

Older Man 801

Chapter 801: Offending An Advertiser

Yuan Lai felt that the atmosphere at the table tonight was very strange — Xu Ye would look at Jiang Yu when he was free, while Li Yue would pick on Jiang Yu from time to time.

Yuan Lai actually wanted to speak up for Jiang Yu, but she secretly pulled him back, hinting for him not to say anything more.

Yuan Lai did not understand, but this was after all someone else's matter, so he could only eat in silence.

Until the end of the meal, Yuan Lai didn't open his mouth to liven up the atmosphere.

"Thank you for your hospitality." Jiang Yu smiled and patted Yuan Lai's shoulder. "If there's a chance next time, I'll definitely treat you back."

"No need. This is what I should do as a junior." Yuan Lai smiled, but he didn't reject Jiang Yu's intentions.

Jiang Yu was just about to laugh and tease Yuan Lai a little, "What do you mean junior isn't a junior? Since we're filming together, then we're friends. It's normal for friends to treat each other back."

"Ah... Yes, yes." For some reason, Yuan Lai didn't dare to speak to Li Yue.

"Yuan Lai, you seem to be afraid of me?" Li Yue looked at Yuan Lai with amusement.

But before Yuan Lai could reply, Li Yue received a call from the advertiser.

Sister He pulled Li Yue to the side, she handed the phone to her. "Look at the mess you've caused after being willful! I've already received a scolding just to plead for you! But the advertiser is very angry and thinks that you're acting like a big shot!"

"What's wrong with them? Didn't you explain it clearly?" Li Yue was a little impatient.

"I've said it clearly enough, but what's the use? They didn't listen to my explanation at all. What can I do?!" Sister He was also very angry. She felt that Li Yue's actions were completely irresponsible.

The ringtone of the phone kept ringing, causing Li Yue to become more and more impatient. She directly hung up the phone.

"Are you crazy?!" Sister He exclaimed, "You even dare to hang up on an advertiser?!"

"What's the big deal?" Li Yue rubbed her hair in annoyance. "So what if I hung up..."

Before she could finish her sentence, the advertiser called again.

Sister He was worried that Li Yue would hang up again, so she answered the call before she could.

"Hello? CEO Xiang, it's me, it's me, I'm Li Yue's manager," Sister He said to the person opposite her in a fawning manner. "Li Yue, she's beside me right now. Let her answer the phone. Okay, okay."

Sister He passed the phone to Li Yue. "CEO Xiang wants you to answer the phone personally."

Li Yue took the phone and tried her best to soften her tone. "Hello, I'm Li Yue."

CEO Xiang heard Li Yue's voice on the other end of the phone, his voice immediately turned cold. "Li Yue, do you still think you're the movie queen? You rejected our collaboration for no reason and didn't even want to explain yourself. Instead, you want your own manager to explain? Li Yue, you really know how to act like a big shot."

When Li Yue heard this, she was so angry that she laughed. "What are you saying? I didn't explain myself because I had something to do, so I could only ask my manager. How did it become me acting like a big shot? I, Li Yue, have been in the entertainment industry for so many years. If I really acted like a big shot, would I still be able to get to where I am today?"

CEO Xiang was also furious. "Li Yue! Don't go overboard with your words! Do you still think you're the movie queen?!"

Li Yue was hit where it hurt, her voice couldn't help but raise an octave. "What do you mean? Just because I'm not the movie queen now doesn't mean that I won't be one in the future! It's just that Jiang Yu took advantage of me this time. How do you know that I'm not the movie queen this year?"

CEO Xiang was so angry at Li Yue that he couldn't say a word. Although he was also angry, he felt that Li Yue's words made sense.

As a junior who had just entered the entertainment industry, Jiang Yu was able to win the movie queen award this time. Although her strength played a part, it was mostly due to her luck.

After all, with Li Yue at the front, how could Jiang Yu possibly win the movie queen award so smoothly?

Although CEO Xiang agreed with Li Yue's words, it didn't mean that he could forgive Li Yue for rejecting the collaboration with him.

"Li Yue, regardless of whether you can win the movie queen award back this year or not, even if you have absolute confidence in yourself, this isn't an excuse for you to casually cancel the collaboration with me!"

"How annoying." Li Yue cursed in a low voice and threw the phone to Sister He. "I've already said what I should have said. The rest is not under my control."

"Li Yue!" Sister He shouted.

But Li Yue had already left without looking back.

Sister He had no choice but to pick up the phone and obediently endure CEO Xiang's anger.

Chapter 802: Rainy Day

This was great. They had completely offended CEO Xiang.

But Sister He was angry and didn't know how Li Yue had become like this recently.

When Li Lu had left the entertainment industry, although she was a little angry, she wouldn't have rejected the collaboration with the advertisers for no reason.

But ever since she went home for the New Year, Li Yue had changed. The things she did were also confusing.

Li Yue returned to the dining table and realized that only Xu Ye was left.

She looked around and did not see Jiang Yu and Yuan Lai. Even their manager was gone. "Where are Jiang Yu and Yuan Lai?"

Xu Ye sat in his seat and drank alone. "They went back. Not long after you left to answer the phone, the two of them went back."

"Why didn't you go back with them?" Li Yue was a little curious.

After all, Li Lu had told herself that Xu Ye had tried his best to curry favor with Jiang Yu. So now that Jiang Yu had gone back, even if Xu Ye didn't send her back, he probably wouldn't continue to stay here.

But he actually stayed here, which made Li Yue feel a little strange.

