Chapter 861: Investigation

Jiang Yu thought about it and felt that it was better not to tell Mo Long about this matter for the time being.

She felt that it was better for her to investigate it first.

It just so happened that the final exams had ended and the results had not been released yet. She could still stay at school for a period of time.

It was also a good opportunity to take advantage of this time to investigate this matter thoroughly.

However, this matter was not ordinary. Jiang Yu did not plan to use the computer in the dormitory to investigate. Instead, she chose to bring her computer to the library when everyone was already resting at night.

The library was pitch black and there was no light at all. Jiang Yu walked along the long corridor. With every step she took, the voice-activated light above her head would light up, giving her a strange feeling.

Jiang Yu took the computer and sat in an inconspicuous corner. Then, she turned on her computer.

"This matter is really ridiculous," Jiang Yu muttered to herself. The moment she turned on her computer, she actually didn't know where to start.

After sorting out her thoughts, Jiang Yu decided to start with her mother.

According to Xu Ye, her mother's name was Kang die. She was the eldest daughter of the Kang family in capital who had gone missing many years ago.

Jiang Yu first did a simple search on the internet, but she didn't find any useful information. It seemed that the Kang family had already blocked this information.

So Jiang Yu had to open her hacker website and try to find some information on it.

Three minutes later, Jiang Yu did find some information that was not available on the Internet. After carefully browsing through the information, Jiang Yu could confirm that Kang Die, who had gone missing, was later adopted by an ordinary family. When she grew up, she married Jiang Hai, who was a small businessman at that time. However, before she could enjoy a few days of bliss, she died due to dystocia.

"So... I'm really Kang Die's daughter?" Jiang Yu muttered to herself.

There was still one thing that could be confirmed — she was Kang Die's daughter, and Jiang Ran was not.

However, based on what Xu Ye had said during the day, Jiang Ran seemed to think that she was Kang Die's daughter as well, so she even went to Kang He and asked her to help her meet with the members of the Kang family.

A crow really wanted to fly to the top of the tree. How shameless.

Jiang Ran found the information she wanted, so she turned off the computer in satisfaction and went back to her bedroom to rest.

After a satisfying sleep, Jiang Yu woke up refreshed. After washing up, she called Sister Xia and was ready to tell her about this.

When Sister Xia found out about this, her mouth opened wide in shock. "What?! You said that you are... the daughter of the Kang family in capital?!"

Jiang Yu nodded. "Xu Ye told me yesterday."

"Xu Ye? How did he know?" Sister Xia was a little confused.

Jiang Yu told sister Xia everything that Xu Ye told her yesterday.

After sister Xia heard it, she was even more shocked.

"The Xu family... is the Xu family that suddenly became lonely more than ten years ago?" Sister Xia exclaimed. "I really didn't expect that Xu Ye was actually a member of the Xu family."

"Although he didn't tell me how the Xu family fell into despair back then, he seemed to be very unwilling to accept this matter and has always wanted to restore the Xu family's glory." Jiang Yu recalled Xu Ye's expression when he said those words yesterday and suddenly felt that, he also seemed to have many unspeakable things that he had no choice but to do.

"Then regarding this matter... have you told Mo Long?" Sister Xia asked.

"No." Jiang Yu shook her head, "I originally planned to tell him when the whole thing was clear. Now that the truth has surfaced, I will choose a suitable time to tell him."

"This is a huge matter. You must tell Mo Long. If that's the case, with him behind you, it will be easier for you to return to the Kang family."

"I know. But there's one more thing," Jiang Yu said. "Jiang Ran also thinks that she's Kang Die's daughter, so she wants to return to the Kang family."

"Jiang Ran? Isn't she the daughter of Wei Juan and Jiang Hai? How could she be Kang Die's daughter?" Sister Xia was shocked. "Why is she becoming more and more shameless?"

"I don't know. Maybe a crow wants to fly to the top," Jiang Yu said helplessly.

"She wants to become a phoenix. We have to see whether the Kang family recognizes her or not." When Sister Xia mentioned Jiang Ran, her tone was full of disdain. "However, you still have to quickly tell Mo Long about this matter. The longer it drags on, the more chances Jiang Ran has. She will go to the Kang family before you."

"Okay." Jiang Yu nodded and immediately took a car to Mo Long's company.

Fortunately, he was not very busy with work today, so Jiang Yu easily met him.

"Why are you here today?"

Chapter 862: All The Truth

Mo Long was the only person in the office, so Jiang Yu didn't feel any psychological pressure. However, Jiang Yu was still a little nervous to suddenly tell Mo Long about such a big matter.

She took a deep breath and told Mo Long everything that had happened in the past few days.

After Mo Long heard it, although he wasn't as surprised as Sister Xia, he was still stunned. He didn't expect Jiang Yu to be a member of the Kang family.

"Don't tell anyone about this." Mo Long was silent for a long time. "I'll investigate this matter thoroughly."

"Okay, I'll wait for your news."

Jiang Yu returned to the school and saw Sun You at the school gate, who had come to pick Jiang Ran up for dinner.

The two of them stood at the school gate and were very affectionate, completely ignoring the fact that it was still daytime.

Jiang Yu felt that it was simply too inconspicuous, so she took a few quick steps, wanting to return to the school before the two of them noticed her.

However, Jiang Ran didn't know if it was because of the pregnancy, so her senses had become especially sharp. Even though Jiang Yu's footsteps were very light, Jiang Ran still heard it.

She looked at Jiang Yu and shouted with a smile, "Isn't this Jiang Yu? What's wrong? Why don't you greet your sister when you see her?"

She seemed to be in a good mood, so she didn't speak so harshly to Jiang Yu today.

