

One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President

Chapter 223 First Enter the Room

Even if it was three years, it would still need joint efforts from talents in the artificial intelligence field.

Ceres knew that her team would not suffice.

It was impossible to study an intelligent robot listed in just a year unless they took a shortcut!

Ceres bit her lips, "the Cosmos Group is a veteran company in this area. Maybe a few years ago, they started to invest manpower and material resources. They just focused on research this year."

Johnny didn't reply and only snorted lightly.

Ceres realized that she was talking nonsense immediately.

As the director of the Cosmos Group's technology department, how could she not know such a big project?

However, she couldn't find any memories of this.

'Did the Cosmos Group steal the results of the Eagle Group?'

She remembered that a long time ago, the Eagle Group had intended to release an intelligent robot. For some reason, they canceled this plan. The thing had a huge influence on the Eagle Group.

However, she felt that it was impossible. Was there someone who could steal information from the Eagle Group?

"You can't tell, right?" Johnny glanced at her.

"Because I had a car accident and hurt my head, I can't remember everything clearly. I will answer this question later." Ceres struggled for the last time.

Johnny frowned slightly. It seemed that Kirs had used a car accident to deceive Ceres. However, he did not want to correct her. He only wanted her to create new memories.

"It doesn't matter. The truth will come to light." Johnny replied lightly.

Johnny sent Ceres home. When Ceres got out of the car, Johnny followed her.

"How did you know where I live?" Ceres asked as he turned around.

"If I want to pursue a woman, I will investigate her," Johnny asked with a relaxed smile.

"You." Ceres gritted her teeth, "Goodbye. I won't send you off!"

Just as she was about to enter the house, Johnny rushed to her and blocked her way, "I send you home. Aren't you going to let me in for a seat?"

"It's not convenient."

If it was someone else, Ceres would certainly be willing, but Johnny was eyeing her covetously, and she did not want to take this risk.

"What's so inconvenient about that? Didn't my son say that..." Johnny leaned close to Ceres's ear, "I should give myself to you. How can I give myself to you if I don't enter the room?"

"You..."

Johnny kissed her lips before Ceres could finish.

His overbearing kiss swept everything!

Ceres widened her eyes. She was completely off-guard and even dumbfounded.

A flash of lightning was in her head.

In her impression, she had not kissed anyone, but why did she feel that this scene was so familiar.

'And the clear smell on his body is also familiar?'

Ceres pushed Johnny away and slapped him on the face.

Johnny just gently stroked his face. "How is the taste of your first kiss?"

Ceres stomped her foot and opened the door, slamming it shut.

"Get lost!"

Johnny shouted from outside the door, "Alright, I'll take my eggs and scram."

Ceres wanted to go out and beat him up. If neighbors heard this, they would probably laugh at her to death.

When Ceres entered the door, the smile on Johnny's face slowly disappeared.

'Ceres, I will chase you back.'

He took one last look at the lights on the floor and drove away.

Ceres stood upstairs and heard the sound of cars leaving downstairs. She hid behind the curtains and watched secretly.

Her lips were still slightly numb. She subconsciously touched her lips and covered her chest.

'My heart was beating faster?'

'That feeling was like a deer bumping around.'

'What a wonderful feeling.'

The sound of the phone pulled Ceres back to her thoughts. Nyla, Alice, and her WeChat group were looking for her. Nyla said that she was bored and wanted a gathering.

Ceres had asked Alice to watch a movie last time, but Alice was busy at work.

She hadn't met Alice and Nyla for a long time.

So, she replied to the message.

Alice engaged to Bill of Glory Entertainment. She only asked Alice a few questions on WeChat and did not know what was going on.

The three of them arranged the time for the gathering.

At the airport.

A woman hid with a cap and a big black mask. No one could see her face.

When she was checked in, she took off her hat and mask to check her identity. The worker was startled and immediately handed her ID card and boarding pass.

The woman put on the hat and mask again.

Sally came over with the luggage. "Mary, the price of transporting the luggage is quite expensive. I have..."

It was Mary.

Nyla won the lawsuit. The court sentenced Mary to compensate 100 million for Nyla's company. How could she have so much money?

Henry took advantage of the time when she was in the hospital to go through the divorce procedures and freeze her property. She now had nothing.

She only had a large pile of debts. Even if she left, she had to be sneaky.

"Throw away your luggage."

"Throw it away? That's all we have."

"I said throw it away!" Mary roared.

Sally didn't want to provoke her. "Alright, anyway, it's just some clothes. Nothing expensive."

She threw the suitcase beside the trash can and followed behind Mary.

The plane successfully boarded.

Mary looked at her country without any attachment.

Sally looked at her and let out a long sigh. "Mary, I have a friend abroad. We can go to her. You are so beautiful. We will make a comeback abroad."

"Make a comeback?" Mary sneered.

How could she make a comeback?

If Sally hadn't stopped her, she might have jumped down from the hospital.

"In the future, don't say anything about comeback again. It's good enough to be alive."

"Well. Live well."
