

Older Man 821

Chapter 821: Mo Long's Fury

There was an electrical noise in the middle. Jiang Yu did not hear the content of their conversation clearly. It was likely that Ah Xiang had walked into a place with extremely poor reception.

Fortunately, this situation only lasted for about ten seconds before the conversation returned to normal.

Ah Xiang: "Although I don't know what she wants this thing for, but she paid me. I'm just a person who takes money to do things. As long as she is willing to give me money and the amount is large enough, I can risk my life. ... Aiyo, I don't need anything in this life. I just need money, hahaha!"

Jiang Yu could more or less guess the content of the call. The content was Li Yue's request for Ah Xiang to bring the poisonous hook beetle for her.

However, Jiang Yu still didn't understand one thing. As the eldest daughter of the Li family, Li Yue was recognized as the movie queen in the entertainment industry. Even though she had won the movie queen award last year, the entertainment industry and the public, most people were more optimistic about Li Yue. With such a high status and popularity, how did she get involved with a person like Ah Xiang?

Jiang Yu was still deep in thought when she suddenly heard someone behind her ask, "What are you doing?"

Jiang Yu jumped in fright. She turned around and saw Mo Long looking at her lovingly.

She was worried that Mo Long would see what she was searching for, so she wanted to block the computer. Fortunately, the computer had turned black because it had been on standby for a long time, so Mo Long did not see the content on it. This made Jiang Yu sigh in relief.

Mo Long saw that Jiang Yu did not speak, so he asked again, "What's wrong?"

Jiang Yu did not intend to say anything because she was afraid that Mo Long would worry about her. But judging from his tone now, he must have sensed that something was wrong with her. Even if she did not say anything, he would be able to find out.

Therefore, Jiang Yu told him everything. Then, Mo Long's face turned black at a speed visible to the naked eye.

In the end, Jiang Yu could even see the veins on Mo Long's forehead.

He tugged at his tie impatiently. "Li Yue has been really bold recently. She's relying on the fact that the Li family and the Mo family are family friends. How can she be so unscrupulous now?"

"Don't be anxious." Jiang Yu quickly comforted Mo Long. "There's still no evidence for this matter. It can't be said that Li Yue is the one who did it."

"Things have already developed to this point. Who else could it be but her?!" Mo Long suppressed his anger, afraid that if he couldn't control himself, he would scare Jiang Yu.

Jiang Yu held Mo Long's hand, she looked up at him. "I told you because I didn't want to hide anything from you. But don't be angry because of this. Sister Xia and I have already told her police brother about this. The police station has also sent a special team to investigate this matter. So don't worry about it, okay?"

Mo Long suppressed his breathing and said in a low voice, "Okay, I understand."

Jiang Yu nodded in relief. "Just don't be angry. Go take a shower first. I'll cook a bowl of noodles for you."

"Okay." Mo Long went to the bathroom and didn't say anything else.

Jiang Yu took the opportunity to turn off the computer and went to the kitchen to cook a bowl of noodles for Mo Long.

Although she didn't know if Mo Long had really calmed down, since he said he wouldn't be angry, he shouldn't be angry.

She brought the cooked noodles to Mo Long's bedroom and saw him standing in front of the window in his home clothes, thinking about something

"Come and eat. The noodles are ready." Jiang Yu put the noodles on the coffee table. "What are you thinking about standing in front of the window?"

Mo Long turned around and said with a smile, "Nothing. I just took a shower and was just enjoying the breeze."

Jiang Yu didn't suspect him and urged Mo Long to eat the noodles quickly.

But in fact, after Mo Long took a shower, he called Teng Yi and asked him to find out the identity of Sister Xia's police brother and the situation of the so-called "Exclusive team."

But Mo Long didn't tell Jiang Yu about these things.

Because he had just promised Jiang Yu that he wouldn't be angry over this matter. If he turned around and told her that he was going to investigate this matter, it would be a breach of his promise.

So Mo Long wouldn't tell her about this matter.

But if she knew about this matter, he would also openly admit it.

After Mo Long finished eating his noodles, Jiang Yu went to the kitchen to clean up. Meanwhile, elder Mo returned with Ball Ball.

Seeing that Jiang Yu was busy in the kitchen, elder Mo walked into the kitchen and asked, "Jiang Yu, is the screening ceremony over?"

"Yes, it's over." Jiang Yu turned around and smiled sweetly at Elder Mo...

Chapter 822: Special Squad

“It should be pretty smooth, right?” Elder Mo saw the happy expression on Jiang Yu’s face and guessed that today’s screening ceremony went very smoothly.

Jiang Yu thought about it and confirmed that today’s ceremony was indeed rather smooth. If it wasn’t for Li Yue, it might have gone even smoother.

Hence, she smiled and said, “Yes, it went very smoothly.”

“It’s good that it went smoothly. I heard that lass from the Li family was there too. I was afraid that something would happen to her if you ran into her,” elder Mo said as he carried the ball upstairs.

Jiang Yu’s hand froze and she didn’t continue speaking.

Li Yue... how did things turn out like this?

In the next few days, Jiang Yu stayed at school to revise for the final exams in half a month’s time.

However, while she was studying, Jiang Yu received a call from Chang Kai. “Miss Jiang Yu, we have something to discuss with you.”

Jiang Yu was surprised. “You guys?”

Chang Kai replied, “Yes, it’s me and my colleagues.”

Jiang Yu guessed that it should be the “Special Squad”, so she agreed without hesitation.

“Alright, wait for me for a moment. I’ll go after changing my clothes.”

