

Only Fuel 121

Chapter 121

It all started when Lou and her friends started talking about sex. It was bullshit if girls nor boys didn't talk about sex in their high school life, at least once. So, of course, her friends were interested in this kind of topic too.

However, Lou was clueless about sex. All she knew was the insertion, then, bam, there is a baby.

She didn't even experience a kiss except from her parents when she was a child. She was a 'no boyfriend since birth'. Her parents taught her properly, however, they kept the sexual stuff away from her. They were overprotective.

Lou only realized this stuff when she was called by her grandmother to help their benefactor and she changed school. Her parents were strict so she was happy to have freedom in her new school.

So when her friends talked about the topic of sex, Lou was just nodding her head and listening to them. However, no matter how much she tried to hide her blushing face, it was obvious that she was new and embarrassed about the topic. Sex, dick, pussy, they were vulgar words in her dictionary.

One of her friends asked her about sex and Lou honestly said that she was a virgin. Most of them were shocked because Lou didn't appear to be a virgin. Yet when Lou started talking about her parents, they realized that she was not lying. One of them gave her a suggestion of having a boyfriend but Lou was the 'study first' kind of girl so she didn't think of that. It was a hassle for her, especially if she wanted to go to an outstanding college. So she denied that suggestion, but it didn't mean that she was not interested in sex.

She was listening about their experiences, and she admitted that she felt hot in her stomach. She was horny, it was a new sensation and she liked it.

While listening, she heard that most of her friends were using dildos and vibrators... that was where the problem started. Her curiosity took over.

Lou became interested in this stuff, so she ordered a dildo and vibrators. The first time she used a small egg vibrator, it was an out-of-this-world experience. She was awkward at first but when she get the gist, she started cumming using them frequently.

These sessions happened for months even after she graduated. Every night, she would lock her room and use the devices to get off while watching porn. She didn't completely insert them into her vagina though.

But one time, she made a mistake, she accidentally inserted her dildo and she yelped in pain. She looked at her crotch and realized that her pussy was bleeding.

She felt guilty since that, she even cried at one point. Then, a week later, Calix appeared. She realized that Calix was a pretty hot guy, and she wanted to get dominated. Calix's appearance was the type who dominates a woman...

That night, she was horny so she masturbate again while thinking of him... that was the moment where Calix witnessed her. Apparently, Lou was too horny that she forgot to lock her door.

...

Let's return to the present time where Lou and Calix were facing each other.

Calix listened seriously to what she said. Lou was nervous the whole time and her shoulders would flinch sometimes. It seemed like telling her secret was difficult, Calix could see that she was going to cry at any moment. Honestly, Calix felt guilty about it. He realized that Lou was actually a fragile girl.

What he witnessed last time was not her entire personality. He felt bad that he judged her before he could even have a proper bonding with her.

Calix could see that Lou was glancing at him, she was a little bit expectant. Calix swallowed his saliva, he admitted that Lou's image was cute right now. As if she was a kitten that was asking for a cuddle.

To be honest, Calix wanted to dominate her.

'I mean, there's a girl who was asking for help, what kind of a gentleman am I if I don't help her?'

He asked himself. To be fair, he just wanted to justify what he was going to do. He was finding a reason to agree because he wanted to fuck her too...

Ah, Calix Romoel, he just promised that he won't have sex to anyone except for his three girlfriends. Yet he was going to break that promise after 24 hours... what a weakling, hah!

Well, after all, promises are meant to be broken. So it was understandable. Besides, the girls around him won't be surprised if another rival showed up. Heck in a speck of four months, Calix already had three girls whom he fucked.

But Calix was not a savage beast that would pounce on cute prey like Lou. At least not for today. He knew that Lou was nervous right now despite trying her best to act tough.

"Meet me tomorrow, around 9 p.m."

"Huh?"

Lou tilted her head.

"I know that you're nervous. I can see it based on your hands."

Lou looked down and found that her hands were trembling. She smiled grimly and was ashamed.

"If you're still serious about me, you can meet me tomorrow. I want you to have some time to think about it. I want you to be prepared. And if your decision will not change nor falter, then I will accept you."

Lou bowed her head.

"T- thank you so much."

She realized that Calix prioritized her feelings, because of this, Lou's impression of Calix increased. This man respected her. It was enough to see that Calix was a good person.

"T- then... Um," Lou licked her lips and stole a glance at him. "Can I have a kiss?"

It was a bold statement for her standard because she never had a kiss, her cheeks were bright red so much that she looked like a living tomato.

Calix saw her reaction and chuckled. He nodded and said.

"Close your eyes."

Lou nodded and immediately shut her eyes, slowly she felt the breath against her. However, the sensation she got was different from what she expected.

Why? Because Calix kissed her on the forehead instead.

"I will give you the greatest kiss tomorrow so you must be prepared."

Calix leaned over her ears and whispered.

Lou was love-struck and she started running out of the room while holding her voice. She wanted to squeal because Calix was so damn hot!!

Chapter 122

It was still early in the morning when Lou and Calix had their conversation. So when breakfast arrived, Calix met her again.

Lou was stealing glances at him as her face blushed because of some reason. She recalled how Calix kissed her forehead earlier, it was a simple act but she felt sensual. As if Calix licked her whole body and it felt so good. She prepared the dishes with the help of Nanny Lola.

Calix tried to help them but Nanny Lola was adamant about not letting him. She said that as a servant, it was their job to prepare the dishes. So Calix chuckled and decided to sit down and wait for them.

Just the right timing and Andreas came down too. He returned late last night because he talked about the current situation of the border. The Mayor of Evitac was seriously listening to what he was saying. The Mayor experienced the Blood Moon and he knew how the Aberrants turned crazy whenever the moon turned red. So he was anxious about the current situation at the border.

So far everything was good, as Andreas said. Their country had two routes for the monster to enter and they were tightly protected. The first was the south-eastern part, where the Border lies. The second was the western part where the Port of Aoneon was built to fight against the water-type Aberrants.

"Good morning."

"Good morning."

Andreas greeted them and they returned back the greeting. When everything was set on the table, they started eating.

Lou couldn't help but stare at Calix, but she would cut the star gazing after she realized that Andreas and Nanny Lola felt like something was going on.

Especially Andreas, he felt like a Lou was glancing at Calix for every minute. Andreas had a strong sense so he immediately understood what was happening. He sighed instead. This bastard son of his.

He felt like his son inherited their lineage as a fuckboi. Ogres were truly frightening beings. To be fair, Ogres were naturally good people but there was one big flaw that reflected in them. They were sex savages.

People knew them as a species that would nod at sex. Well, actually, girls like them a lot. Because Ogres could satisfy their primal urges. And his son strongly inherited that trait from them.

