

Meeting The One For Me

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 241-Nathan had even mocked Audrey when she woke up in the hospital. He said that she should just slit her wrists for a quicker end if she wanted to die. Then, he and Amelia could be free.

For two years, he tortured Audrey using every means possible, until the day he drank the drugged alcohol and called her disgusting.

He looked at Audrey on the ground, hooked her chin with his finger, and said to Charles, "Since she's so eager, why don't you bring a few people over to satisfy her!" He vividly remembered Audrey's shocked expression followed by a light chuckle. Her voice was extremely soft, and her eyes were desolate.

She had asked him, "Nathan, if you regain your memories one day and realize that you've treated me like this, would you regret it?" And he had answered, "If I ever regain my memories, I'd wish I'd never met you."

"You should just rot in Sayeno Town." If it weren't for Hugo taking Audrey away, he would have asked Charles to bring some guys over. He knew he would do that!

Important notice: Dear readers, Please bookmark our new site: to continue reading the Novels. Thank you. Recommend: Clean Your Brower Cache now to access missing chapters.

Later, Audrey threw the divorce agreement at Nathan. Her eyes were indifferent and devoid of the passionate love she once had for him.

She had said, "I was reluctant to let you go before this because I was afraid that one day, you would come back and blame me for giving up our relationship too easily! I tried my best, but it was too exhausting! So, Nathan.... I'm giving up on you now." No... No way!

How could Audrey give up on him?

He was a scumbag! How could he hurt Audrey, whom he had loved so dearly?

Who could tell him what had happened to him?

Was he possessed, or had he gone mad?

Nathan remembered how Audrey was covered in blood from his push. He watched as she turned hysterical over Anne's death. He watched as Audrey drowned in pain and despair from him threatening her using the Yeomans family.

He saw how he had pushed the pregnant Audrey down the stairs. He also recalled her smiling as she told him the child was conceived the night he drugged her, and that someone else got her pregnant.

Nathan suddenly woke up. He jolted up with tears streaming down his face.

"Nathan! You're awake!" Joseph, who had been sleeping by the bedside, woke up and rubbed his eyes.

"You've been crying ever since you fell asleep."

"I think her boyfriend took her away yesterday," Joseph replied.

"Boyfriend?" Nathan's pupils trembled.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 242-As he spoke, Joseph remembered what Edmond had explained to him the night before. He quickly took his phone out and gave Edmond a call, saying, "Edmond, Nathan has woken up!

"Boyfriend..." Nathan's throat churned, and his eyes were bloodshot.

Was he the biological father of Audrey's child?

Did he send Audrey into someone else's bed with his own hands?

Audrey, whom he had been holding back from touching throughout all these years, was also the same Audrey whom he had personally drugged and sent to another man's bed.

Important notice: Dear readers, Please bookmark our new site: to continue reading the Novels. Thank you.Recommend: Clean Your Brower Cache now to access missing chapters.

It was him who personally caused Audrey's trauma of the relationships between men and Women.

Gritting his teeth, Nathan threw off the covers and rushed out.

Joseph was on the phone when Nathan bumped into him. As he stumbled, he turned around to see Nathan leave after slamming the door shut.

He quickly hung up the phone and chased after him.

"Nathan!" He shouted.

When he caught up with Nathan at the hospital's entrance, he grabbed Nathan and demanded, "Where do you think you're going? The doctor hasn't discharged you yet!" Nathan shook off Joseph's hand but to no avail no matter how hard he tried. He hysterically repeated, "I'm going to see Audrey! I'm going to see Audrey!" Joseph ended up falling on the steps after being pushed. He then looked at Nathan with a frown.

As he thought, Nathan had regained his memory!

Joseph quickly got up and grabbed the fleeing Nathan.

"Where are you going to find Audrey? Do you know where she is?" He asked.

Upon hearing that, Nathan paused, as though he had just awakened from a dream. He soon searched Joseph for his phone, urging, "Your phone! Give me your phone!" "Nathan!" Joseph pushed Nathan's hands away and reclaimed his phone.

"Audrey doesn't want to see you right now! Do you have any idea how much she despises you? If you use my phone to call her, you'd better believe Audrey will immediately block both you and I!" Hearing Joseph's angry tone, Nathan calmed down.

Nathan admitted that Joseph was right. He... was well aware of Audrey's hatred toward him.

When Audrey slapped him last night, the playful smirk as she grabbed his tie, and the icy look in her eyes were the same as when she used to glare at those vermin who bullied her in middle and high school.

