Strange Incident

"If this experiment is true, then not only in Shanghai, but people everywhere are in danger!" Chang Kai had been in the police industry for many years. Although he had heard about human-making experiments from his seniors, he had never seen it with his own eyes like today.

"I'm afraid that the media will spread the news of such a strange incident happening in broad daylight." Jiang Yu frowned. the people who don't know the truth will definitely panic.

"Indeed. I'll ask director Luo about this, and try to minimize the panic of the public." Chang Kai said.

"Yes." Jiang Yu nodded. by the way, who was the person who exploded? "

Chang Kai said, "according to the testimonies of the other contestants, the person who exploded was the daughter of the Qiao family. Her name is Qiao Yun. I heard that she's only 18 this year and has just started University."

".. It's such a pity." Jiang Yu couldn't help but feel pity.

Although the 'Qiao Yun' that had exploded was fake, the real Qiao Yun might not be alive anymore.

"This matter still needs to be explained to the Qiao's. Even if this 'Qiao Yun' is fake, in their eyes, she is their precious daughter." Jiang Yu sighed and suggested to Chang Kai.

"That's right, I'm planning to go to the Qiao family." Chang Kai said.

"I'll go with you," Jiang Yu said, "if the Qiao family is heartbroken, I can help you in comforting them."

"That's good too. Let's go together." Chang Kai readily agreed.

Jiang Yu looked at Zheng Yan in her arms and Kang Xue beside her, then said to sister Xia, "Sister Xia, I'll have to trouble you to help me take care of the two of them."

Sister Xia had already adjusted her emotions. She took Zheng Yan and Kang Xue from Jiang Yu's arms and said to her, "You can go with Kai. I'll take care of them for you."

"Alright, thank you, sister Xia." After that, Jiang Yu left with Chang Kai.

The Qiao family's house wasn't far from the filming location. They followed the GPS and arrived in five minutes by car.

As soon as Jiang Yu and Chang Kai arrived at the gate of the Qiao family's residence, they heard a heart-wrenching cry coming from inside the house.

Chang Kai stood at the door, somewhat at a loss. He looked at Jiang Yu awkwardly and laughed dryly. "It's a good thing you came along. Otherwise, I really wouldn't know how to deal with this situation."

Jiang Yu did not say anything. She reached out and knocked on the door of the Qiao family's house. In order to prevent them from not hearing her, she used a lot of strength. "Hello, we are the police!"

Not long after, an impatient young man came to open the door.

He sized up Jiang Yu and Chang Kai in front of him and asked impatiently, "Who are you guys? Didn't you hear everyone in the room crying? What are you all doing here?"

Chang Kai showed his police ID and explained, "I'm a police officer, and this is my assistant. The main reason we're here is to discuss Qiao Yun's matter."

When the people in the room heard the name 'Qiao Yun', a middle-aged woman immediately ran over and asked in tears, "The police, right? Then tell me, how is Yunyun now? Has she been sent to the hospital? The live broadcast was suddenly cut off, so we don't know what happened after that. But you guys should have sent her to the hospital, right?"

The young man impatiently pulled on the middle-aged woman's clothes and scolded, "Auntie, can you wake up? Qiao Yun's head exploded. Didn't you see it with your own eyes? Why are you still not admitting it?"

"You shut up!" The woman glared at the young man. "Yunyun is your cousin! It's fine if you're not sad after what happened to her, but what's with this impatient expression?"

The man had nothing to say after being yelled at by the woman. He let go of her hand and said with disdain, "then do whatever you want. Even if you find someone capable, Qiao Yun won't be able to revive."

With that, the man shook his head and went back into the house.

The woman looked at Jiang Yu and Chang Kai again, her eyes full of enthusiasm. She asked, "how is my daughter? What did the doctor say?"

It was obvious that she couldn't accept the fact that Qiao Yun had passed away. That was why she had been lying to herself, thinking that the doctor could still save a person whose head exploded.

Although it was cruel, Jiang Yu still told her the truth. "I'm sorry, your daughter has passed away."

Hearing that, the woman's legs gave way and she fell to the ground.

Chapter 1242 Mountain-Climbing Summer Camp

"Are you alright?" Jiang Yu quickly held the woman. "This is a fact that can't be avoided, so we can only ask you to restrain your grief. Also, the person whose head exploded wasn't your daughter Qiao Yun!"

"What?" The woman grabbed Jiang Yu's hand tightly as if she had found a life-saving straw and refused to let go. "What did you just say? You're saying that she's not my daughter?"

"It's a long story. Please get up first, I'll tell you slowly." Jiang Yu helped the woman up and walked all the way to the sofa.

A group of people stood around them, their eyes red from crying. Jiang Yu could not be sure if they were truly crying for Qiao Yun, so she only planned to tell Qiao Yun's mother about this.

"Aunty, you're the only one I can tell you about this," she said. "Please take me to a place with no one around."

"Good, good." The woman quickly brought Jiang Yu to Qiao Yun's room.

In order to investigate the situation, Chang Kai also followed.

When they entered the room, the woman couldn't wait to ask, "You said that she's not my daughter. What do you mean?"

Jiang Yu and Chang Kai looked at each other and told the woman about the human-producing experiment.