Andreas didn't know if he would be happy or sad. The fact that Calix deciphered his Term Attribute was enough reason to celebrate but his TA's fuel was disastrous. He had to have sex. It means that one way or another, Calix would be entangled with different girls.

'Why do I feel that I will have a grandchild next year?'

Was that a foreshadow? Anyway, let's return to Calix who was eating his food awkwardly because he could feel Lou's glances.

"Ehem, Calix."

"Yes, dad?"

Calix straightened his back as he looked at his father.

"Just like the usual, we will have sparring later on. I hope you're not getting rusty just because you use a pistol."

"I'm doing self-training."

"Good, let's see if you have what it takes to beat me."

Calix choked as he coughed.

"... Dad, you have Term Attribute. You can destroy a concrete wall using your fingers."

"And? You have Term Attribute too?"

"Fair enough."

Calix sighed.

Andreas' Term Attribute was called Steel Physique where his skin became tough like a bulk of steel combined. On top of that, because Andreas is a 2nd Advanced, he had his first Term Attribute too. It was called Metal Term Attribute.

[Andreas Romoel]

[Metal Term Attribute]

[Steel Physique Term Attribute]

[Fuel: He has to eat food that is rich in iron such as shellfish, spinach, or pumpkin seeds every day.]

[Backlash: He will become flimsy if he doesn't eat food that is rich in iron.]

After eating, Calix asked for a favor from Nanny Lola. He said that he needed painkillers at night because he knew that his father would give him a beating.

'As expected, dad didn't completely agree with my way of handling my power.'

After all, Andreas believed in true love. So the idea of flirting and fucking other girls was not good in his dictionary.

.....

...

"Ugh!!"

Calix stumbled on the floor. He wiped his forehead and he was panting like crazy. They were in private judo that Andreas rented for a day. He knew the owner of the facility so he didn't have a hard time getting a reservation.

Calix weakly stood, he was fighting his father for three hours straight. Yet he couldn't beat him at all. The worst was that his Luck was not helping him. It was dormant.

'I don't know why I can't land a hit.'

"What's happening? I thought you're Lucky? Then why are you groveling on the floor?"

Calix gritted his teeth and charged at him.

However, because Calix was already tired, he lost his posture when Andreas kicked his foot, then Calix received a good suplex. Calix groaned on the floor as his back arched in pain.

"... Well, I can see the reason why you're Luck is not helping you at all."

"Hah... Hah..." Calix was breathing hard. "What is it?"

"Calix, it seems like you don't understand at all. The fact that you're on the floor, writhing because of simple injuries is Luck."

"I don't know... what you're talking about," Calix said as he tried to stand up. However, Andreas gave him another beating.

"Calix, Luck comes in all forms. I will tell you one lesson, the fact that you're on the floor writhing in pain is indeed Luck. Do you know why? Because once you landed a hit on me, I will crush your ribs with my Term Attribute. This means that sometimes, being unfortunate is being Lucky. I hope you remember that lesson."

Calix nodded as his face had a painful expression. He realized that what he received was already Lucky because he knew that his father was not joking in terms of teaching him. Andreas would definitely crush his ribs if Calix landed a hit on his body.

Calix remained on the floor, he was panting.

"... I guess... I'm Lucky."

He found that suffering could be a form of Luck sometimes. Calix learned another thing, so he was satisfied with the beating. Besides, his father would always call a healer to treat him. Money was not a problem because they were rich.

"By the way, dad, do you know this game called stun seed?"

"Hm? I don't know, I'm not good at playing games."

Andreas tilted his head and Calix did his best not to laugh.

"Nothing much, I just realized that stun seed is kind of unique if you read it backward."

"What do you mean? Dees nuts-- I swear, I'll beat you up."

Andreas facepalmed and Calix started snickering. This was his way to get revenge on him.

Chapter 123

"Calix, listen."

Andreas turned around and glanced at his son who was beaten black and blue.

Calix sat up as his face had bruises and bloodied. He understood that he had to practice more to stand equal to his father.

"One of the best ways to reach 2nd Advanced is by frequently using your Term Attribute."

Calix's ears perked up when he heard him. He realized that his father was teaching him a lesson, perhaps Andreas had a secret to level up faster. He understood that his father won't talk about this unless he was quite serious.

"You know how my first Term Attribute works, right?"

"Metal Term Attribute, it had the ability to transform portions of your body into a metal."

"Correct."

Andreas activated his first Term Attribute and his arms started turning into greyish-like metal. This was his first ability, it had the defense and offense against the Aberrants.

"What about my second Term Attribute?"

He asked again as his arms turned to normal.

Calix touched his chin. To be honest, he didn't know much about it because Andreas recently awakened his second ability when Calix was 13.

"Let's see... I remembered that your body becomes tough like a metal."

"Correct, but that's not the only thing about it."

Andreas activated his second Term Attribute, it didn't have many changes in appearance but Calix felt like Andreas became much bigger.

"Dad, you gained 5 inches?"

He tilted his head and Andreas nodded.

"Iron is a mineral that the body needs for growth and development. I learned it two years ago when I was fighting a Tiger-Class. I instinctively got bigger to eliminate it. Because of my Steel Physique Term Attribute, I can control every iron in my body. Because of that, my body becomes tough like a bulk of metal, and my strength increases too."

Andreas further explained.

"However, do you know what I learned more?"

Calix shook his head, of course he didn't know. He was away from home and he didn't see his father for three years. He stayed in his simple castle called broken life.

"Dad just tell me already."

Andreas chuckled because he could see the fascination in Calix's eyes as if he returned to being a child. Andreas recalled when Calix was still a child, he was an active child, and even her mother, Clara, was having a hard time disciplining him. It was the best moment of his life, seeing their family together.

"I learned that I can do this!"

Andreas roared as his arm enlarged like it was an arm of a giant.

"F- father!!"

Calix stand up, he was so shocked and he tried to check if his father was alright.

"Don't worry, I'm fine."

Andreas gave him a smirk and controlled his arm. The giant arm gradually returned to its normal size.

"D- dad, what's happening?"

Calix was greatly confused. That should be impossible, Calix studied the concept of the Term Attribute. He knew that what Andreas did was impossible.

"So what do you think?"

Andreas crossed his arms and stared at him.

"Dad, Term Attribute is a restricted supernatural ability, it's impossible to enlarge your arm to that extent like a giant. It's impossible." He repeated that word.

Even if Andreas could control the iron in his body, it should have limitations. After all, the name of his Term Attribute was Steel Physique, so it should be stuck in that concept of having a metal body.

