Chapter 1291 Poppy's Whereabouts

Jiang Yu only followed the group of people to the flower garden at the side to water and fertilize the poppies.

She only knew the middle-aged woman, so she followed her. As she watered the water, she asked in a low voice, "What kind of flowers are you growing?"

The middle-aged woman shook her head and replied in a low voice, "I don't know. at that time, a group of people in black suddenly surrounded our village. It was this person who threatened to kill us all if we didn't help him. We're just honest farmers, we've never seen such a scene before. He could only agree. Even if we're really poor, we don't want to die."

The middle-aged woman sighed and continued to water and fertilize the poppy.

"So that's how it is." Jiang Yu asked, "do you know where these flowers ended up?"

"I don't know," The middle-aged woman replied, "we're only in charge of planting. We don't care about anything else."

"Will they give you money?" Jiang Yu asked.

"What money?" The middle-aged woman felt helpless at the mention of this. "It's already good enough that they let us live. How could we expect them to give us money? It wasn't that no one had suggested it at first, but not only did the man disagree, he even shot the man to death. From then on, none of us ever talked about money again."

"I know." Jiang Yu said.

All the villagers were squeezed in the parterre and could not stand. However, the fake Qiao Shen kept staring at them, as if he was watching who was slacking off.

After a long time, the fake Qiao Shen seemed to realize that one person was missing. He stood up and shouted, "where's third brother? Didn't he stay here to guard the place just now? Where is he?"

The villagers did not dare to speak. Whether it was the caretaker or Jiang Yu and her bodyguards, they could not afford to offend them.

Seeing this, the fake Qiao Shen got even angrier and loudly questioned, "Are you guys deaf? Or are you mute? I'm asking you! Where did he go? Don't you see it?"

The villagers were even more afraid to speak, and they all huddled together obediently.

"You bunch of blind people, can't you even see a living person? The fake Qiao Shen swung the whip in his hand fiercely. I'll ask you one last time, where is she? If you don't tell me, I won't show you any mercy!"

Compared to Jiang Yu who was alone, the villagers were more afraid of this person. After all, they had all seen him kill people. So, someone secretly pointed at Jiang Yu and said, "She knows,"

The fake Qiao Shen looked at Jiang Yu with a colorful expression on his face. He walked over and sized Jiang Yu up. The more he looked at her, the more he felt that something was wrong with her. He had only taken a cursory glance at her just now. Seeing her ashen face, he had thought that she was really a villager from this village.

But now that he took a closer look, the fake Qiao Shen realized that the dirty-looking person in front of him actually had very delicate facial features. Even the skin hidden under the dust was so delicate that it could break with a blow.

"You're not a villager here, are you?" He asked cautiously.

Jiang Yu did not know where the rest of the bodyguards were, so she did not act rashly. Instead, she said, "I'm a villager from this village."

"How can there be such a tender-looking villager like you in this poor place?" The fake Qiao Shen said, "I was careless just now and was fooled by your appearance. You can't continue to pretend anymore. Since the villagers have already identified you, you can stop pretending. Hand over the person and I'll let you die a quick death."

"You really did remember wrongly." Jiang Yu lowered her head and looked like a oppressed villager. "I really am a villager from this village."

"Still not willing to admit it?" The fake Qiao Shen shouted angrily and took out a gun from his pocket. He pointed it at Jiang Yu's forehead and questioned her loudly, "I'll ask you one last time, where is third brother?"

"I really don't know. I don't know this person." Jiang Yu said.

"Still not admitting it? Alright, you asked for it!" As he said that, the fake Qiao Shen's fingers hooked onto the trigger and he planned to take Jiang Yu's life with one shot.

However, before he could pull the trigger, a bullet flew over from a distance and accurately hit his wrist.

"Ah!" The fake Qiao Shen covered his wound and screamed, the gun in his hand also falling to the ground.

When Jiang Yu saw this, she quickly bent down to pick up the gun and pointed it at the fake Qiao Shen.

Chapter 1292 Catch Them All In One Sweep

The bodyguards in the distance ran over quickly, guns in their hands. When the wardens saw this scene, they did not want to be outdone. They picked up the weapons beside them, whether they were sticks or daggers, and put on a posture of fighting to the death.

They were just waiting for the fake Qiao Shen to give the order.

However, the fake Qiao Shen was still lying on the ground and wailing in pain, "Ah! My hand! It hurts!"

He rolled on the ground in pain, and the rest of the caretakers looked at him with a confused expression.

The bodyguard walked up to Jiang Yu and asked, "Madam, are you alright?"

"I'm fine," she said. Jiang Yu shook her head but did not put down the gun in her hand. "Who are you?" she questioned the fake Qiao Shen. Why did they have to plant poppies here? If you don't tell me, then the gun in my hand is blind."