"Human-producing experiments?" This was the first time the woman had heard of this term. "In other words, the one who exploded was just a test subject and not the real Qiao Yun? Then where did my daughter go?"

"It's hard to say for sure." Jiang Yu frowned. "So, we want to know everything about Qiao Yun from you. For example, did anything unusual happen to her?"

The woman thought for a long time before she said, "now that you mention it, I remember. A year ago, Yunyun had signed up for a mountain climbing summer camp. When she came back, she was different from before. However, the change wasn't that big, so I didn't take it to heart. Besides, Yunyun didn't change much in the past year."

"Can you elaborate?" Chang Kai asked.

The woman tried to recall and said, "it's something I usually like to eat. I stopped eating it after I came back from the summer camp. Also, she had stopped liking the style of the clothes she liked ever since she came back. But these changes aren't that big of a deal, are they?"

"It's a big problem." Jiang Yu muttered, "it seems like Qiao Yun was already an experiment a year ago."

"What do you mean?" The woman looked worried. "Since you said that the one who exploded wasn't my daughter, where is my daughter? Is she safe now?"

"Don't get too excited. We will help you find Qiao Yun's whereabouts." Chang Kai consoled her, "do you still remember the name of the one-year summer camp? Or the name of the organizer?"

"I don't remember, but I still have the flyers with me." The woman said as she went back to her room to look for the Flyers from back then.

Not long after, she came in with an intact leaflet and said, "This is it. I've kept all the things that Yunyun doesn't want."

Jiang Yu and Chang Kai took out their mobile phones and took a few photos of the front and back of the flyer, then said, "Thank you. We'll find Qiao Yun's whereabouts as soon as possible. You don't need to worry about her during this period of time."

The woman was still worried and asked, "You guys aren't lying to me, right?"

"Auntie, I'm a police officer," Chang Kai said with a smile. "The police won't lie."

The woman was slightly relieved and let Jiang Yu and Chang Kai leave.

On the way back, Jiang Yu did some simple research on the Qiao family.

"Qiao Yun's mother's name is Qiao Rui. Her father married into the family, so she took her mother's surname. However, her father passed away in a car accident a few years ago, so she's now a child of a single-parent family." Jiang Yu looked at the message on her phone. "The young man today is the son of the Qiao family's eldest son. His name is Qiao Shen and he's Qiao Yun's brother."

"He doesn't feel sad about Qiao Yun's death." Chang Kai sighed. "It seems like the Qiao family isn't that peaceful either."

"It's all because of Qiao Yun's portion of the inheritance." Jiang Yu said coldly, "Qiao Yun is dead. Her share of the Qiao family's assets will become a piece of fat meat that everyone wants. It's just that some people are willing to show it, while others are willing to put on an act and act like they're deeply in love."

"The family's internal struggle for property is really a drama that plays out every day." Chang Kai could not help but feel sorry for them.

However, this was someone else's family matter. As bystanders, they could not interfere.

Chapter 1243 A Wrong Reply

Moreover, Jiang Yu's mind was completely focused on the mountain climbing summer camp a year ago.

She said to Chang Kai, "since Qiao Yun became an experimental body a year ago, it means that the human-making experiment started at least a year and a half ago. After all, it will take at least three months to remove the gauze and return to a normal person's appearance after plastic surgery."

"It seems like there's someone lurking around Qiao Yun all this while just to take her life." Chang Kai made a guess. "That means there's a mole in the Qiao family?"

"It's hard to say if there's a mole but what's certain is that someone in the Qiao family wants Qiao Yun dead." Jiang Yu said coldly, "I didn't expect that there would be such a huge group of people doing this baby experiment."

After Chang Kai sent Jiang Yu back to the recording studio, he returned to the police station and began to investigate the summer camp that had taken place a year ago. Jiang Yu went straight to the lounge to look for sister Xia and the others, ready to take them back with her.

Zheng Yan and Kang Xue had also calmed down and were no longer as scared as before.

"Let's go. I'll take you back to the company first." Jiang Yu said.

Zheng Yan and Kang Xue left with Jiang Yu without a word.

After they returned to the Jiang jewelry, Jiang Yu got someone to clean up two staff dormitories and let Zheng Yan and Kang Xue go in to rest first. She had originally planned to let sister Xia rest, but sister Xia refused to rest no matter what.

She asked Jiang Yu, "did you guys manage to find out anything from the Qiao family?"

Jiang Yu told sister Xia about what she had asked.

"The mountain climbing summer camp a year ago?" Sister Xia had some impression of this and said, "I remember that the summer camp was quite popular at the time, so I wanted you to sign up. However, you were busy with the exam at that time. I thought about it carefully and decided that it would be better to take on a few shows for you after your exam, so I didn't let you sign up for the summer camp."

"This matter is definitely not as simple as it seems." Jiang Yu's face was cold. "What's the purpose of those people researching the human-making experiment? I'm afraid that such artificial men can only be found on the black market, right?"

Speaking of the black market, Jiang Yu suddenly thought of Teng Yi.

In fact, she had been keeping in touch with Teng Yi, but she had never contacted him. He was worried that he would disturb Teng Yi.

However, ever since Mo Long contacted Teng Yi but didn't receive any news, Jiang Yu's uneasiness became more and more serious. Although she kept telling herself that it was just a guess, Jiang Yu's intuition still told her that something must have happened to Teng Yi.