After Jiang Yu changed her clothes, she went to the location that Chang Kai had sent her. In the cafe, Chang Kai and his colleagues in casual clothes had already sat down.

Jiang Yu didn’t wear any flamboyant clothes. Instead, she deliberately chose a set of clothes that she had bought a long time ago. It was so washed that it was a little pale.

“Miss Jiang Yu, here.” Chang Kai saw Jiang Yu walk in and warmly invited her to sit here.

Jiang Yu walked over quickly and politely greeted her before asking, “How is it?”

Chang Kai said, “It’s like this. My colleagues still want to know more about this matter. But I’m not the person involved, so I can only give you a call and ask you to come over and explain the details.”

“Alright.” Jiang Yu nodded. “If there’s anything I can help with, please feel free to ask.”

One of the men with bronze skin and a buzz cut nodded at Jiang Yu. “Hello, Miss Jiang Yu. Chang Kai should have already told you about our ‘Special Squad. I’m the team leader this time. My name is Zheng Xiao.”

“Hello, Captain Zheng.” Jiang Yu greeted politely.

Zheng Xiao took out a pen and a notebook, intending to record down all the answers he would hear in a while.

“Miss Jiang Yu, you said that someone wanted to release the poisonous hook beetles to harm you. Do you know who that person is?”

Jiang Yu paused for a moment, not knowing how to answer.

Although she already had the evidence, she had yet to think of a way to hand it over to Chang Kai, so she had no way to confirm Li Yue's identity.

Hence, Jiang Yu could only hesitate for a moment before she slowly said a name, "Li Yue."

Zheng Xiao recorded the answer and asked, "Then, do you know the motive behind Li Yue's intention to harm you?"

Jiang Yu replied, "We don't have a good relationship. Perhaps she doesn't like me and that's why she wants to harm me."

Zheng Xiao continued to ask, "What is the reason that causes your relationship to be bad? Please answer this truthfully, because this has to do with whether we are investigating our relationship or money."

Jiang Yu gave a helpless and bitter smile. "I think it's both. She feels like the man she likes has been snatched away, but she also feel like the award that belonged to her has been snatched away."

Zheng Xiao paused and sighed in his heart. The entertainment industry was really chaotic.

"Alright. Then, how much do you know about Ah Xiang?"

Jiang Yu replied, "I don't know Ah Xiang." It was just that when he browsed the website a long, long time ago, I remembered that there was a person who would always post a 'accept mission' post. The poster was called 'Ah Xiang'. I thought that since he had posted such a post, as long as he was paid, he would do anything. That was why I asked Chang Kai to investigate this Ah Xiang."

"So that's how it is." Zheng Xiao recorded everything that Jiang Yu said and then closed the notebook, he said, "Miss Jiang Yu, you've worked hard today. Thank you for your cooperation. This has played a huge role in our next investigation."

"You're welcome." Jiang Yu smiled politely. After hesitating for a while, she asked the question, "If we really find evidence to prove that Li Yue did it, what will happen to her?"

"Her." Zheng Xiao thought for a while and then looked down at Jiang Yu. He smiled and said, "She will definitely be punished by the law. Even if she is the eldest daughter of the Li family, she is no exception."

Jiang Yu paused and said, "Alright, thank you."

Zheng Xiao waved his hand. "You're welcome."

Chapter 823: Ah Xiang's daughter

Jiang Yu went back to school and turned on her computer. She sorted out all the clues she had found before and posted them on a small website with an unfamiliar account.

Yuan Zhen was the only one left in the dormitory. She looked at Jiang Yu's computer and could not help but ask curiously, "Jiang Yu, what are you doing?"

Jiang Yu rubbed the space between her eyebrows and explained, "Nothing much. I'm just doing some research."

"Oh?" Yuan Zhen's interest was piqued. She quickly got off the bed and walked to Jiang Yu's side.

The computer was not switched off. It was still displaying the page from before. Jiang Yu leaned back on the chair, as though she did not want to look at the computer anymore.

Yuan Zhen looked at it curiously for a while before asking tentatively, "Can I look it up?"

Jiang Yu nodded. "Go ahead."

Yuan Zhen continued to look through the page. In the end, he suddenly laughed when he saw something, he said, "What kind of name is this? Why would someone give their child a name like 'Di Di'? It sounds like 'Little Brother'."

Jiang Yu glanced at it unintentionally. However, she saw a more familiar word above 'Di'— Zhao Cai.

Zhao Cai was Ah Xiang's real name, so it should mean 'bring in wealth'.

She quickly checked this news and found that in a small village in the south, there was a little girl called "Di Di", the daughter of a person called Zhao Cai.

Although there were many people in this world called "Zhao Cai", perhaps the "Zhao Cai" in this news only had the same name, but just in case, Jiang Yu still decided to go to this place to take a look.

She told Sister Xia about this matter, afraid that she had something urgent to look for her, but she was not there.

But after Sister Xia heard it, she insisted on going with her no matter what.

"Jiang Yu, how dangerous would it be for you to go there alone!" Sister Xia said, "No, no, I must go with you!"

Jiang Yu said helplessly, "Sister Xia, I'm just going to see a little girl. It's fine."

"How can it be fine? Do you know how far the place you're going to is from here? Do you think I'll be at ease if you go there alone?"

"Sister Xia, I'm really fine. You Don't have to worry about me," Jiang Yu said.

"That's impossible. I definitely won't allow you to go to that place alone!" Sister Xia had already started packing up and was ready to go look for Jiang Yu immediately.

Jiang Yu knew that she could not dissuade Sister Xia, so she could only acquiesce.

