

Older Man 23

Chapter 23: Follow Me Back To Mo Gardens

After the store manager found out about Tang Ni's rudeness, he angrily scolded her, "Do you know who you've offended? Quickly apologize to Miss Jiang. From today onwards, you don't have to work here anymore!"

The store manager was filled with fear and trepidation. Only then did he understand that Tang Ni had offended President Mo's woman.

Tang Ni's face turned pale. "Miss Jiang, I'm sorry!"

Tang Ni was directly chased out by the store manager.

Jiang Yu took the set of clothes and placed it in front of Mo Long. She gestured with it as if she was very satisfied.

Mo Long allowed her to do as she pleased. The corners of his mouth curled up. "Does it look good?"

Jiang Yu nodded. "Yes."

"Is it the person or the clothes that look good?" Mo Long deliberately teased.

Jiang Yu's gaze moved away from the clothes and looked at the devastatingly beautiful face. She said with satisfaction, "The person is good-looking."

It was a pity that such a good person had to sit in a wheelchair.

Jiang Yu said to the waiter, "Wrap up the clothes!"

They left the men's clothing store.

The few of them went to the underground parking lot.

Mo long held Jiang Yu's hand. "Are you coming back to Mo Garden with me tonight?"

Teng Yi explained from the side, "President Mo will be leaving the country tomorrow morning."

Jiang Yu looked at Mo Long in surprise. No wonder Mo Long suddenly asked her to go over.

He probably had to go abroad for a long time.

Otherwise, why would he look at her so affectionately.

It was said that the headquarters of the Mo Group was overseas.

"Okay," Jiang Yu answered in a low voice.

In the Mo Garden, there were already three suitcases in the hall, all of which belonged to Mo Long.

Mo Long said to Jiang Yu, "I'm going to change my clothes first. Let's eat together later."

Jiang Yu went into the kitchen alone and saw Aunt Zhang cooking.

Aunt Zhang turned around and said, "Madam, why are you here? The smell of smoke is too strong here. You can wait outside."

Jiang Yu was a little depressed and whispered, "Does Mr. Mo have to go abroad every year?"

Aunt Zhang nodded and said, "Yes. Mr. Mo is abroad all year round. He spends half of his time there."

Jiang Yu replied, "I see."

This meant that it would be difficult to see him in the future.

One was in university, while the other was busy overseas. Just like Lu Qi and her fiancé, they only met a few times in a year.

When Mo Long appeared again, he was already wearing the clothes that Jiang Yu had bought.

Wearing it made him look like an immortal who had walked out of a painting.

Not a speck of dust could be seen on him.

However, Mo Long realized that Jiang Yu was not in the hall. Instead, she was quietly cooking in the kitchen.

Aunt Zhang said, "I want to make soup for you personally."

Jiang Yu silently endured the disappointment in her eyes and said to him, "It will be done very soon. Wait outside for a while."

Not long after, Jiang Yu came out with the delicacies that she had made.

After all the dishes were served, the servants all left.

Jiang Yu scooped a bowl of soup for him and said with a sour tone, "When I was about to leave the orphanage, the director personally brewed a bowl of mushroom chicken soup for me. Every time the director brewed the chicken soup, it was very flavorful and delicious."

It was an ordinary home-cooked dish, but it was filled with deep longing and blessings.

Now, Jiang Yu had also delivered such a bowl of soup to Mo Long, who was about to leave the country.

Mo Long was stunned when he saw her slightly red eyes. He then lowered his head to look at the soup, which was emitting a strong fragrance.

"It's been hard on you."

Jiang Yu was a little sad. She was afraid that when the time came, the two of them would be separated. When she graduated, the two of them would become estranged.

At that time, he might have other thoughts.

"Sigh!" Jiang Yu sighed and sat down quietly. She ate quietly and secretly looked at Mo Long.

"It's not like I'm not coming back." Mo Long stared at her. Seeing her so distressed, he could not eat anymore.

Jiang Yu looked up. "But when you come back, I might have already had a semester."

Mo Long sneered and said, "I'll only be gone for three days."

"Huh?"

"Now can you eat?" Mo Long looked into the woman's sparkling eyes and couldn't help but pat her head.

Jiang Yu looked embarrassed. It turned out that she had only been gone for three days.

But why did she have to get three or four suitcases! This was too exaggerated.

She had misunderstood.

"Slurp!" Jiang Yu gulped down a mouthful of soup.

Then she pretended to eat as if nothing had happened.

The atmosphere was extremely awkward.

Mr. Mo long finished his meal elegantly and looked up at her.

Jiang Yu put down her chopsticks and heard him say, "Are you staying at Mo Garden tonight?"

Jiang Yu lowered her head shyly. "Where are you staying?"

"Wherever you want to stay." Mo Long naturally would not force her to stay with him.

"Okay." Jiang Yu naturally chose to live in her own guest room.

The servants had already left. Jiang Yu pushed Mr. Mo into the elevator and sent him to his own room.

This was the first time Jiang Yu entered Mo Long's room.. As expected, the room was all black and white.
