them, or should I stay?"

Stay and see more, the sky's the limit, self is good to drink down, a little more may be more beneficial.

Luo almost didn't need to think much and directly waved her hand, "Come on people, come over and serve it together with the fourth miss!"

From behind her a granny turned out and was about to step forward.

"Eldest Auntie, it's better to have Grandmother send someone to deliver it!" Qu Mo Ying suggested with a smile.

The dowager lady nodded her head and called one of the grannies beside her to carry the small bowl and follow along.

Luo did not force, let their own people back, watched Qu Mo Ying lead people to leave, his face could not help but show a trace of smile, as long as the daughter drank the soup medicine that the fourth maiden served over, this will not have any trouble in the future, not only is there no trouble, but also in the future will be living a very good life.

As Qu Mo Ying walked to the door, he suddenly turned back, his gaze sweeping over Luo's face for a moment before crossing the door and going out.

Qu Mo Ying walked in was the first, Yu Dong followed closely behind, the last one was the granny beside the dowager lady, the three people walked in a line.

Yu Dong is carrying the food box to walk, at least there is a lid on it, the granny behind is just a bowl, no lid, more careful between walking, do not dare to walk fast, helpless in front of the fourth miss walk fast, Yu Dong footsteps also accelerated, the granny does not want to be left behind, can only also walk fast.

It was hard to adjust to about the same number of steps when suddenly the front stopped.

Qu Mo Ying was suddenly stopped, Yu Dong also followed suddenly stopped, the last granny did not expect to go out only a few steps, the person in front of them stopped, want to stop, but also have to take into account the bowl in hand, body efforts to lean back, but there is where she can lean back, feet do not know what tripped again, a stumble, the bowl in hand slipped down.

“Clang,” the bowl slid to the floor and shattered into pieces, and there was silence inside and outside the house.

Luo see Qu Mo Ying left, the heart has been put down, also do not care to pretend aggrieved, wiped the corner of the eyes of the tearstain, the smile showed up, is and the dowager lady to say a few words, while waiting for the good news to come, and suddenly heard a “clang” outside, Luo froze, and then a hand pressed the corner of the table, not to worry about and the dowager lady to speak, rushed out! I’m not sure if I’m going to be able to do that.

The granny outside shook her hands in fear, her face pale and her lips trembling.

Yu Dong and Qu Mo Ying turned back, seeing the ground in a state of disarray, seemed to be stunned, Yu Dong hurriedly put down the food box he was carrying in his hand and was going to help clean up.

Luo had already rushed out, seeing the scene in front of her, her feet went soft and she almost fell, fortunately the maid on the opposite side reacted quickly and hastily reached out to help her.

“What ... is going on?” Luo stood still, annoyed.

“Eldest Auntie, I was afraid that the soup would get cold, I purposely walked faster, maybe I suddenly walked faster and the ones behind me didn’t follow, I should have accidentally fallen.” Qu Mo Ying softly explained.

Yu Dong pulled the mother-in-law who froze there shivering, signaling her to also immediately clean up together, the mother-in-law hurriedly followed the squatting down, where cares about the fourth young lady to answer mentioning the sudden walk fast, or suddenly stopped.

“You ... you ...” Luo has been angry do not know what to say good, face angry storm red up, this medicine is she carefully boiled, did not let the maid, mother-in-law on the hand, is her own Really cut the boil a few hours, guarded a few hours to get.

Now that she had actually spilled a bowl, how could she not be angry!

“Miss, what is this?” Yudong suddenly exclaimed, reaching out and lifting a spot, and the crowd’s eyes were involuntarily attracted to it ...

Chapter 523 When was the poison given?

“How ... how ... how did this medicine blacken?” Yu Dong stammered, reaching out and pointing to a spot.

This one happens to be the place where the bowl broke down, a ground of broken porcelain, and spilled medicine, but under these medicinal fluids there is actually a place that is thick black, through the bizarre unusual, on the floor of the green stone tiles, especially obvious.

“There is something in this ... medicine? It will ... make the brick hair ... black, if this person drinks it ...” Qu Mo Ying was shocked and took a step backwards, holding on to a pillar on one side before standing still, his face immediately became ugly, raised his eyes to Luo’s, murmured, “Great ... great aunt, there is something in this ... this!”

This has been said with extreme emptiness and lightness!

“What is it, how can there be something, it’s just medicine!” Luo also saw the black stains on the ground, her heart panicked, thinking that it was the ashes of the incense that she didn’t decoct, and hurriedly said.

Her words were too hasty, and she was too afraid of people finding out, this was a heavenly opportunity, if people found out, this heavenly opportunity would not be leaked!

Panicked, his voice unconsciously amplified.

“Great aunt, is there ... something else in here?” Qu Mo Ying calmed his breath, reached out and pointed to the black stains at the ground and continued to ask.

“What can happen, it’s all medicine stains, medicine was originally this color, well, don’t say anything else, this bowl is broken, just break it, quickly send the rest to core girl!” Although Luo was annoyed, she also knew that she couldn’t dwell on it at this time, the ones that were poured out were bound to be a few.

And it could also be because this granny wasn’t the one beside Shadow Maiden.

Jing’an real person did not say that he wanted the shadow girl to send it over, that is bound to be the person who has to use the shadow girl, if it is another person may not be able to do it, this is also a revelation of the heavens to himself.

Right now it was pointless to dwell on this, hurrying up and letting Shadow Maiden deliver the things to Core’s hands was the right thing to do.

With great effort, he calmed the anger in his heart and made himself look calm for a few moments before he added, “Alright, alright, it’s not that big of a deal, clean it up a bit, Shadow Girl go over there first, I’ll take care of it here!”

She will be bent on letting Qu Mo Ying go, her anger calming down is inexplicable, and it is also eerie, this is something for her daughter to drink, now that she has found these things, and then send it over without fear that something will happen to her daughter?

The medicine to nourish the body is not any special medicine, which the Qu Mansion can still afford to consume, and today the First Lady is very abnormal, abnormal and frightening.

“Wait!” The dowager lady finally came out from inside and looked at the scene in front of her, her face cold.

“Mother, it’s nothing major, you go back to rest first, I’ll clean up here and let the shadow girl go.” Luo turned around and looked at Mrs. Tai almost pleadingly.

She was now only thinking about putting things to rest and didn’t want to punish anyone, she only wanted Qu Mo Ying to hurry up and send the medicine over.

"This medicine is your own boiled?" The dowager lady turned to Luo's, seeing Luo's face couldn't hide her anxiety, her complexion became more and more calm and cold, that black stains how to see there is a problem, in the past the most loving daughter's Luo's how could not see, how could not pay attention to it?

"I ... I ... am mine, all I boiled ..." Luo's heart panicked, hurriedly said.

"You watched it simmer?" The Dowager continued to ask, frowning tightly.

"Yes, I watched it boil, I'm not sure." Luo said.

"Among the first to go also did not go away?" Mrs. Tai's eyes also cold up, this kind of time how to see are abnormal, and even more abnormal is Luo's this mother, until now is still a force to urge the shadow maid to send medicine.

She didn't doubt that Luo would do anything to Qu Xuexin, after all, she had seen Luo's kindness to Qu Xuexin in her eyes.

"Mothers ..."

"Come in and talk first!" The Dowager Lady turned around.

"Mother!" Luo cried out in a mournful voice, her emotions getting a little out of control.

"What, you don't want to come in, but you still want Shadow Maiden to send it over to Core Maiden to drink? Aren't you afraid that something will happen to core maiden if she drinks it?" The dowager lady paused and turned her head to say sternly.

"Mother, it won't be, it'll be fine, you let Ying Ying send the medicine over, and I'll talk to you after Core Girl drinks it!" Luo's kneeled down and cried.

This situation is problematic at first glance.

The dowager lady would not compromise, if this medicine was really delivered to Qu Xuexin's mouth, if anything really happened, it would be too late for anything.

"Help your lady to get up." The dowager lady said in a cold voice, turning around and continuing to walk inside.

Yu Dong stood up, picked up the food box placed on the side and also followed in, Luo still wanted to stop, but did not dare to really let people do it, and could only watch Yu Dong go in.

Qu Mo Ying came over and gave her a hand, and a maid helped the limp Luo inside.

To be into the house, Mrs. Tai sat down in the middle, the food box was put back on the table, Mrs. Tai will not ask Luo's, a look at Luo's appearance, know that this will be she is not to say.

"My Sister, take a silver needle and probe!" The dowager lady commanded, this was the most direct method.

But even if this method does not make sense, the Mrs. will not let Qu Mo Ying send this medicine to Qu Xuexin again, always have to find a doctor to check it.

In answer to the order, my Sister fetched a silver club, came over to the table, opened the canteen, removed the lid from the inside again, and took the silver needle and poked it in.

It was removed in a short while and the part where the silver needle had probed was black.

Luo's this is really soft feet, "flop" a sit on the ground, face without a trace of blood, even though she is bent on giving her daughter to boil soup, to let the Qu Mo Ying sent over, but this is just put some incense ash, and how can make the silver needle black.

A silver needle turning black is certainly not the same as a black stain on the outside!

This is something anyone knows, the silver needle turns black that is poisonous, this soup medicine is actually poisonous, this is the soup medicine she personally boiled for several hours, actually poisonous?

"How did this ... this ... happen?" Luo's lips trembled twice, and it took her half a second to find her voice.

"Luo, by now you still refuse to say? Is it hard not to really think of core girl's life?" Annoyed, the dowager lady forced her way through a breath, slapped the table with force, and rebuked in a stern voice.

"Mother, it's not, it won't be, how could it be, I ... want core child to get well, I ... how could I harm core child ... "Luo's terrified and cried out, she is really do not know why it will become this way, "This ... this is really my own boiled, give the medicine to the core child, really is my own boiled."

Seeing her crying, the dowager lady asked again, "You haven't taken a single step away?"

She was also not convinced that Luo wanted to really harm Qu Xuexin.

"I didn't leave, I didn't leave." Luo said hastily.

"Your Ladyship, you were slightly away." The granny who followed her reminded her in a low voice, "Before, when the Grand Master had something to find you, you went out for half an hour."

"Yes, yes, I just went out for half an hour, after that I was always there." Luo's nodded her head repeatedly, tears streaming down her face, "Mother, you have to believe me, I ... how could I harm Xin'er, I was trying to save her, I purposely boiled the soup medicine for her, afraid that other people wouldn't be dutiful, I boiled it myself, I just wanted to make Xin'er get better."

"Eldest Auntie, why are you suddenly boiling medicine for Eldest Sister, and taking so much trouble to do it yourself?" Qu Mo Ying's faintly soft voice came from the side with a few moments of doubt.

