

Older Man 1261

Chapter 1261 Analysis

"Amnesia? This matter is truly difficult to handle." Mo Long said, "and even if she doesn't lose her memory now, I'm afraid it won't help. Qiao Shen is already dead, it's useless even if he's guilty."

"Indeed. Although I've thought about looking for clues on Qiao Rui, I don't think she knows much either." Jiang Yu said, "I'm afraid Qiao Shen is the one who imprisoned Qiao Yun and bought the cyborgs. Qiao Rui is only an insider and doesn't know much about the whole thing."

but it's not bad to be able to find some clues on Qiao Rui. Mo Long said, "it's better than nothing."

"Yes." Jiang Yu replied.

She then instructed Mo Long to pay attention to his safety for the time being before hanging up.

She thought about it and decided to investigate Qiao Rui. Even if they could only find a few clues, it was better than nothing.

However, Qiao Rui didn't know that Qiao Shen was dead yet. If she knew, she would probably have a mental breakdown. At that time, even if he wanted to ask, he wouldn't be able to get anything out of her.

Hence, she went to the interrogation room where Qiao Rui was being interrogated and waited. As soon as Qiao Rui came out, Jiang Yu said to her, "I have something to ask you."

Qiao Rui seemed to be very tired and said, "I've said what I have to say. Don't ask anymore." I'm going back to find my son. He'll be scared if he can't see me."

"Your son is an adult. He doesn't need you to coax him every day." Jiang Yu said as she pulled Qiao Rui to an empty room at the side. "I just have a few questions to ask you. You don't have to mind."

"Then hurry up and ask," Qiao Rui said impatiently.

"When did you find out that Qiao Yun is a cyborg?"

Qiao Rui replied, "I knew it from the start. At that time, I had already acknowledged my son, so he would tell me everything. That's when I found out."

"Then you also know when Qiao Shen imprisoned Qiao Yun?" Jiang Yu frowned. "Don't you know that this kind of thing is wrong? Your son has done such a thing. As his mother, you should stop him!"

"That's my son. What does my attitude toward him have to do with you?" Qiao Rui was getting more and more impatient. "If you want to tell me this, then don't. Go ask the police who just interrogated me. They've asked all the questions you've asked, and my answers are the same."

"You ..." Jiang Yu looked at her and finally sighed, saying, "Forget it, you can go back."

Jiang Yu looked at her back and wondered what expression she would have after seeing Qiao Shen's body.

She walked to the door and said to the police passing by, "Qiao Shen is dead. Please go and take a look at Qiao Rui. I'm worried that she'll have a mental breakdown and commit suicide. Although she's guilty, she's not dead yet."

"I know."

Jiang Yu found Chang Kai and found him sorting out the statement. When Chang Kai saw Jiang Yu enter, he smiled and said, "you're just in time. I'm going to interrogate Qiao Shen in a while. Do you want to hear it?"

"Qiao Shen is dead." Jiang Yu's tone was very heavy.

"What?" Chang Kai was stunned. "What's going on?"

Jiang Yu told him what had happened and said, "I've already sent someone to keep an eye on Qiao Rui, in case she tries to commit suicide. However, the most important thing now was not Qiao Shen, but the man in the suit. He showed up in front of the police like this. Is he absolutely confident that he won't be caught?"

"Then it can only be said that he has the confidence of being infatuated." Chang Kai said, "but even so, what gave him the confidence?"

"He firmly believes that he won't let go. Why?" Jiang Yu couldn't figure it out either. "Even if brother Wang and the rest didn't catch the man in the suit today, they already know what he looks like. When the wanted order was issued, everyone in the city would know what he looked like. If he can't even get out of the door, then what's his purpose in showing up?"

"This matter is indeed suspicious." Chang Kai frowned. "Isn't he afraid that everyone will know what he looks like? Could it be that he had planned to get plastic surgery from the beginning? When the time comes, I'll look like someone that no one can recognize."

"But the doctor at the plastic surgery hospital will know." Jiang Yu said, "then he wouldn't have taken the risk to get plastic surgery."

"I don't know how to do plastic surgery ... What was he planning to do? If he really isn't afraid of others knowing his appearance, then that's unless that face isn't his." Chang Kai guessed, "but other than plastic surgery, what other ways are there?"

"I changed my appearance ..." Jiang Yu muttered. Suddenly, a thought flashed through her mind.

"Could it be ... A disguising technique?"

Chapter 1262 Face Changing Technique

"Face changing technique?" Chang Kai was shocked. "Is there really someone who knows this method?"

Jiang Yu remembered Yang Fen from the past and said to Chang Kai, "There used to be a person called Yang Fen. Didn't she also know tame head? That disguising technique isn't something that's difficult."

Speaking of Yang Fen, Chang Kai remembered.

He said, "however, tame head is a mystic technique, but the art of disguise is not. It's just an ordinary folk art. I'm afraid it has been lost for a long time." Moreover, it won't be recorded like tame head. If it's really lost, there shouldn't be many people who can learn it. "

Jiang Yu was silent for a long time before she said, "Leave this matter to me, I'll go back and investigate."

"That's good." Chang Kai nodded. "You were the one who solved the tame head spell at the beginning. I'll have to trouble you with the disguise this time."

