

Older Man 22

Chapter 22: Don't Act Rich With Me!

Jiang Yu chuckled. "I'll introduce you when I have the chance. You go ahead."

Jiang Yu hung up the phone. She had only met Lu Qi's fiancé once before. She heard that he was a young master of the same family as Lu Qi, but he was two years older than Lu Qi. He was probably a sophomore, it just so happened that it was a holiday.

A long absence was better than a newlywed. Jiang Yu naturally understood.

She wandered alone in the mall, which was also one of Mo Long's companies.

Her gaze swept past all kinds of goods, and was finally attracted by a man's suit placed in front of a shop.

It was a slim white suit with several symmetrical lines at the waist. It was simple, but it gave people an elegant feeling.

The moment Jiang Yu saw this suit, she imagined Mo Long wearing it.

Mo Long's suit was usually black or white. He would definitely like this suit.

Jiang Yu couldn't help but walk in.

"Hello, welcome." When the waiter heard footsteps, he immediately walked over.

When she saw Jiang Yu, she was surprised. "Jiang Yu! Why are you here?"

Jiang Yu recognized her as well. The shop assistant was her high school classmate, Tang Ni.

Tang Ni didn't come from a good family. She dropped out of high school after half a year.

However, she didn't expect to work here.

Jiang Yu smiled and said, "Tang Ni, what a coincidence!"

However, Tang Ni looked at her strangely. Why did she feel that the other party was mocking her?

At this moment, Jiang Yu was still wearing ordinary clothes from the Jiang family.

She looked shabby.

Tang Ni frowned. "What are you doing here?"

Could it be that she knew that she was a shopping guide and deliberately came over to make a fool of herself.

"Buying clothes." After Jiang Yu realized that the other party was not very friendly, her tone turned cold.

She walked in front of the model and pointed at the suit. "Take this suit down and let me have a look."

"Jiang Yu, you can't afford the clothes here. Don't pretend to be rich in front of me!"

“People change. Tang Ni, don’t look down on others. Maybe I can afford it now.”

“Ha, it’s not that I look down on you, but you have to work three jobs every time after school. Don’t think I don’t remember.”

“Is this your attitude as a shop assistant?” Jiang Yu was angry. When she was a part-time employee at the car dealership, she knew that the customers were god. So even if there were customers who deliberately made things difficult for her, she would still serve them tea and water, if the other party did not buy it, she would still have to smile and say that she would welcome them to come again next time.

This was professional ethics!

But what about Tang Ni? She did not seem to understand this logic at all. She was more like a customer and her boss!

“Call your store manager over. I want to change my service!” Jiang Yu said coldly.

The other waiters in the shop looked at each other and did not dare to make a sound. It was as if they were afraid of Tang Ni.

Tang Ni smiled and said, “My cousin is very busy. You can call him as you wish.”

“Then do I have the right to call people?”

At that moment, a clear and pleasant voice suddenly came from the door.

Jiang Yu turned her head in surprise. “Why are you here?”

Teng Yi pushed Mo Long in.

They had just been inspecting the place when they saw a figure that looked very much like Jiang Yu, so they followed her.

When they saw Jiang Yu staring at the clothes on the model, they instantly understood her intentions.

Originally, Mo Long had planned to pretend that he didn’t know anything and just wait for the gifts to be received. However, he realized that Jiang Yu and the salesperson’s posture didn’t seem right, so he came over to check.

“Mr. Teng!” Tawny said respectfully to Teng Yi, her expression changing.

Teng Yi was a leader sent by the Mo Group’s headquarters to inspect the place frequently.

Why did it seem like Jiang Yu knew this person.

Also, who was the person pushing Teng Yi’s wheelchair? He was too good-looking, but it was a pity that he was a cripple.

Mo Long came to Jiang Yu’s side. “What happened?”

Jiang Yu recounted her experience. “I wanted to buy you a suit, but she thought I couldn’t afford it and laughed at me.”

Jiang Yu pointed at Tang Ni helplessly.

Tang Ni's expression changed and she saw Mo Long's gaze. Teng Yi lowered his head and immediately walked over obediently. "Call your store manager over!"

The other waiters quickly made a call.

Tang Ni, on the other hand, had a constipated expression on her face as she looked back and forth at Jiang Yu and Mo Long.

Jiang Yu had climbed up to a big shot?

After a while, when the store manager arrived, she nodded and bowed to Mo Long in fear. "President Mo, why are you here in person? I'll get someone to send the designs to the residence for you to personally choose from."

When Tang Ni heard this honorific title, she almost fainted.

President Mo, that was the legendary person in the capital who could control the entire capital's economy, big and small. The President of the Mo Group, Mo Long?

It was rumored that Mo Long's leg was crippled a year ago. It looked like it was really this person.

Fear and regret intersected in Tang Ni's eyes.