In the past days there are also boiled soup and medicine sent over, but basically are underlings boiled, when the master of the go to see a moment is good, where will not be good eyes all the time staring, which was originally some wrong.

Being reminded by Qu Mo Ying, the dowager lady immediately understood, no longer pursuing Luo's boiling for a few hours at that time, and after a little thought, asked with a straight face, "Luo's, what's so special in this soup medicine that you can't say it until now? Right now at this time, it is impossible to give this soup to core child to drink again, unless you want her to drink it and die of poisoning right away."

"Mother, I didn't, even if it cost me my life, I ... wouldn't want to harm Xin'er ah!" Luo crouched down and cried out, having something like this happen, something completely different from what she had been thinking about, almost made her break down.

Qu Mo Ying walked over, helped Luo Clan up and advised, "Eldest Auntie, right now there must be someone who wants to harm Eldest Sister's life, if Eldest Sister really has something happen this time, and this medicine is boiled by Eldest Auntie, it will inevitably be blamed on me, after all, I am the one who sent this medicine over, and Eldest Auntie is Eldest Sister's real mother, and it's not possible for her to harm Eldest Sister's, and then there will be nothing I can say to defend myself!"

Said the watery eyes to look at the silver needle placed on the side of my grandmother, looking at the degree of black, should not be the kind of blood to the throat of the poison, that is, after serving, may also be able to save, but their own this poison to poison Qu Xuexin's name will not escape.

Fell such a name, grandmother even if again protect their own, their cheap father will inevitably have action, how to have to give an account of the East House, at that time will inevitably be their own once again abandoned, disposed of.

One arrow, two birds, Qu Mingcheng and Qu Xuexin really cooperated well this time, in order to harm herself, Qu Xuexin really put up a fight, and actually did not spare her own body.

Luo's backhand pull Qu Mo Ying's hand, crying sobbing, this time she has what can not be said, at the same time one by one to say what happened, said she deliberately went to let Qu Mingcheng to find a high person to help Qu Xuexue core to solve a little bit of life to start, to the last boiled soup medicine.

Inside most of the things are completed by her, it can be said that almost and others have nothing to do with, if anything, is the pharmacy guys, or Luo's slightly away for a moment of the maids, grannies, but the pharmacy guys are in accordance with the prescription of the medicine, and still Luo's looking for a few pharmacies have grabbed the medicine, picked a copy of it, it is not possible to have a thing.

As for when she left for a little while, there were quite a few maids and grannies left behind there, and it was unlikely that anyone would dare to make a move.

Then pulling it down, Lo doesn't know where else to have it poisoned.

"Mother, I really don't know why it's like this, is it not the will of heaven, is it the will of heaven that wants to exterminate Xin'er!" Luo lay on the table on one side, crying and unable to get up.

Eat is a death, do not eat is also a disaster that can not be passed, is also a death, she will be trembling all over the body, the face of a white face, crying almost choking turn but, sad and sad.

"Great Aunt, don't cry first, there is still a place where you can put poison!" Qu Mo Ying had a quiet demeanor from start to finish, and after listening carefully to Luo's words, she rationalized her thoughts and opened her mouth!

Chapter 524 The Most Terrifying Link of All

"What?" Lo stopped crying and asked eagerly.

Mrs. Tai also can not help but look at Qu Mo Ying, Luo's words she just thought about it, how to think also do not think what place someone deliberately poisoned.

And do it without a trace!

Luo went to grab the medicine is randomly pick a packet of the best, after that there has been someone to watch, even if Luo left a moment in time, there are several maids, grannies staring, how can not be poisoned, and then boiled Luo sent over.

Although the herbs were picked yesterday, they were also placed in Luo's house after returning to the house, and it was unlikely that anyone would do anything about it.

"Eldest Auntie, you put incense ash inside, didn't you?" Qu Mo Ying saw both of them staring at her and said without panic.

Luo cried her head off and didn't react for a while.

The dowager lady reacted quickly, and her face changed, "That Jing'an Realist?"

"Grandmother, this is the only clue, but I don't have evidence to prove that this Jing'an real person wants to harm me and with big sister, poisoned, let me serve it over there, and big aunt is meticulous to keep an eye on the boiling of the medicine all the time, if I send it over there, and something happens to my big sister when she drinks it, no matter if it's grandmother or big aunt is bound to be skeptical of me, and use my big sister's life to harm me, in the end, who is it that wants to kill two birds with one stone? I don't even know this Jing'an real person, I've never heard of her before."

Qu Mo Ying analyzed frankly.

The words were very thorough, but the faces of the Dowager Lady and Luo's were visible changes.

Luo's hand trembled, nagging a name to herself, "Mingcheng?"

Luo's even in the East House, but also clearly know the West House side of things, Yu's born a pair of children can not be with the small Yue's born daughters in peace, the last generation of things although has passed, but this generation, can really heart no trouble?

It is said that Xiao Yue's is Yu's death, Luo's although do not know the details, but also understand that it is not simple, when Yu's how to force Xiao Yue's away, who can think of this forced to go away, and then did not come back, to be Xiao Yue's back, but it is already the life of the fall after.

And now Yu was expelled, Qu Qiuyan hastily even a name are not as good as to send into the King's House, even though this inside is their corrected by self-initiated, self-inflicted consequences, but Qu Mingcheng really will not care?

Thinking that within her own affairs, the one who had previously given herself a hand was not Qu Mingcheng, Luo's face turned into anger.

The matter of the West House originally had little to do with her, although she also felt pity for Qu Mo Ying, but after all, this is the matter of the West House, Qu Zhi Zhen has always been strong, even if Qu Zhi Lin can not control him, not to mention their own, but now the matter of the West House actually involves their own daughters, and is still to their own daughters' lives to offset.

Where does Luo not get angry,"Mother ..."

"Alright, you go down first, I'll check this matter with the oldest and the second." The dowager lady's head lowered, her face could not hide the color of hurt.

Luo understood the meaning of this, what could she not understand.

That net Ning real person is with Qu Mo Ying no hatred, also do not know, it is unlikely that will be out to deal with the shadow girl, but can not help Qu Mingcheng have ah, this thing in the outside part, are not all Qu Mingcheng help to do?

The first and the consequences of a question, Mrs. Qu does not think that Qu Mingcheng innocent, before the second son repeatedly urged Qu Mingcheng to read well, Qu Mingcheng also said that nothing will not go out.

Luo's this thing, said although not a big deal, but also not what urgent can't do, besides there is Qu Minghui in, the pro son to go is not better than the nephew?

Although Luo didn't explicitly say that within this matter, Qu Mingcheng took the initiative to come to the door to say what, took the initiative to ask for what, but the dowager lady is old enough to be a smart person, how could she not understand.

Right now, Qu Mo Ying was still around, she didn't want Luo to say anything, she didn't want her little granddaughter to feel desperate about this family.

"Mother ..." Luo's excitement, where can understand the mind of the dowager lady, still want to speak.

But saw Mrs. Tai picked up the hand of the tea cup heavily smashed to the ground, angrily said, "You have not made enough trouble today? Go back and think about it, how did this matter start? Core girl in my place is very good, there is nothing wrong, if you want her to be good, then leave this matter alone!"

The dowager lady was relocating her anger to Luo's body, if Luo didn't want to toss these, where would there be anything else.

"Mother, I ... am also worried about Core." Luo's eyes reddened again, aggravated and saddened with grief.

"Alright, go back first!" The dowager lady leaned back powerlessly, only feeling that there seemed to be a tendon pumping at her forehead, hurting her helplessly, her face immediately turned pale, and a cold sweat emerged vaguely at her forehead.

"Mrs. ..." My grandmother panicked, Mrs. This is the old hair triggered again, rushed forward and reached out to help her.

Qu Mo Ying's gaze also fell onto the body of the Dowager Lady, and one look at the fine sweat on the Dowager Lady's forehead told him that the Dowager Lady was not doing well.

"Yes, mother, I ... will go back first." Luo also could see that the dowager lady looked bad, she didn't dare to say anything else and could only retreat.

Since the dowager lady said she wanted to talk to her two sons about these things, she would now go back and talk to the Grand Master first.

Almost let her daughter die in their own hands, Luo's to now the whole person is trembling, at this time is not as bad as the Mrs., with people on the hasty return, to put this matter in detail said in the Qu Zhilin, so that the Qu Zhilin to their own daughters to do the Lord.

"My Sister, Grandmother ... is this an old problem again?" Qu Mo Ying stepped forward to support the other hand of the dowager lady and asked in a low voice.

"First help the Dowager Lady in to rest." Sister Wu nodded, looking grave.

Qu Mo Ying and she exerted themselves together, carefully helping the dowager lady to get up, and then helped into the inner room, letting her lie down on the bed, Yu Dong had already gone to fetch warm water over, wetting it and wringing it out and handing it over to Qu Mo Ying's hands.

Qu Mo Ying took over, put a little bit of the fine sweat on Mrs. Tai's forehead, carefully wiped it away, and after that replaced it with a handful and gently wiped it on Mrs. Tai's cheeks.

Sister Wu went to the drawer under the dressing table on one side, took out a bottle, took out a medicine from it, called over a maid, fetched warm water over, melted it into the water, and then brought it over, calling out in a low voice, "Dowager Lady, use some medicine."

The dowager lady shook her head and said with difficulty, "First ... rest for a while ... a while before ... using it."

"Mrs. Tai, you'll feel better only after you use the medicine, don't rush, use the medicine first." Grandma Wu advised, took a spoon and scooped up a spoonful, about to send it in front of the dowager lady.

"Wait!" Qu Mo Ying suddenly opened his mouth, his face becoming sullen and cold, and his hand pressed down hard on Sister Wu's hand.

"What's wrong?" My Sister turned her head in surprise.

“My Sister, may I see the medicine?” Quemoy Ying asked, taking my Sister’s hand in hers and pulling it closer to her face.

The pills melted water, now melted inside, water stains light brown, with some strong medicinal flavor, but just when the party took it over in front of Qu Mo Ying, Qu Mo Ying suddenly remembered the suspicion that once remembered.

She had only returned to the Qu Mansion not long ago, and the Dowager Empress had taken them to the Great Compassion Temple, and all the calculations at that time seemed to be based on the scenario that the Dowager Empress was not feeling well, but why was the Dowager Empress not feeling well so coincidentally? And who can control it?

She suspected Yu at that time, but after that, she repeatedly observed the dowager’s diet and living, but she didn’t find anything wrong.

After that, Mrs. Tai had been very well and had not been ill again, and this so-called old problem seemed to be of no great consequence.

She then faded this pursuit, thinking that she might really have misunderstood something, but seeing this pill right now, Qu Mo Ying was suddenly startled.

