

Online game: I have super god-level talent

#4 - Chapter 4 Walking inside the hologram!

“Dropped from killing monsters.”

Lin Tianhao replied, and at the same time received a message that nine thousand dollars had been credited to his account.

“Damn, Snow Emperor, do you know any spots where you can kite monsters and farm level 10 monsters without taking damage?”

It's no wonder Floating Shield Mountain was surprised. Lin Tianhao was only level three, so it was impossible for him to fight level ten monsters head-on.

“No.”

Lin Tianhao replied, then ignored Floating Shield Mountain and continued to kill monsters.

Floating Shield Mountain looked at the ring in his hand, a smile appearing on his face, "You won't tell me, huh? I'll come find you now."

Level 10 monsters were Twisted Treants. This was information that the Floating Guild's exploration team had discovered as soon as they entered the game.

Therefore, Floating Shield Mountain quickly arrived at the Twisted Treant's spawn location.

At this time, Floating Shield Mountain saw an archer in front of him killing monsters.

Lin Tianhao's arrow dealt over four hundred damage, and he was fighting monsters above his level. How could this not shock him?

“Snow Emperor.”

Floating Shield Mountain was directly kneeling. He had entered the game late due to some things in real life, and as a result, his progress had fallen behind.

For him, who had always dominated in various games, this was completely unacceptable.

“Snow Emperor, can we team up? How about you carry me to level up? I'll pay.”

Lin Tianhao originally didn't want to pay attention to Floating Shield Mountain, after all, he didn't want to waste time.

But then he thought about his sister still lying in the hospital, and he changed his mind.

“Yes, but I want three hundred thousand.”

“Three hundred thousand?”

Hearing this, Floating Shield Mountain almost couldn't help but curse.

Three hundred thousand to carry him to level 10? He could find those gold farming groups for a maximum of twenty thousand.

“I'll get you to level 10 today.”

Floating Shield Mountain was stunned. He looked at Lin Tianhao with some suspicion.

Although it was only four in the morning, there were still twenty hours left.

Even if he didn't eat, drink, or rest, it would be a fool's dream to carry him to level 10 in twenty hours.

“Even so, your price is too high.”

He had money, but he wasn't a fool.

“I know it's high. What if I add a set of level 10 elite equipment?”

Hearing this, Floating Shield Mountain's breathing became rapid.

“Snow Emperor, are you kidding me?”

“No.”

Lin Tianhao's answer was very affirmative. A level 10 elite treant could drop an entire set of equipment.

Of course, the premise was that you were lucky enough.

However, if you farmed enough, you could do it.

“Okay, how about I give you a deposit of fifty thousand first?”

“No, three hundred thousand. I want the money first.”

Floating Shield Mountain hesitated, but seeing Lin Tianhao's monster-killing speed, he only pondered slightly before agreeing.

“Okay, I'll transfer the money to you.”

Twilight of the Gods had a transfer function, so there was no need to provide a separate bank card number.

Soon Lin Tianhao received a message that three hundred thousand had been credited to his account.

The money was in hand.

Lin Tianhao sent a message.

“Wait for me for a while.”

After the voice fell, Lin Tianhao hid behind a big tree, and then went offline on the spot.

Floating Shield Mountain: ???

“Damn, was I scammed? He took the money and went offline to run away? Damn it, I trusted you so much, and this is how you treat me?”

Floating Shield Mountain wasn't short of money, but at this time, he felt like he had eaten ten piles of sh*t, and he was extremely uncomfortable.

Of course, Lin Tianhao didn't run away.

Now that he had money, he naturally wanted to send the money to the hospital as soon as possible to pay for his sister's surgery.

Looking at Lin Qingqing lying on the hospital bed, Lin Tianhao clenched his fists.

He would make up for the regrets of his previous life.

After completing the payment, Lin Tianhao hurriedly returned to the rental house.

Re-login to the game.

Novice Village No. 10086.