After thinking about it, Jiang Yu decided to send a message to Teng Yi. However, the content wasn't to ask if he was safe or how his investigation was going. Instead, she sent a very normal message. "You must be tired from your business trip. When are you coming back? I'll cook for you."

Although Jiang Yu hoped that Teng Yi would reply, she didn't have much hope. However, not long after the message was sent out, Jiang Yu actually received a reply: I understand, Xiao Yu. The business trip will be over soon.

Jiang Yu saw the message and was sure that something had happened to Teng Yi.

Furthermore, it had fallen into the hands of the fake Mo Long.

She had originally intended to take a screenshot and show it to Mo Long, but the next second, he had already deleted the message. Jiang Yu sent a few more messages, but they all sank into the sea. The other party did not reply anymore.

"Something happened to Teng Yi. He must be in the hands of the fake Mo Long." Jiang Yu's heart turned cold. She didn't know if Teng Yi could protect himself.

"Don't worry, Teng Yi is not stupid. He will protect himself." Sister Xia consoled.

"Yes, I hope so." Jiang Yu frowned. "Too many people are involved in this matter. I'm afraid the Mo and Qiao families are just the tip of the iceberg. There must be other families who have been deceived."

"Jiang Yu, why don't we just forget about this matter?" Sister Xia advised, "you shouldn't be involved in this matter. Just leave it to the police. If they find out that you're involved in this, they'll definitely think of ways to take revenge on you!"

"So what if they want to take revenge? They conducted illegal research and killed so many people. Do you expect me to just sit back and do nothing?" Jiang Yu disagreed with sister Xia's words. "I'll definitely investigate this matter thoroughly. Sister Xia, don't worry about me."

"You ... Sigh, alright." Sister Xia sighed helplessly.

Chapter 1244 Her Thoughts

In fact, sister Xia had always known that Jiang Yu was very stubborn. Once she had set her mind on something, she would not give up until the end. Just like this matter, as long as she decided to investigate, Jiang Yu would never stop until she found a satisfactory result.

However, she was worried that something would happen to Jiang Yu because of this, so she had been persuading her not to do it.

"Sister Xia, I know you're worried about me, but I have to get to the bottom of this." Jiang Yu's attitude was very firm. "It's not only for those who died in vain, but also for the people in the future to avoid such danger. Plus, even Teng Yi has been captured. I have to save him. I can't just watch him lose his life."

"I know," Sister Xia said helplessly, "alright, I won't bother with you. But you have to promise me that if this matter threatens your safety, you have to stop immediately. Do you understand?"

"I got it. Thank you, sister Xia." Jiang Yu smiled.

In the evening, sister Xia planned to stay in the company and continue to look after Zheng Yan and Kang Xue, while Jiang Yu took the car back to Mo garden.

In the living room of Mo garden, Mo Long sat on the sofa with a gloomy face. He was still worried about Teng Yi.

Seeing this, Jiang Yu quickly walked over and told Mo Long about the news she had received today.

"Teng Yi's reply?" Mo Long asked.

"He didn't reply." Jiang Yu said, "the other party called me 'Xiao Yu'. If I'm not mistaken, it should be the fake Black Dragon. Teng Yi is probably in his hands and his phone is confiscated, so he can't reply to our messages. As for today's message, the fake Mo Long probably mistook Teng Yi's phone for his own, so he replied by accident."

"That means that the fake Mo Long is in Qingcheng now?" Mo Long muttered.

"Yes," Jiang Yu nodded and guessed, "the fake Mo Long is related to the human-making experiment. He also appeared in Qingcheng. This means that the experiment must have a base in Qingcheng. Moreover, there are human-making experiments in Qingcheng, as well as the black market organized by the Chi family. It's hard to say that the Chi family is not related to the human-making experiments."

"Teng Yi is a smart person. He knows how to protect himself," Mo Long said after a moment of silence.

Teng Yi was indeed a smart person, and he could protect himself well, because Zhao Xin was his protection.

In the past few days, as long as the fake Mo Long and Zhao Xin slept together, Teng Yi would immediately make tonics and send them over. After a few times, not only did the fake Mo Long lower his guard against him, even Zhao Xin was a little moved by him.

"Teng Yi, do you have a girlfriend?" Zhao Xin ate her congee while looking at Teng Yi.

"No," Teng Yi answered honestly.

"You're so outstanding. How come you don't even have a girlfriend?" Zhao Xin put down the bowl in her hand and unconsciously moved closer to Teng Yi.

"Miss Zhao," said Teng Yi, "You're President Mo's person."

"What do you mean President Mo's person? I'm not an idiot." Zhao Xin covered her mouth and laughed. "I know what he means. He doesn't like me. He's just using me to kill time. Besides, didn't you say that he has a fiancée? So, he's just playing with me. Could he really give up his fiancée for me?"

Teng Yi raised his head and looked at Zhao Xin in surprise.

If what Zhao Xin said just now was true, then she really was a smart woman. She wasn't like the other stupid women who felt that she could naturally become the mistress of the house after sleeping with the fake Mo Long.

However, he didn't say anything, which made Zhao Xin's heart itch even more.