To Audrey, Nathan was probably worse than trash.

“Where is Audrey?” Choked up, Nathan pleadingly looked into Joseph’s eyes.

He could barely speak as he held his knees and sobbed uncontrollably.

“Please, ask Audrey where she is.” Upon hearing that, Joseph licked his lips and finally gave in.

He held onto Nathan’s arm and advised, “Go back to the hospital and have your check–up first. I can help you to talk to Audrey first, but you can only go to her if she’s willing to see you.” Nathan looked up at Joseph with hopeful eyes. He then gripped onto Joseph’s hand tightly, as if Joseph was his lifeline.

“Will she still want to see me?” he asked with his throat tight.

When Edmond arrived at the ward, Nathan was staring at Joseph making the call to Audrey.

“Okay!” Nathan nodded.

With that, Joseph dialed Audrey’s number and put the phone on speaker.

Audrey answered the call in no time.

“Yes?” The moment Audrey’s cold voice came through the phone, Nathan couldn’t hold back his tears anymore.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 243-Nathan felt too ashamed to face Audrey the moment he heard her voice.

Joseph glanced at Nathan before replying to Audrey. “Audrey, I was so focused on Nathan yesterday that I didn’t pay attention to you. Did you get hurt?” “I’m fine. How about you? Daphne said that you were also hit yesterday. Did you get your injury treated?” “Yeah, everything’s taken care of.” Joseph’s eyes darted in Nathan’s direction.

“Nathan stayed in the hospital for observation last night. If his check–up today goes well, he should be able to leave.” “Are you going to go back to Cloudmill at a later time, then?” Audrey asked. She showed no interest in talking about Nathan despite Joseph’s deliberate mention of him.

“Yes, I’ll head back the day after tomorrow. A lot is going on at the lab, so I can’t just leave everything to Justin.” “Got it. Call me if you need me. I have something to attend to, so I'll hang up first." Upon hearing Audrey say that she was going to end the call, Nathan straightened up. HE wanted to say something but couldn't help glancing at Joseph.

"Alright, bye." Joseph avoided Nathan's gaze and hung up the phone.

Important notice: Dear readers, Please bookmark our new site: to continue reading the Novels. Thank you.Recommend: Clean Your Brower Cache now to access missing chapters.

Then, he said to Nathan with a frown, "You heard that? Audrey doesn't want to hear about you. Just forget it, Nathan. You have a fiancée now. What's the point of bothering Audrey again?" Edmond, who was standing at the door, knocked before informing, "Mr. Franklin, Mr. Campbell knows about your hospitalization and asks if we can retrieve all the formulae on time."

"Edmond." At the sound of his name, Edmond turned around and saw the fully equipped Amelia behind him with a thermos.

"Ms. Doyle! You're here to see Mr. Franklin," Edmond mentioned with a smile while stepping aside to let Amelia enter first.

When Nathan heard Amelia's name, he turned his head and looked toward the door. His eyes were red and swollen.

"Nathan, you're awake!" Amelia walked in briskly before placing the thermos on the coffee table.

She then sat down beside Nathan. However, as she reached out to hold Nathan's hand, he avoided her touch.

Nathan's pupils trembled as he lifted his hand to his aching head.

His memories with Amelia were vividly replaying in his mind.

It was the time when he held Amelia from behind and softly called her "Sweetie" in her ear as they watched the fireworks go off.

If Nathan remembered correctly, he was captivated by the demeanor Amelia exuded while debating in the debate team when he first met her.

Nathan remembered that it was a kind of demeanor that made his heart skip a beat.

What kind of demeanor was it again?

Nathan remembered it as the same kind of calm and composed demeanor that Audrey had displayed. It was of Audrey with her lips curved into a smile as she confidently shut down her opponents when she debated in high school.

Amelia used to wear skinny jeans and white flats, paired with oversized hoodies, and always carried books under one arm. Perhaps it was the way she gave off an air of casual nonconformity that Nathan felt like he had known Amelia for many years.

It made him feel like they were kindred spirits.

As time went by, Nathan accepted it all, even as Amelia slowly changed.

Joseph quickly pulled Amelia away, instructing, "Quick, get the doctor!" Amelia's face was devoid of color under her mask. Her gaze wavered as she looked at Nathan.

"Yes, Nathan has regained his memory," Joseph answered for Nathan.

Amelia clenched her fists tightly as her beautiful nails dug into her palms.

"Nathan, do you feel like feel like you still love Audrey more? Is that why you deliberately said that?