The fake Qiao Shen was in so much pain that he broke out in a cold sweat. He said in pain, "Help, I was wrong! I'll say anything! Hurry up and get someone to clean my wound, it's too painful!"

Jiang Yu looked at him and said to the bodyguards, "I'll leave the caretakers to you. Tie them up, I still have questions for them."

"Yes, Madam."

The bodyguards obeyed the order and subdued all the caretakers, then tied them all together with ropes.

After making sure that they were no threat to her, Jiang Yu squatted down and checked the injury on the fake Qiao Shen's wrist.

"Stop screaming. It's just a small injury. It won't kill you." As Jiang Yu spoke, she pulled off the flower towel on her head and bandaged the fake Qiao Shen's wrist.

"Try and see how painful it is to be shot in the wrist!" The fake Qiao Shen was still wailing, "I've never been injured like this in my life!"

"I'm not in the mood to listen to your childhood stories now." Jiang Yu said coldly, "I have a question for you. From now on, you'll answer whatever I ask."

The fake Qiao Shen didn't say anything and Jiang Yu took it as a silent agreement.

"The first question. Who are you?" Jiang Yu asked.

This question wasn't just directed at the fake Qiao Shen, but also at the caretakers who were tied up.

Some of the less courageous guards were afraid that they would be killed by the bodyguards with pistols if they did not follow Jiang Yu's instructions.

Hence, someone said, "I'll say anything! Please, I beg you, please don't kill me!"

Jiang Yu walked over and looked down at the person who spoke, saying, "Alright, then let me ask you, Who are you?"

"We are cyborgs," the man answered honestly.

"Second question," Jiang Yu continued. "Whose instructions did you receive to plant poppy in this village?"

The man replied, "we don't know who the person who ordered us to do this is. We only know that he's a middle-aged man. We've never seen him before. We've been in contact with each other on the phone."

"A middle-aged man ... Third question." Jiang Yu pondered for a while and asked, "where did the poppies planted in this village go in the end?"

The man thought for a long time before he answered, "We don't know either. We're just here to watch these villagers plant poppies. We don't even know the people transporting the poppies. However, I can be sure that the drugs made from these poppies are definitely not sold in Qingcheng. Because there was once when they were short on manpower, I had helped to transport the poppies. I know that they would use a ship at the pier to transport the poppies outside."

"Poppies are prohibited plants. Where did you get your seeds from?" Jiang Yu frowned and said, "once the police find out about this, not only will you all be in jail, but these innocent villagers will also be punished!"

"We have a chip in our heads! Whatever mission the higher-ups give us, we have to do it. The moment he had the thought of resisting, the chip in his brain would explode! Even if we're cyborgs, we still want to live!" The man was so emotional that he almost cried. "We can't give up our lives for someone else, can we?"

As he spoke, he started to cry and said, "We didn't do anything wrong. Are we born to die? You only see them as pitiful, but don't you think we're pitiful too?"

Jiang Yu looked at him and then at the rest of the people. Everyone had a very serious expression on their faces.

He couldn't let so many man-made people die for no reason. Jiang Yu thought about it and felt that it was better to prepare some signal jamming devices for them. There would be no signal reception beyond three meters. This would also better protect them.

Chapter 1293 Taking Care Of Teng Yi

The fake Qiao Shen was still lying on the ground, wailing in pain and rolling around. Jiang Yu couldn't be bothered with him. She asked all the villagers to come out from the flower field and then asked the bodyguards to take care of poppy.

After giving out these instructions, Jiang Yu asked the villagers to return to their homes and rest.

The villagers were still very afraid of her. It was all because of those black-shirted bodyguards.

The villagers returned to their houses in fear and trepidation, closing their doors and not daring to look out.

"Madam, why do the villagers look so afraid of us?" One of the bodyguards was very confused and said in a wronged tone, "we're not bad people, and we just saved them. Why are they so afraid of us?"

Jiang Yu said helplessly, "I can't help it. They're just villagers from a small village. They've never seen much of the world. Who wouldn't be afraid to see you all dressed up like this?"

"They're really timid." The bodyguard scratched his head.

"In the next few days, we might have to stay here and take care of Teng Yi until his ankle is healed." Jiang Yu said, "don't be idle. You can't take care of people well, but you can at least help the villagers with some physical work, right? After all, we're going to borrow their house to take care of Teng Yi. If we don't do anything, it won't make sense."

"Alright! Madam."

As for the caretakers who were tied up and the fake Qiao Shen who was rolling on the ground, Jiang Yu did not intend to let them off.

"I'll contact the police," she said. you guys keep an eye on this group of people. "Don't let a single one go missing."

Jiang Yu did not contact the police in Qingcheng. Instead, she contacted Chang Kai, who was far away in Shanghai. The fact that the cyborgs dared to plant poppy in such a big way meant that they were not afraid of the local police's investigation.

