

Chapter 271 She Is Not A Kid

Rose could not understand what was happening to Arvan. He was the one who rejected her, who hated her, who always insulted her. Now he wanted to be close to her. Why?

"Arvan, are you drunk?"

"I am totally sober. I was insane before, but now I am in the right mindset." Arvan said while looking at her.

The way he looked at her made her cheek redden. She was pushing the man but he was so strong that she could not move him a bit.

"What do you want from me, Arvan?"

"What if I say, 'You'?"

Rose raised her eyebrows. "Wh-What do you mean?"

"Nothing." He shook his head and rubbed her lower lip with his thumb.

Suddenly, they heard noises.

"Let me enter. I am his girlfriend and his soon to be Luna. He won't say anything to me." Lina pushed two men and entered the corner but paused when she saw Rose in Arvan's arms. They were looking intimate. They looked like they were about to kiss."

Rose turned her head to her. Lina glared at her.

Arvan didn't look at Lina. His eyes were always on Rose. Lina ran away from there while crying. Those two men went back to where they were coming from.

Rose was shocked. She turned her head to Arvan. "Your girlfriend just saw us like this. She misunderstood us. Let me go. You should go to her." She said to Arvan.

"She saw what we were doing. She didn't misunderstand anything. She is not a kid." Arvan said while looking at her.

"What are you, Arvan Black? Your girlfriend saw you with another woman like this and you don't have any shame about that?"

"Now all I want is only you, no one else." Arvan replied and softened up her grip on her.

He drank a lot of glasses of whiskey. His alcohol gave him the courage to accept his feelings.

But Rose misunderstood it. She thought he was talking about tonight. For tonight he wanted her.

She pushed her so hard that he backed away.

"How shameless you are Arvan Black! You were asking about my personal life and why I got close to another man? Look at you. How cheap you are! Your girlfriend caught you with another woman but you don't have any regret."

Arvan was just staring at her without saying anything. He didn't mind that she pushed him hard.

"Because you know that after tonight, you will again go to her and persuade her and she will forgive you gladly because you are the Almighty Alpha Arvan." Rose said angrily. She paused and continued,

"But I am not like her. I will never forget how you rejected me. I can't forget the pain. I can't forget how you behaved with me."

She went close to him and said, "Stay away from me. I am not interested in you."

Arvan smiled at her. Rose frowned. "Why are you smiling like an idiot? Hello? Are you that drunk? I have never seen you like this. You must be losing your mind. Otherwise, you never try to talk with me. I am telling you, stay away from me."

Rose turned around and started to walk ahead. She felt a jacket on her shoulders. Arvan came from behind her and wrapped his jacket around her body.

The jacket was so big that she almost drowned in it. She realized how tall he was. In his jacket, her skin could not be seen anymore, only her legs were visible to others.

"Let's go." Arvan grabbed her hand and gave her her bag. He pulled her with him.

They came outside the corner. Arvan nodded to the men and they left. Liam saw Arvan and Rose together hand in hand. He smirked at them. Alice and Delilah were shocked.

They came to Rose. "What happened to you?" They saw the jacket on her body and got worried about her more.

"Nothing." Rose replied.

"Let's go, Rossy. I will drop you and Delilah off. Alpha Blaze informed me to drop you home." Alice intentionally said while glancing at Arvan.

Arvan didn't say anything and let go of Rose's hand.

Rose forgot that Arvan was still holding her hand until he left her hand. She looked at her hand and then at Arvan. She glared at him.

Arvan turned to her and said,

"Go home safely." Then he left the club first.

Rose was frowning.

"Rossy, let's go." Alice said.

Rose went outside with them. She sat in the backseat while Alice was in the driver's seat and Delilah sat beside Alice in the passenger seat.

Alice started the car and glanced at Alice from the rearview mirror. "What happened, Rossy? Why were you with Arvan?"

Delilah turned her head to the back seat. She saw Rose was in deep thought. "Did he do something?"

Rose closed her eyes and leaned back on the seat. "I don't know anything. My mind and heart can't process anymore." Rose replied.

"Did something happen?" Alice asked again.

Rose shook her head. "I just want to go back home and sleep. I will talk to you both tomorrow."

They didn't ask her anything again. They gave her private space. But they knew something had happened for sure.

They dropped Rose at her home. "Thank you so much. I will talk to you tomorrow." Rose said, and went back to her home.

She saw her mom was at home. Seeing her condition, her mother became worried. Her messy hair and the jacket made her worried.

"Don't worry, mom. I am okay. I am just sleepy. I will talk to you tomorrow."

Rose went to her room and closed her door. She lied down on her bed and looked at the jacket. She started to cry.

"I know you just wanted to use me tonight. Why are you doing this with me? I am trying to avoid you but you always remind me of the pain you gave me. Am I a toy to you? Why don't you let me live peacefully? Why??"