Because you want to break off our engagement?

"A—Are you trying to blame everything on me? I didn't imitate Audrey. I've always been that way even before... I met you. You can check!"

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 244-Indeed, Amelia had started imitating Audrey even before she formally showed up in front of Nathan.

Envious of the legendary love between Audrey and Nathan, she thought that she could also have the kind of love Audrey had if she could become like Audrey.

At Sheysea Junior High School, not only Amelia had such thoughts, but almost all the younger girls admired Audrey the same way.

After Audrey and Nathan entered Sheysea University, a wave of emulation of them swept through Sheysea Junior High School.

The boys, lacking Nathan's background, imitated his deep affection for his girlfriend and his carefree attitude. While the girls, lacking Audrey's genius intellect, imitated her composure and calmness.

Important notice: Dear readers, Please bookmark our new site: to continue reading the Novels. Thank you. Recommend: Clean Your Brower Cache now to access missing chapters.

Tears continued to cascade down Amelia's cheeks. She had always feared of the day Nathan would choose Audrey over her when he regained his memory.

She had rehearsed countless times in her mind what she would do if Nathan had chosen Audrey after regaining his memory.

She had decided that she would offer her blessings and then gracefully leave.

But even after countless mental rehearsals, Amelia still felt a pang of heartache when Nathan asked her if she had been imitating Audrey.

Perhaps, deep down, she had always known that it was because she had imitated Audrey that she had stolen Nathan's love from Audrey.

Yet, she still clung to a glimmer of hope. She had believed that, as she gradually returned to being herself, Nathan's love for her would only grow stronger.

In the end, Nathan would still have fallen in love with Amelia!

Amelia noticed that Nathan never showed a hint of temper to her after they dated even though Nathan and Audrey used to argue back then.

At that time, Amelia didn't realize that Nathan's lack of temper toward her was only because he subconsciously projected his guilt toward Audrey onto her.

"Nathan! What does that have anything to do with Ms. Doyle? You're the one who lost your memories and fell in love with her. You can't push your mistakes on someone else!" Joseph exclaimed.

Having witnessed Nathan's affection for Amelia, Joseph couldn't help but defend her when Nathan questioned her after regaining his memory.

"I'm sorry." Nathan held his head in his hands. "My mind is a mess. Edmond... Please take her to get her burns treated." "No need. I'll go myself." Amelia's voice trembled as she hastily wiped away her tears.

She persistently asked, "Nathan, have you decided to break off our engagement? If... If you're going to do it, I need to notify the company in advance and prepare a PR statement.

Amelia still held hope for Nathan.

If Nathan had ever truly loved her, even just a little bit, he would still choose her even after realizing that he could no longer have a relationship with Audrey.

I love Audrey... This sentence completely shattered Amelia.

"Did our time together mean anything at all?" Amelia took off her hat and hurled it onto the couch.

"How could you be so cruel? You gave me the best love in the world, so how could I ever love someone else again?" She pounded on his chest as she sobbed.

Nathan could only sit there motionless. His eyes were also red as he watched Amelia collapse to the ground in exhaustion.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 245 "Nathan!" Amelia was done crying.

Suddenly, she cheered herself up and pulled Nathan's hand. "Let's give each other another chance! Let's give each other a chance for two months. We need to give our relationship an answer.

"After two months, if you still want to break off the engagement, I won't be clingy! But you need to cooperate with me during these two months!" Seeing that Nathan was silent, she continued, "Back then, when Audrey woke up and asked you to cooperate, you agreed! Nathan... I'm not asking for a lot of time. It isn't two years but two months! You owe me this much!" To Nathan, two months and two years were the same. As his memory gradually recovered, his love for Audrey only grew.

The more he remembered, the more he couldn't give up on her.

Ever since Nathan met Audrey, during the ten-odd years, every minute and second was about Audrey.

It was as he had previously said. She was more important than his life. She was his everything!

"Sure!" Nathan answered.

Audrey had been going through the information of the board of directors and executives' families for the entire day. She only received Daphne's call at night, stating that she and Azure had returned to Cloudmill.

Daphne liked to gossip, so she couldn't resist asking, "Audrey, be honest with me. About the person who took you away in the Night Palace, how far have you gone with him?" At the mention of Ryan, Audrey couldn't help but think about the previous night, when he asked his driver to send her back home.

She put down the stylus in her hand and took the cup of water next to her hand.