If after today’s incident, the Dowager Lady had another attack of her old illness, then the only person who protected herself would be gone, or if it was even more serious, if the Dowager Lady had something serious happen to her, she would really be doomed!

Qu Xuexin, she can be sure that nothing will really happen to her, but what about Mrs. Tai? The lady who has been protecting her? Since entering the house, only too much lady to her is sincere and real righteousness, only let her know to experience the affection, to experience the love of elders, but if too much lady accident? Since it can be calculated to this step, Mrs. this step, seems to be the last knot, Qu Mo Ying this will be really panicked.

The hand gripped my Sister’s hand, hard.

So much so that my Sister was gripped raw, “Fourth Miss, what is ... wrong with you?”

Qu Mo Ying's hand relaxed slightly and removed the imperious from Sister Wu's hand, turning back to instruct Yu Dong, "Go and ask Sister Miao to come over."

It was true that she couldn't discover anything from inside this bowl of medicine, but Sister Miao inevitably could.

Yu Dong hurriedly turned around and ran out to find Sister Miao.

Qu Mo Ying's brows were tightly furrowed as he stared at the bowl in his hands.

"Fourth Miss, is ... anything wrong here?" Grandma Wu asked tentatively, it was really Qu Mo Ying's reaction that was too strange, causing her to be a bit shaken for a moment.

"My Sister, where did these pills come from?" Qu Mo Ying pursed her lips and asked.

Hearing her ask this question, Grandma Wu breathed a sigh of relief, "The dowager lady has an old illness, coupled with her age, she sometimes commits illnesses, and every time she commits an illness it is extremely difficult to bear, this is the pills that the second old master had asked the palace's eunuchs to regulate the dowager lady early on, in fact it is not too much, it is just a few of these pills."

Just because it is not much, usually nothing when it is absolutely will not use, only really sick, Mrs. Tai will use, stay better, and will not use again.

But even so careful, the pills are still used very quickly, every time the old habits, will be used up several, and even to the immediate these all used up is not enough, and have to let the second master go to the palace to ask the doctor.

"Just one bottle each time?" Qu Mo Ying asked as she looked at the medicine bottle that Sister Wu had placed on the table, looking at the size, it really wasn't much.

A hint of ghostly cold slipped at the eyes, everyone knows that it is hard to find a doctor in the palace, since it is hard to find, it is hard to find one, shouldn't it be done more?

In her last life, she also asked the Imperial Doctor to do it, that batch, at least ten bottles it ...

Chapter 525 There's a problem, check!

Like this kind of pills, are made according to the recipe, if the ingredients are well prepared, make a bottle and make ten bottles, in fact, is not much difference.

Doing it once and doing it several times is a huge difference.

Looking at the size of the bottle, there can't be much medicine in a bottle.

"Yes, every time the second master runs out of it, he will ask the palace eunuch to help make another bottle. The effect of this pill is still good, the dowager lady is much better after using it, the dowager lady is an old problem, she won't use it when it's not a problem." Grandma Wu explained in a low voice.

Fourth Miss snatched the bowl away, she could not force it on the dowager lady at the moment, and could only say tentatively, "Fourth Miss, the dowager lady is so uncomfortable, how about giving the dowager lady some first?"

Qu Mo Ying raised her eyes and looked at Grandma Wu and said frankly, "Grandma Wu wait for a moment, I think there's something wrong with this medicine, how about letting Grandma Miao look at it in a moment before using it?"

"How can this ... be a problem? In the past days, when Mrs. Tai was sick, she used this kind of medicine, and after using it, she was fine, at least Mrs. Tai doesn't seem to be that uncomfortable, and her body gets better." My grandma anxiously said, this pill has been used for so long, the great lady has been using it okay, my grandma doesn't think there is any problem here.

"My grandmother ... is different now, you wait a little longer." Qu Mo Ying said, "If the party's great aunt's matter, I hit the scheme, really send it over, this will be the big sister may have an accident, I also can't be washed, grandmother then follow along with the accident, then ... the mansion can be a big mess."

Grandma Wu was not an ordinary granny, when she heard Qu Mo Ying say this, her face suddenly changed drastically, she heard and understood the meaning implied in Qu Mo Ying's words.

The lips quivered, "This ... this should not be so!"

"Isn't it, let's not be anxious, just now, didn't great aunt repeatedly feel that there was nothing wrong? But the last ..." Qu Mo Ying continued.

It was the matter of the party, Luo was also ten times more secure that it couldn't be anything, even if she saw the black stains on the ground, she thought that the incense ash she put in wasn't properly blended in, but what about it? It almost took Qu Xuexin's life.

Sister Wu was shocked, cold sweat was hidden at her undershirt, she looked at the bowl of medicine and no longer dared to go up to take it, and no longer persuaded Qu Mo Ying to give it to the dowager lady.

Standing up straight, he went off to the side and fetched a silver needle to reach inside the water the pills were soaking in, his lips tightly pursed, his lips tense.

When she lifted it up again, the silver needle was snow-white, and Grandma Wu looked at Qu Mo Ying excitedly, "Fourth Miss, it's fine, there's nothing going on here!"

"Grandma Wu, big sister's body is good, there's nothing old, grandmother's body is different because it's an old disease and it could be triggered badly, the meaning of this is completely different." Qu Mo Ying calmly looked at the silver needle in Grandma Wu's hand without the slightest surprise.

Qu Xuexin and Mrs. Tai are completely different.

Qu Xuexin is in the open to let people know that it is their own poisoning, and the dowager lady, it can only be by their own angry old disease recurrence, and then the accident.

This was also the reason why Qu Mo Ying did not directly let Sister Wu take the silver needle and try it.

Sister Miao came quite quickly, and after coming over, she slightly wiped the sweat from her forehead, picked up the bowl of slightly cooled medicinal soup, and after sniffing it, she said to Sister Wu, "Are there any other pills?"

"Yes!" My Sister no longer dared to hide it at this time, and brought over the entire vial of medicine.

Sister Miao took them out one by one and then placed them on the table, in fact there were only four, not many.

Sister Miao picked it up and smelled it carefully before putting it down, and said to Sister Wu, "There is a medicine inside this pill that is very bad for the dowager lady, it can stimulate the emotions of a patient with a weak body, causing palpitations, and may even cause vomiting, migraine, and difficulty breathing! There is quite a lot of this medicine in the pills, like it is coated on the surface of the pills, the amount is very large, with the way the Dowager Lady looks right now, I am afraid that if one pill goes down, it will be easy for something to happen!"

"What ... what?" My Sister shivered and almost fell over.

"If My Sister doesn't believe it, she can ask a doctor to take a look." Sister Miao suggested, after all, she was not a proper doctor, and there were some things that Grandma Wu would not quite believe.

My Sister called over one of the maids at her side and hurriedly sent for a doctor.

The doctor came quite fast, this is too much lady in the past specifically invited over to heal the doctor, is also considered to understand too much lady's condition, after entering the house, advanced to give too much lady to see, opened the prescription, is to tranquilize the heart and mind of the medicine, and then only retreated to the outhouse, picked up the table pills inside the bowl of medicinal soup to look at viewed up.

First, he smelled it with his nose, then slightly dipped some of the medicine and licked it, and then took his finger to scrape down a layer on top of the pills, and only then did he say to the worried Grandma Wu, "There is a problem with the pills, there is a layer of incorrect medicine coated on the outside of the pills, and if it is a person with a strong body taking it, there is no big deal, it is only slightly uncomfortable, but if it is the Dowager Lady taking more than a few of them But if Mrs. Tai takes a few more, especially at this time, I'm afraid her life will be in danger!"

"This ... but this pill has always been used this way ... The Dowager Lady has always been nothing."
Grandma Wu stammered, her face pale.

"This medicine definitely can't be used more than once, as for the past, did the Dowager Lady use this kind of pill as well?" The doctor frowned, carefully examined it for a while longer, and asked in confusion.

"Also this kind, are old slaves in the soak open for the dowager lady, every time is the second master went to the palace to beg for this kind of pills, how ... how can it be wrong?" Grandma Wu panicked and explained, her mind was in chaos until now, how could she not believe that this pill would really go wrong.

"This ... I don't know!" The doctor was puzzled by what she said, "I only saw the ones under my eyes and asked about the ones under my eyes."

Qu Mo Ying suddenly asked, "In the past, when Grandmother's old illnesses occurred, how was this pill taken?"

"Three pills a day, the pills in here are actually just enough for two days, but in general, after two days the dowager lady is bound to be almost as good as she can be, and with a few other formulas, it won't be a big deal." Grandma Wu said.

On the table were four, and the party soaked one in a bowl.

"Where's the other one?" Qu Mo Ying's face changed, "Didn't you say you wouldn't eat it if you weren't sick? How come there's one missing?"

"The dowager lady was actually a bit uncomfortable yesterday, and before that, she let her old slave melt one down to eat and use it." Sweat began to break out on Sister Wu's forehead.

“But now Grandmother is getting worse and worse.” Qu Mo Ying said with a quiet look at Sister Wu.

“It may ... be that the party may have been infuriated, it may also be that Mrs. Tai’s body is not good in the first place, every time she commits an illness, basically these few are all gone.” Grandma Wu stuttered a bit and explained.

Gas to, and then fell ill, not long after that may be an accident, this pill one by one, the body of the Dowager Lady is bound to be unable to withstand, Sister Miao Fang has also hinted at their own, the Dowager Lady can not survive these pills, then it will really be a big deal!

Eyes flashed a trace of gloomy, these people pretend to Qu Xuexin things, but want the life of the dowager lady, its heart is viciously outrageous.

Qu Xuexin, Qu Mingsheng, and Yu!

“This medicine can’t be taken in its entirety, one is already like this, if it’s taken in its entirety, something is bound to happen to Mrs. Tai.” Hearing Sister Wu say this, the doctor hurriedly advised, fearing that if they didn’t understand, something serious would happen.

“Many thanks to the doctor!” Qu Mo Ying smiled at the doctor and thanked her, “We will definitely not use this medicine, we just need to check it out.”

“It is to be checked, indeed, it is to be checked, this is not a cure, this is wanting the life of your dowager lady!” The doctor shook his head and knowingly retreated.

Big families who do not have a little private things, he should say already said, this next to stay to listen is no longer appropriate.

“Sister Wu, this medicine used to be something that father went to beg for?” When the doctor went down, Qu Mo Ying looked at Sister Wu, her expression calming down.

“Yes, it’s all because the Second Master went and begged for it.” Sister Wu nodded repeatedly, and by this point, she naturally knew everything.

“Then tell father about this, this medicine should be begged for a few bottles at a time, it may be that father is not assured that all of them are placed at grandmother’s place, or he is worried that grandmother is using too much, and only brought over one bottle at a time, when was this bottle of medicine brought over?” Qu Mo Ying already had a guess in his heart and asked once again.