She packed her things simply and went to the school gate, where she bumped into Sister Xia who had rushed over.

"How did you know that Ah Xiang had a daughter?" Sister Xia asked curiously. "Did Chang Kai tell you?"

"No," Jiang Yu explained, "It was one of my roommates who looked it up online when she had nothing better to do."

This time, it was the truth, because this piece of news was indeed found by Yuan Zhen.

"I really didn't expect a person like Ah Xiang to have a daughter." Until now, when Sister Xia mentioned this piece of news, she was still shocked.

"... Maybe he worked so hard for his daughter," Jiang Yu said.

When she said this, her mood was a little depressed. Sister Xia knew that she was thinking of herself.

"Let's go." Jiang Yu took a few deep breaths and smiled at Sister Xia. "Time waits for no one."

"Okay."

Jiang Yu and Sister Xia got into the car that was heading to the airport. They did not notice that their every move had already been seen by another person.

"What are they going to do?" Jiang Ran looked at the car and secretly used her phone to take a picture of the license plate number.

He Li stood behind her and asked, "Ran Ran, what are you doing?"

"Ah!" Jiang Ran was shocked by He Li's sudden appearance. She kept patting her chest and shouted, "What are you doing? Standing behind others without making a sound? Do you know that you gave me a fright?!"

He Li did not expect Jiang Ran's reaction to be so big. He was at a loss and could only apologize. "I'm sorry, I'm sorry, Ran Ran. It's my fault. Don't be angry..."

He Li was so busy apologizing that he didn't notice the panic on Jiang Ran's face.

"Go away!" Jiang Ran pushed He Li away and ran to Sun You.

"Why are you here?" Jiang Ran held Sun You's arm and asked sweetly.

"I missed you. I came to see you." Sun You kissed Jiang Ran's forehead intimately and opened the car door for her to get in.

Only He Li was left standing there in a daze, watching all of this happen.

Sun You also noticed He Li on the other side, so he asked, "Who is that person over there? Do you know him?"

Jiang Ran didn't even look at He Li and said to Sun You, "I don't know him."

Sun You didn't ask any more questions and left with Jiang Ran.

Chapter 824: Di Di

Jiang Yu and Sister Xia took a flight for about four hours before they arrived at the airport.

After getting off the plane, Sister Xia turned on her phone and booked a room. She brought Jiang Yu there to rest for a while before taking a car to the small village.

“Are you sure it’s Ah Xiang’s daughter?” Sister Xia still felt that a fugitive like Ah Xiang should not have children or a wife.

Otherwise, how could he not settle down at home and insist on breaking the law outside?

Jiang Yu said, “I’m not sure. But Di Di’s father is also called Zhao Cai. Maybe it’s just the same name, but it’s also possible that Di Di is Ah Xiang’s daughter.”

Sister Xia paused, helplessly, she said, “Jiang Yu, you, ah, you really don’t want to miss out on a possible personality. When I’m with you, sometimes I feel that I’m not a manager, but an adventurer.”

“Really? Doesn’t that have a very exciting feeling?” Jiang Yu smiled and approached Sister Xia.

“It’s not exciting, it’s scary! Do you know?” Sister Xia said helplessly, “I’ve already sent our geographical location to Chang Kai. If we can confirm in a while that Di Di is Ah Xiang’s daughter, Chang Kai and the others will rush over.”

“Mm, that’s good too.” Jiang Yu nodded. “No matter what, Di Di should still trust the police more than strangers like us.”

The village was halfway up the mountain, so the road was not easy to walk on. Jiang Yu had walked this mountain road when she was young, but Sister Xia had never walked it before. She would trip over a rock from time to time.

“This road is really hard to walk on.” Sister Xia was so tired that she was panting, but she still arrived at the village safely.

This village was very small. As far as the eye could see, there were only a dozen or so households, and one could see the end of it at a glance.

Because they didn’t know which household the Di Di lived in, Jiang Yu and Sister Xia could only go door to door and ask.

After asking about the Di Di’s residence, Jiang Yu and Sister Xia rushed over and knocked on the tightly shut door.

Soon, a sweet and crisp voice came from inside, “Who is it?”

Jiang Yu thought for a moment and answered, “We are friends of your father.”

There was no sound from inside the door. A moment later, a small head poked out from the wall and whispered, “Really?”

Jiang Yu smiled and looked at her, “It’s true.”

In a sense, Jiang Yu and Ah Xiang were indeed “Friends”.

Di Di went down to open the door for Jiang Yu and said sweetly, “Hello sister, Hello auntie!”

“So obedient.” Sister Xia caressed di Di’s head affectionately and asked, “Are you the only one at home?”

“No, there’s still my grandmother!” Di Di raised her hand and pointed to the room, “My grandmother is resting on the bed.”

Jiang Yu and Sister Xia walked into the room and saw that the “Resting grandmother” Di Di mentioned was actually an old woman who was paralyzed on the bed.

“Grandma! There’s a guest at home!” Di Di rushed over excitedly and woke the old woman up. “They said they’re a friend of my dad! There’s news about my dad!”

The old woman opened his eyes with difficulty and struggled to sit up. She sized up the two strangers who had appeared in his house.

“Who are you?” She asked cautiously.

Jiang Yu smiled and said, “Old Lady, we are Zhao Cai’s friends.”

“You are friends?” The old lady did not believe it. “There are many people called Zhao Cai in this world. How do you know this is the home of the Zhao Cai you know?”

Jiang Yu paused. She did not expect the old lady in front of her to be so vigilant.

