

Noble Wife 613

Chapter 613 Is it Miss Qu? What a coincidence!

Against the outside side of the road was where the wagon had sunk.

Qu Mo Ying got out of the car and looked at it before being swarmed to the inside of the road.

Over there, in addition to the mountain road, is the mountain did not regulate out of the slope, the slope is not very large, a few pieces of useless stones fell on the side, blocking the slope did not regulate, only a moment of time, the sky is dark again a degree, standing on the side of the road, to see the opposite side of the road, the face of the appearance of the color is not so clear.

Everyone else was called over to help, even Yu Chun.

Originally, Yu Chun was to be left behind to accompany Qu Mo Ying, Yu Dong looked a bit taller and stronger than her, not as slender as her.

Yu Chun is volunteered to go up, leaving the last one alone, is Yu Dong accompanied by Qu Mo Ying, this will stand in front of a large stone, the large stone extends forward, there is a small platform a place, although small, sitting a person is just right.

Yudong took a pad and laid it there, Qu Mo Ying sat and waited for that side to get the wheels up.

It was getting darker a little faster.

“Miss, slave girl go over and take a look.” Yu Dong waited for a while, anxious, couldn’t wait any longer and said to Qu Mo Ying.

Instead, his hand reached out and gently pulled Qu Mo Ying’s sleeve to the left.

Qu Mo Ying understood and nodded, “You go and take a look, if it doesn’t work, you stay there to help as well, one more person is more power, we always have to go down the mountain quickly.”

“Miss, you just sit down for a while, the slave girl will go over and take a look.” Yu Dong said, pulling Qu Mo Ying’s sleeve, gently walking towards the right side against the middle of the avenue, a bit farther away from the one on the left.

The place on the left, is a gap in the two stones, Yu Dong Fang has been paying attention to the movement behind this, if you want to get down here, that behind the stone is the best place to hide people.

Sure enough, he heard the sound of fine breathing, the sound was very long, one could tell that it was practiced, there was indeed someone behind the stone.

Afraid that these people would suddenly rush out and be unfavorable to Qu Mo Ying, Yu Dong had been carefully on guard.

Luckily, the two secret guards under his command had also arrived and sent out the secret signal of a bird’s call, which meant it was time to make a move.

Qu Mo Ying followed Yu Dong forward, out of the scope of the previous sitting, not only to the right line some, but also to the middle of the road, her footsteps are very light, if you just listen to the footsteps, and only hear the footsteps of Yu Dong purposely heavier a few points, all thought Yu Dong this maid left her master.

There were two black-robed men hiding behind the stone, both holding sharp swords in their hands, and after the two looked at each other, they knew that this was the best time to do it.

A person took out a piece of pad from his bosom, which was to cover Qu Mo Ying’s mouth and nose in a while, just waiting for a moment to rush out, and blindfold the pad towards Qu Mo Ying’s mouth and nose, this Fourth Miss Qu would immediately fall down powerless, and the two people fought the person towards the back of the stone, and then they could disappear into the dark color.

People do not know the ghost, those maids, grannies and so on to get the wheel up, and then look for this Qu fourth miss, can not be.

As for how to deal with this manpower, the second prince said, directly sold, far away from the send away, this later even if this Qu fourth miss have the opportunity to return to the capital, that is also a remnant of the flowers and willows, the second master will not recognize this of the Qu fourth miss, originally there is no feelings, still expect the second master will be for a notorious daughter, recognize the matter?

The most you can do is to report a person who was on their way down the mountain and couldn't handle sliding down the mountain and died!

The two black-robed men thought so, and also intended to do so, but rushed to the front of the mountain stone, suddenly froze, originally thought to sit there Qu four miss, how to disappear.

A black-robed man's hand had reached out with the paddles in his hand, right where Qu Mo Ying sat before, that position was precise as if it had been measured, if Qu Mo Ying sat there, this press, it would inevitably be the position of her mouth and nose.

Although Qu Mo Ying stood still, her body was turned around, her eyes fell on the place where she sat before, watching the black-clothed person come out, watching the black-clothed person's hand with the handkerchief covering her mouth and nose where she sat before, the corner of her eyes jumped fiercely, and her hand couldn't help but clench tightly.

Why does Qu Zhizhen ... have such a powerful secret guard under him, with his status as a minister, how can he have such a well trained secret guard?

Such a stance he had seen in his last life at his father's side.

But father is a great general, and has his own army of good men around him, and what does Qu Zhizhen have to go on?

"There's an assassin, quickly come someone, there's an assassin." Yu Dong had also been paying attention to this side, seeing two black-clothed hands come out, he froze in panic for a moment and hurriedly screamed loudly.

The scream was so powerful that the birds in the nearby trees fluttered their wings and scattered.

The maids and grannies of the Qu Mansion were all shocked and stunned, looking at everything in front of them, especially the sharp blades in the hands of the two secret guards, and each of them froze there.

The two men in black reacted extremely fast, a look at the miss, suddenly rushed over to the side of Qu Mo Ying, look at the meaning of this is to be taken by force, the second prince said, if things are easy, at least the target's life must be taken.

But without waiting for them to rush a few steps, two more people suddenly jumped down from the tree behind the stone, the sharp blades in their hands flashed with the same cold light, and they sent a sword forward.