Xu Ye drank a mouthful of wine. "Why should I go back with them? She would rather let a young lad send her back than let me send her back."

Li Yue couldn't help but laugh, "Yuan Lai doesn't have any excessive thoughts towards Jiang Yu. He just treats her as a friend. What about you? Do you treat Jiang Yu as a friend? Whether you really like her or just use her, your intentions aren't pure."

Li Yue saw through her thoughts so Xu Ye wasn't angry. After taking a sip of wine, he said slowly, "This has nothing to do with you. You are so ambitious, yet you are willing to accept the role of the second female lead in this movie. Do you think I don't know what you are planning? Li Yue, at this point in time, do you still hate Jiang Yu or have fantasies about Mo Long?"

Li Yue paused and smiled. "What about you? Don't you also have unrealistic fantasies about Jiang Yu?"

The two of them looked at each other and smiled. Li Yue poured herself a glass of wine and clinked glasses with Xu Ye.

The next day was the start of the new show. The weather was a little cloudy and it looked like it was going to rain soon.

Director Chen wanted to save time, so he arranged for the scenes to be shot in the rain to be shot today. It was the scene where Jiang Yu and Li Yue were acting together and they needed to shoot outside.

Whereas Xu Ye and Yuan Lai's scene was shot indoors, but they needed props.

Compared to Xu Ye and Yuan Lai's scene, Director Chen actually valued Jiang Yu and Li Yue's scene more.

After all, this was the scene of two generations of movie queens. Some people wouldn't be able to see it even if they wanted to!

“Jiang Yu, I’ll have to rely on you to bring me along for the scene later.” Li Yue walked to Jiang Yu’s side and whispered with a smile.

“You’re too kind. You should be the one to take care of me.” Jiang Yu’s tone was emotionless. She spoke to Li Yue as if she was a stranger.

The weather today was also rather cool. It started to rain in a few minutes.

Li Yue’s second female lead was accused of stealing in the mall and was pushed out by the security guards. When Jiang Yu’s female lead saw this scene, she thought of her past self through the second female lead’s shadow. She gave her umbrella to the second female lead to block the rain while she went home in the rain.

All the machines were ready when Director Chen said, “Begin –”

Li Yue instantly fell into character.

“Let go of me! I didn’t steal anything!” Li Yue struggled and even the blue veins on her neck could be seen clearly.

Director Chen was very satisfied with Li Yue’s performance and couldn’t help but nod.

“You’re framing a good person! If I call the police, all of you will be arrested!” Li Yue was still shouting at the top of her lungs and at this moment, it was Jiang Yu’s turn to go on stage.

She held a sky-blue umbrella and stood not far away as she watched the girl being pushed by the security guards. It was as if she could see through her and see herself being looked down upon by others.

She walked over and passed the umbrella in her hand to Li Yue. She smiled and said, “Let’s go. Don’t catch a cold.”

Li Yue held the umbrella and stared blankly at Jiang Yu.

Jiang Yu turned around and walked into the rain. The bean-sized raindrops fell on her body and it was cold and painful.

She was still trying to gather her emotions when she suddenly heard someone behind her cry out in pain, “Aiya, it hurts!”

Jiang Yu turned around and saw that Li Yue had accidentally twisted her ankle when she was walking down the stairs.

A group of people ran over to ask about her injuries. Jiang Yu knew that she couldn’t film for the time being so she found a place to hide from the rain.

Li Yue was surrounded by the crowd. She peeked at Jiang Yu through the gap.

She said perfunctorily to the people who were concerned about her injuries, “It’s alright, don’t worry about me.”

Chapter 803: Deliberately Making Things Difficult

After confirming that Li Yue's injuries were indeed fine, Director Chen continued filming Jiang Yu's scenes.

Because of Li Yue's small accident, Jiang Yu didn't pass the scene, so they could only reshoot.

Li Yue took a towel and gave it to Jiang Yu with an umbrella.

"Wipe it off, or you'll catch a cold." Li Yue handed the towel to Jiang Yu and deliberately spoke very loudly.

"Thank you." Jiang Yu didn't stand on ceremony and took the towel from Li Yue's hand to wipe her sweat.

"No need to stand on ceremony, we're all friends." Li Yue covered her mouth and laughed.

Her laugh was very elegant. When others laughed like this, it seemed like they were mocking her. But when Li Yue did this, it meant that a mature woman had really encountered something happy and that was why she covered her mouth and laughed.

However, Jiang Yu didn't fall for it. "If you put away your smile, I think I'll believe your words."

She stuffed the towel into Li Yue's arms and walked to her original position, preparing to shoot.

Li Yue looked at Jiang Yu's back and felt that she was looked down upon.

She secretly threw a can full of drinks on the ground and went back to rest as if nothing had happened.

That road was the only path Jiang Yu had to take when filming, and she was still wearing high heels today. She would suffer if she stepped on that bottle.

However, this method of making things difficult was not 100% successful.

If Jiang Yu looked down at the road and avoided the can, then she would have wasted her time this time.

Jiang Yu was ready. Seeing this, Director Chen shouted, "Begin --"

Jiang Yu walked in the rain and her gaze was a little dull. Her thoughts seemed to flow away with the rain.

Director Chen was also very satisfied with Jiang Yu's acting. Although she was still young, she was not bad at acting as a mature and knowledgeable woman.

"Not bad, not bad." Director Chen looked at Jiang Yu in the machine and could not help but nod his head in praise.