She leaned in and said, "Teng Yi, you're young and handsome. You don't have a girlfriend either. Wouldn't it be more suitable for us to be together? You don't have to worry about letting your President Mo down. We can get back together after he gets a new woman, right?"

Teng Yi frowned, unable to guess what Zhao Xin was thinking.

Indeed, a woman's mind was the hardest to guess.

Teng Yi didn't know if Zhao Xin really wanted to be with him, or if she was listening to the fake Mo Long's orders and came to test him.

Hence, he said tentatively, "Miss Zhao, that's a matter for the future. We'll talk about the future later. If you're really interested in me, I can wait for you."

"Really?" Zhao Xin's eyes lit up, "then wait for me! I've already been by his side for a week. I'll be able to leave him in a week at most!"

Chapter 1245 Use

Zhao Xin looked very happy and seemed to be speaking the truth.

She really didn't seem to be interested in this fake Mo Long. All she could think of was Teng Yi. Even though he was still wearing a servant's uniform, Zhao Xin didn't mind at all.

Teng Yi kept looking at Zhao Xin and asked, "It's my honor to be able to gain Miss Zhao's favor,"

"Don't say that. It's my honor to have met you." Zhao Xin smiled and reached out to hold Teng Yi's hand. "That Mo Long isn't here today. How about you accompany me instead?"

As she spoke, Zhao Xin's hands kept moving up and down Teng Yi's body. As she touched his skin, she looked at him seductively, "Teng Yi, who's prettier, the president's fiancée you mentioned or me?"

She asked this question because she wanted to hear Teng Yi say she was pretty. Teng Yi caught on to her thoughts and said, "Of course, Miss Zhao, you're the prettiest."

"Really?" Hearing this, Zhao Xin's smile bloomed like a flower. A moment later, she looked at Teng Yi and asked, "You're not trying to make me happy on purpose, are you?"

"Of course not," Teng Yi replied. "You are indeed prettier than Jiang Yu. Would you be unhappy if I told you the truth?"

"How is that possible?" Zhao Xin wanted to stick her whole body to Teng Yi, and the smile on her face grew wider.

She was so eager to get close to him that Teng Yi felt something was wrong.

So he slightly pushed Zhao Xin away and said, "Miss Zhao, you're still working for President Mo, it's better for us to keep our distance. If President Mo comes back, I'm worried he'll misunderstand."

"What are you afraid of?" Zhao Xin said, "he said that he had something to do today and would only be back late. It's still daytime, and there are still a few hours before he comes back. What are you afraid of?"

She was so persistent in seducing Teng Yi that even he admired her patience.

However, since the fake Mo Long would only be back in a few hours, he might as well use this time to get closer to Zhao Xin.

So Teng Yi put his arm around Zhao Xin's shoulder and said affectionately, "Miss Zhao, I've always felt that you're my goddess of luck."

"Then why are you still calling me Miss Zhao? Why are you using honorifics?" Although Zhao Zhu said that she was blaming him, in fact, she was already overjoyed. "Just call me Yuxin."

"Yuxin," Teng Yi continued, "once you leave President Mo's side, I'll be with you."

"Really?" Zhao Xin was overjoyed. "I can leave him now!"

Her expression didn't seem like she was acting. Teng Yi could basically rule out the possibility that Zhao Xin was acting with the fake Mo Long to test him. It seemed that she was really smart. She knew that the fake Mo Long would never marry her, so she set her plan on Teng Yi.

In that case, Teng Yi could only play the role of a scumbag and take advantage of Zhao Xin's feelings.

"Yuxin," he said, "if you really love me, then stay by President Mo's side for a few days."

"Why?" Zhao Zhu was confused. "If you like me too, then you should leave this place with me."

"Yuxin, I've always wanted to invest in a stock market, but I don't have enough capital. That's why I want you to stay by his side and help me get some money. That way, I'll have enough capital. I've been keeping an eye on this stock for a few years and it's been making a profit. As long as I invest enough money, I'll get more dividends in the end, and we can live a good life."

"Really?" Zhao Xin was still doubtful.

"Really, I won't lie to you." Teng Yi looked at Zhao Xin with affection.

Zhao Xin thought for a while, then agreed, "Alright, I promise you."

"Thank you, Yuxin." Teng Yi planted a kiss on Zhao Xin's forehead and told her his goal, "President Mo has confiscated my phone, can you help me get it back? In that case, I can take a few photos of you so that I can take them out when I miss you at night."

"Alright, I'll help you take a look." As she spoke, Zhao Xin went to the fake Mo Long's bedroom.

Although she had done many intimate things with the fake Mo Long, she had never slept on the same bed. After they were done, they returned to their respective rooms. However, the fake Mo Long still gave Zhao Xin a spare key.

The reason was that he was afraid that he would forget to bring his keys and not be able to enter the bedroom.

Chapter 1246 Discovered

Zhao Xin opened the door to the fake Mo Long's bedroom, then quietly closed it.

"What a bastard! He even took his Secretary's phone?" Zhao Xin cursed the fake Mo Long in her heart while searching his room, hoping to find Teng Yi's phone.

Zhao Xin had long known that the fake Mo Long had no feelings for her. The only reason he was with her was to vent his desires. Therefore, she had only held a playful attitude from the start and stayed by the fake Mo Long's side.