Unless his Term Attribute was called Giant Physique, then that should explain it. Yet, it was not the name.

"... Unless."

Calix's eyes widened in surprise and Andreas nodded, he didn't hide it. Not from his son who honestly told his secret. If Calix could say his secret, then, as his father, Andreas would show one of his secrets.

"Dad, did you break through?"

"Yes."

"Wow! W- Woah! I can't believe that you are a Third Advanced!"

Calix almost jumped because of shock.

"Yeah, one more and I will be released from the shackles of Fuel and Backlash."

Third Advanced was the last step to divinity because the next stage was DemiGod. Once Andreas became a DemiGod, he would not be affected by Fuel and Backlash anymore. It means that his power would be limitless without the fear of having a Backlash. On top of that, his three abilities would merge into one ability, which was the Rank of DemiGod.

Only a few people could reach that state. Usually, they were Clan Leaders and prominent people, because they have the resources to spend on cultivation.

"Calix, you know that to become 2nd Advanced, you have to keep using your Term Attribute... which is by having intimate time with a woman."

Andreas started his lecture and Calix was listening seriously, he returned from being a child who idolized his father so much. Andreas liked what he was seeing. He was a proud father.

"By that alone, maybe you will reach 2nd Advanced after ten years, that is not bad. Although you have to have sex for at least twice a day."

"... that sounds tiring."

Calix scratched his head.

"I'm surprised that you're not happy at all."

"Well, it's a different story..."

He said and it seemed that he didn't hate the idea.

"Anyway, the other way to advance faster is to further decipher your Term Attribute. Just like how I used the mineral(iron) inside me to enlarge my body, you can find a way to use your Luck too."

This means that having sex for ten years was the least of things he must do.

"Deciphering, huh."

Calix grimaced, he knew that he only accidentally deciphered his Term Attribute when he had sex with Scarlett. It took him three years to do that, yet he had to decipher his power again.

Andreas tapped his shoulder to assure him.

"Don't worry, based on what I can see. Your Luck will help you with that problem."

He said confidently and Calix nodded his head.

Calix needed to become stronger because Andreas was anxious about him.

'General Bronal and CEO Mark, those two are brutal. That's why Calix needs the power to stand equal to them. On top of that, my father died because of being a lover boy, I'm afraid that Calix will follow his steps. So he has to become strong.'

As his parent, he wanted to see Calix happy and healthy.

Chapter 124

[Andreas Romoel]

[Status: 3rd Advanced]

[Metal Term Attribute]

[Steel Physique Term Attribute]

[Iron Body Enlargement Term Attribute]

[Fuel: He has to eat food that is rich in iron such as shellfish, spinach, or pumpkin seeds every day.]

[Backlash: He will become flimsy if he doesn't eat food that is rich in iron.]

.....

...

Just as Calix expected, Andreas called a healer to heal his injuries. Although he admitted that he was having a hard time breathing when he was injured. He felt like his ribs had cracks, so much for the nut jokes.

He confirmed that his father was still a brutal teacher, just like always. Andreas stopped treating Calix like a child when Calix turned 13. Since that age, Andreas taught him everything he knew. From hand-to-hand combat up to gun handling. Heck, Calix even knew how to fly a helicopter.

He could say that he knew most of the stuff related to the military because his father taught him about it.

"It's about drive, it's about power, we stay hungry we devour."

They started singing in the car.

On their way to the house, Andreas stopped at MacDonaldo Drive-Thru and bought burgers and fries. He passed Calix his burger but when Calix pulled the toothpick, he found that it had a golden design.

"Huh? What is this?"

Calix stared at the operator, and the fresh operator girl smiled at him.

"Congratulations sir, it seems like you won our one-year pass. From now on, you can show this card from any food chain of MacDonaldo in any part of the world and you will get free food."

The operator shyly gave the gift card to Calix, she tried to talk to Calix more. Sadly, there were other customers waiting in line so she failed, she didn't even get his number.

Andreas and Calix looked at each other, they started laughing. It was funny because it was unexpected. They both didn't know that Calix would win a prize just like that. They had a topic to talk about while on the road. It was simple bonding, both the father and son realized that this is what they need. The time to talk, not a serious talk, but light conversation while laughing and making fun.

Andreas could smile, although it was mostly when he was with the people he trusted, and the people he loves.

As they entered the house, they found that Lou and Nanny Lola were cleaning the living room.

"Nanny, do you need help?"

Calix offered because he knew that cleaning the living room required carrying the sofa. He didn't want his Nanny Lola to be strained by carrying heavy stuff.

"Calix, you don't have to. I can do this."

Nanny Lola waved her hand and continued vacuuming the floor.

"But lifting the sofa will be tough."

Calix anxiously replied.

"Sheesh, okay, fine. Please help your Nanny."

She shrugged and decided to let him help. Since Calix was young, he always had this behavior of looking and caring for his loved ones. Nanny Lola was satisfied that this part of him didn't change.

"Hello, Calix."

"Hello, Lou."

Lou greeted him and he smiled back at her. To be honest, he was nervous about seeing her. Because he knew that later that night, they would meet each other to do adult stuff. Calix could feel that something in his pants was standing, so he erased the thoughts and helped his Nanny instead.

As for Lou, she may hide it but her face would blush sometimes. Especially whenever she glanced at Calix. She couldn't help it, Calix had this charisma to make a girl feel hot.

'I can understand why girls gather around him even when he's Scarlett Robinson's boyfriend. Calix is a hunk.'

Lou didn't have any intention of stealing Calix nor to have a secret relationship with him. She just wanted to satisfy her curiosity. She wanted to have a proper first time too. She recalled the expression of the pink-hair girl that Calix fucked yesterday, Yuna felt so good and Lou recognized it. So she wanted to experience what she experienced.

Besides,

'I heard that huge cocks are the best...'

She purred.

She subconsciously licked her lips as she stared at Calix who was helping Nanny Lola. She watched a lot of porn so she knew how girls moan whenever huge cocks penetrate their pussies, she could see true orgasm in their faces.

"He's Scarlett Robinson's boyfriend, but I still want to take a bite."

She licked her lips.

How great it was for her to fuck the boyfriend of the currently most talented young woman of Dellia, Scarlett Robinson. Lou took pride in experiencing that after some hours later.

...

The cleaning ended and Calix helped Nanny Lola and Lou to prepare the dishes. Their food was mostly seafood, such as lobsters and grilled fish. Evitac was close to the Port Aoneon so they were wealthy in seafood.

Anyway, after eating, Calix returned to his room and he started scrolling his phone. He was waiting till everyone was asleep so that Lou could visit his room at night.