Jiang Yu didn't want to pay attention to her, but considering that she was a pregnant woman, she was magnanimous enough not to lower herself to her level, so she stopped and greeted her perfunctorily, "Hello."

"Are you smiling? Those who don't know might think that I forced you." Jiang Ran snorted. "Forget it, you should leave quickly. Otherwise, if the child in my stomach sees you, it will become malnourished."

Jiang Yu: "Hmm?"

She had not despised her yet, but she actually started to despise her? This was not even a matter of chance. Did she really think that she was the miss of the Kang Family?

"Hmm what? Don't stand here anymore. It's really unlucky." Jiang Ran glared at Jiang Yu and sat in the passenger seat of Sun You.

Sun You looked like he was watching a good show the entire time and did not say a word.

Jiang Yu looked at the back of the car as it left and muttered to herself, "I'll let you jump for a few days first."

The results of the final exams had been released in the past few days. After Jiang Yu received the results, she packed her things and returned to Mo Garden.

She now had more time to solve the problem of her background.

Mo Long had also found out that Jiang Yu was indeed Kang Die's daughter. He had indeed asked Teng Yi to investigate Jiang Yu's background, but after he found out Jiang Hai's background, Mo Long had never thought about this matter again.

Now, he found out that his fiancée was actually a member of the Kang family.

As such, Mo Long didn't want Jiang Yu to go back and identify her family.

This was because many years ago, the Kang and Mo families had made a contract. The two families couldn't cooperate in business, and they also didn't allow any business marriages to happen.

This was done to prevent one family from dominating the world, as well as the balance in the business world.

After all, the two families were extremely powerful. If they worked together, then the entire business world would be their world. There would be no other business elites, and the business world would lose its balance, in the end, it would affect the economy.

Moreover, the Kang family was in the capital, and the Mo family was in Shanghai. The two families could not get along, so they tacitly agreed to this rule.

Mo Long smiled helplessly. He did not expect this matter to be so dramatic.

Jiang Yu saw that Mo Long's expression was not quite right. She was a little worried that he had not rested well these few days. "What's wrong? Have you been too tired recently?"

"I'm fine." Mo Long shook his head. "Yu'er, do you have to go to the Kang family to recognise your family?"

Jiang Yu paused. She did not know why Mo Long would ask her this question. "What's wrong? Can't I?"

"Of course you can go. As long as it's what you want to do, I'll support you." Mo Long looked at her dotingly. "I just want to ask, do you have to go?"

"Yes, I want to go," Jiang Yu said firmly, "I've never felt the love of my family since I was young. Even if I was brought back by the Jiang family, the only thing that greeted me was their sarcasm. So, I want to return to my real home. I want to receive the love of a real 'family member'."

"Okay, I understand." Mo Long held Jiang Yu in his arms. "I will help you with this matter."

"Even if I don't go, Jiang Ran will still go," Jiang Yu said. "She is already in this house. She has taken everything from me. I don't want her to continue taking things from me."

If the Jiang family belonged to Jiang Ran, then the Kang family should belong to her, Jiang Yu.

Chapter 863: Invitation

Jiang Yu hesitated for a long time before she decided to tell Kang Xue about this.

After she went back to confirm her marriage, she would inevitably have to meet Kang Xue. Therefore, if she told her now, it would save her from the awkwardness of meeting her later.

However, before Jiang Yu could tell Kang Xue about this news, she heard a big piece of news from her. "Jiang Ran went to the Kang family to confirm her marriage!"

Lu Qi paused, and the half-chewed bread fell out of her mouth. "What did you say? Jiang Ran went there to recognise her family?"

"The Kang Family!" Kang Xue looked a little anxious, and sweat was dripping down her forehead.

"Jiang Ran is from your family?" Dai Zhu still couldn't react. "In other words, Jiang Ran is your sister or sister?"

"It's not me, it's the Kang family! It's the Kang family from the capital!" Kang Xue was even more anxious.

"The Kang family from capital?" Lu Qi and Dai Zhu finally reacted, and they were stunned on the spot.

"I only just found out about this," Kang Xue said, "Kang he told my grandfather that Jiang Ran was the daughter of Kang Die back then, and now she wants to come back and recognize her as her family. My grandfather was also very excited when he heard this, and without saying anything else, he wanted to arrange for Jiang Ran to go back and recognize her as family!"

"Kang Xue, is your grandfather muddled with age?" Lu Qi was very surprised. "Jiang Ran is obviously the daughter of Wei Juan and Jiang Hai, how could she be a member of the Kang Family?"

"But Kang He said it so confidently, as if it was true."

"But this is indeed impossible. Could Kang He have made a mistake?" Lu Qi still felt that it was impossible. This matter was simply ridiculous.

"I'm not sure..." Kang Xue initially thought that Kang he was telling the truth, so when she heard the news, she rushed over to tell Jiang Yu.

But now that she heard what Lu Qi said, she also felt that Kang he might have made a mistake.

The air suddenly became quiet. After a long while, Jiang Yu asked, "When is Jiang Ran going to the Kang Family?"

Kang Xue quickly took a look at her phone and opened her calendar. "This weekend. What's the matter, Jiang Yu?"

Jiang Yu's eyes darkened and she said, "I want to go too."

"Huh?" The other three were stunned. They didn't know what Jiang Yu was up to.

"It's a big deal for the Kang family to recognize you as a relative. Although I treat you as a friend, you're still an outsider to them..." Kang Xue hesitated for a moment. She didn't want to bring Jiang Yu to the Kang family.

“You only need to bring me there.”