"Yes." Jiang Yu nodded.

"Alright, if there's nothing else ..." Before Chang Kai could finish his sentence, he heard a shrill scream.

It was Qiao Rui, because she had already found out that Qiao Shen was dead.

"How pitiful." Chang Kai sighed and shook his head in regret. "She and her son have been reunited for less than two years. I didn't expect that they would be separated so soon."

"They should have expected this from the start. They should have expected this to happen to them." Jiang Yu said helplessly.

"You can go back first. I'll get someone to send you back." Chang Kai said.

"Alright, thank you." Jiang Yu nodded. She did not intend to waste any more time at the police station and decided to return to the company.

On the way back to the company, Jiang Yu suddenly thought of someone, so she asked the police officer who was driving to turn around and drive to the hospital.

When they arrived at the central Hospital, Jiang Yu went straight to a Ward that she was familiar with. Zhang Chuan was standing by the window, breathing in the fresh air.

When he saw Jiang Yu coming in, he asked in confusion, "What are you doing here?"

"You can't come if there's nothing?" Jiang Yu's lips curled up.

"One doesn't come to the temple without a reason. Since you've come to find me, you must have something you need my help with." Zhang Chuan raised his eyebrows and looked at her. "But it doesn't matter. If you have something to say, just say it. I'll treat it as me returning the favor."

"The favor you owe me isn't something that can be returned so easily." Jiang Yu smiled and said, "but I do have something to ask you." When Lanna came to you, did she tell you the reason?"

Zhang Chuan shrugged and said, "he didn't. She just gave me a sum of money and told me to do as she said. People like us always do things for money. If the employer doesn't tell us, we won't ask."

"Then you're quite professional." Jiang Yu gave Zhang Chuan a meaningful look. "But you should know about Lanna's plastic surgery, right?"

of course. After that lawsuit, I've already checked her information. "What do you think?" Zhang Chuan asked triumphantly. Do you want all the information on Lanna?"

"I don't need it for now." Jiang Yu said, "I came to find you this time because I have something else I need your help with. Have you ever heard of a folk art called the art of disguise?"

"Disguising technique?" Zhang Chuan thought for a moment. It often appears on TV and in novels. Who doesn't know about it? What, did you meet someone in disguise?"

"Yes." Jiang Yu nodded. "I want you to help me look up all the information about the art of disguise and see if there are any other people who know this art."

Zhang Chuan looked at Jiang Yu in surprise and asked, "Aren't you a hacker too? Why don't you check it yourself?"

Jiang Yu smiled and said, "I'm still very busy with my company. I can't delay my work for this matter. Besides, don't you still owe me a favor? Don't tell me you're not even willing to help me with this."

".. You ..." Zhang Chuan said helplessly, "alright, I promise you. I owe you a favor. Give me a computer and I'll give you all the information tomorrow."

"Okay, I'll get someone to send the computer over in a while." Jiang Yu left after saying that.

After she returned to the company, she asked her personal driver to send Zhang Chuan a laptop. Not long after, sister Xia also came over.

"Did Zheng Yan and Kang Xue go back?" Jiang Yu asked when she saw her.

"Their family has taken them back," sister Xia answered. "This incident gave them quite a shock, and Kang Xue was the most shocked, because she saw that person's head explode with her own eyes. When Sun You came to pick her up, Kang Xue's legs were still weak."

"Did sun you come to pick her up?" Jiang Yu paused. "She just followed him and left? Is Sun Miao with them?"

Chapter 1263 All The Information

"No, Sun You came alone," Sister Xia said.

"She hates the Sun family so much. Why did she still want to leave with them?"

Sister Xia said helplessly, "I also tried to stop him, but I couldn't." Kang Xue said she didn't want to trouble you, so she left with Sun You."

Jiang Yu was silent. After a long time, she said, "forget it. She has her own thoughts on this matter. Let's not care too much about it."

"By the way, what has happened in the past few days? Every time I come, you're not in the company."

Jiang Yu told sister Xia about what had happened in the Qiao family these few days.

After sister Xia heard this, she couldn't help but sigh. "This is so dramatic. I don't know when this human-making experiment will be completely eliminated. It's really too inhumane."

"I met a man who can disguise himself today. I wonder if brother Wang and the others caught him." Jiang Yu frowned. "I've already asked Zhang Chuan to look up the information. He said that he'll give it to me tomorrow."

As soon as he finished speaking, Jiang Yu received a message from Chang Kai. "Brother Wang and the others are back, but they didn't manage to catch that man. They're now planning to apply for a wanted order."

Jiang Yu thought for a moment and replied, "that's good. This can lower their vigilance and make them think that we haven't guessed about the disguise technique."

After replying to the message, Jiang Yu turned off her phone.

What she needed to wait for now was the information that Zhang Chuan would find out tomorrow.

Jiang Yu acknowledged Zhang Chuan's ability. So, she went to the hospital the next morning. And Zhang Chuan did not let her down. He had indeed found all the information about the art of disguise.

I've already organized all the information into a document. It has everything you need. Zhang Chuan stretched his back. I've also attached all the information about Lanna. You don't have to thank me. I'm doing a good thing.

He had stayed up the entire night for the information and was so sleepy that he fell asleep immediately.

