

One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President

Chapter 330 The Lost Will

Sally sneered, "I did raise a smart daughter. You guessed right."

As she spoke, Sally took out the bottle of medicine, "Are you going to drink it obediently or do you want me to help you?"

Roy looked at Sally, and his eyes were filled with disbelief.

"You want to kill the other daughter for one daughter?"

"What's so strange about this? This is not the first time she has done something like this."

Ceres looked at Sally coldly.

Ceres pretended to be strong. She guessed that Sally might kill her, but she didn't expect that Sally would be so decisive, not caring about the relationship between mother and daughter.

Although Ceres had lost a part of her memories, she could imagine that between herself and Jamie, Sally would always choose Jamie.

"Since you know me so well, then I don't need to waste my time persuading you. Drink it yourself."

Sally's face was still cold.

Ceres looked at the bottle of medicine in Sally's hand, and many things of the past came to her mind.

"Mom, I will call you mom one last time. You have been partial to Jamie for so many years. I didn't expect that you would kill me for wealth and power. Even a monster would not kill its child..."

Ceres was interrupted by Sally halfway through her words.

"Yes! I know that a monster would not kill its child. But, I just want to kill my daughter. What do you think?"

Sally was in a rage. "Everyone in this world is selfish. If there can only be one person between us to be alive, you can't tell me to die for you, right?"

Ceres looked at Sally's ferocious face and suddenly smiled.

Ceres thought, 'This was my mother, my biological mother!'

The bodyguard outside was also very surprised.

They didn't expect that someone would kill his daughter.

Sally suddenly calmed down at this time. "The red spots on your face can't be removed anyway. If you stay in this world, you will always be in pain. Death may be a relief."

Ceres burst into tears and laughed.

"You betrayed my father and gave birth to me with an unknown man. Before I turned one month old, you abandoned me. I only saw you for the first time when I was twelve.

"What did you do? To win the favor of the Morris family, you let me become a servant of the Morris family. My life there was even worse than a servant's. I lost a part of my memory. I think you must have done more harmful things and I don't remember.

"I am Caleb's daughter. For Jamie, you let her replace my position and take away my biological father! You want to kill me to make Jamie rest easy!"

The bodyguards outside the door were also stunned. They suspected that Ceres was Caleb's daughter indeed.

"Cut the crap!" Sally rushed over and grabbed Ceres by the chin. Then, she poured the bottle of medicine into her mouth!

Sally didn't even hesitate for one second during the entire process!

After drinking the potion, Sally pushed Ceres to the ground. "Be good and go to hell. You are not Caleb's daughter at all."

Roy saw Ceres fall to the ground. "Ceres! Ceres! You vicious woman!"

Sally snorted. Then, she poured another bottle of medicine into Roy's mouth. Roy struggled with all her might, but his hands and feet were tied up. Roy could do nothing.

Soon, both of them fell to the ground.

The bodyguard stood outside and looked at Sally's ruthlessness. They were even shivering.

"What are you still standing there for? Hurry up and clean up the corpse! When Jamie comes back and finds that the two corpses were still there, you guys will also be in trouble!"

The bodyguards were scared. Hearing Sally's reprimand, they hurriedly came forward to deal with the two corpses.

Sally glanced at Ceres and left the basement.

Jamie left the company and came to the hospital. Dylan was still there. When Dylan saw Jamie come back, he hurriedly came forward. "Miss Jamie, you are back?"

"How is my father?"

Dylan shook his head, "The doctor said that he was still in a severe coma, and..."

"And what?" Jamie anxiously grabbed Dylan's arm.

"The doctor said that it is very likely that Mr. Caleb will not wake up. He told us to be mentally prepared."

Jamie covered her mouth as tears streamed down her face. "Dad, how could this be?"

Dylan sighed deeply. He never thought that the powerful Caleb would end up like this.

"Miss Jamie, don't be sad. We have done our best to save Mr. Caleb. If Mr. Caleb can't wake up, it is probably his fate. You just have to do your own thing."

Jamie wiped her tears and nodded.

"How's the situation with the company?" Dylan asked with concern.

Jamie shook her head, "I went to the company with the will. But, they said that, according to Dad's style of doing things, he should make it clear who will be in charge of the company in the will. It only said that he left all the shares to me and did not say that I could take over the company.

"So, they thought that there was another will. Dylan, where do you think Dad would hide the will according to his personality?"

"I only know about the darkroom, and I don't know about other places. Miss Jamie, have you found the whole darkroom? Don't you miss something?" Dylan was also very confused.

Due to the lack of time, Jamie was able to find it very quickly. She might have missed something.

"I only found this one. Maybe I missed something. I'll go back and look for it."

"Alright, you should go quickly."

Jamie returned to the Bullock's manor. She had thought that it would be smooth for her with the will. She had not expected that Ballard would reject what she said.

The moment Jamie returned, she met Sally.

"How is the matter I handed to you?"

"Done." Sally's face was extremely cold, and there seemed to be a hint of sadness.

"Done?" Jamie was also a little surprised. Sally helped her kill Ceres.

"If you don't believe me, you can ask the bodyguards."

Sally took a deep breath, and her eyes turned red.

Jamie immediately grabbed Sally's hand, "Mom, I knew you would do anything for me. You are my good mother. Don't worry, I will be filial to you."

Sally forced herself to smile, "Jamie, this is the last time, OK?"

"This is naturally the last time. When I successfully become the chairman and president of the Bullock Group, everything will be settled. There will no longer be anything that can stop us. Mom, our good days will come."

Sally replied, "But I have killed so many people."

Jamie knew that Sally would feel a little uncomfortable. After all, Ceres was her biological daughter.

"Mom, don't be sad. Think about your future. All of this is worth it. Alright, I won't talk to you anymore. I have other things to do."

Sally looked at the back of Jamie and fell into deep thought.
