Chapter 1061 Theme of The Preliminary Round

While Kang He was furious, Jiang Yu had already started to prepare for the competition.

As the deadline for registration drew closer, the organizers of the competition announced the theme of the preliminary competition- Nightingale and Rose.

They were two completely different creatures, so Jiang Yu had a headache at first.

When she was in the company, she had been thinking about how to combine these two things. After she returned to school, she was still thinking about it in her spare time.

Jiang Yu was easily entranced when she was thinking about things. When they were eating, no matter how Lu Qi called her, she did not respond.

Dai Zhu thought that she had been possessed by the Jiang family's jewelry business these past few days, so much so that even her ears were not working well. So, she lowered her voice and said to Lu Qi, "Is Jiang Yu under too much pressure? The group of employees at Jiang Corporation saw that she was young, so they disobeyed orders and treated Jiang Yu like this? You see, I can't even hear anyone talking now."

"I don't think so." Lu Qi looked at Jiang Yu worriedly and saw that she was eating like a robot.

Lu Qi suddenly felt that Dai Zhu's words made sense.

Even Kang Xue couldn't stand it anymore. She guessed, "Could it be Kang He again? But I've been observing her recently. Other than losing her temper for no reason, I didn't see her do anything else."

"This sister of yours is really unpredictable." Dai Zhu's mouth twitched and she continued eating.

The three of them were eating when they suddenly heard Jiang Yu ask, "Is there any good way to combine Nightingale and rose Qianqian?"

"What is it?" Dai Zhu choked. Nightingale and rose? Are they related in any way?"

"No," Jiang Yu shook her head. "That's why I've been troubled."

Lu Qi gave it some thought and gave a few suggestions. "The Nightingale can hold the Rose in her mouth, or the Nightingale can grow and grow with the Rose. And it's also a rather common method of fusion."

"It's because it's too common that I don't want such a combination." Jiang Yu frowned.

"But why did you suddenly think of this?" Dai Zhu was confused. "Did you sign up for some competition this time?"

Jiang Yu nodded and told her about her registration for the International jewelry creative competition.

"So you signed up for this! I thought you were possessed in the company, and that someone was deliberately looking for trouble with you!" Dai Zhu laughed out loud.

But speaking of jewelry, Kang Xue did remember that when Kang He was angry recently, she liked to mention the name Diana.

So, she asked, "Does anyone know who Diana is?" Kang He has been throwing tantrums recently, and whenever she does, she likes to mention that name."

At the mention of this, Lu Qi and Dai Zhu both laughed. "Diana, she's so far away, but she's right in front of you!"

"What?" Kang Xue took a long time to react and looked at Jiang Yu in shock. "Jiang Yu! You're Diana?"

"Yes." Jiang Yu nodded in embarrassment.

"But why does Kang He keep bringing up Diana?" Lu Qi didn't understand. "She probably doesn't know that Diana is Xiao Yu, right?"

"I don't think so." Kang Xue guessed, "because she always likes to say that Diana is a fool who doesn't want to earn money. Designing for her can earn her a lot of money, but she doesn't want to. She also said that she has no future in designing for the Jiang family's jewelry, and that she has no chance to make a name for herself."

"Aiyu, then she really thinks too highly of herself." Dai Zhu said disdainfully, "Jiang Yu is going to take part in an international competition. It's even more impossible for her to design for her small company."

"I'm still planning to participate as Diana." Jiang Yu replied, "because this identity can save me a lot of trouble."

"When Kang He sees that her beloved Diana is participating in an international competition, wouldn't she be so angry that she'll have a heart attack?" Dai Zhu grinned evilly. "People like her will definitely end up in a miserable state if they live to the end!"

"Not necessarily." Kang Xue frowned. "Kang He has already told her about her relationship with Sun You. She even said that they can get married after their parents meet."

"She's being treated differently from Jiang Ran..." Lu Qi was shocked.

Although he didn't finish his sentence, everyone knew what he meant.

When Sun You was going to marry Jiang Ran, their parents had never even met. Even for the most important engagement ceremony, the representative of the Sun family was only Sun You's sister, sun Miao.

But now that Sun You was getting married to Kang He, their parents would meet. This meant that in Sun You's eyes, Kang He was a more valuable wife than Jiang Ran.

Chapter 1062 The Value of Marriage

Therefore, even though Jiang Ran had done many bad things and had now received the punishment she deserved, these people still felt that it was not worth it for her.

Jiang Ran is really stupid. "She's so blind that she can't even see through men." Dai Zhu had lost her appetite as well. She used her chopsticks to poke into the rice in front of her.

The rice was crushed by Dai Zhu and scattered on the plate.

Jiang Yu paused for a moment, and an idea about the theme of the preliminary round began to sprout quietly in her heart.

The other three people did not notice the difference in Jiang Yu and were still fighting for Jiang Ran.

Dai Zhu gritted her teeth in anger. "On the day Sun You and Kang He get married, I'm going to think of a way. I'm going to make sure that their marriage doesn't go through!"

Lu Qi was also furious. "A scumbag man and a b * tch together. Isn't this a disaster for society?" she said.

Only Kang Xue was still hesitating, "although I hate her, marriage is a big deal for girls. I still don't want to disturb her wedding."