“Just brought it over yesterday, the previous one ran out, after Mrs. Tai told the second master, the second master said to bring it over in the next few days, it just so happened that as soon as she brought it over yesterday, Mrs. Tai was a little sick, the old slave just made up one for Mrs. Tai to take.” Grandma Wu said.

Qu Mo Ying nodded, but no longer spoke, his gaze falling on the pill in front of him, a line from the beginning overlapping with the scene at hand.

When only entered the house, the dowager lady is also sick, sick coincidentally, so that Yu’s and Yu Qingmeng’s calculations step by step can come true, that will if the dowager lady is not sick, those calculations actually will not get it.

Right now is also the same reason, Qu Mo Ying can now be sure that this matter is really Yu’s hand, now Yu’s not in but Qu Mingcheng is not in?

Moreover, Yu has been in charge of the Qu Mansion for so many years, and although she has lost her power and seems to be having a hard time, what actually happened? She really does not have anyone at hand who can be used?

“My grandma, is father in the mansion right now?” Qu Mo Ying’s eyes grew calmer as she raised her eyes and asked.

“The second master went out early this morning, he’s been very busy lately, I heard that it’s a matter of some repairs in the palace.” Grandma Wu replied, unconsciously answering every question of the fourth young miss, she was in six minds at the moment, seeing the fourth young miss so calm, this would make her heart a little more peaceful, her face was not as ugly as just now.

“Wait for father to come back, immediately both invited him to come over, the original of today’s things once again, these medicine things, and the words of the doctor, even more to be word for word with father about it!” Qu Mo Ying commanded, the depths of her eyes were ice cold, Yu’s hand was reaching out to Qu Zhi Zhen’s side?

Chapter 526 You’re moving out of the house tomorrow

Qu Zhizhen came quite quickly, and after hearing that something had happened to the Dowager Lady, he hurriedly entered the inner courtyard and came over to the Dowager Lady’s courtyard.

As soon as he entered, he asked anxiously, “How is mother?”

“Father!” Qu Mo Ying stood up to greet her, she was uneasy and had been guarding the dowager lady’s place without leaving.

“Fang just used the medicine prescribed by the doctor, slightly better, but must not be as effective as the previous pills, before it was very uncomfortable for a while, fussing until now to sleep.” Grandma Wu hurriedly reported.

“Why don’t you take the pills, they were only brought in earlier and have already been used up?” Qu Zhizhen said unhappily, this matter was known to him.

Said he hurried into the inner room.

Inside, the Mrs. only slept, but looked bad, face a white face, both is asleep, the brow is still tightly locked, sleep is not stable, before the bed, a small maid stood there waiting, afraid that she fell asleep, there is something wrong.

Qu Zhizhen gently retreated, and only when he reached the door did he re-ask Sister Wu, “What the hell is going on here?”

As soon as he entered, he felt that something was wrong, and even if he didn’t understand things yet, he had already sensed that something was not right here.

My Sister did not hide anything and told everything in a nutshell.

From Luo's idea of letting Qu Mo Ying send body tonic medicine to Qu Xuexin as soon as she entered the house, to the current Mrs. Tai's almost having an accident, or because of the pills made by the Imperial Doctor in the palace.

As soon as Qu Zhizhen heard this, his face changed drastically, and his gaze lifted and landed on Qu Mo Ying's body with a few moments of scrutiny.

Qu Mo Ying stood frankly to the side, raising her head to look at Qu Zhi Zhen, the gaze under her eyes not flickering, not half-hearted.

The room was suddenly quiet, and then Qu Zhizhen nodded, "Give me these pills along with the vials, I'll take them back and have them checked again!"

Sister Wu answered and put the pills into a medicine bottle, carefully handing it to Qu Zhizhen.

Qu Zhizhen took it and turned around to leave, but suddenly stopped and looked at Qu Mo Ying, "You wait here first, and if there is anything wrong with your grandmother, immediately come and inform my father."

"Yes!" Qu Mo Ying gave a sideways salute, she would be uneasy about her grandmother this time, so naturally she wouldn't leave.

Qu Zhizhen left and went to the study, and then took out another few bottles of medicine from the drawer in the study, and together they brought them towards the residence of one of the eunuchs outside the palace.

This is what he asked this eunuch to help make.

Since the opening of the mouth, this medicine is certainly not just a bottle, the number of each time to do, are the number of drugs he prepared to set the number of drugs, but this medicine can not be placed for too long, the Dowager Lady is not always need to take the time, every now and then the Dowager Lady's old illnesses recur when, with this pill is the best, weekdays only need ordinary medicine to adjust with the line.

These several medicines are too medicinal, and do not take advantage of the usual concoctions, but just can strongly press the body's old problems, so that when the dowager lady is sick, it is not so painful, and it is also considered to be treating the symptoms but not the root cause of the problem, but the effect of the strong pressure when it is still good.

Qu Zhizhen in the past, usually ask the doctor to help make five, six bottles, for fear that the wife's side of the age, taking medicine without a number, each time only send a bottle over, the doctor also said the general situation of a disease, a bottle of almost, the other take the ordinary medicine on the line.

That's why every time after fetching it back from the Imperial Doctor, Qu Zhizhen placed the other bottles of medicine in his study, and only when the Dowager Lady's place ran out would he send over another bottle, only to say that it wasn't too easy to beg to avoid the Dowager Lady's overuse of medication.

That eunuch happened to be off duty and in the mansion, and when he heard that Squire Qu was seeking an audience, he immediately invited him in.

After carefully checking these medicines, the eunuch handed the problematic bottle to Qu Zhizhen's face, and said with a straight face, "Servant Qu, this bottle of medicine is indeed also made by me, but this was coated with medicinal liquid unfavorable to the body of the dowager lady of your house, and a few more pills may cause an accident, and now the dowager lady of your house has used a few pills?"

"Used a pill!" Qu Zhizhen's face was ugly, his study place, the pills were taken to the dowager lady's place yesterday, and they were taken yesterday, and something happened today, how do you look at it, it's not like the dowager lady's place is out of order, it's more like the things that he placed in his study.

How could he not be outraged that there was a problem in his study.

"Luckily it's just one pill, the rest are all fine, the Squire Lord will give the fine ones to the Dowager Lady to take again, and then condition it with the usual potions, it will be fine like the next day." The eunuch breathed a sigh of relief, he was also afraid that something would happen, and by then he himself would be somewhat unable to explain.

"Just this bottle is problematic, the others are fine." He squarely opened all the bottles, one by one, and looked at all the medicines, after which he reloaded them back.

"Thank you, Imperial Doctor!" Qu Zhizhen stood up and bowed deeply.

"Servant Qu is polite!" The Imperial Doctor also stood up and returned the salute, after which he instructed uneasily, "Servant Qu needs to be even more careful, this is someone trying to lay hands on the Dowager Lady, or rather plotting to kill her."

"I know, I'm bound to go back and inquire clearly." Qu Zhizhen nodded his head with a gloomy face, and only after thanking the Imperial Doctor again did he turn around and head back to the mansion.

After returning to the mansion, he did not immediately both go to see the dowager lady, only instructed the boy to take a bottle of pills that are fine to the dowager lady to send over, himself sitting in the study with a gloomy face.

It was only after a good half a minute that he said in a deep voice, "Go and invite the Second Prince!"

"Yes!" The boy answered the order and retreated, heading over to the East Mansion, the Second Duke was usually in the East Mansion, rarely in the West Mansion.

"Father!" As Qu Mingcheng entered, he bowed deeply and respectfully to Qu Zhizhen.

Qu Zhizhen didn't say anything, lifting his eyes to look at his son grimly, scrutinizing him.

"Father, did something happen?" Qu Mingcheng raised his eyes, his face slightly flustered.

"You don't know what happened?" Qu Zhizhen asked with a cold smile.

“Father, I ... am bent on reading, I really don’t know anything yet.” Qu Mingcheng hardened his head and said, the father who was kind and gentle in the past, the pressure he gave him today was really too much, making his heart a little panicky.

But then he told himself that whatever happened, it had nothing to do with him, and that no matter how this was investigated, it could not be investigated on his own head, so there was no need to panic.

For fear that things would end up messing with himself, he had been reading behind closed doors today, and hadn’t let his boy inquire about anything, so even now he didn’t know that things had gone awry.

“You don’t know?” Qu Zhizhen sneered, reaching out to pick up a scroll in his hand and slamming it down hard.

Qu Mingcheng didn’t realize that he had been hit squarely, and reached out to cover his forehead, calling out in a panic, “Father!”

“Say, what has your mother done?” Qu Zhizhen sneered once more.

“Father ... I ... don’t know what you are talking about?” Qu Mingcheng panicked, his eyes flickering as he dared not meet Qu Zhizhen’s eyes.

“You don’t know? Do you want me to tell you about it.” Qu Zhizhen snapped, “What’s going on with your great aunt, and what’s going on with your grandmother’s medicine?”

The only thing Qu Zhizhen had to do about the pills in the study was to talk to Yu about it, and this was also to prevent a situation where the dowager lady would have an attack when he wasn’t in the mansion and didn’t have any medicine on hand.

Yu’s in the time, these medicines are actually basically considered in the hands of Yu’s, do not need him to bother, Mrs. side of the exhaustion, Yu’s will send people over to pick up the past, sent to the hands of the Mrs..

Now that Yu is not here, he is also a little slower to react here, My Sister had mentioned before that the pills by the side of the Dowager Lady were gone, Qu Zhizhen was busy for a while and never remembered it, or yesterday My Sister sent someone over again, Qu Zhizhen remembered the matter, and purposely asked someone to take a bottle of the pills over to him.

I didn't expect anything to happen to this bottle.

If there is anyone else in the house who might have tampered with the pills, it would have to be Yu, but now that Yu is not here, plus Qu Mingcheng is stirring up this matter with Luo, Qu Zhizhen is of course most suspicious of Qu Mingcheng right now.

"Father ... father, I am concentrating on reading today, even the door of the house did not go out, really do not know what is the matter, father why this so so set to ask me, is it possible that something has happened in the house?" Qu Mingcheng forced down the panic in his heart and asked in a rapid voice, his face pale with a few points of panic.

But this panic could also be interpreted as being at a loss for words, at a loss for words because of Qu Zhizhen's accusations.

"Why did you help your great aunt to find the people of Qing Yun Guan?" Qu Zhizhen scrutinized him, his face grim.