"I'm Lucky, as long as refueling is categorized as Lucky, then everything will be alright."

This means that his power would help the situation to happen. While reading some articles on the Internet, a knock could be heard and it was coming from his window.

Calix looked at the window and he sighed when he found Yuna waiting for him. He stood up to open the window but Yuna just teleport inside and jumped on him.

"Calix!!"

She was happy and hugged him.

"Sshhh!! Everyone is still awake, they might hear you."

"Hehe, okay."

Yuna smiled and kissed his lips. Then, she kneeled and opened his zipper.

"Um, Yuna? What are you doing?"

"I miss you ~~"

She cooed and started jacking his cock. Perhaps she missed his manly cock the most.

"W- wait, Yuna, I want you to listen to me."

"Hm, what?"

"We have to stop."

Calix was adamant. It was kind of awkward to have sex with Yuna before having sex with Lou. He felt like he was cheating...

"But why?"

Yuna was confused as she tilted her head, she was like a clueless cat.

"Because I have someone that I want to help later."

"You mean?"

"Sex, yes that's right."

He didn't have any reason to hide it. Not in front of Yuna who knew about his secrets.

"... A different girl?"

For a second, Yuna's golden eyes glowed dangerously.

Chapter 125

"Yuna, listen to me, please."

"Hmmp!!"

Calix tried to talk to her but Yuna scoffed, turned around, and she crossed her arms. She felt betrayed, she thought she could have soloed Calix while he was taking his vacation.

Yuna talked to her parents about her circumstances and they gave her the approval to maintain her Fuel. They were anxious but they didn't have a choice. After all, if Yuna lost her emotions, it would be hard to get them back. Perhaps she would lose her motivation to stalk Calix. So this was the best scenario for her.

That's why Yuna felt hurt that Calix was going to cheat.

To be honest, she knew about her current position. She was just a source of fuel for Calix. Both Scarlett and Kimberly made it ingrained in her head. Yuna hated them both and they fought last time without Calix knowing, yeah, they keep it from themselves.

Although in the end, Yuna agreed to their proposition. This was the best moment to seduce Calix and elevate her standing. Yet, A FUCKING VIRGIN SLUT WANTS TO HAVE SEX WITH CALIX. That was the most outrageous thing that she heard this week.

"Yuna, look at me."

"Hmmp!!"

Yuna scoffed again but Calix caught her shoulder and forced her to face him. He pushed her to the wall and Yuna trembled because of Calix's intense gaze. The kadedon really had done its job.

"Yuna, look, I know that what I'm doing is outrageous but I can't help it. The biggest part of me wants to fuck her."

Indeed, Calix is a horny bastard.

From the moment Calix cheated on Scarlett, he already knew that one or thrice won't make a difference. Scarlett would accept him, no matter what.

"How about Scarlett's feelings? Don't you love her?"

Yuna used that trump card but Calix was already immuned. The only one who could judge him was Scarlett alone.

"She loves me. She will never hate me."

He was 100 percent confident.

"Then what about Kimberly?"

"Kimberly will easily understand me."

Kimberly was the type who always prioritizes Calix's happiness. Heck, she would easily forgive Calix if he kiss her.

"...Tch."

Yuna clicked her tongue. Everything he said was right. Yuna didn't know Scarlett and Kimberly that much but she knew that both women would forgive Calix.

'I mean, how can they not forgive a cute guy like him?'

Yuna glanced at him, Calix was staring at her with his greenish-brown eyes and it made her heart beats faster, almost like she was having a heart attack. This man could make her happy with his glance alone, how could she say no.

"... Fine."

"Thank you."

Calix smiled and gave her a peck.

"Ara ara, one more time."

Yuna asked for one and Calix shrugged. He gave her a breathless kiss.

"Hmmm, I'm going to be addicted."

She honestly said. Calix was the only one who could make her like this.

"... But, can I get at least a quickie?"

She begged and rubbed her palm against Calix's tough chest. Calix chuckled, it seemed like he couldn't say no. Especially when Yuna was so beautiful.

Yuna had her past, and Calix had his. They were both miserable in that aspect. So he understands her better than anyone. Yuna wanted approval, she wanted love. True love.

Calix was not sure if his feelings for her were on the stage of love, but he was dead sure that he likes her. Especially how fiery she was.

He gave her a kiss behind her ear.

"Okay, turn around."

"Ara ara~"

Without further ado, Yuna turned around and raised her ass. She undressed and her underwear was shown. She was wearing a pink bikini.

Since Yuna wanted a quick one, Calix unzipped his pants and his huge cock came out.

"I released the Kraken."

He made a joke and Yuna giggled while wagging her ass.

Calix rubbed the head of his ding dong against her slit, Yuna felt the electricity. When Calix had enough chakra(his cock erected), he shoved his big boa inside her and Yuna gasped.

"... Please, you don't have to hold back. From this very moment, I'm not your girlfriend, I'm not even a woman. Don't treat me like a person, just use my pussy to cum. I'm your onahole, your fucktoy."

Yuna felt like Calix was holding back. Besides she was more on the rough side. She liked her sex being rough, especially when her partner treats her like a fucktoy. She experienced talking like this because of her past. Guys liked it when she talked like this. They easily cum.

"Big sister is here for you."

She cooed and Calix started moving his hips aggressively. Yuna knew how to set him on, she was acting like she was a mature woman. Well, she indeed has more experience than him, Kimberly, and Scarlett combined.

Calix fuck her senseless till Yuna started moaning. However, because they both knew that people could hear them. Yuna grabbed her dress and bit it. Her voice was muffled and the only sounds around were the slapping of flesh against each other.

"Yes, grah~~ anh!!"

Yuna scratched the wall as her ass got pounded till her ass-cheeks reddened. It felt so fucking good, she could give half of her life span just for this. Heck, she was ready to make a deal with a devil just to have Calix. She was greedy.

As a matter of fact, she wanted to kidnap him again and take him somewhere far away from this country. However, because of Calix's power, Yuna understood that her plan would fail one way or another.

If the idea of abducting him was not Lucky, then it would fail no matter what. That's how powerful it is.

After a few minutes of fucking, Calix reached his limits. Yuna felt that Calix would cum at any moment.

"Cum in my mouth baby~~"

Yuna kneeled and started sucking his cock. Then, Calix's grunted and released his sperm in her mouth. Yuna kept licking and sucking his rod just to make sure that she got all of them.

She played with his cum and showed it to him by sticking her tongue out. Calix could see his sperm on her tongue. Then, she closed her mouth and swallowed greedily. When she stuck her tongue out, it was clean and no cum could be seen.