Li Yue had been sitting at the side resting and waiting for Director Chen to pick out Jiang Yu's faults. In the end, after waiting for so long, she only received this sentence.

She was so angry that her teeth were itching. She hoped that Jiang Yu would quickly step on the can.

She didn't know whether to say that Li Yue was lucky or that Jiang Yu was too engrossed in her acting and didn't even look at her feet.

Jiang Yu was still immersed in her role but just as she was about to raise her head, she stepped on a hard object.

"Ah!" Jiang Yu cried out in shock and fell straight to the ground.

Jiang Yu's entire body fell onto the stairs at the side and the protruding angle of the stairs cut through her skin.

She was even wearing high heels and the heels were already broken.

Li Yue knew that Jiang Yu must have stepped on the can that she had thrown earlier. Hence, in order to pretend to care about her, Li Yue hurriedly got up and ran to Jiang Yu. She didn't even use an umbrella. "Jiang Yu! Are you alright?!"

Jiang Yu didn't believe that Li Yue would be so kind to comfort her, so she was even more convinced that Li Yue had deliberately thrown the can here.

Now that she had seen herself fall, she pretended to be worried in order to create a perfect image in front of others.

Li Yue squatted in front of Jiang Yu and grabbed Jiang Yu's arm, pretending to check her injuries.

Jiang Yu retracted her arm without batting an eyelid and said indifferently, "Thank you for your concern. If you had taken this can away, I would have believed that you were really worried about me."

Li Yue's expression froze and she said, "Jiang Yu, I don't understand what you're saying. I'm really concerned about you. Why aren't you grateful?"

"I don't dare to." Jiang Yu didn't look at Li Yue anymore and forced herself to stand up. She endured the excruciating pain in her ankle and walked step by step towards the resting seat at the side.

"Jiang Yu!" Sister Xia came out from the bathroom. When she found out that Jiang Yu had accidentally fallen on the stairs, she rushed over with a towel. "Jiang Yu, are you alright?"

Jiang Yu shook her head. "I'm fine. I just sprained my ankle."

"Sprained your ankle? And you got caught in the rain. If you don't get rest, you'll catch a cold!" Sister Xia was a little anxious, so she quickly went to her backpack and brought over some extra warmth.

"Quick, put it on first. It'll warm you up." Sister Xia tore open the wrapping paper and stuck it on Jiang Yu's stomach.

She also took off her coat and put it on Jiang Yu's body.

"Rest well tonight, be careful not to catch a cold. If you get sick, not only will it delay your progress, but your body will also feel uncomfortable," Sister Xia nagged, afraid that Jiang Yu would feel uncomfortable.

Jiang Yu comforted her, "It's okay, Sister Xia, my body is very healthy."

Chapter 804: Bugs

Even though that was what she said, Jiang Yu still caught a cold the next day.

Moreover, her ankle was swollen so high that she couldn't walk at all.

Xu Ye and Yuan Lai took the opportunity to visit Jiang Yu before the shooting started. Li Yue also came over and gave her a set of warm clothes and a box of anti-inflammatory medicine.

Jiang Yu watched as she placed the things at the end of her bed and was too lazy to talk to her.

Li Yue wasn't angry and left after putting the things down.

Sister Xia went out to buy breakfast for Jiang Yu and just happened to see Li Yue coming out of Jiang Yu's room.

Li Yue smiled at Sister Xia and went downstairs to shoot.

Sister Xia opened Jiang Yu's room door and placed the breakfast on the bedside table. She asked, "Whose clothes are those at the end of the bed?"

Jiang Yu answered honestly, "Li Yue sent them over. She said that the temperature has dropped in the past few days and told me to keep warm."

"Keep warm?" Sister Xia pinched the coat and was a little surprised. "Even if it's to keep warm, it shouldn't be to the extent of sending a cotton-padded jacket over, right? It's summer, so I can understand if she sent a coat over. What does she mean by sending a cotton-padded jacket over? Does she want you to spend the winter ahead of time?"

Jiang Yu shrugged and said helplessly, "I don't know what she means either."

"She did that on purpose, didn't she?" Sister Xia picked up the cotton-padded jacket and was about to throw it into the bathroom.

However, the moment she picked it up, a huge black worm fell out of the jacket and landed on Jiang Yu's bed. Then, it quickly crawled under the bed.

"Ah!" Sister Xia was shocked, and the jacket in her hands fell to the ground.

"Sister Xia, are you okay?!" Jiang Yu struggled to find Sister Xia, but she couldn't use any strength at her ankles.

"Jiang Yu, don't move! There's a bug under your bed!" Sister Xia shouted, "Wait, I'll call someone to come in later. Don't be afraid."

Actually, Jiang Yu didn't see the bug clearly, but she vaguely saw a big thing running quickly under her bed.

Sister Xia calmed herself down and immediately gave Director Chen a call.

Although Director Chen didn't know why sister Xia and Jiang Yu were afraid of a small bug, he could tell from sister Xia's tone that she was indeed very anxious, so without saying anything, Director Chen brought people upstairs.

Sister Xia opened the door for Director Chen, pointed at the bed and said, "It's right there! It's a very big bug! Not to mention a bug, that size, it's not an exaggeration to say that it's a Rat!"

Director Chen felt that Sister Xia was exaggerating. "Sister Xia, aren't you exaggerating a little too much?"

"Look for yourself!" Sister Xia was so anxious that she was about to cry. "Hurry up, Jiang Yu is still on the bed!"