When Chang Kai and the others arrived, it was already a day later.

Those people were still wailing when they were taken away, "Save us, save us! We don't want to die!"

However, no one paid any attention to them.

As for the poppies that were being watched, Jiang Yu also handed them over to Chang Kai and the others to deal with.

As for the villagers, they were forced to plant poppies, and many of them had lost their lives because of it. Chang Kai decided not to pursue their responsibility.

"Oh right, there's something I need to trouble you with." Jiang Yu said to Chang Kai, "Teng Yi is seriously injured. There's no medicine here. Please help me buy some medicine to stop the bleeding and reduce the inflammation."

"I'll take care of the medicine," Chang Kai said.

"Thank you. It's such a long journey, and I've troubled you." Jiang Yu said apologetically.

After Chang Kai left with his men, Jiang Yu was about to return to her house when a middle-aged woman walked over and whispered, "I heard what you said just now. We have an old village doctor here. Do you need his help?"

"Thank you so much." Jiang Yu thanked her profusely and followed the middle-aged woman to the old village doctor.

Although the old village doctor's hair was white and his face was full of wrinkles, he looked very healthy. He spoke in a strong tone, "What's the matter?"

Jiang Yu explained her purpose for coming.

The old village doctor brought his tools and followed Jiang Yu to find Teng Yi.

Teng Yi was still in a deep coma, so he didn't need to be anesthetized. The old village doctor heated his knife with fire until both sides were red, then he started to treat Teng Yi's wound.

Jiang Yu and the middle-aged woman went out together.

"Thank you for taking us in." Jiang Yu thanked them from the bottom of her heart. if it wasn't for you guys, my friend would have really died.

"You're welcome. We also found this man unconscious by the river when we were fetching water." The middle-aged woman said, "we're not the kind of people who leave him in the lurch. It's just that we had to go to work in the flower field right after we saved him, so we didn't have time to treat his wounds."

"It's already very good that you saved him. I'm really grateful to you." Jiang Yu said, "and we will be staying here for a while to continue to disturb you. We are very sorry for that. But don't worry, I won't give you any less than what you deserve."

Chapter 1294 Saving The Child

"It's okay, you don't have to give us money." The middle-aged woman said.

By the time Chang Kai came back with the medicine, the old village doctor had already scraped off all the rotten flesh from Teng Yi's wound.

The old village doctor applied the ointment evenly on Teng Yi's wound and wrapped it up with clean gauze.

"Alright, his wound has been treated." The old village doctor said, "he will wake up in about three days."

"Thank you," she said. Jiang Yu expressed her heartfelt gratitude once again.

"It's okay. I'm a doctor. It's my job to save people." The old village doctor said.

The old village doctor and the middle-aged woman went back. Jiang Yu had been taking care of Teng Yi while the bodyguards had been patrolling around the village.

When it was time for dinner, the middle-aged woman came over to look for Jiang Yu and said, "It's time to eat. You and your friends can come over and eat. We've made a lot for dinner, enough for you."

"Okay, thank you." As Jiang Yu spoke, she called the bodyguards back.

Even though they were going to have dinner together, the villagers still set up two tables, and the two tables were far apart. They were eating at one table while Jiang Yu and the bodyguards were eating at another table.

Even though Jiang Yu and her bodyguards saved the villagers and were their benefactors. However, the bodyguards looked too fierce, and the villagers were still afraid of them.

"I don't think we're that scary, right?" As the bodyguards ate, they peeked at the villagers. "We've been patrolling around the village. We've been their free bodyguards for such a long time. Don't you even have a word of thanks? You've really wasted our good intentions."

"Eat well." Jiang Yu said, "who asked you to always dress up like a member of the underworld? It's no wonder that people are afraid of you."

She took the bowl and walked to the villagers' table. She asked with a smile, "May I have dinner with you?"

The villagers looked at her in horror and then at the burly men. They did not dare to refuse and could only nod in agreement.

Jiang Yu smiled and was about to continue eating when a child grabbed the corner of her clothes and asked her with wide eyes, "Sister, you guys aren't bad people, right?"

This child was not old, only about seven or eight years old.

"Of course I'm not a bad person," Jiang Yu smiled and said, "those who have been bullying you are the bad guys. My sister and uncles beat the bad guys away today, so we're good people."

Just as the child was about to speak, he was pulled over by a middle-aged man and quickly hid to the side. The man looked at Jiang Yu warily and lectured the child, "Didn't I tell you? I told you not to talk to strangers."

"But big sister is a good person." The child said, "big sister and uncles chased away the bad guys, so they are good people."

"What does it have to do with you whether they're good or not?" The middle-aged man was a little angry. "You don't take my words to heart at all!"

"Big sister is a good person too!" The child also lost his temper. "I remember everything you said, but sister saved us. We should say thank you to her!"