Lu Qi and Dai Zhu fell silent as well.

After a long time, they finally said, "alright, marriage is indeed very important for a girl. But couldn't she change to someone else? Why must you marry Sun You?"

Kang Xue fell silent, not knowing how to answer.

On the other hand, Jiang Yu had a relaxed and happy expression on her face. She also expressed her new opinion on the topic they were discussing, "Sun You and Kang He can't get married. The Sun family looked down on an arrogant and despotic daughter-in-law like Kang He, and the Kang family looked down on a 'small family' like the Sun family. If the two families want a marriage alliance, I'm afraid that only Kang Xue would be the most suitable."

"Me?" Kang Xue pointed at herself in fear, "How could it be me?"

Jiang Yu explained, "in the eyes of the Sun family, you're quieter and more obedient than Kang He, so you're more suitable to be their daughter-in-law. In the Kang family's eyes, the Sun family was considered a 'small family', and they valued Kang He more, so they naturally wouldn't let her marry into the family. No matter how I think about it, you're still the most suitable. You can play the role of a marriage alliance while keeping Kang He by their side. It's killing two birds with one stone. Only a fool wouldn't do such a thing."

"B-but Sun You wants to marry Kang He!" Kang Xue was getting anxious.

"Wrong, Sun You wants to marry someone from the Kang family, Kang He isn't the only one." Jiang Yu explained.

"So that's what Sun You was thinking about." Dai Zhu thought about it carefully and was terrified. "I thought he was blind. That's why he insisted on marrying Kang He. All he wanted was to marry a member of house Kang and help him rise to the top."

"As long as the parents of both parties meet, many problems will be brought up." Jiang Yu reminded Kang Xue, "When the time comes, you must not let yourself down and promise them. You must insist that you won't get married. If you agreed, only Kang He would throw a tantrum, but this makes no difference to Sun You. And you're quieter than Kang He, so you're easier to control for Sun You."

“He’s really a scumbag.” Lu Qi was so angry that she almost broke the chopsticks in her hand. “How can this kind of man still exist in this world? I’m really speechless.”

“Kang Xue, if I were you, I would definitely beat up their entire family to vent my anger.” Dai Zhu gritted her teeth.

“Then I’d better not show up when they come.” Kang Xue was indeed frightened. Her voice started to tremble.

“They’ll definitely call you out.” Jiang Yu said, “Don’t be afraid. No matter what they say, you can’t agree to it.

“Mhm...” Kang Xue nodded hesitantly. She was still afraid that her family would marry her off to the Sun family in order to keep Kang He.

However, the time for their parents to meet had not been decided yet, so Kang Xue still had a trace of hope in her heart.

After dinner, Jiang Yu took a pen and paper and went to the self-study room to draw a design draft.

Lu Qi and the others knew that they couldn’t help much, so they gathered in the activity room and planned to come up with a plan for Kang Xue.

Jiang Yu only used half an hour to finish the design draft, and another half an hour to make some slight changes before submitting it.

The International jewelry competition this time was even grander than the International Piano Competition that Jiang Yu had participated in before.

The previous piano competitions were all signed up by students from the most famous art schools around the country, but this time, the jewelry design competition was open to everyone.

It didn’t matter if it was someone who specialized in design, those who were talented in design, or those who were only interested in design, they could all sign up for the competition.

Chapter 1063 A Strange Order

Because of this, the number of people who signed up for the competition this time had reached an unprecedented number of more than 100000.

With such a large number of people, it was naturally impossible for them to participate in the competition at once. After all, there was no venue in the entire world that could accommodate so many participants.

Not to mention, there was still the audience.

Thus, Daffer company and the joint ambassador came up with an idea, which was to set up the competition zones in different areas.

The first and second round of the preliminary competition would be held by the province. Those who successfully advanced could go to the capital and participate in the preliminary competition held there.

Only those who made it to the final round could participate in the preliminary round of the international competition.

As for the semi-final, semi-final, and final, it would be the same.

Therefore, Jiang Yu's submission this time was actually only for the first round of the provincial preliminary competition. After that, there would be the second round of the preliminary competition, the capital's preliminary competition, and so on.

"I'm really nervous waiting." Jiang Yu stretched lazily, got up, and left the self-study room.

It was still early and Jiang Yu did not see Lu Qi and the others, so she went to the company to check on the company's situation.

Sister Xia had been helping Jiang Yu to look after the company during this period of time, and she even had some time to take care of the studio.

When Jiang Yu arrived at the company, she saw sister Xia looking at the financial statements for the month.

"Sister Xia, you've worked hard. I'll treat you to a meal when it's time to rest." Jiang Yu also felt a little apologetic for sister Xia, who was so serious about her work.

However, sister Xia did not care, "I'm almost done looking through this month's financial statements." By the way, we've already started gathering scripts for the competition. Have you submitted them yet?"

"Yes," Jiang Yu replied with a nod.

"I think the theme this time is 'Nightingale and rose'. What do you think?"

"Actually, this idea was all thanks to Dai Zhu." Jiang Yu laughed and said, "she poked the rice with her chopsticks. That's how I came up with such a good idea-the thorny root of the Rose killed the Nightingale."