After a sip, she said, "I don't know either." "Come and tell me all about it! I'll analyze it for you! I'm a love expert!" Daphne was exhausted from the trip, but her eyes immediately lit up. She craved the gossip.

"Sometimes, we are intimate with each other. And other times, we are distanced." There were a lot of things Audrey couldn't bring herself to say.

So, she roughly explained, "I went to the hospital to get my wound bandaged.

After I came out of the hospital, he seemed to have pushed me away. But at the same time, he still cares about me." "Have you guys made your relationship official?" Daphne asked.

Did marriage count as an official relationship?

But...

"That's it!" Daphne slapped her thigh excitedly. "Let me tell you. He's a thug in a suit!" "A thug in a suit?" Audrey thought that the term didn't suit Ryan.

Ryan should be noble. He was calm and mature; nothing like a thug.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 246-Daphne was right!

Her analysis was correct, and Audrey straightened her back subconsciously.

“Yeah...” “Let me ask you another question!” Daphne asked anxiously, “Did he treat you extremely well previously and like to be by your side at all times?” Audrey thought back on the times she spent with Ryan alone. When his warm lips touched hers, and when he wrapped his tongue around hers, it was as if he wanted to swallow her.

He was fierce and possessive, and his possessiveness almost made him lose control as he would go wild.

Audrey’s ears reddened. “I–It’s something like that!” “I got it!” Daphne was certain. “He’s playing hard to get! He doesn’t know your thoughts, so he invades your life and makes you get used to being with him.

Important notice: Dear readers, Please bookmark our new site: to continue reading the Novels. Thank you.Recommend: Clean Your Brower Cache now to access missing chapters.

“Then, he lets you feel how it is to live without him! He wants you to know his good! He wants you to know that you have feelings for him! He’s a professional!” She sighed.

“Huh?” Audrey clenched her cup. “Is that so? But I feel like it’s because he finds me boring after spending time with me. So...” “There’s only a few days left until the deadline you guys agreed on, right?” Daphne interrupted her.

“Yeah!” Daphne smiled. In an incomprehensible and certain voice, she said, “You can try it if you don’t believe me. From today onward until the date you both agreed on, he won’t meet you! He won’t call you often either! If it’s like this, you should know that he’s a master!” Audrey was silent. She thought that Daphne’s words were right, but at the same time, they were wrong.

In private, Ryan wouldn’t hide his desire for her. He was straightforward.

“Be honest with me. Do you like him?” Without waiting for Audrey to answer, Daphne said, You like him! You definitely like him! You could tell that he was close with you at times and distant at times. If you don’t like him, you wouldn’t care about that!

“You should take him down! Just by looking at his long legs, you should take him down! When I saw him beating people up yesterday in your house, he seemed to have high fertility!

You must believe me. I heard that men who hold back in a pure veg private!

Ahhh! I’m a married woman, but I’m about to go crazy!

“For your happiness for the rest of your life, go and get your man!” Her words made Audrey laugh. The latter’s ears were extremely red, and she used the back of her hands to cool herself down.

She thought that Ryan seemed to actually have high fertility!

He got her pregnant the first time, and she was pregnant with twins.

Audrey couldn’t help but remember the times when she slept with Ryan. She thought about his uncontrollable kisses and popped-up veins on his arms.

Stop it!

She closed her eyes and rubbed her temples, but her ears were red.

“Are you listening to me?” Daphne was worried that Audrey was still immersed in the relationship with her previous husband.

“I got it, Daphne. I won’t look back,” said Audrey.

She would never look back, even if Nathan had taken a hit for her.

“Try dating Ryan. If it doesn’t work out, you can find another man! The next one will be better!” Audrey nodded with her face flushed. “Got it, Daphne. You should go back home early and rest up!” “If you have any relationship issues, you can call me. Even though I have only dated Justin, I know the relationship theories!” “Alright, Daphne.”

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 247-Audrey scrolled through her phone, and it was just as Daphne said. Ryan had stopped contacting Audrey, and there were no calls or messages from him.

Was he really playing hard to get? Wasn't it because he was tired of her?

Audrey thought that she should avert her focus and got up to change her clothes. Pulling the door open, she saw Peter standing outside. She asked, "Have you eaten dinner?" Peter was confused and shook his head. "Not yet." "Let's go out and have dinner then!" Peter walked to the elevator hurriedly and pressed the button to go down. He asked, "Where would you like to eat?" "Do you have any recommendations? I'm not familiar with Mythravia," responded Audrey.

Peter felt embarrassed. "You won't get used to the places I usually go to." "Food trucks?" When Audrey entered the elevator, she was smiling. "I like them.

