

Meeting The One For Me

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 91-“That’s not true. If it weren’t for Professor Douglas engaging with people at the top and making connections, where would the funding for our laboratory come from?” Justin smiled while rubbing Daphne’s head.

He said looking at Joseph, “We have a social butterfly here. For this exchange meeting, just let Audrey have fun. Leave the rest to him!” “Don’t worry, I’ll take good care of Audrey!” Joseph assured.

At 7:30 pm, a light rain began to fall in Cloudmill.

Standing on the steps of the laboratory building, Audrey tightened her coat. She looked up at the rain and was about to run back to the dormitory to get an umbrella when a black car stopped at the entrance.

Ryan, dressed in a suit, got out of the car with an umbrella and walked up the steps. “Let’s go,” he said.

With a height of six feet two inches, even standing a step below Audrey, Ryan’s umbrella easily covered her head.

Audrey adjusted the bag on her shoulder, lowered her head, and walked down the steps. “Thank you,” she said.

“Be careful not to slip.” Ryan casually put his arm around Audrey’s shoulder, protecting her under the umbrella as they descended the steps.

Audrey nervously glanced at the arm around her shoulder. The hand wearing a brown leather watch had slender and powerful joints. It was different from the flamboyant youthfulness of Nathan, possessing fair and delicate skin full of masculine strength and tension.

The familiar yet foreign masculine scent enveloped Audrey, and she instinctively tightened her grip on her bag. It was only when they got into the car that her intense heartbeat finally calmed down.

“Have some of this.” Ryan opened a thermos and handed it to Audrey. “The temperature is just right.” Audrey took a sip, feeling the richness of the hot cocoa on her lips. "Thank you." When the two returned to the apartment, the housekeeper had just left, and the food on the table was still warm.

Ryan took off his coat, and his face showed no expression. He only said to Audrey, "Let's discuss after dinner." She nodded.

After dinner, Ryan poured a cup of warm water for Audrey and sat on the single couch next to her.

He said, "I've obtained all the details of Professor Douglas' itinerary and the list of personnel for the Chacter 91 212 exchange meeting. Professor Douglas and Professor Ilych from Saint Paula University have similar research directions and reached a cooperation last year.

Ryan handed a tablet to Audrey. "These are a few places closest to Saint Paula University. You can choose the one you like."

Audrey looked at Ryan and said, "There are some things I need to clarify with you in advance. I'm sorry, but I have to consider the well-being of the Lambert family, so I can't let anyone know the child is yours," Ryan's expression remained unchanged as he looked at Audrey.

"Do you want our child to become a secret love child?"

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 92-"I just don't want the child to have any connection with the Lambert family." Audrey tightly gripped the hem of her coat, finally composed herself, and looked up.

"The child came unexpectedly. If it hadn't, I might have chosen to live a lonely life, but it came. It's my only family in this world! Making the child a love child is my fault, and I will do my best to make amends! But I cannot betray the Lambert family any more than this, because of the debts I owe to them... I won't be able to make up for it." Ryan locked eyes with her. He lifted his hand and removed his glasses. "We can register our marriage in Ruplana. If you are unwilling to continue our marriage after the child is born, we can get divorced again. If the Lambert family finds out, It can also be an excuse for me to help you for the Lambert family!

“Audrey, I can compromise on anything, but making my child a secret love child is the bottom line. I hope you can respect and understand that.” The child is Audrey’s and also Ryan’s, and his perspective is understandable.

In the end, Audrey nodded.

og ,lleW“ .rood eht drawot dedaeh dna ,pu doots ,puc eht nwod tup ehS ןויד back to campus.

“The road is slippery due to the rain. Stay here tonight,” Ryan said.

“It’s not far.” Audrey was about to say goodbye to Ryan when suddenly an explosion sounded in the distance. Her foot hit the sofa, and she lost her balance.

“Be careful!” Ryan’s strong and powerful arm circled her waist, and she fell into his arms.

Their eyes met.

Then, the lights in the entire apartment suddenly went out.

Outside the window, the entire city of Cloudmill quickly plunged into darkness. It was so dark that you couldn’t see your fingers.