Sister Xia was a little displeased when she heard this, she said, “Old woman, we are indeed your son’s friends. We came here this time because he asked us to come over and see how your lives have been recently. “Even if you are vigilant because you don’t know us, you wouldn’t have to speak so harshly, would you?”

“My words are harsh?” The old woman snorted coldly, “That’s right! I know very well what kind of character he has! If we were talking about friends, he would definitely have them, but he definitely wouldn’t have such a serious friend like you two! Not a single one!”

Jiang Yu and Sister Xia were both stunned at this moment, not knowing what to say next.

After a long while, Jiang Yu slowly asked, “Then what if we are your son’s one-sided ‘friends’?”

“What?” The old woman was stumped.

“We know your son, but your son doesn’t know us,” Jiang Yu explained.

Chapter 825: Door Knocking Sound

“My son doesn’t know you? Then how do you know my son?” The old woman was very confused, and his vigilance was getting higher and higher.

Jiang Yu didn’t answer but asked instead, “Do you know what your son is doing outside?”

The old woman paused, and without a moment of hesitation, she asked Di Di to drive them out. “Di Di! Drive them out! They are not good people!”

Di Di was a little embarrassed, “Why? They are my father’s friends.”

“What friends? They are liars! Why don’t you kick them out?! Go next door to your second aunt and second uncle and kick them out!”

Seeing the old woman getting more and more agitated, the veins on her neck were clearly visible. She even wanted to drag her legs out of the bed and kick them out personally.

Jiang Yu had no choice but to leave with Sister Xia in a hurry so that they wouldn’t cause any trouble here.

On the way down the mountain, Sister Xia complained as she walked, “What’s wrong with this old lady? We’re clearly being kind, why isn’t she grateful?”

“She should know what Ah Xiang has done outside.” Jiang Yu helped Sister Xia down the mountain. Otherwise, she wouldn’t be so resistant to us.”

“Who knows? I think she just can’t stand to see others treat them well!” Sister Xia became angrier the more she thought about it. “Jiang Yu, don’t come to this place again. I really get angry when I see their faces.”

“Well, I won’t come.” Jiang Yu said, “But now we can be sure that Di Di is indeed Ah Xiang’s daughter. Sister Xia, you can tell Chang Kai about this later.”

“I told him about this when I went down the mountain just now. He said that he and his colleagues are already here,” Sister Xia said.

“That’s good.”

Jiang Yu and Sister Xia returned to their residence. The sky was already a little dark. There was a cold wind blowing in the surroundings, which was somewhat eerie and terrifying.

“It’s really strange. Isn’t this the south? Why is it so cold at night?” Sister Xia kept rubbing her arms. “And this doesn’t look like a proper village.”

Jiang Yu also felt that there was something wrong with this place, but she couldn’t tell what it was.

“Let’s eat first. After we finish eating, we shouldn’t go out,” Jiang Yu said as she turned on her phone and ordered two takeout dishes.

“This place is really too scary.” Sister Xia closed all the curtains in the room and turned on the lights. “After Chang Kai and the others arrive tomorrow, we should hurry back.”

“Okay.” Jiang Yu nodded.

She had been staying at school recently, so Mo Long had no idea that she had come here tonight.

Jiang Yu didn’t plan to tell Mo Long, lest he worry.

Knock, Knock. Someone knocked on the door.

“Is it the delivery?” Sister Xia looked at Jiang Yu.

But Jiang Yu’s expression was one of confusion and fear.

“According to the notification on the phone, the delivery person will arrive in ten minutes,” Jiang Yu said.

“Ah?” A chill immediately rose from the soles of Sister Xia’s feet. “Who is that outside the door? Could it be the cleaner or the waiter here?”

Jiang Yu did not think so. “If it’s them, they should have revealed their identity when they knocked on the door.”

“Then, the person outside the door is...”

Before Sister Xia could finish her sentence, she was interrupted by another knock on the door.

“Knock, Knock –” This time, the knocking on the door was even more intense than the previous one. It was as if they wanted to smash the door open.

“They’re not friendly.” Jiang Yu only said this sentence before she ran to the window and lifted a corner of the curtain to observe the situation downstairs.

“How is it?” Sister Xia was worried that the group of people would break the door open, so she quickly locked the door and brought two more chairs to block the door.

The noise outside the door became louder and louder. Some people even spoke in a dialect, but Sister Xia did not understand a single word.

“There’s no one downstairs.” Jiang Yu quickly took the scissors on the bedside table and cut the bedsheets into strips. Then, she tied them together and made a long “Rope.”

This was the first time she had tried it in real life, something she had seen on television. She did not know if it would work or not.

However, at this critical juncture, she had to make a last resort. Regardless of whether it would work or not, she had to give it a try.

She tied one end of the “rope” to the heater and threw the rest down the window.

She called Sister Xia over. “Sister Xia, come. In this situation, our survival is more important.”

“Okay, okay,” Sister Xia replied. She carried the backpack on her back and slid down the long “rope.”

Fortunately, the room they had booked at the beginning was on the second floor, so it wasn’t too high. Otherwise, a single sheet might not be enough.

Chapter 826: Surrounding

Sister Xia and Jiang Yu successfully escaped downstairs and quietly left through the bushes.

However, at this time, they had nowhere to go. They could only follow one path and move forward in the darkness.

After walking for an unknown period of time, Jiang Yu was somewhat exhausted and her consciousness began to blur.

“Sister Xia, Sister Xia?” Jiang Yu called out tentatively. “Are you still there?”

Sister Xia replied, “I’m here, Jiang Yu. Don’t be afraid.”