However, she had been feeling unwell recently. She often felt nauseated and dizzy, so she went to the hospital for a checkup. The final result of the examination left her at a loss-she was pregnant.

In the midst of her shock, Zhao Xin began to rejoice. Fortunately, she had come alone today to check. If the fake Mo Long found out about this, she might even lose her life, let alone the child.

This child wasn't the fake Mo Long's, but Zhao Xin's ex-boyfriend's.

Zhao Xin wasn't a fool. If she couldn't find an opportunity with the fake Mo Long, she would have to find an opportunity with someone else. So, after a few days of observation, she looked at Teng Yi.

No matter what, she had to get Teng Yi because she needed to find someone to take over. The reason why she agreed to stay with the fake Mo Long was because it didn't do her any harm.

Anyway, the capital was Teng Yi and the fake Mo Long's money, so she didn't need to take a single cent. She could also do Teng Yi a favor, what was wrong with that?

"Men are all fools." Zhao Xin rummaged through her closet for her phone. "You're so silly. Who knows what kind of woman will cheat you in the future?"

She was pleased with herself and felt that she had deceived two men at once. She was truly a scheming and intelligent woman. However, the next second, she heard the fake Mo Long's voice ring out. "What are you doing here?"

Zhao Xin was shocked. She quickly stood up and looked at the man at the door nervously.

The fake Mo Long pressed on and questioned, "Speak, what are you doing here?"

"I ... I didn't do anything." Zhao Xin stammered, "you, didn't you say that you would only be back at night? Why did you come back at this time?"

"Why do you care when I'll be back?" The fake Mo Long's eyes turned cold. "I'm asking you now, what are you looking for in my room?"

Zhao Zhu laughed dryly and casually found an excuse. "I dropped my earrings here, let me look for them. That pair of earrings is my favorite. I couldn't find it in my room for a long time, so I came to your place to look for it."

The fake Mo Long's cold gaze shifted to Zhao Xin's ear. It was indeed bare, with nothing on it.

"Hurry up and find it. Once you're done, get out." The fake Mo Long said impatiently before lying down on the bed.

"I know. I'll leave after I'm done." Zhao Xin squatted down again and searched around the bedside table. In the end, she found a white phone under the fake Mo Long's bed.

Taking advantage of the time when the fake Mo Long closed his eyes to rest, she quickly took out her phone and hid it under her skirt. Then, she stood up and said, "Forget it, I can't find it. I'll go back first, call me if you need anything."

The fake Mo Long didn't say anything. He seemed to be really tired and didn't even have the strength to speak.

Zhao Xin quickly left with the phone and gave it to Teng Yi.

She did not forget to complain, "really, I was scared to death. He had said that he would come back at night, but now he had come back, and he had almost been discovered. Fortunately, I'm smart enough to find an excuse at the last minute. Otherwise, I really can't fool him."

"I've wronged you, Yuxin." Teng Yi patted Zhao Xin's head and comforted her, "Go back and rest first. Come find me when you have time."

"Alright," he said.

After saying that, Zhao Xin returned to her room.

Teng Yi closed the door and turned on his phone. He saw that Jiang Yu and Mo Long had sent him messages. Mo Long's message did not reply, while Jiang Yu's message did reply but was withdrawn.

"This bastard used my phone to reply to Madam's message?" It was rare for Teng Yi to get angry. "You have the same face as President Mo and you're actually doing such a despicable thing!"

Teng Yi was planning to send what happened here to Mo Long, but just as he was about to type, the fake Mo Long's voice sounded from outside. "My good Secretary, what are you doing in your room?"

Teng Yi was shocked. He quickly put the phone in his pocket and opened the door.

As soon as he opened the door, a cold gun was pointed at Teng Yi's head.

Chapter 1247 Puppet

"President Mo?" Teng Yi gulped. "What do you mean?"

The fake Mo Long's face was cold, and he said disdainfully, "I've installed a surveillance camera in the house. I can see clearly what you and that woman did. I don't care if there's something going on between you and her, but I want to know what you asked her to do in my room."

"President Mo, you've misunderstood," Teng Yi said. "I have nothing to do with this."

"Nthing?" The fake Mo Long sneered and fired a shot at Teng Yi's back. "Say that again?!"

The loud gunshot scared Zhao Xin so much that she quickly came out of the room to see what had happened.

The moment she came out, she saw the fake Mo Long pointing a gun at Teng Yi.

Zhao Xin thought that there was some conflict between the two of them, so she quickly walked over and tried to resolve the conflict. However, just as she walked over, she was pushed to the ground by the fake Mo Long before she could even say a word.

"B * tch, what are you doing here? You're worried that I'll kill your lover?"

Zhao Xin fell to the ground, her stomach in pain. Soon, a pool of blood flowed out from her lower body.

When the fake Mo Long saw this scene, he was stunned at first, then he burst out laughing.

He put his arm around Teng Yi's shoulder and said mockingly, "You've also been deceived by her! You can't possibly think that she loves you, right? It wasn't because she was pregnant with another man's child, so she wanted to find an honest man to take over! Yet, you're acting like a fool, thinking that she likes you?"

"President Mo," Teng Yi furrowed his brows. "We need to call an ambulance. Otherwise, she's going to die."

The fake Mo Long raised his eyebrows and said, "isn't your phone in your pocket? Can't you just call the ambulance?"