"It is the meaning of the great aunt, the great aunt also do not know where to hear, said the Qing Yun Guan Taoist nun is more psychic, can pressure people's bad luck, divining good and bad luck, let me go to look for, but I can not find, there is no way out of it when I met Xu Zhi'an, it is his proposal to go to find another female Taoist nun, after that the things are the great aunt and the female Taoist nun themselves contact, and with me have nothing to do with it again."

Qu Mingcheng was prepared and hurriedly said.

Hearing him say Xu Zhi An's name frankly, Qu Zhi Zhen's face looked slightly better for a few points, "Didn't you say that you are dedicated to studying? How come your big brother didn't get involved in this, but you did?"

Compared to Qu Mingcheng, Qu Minghui was Luo's own son.

"Father, Great Auntie has always been very good to me, I have been studying with Great Uncle for so many years, and I have always respected Great Auntie and Great Uncle, now that Great Auntie has something wrong, naturally I can't just stand by, and naturally I'll help if I can, is there something wrong here?"

Qu Mingcheng said urgently, raising his eyes to Qu Zhizhen, his face full of panic, "Could it be that something has happened to Great Auntie?"

His panic mixed with the previous panic in one place, and it was really hard to tell what it was that he was panicking over.

The causes and consequences of these things, he has long been calculated in which, really not afraid of the father to ask, before slightly exposed traces, but also in the past days the father's power is too heavy, so that he had a moment of panic, which in fact, has been slowly calmed down.

No matter what happened, it had nothing to do with him, even if grandmother would have died, it would have been because of that bitchy girl Qu Mo Ying, and had absolutely nothing to do with himself!

Even if you find out about that Jing'an real person, the only incense burner that showed its shape is long gone, and there is no evidence that the incense ash inside that incense burner was mixed with poison at that time.

As for the matter of the grandmother, it had even less to do with herself; her mother had only told herself a secret, and she had had a message passed on, as far as it went!

Thinking this way, the panic in his heart receded slightly, and although his face still looked alarmed, his heart had actually slowly calmed down.

But the next moment, he heard Qu Zhizhen's gloomy voice, "You will move out of the mansion tomorrow!"

Head suddenly raised, shocked, looked at Qu Zhizhen sitting above, a word could not be said ...

Chapter 527 Suspicion, Various Whispers

"Moved out?" Yu Chun asked in surprise, bringing the tea in her hand to the table in front of Qu Mo Ying.

Mrs. Tai has woken up, looked at the situation is okay, let Qu Mo Ying back to rest, only to return to the courtyard to hear Sister Zhou came back to report things.

"Are moving, said to be outside to find a quiet place, reading more quiet, the mansion is ultimately too chaotic, just now the old slave also saw the second prince's boy in the packing things."

Qu Mingcheng used to live in the East House, but must be the son of the West House, in the West House naturally also has a yard, this will be packed with some bits and pieces of the West House.

"Why so sudden?" Yu Chun glanced at her own young lady and realized that her own young lady could not afford a single ripple on her face, as if she had known it would be like this.

"I don't know, I heard that the East Mansion side is also packing up and moving out today." Sister Zhou shook her head, this happened so suddenly that the entire Western Mansion was discussing this matter, there was no need to inquire about anything to know something relevant, "I heard that the Second Master had specially called the Second Duke over to give him a lecture before, probably because the reading matter wasn't too good!"

That's what Sister Chow guessed.

Qu Mo Ying picked up the tea and took a sip, put it down, and faintly asked, "Is there anything else going on in the mansion?"

"Yes, the second master was in a bad mood today, he was furious, and beat up one of the boys in the study, then sent someone to sell out, it was the whole family that was sold out."

Sister Chow said.

This thing is not small, this boy is a family son, not just him, and his family, in the past days in the house is also considered to be used, whether it is him, or his family, this does not know what mistakes, not just him, even with a family all sold.

This matter was bigger for the entire underlings of the house than the second son going outside to study.

“The study boy?” Qu Mo Ying hooked her lips with a smile.

“Yes, it is the study boy, in the past, the study boy is the second master’s beloved, this will not know how much of a mistake is made to do this kind of thing, the specific how everyone can’t say clearly, but just in the speculation that this boy is not a unclean hands and feet, stealing the second master’s most important official documents.”

Sister Chow spelled out the speculation that the most people out there felt was possible.

Otherwise it really wouldn’t make sense for the Second Master to be so angry all of a sudden.

Stealing the most important official documents, then it is not the ordinary unclean hands and feet of this boy, but the second master’s opposite family to send over the secret agent, such a person naturally can not stay in the house, not only him, and may even be his family is not safe, the family of the moment all dealt with, is also extenuating.

Qu Mo Ying laughed softly, his eyes cold under his long eyelashes.

This boy should be on the pills to move the hand of the person, or this boy should be Yu’s long ago bought under the person, can touch the Mrs. pill, think only such a person, it is no wonder that before the Mrs. disease so coincidental, now is also so coincidental.

Sister Miao had already told her earlier that the Dowager Lady’s old age and strength were very prone to triggering old illnesses, and there were such herbs over in the northern border that caused people to feel dizzy and weak, just like the kind of herb that she encountered in the Duke of Qi's mansion that day, which was one of those herbs.

The Dowager Lady is old and weak, the slightest dizziness is difficult to make people think that it is an old disease outbreak, with a pill of this special medicine down, naturally, it is more serious up.

It would also, therefore, allow this old disease of the Dowager's to be secretly controlled, which could be triggered or aggravated.

In this house, if there are still people who can make the dowager lady how, can control the house, non-Yu's not count, Yu's not there, Qu Qiuyan went to the King's house, can have the ability to do this kind of thing, Qu Mingcheng's suspicion is the biggest, and even more coincidentally he just happened to be in the Luo's things inside.

Even if he looked innocent so what, with Qu Zhizhen's heart, how could he not allow his son to be involved in it, even if it was just a suspicion.

Originally, after this matter really out, Qu Xuexin half dead, the dowager lady may really have a big problem, that will who will still notice Qu Mingcheng participate in the small details, all the faults all in their own body, no matter whether it is the East House or the West House, this mouthful of bad gas will come out in their own body.

"Miss, it must be the Second Prince!" Sister Miao was the one who knew what was going on, this would calmly affirm.

"Yes, it's him!" Qu Mo Ying nodded, her long eyelashes fluttered twice, the smile at the corner of her lips curved out a hint of an icy arc bottom, "He just didn't expect that even if there was no evidence, father wouldn't be able to tolerate him."

As Qu Zhizhen's only son, naturally, Qu Zhizhen is the most attentive, compared to the two daughters, it can be said that Qu Zhizhen's only care is this son.

But even so, Qu Zhizhen is not soft, and even without saying a word, the thunder and lightning to deal with this matter, to suppress this matter in the smallest possible range.

For this cheap father's this hand, even Qu Mo Ying had to admire, compared to the general civil officials, this cheap father's shot is much more harsh and direct.

With this kind of severity, is it really just an ordinary Squire?

"Even if it's for the sake of studying, but being sent from the mansion to an outside courtyard to study will make people gossip." Sister Zhou remembered the rumors in the mansion and said, "The mansion is saying that the second madam has lost her favor, and the third young miss has now arrived at the King's Mansion, and now it's the second prince who has also lost the second master's heart, saying that ... saying that it's ..."

Sister Zhou said here hesitated for a moment, peeped at Qu Mo Ying's expression, see his own Miss look good, only to put down the heart, these words of doubt, she just said so in passing, to be able to export, I feel a little inappropriate, the second master is the fourth Miss's real father.

"What was said, Sister Zhou say it!" Qu Mo Ying contained a smile and said unconcernedly.

These words made Sister Zhou hesitate, she just lost her words, originally did not intend to say more, but the young lady asked, she could not not help but say, sighed and could only helplessly say, "Miss, these are the subordinates remaining guess, you do not take it too much to heart, it is just so said, all said that the second master may want to marry another."

"Another marriage?" Qu Mo Ying laughed, "That's a good thing!"

"Little ... thing, if another marriage, you ... what do you do?" Sister Zhou was a little flustered and hurriedly said, afraid that Qu Mo Ying would not understand the meaning of this.

"What's the relationship with me? Another married, to be rested is also Yu, or think there is a danger is also Yu's lineage, I 么..." 曲莫影 stood up, walked to the front of the piano stage, reached out in front of the ancient zither gently pressed, the words do not bring a trace of smoke and fire gas, cold and indifferent, "with me What does it have to do with me? I was originally the abandoned daughter, can it be worse?"

The last sentence was as cold as it was indifferent, and as bland as it was as if it was talking about someone else's business.

Sister Zhou's eyes are red, but half a voice can not say a word of comfort, this house since childhood is abandoned is not the own Miss, was originally the most honored first daughter of the house, but was abandoned in the manor for so many years, and even because of the Yu's hurt eyes.

If this was an accident, not many people in this house would believe it.

According to this, it really has nothing to do with the lady, it's already at rock bottom, can't it be worse?

"Miss is right, this matter really doesn't have anything to do with Miss, marry or repudiate, in fact, the one who is in a hurry isn't Miss either, but the second madam and the second prince, and of course, it could be the third miss!" Sister Miao was much calmer than Sister Zhou, and after a little careful thought she understood the reasoning behind this and smiled.

Only this smile fell on his own young lady's body, and it also carried a few moments of pity.

I really do not understand how the eyes of the second master are long, actually did not find Yu's mother and daughter, mother and son of the evil, this kind of woman should have been repudiated long ago, and still stay for the New Year is not?

She now even hoped that these rumors were true, and it would be best to really repudiate Yu and really marry a woman in, to see how Yu's children would still make trouble!

"Sister Miao, you continue to keep an eye on Yu's side and inquire about the previous nunnery, Sister Zhou, since the house is spreading the word like this, you should help spread the word more as well, as to whether it's true or not, who knows!" Qu Mo Ying smiled, her fingers pressed down on the strings of the zither again.

The song is not a song, the sound is not a sound, but this string is moving, all is changing, this next change the more the more people can not hear.

Isn't that just stirring up a pool of spring water?

Qu Mingcheng thought that this matter would not be related to him, in fact, sometimes there is really no need for any evidence, this water is now the more mixed up the better, the more chaotic the better.

Yu's still have manpower in the mansion, necessarily not just the study's boy a person, that's good ...

Who are not fools, Qu Zhi Zhen is not, Qu Zhilin can do the royal historian of course is not, even if he and Qu Zhi Zhen in the past days of brotherly love, the brother of the family has always been the head of the horse is Zhou, but this time it is different, this time almost the accident is his wife and daughter, a little bit of his daughter will be dead. ...

No one can stand it, right? ...

"Looking into that one nunnery?" The lazy voice came out from the thin lips of the reserved man with a few woozy tones.

