

Only Fuel 27

Chapter 27

Scarlett was happy as she walked along the road, the corners of her lips twitched, she was alone right now but the smile on her face showed that she didn't feel lonely. Calix actually wanted to walk with her but the woman disagreed. She wanted time to think, Calix nodded but he said the words "be careful" and then kissed her forehead. Scarlett almost shrieked because of his caring. She loved that simple act of affection.

Right now, she was happy to learn that Calix has the same feelings as her. They loved each other. The moon was shining brightly just like her, it gave her encouragement.

Scarlett walked and gradually reached her dormitory. She could still see people here and there but the place was peaceful overall.

Then she remembered that her room had a massive hole. She destroyed the wall to escape her enemies last time.

"Athena should know what to do."

She nodded, her maid was one of the best maids that she could have. She trusted her, she was like a big sister to Scarlett. They knew each other since childhood but Athena always gave this boundary of being a master and servant so Scarlett would sometimes pout at her. Still, Athena was important to her.

When she entered her room, she confirmed that the wall was fixed. It looked new with no blemishes. Even the posters were completely replicated. She almost believed that she didn't destroy it.

"As expected of her."

Scarlett was amazed at how Athena did her job, as always.

Now, she took a bath and cleaned herself. While she was in the bathroom, she realized that her neck was filled with marks all over! She began blushing and recalled how bad Calix was. He rained her with smooches, her body had kiss marks and red because of the sex they had.

"Oh my god, did the others see this?"

Some people saw her entering the dorm and perhaps they saw the marks. Scarlett was embarrassed, she forgot that she was showered with kisses.

"Ah God, I want to die."

She covered her face as the water rained on her skin, they said cold water makes the marks go away faster. She couldn't believe that she forgot something important like that. She was too absorbed because of what Calix said.

"Gosh, he said I love you!"

She squealed.

.....

.....

...

"Did the mistress safely return?"

Athena asked the shadow. She was holding a bat and swinging it. A swift gust of wind echoed whenever she swung it. Her eyes were looking ahead, into the dark trees. Right now, Athena was practicing her skills in this lonely forest. She was honing her instincts, her instincts to kill.

"Lady Scarlett safely returned but..."

A voice of a man came from the shadow but it stopped midway.

"Spit it out, or else I'll pull your tongue out of your mouth. I swear it will be painful."

Athena said as she swung the bat and sliced a 3 meters thick tree in half. The tree started falling and crashed into the ground.

The man hiding in the shadow gulped and immediately continued.

"L- Lady Scarlett came out of the boys' dormitory a-and she has marks around her neck..."

He said while stuttering. He was sweating like hell, he knew that Athena would be going to be angry.

Athena paused her swinging and turned to him. Her eyes were glowing in the dark, it was frightening.

"... What did you say?"

"S- She has kiss marks-"

"Stop.... Get out of here. I might kill you. Remember to protect Lady Scarlett."

The man disappeared like smoke, he was too afraid so he ran fast.

Athena looked at the moon and started thinking.

"Boys dormitory, huh? Master Robinson said that we must give Scarlett freedom so we didn't give her any guards. It was fortunate that she escaped that attack last time... Still, I can't believe that she keeps a secret from me."

Athena sighed. Actually, she knew that Scarlett and Calix spent their night together in the storage room. Her underlings confirmed it. Calix left the storage room a few hours after Scarlett left. It was obvious what they did. She didn't say it to the General because he knew that man would go crazy and perhaps beat Calix.

Athena shook her head and concentrate again.

"Calix, if you make her cry again, I will smash your head."

[Athena Hercul]

[1] [Swing Term Attribute]

[2] [Swing Blade Term Attribute]

[Fuel: Holding a metal bat.]

[Backlash: Will have deep cuts on her skin if she doesn't touch a metal bat for two days.]

Athena is a 2nd Advanced Vindicator, she acquired her second Term Attribute and became one of the superhumans.

"It seems like Young Master Chen is doing things under the table. I feel that he will assault the Lady again."

Athena raised her metal bat and swung it towards a tree. A sharp wind blade materialized and cut the tree into two.

"The problem is... Will I let him do his way and make our Lady stronger? This is the first time that Lady Scarlett will have to face sly people like Young Master Chen... Maybe I have to watch and wait if she can fix this by herself... but the thing that bugs me is the mission that General Bronal gave to us. That dream is still unknown..."

Athena was in dilemma but she promised that she would make Scarlett stronger.

.....

.....

...

Bang!!

Young Master Chen smashed the table. He was furious, his face was red like a volcano ready to blow magma. He was in his villa playing with girls when one of his underlings approached him and talked about Scarlett. When he heard him, he pulled the hair of the girl who was giving him a blowjob. The woman yelped but he didn't care.

"What the fuck did you just say!!??"

He glared at the man.

"S- Scarlett has kiss marks when she returned-"

Pah!!!

He slapped the poor guy with all of his strength. The guy stumbled upon the floor and his nose was bleeding.

"Get out!! Get out!!!"

All of the people inside scampered like rats. They were afraid, it was known that Young Master Chen is hot temper man who won't hesitate to hurt even girls.

Young Master Chen smashed the vase close to him and started destroying every object in his room. He screamed like a madman.

After calming himself, he began thinking about how to get Scarlett. He was dying to have her, he wanted to fuck her silly and make her crazy. He would drug her till she becomes a loyal dog who would beg and kneel.

"That woman! She dares to humiliate me!!!"

Kiss marks!!! She had kiss marks!! Young Master Chen was not an idiot, he knew what it means.

He grabbed his phone and dialed numbers, the phone was not working well at first but after he cast his spell, the reception became strong. He completely decided to make the transaction faster. Someone picked up his call and Young Master Chen spoke.

"Yeah, you heard me. I don't give a fuck! It's just eight percent! I still have a large portion of the shares, my father will understand me. I can get it after this. Yeah, I have someone to teach lessons."

He said as his eyes were burning with passion. He almost cracked the phone with his hand.