"Ah?" Sister Xia's hand trembled. "Other people's themes are about impossible love or the fetters of life. Why did you design death?"

"That's why I said it's creativity." Jiang Yu blinked. "If everything is the same as others or very similar, then it's not called creativity."

"Alright... This is your idea. I won't interfere." Sister Xia continued to look at the financial statements. Suddenly, she saw a very strange large sum of money at the end.

She quickly passed the report to Jiang Yu. "Look at this sum of money, it's as high as five million. However, according to the previous record, he received about 300000 orders a day, so even if he paid in full, he would only make about three million a day. It was only on this day that the sales volume reached eight million. Besides, the sales are divided into two channels. Besides the normal three million, there's also a strange five million."

"Which company bought it?" Jiang Yu also felt that it was strange, so she found the head of the marketing department and asked her about the recent sales.

The marketing director recalled and said, "Usually, it's a very normal number of orders, but one day, an anonymous company placed 500000 orders here in one go, and they paid in full. I was also a little curious at the time, but then I thought about it. This is a company, and they might be organizing some competition, so I wanted to buy some jewelry as a gift. I didn't think it was strange."

"I know. You can go back first." Jiang Yu said.

"Alright," he said. The marketing director bowed and left Jiang Yu's office.

"This company placed 500000 orders in one go. Can we take in so many?" Sister Xia did not understand. "It's an anonymous company. Is it so shameful?"

Jiang Yu was also deep in thought, 'which company is it? What was the point of placing 500000 orders?'

Sister Xia was also puzzled.

However, the answer to this matter was soon found-two days later, Kang He's shop had the exact same accessory as Jiang Yu's shop, but it was more expensive. The label below it was not Diana, but a name called 'Bubble'. She had also been releasing statements saying that "Bubble" was the real original and that Diana was the real thief.

When sister Xia found out about this news, she was instantly furious. "This Kang He, she was the one who placed the 500000 Yuan order! After buying these accessories, she still dared to sell them at such a high price! How could she be so shameless? She even said that Diana was a thief? I think 'Bubble' is the one!"

Chapter 1064 Who Is The Original?

Kang He was brazenly fabricating facts, and Jiang Yu was a little shocked to see it.

However, there were still people who believed Kang He's words and thought that 'Bubble' was the original. So, many people went to Jiang Yu's place to return their orders, saying that they were determined not to buy the plagiarist's items.

All of a sudden, the comments under Jiang Yu's shop had changed dramatically.

"I've long felt that something was wrong. Jiang Yu is the movie queen. How can the things she sells at her shop be so cheap? Now I know. It seems that she has a guilty conscience, which is why she set the price so low!"

"If it wasn't for Kang He finding the real original creator, I'm afraid we would still be in the dark,"

"What happened to Jiang Yu? Are you using your status as a movie queen?"

"She's the movie queen, but I haven't seen her in any shows or films recently. There's been no news at all, and she doesn't even say if she's retired. I don't think this Best Actress award is that important."

Sister Xia was even angrier when she saw these comments and wanted to go to Kang He to reason with her.

"Do these people have pig brains? Don't tell me you can't tell the truth?" Sister Xia was so angry that her heart was about to jump out of her chest.

“Sister Xia,” Jiang Yu stopped sister Xia. “Sister Xia, if you go now, Kang He will only catch you red-handed.”

“Are we just going to keep watching?” Sister Xia said angrily, “This Kang He, her company will close down one day! How can this company continue to run if they keep fabricating facts and distorting the truth?”

“Actually, there’s a better solution to this.” Jiang Yu smiled and took out her phone to record an audio.

She pinched her throat and changed her voice, then said, “Hello everyone, I’m Diana, the original creator of this accessory. First of all, I can prove that I’m the original creator and not the plagiarist. As for who that ‘Bubble’ is, I don’t know. I hope everyone can open their eyes and see who the real original creator is.”

After recording the audio, Jiang Yu posted it in the comments section of the two shops as the shop owners.

After the people who had been clamoring under Jiang Yu’s shop heard the audio, they could not figure out who the real original author was.

When the people who wanted to place an order at Kang He’s store heard the audio, they hesitated whether to place an order.

Kang He naturally heard the audio as well. She was so angry that her face scrunched up.

She found a female employee and asked her to record the same audio recording, but with the change of ‘Diana’ to ‘Bubble’.

She also posted the audio in the comment section and commented under Jiang Yu’s shop: “Do you think you can find anyone to fake an original?”

Even though she said so, those people still held a wait-and-see attitude.

Jiang Yu replied quickly, [I’ll give you this sentence in its original form.]

Kang He replied, “if you have the ability, then call out Diana herself and let her testify! I can get ‘Bubble’ to testify on my side. She’s the real original!”

Speaking up to this point, Jiang Yu finally realized Kang He’s real purpose-she wanted to see Diana herself.

After she deleted Kang He from her friend list, Kang He must have sent people to check on Diana. But because she was Diana, Kang He’s people didn’t manage to find any useful information.

The desperate Kang He finally came up with this idea to force Diana to come forward.