Teng Yi paused and looked at the fake Mo Long in disbelief.

The fake Mo Long looked at Teng Yi in amusement. He didn't say anything, but he gave off a terrifying feeling.

"If you want to call an ambulance, then go ahead." The fake Mo Long pointed the gun at Teng Yi's head again. "But I can't guarantee if she will die on the way. Even though I have no feelings for her, I can't tolerate someone who has betrayed me."

Teng Yi was silent.

Zhao Xin curled up on the ground in pain and kept shouting, "Help! Help me! Please save me, I don't want to die ..."

Her voice became softer and softer, and in the end, she could only lie on the ground, gasping for breath.

"Aren't you going to call the ambulance?" The fake Mo Long laughed out loud and said, "my good secretary! Don't be soft-hearted for a woman who lied to you! How about this, if you go over and kick her to death now, I'll let you go. How about it? Actually, I don't like to be stained with blood, so I don't kill people if I can."

Teng Yi didn't move, and the fake Mo Long wasn't in a hurry either. He let go of Zhao Xin, walked over, and kicked her in the stomach. "How cheap! I don't know which man's child is in my stomach, but it actually wants to seduce my good Secretary? You really don't know what's good for you!"

He kicked harder and harder until Zhao Xin lost consciousness and fainted.

Only then did the fake Mo Long take out his phone and call for an ambulance. However, by the time the ambulance arrived, Zhao Xin would probably be dead.

The fake Mo Long said to Teng Yi, "now that things have come to this, there's no point in hiding it from you. As you can see, I'm not the real Mo Long. I just have the same face as him. I don't have a name either, just a codename 'puppet'. I know you, you're Teng Yi, Mo Long's most capable secretary. He sent you to Qingcheng to investigate the Chi family and the black market."

"You know about it?" Teng Yi's eyes went cold and he asked, "How did you know?"

The fake Mo Long laughed and said, "of course it's because there's a spy by Mo Long's side. Otherwise, would I know about this? And that Wei Hui, I heard she's your sister, but she's also on our side."

"Wei Hui ..." Teng Yi repeated the name.

"Now, take out your phone and send a message to Mo Long. Tell him that you're still investigating things here and can't go back for the time being. Otherwise, I'll kill you! Do you want to live or die, it's your choice." With that, the fake Mo Long tapped the trigger of the gun in his hand and aimed at Teng Yi's forehead.

Of course, Teng Yi wasn't stupid enough to choose death. He took out his phone and typed a message.

The fake Mo Long looked at him and said, "you can make up more. Make it seem more real."

So Teng Yi added a few more sentences.

After the fake Mo Long confirmed that there was no problem, he had him send it over.

Chapter 1248 Things Getting Complicated

After Teng Yi sent the message, the fake Mo Long fired a shot at him without thinking.

Teng Yi looked at the fake Mo Long in disbelief. In the end, his consciousness scattered and he fainted.

"Really, a small tranquilizer gun can scare you like this. Hahaha." The fake Mo Long laughed crazily and carried Teng Yi to the basement.

As for that Zhao Xin, he would just let her run her own course. If she could be saved, then she was lucky. If she couldn't be saved, then she deserved it.

When true Mo Long received Teng Yi's message, his pupils couldn't help but shrink.

He read the message carefully, and his eyes turned cold. Su Guo, who was standing beside him, couldn't help but shiver.

"President Mo, did something happen?" Su Guo carefully asked, "do you need me to make you a cup of hot coffee?"

"You can go."

"Alright," he said. Su Guo heaved a long sigh of relief and quickly ran off to make coffee for Mo Long.

Mo Long copied the message from Teng Yi and sent it to Jiang Yu, saying, "Something happened to Teng Yi."

After Jiang Yu received Mo Long's message, she also carefully read Teng Yi's message-President mo, I'm currently investigating the Chi family and the black market in Qingcheng. I've already made some progress, so-can't go back for the time being. In addition, I've also investigated the jewelry necklace you asked me to see. It's a fake and not suitable to be a gift for Madam.

Mo Long didn't even ask Teng Yi to investigate the necklace, but now that he said that the necklace was fake, it meant that something had happened to him.

Jiang Yu thought about it and could only think of one possibility. The fake Mo Long had already discovered Teng Yi's true identity.

"It seems like Teng Yi recognized the fake Mo Long and was locked up." Jiang Yu said to Mo Long, "the fake Mo Long found out about this. Teng Yi is in danger."

Mo Long said, "the fake Mo Long found out Teng Yi's identity and probably won't let it go. If Teng Yi fought back, he might be in danger."

"We have to think of a way to save Teng Yi." Jiang Yu said.

"Yes."

Mo Long fell silent and pondered for a long time. In the end, he decided to personally head to Qingcheng.

Jiang Yu knew about his decision and wanted to go with him. "I'll go with you."

However, Mo Long said, "this matter is very dangerous. You can't go with me. Also, you have something to do in Shanghai."

When Jiang Yu heard that, she hesitated for a while before saying, "Alright, I won't go with you. But you must promise me that you must protect yourself and not put yourself in danger."

"I know."

This matter was getting more and more complicated, but no one knew who was behind this human-making experiment, nor who the final target of this experiment was.

Mo Long immediately got Su Guo to buy a plane ticket to Qingcheng.