Her voice was a little shaky. It was unknown whether it was because it was too cold or because she was afraid.

Jiang Yu didn’t have much strength left, but in order not to drag Sister Xia down, she still insisted on walking for some distance.

However, it was this distance that made Jiang Yu use up all her remaining strength.

“I can’t walk anymore, Sister Xia,” Jiang Yu said breathlessly. “Sister Xia, if you have the strength, you can leave first. Don’t mind me, I really don’t have the strength.”

“What nonsense are you talking about?” Sister Xia turned around and pulled Jiang Yu along. “I’m your manager, and you’re my artist. Now that something has happened, how can I leave you alone?”

“But I don’t have the strength now. If you bring me along, I’ll only be a burden.” Jiang Yu didn’t want to drag Sister Xia down, so she simply sat on the ground and refused to move forward.

“Jiang Yu, stop fooling around.” Sister Xia squatted down and wanted to persuade Jiang Yu, but she accidentally touched Jiang Yu’s neck and pulled her hand back.

“Jiang Yu, do you have a fever?!” Sister Xia’s voice trembled this time because she was afraid.

“I, I don’t know.” Jiang Yu didn’t feel anything just now. She only felt dizzy and uncomfortable.

But now, when she sat down and relaxed both physically and mentally, she felt that her head was very heavy, as if it was going to sink into the ground. In addition, her consciousness was becoming more and more blurry, and she couldn’t even hear Sister Xia’s words clearly.

Sister Xia wanted to say something more, but she saw the light of a flashlight flickering in the distance. There were also people talking loudly.

However, they were speaking in a dialect, so Sister Xia and Jiang Yu couldn’t understand them.

“Oh no, they’ve caught up to us so quickly?” Sister Xia was shocked. She originally wanted to pull Jiang Yu along and continue walking forward, but Jiang Yu was already out of strength and was running a fever. There was no way for them to continue walking.

In the end, they were forced into a corner. Sister Xia had no choice but to hide with Jiang Yu in the nearby reeds, using the tall and dense reeds to hide herself and Jiang Yu.

Jiang Yu’s breathing became more and more rapid. Sister Xia was worried that she would suck the reeds into her lungs, so she used her hand to gently cover Jiang Yu’s nose.

The noise outside was getting closer and closer, and the light from the flashlight was getting brighter and brighter.

Sister Xia could only hold her breath and pray silently in her heart that they would not discover her.

After an unknown amount of time, the noise gradually faded away, and the lights became dimmer and dimmer until they finally disappeared.

Only then did Sister Xia let out a long sigh of relief. She originally wanted to call Jiang Yu to get up and turn back, but Jiang Yu had already fainted due to a high fever.

“Jiang Yu? Jiang Yu?” Sister Xia called out a few times, but Jiang Yu didn’t respond.

Sister Xia had no choice but to leave Jiang Yu here and go back on her own. Although Jiang Yu was very light, Sister Xia was still a woman and didn’t have much strength. Furthermore, Sister Xia had spent a lot of energy when she was running away, so there was no way for her to carry Jiang Yu out of here.

After much thought, Sister Xia could only take off her coat and cover Jiang Yu with it, hoping that her illness wouldn’t worsen.

Sister Xia hugged Jiang Yu for an unknown amount of time. When she opened her eyes again, she was woken up by the sound of her phone ringing.

Sister Xia turned on her phone and saw that it was Chang Kai.

“Hello? Chang Kai, have you arrived?” Sister Xia asked anxiously.

“We’ve arrived at the location you sent me, but we’ve been knocking on the door for a long time. There’s no one inside.”

“Come out. Stand at the entrance and look to the east. There’s a small path. Follow the path and you’ll find a patch of reeds. Jiang Yu and I are in the reeds,” Sister Xia said.

“... Okay, I understand.” Although he was curious as to why they were hiding in the reeds, Chang Kai didn’t ask any further. He directly followed the path Sister Xia told him to find them.

“We’re here!” Sister Xia hurriedly shouted when she heard Chang Kai and the others shouting.

Chang Kai and the others followed the sound and found Sister Xia in a sorry state. She was carrying the unconscious Jiang Yu in her arms.

“What... happened to you guys?” Chang Kai looked at Sister Xia and Jiang Yu in bewilderment. He didn’t know how they became like this.

Chapter 827: People Were Gone

“Now is not the time to talk about this! Help me bring Jiang Yu back!” Sister Xia said.

“What happened to Jiang Yu?” Chang Kai asked while carrying Jiang Yu on his back, “Why are you here?”

“It’s a long story...” Sister Xia stood up. She wanted to leave with Chang Kai, but her vision turned dark and she fell heavily to the ground.

“Sister?!” Chang Kai exclaimed.

Seeing this, Zheng Xiao quickly carried Sister Xia on his back and returned to the hotel with Chang Kai.

Jiang Yu had a high fever and was still in a coma. Even if Chang Kai went to the pharmacy to buy fever medicine and fed it to Jiang Yu, it was useless.

Sister Xia woke up after a nap, but Jiang Yu was still in a coma.

“What’s going on?” Sister Xia reached out to touch Jiang Yu’s forehead and found that her fever had subsided. “The fever has already subsided, why hasn’t she woken up yet?”

“It’s hard to say what the current situation is like. Why don’t we send her to the hospital?” Chang Kai suggested.

“Alright, let’s go to the hospital first.” Sister Xia nodded and said.

