

One Night Stand With The Uninvited Wolf President

Chapter 364 She Is Upset

What Caleb did startled Ceres and Swedum.

Ceres was overjoyed. It seemed that their plan might succeed.

So she continued, "Not to mention Johnny's son, even the children of ordinary families are very busy. They have to learn all kinds of things every day. Children are all busy now. If you don't learn from others, you will be left behind by others."

As she spoke, Ceres sighed. "Grandfather and grandmother should feel lucky when they see children during the winter and summer holidays."

"Yes, Grandpa, I am very busy. Daddy wants me to inherit the Eagle Group in the future. I need to learn a lot." Swedum added.

Caleb coldly snorted, "I know why you said so. Do you mean that I can have more opportunities to meet Swedum if I live longer?"

"Well... You are right. That is the truth."

"Then you want to say that I can live a little longer only if I accept the doctor's advice and have a good examination and treatment?"

Caleb had already seen through everything. "Ceres, you are good at scheming. You are using a child to persuade me to receive treatment. Let me tell you, I won't be fooled. Send the child away immediately."

After speaking, Caleb stood up and left the restaurant.

Ceres looked at Caleb's back as he left. With one hand supporting her head, she felt frustrated.

"Caleb is too stubborn."

"Mommy, did I say something wrong?" Swedum looked at Ceres and pouted.

"No, Swedum did a great job. Unfortunately, your grandfather is too smart and stubborn." Ceres stroked Swedum's head.

"Yes, Swedum, don't worry about him. Let's take it slow."

Roy also hurried to comfort Swedum, but Swedum was full of hostility towards Roy.

Ceres did not expect that Swedum's plan would end so quickly. It did not matter. He would try again.

Ceres came out of the bathroom at night and suddenly heard Swedum and Johnny having a video call.

"Daddy, I keep a close eye on Mommy. Don't worry, that uncle is called Roy. He doesn't even dare to get close to Mommy. Even when we eat, I keep them far away."

Only then did Ceres realize that it was no wonder that when Swedum came, she had a bad feeling. It turned out that he came to supervise her.

Johnny's main goal was to plant a spy around her.

"Daddy, let's stop talking about it. Mommy will come out after taking a shower. Bye."

Swedum hung up the video. As soon as he turned around, he saw Ceres standing behind him. He immediately smiled at Ceres. "Mommy, do you know how pretty you are now?"

Ceres squatted down with a cold face. "Don't flatter me. You are actually a spy for Daddy to keep an eye on me. You disappointed me."

"Dad said that this is not surveillance, and this is called accompanying."

"You believe everything he said. Why are you helping Daddy instead of me? Don't you trust me?" Ceres was a little jealous about his son not being close to her.

"Dad said that although we trust you, we still need to be well-prepared."

Ceres didn't know what to say. He had actually thought of everything.

"Anyway, I am very angry."

"Then let me comfort you." Swedum hugged Ceres and began to tickle her.

"It's so itchy, you little rascal!" Ceres, on the other hand, tickled Swedum. They laughed happily in the room.

Roy walked to the door and heard laughter coming from inside. He was about to knock on the door, and he stopped.

He smiled at the door, withdrew his hand, and left.

In Country A.

Since the last time Bill said "I like you" to Alice, she had been suffering from insomnia for three days.

Her mind was filled with Bill's words. Did he really fall in love with her?

Was that true?

Was this a joke?

Alice was absent-minded all day.

On this day, Alice received a call from Kevin. Ever since the last time she had a bad relationship with Nancy, the company had changed Alice's manager. Her manager had changed to Kevin. Kevin was also a well-known agent in showbiz.

If it wasn't for the fact that she was still Bill's fiancée, she probably wouldn't be able to have such a good agent like Kevin.

"Alice, come over. I have something to discuss with you."

Alice was so bored at home. And because of Bill's matter, her mind was a mess. She was eager to go to the company so that she could be busy.

So she immediately took a taxi to the company.

She knocked on the door, "Kevin, I am here."

Kevin was a well-known handsome young man in showbiz. He had thick eyebrows and big eyes and was very popular among girls.

"Alice, come in." Kevin was very polite to Alice. He was not like others, either respectful to her or sneering at her.

This made Alice very comfortable.

Kevin poured a glass of lemonade for Alice and then handed her a script.

"This is a new script I just received. It's a movie, and you can perform the second female lead. Although it is not the leading role, it still has a lot of scenes. Moreover, this character is very outstanding. I think it fits you well. Take a look."

Alice immediately took the script. She had never acted as the second female lead. The third female lead was already very good for her.

"I don't need to read the script anymore. As long as they want me, I'll play the role."

Kevin smiled and said, "Alice, although you don't have many opportunities to work right now, you can't be so eager. Do you understand me?"

"Kevin, I believe you also know my situation. If I don't take over the job, I won't be able to survive. As long as I can pass the audition, I will take it."

"As for the audition, I don't think you have any problems. The director over there also thinks that it's okay. Take it easy. However, this movie is shooting in Country M. Can you accept it?"

It was the first time Alice had gone abroad to film. However, it was also good. In this way, she would not be able to meet Bill, and she could calm down for a while.

"Sure, no problem!"

Soon, under Kevin's arrangements, Alice met the director, passed the audition, and immediately went to Country M with the crew.

Originally, Alice wanted to go to Country M to find Ceres, but the filming schedule was very tight, so she could only call Ceres before throwing herself into the filming.

"Alice, there's a banquet tomorrow night. You can go there."

"Me?" Alice did not quite understand why she was entitled to attend a banquet held in Country M.

"Yes, it's you. No one is more suitable than you. It's good to broaden your horizons. There are many big shots in this banquet."