Jiang Yu’s gaze was cold but firm. Kang Xue subconsciously agreed to her request. “Alright, you can come with me this weekend.”

“Alright.”

During the weekend, Jiang Yu got into Kang Xue’s car.

Although Kang Xue had agreed to Jiang Yu’s request that day, she still felt that she had agreed too hastily after her mind had calmed down. Bringing an outsider to the Kang family home to visit and acknowledge her as family was a heinous act no matter how she thought about it.

However, she had already agreed to Jiang Yu’s request. Even if she regretted it, it wouldn’t do.

Jiang Yu didn’t say a word as the car drove along. She just quietly looked out of the window.

Kang Xue wanted to speak a few times, but she held it in. It wasn’t until the car stopped at the real Kang family’s door that Kang Xue dryly said her first sentence of the day, “We’re here. Get out of the car.”

Jiang Yu got out of the car and followed Kang Xue into the house.

Everyone in the house had already arrived.

Jiang Ran was sitting on the sofa. When she turned around and saw Jiang Yu, she immediately stood up. “Jiang Yu? Why are you here?”

Kang He also frowned and looked at Kang Xue. “Kang Xue, What’s wrong with you? Don’t you know what happened today? How dare you bring outsiders back? Am I usually too good to you?”

“No.” Facing Kang He’s anger, even though Kang Xue was full of explanations, the only thing she could say was “No.”.

“Stop talking,” Kang He said impatiently, “Today, grandfather and the other elders are here. I’ll give you some face, so let’s not talk about it for now. You’d better hurry up and bring your shady friend out. Don’t delay today’s important matter.”

“Jiang Yu isn’t a shady person.” Kang Xue defended Jiang Yu. “She’s my friend and also this Jiang Ran’s sister.”

“What good friends can you make?” Kang He said, “Jiang Ran is now the daughter of the Kang family. Can Jiang Yu still be her sister?”

Jiang Ran, who had been standing silently, suddenly smiled and said, “Of course she’s my sister. After all, we’re both Jiang Hai’s daughters. It’s only right for her to call me elder sister.”

As she spoke, she walked up to Jiang Yu and looked at her with a smile. “My good sister, why are you here today? Are you afraid that I, your sister, won’t be able to protect you in the future when I return to the Kang Family?”

Jiang Yu looked at her as if she was looking at trash. “You can protect yourself first.”

Chapter 864: Turtledove Occupying The Magpie’s Nest

“Jiang Yu, what are you talking about?!” Kang He shouted angrily, “This is not a place for people like you to come! Kang Xue, quickly chase her out! Otherwise, you will follow her out!”

Jiang Ran stopped Kang He, “Jiang Yu is my sister, don’t be so angry at her.”

Only then did Kang He shut his mouth.

Old Master Kang carefully sized up Jiang Yu. He felt that her facial features were somewhat similar to his youngest daughter, Kang die.

Hence, he waved his hand at Jiang Yu. “Little girl, come here.”

Jiang Yu obediently walked over and called out, “Grandfather.”

“Why are you calling me grandfather?” The woman at the side said snappily. “I don’t know where this thing came from and followed into the Kang family. Do you really think that you’re a member of the Kang Family?”

“Shut up, Xin Xiu,” grandfather Kang shouted angrily. “I’m still here. It’s not your place to speak!”

“I know, dad.” The woman called Xin Xiu shut her mouth resentfully.

Xin Xiu was the wife of Kang Cheng, the eldest son of the Kang family, and also Jiang Yu’s aunt.

“You said you’re Jiang Ran’s sister, right?” Grandfather Kang looked at Jiang Yu, and the more he looked at her, the more he felt that she looked like Kang die.

“Yes, grandfather,” Jiang Yu answered obediently.

“Not bad, not bad at all,” old master Kang praised sincerely.

Jiang Ran saw that something was wrong and quickly walked over to interrupt the conversation between Old Master Kang and Jiang Yu, “Grandfather, why are you like this? Your precious granddaughter is back, and you don’t even look at me, but instead look at an unknown little girl. Aren’t you breaking my heart by doing this?”

Old Master Kang smiled. “Of course, I like my precious granddaughter, Ran Ran the most.”

Hearing this, Jiang Yu’s heart ached.

All of this should have been hers. Not only did Jiang Ran steal her status in the Jiang family, but she was also going to steal everything she had in the Kang family.

Jiang Yu’s heart ached so much that she could barely breathe. She only felt that the scene in front of her was becoming more and more blurry, and her consciousness was also gradually dissipating.

Sun You walked over and pushed Jiang Yu to the back. He also tried to curry favor with old master Kang. “Grandfather, I’m Ran Ran’s fiancé, Sun You.”

“Ran Ran has a fiancé?” Xin Xiu was a little surprised. “When is the wedding...”

Jiang Yu could no longer hear their voices. She could no longer hear what Kang Xue was saying beside her ears.

She did not know how she got out of the house, nor did she know that Kang Xue was beside her, worried about her. She walked straight out of the door, tears streaming down her face like beads.

“Jiang Yu, don’t cry.” Kang Xue did not know why Jiang Yu was crying. She only knew that she should comfort her at this moment, even though she might not be able to hear what she was saying.

With every step Jiang Yu took, she felt as though a huge rock had fallen on her back, suffocating her.

They were clearly her family, yet she was doting on a stranger in front of her. Once again, she felt as though she had been abandoned, because she had once again experienced the feeling of not being cared for by others.

“Jiang Yu, if you have something on your mind, just tell me.” Kang Xue was worried that something would happen to Jiang Yu if this continued. “Don’t worry, I won’t tell anyone.”

Jiang Yu finally stopped walking. She took a few deep breaths and slowly said, “I am Kang Die’s real daughter.”