When Jiang Yu saw this, she just smiled helplessly and went back with her computer.

After returning to the company, Jiang Yu began to look through the documents that Zhang Chuan had compiled. He had organized it very carefully, and every line was written in detail about the wind field.

After reading through all the information, Jiang Yu finally understood what the art of disguise was.

Compared to Mystic techniques like tame head, the art of disguise was actually very simple. One only needed to make a mask with silicone and then stick the mask on the face with glue that could be used by the human body.

This glue would not leave any traces, so even if one looked closely, one would not be able to see anything.

If one wanted to remove the mask, one only needed to rub the edges of the mask with lime water a few times, and the glue would fall off on its own.

"It seems that the man that day used the lime water to remove his mask while he was running away." Jiang Yu guessed, "that's why they didn't get caught."

"It seems that the disguising technique is more difficult to deal with than the landing technique." Sister Xia sighed. "We can't just find a random person on the street and apply lime water on his face"

"This matter is indeed tricky." As Jiang Yu spoke, she continued to look at Lanna's information.

There wasn't much information on Lanna, and it could be summarized in a few short paragraphs. It was nothing more than being taken away from the orphanage and then entering the entertainment industry. In the end, she lost her mind and was killed in the hospital.

Zhang Chuan's information on Lanna is the same as mine. Jiang Yu said, "but Lanna is related to the Chi family. She may also be related to the human-making experiment. Does that mean the Chi family has something to do with the human-making experiment?"

"Hasn't the Chi family already declined?" Sister Xia was a little puzzled. "A family that has already declined, first with the black market, then with the human-making experiments, they shouldn't have such great power, right? Even if they wanted to, they just couldn't do it."

"What if the decline of their family is an illusion? If it's an illusion, then they have enough financial resources to support them," Jiang Yu replied. "Whether it's the black market or the human-making experiments, it's nothing difficult for them."

"This ..." Sister Xia was shocked. "An illusion? But why would the Chi family, a family on par with the Mo and Kang families, pretend that they've fallen?"

"I can't be sure yet, this is just my guess." Jiang Yu said, "but when Lanna lost her mind, she showed fear and disgust towards the Chi family. That's the family that adopted Lanna. Why is she so against it?"

Chapter 1264 Uncle Chi

Sister Xia couldn't understand it either, but she thought of Mi Fei and guessed, "Could it be that what happened to Lanna at the Chi family is the same as what happened to Mi Fei at the Mi family? Lanna was so resistant because the Chi family didn't treat her well. But who is that uncle Chi who treated her so well?"

Jiang Yu was also thinking about this question, but she could not figure it out. She could only start her investigation from the Chi family and try her best to find out everything about the Chi family.

However, if the Chi family was really related to the black market and the human-making experiments, there would definitely be professionals to eliminate their information. Even if Jiang Yu wanted to investigate, she would probably not be able to find much information.

"It seems like we've met a strong enemy this time." Jiang Yu let out a long sigh. "This matter is also very tricky."

"Jiang Yu, if you're too tired, you can rest." Sister Xia's heart ached for Jiang Yu for being so tired recently. "Leave this matter to Chang Kai and the others. You should rest more for the time being."

"It's okay, I'm not tired." Jiang Yu said, "it's just that this is the first time I've met such a strong opponent."

"You ... Alright, then you must pay more attention to your rest." Sister Xia instructed.

"Yes, yes." Jiang Yu nodded.

She closed her eyes to rest for a while, then turned on her computer and began to investigate the Chi family.

However, there was pitifully little information about the Chi family on the internet. No matter how Jiang Yu searched, there was only ordinary information. He didn't even know when the Chi family had started to decline and why.

Sister Xia looked at Jiang Yu's frowning expression and felt very bad for her. However, she couldn't help with anything else for the time being. She could only make a cup of coffee for Jiang Yu, hoping that it would help her to lift her spirits.

"The Chi family ..." Jiang Yu mumbled to herself a few times and finally had an idea in her mind-she was going to Qingcheng to investigate.

Even if the Chi family's information on the internet had been erased, there would still be records of the Chi family in the archives administration of Qingcheng. Even if it was just a little more than the information on the internet, it could be the hope to solve this incident.

Sister Xia came back with coffee and Jiang Yu said to her, "Sister Xia, I need to make a trip to Qingcheng. Please book me the earliest flight ticket and help me find a place to stay. I don't want an eye-catching hotel, I want the most inconspicuous hotel."

"Ah?" Sister Xia was shocked and asked. "Jiang Yu, you're going to Qingcheng?"

"Yes, I am. Regarding the Chi family, I think we'll find more clues if we investigate in Qingcheng." Jiang Yu said as she started to pack her things and get ready to leave.

"It's such a far place. Are you going to go alone?" Sister Xia's worry was almost overflowing from her eyes. "No, I want to go with you."

"Sister Xia, I still need you to help me manage the company." Jiang Yu said.

Sister Xia gritted her teeth and finally gave in, saying, "How about this, I'll get the bodyguards from the studio to follow you. I'll be more at ease with them following you. Also, you have to tell Mo Long about you going to the city of Qing. If he knows, he'll definitely protect you."

"Alright," he said.