Chapter 126

Yuna fixed her dress and wiped the smeared spits and semen on her face. She waved her hand at Calix, signaling that she would leave but Calix gave her a soft kiss on her neck, she purred and glanced at him.

"Ara ara?"

"You look so sexy when you swallowed my cum." He said and kissed her cheek this time.

"Baby, if you want I can do it again."

Her finger rubbed his chest, saying sweetly. Calix admitted that he was having a hard-on. But he still shook his head. He had to restrain himself for later

"Sorry, someone has a reservation."

"Tch."

Yuna clicked her tongue, she couldn't restrain her annoyance at Lou. She clearly hated that bitch.

"Okay, I guess I'll leave."

Yuna walked to the window and opened it but Calix stopped her again.

"Wait."

"Hm?"

She turned to Calix. Calix lost his playfulness and grabbed her arm.

"Leave it."

"I don't know what you mean."

She smiled instead, but Calix won't fall for it. He had strong instincts.

"Leave it."

He repeated.

He said with his voice so heavy that Yuna has slightly shaken.

"... Tch, okay fine."

She couldn't handle Calix when he was like this. Just like that time when Calix threatened her not to hurt Scarlett and Kimberly, he was so damn sexy at that time and this moment too.

"Good, give it to me."

Calix urged her. He won't be fooled. Calix knew that Yuna had some loose screws in her head. After all, this woman abducted him once. Calix understood that her obsession was far unhealthy than the others. He admitted that Yuna was dangerous, and it was his job to contain her.

"Here, are you happy now?"

Yuna gave him the knife and asked Calix if he was contented with this. Yet, Calix shook his head instead.

"No, give me the other one."

"I don't know, I only have one."

"The scissors. Where is it?"

"... Okay, here."

She lost the battle and gave him the scissors. She didn't have any weapons anymore. She stole these sharp things from the neighbors.

"What are you going to do with this?"

"Nothing, for self-defense."

"Yuna, the number one rule of self-defense is to run away, you can easily do that. You don't need these things."

Calix's eyes turned darker as he stared at her. Yuna trembled because of his gaze, it sent shivers down her spine. She fucking loves it. Even her recently penetrated pussy climaxed just by his gaze alone.

Her face blushed and her knees were getting weak, she couldn't control her body from reacting.

Then, just as Yuna became weak, Calix grabbed her face and she gasped because of the suddenness. His eyes stared directly at hers. She felt like her legs had gotten wet.

"Yuna, don't ever try to hurt Lou."

"..."

Yuna was love-struck and she couldn't speak.

"Yuna!"

"Y- yeah, I will never hurt her. I promise!"

She said with her squealing voice, her face was tightly clasped by Calix and she couldn't help but cum. It felt so fucking good to be maltreated like this.

"Tell me, you thought of killing her right? Don't try to lie or else you won't taste my cock again."

"No, not the cock!!"

Her eyes teared up.

"Then tell me."

"Yes, I planned to kill her once you leave this place! That bitch dare to take what is mine, so I will kill her. I stole the knife and scissors to end her dirty life."

... She was indeed honest that it was frightening. The fact that she could easily think of murder was truly horrible. No wonder she was the Yandere of this series. If not because of Calix noticing this oddity, perhaps something bad already happened to Lou.

"Promise me that you will never do it. Or else I will never forgive, and I will kill you."

His hand further squeezed her cheeks and Yuna strongly nodded. She couldn't say no when Calix was staring at him like that.

"I will never kill her."

"Good."

Calix released her and Yuna fell on her knees, she was breathing hard and her heart was palpitating like her chest was going to explode.

Calix had his priorities. Yuna may be his third woman but her position in his heart was still insignificant. Because of Lou's connection to Nanny Lola, Calix treated Lou as far more important than Yuna. Because if Lou died, then Nanny Lola would be devastated. Yuna was nothing to him in terms of meaning.

For him, Yuna was nothing but the woman who abducted him, that he forgave and decided to fuck. Nothing but that, at least at the current moment. Calix knew that things may change in the future.

Perhaps Yuna's existence would be his everything in the future, he didn't know. Although that possibility may arrive.

"Get out."

Calix was kind of betrayed, his voice was cold and he turned around. He didn't look back at Yuna.

Yuna's face was bright red as she did her best to stand up. She looked down and she realized that she peed in her dress, what a way.

Indeed, Yuna was in love with Calix. Even if Calix was angry, Yuna didn't feel scared. She just felt obliged to answer him because she loved him.

"Goodbye, I love you~~"

She gave a sweet smile as she disappeared.

.....

...

When she left, Calix took a deep breath and dropped the knife and scissors to the trash can. He couldn't believe that Yun would try to kill Lou. That was outrageous but Yuna had enough reason to do so. She was crazy in the first place. From the moment Calix met her, he knew that Yuna would be different from the others.

Calix closed his eyes and meditated, he erased the uncertainty in his mind.

If he didn't detect that something was different from Yuna, perhaps he would hear horrible news tomorrow.

"Yuna... you don't plan to kill her in this house. Probably you will take her to a secluded place and kill her."

It was frightening that Calix easily understood Yuna's thoughts processing. As if he was crazy himself. Well, he didn't know, to be honest. Perhaps he became crazy too after experiencing three years of misfortune.

"That explains a lot."

He sighed and waited for Lou to come to visit him.

Nanny Lola was always sleeping around 9 to 10 pm, so she was definitely asleep right now. As for Andreas, Calix talked to him earlier and his father gave him a box of condoms. It was not for protection against disease but protection for pregnancy instead. After all, STD was nonexistent on their planet.

Andreas was too sharp and he immediately understood what was going on.

To be honest, Andreas wanted to stop them but they were already adults. So he respects their decisions instead.

Calix was actually embarrassed when Andreas gave him a box of condoms. He only used it twice, once with Scarlett and Kimberly each. In the end, the two girls decided to go with pills because they like raw sex. Luck would be stronger if they didn't use condoms.

Well, to be honest, Calix didn't want it to use it on Lou. Something was urging him to fuck her raw. As if his instincts were telling him to make her pregnant, probably his Ogre's side.

Anyway, Calix called Scarlett earlier and they talked a lot. Of course Calix didn't hide his promise about Lou. He said everything to Scarlett, she clicked her tongue at first but she still agreed. One more rival won't change a thing. Besides, Scarlett understood that this was just the beginning and more women would appear later on. Heck, she was part of the foursome last time so she wasn't that adverse anymore. It was kind of hot to be honest, where they competed for Calix affection. Scarlett always wins and Kimberly and Yuna would pout, she liked the feeling of victory.

Calix would ask for Scarlett's approval, as long as he could.

"Hm?"