“What?” Kang Xue was stunned.

“Jiang Ran is a fake. Whether she knows or not, she is not Kang Die’s daughter. I am.”

Kang Xue felt that there was a big reversal in this matter.

“You are Kang Die’s daughter and Jiang Ran is a fake? Then why didn’t you say it just now?” Kang Xue held Jiang Yu’s hand and was about to go back, “Let’s go back and explain clearly. We will say that you are Kang Die’s daughter and that Jiang Ran is a fake.”

“No need.” Jiang Yu stopped Kang Xue. “Let her stay in the Kang family for a few days. I want her to enjoy all of this and then pull her down ruthlessly. I want her to be unable to get up for the rest of her life.”

Her eyes were filled with ruthlessness. This was the first time Kang Xue had seen Jiang Yu like this.

“Since Jiang Ran likes everything, let her enjoy it for a few days,” Jiang Yu said. “Soon, she will say goodbye to everything.”

Jiang Yu and Kang Xue left together. On the way, Jiang Yu still did not say a word.

Kang Xue was also silent. She did not know whether she should congratulate Jiang Yu for finally finding her family or comfort her to stop arguing with Jiang Ran. After all, she would soon return to the Kang family.

It seemed that neither of them was right, so Kang Xue did not speak. It was just that the oppressive atmosphere was a little uncomfortable.

Chapter 865: Fly Up The Branches

The real daughter of the Kang family was wandering outside, but the fake daughter of the Kang family flew up to the branches and became a phoenix. She was even appreciated by the members of the Kang family.

Jiang Ran sat on the sofa of the Kang family. Xin Xiu held Jiang Ran's hand as if she was trying to please her. "Ran Ran, you've really suffered a lot after being outside for so many years."

Jiang Ran smiled. "It's not really suffering. After all, the Jiang family treats me very well. They treat me like my own daughter."

"Jiang Family? What kind of small family is that?" Xin Xiu didn't mind. "Ran Ran, since you've already returned to the Kang family to acknowledge your family, you can stay in the Kang family from now on. Don't go back to the Jiang family anymore."

Jiang Ran paused. She remembered that she hadn't told Jiang Hai and Wei Juan about this, so she said awkwardly, "I can't, first aunt. I haven't told my parents about this. When I tell them about this, I'll come back, okay?"

"Is there a need to tell them about this?" Xin Xiu sneered. "So what if you tell them? Don't tell me they'll stop you if you want to come back?"

Jiang Ran was a little embarrassed, but her uncle Kang Cheng stepped in, he helped Jiang Ran out of the situation. "Xin Xiu, after all, Ran Ran has lived in the Jiang family for twenty years. The Jiang family has nurtured Ran Ran, so this matter is reasonable and should be told to the people of the Jiang family."

Xin Xiu snorted uncomfortably, then smiled at Jiang Ran like a flower. "Ran Ran, I'll ask the driver to send you back."

"No need. I have Sun You to send me back." Jiang Ran stood up and smiled as she held Sun You's arm.

Sun You also smiled as he wrapped his arm around Jiang Ran's waist and said, "Yes, aunt, I'll send Ran Ran back."

"Aiyo, the two of you are really loving each other." Xin Xiu covered her mouth and snickered. She prepared some gifts for Jiang Ran to bring back to the Jiang family.

After Jiang Ran said goodbye to Sun You and the Kang family, Sun You drove Jiang Ran back to the Jiang family.

When they reached the Jiang family, it was already dark.

Sun You originally planned to go in with Jiang Ran and explain this matter clearly. However, he received a phone call at the last minute. It said that there was a problem with a collaboration project in the company, and he wanted Sun You to quickly go back and deal with it.

"What a bunch of trash. They can't even solve a simple collaboration project." Sun You hung up the phone impatiently.

"It's okay. You can go back and deal with the work first." Jiang Ran kissed Sun You's cheek as if she was comforting him. "I'll tell my parents."

“Okay. Be careful. There’s still my child in your belly.” Sun You gently caressed Jiang Ran’s belly, “No matter what happens, don’t be angry with them. Just keep your emotions in check. If you’re not in a good mood, it’s not good for the child.”

“I got it. Don’t worry too much.” Jiang Ran laughed at him for making a fuss. “Alright, let’s go back.”

Sun You then drove back to the company. Jiang Ran took the things that Xin Xiu had prepared for her and stepped into the Jiang family’s door.

Jiang Hai was reading the newspaper on the sofa while Wei Juan was sitting at the side eating a banana.

When she saw Jiang Ran come back, she threw the half-eaten banana aside and quickly got up to welcome Jiang Ran back.

“Ran Ran, why are you back so early? is the school on vacation?” She smiled and took the things from Jiang Ran’s hands. When she opened them, her eyes were instantly as shocked as eggs.

“Ran Ran, where did you buy these things?!” Wei Juan shouted in shock. “The things in here are good stuff. They’re expensive! Where did you get the money to buy these things?!”

Jiang Ran smiled embarrassedly. “My first aunt asked me to bring these back.”

“Your first aunt?” Wei Juan was stunned for a moment. “Ran Ran, you don’t have an uncle. I’m your grandmother’s only daughter.”

“No, it’s really my first aunt.” Jiang Ran started to pay attention to her image as well. She brushed her hair behind her ear. “It’s my Kang family’s first aunt.”

“Kang Family?” This time, Jiang Hai and Wei Juan were both shocked.

“Yes, it’s the Kang family in the capital.” Jiang Ran slowly mentioned the terrifying family.

“You went to the capital?” Wei Juan didn’t understand. “Why did you go to the capital?”