Sister Xia then went to book a plane ticket for Jiang Yu and contacted a cheap hotel.

The flight was at two o'clock in the afternoon, and they would arrive in Qingcheng about half an hour later. The bodyguards from the studio took the ship and arrived in Qingcheng an hour later.

The moment Jiang Yu got off the plane, the first thing she did was to tell Mo Long about this.

When Mo Long found out that Jiang Yu had also come to Qingcheng, he was silent for a moment before asking, ""Did you bring your bodyguards?"

"Yes, I've brought all the bodyguards in the studio. The place they're staying at isn't some conspicuous hotel, but the most unremarkable small hotel. It shouldn't attract any attention." Jiang Yu said.

"Well, that's good." Mo Long said in a deep voice, "if you sense any danger, come and find me immediately."

"Alright, but you have to be careful too."

After hanging up the phone, Jiang Yu found the hotel. It was indeed unremarkable. The entire street was filled with hotels and flower shops. Even if someone really noticed that Jiang Yu was staying here, they would not know which hotel she was staying in.

The bodyguards were scattered around the hotels so that they could protect Jiang Yu if she was in danger.

After Jiang Yu checked into the hotel and put her things away, she took out her makeup bag and put on makeup that made her look older. After all, the man in the suit and the fake Mo Long were both in Qingcheng. They had seen Jiang Yu before. If they were to bump into each other on the streets one day, Jiang Yu would be in danger.

Chapter 1265 Old Lady

Fortunately, Jiang Yu's makeup skills were quite good. After the entire makeup, she was indeed very different from her original appearance.

After putting on her makeup, Jiang Yu also changed into an old-fashioned dress and went downstairs.

There were more people on the street, and most of them were buying flowers.

Jiang Yu pretended to be buying flowers and walked into a small flower shop. The owner was an old woman with white hair, but she looked very energetic. When she saw Jiang Yu coming in, she immediately went over to greet her warmly. "Oh my, what a pretty girl. Are you here to buy flowers?"

Jiang Yu deliberately lowered her voice and said, "yes, old lady. My husband and I came here for a holiday and rented a hotel. We want to buy some flowers to decorate it."

"Then you've come to the right place." The old lady smiled and enthusiastically introduced the variety of flowers in the shop to Jiang Yu.

As Jiang Yu looked at it, she pretended to ask casually, "Granny, my friends all say that there's a family in Qingcheng, but they've declined in recent years. What family is it?"

"Aiyo, you can't be talking about ..." The old lady lowered her voice and whispered into Jiang Yu's ear, "The Chi family, right?"

Jiang Yu did not admit it and only said, "I don't know. I also heard about it from my friend, but I'm not very sure about the specific family."

"Sigh, that's the Chi family." The old lady seemed to feel sorry for the Chi family's decline and said, "The Chi family was still a big family a few years ago. When I was young, the Chi family had countless glories! Who knows what happened in the past few years? it suddenly declined."

"Is there no reason?" Jiang Yu asked casually, "I heard that it's a very big family. It's quite a pity that they suddenly declined."

"How can I not feel sorry? Rich and powerful families have fallen just like that." The old lady said.

The words she said were indeed a sign of pity for the Chi family, but her tone was not like that. Instead, it was an attitude of "it's none of my business".

"But this has nothing to do with us," the old lady continued. "We are just ordinary people. We just need to live our lives well."

"That's true," Jiang Yu smiled and said to the old lady, "old lady, I don't like any of the flowers here. I'll come back and take a look when you have new flowers."

With that, Jiang Yu turned around and was about to leave.

"Don't go, I have more than these flowers in my shop!" The old lady grabbed Jiang Yu's hand and took her to the back room.

She was a little strong, and her palm was not like an ordinary old man's. There was a thick layer of calluses on her fingertips, and Jiang Yu's palm was in pain.

Jiang Yu frowned. She felt that the old lady in front of her was not an ordinary person.

Would there be so many calluses on the fingertips of an ordinary old flower seller?

So she pretended to have twisted her ankle and sat down on the ground. She said in pain, "Aiya, old lady! I twisted my foot."

"How could you be so careless?" The old lady rebuked as she squatted down to massage Jiang Yu's feet. "How is it? Does it still hurt?"

"Much better," Jiang Yu observed the old lady's technique and said, "Granny, your technique is not bad. Did you practice it before?"

The old lady laughed and said, "what's there to practice? Even my old man will twist his leg. I'm helping him massage his feet. When we were young, we were all intellectuals and did scientific research. We didn't know how to do this."

Scientific research? How could there be calluses on the hands of scientific researchers?

Jiang Yu was now convinced that the old lady in front of her was not an ordinary person, but since that was the case, why did she still go along with her words and continue the conversation with her?

The old lady did not seem to know what Jiang Yu was thinking and continued to massage her feet.

"Granny, my foot is much better now." Jiang Yu said, "I'm a little thirsty. Can you get me a glass of water?"

"Then you wait." The old lady stood up and went to the back room.

Jiang Yu took the opportunity to quickly leave the flower shop.

She quickly returned to the hotel, changed out of her clothes, and washed off the makeup on her face.

She didn't expect to meet such a suspicious person as soon as she arrived in Qingcheng.