You can take me there." Peter brought her to a secluded food truck. Although the environment wasn't nice as there were water puddles on the road, a lot of luxury cars stopped there.

Important notice: Dear readers, Please bookmark our new site: to continue reading the Novels. Thank you.Recommend: Clean Your Brower Cache now to access missing chapters.

"The food here is delicious!" He said.

"I'll give it a try." Since Peter needed to drive, he only ordered a can of carbonated drink for himself. Then, he ordered beer and a few dishes he found tasty for Audrey.

He handed the corndog over to Audrey after he wiped the end of the stick clean with a disinfection wipe.

As the night wind blew, Audrey tucked her hair, which had been ruffled up by the wind, behind her ears.

After taking a bite of the corndog, she realized that it was far more delicious than any other restaurant's she had been to.

"It's delicious!" She smiled at Peter.

"It is. My girlfriend likes it a lot." Peter smiled as he mentioned his girlfriend.

"How old is your girlfriend?" Audrey asked.

"She's still in university." From the tone of Peter's voice, he was proud. "She's studying journalism at Mythravia University!"

"We grew up together from a young age, and she's a good woman! We promised each other to get married after she graduates from university and successfully applies for a master's degree." Audrey nodded. "I think you should change your career by then. I'm not saying that it's bad to be a bodyguard, but you will face dangers." Peter was confused. He had never thought about changing careers.

As he went to pay the bill, Audrey stood by the road with her bag to wait for him.

Was that guy her new boyfriend?

From what Joseph said, she was taken away by her new boyfriend last night.

A cab sped past, and the wheels ran over the water puddles.

blocked her.

The dirty water splashed onto his back, and his clothes were drenched.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 248-"I'm not made out of glass. Nothing will happen even if I were to be splashed." Audrey pulled Peter's arm and made him turn around. She checked his back.

"You don't need to be so nervous.

Through the window, Nathan saw Audrey pull Peter's arm and check his back.

He held onto the cigarette tightly. When he reached out to open the door, he stopped himself.

He had done so many evil things to Audrey in the past. So how could he face her?

Important notice: Dear readers, Please bookmark our new site: to continue reading the Novels. Thank you. Recommend: Clean Your Brower Cache now to access missing chapters.

She was a kind person, but she didn't even contact him after he took a hit for her. It meant that she hated him!

Besides, Peter had promised Amelia not to meet Audrey for two months.

Even though he wanted to chop off Peter's arms, he couldn't bring himself to get out of the car to face Audrey.

He had done too many bad things. If he wanted to pursue her again, he needed to break off the engagement first. Only then, could he stand before her properly.

If he didn't end things with Amelia properly before pursuing Audrey, other people would claim that Audrey was a mistress!

Nathan couldn't let Audrey suffer from such rumors.

Peter took off his coat and explained apologetically, "I'm sorry, Ms. Yeomans. I shouldn't have brought you here. The potholes have existed for a long time, but no one repaired them.

"Overtime, they became bigger and deeper, so the rainwater couldn't subside... My girlfriend has been splashed before!" Looking at the water stain on her legs, Audrey smiled. "Let's go back! If I finish work early, we can go to the gym. I want to check out your skills.

"If you're good, you can teach me. Then, you can have an additional salary." She could tell that Peter loved his girlfriend. Just at the mention of his girlfriend, his eyes would light up.

If he could receive another salary, he could end his career as a bodyguard earlier. Then, he could give his girlfriend a peaceful life.

Nathan watched as the car Audrey got into left. He followed after it.

On the way back home, Peter noticed that a car was following them. He stayed calm and didn't alarm anyone.

After three streets, he got rid of Nathan. He then sent Audrey home safely without her noticing anything.

He watched her enter her home. "Ms. Yeomans, rest up. Before I come to work in the morning tomorrow, don't open the door for strangers." "Got it." After Audrey took a shower and changed her clothes upon arriving home, it was already 11:

00 pm.

There were still no calls nor messages from Ryan. There was only a missed video call and a few voice messages from Lily because Audrey was in the shower.

"Mom, Dad... I mean, Mr. Lambert came over today. He lost his temper again!"

"Mom, I saw Wandflower's old picture. She looks just like me! She also looked like she was young, too!" you when "Good night, Mom. I'm going to bed! Otherwise, Dallas will get angry at me for playing with my smart watch!"

As Audrey listened to Lily's cute voice and her mood improved.