Ji Hai respectfully bowed his head, "Yes, I heard that there is something wrong with that nunnery master, but after many years, it's not that easy to investigate, and I'm afraid that the fourth young miss won't be able to find out for a while."

Qu four miss manpower is so few, and check these things, there may need some long ago records, that some also not Qu four miss can check, the most important responsibility of the dark guard is to guard the master, check some old things best to the Yamen, I'm afraid it's not very convenient.

"Then send someone to see if there's a case." Pei Yuanjun's handsome eyebrows rose slightly, and the tiny earrings on his ears flashed a light in the sunlight, revealing a bit of enchantment.

"Yes, slave will send someone to investigate!" Ji Hai breathed a sigh of relief and said with a smile on his brow! He knew that His Majesty would definitely help.

“Go check on the Duke of Qi and the Yue clan in Jiangnan again!” Pei Yuanjun’s brows lightened as he said, a hint of mockery slipping through his handsome eyes, the Duke of Qi’s actions now could really be a bit much.

The Qu Mansion and the Duke of Qi’s Mansion? There’s also a Liu Shangshu House, as well as the Yue Clan and the Duke of Qi in Jiangnan?

It’s not all boring in the capital ...

“This time when this king returned to the capital, he also brought some earth rituals that he didn’t send out, so let’s send a pair of beauties to Servant Qu!”

Chapter 528 The Yu Clan Who Is Determined to Return to the House

“It didn’t work out?” Yu’s gasped sharply, grabbing the corner of the quilt with all her might, her eyes hateful and venomous, “How could it not work out? That old bastard didn’t die? The bitch girl is also fine?”

“That’s what the people sent by the second prince said, and now the second prince has been kicked out to live outside, I heard it was the second master’s intention!” Hailan whispered, picking up the cooled bowl of medicine and handing it to Yu, “Ma’am, you should recuperate first, when your body recuperates, we’ll talk about this again, okay?”

“No way!” Yu gritted her teeth and hated her voice, “Why is it that these two people are fine, but I have to wait here, Yue that bitch woman died here at that time, I don’t want to die here, I want to go back.”

She had counted on such a thing to go back.

As long as the old man and the bitchy girl died, the mansion was bound to be in chaos, and then she, the head mother of the house, would have a reason to go back and organize the internal affairs, and even if the master still had some opinions about himself, for the sake of his children, he wouldn’t stop himself.

By then the Qu Mansion will be its own world again.

But this matter actually did not succeed, how not to let her resentment even medicine can not be used, she want to return to the house, she is the main mother of the Qu House, how can she stay in this kind of place, this place makes her repeatedly think of the small Yue Clan, the small Yue Clan is the death of the small Yue Clan in this place, this kind of inexplicable feeling, it is very difficult to bear.

It was as if something silent was spying on her, which kept Yu awake at night sometimes.

“Ma’am, take it easy ...” Hailan advised.

“How can I not be in a hurry, I don’t want to stay here, not even for a moment!” Yu’s exasperated wave of her hand almost knocked over the bowl of medicine, Hailan hastily retracted her hand and carefully placed the bowl first on the small table next to the bed.

Naturally, life in the nunnery could not be compared to the Qu Mansion, even though this was already the best house in the nunnery, but in Hailan’s eyes, it was still similar to the Qu Mansion’s woodshed, or even worse than the woodshed, at least the tiles on it were not that secure, and that day when it rained, there was a place where the rain was actually leaking.

She hadn’t slept all night to catch the rain.

The place was really shabby, but she couldn’t help it, this little nunnery wasn’t much of a place in the first place, it was good enough to be able to live in this one, and the tiles on the nunnery’s side weren’t very good, and there were some leaks on rainy days.

The nunnery owner also assured me that he would have someone come over to fix it in the next few days, so it can’t keep leaking!

When it rains, the whole thing feels wet.

“Madam, the nunnery master said that he would come in a few days to fix the tiles, saying that there would be no more leaks in the future.” Hailan advised again.

“Is that what I’m saying? I am not wanting to live here, whatever this place leaks, I want to go back to the house, I want to go back to the house.” Yu’s face grimaced as she slapped the bedpan in hatred and annoyance.

“Madam, wait a little longer, maybe next ... time,” Hailan said, “the slave girl told the nunnery master, this next nunnery master will inevitably place this place a little more comfortable!”

“More comfortable? How much more comfortable can such a shabby place be? To actually send me here, I am the lady-in-waiting, my real lady-in-waiting.” Yu gritted her teeth in hatred and annoyance, only hating that at this time that bitchy girl and the old guy appeared in front of her, she would definitely want the two of them to look good.

To actually send herself to the nunnery where Yue had her accident back then, don’t say it was a coincidence, she didn’t believe it.

This must be a conspiracy between that old guy and the bitchy girl, it’s bound to be them, as long as they’re dead, then it’s really all over.

“No, I’m going to find the second master, I’m going to find him to talk about things, he can’t let me live here, I’ve given him so many years of being the rightful wife, I’ve given him so many years of blocking things, it’s not for nothing, I’m ...” Yu’s hand fiercely gripped the quilt by her hand A corner, stern voice, thin into a triangle eyes also carried up, through a red and crazy.

As soon as Hailan reached out to cover her mouth, she begged in a low voice, “Ma’am, ma’am, don’t say so, you think about the second prince, you think about the third young miss, you think about yourself!”

Yu’s hand pushed away Aunt Hailan’s hand, “What am I afraid of, I just want to say, he sent me to this kind of situation, let me offset his daughter’s grievances, why, I’m the one with the grievances, harming Yue’s, harming the little Yue’s ...”

“Ma’am, ma’am, please, do you ... you want it to be worse? Do you ... you really give up everything?” Aunt Hailan flung herself to her knees and begged, her voice low and trembling with panic and nervousness.

Yu finally calmed down slowly, her body leaned back, her eyes closed, and it was only after a good half a second that she asked hoarsely, "Do I really have to wait here for the day when my life is over, like Xiao Yue's? I won't give way to another woman!"

"Mrs. ... you are also just guessing, in fact, it is not necessarily true, so many years, you see the connection? No, I don't think so! Everything is your guess, really impossible! But if you really want to make a scene, not to mention you, even the entire Qu House may have something, you also said before, Qu House is the second son of the future, you do not remember it!"

Seeing that she had calmed down, Hyland secretly wiped a cold sweat and stood up, holding onto the bed, and continued to persuade her.

Yu did not speak again this time, for a long time before saying, "I feel that there is something between the two of them ... so long ago, otherwise how could they be so protective of that woman! That woman by what right after ..., also let a man so maintain, if say this inside, really have what, I ... I do not believe!"

"Madam, believe it or not, you are the second lady of the Qu, you are the real second lady of the Qu, giving birth to the third young lady and the second son, now the third young lady has entered the King's House, this later, if the strength of the Qu House rises, the third young lady is still unlimited possibilities, and the second son is an intelligent one, why do you want to think about these irrelevant speculations, when the time comes, it may not be possible to say that it is still bad for the third young lady and the second son. "

Hyland continued to take Yu's pair of children.

Yu reacted quite quickly this time, gritting her teeth and saying, "Next time, I definitely won't let that bitchy girl get away with it so cheaply."

"Madam, what else do you want?" Aunt Hailan asked in a low voice, quite frightened, "Madam, now that the second prince has also been expelled, you should wait a little longer first!"

"I don't want to wait, I don't want to wait a moment, I'm going back, is this a place for me to stay? Bitchy girl, that bitchy girl ..." Yu scolded.

“Is Second Lady Qu awake?” As he was talking, a voice came from outside.

After Hailan and Yu glanced at each other, Hailan turned around and walked out to see a middle-aged female nun, the nunnery’s head.

“Something wrong with the nunnery?” Hyland stepped forward and smiled.

“Just wanted to ask if Second Lady Qu is awake? Someone from the nunnery is going to the city today, so if Second Mistress Qu has any errands to perform just order them.” The nunnery master said with a smile.

During this period of time the female nuns in the nunnery went into the city more often, mainly because this Second Lady Qu wanted to send someone out, but of course the cost of going out was not small.

There was nothing to do in the nunnery, and the master of the nunnery didn’t mind finding something to generate income for the nunnery, so he was flattered.

It is not easy for her to get this nunnery, although it is a small place, but at least it is a place to settle down, and this Second Lady Qu used to be considered a godly friend, and now that she lives in one place, of course, she is even more bashful.

“There’s nothing to do today, so I’m troubling the nunnery!” Hyland said politely.

“No trouble, no trouble, if the second Mrs. Qu needs to go into the city next time to bring a message with a letter, just come over and say to the poor nun is, the poor nun and the second Mrs. Qu is also considered an old acquaintance, and won’t care about some of the false rituals.” Although the nunnery owner was disappointed that he couldn’t make any money today, his smile was still very flattering.

The nunnery was too small, and there was no money in the weekdays, and the Yu’s in front of her, but her big gold master, of course, she had to serve better and serve more attentively.

Hailan didn't say anything this time, waved her hand, signaling that she could leave, the house had just had such a thing happen, she would be unwilling for Yu to get her hands on things in the house again.

The fourth young lady is not so good to provoke, but look at the past to know, this matter seems to understand, but inexplicably Hailan still feel very uneasy, just afraid of the too madam and the fourth young lady to check to the lady here, the lady's immediate situation can not afford to half of the accident ...

In the recent period of time, we must let the lady be more peaceful, if the lady still has something in mind, this period of time should also persuade the lady to stop first and put it on the future, this kind of thing can't be rushed.

Madam wants to return to the house, the fourth young lady and the dowager lady are the obstacles, what should be done to remove the fourth young lady and the dowager lady? Hailan couldn't think well for a while, she only felt her heart was in turmoil, getting more and more uneasy, and she always felt that there was a weird feeling that made her panic approaching!

It's dangerous ...

"Two women were sent from the mansion, from King Utopia?" Qu Mo Ying raised his head in surprise, his fingers caressing the strings of the zither, the sound of the zither weakened, leaving only a hint of tremolo under his hand.

"Yes, it is said that when King Utopia went on a mission to the Northern Border, he brought back the Tuyi, which was sent by the local people over there, and was given to the Second Master by borrowing a flower, and is now residing in one of the mansion's remote courtyards."

Sister Miao said.

Qu Mo Ying's face revealed a hint of a smile, earth ceremony? It's really a very good earth ceremony, since it's an earth ceremony, and it's this Yu County King's intention, Qu Zhizhen can't even accept it if he wants to.

"What did Grandmother say?"

“My Sister said that the Dowager Lady said to keep it, it’s just an earth ceremony anyway.” Sister Miao laughed.

