

Chapter14

Jaxson

It's been three days. Three whole days, I have not left the room, haven't showered, haven't eaten, I can't bring myself to leave her side, Worried she will wake and im not there, Afraid something else will happen the minute I step out the room,

They had gotten her stable. She had a high fever from the infection in her leg. Dr Mary said it came from all the bites. She had a high level of bacteria in her system.

With her body being so broken down, it ripped through her before anyone realized it. Even with the antibiotics she was being given,

She seems to do better when im close, another reason I dont leave her.

The door opens, and a nurse pops in. Her eyes land on me as she gives a small smile,

"Evening, Alpha, I was coming to check her vitals,"

"It is okay, go ahead," I lean back, rubbing my eyes; standing, I stretch, feeling my back pop.

"Alpha, you really should get some rest."

Shaking my head, "I'm alright. I don't want to leave her,"

I walk around the room as the nurse checks her over; when she is done, she nods and then leaves.

Just as the door closes, it opens again. Wayne and Harley walk in,

Harley hands me a bag. I raise a brow at her,

"It is a clean change of clothes. Please go shower and change. You smell, and I'm sure she isn't going to want to wake up to a stinky Alpha hovering over her,"

Taking the bag, "You know you're lucky I like you." I grumble at her,

"Just telling it like it is."

"Wayne do something with your mate, she's getting out of control."

He gives me a look, then looks at her; she has her arms crossed, staring at him.

"Nope. Sorry man, you are on your own,"

"Whimp," I call out before going into the bathroom,

Doing my business quickly, I don't want to be away from her too long. Not even in the other room.

Chapter 14

Coming back out, I toss the bag on the floor,

"Thank god you smell so much better,"

Flipping her off, I walk back to the bed, looking over her, Then sitting back in the chair,

"So what has the doctor said?" Wayne asked as he pulled another chair over for Harley to sit down,

Letting out a sigh,

"Nothing different, it's just a waiting game; her fever broke yesterday, Dr. Mary has contained the infection in her leg, and she feels she slipped into a coma cause how weak her system is."

"She says when she thinks she will wake up?" Harley asked as she glanced over at Rose.

Shaking my head. "No. She thinks she will when she is ready; her vitals have been stable and steady. She only seems to drop when I leave the room or am away from her for a certain amount of time,"

"You think she can feel the bond?" Wayne asked,

"Im not sure. It seems that way. It could be her wolf reaching out to mine. He's been quiet these last few days,"

"Im sure she will wake up soon," Harley says as she touches Roses's hand,

There was a knock on the door. It opened. I saw a tray first,

"AH, Alpha, I was instructed to bring you dinner."

She pushed the tray over to me. The smell of food filled the room as my stomach grumbled,

I heard Harley chuckle. Snapping my eye at her, She shrugged,

"I knew you had not been eating, so I had them bring you something,"

Relaxing my shoulders, I picked up the lid and dug in, taking a mouth full of food. A content sigh left me,

"Thanks, Harley."

"You boys would be lost without me, I tell ya." She laughed out,

I was too lost in the food to have a snappy comeback for her. I set the now empty plate back on the tray,

"Well, now that you have a full belly and will be less grouchy," Wayne says,

I look at him, cg my brows at him,

He let out a sigh, "The council answered back."

They are on their way here should arrive tomorrow,"

"And?" I could tell there was more as he was stalling,

"Um. They are not excepting the sanctuary for Rose, They said they will do a full investages when they get here, and if they feel she was in danger then she will be allowed to stay, If they do not find enough she will have to return to her pack."

"She is my mate!" I growl out,

He holds his hands up, "I know, I told them that,

but they said you should have informed her Alpha when you found her and went through the proper channels for her to come here."

"How she was injured and left for dead when I found her!" I yelled, making her heart monitor start to beep as her heart rate jumped,

Taking a breath, I need to calm down,

"Im sorry, Jax. I didn't want to bother you with this, but they will want to speak with you and Rose."

Looking over at her sleeping face,

"I know. I will handle it tomorrow; I do not care what I must do. She will not go back there. If I have to mark her, I will. That pack will not get their hands on her again,"

"We still have that Corey kid. Im sure he will sing like a songbird again,"

"And there is Tanner." Harley said, "He is attached to Nigel, but im sure he can tell them what went on there."

Nodding my head, I took in what they were saying. I need to make sure she doesn't go back there. I will take on the whole council if I have to. No one is taking my mate,

Ron

Stepping through the door, my skin wanted to crawl. Looking around at them, their eyes watching my every move,

"It's so good to see you again, Alpha Ron," Her voice rang out across the room,

I rolled my eyes at her, Making my way over. She was sitting at the table in the far corner, so I pulled out the chair and sat down.

"Why couldn't you come to the pack house?"

"And miss seeing you squirm," She laughed, leaning back in her chair,

Glaring at her, I let out a growl,

"You are no fun." She waves her hand at me,

"Are we going to talk business, or did I make the trip for nothing?"

"Well, I was going to offer you a drink, but it so you to want to jump right to it then,"

cg a brow at her,

"Alright, tell me what it is that you need help with?"

"Something was taken from me, and I want it back. I need to gain entry to another pack lands without being found,"

Chapter 14

"Well, a simple cloaking spell may work, but with that, there isn't much time. They were off rather quickly. What kind of time are we talking about?"

"Not sure, I still need to learn the layout of his territory,"

"Well. Let us see," She stops to think. "What is it that you are wanting back?"

I hesitate for a moment. I'm not sure if I want to tell her. She is usually loyal, but you never know with these witches,

"It is not a thing but a person."

She gasped, "Would it happen to be a secret lover?" She giggles out.

When she sees I'm not laughing, "Oh, okay, no joking,"

"He took her out from under my nose, Right off my pack lands without me knowing till the next morning. I want her back,"

"And this her you speak of, she is what?"

"None of your business. All you need to know is she belongs to me, and I want her returned as soon as possible,"

"Ok, And who are we about to steal from?"

Chapter14

"Alpha Jaxson Black."