Jiang Ran looked at Wei Juan and Jiang Hai, “I already know everything. Don’t hide it from me anymore. That year. The Kang family lost a young daughter named Kang Die. Later, she was adopted by a family. After she married my father, she gave birth to me. So, my real identity is actually the Kang family’s daughter, right?”

Jiang Ran said all this and suddenly felt a sense of relief.

This time, she had really become a phoenix.

Chapter 866: Real Truth

Jiang Ran was still gloating over her future, but Wei Juan was so shocked that she could not speak.

After a long while, she looked at Jiang Ran in disbelief. “You said you’re Kang Die’s Daughter? ... The dead Kang Die? Kang die is the daughter of the Kang family in the capital?”

“Yes.” Jiang Ran nodded. “Actually, I’m Kang Die’s daughter.”

She was almost certain that she was Kang Die's daughter. She felt that this matter was set in stone and there was no room for negotiation. That was why she told Jiang Hai and Wei Juan this matter so calmly.

But in the next second, Wei Juan's shocked and incredulous voice was heard. "That's impossible. You're my biological daughter. How can you be Kang Die's daughter?"

Jiang Ran was a little uncertain now, but she still thought that Wei Juan couldn't bear to lose her daughter, so she said that.

So she comforted her, "Mom, even if I go back to the Kang family, you're still my mother."

"You're my daughter to begin with." Wei Juan seemed to have thought of something and laughed in anger, "You came out of my stomach. How can I still don't know whose daughter you are. You are my biological daughter. It's impossible for you to be Kang Die's daughter!"

At the end of her sentence, Wei Juan's voice had become shrill. It sounded as if it was going to cut her throat.

"How is that possible?!" Jiang Ran also refused to believe that she was not Kang Die's daughter at all.

Didn't this mean that her wish had failed?

"How is it impossible?!" Wei Juan roared, "You are my daughter, don't I know that? If you weren't my daughter, would I be so good to you?!"

As soon as Wei Juan said this, Jiang Ran knew that what she said was true. She was indeed not Kang Die's daughter, but Wei Juan's biological daughter.

"No... how is this possible?" Jiang Ran couldn't believe it. "If I'm not Kang Die's daughter, then who is?"

The answer was obvious — Jiang Yu was Kang Die's biological daughter.

Jiang Yu was the daughter of the Kang family, the real phoenix.

"No... No way! I've already gone to the Kang family to confirm my relationship with them, and they've already admitted that I'm Kang Die's daughter!" Jiang Ran stood up and shouted, "I can't say that I am not Kang Die's daughter at this time. I can say that I am mistaken!"

"It doesn't matter. If you don't dare to go, I will help you." Wei Juan grabbed Jiang Ran's hand, "You are my daughter. How can you bear to leave me? I will go and explain to them right now. Jiang Yu is the person they are looking for, not you."

As she said that, Wei Juan was about to leave.

Jiang Ran quickly pulled her back. "Are you crazy?! Do you know what the Kang family in the capital is?! If you go and tell them now, won't they know that I lied to them?!"

"Then what should I do? Do you want me to watch you leave me?" Wei Juan's voice was a little tearful, as if she really did not want Jiang Ran to leave her.

“Now is not the time to talk about this.” Jiang Ran held her forehead with a headache, “No matter what, you can’t go to the Kang family, saying that Jiang Yu is the one they are looking for. It’s a small matter if they find out that I lied to them, what if Jiang Yu really returns to the Kang Family?”

“Then let her go back. She has already severed her relationship with the Jiang family, she can go wherever she wants to go.” Wei Juan held Jiang Ran’s arm tightly and refused to let go.

For the first time, Jiang Ran felt that the hands that were holding her were both disgusting and an eyesore.

Without batting an eyelid, she pushed away Wei Juan’s hands, “Aren’t you afraid that Jiang Yu will take revenge on us when she goes back? You were so mean to her before. How do you know that she won’t hold a grudge? Do you think that she will really forget everything that happened just because she said that all the grudges were written off?”

Wei Juan paused for a moment and felt that Jiang Ran’s words made sense.

However, compared to Jiang Ran returning to the Kang family and leaving her, Wei Juan would rather Jiang Yu leave and stay far away from her and never come back again.

Jiang Ran calmed herself down, she comforted Wei Juan and said, “Mom, I’m doing this for the sake of the Jiang family. “If I go to the Kang family, I can bring benefits to the Jiang family and you and my father can live a good life. But if Jiang Yu goes back, it would be fine if she let bygones be bygones, but what if she wants to take revenge on us? She has the Kang family and the Mo family behind her, which is equivalent to an entire world supporting her. Then we won’t be able to live in the future!”

“This...” Wei Juan was a little shaken.

Seeing Wei Juan’s hesitation, Jiang Ran quickly gave Jiang Hai a look, indicating for him to help persuade Wei Juan.

Of course, Jiang Hai wanted Jiang Ran to bring benefits to himself, so he was now on Jiang Ran’s side.

Chapter 867: All Lies

“Yes, just listen to Ran Ran. Even if she returns to the Kang family, she will still call you ‘mother’,” Jiang Hai advised earnestly, “For the sake of our future, you should listen to Ran Ran.”

“I...” Wei Juan closed her eyes. After a long while, she sighed as if she had accepted her fate. “I understand.”

“Thank you, Mom!” Jiang Ran smiled. “I knew you would stand on my side!”

“Does Sun You know about this?” Wei Juan asked.

“He doesn’t know. I just found out about it.” Jiang Ran lowered her head. She felt that she couldn’t tell Sun You about this. “Don’t tell him about this first. The fewer people know about this, the better.”