After the group of people sent Jiang Yu to the hospital, the Doctor gave Jiang Yu a comprehensive check-up. The final conclusion was that her mental state had been extremely tense for a long time, and during this period, she had also developed a high fever, that was why she had been in a coma.

“Then, which village did you tell me about yesterday?” Chang Kai asked.

Sister Xia replied, “Leave one of you to help me take care of Jiang Yu. I’ll bring you to that place. However, that place is halfway up the mountain, and the road is very steep. You have to be mentally prepared.”

“Nowadays, when you are a policeman, what road have you not walked on?” Zheng Xiao smiled and left a policewoman named Jin Tong to take care of Jiang Yu. The rest of the people followed Sister Xia to the village halfway up the mountain.

Zheng Xiao was full of confidence at first and thought that he would definitely be able to climb up the mountain. However, after walking for less than half the distance, his feet were already starting to feel sore. Not only him, but the people with him were also feeling sore. Their feet were so sore that they could not walk anymore.

“This village is so steep?” Zheng Xiao found it hard to believe that there was such a steep mountain slope in this world.

He had walked on the mountain slope before, but he had never walked on such a steep slope before. Rather than saying that they were walking, it was more appropriate to say that they were climbing the mountain.

“When I came with Jiang Yu yesterday, it was also this difficult,” Sister Xia said with a smile as she wiped the sweat off her forehead.

“You two are pretty good,” Zheng Xiao said.

It took a lot of effort for Chang Kai and the others to successfully climb the mountain. However, there was no one in the village today.

Sister Xia felt a little strange. “That’s not right. When Jiang Yu and I came yesterday, there were obviously a lot of people here. Why is there no one here today? Could it be that they are not at home?”

She walked into a house that was not locked. Even the door inside was not locked.

“That’s strange. Why isn’t it locked? Aren’t you afraid that someone will come in and steal something?” Sister Xia was getting more and more confused.

“But with such a family background, it should be very difficult for someone to come in and steal something, right?” Zheng Xiao looked around and confirmed that there was no one in the village.

“It seems that they had noticed something yesterday, so they ran away overnight,” Chang Kai guessed.

“No wonder someone chased me and Jiang Yu Yesterday.” Sister Xia also began to feel that something was wrong.

“What’s going on?” Chang Kai asked.

Sister Xia told him everything that happened after she and Jiang Yu returned to the hotel yesterday. Finally, she said, “If it weren’t for Jiang Yu and I hiding in the reeds, you might not have seen us today.”

“Don’t tell me... They want to silence us?” Zheng Xiao made a bold guess. “How many benefits did Ah Xiang bring them that they were willing to work for him?”

Sister Xia sighed. “Money can make the world go round, not to mention humans.”

“That’s true. Where is that Ah Xiang’s home? Let’s go and see if there are any clues left,” Chang Kai suggested.

Hence, Sister Xia brought them to Ah Xiang’s home.

Unsurprisingly, Di Di and her grandmother, who was paralyzed in the lower limbs, had also left.

“She can really run. She clearly can’t move her legs, but she actually fled together with them,” Sister Xia muttered.

In order not to hinder Chang Kai and the others’ work, Sister Xia stood at the door. After they were done with their examination, they returned to the hospital together.

Chang Kai quickly found a damaged card-type item in an abandoned box and shouted, “I found this! It’s the identity card that Ah Xiang used a long time ago!”

Chapter 828: Operation

The abandoned ID card that Chang Kai found was the best thing.

With this ID card, it would not be difficult to find the id card that Ah Xiang was currently using.

Although Ah Xiang had done many things that did not require an ID card, or he had skipped the steps of authentication, there were some places and websites that were strictly controlled. If he did not use his own ID card, he would not be able to enter or operate them.

As long as they found out about this, it would be easy for them to capture Ah Xiang.

“Let’s go back first. With this thing, everything will be very simple,” said Chang Kai.

Thus, they returned to the hospital.

Sister Xia had just pushed open the door when she saw Jiang Yu leaning against the bed and drinking porridge.

“Jiang Yu, you’re awake!” Sister Xia quickly walked over and said excitedly.

“I slept in a daze for a long time. When I opened my eyes, I was already here,” Jiang Yu said weakly.

“Do you know that you almost scared me to death?” Sister Xia sat beside Jiang Yu and took the bowl from her hands, feeding her porridge one mouthful at a time.

“Thank you, Sister Xia. You never gave up on me.” Jiang Yu smiled.

“You still have the mood to smile? You almost lost your life, yet you’re still smiling!” Sister Xia glared at her, but there was no deterrent at all.

“By the way, I heard from Officer Jin Tong that you went to that village? How was it? Did you find anything?” Jiang Yu asked.

Sister Xia sighed and said, “Don’t mention it. They all ran away.”

“Ran away?” Jiang Yu was stunned.

“Yes, not a single person was left behind. Even the paralyzed old woman ran away with them,” said Sister Xia.

Jiang Yu thought for a while and asked, “Did they not find any clues?”

“Not really.” Chang Kai took out the abandoned ID card from his pocket. “At least we found this abandoned ID card. With this, it will be much easier for us to investigate Ah Xiang.”

“That’s good.” Jiang Yu was relieved.

“There’s no time to lose. Let’s start investigating now,” Zheng Xiao said to Jin Tong, who had been taking care of Jiang Yu.

“Okay.” Jin Tong nodded, took out her computer, and uploaded the photo of the abandoned ID card.

Her fingers tapped on the keyboard, and soon, a clear ID card sample appeared on the computer screen.

There were many people with the same name and surname in this world, but there was only one person in this world who had the same name, the same month, the same date, and the same place.

