

Older Man 36

Chapter 36: You've Changed

"Why are you here?" Jiang Ran was dumbfounded.

Although she said that she had broken up with Young Master Ye, she didn't tell him everything. She still wanted to ask him for help if there was anything she needed.

However, she didn't expect him to come over personally.

Thinking of something, Jiang Ran immediately looked at Jiang Yu.

She saw that Jiang Yu looked like she was ready to enjoy a good show, squinting and munching on melon seeds. How could she not realise what had happened by now? Jiang Yu must have called him over.

"Jiang Yu!" Jiang Ran was so angry that she gritted her teeth.

Young Master Ye, on the other hand, held onto her tightly and refused to let her leave.

"Young Master Ye, I'm not free now. Go back first and wait for me to come for you," Jiang Ran said to Young Master Ye, wanting to send this person away.

"What's matter is more important than me. Ran Ran, you've changed!" Young Master Ye was rather disappointed.

In the past, Jiang Ran was so obedient and tame. Since when did she not answer his calls, even wanted to send him away.

Looking at them pulling and tugging, Jiang Yu clapped her hands and pushed Mo Long. "Uncle, let me take you somewhere else to relax."

As she spoke, she was about to push Mo Long into the car.

Jiang Ran rushed up. "Sister, where are you going? I will go with you!"

Jiang Yu pursed her lips. "Why are you following us? Do you want to be a third wheel? It's better to be with your own boyfriend."

Young Master Ye also nodded. "Yes, Ran Ran, where do you want to go? We'll go together."

Jiang Ran said, "I told you, I don't have a boyfriend! Young Master Ye, I've already broken up with you."

Jiang Ran was worried that Mo Long would misunderstand, so she quickly explained.

This sentence made young master Ye completely furious. "What did you say?"

"Take your time to chat. Goodbye." Jiang Yu took the opportunity when Jiang Ran had no time to care about this side and got into the car with Mo Long.

She didn't give Jiang Ran any time to catch up at all and let the driver drive away.

Jiang Ran was angry and anxious. Only then did she say to young master Ye impatiently, "Young Master Ye, if my sister is to be with that man, my father would have to make me suffer and announce that I'm a fake daughter. By then, how would I be able to stand in the circle?"

Young Master Ye was stunned. "What's going on?"

"Listen to me. In order to compliment Mr. Mo long in the wheelchair, my father planned to lie and say that Jiang Yu is the eldest daughter of the Jiang family. I'm busy breaking them up now, so I lied and said that we've broken up." Jiang Ran's face was bitter. It was very easy for a guy to feel protective.

Following that, under Jiang Ran's deliberate slander, Jiang Yu became a very scheming and malicious woman who deliberately tried to curry favor with the rich and powerful to get her father to give her the title of eldest daughter.

Young Master Ye was also very angry when he heard that. "She actually bullied you like that! You should have told me earlier, and I would have helped you think of a way."

Jiang ran shook her head. "I've already found the fastest way, which is to break the relationship between these two people. Don't look for me for the next few days."

Young Master Ye looked at her with a troubled expression. "What do you want to do? I won't allow it."

"Then can your Ye family defeat the Mo family? Can you make my father change his mind? I can only rely on myself now," Jiang Ran said with some grievance.

Young Master Ye was speechless for a moment.

"Don't worry, I'm just pretending to like Mr. Mo long. I'll be going to school soon. When I keep my identity as the eldest miss, I'll dump him and go to Hu City to study! We can be together again!"

Young Master Ye didn't know how much of Jiang Ran's words he believed.

The news that the Jiang family was going to marry the Mo family had long been spread by Jiang Hai.

He even said that Mr. Mo Long would be there personally. Therefore, Jiang Hai was very pleased with himself these few days and received a lot of flattery and flattery from business people.

The aristocratic families that usually had no relations with each other also all proposed to send gifts.

Wei Juan was busy with the banquet in three days.

She was looking at the guest list in her hand. There were already quite a few wealthy families whom they hadn't been in contact often, making phone calls and hinting that they wanted to attend the banquet.

As Wei Juan wrote the invitation letter, the more she wrote, the more she felt that the Mo family was too powerful.

It would be great if the person who married the Mo family was Jiang Ran.

Presumably, Mr. Mo long should have seen her daughter by now.

While Wei Juan was thinking happily in her heart, a car came to the door.

Jiang Ran actually came back early. Wei Juan hurriedly got up and looked around the door. "Why are you alone? Where's Mr. Mo Long?"

"Don't mention it!" Jiang Ran looked annoyed.

"Daughter, did you give Mr. Mo Long the pastries that you prepared?"

"Before I could take them out, Jiang Yu called young master Ye over. She ran away with Mo Long!" The more she thought about it, the angrier Jiang Ran became!

"What? Jiang Yu actually abandoned you!" Wei Juan threw the invitation letter heavily on the table.

"Daughter, I'm telling you, Young Master Ye is not worthy of you at all. Stop wasting your time on him.. You're going to attend a noble university in the future. Can you not find someone better? Work harder these few days and take the opportunity to get Mo Long back!"
