

Online game: I have super god-level talent

#5 - Chapter 5: Lin Tianhao is an ancient god?

The Godly Wolf Butcher killed the flame serpent in front of him and opened the video.

"Such high damage."

That was the Godly Wolf Butcher's first reaction.

But immediately after, he was stunned.

"How can anyone at this stage manage such smooth kiting?"

The Godly Wolf Butcher himself was an archer, and one of the most skilled archers at that.

He naturally knew how difficult it was to kite smoothly in Twilight of the Gods.

"Which guild is he from? We must find a way to poach this person to our guild, we can offer an annual salary of ten million."

After a brief shock, the Godly Wolf Butcher had the thought of poaching him.

"Okay, Guild Leader, I'll ask around."

.....

Lin Tianhao was currently rapidly harvesting these twisted treants.

The drop rate in Twilight of the Gods was truly touching. Even after hunting so many twisted treants, Lin Tianhao had only gotten the Ring of Revival from before.

"Ding..."

Suddenly, with a crisp sound, a piece of equipment dropped.

Treant Shoulder Guard: Common.

Equipment Requirement: Level 10 All Classes.

Effect: Health +200.

Durability: 100.

"Do you want this equipment?"

Lin Tianhao looked at Godly Shield Mountain.

"Yes, but Snow Emperor, the price of this equipment definitely can't be the same as the ring, right?"

"Three thousand."

Lin Tianhao said indifferently.

Shoulder guards were common equipment and relatively easy to obtain, so naturally they couldn't be as expensive as rings.

"Deal."

In fact, money would be useless later on. The reason Lin Tianhao still needed money was just to cope with the living expenses that would come next.

Once he had enough money to spend, he would consider exchanging equipment for things in the game.

Just then, the system notification sounded.

"Global Announcement: Congratulations to player Berserk Blade for being the first to reach the main city, reward: 500 gold coins, Black Iron set for the player's class +1, skill book for the player's class +1, free attribute points +50. Special announcement, hoping all players will continue to work hard!"

"Global Announcement: Congratulations to player Berserk Blade for being the first to reach the main city, reward: 500 gold coins, Black Iron set for the player's class +1, skill book for the player's class +1, free attribute points +50. Special announcement, hoping all players will continue to work hard!"

"Damn!"

Godly Shield Mountain looked at the time, "So fast, that kid Blade is already level 10."

"The key is that there are such generous rewards for being the first to leave the novice village."

Lin Tianhao didn't care at all, this little reward was completely insignificant.

"Solo?"

Godly Shield Mountain was a little surprised, Lin Tianhao's skills didn't look like a solo player at all.

But in an instant, Godly Shield Mountain knew the reason.

Lin Tianhao must be an ancient expert!

He used to dominate online games, some ancient experts had very good game sense, skills, and ideas were also very clear.

But because they were older, their hand speed couldn't keep up, and they were gradually eliminated.

And Twilight of the Gods was a holographic virtual online game, everything was dataized, so naturally it wouldn't be affected by hand speed.

However, seeing Lin Tianhao focusing on farming monsters, Godly Shield Mountain tactfully didn't say anything more.

"Ding, you have leveled up to level 4, free attribute points +5."

Lin Tianhao added all the free attribute points to attack speed, increasing attack speed by 0.1, reaching 0.93.

At the same time, Lin Tianhao's health increased by more than a thousand, and his normal attack damage was increased again.

-448.

.....

Currently, this damage still requires five arrows to take down a twisted treant.

But it's getting closer and closer to solving it with four arrows.

Godly Shield Mountain on the side could only silently envy Lin Tianhao leveling up.

The majority of the experience points were on Lin Tianhao, it wasn't easy for him to level up.

"Finally, it's out."

Lin Tianhao looked at the twisted treant in front of him, with a satisfied smile on his face.

Twisted Treant (Elite): Level 10.

Health: 5700/5700.

Attack: 49.

Skills: Revival, Vine Spin, Vine Entanglement.

The elite twisted treant had an extra control skill.

"Snow Emperor, do you want me to help you tank a bit?"

Godly Shield Mountain was a pure tank build, plus he was rich and generous, he had several low-level equipment on him.

In his own opinion, the attributes were still very luxurious.

"No need."

Lin Tianhao responded indifferently and started attacking directly.

-449.

-449.

.....

The output was very stable, but it still took thirteen arrows to kill an elite twisted treant.

Moreover, under Lin Tianhao's kiting tactics, the twisted treant was already killed before it could get close to him.

"Ding, you have killed an elite twisted treant, experience +321."

Lin Tianhao had a satisfied smile on his face, it was still better to hunt elite monsters, the experience gain was greater.

Even Godly Shield Mountain, who was in a team with Lin Tianhao, gained thirty-two experience points.

One, two, three...

Lin Tianhao's health was constantly stacking.

At this moment, global announcements began to sound one after another.

Players from major guilds had reached level ten and entered the main city, of course, there were also some solo players.

Godly Shield Mountain was extremely envious there, but he couldn't do anything about it, he could only watch.

"My loss is too great, isn't it?"

Lin Tianhao still maintained that aloof posture and didn't bother with Godly Shield Mountain.

At this moment, another piece of equipment dropped.

Treant Armor (Elite): Level 10.

Effect 1: Magic Resistance +10.

Effect 2: Health +500.

Durability: 100.

"Awesome, Snow Emperor, isn't this one of the sets you mentioned?"

Lin Tianhao nodded and threw the equipment to Godly Shield Mountain, "Yes, as long as you hunt enough elite twisted treants, you can get a whole set of treant armor."

Godly Shield Mountain's eyes lit up, "Snow Emperor, you're so good, I thought you were going to run away when you went offline before."

Lin Tianhao was speechless, but he didn't say anything more and continued farming monsters.

This village was really good, the monsters refreshed very quickly, otherwise it wouldn't be able to support Lin Tianhao's crazy hunting.

"Ding, you have leveled up to level 6, free attribute points +5."

In just one hour, Lin Tianhao went from level 4 to level 6, and his attack speed also went from 0.93 to 1.13.

At the same time, Lin Tianhao had dropped three more pieces of treant set equipment, all of which he gave to Godly Shield Mountain.

A player can equip up to thirteen pieces of equipment.

These are main weapon, boots, chestplate, armor, helmet, cloak, ring (pair), necklace, shoulder guard (pair), leg guard (pair).

Godly Shield Mountain already had four pieces, and he was still missing nine.

This set can be said to be the strongest shield warrior set before level twenty, without one.