Ryan went back to Lambert Residence that day. Did he have an argument with George again?

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 249-However, George didn't call Audrey to question her. Therefore, the argument shouldn't be about her and Peter.

Besides, Ryan said that he would give her time to consider their relationship. He wouldn't tell George about it before the deadline.

Since that was the case, why was George angry this time?

Lying on the bed, Audrey picked up her tablet and went through the information on the executives' families before going to bed.

A while later, however, she still couldn't fall asleep. Her mind was in chaos.

Important notice: Dear readers, Please bookmark our new site: to continue reading the Novels. Thank you. Recommend: Clean Your Browser Cache now to access missing chapters.

Ryan had kept his word; After he instructed the driver to send her back home, he stopped contacting her altogether.

Aside from Peter standing outside her door every day and the three other bodyguards who would take over his shift, it felt as if Ryan had disappeared from her life.

Aside from going through the information on Lambert Corporation and the board of directors, Audrey needed to prepare a speech. She was extremely busy these past few days. Edward, who was George's assistant, would bring documents to the company every day for Audrey to approve and review.

Then, he would take the documents to George for him to check. This was to see if she was capable of managing Lambert Corporation.

And following Audrey's instruction, Taylor asked Shawn to give Nathan the list of Franklin Group's clients.

He went to purchase the formulas one by one and made the other parties sign a confidentiality agreement.

Although he spent a lot, it was a lot less than what Evergreen Biotech had to fork out.

"I didn't expect Nathan to be so good; He completed the task in four days." Taylor thought that it was a pity. "He promised that he'd go after Murray Group.

Why don't we let Franklin Group off the hook?" "Why should we?" Audrey flipped through the documents Edward sent.

"I told you to make him gather all the formulas four days to squeeze out the last cash flow from his hands. I omitted two places from the list given to him. Now, he can't pay Evergreen Blotech back and can only file for bankruptcy." Audrey spoke casually.

She had planned everything. She wouldn't go easy on Nathan and give up her revenge.

After all, he caused Anne and Harper to die.

He would only feel the pain if he was stabbed by the knife himself.

Audrey wanted to see if Nathan would protect the Franklin Group or Amelia's cousin, Charles.

It was now clear that he chose Franklin Group.

"Who told you that Nathan is their father?" Audrey laughed. "He isn't." "Huh?" When Taylor was about to ask further, Audrey ended the call.

George's birthday banquet was in two days. She had to prepare herself.

She would be placed under Ryan for two months to get used to the company's operation.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 250-George would publicly announce his interim takeover following Ryan's departure, with the intent to transition Audrey into Ryan's current position once she achieved notable results.

By then, George would truly delegate all authority and spend quality time with Wanda and the two children.

However, Ryan said he wanted an answer from Audrey before the banquet.

As she contemplated, her phone vibrated again; it was Taylor calling.

Audrey answered, "What's wrong now?" "Boss, Amelia's manager is probably doomed this time!" Taylor's voice betrayed his excitement.

Important notice: Dear readers, Please bookmark our new site: to continue reading the Novels. Thank you. Recommend: Clean Your Brower Cache now to access missing chapters.

"Remember the scar-faced guy named Andrew we intercepted that day? He and his five brothers got into a fight this time, and they're all heavily beaten up!

“Out of anger, Andrew spilled all the dirty deeds that Ms. Jones had them do over the years! Some celebrities are already holding them accountable!” Audrey was surprised.

Taylor burst into laughter as he added, “It’s karma. Andrew and his brothers had previously made other female stars shoot some questionable videos, and now they’re all facing the consequences!” He remembered hearing Yolanda instruct Andrew and his brothers to beat up his boss while filming the assault.

Audrey tapped her fingers on the coffee table as she fell into thought.

Yolanda entered the hospital while Andrew and his brothers were now disabled.

Although it was retribution, why did it sound a bit too coincidental?

Ryan’s expression was cold that night. The way he smashed the middle-aged man’s head against the coffee table, the condescending posture, and the sinister turmoil in his eyes all flashed in Audrey’s mind.

Audrey’s fingers clenched at the suspicion. Was it Ryan?

But this didn’t match Ryan’s noble image.

In everyone’s eyes, Ryan was always positive, composed, and dignified. He didn’t seem like a man who would harm others.

But Nathan, Amelia, and Ryan were the only ones apart from Taylor who knew about what happened that night.

Taylor had only just heard the news—leaving only Ryan. It had to be him.

Audrey’s heart began to race as she suddenly came to the realization.

knew.