Jiang Yu, who had figured out the whole thing, smiled slightly and replied to Kang He, “You’re really smart. You just want Diana to show up, right? ”

Kang He, who had been exposed, was shocked and quickly replied, “Don’t talk nonsense! I just found the real original work and couldn’t bear to let everyone be deceived by you! Don’t you use your dirty thoughts to judge me!”

Jiang Yu replied, "you're the one who's really lying to everyone. You're also the one with dirty thoughts. Your methods are too clumsy, and your thoughts are obvious. Kang He, you don't have the brains for this. I advise you to stop doing business."

Kang He was still being stubborn, "Bubble is the original! Diana was just a thief! If you really want to prove it, why don't you ask Diana to come out? Don't record the audio, who knows if it's really Diana or not. What if you're a fake?"

Jiang Yu couldn't help but laugh. She realized that Kang He still had some brains for such strange things.

"Kang He really put in a lot of effort to make Diana appear." Jiang Yu said with a smile.

Chapter 1065 Exposed

Kang He was determined to have Diana personally give a response and insisted that 'Bubble' was an original writer. She could get her to personally give a response.

In contrast, Jiang Yu couldn't come out to explain for the time being, so Kang He had a handle on her. She made a lot of comments in the comments section: "I told you that Diana isn't an original! You see, as long as I ask her to come out and explain herself, Jiang Yu has been avoiding it! This kind of behavior already shows that Diana didn't show up because she felt guilty!"

When sister Xia saw this comment, she was so angry that she deleted it.

"This Kang He, why is she so bored?" Sister Xia was indescribably angry. "She's always wasting time on things that don't matter. What's her goal? Is she willing to buy 500000 accessories just to get Diana to show up?"

"I don't think so." Jiang Yu revealed Kang He's intention. "She wanted to find out more about Diana, but in the end, there was no result. She wasn't willing to give up, so she bought 500000 accessories in one go. First, she used this order to make a big profit, then she designed a person called "Bubble" to ruin Diana's original reputation."

"But what's the point of her buying things from you and then reselling them?" Sister Xia was even more confused. if she really had such an idea, why didn't she just point it out directly? Why don't we just get 'Bubble' to come forward and say that Diana stole the idea? Although no matter which method it is, it will eventually become a confrontation between the two sides, this is how a normal person should deal with it, right?"

"Of course it's to create an image of a kind and pitiful person." Jiang Yu smirked. "Kang He found the real original author, but she didn't have the ability to expose Jiang Yu, the movie queen. So, she could only spend her own money to buy accessories from Jiang Yu and then resell them. This way, everyone can buy the authentic... Kang He's kind and pitiful image will be established."

When sister Xia heard this, she felt helpless and said, "I'm really convinced. No matter what, I bought these accessories from you. According to Kang He's methods, she's selling counterfeits."

"Isn't she labeled as "Bubble"?" As long as she has this label, then these things are authentic." Jiang Yu smiled and no longer paid attention to Kang He, who was like a clown.

When Kang He saw that Jiang Yu refused to respond for a long time, she became more confident and began to clamor again, "Did everyone see that? Jiang Yu and that Diana had a guilty conscience, so they had refused to respond! Everyone must believe me, bubble is the real creator, I will never lie to you!"

At first, most of the people were still hesitating. Now that Jiang Yu didn't respond for a long time and Kang He said this, the scale in their hearts began to tilt again.

However, it didn't take long for Jiang Yu to release the news, "Diana has signed up for the International jewelry competition. She'll be very busy, so she can't show up in person for the time being. After the competition is over, I'll ask her to give everyone a reasonable explanation. If anyone is interested in Diana, you can go and see her work. In short, I, Jiang Yu, am willing to use my reputation to guarantee that this accessory is Diana's original creation and that bubble is the real thief."

At this moment, the balance in everyone's heart was completely tilted in Jiang Yu's favor.

Jiang Yu was a movie queen. Her reputation was many times greater than that of Kang He, the boss of an unknown small company! Since she dared to use her reputation as a guarantee, it meant that there was nothing wrong with the fact that Diana was the original author.

Moreover, Diana had even participated in an international jewelry competition. Putting aside whether she could make it to the next round, someone with such courage didn't look like someone who would steal other people's ideas.

Therefore, everyone was more willing to believe in Jiang Yu. Kang He's plan failed again.

Even though she kept saying that 'Bubble' was an original and that Jiang Yu's accessories were fake, no one believed her anymore.

The customers who had originally placed their orders at her shop also canceled their orders and bought accessories from Jiang Yu again.

Kang He saw that no matter what she said, she couldn't sway the minds of this group of people, so she could only give up on the plan. However, he couldn't keep the 500000 accessories any longer. Otherwise, they would just be left in the warehouse.

Not only did it take up space, but it also made her lose a lot of money.

Therefore, she also went to Jiang Yu's shop to apply for a refund, but Jiang Yu rejected Kang He's application.

The flustered and exasperated Kang He couldn't help but come to the door. "Jiang Yu! What's wrong with you?"

Chapter 1066 Successfully Advanced

Jiang Yu looked at Kang He's face, which was twisted with anger, and asked with a smile, "What's wrong? What's the matter?"

"Why did you reject my return request?" Kang He asked angrily. "Other people can apply for refunds, but I can't?"