Director Chen did not think that the bug under the bed was that scary. He took the flashlight and half-knelt on the ground, looking at the things under the bed.

Director Chen looked carefully a few times, but he did not see anything under the bed. So he said with some confusion, "There's nothing here..."

Before he could finish speaking, he saw a huge black beetle that was less than two centimeters away from his forehead, swaying its antennae.

"Aiyo!" Director Chen was shocked, and the flashlight in his hand fell to the ground.

This size, this was obviously a poisonous hook beetle!

Sister Xia was shocked by Director Chen, and her voice trembled as she said, "Director Chen, how is it?"

Director Chen wiped the cold sweat off his forehead and asked the people who had come with him to carry Jiang Yu to a new room.

At the same time, he called the hotel reception to explain the matter and asked them to solve it as soon as possible.

Seeing this, sister Xia knew that this bug was definitely not as simple as an ordinary bug. She asked, "Director Chen, what exactly is going on?"

Director Chen was also puzzled. "This is a poisonous hook beetle. Its size is comparable to a baby mouse, and its toxicity is strong. It's even comparable to the most poisonous cobra. But this is a tropical bug. How could it appear here?"

"Tropical bug?" Sister Xia was stunned. "This bug was sent by Li Yue?"

"Li Yue? Sister Xia, don't joke around." Director Chen thought Sister Xia was joking. "You and Jiang Yu were already so scared when they saw this bug. Li Yue is alone. Would she dare to touch this bug?"

"But this bug was caught in the cotton-padded jacket that Li Yue sent!" Sister Xia pointed at the cotton-padded jacket on the ground. "This is it!"

Director Chen looked down. "Sister Xia, are you kidding me? Why would someone send a cotton-padded jacket over in this summer? Li Yue is not a fool, why would she send you a cotton-padded jacket?"

He laughed loudly and brought Sister Xia out of the room.

Chapter 805: Don't Frame Me

Sister Xia could tell from Director Chen's attitude that he didn't believe what she said. She felt that Li Yue would never do such a thing.

Since that was the case, she didn't need to say anything more. After following Director Chen out of the room, she said a few simple words and went to the new room to take care of Jiang Yu.

"How is it? You're not frightened, were you?" Sister Xia walked into the room and saw Jiang Yu half leaning against the headboard. She was still flipping through the script in her hand.

Jiang Yu put the script aside. "I'm fine. It's not a big deal. You were the one who took the clothes and the bug fell out. You were the one who was most scared."

"It's not small." Sister Xia still had lingering fear, "I think you've heard Director Chen say that it's a poisonous hook beetle. Its poison is comparable to the most poisonous cobra. But it's a tropical insect. Why would it appear here? I really can't figure it out no matter how I think about it."

"What exactly happened is already very clear," Jiang Yu said. "There's a beetle in the cotton-padded jacket that Li Yue sent over. It wants to kill me."

"I know." Sister Xia sighed. "But I'm afraid that no one will believe that she's the one who did it. I just told Director Chen, but he thinks that Li Yue doesn't have the guts to touch that bug."

This was indeed the first thought that most people had when they found out about this matter.

Such a big bug, Jiang Yu and Sister Xia had yet to deal with it. How could Li Yue, who was alone, dare to put such a big bug into her cotton-padded clothes?

"That's true." Jiang Yu leaned against the headboard. "No matter who hears about this, they won't think that Li Yue did it."

"And even if we call her over to confront her, she won't admit it," Sister Xia said.

"Indeed." Jiang Yu sighed. She didn't know how to find evidence to prove that Li Yue did it.

But Li Yue didn't seem to know about this. At night, she knocked on Jiang Yu's door. "Jiang Yu, are you resting?"

Sister Xia was helping Jiang Yu tidy up when she heard Li Yue knocking on the door. She was a little confused.

"Why is she here?" Sister Xia asked Jiang Yu softly. "Did she come to see if anything happened to you?"

"I don't know." Jiang Yu shook her head. "But since she's here, she must be a guest. Let her in first."

"Okay." Sister Xia opened the door and saw Li Yue dressed up. She was wearing a pair of black gloves as she stood at the door.

Sister Xia was a little speechless by her outfit but she did not comment on it. Instead, she opened a path for her. "Come in."

Li Yue did not say "Thank you" and just walked in.

She walked straight to Jiang Yu's side and bent down to look at her expression.

However, Jiang Yu's expression was very calm and there was no difference from usual. She couldn't help but feel puzzled. "Jiang Yu, are you alright? I heard from Director Chen that there's a very big bug in your room!"

"It's nothing serious. Although the bug is poisonous, it's very scary." Jiang Yu looked straight into Li Yue's eyes, trying to get some clues from it.

However, Li Yue felt a little guilty and didn't dare to look straight into Jiang Yu's eyes. Instead, she turned her head away and said awkwardly, "Since you're alright, that's good. I'll go back first."

"Don't be too anxious. Sit down for a while before you leave." Jiang Yu patted the seat beside her, "No matter what, you're the one who sent me the cotton-padded jacket. It can be considered a gift at any rate. If I let you go just like that and didn't ask you to stay, it would seem that I'm being unreasonable."

"What cotton-padded jacket?" Li Yue didn't admit that she was the one who sent the cotton-padded jacket. "I've never given you something like this before, right?"

"Why not? That bug fell out from the cotton-padded jacket you gave her," Sister Xia said coldly.

"Really? Why don't I remember that I gave you a cotton-padded jacket?" Li Yue smiled awkwardly and began to act as if she had lost her memory. "Jiang Yu, you must have remembered wrongly. I heard that you were injured and many people came to see you. They also gave you gifts. Did you remember me and them wrongly?"