"You!" With the temperament of a middle-aged man, he raised his hand and was about to hit the child.

When the child saw this, he immediately ran away.

It was already dark outside. If the child ran out like this, he might encounter danger. No matter how angry the middle-aged man was, he would never leave his son outside.

Hence, he quickly chased after her, shouting as he chased, "Quickly come back! Daddy won't hit you anymore!"

However, the child did not respond.

Jiang Yu said to the bodyguard who was eating, "You guys go and take a look. If anything happens, you must ensure the safety of the father and son."

"Yes, Madam,"

A table full of bodyguards moved out in unison. In less than ten minutes, they returned with a child who was completely wet.

"This child can really run." The bodyguard who was carrying him said, "he fell into the river just now. If we hadn't arrived in time, the child would have drowned."

The middle-aged man was following behind them.

Chapter 1295 A Change In Impression

The middle-aged man lowered his head and kept thanking her. "Thank you, thank you for saving my child!"

He had run all the way to the river with the child and had watched him fall into the river. The river was very deep, and the man could not swim. He could only kneel by the river and cry in grief, "Men! Someone come quickly! Please save my child!"

The bodyguards heard the sound and rushed over. Without a word, they took off their suits and jumped into the river to pull the child out.

When the middle-aged man saw this, even if he had any opinions about these burly men, he turned them into gratitude. He followed behind the bodyguards and thanked them many times.

"I'm really grateful to you for saving my child!" The middle-aged man said, his voice carrying a sobbing tone. "If it wasn't for you guys, I really wouldn't know what to do!"

As he spoke, he even wanted to kneel on the ground and kowtow to the bodyguards.

Jiang Yu quickly stopped him and said, "it's alright. This is what we should do. We should be the ones thanking you for taking us in."

"I'm really grateful to you." The middle-aged man was still thanking her.

The rest of the villagers looked at him, then at the wet child, and finally at the bodyguards. They had mixed feelings.

The bodyguards had already returned to the dining table to eat. They didn't seem to care about what had just happened.

The villagers didn't expect such a fierce person to be so kind.

Hence, someone mustered up the courage and walked over to the bodyguard with a bowl of rice. He asked in a low voice, "Can I have dinner with you guys?"

The bodyguards waved their hands and said, "come on, let's eat together!" We're not bad people, so don't be afraid."

The man sat down and said as he ate, "What did you guys eat when you were young? Why are there so many muscles? You must have eaten a lot of nutritious food, right?"

At the mention of this, the bodyguards instantly opened up their chatterboxes and shared everything they had eaten and their fitness experience.

Jiang Yu could not help but laugh when she saw that.

More and more villagers ran to the bodyguards' table to eat and chat with them.

This joyous and harmonious scene was something that everyone wanted to see.

"Can you guys not leave?" Someone asked cautiously. "He's always been here to protect us. Although you sent that group of people to the police station today, after you leave, the accomplices of that group might come to find trouble with us again."

The bodyguards looked at each other and asked in confusion, "If there are still people who come to bully you, can't you just call the police?"

The villagers said embarrassedly, "although some of us sneaked into the city to call the police, we were discovered before we could even leave the village. We finally got to the police station, but the police said we were lying and didn't believe us, so they drove us back."

"This ..." The bodyguards were speechless.

Wasn't this the inaction of the grassroots police? Why? Could it be that someone didn't allow it?

Jiang Yu sensed the gaze behind her and could not help but turn around and ask, "What's wrong? What's the matter?"

"Can you guys not leave this place?" Someone asked boldly. "You're good people, and you're also very powerful. If those people's accomplices come looking for us again, you can continue to protect us by staying here. As long as you're willing to stay here, we'll agree to any conditions you have."

"This ..." Jiang Yu hesitated.

While she was here to take care of Teng Yi, she could continue to protect the villagers. But once Teng Yi recovered, they would have to leave.

Although she knew that the villagers were hoping that they could continue to stay here because they were too afraid, Jiang Yu could not delay her own matters because of them.

Jiang Yu was still thinking about it when the villagers said, "actually, our village isn't the only one. There's another village not far from here that's being watched by the same people."

"There's another village?" Jiang Yu was stunned. "What do you mean?"

"There's another village not far from our village," the old village doctor explained. "The villagers in the village were also under the watch of the caretaker. It's just that the work of our two villages is different. Our village is helping them grow some plants, but the neighboring village is helping them mine."

"Mine?" Jiang Yu paused. "Isn't that illegal mining?"

"It should be," The old village doctor was also uncertain. "As far as I know, they don't have permission."

Chapter 1296 The Chu Family's Power

Jiang Yu realized that the matter had become even more complicated. Even the rice in her mouth tasted like wax.

After dinner, Jiang Yu returned to her room but could not fall asleep.