Jiang Yu smiled. "There's a rule in my shop. Once the product is sold, it can't be returned unless there's a problem with the quality. So far, no one had applied for a refund because of quality issues. On the other hand, the reason you gave me was that you don't want it anymore. It's not a quality problem, how am I supposed to return it?"

"I don't care, return the goods now! And then return the money to me!" Kang He placed her hands on her hips and had a "I won't leave if you don't return the goods" attitude."

"Kang He, this refund is an order worth 500000 Yuan. You know how much profit I will lose, don't you?" Jiang Yu retorted.

Kang He glared at her and said, "what does your loss of profit have to do with me? If you don't return the money to me, I'm going to lose a lot of money!"

"What does it have to do with me?" Jiang Yu asked, imitating her. "How much money you lost?"

"You!" Kang He's lips trembled with anger. "I'm asking you, are you going to give me a refund or not!"

As she spoke, she picked up the glass of water on Jiang Yu's desk and was about to throw it on the ground.

Jiang Yu glanced at the cup and her eyes curved. She smiled and said, "Kang He, there's still a way to solve this, and that's to sell your accessories to me at a low price."

"Low price?" Kang He was stunned for a moment before she sneered, "Jiang Yu, those are all accessories from your shop! Don't tell me that you're buying your own things and are not even willing to pay the original price?"

"You're wrong." Jiang Yu leaned back on the chair lazily. "You bought these accessories with money, so they're yours. Now that you don't want these things, they're all second-hand. How can I pay the original price?"

"You're clearly being unreasonable!" Kang He was so angry that she threw the glass in her hand to the ground. The shattered glass pieces stuck to the bottom of her pants.

Jiang Yu stopped smiling and her expression turned cold. "Sister Xia, get the security guards to come in and drive Kang He out." She asked sister Xia to call for security.

"Wait!" Kang He grabbed Jiang Yu's arm. "Return the goods first!"

Jiang Yu ignored Kang He. "After struggling free from her, she handed her over to the security guard who entered the door."

"Jiang Yu! If you don't have any professional ethics, your company will definitely go bankrupt!" Kang He's voice was getting softer and softer because she had already been taken out by the security guards.

Sister Xia also felt that Kang He was being unreasonable. "What's she doing here?"

"She asked me to return her goods. I told her that I couldn't return it and asked her to sell those accessories to me at a low price, but she refused." Jiang Yu said.

“What a joke. This is the only solution and she’s still unwilling?” Sister Xia was so angry that she laughed. “No matter what, that batch of jewelry will be a loss to her. This method can help her reduce her losses, but she’s actually unwilling!”

“Let her be. If she has thought it through, she will contact me herself.” As she spoke, Jiang Yu turned on her computer and opened the provincial preliminary round of the International jewelry competition.

If she didn’t remember wrongly, today was the day the results were out.

Sister Xia also remembered this day and checked the results with Jiang Yu.

After Jiang Yu entered the serial number, she found that her manuscript had appeared in the column indicating that she had successfully advanced.

“That’s great! The advancement is a success!” Sister Xia cheered, “and your ranking is quite high. When it’s the second round of the preliminaries, you’ll definitely be able to advance successfully!”

“I hope so.” Jiang Yu was also very happy and checked the requirements for the second round of the preliminary round.

The requirement for the second round of the preliminaries was to modify the draft from the first round. The elements had to remain the same, but the concept had to be completely different.

This request stumped many of the participants, but Jiang Yu quickly had a rough idea in her heart.

Since most people had suggested that The Nightingale and the Rose should grow together in the first round, Jiang Yu only needed to design the idea that The Nightingale and the Rose should nourish each other in the second round.

Therefore, Jiang Yu quickly revised the manuscript and submitted it.

Sister Xia was also dumbfounded by Jiang Yu’s speed. “You’re done with the design?”

“Yeah,” Jiang Yu smiled and said, “Although the idea this time is more general, it’s different from my idea in the first round. It completely meets the requirements for the second round.”

Chapter 1067 The Person Blocking The Way

“Your way of thinking is still the best!” Sister Xia couldn’t help but give him a thumbs up. “Based on this progress, you might even be able to pass the preliminary round in Beijing!”

“It’s still early,” Jiang Yu smiled in embarrassment. She did not dare to say that she would definitely pass the preliminary round in the capital.

“Now, many customers are paying attention to Diana. They all want to know how she did in the competition.” Sister Xia said, “Even if you can’t reveal your identity now, you should open another account. It’s also good to satisfy the curiosity of these customers.”

“That’s good.” Jiang Yu felt that what sister Xia said made a lot of sense, so she opened a new account named Diana.

Not long after this account was registered, more than a dozen people followed it, and someone even sent a private message: Hello, are you really Diana? ”

[Yes, I am Diana.] Jiang Yu replied.

The person on the other side must have been very happy. He sent a few smiley faces in a row and said, “That’s great! I’m your fan, and I really like the accessories you design! I heard from movie queen Jiang that you went to participate in some international jewelry competition. I really want to know the results of your competition. If you successfully advance, I will be very happy too!”

Jiang Yu replied: “Thank you. I have passed the first round of the preliminary round. I am now preparing for the second round.”

“Then, congratulations! Diana, I hope you have a bright future. I also wish you the best in the final!”

