

One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President

Chapter 254 She Was the Woman He Deeply Loved

Everyone's eyes were focused on Johnny.

If he could not bring out more evidence to prove that the Cosmos Group had stolen their research results to produce the new products, he would lose the lawsuit.

The result of losing the lawsuit could be imagined.

The Eagle Group would face a bigger public opinion storm and might even go bankrupt.

Johnny's face was indifferent, and he was just about to speak.

The door to the court opened once again, "I have!"

A female voice came from the door, and everyone looked at the door.

Light poured in from outside the door. The woman against the light was like an angel that saved the world.

She walked in with certainty.

"Your Honor, I have evidence."

"Who are you? Do you know that you are not allowed to enter this court as you please?"

Kirs was stunned when he saw Ceres!

When he came over this morning, he had asked Ceres if she wanted to come over to listen, but Ceres refused. She said that she had something to do in the company, but she came here.

Kirs thought, 'What exactly was she trying to do?'

"I am Ceres, the director of the technology department of the Cosmos Group."

"Ceres! What are you doing" Kirs suddenly stood up. He had a bad feeling.

"Keep silent!" The judge shouted.

Kirs nodded at the judge and sat down silently.

Johnny smiled and looked at Ceres. He knew...

"You said you have evidence. What evidence do you have?"

Ceres took out a USB flash drive from her pocket and a stack of information from her bag. "These are the evidence. This is the information I have collected about the two new products released by the Cosmos Group."

A staff member walked over and handed the USB and information to the judge.

"And I am the witness."

The audience was in an uproar!

The director of the technology department of the Cosmos Group was here to be the witness of the Eagle Group!

"The Cosmos Group released a robot-type product for the first time. It is an accompanying robot specially designed for children. The Cosmos Group stole the kind of robots from the Eagle Group. It was Kirs who stole the chip of the Eagle Group. That chip contains all the research and development results of the Eagle Group."

"However, Kirs was very smart. He only took out part and modified a part of it himself to avoid the detection of the Eagle Group so that he didn't need to undergo his crime."

The media reporters were frantically recording this big reversal of the event!

"The new product that came out a while ago also developed from this chip. And with the same trick, he took out a part of it and added some of his development results, forming a new product. The new product that had just been released was also the same case."

"Nonsense!" Kirs pointed at Ceres and cursed, "How much did the Eagle Group give you to let you become a traitor of the Cosmos Group?!"

Ceres stood there.

Before she came here, she had been hesitant because she knew what the consequences would be if she came here today.

But now, she was extremely sure that her choice was right.

Ceres turned to look at Kirs, "What about you? Kirs, you used to be an employee of the Eagle Group. When the Eagle Group was in trouble, you stole the chip. Aren't you a traitor of the Eagle Group?"

Kirs looked at Ceres in disbelief.

'Did she remember?'

'She remembered everything?'

'Was his hypnosis ineffective?'

'This was impossible! Impossible!'

The crowd was in an uproar again. Kirs was once an employee of the Eagle Group!

This was a shocking secret!

"Kirs used to be an employee of the Eagle Group. He and I won a robot competition and joined the Eagle Group as an intern. Thanks to Mr. Johnny's preference, we entered the core research and development team of the Eagle Group and began to develop robots. Then, because of an accident, the Eagle Group was in a critical situation. Kirs stole the chip during the critical period at that time."

"By the way, I forgot to tell everyone that at that time, Kirs's real name was Kirs Shaw. Everything I said could be checked in the school files."

Kirs glared fiercely at Ceres. He had never thought that the woman who sold him out was the woman he loved the most!

"Your Honor! I have something to say!" Kirs stared at Ceres fiercely. "As far as I know, Johnny has always been pursuing Ceres! Moreover, Johnny is also preparing for their wedding, so this woman can't be a witness at all. The evidence she submitted has to be considered! I seriously suspect that Ceres is a spy planted by the Eagle Group in my group!"

Kirs had a sly smile on her face.

In this way, all the evidence submitted by Ceres could be invalid.

Moreover, he could also ruin Johnny and Ceres.

He was ready to risk everything!

Of course, he would choose his group.

Ceres did not expect Kirs to be so despicable. She stared into Kirs's eyes for several seconds. "Kirs, you forced me to do that."

"Your Honor, I have another evidence!" Ceres turned around.

Kirs looked at Ceres blankly. 'What else did she want to say?'

"Kirs and I have known each other since we were young. We have known each other for nearly twenty years. I have always regarded him as my brother. It is because of our relationship that I can continue to stay in the Cosmos Group."

"This..."

Ceres took out a USB flash drive from his pocket. "It was all the conversation I had with Kirs during this period. I kept all the recordings. He has been pursuing me and even proposed to me. Some employees of the Cosmos Group can testify to this. In addition, after I refused his courtship, he even drugged me and wanted to rape me!"

The people below the stage started to discuss again!

So, there was so much big news to know!

"Nonsense! I didn't!" Kirs roared.

"Silence!" The judge shouted angrily. "Mr. Kirs, you have lost control of your emotions many times. If you are disturbing the court, please get out!"

Kirs had to silently sit on the dock.

"In addition, after that incident, I specially went to the hospital for a blood test in the hospital. The result of my blood could prove that there was indeed that kind of medicine in my body. This is the proof from the hospital."

Ceres took out another piece of paper from her bag.

She turned to look at Kirs, "I originally wanted to let you go, but now it seems that I need to sue you in another way."

Kirs stared fiercely at Ceres as if he wanted to kill Ceres.

This was the woman he loved deeply!

"There is new evidence for this case. It needs to be investigated, and the court will be held again."