He seemed to be alone, but he had already sent his bodyguards to Qingcheng in secret.

Jiang Yu continued to stay in Shanghai to investigate the summer camp last year.

Before this matter was resolved, it was impossible for the variety show to continue recording. The members of the girls 'and boys' groups also went home and went to the hospital for a checkup at the first moment to see if there was anything unusual in their heads.

Fortunately, there was nothing abnormal in everyone's head. In other words, among the hundred or so people, Qiao Yun was the only one who had the explosive chip in her head.

"The Qiao family ..." Jiang Yu narrowed her eyes and muttered to herself, "If it was just to fight for property, they wouldn't have killed him. As long as he could find some dirt on Qiao Yun and force her to hand over her assets, it would be fine. Even if killing is the only way out, what's the point of finding a human to impersonate Qiao Yun and then killing her?"

The more Jiang Yu thought about it, the more she felt that the Qiao family was not as simple as they seemed to be fighting for property. They were probably plotting something else.

Sister Xia was still taking care of Zheng Yan and Kang Xue in the staff dormitory. The two of them were too afraid to go home alone, so they stayed at Jiang Yu's place.

Jiang Yu first did a rough investigation of the mountain climbing summer camp and found that besides Qiao Yun, her brother, Qiao Shen, was also among the people who signed up.

"Qiao Shen is here too?" Jiang Yu was surprised and looked at all the pictures on the internet.

In the end, Jiang Yu realized that Qiao Shen had always kept a distance from Qiao Yun and never got close to her.

Moreover, Qiao Shen was always standing in the crowd, looking at Qiao Yun from afar.

The more Jiang Yu looked at it, the stranger she felt. She called Chang Kai to find out how his investigation was going.

After the call was connected, Jiang Yu first told him the clues she had found and then asked Chang Kai, "Did you find anything unusual?"

Chang Kai sighed and answered truthfully, "I haven't found anything unusual yet. This mountain climbing summer camp is just like an ordinary summer camp. But from what you said, are you suspecting that there's something between Qiao Shen and Qiao Yun that can't be seen?"

"It should be Qiao Shen's one-sided." Jiang Yu guessed, "in those pictures, Qiao Yun was smiling very happily and she didn't seem to notice that Qiao Shen was at the summer camp at all. The way Qiao Shen looks at Qiao Yun isn't like an innocent brother looking at his sister. It's more like he's looking at someone he loves but can't get."

"Ah? You mean ... Qiao Shen likes Qiao Yun?" Chang Kai was shocked. "They're close relatives. Even if Qiao Shen really likes Qiao Yun, they can't be together. Also, when we went to the Qiao family's house that day, they were all very sad, but Qiao Shen acted like nothing had happened. I couldn't feel that he liked Qiao Yun at all."

"So this is also a very strange thing." Jiang Yu said, "it's either that Qiao Shen has already lost all feelings for Qiao Yun and only wants to get the inheritance that belongs to her. Or, Qiao Shen knew that Qiao Yun was a fake, so he didn't look sad. However, I don't know which situation it is yet."

"If Qiao Shen doesn't have any feelings for Qiao Yun, that's fine." Chang Kai felt a chill down his spine. "But if Qiao Shen knew that Qiao Yun was a fake ... Does that mean that Qiao Shen has something to do with this human-making experiment?"

When Jiang Yu heard Chang Kai's guess, she broke out in a cold sweat.

"Regardless of whether Qiao Shen has anything to do with this human-making experiment, we have to go to the Qiao family's house to take a look." Jiang Yu steadied her mind and said, "we can't come to any critical conclusions just based on this summer camp."

"That's good." Chang Kai agreed. "But in the entire Qiao family, I think only Qiao Yun's mother is sincere towards her."

"Then, let's ask Ms. Qiao again." Jiang Yu said, "her husband passed away a few years ago. Qiao Yun was the last person she thought of. Now that Qiao Yun was missing, Madam Qiao would definitely do everything she could to find her. As long as she's willing to cooperate with us, this case will be solved sooner or later."

"Alright," he said.

After Jiang Yu and Chang Kai agreed on a time to go to the Qiao family's house, they hung up the phone and continued to look up information about the mountain climbing summer camp. But just as Chang Kai had said, this summer camp was no different from any other summer camp. So, no matter how Jiang Yu investigated, she couldn't find any more clues about this mountain climbing summer camp.

"It's indeed an ordinary mountain climbing summer camp." Jiang Yu couldn't help but sigh. "But after this ordinary summer camp, the real Qiao Yun was switched. What exactly happened? could it be that Qiao Yun is hiding some kind of secret?"

Jiang Yu couldn't figure out what was going on, and Mo Long had also gone to Qingcheng. Even though she knew that Mo Long had a group of secret bodyguards by his side, she was still worried that he would get injured in Qingcheng.

Qingcheng and Hucheng were quite far from each other, so if something really happened to Mo Long, she wouldn't be able to rush over immediately.

The more Jiang Yu thought about it, the more annoyed she became. She could only rely on the things in front of her to divert her attention.

When it was time to meet Chang Kai, Jiang Yu went to the Qiao family's house with him.

The door of the Qiao family's residence was tightly shut, and the bodyguards at the door had disappeared. The huge house exuded a sense of desolation.

