

Old Gods 70

Chapter 70: Transform!

The days of experience passed by one by one.

The four-member squad grew rapidly and staged a dog-slaughtering feast for their instructor Dou Zhiqiang!

"Flap flap flap~"

Dark crows circled in the night sky, overlooking the battlefield.

Below, where the torch-lit paths lay, shouts of killing rose and fell.

The Red Cloth Believers were practically human bugles!

Their cries stirred up a fighting spirit, boiling with enthusiasm.

So damn exciting!

There were moments when even Dou Zhiqiang wanted to swoop down and peck at the Evil Dogs a few times...

As the exclusive instructor of Squad 98, Dou Zhiqiang witnessed the growth of the four members.

From their initial days as rookies in the Mist Realm, they had transformed into genuine warriors.

Dou Zhiqiang couldn't help but feel moved.

Their growth speed was too fast, especially Lu Ran!

It was simply unreasonable...

His soaring battle power even gave Dou Zhiqiang, a warrior of the River Realm, a slight sense of crisis.

Initially, in the first few days of the training, Lu Ran was still luring Evil Dogs through the streets, endlessly fleeing.

But now?

After nearly half a month of intense training, Lu Ran dared to confront the Stream Realm Evil Dogs directly!

He used the Dawn Blade and a pair of burly, majestic ram horns to repeatedly clash head-on with the Evil Demon!

Dou Zhiqiang didn't think that Lu Ran was a tyrannical person.

But now, Lu Ran's performance was both brave and domineering, his aura soaring to the sky!

During his many years in the military, Dou Zhiqiang had never encountered such a fierce newcomer...

What was even more terrifying was that Lu Ran was doing all this blindfolded.

During this visit to the village, his self-control and bodily agility had visibly soared!

"Hmm..."

Dou Zhiqiang murmured softly, expressing his emotions.

What are the Evil Dog Clan known for?

Speed and agility!

Yet, how could Lu Ran, a human, match the Evil Dogs of the same realm in agility?!

This is insane...

One had to admit, this world really did have its geniuses.

And the genius was right here, rising ferociously under Dou Zhiqiang's constant observation.

"Kill!!!"

Deng Yutang roared furiously, his presence overwhelming.

His Heavenly Star Red Tassel Spear thrust and stabbed continuously, and not far behind him, a large red flag was planted!

Red Cloth Divine Skill-Red Cloth Domain!

On this endless path of slaughtering dogs, Deng Yutang and Tian Tian also advanced, stepping boldly into the Stream Realm.

This large red flag was the Stream Realm Divine Technique of the Red Cloth Sect.

With the flag present, the domain was fully activated!

Centered around the flag, within a radius of 20 meters, a light red, semi-transparent cover appeared.

Unless the flag was broken, no one could leave from inside, and it was difficult for outsiders to enter.

This technique provided some protection and was easily mistaken for a defensive technique.

But the true purpose of the Divine Red Cloth, who created this technique, was to carve out an independent battlefield!

Eight big characters:

Fight to the death, cease only at death!

Once I plant the flag here, only one of us will walk out alive...

However, at this moment inside the Red Cloth Domain, there was more than just one person and one dog.

All four members of the squad were within, and there were as many as seven Evil Dogs.

Clearly, the squad had encountered a pack of wild dogs.

"Don't go, don't leave." Tian Tian extended her small hands, muttering to herself.

Within the Red Cloth Domain, there were also nine floating lotus petals.

Sword Lotus Divine Skill·Nine Lotus Petals!

In the past, Tian Tian could only use her hands to hold up a single illusory lotus petal as a shield.

Now that she had advanced to the Stream Realm, she could spread out nine lotus petals, forming a defensive formation.

Interestingly:

The combination of Divine Technique·Nine Lotus Petals and Divine Technique·Red Cloth Domain generated a fascinating chemical reaction.

The Evil Dogs couldn't escape the light red cover, nor could they easily shatter the lotus petals.

As a result, each thin dog was clamped down like a patty in a hamburger.

As Tian Tian said "don't run," one of the Evil Dogs struggled frantically and squeezed through the gap.

With a crisp "snap!"

A block of illusory white jade struck the dog's head.

Covered with Frost Talisman runes, a thick frost spread instantly across the dog's body.

Poor thin dog...

It had just escaped, only to be shivering from the cold.

Although it didn't turn into an ice sculpture, the Evil Dog was soaked with frost, its teeth chattering from the cold.

Directly under the large flag, Jiang Ruyi slowly turned around, her beautiful eyes scanning the field.

In her naturally lowered palms, her fingertips continued to trace, flinging out another Electric Shackles Talisman.

"Snap!"

Electric sparks flashed, currents overflowing.

Another Evil Dog's whole body went numb, and it instantly stopped struggling.

Jiang Ruyi did not dare to use the Divine Technique·Blazing Talisman.

After all, Deng Yutang's Divine Technique·Red Cloth Domain was not of high quality yet.

Even though the flag had not shattered, if Jiang Ruyi repeatedly unleashed talismans, it could also blow up the light red cover.

"Lu Ran." Jiang Ruyi called softly.