Jiang Yu was very touched by such encouragement.

Hence, she replied, “I also wish you a bright future. Let’s work hard together.”

Even an onlooker like sister Xia could not help but feel touched.

“Their encouragement is from the bottom of their hearts. I’m so touched!” Sister Xia couldn’t help but say.

“Yes.” Jiang Yu nodded. She was so touched that her eyes were filled with tears.

“Alright, don’t cry.” Sister Xia took out a piece of tissue and handed it to Jiang Yu. hurry up and wipe your tears. We’ll be off work soon. Are you going back to school or to Mo Long’s place today?”

Jiang Yu wiped her tears and said, “I’ll go to Mo Long’s place today. The Mo garden is close to the company, so it’s more convenient for me to go back and forth. There aren’t many classes in school recently, so I don’t have to go to school for the time being. I’ll just go back and sign in a few days.”

“Yes.” Sister Xia packed her things. “Then I’ll go back first.”

Jiang Yu stayed in the company for a while longer to deal with a few documents. By the time she was done, the employees in the company had already left.

Hence, she packed her things and left work.

However, someone stopped her car on the way back.

The taxi driver looked at the BMW in front of him in surprise, not knowing what the car was going to do.

After the owner of the BMW got out of the car, he walked straight to the back window and knocked on it.

Jiang Yu looked over and saw sun you’s face.

The driver turned around and looked at Jiang Yu, his sense of justice erupting. “Little girl, do you know him? If you don’t know him, you can tell uncle and I’ll take you out of here.”

Jiang Yu was silent for a moment before she said, "it's alright. It's someone I know." We've had some business dealings with each other, so it must be an urgent matter for him to be looking for me at this time."

I see. Then you can get out of the car and settle it. I'll wait for you here. As the driver spoke, he had a new understanding of Jiang Yu's identity.

I didn't expect him to be in contact with business at such a young age. He's really young and promising.

"Thank you, uncle."

Jiang Yu opened the door and got out of the car. She looked straight into Sun You's eyes and said, "Is there something?"

Sun You didn't plan on exchanging pleasantries with Jiang Yu and went straight to the point, "Why did you reject Kang He's return request?"

"It's really because of this." Jiang Yu sneered. "What's wrong? She can't solve this problem herself, so she's letting you solve it? However, no matter which one of you deals with it, there's only one solution, and that is to sell it to me at a low price."

"Jiang Yu! Don't you dare be ungrateful! Oh?" Sun You frowned, "After those accessories were bought, they were piled up in Kang He's warehouse. They are all brand new! How could I sell it to you at such a low price?"

"You see, if you all don't accept this method, then you can't blame me." Jiang Yu shrugged her shoulders. "So what if it's brand new? Since it was something she didn't want, it must be a second-hand product. Have you ever seen anyone spend the original price to buy a second-hand item?"

"Jiang Yu, I'm giving you a way out." Sun You gritted his teeth. "You don't want me to fight with you over this, do you?"

"You wouldn't dare either, would you?" Jiang Yu looked at Sun You with disdain.

Sun You paused, the fire in his eyes almost burning.

Jiang Yu could tell what he was thinking and said with a smile, "Sun You, if you start a fight with me because of this, you'll only be touched by Kang He. But the consequences you'll have to face in the end will be the Kang family and the Mo Corporation suppressing you."

Sun You froze, and the anger in his eyes gradually extinguished.

Jiang Yu continued, "she doesn't know about your feelings for Kang He, but I, as a bystander, saw it clearly." You want to marry someone from the Kang family, because it'll help you in the future. But the person Kang He wants to marry is you, not any random member of the sun family. Do you think you can face Kang He by doing this?"

"You don't need to care!" Sun You was furious. "What does this have to do with you?! Kang He is only a branch of the Kang family. How much help can she provide me? But I still want to marry her! Can't that prove my love for her? I'm warning you, don't you try to judge me here!"

Jiang Yu squinted her eyes and looked at Sun You carefully, as if she was trying to read his mind. "I think you know better than anyone whether I'm making malicious speculations about you, right?"

Sun You was still holding on, not wanting Jiang Yu to notice anything. The veins on his forehead were popping out.

However, Jiang Yu didn't want to waste time with Sun You either, "I don't care about you and Kang He. You can do whatever you want, but don't come to me because of this again. I've already told you the best way. If you don't accept it, then there's nothing more to say between us."

As she spoke, Jiang Yu opened the car door and sat down. She said to the driver, "Let's go, uncle driver."

"Alright," he said.

The driver was about to step on the accelerator when he saw the man blocking the car.

"Aiyo! Don't you know it's very dangerous?!" The driver rolled down the window, stuck his head out, and cursed, "You little brat, do you not want your life anymore!"

Sun You glared at him and then stared at Jiang Yu in the back seat.

Jiang Yu was not afraid and looked back at Sun You.

After a long time, Sun You finally stepped aside angrily and the driver drove away with Jiang Yu.

The driver was still in fear from what had just happened. The man was so close to Sun You, and if he didn't pay attention, he might have hit Sun You.

After driving for a distance, the driver looked at Jiang Yu through the rearview mirror and asked tentatively, "young lady, I don't think you have a normal business relationship with that man."