This means that for Qu Zhizhen received these two women in the house, originally also thought to give Qu Zhizhen another woman into the door, now since there are two women to send over, Qu Zhizhen will not be thinking about Yu’s for a while, but it is to save her some to do for her, but for her, it is a good thing.

Although she is dealing with the Yu’s right now, but also can not let the Yu’s attention on their own, there are Qu Zhizhen received this earth instrument in it, Yu’s right now the most concerned should be Qu Zhizhen this cheap father it!

“That old nunnery master’s nephew check how?” Narrowing her watery eyes, Qu Mo Ying’s eyes were cold and hostile, this matter still had to be investigated from the root.

Chapter 529 Miss Qi who pries for news

“Miss don’t worry, it’s been checked almost, Eunuch Ji Hai said that he will bring it over in the next two days for you to take a look.” Yu Dong smiled and took over.

“How did ... he know about this?” Qu Mo Ying asked after a moment of silence.

“Miss, you don’t worry, this matter is not too convenient for us to check, Eunuch Ji Hai check is still very convenient, Eunuch Ji Hai said, but it is just a show of hands, it’s nothing.” Yu Dong explained, knowing that his own young lady is not willing to trouble the king too much, but this matter he and Eunuch Ji Hai do not feel troubled ah.

“In the future ... try to check by yourself, the king’s side also has a lot of things, it is inconvenient to bother the king’s manpower.” Qu Mo Ying instructed Yu Dong.

“Don’t worry miss, slave girl understands.” Yu Dong answered with a smile.

“Miss, what are we going to do then?” Sister Miao continued to ask, referring to the two women entering the house.

“This matter has nothing to do with us, grandmother and father can arrange it however they want, try not to get involved in this kind of thing.” Qu Mo Ying pondered for a moment and said, this matter obviously had a follow-up, she naturally would not get involved.

“Yes, Miss!” Sister Miao also nodded her head and responded, she was about to retreat but was called back by Qu Mo Ying, the “Miss, what else?” Seeing Qu Mo Ying want to say something, Sister Miao could not help but ask first, since this young lady in the manor before, looked still withdrawn, since the return to the mansion, more and more self-improvement, Sister Miao is very pleased, but also more and more to the young lady convinced.

Her life was originally saved by Miss, so she should be dedicated to Miss.

In the past, when the young lady ordered things, she was very crisp and clean, today there was something abnormal, so Sister Miao couldn’t help but ask first.

“Sister Miao, do you think there are people from the Northern Border in our residence?” Qu Mo Ying’s willow brows knitted.

Sister Miao rose in surprise, “Has Miss found people from the Northern Territory in the mansion?”

Since leaving the northern border, so many years, Sister Miao has not gone back, past things now think about, can not say what it is like, but for some people, some things are still missed.

“I didn’t find it, but lately I always feel that some things ... and the Northern Border can all be related.” Qu Mo Ying gently pursed her cherry lips and said with a few moments of confusion.

“Miss is talking about the things that triggered the Dowager Lady’s physical discomfort, as well as what she saw on the Duke of Qi’s mansion before, and at Lady Qu’s place?” Sister Miao asked tentatively, all these abnormalities that Qu Mo Ying had encountered before had been privately talked about with Sister Miao.

“Yes, it always feels like there are people from the Northern Border.” Qu Mo Ying nodded.

The northern border is far away from the capital, as a matter of fact, there should not be such a close connection, but after many things, it seems that there is such a layer of meaning in, so she can not afford not to think more.

“Miss, it might not be someone from the Northern Border, it might be someone from the capital, who collected people from the Northern Border around and stirred up so many things, but it might also be a coincidence, the old slave has been in the capital for so many years, but in fact hasn’t really found anyone who is also from the Northern Border, and since we’re here, it’s hard to find out anything more, no matter what it is, since it’s all similar to what’s in the capital.”

Sister Miao thought for a moment.

Things although all have the shadow of the northern border in, but the northern border is so big, there are some people come to the Central Plains is also very likely, just as she, under the coincidence for the lady saved, then there are some other people original is also normal.

Although the northern border is far away, there are still a lot of possibilities to come over, except that everyone looks the same, and if you don’t say the northern border side, you really can’t tell which ones were originally from the northern border.

Hearing Sister Miao say this, Qu Mo Ying also nodded, reaching out to rub her brow, recently there were many things to do, this kind of thought of hers was sort of out of the blue, it should also be encountered by each.

Mrs. Tai’s body is still getting better quite fast, after using the right pills, her body is much better, and she purposely called Qu Mo Ying over again to ask about things.

What happened yesterday she was unwell at the time, and the later part was not clear at all, but there was nothing against Qu Zhizhen letting Qu Mingsheng go outside to study.

Luo's things, how to see Qu Mingcheng is stirred in it, no matter whether there is no evidence of this matter, Qu Mingcheng can hardly escape its responsibility, live out or not.

This is the only grandson of the West House, and the dowager lady also wants him to study well in peace and not to melt his mind on unnecessary things.

Yu, has always been a bane, and no one who is closer to her will do any good!

The next few days, the entire Qu Mansion is quiet, that day's matter seems to have not risen what big splash is suppressed, only Qu Mo Ying know, these days Luo almost no longer come over, only in a go to the dowager lady to greet the peace time encountered, the eyes are also red, seems to have just cried.

As for the words of going to visit Qu Xuexin, he never said it again, nor did he let anyone send anything to Qu Xuexin's place again.

Qi Xiangyu came over to the house.

Qu Mo Ying welcomed him to the courtyard entrance, and the two of them entered the house hand in hand together.

Qi Xiangyu still came to Qu Mo Ying's courtyard for the first time, looked at the arrangement of her house and the zither stand placed on one side, praised it again and again, and only said that after she went back, she also wanted to set up a zither stand and place it there, so that when she wanted to play it, she could go up and play it directly, and didn't need to put it directly on the bookcase.

Even sat over and bounced it slightly, in quick succession.

"It's actually that Feng Yu Qin?" Qi Xiangyu once again loved it, the last time she saw it, it was also Qu Mo Ying's, she didn't expect that the ancient zither inherited from her own family, ended up in someone else's hands, it's really surprising, but there are some words that she is not good to ask more, she just felt very fond of it.

“Yes, it is that phoenix in the piano, Miss Qi seems to be very concerned about the phoenix in the piano?” Qu Mo Ying smiled and let the maid on the tea, snacks, just on the side of the piano platform on a small table, sitting in front of the piano platform, if not playing, leaning there, but also can eat with some snacks, but also very comfortable.

This place was originally designed with comfort in mind, and it was one of the most altered places after Qu Mo Ying moved in.

For fiddling the zither, Qu Mo Ying had always demanded comfort, which was her habit in her last life, and some small positions were repaired the same as in her last life.

It is also extremely easy to access.

“This Feng Yu zither, in fact, still has a great origin in our mansion.” Qi Xiangyu sighed and said.

“Can Ms. Qi tell us about it?” Qu Mo Ying said curiously.

“Speaking of which, this Feng Yu Guqin originally belonged to our mansion, it was sent by grandfather to the Yue clan in Jiangnan as a gift, I didn’t expect this gift to end up in the hands of Fourth Miss Qu.” Qi Xiangyu sighed, this time she didn’t hide it, it was very natural to say, after finishing she looked at Qu Mo Ying’s face.

It wasn’t a surprise to find her.

“In fact, I also heard about it from my maternal grandfather’s side, but I just didn’t care about it, and then I saw that Miss Qi looked different, and only then did I have someone look into it.”

Qu Mo Ying faintly said, in fact, this is not difficult to check, just a little ask on the line, the only inconvenience is that this is far away from Jiangnan, some things also have to ask the time, may not be able to say clearly, or there are other hidden feelings in.

But now it looks like Fourth Miss Qu already knows.

“Does Fourth Miss Qu know why your maternal grandfather gave the zither to your mother in the first place, but not to the mother who had given it to the Crown Princess?” Qi Xiangyu casually asked, pretending not to care.

Qu Mo Ying’s eyes deepened a bit, and then he faintly said, “Maybe it’s because Mother likes it?”

Although this is said with uncertainty, but in fact, this matter is really counted on her the most clear, whether it is the small Yue Clan or the big Yue Clan, in her memory, are her mother, only for the small Yue Clan’s things, all rumors, Qu Mo Ying was born birth mother died, this is a fact.

A lot of this was inquired about later, but it’s not really that accurate.

Qi Xiangyu came just in time, looking at Qi Xiangyu’s appearance, she also came with the intention of prying, originally she wanted to go to explore Qi Xiangyu’s tone, and now it was sent to her door.

“Listen to grandfather said, when your mother went to the capital, Jiangnan Yue’s side sent not by the dowry over, should be extremely like your mother right!” Qi Xiangyu laughed and asked, picking up the tea on hand to take a sip less

“It could be!” Qu Mo Ying said this sluggishly, and after finishing, sighed softly, “It must be too far away, and no matter what, it’s always better than being right next to your loved ones.”

Qi Xiangyu’s heart skipped a beat, putting down the tea in her hand, “Fourth Miss Qu’s words are poor, in fact, when Second Lady Qu married into the capital, Lady Ling’anbo had already gone to the capital, counting the two sisters can also have a care, right? It’s not as if they have left their relatives.”

Qu Mo Ying laughed bitterly twice, “After my mother entered the capital, there is indeed an aunt to protect her, but after all, aunt is only just entered the capital, she has not yet established herself, and there is always a place where she can’t take care of her mother and mother, and that’s why there are things behind her.”

Qu Mo Ying’s head lowered as he spoke, and he could tell that he was in a bad mood.

Qi Xiangyu can only appease her a few more sentences, and then look at the corners of her lips with a faint smile, only then said, "When the second Mrs. Qu came to the capital, grandmother is very much like, but then slowly between the two houses less than walking, the second Mrs. Qu is an introverted temperament, invited a few times did not come, so much so that later on when things happen, grandmother is also less than rescue."

So, it's Mrs. Duke of Qi who made Qi Xiangyu come over today?

This Qu Mo Ying is not surprised, just now between Qi Xiangyu's words and actions, all with a few points of the meaning of the investigation, if it is sent by the Duke of Qi, since it will not be so.

Qu Mo Ying is very sure that the Duke of Qi knows a secret about his mother, but this secret Mrs. Duke of Qi seems to be unaware of it, it is heard that the Duke of Qi is very trusting of Mrs. Duke of Qi, and the backyard of the Duke of Qi's house is also very clean, and this Mrs. Duke of Qi is considered to be the envy of the ladies in the capital.

How many other wives are as honorable, as noble, and as pleasing to their husbands and sons-in-law?

But right now is the two people face and heart, or what others see is the appearance, this Duke of Qi clearly has something to hide from Mrs. Duke of Qi, and Mrs. Duke of Qi is making efforts to find out this secret.

