

Origin Powers 436

Chapter 436 - Bring out whatever trick you have, call me once and I'll admit defeat

On the battlefield, a single ripple can affect the entire situation.

Especially in times of intense pressure, chaos in one corner can possibly lead to the collapse of the entire battle...

Under the cover of the Sea King, Bai Yunrui sensitively seized this sliver of opportunity. He decisively dispatched three Monarch level battleships to forcibly tear through the enemy's defenses and charge into the enemy's rear, forming an encirclement on his own position against the enemy.

Victory then became only a matter of time.

In a leaderless situation, this kind of collapse spread across the battlefield like a chemical reaction...

The Naga and Titan races, seeing the situation was unfavorable, were already fleeing towards the rear, suffering countless casualties, but the main personnel managed to escape.

Only the Chi Yu clan, having already gambled everything, couldn't even escape and were completely captured at the Polar Star Battlefield.

A complete victory.

When the three battleships surrounded the Sea King, escorting it slowly to land on the dock of the Polar Star Battlefield.

Xu Liang still had a complex expression on his face, not knowing how to face this former superior. Under normal circumstances, he would have ordered the warship to be sunk with a single shot.

But now...

What did he mean by this, did he really want to return to his homeland after getting old?

However, considering himself as someone who had had interactions with Gore Sparrow back then, he stood at the forefront, shouting, "All personnel on the ship, listen up, regardless of your identity, disembark immediately within the Polar Star Battlefield!"

The hatch opened wide.

Xu Lingjun was the first to step out.

With his appearance, the warriors around, still covered in smoke and on alert, all showed shocked expressions on their faces.

"Didn't they say it's the Pirate King? Can the Pirate King be this young?"

"Is it really him who helped us win this war?"

"He's so young, and this kid is already so formidable... wait... isn't that Vice Commander Xu?"

"This time, he has truly accomplished something great."

"This kind of accomplishment isn't easily achieved, you see this warship is full of dents, what kind of arduous battle have they been through?"

For a moment, in front of Xu Lingjun, all sorts of screens swiped continuously.

[You helped the Polar Star Battlefield secure a decisive victory, thereby protecting the safety of Blue Star, and received sincere gratitude from Sun Dong, thus gaining the favor of the world's Origin Will, Origin Value +98!]

[You helped the Polar Star Battlefield secure a decisive victory, thereby protecting the safety of Blue Star, and received sincere gratitude from Li Changzheng, thus gaining the favor of the world's Origin Will, Origin Value +82!]

[You helped the Polar Star Battlefield secure a decisive victory, thereby protecting the safety of Blue Star, and received sincere gratitude from Qu Zhengying, thus gaining the favor of the world's Origin Will, Origin Value +71!]

.....

A series of notifications, not comparable to those from the elite individuals... but the sheer number of these soldiers is overwhelming.

Watching the values soar almost instantly, the Source Value still rapidly rising, having already breached the ten-thousand mark without any sign of stopping...

The previous depletion was replenished in an instant, and almost skyrocketed to double.

Making Xu Lingjun's heart filled with satisfaction.

Indeed, it seems that for a long period thereafter, I won't need to worry about Source Value anymore.

Can also consider imbuing some more powerful and terrifying weapons in the future as my trump card.

Aside from relief, he suddenly noticed that among these scrolling messages, there were some extremely familiar names.

He looked down, his sharp eyes quickly spotted amidst the crowd, a man with a face full of scorched marks, missing an arm, covered in blood all over, sitting in the severely wounded area, looking at Xu Lingjun with a gaze full of complexity.

Lie Fenglei, unexpectedly seeing him here.

But then it made sense, the Baoyan Army Legion would only appear in the most perilous places... it wasn't surprising for him to be here.

On the other side, Gu Xi also covered in smoke, noticed Xu Lingjun's gaze and smiled at him, eyes filled with relief and excitement, clearly, she must have imagined countless times a reunion with Xu Lingjun, but never expected it to be under such spotlight.