They stayed like this until dawn. Jiang Yu decided to go to the neighboring village to see the situation.

"Madam, let's go and check the situation first." The bodyguards said, "you can stay here and take care of Secretary Teng."

"That's good." Jiang Yu nodded. "Then you guys go and check the situation first. No matter how serious the situation is, don't act rashly. You must come back and tell me. If the situation is too serious, we'll think of a way to solve it together."

"Yes, Madam!"

The bodyguards asked the villagers for the way to the neighboring village. It was not far, about a ten-minute walk.

The bodyguards observed from a hidden spot and found that there were more guards in this village.

They were slightly closer and could still hear the contents of the conversation between the wardens.

"Big brother, what do you think they need so many ores for?"

"How should I know? They didn't tell me. As long as they are willing to pay us, isn't it the same no matter what we do? Why do you care what they want the ore for?"

"But this is illegal mining. They didn't even get permission to mine here. If they were found out, not only them, but we would also be in jail!"

"What are you afraid of? The neighboring village was still growing poppies. If something really happened, it would be that village that got into trouble first. Besides, if something were to happen to us, the Chu family wouldn't just stand by and watch. If they really don't care about us, we can just rat them out. We're not cyborgs, and we don't have chips in our brains."

"This ... Alright, big brother."

The conversation between the two men ended there. The bodyguards looked at each other with thoughtful expressions.

They returned to the village where Jiang Yu was and repeated what they had just heard to her.

Jiang Yu heard this and said thoughtfully, "Could this matter be related to the Chu family?"

"The way I see it, there's an 80% chance it's true. I clearly heard the words 'Chu family' when the two of them were talking."

"Ah! President Mo is still in the Chu family!" One of the bodyguards smacked his head, "President Mo is all alone there. Will something happen to him?"

After he said that, the other bodyguards started to worry.

"He should be fine." Jiang Yu said. Even though she was not very happy, this was an undeniable fact-as long as Chu Jie was in the Chu family, nothing would happen to Mo Long.

However, there was a more important matter at the moment, and that was the poppy cultivation, illegal mining, and the cyborgs. They were all related to the Chu family.

How powerful was the Chu family? It was actually able to cover the entire sky of the Qingcheng with one hand.

Before this coming of age ceremony, she and Mo Long had never even heard of this family. How did the Chu family manage to hide for more than ten years and not let outsiders know?

Moreover, he had participated in the cyborgs 'experiments in such a low-key manner.

A family that suddenly rose up must have an even bigger family behind it. However, Jiang Yu did not know which family was supporting the Chu family.

After thinking for a long time, an idea flashed through her mind and she suddenly thought of a surname-Chi.

The Chi family was most likely related to the cyborg experiment, while the Chu family was 100% related to the cyborg experiment. If the two were combined, then there was a high probability that the Chi family was supporting the Chu family.

And everything that the Chu family had done was probably not to strengthen their own family, but to help the Chi family restore its former prosperity.

"I'll go get the police. You guys keep an eye on that group of people. Don't let them run away." Jiang Yu said.

"Yes, Madam!"

Since Chang Kai and the others had not left yet, Jiang Yu contacted him and told him about it. Then, he returned to the house and changed Teng Yi's medicine. He was worried about Mo Long's situation in the Chu family.

He was alone in the Chu family, and no one knew what he had found out. Jiang Yu looked at her phone, but there was no message from Mo Long.

She was lost in her thoughts when a head suddenly popped in from outside the door. It was the child from yesterday.

"Sister, can I come in?" He asked as he looked at Jiang Yu.

"Yes, come in." Jiang Yu smiled and waved at the child.

The child immediately ran in and took out the fruits from his pocket and placed them in Jiang Yu's palm.

"Sister, this is the fruit that my father and I picked from the mountains. It's very sweet. I brought it for you to try."

Chapter 1297 A Lady In Hardship

Jiang Yu picked up a fruit and took a bite. It was very fragrant and crispy.

The child looked at Jiang Yu expectantly and asked, "Sister, is this fruit delicious?"

Jiang Yu smiled and nodded.

"Really?" The child cried out in surprise, "then, big sister, do you want to come with me to the mountains to pick fruits?"

Jiang Yu had just treated Teng Yi's wound and had nothing to do now. As for what happened in the next village, she had already told Chang Kai. He just had to wait for Chang Kai and the others to come and solve it.

"Sure," Jiang Yu said with a smile.

Jiang Yu followed the child up the mountain and saw the middle-aged man from yesterday sitting on a tree. There were many fruits in the cloth bag in front of him.

"Daddy!" The child shouted excitedly and jogged over. "I called my sister over too!"

The middle-aged man looked at Jiang Yu and said in embarrassment, "My child is really insensible. Did I disturb you?"

