

Chapter 258 Can Only Be Happy With Mate

"DON'T WORRY MARK. I WILL BE YOUR DATE AT THE PARTY."

Rose looked and smiled at Mark. She turned to her house's main door but her smile froze. She frowned.

'What is he doing in my house? Maybe he came here to talk with mom about pack related matters.'

Rose ignored Arvan and went inside her house. She didn't even greet him.

Arvan got angry. Just then he looked at Mark. He glared at him. Mark was feeling nervous in front of the head Alpha. He didn't understand why the head Alpha always came between him and Rose.

Rose looked behind and saw Arvan didn't let Mark enter her house.

"Mark, please come. What are you doing outside?" Rose said.

Mark lowered his head and entered the house. Arvan looked mad.

Selena saw Mark had come.

"Hello, Mrs. Lee." Mark greeted.

"Hello, Mark. How are you?"

"I am fine. How is your health?"

"Yeah, totally okay. Now come and have dinner with us. Did you eat from outside?"

"We ate two hours ago. So yeah, hungry mom. Let's go." Rose said and went with Mark to the table and sat beside each other.

Selena went to Arvan and told him to come and sit on the head chair.

"But mom, that is dad's chair." Rose showed objection.

"It's okay, my child. If your father was here, he would have done the same. The Alpha's respect is the main priority for us. He is the head of all our families in our pack."

Rose nodded. She didn't want to argue about anything.

Arvan went to the table and sat on the head chair. He sat in the head chair in his pack house too, though his father was still alive. It was a rule of manners that showed the head Alpha's respect. A Head Alpha not only supported his pack, but every family of the pack depended on him.

Selena moved dishes and served to Arvan. Then she sat on a chair with them.

Everyone was silently eating.

Mark passed the dish of white pasta to Rose.

"You like creamy pasta, right?"

Rose smiled at him. "You still remember that?"

"Of course, I remember. How can I forget that incident?" Mark laughed.

"What incident?" Selena asked.

"Mrs. Lee, your daughter is very childish. Once we went to have dinner when we were abroad. She was late, so I called her and asked what I should order for her. She told me to order a white creamy pasta. I ordered pasta. When she arrived, she waited for the food to be served. When the waiter came with our food she looked at the pasta and frowned. The waiter forgot about the pasta flavor and came with naga pasta.

She scolded the waiter and explained to the young man for five minutes about the difference between naga pasta and white pasta."

Rose put her palm on her face. "I was so silly."

Mark patted her head. "It's okay, silly girl."

Selena laughed at them. She was happy that Mark was a caring guy and cared for her daughter.

Arvan was watching everything. Nobody could tell what he was thinking or feeling. He glared at Mark and asked, "How many days have you here, Mark Harrison?"

Mark stopped eating and looked at Arvan.

"I am here for some more days, Alpha. But I am planning for something and if I succeed, I will live here forever." Mark said while looking at Rose.

Rose was eating and listening to them.

"Hope you will succeed, Mark." Selena said.

"Thanks, Mrs. Lee." Mark said.

Arvan frowned at him. 'Why the hell is he always with my mate? He was with her at the club and now he has come with her to her house!'

Arvan paused. Did he just call Rose his mate? Arvan shook his head and continued to eat.

After dinner, Mark said goodbye to Selena.

"Come again. You helped Rose with her studies and took care of her a lot. Thanks for taking care of her."

Mark smiled. "She is my very close friend. I must take care of her."

Selena nodded. Mark turned to Arvan. "I am leaving, Alpha. It was nice to meet you again." Arvan looked at him and nodded.

Mark left the house and Rose went to see him off to the entrance. Arvan and Selena looked at them. They looked like they were talking about something.

"They talked so much. They just come from outside together. Now they have another thing to talk about?" Arvan thought.

"Mark is a good boy, right?" Selena asked Arvan.

Arvan turned his head to Selena. "Why?"

"I think Mark is a nice guy. He never thinks about Rose's rank. They have been friends for a long time. I think he knows her better. Otherwise, why is Rose so happy after he comes back? I just hope Rose will accept him soon." Selena said.

Arvan turned his head to Rose and Mark again. He was glaring at them from inside the house. He could see how Mark looked at her.

"Mrs. Lee, don't you think a mate bond is stronger than another bond like friendship?" Arvan asked.

Selena also looked back at them. "Yes, you are right. But his mate rejected her. So-"

"What if you are wrong? What if their mate bond is still there? Then what?"

Selena slowly turned her head to Arvan. "What do you mean, Alpha?"

"I think she is mature enough to take her decisions, so don't try to force her to make anything."

Before Selena could reply, she saw Mark driving away and Rose coming back. So she stopped talking. She didn't want her daughter to listen to all of this and get hurt about anything.

Rose came back and saw Arvan there standing beside her mom. Rose said, "Mom, I am very tired. I am going to my room. Goodnight."

She didn't say anything to Arvan and went to her room without looking at him. When she entered her room she was confused. 'Why is this man following me? He was asking me about my private matters. And now he has come to my home? But Why? Just when I thought everything was okay, now he started to create problems. Why??' Rose punched one of her pillows as if it was Arvan and said, "Arvan Black, stay away from me and my mom."

Then Rose went to the bathroom to get fresh. She changed her clothes into a night dress. She knocked over on the bed and fell asleep.

Meanwhile, Arvan looked upstairs at the door of Rose's room. He heard, "I apologize on behalf of her again, Alpha. She is a child. Please forgive her. She didn't try to disrespect you, she is just naive." Selena apologized to him.

Arvan nodded at her. "It's okay."

"But let me tell you one thing, Mrs. Lee."

Selena nodded to him. "Yes, Alpha?"

"SHE CAN ONLY BE HAPPY WITH HER MATE."
