

One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President

Chapter 224 New Professor?

Exquisite Restaurant.

The restaurant had a specially arranged small private room that was never open to the public. The room was prepared for Nyla's gathering.

The three of them finally met again.

The focus was Alice's sudden engagement to Bill.

"Alice, you are engaged to Bill secretly. When was the engagement ceremony? Why didn't you invite Ceres and me?" Nyla was aggressive.

Ceres patted Nyla's thigh, indicating that she should not be so tough. "Alice, why was it so sudden?"

Ceres and Alice were best friends. They never had any secrets. Ceres was a little angry about being uninformed.

"It's a long story. Mr. Jaden and I..." Alice didn't know how to explain, looking the other way. Johnny had contacted her and told her about Ceres being hypnotized. He wanted her not to mention anything related to him.

Ceres knew Bill through Johnny, so it was better for her to keep quiet.

Alice gave Nyla a look, and Nyla immediately understood.

"He pursued you, right? An innocent girl like you is Bill's taste, and you also fell for him, right?" Nyla helped Alice to cover the things.

Alice nodded helplessly. "That's probably it."

"Be careful. A man like Bill is unreliable. Do you know that he constantly changes his girlfriends?" Nyla poked Alice's forehead.

Ceres knew nothing about Bill. She just felt that she was kind of familiar with Bill.

In her memory, she seemed to have meals with Bill, but she didn't know how she knew Bill. "Alice, did you take Bill and me to eat together?"

Nyla's hand suddenly trembled.

Alice looked at Ceres in confusion. She had not!

Ceres's memories had been erased, but there shouldn't be any additional memories, right?

"Yes. She brought Bill to have dinner with us once." Nyla kicked Alice under the table.

Alice only thought that Nyla was covering for her.

"That's right. Anyway, I feel that I have been in contact with Bill."

Alice immediately smiled. "You don't have to worry about me. He did change many girlfriends before, but this time he is sincere because I have met his parents!"

Nyla was very surprised about this. Bill, that kind of trash, brought Alice to see his parents.

"That's good." Ceres was sincerely happy for Alice.

The three of them toasted.

Nyla mysteriously hugged Ceres's shoulder, "Recently, I have been crazily pursuing Johnny. You must not snatch him from me!"

Ceres only felt her heart skip a beat. She remembered that Nyla had said before that she liked Johnny. If she knew that Johnny was pursuing her now, how would Nyla feel?

At the mention of Johnny, Alice stared at Ceres's face with caution.

"I don't know why you like Johnny. He is suing our company now. I won't snatch such a shameless man from you!"

"That would be for the best!" Nyla said with a smile.

However, Ceres's heart was in a mess. He hoped that Johnny was just on a whim.

They talked a lot, but because Ceres still had class. The party ended early.

Ceres was still a postgraduate student. She seldom attended the class before. Now that the new product was on the market, she could finally come to class.

She had been busy with the new product, thus missing a lot of lessons. Before class, she hurriedly borrowed her classmate's notes.

"Ceres, you don't have to look at the notes. A new professor will have the class."

When the new students enrolled, Ceres had met some of them. Most of them were fresh graduates, while Ceres had several gap years. She was older, so many classmates used to call her sister.

"A new professor?" Ceres let out a long sigh, "Well. These notes will be used."

She looked at the notes while listening to everyone chatting.

"Have you heard? The new professor is specially hired by the school!"

"Come, let me tell you about him. The new professor is the famous best artificial intelligence in the country, Arno!"

When I heard Arno's name, Ceres raised her head and looked at the student who was talking.

She had heard this name more than once. Arno was her idol!

"Really? Will Arno teach us?" Ceres asked with wide eyes.

"Of course! I also admire Arno. I hope he is a handsome guy!"

"How is that possible! The professors are bald, so don't even think about handsome guys."

Everyone was discussing Arno.

"Ceres, you work in Cosmos Corporation. Do you have a chance to see Arno?" Everyone focused on Ceres.

Ceres smiled awkwardly. "I have never seen him either. I have always admired him. It is said that he is very mysterious and does not like to interact with others, so..."

She shrugged.

Before she stepped into the artificial intelligence industry, she had already admired Arno a lot. He was her idol.

After she entered the industry, she had always wanted to make friends with Arno, but unfortunately, no one around her knew Arno.

Everyone became more curious about Arno.

The entire classroom was in a mess, and no one noticed that someone had walked in.

"Class."

A deep and powerful voice came.

The students in the front row first straightened their backs and widened their eyes when they saw the one on the platform.

The entire classroom was suddenly silent!

Ceres was so shocked!

Johnny!

'He...'

Johnny wore a neat black shirt. He no longer looked like a boss. His delicate face looked refreshingly lucid and lively under the afterglow of the setting sun.

"Hello everyone, I am Arno. I think everyone here should know me. My name is Johnny, the president of the Eagle Group. Now I am everyone's teacher. Everyone can call me Arno."

Johnny fixed his eyes on Ceres!