While Calix was laying on the bed, surfing the net and watching some videos, he heard a knock and this time it didn't come from the window. Calix glanced at the clock and nodded as he realized that it was 11:30 pm.

Calix stood up and opened the door, there he found that Lou was waiting for him with her shoulders fidgeting because of nervousness.

"H- hello."

Lou did her best to smile and greet him. Calix nodded and took her to his room. He scanned her and he found that Lou was wearing a thin nightdress and her figure was greatly outlined.

In fact, she was not wearing a bra because her nipples were visible. Calix subconsciously gulped. He didn't know why but he had this urge to fuck beautiful women. This kind of reaction was normal. After all, most guys want to fuck beautiful women. So Calix was not being affected by his lineage in that regard, it was more of a natural reaction to procreate with sexy beautiful women.

"Are you ready?"

Calix said and closed the door. Now that he closed the door, this means that Lou would never get out with her virginity(?) intact. Calix already set his mind to tear her unused pussy.

"Y -yes. I think about it and I decided to give it to you. I know that it will be better to give my virginity to someone who has experience."

Quote, she learned that from her friends. However her forehead was sweating and her body was fidgeting, she couldn't help it. She was nervous, afraid, and excited at the same time.

"You know that once we started, you can never back out."

"Y- yes."

She nodded, quite clumsy.

Calix got closer to her until his face was only an inch away from hers. Lou swallowed her saliva, she stepped back and almost stumbled on the bed but Calix caught her. She yelped in his arms, then her eyes traveled to his face, seeing his greenish-brown eyes glowed.

Calix gently put her on the bed.

"Let's start with a kiss first."

"O- okay."

She stammered, this was her first kiss after all.

"Close your eyes."

Calix whispered in her ear and Lou shut her eyes, she heard a soft chuckle. Then, a fluffy texture landed on her lips, it was a soft and weak kiss. Lou didn't know what to do instead of opening her lips.

"Mmmm."

However, the kiss slowly turned hard and rough until his tongue gradually invaded her. Lou's mind was clouded the whole time, she felt like she was being dominated which was true. She didn't hate it, the fact that she was feeling good factored.

Calix pulled her neck and invaded her mouth until Lou shuddered, she couldn't breathe as Calix didn't give her any rest. When their lips parted, Lou was breathing hard and she was blushing. She was indeed cute.

Calix thought that Lou was mature, but her expression right now was like an innocent girl who did something bad yet she felt good. Her disheveled hair and unfocused eyes, a masterpiece in his opinion. He wanted to conquer her.

Calix kissed her again but this time it was gentler and Lou started kissing back, she was learning fast although it was still rough. While kissing, Calix's hands started moving around and they caught her two mounds over her dress, he sensed that Lou slightly shuddered but Calix continued anyway.

He didn't want to scare her but he didn't want to do it weakly and meekly either. He started undressing her, playing with her nipples by slightly plucking them. Lou weakly moan while biting her lip, Calix was rubbing her nipples and pinching them, as if they were buttons from a game controller.

"Haahhh... Haaahhh"

When Lou was completely naked, Calix looked at her up and down as she rest on the bed. She was embarrassed and tried to hide her bottom and breasts but Calix caught her arms.

"Don't hide your body, you're beautiful."

Lou didn't know why but she felt ticklish when Calix said that, even her face became red.

"Ahn~"

Just as Lou was contemplating, Calix moved down and touched her already wet slit. Her pussy was already moist, she was indeed horny.

"W- wait, it's embarrassing."

Calix gently spread her legs and Lou moved in accord despite protesting. She wanted to stop him but Calix already moved his face down.

"C- Calix, it's dirty-- ah!!"

He licked her down there and Lou's lower torso squirmed. This was much different from how she touched herself, she was not in control yet she felt so good. Calix knew how to pleasure her.

Lou slightly pulled his hair as Calix used his tongue and tickled her inside.

"Hmmm... Wait, Calix aahhhh."

She had an orgasm just by his tongue alone. When Calix sat up, Lou averted her eyes because she was ashamed. She couldn't believe that she cum while Calix was licking her down there.

However, Calix asked her with his rough voice.

"Do you still want to continue?"

"... Yes."

She was breathing hard but she nodded her head. She didn't want to stop, at least not when Calix did so much for her.

But then, just as Calix took his pants, Lou's eyes widened in surprise.

"T -that's!!!"

She couldn't believe how big it is!!

"That thing is going to enter me?"

She gasped, her tummy felt funny.

Chapter 128

Lou's mouth was open yet no words ever came out. She was stunned as she stared at the hard pole that was standing in front of her. She didn't know what to say, it was so big.

Yet, this is not even its final form!!

Lou wondered how something this big penetrated the woman(Yuna) yesterday.

"T- this is!!!"

She stammered, covering her face.

Yet her eyes didn't leave the huge monstrosity, she gulped. She felt like she witnessed something miraculous. And she knew that this miraculous wand would give her a miracle, hehe foreshadow.

"Are you ready?"

"Y- yeah?"

She added a question mark because she was not sure. Especially when something huge like this would pop her cherry. Yet when she glanced at the massive rod, she couldn't help but gulp. As if she knew how great it would be if it entered her. So in the end, she nodded her head. This was the reason why she asked Calix anyway, she wanted to lose her virginity properly.

So it didn't matter if his cock was big or small, she already decided to do this. It would be disgraceful to back down now. Especially when Calix was excited, she didn't want to hurt his feelings.

"It's fine if you're scared. I prioritize your feelings over mine."

Calix said these soothing words but he was actually determined to fuck her silly until she cum so much that she would forget her name. Calix wanted to stamp her with his signature, filled her womb with his sperm. He gets a lot of satisfaction as he thinks of it. He felt like he accomplished something big, by taking her first time.

Calix looked at her, they were already naked and Lou could hide nothing from him. He found that Lou had a mole on her left breast, her long black silky hair didn't have any clip. She was beautiful and Calix wanted to make her crazy with his cock.

Then, his already big cock turned much bigger than Lou almost yelp because of awe. She covered her mouth, yet saliva gradually formed in her mouth. She was hungry.

"Lie down."

Calix commanded and Lou couldn't do anything except listen. She lay on the bed, she was tense and nervous. She didn't know what to do in this situation. Should she act? Begging and cooing him? She didn't know. Everything she prepared vanished from her mind.

Even the porn that she watched disappeared, all she thought about was how great it would be to experience his cock.

Calix smirked and started kissing her. He started from her forehead down to her navel until he reached her womanhood. Lou gasped as Calix fingered her. He didn't completely insert his finger, he only triggered her weak spot and Lou started squirming. Her legs locked his hand in and Calix continued fingering her softly.