Therefore, the ID card that Jin Tong recovered this time was definitely Ah Xiang’s own ID card.

“Okay.” Zheng Xiao nodded in satisfaction. “Continue to follow this. As long as it’s an internet address that he logged into with his ID card or something that he bought, we can’t let go of any of it. We have to find out everything.”

“Okay.” Jin Tong answered simply and continued to search.

Soon, she found the latest piece of news.

“This person named Zhao Cai bought a ticket to Vietnam at three o’clock yesterday afternoon. The departure time is at one o’clock tomorrow afternoon.” Jin Tong read out the news.

“Got it.” Zheng Xiao and Chang Kai immediately headed to Ah Xiang’s boarding point. They were ready to capture him at one o’clock tomorrow afternoon.

“Do you need our help?” Jiang Yu asked.

“No need.” Zheng Xiao turned around and smiled, “Miss Jiang Yu, you have already helped us a lot regarding this case. Now that we have evidence and clues, we can ensure that we can capture him successfully. So, you don’t have to help us anymore.”

“Okay. Then, I wish you all the best,” Jiang Yu said.

Sister Xia also said, “I wish you all the best.”

“It will definitely go smoothly.”

After Chang Kai and the group left, Sister Xia sighed slightly. “Di Di is a good child.”

“Ah Xiang may be a good father, but he is not a good person,” Jiang Yu said. “Perhaps everything he did was to give all the money he earned to Di Di.”

Jiang Yu had just taken a few mouthfuls when someone knocked on the door of the ward.

Sister Xia was still a little scared because of what happened last night. But they were in the hospital, so she felt more confident and asked loudly, “Who is it?”

The person outside the door paused for a moment and then said, “It’s me, Mo Long.”

Mo Long? !

Jiang Yu and Sister Xia were both shocked. They didn’t know how he found this place.

Sister Xia quickly went to open the door and saw Mo Long walk in, looking travel-worn. He went straight for Jiang Yu.

“What’s going on?” Mo Long asked anxiously.

Chapter 829: Mo Long’s Power

Jiang Yu was stunned the moment she saw Mo Long. She didn’t know why he was here.

“You... Why are you here?” Jiang Yu looked at Mo Long and asked in surprise.

Mo Long was silent for a while before he said in a low voice, “I know about the Special Squad, so I found their captain. He told me that you were here.”

Hearing Mo Long's words, Jiang Yu knew that he must have asked Teng Yi to investigate.

"I'm fine. Don't worry about me," Jiang Yu comforted Mo Long. "Look, I'm fine, right?"

"It's good that you're fine." Mo Long only said this simple sentence before he stopped talking.

He just sat quietly by Jiang Yu's bedside and didn't say a word.

This made the already stifling atmosphere even more stifling.

After a long while, Jiang Yu asked softly, "Why aren't you saying anything?"

Mo Long shook his head. "I'm going out to smoke."

Jiang Yu knew that he was in a bad mood and needed a cigarette to relieve it. Hence, she did not stop him and let him out.

"Mo Long is a little scary today." Sister Xia patted her chest when Mo Long left the ward.

Mo Long left the ward and walked to the end of the corridor. He stood in front of the window.

Teng Yi stood behind him and lit a cigarette for him.

"Huff." Mo Long took a deep breath of the cigarette and slowly exhaled. "Go and capture those villagers who escaped, as well as that person called Ah Xiang and the people behind him. Capture them all, not a single one less."

Teng Yi hesitated for a moment before saying, "President Mo, the police station has already sent out a special squad..."

Mo Long's eyes turned cold, he said coldly, "So what if it's a special squad? So what if it's the police station? If they really had the ability, why would they let Yu'er run to such a place alone and even get injured? A bunch of trash. Do I still have to rely on them to capture people?"

Teng Yi knew that Mo Long was really angry this time. Hence, he tactfully stopped talking and turned around to arrange the mission.

Mo Long stood by the window and finished smoking a whole cigarette. He stood there for a while to disperse the smoke on his body before he turned around and returned to Jiang Yu's ward.

This time, his footsteps were not as heavy as before. Instead, they were much lighter. Therefore, Jiang Yu guessed that Mo Long had gone out alone to sulk. He had only returned after his anger had subsided.

When Mo Long sat beside her, Jiang Yu said, "I'm sorry. It was my fault. I shouldn't have hidden it from you and secretly ran here with Sister Xia."

Mo Long pulled Jiang Yu into his embrace and rested his chin on her forehead. "Yu-er, promise me that you'll tell me if you encounter such a thing in the future, Okay?"

"Yes, there won't be a next time," Jiang Yu said softly, "Don't be angry. Don't Let Teng Yi interfere in this matter. There's a huge force behind Ah Xiang. If you let Teng Yi investigate, it'll be very easy for you to get involved."

Mo Long paused and said, "I have already arranged for Tengyi to investigate."

"What?" Jiang Yu was shocked and crawled out from Mo Long's embrace, "The police have already sent a special team to investigate. We don't need to worry anymore! Quickly call Tengyi back. Otherwise, if we aren't careful, Tengyi will be in trouble!"

"Yu'er, don't worry." Mo Long lovingly tidied up the broken hair beside Jiang Yu's ear. "You have to believe in Tengyi and you have to believe in me."

"I..." Jiang Yu wanted to say something but hesitated. After a long while, she said, "But I'm really worried about you two."

"Don't worry. Take good care of yourself." Mo Long pulled Jiang Yu into his embrace once again and kissed her forehead and cheek intimately.