"It doesn't matter. I don't have anything to do anyway." Jiang Yu said, "I just happened to come up the mountain. I'll just take it as breathing in fresh air. I don't know how to climb trees, so I'll stand below and help you catch the fruits."

"Sister, let me help you." The child said as he jumped happily beside Jiang Yu.

Jiang Yu and the child waited together. Suddenly, they heard a shrill scream from afar. "Ah!"

The voice sounded very miserable and the child was so scared that he hid behind Jiang Yu. "What's wrong?"

The middle-aged man sat on the tree and had a wider view. He followed the source of the scream and saw two people in white rolling down the hill.

"Two people rolled down the hill." The middle-aged man said.

He quickly climbed down from the tree and placed the bag full of fruits under the tree. Then, he went to check on the two people.

Jiang Yu and the child also went to check on the situation. Just as they walked in front of the two people, one of them, who had dyed his hair green, got up with a gray face.

"It hurts!" She rubbed her thigh in resentment and immediately began to feel sorry for her clothes.

"Aiya, my clothes are worth a lot of money. I won't be able to wear them in the future."

She mumbled for a long time before she noticed the three people standing in front of her.

"Who are you?!" The green-haired woman was shocked.

She instinctively wanted to call for help, but when she looked around, she realized that there were only five of them.

Hence, she subconsciously shouted, "Mei Shuang! Meishuang, save me!"

Mei Shuang was The Woman in White who had fainted beside her.

"Are you alright?" Jiang Yu asked softly, "we were picking fruits on the mountain when we heard the shouting over here. That's why we came over to check on the situation. Were you the ones who made that sound?"

The green-haired woman in front of her hesitated for a moment. She raised her head and looked at Jiang Yu curiously.

Jiang Yu was pretty and had a very polite smile on her face. She didn't look like a bad person at all. The middle-aged man standing beside her looked very simple and honest.

"It's us," the green-haired woman said, "we accidentally fell down the hill."

"You should be fine, but your friend's condition is a little serious." Jiang Yu said.

"Please save her!" When the green-haired woman heard this, she immediately panicked. "As long as you're willing to save her, I'll give you all the money you want!"

"We didn't save people for money." The middle-aged man couldn't help but say, "leaving someone in the lurch is not something a human would do."

Then, he carried the unconscious Mei Shuang and walked back to the village.

After returning to the village, Jiang Yu looked for the old village doctor and asked him to help check on the condition of the injured.

As for the green-haired woman, her body was fine, with only a few small bruises.

"It's all my fault." She sobbed. "Mei Shuang did this to save me. When we rolled down the hill, she kept me in her arms. So, I beg you, you must save Mei Shuang!"

The old village doctor came out of the house and said, "It's nothing serious, I just hit my head when I rolled down the hill. He'll wake up after a short rest. Don't worry."

After that, he went back.

Chapter 1298 The Feng Family's Daughter

Jiang Yu comforted the green-haired woman and said, "It's alright, don't cry."

The green-haired woman finally stopped crying. She looked at Jiang Yu and said, "you don't look like a villager from here. Are you here for a vacation too?"

"No, my friend is recuperating here." Jiang Yu simply explained, "my name is Jiang Yu. What's your name?"

"My name is Feng Ran, and the one in the house is Mei Shuang. She's the daughter of my housekeeper. We grew up together. Feng Ran said, "we're here for a vacation. We heard that there's a very beautiful flower on the mountain. We've never seen it before, so we thought of going up the mountain to take a look."

"No bodyguards?" Jiang Yu asked curiously, "judging from your outfit, you must be a young lady from some family, right? Don't you have bodyguards with you when you go out?"

"Of course I do." Feng Ran's expression started to become uneasy. "But we're only here for a vacation and to look at the scenery. Do we have to go out and bring our bodyguards along to look at the scenery?"

"If it's just a normal view, there's no need to bring a bodyguard." Jiang Yu narrowed her eyes and sized Feng Ran up carefully. "But an ordinary young lady wouldn't go to such a deep mountain forest to look at the scenery, right? Even if you want to come here, the terrain here is so dangerous. Shouldn't you bring your bodyguards?"

"I ..." Feng Ran stammered, unable to explain anything.

Jiang Yu looked at her expression and knew that she would not tell her the truth, so she said, "I already know that your name is Feng Ran, and I also know what you look like."

"Are you threatening me?" Feng Ran's eyes widened in horror. "No matter what, I'm still the daughter of the Feng family! You dare to threaten me?"

"I'm not threatening you. I just want you to consider whether you want to tell me the truth or not." Jiang Yu said, "after all, the two of you don't look like you're just here for a vacation."

"You!" Feng Ran glared at Jiang Yu for a long time before she said in disdain, "Why should I tell you? Who are you to me? It doesn't matter if I'm here for a vacation or for something else. It has nothing to do with you, right?"