The bottom of her eyes under the veil of her eyes was a deep humor, this kind of thing originally had nothing to do with her, but now it was something that concerned her mother, she had to ask about it.

Sure enough, this next some of the questioning, Qi Xiangyu are leaning hard on the mother, and from time to time, ask about some of the mother's old stories, some of the Yue's old stories, as well as rumors of the mother's things, all the focus is put on this ...

Chapter 530 A String of Pink Pearls

Qu Mo Ying responded bashfully, and answered all the things he couldn't answer according to his own mind.

Originally, she had basically gotten her information about the Xiao Yue clan from other people's mouths, and even some of the directions were worse than Qi Xiangyu's.

Qi Xiangyu see really can't ask, also no longer ask more, she actually to Qu Mo Ying's feeling is still really good, but grandmother's meaning and can't be disobeyed.

Compared to Liu Jingyu, this granddaughter of hers in front of Mrs. Duke of Qi, nothing bottom, but not much face, if it is done well, but also a praise, if it is not done well, I am afraid that it is again some blame.

Seeing that it was almost time, Qi Xiangyu smiled and asked, "Fourth Miss Qu, how about the two of us go out to eat? It's also a nice day today, so we can stroll around again in the meantime."

She preferred to stroll around and not pry for any information.

"Good!" Qu Mo Ying nodded and answered, both of them were slightly under the maid's service, freshened up, Qu Mo Ying also sent someone to say a word to the Dowager Lady when she was freshening up, the Dowager Lady answered and only instructed her to be careful.

The two people finished packing, together out of the Qu Mansion, Qi Xiangyu has a carriage over, originally invited Qu Mo Ying on her carriage, Qu Mo Ying thought about it or their own carriage called a carriage, a moment when the two people go back to their own time is also convenient, so that Qi Xiangyu will not have to send her back to the house at that time.

Seeing that she was so insistent, Qi Xiangyu had no choice but to listen to her, and the two of them each called for a carriage, and together they headed over to the street.

Stopped at a restaurant, coincidentally, it was actually the same place where Qu Mo Ying saw Pei Qing Min last time.

"This place is very good, I've heard big brother talk about it." Qi Xiangyu also got off the carriage, reached out and pointed at the restaurant in front of her, and laughed.

Quemoy Shadow nodded and followed her-inside.

Wanted originally was the third floor of the private room, but the third floor of the private room is no longer, the second floor happens to be vacant a, Qi Xiangyu immediately agreed.

With the status of the two of them, it would naturally be inappropriate for them to sit outside and eat.

After the two went in, the fellow brought tea, and the maid that the two brought with them went to order the dishes that their own young lady loved to eat.

Qu Mo Ying poured himself to ask for a cup of tea, and poured a cup for Qi Xiangyu as well.

Qi Xiangyu took a sip, her eyes lit up, and she said in a loud voice, "It's really good, I thought that this kind of place tea is bound to be bad, I didn't think that the tea here is actually this good."

Qu Mo Ying also picked up the teacup and took a sip, nodding, it was indeed good, she felt so the last time she was here.

"I know about this place, or I heard my big brother talk about it, saying that the things here are very good, there are a few famous dishes, we must order them, it's rare to have such an opportunity to come out." Qi Xiangyu laughed, taking a few more sips before putting the teacup down.

"Duke Qi comes often?" Qu Mo Ying asked casually.

"Big brother is not often, but in the past when the second brother was here was often bring cousin over, this will be he is not in the capital ..." Qi Xiangyu said here paused for a moment before saying, "The second brother is the most protective of cousin, no matter what is will stand on cousin sister's side."

When they were small, even if the two of them had quarreled, in the end, they were still pressed by the second brother to apologize to Liu Jingyu, and every time they thought about it, Qi Xiangyu's mood would not be good.

She is the first daughter of the Duke of Qi's house, and is still the only first daughter, even though this first daughter is only on her grandfather's side, and her father being a commoner's son doomed her to not be liked by her grandmother, but then again, she is also surnamed Qi, and is a granddaughter, not a granddaughter, but it is just that no matter whether it is in front of her grandmother or her second brother, she herself is the one who is being stepped on.

Others only said that Liu Jingyu was gentle and decent, only Qi Xiangyu really disliked Liu Jingyu, but she could not do anything about it!

"Your second brother?" Qu Mo Ying asked with a smile, his expression light.

"Yes, my second brother, he likes his cousin the most, but it is a pity that ..." Qi Xiangyu said this with a few points of mockery, but Qu Mo Ying still read it, it looks like it is yearning for the goddess who has no heart, and the king of Xiang has a dream now.

"Okay, don't talk about him, anyway, big brother said that this place is really good, let's try it today, in the past days, I was also inconvenient to go out of the mansion, even if I wanted to go out my grandmother didn't allow me to go out, it's not easy to let me come out now, I always have to play to my heart's content." Qi Xiangyu excitedly said, sticking her head out the window.

Outside is the street, the second floor is not as good as the third floor view, but the view is not too close, you can see the people coming and going on the street below, it is very lively.

Qi Xiangyu is also a long time in the boudoir, the Duke of Qi's wife is extremely heavy rules, and she is not like Liu Jingyu so favored, in the past days rarely have the opportunity to go out on the street, at this time to see the excitement, very much like, from time to time, will talk to the Qu Mo Ying to see the scene below.

Being told by her, Qu Mo Ying also evoked a few points of interest and asked Yu Dong to slightly pull back the curtains on her side a few points as well and look down.

This side of the street is not small, both sides are stores, from time to time to see a carriage over to stop, from inside out of the young lady, or also have a young man, the street above the small stretcher with a stretcher of vendors in the call to buy, especially their window this side of the store on the past, actually still a women's jewelry store.

The store is not big, looking at only one front, but there are a lot of people coming and going, and not all of them are some gorgeous clothes of the lady, there are also some ordinary women, it should be that the things of this jewelry store are not expensive, so that there will be different grades of women to enter the inside, and it looks quite good.

Compared to Yue Jin Ge, this one was too small, but by the looks of it, there were quite a few customers.

"Fourth Miss Qu, we'll go down and take a look later as well." Qi Xiangyu reached out and pointed down, saying with interest.

Qu Mo Ying nodded her head, since she had come out, she was not in a hurry to go back, it would be best if she had time to go to the Yue Jin Pavilion and Yue Yi Pavilion again in a while.

The meal is very tasteful, the two people with the very satisfied, after finishing, and then rest a little after a while, the two people are satisfied down the restaurant, straight to the opposite side of the jewelry store over.

Once inside the door to realize that here to buy is indeed not the kind of particularly expensive jewelry, some are not even gold and silver things, but better than the exquisite, I heard that it is imported.

Some of these imported items are actually from the South Seas and others are not.

The material used is not what particularly good, but wins in the look of new, very chic, which of course there are expensive, there are also cheap, very suitable for different levels of women used.

In fact, it is not just jewelry, there are some small pendants, or decorate the room with, as well as small strings of pearls, as well as pearl earrings and so on, are very pleasing to the women like the kind of that bead flowers strung also don't into another kind of mold, and the jewelry in the capital is not the same direction.

The store is not very big, the people inside are not small, and it looks like business is good.

Qu Mo Ying originally just casually look, did not expect to really interested, and Qi Xiangyu two people looked at a lot, also bought several pieces.

Suddenly she stopped and raised her eyes to the doorway, just now there seemed to be a familiar silhouette flashing by there, there were so many people that originally she didn't pay attention to it, but then that person seemed to see her and after flashing a little bit, it did catch her attention.

Only when he raised his eyes to look over, the person was gone!

Should it be a woman, just seeing a figure, not really knowing who it is yet, and seeing herself leave right away?

“Like this?” Seeing that Qu Mo Ying kept staring at the beads in front of her, Qi Xiangyu also curiously walked over and looked at the string of beads in front of her.

This string of beads at a glance is a treasure, each one is mixed – round, and still a string of pink pearls, just like this seems to be in the Yuejin Pavilion, that is not rare treasures.

Seeing that both of them are dressed extraordinary, at a glance is not rich, a fellow immediately bashful over to introduce, this string of beads is not the average family can afford to buy.

“Two young ladies, this is the only string of pink pearls we have here, such a large pink pearl a still rare, not to mention also such a string, two young ladies if you like, but also please early into the good, before there are several young ladies have looked at it, but all said to go back to think about it, may be a little while today, may be tomorrow this bead is not there.”

The fellow grinned.

“This powder bead is so good to buy?” Qi Xiangyu was surprised.

“Naturally it’s good, does the Duke of Qi Palace know about it?” The fellow said and lowered his voice.

“Know!” Qi Xiangyu froze for a moment and said.

“Qi Guo Gongfu’s a sister has seen also said good, said to give their family a distant cousin as a dowry, first go back to talk to their house of the State Duke lady, then send people to buy it.” The fellow’s voice was lowered.

“Since the Duke of Qi has already ordered it, why is it still for sale?” Qu Mo Ying asked in a soft voice.

“That is not really booked, said yesterday to come, but yesterday the past day did not come, our shopkeeper think may be a liar, and then let us take out, in fact, ah, this thing is really not allowed to say, but the big families do things, a pass, and so on down to the time will not be allowed, just who let them own breach of contract it!”

The fellow explained with a smile.

There is a bit of truth in this, Qi Xiangyu looked at the string of pink pearls and felt that she really liked it, and after asking for a price, she bought it.

Seeing that she was so quick, the fellow even made a point of asking the shopkeeper, and gave her another pair of small, pink pearl earrings, which were not big, but they were better than the delicate ones, and they were a good worker.

Qi Xiangyu was satisfied with herself, and after settling the bill, she led Qu Mo Ying away, and only after she was out of the store doorway did she whisper to Qu Mo Ying, “This is true.”

“What really?” Qu Mo Ying was thinking about his mind and didn’t notice the meaning in her sudden words.

“Grandmother want to sell to cousin is true, I heard, but who let her come late, fell into my hands is also she did not have this luck.” Qi Xiangyu coldly snorted and said, “Obviously this former grandmother has compensated her, but she is still unsatisfied, grandmother this is letting people find some jewelry she is satisfied with, this string of pink pearls in fact grandmother is feeling suitable, a moment to send someone over to buy.”

Originally, she heard it without thinking, she was just angry at Liu Jingyu’s holding favor but couldn’t do anything about it, this time when she met her she was certainly not polite.

Rarely in front of Liu Jingyu raised eyebrows a bit, Qi Xiangyu still want to say something, but see Qu Mo Ying’s lips condensed, subconsciously look at the direction of Qu Mo Ying turned away, immediately also froze ...

What’s going on over there? That’s a big one!