Floating Shield Mountain was frustratingly having several players carry him to farm level 4 wind wolves.

Suddenly, he saw a message pop up in his friend list.

“Level 10 Twisted Treant, come over.”

Floating Shield Mountain was stunned for a moment. He thought Lin Tianhao had run away, but he didn't expect Lin Tianhao to actually come back.

“Okay.”

Although he had already cursed Lin Tianhao's ancestors eighteen generations in his heart, he still ran over happily when he heard that Lin Tianhao was going to carry him to level up.

Lin Tianhao didn't waste any words, and directly threw a team invitation over, while setting the dropped items to be picked up only by himself.

Floating Shield Mountain hesitated, but in the end, he didn't say anything.

But the next moment, he discovered something very outrageous.

Experience distribution... nine-one!!

Lin Tianhao nine, him one?!

Damn it, is this carrying me to level up?

“Snow Emperor, um... is the experience distribution wrong?”

“No.”

Lin Tianhao replied and started killing monsters.

-426.

-426.

... ..

Five arrows for one Twisted Treant. Even though Lin Tianhao's attack speed wasn't fast, he could still complete the kill within ten seconds.

Six monsters per minute at the start.

Three hundred and sixty monsters per hour!

Not only that, but Lin Tianhao's health was also constantly increasing.

Floating Shield Mountain, who was on the side, was dumbfounded when he saw Lin Tianhao constantly hunting Twisted Treants.

If Lin Tianhao only had high damage, he would have thought that Lin Tianhao might have obtained some hidden equipment or awakened his talent in advance.

But Lin Tianhao's kiting skills were too smooth. The Twisted Treant hadn't even approached Lin Tianhao before it was killed.

Don't think that kiting is easy in a full-sensory virtual reality game.

Floating Shield Mountain, who was in the Floating Guild, knew very well that kiting was more difficult here than in traditional games.

Because positioning, drawing the bow, aiming, and shooting were four steps.

As long as one step wasn't smooth, the entire kiting process would appear stiff.

Even those top archer players in their guild couldn't skillfully kite right now.

Floating Shield Mountain couldn't help but sigh, and at the same time, he turned on the recording function and recorded Lin Tianhao's kiting.

He wanted to send it to the Floating Guild so that those elite archers could learn from it.

Lin Tianhao didn't care so much at this time. Kiting was already commonplace for him. In fact, in his opinion, kiting wasn't even a skill.

“Snow Emperor, what was your previous ID? With your kiting skills, you're definitely not an unknown person.”

“Kiting? Isn't this something anyone with hands can do?”

Lin Tianhao replied subconsciously.

This kind of kiting skill was almost achievable by all archers in the era of the Great Cataclysm.

What was truly difficult for archers was infinite critical hits and crowd control.

A one hundred percent critical hit rate, or infinite critical hits, was actually not worth the effort if you had to stack critical hit stats.

However, attack skills could achieve infinite critical hits.

Even with only a five percent critical hit rate, it was possible to achieve infinite critical hits.

That was a fatal attack!

For example, the tree core of a Twisted Treant, the head of a humanoid monster, the heart, etc., attacking these vital spots would greatly increase the possibility of a critical hit.

As for crowd control!

This was also the most difficult operation for archers, especially in team battles. It would be very difficult for an archer to achieve crowd control.

But now he wasn't in the mood to explain so much to Floating Shield Mountain, and he continued to hunt Twisted Treants.

While hunting, Lin Tianhao moved forward. The experience provided by ordinary Twisted Treants wasn't high.

To carry a burden to level ten within a day, he needed to hunt elite Twisted Treants.

While Lin Tianhao was hunting Twisted Treants, Floating Shield Mountain had already sent the recorded video to their guild leader.

Floating Divine Wolf.

The guild leader of the Floating Guild.

He was leveling up at this time, but just then, he received a video from Floating Shield Mountain.

“Don't level up properly, why are you sending me videos?”

“Guild leader, take a look, there's a surprise.”