"Don't pretend to be ignorant." Jiang Yu sneered. "Someone gave me a cotton-padded jacket in the middle of the summer. How could I not remember who it was?"

"But you can't frame me. And even if that cotton-padded jacket was really given by me, that bug couldn't have been put in by me, right?" Li Yue said matter-of-factly, it was as if she really didn't do it herself.

But Jiang Yu knew that Li Yue was the one who put that bug in there. And someone must have helped her. Otherwise, she wouldn't have had the chance to obtain such a tropical insect.

Chapter 806: Borrow Computer

"Who knows if it was you?" Jiang Yu sneered. "If there's nothing else, you can go back. I'm a little tired and I need to rest."

"Got it. Rest well. I'll come and visit you again when I'm free." Li Yue pretended to be polite and said a few words before she turned around and left.

After Li Yue left, Sister Xia closed the door. "Jiang Yu, with her current attitude, even if she gritted her teeth, she wouldn't admit that it was her who did it."

"I know," Jiang Yu said. "If she can say such a lie in front of me without any shame, you can imagine how she would look like in front of others."

"But we can't let this matter go just like that," Sister Xia said. "If this matter was just a prank, it would be over with a smile. But what she did this time is to take your life!"

Jiang Yu's eyes turned cold. She thought for a moment and said to Sister Xia, "Sister Xia, can you help me get a computer now?"

"It's a little difficult, but my brother's house is nearby. He has a computer at home. I can help you ask," said Sister Xia.

"Then I'll have to trouble you, Sister Xia," said Jiang Yu.

She still had some impression of Sister Xia's brother. His name was Chang Kai. She had met him through Sister Xia's introduction when she was investigating Xiao Xia's car accident.

Sister Xia gave Chang Kai a call and briefly explained the situation before hanging up.

She turned to Jiang Yu and said, "He's at home alone and hasn't slept yet. We can borrow his computer for a while."

"That's great." Jiang Yu was a little excited and hurriedly got out of bed to put on her clothes.

Sister Xia stopped her. "I told him about your foot injury. He said to bring the computer over directly."

"Would that be troublesome?" Jiang Yu was a little worried.

Sister Xia shook her head. "It's fine. It's just a laptop anyway. It won't be troublesome."

"That's good." Jiang Yu was finally relieved.

Fifteen minutes later, Chang Kai held his laptop and knocked on Jiang Yu's door.

Sister Xia hurriedly opened the door and let Chang Kai in.

"No one saw you on the way here, right?" Sister Xia asked.

Chang Kai shook his head. "No, there weren't many people on the way here. It was very quiet."

However, he was still a little curious, he asked, "But I'm a little curious. Why did you tell me to be careful on the way here and not to be seen by others? Even if I did see you, it wouldn't be a big deal, right? I'm just here to deliver the computer. I didn't do anything illegal."

"Don't ask a child about adult matters." Sister Xia was very anxious now. In her anxiety, she pulled out her usual perfunctory trick to deal with Chang Kai.

Chang Kai: "... forget it. You should save your words for someone else in the future."

He knew that Jiang Yu wanted to borrow the computer, so he directly handed the computer over to Jiang Yu.

“Is it something important? Otherwise, you wouldn’t have called me so late to send the computer over.” Chang Kai scratched his head.

He was about to go to sleep when he suddenly received a call from Sister Xia. From her tone, it sounded like she was in a hurry. Chang Kai didn’t ask any further and got up to put on his clothes. Then, he came over with the laptop.

Chang Kai was a police officer. If Li Yue really had the intention to harm others and had taken action, then Chang Kai had the authority to arrest her.

But now, everything was still unknown. No one knew what the outcome would be. Hence, Sister Xia was also hesitating whether she should tell Chang Kai about this matter.

But Jiang Yu didn’t feel that there was anything to hide. She directly told him about this matter. “Li Yue wants to harm me.”

“What?” Chang Kai was startled. “Li Yue... is that the movie queen from before, Li Yue?”

“It’s her.” Jiang Yu turned on the computer and asked Chang Kai to unlock the computer. She skillfully entered a string of code into the browser and then turned on her phone. Through a series of operations, she found the IP address of Li Yue’s social media account.

Then, she turned on her phone’s bluetooth and connected it to the computer.

As for this string of code, it was a small software that Jiang Yu had tried to develop a long time ago. It was used to hack into other people’s social media.

However, Jiang Yu had never used it before and she didn’t know if it would work. Today was the first time she opened it to use it, but it seemed that the effect was pretty good.

She quickly hacked into Li Yue’s social account and looked through her chat records.

The previous few people’s chat records were all normal. Only the person with the name “Ah Xiang” and Li Yue’s chat records were very strange.

Chapter 807: Chat History

Li Yue and Ah Xiang’s chat history should have been deleted, but it wasn’t completely deleted. From the few sentences left behind, Jiang Yu could vaguely make out something.

Ah Xiang: “I’ve already got it. When will you come and look for me?”

Li Yue: “Can you show me what it looks like first?”

Ah Xiang: “Of course.”

There should be pictures or videos below because Li Yue’s next words were: “Alright, then this is it. Send me the location and I’ll go look for you now.”

But unfortunately, Li Yue had deleted the records of that area, so Jiang Yu didn’t know what it was.