"It's nothing big." Jiang Yu did not want the driver to know the cause and effect of this matter, so she simplified it as much as possible. "He wanted to sell something to me and complained that the price I offered was too low. He couldn't be angry, so he came to block me on the road."

"Is that so... From the look in his eyes, I don't think you've raised the price, have you?"

"No, I didn't," Jiang Yu said and closed her eyes. It was obvious that she did not intend to continue talking about this matter.

The driver tactfully stopped asking.

Only Sun You, who was left in the same spot, continued to look at the end of the road even though the shadow of the taxi had disappeared. It was as if the taxi would come back if he kept looking.

"Detestable!" Sun You stood there for a long time and finally shivered from the cold wind. Then, he cursed.

When Kang He had complained to him today, he had only agreed to negotiate with Jiang Yu tonight for the sake of his reputation.

He did not expect Jiang Yu to be so stubborn and refuse to raise the price no matter what. He even gave a bunch of reasons to justify his actions.

"Are you looking down on me?" Sun You was infuriated by Jiang Yu's words and his chest heaved up and down. "Alright, Jiang Yu, you better remember what you said today! One day, I'll make you come crying to me!"

He felt even more disgusted with Jiang Yu. He made up his mind to put the date of the meeting between the parents of the Sun and Kang families on his schedule, the sooner the better. As for his marriage with Kang He, the earlier the better.

As long as he married Kang He earlier, the day he would annex the Kang family would also be earlier. If that was the case, the day that Sun You would realize his dream would be even closer.

However, Jiang Yu was right about one thing.

Sun You only wanted to marry a member of the Kang family, not Kang He. So if the Kangs didn't allow him to marry Kang He, it wouldn't be a bad idea to let Kang He's sister, Kang Xue, marry him.

They were both from the Kang family, so it didn't matter who she married.

Chapter 1069 Parents' Meeting

In fact, Sun You didn't want the parents of the two families to meet so early, but because of the 500000 Yuan order from Kang He, he had no choice but to bring forward the time of the meeting.

However, Kang He was very willing because she wanted to meet Sun You's parents as soon as possible. That way, she could marry Sun You earlier.

Therefore, when Sun You discussed this with her, Kang He agreed without hesitation.

As a result, the sun family's parents arrived at Kang He's home two days later.

The old couple had heard about Kang He from Sun You a long time ago. They heard that she was arrogant and domineering, and not gentle at all. She was not suitable to be a daughter-in-law at all.

They had only come this time to give their son, Sun You, some face. Otherwise, they would never have come.

Kang He's family also looked down on Sun You, thinking that the Sun family was just a "small family" that didn't match up to Kang He. Even Sun You's parents were vulgar, and this made the Kang family look down on the Sun family even more.

The situation was exactly as Jiang Yu had guessed. Kang Xue was a little nervous.

Even though Kang He asked her not to leave the room and not to appear in front of the Sun family, Mr. Kang still called Kang Xue out halfway through the meeting.

Mr. Kang didn't want to marry Kang He to Sun You, so he wanted to marry Kang Xue in place of Kang He.

“Kang He is my daughter. I understand her character. She was used to being arrogant and couldn’t take care of the family at all. However, my second daughter, Kang Xue, is usually very obedient. Compared to Kang He, she’s actually more suitable for Sun You.”

Mr. Kang put on a fake smile as he pushed Kang Xue in front of Mr. And Mrs. Sun.

Kang He looked at all this in horror and screamed, “Dad! What the hell are you doing? I’m the one who wants to marry Sun You, it’s me! It wasn’t Kang Xue! How could you let Kang Xue marry him?”

“Shut up! Compared to you and your sister, isn’t your sister more obedient?” Mr. Kang scolded. “Look at you, who would want to marry you?”

“F * ck! Kang He’s anxious gaze turned to Sun You, hoping that he would stand up and speak for her.

Sun You lived up to everyone’s expectations and opened his mouth to speak. However, he didn’t speak for Kang He, but for his deep love character. “Uncle, I do like Xiao He. I hope you won’t break us up.

Kang He was immediately moved to tears. She wanted to marry Sun You no matter what.

“That’s right, dad, Sun You and I are the true love. Don’t break us up!”

“Shut up, you’re not in a position to speak!” Mr. Kang raged.

Kang He was so frightened that her body couldn’t help but tremble, and tears immediately filled her eyes.

Mr. and Mrs. Sun also thought highly of Kang Xue. They felt that she was more suitable to be their daughter-in-law than Kang He.

Hence, they decided on Sun You and Kang Xue’s marriage.

Kang Xue remembered Jiang Yu’s words and quickly said, “Dad, I’m still young and I don’t want to get married yet. Let’s put this matter on hold for a while. After all, Sun You was planning to marry my sister from the start.”

Hearing this, Kang He grabbed onto her father’s arm like he was her last hope. She cried, “Dad, if even Kang Xue knows this, how can you not? Since I was young, you’ve always spoiled me. Why can’t you do this?”

Mr. Kang was so angry that he had a headache. He shook off Kang He’s hand and scolded loudly, “Go back to your room! If I see you again, I’ll break your legs!”

Kang He didn’t want to enter the house, so Mr. Kang asked the housekeeper and Butler to drag Kang He into the room.