Audrey tightly clutched Ryan’s shirt with both hands. She attempted to stand up, but her movement was restrained by Ryan’s large hand.

In the darkness, where her vision was deprived, her other senses became exceptionally sensitive.

Audrey could smell Ryan’s fresh scent.

She could also feel his hot breath.

The warmth of Ryan’s body came through his pants and thin shirt, making Audrey restless.

“I can get up now,” Audrey said.

The darkness was fueling the unspeakable greed inside Ryan. He no longer had to suppress the lust in his eyes. He tentatively touched Audrey’s cheek.

“Ry–Ryan...” Hearing Audrey’s trembling voice, he took advantage of the darkness and rubbed her lips with his thumb.

Audrey’s eyelashes trembled, but she didn’t refuse. Ryan’s possessiveness grew.

Sensing Ryan’s intention, Audrey grabbed his wrist, but he hugged her tighter.

Ryan’s breath came closer, and her heart beat anxiously.

Even though he hadn’t kissed her yet, she was already panicking Audrey had always had a strong sense of repulsion toward intimate contact with men, including when she was in love with Nathan.

It was because she had witnessed her biological father’s violence against her mother, which left her traumatized.

But for some reason, Audrey wasn’t repulsed by Ryan’s proximity.

Ryan’s lips touched the corner of Audrey’s mouth, and her breathing stopped.

Her mind was in a mess. Just as she was about to reach out to push him, he grabbed her hand.

Ryan was like a guide, holding her hand and putting it on his shoulder.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 93-Just as Audrey wanted to withdraw her hand, her lips were pried open..

She was so shocked that she grabbed Ryan’s broad and strong shoulders, and her whole body seemed to be paralyzed.

Ryan grabbed the back of her head and deepened the kiss. He forcefully snatched her air, occupied her mouth, and kissed her desperately.

Audrey’s strength seemed to have been taken away by Ryan, and her whole body melted like a puddle. Her hand, which was grabbing onto Ryan, was shaking so badly that she could barely hold his shoulder and her hand slid to his arm.

The sound of eager kissing made her blush.

“Ding ding ding-” Ryan’s phone suddenly rang in the dark and quiet living room, interrupting their moment.

Ryan let go of Audrey’s lips and breathed heavily.

The call came at the wrong time, and Ryan was unhappy.

However, if the ringtone hadn’t interrupted him, he might have been unable to control himself and devoured Audrey.

Audrey’s heart was pounding. Just as she was about to get up from Ryan’s lap, she was held down. ‘ It’s too dark, be careful,” he said.

Ryan supported Audrey and reached for the phone. When he saw that it was Julian, he controlled his breathing and said, “Speak.” “Sir, the power plant in the southern suburbs exploded. The entire southern suburbs’ power system is down. We don’t know when the power will be restored. There are fully charged emergency lights in the apartment, located on the second shelf in the utility room on the left after the entrance,” Julian reported.

“Understood,” Ryan replied.

After hanging up the phone, Ryan said to Audrey, “There’s been an explosion at the power plant in the southern suburbs, and the entire area is without electricity. If you want to go back to the university dormitory, you’ll have to walk down from the top floor, and there are no street lights on the way back. Stay here tonight, alright?” After speaking, Ryan threw his phone aside and picked Audrey up. He headed toward the bedroom.

“You... Put me down, I can walk by myself.” Audrey nervously grabbed the collar of his shirt.

Ryan turned a deaf ear and carried Audrey into the master bedroom. He then placed her on the bed.

“Rest well here tonight. I’ll send you back to campus early tomorrow morning.” Ryan opened the music box that was charging on the bedside table.

The rotating starry sky projection lit up the room.

Audrey looked up and saw Ryan's handsome face. He straightened and instructed, "Sit here and don't move. I'll go get the emergency light." Audrey nodded.

Watching Ryan's back leave the bedroom, she raised her hand and gently touched her lips that had been kissed fiercely. Her cheeks were burning.

Audrey never expected that the outwardly mature and steady Ryan would have such a moment where he lost control.

Is this how Ryan expressed his affection?

Unabashedly, he expressed his love through passionate kisses.