"Who is this old lady?" Jiang Yu looked at herself in the mirror. The makeup on her face had been washed off, revealing her original beautiful face.

It seemed that he had to be more careful in Qingcheng. She couldn't wear that dress anymore, nor could she throw it away. She could only destroy it.

Therefore, Jiang Yu took out a lighter from the drawer of the hotel and set the dress on fire in the bathroom.

Jiang Yu decided to stay in the room for a while and wait until tomorrow or some other time to go out and find out. As for the archive management office in Qingcheng, she also needed to find out where it was.

Chapter 1266 Patrol

As it was not shown on the map, Jiang Yu had no way of finding the archives administration Office.

"Where's the archive management office in Qingcheng?" Jiang Yu was puzzled. "Why isn't it shown on the map..."

She was still thinking about these things until evening. Just as she was about to go out for dinner, she suddenly heard people quarreling in the room next door.

Jiang Yu did not like to watch a show, especially when others were quarreling. However, the content of their quarrel was very strange, so Jiang Yu had no choice but to lean against the door and listen carefully.

The soundproofing in hotels like this was not very good. As long as one spoke a little louder, one could hear it clearly from the next room.

Jiang Yu was leaning against the door when she heard someone say, "Are you guys crazy? If you say you're a police officer, then show me your police officer badge! You don't have a police ID, and you're still calling yourself a police officer?"

"You don't believe me when I say I'm a police officer, do you?"

"I just don't believe it, so what?!"

"Alright, you don't believe me? I think you're the one who ran away, right? Men, arrest him!"

"You dare! Ah!"

The man next door let out a scream. He must have been beaten up. The owner of the inn was still trying to smooth things over, saying, "Aiyo, police officers, please don't hit me ..."

"Shut up! If we really catch the person who escaped here, you can forget about opening your shop! Brothers, let's go to the next room!"

The messy footsteps got closer and closer to Jiang Yu's room until they finally stopped at the door of her room.

"Open the door!" The door of the room was being knocked on.

Jiang Yu thought of many ways in two seconds. In the end, she picked up a facial mask and covered her face.

"Open the door!" The voice at the door was getting louder and louder. "Why didn't you open the door? are you feeling guilty?"

Jiang Yu quickly opened the door and said stiffly, "How are you guys?"

"Oh my God, that scared me!" The people at the door were shocked by Jiang Yu, who had a facial mask on.

Because the mask on Jiang Yu's face was black, anyone who saw it at first sight would be shocked.

"What are you doing? You've been closed for so long." The person outside the door pushed Jiang Yu and went straight into the house. "Did something happen?"

"Nothing much. I was washing my face and didn't have time to open the door." Jiang Yu said.

The man glanced at Jiang Yu. Her hair was indeed a little wet, so she should not be lying.

"When did you arrive?" he asked.

Jiang Yu answered honestly, "my husband and I just arrived today. However, he is still outside. He said that he wanted to prepare a gift for me. He has not returned yet."

"Your husband?" The man sized up Jiang Yu and found that her body proportions were just right and she was perfect.

He could not help but have evil thoughts in his heart. He leaned closer to Jiang Yu step by step and said with a smile, "Your husband hasn't returned yet, so why don't you leave this period of time to us? You're so pretty and have such a good figure. Which man wouldn't be lucky to marry you?"

As he spoke, he approached Jiang Yu and reached out to pull her clothes 'straps.

"Officer, this is my customer!" He said. The boss shouted, "you can't do this!"

"Shut up and don't talk!" The rest of the people covered the boss's mouth. "This is our big brother's business. Who are you to interfere? What's wrong with your customers? Are your customers that great?"

Then, they took the boss out of the room.

When the boss was taken away, he even looked at Jiang Yu with sympathy.

After everyone had left, the man continued to smile as he leaned closer to Jiang Yu and said, "It's our time now,"

Jiang Yu took a few steps back and scrutinized the man in front of her.

He was dressed in decent clothes and his hair was neatly combed, but he didn't look like a police officer.

"I just heard that you're the police?" Jiang Yu asked. As she asked, she took out her phone and secretly called a bodyguard's number.

In order to better protect herself, Jiang Yu set one of the bodyguards 'mobile phone number as a shortcut key so that she could make a call without seeing the phone.

Moreover, the bodyguard's room was diagonally opposite Jiang Yu's room. It was just a few steps away.

"Of course." The man laughed heartily. "What's wrong?"

"Nothing much." Jiang Yu smiled. "My husband is coming back soon. Aren't you going to go out?"

The man laughed and said, "didn't you say that your husband prepared a gift for you? How could he have returned so quickly?"

Chapter 1267 Escaped A Disaster

The man's laughter grew louder and louder, and the expression on his face became more and more wretched.

"You'd better stay away from me. My husband is coming back soon." Jiang Yu said as she walked towards the door. "He has a bad temper. I'm afraid he will hit you."

"So what if I do?" The man said indifferently, "would he dare to fight with the police?"

Just as she said that, there was a knock on the door and a male voice sounded, "Honey, I'm back. I forgot to bring my keys, help me open the door."

"They're here!" Jiang Yu responded and quickly opened the door.

It was the bodyguard that Jiang Yu had just contacted. Through the conversation that was sent over the phone, he had guessed Jiang Yu's current situation and the role that he was going to play next.