"Of course it's Okay, so you can choose not to tell me." Jiang Yu felt that the young lady of the Feng family in front of her was really stubborn. "When the person in the room wakes up, the two of you should leave quickly."

Upon hearing this, Feng Ran's arrogance was immediately extinguished.

She tried to please Jiang Yu and said, "can we stay here for a few days? We won't have a place to stay if we leave this place. If you want money, I'll give it to you no matter how much you want."

"This isn't a matter of money." Jiang Yu said helplessly, "it doesn't seem right for a rich family's daughter to bring her good friend to such a remote forest for no reason. You also said that you'll have no place to stay once you leave this place. No matter who heard this, they would think that you two are being hunted down by your enemies."

"Actually, we're not enemies." Feng Ran lowered her head. "It's my dad. My dad found me a marriage partner, but I don't like that person. I don't want to marry him, so in a fit of anger, I sneaked out. Mei Shuang was worried that I would get into an accident on the way, so she insisted on coming with me."

"And then you two hid here?" Jiang Yu felt a headache coming on. "It must have been hard on the two of you. You actually managed to find such a remote place."

"We can't do anything about that." Feng Ran felt wronged. "If I stay in a hotel outside, my dad will find me according to the registration information. There's a GPS system in my phone. Even if I turn off my phone, my dad will still find me. But I couldn't throw my phone away, so after thinking about it, I could only find such a remote place to hide. I heard that the more remote a place is, the worse the signal. So I thought that if there was no signal, my dad might not be able to find me using the positioning system."

"Some positioning systems are not limited by signal. Even if you hide here, your father will still find you." Jiang Yu sighed. "Give me your phone. I want to see what your GPS is like."

The positioning System on Teng Yi's phone wasn't limited by signals. Otherwise, Jiang Yu wouldn't have been able to find his location so accurately.

Feng Ran looked at Jiang Yu and felt that she seemed to understand, so she took out her phone and passed it to her, saying, "Then can you help me take a look at the positioning System in my phone?"

Jiang Yu took a quick look and realized that the positioning System in Feng Ran's mobile phone was a very ordinary system that was limited by signal. If she hid here, her father might not be able to find her using the positioning System.

"You're lucky that your Positioning System has signal restrictions." Jiang Yu returned the phone and said, "but you can't keep hiding here. I advise you to go back and have a good talk with your father. After all, most fathers love their daughters very much. As long as you tell him clearly that you don't want to get married, I don't think he will force you."

"It's no use, I've already told him many times." Feng Ran said disappointedly, "but he didn't agree no matter what. He just wanted me to marry that man. He also said that he would have great achievements in the future and that I would be happy after marrying him. But he was clearly an illegitimate child! He still hasn't acknowledged his roots and ancestors, what great achievements can he have in the future!"

Feng Ran became more and more agitated as she spoke. "An illegitimate child wants to marry me? stop dreaming!"

This was the Feng family's family matter, so it was not appropriate for Jiang Yu to interfere. She could only persuade Feng Ran to stop being angry.

"How can I not be angry!" Feng Ran shouted angrily, "even if the Feng family isn't a top family, they're still a famous family in the upper-class society! I'm the young lady of the Feng family, and the person I'm marrying is actually an illegitimate child! How can I not be angry?"

"It's true that your father didn't consider this matter properly." Jiang Yu consoled him. "But I advise you to go back and communicate with him. Perhaps, that illegitimate child will soon acknowledge his roots and ancestors."

"How is that possible?" Feng Ran laughed disdainfully. "The Chu family of Qing city, a big family that has only risen recently! If their family admits to having an illegitimate child outside, then would they still have their reputation?"

"Chu family?" Jiang Yu was stunned. "Are you saying that the illegitimate child is from the Chu family?"

"Yeah," Feng Ran nodded. "I heard the conversation between them and my father. I heard clearly that the illegitimate son said he was from the Chu family. But no matter which family he's from, I'll never marry him. Don't even think about it."

The illegitimate child of the Chu family?

This matter was really getting more and more complicated.

"Good sister, I beg you, please let us stay for a few days." Feng Ran begged Jiang Yu. "If you don't take us in, we really have nowhere to go. You wouldn't have the heart to see us two weak women eating and sleeping outside, would you?"

She blinked her big eyes as she spoke.

Jiang Yu was defeated by her and could only say helplessly, "this is not my village. If you really want to stay here, you have to ask for the opinion of the villagers."

"They look like good people. They'll definitely take us in." Feng Ran grinned and looked at the middle-aged man who had just saved her. She asked, "Uncle, my friend and I have nowhere to go. Can we stay here for a while?"

"The living conditions in our village are very tough. I'm afraid that people with tender skin like you can't bear the hardship," the middle-aged man said.

"It doesn't matter, I can bear hardships!" Feng Ran said, "uncle, don't judge a book by its cover. My friend and I can help you with your farm work as long as you're willing to take us in!"