“Dad!” Kang He’s shrill voice sounded. “You can’t let Kang Xue marry Sun You!”

Kang He’s voice didn’t completely disappear until she was locked in the room.

“I’m sorry, I’ve made a fool of myself.” Mr. Kang smiled awkwardly and pulled Kang Xue to sit down. “My younger daughter, Kang Xue, is educated, reasonable, and understanding. If Sun You really wants to get married, then Kang Xue is the most suitable.”

Mr. and Mrs. Sun were also very satisfied with Kang Xue. They nodded and said, "Alright, then the marriage between Xiao Xue and Xiao You is settled. We'll pick a suitable date and let them hold the engagement ceremony first."

"Alright," he said. Mr. Kang smiled.

"Daddy! Daddy!" said Kang Xue, still trying to struggle. But Mr. Kang grabbed her hand tightly, signaling her to stop talking.

Kang Xue was used to being bullied at home. Now that she had encountered something that was disadvantageous to her, she did not have the courage to stand up and resist.

Chapter 1070 Vent Out Anger

Sun You only pretended to be unwilling, but he quickly accepted the arrangement.

In his eyes, as long as he married someone from the Kang family, it didn't matter if it was Kang He or Kang Xue. The result would be the same.

Moreover, Kang Xue looked quieter than Kang He, so she was probably easier to control.

After sending the Sun family off, Mr. Kang finally let out a breath of relief. He looked at Kang Xue with a more kind gaze. "You've finally made some contributions to the family."

Kang Xue hesitated, but eventually opened her mouth, "Dad, can I not get married?"

Mr. Kang's face darkened. "You think you can just say you don't want to marry? You don't have the final say in this."

"But this is my marriage! Why can't I decide on my own marriage? And Sun You's going to marry Kang He, not me!" Kang Xue asked.

"What do you know? Sun You's marrying someone from the Kang family, not Kang He!" Mr. Kang said sternly. "He will marry whoever I marry over, do you understand? You've lived for so many years, and it's not easy for you to do something for the family. What's there to be unwilling about?"

"But he doesn't like me, so I won't be happy even if I marry him!" Kang Xue shouted.

"How much is your happiness worth?" Mr. Kang pushed Kang Xue to the ground. "Go back to your room and calm down!"

Kang Xue fell to the ground. She couldn't imagine that her father would abandon her happiness.

Her heart grew colder and colder, and all her hopes were dashed.

Kang Xue stood up and went back to her room without a word.

Mr. Kang thought that she was going back to reflect on her actions, so he went to Kang He's room to comfort his "heartbroken" daughter.

He took the key from the nanny and opened the door to Kang He's room. She was sitting by the bed, surrounded by things that had been thrown to the ground.

"You're already so old, why are you still so insensible?" Mr. Kang frowned as he picked up the rabbit doll.

This soft toy was a present that Mr. Kang bought for Kang He on her tenth birthday. But Kang Xue didn't. Not only did she not have her 10th birthday, she didn't have it every year.

Kang He wiped her tears and said, "you pushed my boyfriend to someone else, and that person is my sister. What do you think? Am I even your daughter? How can you throw away my happiness?"

"What nonsense are you spouting?" Mr. Kang placed the toy in Kang He's hands. "I'm thinking of your happiness. Otherwise, why would I let Kang Xue marry him?"

"You still dare to say that?" Kang He stood up with a whoosh and threw the doll in her hand away. "Why would you let Kang Xue marry him for my happiness? I think you're biased towards Kang Xue! He's my boyfriend, but you pushed him to Kang Xue!"

"You child, why are you so stubborn!" Mr. Kang was also angry and didn't plan on coaxing Kang He. "The Sun family is a small family, Sun You is not worthy of you! If Kang Xue marries him, the marriage will be realized and we'll get rid of a burden, what's wrong with that?"

"Which part is good?" Kang He wailed. "The person Sun You likes is obviously me! You've broken us up, you've ruined our love!"

"What love is there between you two!" Mr. Kang was so angry that he almost had a heart attack. "It's decided then, it's useless no matter how much trouble you make!"

With that, Mr. Kang turned around and left, slamming the door behind him with a loud bang.

Kang He cried even harder, and her loathing for Kang Xue increased.

She was so angry that she vented all her anger on Kang Xue. She walked to the door of Kang Xue's room and pushed it open.

Kang Xue was shocked. After seeing that the person was Kang He, she let out a sigh of relief and asked, "What's the matter?"

Kang He's face was ferocious as she reached out and grabbed Kang Xue's neck. "It's all because of you! If it wasn't for you, Sun You would have married me! It's all because of you! You're the one who ruined our relationship!"

Kang Xue didn't expect Kang He to be so crazy, but this wasn't her own will. She was forced to do it.

"Stop!" Kang Xue slapped Kang He's hand with all her might, but Kang He's strength was getting stronger and stronger. Kang Xue's voice was also getting softer and softer.

"Kang He... let go of... and listen to me...!"

Kang Xue's eyes rolled back and her breathing became more and more difficult.

"Shut up! Kang Xue, it's all because of you! Why are you still alive?!" Kang He's eyes were red. She had completely lost her mind.