"Who's in the room?" The bodyguard took off his coat and asked, "I just heard that the police are here for inspection. Could he be a police officer?"

"Yes, he is." Jiang Yu took the clothes and hung them on the rack at the side. She casually said, "He said he wanted to come and patrol, so I didn't think much about it and let him in."

"What do you mean by locking the door when the police are patrolling?" The bodyguard frowned. "Are they really the police?"

"He said he was."

Jiang Yu and the bodyguard kept talking to each other like a normal couple and completely ignored the man beside them.

However, the man was also glad that they treated him like air, because the bodyguard was very large, and it was obvious that he worked out all year round. If they were to really fight, he would not be a match at all.

He was just a hooligan who used his connections to intimidate others. He had a few more obedient brothers. In addition, he had an uncle who worked in the police station, so he would occasionally pretend to be a police officer and hang out in various hotels.

Then, in the name of "inspection" and "investigation," he checked the information of every guest. If he met a beautiful woman who lived alone, he would take advantage of her.

It didn't matter even if someone called the police. This wasn't rape, but sexual harassment. At most, he would be locked up for a few days. If someone called the police and said that he was pretending to be a police officer, he would be fine with it because he was still underage. As long as the circumstances were not serious, he would not even need to stay in the detention center. He could just be educated by a guardian.

It didn't matter even if he ended up in the detention center. His uncle would get him out soon anyway.

Such a family background made the man unscrupulous in his actions, so when he saw Jiang Yu today, he had some evil thoughts. But now that he saw Jiang Yu's 'husband', the man was indeed afraid.

"I'm sorry, big brother," he said, shrinking his neck. "I didn't do it on purpose. I just thought that this sister was too beautiful, so I wanted to be friends with her. If you're angry, then I'll leave now. Don't fight with me, I'm still underage. If you fight me, you'll have to go to jail."

"You're underage?" The bodyguard sized up the man in front of him. "You look like you're in your thirties. You really look old when you're still underage."

"Don't leave yet. Don't you have to apologize to my wife?" The bodyguard stopped him. "You're so young, aren't you? Eh? Didn't your family teach you?"

"I can't help it. It's a problem with my body. It's a problem with my body." The man laughed dryly and planned to leave quickly.

"Don't leave yet. Don't you have to apologize to my wife?" The bodyguard stopped him. "You're so young, aren't you? Eh? Didn't your family teach you? How dare you impersonate a police officer? Do you know what the crime is?"

"I'm so sorry! Big brother!" The man knelt down with a thud. "I've never been to school. I don't know the law! Please don't call the police, I won't do this again!"

His attitude was more sincere. Although she didn't know if he was being sincere, since he had admitted his mistake, Jiang Yu didn't intend to keep him here to waste time.

Hence, she said, "forget it, let him go. He's still a child, let's not force him."

"Alright, I'll let you go for the sake of my wife," the bodyguard said. "Hurry up and go back. You're not allowed to appear here again."

"Alright, thank you, big brother!" The man quickly got up and left dejectedly.

The few people who were hiding next door and wanted to watch a good show saw the man's dejected face and immediately felt that it was a little funny. However, someone asked him what had happened, "Who was that man just now? Is he that woman's husband?"

The man didn't answer, but said fiercely, "Let's go, we'll return first! This adulterous couple thinks they can teach me a lesson? Just you wait, I'll get someone to deal with them tomorrow!"

After he finished speaking, he walked away angrily.

Chapter 1268 Revenge

Seeing the man's reaction, the other men could only follow him and leave.

After the few of them left, the hotel owner knocked on Jiang Yu's door and said apologetically, "Dear Customer, I'm really sorry. I didn't expect this to happen. Sorry for the trouble."

"It's fine." Jiang Yu said softly, "but who are they? How could you impersonate a police officer?"

The hotel owner sighed and said, "the gangster's uncle is a police officer, so he likes to pretend to be one. Moreover, he was still underage. As long as the circumstances were not serious, he could not be sentenced. We can only bear with it and cooperate with him. If we can't help but fight, we'll be the ones in prison."

!!

"Uncle is a police officer, So you think you can do whatever you want?" The bodyguard was also very unconvinced. if Mr. Chang Kai was here, he would definitely teach this little bastard a lesson.

"I'm really sorry," the innkeeper said, "how about this, I don't want your rent. Since it's still early, you should find another hotel. That little hooligan from today has gone back. He will definitely find someone to take revenge on you tomorrow."

His face was filled with worry and fear. He was probably going crazy from the little Hooligan's torture.

"But the other inns are full." Jiang Yu frowned and was in a difficult position.

Now, even if she really moved away, she had nowhere to go.

"Sir," the hotel owner said helplessly, "if you continue to stay here, you'll have a terrible day tomorrow."

The bodyguard stood in front of Jiang Yu and said, "Jiang ... Honey, don't be afraid. I'll protect you."

"Yes." Jiang Yu smiled and said to the hotel owner, "Boss, you don't have to worry about this. We'll solve it ourselves. Thank you for coming over to remind us to rest early tonight."

The person looked at the bodyguard up and down and was also shocked by his size.

It was the first time he had seen such a burly man.