Ryan left a note for Audrey. He had already left for Mythravia.

After breakfast, Audrey packed up and returned to campus.

At lunchtime, Audrey lifted her head from a pile of documents, rubbed her sore neck, and checked the time on the phone.

Seeing messages in the inbox, she opened them.

All three messages were from foreign numbers.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 94-The messages read, "Even if I let people abuse Harper, I have my brother-in-law protecting me. What can you do to me?" "I have many videos here that you haven't seen. How about seeing the pathetic little mute begging?" "Don't worry. Once I'm abroad, I will definitely make the little mute famous." When Audrey saw the messages, her hand couldn't stop shaking. She took screenshots of the messages and sent them to Lonnie.

The three foreign numbers all had different country codes. Audrey knew that Charles was well-prepared. The numbers couldn't be traced back to him. He did this deliberately to disgust her.

Yet, these three messages still inevitably reminded Audrey of Harper's extreme fear and pain in the videos, and what kind of inhuman torture Harper went through.

Two hours later, Lonnie called.

“Ms. Yeomans, I’ve contacted the parents of the students from Eastville Junior High School. They’ve seen the messages sent by Charles and are willing to confess the truth. However, they want to meet you. Are you willing to do so?” After delivering the news, Lonnie seemed concerned that Audrey might refuse and added, “This is our last chance before the trial.” “Alright! I’ll return to Eastville this afternoon,” Audrey agreed immediately.

The Chief Legal Officer of the Franklin Group and the defense lawyer for the group of children, Edmond Marshman, quickly received the news that the parents were willing to expose Charles and requested a meeting with Audrey.

When Nathan heard this news, Charles happened to be at the Franklin Residence.

“Do you know when Audrey will meet with the parents of these children?” Nathan asked.

“I heard it’s tonight. Ms. Yeomans is already on her way to Eastville,” Edmond replied.

After Nathan hung up the phone, Charles panicked and said, “Nathan, what should I do?” “Didn’t I tell you to behave during this time and not to provoke Audrey?” Nathan couldn’t contain his anger.

Knowing he was in the wrong, Charles stammered, “I didn’t use my own phone to send those messages. She can’t find any evidence against me.” “But you have to understand that those parents are the parents of the children! They only want their children safe. You are the mastermind, and as long as you confess, their punishment will be greatly reduced. Audrey is now asking them to expose you in exchange for her leniency. How do you plan to solve this now?” Nathan threw the phone into Charles’s arms, “Nathan! Nathan, you have to save me!” Charles hastily got up and pulled Nathan’s arm.

“You know that my sister grew up in my house since she was a child. I am my sister’s real brother! If go to jail, it will definitely have a bad impact on my sister!

Moreover, with a brother in jail, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin will be even less likely to agree to my sister marrying into your family!” Nathan forcefully shook off Charles’s hand, pursed his lips, and thought for a moment before reaching out. "Give me the phone!" Charles quickly handed Nathan his phone with both hands.

The call was made, and Nathan ordered, "Book the earliest flight to Eastville for me." "Nathan, you're my savior!" Charles wished he could kneel to Nathan.

Nathan took his coat off the back of the couch, his face grim, and left. "Nathan, let me drive you!" Charles quickly followed.

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 95-In order to demonstrate their sincerity and apologize to Audrey, a few parents reserved a private room in the best restaurant in Eastville.

When Audrey and Lonnie arrived, the entire restaurant had been cleared out.

Confused, Audrey and Lonnie were led by the restaurant's waiter to the entrance of the private room.

When they pushed the door open, they were surprised to find Nathan seated at the main table in the spacious private room.

Several bodyguards stood inside the room. The parents of the children sat in their positions, timidly glancing at Audrey and then lowering their heads, afraid to speak.

Nathan, with an unlit cigarette in his mouth, played with a metal lighter in his hand. He stared fixedly at Audrey.

Before Audrey and Lonnie could react, the door behind them was already closed.

Audrey turned to look at the bodyguard who had pushed her and Lonnie, but before she could comprehend the situation, their handbags were snatched away.

"Sir, what you're doing is illegal!" Lonnie said.