“Okay.” Wei Juan had no choice but to bow her head in front of reality.

“Call Jiang Yu back when you have time,” Jiang Hai said. “I don’t know if she knows about this, so I’ll call her back first to find out.”

“Okay, I’ll call her right now.” Jiang Ran quickly took out her phone and called Jiang Yu.

Soon, Jiang Ran hung up the phone and said proudly, “Jiang Yu will be back soon.”

Twenty minutes later, Jiang Yu appeared at the Jiang family home.

“Why did you call me back?” Jiang Yu casually sat on the sofa. “Is there anything you can’t tell me over the phone?”

Jiang Hai didn’t beat around the bush and went straight to the point. “Jiang Yu, your sister is going to go back to the Kang family to recognise her family.”

Jiang Yu paused for a moment and then smiled. “The Kang Family? The one in the capital?”

“Yes.” Jiang Hai nodded.

“Does that mean that she has found her own background? That’s a good thing. Congratulations,” Jiang Yu said perfunctorily. “If there’s nothing else, I’ll be leaving first.”

“Wait!” Jiang Ran was not sure how much she knew based on what Jiang Yu said, so she wanted to ask again.

But Jiang Yu was already impatient and continued to answer, she threw a heavy bomb at Jiang Yu. “I still have something to do, so I’ll leave first. You should take care of yourself recently. Otherwise, the baby in your stomach will not be healthy.”

After saying that, Jiang Yu left.

The remaining Jiang Hai and Wei Juan looked shocked.

“You’re pregnant?! When did this happen?!” Wei Juan couldn’t believe that Jiang Ran dared to be pregnant behind her back.

“I just found out not long ago...” Jiang Ran didn’t dare to speak loudly.

Damn Jiang Yu, why did she have to say this out loud?!

Jiang Yu’s mood couldn’t be said to be good or bad right now, so she could only say half of it.

When Jiang Ran called just now, she only said that there was one important thing that had to be said in person. Although she had expected that Jiang Ran would come to her and tell her about going back to the Kang family, she didn’t expect that Jiang Hai and Wei Juan would also help her lie.

“You really don’t even want your own daughter for the sake of power,” Jiang Yu sneered.

There was a pair of parents who only cared about power. She didn’t know whether Jiang Ran was lucky or unlucky.

Jiang Yu returned to Mo Garden. Mo Long was sitting on the sofa reading a magazine. When he saw Jiang Yu return, he put down the magazine and asked, “Why did the Jiang family call you back?”

Jiang Yu shrugged. "To tell me about Jiang Ran going to the Kang family."

"Isn't Jiang Ran Wei Juan's daughter?" Mo Long was puzzled. "Is she willing to let her daughter, who she raised for twenty years, go to another family?"

"I don't know whether she's willing or not, but Jiang Hai will definitely be willing." Jiang Yu knew Jiang Hai well and knew that he was a person who would do anything for power.

Although he always acted like a kind father sometimes, in reality, he didn't know what he was planning in his heart.

"The Jiang family is really interesting." Mo long snorted coldly, "When Jiang Ran returned to the Kang family, the biggest concession they could make was to give Jiang Hai the status of a visiting son-in-law. As for Wei Juan, she won't be able to enter the Kang family for the rest of her life."

"But she seemed to think that as long as Jiang Ran returned to the Kang family, she would be able to live a good life," Jiang Yu said. "Her wishful thinking was quite good, but unfortunately, her wishful thinking turned out to be wrong."

"Sun You was also involved in this matter," Mo Long said. "He wanted to rely on the influence of Jiang Ran and the Kang family to expand his Sun group."

"It turns out that this group of people are all planning to get what they want." Jiang Yu couldn't help but laugh. "I just don't know if Sun You will still marry Jiang Ran if he finds out the truth."

Mo Long's gaze turned cold. "He will do everything in his power to push Jiang Ran to that position."

"Then don't let him get what he wants," Jiang Yu said.

It was a little impolite to always snatch other people's things over and over again.

Chapter 868: That Family

Jiang Yu wanted to return to the Kang family, but she also wanted to drag Jiang Ran down completely. She needed to find all the evidence.

The first step was to find the family that adopted Kang Die.

Jiang Yu quickly looked through the information on the computer and finally locked onto a place.

She did not even have time to inform Mo Long before she bought a plane ticket and flew over.

That place was in a small town. Although it wasn't bustling, it wasn't bleak. Jiang Yu found the house based on her memory. After knocking on the door politely, a voice sounded from inside, "Who is it?"

Jiang Yu said softly, "Hello, is this Xie Hui's house?"

The door was quickly opened. An old man with white hair stood there and looked at Jiang Yu in surprise, "Young lady, who are you looking for?"

Jiang Yu politely said, "I'm looking for Xie Hui."

The old man was even more surprised. "That's me. Why are you looking for me?"

Jiang Yu hesitated for a moment before revealing her identity. "Hello, I'm Kang Die's daughter, Jiang Yu."

Hearing the word "Kang Die", Xie Hui was taken aback. Slowly, his eyes began to tear up.

He hurriedly let Jiang Yu into the house and poured her a glass of water. "This place is small. Don't mind it."

Jiang Yu smiled. "It's alright."

Xie Hui and Jiang Yu sat down face to face. "Did you just say... that you are Kang Die's daughter?"

"Yes." Jiang Yu nodded.

Xie Hui smiled awkwardly. "Actually, if you put it that way, you would have to call me grandpa."

He didn't want Jiang Yu to call him "Grandpa." He just wanted to clarify his identity. However, Jiang Yu had already called him, "Hello, Grandpa."