However, he was still worried. then you must not do anything. If you do, that would be an assault on the police!

"Don't worry, we won't be so reckless." Jiang Yu said.

The person had nothing else to say, so he turned around and left.

Jiang Yu closed the door, took off the mask on her face, rubbed it into a ball, and threw it into the trash can.

"Sister Jiang Yu, what should we do if the hooligans really send people here tomorrow?" The bodyguard asked.

Jiang Yu had always treated everyone in the studio as her friends. As she didn't like her friends calling her "President Jiang," she always let them call her "Sister Jiang Yu".

"The people he found are probably the police, right?" Jiang Yu guessed, "since his uncle is a police officer, the people he found must be related to the police."

"But it's obvious that the hooligan is in the wrong." The bodyguard said, "can't they tell right from wrong? You still want to help that hooligan?"

"They're helping their relatives and not reason, we have nothing to say." Jiang Yu was also very helpless. "I don't know why, but Qingcheng is quite a chaotic place. Go back and rest, I'll think about how to deal with that group of people tomorrow."

She was really unlucky. She had originally come to Qingcheng to investigate the Chi family. She didn't expect to meet an unusual flower-selling granny on the first day, followed by a hooligan who bullied the weak and feared the strong.

She even had to think of a way to deal with the people that the hooligan had called over the next day. Jiang Yu felt her head start to hurt.

"Alright. Sister Jiang Yu, call me if you need anything." The bodyguard said respectfully.

"Yes."

With that, the bodyguard went back to his room to rest.

Jiang Yu sat by the bed and thought quietly for ten minutes before she came up with a solution.

The next morning, Jiang Yu finished washing up and was about to go out for breakfast when someone knocked on her door.

"Who is it?" Jiang Yu asked as she walked to the door.

A very familiar voice came from the door, "It's me! We just met yesterday!"

It was the hooligan from yesterday.

Jiang Yu opened the door and looked up to see a man in a police uniform, followed by the hooligan and his so-called "Good Brothers."

"Hello, Mr. Police officer." Jiang Yu smiled as she leaned against the door and asked, "What's the matter?"

The man in the police uniform looked Jiang Yu up and down and found that the woman in front of him was pretty and had a pair of ice-blue eyes that were captivating.

.. Wait, ice blue?

"You're a foreigner?" The man asked.

Chapter 1269 Madam Lisa

"Yup," Jiang Yu said, "it's because I've been in China for many years and my husband is also Chinese. That's why I can speak Chinese so well."

The man didn't seem to believe her, but out of courtesy, he still said, "My surname is Zhang, you can call me officer Zhang."

"Hello, officer Zhang." Jiang Yu smiled and said, "my name is Lisa."

"Ms. Lisa, I've received a report that you have prohibited items here." Police officer Zhang showed his police officer badge expressionlessly and said, "Can you let me check if there are any prohibited items in your room?"

"Police officer Zhang, you can't just say that!" Jiang Yu pretended to be surprised. "I wonder who reported me?"

As she spoke, she looked at the hooligan behind her and asked, "Don't tell me it's you? He wanted to do something bad to me last night, but my husband found out. So, you flew into a rage out of humiliation and reported me?"

The Hooligan's face turned red and he cursed, "Bah, you're farting! It wasn't me! Don't you frame me!"

"It's good that it's not you." Jiang Yu said jokingly.

The noise they made at the door attracted the guests in the other rooms to open their doors and stick their heads out to see what was going on.

When they saw Jiang Yu, they were all stunned by her beauty. "Aiyo, there's such a pretty girl on our floor? This is the first time I've seen such a beautiful girl."

"Yeah, look at her eyes and hair. She looks like a foreigner, right?"

Jiang Yu smiled at them and said, "Hello, I'm Lisa."

The name " Lisa " came to Jiang Yu's mind at the last minute last night, and she had also studied her makeup on the spot last night.

If it weren't for the ice-blue contact lenses, Jiang Yu probably wouldn't have thought of dressing up as a foreigner. The contact lenses were originally for the convenience of disguising themselves so that it would be easier for them to get information. He didn't expect them to come in handy so soon.

Police officer Zhang searched Jiang Yu's house and finally found a gun. He said to Jiang Yu, "Ms. Lisa, I've found a gun in your room. Please come with me."

"Wait a moment!" Jiang Yu retreated. "I don't have such a thing in my room! Where did you find this? did you make a mistake?"

"I found it in your room, how could I be wrong?" The hooligan laughed triumphantly. "Don't quibble. You're the one who hid the gun. Hurry up and come with us!"

As he spoke, he was about to hold Jiang Yu's hand.

"I won't admit it!" Jiang Yu quickly dodged. "You said that this pistol was found in my room. Do you have any evidence?" she asked.

"I found it in your room. What evidence do you want?" The hooligan was baffled. "Could it have appeared out of thin air?"

"What if?" Jiang Yu suddenly laughed. "Who knows if you secretly put it in my room just now?"

"You're talking nonsense!" The hooligan was so anxious that he almost stuttered. "I can't do that kind of thing!"

"Alright, stop quarreling." Police officer Zhang put the pistol in his pocket and said to Jiang Yu, "Ms. Lisa, please come with me. We can talk at the police station."