Although Jiang Yu could restore the items that had disappeared, it was a waste of time. Moreover, through these words, she knew that the person called “Ah Xiang” was the person who had given the poisonous hook beetle to Li Yue.

Since things had come to this, there was no need to look at the following chat logs.

Jiang Yu imported these few sentences and the account called “Ah Xiang” into her phone and then deleted all traces of her search in the browser. After deleting everything and making sure that there were no traces left, Jiang Yu turned off the computer and returned it to Chang Kai.

Sister Xia and Chang Kai didn’t know what Jiang Yu had done with the computer, but they tactfully didn’t ask.

“If there’s nothing else, I’ll be leaving first.” Chang Kai took the computer and prepared to leave.

“Wait a moment.” Jiang Yu stopped Chang Kai and opened her phone to show him Ah Xiang’s account, “Can you help me investigate this person? I suspect that he is the person who provided Li Yue with the information, so please help me investigate.”

Chang Kai took out his phone to take a few detailed photos and said, “Alright, leave this matter to me.”

“Thank you then.” Jiang Yu thanked him sincerely.

“You’re welcome.” Chang Kai waved his hand and left with his computer.

After Chang Kai left, Sister Xia asked Jiang Yu, “Jiang Yu, what did you use his computer to check just now? Who is that ‘Ah Xiang’? Is he the person you found?”

Jiang Yu said, “Nothing much. I just checked who Li Yue has been talking to recently. As for Ah Xiang, I found him. He’s the person who has been trading with Li Yue recently.”

“It’s... the poisonous hook beetle?” Sister Xia was a little scared.

Jiang Yu nodded, “Yes, it’s that thing. Li Yue might have been worried that this matter would be exposed, so she deleted her chat history with Ah Xiang. But it wasn’t completely deleted, so she still left a few sentences behind. From those few sentences, I can basically determine the relationship between Ah Xiang and Li Yue.”

“You just found this out?” Sister Xia asked.

Jiang Yu nodded and said, “Yes.”

“Then why didn’t you show those words to Chang Kai? If he had seen it, he could have just arrested Li Yue directly, right?” Sister Xia didn’t understand.

Jiang Yu explained, “But these few sentences can not be used as evidence. When the time comes, as long as Li Yue gritted her teeth and refused to admit it, these few sentences will not be considered evidence. Moreover, I secretly read Li Yue’s chat records. It’s not right. If it’s serious, it’s against the law. So we can’t say this out loud. We can only ask Chang Kai to help investigate this person called ‘Ah Xiang’.”

“I see.” Sister Xia suddenly understood.

“So now we only need to wait for Chang Kai’s result. For the rest of the time, let’s see how Li Yue jumps around first.” Jiang Yu said calmly.

“However, with your abilities, you should be able to find that ‘Ah Xiang’, right? Why would you hand this matter over to Chang Kai?” Sister Xia had just heaved a sigh of relief when there was another thing that she could not understand.

Jiang Yu shrugged, she said indifferently, “I still have to film, so I don’t have much time to investigate. Moreover, Chang Kai’s identity is a police officer. The things that he finds out will be more convincing than what I find out. If that’s the case, then I’m not afraid that Li Yue will be thick-skinned and refuse to admit it.”

“I see.” Sister Xia nodded.

Li Yue, who had been secretly checked on the chat records, was not aware of this. She was even glad that she had deleted the chat records with Ah Xiang in advance. If that was the case, even if the truth was exposed, no one would be able to trace it back to her.

“Jiang Yu ah, Jiang Yu, you’re lucky this time. Just wait and see. You won’t be so lucky next time.” Li Yue looked at the doll on the bedside table that was filled with needles, there was a note with the words “Jiang Yu” on it.

Chapter 808: Food Chain

Jiang Yu’s foot injury had been recovering for two or three days and was gradually recovering. She could now barely walk.

In order not to delay the filming process, Jiang Yu took the initiative to request Director Chen to shoot the scenes where she did not have much action.

Director Chen was worried about Jiang Yu’s foot, but the latter seemed to be fine, he smiled and said, “Director Chen, I know how much you value this show. My foot injury is almost healed, and I can barely walk. So don’t worry about my foot. Hurry up and start filming.”

Seeing how insistent Jiang Yu was, Director Chen couldn’t say anything, so he had no choice but to agree to Jiang Yu’s request.

With Sister Xia’s support, Jiang Yu came to the set and sat down in her seat, ready to continue filming.

Yuan Lai was still reading the script when he saw Jiang Yu. He walked over and asked, “Jiang Yu, is your leg really okay?”

Jiang Yu smiled and said, “It’s really fine. I’m not some delicate princess. I just sprained my ankle. When the swelling goes down, I’ll be able to walk normally.”

“It’s good that you’re fine. I was worried about your foot,” Yuan Lai heaved a sigh of relief and said.

“I’m fine. Don’t worry about me.” Jiang Yu smiled and patted Yuan Lai’s shoulder. “Today is your scene with me. You must perform well.”

Yuan Lai was full of confidence. "Jiang Yu, don't worry! You and I are such close friends. Don't tell me I'm afraid of acting with you?"

"Then you better not be afraid." Jiang Yu smiled and teased.

Yuan Lai returned to his seat to read the script while Sister Xia walked to Jiang Yu's side with her phone, she said in a low voice, "Chang Kai called me. He said he found some clues about that 'Ah Xiang'."

"Got it." Jiang Yu helped Sister Xia stand up and followed her to a relatively secluded corner.

She took the phone from Sister Xia's hand and asked, "Is it Chang Kai?"