Nathan sneered and said, "Lawyers should speak with evidence! Do you have any evidence?" As soon as Nathan finished speaking, a male and a female bodyguard stepped forward to search them.

Audrey stood still as the female bodyguard frisked her and took away her phone.

Lonnie's voice recorder was also confiscated.

"So... you've used threats to persuade these parents! And now, it's my turn, right?" Audrey met Nathan's gaze without any fear. "Are you determined to protect Charles at all costs?" "Ms. Yeomans, I'm sorry, my child was ignorant!" Max Fraley's father stood up with a pale expression. "It's my fault for being misleading earlier. I wanted to deceive you into thinking that Mr. Murray instructed my child to ask for your forgiveness. I was wrong! I apologize sincerely!" Audrey's fists clenched at her side.

"Ms. Yeomans, I'm sorry too... for making you come all the way here for nothing!" Another mother of a child stood up and apologized.

After all the parents of the children had apologized, Nathan lit a cigarette, spread his hands, and smiled at Audrey, "You see? This matter itself has nothing to do with Charles." "Nathan, do you think everyone is a fool?" Audrey closed her eyes, clenched her fists tightly, and then loosened them. "I don't know what you used to threaten these parents. But since your goal has been achieved, can Lonnie and I leave?" The moment Nathan appeared before her eyes, Audrey knew that she had come here for nothing "You all can leave!" Nathan flicked off the cigarette asli, something to discuss with you.

Lonnie looked at Audrey worriedly and said, "Ms. Yeomans?"

Meeting The One For Me Chapter 96-"It's okay, wait for me outside," Audrey reassured Lonnie.

After Lonnie left, the door was closed again.

Audrey turned to face Nathan, who was approaching her. She said, "I never thought you would resort to such gangster tactics!" "I used to deal with things like this. You just never saw this side of me." Nathan stood in front of Audrey. He casually picked up the ashtray on the table and extinguished the cigarette in his hand.

Audrey's pupils trembled slightly, and she stared at him without blinking. Seeing Audrey's expression change, Nathan explained, "Yes, I remember now."

"Like you calling me 'sweetie' in private, like the ring I gave you by the seaside, like the blooming roses behind the school wall... and that kiss." Audrey clenched her fists, and her eyes became teary in an instant.

Although Nathan had regained his memory, her heart felt even colder.

"But those memories don't matter to you anymore, do they?" Audrey looked at Nathan coldly and said, "Even if you remember, what's most important to you is still Amelia. Even Charles is more important to you than those memories. You love Amelia more than anything, right?" Nathan was irritated by Audrey's indifference.

"Yes!" he retorted defiantly. "So, I advise you to stop now. I can send those who bullied your sister, including that minor, to prison. But not Charles!" "Don't you know he was the mastermind?" Audrey's voice raised.

"So what if he was? No one can touch the people I want to protect!" Nathan stared at Audrey without any expression. "You should know, that I always fulfill my promises." The current Audrey looked very different from the fragments of memories in his mind. The Audrey in his memories seemed to be rounder and more childish, more outgoing. But now, she was thin, almost like a gust of wind could blow her away.

However, her eyes were still determined and bright, as if nothing had changed.

Seeing Audrey's red eyes, Nathan felt uncomfortable in his chest. He frowned, rubbing his hands in his pockets, and threatened according to the rehearsed lines in his mind, "You better take my words seriously!" "If you've remembered the past, then you should also know that once I decide on something, I won't easily give up," Audrey's gaze became heavy.

Nathan took a half step closer to Audrey. He lowered his head and whispered in her ear, "If Charles goes to prison, the whole Yeomans family in your village will know about your relationship with Ryan! They will also know where your biological grandfather is, and that pitiful woman who was assaulted nine times. Whether it's photos or past experiences, everything will be exposed to the public “Smack!” Before Nathan could finish his sentence, he was slapped so hard that his head turned to the other side.

Originally, she always thought that it was Nathan losing his memory that made him treat her so badly.

She believed that when Nathan eventually regained his memories, he’d return to her side again.

They grew up together, from getting to know each other to getting married after 12 years.

But she never expected that one day...