Qu Lingyun, too, had a complex look.

He once had always been eager to cause trouble for Xu Lingjun, didn't even regard Xu Lingjun at all, if it weren't for considering Gu Xi's presence, he might have personally stepped in to teach Xu Lingjun a lesson.

But now, in less than a year's time.

He was just another soldier among thousands, whereas Xu Lingjun now stood atop the battlefield, achieving extraordinary feats, the gap between the two had exceeded everyone's wildest imagination!

Some people, indeed, cannot be compared.

He let out a sigh, then smiled with relief, so what if he had been surpassed, Xu Lingjun's strength has a part of my contribution too... if it weren't for me giving him that Bei Xuanwu Order back then, he surely wouldn't have progressed this rapidly.

"What is he... doing?"

Liu Dong looked slightly puzzled at Xu Lingjun standing at the ship's entrance, wondering why he hadn't come down yet?

What does he mean by blocking the doorway?

"Everyone has their interests, it seems, Old Xu used to like doing good deeds, turns out he enjoys this feeling of being gratefully watched."

Han Yun City surprisingly guessed the truth accurately and said, "Forget it, if it weren't for him this time, we might not have left Xuyun Star alive, he's undoubtedly the biggest hero, since he enjoys it, let him savor it for a while."

"Indeed."

All had no objections.

For quite a while, until Hao Yuntun and others below, whose expressions had been frozen sluggishly, returned to normal, only leaving behind expressions of shock.

Clearly, they could not imagine.

Inside the Sea King Battleship, it wasn't Pirate King Gor Sparrow, but instead, Xu Lingjun and others who had previously taken the Watchtower class Battleship and left

!Only gone for a trip, how did they return in such a much larger battleship... and this was Gor Sparrow's beloved possession, it was impossible for him to lend it, right?

Could they have become traitors, marrying into Gor Sparrow's family?

But seeing that it wasn't the enemy, even with the most troubled expression, Xu Liang regained normalcy, he truly was worried about seeing Gor Sparrow emerge from inside, by then, he genuinely wouldn't know how to deal with him.

When Xu Lingjun saw that the Source Value had started to decrease, and at this point, his total Source Value had exceeded the twenty-thousand threshold... it seems some insightful individuals were minimal, but the contribution offered was still greatly beyond imagination.

Only then he reached inside and pulled out a woman bound tightly, shouting, "Let's go, down!"

This time the few leaders couldn't help but be astonished...

Hao Yuntun gasped involuntarily, "Tian Haiyi?"

Old rivals, they naturally recognized this rising star of the Chi Yu clan, Wuteng Lan's successor as the new commander of the Chi Yu clan... they did score a complete victory this time.

But even the most self-assured Bai Yunrui couldn't have imagined, they actually captured the commander of the Chi Yu clan alive.

This battle then wasn't just a resounding victory, but truly a morale-crushing blow to the Chi Yu clan...

"Let go of me, I can walk myself!"

Tian Haiyi angrily glared at Xu Lingjun who forcibly dragged her, but found she couldn't muster that kind of hateful gaze at his face.

In the end, she could only remark stiffly, "Humph, don't think I'll surrender just because you've captured me, use whatever methods you want, bring as many people as you like, I don't care... call me a loss."

"That's not my job, in due time others will handle your interrogation."

Saying words that left Tian Haiyi utterly disappointed.

Xu Lingjun dragged her down.

Behind him, Han Yun City, Liu Dong, and Zhao Yang followed.

Now...

Hao Yuntun couldn't help but heave a sigh of relief, stepped forward and punched Xu Lingjun on the chest with a smile, "This trip must have been thrilling!"

"Indeed."

Xu Lingjun couldn't help but let out a long sigh, clearly this operation was primarily led by Han Yun City, yet whether it was Han Yun City or Xu Lingjun, or even the oblivious Hao Yuntun, they all had already assumed it was led by Xu Lingjun.