"It wasn't this bleak when we came here before." Chang Kai looked around and couldn't help but shiver. "It's only been a few days. Why do I feel like the Qiao family has all left?"

Jiang Yu also felt that there was something wrong with the Qiao family's situation, so she quickly walked over and knocked on the door.

Soon, someone came to open the door and asked, "Who is it?"

When the person who opened the door saw Jiang Yu and Chang Kai in front of him, his tone immediately turned cold. "Why is it you guys again?"

It was Qiao Shen.

Chang Kai once again showed his police badge and said, "We're the police, of course we're here to look for clues."

"Qiao Yun didn't die Here, why are you here looking for clues?" Qiao Shen said angrily. "You guys should have gone to the recording studio of that variety show!"

Chapter 1250 Does It Matter?

Chang Kai explained, "we've been there, but there are no more clues at the scene. If we want to solve this case, we'll have to ask your family about Qiao Yun's past."

Qiao Shen snorted and asked, "what's there to know about her past? He's dead, and his head exploded. So what if you can solve this case? Do you think you can find the murderer?"

"How can you say that as a family member?" Chang Kai frowned. "We're the police. It's only right to solve cases ..."

Before he could finish his sentence, Qiao Shen, who was sitting opposite him, started to get impatient. He made threatening gestures and wanted to chase him and Jiang Yu away. "Hurry up and go, hurry up and go! Our family is in such a big trouble, and you police officers are still here with nothing to do and asking questions? Do you believe that I won't go to the police station to file a complaint against you?"

"You!" Even with Chang Kai's good temper, he could not help but get angry.

"Hurry up and leave!" Qiao Shen raised his voice. "If you don't leave now, I'm going to say that the police are harassing the people!"

Jiang Yu grabbed Qiao Shen's wrist and asked, "You're in such a hurry to chase us away, are you feeling guilty?"

"I'm guilty?" Qiao Shen was stunned. Then, his eyes turned cold and he asked, "What nonsense are you talking about? I didn't kill Qiao Yun, so what do I have to feel guilty about? How can you police frame the public in order to investigate a case?"

"Whether it's a false accusation or not, won't we know once we go in and ask?" Jiang Yu laughed coldly. "If you really don't feel guilty, why don't you let us in? you can answer whatever we ask you."

"Don't go too far!" Qiao Shen roared.

However, just as he finished speaking, a weak voice sounded in the room, "Let them in,"

The person who spoke was Qiao Yun's mother, Qiao Rui.

Qiao Shen then made way and said in an unfriendly tone, "Aunt, I'll say the ugly words first. If their questions make you unhappy or they frame you, don't come crying to me."

With that, Qiao Shen went upstairs without looking back.

Qiao Rui sighed and said, "this child has been like this since she was young. My sister-in-law died after giving birth to Qiao Shen. My brother drove under the influence of alcohol when Qiao Shen was three years old and hit a truck. From then on, the child became an orphan. After Yunyun was born, everyone's attention was on her, so it was inevitable that we neglected Qiao Shen."

"You don't seem to have a good relationship with your aunt." Chang Kai said, "I don't know why, but he was very impatient with you the last time we came."

Qiao Rui sighed and said, "this child has been like this since she was young. My sister-in-law died after giving birth to Qiao Shen. My brother drove under the influence of alcohol when Qiao Shen was three years old and hit a truck. From then on, the child became an orphan. After Yunyun was born, everyone's attention was on her, so it was inevitable that we neglected Qiao Shen. Perhaps it was then that his personality changed and he gradually grew into what he is now."

Chang Kai laughed dryly. He didn't expect to ask about the past that Qiao Shen didn't want to face.

For a moment, he actually began to feel sorry for the little boy.

However, Jiang Yu's attention was not on Qiao Shen's matter. Instead, she asked Qiao Rui directly, "Do you know about Qiao Shen and Qiao Yun's relationship?"

"Their relationship? Aren't they just an ordinary brother and sister?" Qiao Rui was stunned for a moment, not knowing why Jiang Yu would ask this question.

Jiang Yu did not intend to hide it from her, so she told Qiao Rui what she had found in the summer camp photo. However, she only said half of it. Qiao Shen was looking at Qiao Yun with a strange gaze, and there seemed to be something wrong between the two.

As for her guess about whether Qiao Shen had anything to do with the human-making experiment, Jiang Yu didn't say anything.

Qiao Rui carefully recalled, then shook her head, saying, "I don't remember. Qiao Shen and Yunyun are just ordinary siblings. What relationship can they have?"

"This is the best." Jiang Yu smiled. "Actually, I was just a little surprised after seeing those photos, so I thought of coming over to ask. However, since you said that they have no relationship, then they have no relationship. Perhaps I'm overthinking it. By the way, can I go to Qiao Yun's room to take a look?"

"Sure." Qiao Rui nodded and stood in front of them, leading the way. "But we've already decided to move out, so I've already tidied up Yunyun's room. I don't know if it'll affect your investigation."

"Move?" Chang Kai was a little surprised. "Why do you suddenly want to move?"

Qiao Rui said embarrassedly, "after Yun Yun met with such an incident, the entire Qiao family is in a state of panic. Everyone wants to leave this place. I couldn't change their mind alone, so I agreed to move with them."
