

One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President

Chapter 185 He Deliberately Loses to Her

Ceres and Kirs exchanged a look, then they activated the backup system of Wargod No. 1.

Everyone broke out in a cold sweat for Wargod No. 1.

However, Ceres and Kirs were both clear that the backup system could not be compared to the system that the robot had brought along. Moreover, the backup system was restricted. Under the high-intensity operation, it could only last for around ten minutes.

In other words, Reunion only needed to use the means to drag on for ten minutes. Then Reunion would undoubtedly win.

Ceres concentrated on launching an attack on Reunion. Reunion also engaged in the battle meticulously, and the two sides were in a fierce battle.

Ceres made a surprise attack and hit Reunion's left arm in a roundabout way. She found that the weakness of Reunion was in its left arm. It should be that some parts had been installed in its left arm.

Reunion lost control of his left arm.

"Well done, Ceres!" Kirs, who was beside Ceres, congratulated her.

Ceres frowned. She suddenly had another discovery.

But she didn't have time to think about it. She quickly took advantage of the victory to chase after Reunion. After attacking its left arm, the Wargod No. 1 went behind it and attacked its back.

Reunion was sparking!

Then it fell to the ground.

The voice of "GAME OVER" sounded.

Wargod No. 1 won!

The audience cheered.

Ceres looked at Johnny, who was on the opposite side. He just smiled at her, and his eyes exuded a gentle and warm light.

She immediately turned her face to the side.

In the last round of the competition, Cosmos Group's Wargod No. 1 obtained 99 points. Because of the serious damage, Eagle Group's Reunion only obtained 94 points. So, Wargod No. 1 won.

When the host announced that the champion was Wargod No. 1, the team of Cosmos Group surrounded Kirs and Ceres. The fireworks bloomed all over the sky.

Some were happy and some were sad.

Although Eagle Group won the runner-up, they lost in the final match. They left the field dejectedly, leaving the carnival to the champion.

When Team Warrior returned to the break room, the players were still in a crazy discussion.

"It was too thrilling just now. Wargod No. 1 was about to burst into flames, but we fought back in the end. We won the competition!"

"This means that our backup system is equally powerful!"

"Our skills are better!"

Everyone burst out laughing.

"Mr. Kirs, we have made a great contribution. Should we go out today to have fun?" Lisa looked at Kirs.

Kirs coughed lightly, "Everyone, your bonus of next month and the year-end bonus will be doubled!"

"Mr. Kirs is great!" Everyone screamed together.

Kirs immediately motioned for them to quiet down and continued,

"In addition, tonight is wonderful and exciting. Let's go out and have a good celebration! I will cover the cost!"

"Wow!" Everyone cheered once again.

Ceres was not happy at all.

She just smiled and catered to everyone.

"You guys go to have fun. My son is still waiting for me, so I can't go." Ceres knew that this was a little disappointing, but she couldn't keep her spirits up.

"Ceres, let's go together. You are the leader of the technical department. You are also the person in charge of this competition. How can everyone be interested if you don't go? Besides, everyone has worked hard for several months. Let's go to relax."

Kirs looked at Ceres gently.

"Yes, Ms. Ceres. Let's go together!"

"Ms. Ceres, we won't have fun without you!"

Ceres couldn't stand everyone's pestering. She also knew that it was inappropriate for her not to go. She called Nick and told him to bring Swedum home first.

The group went to the Ango Buffet that Kirs had ordered in advance, and the entire restaurant was booked. All the employees were singing and dancing inside.

Ceres sat in the corner, dejected.

She knew that Johnny deliberately lost to her.

When she found that Reunion's left arm was a weak point and attacked its left arm, she realized that there should be another system in Reunion's right arm. Johnny only needed to activate another system to defeat the enemy in one move!

Perhaps Johnny had deliberately exposed the weakness on Reunion's left arm to her.

During the competition, Johnny seemed to know Wargod No. 1 inside and out. He had too many chances to win, but he lost.

She figured out that he was doing it on purpose!

It was intentional!

But Ceres didn't know why he did it.

Eagle Group and Cosmos Group had gone through several months of competition before they entered the final competition. Other companies that mainly focused on artificial intelligence valued this competition very much.

Everyone knew that this competition was very important.

Once they won this competition, it would be equivalent to becoming the No. 1 intelligence company in Country A. Foreign cooperation would come one after another. This competition also gained high attention from others. It was more valuable than those advertisements with the value of a hundred million!

Johnny was such a smart businessman. Would he not understand?

However, he had deliberately lost the competition, which meant to let Eagle Group miss the opportunity of becoming a true hegemon!

Ceres's mind was in a mess.

From the time Johnny transferred such a large sum of money into her account, from the time he found her a lawyer, to the day he deliberately lost to her, she could not understand this man.

Ceres came back to her senses when Kirs sat beside her.

"Ceres, what are you thinking? Why don't you join everyone?"

Kirs had long seen Ceres alone in the crowd. He also knew what Ceres was thinking. It was nothing more than that Johnny had deliberately lost the competition.

Of course, he could see that Reunion was far more powerful than Wargod No. 1. Johnny had deliberately lost.

But he didn't care.

The result was that Johnny lost the competition.

"I might have expended too much energy, so I can't play anymore. I'm a little tired." Ceres took a sip of fruit juice and smiled politely at Kirs. She said,

"We won the competition, but we also lost."

"Why?" Ceres looked at Kirs in confusion.

"On the surface, it seems like we are the champions, but others have witnessed how Wargod No. 1 was attacked. They also knew that we had no choice but to use the backup system. Everyone felt that this was called a desperate counterattack. But in the intelligent industry, our skills are inferior. Although Reunion lost, its offensive ability is too strong. It has almost no weaknesses. That was what others call strength."

Ceres furrowed.

He wondered, 'Johnny deliberately lost. Does he have other plans?

'On one hand, he makes Ceres feel that he had deliberately lost to her. On the other hand, he can win something more important than the competition!

'He is too cunning.'

Ceres suddenly sat up, "Kirs, let's go sing!"

It was not until midnight that Ceres returned home.

But when she returned home, she did not see Nick and Swedum!