Just when Calix confirmed that Lou was wet and she was ready, Calix kissed her again and Lou didn't back away. She kissed him back instead, licking his tongue.

Lou felt like something was poking her crotch but because of Calix's continuous kissing, she couldn't verify what it was. Her mind was floating. Although it didn't take a long time for her to understand what exactly it was.

"Hhhaapp!!"

She gasped as Calix penetrated her virgin pussy. She cried and scratched his back, she couldn't help it, it was painful.

"Relax."

Calix whispered in her ear and Lou nodded, she did her best to calm down. When she found that her pussy didn't feel any pain anymore, Calix kissed her and held her hands. Instead, she felt his hot throbbing cock deep in her.

He looked down and smiled at her.

"Congratulations on graduating. Looks like I popped your cherry."

Lou looked down and found that she was bleeding.

"It seems that you didn't completely lose your first time to a dildo."

"T-thank you!!"

"Wait, why are you crying?"

Tears rolled down her cheeks, she cried so hard. She thought that she lost her precious virginity to a dildo but Calix confirmed that she was wrong. This was tears of joy.

"Do you feel any pain?"

He looked anxious, Calix indeed wanted to fuck her but he didn't want to hurt her. He would immediately stop this if Lou felt pain.

"No."

She shook her head. She didn't feel any pain at all. It disappeared after a few seconds. She was actually confused why the pain easily vanished as if something unexplainable helped her to feel at ease. But she was thankful for that.

"Then, I will start moving now."

"Please do."

Calix was still holding her hands, their fingers intertwined. He started moving his hips and Lou bit her lip because of this unexplainable sensation. It felt so good yet unbearable yet so good, she couldn't explain what it was. However, she didn't want to stop.

"Mmmm, nnaahhh..."

Calix was fucking her in a mating press position while they were hand-holding, fingers intertwined! How fucking lewd! Mating Press and Hand Holding are too illegal to do at the same time!!

Lou was tightly gripping his hands while Calix was gently fucking her. He was not that nasty to fuck her rough, at least not in the beginning. He knew when to hold back.

"Hhaaahh... Nnghh!!"

Just as their lovemaking continued, Lou started moaning. She couldn't help it, noises just came out of her mouth as Calix fuck her. She felt hot and embarrassed, she heard her body slapping against his.

Calix could feel that his cock was getting covered with love juice because her pussy became wet and easy to penetrate.

"Haahhh!! Aahhh!! Calix!!"

Then he didn't realize that Lou was ready to cum. She growled and gripped his hands tightly. She didn't know what to do, instead, she found Calix's shoulder blade and bit it hard. Then she climaxed and her body spasmed. She was breathing hard and tears gathered from her eyes, she felt funny. As if her brain was stirred just like her pussy.

'So this is the feeling of cumming from a cock... This is not that bad.'

In fact, it felt so good. This was much more different from using dildos, it was a hundred times better. Lou understood that she could never use a dildo again after this, she would never be satisfied with that stuff.

She realized that asking for Calix's help was the best decision she ever made in her entire life.

Chapter 129

One week later after Lou officially lost her v-card. Well, she indeed lost her first time to Calix because it bled. Perhaps her hymen was still intact so it was technically her first time, right?

Anyway, after that day Lou would always visit Calix every night exactly around 10 to 11 pm. Of course to have sex. That was the only reason anyway. Lou was nervous at the first and second time, but after that, her libido increased so much that Calix had to hammer his cock into her womb for ten to twenty minutes nonstop so that she would be satisfied.

Actually, Lou want to visit him every morning too but Calix strongly denied her. He explained that his friend(Yuna) would visit him every morning instead. Calix had to maintain Yuna's rationality. Once Lou tried to break free in the morning, Calix felt that Yuna won't hesitate to cut her throat. That's how crazy Yuna is.

So Lou decided to be happy about the nighttime sex. Well, she was indeed happy and satisfied. Nothing could scratch her itch like Calix did. He was the best pussy scraper that she ever had, much better than the dildo and vibrator. At one point, she started thinking about what would happen if Calix became her boyfriend. Although she quickly erased that idea, she knew that Calix had a lot of girls to handle.

Besides, Calix had Scarlett, the most talented woman in their country. At first she was not interested in it, but now, she became curious about how their relationship started. However, she was afraid to ask Calix. She felt like Calix won't open his relationship with Scarlett easily, even to Lou.

So she sighed.

Anyway, she was sticking her butt in the air, waiting for Calix's cock to impale her pussy. Calix was watching her while eating nuts. Lou delivered nuts when she visited his room. He was smirking at this lovely scene.

Lou was smooth like a hard-boiled egg because she shaved.

"Tell me who you are."

He commanded like a king.

"I'm your whore."

"And what is your role."

Calix didn't know why, but he was elated to dominate Lou like this. As if he was above the others.

And of course, Lou loved this too. In fact, her slit was so wet right now.

"My job is to suck your dick and use my pussy to satisfy you."

"Good. Now kneel before me."

He said and Lou didn't think twice. She kneeled in front of him while staring at his huge cock, worshipping it.

"Say that you're a cock sucking whore."

"I'm Calix's cock sucking whore."

She specifically added Calix's name and Calix chuckled. Lou is indeed smart and she knew how to make him happy. In fact, Lou had taken a college exam at Horvart University. Horvart University was the oldest college in the world. Not only that, the University had the oldest library too. The Great Library had books from 800 years ago, well preserved and readable. Although only a few students could enter the said library.

Lou wanted to study in that university and she had strong chances of getting accepted.

'Horvart University is in Junian, our neighboring country. Now that I think about it, my mother's family is living there.'

Keenan became interested in his mother's lineage. He heard that he had the blood of Elf and Ogre in his blood. Everything that his father said made sense. His Fuel and Term Attribute was related to his lineage.

Calix studied the lineage of Elves and Ogres while he was in the house.

'Although the information about them is quite limited on the internet. I wonder if I can find an Elf that I can talk to... Nevermind.'

He shook his head when he recalled a certain blonde girl, Calix felt that his scar stung. Marianne Francine almost killed him and he stayed in the hospital for weeks.

Calix lost his interest in Marianne and he stared at Lou. She was staring at his hardened magelodong like it was tasty food. She was like a puppy waiting for its master to give food.

Calix grinned, he liked what he was seeing.

"Suck my dick."

He commanded and Lou nodded her head. She started licking his balls first until she reached his shaft. She kissed the tip and she shoved his cock inside her mouth.

"Did you like it?"

"Yesh thir."

Her voice was a bit muffled because of the cock in her mouth. She was bobbing her head and Calix brushed her hair.