"Yes, it's me," Chang Kai answered.

Jiang Yu said, "Please tell me the truth about that person."

Chang Kai said, "That person called 'Ah Xiang' has a criminal record. He spent a total of twenty years in prison for theft, illegal immigration, and attempted robbery. He was recently released after serving his sentence. No one knows where he went. Moreover, he doesn't have an identity card that can prove his identity. No one knows his name. Even those who know him only know the name 'Ah Xiang'."

"It seems that his strength isn't weak," Jiang Yu muttered to herself.

"Besides that, there's another thing. It seems that Ah Xiang has never acted alone. Someone behind him should be helping him. Who knows if it's his boss or his 'customer,'" Chang Kai added.

"It seems like there's... a food chain behind Ah Xiang?" Jiang Yu seemed to be deep in thought.

"It should be." Chang Kai also thought so. "Otherwise, no one can explain why there was suddenly no news of Ah Xiang after he was released from prison. No one knows where he is."

"Alright, I understand. Thank you, Officer Chang." Jiang Yu thanked her politely and hung up the phone.

"How is it? What did Chang Kai say?" Sister Xia was very concerned about this matter.

"There are too many people here. Wait for me to tell you in detail tonight." Jiang Yu was worried that someone was watching her. "This matter is not as simple as it looks."

When Sister Xia heard this, her heart thumped as if a huge stone had smashed down on her.

Jiang Yu returned to the set and started filming today's scene with Yuan Lai.

Li Yue sat at the side and watched as the corners of her mouth curled up into a cold smile.

Jiang Yu didn't notice Li Yue's gaze at the beginning. It was only when the scene ended that she realized that Li Yue had been looking at her. The expression on her face was gloomy and scary.

"What are you looking at?" Jiang Yu slowly walked towards Li Yue and looked at her in amusement. "Are you looking to see if I've been bitten by a bug?"

"What are you talking about?" Li Yue covered her mouth and laughed. "You look like you've been bitten."

“But from your expression, I can tell that you really want me to be bitten, right?” Jiang Yu smiled and asked.

Li Yue paused and her tone turned cold. “Jiang Yu, what do you mean by that? A few days ago, you said that I was the one who put that bug in your room and now you’re framing me. Why? Is it fun to go against me?”

“It’s not very fun.” Jiang Yu straightened up and stared straight at Li Yue. “It’s because I’m telling the truth, so it’s not fun.”

Chapter 809: Let Her Go

“Jiang Yu, don’t talk to yourself here.” Li Yue felt a little guilty from Jiang Yu’s gaze and didn’t dare to look her in the eye.

“You know very well whether I’m talking to myself or not.” Jiang Yu moved closer to Li Yue and spoke in such a low voice that only the two of them could hear her.

However, this was the first time Li Yue had done such a thing. Even though she told herself not to panic and to be ruthless, she couldn’t help but break out in a cold sweat from being stared at by Jiang Yu.

“Don’t, don’t say something that I don’t understand.” Li Yue hurriedly pushed Jiang Yu away, she stammered, “You will, will delay my emotions while filming. If I don’t perform well in the future, I will blame you.”

“Then I won’t disturb you anymore.” Jiang Yu’s expression was very relaxed, as though nothing had happened just now.

Li Yue also hurriedly ran away.

Sister Xia went to the side and brought over a bottle of mineral water, handing it to Jiang Yu.

She looked at Li Yue’s staggering figure and found it a little funny. “Jiang Yu, what’s there to talk about with Li Yue? It’s best not to have any interactions with her in the future. She’s not a good person.”

Jiang Yu opened the bottle of mineral water and took a sip, “She’s not a good person indeed. However, the entertainment industry has a good evaluation of her, so no one thinks that Li Yue is someone that can’t be gotten along with. As for her fans, weren’t they also deceived by her?”

“That’s right, but no one stepped forward to identify her,” Sister Xia said, “I also heard that the reason why Li Yue accepted this movie was to act with you and take the opportunity to regain her position as the movie queen.”

“Take back her position as the movie queen?” Jiang Yu muttered to herself. “Then let’s see if she has the ability to do so.”

Sister Xia brought Jiang Yu back to the hotel room. As she helped her pack up her things, she asked, “Jiang Yu, how do you plan to teach Li Yue a lesson?”

“Teach Li Yue a lesson for what?” Jiang Yu didn’t understand.

“Do you plan to let her off just like that?” Sister Xia paused. “She wants to harm you. Aren’t you angry?”

“Of course I’m angry,” Jiang Yu said. “But there’s no clear evidence to point to. Even if I really want to teach her a lesson, there’s no reason for it.”

“That’s true...” Sister Xia sighed. She remembered Chang Kai’s call to Jiang Yu today, so she asked, “By the way, what did Chang Kai call you about today? Did he find out about Ah Xiang?”

Jiang Yu told Sister Xia everything that Chang Kai told her.

After Sister Xia heard it, she was also shocked. “What? Does this mean that there is a ‘food chain’ behind Ah Xiang? Then his background must not be simple. After all, Li Yue is the eldest daughter of the Li family. How could she be related to such a person?”

“I’m not sure about that either. But they are all a bunch of desperadoes. As long as there is money, they will do anything,” Jiang Yu said.

“Then Li Yue...” Sister Xia did not finish her sentence, but Jiang Yu knew what she meant.

Sister Xia was guessing how many other people Li Yue was related to besides Ah Xiang.

Getting involved with such an unknown person was not a good thing in the end.