"I'm coming, I'm coming!" Lu Ran momentarily abandoned the Stream Realm Evil Dog in front of him, with mist erupting under his feet.

His voice, from far to near, accompanied by a trail of white mist, darted under the flag.

Lu Ran arrived sooner than expected, his speed astonishingly fast!

By the time Deng Yutang had killed the "Frost Evil Dog," Lu Ran had already chopped off the "Thunder Evil Dog's" head.

"Don't move!"

Lu Ran's voice rang out again, and Jiang Ruyi obediently stood in place.

In the next second, Lu Ran brushed past Jiang Ruyi and returned to his original spot.

"Woof! Woof woof woof! Woof!"

The Stream Realm Evil Dog was furious!

Lu Ran didn't understand dog language, but he could feel that the insults were severe.

Indeed, in the midst of a fierce battle between man and dog, Lu Ran was suddenly called away, running incredibly fast.

The facial expression of the Stream Realm Evil Dog was one of utter confusion!

By the time it reacted, Lu Ran, swift as the wind, had already returned to its front.

It was very much a gesture of, "Sorry for the interruption, I just took a moment to kill your companion, now let's continue..."

Put yourself in their shoes—who wouldn't be angry?

The Evil Dog opened its gaping mouth and fiercely lunged forward: "Woof!"

Lu Ran, with his burly ram horns, fiercely met the charge: "Baa!"

"Thump!"

The sounds of a muffled hit, cracking bones, and wails erupted one after another.

The Evil Dog, scattering blood, slammed heavily against the light red cover.

Lu Ran followed closely, mist swirling under his feet, his icy Dawn Blade thrusting straight at the dog's head.

"Flap flap flap~"

The dark crow flew down, landing right above the light red cover.

It bowed its head, watching the battlefield within the Red Cloth Domain.

The beasts that were meant to be ferocious and brutal were being slaughtered mercilessly by the few.

In the coming fifteen nights, this squad might just reach the heavens!

"We won." Tian Tian lowered her small hands, the floating lotus petals quietly dissipating.

"Thrilling!" Deng Yutang ripped off the red cloth on his head, shaking his damp short hair.

The squad's combat power was now completely transformed.

Jiang Ruyi took command in the central army, controlling the whole situation, firmly in charge of all the mischievous night prowlers.

Tian Tian, diligent and careful, turned her defensive shield into both an offensive weapon and a control mechanism.

There was also Lu Ran, the jungler, constantly weaving through the battlefield.

Those streaks of white mist not yet dispersed crisscrossed, outlining his routes of movement.

Deng Yutang really loved this team.

"Yutang."

"Present!" Deng Yutang turned his head towards Jiang Ruyi.

The girl gestured upward: "The instructor is coming in."

"Okay." Deng Yutang immediately dispersed the Divine Technique.

The red flag unfurled without wind, quietly disappearing.

As the light red cover vanished, the black crow descended, landing directly on Tian Tian's head.

"Uh," Tian Tian shrank her head slightly.

"It's the fifth again, you should head back." The black crow spoke human words.

"Is it the fifth again?" Engrossed in the battle, Deng Yutang was a bit disappointed.

"Leave Evil Dog Village before the tenth," the black crow left these words and soared high into the sky.

Tian Tian looked up, watching the crow gradually fly away.

"If you're unhappy, just talk to the instructor," Jiang Ruyi said, placing a hand on Tian Tian's head, smoothing her hair.

Tian Tian pursed her lips, remaining silent.

If every time could result in a gesture like Sister Ruyi's, it was pretty worthwhile.

Deng Yutang: "This month and every month, time flies too quickly."

"Setting a goal for ourselves each month, achieving stage-by-stage growth, and reporting at the night of the fifteenth—it's a good practice," Jiang Ruyi spoke while turning her head to look into the distance.

In her line of sight, Lu Ran was crouching in front of an Evil Dog, silently absorbing the bones of the Evil Demon.

Deng Yutang followed her gaze, laughing: "Brother Lu, the squad leader wants us to set a growth goal every month."

Lu Ran, without turning his head, replied: "Before and after the fifteenth, Stream Realm Second Rank!"

Deng Yutang: "..."

Deng Yutang absolutely respected Lu Ran's growth speed.

He and Tian Tian had just advanced to the Stream Realm a few days ago, but Lu Ran was already aiming for the next level.

Lu Ran thoroughly drained the dog corpse, muttering:

"Next month, let's give them a break."

As of that moment, the Evil Demon statues in Lu Ran's Evil Demon Sculpture Garden had been cultivated to Stream Realm Third Rank!

His mission was already complete.

Evil Technique·Evil Shadow had been incorporated into his skill set.

Unfortunately, Lu Ran's strength wasn't sufficient, still at Stream Realm First Rank, thus he couldn't use the Evil Technique suitable for Stream Realm Third Rank.

Now, he could look for new targets.

For instance...the Soul-splitting Demon Clan?

Lu Ran was secretly tempted.

It was time to activate another Evil Demon Sculpture!

Power amplification, Soul-splitting Demon Horn, Soul-splitting Demon Hoof...

Just thinking about it was incredibly exciting!