"That won't do. If you really want to arrest me, you have to have evidence." Jiang Yu said, "you said that this pistol is mine. Then show me the evidence. As long as you show me the evidence, I'll definitely leave with you without a second word."

Police officer Zhang frowned. For the first time, he felt that the pistol in his pocket was so hot.

He said, "Ms. Lisa, what evidence do you want? I found this pistol in your room, and I haven't even asked you for an explanation, yet you're asking me for evidence?"

"Of course." Jiang Yu shrugged and said, "if this pistol was mine, my fingerprints would definitely be on it, right? Then you can take it to the test now. If my fingerprints are on it, I can go with you."

"From what you're saying, it seems that you've erased your fingerprints?" Police officer Zhang retorted, "if you erase your fingerprints, then your fingerprints naturally won't be on it."

The hooligan heard this and quickly responded, "That's right! Do you think you can clear your name by doing this?"

"Let's take it to the test," Jiang Yu said. "Wouldn't it be embarrassing if the fingerprints on it are not mine but someone else's? When we find that person, we'll know who's framing me."

Police officer Zhang stared at Jiang Yu. As soon as he said "okay", the hooligan pulled his hand.

Chapter 1270 The Registered Identity

"Uncle, don't go," he said in a low voice.

Police officer Zhang paused and soon understood-he was holding the pistol and forgot to wipe his fingerprints.

What a brainless person. She had told him to wear gloves at the beginning, but in the end, she still left her fingerprints on it.

"What's the matter?" Jiang Yu could not help but ask. "Aren't you going to check it?"

Officer Zhang coughed a few times. "I'm not going," he said. "I believe this pistol is not yours."

"Didn't you just say that the gun was mine?" Jiang Yu sneered. "Why is it that this pistol isn't mine when you hear me say that I'm going to check it? It seems that you also know that my fingerprints are not on this, but someone else's fingerprints, right?"

"Ms. Lisa, don't go too far." Police officer Zhang frowned. "This was just a misunderstanding. Now, the misunderstanding has been cleared up."

"That's the best."

Although officer Zhang said so, the other residents were a little dissatisfied. As 'Lisa' was a very beautiful person, their sense of justice made them unable to see such a beautiful person being wronged.

"Can the police frame people without evidence?"

"You were so serious at the start that I really thought Lisa had hidden a gun. In the end, you said it was a misunderstanding and it was a misunderstanding? Aren't you going to apologize to Lisa?"

"That's right. Even if it's really a misunderstanding, shouldn't you apologize?"

"You should apologize if you made a mistake. You can't pretend that nothing happened just because you're a police officer."

Police officer Zhang did not say a word.

The hooligan felt his anger and quickly said, "Uncle, why not ... You'd better apologize, so we can go back soon."

Upon hearing this, police officer Zhang was furious. "Isn't it all because of you? You told me that she had prohibited items, so I came? You're my nephew, that's why I believe you, but you're lying to me like this?"

"So it's really you!" Jiang Yu pretended to be surprised and said to the hooligan, "I already said it was you, but you still didn't admit it. Although you're underage, your uncle is a police officer. How dare you lie to him?"

The hooligan lowered his head in fear and did not dare to speak.

"Forget it, let's just end this matter here." Jiang Yu waved her hand. "You guys should leave quickly. I still have to go for dinner ..."

Before Jiang Yu could finish her sentence, the hooligan suddenly started shouting again, "Something's wrong! I remember now, when I saw her yesterday, she wasn't like this! She doesn't have any ice blue eyes, and she's not a foreigner!"

As soon as he said that, the surrounding guests all gasped.

What? Lisa was a fake?

Police officer Zhang looked at the hooligan with doubt and inquiry, but the hooligan said with certainty, "Uncle, believe me, this is true! She's definitely not a foreigner, she's a fake!"

"You little kid, don't talk nonsense." Jiang Yu stopped him. "Are you targeting me because I embarrassed you yesterday?"

"You shut up!" The hooligan shouted fiercely, "you definitely weren't like this yesterday!"

"Then show me the evidence." Jiang Yu shrugged.

However, officer Zhang said, "Ms. Lisa, when you checked into the hotel, you should have used your ID card to check in. I only need to see what identity you registered with and I'll know who you are."

Then, officer Zhang went to the hotel owner and asked for all the information about Lisa.

The hotel owner was stunned at first because he didn't know any Lisa, and he didn't even register any information about 'Lisa'. But now that the police were asking for it, he had to give it to them.

Therefore, he could only pull out all the information of the guests and let police officer Zhang check them one by one.

The rest of the guests also came over.

Not only did he want to watch the show, but he also wanted to know if this "Lisa" was real or not.

If it was true, then they would be very willing to see officer Zhang make a fool of himself.

Officer Zhang directly entered the two words "Lisa" in the search bar, and soon a guest information popped up.

The picture on it was exactly the same as Lisa in real life, and all the information was complete, whether it was her date of birth or her place of birth.

"How is that possible?" The hooligan saw the guest information on the computer and shouted in disbelief, "Impossible, absolutely impossible! I saw her yesterday. She definitely wasn't like this! Uncle, please believe me!"

"Enough!" Police officer Zhang shouted angrily and gave the hooligan a hard slap.