Xie Hui was stunned. Tears slowly gathered in his eyes, "Hey, Grandpa is here. It's grandpa and grandma who have let you down. Back then, the family really didn't have much savings. The two of us couldn't afford to eat anymore. We really couldn't support you anymore. That's why we sent you to the orphanage..."

As he spoke, big tears rolled down Xie Hui's face.

Jiang Yu's nose turned sour as she comforted him, "It's okay, Grandpa. Look at me now. Isn't my life very good?"

"Living well is better than following me." Xie Hui sobbed.

Jiang Yu patted his shoulder and said, "Grandpa, I came here this time because I want to know everything about my mother."

Xie Hui thought for a moment and started telling his story from the moment he picked up Kang Die.

Fifteen minutes later, Xie Hui finished telling his story.

It turned out that after he married his wife back then, he was found to be infertile and could not have children at all. Although there was a solution to IVF, the two of them were from a small family after all. The subsequent treatment and recuperation costs were a sky-high figure.

So, Xie Hui and his wife chose to adopt a child.

And Kang Die was the child they adopted.

At that time, Kang Die was standing at the intersection. She had a high fever and was holding a cotton doll in her arms. When the Xie Hui couple passed by, Kang Die suddenly fainted.

In the spirit of doing a good deed, Xie Hui and his wife sent Kang Die to the hospital and waited there until Kang Die woke up. Xie Hui wanted to ask for Kang Die's home address and send her back, but Kang Die only vaguely remembered that her name was Kang Die and did not know where her home was.

Xie Hui guessed that Kang Die's current condition should be a temporary memory loss caused by a fever, so he first took her home to take care of her, thinking when she remembered his home address and when he would send her back.

But after a long time, when Kang Die called out "Mommy and Daddy" for the first time, Xie Hui and his wife were reluctant to send Kang Die away, thinking that she was a gift from God to fill the gap in their hearts.

So they kept raising Kang Die for more than twenty years until they saw her get married to that man named Jiang Hai.

Later, when Kang Die got pregnant, the whole family was very happy. However, during the delivery, the doctor found that the fetus was not right. If they insisted on giving birth, they could only choose between the mother or the child.

Although everyone said that they would save the mother, during the final surgery, Kang Die still begged the doctor to follow her wishes and save the child.

In the end, Kang Die died due to dystocia.

Xie Hui and his wife were very sad. Although Jiang Hai was sad, he had no intention of bringing the child back to the Jiang family. He only hurriedly gave the name "Jiang Yu" and disappeared.

Xie Hui carried the child and went to look for Jiang Hai, wanting him to take care of the child. However, every time, he was chased out by a woman named Wei Juan.

Chapter 869: Marital Infidelity

Xie Hui went to the Jiang family several times, but he did not see Jiang Hai. As time passed, Xie Hui gave up.

He and his wife had been taking care of Jiang Yu, but when Jiang Yu was two years old, his wife suddenly had a bad illness. In order to treat her illness, he spent all the family's savings.

Xie Hui had no choice but to send Jiang Yu to an orphanage.

However, Xie Hui's wife's illness had been delayed for more than ten years without being cured. In the end, she passed away and the family was still in debt.

Xie Hui could only accept his fate and pay off the debt. He was also unable to bring Jiang Yu back. However, he could not bear to leave Jiang Yu alone in the orphanage for more than ten years. Therefore, he took a gamble. He went to the Jiang family to find Jiang Hai and begged him to bring Jiang Yu back to take care of her.

Surprisingly, Jiang Hai didn't refuse this time. Instead, he readily agreed to Xie Hui's request.

Xie Hui thought that Jiang Hai had finally realized his responsibility as a father. However, Jiang Hai's plan was to take Jiang Yu back and announce to the public that she was his lost daughter.

This was because he wanted to establish a fatherly image in front of outsiders. At the same time, he wanted to use Jiang Yu's identity as his daughter to find a good opportunity for the Jiang family to marry.

However, Xie Hui didn't know about this.

"Jiang Yu, Grandpa has let you down." Xie Hui wiped away his tears, "If I knew it would be so hard for you to return to the Jiang family, I wouldn't have begged Jiang Hai to bring you back to the Jiang Family! Even if I had to sell everything I had, I would have paid off my external debt and brought you back."

"It's okay. I didn't have a hard time." Jiang Yu hugged Xie Hui. "I have already severed my relationship with the Jiang family. Therefore, I am no longer Jiang Hai's daughter."

"That's good." Xie Hui nodded.

After learning about Kang die from Xie Hui, he was surprised to learn another thing — if his grandfather had brought him to the Jiang family after his mother died in childbirth, if he had been kicked out by Wei Juan, it meant that Jiang Hai had been with Wei Juan during their marriage.

"Jiang Yu, is there anything else?" Xie Hui rubbed his hands awkwardly. "If there's nothing else, you can go back first. My place isn't big, and the environment isn't good. It's almost time for dinner. You should go and eat."

"Okay." Jiang Yu saw Xie Hui's intention to chase her away. She knew that he was afraid that she would dislike this place, so she didn't stay any longer. She stood up and took out a business card and placed it on the table.

"Grandpa, if it weren't for you and grandma saving my mother, I wouldn't be where I am today. So no matter what kind of person you are, you are still my grandpa. This is my business card. If you need anything, please call me."

"Okay, okay." Xie Hui held the business card, but he didn't have any intention of asking Jiang Yu for help. He already owed her enough, so how could he ask her for help instead.

Jiang Yu left Xie Hui's house and returned to Mo Garden.

Mo Long had not arrived home yet, so there were only a few servants at home.

Jiang Yu thought about it and called Xu Ye and sister Xia to arrange a time and place to meet.