To be honest, Lou was not that experience in blowjobs. She was an amateur, but there's something about her that made Calix's cock hard. Her innocent and awkward sucking made it better actually. She was sloppy but Calix didn't care.

The fact that this innocent woman was sucking his dick was enough to make him happy.

"I'm gonna cum. Make sure that you drink it."

Lou didn't speak, instead, her bobbing became much fierce. She was sucking his cock and it didn't take a long time for Calix to cum. He grunted as he released his sperm inside her sweet mouth.

"Open your mouth."

Lou opened her mouth and Calix could see that his cum was swimming in her mouth.

"Swallow it."

Lou closed her teary eyes. Then, she shut her mouth and her throat heaved. She definitely swallowed it.

When she opened her mouth again, there was no trace of cum at all. Her mouth was clean, she consumed his baby-making seeds.

"Good, now clean my cock."

"Yesh!"

She started cleaning his cock vigorously. As if she was touching something precious.

After that, Calix fucked her in dog style and reverse cowgirl position. Of course, he nudded inside her pussy too.

"I'm eating nuts, so it's good to nut in you. It's healthy."

To be honest, he didn't know what he was saying.

"Nnghhh!! Yes yes, ahh!!"

"Now, cum on Deez Nutz!!"

He roared and hugged her while pumping his seeds inside her healthy fertile womb. Lou screamed as she climaxed together with Calix.

"Mmmmmm."

When they were finished, Lou got dressed again and she happily left the room.

"Phew..."

Calix sighed and leaned on the bed. However, when he turned to the window, he found that Yuna was eyeing him. Calix gulped, it seemed like he won't have any sleep... again.

Chapter 130

"... Hm, I don't know anymore."

Because Andreas taught Calix how to become stronger-- by further deciphering his Term Attribute, Calix started gathering information about the High Elves of Fate and the Ogres.

Calix felt like his lineage was related to how he could evolve his Term Attribute. After all, his fuel and Term Attributes were related to him of being Ogre and Elven descent.

Calix gathered information about them, although the best he could find was articles on the internet, which was not enough for him. There were a lot of fake articles and he didn't know what to believe.

"All I see are hentai about elves and orcs/ogres, there are even some ugly bastards. I swear, animators these days are getting lazy..."

He didn't know what he was saying.

Calix was already living in the house for two weeks, a lot of things happened within that time, such as sex, training, sex, shooting practices, sex, martial arts sparring... and sex. Overall, Calix didn't stay in his room all the time. He was honing his fangs, he knew that his Term Attribute would bring him to not-so-lucky situations, so it was better to be prepared.

On top of that, his sleep time was greatly affected. Because he was always busy. After having sex with Lou, Yuna would appear and retake her throne, which was on his lap, with his cock inside her pussy. So Calix didn't have much sleep these two weeks.

"... I guess I have to visit Port of Aoneon."

Andreas said that his grand aunt was living in an amusement park, he didn't actually understand what he meant about that. All Calix knew was that his grand aunt was in the country of Dellia and he wanted to talk to her about their lineage.

Scarlett promised that she would visit the house around April 20 or 21, Calix still had five days to visit Port of Aoneon and return to Evitac. It was fortunate that the two cities were close.

"Although I have to use a Flying Ship or a boat to go to the Port. I guess Flying Ship will be much better."

Port of Aoneon was an island, it was an artificial island created to attract the water-type Aberrants. Because Dellia's western part was the seaside, the Port of Aoneon was created so that the water-type Aberrants won't attack the other fishing sites. Aquatic resources were one of the main resources of their economy, next to machinery and new inventions. Their country was one of the most innovative countries.

The sky was protected by Obice and they could travel freely without being afraid of Aberrants in the sky. Furthermore, the sea was protected by the Port of Aoneon so they could harvest fish as long as their boats didn't go too far from the coast.

While thinking, Calix found that Kimberly sent him a message. She said she was going to Evitac on April 22 to inspect their warehouses.

"Kinda sus, but okay."

He scrolled down and found that Kimberly sent dozens of nudes. There was even a video where Kimberly was masturbating. This woman is indeed a great catch.

He chuckled, he already predicted Kimberly's intention. She wanted to see him, and of course, Calix love to see her.

It seemed like both of his girlfriends would come within the same week. It was good that he already talked to his father about this, at least Andreas won't be surprised that two girls would appear to look for Calix.

Just as he was busy with his laptop, he glanced at Yuna who was sitting next to him. He sighed because she was disturbing him.

"Yuna we need to talk, seriously."

"Okay."

Yuna said while licking her lips.

"You have to stop masturbating. "

"Oh my God, why?"

"Because I'm talking to you!"

"Ah... Oh! I'm sorry, I didn't mean to. It's a natural reaction."

She defended. She looked down and found that she was fingering herself. Her pussy was sloppy and she cummed more than twice while Calix was searching on the internet.

"You're disturbing me."

He massaged his forehead.

"I'm sorry... So, do you want me to suck your cock?"

"... Tch, okay fine."

He shook his head. Yuna giggled and kneeled down, she suck his big cock like a popsicle while she was masturbating. In the end, Calix didn't have a proper rest because they fuck.

.....

.....

...

After that, Calix decided to talk to his father about his grand aunt. He asked for her address. Andreas gave him the address and money to travel.

Actually, he gave him 3 thousand dollars in cash and 7 thousand in his bank account. Calix denied the money but in the end, he gave up and accepted it... after a judo match.

Andreas used his one arm to defeat him, his arm turned into a five meters arm and smacked his face across the room. Although he didn't receive many injuries because he landed on a soft spot where there were cushions.

It didn't take a day for him to book a ticket. He was going to leave tomorrow. Lou wanted to go with him but sadly her high school teacher called her and she had to go to the school, it was related to her college choice.

When the day arrived, Calix left the house and took a taxi. He looked around and he couldn't find Yuna. He only have one backpack because he was going to return after the next day anyway. He had his shrunken battle suit and pistol, which was already registered so he could use it in public. Of course, he needed a proper reason to do so. So anyway, when Calix reached the terminal, a girl with pink hair stumbled upon him.

"... Yuna, do you really have to do this? You can take the taxi with me, why do you have to go around and use your Term Attribute."

"Because it's fun."

Yuna giggled and invited him to the girl's restroom... and they have sex. Calix had to kiss Yuna so that she won't create any noise while he was hammering her heart-shaped ass. Calix admitted that it was exciting having sex in a public toilet.

After that, Calix and Yuna get in the Flying Ship, they were not wearing any underwear because Yuna stole his and she gave hers.

So far their travel was peaceful.

However, while in the middle of the ride, their Flying Ship was hijacked and people started panicking.