In order to stay, Feng Ran really dared to say anything.

"This ... Alright then." The middle-aged man hesitated for a moment, but he finally agreed to Feng Ran's request.

"Thank you, uncle!" Feng Ran jumped up in excitement.

Jiang Yu saw this and went back to the house to check on Teng Yi.

As soon as she entered the house, her phone rang. Jiang Yu quickly picked up her phone and saw that it was indeed a call from Mo Long.

Mo Long said, "the Chu family hasn't made any moves recently. Instead, they've been calculating the auspicious date. They want to put the marriage between the Mo and Chu families on the agenda."

Jiang Yu was silent for a moment before she told Mo Long everything that had happened.

Chapter 1300 Don't Admit

"The Chu family's illegitimate child?" Mo Long paused. "From what I know, the Chu family only has one child, and that's Chu Jie. And from the looks of it, the Chu family doesn't seem to know that they have an illegitimate child."

"Although I'm not sure if the information is 100% accurate, the girl I saved did say so." Jiang Yu said, "her surname is Feng and her name is Feng Ran. Do you have any impression of it?"

"Feng Ran ..." Mo Long repeated the name a few times and said, "I remember now. She's the daughter of the Feng family of Yang City. He had seen her once a long time ago. She looked like a very innocent person, so she probably wouldn't lie. However, after so many years, I can't be sure what she'll look like."

"She looks innocent and doesn't know how to lie," Jiang Yu said, "Feng Ran said that her father wants her to marry an illegitimate child of the Chu family."

"What?" Mo Long paused. "The Feng family has always been proud of their superiority. How could they be willing to let their daughter marry an illegitimate child? What's more, this illegitimate child had not returned to his family yet. The Feng family would not even bother to look at such an uncertain matter, but now they wanted their daughter to marry an illegitimate child? It's really not the Feng family's style."

"I also find it strange," Jiang Yu guessed, "that's why I'm suspecting that the illegitimate son of the Chu family also has a huge power behind him. The Feng family has their eyes on this huge power, so they decided to let Feng Ran marry that illegitimate son."

"It's hard to say," Mo Long's tone was very heavy. Just as he was about to continue speaking, Chu Jie's voice rang out from the door, "Mr. Mo Long, may I ask if it's convenient for you now? May I come in?"

Mo Long paused, but he did not hang up. Instead, he hid his phone under his pillow and said, "You may enter."

Chu Jie opened the door and entered with a bowl of bird's nest porridge in her hands.

Mr. Mo Long, I've specially asked the nanny to make you a bowl of bird's nest porridge. It's good for your health, so you should drink it while it's hot. As she spoke, Chu Jie placed the bird's nest porridge on the bedside table.

"Okay, I got it." Mo Long responded softly and asked, "Are you the only child in the Chu family?"

"Of course." Chu Jie smiled. "Why would Mr. Mo Long suddenly ask this question?"

"It's nothing. However, I heard that the Chu family has an illegitimate child."

"Who's talking nonsense? This is a rumor!" Chu Jie was a little angry. "I'm the only child in the Chu family for so many years. I've never heard of the Chu family having any illegitimate children outside! Mr. Mo Long, they're just spreading rumors. You must not believe them!"

"I didn't believe it. I also think it's a rumor." Mo Long said, "I'm just very curious. Is the Chu family really indifferent to such rumors?"

Chu Jie was puzzled and said, "but we've never heard such a rumor in the past few years!" My grandfather never mentioned anything about illegitimate children. But whether or not he has an illegitimate son, as long as he dares to come, my grandfather will beat him to death. The Chu family will never acknowledge an illegitimate child!"

"So old master Chu doesn't know either." Mo Long smiled. "Then it's fine. I'm just overthinking."

"Yes, I am. Mr. Mo Long, have a good rest. If there's nothing else, I'll take my leave." With that, Chu Jie left.

Chu Jie left Mo Long's room. The more she thought about it, the more uncomfortable she felt. As such, she quickly found old master Chu and told him about this.

After Chu Jie left, Mo Long took out his phone. Jiang Yu did not hang up the phone and asked, "Why did you tell Chu Jie about this?"

"I just want to get some information from her." Mo Long said, "but it seems like no one in the Chu family knows about this illegitimate child. Chu Jie will tell old master Chu about this. Then, regardless of whether this is true or false, old master Chu will send someone to investigate. When that happens, it will save us some effort."

"Hmmm ... Alright then." Jiang Yu said, "you must take good care of yourself in the Chu family. You must not expose yourself. Your bodyguards are all with me now, they can't protect you immediately."

"You don't have to worry about me." Mo Long said worriedly, "you, on the other hand, must protect yourself well. At least I still have the protection of the Chu family, and you only have bodyguards around you. I'm more worried about you."