Sister Xia, who was watching from the side, had goosebumps all over the floor. Finally, when Mo Long was about to kiss Jiang Yu's lips, she coughed twice and said, "Ahem, ahem, there are more people in the ward than just the two of you."

Jiang Yu paused for a moment, her face instantly turning as shy as a ripe tomato.

"Let's go back first," Sister Xia suggested, "This place doesn't look like a good place. It's eerie and doesn't have the antique smell of Jiangnan at all. Instead, it looks more like a graveyard."

At the mention of this, Sister Xia couldn't help but shiver in fear.

However, Mo Long confirmed her thoughts. "This place used to be a mass grave. No one would dare to live here."

"What?!" Sister Xia was shocked. She quickly packed up Jiang Yu and her things and planned to leave this place immediately. "Jiang Yu, I'll get you discharged immediately. Don't stay in this place anymore. It's too scary!"

Chapter 830: Refused To Admit

Sister Xia quickly finished the discharge procedures for Jiang Yu, returned to the ward, and left with Mo Long with Jiang Yu.

Mo Long had come here on a private plane, so he returned to Shanghai very quickly.

Once he got off the plane, Sister Xia was still nagging non-stop, "No, no, I'm still worried that if I stay in that place, I'll be possessed with something dirty. Jiang Yu, after we return to the studio, I'll go and see if there are any masters who can do something to help us remove the baleful aura from our bodies."

Jiang Yu didn't know whether to laugh or cry. "If it's something like that, perhaps Yang Fen will?"

Sister Xia knew that Yang Fen had been thrown into prison by Mo Long, and even now, she was still hoping that she would quickly disappear from this world. If she was asked to help with the method, then it would be hard to tell if it was to remove the baleful aura or to add more baleful aura.

“Her? That won’t do. Back then, all she did was harm people. How could she save people? If she was asked to do the method, I’m afraid she would be adding more baleful aura to us!”

Jiang Yu found it funny, but she didn’t stop Sister Xia from looking for a master.

She turned to look at Mo Long and asked, “Is there busy work at the company?”

Mo Long replied in a low voice, “There are only two things. I won’t have any work after I’m done.”

“Alright, then you should go home early,” Jiang Yu said. “Sister Xia and I will go to see the master. We’ll go back to look for you after we’re done.”

At this moment, Mo Long didn’t want Jiang Yu to leave his sight, he said, “You and Sister Xia go first. Send me the location when you arrive at the place. I’ll pick you up after I’m done with work. I won’t let you leave my sight again.”

Jiang Yu knew that Mo Long had been frightened by her accident and had reacted in a nervous manner. Therefore, she agreed with him and said, “Alright, I got it.”

Mo Long then rushed back to the company to deal with some matters. After he finished his work within half an hour, he immediately drove to Jiang Yu’s current location.

No matter where Jiang Yu went, he had to accompany her every step of the way.

However, Jiang Yu didn’t find it annoying, so she let him accompany her. It was just that Sister Xia had suffered a lot. Not only did she have to be on tenterhooks about evil spirits, but she also had to watch Jiang Yu and Mo Long display their love for each other.

She was truly speechless.

At two o’clock in the afternoon the next day, news came from Chang Kai’s side — they had successfully captured Ah Xiang.

But it wasn’t them who had captured him. It was another group of men in black who had captured him.

Sister Xia didn’t react. “What do you mean?”

Chang Kai explained, “There was someone called Teng Yi who led a group of men in black and captured Ah Xiang. Not only him, there were also a few of his accomplices on the ship. That guy called Teng Yi had captured them all.”

“Teng Yi...” Sister Xia repeated this name several times before she realized that he was Mo Long’s subordinate. “You’re saying that Mo Long was the one who captured these people?”

Chang Kai knew about Mo Long, but he did not know about Teng Yi, so he did not know that Teng Yi was Mo Long’s subordinate.

“It’s not Mo Long, it’s Teng Yi...” Before Chang Kai could finish his sentence, Sister Xia interrupted him.

“Let me ask you, where are you now?”

“In the interrogation room of the police station,” Chang Kai replied.

“Wait, I’ll be there right away.” Sister Xia hung up the phone and quickly put on her clothes. Then, she called Jiang Yu and told her to hurry to the police station.

Although Jiang Yu didn’t know why Sister Xia had called her to the police station, she sounded like she was in a hurry, so she didn’t ask further. After putting on her clothes, she took a taxi to the police station.

As soon as Jiang Yu arrived at the police station, Sister Xia ran out of the house and grabbed her. “Jiang Yu, you’re finally here! I’ve been waiting for you here for a long time!”

“Waiting for me for what?” Jiang Yu didn’t understand.

“I went in to take a look just now. That Ah Xiang doesn’t look like a good person! He kept making a fuss, asking us to produce evidence. But when the police brought out the evidence, he refused to admit it and said that we framed him.”

“He’s so arrogant?” Jiang Yu also admired Ah Xiang very much. He had already been caught by the police and the evidence was thrown on his face, yet he was still so confident and refused to admit what he had done?

“Of course he’s arrogant! He kept saying that his backer was Li Yue and asked the police to release him immediately!” Sister Xia said.

“His backer isn’t just Li Yue, right?” Jiang Yu sneered and followed Sister Xia into the interrogation room.

Ah Xiang was sprawled on his chair. He was stunned when he saw Jiang Yu enter the room from the corner of his eye.

He had seen Jiang Yu’s photo from someone called Li Lu. She had even asked him to kill this person called Jiang Yu with his car.

However, he had failed that time, so Jiang Yu was still alive. He had not expected to meet her here today.