About twenty minutes later, the three of them met at the nearest coffee shop.

"How was it? Did you find out something else?" Sister Xia asked.

"I found the family that adopted my mother. I just came back from there." Jiang Yu took a sip of the coffee in front of her, "I already know the general story. From the time my mother was adopted until I returned to the Jiang family, it was such a long time."

“How did it go? What was the result?” Sister Xia couldn’t wait to know the truth.

Jiang Yu told her everything she heard from Xie Hui, including the fact that she suspected Jiang Hai of having an affair.

“What?!” Sister Xia was indignant, “So your mother has suffered like this before? This Jiang Hai isn’t human either. He doesn’t even want his own daughter? And he actually dared to have an affair within marriage? How can he be so shameless?”

“Xie Hui is a witness. We still need him for our follow-up plans,” Xu Ye said, “Jiang Hai’s cheating in marriage is a weakness of his. For a big family like the Kang family, if their son-in-law dares to cheat, it’s undoubtedly tarnishing their reputation.”

“But we don’t have any evidence?” Sister Xia grasped the main point, “This happened 20 years ago. Even if we use this matter to confront him, he won’t admit it, right? Moreover, Wei Juan has been married to Jiang Hai for a long time and has been in the socialite circle for a long time. She would never admit that she is a mistress.”

Chapter 870: Kept In The Dark

“That’s why we want to find evidence,” Jiang Yu said firmly. “I will make them pay for what they did.”

“But this happened 20 years ago. Even if we do find evidence, we might not be able to find it.” Sister Xia was a little worried, “And I haven’t figured it out yet. The capital Kang family is such a big family. Could it be that they have no evidence at all and have already accepted Jiang Ran as their daughter?”

Sister Xia’s suspicion was very reasonable. Not only Jiang Yu, but even Xu Ye’s heart was already burning with suspicion.

Without a paternity test and even without Jiang Hai’s testimony, they were muddle-headed enough to conclude that Jiang Ran was Kang Die’s Daughter?

No matter how they thought about it, it was impossible.

“There’s also one point that is very suspicious.” Jiang Yu found another suspicious point, “Jiang Ran is living well in the Jiang family. Jiang Hai and Wei Juan have already spoiled her to the heavens. Why would she investigate her real identity for no reason? I think someone said something in her ear that made her think that way.”

“She has already taken everything from you in the Jiang family. Does she still want to take everything from you in the Kang Family?” Sister Xia was looking down on Jiang Ran more and more. She wished she could go to the Kang family right now and tell them everything.

Xu Ye was not as agitated as Sister Xia, he was relatively calm when it came to matters. “According to what you said, the Jiang family already knows about this matter. However, the Jiang family would not suddenly think of this matter and even push out Jiang Ran, whom they had painstakingly raised for twenty years. So it could only be said by someone else. However, other than the Jiang family, who else knows about this matter?”

Jiang Yu thought for a moment and said a name, "Sun You."

"But how did Sun You know about this?" Xu Ye didn't understand. "The marriage between him and Jiang Ran is already set in stone. Why does he need to spend time to investigate this matter?"

"I'm afraid that Sun You found out about this a long time ago," Jiang Yu said, "The Sun family is a prestigious family, but compared to the Kang family, they are still a small family. If Sun You wanted to expand the Sun family's power, he had to have a good relationship with the Kang family or one of the Mo family's families. He didn't have a chance with the Mo family, so Sun You could only set his eyes on the Kang family."

"So this matter was started by Sun You?" Xu Ye sneered, "It seems that he is not a decent person. He married Jiang Ran for this reason, right?"

"It seems like Sun You isn't a pure-hearted person. It seems like Jiang Ran was deceived by him." Sister Xia's mood inexplicably improved when she thought of this.

"The saying 'Birds of a feather flock together' is true. Sun You and Jiang Ran are not good people, that's why they gathered together." Jiang Yu knocked on the table, "Sun You's idea is not important. Our main goal now is to find evidence of Jiang Hai's affair and drag him and Jiang Ran down together."

Sister Xia was of course fully supportive of Jiang Yu's idea. "Do you need me to ask Chang Kai for help?"

"There's no need for that. After all, it happened 20 years ago. If he really had an affair, it might not be just 20 years. It's too long ago, so I can look it up myself," Jiang Yu said.

Speaking of this, Xu Ye remembered the detective Dong Ke he had found. He had previously asked him to go to capital to inquire about the Kang family. During this period of time, he had also given Xu ye some clues.

Therefore, he took out those clues, he shared them with Jiang Yu. "This is the information I asked someone to inquire about the Kang family. It is said that grandfather Kang has already made a will, and he intends to distribute all his assets to his sons and daughters. But because of Kang Die's disappearance, Old Master Kang's fourth inheritance has no place to go, so that inheritance has become a piece of juicy meat in everyone's eyes."

Jiang Yu was silent for a moment before she asked, "Apart from my mother, how many other people are there in the Kang Family?"

Xu Ye took out the clues she had found. "You have two uncles and an aunt. The first uncle is called Kang Cheng, and the first aunt is called Xin Xiu. They have a son named Kang Xuan. The second uncle is called Kang Zheng. His wife has passed away and has not remarried. Furthermore, he has no children. The aunt is called Kang Qi. She married a businessman named Shang Ping and gave birth to a daughter named Shang Wen."

"The relationships in the Kang family are really complicated." Sister Xia clicked her tongue. "Jiang Yu suddenly has a younger brother and a younger sister out of nowhere."

"I just hope it's not a bunch of annoying people." Jiang Yu sighed.

She just wanted to return to her real home.