With no intention to count, the black-clothed man in the back was unable to react in time and was stabbed through the heart, covering his chest and falling to the ground.

The black-clothed man in front of him saw that the situation was bad, and hurriedly retreated to the side, no longer daring to rush over to Qu Mo Ying's side, and after retreated a few steps, he rushed over to the forest in the dark shadows by the side of the road, and looked for a very accurate orientation, which could be seen to have been calculated early on.

By the time Rainy Winter's men rushed over, the figure had already disappeared into the forest.

The two men didn't dare to chase after them anymore, after looking at each other, they turned back to one person and pulled one hand, taking the black-clothed man who had fallen to the ground, and dodged and similarly disappeared into the forest behind the road.

The maids and maids-in-law of the Qu Mansion only reacted at this time, screaming one after another, some still shouting "help", some panicked and sat on the ground, the whole person shivering into a ball.

They also reacted at this time, the people from the party seemed to be rushing over to kill them, if not for the people coming behind them again, none of them might have survived.

The aftermath of the fear made not many of these maids and maids-in-law in the inner courtyard still able to stabilize.

Although the two carriage drivers were men, they were scared and shivering at this time.

“Alright, stop screaming, the people are gone.” Yu Dong sternly rebuked, “If you keep screaming like this, you won’t be able to go down the mountain tomorrow, and by then, not to mention the assassins, there might be wild beasts coming down from the mountain.”

Although it was said that underneath Qing Yun Guan, there were no wild beasts that had been heard of, but since there were even assassins, what else was impossible.

Several maids, grannies this time also do not care to scream, one by one strong support up, to help get the car, before there are a few points to grind the meaning of the sample work, this is also desperate to help, determined to get the wheels out of the car.

“Miss, a car is coming.” Yu Dong’s ears were the most sensitive, and after listening carefully, she whispered.

After something like this happened, he must have followed Qu Mo Ying’s side closely for fear of an eventuality.

“Up the mountain or down the mountain?” Although Qu Mo Ying’s ear power was good, after all, it was not as good as a specially trained one like Yu Dong.

“It’s a carriage coming up the mountain, how come there are still people coming up the mountain at this hour?” Yu Dong said, the last sentence were words to himself.

This will have seen the carriage, the mountain road curves, just below the mountain road, turn to the place, far from seeing the light, this time there are lights although early some, but early point is good, look at the sky will be all dark in a while.

This will go up to the mountain, should also be a good time to plan, specially with lanterns to come.

It looked like it wasn't far, but there was actually a bit of a walk around, and both sides saw the wagons on the opposite side of the road.

Finally, this carriage came to this stretch of roadway and then stopped in front of the Qu Mansion's crowd.

Qu House of maids, grannies trembling with fear, just happened to the assassin's thing, this is again what happened? Fang just inexplicably jumped out of the assassin's thing, the aftermath of palpitations in particular, this will no one dare to be careless, the road is silent, are looking at the car door has not been opened, for fear that the inside again jumped out of something extraordinary.

The carriage door opened, a boy walked out, carrying a small lantern in his hand, took the lantern and shone it this way, only seeing a cloud of underlings, not noticing Qu Mo Ying and Yu Dong standing to the side.

"What's the matter with you guys, what happened?" The boy asked in a loud voice.

"Our carriage sank down, the wheels are stuck in the pit, and we can't go for a ... moment." A carriage driver came out shivering and answered.

"Do you need help?" The boy asked again.

The coachman unconsciously looked at Qu Mo Ying, this matter he can not do the main, if it is in the past, someone to help is the best, but just now they are also considered to have experienced a great life and death, do not dare to have the slightest sloppiness.

Seeing the coachman look over, the boy also followed to look this way, which saw Qu Mo Ying, and raised the lantern in his hand to shine, which will be more and more can not see clearly.

When Qu Mo Ying got off the bus, although she took the eye veil, she wore a Vicar's hat, and the long Vicar's hat blocked her face, so she couldn't see her face clearly at all, but it was Yu Dong who stood on one side of Qu Mo Ying who made the boy look at her a few more times, and then asked hesitantly, "Are you guys not from the Servant Qu's residence?"

“Our young lady is from Servant Qu’s residence, when we were descending the mountain just now, something happened to the carriage, so if I can get your master’s help, I really can’t thank you enough.” Yu Dong got a sign from Qu Mo Ying and stepped forward to pick up the conversation.

After the boy looked them up and down a few more times, he said, “You guys wait, I’ll go ask our gongzi.”

After saying that, he turned around and got into the carriage.

The crowd waited, and before long the boy jumped out of the carriage again, then retreated to the side, and out of the carriage came a young gentleman.

After jumping off the carriage, he straightened his sleeves and came over to Qu Mo Ying’s side, and the boy carried the lantern in his hand and followed behind.

Yu Dong stepped forward, blocked in front of Qu Mo Ying’s body, guardedly looking at the incoming people, the light in the back, a time to see clearly in front of the eyes over is what people, careful response, always right.

“Is it Fourth Miss Qu? What a coincidence!” The visitor stood a few steps away from Qu Mo Ying and greeted her with a faint smile.

That’s a somewhat familiar voice. An acquaintance?