Sister Xia was a little worried about Jiang Yu, “Jiang Yu, it’s best not to get too close to Li Yue in the future. No matter if you are friends or enemies with her, it’s not good for you to get too close to her. For this matter, just leave it to Chang Kai to investigate. You can focus on filming. In the future, I definitely won’t help you take on any scenes with Li Yue.”

“Hmm... that’s fine too. I’ll let her off for now,” Jiang Yu said, “But it’s hard to say if I’ll be able to work with her in the future. I want to avoid her, but she’ll be like the god of plague.”

“If you can avoid her, then do so.” Sister Xia sighed. “I don’t know what’s wrong with these two sisters of the Li family recently. Their brains aren’t working properly.”

Jiang Yu smiled but didn’t say anything.

Because she had her own plans.

If Chang Kai was the only one to investigate Ah Xiang’s matter, there would definitely be something that he couldn’t find out. She would take advantage of her free time to investigate and then think of a way to pass all this information to Chang Kai. This way, the things that came out of Chang Kai’s hands would be the standard evidence.

When the time came, she would throw all these things in front of Li Yue. Even if she had a hundred mouths, she wouldn’t be able to explain it clearly.

She still wanted to rely on this drama to get back the movie queen? She had to think of a way to protect her reputation first.

Chapter 810: The Crying Sound Outside The Door

After Jiang Yu finished her dinner and took an anti-inflammatory pill, she obediently lay down to rest. Sister Xia helped her to take care of everything before she left in peace and returned to her room to rest.

After lying down for a short while, Jiang Yu felt her head become heavy and very sleepy. She looked at the time and saw that it was already 10:30 pm. It was also time for her to sleep, so she closed her eyes and went to sleep.

After an unknown amount of time, Jiang Yu woke up from her sleep in a daze. She felt that her nose was very stuffy and she couldn't breathe properly.

"I have a cold," Jiang Yu muttered to herself. She climbed out of bed and prepared to go to the medical kit that Sister Xia had prepared for her.

Just as she took out a box of cold medicine, she heard a slight sound coming from the door.

Jiang Yu didn't take it to heart. She just thought that someone was passing by her room. She poured herself a glass of water and was about to take her medicine when she heard the sound of crying from outside.

At first, it was only a soft sob, but it gradually turned into a heart-wrenching cry. It was especially desolate and terrifying in the dark corridor.

The people who lived on the same floor as Jiang Yu were woken up by the sound. They opened the door one after another, wanting to see who was crying in the corridor.

Jiang Yu originally did not intend to care, but someone knocked on her door and asked, "Jiang Yu, are you asleep?"

From the sound, it was Yuan Lai.

Jiang Yu got out of bed and opened the door. She asked, "What's wrong?"

Yuan Lai handed something to her. "I saw this thing at your door. It was crying all the time. It was too noisy, but I couldn't find the switch."

Jiang Yu took the object and looked at it. It was an ordinary stuffed duck. But it was this ordinary stuffed duck that was crying out shrilly.

The other staff members also opened the door and surrounded it, looking at the stuffed duck.

"Who is this prank at night? Putting this object at the door of someone else's room, isn't it deliberately preventing others from having a good rest?"

"I think this is already beyond the scope of a prank, isn't it? If it's really a prank, at most, it would only play a few children's songs. Who would play such a wailing sound in the middle of the night? This is just a deliberate attempt to scare people, right?"

Everyone had their own guesses, but no one knew what the truth was.

Jiang Yu flipped the duck doll over and saw a power switch under her clothes. She turned off the power and the cries from the duck doll stopped.

“Sorry for disturbing everyone’s rest,” Jiang Yu said apologetically. “Go back and rest. You still have work tomorrow.”

“We don’t have anything to do. It’s mainly you.” Yuan Lai was very worried about Jiang Yu because the duck doll had appeared out of thin air at the door of Jiang Yu’s room.

He said, “This duck is so scary, and it even appeared at the door of your room. We were all worried that something would happen to you.”

“I’m fine. It’s just a duck doll. It can’t scare me.” Jiang Yu smiled and shook the duck in her hand.

“I’ll take this doll back and put it away first. No matter who it is, whether it’s a prank in the middle of the night or a sociopath trying to scare people, I’ll take this doll as a gift from that person and accept it first.”

“Don’t do that. It’s obviously a scary thing. Jiang Yu, how do you dare to keep it?” Yuan Lai looked worried.

“But this duck is quite cute,” Jiang Yu said with a smile.

“But...” Yuan Lai wanted to say something else, but seeing Jiang Yu’s determined eyes, he didn’t want to say anything else, so he had to remind Jiang Yu to look for him at night.

“I understand. Don’t worry.” Jiang Yu patted Yuan Lai’s shoulder comfortingly, “Alright, go back and rest. Everyone, go back and rest. Don’t delay the filming tomorrow because of me.”

Since Jiang Yu had said so, the rest had no reason to stay. They all went back to their rooms to rest.

Jiang Yu closed the door and placed the stuffed duck on her bedside table.

Although no one knew who had placed the duck at the door of Jiang Yu’s room, Jiang Yu already had a candidate in mind — Li Yue.

Perhaps she didn’t put it there herself and had paid someone to do it, but this matter was definitely related to Li Yue.

Jiang Yu closed her eyes, but she couldn’t fall asleep no matter how hard she tried. She tossed and turned until dawn.

Although Li Yue had shown from the start that she didn’t like her attitude, but it wasn’t to the extent of harming her own life, was it?